

1988 NCAA FIRST ROUND

SMU 2 • Notre Dame 0

November 13, 1988

Dallas, TX

Notre Dame earned an at-large bid in its first-ever NCAA tournament appearance. The Irish, ranked 15th in the final Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America poll, traveled to Dallas, Texas, to face the 11th-ranked Southern Methodist Mustangs. Notre Dame locked up the bid after winning the Midwestern Collegiate Conference championship. Coach Dennis Grace's squad captured the school's first MCC men's soccer crown with a 2-0 win over third-ranked St. Louis in the title game, which came just one day after Notre Dame beat fourth-ranked Evansville, 2-0, in the semifinals.

The Irish finished the season with a 17-4-2 mark after bowing out of the NCAA first round with a 2-0 loss to the Mustangs. SMU controlled the match from start to finish and out-shot Notre Dame 16-2 in the contest. Mustang defender David Carlson scored his first goal of the season six minutes into the first half to record the first goal against the Irish in four games. Larry McPhail added SMU's other goal midway through the second half.

1993 NCAA FIRST ROUND

Wisconsin 3 • Notre Dame 1

November 14, 1993

Madison, WI

The Irish returned to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 1988. Notre Dame made its second appearance in school history, and first under head coach Mike Berticelli, by winning the Midwestern Collegiate Conference championship. The Irish earned the crown with a 2-0 shutout of Detroit in the tournament finale.

The 20th-ranked Irish met 13th-ranked Wisconsin in Madison. Two second-half goals by the Badgers enabled Wisconsin to advance to the second round, while Notre Dame ended its season with a 15-6 mark.

Notre Dame's leading scorer, Bill Lanza, got the Irish on the scoreboard first with an unassisted goal 7:31 into the contest. Wisconsin's Mike Gentile tied the game at the 23:14 mark on a penalty kick.

Lars Hanson gave the Badgers a 2-1 advantage 16 minutes into the second half, while Gentile tallied his second goal of the game at 72:03 as Wisconsin went on for the 3-1 victory.

Three of Notre Dame's four NCAA tournament appearances came under the tenure of Mike Berticelli, a 10-year veteran of the Irish sidelines.

1994 NCAA FIRST ROUND

Indiana 1 • Notre Dame 0 (OT)

November 20, 1994

Bloomington, IN

The two teams faced each other for the second time during the 1994 campaign. Top-ranked Indiana beat Notre Dame, 2-0, in the first meeting of the season between the two teams back on September 23.

The circumstances were somewhat similar in the first-ever NCAA tournament game played between the two schools as the Hoosiers entered the 1994 championship ranked number one nationally.

The Irish earned their second consecutive bid into the NAAs by virtue of two double-overtime decisions. Notre Dame defeated Wisconsin-Milwaukee 3-2 in the championship game of the Midwestern Collegiate Conference tournament for its second straight title, and then defeated Central Connecticut, 1-0, in a play-in game.

Notre Dame nearly pulled off one of the biggest upsets in NCAA tournament history, but came away with a controversial 1-0 setback. Notre Dame's Chris Mathis had a goal called back on a questionable offsides call early in the first half.

While the two teams battled to a 0-0 deadlock after the first 90 minutes, Indiana's Mike

Clark tallied the game's first and only goal off a Tim Hardy assist 4:12 into the overtime session.

Notre Dame ended its season 12-10-2, while the Hoosiers were the NCAA runners-up.

1996 NCAA FIRST ROUND

Notre Dame 1 • UNC Greensboro 0

November 24, 1996

Greensboro, NC

Notre Dame recorded its biggest win in school history with a 1-0 victory over second-seeded UNC Greensboro on the road in the first round of the NCAA tournament. The victory was the first in four NCAA appearances for the Irish and marked only the second loss of the season for the Spartans, who finished the '96 campaign with a 21-2 record. It also was the ninth straight one-goal game for the Irish, who had a 5-4 record in those contests.

The win was the third straight for the Irish over a ranked opponent. Notre Dame earned the automatic berth into the 32-team field by winning its first BIG EAST championship crown in only its second year as a conference member. The Irish beat 14th-ranked Bill Lanza scored Notre Dame's first-ever NCAA goal against Wisconsin in 1993.

Connecticut 2-1 in the semi-finals and won the crown with a 1-0 victory over 12th-ranked Rutgers.

The game marked a homecoming for head coach Mike Berticelli, who coached at UNC Greensboro from 1980-83 and led the school to back-to-back Division III national crowns in 1982 and 1983.

Junior forward Ryan Turner scored the contest's lone goal at the 54:23 mark of the contest when he collected a loose ball from just inside the UNCG penalty area and sent a sliding chip shot over Spartan goalie Brad Shumate.

