2005 FIGHTING IRISH FOOTBALL

Football Contacts: Doug Walker and Alan Wasielewski • dwalker@nd.edu and awasiele@nd.edu

Two-Minute Drill (what you need to know about this weekend's Notre Dame - BYU matchup) -

- Notre Dame and BYU are meeting for just the fifth time with the Irish leading the all-time series 3-2. BYU won the most recent matchup in Provo last season, spoiling Notre Dame's 2004 season opener with a 20-17 victory.
- The Irish are 4-0 on the road this season (with three wins over ranked teams) and 0-2 in Notre Dame Stadium. Head coach Charlie Weis is looking for his first home-field victory this weekend.
- Notre Dame is looking to break its four-game losing streak at Notre Dame Stadium, which is tied with the four-game skids in 1933-34 and 1960 as the longest in school history.
- After starting the year 1-3, BYU has rebounded to win its last two contests and even its season record at 3-3. The Cougars rushed for 274 yards in a 24-14 win against Colorado State.
- Junior wide receiver Jeff Samardzija is looking to become the first Notre Dame player to catch a touchdown pass in seven consecutive games. He is currently tied with Malcolm Johnson (1998) for the school record of six straight games with a touchdown reception.
- Samardzija also is just two touchdown receptions away from Derrick Mayes' school record of 11 in 1994. Samardzija is currently tied with Jack Snow (1964) for second on the single-season list with nine.
- Samardzija ranks among the nation's best receivers, as he is tied for second (with two other players) in the NCAA for touchdown receptions with nine, trailing Bowling Green's Steve Sanders (10). Among the nation's top 40 receivers (ranked by receptions per game), Samardzija is third in yards-per-reception with a 17.59 average, trailing Texas Tech's Steve Sanders (17.78) and Oregon's Demetrius Williams (18.83).
- Junior Brady Quinn is close to posting the finest junior season for a three-year starting quarterback in school history. A breakdown of third-year starting quarterbacks is available on page nine of this notes package. In addition, Quinn is just 225 yards behind Steve Beuerlein for second-place on the all-time passing yardage list.
- Quinn also has his eyes set on two more records that could fall this season. His 14 touchdown passes are 10th on the single-season and just five behind Ron Powlus' record of 19 in 1994. Quinn already is third on the career touchdown pass list with 40, trailing Rick Mirer in second place with 41 (Powlus is the all-time leader with 52). He has already become the first Irish singcaller to throw a touchdown pass in 11 consecutive games and hopes to continue that streak this weekend against BYU.
- Saturday's game will mark the latest in a season Notre Dame has played host to its third home game since 1989, when the No.1-ranked Irish defeated No. 7 Pittsburgh 45-7 on Oct. 28.
- Notre Dame continues its five-game homestand on Saturday against BYU. The 2005 season marks the first since 1999 that the Irish will play five consecutive home games. The '99 team finished the five games with a 4-1 record, losing the first of the string but closing out with wins over No. 23 Oklahoma, Arizona State, USC and Navy.
- Notre Dame has a 10-minute average advantage over its opponents in time of possession this season (35:12-24:48) and has won the time-of-possession battle in each game this season. No Notre Dame opponent has held the ball more than 29:04 (Michigan) against the Irish this season.
- Notre Dame's near-upset of No. 1 USC last weekend will be replayed twice this week on UNI-HD, NBC's high definition channel. The game will be on Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. (EDT, 7:00 p.m. in South Bend) and 12 midnight (EDT).

2005: The Charlie Weis Era Begins

The 117th season of Notre Dame football is the first in the tenure of head coach Charlie Weis, who has started his career with four road victories in his first five games, including wins over three ranked opponents.

Weis was named the 28th head football coach in Notre Dame history on Sunday, Dec. 12, 2004. A 1978 Notre Dame graduate, Weis takes the reins of the Irish program after a highly-successful career as an assistant coach in the National Football League.

The owner of four Super Bowl champion rings as products of a stellar 15-season career as an NFL assistant, Weis is a widely-respected disciple of professional coaching standouts Bill Parcells and Bill Belichick. He came to Notre Dame after excelling as offensive coordinator of the New England Patriots, where he played an integral role in New England's victories in three of the last four Super Bowls.

Weis is the first Notre Dame graduate to hold the football head coaching position at his alma mater since Hugh Devore (a '34 graduate) served as interim coach in 1963 and is the first Notre Dame graduate to serve as the Irish football coach on a full-fledged basis since Joe Kuharich (a '38 graduate who coached at Notre Dame from 1959 through '62).

A veteran of 26 seasons in coaching, Weis coached nine seasons with the Patriots, including five as offensive coordinator. He helped produce four Super Bowl championships (New York Giants following the 1990 season, Patriots following '01, '03 and '04 seasons), five conference titles and seven division crowns.

Last Time at Notre Dame Stadium vs. BYU

Notre Dame posted a 33-14 victory in BYU's last visit to Notre Dame Stadium in 2003, by far the most convincing win of the season for the Irish. It also gave the seniors a strong farewell in front of another capacity crowd of 80,795 at Notre Dame Stadium.

Senior running back Julius Jones continued his late-season surge by rushing a career-high 35 times for 161 yards and a career-best three touchdowns. It was the first time an Irish back had rushed for three scores since Autry Denson turned the trick against Georgia Tech in the 1999 Gator Bowl.

The Notre Dame defense also proved to be tough against the pass-happy BYU offense. The Irish forced a season-high four turnovers and sacked Cougar quarterback Matt Berry four times while holding BYU to just 53 yards rushing all day long.

The first of those four Notre Dame takeaways would produce the opening points of the contest, as Greg Pauly scooped up a BYU fumble and returned it to the Cougar 14-yard line. D.J. Fitzpatrick came on to convert the first of his four field goal attempts, hitting from 27 yards out midway through the first quarter.

The Cougars came right back, needing four plays to take the lead. A 46-yard pass from Berry to Justin Jory set up an 18-yard TD run by Rey Brathwaite at the 6:17 mark of the first period.

Fitzpatrick tacked on two more field goals from 31 and 34 yards away, the second coming after Derek Curry picked off a Berry pass and brought it back to the BYU 32-yard line. The Irish drove down to the five-yard line on that possession, but had to settle for their third field goal of the day.

After the Notre Dame defense forced BYU to punt on its next possession, the Irish took control late in the first half, as freshman quarterback Brady Quinn marched his team 52 yards in seven plays before Jones bulled over from the one-yard line with 25 seconds left in the quarter.

The teams traded punts to start the second half before the Notre Dame offense heated up again. Starting at their own 41-yard line, the Irish quickly covered the distance in four plays, with the highlight coming when Quinn hit then-sophomore wideout Rhema McKnight for a 33-yard gain. Jones scored on the next play from 23 yards out to build a 23-7 Notre Dame lead less than four minutes into the third quarter.

Notre Dame came back and added another Fitzpatrick field goal early in the fourth period before BYU capitalized on a short field and went 39 yards in three plays to close within 26-14. Berry capped off the short Cougar drive with a one-yard sneak at the 7:27 mark.

However, BYU couldn't muster any further offense and Jones sealed the Irish win with his third score, a 13-yard scamper directly towards the student section at Notre Dame Stadium with 47 seconds to play.

Irish Look to Break an Unwelcome Streak

With Notre Dame's two tough losses at home this season, the team's homefield losing streak has been pushed to four games. In the 116-year history of the Notre Dame program, the Irish have lost four consecutive home games only three times - in 1933-34, in 1960 and the present streak that dates back to last season.

