Storylines

- ◆ Eight of the past 12 games between Notre Dame and DePaul have been decided by single digits.
- ◆ Sunday's game is approaching sellout status, which would be the sixth of the season for Notre Dame and tie the school record first set in 2009-10.

The calendar may have flipped to February, but the challenges remain unchanged for No. 2 Notre Dame, as the Fighting Irish face their third ranked opponent in the past four games when No. RV/23 DePaul visits Purcell Pavilion at 1 p.m. (ET) Sunday in a key BIG EAST Conference matchup for both teams. The game will be televised live to a national cable audience by ESPNu.

The Fighting Irish (22-1, 9-0) extended their current winning streak to 19 games and remained unbeaten in BIG EAST play with a 71-41 victory at No. 13/14 Rutgers on Tuesday night. The Fighting Irish used a 22-6 run midway through the first half to take command and earn their seventh win over a Top 25 team this year.

Junior guard Skylar Diggins paced four Fighting Irish in double figures with 18 points, while fifth-year senior forward Devereaux Peters had her third consecutive double-double with 10 points and a career-high 17 rebounds.

Quick Hitters

- Notre Dame appears in the top 15 of 10 different NCAA statistical categories, including nine top-eight appearances. The Fighting Irish lead the nation in scoring offense (83.3 ppg.), and rank second in steals (14.0 spg.), assists (19.7 app.) and scoring margin (+33.7 ppg.), while placing third in field goal percentage (.486), fifth in turnover margin (+8.04) and scoring defense (49.6 ppg.), eighth in rebounding margin (+11.4 rpg.) and assist/turnover ratio (1.21), and 11th in field goal percentage defense (.337).
- Notre Dame's current 19-game winning streak is the third-longest in school history and is its longest since a school-record 23-game run to open the 2000-01 season.
- The Fighting Irish are off to a 22-1 start (or better) for the third time in school history (and the second in the past three seasons).
- Notre Dame has reached the 20-win mark for the 18th time in 19 seasons and 22nd time in the 25-year tenure of head coach Muffet McGraw. What's more, the Fighting Irish reached that total quicker than any team in school history, doing so eight days faster than the 2000-01 squad.
- The Fighting Irish have opened BIG EAST play with a 9-0 record for the first time in 11 seasons (2000-01), and the fourth time since joining the conference in 1995-96.
- Notre Dame is 7-1 against Top 25 opponents this season (4-1 away from home), including four victories in five outings against teams in the top 10.

- This marks the third time in school history Notre Dame has posted four top-10 wins (AP poll) in the regular season, having also done so in 2000-01 and 2004-05.
- Notre Dame is just the second school ever to defeat both Connecticut and Tennessee in consecutive seasons, matching the feat first pulled off by North Carolina in 2005-06 and 2006-07.
- Four of the seven Fighting Irish victories against Top 25 opponents this season have been by 20 points or more, including a 30-point win at No. 13/14 Rutgers on Jan. 31 (Notre Dame's largest margin of victory ever on the road at a ranked opponent) and a 28-point win over No. 7/9 Tennessee on Jan. 23 (the largest margin of victory ever and fewest points ever allowed by Notre Dame against a top-10 team).
- Of the 22 Fighting Irish wins, 18 have come by 20+ points, and 11 by at least 30 points. In 20 victories this year, Notre Dame has held its opponent to 61 points or fewer, with a school-record 15 when the opponent had 50 points or fewer (and a school-record six of 40 or fewer).
- The Fighting Irish have scored at least 100 points twice this year, while going over 90 points eight times (including a school-record four in a row from Dec. 18-30) and topping the 80-point mark 12 times.
- Notre Dame is ranked No. 2 in this week's Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls, marking the 13th consecutive week the Fighting Irish appeared in the top five of both major national polls. That's the second-longest uninterrupted streak of consensus top-five poll appearances in school history behind only the final 18 weeks of the 2000-01 season (Notre Dame was ranked sixth in the preseason AP poll that year).
- With this week's No. 2 ranking in the AP poll, Notre Dame has appeared in the media rankings for 90 consecutive weeks, extending a program record that dates back to the 2007-08 preseason poll. In fact, every current Fighting Irish player has competed for a ranked Notre Dame squad throughout her career, with more than half that time (52 weeks) spent in the AP Top 10.
- With 578 victories in 25 seasons at Notre Dame, head coach Muffet McGraw is third on the Fighting Irish athletics all-time coaching wins list (across all sports), trailing only men's/women's fencing coach Michael DeCicco (774-80 from 1962-95) and men's tennis/wrestling coach Tom Fallon (579-268-4 from 1957-87).
- McGraw is just the ninth Fighting Irish coach in the 125-year history of Notre Dame athletics to lead her team for 25 seasons, and the first to solely coach a women's sport (Joe Piane is in his 37th year as men's/women's track & field coach, while Michael DeCicco guided both Fighting Irish fencing teams during his 34-year career). Four of the nine members of this Silver Anniversary coaching club currently are active at Notre Dame — Piane (37 years), Tim Welsh (28th year with men's swimming & diving), McGraw and Bob Bayliss (25th year with men's tennis).

Other Notre Dame Notables

- Notre Dame is among the nation's winningest programs during the past 16 seasons (1996-97 to present), tying for fourth with 396 victories.
- Notre Dame has ranked among the top 20 in the nation in attendance each of the past 11 seasons. The Fighting Irish currently are averaging 8,749 fans per home game after the program finished fifth in the NCAA attendance rankings with a school-record 8,553 fans a night. The Fighting Irish also have drawn 5,000-or-more fans to 170 of their last 172 home games, logging 22 Purcell Pavilion sellouts, including 16 in the past three seasons alone, and five this year (most recently on Jan. 23 vs. Tennessee).
- The Fighting Irish have become a regular fixture in the WNBA Draft in recent years, as seven Notre Dame players have been selected in the past 11 seasons. Charel Allen was the most recent Fighting Irish player to be chosen, going to the Sacramento Monarchs in the third round (43rd overall pick) of the 2008 WNBA Draft. Ruth Riley (San Antonio) was active in the league during the '11 season, helping the Silver Stars return to the playoffs for the fifth consecutive season. Three of Notre Dame's eight WNBA alums have won a total of four league championships — Riley won a pair of crowns with the Detroit Shock (2003 Finals MVP, 2006), Coquese Washington toiled for the 2000 Houston Comets, while Jacqueline Batteast was Riley's teammate on the 2006 title-winning squad in Detroit.
- For the fifth year in a row, the Fighting Irish posted a perfect 100-percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR), according to figures released by the NCAA in October. What's more, since Muffet McGraw became head coach in 1987, every Notre Dame women's basketball player who has completed her athletic and academic eligibility at the University has earned her bachelor's degree (a 64-for-64 success rate). The Fighting Irish also are one of only four schools in the past four years to record a 100-percent GSR and play for a national championship in the same season.