The Spartans had several chances to tie the match late in the game, the best coming with 17 minutes left as when Siggi Eyjolfsson's header appeared headed for the net when Peter Gansler kicked the ball away before it crossed the line. UNCG had one final opportunity when Peter Farris' shot hit the left goal post with three minutes remaining in the game as Notre Dame, despite being outshot 16-7 in the game, hung on for its first-ever NCAA tournament win.

Irish goalkeeper Greg Velho was largely responsible for keeping the Irish in the game as he stopped five shots, including two Luke Jamroz blasts from point-blank range in the first 20 minutes of the game.

1996 NCAA SECOND ROUND

UNC-Charlotte 1 • Notre Dame 0

December 1, 1996

Charlotte, NC

Notre Dame's '96 campaign came to a heart-breaking end when Danny Finkle blasted a 14-yard shot with just 24 seconds left in regulation to lift 23rd-ranked UNC-Charlotte to a 1-0 win over the Irish in the second round of the tournament. Finkle's goal came off assists from Matthys Barker and Eric Cole.

It was the 10th straight one-goal decision the Irish had been involved in since October 18.

UNC-Charlotte outshot Notre Dame 21-9 in the contest, including an 11-2 advantage in the first half. Goalkeeper Greg Velho came up with a career-high 12 saves, registering seven in the first half.

With 7:42 remaining in the contest, Notre Dame had a chance to take the lead as Alan Woods headed in a corner kick past 49er goalkeeper Jon Busch, only to have a UNC-Charlotte defender clear the ball off the goal line.

Ben Bocklage had a chance to tie the game with nine seconds left following Finkle's goal as he played a free kick from 30 yards out that hit the right post.

Notre Dame ended its most successful season in school history with a 14-7-2 mark, while UNC-Charlotte would win one more game to advance to the NCAA semifinals in Richmond, Va.

2001 NCAA FIRST ROUND

Maryland 1 • Notre Dame 0

November 23, 2001

College Park, MD

After a four-year hiatus, Notre Dame returned to the NCAA tournament for the first time since the 1996 campaign under first-year head coach Bobby Clark. It was the fifth NCAA tournament appearance in the 25-year history of the program. Clark's squad earned the berth after finishing tied for second in the final BIG EAST regular-season standings and advancing to the semifinals of the conference championship.

Clark's team traveled to College Park, Md., to face Maryland in the first-ever meeting between the two schools. Notre Dame was one of a record six BIG EAST schools to earn a berth into the 48-team field. In addition to the Irish, Boston College, Connecticut, Rutgers, St. John's and Seton Hall represented the league as the BIG EAST led all leagues in terms of representation.

No stranger to one-goal games in '01, Notre Dame's first appearance in five years was decided by a single goal. Scott Buete netted the contest's only goal with 1:41 left in regulation off an assist from teammate Ellis Welker. Irish goalkeeper, freshman Chris Sawyer, who had allowed just three goals in the previous 10 games, dove to his right as Buete unleashed a rising 12-yard shot that deflected off Sawyer's hands and into the center of the net at the 88:19 mark. The goal-scoring sequence for the Terrapins came just minutes after Irish players had deflected a pair of attempts near the edge of the penalty box.

The Irish were outshot 9-6 in the game as they registered just three shots in each half. The Terrapins also enjoyed a 6-0 advantage in corner kicks, Notre Dame's strongest scoring chance came in the first half when midfielder Luke Boughen blasted a shot from 25-yards out.

The heartbreaking loss came following a week in which 17 members of the 25-player squad were afflicted by an apparent stomach virus in the hours leading up to the team's departure.

Notre Dame ended its most successful campaign in five years with a 12-7 record, the most wins by an Irish team since the '96 season.

2002 NCAA FIRST ROUND

Notre Dame 3 • Akron 1

November 22, 2002

Notre Dame, IN

Notre Dame made the most of playing host to its first-ever NCAA tournament game at Alumni Field in posting a 3-1 victory over Akron as the Irish advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament for the second time in school history. Rafael Garcia tallied a pair of goals in the victory as Notre Dame recorded its second win over the Zips in 2002.

Garcia put Notre Dame on the scoreboard in the 15th minute of the contest when Greg Martin sent a cross from the left corner of the box that was headed in by Garcia through the legs of Akron goalkeeper Dan Pinho. He also netted what would prove to be the deciding score from the top of the box in the 69th minute of the contest off assists from Justin Detter and Chad Riley to give Notre Dame a 2-1 advantage.