What makes Notre Dame's current streak unusual is that each loss has occurred in the last minute (or in overtime) of each contest. Here is a look at Notre Dame's last four losses at home:

Oct. 23, 2004 - Boston College 24, Notre Dame 23

A 30-yard touchdown pass from BC's Paul Peterson to Tony Gonzalez with 0:54 remaining tied the score and Ryan Ohliger's PAT provides the winning margin for the Eagles.

Nov. 13, 2004 - Pittsburgh 41, Notre Dame 38

The Panthers win a see-saw battle when Josh Cummings drills a 32-yard field goal with just one second remaining. The final drive featured two pass interference calls on the Irish, one of which nullified a game-clinching interception in the end zone.

Sept. 17, 2005 - Michigan State 44, Notre Dame 41

A furious Notre Dame comeback from a 21-point deficit ends in an overtime loss to the Spartans. Jason Teague's 19-yard run on the game's final play provides the winning point total for MSU.

Oct. 15, 2005 - USC 34, Notre Dame 31

After a clutch fourth-down conversion and a wild out-of-bounds fumble on the Irish goal line, Matt Leinart sneaks in from one yard out with three seconds remaining to hand Notre Dame its fourth-consecutive loss in Notre Dame Stadium.

Irish First-Year Head Coaches

As Charlie Weis continues his first season at the helm of the Irish, here are a few notes on Notre Dame's head coaches in their inaugural years (see page 13 for a recap of each coaching debut season in ND history).

- The 27 previous head football coaches in Notre Dame history have combined to amass a 168-60-12 (.700) record in their first years at the helm.
- Weis is the first coach to begin his Irish career by beating two ranked opponents in his first two games. The only other attempt was by Terry Brennan in 1954 (won 21-0 vs. #4 Texas, lost 27-14 vs. #19 Purdue).
- Weis is the first coach to begin his Notre Dame tenure with two victories on the road and on the opponent's home field since Knute Rockne in 1918 (at Case Tech, at Wabash). Hunk Anderson faced his first two games away from Notre Dame in '31 (at Indiana, vs. Northwestern at Soldier Field - a win and a tie, respectively) and Dan Devine also started with two games away from South Bend in '75 (vs. Boston College at Foxboro, at Purdue - both wins).
- The two most recent Irish head coaches (Bob Davie; 7-6 in 1997, Tyrone Willingham; 10-3 in 2002) posted winning records in their first seasons. The last Irish coach to turn in a sub-.500 season in his first year is Lou Holtz, whose '86 team finished 5-6.
- The longest winning streak for a Notre Dame head coach to begin his career with the Irish is nine games, by Harper (1913-14) and Parseghian ('64).
- Since 1913, four Notre Dame coaches - Layden, Parseghian, Holtz and Willingham - have taken over the program the year after their predecessors were either .500 or below. All but Holtz, who went 5-6 in '86, posted winning records in their first seasons and the quartet had a combined 30-13 record in such seasons. The '04 Irish went 6-6 under Willingham.

First-Year Players Seeing Significant Time

Through the first six games of the 2005 season, Notre Dame has seen 24 players make their Irish playing debut. Included in the 24 players are 10 true freshmen from Notre Dame's 15-player class signed last year. The complete list of players that have played for the first time this season: James Bent, Justin Brown, David Bruton*, Maurice Crum, Jr., Casey Cullen, Paul Duncan*, Leo Ferrine, David Fitzgerald, David Grimes*, LaBrose Hedgemon III, Ray Herring*, Joey Hiben*, Pat Kuntz*, Terrail Lambert, Ashley McConnell, Marty Mooney, Steve Quinn* Asaph Schwapp*, Dwight Stephenson, Jr., Scott Smith*, Ronald Talley and Michael Turkovich*, Anthony Vernaglia.

Offense Piling Up Yardage

The offense has been the highlight of the 2005 Notre Dame football season thus far. The Irish are currently 12th in the country in overall offense (489.67) and are on pace for the most prolific offensive season since the team ended the 1996 season ranked 10th in total offense. Currently, the Irish are averaging 318.83 passing yards per game and are on pace to break the Notre Dame record of 252.7 set in 1970 (Notre Dame finished that season ranked eighth in the country in passing offense and second overall with a school-record 510.5 total yards per game).

One measuring stick for offensive production is games in which the team compiles over 500 yards of total offense. Notre Dame has accomplished that feat four times this season (502 at Pittsburgh, 594 vs. Michigan State, 560 at Washington, 621 at Purdue) - marking the first time the Irish have posted four or more 500-yard performances since the 1996 season.

Here is a breakdown of Notre Dame's 500-plus games, season by season, since 1990 -

- 1990: 502 vs. Purdue, 542 vs. Air Force
- 1991: 650 vs. Michigan State
- 1992: 561 vs. Northwestern, 509 vs. Michigan State, 580 vs. Purdue, 521 vs. Pittsburgh, 576 vs. Boston College

Keep an Eye on Third Down

Notre Dame is ranked 12th in the nation and is averaging a solid 48 percent on third down this season (46 of 96), while holding its opponents to 31 percent (25 of 80), which is ranked 23rd in the nation.

Red Zone Turnovers

Notre Dame has forced its opponent into six turnovers during 23 red zone visits this season. The Irish have caused three fumbles and intercepted two passes inside their own 20-yard line this season. Overall, Notre Dame's opponents are 16 for 23 in red zone chances with 13 touchdowns and three field goals. The Irish are 24 for 27 with 21 touchdowns and four field goals.

Four Ranked Teams in Six Games

Including last weekend's matchup with No. 1 USC, Notre Dame has faced four ranked teams (according to the AP ranking) in a season's first six games five times. Notre Dame won three of the games this year, taking down #23 Pittsburgh, #3 Michigan and #22 Purdue - all on the road.

Notre Dame faced a similar challenge in 2003, 2000, 1979 and 1953. The 1953 team (W, 28-21 at #6 Oklahoma; W, 24-14 vs. #15 Pittsburgh; W, 27-14 vs. #4 Georgia Tech; W, 38-7 vs. Navy) is the only Irish squad to win all four games.

Notre Dame's Solid Start in 2005

Notre Dame has claimed victories over three ranked opponents on the road this season - and all three victories occurred on the opponent's home field. That marks the first time Notre Dame has defeated three ranked teams on the road since 2002 (vs. #21 Maryland, at #18 Air Force, at #11 Florida State), but the first time since 1990 that feat has been achieved on the opponents' home fields (at #24 Michigan State, at #9 Tennessee, at #18 USC).

The three ranked victories also occurred in the first five games of the year. The 2005 season marks the 11th time Notre Dame has faced three ranked opponents in its first five games of the season - and the '05 season is the first time since 1980 (vs. #13 Miami, vs. #14 Michigan and vs. #9 Purdue) that the team has won all three such games in five attempts (1996, 1997, 1999, 2000, 2003).

Quinn and the Notre Dame Record Book

Junior QB Brady Quinn, in his third full year as the Irish starter, already has made a lasting mark on the Irish football record book. Here is a quick overview of some of his accomplishments and rankings all-time at Notre Dame (see pages 9, 11 and 13 for several career ranking breakdowns for Quinn):

Touchdowns, Single Game - 5 - vs. Michigan State, the school record, breaking the previous mark of four which was held by seven different individuals in nine different games.

Completions, Single Game - 33 - vs. Michigan State, matched Joe Theismann's school record from the 1970 game at USC.

Yards, Single Game - 487 - vs. Michigan State, second all-time behind Theismann's 526 at USC in '70.

Yards, Career - 6,302 - becoming just the third Irish quarterback to throw for better than 6,000 yards, Quinn stands 225 yards behind Steve Beuerlein for second on the all-time list. Ron Powlus is the career yardage leader with 7,602 (Quinn trails Powlus by 1,564 yards).

Touchdown Passes, Career - 40 - already third on the all-time list behind Rick Mirer (41) and Ron Powlus (52).