Harry leads the conference in rebounding (9.3 rpg.; 10.9 rpg. in BIG EAST games), while sophomore forward Jasmine Penny is first in the league with a .596 field goal percentage.

The Notre Dame-DePaul Series

As Midwestern rivals and fellow Catholic institutions separated by only 100 miles, it's no surprise Notre Dame and DePaul have been frequent opponents through the years. Sunday will mark the 36th installment in the series, with the Blue Demons holding a 19-16 edge on the Fighting Irish, although Notre Dame has won five of the past six games in the series.

The Fighting Irish also are 9-6 all-time against DePaul at Purcell Pavilion, including wins in six of the past seven matchups.

The Last Time Notre Dame And DePaul Met

Skylar Diggins had 19 points and made several big plays down the stretch to help No. 10/8 Notre Dame beat No. 9/13 DePaul 71-67 on March 7, 2011, in the semifinals of the BIG EAST tournament at the XL Center in Hartford, Conn.

A Quick Look At DePaul

Despite a myriad of injuries that have significantly whittled down its roster, No. RV/23 DePaul has persevered, using its trademark blend of hard work and team play to fashion a 17-6 record, including a 5-4 mark in BIG EAST play.

The Blue Demons are coming off an impressive 86-61 win over No. 14/12 Louisville on Tuesday night in Chicago. DePaul knocked down 10 three-pointers and had 26 assists on 32 baskets (as well as only 10 turnovers) while leading start to finish in the victory.

Junior guard Anna Martin led five Blue Demons in double figures with a game-high 19

Trailing 65-64 with 1:43 left, Diggins hit a lay-in to give the Irish a one-point lead. After Sam Quigley missed a lay-in, Diggins found Natalie Achonwa for a basket to make it 68-65.

Keisha Hampton got DePaul within one with 27.6 left.

Diggins hit one of two free throws and Brittany Mallory pressured Hampton into a turnover on the next possession. Mallory then hit two free throws with 2.5 seconds left to seal the win.

Hampton scored 31 points for DePaul.

The two teams had met a week earlier and the Blue Demons rallied for a 70-69 victory as Felicia Chester hit a shot with just under 6 seconds left. That gave them the No. 2 seed in the tournament.

The semifinal game was more of the same. Each time one team would make a run, the other responded. There were 11 lead changes in the second half alone.

Notre Dame erased a six-point halftime deficit and took its own six-point lead, 57-51.

DePaul battled back to tie the game at 57 on Hampton's free throw with 7:25 left.

The teams traded leads over the next five minutes.

The Fighting Irish led 61-60 when Becca Bruszewski got fouled on a lay-in. She limped off the court to the locker room and Natalie Novosel made one of the two free throws with 3:39 left to make it a two-point game.

Hampton responded with a three-point play to give the Blue Demons a 63-62 advantage. After Diggins hit two free throws, Hampton had another layup to make it 65-64 with 1:43 left, setting the stage for the frenzied finish.

The Last Time Notre Dame And DePaul Met At Purcell Pavilion

Becca Bruszewski wouldn't let fourth-ranked Notre Dame miss a beat when Lindsay Schrader went down with a sprained left ankle.

Bruszewski scored 19 of her career-high 25 points as the Fighting Irish dominated the second half, beating DePaul 90-66 on Feb. 14, 2010, at Purcell Pavilion. The Blue Demons shot 47 percent to keep the game close through much of the first half, but shot just 31 percent in the second half and finished with 25 turnovers.

The Fighting Irish usually look to Schrader, a 6-foot guard, to get their inside game going. But with Schrader watching from the sidelines in the second half after injuring her ankle when she stepped on a teammate's foot, the 6-1 Bruszewski took over. She was 7-of-9 shooting against DePaul's zone in the second half.

Skylar Diggins added 18 points and helped force DePaul's Sam Quigley into 10 turnovers.

With the game tied late in the first half, Diggins scored eight points during a 12-2 run, including a jumper at the buzzer to give the Fighting Irish a 42-32 halftime lead.

DePaul cut its deficit to 43-36 early in the second half on a jumper by Quigley. But Bruszewski scored inside to spark a 9-2 spurt as Notre Dame went ahead 56-39 and the Fighting Irish continued to pull away.

Keisha Hampton led DePaul with a career-high 28 points and eight rebounds. Felicia Chester added 15 points and Quigley had 12.

Other Notre Dame-DePaul Series Tidbits

- Eight of the 12 series games between Notre Dame and DePaul since the Blue Demons joined the BIG EAST (2005-06) have been decided by single digits, including six of the past eight.
- Despite the long history of the Notre Dame-DePaul series (35 games since 1978-79), the aggregate point totals for the two teams are amazingly close, separated by a mere 33 points — the Blue Demons have scored 2,399 points (68.5 ppg.), while the Fighting Irish have tallied 2,366 points (67.6 ppg.).
- In 12 of the past 16 series games, the winning team has scored at least 75 points. The only exceptions have been the second matchups in 2007-08 and 2008-09 (66-64 Notre Dame win in Chicago in 2008; 62-59 Fighting Irish win at Purcell Pavilion in 2009), as well as both games last year (70-69 DePaul win in Chicago; 71-67 Notre Dame win in BIG EAST semifinals at Hartford).
- The Fighting Irish have held DePaul to fewer than 70 points in five of the past six series games (the Blue Demons had exactly 70 in last year's first meeting) after not having held DePaul below that mark in the previous seven series contests (including the first six as members of the BIG EAST Conference).
- The DePaul series is the second-longest in Notre Dame history, with Sunday being the 36th game between the clubs. Only the Marquette rivalry (37 games) is longer, with the Fighting Irish having defeated the Golden Eagles, 95-42, on Dec. 7 at Purcell Pavilion.
- DePaul's 19 series wins are the third-most by

- Combining their memberships in the North Star (1983-88) and BIG EAST (2005-present) conferences, Notre Dame is 11-9 all-time against DePaul in regular-season league games (6-4 in BIG EAST, 5-5 in North Star). The teams have split their two conference tournament games, with DePaul shading the Fighting Irish, 76-71 in the first round of the 2007 BIG EAST Championship in Hartford, Conn., and Notre Dame countering with a 71-67 victory in last year's BIG EAST semifinals, also in Hartford.

- Notre Dame has had 13 players come from the state of Illinois, including 12 from the Chicagoland area. Fifth-year senior forward Devereaux Peters (Chicago/Fenwick HS), junior guard Kaila Turner (Joliet/Marian Catholic HS) and freshman guard Whitney Holloway (Plainfield/Montini Catholic HS) are the latest additions to a list that includes NCAA career three-point percentage record holder Alicia Ratay (Lake Zurich/Lake Zurich HS), two-time honorable mention All-America guard Lindsay Schrader (Bartlett/Bartlett HS) and 1,000-point scorer/2004 Purple Heart recipient Danielle Green (Chicago/Roosevelt HS).