Robert McKenzie scored the Zips' lone goal to even the contest at 1-1 at the 30:01 mark when he took a pass from Alex Odwell into the left corner of the net.

Erich Braun tallied the game's final goal in the 81st minute, chipping the ball over Pinho's head from 45 yards out on a breakaway.

Rafael Garcia proved to be the hero in Notre Dame's 3-1 victory over Akron as the senior forward scored the first two Irish goals in the contest. The two-goal effort marked the first multiple-goal game of his career.

Irish goalkeeper Chris Sawyer finished with six saves while Pinho recorded 10 stops. Notre Dame outshot Akron 17-11 and took 11 of the 13 corner kicks in the game.

2002 NCAA SECOND ROUND

Indiana 1 • Notre Dame 0
November 27, 2002 Bloomington, IN

Notre Dame's hopes of advancing past the second round for the first time in school history came to a disappointing end as the Irish dropped a 1-0 decision to fifth-ranked Indiana. Freshman Brian Plotkin's first goal of the season at the 51:03 mark of the contest held up as the game's only score.

The Irish, who finished the campaign with a 12-6-3 mark, saw their chances at a comeback diminished when senior midfielder Justin Ratcliffe received a red card after a hard tackle. Notre Dame was then forced to play a man down for the final 27 minutes. Coach Bobby Clark's squad was able to generate some scoring chances but unable to gain the equalizer.

Both teams managed just a handful of scoring chances, with IU owning a 10-6 total shot edge (3-3 in the second half) and a 5-4 advantage in corner kicks (ND held the second-half corner edge, 2-1).

Notre Dame held IU without a shot until midway through the first half but also endured a long drought of its own which stretched into the second half without attempting a shot. The Irish had several strong scoring chances. Jack Stewart gave Notre Dame its best chance in the 89th minute when his 20-yard shot went wide to the left of the post.

2003 NCAA SECOND ROUND

Notre Dame 4 • UW-Milwaukee 1
November 24, 2003 Notre Dame, IN

Notre Dame advanced to the Sweet 16 (third round) of the NCAA Championship for the first time in school history with a 4-1 victory over UW-Milwaukee at Alumni Field. The third-ranked Irish received a bye in the first round of the tournament.

After a back and forth first half found the score tied at 1-1, Notre Dame came out focused and aggressive to post three goals in the second period. Senior forward Justin Detter was the clear star of the contest, putting up five points (two goals, one assist) to set a school record for points in an NCAA contest. The four goals the Irish posted were a team record for NCAA competition as well.

At 46:17, a great give and go between Greg Martin and Kevin Goldthwaite set up a cross into the heart of the Panther defense. Senior forward Devon Prescod came streaking in from the opposite side, chest trapped the ball and tapped it past Mickschl to provide Notre Dame with a lead they would not relinquish.

The quick goal clearly motivated the Irish, who controlled the action for the rest of the game. Senior Greg Martin got behind the defense to put Notre Dame up 3-1 at 77:32, with Prescod and Detter assisting on the play.

As the UW-Milwaukee team moved up in an attempt to get back in the contest, Detter took advantage to get behind the Panther defense for an insurance goal at 88:16.

2003 NCAA SWEET 16

Notre Dame 1 • Michigan 1
Michigan advanced 4-3 on penalty kicks
November 30, 2003 Notre Dame, IN

Notre Dame was eliminated from the NCAA Championship by Michigan 1-1 (4-3 penalty kicks) in the third round on Sunday, Nov. 30. It was not the end the Irish were looking for to their sensational season, as the Wolverines were bolstered by their physical play and two great penalty kick stops by goalkeeper Peter Dzubay.

Notre Dame struck first in the contest when Justin Detter collected a long pass from Greg Martin and beat Dzubay at 16:57. Michigan came back under four minutes later when Mike White slipped behind the Irish defense and beat Irish keeper Chris Sawyer at 20:11

The game became a battle of attrition the rest of the way, as Michigan's aggressive play limited the flow of the contest. The foul total would end up at 33 for the Wolverines, while the Irish were whistled just eight times.

After two scoreless overtime periods, the game switched to a best-of-five penalty kick format for the opportunity to advance in the tournament. Filippo Chillemi, Chad Riley and Greg Martin all were successful for Notre Dame, while Kevin Taylor, Adam Bruh and Brian Popeney converted for Michigan.

Devon Prescod followed for Notre Dame and was denied by Dzubay. Michael O'Reilly was next for Michigan, but his attempt sailed over the cross bar.

Again, Dzubay stepped up to stuff an Irish attempt, this time off the foot of Detter. White then put the winning conversion past Sawyer.