Touchdown Passes, Season - 14 - ninth on the all-time list behind Rick Mirer (1992) who stands eight with 15. He is just five off the single-season record of 19, set by Powlus in 1994.

Avg. Passing Yards Per Game, Career - 210.1 - currently first on the all-time list ahead of Powlus (172.7).

Quinn also is well ahead of the pace to set the single-season passing yardage record for the Irish. At his current pace (314.2 yards per game), he would total 3,455 yards. The single-season record is held by Jarious Jackson, who threw for 2,753 yards in 1999. Averaging 250 yards per game for the rest of the season he would end up with 3,135 yards. The Dublin, Ohio, native has the possibility of becoming Notre Dame's first 3,000-yard single-season passer.

Quinn 300

Since 1950, a Notre Dame quarterback has thrown for 300 yards or more 14 times. Junior QB Brady Quinn is responsible for five of those performances - the most for any single Notre Dame quarterback. Quinn has thrown for 350 (vs. Boston College, 2003), 432 (vs. Purdue, 2004), 487 (vs. Michigan State, 2005), 327 (at Washington, 2005) and 440 (at Purdue, 2005).

Quinn is the only Notre Dame quarterback to throw for over 400 yards three times in a career (in fact, he is the only one to do it twice) - and in Notre Dame's last road game at Purdue he became the first Irish signalcaller to throw for more than 300 yards in three consecutive games and the only Irish QB to throw for over 300 yards three in one season.

Quinn On A Streak

Junior QB Brady Quinn has thrown a touchdown pass in his last 11 games played (and started) for the Irish, breaking John Huarte's record of 10 set in 1964. The Dublin, Ohio, native has totaled 22 scoring tosses during the run.

Quinn's touchdown passes over the last 11 games:

2005 - 1 vs. USC, 3 at Purdue, 1 at Washington, 5 vs. Michigan State, 2 at Michigan, 2 at Pittsburgh

2004 - 2 vs. Oregon State (Insight Bowl), 1 at USC, 3 vs. Pittsburgh, 1 at Tennessee, 1 vs. Boston College

Tony Roberts Honored

The National Football Foundation & College Football Hall of Fame selected Notre Dame play-by-play legend Tony Roberts to receive the 2005 Chris Schenkel Award.

The award, named for the legendary college football announcer, is given annually to a college football announcer who has excelled in his field and contributed to his community. The award was presented to Roberts on Friday, Aug. 12, at the Mayor's Breakfast during the College Football Hall of Fame's Enshrinement Festival in South Bend.

After graduating from Columbia College in Chicago with a degree in journalism, Roberts went on to become the voice of Indiana University basketball and football, Navy football, Washington Senators baseball and Washington Bullets basketball.

Now in his 26th year as a member of the Westwood One Radio Network broadcast team, Roberts is currently the voice of Notre Dame football. In addition to his play-by-play duties, he broadcasts three times daily for Westwood One/CBS Radio Sports and has covered the last five Summer Olympics for NBC Radio.

Quinn Throws Five

Junior QB Brady Quinn became the first Notre Dame quarterback to throw five touchdown passes in a single game against Michigan State on Sept. 17. Quinn finished the game 33 of 60 for 487 yards, five touchdowns and one interception. It ranks as the second-best individual statistical performance by a Notre Dame quarterback - just behind Joe Theismann's 33-for-58, 526-yard performance at USC in 1970. Unfortunately, both games ended up in the loss column for the Irish.

Quinn's touchdown passes vs. Michigan State:

18 yards to Jeff Samardzija, first quarter, 5:14

31 yards to Samardzija, second quarter, 8:43

6 yards to Darius Walker, third quarter, 1:23

7 yards to Maurice Stovall, fourth quarter, 12:29

4 yards to Smardzija, fourth quarter, 2:31

Quinn, Statistically Speaking

Brady Quinn's exceptional start to the 2005 season has provided several statistical highlights for the junior QB.

- He reached the 6,000-yard passing barrier quicker than any Irish quarterback in history (29 games). Ron Powlus reached 6,000 yards in 34 games (and, like Quinn, he passed 6,000 yards at Purdue) and Steve Beuerlein racked 6,000 yards in 40 games.

- Quinn's 283 passing yards in the first half at Purdue two weeks ago are the most ever for an Irish quarterback in a game's first 30 minutes.

- He completed 11 consecutive passes during the second and third quarter of the Purdue game - marking the second time he has accomplished that feat this season. He completed 11 straight at Pittsburgh as well. Those two streaks are good for third on the all-time list behind Jarious Jackson (12 vs. Navy, 1998) and Ron Powlus (14 vs. Michigan State, 1997).

Hitting the road ...

The 2005 Notre Dame football schedule offered a unique challenge for the Irish this season. The team faced four of its first five games on the road, then returns to Notre Dame Stadium for five consecutive home games. Here is a historical perspective on the unique schedule:

- Heading into this year, only three of the last 20 Notre Dame football seasons have featured road games in four of the first six outings. Lou Holtz faced the challenge twice – 1987 and '89 – coming away with 8-4 and 12-1 records, respectively, and earning a memorable win over #1 Colorado in the Orange Bowl following the '89 season. Bob Davie went 7-6 with such a schedule in '97.
- The Irish are a combined 32-16 (.667) in seasons that send them away from home for at least four of their first six games, including wins in the Liberty Bowl and Orange Bowl following the 1983 and '89 campaigns, respectively.
- Over the last 10 seasons, Notre Dame has played more than two out of their first six games on the road only three times. In 1997 Davie's team played four of their first six away from home and the '95 and '03 squads were on the road for three of their first six.
- The 1989 schedule dealt Holtz and company five of their first six games on the road, with four on the opposing team's home turf and one at a neutral site. The Irish opened the season 6-0 under those conditions, beating Virginia at Giants Stadium and defeating #2 Michigan, Purdue, Stanford and #17 Air Force away from home.
- Charlie Weis' first season features one of the most daunting beginning slates (in terms of road games) in Notre Dame history. Davie faced four of his first six games on the road in his inaugural campaign. In his first half dozen games, Davie's crew played Purdue, Michigan, Stanford and Pittsburgh on the road, defeating only the Panthers.
- In 1983, Gerry Faust's third year on the job, the Irish faced four of their first five games on the road and wound up 3-1, including a 30-6 win over #7 South Carolina.
- Nobody, though, will face the challenge that Knute Rockne took on in 1929, playing all nine games on the road with Notre Dame Stadium under construction and coaching the team to a 9-0 record.

... and heading home

- The 2005 season will grant Notre Dame five consecutive home games for the first time since '99, when Davie's team finished the year 5-7. The Irish went 4-1 in those five games, however, beating the likes of #23 Oklahoma and USC.
- Faust's first-year schedule (1981) also boasted five straight games at Notre Dame Stadium and the team came away with wins over Michigan State, Navy and Georgia Tech en route to a 3-2 homestand.
- Faust's and Davie's squads both produced 4-2 home records in 1981 and '99, respectively.
- In the three seasons of the last 20 that have sent the Irish on the road for four of their first six games, the team has compiled a combined 14-2 home record, led by 5-0 home seasons from Holtz in 1987 and '89.
- This year's five-game homestand features a showdown with Navy, making the Midshipmen the only school to appear all three times the Irish schedule has permitted such an extended stay in South Bend.
- Though the Irish haven't played more than three consecutive home games in any of the last five seasons, they are 21-10 (.677) in Notre Dame Stadium over that span.
- Until this year, there has never been a Notre Dame season with both four of the first six games on the road and a five-game homestand.

Three's Company

In 2005, junior quarterback Brady Quinn has become just the 13th signal-caller in Notre Dame history to start under center for three years. The following is a list of Quinn's predecessors, along with their stats (when available) from their third starting season. In the 12 seasons played by three-year starting Irish quarterbacks, prior to Quinn's '05 season, the group amassed a 90-30-4 combined record.