- Notre Dame will add another Chicagoland resident to its roster next season when Lincolnwood, Ill., native (and Niles West High School standout) Jewell Loyd arrives on campus. Loyd is a 5-foot-10 guard who is ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation and is a consensus top-five high school senior by all the major recruiting services. For more information on Loyd (and the full Notre Dame Class of 2012), see the sidebar on page 10 of this notes package.

- DePaul has its own tie to the South Bend area, as Blue Demons' sophomore guard Kelsey Reynolds (a Mishawaka native) returns to Michigan for the first time as a collegian. Reynolds, who transferred to DePaul from Boston College prior to last season, graduated from Penn High School in 2009 and emerged with Notre Dame junior guard Skylar Diggins as the top two players to come out of the South Bend-area prep ranks in 2008-09.

- Both head coaches — Notre Dame's Muffet McGraw and DePaul's Doug Bruno — have ties to the old Women's Professional Basketball League (WBL) which existed from 1978-81; McGraw was a point guard for the California Dreams in 1979 (the franchise's only year of existence), while Bruno was the head coach and director of player personnel for the Chicago Hustle throughout its incarnation from 1978-80.

Peaking When It Counts

When the regular season enters its stretch run in the month of February, Notre Dame historically seems to raise its level of play. Since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96, the Fighting Irish are 93-27 (.775) in February games, including a 53-5 (.914) mark at home.

In the 25-year Muffet McGraw era (1987-present), the Fighting Irish are 141-42 (.770) in the month of February, including a 75-11 (.872) home record. In that time, Notre Dame has not had a losing February (including this year's 6-1 record), and only once did the Fighting Irish end the month at .500 (4-4 in 1988-89, McGraw's second season in South Bend).

Start Me Up

For the second time in three years, and the third time in school history, Notre Dame has opened with a 22-1 record or better.

In their 2000-01 national championship season, the Fighting Irish opened with a school-record 23-game winning streak, while in 2009-10, Notre Dame won its first 15 games, lost at Connecticut in its 16th outing, then won its next eight in a row.

Beyond The Midpoint

Notre Dame is off to a 9-0 start in BIG EAST Conference play for the first time in 11 seasons and the fourth time since the program joined the BIG EAST in 1995-96.

The last time the Fighting Irish opened the conference season with nine consecutive wins was 2000-01 when they began the BIG EAST slate with a 12-0 record on the way to earning a share of their first regular season conference title with a 15-1 record.

The school record for the best start to a BIG EAST season is 15-0, set back in 1999-2000.

Streak Stats

Notre Dame's current 19-game winning streak is the third-longest success string in program history (at any time), and it's the longest since the Fighting Irish opened their 2000-01 national championship season on a school-record 23-game winning streak.

Twenty Questions

Notre Dame reached the 20-win mark for the 18th time in the past 19 seasons with its 72-44 victory over No. 7/9 Tennessee on Jan. 23 at Purcell Pavilion. It was the earliest (in terms of the calendar) that the Fighting Irish have ever earned their 20th win, eight days faster than the 2000-01 club, which did so on Jan. 31 with a 64-44 victory over Providence, also at Purcell Pavilion.

Notre Dame now has registered 20-or-more wins 22 times in the 25-year Muffet McGraw era and 26 times in the program's 35-year history.

McGraw herself has coached 24 20-win seasons (adding in two during her five-year tenure at Lehigh from 1982-87), placing her ninth all-time among NCAA Division I coaches.

Fighting Irish Scoring Early TKOs

Part of Notre Dame's success this season can be traced to its penchant for jumping out to huge early leads and then keep its foot on the gas the rest of the way.

In 12 games this year, the Fighting Irish have charged to a 20-point lead inside the opening 13 minutes of the game, going on to win all 12 of those contests by an average of 50.9 points per game.

Overall, Notre Dame is outscoring its opponents in the first half this season by nearly a 2-to-1 margin (1,000-527), with an average halftime score of 43-23.

Born To Run

In the latest NCAA statistics report, Notre Dame leads the nation in scoring offense, averaging 83.3 points per game this season. That's just one of five NCAA offensive categories in which the Fighting Irish rank among the top eight, along with scoring margin (second at +33.7 ppg.), assists (second at 19.7 apg.), field goal percentage (third at .486) and assist/turnover ratio (eighth at 1.21).

Notre Dame also has topped the 100-point mark twice (first time since 1998-99, second time in school history), and has scored at least 90 points in a game eight times this year, tying the school record set last season.

What's more, Notre Dame has done an excellent job of putting teams away, recording 18 20-point wins, and 11 victories by at least 30 points (second-most in school history behind the 12 30-point wins last year).

Century City

Twice this season, Notre Dame has gone "over the top", scoring 100 points in a game during victories at Mercer (128-42 on Dec. 30) and at home against BIG EAST Conference rival Pittsburgh (120-44 on Jan. 17).

Prior to this season, the Fighting Irish had never scored more than 113 points in a game (113-35 win over Liberty on Nov. 24, 1989, at the UCF Rotary Classic in Orlando, Fla.), and had scored in triple digits just 13 times in the program's first 34 seasons.

What's more, this marks just the second time Notre Dame has ever posted multiple 100-point games in the same season — in 1998-99, the Fighting Irish defeated No. 25/23 Illinois, 101-93, on Nov. 24 at Purcell Pavilion, before defeating West Virginia, 111-90, on Jan. 7, also at home.

As one might expect, Notre Dame's two offensive explosions rank as the top two single-game point totals in the nation in 2011-12. Oklahoma is third with a 117-point night against visiting Sacramento State on Nov. 13.

Lock It Up

Notre Dame ranks among the top 15 in the nation in five NCAA defensive statistical categories — steals (second at 14.0 spg.), scoring defense (fifth at 49.6 ppg.), turnover margin (fifth at +8.04), rebound margin (eighth at +11.4 rpg.) and field goal percentage defense (11th at .337).

The Fighting Irish have held 20 of their 23 opponents to 61 points or fewer, with a school record 15 failing to score more than 50 points against Notre Dame — last year's Fighting Irish squad had 14 games in which it allowed 50 points or fewer.

Notre Dame's defensive effort has extended to smaller increments as well. In their last 35 halves of basketball (dating back to the second half against No. 7/6 Duke on Nov. 26), the Fighting Irish have held their opponents to 25 points or fewer 24 times, including 15 halves when the opposition didn't crack 20 points.

'Tis The Season For Taking

Fueled by its aggressive defense, Notre Dame has been in the taking mood this year, forcing its opponents into at least 20 turnovers in 15 games thus far, with Fighting Irish foes averaging 24.3 giveaways per game, and Notre Dame chalking up a +8.04 turnover margin that is fifth-best in the nation.

