009 DU Volleyball Match Notes

Four Time SBC West Division Champions (2000, 2005, 2007, 2008)

BETH KUWATA Head Coach • 14th Season Denver, Colo. Denver (1988), Northern Colorado (1993)

Beth Kuwata concluded her 13th season at the helm of the University of Denver volleyball team as the program's all-time winningest head coach. On Sept. 17, 2004, Kuwata led her team to a 3-0 win over Syracuse and passed Jerrie McGahan to become the school's all-time leader in wins and cement her name in the Denver record books. Kuwata has 211 career wins at Denver, 115 more than McGahan's 96.

In 2008, Kuwata led the Pioneers to an overall record of 25-7, marking the best record in program history through 32 matches. DU's 16-1 record in Hamilton Gymnasium was the best mark at home since the program turned Division I.

After being selected in the preseason poll as the favorite to win the Sun Belt Conference West division, the Pioneers delivered and captured their second consecutive title, fourth in program history, with their 3-0 defeat of Arkansas State on Sunday, Nov. 16 in Hamilton Gymnasium. Denver finished regular season conference play with an impressive 14-4 record.

Kuwata took over the program in 1996 and has overseen its progression from the Division II level to a perennial Sun Belt Conference contender. In 2008, she guided the Pioneers to their eighth-consecutive appearance in the Sun Belt Conference tournament, and led her team to a Sun Belt Conference championship in 2000 and again in 2007. Kuwata's overall record now stands at 238-219 (.501) in 14 years as a head coach and 211-186 (.531) in 13 seasons at Denver.

Kuwata earned her 150th victory Sept. 16, 2006 against Wright State. Her 100th career victory came as part of Denver's 12-4 league record in 2000, good for the Sun Belt West Division title. It was the Pioneer volleyball program's first-ever conference championship and was also the University's first Sun Belt title in any sport since it joined the league in 1999. This year, DU once again captured the West Division title with a 14-4 conference mark, the third division title in Kuwa-ta's 11 years in the Sun Belt.

She has placed 17 players on the SBC's all-conference teams in her tenure, including the unanimous selection of setter Clarice Golesh-Burch in 2000, Freshman of the Year Lisa Hunter in 2003 and Defensive Player of the Year Kacie Wikierak in 2007.

Kuwata marked Denver's first year in the Sun Belt in 1999 with a stellar 13-3 league mark and an 18-11 record overall - Denver's ninth season of double-digit wins in 10 years.

When Kuwata arrived at Denver in 1996, she was in charge of moving the Pioneers to the Division I ranks. After a rocky first season in which the team recorded an 11-24 overall record, she quickly turned the corner in her second season, the final in Division II, to finish with a 21-11 record, the second-best record in the history of Pioneer volleyball. This season, Kuwata led Denver to its best overall record under her direction with a 25-7 season mark.

Kuwata, who played for the Pioneers from 1984-87, came to Denver from Wyoming where she served as the Cowgirls' head coach for the 1994 and 1995 seasons. During her two seasons with the Cowgirls, Kuwata amassed a 27-33 (.450) overall record, including a 17-13 overall mark her first season. That finish gave , a fourth-place 8-6 WAC record (the best WAC record the time), and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. In addition, her team earned a top-25 ranking for four consecutive weeks (Sept. 20-Oct. 11). For her achievements she was honored by her peers, along with Brigham Young's Elaine Michalis, as the WAC's cocoach of the year.

Prior to her stint at Wyoming, Kuwata served as an assistant coach under Rich Feller at