Quinn is poised to become the most prolific passer of the three-year starter group. He needs just 58 yards to surpass Ron Powlus for single season yards (1942) and two touchdown passes to move past Rick Mirer (15).

Graduation Rate

The University of Notre Dame ranks among the top three Division I-A institutions in five major student-athlete graduation rate categories – overall, football, men, women and African-American – according to statistics released in October 2004 by the NCAA.

The federally mandated '04 NCAA Graduation Rates Report, the 14th such survey issued by the association, covers students who enrolled between '94 and '97 at Division I institutions, including 117 in Division I-A. The NCAA bases graduation rates on the raw percentage of student-athletes who entered an institution and graduated within six years. Students who leave or transfer, regardless of academic standing, are considered non-graduates.

Among student-athletes who completed all four years of athletic eligibility at Notre Dame, 99 percent earned their degrees. The national average was 84 percent.

Using the NCAA formula, Notre Dame graduated a four-year average of 87 percent of its student-athletes, second only to Duke University at 90 percent, and tied with Stanford and Northwestern Universities. The national average for Division I-A schools is 61 percent.

In August '03, the NCAA presented an Academic Achievement Award to Notre Dame for its best-in-the-nation one-year graduation rate of 92 percent for all student-athletes who enrolled in '96.

Notre Dame graduated 71 percent of its African-American student-athletes, ranking ninth nationally, and Irish football players graduated at a 77 percent rate, to rank eighth.

Walker Off To A Great Start

Sophomore RB Darius Walker started the 2005 season with four consecutive 100-yard performances. He ran for an even 100 yards at #23/25 Pittsburgh (42-21 Irish victory), posted 104 yards in a 17-10 victory at #3/3 Michigan, rushed for 116 yards against Michigan State (44-41 OT loss) and had a career-high 128 yards at Washington on Sept. 24. Purdue ended Walker's streak of 100-yard games at four by holding him to 80 yards on 23 carries.

The effort against Washington made Walker the first Irish running back to start the season with four consecutive 100-yard rushing performances. The last Notre Dame running back to rush for over 100 yards in four straight games was Randy Kinder, who rushed for 100 yards against Purdue (142), Vanderbilt (110), Texas (129) and Ohio State (143) in 1995.

Walker Expanding His Game

While sophomore Darius Walker set the Notre Dame freshman rushing record last season (786 yards in '04), he was limited in his role in the Irish passing game (10 catches, 74 yards). He has already eclipsed those numbers in 2005, posting 21 catches (fourth on the team) for 159 yards and two touchdowns.

Jinx?, What Jinx?

Sophomore running back Darius Walker set a Notre Dame freshman rushing record in 2004 with 786 yards, eclipsing the mark of 756 Jerome Heavens set in 1975, en route to earning third-team Freshman All-America honors from The Sporting News. If Walker stays on the pace he set in his first season with the Irish, he will be primed to turn in one of the finest statistical seasons ever by an Irish sophomore. Here's a look at how the top 10 rushers in Notre Dame history, plus a few other notables, fared in their sophomore year.

Travis Thomas Steps Up

Looking for a change-of-pace back against No. 1 USC last weekend, Notre Dame head coach Charlie Weis turned to junior RB Travis Thomas. Thomas, who has shined in reserve duty this season, stepped up to rush for a career-high 52 yards, including a 16-yard run to record Notre Dame's first touchdown of the day against the Trojans.

Thomas' production this season already surpasses his totals from 2004, his first season of action for the Irish:

Year	Games	Att.	Yards	Avg.	TD	Long
2004	11	25	25	1.0	0	12
2005	6	37	161	4.4	3	16

Samardzija Six for Six

Junior WR Jeff Samardzija entered the 2005 campaign without a touchdown catch, but has since caught at least one scoring toss in each of this season's first six games. The two-sport athlete (who was a top-line starting pitcher for the Irish baseball team last season) becomes the first Irish receiver to begin the season with six consecutive games with touchdown catches and has matched Malcolm Johnson's school record with a touchdown grab in six straight games. Johnson caught a scoring toss in six straight midseason contests (Arizona State, Army, Baylor, Boston College, Navy and LSU) from Oct. 10 through Nov. 11, during the 1998 season.

Samardzija, who also serves as the team's holder on field-goal attempts, tied a Notre Dame record with three touchdown receptions versus Michigan State. He is the seventh player to do it and the first since Tom Gatewood versus Purdue in 1970. Samardzija's two touchdown grabs at Purdue made him the first Irish receiver to catch touchdowns in five consecutive games since Malcolm Johnson posted a Notre Dame record six TD catches in six straight

Scoring Streak by 'The Shark' Among the Nation's Best

Junior WR Jeff Samardzija, nicknamed 'The Shark' by his teammates, boasts one of the best consecutive touchdown-per-game scoring streaks in the nation. His is currently tied for fourth, having caught a touchdown pass in all six Notre Dame games this season. Here is a look at the the top touchdown-scoring consecutive game streaks in NCAA football this season -

Samardzija, Statistically Speaking

Junior WR Jeff Samardzija has started the season off in impressive fashion, leading the team with 34 catches for 598 yards and nine touchdowns. He is ranked 21st in the country in receiving yards per game (99.7) and could become Notre Dame's first 1,000-yard receiver since 1970 (Tom Gatewood, 1,123 yards). Samardzija is currently on pace for 1,093 receiving yards this season.

He is already threatening the single-season touchdown total. His nine scoring receptions are tied for second on the all-time list.

Older and Wiser

The 2005 Notre Dame offensive line is one of the most experienced units in school history. With the entire starting group from a year ago still in the fold, the Irish offense boasts almost 100 combined career starts on the line. Entering the 2005 season, senior tackle Mark LeVoir started the last 24 Notre Dame games and led the veteran group in starting assignments. Seniors Bob Morton and Dan Stevenson were a close second with 22 starts each, while junior Ryan Harris had 19 starts to his credit and junior John Sullivan was the junior man of the group with 12. Here is a look at the 10 most experienced offensive line units to wear the blue and gold since '85, with the '05 group added in for comparison.

Ndukwe a Turnover Machine

Junior safety Chinedum Ndukwe (pronounced Shin-eh-DOOM en-DUKE-way), seeing the most playing time of his career this season, has turned into a playmaker in Notre Dame's defensive backfield and on special teams. Ndukwe has played a part in half (seven of 14) of Notre Dame's forced turnovers this season.

He recovered a fumble in the first four games of the season for the Irish, forced a fumble at Washington and intercepted passes against Michigan State and USC at home.

So far this season, Ndukwe has 20.5 tackles, one TFL, and 1 PBU in addition to his turnover creations.

Zbikowski Making a Name for Himself On Special Teams

Junior safety Tom Zbikowski is third on the team in tackles with 37 and tied for the team lead in both interceptions (two) and passes broken up (four). The Golden Gloves boxer also is making plays on special teams for the Irish. His 16.55 punt-return average is ranked eighth in the country entering the weekend and his 60-yard punt return for a touchdown against USC was Notre Dame's first since the 2002 season.

Zbikowski has recorded punt returns of 23 (at Pitt), 25 (at Washington) and 60 (vs. USC) yards so far this season.

Notre Dame Winning Time-of-Possession Battle

While Notre Dame's offense has been piling up the yardage this season (averaging 489.7 yards per game), it has also won the time of possession battle in each contest. In fact, Notre Dame has not allowed an opponent to log 30 minutes of possession time in a game this season. Overall, Notre Dame averages 35:12 minutes per game with the ball, compared to 24:48 for its opponents. Here is a game-by-game breakdown:

Don't Forget the Anniversary

The 2005 football season marks the 75th anniversary of the opening of fabled Notre Dame Stadium. The Irish have played 382 games in that facility to date and own a 287-90-5 (.757) record in the "House that Rockne Built."