The Fighting Irish wasted little time in setting the tone for their opponents this season, forcing a combined 112 turnovers in their first three games, an average of 37.3 per night, and converting those into 142 points (47.3 ppg.). That run was highlighted by an opponent season-high 46 turnovers against Akron on Nov. 11 at Purcell Pavilion, the third-most takeaways in school history, and second-most in the program's Division I era (49 vs. New Hampshire on Nov. 12, 2010).

The Fighting Irish have been especially hard on opponents in their 12 home games this season, forcing 28.4 turnovers per game and collecting at least 19 in each Purcell Pavilion contest thus far.

The Five-Finger Discount

Notre Dame comes into Sunday's game ranked second in the nation in steals with 14.0 thefts per game. The Fighting Irish also have recorded double-digit steals in 17 games this season, including three contests with 20-plus steals.

Highlighting this year's takeaway brigade for Notre Dame was a season-high 29-steal performance in the opening night victory against Akron on Nov. 11 at Purcell Pavilion. The Fighting Irish followed that up two days later with 25 thefts in a win over Indiana State, and nabbed 26 steals in a Dec. 28 win over Longwood.

Prior to last season, Notre Dame had posted 23 steals in a game just seven times in the first 33 years (and 991 games) of the Fighting Irish women's basketball program, and only three games with 25-plus steals in that time, none since a then-record tying 29 steals at Saint Louis on Jan. 31, 1991. What's more, Notre Dame had not earned a conference steals title since 1989-90, when it led the Midwestern Collegiate Conference (now the Horizon League) with 10.9 spg.

Yet, in the past two years (62 games), the Fighting Irish have had eight 23-steal games, with five outings of at least 25 thefts, and they claimed last year's BIG EAST steals crown with 11.8 steals per game during regular-season league play.

Individually, Notre Dame has 10 different players with double-digit steals this season (including four with at least 40 thefts), led by junior guard Skylar Diggins, who is fourth in the conference at 2.5 steals per game, and fifth-year senior guard Brittany Mallory, who is tied for seventh in the BIG EAST at 2.3 spg.

Helping Hands

Continuing a trend from last season, Notre Dame has shared the basketball very well during the first 23 games of the year.

In the latest NCAA statistics report, the Fighting Irish are second in the nation (and second in the BIG EAST) at 19.7 assists per game, including a season-high 33 assists against Pittsburgh on Jan. 17 (one of 12 games with 20-or-more assists this year, including five with at least 25 assists).

Individually, junior guard Skylar Diggins is 17th in the nation in assists (BIG EAST-best 5.7 app.) and 14th in the country with a 2.34 assist/turnover ratio (also tops in the conference).

What's more, Notre Dame has assisted on 65.5 percent of its field goals this season (453 of 692), compared to last year when the Fighting Irish registered assists on 60.9 percent of their baskets (669 of 1,099), with 16 games of at least 20 assists.

Experience Matters

Notre Dame has benefited from an experienced lineup this season, using the same starting five (guards Skylar Diggins, Brittany Mallory, Kayla McBride and Natalie Novosel, and forward Devereaux Peters) for all but two games this year (Dec. 30 at Mercer, when senior guard and Atlanta-area native Fraderica Miller earned the nod in her homecoming game; Jan. 7 vs. No. 2 Connecticut).

The foundation of this stable lineup has been the quartet of Diggins, Mallory, Novosel and Peters, who also started 34 of 39 games last year (Mallory missed two games with an ankle injury and came off the bench for two more, while Diggins relinquished her starting spot for Senior Day last year to allow walk-on forward Mary Forr to make the start). In the four games Mallory was not in the lineup last year, McBride earned the first starts of her college career.

Collectively, the current Notre Dame lineup has started 310 games in their careers (Diggins-91, Novosel-66, Peters-65, Mallory-63, McBride-25).

Spread The Wealth

Notre Dame has featured a balanced offense thus far, with at least three players scoring in double figures in 20 games, and at least four double-digit scorers in 12 games, including a season-high (and school record-tying) eight with at least 10 points against Pittsburgh on Jan. 17.

During the past three seasons (2009-10 to present), Notre Dame is 46-4 (.920) when it has at least four players score in double figures, with two of those losses coming in overtime (March

The Fighting Irish also have had six different players lead them in scoring this season. Five of the six leading scorers this year also have registered at least one 20-point game to date, while 10 different Notre Dame players (of the 11 healthy Fighting Irish who have seen action to date) have scored in double figures at least once this year.

Improvement Continues On The Glass

After averaging 37.2 rebounds in its first six games (and holding the upper hand in that category only three times, with an aggregate minus-2 rebounding margin), Notre Dame has featured a marked improvement on the boards since its return from the Bahamas after the Thanksgiving weekend.

In their last 17 games, the Fighting Irish are averaging 44.4 rebounds a night, with an average rebounding margin of +15.6 rpg. Furthermore, Notre Dame has grabbed at least 40 rebounds 15 times in the past 17 games after not reaching that mark once in its first six contests.

According to the latest NCAA statistics report, Notre Dame ranks eighth in the country in rebounding margin (+11.4 rpg.) this year.

Windy City Warrior

Fifth-year senior forward Devereaux Peters is in the midst of one of the best stretches of her college career, averaging 16.6 points and 11.4 rebounds per game with a .610 field goal percentage (36-of-59) in her last five outings.

Here's a look at some of the rare feats Peters (the Jan. 23 BIG EAST Player of the Week and a member of this week's BIG EAST Honor Roll) has been able to accomplish within the past two weeks:

- Peters chalked up consecutive double-doubles against No. 7/9 Tennessee (16 points, 16 rebounds), at St. John's (18 points, 15 rebounds), and at No. 13/14 Rutgers (10 points, career-high 17 rebounds) while adding a career high-tying six assists vs. UT and a season-best five blocks at St. John's.

- Peters is the first Notre Dame player with three consecutive 15-rebound games since Feb. 16-24, 1979, when Jane Politiski had four consecutive games with at least 15 rebounds during the program's AIAW Division III era (21 at Marion, 15 vs. Valparaiso, 18 vs. Saint Mary's-Ind., 16 vs. St. Joseph's-Ind.).
- Peters is the fifth Fighting Irish player with three 15-rebound games in a single season, with Katryna Gaither the last to do so (four in 1996-97). The others in this elite club are Jane Politiski (school-record seven in 1977-78, four in 1978-79), Shari Matvey (five in 1979-80) and Letitia Bowen (three in 1992-93, four in 1993-94).
- Peters became the first Notre Dame player in nearly 20 years to record back-to-back 15-point/15-rebound games. Letitia Bowen was the last to pull that off, doing so on Dec. 21, 1992, vs. No. 20 Georgia (16 points, 15 rebounds) and then again on Dec. 30, 1992, vs. Georgetown (16 points, 18 rebounds).
- Peters became the first Fighting Irish player with three consecutive double-doubles since the 2004 NCAA Championship, when Jacqueline Batteast did so against Missouri State (17p/11r), Middle Tennessee (22p/12r) and No. 5/7 Penn State (22p/12r) from March 21-27, 2004.