The Irish were 3-3 in Notre Dame Stadium in '04, running their home record to 91-30 (.752) over the last 20 years.

The most wins in a season by the Irish at home is seven by the '88 national championship team and the longest home winning streak in Notre Dame football history is 28 games (from 11/21/42 through 9/30/50).

In '55, the Stadium's 25th anniversary, Notre Dame went 8-2 on the season for coach Terry Brennan, including a 4-0 home record; the Irish turned in a 9-2-1 overall record and a 5-0 home mark to commemorate Notre Dame Stadium's 50th anniversary in '80.

Irish Face Another Loaded Schedule

With the updates of the AP and USA Today/Coaches Poll, Notre Dame will continue to face one of the toughest schedules in the nation (rankings are AP/USA Today and Harris Interactive):

- Notre Dame is the only team that will play three games against top four teams from the preseason polls - #1/1 USC (Oct. 15), #5/4 Tennessee (Nov. 5) and #3/3 Michigan (W, 17-10).
- Notre Dame is the only school that will face three teams that were in the top 10 of both preseason polls this season.
- Notre Dame will play games against six teams ranked in the top 25 this season at least once this season. The Irish have already defeated #23/25 Pittsburgh 42-21, #3/3 Michigan 17-10 and #22/20/22 Purdue. Last weekend, the Irish battled #1/1/1 USC in an 'instant classic,' losing 34-31 on the final play of the game. Notre Dame also will face #17/18/18 Tennessee on Nov. 5. Michigan State, unranked before its victory over the Irish, has moved into #22/22/21 in the current national rankings.

USC Television Rating Highest In 11 Seasons

Last weekend's USC-Notre Dame football game earned the best overnight rating for a Notre Dame home game in more than a decade. The 7.9 overnight rating and 17 share was the highest since Notre Dame-Michigan earned a 8.4/21 overnight on Sept. 10, 1994.

The rating peaked at a 14.2/27 from 7:30-7:45 as USC QB Matt Leinert scored with three seconds remaining leading the Trojans to a dramatic 34-31 victory. Notre Dame had taken the lead with 2:02 left. No. 9 Notre Dame had been bidding to end No. 1 USC's 27-game winning streak.

NBC's college football analyst Pat Haden called the contest, "as entertaining a last three minutes of a college football game as I've ever seen."

The top-rated markets were:

1. Indianapolis, 14.7/30
2. Los Angeles, 13.4/31
3. Knoxville, 12.6/25
4. Oklahoma City, 11.9/25
5. Portland, 11.0/25
6. Chicago, 10.7/24
7. Birmingham, 10.4/19
8. Boston, 10.3/21.

In Front of the Nation

In 2004, the Notre Dame football team once again received more network television exposure and played in more highly-rated games than any other program in college football.

The Irish played in the highest-rated network game of the '04 regular season (and the highest-rated regular-season game overall in two seasons) in its '04 regular-season finale at USC. That game, televised by ABC Sports, received a 6.3 Nielsen rating and was seen in 6.898 million households.

Overall, Notre Dame played in six games that ranked among the top 25 highest-rated network telecasts and no other school played in more than five (Tennessee and Georgia each played in five).

Including Notre Dame's last game against USC, the Irish have a remarkable streak of 154 consecutive games (more than 12 full seasons) that have been carried by either NBC (82), ABC (44), CBS (14) or ESPN (13). You have to go all the way back to the '92 season to find a Notre Dame game that wasn't on one of those four networks.

The streak will continue throughout the 2005 season as well. All five remaining games this season are scheduled to be broadcast on NBC or ABC.

The Last Time... Notre Dame vs. BYU (Sept. 4, 2004)

BYU - 20 Notre Dame - 17 LaVelle Edwards Stadium

PROVO, Utah — Brigham Young held off a late push by Notre Dame for a 20-17 victory in the season opener for both teams. Matt Berry passed for 167 yards, including a 42-yard touchdown pass and a clutch 37-yard completion in the final minutes to Todd Watkins, after relieving BYU starter John Beck in the second quarter.

The Fighting Irish were about to get a final chance with BYU facing a third-and-8 play from its own 25. But Berry, who replaced injured starter John Beck in the second quarter, threw a long pass toward the Notre Dame sideline that Watkins leaped to pull in and give BYU a first down with 1:34 remaining. Watkins, a junior college transfer making his BYU debut, also caught a 50-yard pass from Beck to set up the Cougars' opening touchdown.

Notre Dame's Brady Quinn completed 26 of 47 passes for 265 yards, including a screen pass that Rhema McKnight took 54 yards for a touchdown. Preston Jackson returned an interception 38 yards in the fourth quarter to get the Irish to within a field goal, but they had to punt on their last possession and the Cougars didn't give up the ball again.

McKnight had a career-high eight catches for 92 yards in the game as Quinn distributed completions to seven different receivers. Tight end Anthony Fasano added four catches for 60 yards for the Irish while fullback Rashon Powers-Neal caught four passes for 24 yards.

Berry, BYU's starter until breaking a bone in his hand early last season, completed 15 of 23 passes yards and an interception. He was shaky early in relief of Beck, who left in the second quarter after being leveled on an option play by Irish linebacker Brandon Hoyte. X-rays on Beck were negative for any breaks, but he did not return.

The Cougars prevailed on a night when the most effective ways to move the ball were do anything but run with it. Only 22 of BYU's 285 yards came on the ground. The Fighting Irish had 21 carries for 11 yards on the ground. Matt Payne had field goals of 44 and 53 yards for BYU and his punting was clutch, pinning the Irish inside their own 15 all night and handcuffing the already struggling offense. Payne averaged 46.8 yards per kick even with a few short ones he tried to place in the corner.

BYU was the first to score when Fahu Tahī ran in from 5 yards out. The score was set up by Watkins, who was double covered and had his legs wrapped up but pulled in a 50-yard pass from Beck anyway. The Irish didn't score until late in the second quarter when Quinn ran the hurry-up offense to get within range for D.J. Fitzpatrick's 21-yard field goal for Notre Dame's first points of the season.

College Graduates

The 2005 Notre Dame roster features seven players who have already earned their undergraduate degree from the University. Fifth-year seniors Brian Beidatsch, D.J. Fitzpatrick, Mark LeVoi, Corey Mays, Rashon Powers-Neal, Matt Shelton and Dan Stevenson all graduated from Notre Dame in May of 2005. Teammate and current fifth-year player Brandon Hoyte would be among the group if he was not busy seeking DUAL degrees in psychology and management.

The fifth-year senior group also proved to be diligent workers in the classroom - especially in their final undergraduate semester at the University. None of the players earned lower than a 2.7 GPA in the spring semester of 2005.

- DL Brian Beidatsch - degree in marketing from the Mendoza College of Business (3.417 final semester GPA).
- K/P D.J. Fitzpatrick - degree in accounting from the Mendoza College of Business.
- OL Mark LeVoi - degree in anthropology from the College of Arts and Letters.
- LB Corey Mays - degree in psychology from the College of Arts and Letters (3.25 final semester GPA, 3.04 overall GPA).
- RB Rashon Powers-Neal - degree in finance from the Mendoza College of Business (3.000 final semester GPA).
- WR Matt Shelton - degree in marketing from the Mendoza College of Business (3.333 final semester GPA).
- OL Dan Stevenson - degree in marketing from the Mendoza College of Business (3.60 final semester GPA, 3.30 overall GPA).

In Front of a Full House

Notre Dame has played in front of sellout crowds in 177 of its previous 203 games, including 45 of its last 49 games dating back to the end of the Fiesta Bowl at the end of the 2000 season (the '01 and '03 games at Stanford, last year's game vs. Navy at the Meadowlands and this season's game at Washington were not sellouts). At Michigan in '03, the Irish and Wolverines attracted the largest crowd in NCAA history (111,726), marking the third time in the history of the series that an NCAA attendance record has been set. It also represented the seventh time in the last four seasons that Notre Dame has been part of establishing a new stadium attendance record (at Nebraska and Texas A&M in '01; at Air Force and Florida State, home vs. Boston College in '02, vs. Oregon State in the Insight Bowl in '04 - the game set a Bank One Ballpark record for football configuration). Notre Dame and Michigan played before an over-capacity 111,386 at Michigan Stadium two weeks ago. This season's Washington was played before less than a capacity crowd as 71,473 witnessed the Irish defeat the Huskies, 36-17, at Husky Stadium (capacity: 72,500) in Seattle.

At Purdue, the Irish and Boilermakers played before 60,491 football fans, a Ross-Ade Stadium record (since the renovation of the facility in 2003).

On the 'Fas' Track to Success

Senior tight end Anthony Fasano turned in a breakout 2004 season for the Irish, catching 27 balls for 367 yards and four touchdowns. Against Purdue, the 6-4, 257-pound Fasano hauled in a career-high eight passes for a career-high and Notre Dame tight end-record 155 yards in '04 and was named John Mackey National Tight End of the Week. His 27 catches in '04 tied him with former Irish standout Pete Chryplewicz for the fifth-highest single-season total by a tight end.

Barring injury Fasano has moved onto Notre Dame's top five all-time tight end receiving list. Here's a look at where he stands heading into the weekend:

Player	Receptions	Years
Ken MacAfee	128	1974-77
Anthony Fasano	72	2003-present
Derek Brown	62	1988-91
Dean Masztak	62	1978-81
Tony Hunter	55	1979-82
Mark Bavaro	55	1981-84

Fasano's signature game - the eight-reception, 155-yard outburst versus Purdue in '04 - placed him at the top of the record books in terms of yards for a single game. The following is a list of how he stacks up against Notre Dame's top five tight end in terms of career yards.

Player	Yards	Years
Ken MacAfee	1759	1974-77
Dean Masztak	924	1978-81
Derek Brown	899	1988-91
Mike Creaney	890	1970-72
Anthony Fasano	871	2003-present
Mark Bavaro	771	1981-84
Tony Hunter	700	1979-82

What makes Fasano's totals even more impressive is the fact that he has tallied them in a little more than two years of action, after not playing his freshman year in 2002. Here's a breakdown of what Notre Dame's other prolific pass-catching tight ends did in their third seasons in the blue and gold.

Player	Receptions-Yards	Touchdowns
Ken MacAfee	34-483	3
Anthony Fasano	27-335	0
Mike Creaney	17-321	2
Derek Brown	15-220	1
Mark Bavaro	23-376	3

Notre Dame Stadium Greatest Wins

As part of Notre Dame Stadium's 75th Anniversary in 2005, www.und.com, the official athletics website of the Fighting Irish, asked fans to vote for the most memorable victory in Notre Dame Stadium.

Voting was done over the summer on www.und.com and tabulated on Aug. 1. Here are some trends from the voting:

- According to voters, the greatest era in Notre Dame Stadium history was 1988 through 1993. Seven of the top 10 games fall into this time frame, including the top three choices by fans (1988 vs. #1 Miami, 1993 vs. #1 Florida State and 1990 vs. #2 Miami).

- Wins over longtime rivals (USC, Michigan) resonate among the Irish faithful. Twelve of the top 20 games selected were wins over USC (six) and Michigan (six).

- Signature moments cause a game to stand out in Notre Dame fans' memories. "The Snow Bowl" (Notre Dame vs. Penn State in 1992) was ranked fifth. "The Green Jersey Game" (Notre Dame vs. USC in 1977) was ranked fourth. "The Reggie Ho Game" (Notre Dame vs. Michigan in 1988) was ranked sixth. "The Harry 'O' Kick" (Notre Dame vs. Michigan in 1980) was ranked 10th.

- The new configuration of Notre Dame Stadium (rededicated in 1997) has yet to see its share of greatest victories. Notre Dame's recent upset wins over Michigan (2002 and 2004) were 11th and 12th on the list, but a win over Purdue (1998) was only able to break into the top 30.

- Notre Dame fans remember recent games more fondly than those played in the past. Of the top 20 games selected, only six were played before 1977.

Here is a list of the final top 10 as voted on by Irish fans on www.und.com (see the web page for short recaps on each victory).

1. #4 Notre Dame 31, #1 Miami 30, Oct. 15, 1988
2. #2 Notre Dame 31, #1 Fla. St. 24, Nov. 13, 1993
3. #6 Notre Dame 29, #2 Miami 20, Oct. 20, 1990
4. #11 Notre Dame 49, #5 USC 19, Oct. 22, 1977
5. #8 Notre Dame 17, #22 Penn St. 16, Nov. 14, 1992
6. #13 Notre Dame 19, #9 Michigan 17, Sept. 10, 1988
7. #1 Notre Dame 28, #4 Michigan 24, Sept. 15, 1990

Already in the Books

In 2004, Notre Dame wide receiver Matt Shelton cemented his name in the lore of Notre Dame football last season by setting a single-season record for average yards per reception. Shelton's average of 25.8 yards per catch eclipsed Tony Hunter's mark of 25.6 from the 1979 campaign. Here's a look at the top five single seasons in school history in terms of yards per reception.

Player	Avg.	Year
1. Matt Shelton	25.8	2004
2. Tony Hunter	25.6	1979
3. Jim Morse	22.1	1956
4. Raghil Ismail	21.8	1990
4. Kris Haines	21.8	1978

Receiving Duo

The record for most receptions by a pair of classmates at Notre Dame is 210, achieved by the 1966-68 combination of Jim Seymour (138) and Bob Gladieux (72). A prolific 2005 season by seniors Rhema McKnight and Maurice Stovall could eclipse that standard. Entering this weekend's contest, McKnight has 103 career catches and Stovall 87 for 190 total - needing 20 catches combined to reach the record. It should be pointed out, however, that both McKnight and Stovall played as freshmen - Seymour and Gladieux piled up 210 catches in just three years of varsity action.

National Award Watch ListsMAXWELL AWARD -

In June, Irish junior quarterback Brady Quinn was one of 53 players named to the 2005 Maxwell Award Watch List. The award, presented by the Maxwell Football Club, is given annually to the college football player of the year.

Quinn has been Notre Dame's offensive leader this season, completing 64 percent of his passes while throwing for 1,885 yards and 14 touchdowns.

Quinn threw for 2,586 yards in '04, his second as the starting quarterback for Notre Dame. His sophomore season ended up as the best second-year campaign ever for an Irish quarterback, finishing second in ND history on the single-season passing list behind Jarious Jackson's 2,753 yards in '99. Quinn's attempts (353) and completions (191) last season stand atop the single-season lists at Notre Dame. He accounted for 20 touchdowns (17 passing, three rushing) in '04.

Starting the last 27 consecutive games at quarterback for Notre Dame, Quinn already has posted the top freshman and sophomore statistical seasons in school history. He currently ranks third all-time on the Notre Dame passing yardage list, just 225 yards behind Steve Beuerlein for second place.

The Maxwell Award is named after Robert W. "Tiny" Maxwell, a Philadelphia native and former All-American guard at Swarthmore and Chicago who went on to a career that included professional football, coaching and sportswriting.