The Diggins Factor

Notre Dame has posted an 82-15 (.845) record in the past three seasons, a mark that can be traced in no small part to the arrival of guard Skylar Diggins. The South Bend native has helped lead the Fighting Irish to a spot in the 2011 NCAA national championship game and a berth in the 2010 NCAA Sweet 16, as well as a 13-9 record against AP Top 25 teams (7-7 vs. the AP Top 10) and an active 61-game winning streak against unranked opponents (not appearing in either poll) since the start of the 2009-10 season.

NOTE: ND played 97 games in three years prior to Diggins' arrival for 2009-10 season, has played 97 games since.

Upon closer examination, Notre Dame's 15 losses in Diggins' career primarily have been verdicts that could have gone either way, with nine decided by single digits (five that were in doubt inside the final minute), and two that went to overtime.

With Diggins in uniform, the Fighting Irish have posted two of the top 10 most prolific offensive seasons in school history, averaging 77.0 ppg. last year after logging 77.1 ppg. in her freshman season (and Notre Dame is on pace to go well beyond those figures this year).

In addition, thanks to Diggins' penchant for steals (she has a 2.29 spg. career mark), the Fighting Irish have recorded the top two single-season steal marks in program history with 495 thefts last year and 450 steals the season before. Last season also saw Notre Dame post the third-best defensive scoring average in school history, allowing just 56.2 ppg. (the best since the 2000-01 Fighting Irish yielded 55.8 ppg. en route to the national championship).

A Rally To Remember

Notre Dame tied a school record by digging out of an 18-point second-half hole to defeat No. 7/6 Duke, 56-54 on Nov. 26 in the Junkanoo Jam Freeport Division championship game at St. Georges High School in Freeport, Bahamas.

- 15 vs. Pittsburgh (2/28/06) - W, 72-65 (trailed 38-23 - 2:26 left in 1st)

Nearly three years earlier on Dec. 30, 2008, the Fighting Irish trailed 46-28 at No. 20/19 Vanderbilt with 15:56 left and came back to win, 59-57 at Memorial Gym in Nashville, Tenn.

This year's comeback victory over Duke marked the fourth time in program history Notre Dame has rallied from a deficit of 15 points or more to post a victory, with all four of these comebacks occurring in the past 11 seasons.

Beat The Clock

Senior guard Natalie Novosel hit a running bank shot at the foul line as the buzzer sounded to give Notre Dame a 56-54 win over No. 7/6 Duke on Nov. 26 in the Junkanoo Jam Freeport Division championship game at St. Georges High School in Freeport, Bahamas.

Novosel's buzzer-beater was the first winning shot at the horn by a Notre Dame player since Jan. 10, 2006, when Megan Duffy scored the last of her career-high 32 points with an off-handed layup at the overtime siren to earn a 67-65 win over Marquette at Purcell Pavilion.

Notre Dame also has had several players nail winning shots in the final minute of games during recent seasons. Prior to Novosel, Ashley Barlow was the last Fighting Irish player to pull off such late-game heroics, canning a three-pointer with 34.2 seconds remaining to help Notre Dame take a 74-73 win at Syracuse on Jan. 30, 2010.

Another notable recent "beat-the-clock" moment for Notre Dame occurred on Dec. 5, 2007, when Charel Allen sank a foul-line jumper with 0.8 seconds remaining in overtime, lifting the Fighting Irish to an 86-84 win at Bowling Green.

Captain Clutch

regulation or overtime. What makes this run by Novosel even more remarkable is the fact that all four of her late-game performances came against top-15 opponents, with the past two coming away from home.

The Model Of Consistency

The Jan. 23 win over No. 7/9 Tennessee marked the end to a remarkable streak, as senior guard/tri-captain Natalie Novosel was held to four points, her first single-digit point total since March 7, 2011, when she had eight points in Notre Dame's 71-67 BIG EAST Championship semifinal win over No. 9/13 DePaul at the XL Center in Hartford, Conn.

Novosel's 27-game double-digit scoring streak is the second-longest in school history, and was the longest by a Fighting Irish player in 15 seasons.

Katryna Gaither staked an ironclad claim to the school record with a remarkable 76-game double-figure scoring streak from 1994-97.

A Grand Trio

Notre Dame has had two of its captains score their 1,000th career point this season — senior guard Natalie Novosel hit the milestone on a free throw with 14:20 remaining on Nov. 13 against Indiana State, while fifth-year senior forward Devereaux Peters reached the landmark on a layup 16:52 left on Dec. 28 vs. Longwood.

Novosel currently ranks 16th in school history with 1,322 points, while Peters became the 30th member of the Fighting Irish 1,000-Point Club and presently stands 25th with 1,136 points.

Together with junior guard Skylar Diggins (tied for 10th with 1,460 points), Notre Dame has three active players in that elite Fighting Irish club for the third time in school history. In both 2000-01 and 2009-10, Notre Dame also had three 1,000-point players on the roster, with the third reaching that total in her final career game (Kelley Siemon in 2001 NCAA national championship game vs. Purdue, Melissa Lechlitner in 2010 NCAA Sweet 16 game vs. Oklahoma).

The Fighting Irish could have a fourth player reach the scoring millennium later this season — fifth-year senior guard Brittany Mallory has 882 career points. Should Mallory hit the 1,000-point mark, it would be the first time in the 35-year history of Notre Dame women's basketball that a quartet of active 1,000-point scorers were on the roster at the same time.

What's more, Peters became the seventh player from Notre Dame's 2009-10 NCAA Sweet 16 team to reach the 1,000-point plateau during her career, along with Diggins, Novosel, Lechlitner, Ashley Barlow (ninth at 1,492), Lindsay Schrader (14th at 1,429) and Becca Bruszewski (24th at 1,148) — and that doesn't even include Mallory, who also was part of that season's 13-player roster.

More Than Tough Enough

Fifth-year senior guard/tri-captain Brittany Mallory is closing in on a somewhat-overlooked and key career milestone, as she is second in school history with 135 games played, one back of her former teammate and co-captain Becca Bruszewski, who played in a record-setting 136 games from 2007-11.

Aside from the 2008-09 season that Mallory largely missed after injuring her knee in the seventh game at Michigan, she has missed only three other games in her career to date — one as a freshman in 2007-08 (at Richmond) due to an acute illness and two last season (at Kentucky, vs. IUPUI) following an ankle injury suffered against UCLA.

Not bad for a player who also was an All-America lacrosse standout coming from the McDonogh School in suburban Baltimore. In fact, head coach Muffet McGraw foreshadowed Mallory's endurance at Notre Dame way back on Signing Day, when she said — "You know she's going to be tough when she's used to getting beat in the head with a lacrosse stick every day."

Game #23 Recap: Rutgers

Devereaux Peters had 10 points and a career-high 17 rebounds to lead second-ranked Notre Dame to a 71-41 victory over No. 13/14 Rutgers on Tuesday night at the Louis Brown Athletic Center in Piscataway, N.J.

The fifth-year senior became the first Fighting Irish player to have three consecutive double-doubles since Jacqueline Batteast did it in the 2004 NCAA tournament.

The Fighting Irish lost only once this season, falling to No. 1 Baylor. They have won 19 consecutive games — the third longest streak in school history. They ran through Tennessee, St. John's and now Rutgers the last three games.

Skylar Diggins scored 18 points and Natalie Achonwa added 15 as the Fighting Irish had a balanced offense. Kayla McBride had 13 points and 10 rebounds for Notre Dame. The Fighting Irish controlled the boards against the Scarlet Knights, outrebounding them 52-24.

Notre Dame (22-1, 9-0 BIG EAST) completed a perfect January for the fifth time under head coach Muffet McGraw and the first since 2001.

Trailing 9-8 early on, Notre Dame went on a 22-6 run over the next seven minutes to take control. The Fighting Irish hit five three-pointers during the spurt, including three by Diggins.

They led by 17 at the half and blew Rutgers away in the second half, winning by the largest margin in the series' history.

2011-12 Signees

Notre Dame head women's basketball coach Muffet McGraw announced Nov. 9 that three of the country's top high school student-athletes have chosen to continue their academic and athletic careers with the Fighting Irish, each signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Notre Dame beginning in the fall of 2012.

Hannah Huffman, a 5-9 guard from Diablo, Calif. (Carondelet High School), Jewell Loyd, a 5-10 guard from Lincolnwood, Ill. All three student-athletes are rated among the top 40 players in the country by various national recruiting services. As a group, this trio currently is ranked No. 3 by multiple recruiting outlets and is a consensus top-10 class by all major services, giving Notre Dame a Top 25 class for the 16th consecutive year, a streak only two other schools in the country (Connecticut and Tennessee) can match.

Hannah Huffman	5-9, G, Diablo, Calif. (Carondelet)

poll appearance for the Fighting Irish, extending the program record that started with the AP preseason poll in 2007-08 (the old record was 59 consecutive weeks from 1998-2001). In fact, every current Notre Dame player has competed for a ranked Fighting Irish squad throughout her career, spending more than half (52) of those appearances in the AP Top 10.

This year's No. 2 preseason ranking also represents the 12th time in the past 13 years (starting with the 1999-2000 campaign) that Notre Dame has appeared in the initial AP poll, something only nine schools in the nation have done — Connecticut, Duke and Tennessee have shown up in all 13 during that span, while Georgia, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Stanford join the Fighting Irish with 12 preseason AP poll berths.

Notre Dame has been ranked in the AP poll for 229 weeks during the program's 35-year history, with every one of those appearances coming in the Muffet McGraw era (since 1987-88). McGraw ranks 11th among all active NCAA Division I head coaches for weeks in the AP poll, and 20th all-time in that category.

In addition, the Fighting Irish are No. 2 in this week's ESPN/USA Today/WBCA coaches' poll, holding that spot for the fourth consecutive week after they also held it for the first two weeks of the season. Like the AP poll, Notre Dame earned its best-ever preseason ranking (second) in the coaches' poll, topping its No. 5 placement to begin the 2000-01 campaign. The Fighting Irish also collected five first-place votes in this year's preseason coaches' survey (and two a week later), their first nods for the top spot since the final '00-01 balloting, when they received all 40 first-place votes after winning the national championship.

Notre Dame has been ranked in the coaches' poll for 91 of the past 92 weeks, falling just outside the Top 25 in the final poll of the 2008-09 season. Nevertheless, the Fighting Irish have appeared in the coaches' poll for a total of 222 weeks during their history (all coming during McGraw's tenure).

This marks the fourth consecutive season Notre Dame has been ranked in the top 10 of the ESPN/USA Today/WBCA poll, as well as 10 of the past 14 campaigns (1998-99 to present).

Polling Station

Notre Dame is ranked No. 2 in this week's Associated Press poll, its 13th consecutive week in the top five of the media balloting. The Fighting Irish also earned a preseason No. 2 ranking that was their highest since the final 2000-01 poll (taken before the the NCAA Championship), and also was the highest Notre Dame had ever been ranked in the AP preseason poll, topping its No. 4 debut in 2009-10.

Notre Dame received six first-place votes in the 2011-12 AP preseason poll (and four the following week), the first time it received consideration for the top spot since March 11, 2001, when the Fighting Irish earned five first-place votes (they were ranked No. 2 after falling at Connecticut, 79-76 in the BIG EAST tournament final). The previous week, Notre Dame had 33 first-place votes in its sixth week with the No. 1 ranking in the AP poll.

This week's No. 2 ranking marked the 90th consecutive AP

Of the 31 people on this list, 16 currently are NCAA Division I head coaches (see accompanying chart), with McGraw and Baylor's Kim Mulkey are the only active skippers to play for and coach a team in the AP poll, and coach that team to a national title (McGraw in 2001, Mulkey in 2005).

Half And Half

During the past 11 seasons, Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable when it has the lead at halftime. The Fighting Irish are 236-18 (.929) since the start of the 2000-01 campaign when they go into the dressing room with the lead, including wins in 164 of their last 176 such contests (.932).

What's more, in the past three seasons (2009-10 to present), Notre Dame is 73-1 (.986) when leading at the half, with the only loss coming on April 5, 2011, in the NCAA national championship game at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis (Notre Dame led Texas A&M, 35-33 at intermission before falling 76-70).

The Best Offense Is A Good Defense...

During the past 17 seasons, Notre Dame has discovered that a solid defensive effort can almost certainly guarantee a victory. In fact, since the beginning of the 1995-96 season (Notre Dame's first in the BIG EAST Conference), the Fighting Irish have an amazing 249-15 (.943) record when they hold their opponents below 60 points in a game, including 19 contests this year.

...But Sometimes You Have To Score If You Want To Win

Not resting solely on its defensive laurels, Notre Dame also seemingly has found the magic mark when it comes to outscoring its opponents. During the past 17 seasons (since 1995-96), the Fighting Irish are 164-6 (.965) when they score at least 80 points in a game. The only blemishes on that record are three overtime losses to Texas A&M (88-84) and Michigan State (87-83) in 1995 and UCLA (86-83 in double OT) in 2010, as well as a 106-81 loss to Connecticut in 1998, an 81-80 loss to DePaul in 2008, and a 94-81 setback at Baylor in 2011.

In the past three years (2009-10 to present), Notre Dame is 41-2 (.953) when topping the 80-point mark, having reached that level in 12 games this season and winning 11 times.