Notre Dame has seen four different players earn the Maxwell Award a total of five times in the football program's history. Tight end Leon Hart was the initial recipient in 1949, followed by HB John Lattner (1952 and '53), LB Jim Lynch (1966) and DE Ross Browner (1977).

MACKEY AWARD -

On Aug. 1, Anthony Fasano was named to the 2005 John Mackey Award Watch List which is given annually to the nation's best collegiate tight end.

Fasano is second on the team in '05 with 27 catches for 335 yards (12.4 avg.). He is averaging 55.8 receiving yards per game.

Fasano is coming off his most productive season in 2004. As a junior, he finished second on the team with 27 catches for 367 yards and four touchdowns. Proficient in pass catching, route running and blocking, Fasano is poised for a breakout year in Notre Dame's new offense under the direction of head coach Charlie Weis and offensive coordinator Michael Haywood.

Fasano caught four passes for 60 yards in the '04 season opener against BYU and continued to be a reliable force in the Irish offense throughout the campaign. He exploded for career highs in catches and yards against Purdue, nabbing eight receptions for a Notre Dame tight end-record 155 receiving yards.

He was named the John Mackey National Tight End of the Week for his performance against Purdue.

The Verona, N.J., native, one of 20 players on the watch list, also caught two touchdown passes against Washington and added scoring receptions at Tennessee and against Oregon State in the Insight Bowl.

Fasano also was a key contributor in 2003. As a sophomore, he caught 18 passes for 169 yards and two touchdowns. He did not play during his freshman season in 2002.

NFL Hall of Famer John Mackey is considered to be the best to have played the tight end position. The award honors his leadership and career of excellence.

The John Mackey Award has been presented since 2000, with four NFL players as alumni: Dallas Clark of Iowa ('01), Daniel Graham of Colorado ('02), Kellen Winslow, Jr. of Miami (FL) ('03) and Heath Miller of Virginia ('04).

The Nassau County Sports Commission, a non-profit organization to enhance quality of life by "Improving Life through Sports" and promote "Healthy Sports for Healthy Kids," presents this national football award as a tribute to Nassau County sports legend and native John Mackey.

GROZA AWARD -

D.J. Fitzpatrick has been named to the Lou Groza Award Preseason Watch List as one of 30 preliminary candidates for the annual award recognizing college football's finest placekicker.

Fitzpatrick is a perfect 27 for 27 in PATs this season. He has missed two of nine field-goal attempts and has posted a punting average of 40.5 - pinning six kicks inside the opponent's 20-yard line and launching a 60-yard punt at Michigan.

Fitzpatrick is entering his third season as the primary placekicker and punter for the Fighting Irish and is coming off an excellent season in 2004 in which he connected on 11 of 15 field goal attempts (73.3 percent), including a long of 47 yards. He scored 64 points on the season while making 34 of 35 conversion attempts. A proven performer in pressure situations, Fitzpatrick has made 25 of 32 attempts inside 50 yards for his career. He already ranks eighth in Notre Dame history for career field goals made with 25.

Kickers on the Lou Groza Award Preseason Watch List were chosen based on statistics from the 2004 season and 2005 preseason expectations. However, all Division I-A kickers are eligible for consideration for the award. A panel of more than 300 experts votes on the award, including Division I-A head coaches, sportswriters and sportscasters, conference representatives, professional kickers and all previous Groza Award finalists.

The 20 semi-finalists for the Lou Groza Award will be announced on Monday, Oct. 31, 2005, with the naming of the three finalists two weeks later on Monday, Nov. 14, 2005. The three finalists are recognized during the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award Banquet and Silent Auction on Tuesday, Dec. 6, 2005, at the Palm Beach Gardens Marriott and the winner is announced on Thursday, December 8, 2005, during the ESPN Home Depot College Football Award Show in Orlando, Fla.

The award, now in its 14th year, is named for National Football League (NFL) Hall-of-Fame kicker Lou Groza, who played 21 seasons with the Cleveland Browns. Groza won four NFL championships with Cleveland and was named NFL Player of the Year in 1954. Nicknamed "The Toe," Groza helped usher in the idea that a player could be used exclusively for kicking.

BUTKUS AWARD -

Senior linebacker and defensive team captain Brandon Hoyte has been named one of 65 candidates on the 2005 Butkus Award watch list. The award honors the nation's top collegiate linebacker.

Hoyte has been a terror to opposing offenses this season. He leads the team with 49 tackles (including a team high 12 with 10 solos at Michigan), 11 tackles for a loss and four sacks. He also has broken up two passes and forced two fumbles in 2005.

A fifth-year senior in 2005, Hoyte is a two-time academic all-district honoree with 254 career tackles, 10 career sacks and six forced fumbles. A native of Parlin, N.J., Hoyte is a leader both on and off the field for the Irish.

Hoyte finished second on the team in tackles last season, making 74 stops (38 solo) along with eight tackles for loss and three sacks. Projected as a starter on the outside for the Irish this season, Hoyte is poised to end his Irish career with an outstanding senior campaign.

Named a freshman All-American by The Sporting News in 2002, Hoyte has collected more than 50 tackles in each season (57 in '02, 74 in '03, 74 in '04).

Making the Grade...

The last four seasons of Notre Dame football have produced some impressive semesters in the classroom for the Notre Dame football team. In fact, the Irish had a 2004 spring semester in which the team's 104 players combined for a 2.96 grade-point average that ranks as the program's best semester GPA on record (dating back to 1992). The Notre Dame football program's top six semester GPAs since '92 were all posted in the seven semesters prior to the fall of '04, including the three semesters from fall of '02 to fall of '03 (2.84 in fall of '02, 2.79 in spring of '03 and 2.82 in fall of '03). The football program's second-best semester GPA of the past 12 years came in the spring of '02 (2.90), followed by a 2.80 in the spring of '01 and a 2.69 in the fall of '01. Upon closer examination, the 2004 spring semester saw 11 Irish football players post a Dean's List GPA (sliding scale, based on major), while 21 turned in a semester GPA of 3.4-plus and more than half (53) had a GPA of 3.0 or better. In addition, two players - former DE Kyle Businscak and senior LB Brandon Hoyte - received Academic All-District V honors in '03, marking Budinscak's third selection and Hoyte's second to the prestigious squad. Budinscak followed up with another All-District V honor in '04.

Taking Care of Business Off the Field, Too

The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) annually honors the school with the highest graduation rate based on a particular entering freshman football class, and Notre Dame has won the award six times, most recently in 2001 with its 100-percent graduation rate (22 of 22 entering freshmen from '96 earned their degrees within five years). The '01 award followed Notre Dame's previous honors in '82, '83, '84, '88 and '91. Notre Dame also holds the distinction of producing the first 100-percent rate in a single year when 24 of 24 student-athletes from the entering class of '82 earned their degrees within a five-year period (and 16 of those 24 did so within four years). Only eight other times has a school registered a 100-percent graduation rate. The '88 award had special meaning, as it was the first time a school won the national championship on the football field - as Notre Dame did, finishing 12-0 after a Fiesta Bowl win over unbeaten West Virginia - and in the classroom. Including the special mention category, the Irish have received some sort of recognition in 23 of the 24 years the award has been presented, with Duke next at 21.

Pep Rallies

All 2005 pep rallies will be held in the Joyce Center Arena (south dome) on Fridays before Saturday home games, beginning at 6:00 p.m. (EST). The football team enters the arena at 6:30 p.m.

For the USC game, the pep rally was moved into Notre Dame Stadium to accommodate the expected overflow crowd. An estimated crowd of over 45,000 fans attended the USC pep rally, which was also broadcast live by ESPNNews.

Beginning this season, all of Notre Dame's pep rallies will be broadcast live (video and audio) on www.und.com for subscribers to "Fighting Irish All-Access."