Now That's A Home Court Advantage

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's success has been its stellar play at home. In fact, the Fighting Irish have been virtually untouchable at home in recent years, winning 216 of their last 243 games (.889) at the 9,149-seat Purcell Pavilion, including winning streaks of 51 and 25 games in that span (and an active run of 19 in a row). Notre Dame also has a 117-19 (.860) record in BIG EAST Conference play at the former Joyce Center, sporting a program-record 31-game league winning streak at home before it ended with a 48-45 loss to Villanova in the '02 home finale.

The Fighting Irish have been particularly strong when it comes to non-conference games at home, winning 101 of their last 109 non-BIG EAST contests (.927) at Purcell Pavilion, dating back to the 1994-95 season. Five of the eight losses in that span came at the hands of Big Ten Conference opponents (four by 12 points or less) — Wisconsin in 1996 (81-69), Purdue in 2003 (71-54), Michigan State in 2004 (82-73 OT), Indiana in 2006 (54-51) and Minnesota in 2009 (79-71) — with the other defeats coming to Tennessee in 2005 (62-51) and 2008 (87-63), and to UCLA in 2010 (86-83 in 2OT). The Purdue loss also snapped a 33-game non-conference home winning streak which began after the UW setback.

Since its inaugural season in 1977-78, Notre Dame has played all of its games at the former Joyce Center, posting a 366-88 (.806) record at the venerable facility. Three times (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04), the Fighting Irish went a perfect 15-0 at home, which was the school record for home victories in a season prior to the 2009-10 campaign, when Notre Dame went 16-1, capped by an 84-66 triumph over Vermont in the second round of the NCAA Championship.

Irish Are The Hottest Ticket In Town

The past two seasons have seen an unprecedented surge in fan support for Notre Dame women's basketball, as the Fighting Irish set new program records for the highest year-end NCAA attendance ranking (fourth in 2009-10), highest average attendance (8,553 fans per game in 2010-11) and most sellouts in a single season (six in 2009-10). And, as the old saying goes — "you ain't seen nothin' yet."

For the third consecutive year, Notre Dame fans exhausted the program's season ticket packages (7,500) and have snapped up single-game ducats at a rate that helped the Fighting Irish already sell out five games (Dec. 18 vs. Kentucky, Dec. 28 vs. Longwood, Jan. 7 vs. Connecticut, Jan. 21 vs. Villanova, Jan. 23 vs. Tennessee), and put several others (Feb. 5 vs. DePaul, Feb. 12 vs. West Virginia and Feb. 25 vs. USF) within striking distance of a sellout.

What's more, through its first 12 home games this season, Notre Dame is averaging 8,749 fans per game, including those aforementioned five sellouts (9,149). The Fighting Irish now have posted 16 sellouts in the past three seasons and 22 in program history.

While some additional tickets may be available on the day or week of the game for individual contests this season (depending on returned inventory by visiting teams and other constituencies), it's entirely possible that Notre Dame will flirt with a sell out for every one of its home games during the 2011-12 regular season.

Fighting Irish On Your Radio Dial

Beginning with the 2008-09 athletics year, the Notre Dame athletics department announced it had partnered with the LeSEA Broadcasting Network, making Pulse FM (96.9/92.1) the new radio home of Notre Dame women's basketball in the South Bend market.

LeSEA originates all Notre Dame women's basketball games, with those events carried on Pulse FM (96.9/92.1), marking a return to the FM side of the dial for the first time since the 1998-99 season. Combined, these two stations blanket the nation's No. 91 media market (South Bend-Elkhart), covering a 21-county area in northern Indiana and southwest Michigan that contains more than 1.4 million listeners (better than 800,000 in the greater South Bend area alone). All told, Notre Dame's women's basketball network stretches from Kalamazoo, Mich., to the north, North Judson, Ind., to the west, Macy, Ind., (home of former Fighting Irish All-America center Ruth Riley) to the south, and LaGrange, Ind., to the east.

Women's basketball game broadcasts also continue to be streamed live and free of charge on Notre Dame's official athletics web site (www.UND.com) through the Fighting Irish Digital Media package.

Bob Nagle, the voice of Notre Dame women's basketball from 1996-97 through 1998-99 (including the program's first NCAA Final Four berth in 1997), is now in the fourth season of his second stint as the radio play-by-play broadcaster for the Fighting Irish.

Notre Dame On The Small Screen

Notre Dame will have at least 23 regular season games televised during the 2011-12 season. Highlighting this year's broadcast schedule are 11 nationally- or regionally-televised Fighting Irish women's basketball contests, including the program's fifth-ever appearance on network television, and second in as many years (Jan. 7 vs. Connecticut on CBS) and six showings on the ESPN family of networks, including three appearances on that entity's famed "Big Monday" telecast.

In addition, Notre Dame continues to expand its broadcast reach globally on the Internet. For the sixth consecutive season, all Fighting Irish regular-season home games not selected for commercial TV coverage (as well as the Nov. 2 exhibition vs. Windsor) will be webcast live on the official Notre Dame athletics web site, www.UND.com, via the site's free Fighting Irish Video Channel.

This year's TV slate continues a trend that has seen the Fighting Irish become a regular fixture on television. Beginning with the NCAA championship season of 2000-01 and continuing through the Jan. 31 game at St. John's (televised live on CBS Sports Network), Notre Dame has played in 218 televised games, including 162 that were broadcast nationally.

Oh Captain, My Captain

Fifth-year senior guard Brittany Mallory, senior guard Natalie Novosel and fifth-year senior forward Devereaux Peters are serving as Notre Dame's team captains for the 2011-12 season. Mallory is in her second season as team captain, while Novosel and Peters received the captain's honor for the first time in their respective careers following a preseason vote by their teammates.

Irish Fans Crave Another Big Mac Attack

It's year five of Notre Dame's wildly-successful "Big Mac" promotion, offering fans a coupon for a free Big Mac from South Bend-area McDonald's restaurants if the Fighting Irish score at least 88 points in a home game.

In the five-year history of the promotion (and counting exhibition games), Notre Dame has hit the 88-point mark 33 times, most recently in the Jan. 17 win over Pittsburgh.

It should come as no surprise that in the short history of the promotion, the Notre Dame player with the most "Big Mac" baskets shares the same initials with the tasty burger — fifth-year senior guard Brittany Mallory, who has sent the crowd home happy (and presumably with full bellies) five times, including four during the promotion's inaugural run in 2007-08.

And for those tracking such things (or perhaps falling under the heading of "the media relations director has way too much time on his hands"), 19 different players have converted the "burger ball", including eight current members of the Fighting Irish roster.

What's more, of the 33 Big Mac games to date, 15 have been reached on two-point baskets, 13 on free throws, and five on three-pointers.

Next Game: Syracuse

It's another quick turnaround for Notre Dame, as the Fighting Irish go back on the road Tuesday for a 7 p.m. (ET) BIG EAST game at Syracuse. Notre Dame is 6-0 this season when playing for the second time in a 48-hour span.