Notre Dame Experience Returns for 2005 Season

For years, the Joyce Center has been the "pregame meeting place" for several thousand Notre Dame alumni. In an effort to add to this tradition, the Notre Dame athletics department is providing an interactive fan experience for each of the 2005 home football games in the Joyce Center Fieldhouse (north dome). For the fourth consecutive season, the "Notre Dame Experience" will combine with the Notre Dame Alumni Association Hospitality Center with interactive inflatables, photo booths, autograph sessions, football trivia and stage activities. Gates open three hours prior to kickoff and admission is free.

Inside the Irish Huddle DVD

Legendary Notre Dame Quarterbacks, a project dedicated to the lore and history of University of Notre Dame football and its rich quarterbacking tradition, is beginning its existence with the release of a DVD, Inside the Irish Huddle, Stories from the Legendary Notre Dame Quarterbacks.

The DVD is now available and can be ordered on NDQB1.com, the official website of the Legendary Notre Dame Quarterbacks.

Inside the Irish Huddle, made in association with Indianapolis and Chicago based Pathway Productions, includes interviews with and collegiate highlights of some of the most high-profile players and coaches in Notre Dame and college football history. Joe Montana, Joe Theismann, Paul Hornung, Johnny Lujack, Tom Clements and Terry Hanratty are just a few of former players featured on Inside the Irish Huddle.

The project is spearheaded by former Irish quarterback Blair Kiel (1980-83).

Notre Dame Stadium Update

Thanks to funding by the Notre Dame Monogram Club, Notre Dame Stadium features a new look for its 75th anniversary this season.

- Positioned in the 195 portals of the original Stadium walls (now visible in the lower bowl concourse), there now are individual, four-by-10-foot, mesh banners with old-school, black-and-white photos highlighting Notre Dame's 11 consensus national-championship seasons, its 139 first-team football All-Americans, its seven Heisman Trophy winners, its five national-championship coaches and its eight representatives in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

- Hanging from the ceiling around the lower concourse are 15 full-color, 12-by-15-foot banners – 10 of them featuring action shots of members of the 2005 Irish squad, and five featuring the 75th anniversary logo for Notre Dame Stadium. In addition, there will be four other five-by-eight-foot representations of the logo within the Stadium.

- One addition visible from inside the Stadium is a sign on the facing of the wall just above the tunnel – it reads "Irish" and includes the Monogram Club logo.

- Attached to light polls on Moose Krause Circle surrounding the Stadium and in the Stadium and Joyce North and South parking lots are 100 two-by-four foot pole banners, all of them featuring various Notre Dame marks and phrases – including combinations of Irish, We Are ND, a shamrock, the leprechaun, University of Notre Dame, Here Come the Irish, Fighting Irish, a gold helmet and the 75th anniversary Stadium logo.

- In addition, there are plans over the next few years to theme the entry gates at the Stadium – with the intention of creating specific recognition of Notre Dame's national championships, its All-Americans, its Heisman Trophy winners and its national championship coaches. The gate completed was Gate B. It recognizes the Irish Heisman winners with three-foot by eight-foot replicas of the Heisman Trophy. The displays were designed by Rockwell Group of New York and fabricated by Show Motion Inc. of Connecticut. The work was accomplished with the cooperation of the Downtown Athletic Club and the Heisman Trophy Trust.

Most of the signage and design work is being handled by Sport Graphics, Inc., in Indianapolis, Ind. Additional work for the gate designs is by the Rockwell Group in New York, N.Y.

Guglielmino Athletics Complex Officially Dedicated

– The Guglielmino Athletics Complex, new home to the University of Notre Dame football program, was dedicated Friday, Oct. 14, 2005. The dedication program included a blessing of the building, an afternoon Mass at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart and a dedication dinner in the rotunda of the Main Building. A special, 18-by-24-inch, commemorative poster (printed by Mossberg & Company in South Bend and designed by recent Notre Dame graduate Tim O'Connor) created for the dedication was available free of charge Friday night as fans left the pep rally at Notre Dame Stadium.

Opened in August and located on the east side of campus, the 96,000-square-foot building commonly referred to as "The Gug" is a spacious, state-of-the-art facility that houses the football program's locker rooms, offices and meeting rooms, in addition to giving the 800 student-athletes in Notre Dame's 26 varsity sports enhanced space for all training, strength and conditioning, and medical needs. The Guglielmino Athletics Complex has been made possible through the generous gift of the late Don F. Guglielmino and his wife Flora. A longtime supporter of Notre Dame, Guglielmino attended the University in the 1939-40 academic year.

Irish Football on the Printed Page

This fall, three new books about Fighting Irish football have debuted. The Spirit of Notre Dame, by Jim Langford and Jeremy Langford, officially went on sale during the last week of August. Detailing both athletic and student/alumni stories from the University, the book is said to be "the absolute essential title for the millions of people who have a place in their heart for the Fighting Irish." The book is a production of The Doubleday Broadway Publishing Group and can be bought on www.randomhouse.com.

South Bend Tribune and Notre Dame football beat writer Eric Hansen has seen the release of his new book, Notre Dame, Where Have You Gone?. Hansen catches up with former Fighting Irish football players, from the All-Americans to the walk-ons to the one-play wonders to the once-tragic figures. The book is available for order at www.sport-publishinginc.com.

The third offering comes from Senior Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations at Notre Dame - John Heisler. Echoes of Notre Dame Football, The Greatest Stories Ever Told, was edited by the former long-time sports information director. A member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame, Heisler's book stitches together the best columns from the best columnists. It not only recounts the greatest moments in Notre Dame lore, it also tracks the chronological progression sportswriting styles from the esoteric to the ultra-modern. The book is available by calling 800-335-5323 or by sending an e-mail to WebOrders@triumphbooks.com. The book also features a foreword by Notre Dame head coach Charlie Weis.

Guests regularly will include familiar names from all facets of college athletics.

The show features White, Notre Dame's director of athletics, and ESPN 1000's Dave Juday. It can be heard regularly at 11:00 p.m. Central time on Sunday.

Katrina Collection Update

Collections taken up throughout the University of Notre Dame community in recent weeks—in the student residence hall chapels and dining halls and even the football stadium—have raised $240,171 for the relief of victims of the Hurricane Katrina catastrophe.

A collection in the Notre Dame Stadium during the football game with Michigan State raised $195,871. Collections also have been taken up at Masses in the Basilica of the Sacred Heart and in the Hammes Notre Dame Bookstore but have not yet been tabulated.

Funds raised in the University's Katrina collections are being distributed among Catholic Charities USA; Catholic parishes in the Gulf region which are administered by Notre Dame's founding religious order, the Congregation of Holy Cross; and regional parochial schools participating in Notre Dame's Alliance for Catholic Education (ACE) volunteer teacher program.

The University will continue to accept donations throughout the semester. Contributions may be sent to: Notre Dame Katrina Collection, P.O. Box 198, University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, IN 46556-019.

Instant Replay

Notre Dame will utilize the Big Ten Conference instant replay system during all other home games this season. The opposing team is given the option of agreeing to use the system as well, and it will only be implemented if both teams decide to utilize the system.

- The Big Ten instant replay model and the NFL instant replay system are different. In the Big Ten model, only the Big Ten Technical Advisor, working in the press box, can stop a game to review a play. Unlike the NFL model, in the Big Ten neither the coaches nor the game officials on the field may ask for a review.

- In order for a play to be changed the Technical Advisor must have indisputable video evidence that an error occurred. Television broadcast of the game will be the sole source of whether there is indisputable video evidence.

- The replay system will not guarantee that all officiating mistakes are identified and corrected.

- The types of plays that are reviewable include plays that are governed by the sideline, goal line, end zone and end line, passing plays, and other detectable infractions, such as forward progress with respect to first down.