The Orange (14-9, 3-6) are coming off a sharp 80-54 win at Providence last Tuesday night. Syracuse is playing host to USF on Saturday afternoon before the Fighting Irish come to central New York next week.

Heart Of The Irish

For the third consecutive year, the Notre Dame women's basketball team will be front and center in the South Bend and greater Michiana communities with its groundbreaking outreach program (renamed "Heart of the Irish"), which will involve numerous interactive events during the 2011-12 season. The goal of this year's "Heart of the Irish" program is to highlight community leaders who are making a difference, as well as encourage fans to give back to their community and make an impact through a variety of special initiatives.

The first of five cornerstone events for the 2011-12 "Heart of the Irish" drive took place on Dec. 2, when Notre Dame played host to Penn at Purcell Pavilion. During that game, the Fighting Irish held their seventh annual Teddy Bear Toss, collecting new teddy bears and other stuffed animals for patients at Riley Children's Hospital, which serves many Michiana children, as well as local youth patients. The highlight of the event came at halftime, when fans were invited to toss their stuffed animals onto the court, where they were then collected by volunteers, including member of the U.S. Marine Corps.

Notre Dame's second outreach event, called Food For Friends, was held in conjunction with the Fighting Irish BIG EAST Conference opener against Marquette on Dec. 7 at Purcell Pavilion. Fans were invited to bring to the game a variety of non-perishable food items that were collected and subsequently delivered as part of the Food Drive for the St. Joseph County chapter of the Saint Vincent de Paul Society.

Notre Dame's third special "Heart of the Irish" event was entitled Reading One on One and it took place Jan. 17, when the Fighting Irish played host to Pittsburgh at Purcell Pavilion. That evening, the team collected children's books for the South Bend Community School Corporation in support of the Public Education Foundation.

The Fighting Irish will hold their annual fundraising game in support of breast cancer awareness and research on Feb. 12 (3:30 p.m. ET vs. West Virginia) at Purcell Pavilion. Known locally as the Pink Zone game (and nationally renamed as Play4Kay), it will feature numerous informational booths and donation opportunities for fans to contribute to the fight against breast cancer, with the highlight being the always-memorable halftime ceremony to honor those who have been touched by (and in many cases, conquered) the disease. Last year, Notre Dame raised more than $130,000 through its Pink Zone game for the Foundation of Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center and the Kay Yow Cancer Fund, lifting its three-year donation total to more than a quarter of a million dollars.

The last event in the "Heart of the Irish" series comes on Valentine's Day (Feb. 14), when Notre Dame welcomes Providence to Purcell Pavilion for a 7 p.m. (ET) tipoff. This will be the inaugural Splish Splash, in which fans can bring towels, wash cloths or toiletries such as small bottles of shampoo, soap or toothpaste for the YWCA of St. Joseph County.

Throughout the season, the Fighting Irish also will recognize community leaders who have made exceptional contributions.

In addition to this five-event series, Notre Dame women's basketball will take part in a cooperative effort with the University's Office of Sustainability as the Fighting Irish encourage all fans to recycle in their daily lives, particularly when they attend Notre Dame basketball games at Purcell Pavilion.

Originally called the "Spirit of Giving" program, Notre Dame's community outreach efforts began in earnest during the summer of 2009. Since then, Fighting Irish players, coaches, staff and fans have taken part in hundreds of hours of service projects designed to give back to the South Bend and greater Michiana communities.

The Notre Dame women's basketball team was honored for its community outreach efforts in 2008-09, receiving the Trophy Award (symbolic of the Fighting Irish program with the most service hours in one academic year) from the Notre Dame athletics department.

NOTES: Notre Dame extends its winning streak to 16 games, the third-longest in school history and longest since 2000-01, when the Fighting Irish opened that season on a school-record 23-game winning streak ... that 2000-01 campaign also marked the last time Notre Dame began a BIG EAST season with a record of 7-0 or better (currently the fourth-best start in school history) ... in '00-01, the Fighting Irish opened conference play with a 12-0 record ... the Fighting Irish forced at least 20 opponent turnovers for the 15th time this season (Villanova came into the game leading the nation with just 11.9 turnovers per game, but had nine at halftime) ... conversely, Notre Dame tied its season low with nine turnovers, a mark it set four days ago against Pittsburgh — the last time the Fighting Irish had consecutive games with 10 turnovers or fewer was Dec. 8 & 11, 2010, when they had 10 apiece in wins at Providence and at home against Creighton ... the Fighting Irish improve to 18-10 all-time against Villanova (9-2 at home), winning their third consecutive game against the Wildcats (something neither side had done in the series since Notre Dame won a series-long six in a row from March 1, 1998-Dec. 6, 2000) ... Notre Dame was held without a three-point field goal for the first time since Jan. 29, 2011, when it went 0-for-4 at Villanova ... Braker tied her career high with 10 points, matching the mark she first set on Nov. 26, 2010, against IUPUI at Purcell Pavilion — Braker is the 10th different Notre Dame player to score in double figures this year ... Novosel extended her streak of consecutive games scoring in double figures to 27 in a row, second-longest in school history ... Diggins posted her team-high eighth 20-point game of the season and the 25th of her career (eighth in school history) ... Diggins moved up to 14th place on Notre Dame's all-time scoring list with 1,391 points, passing Shari Matvey (1,371 from 1979-83) ... Novosel rose to 17th place on the Fighting Irish career scoring list with 1,297 points, passing Megan Duffy (1,290 from 2002-06) ... Novosel also moved into fourth place in school history with 390 career free throws made, passing Alicia Ratay (387 from 1999-2003) ... Peters assumed sole possession of third place on the Fighting Irish all-time blocked shot chart with 168, breaking out a tie with Jacqueline Bateast (167 from 2001-05) ... Mallory appeared in her 132nd career game, tying current Notre Dame assistant coach Niele Ivey (1996-2001) for second on the school's career games played list ... head coach Muffet McGraw registered win No. 575 in her 25th season at Notre Dame ... the Fighting Irish drew their fourth sellout of the season (all in the past six games), as well as their 15th sellout in the past three years and the 21st in school history.

NOTES: Notre Dame is just the second school ever to defeat both Connecticut and Tennessee in consecutive seasons, duplicating the feat first pulled off by North Carolina in 2005-06 (77-54 vs. Connecticut, 75-63 vs. Tennessee) and 2006-07 (82-76 vs. Connecticut, 70-57 vs. Tennessee) ... the Fighting Irish move to 6-1 against ranked opponents this season, including a 4-1 mark against top-10 teams (all of which were ranked No. 8 or higher in the Associated Press poll at tipoff) ... Notre Dame posts its largest win ever against a top-10 opponent, besting the 84-57 victory it recorded against No. 6/4 Duke on Nov. 21, 1998, at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish also set a school record for fewest points allowed to a top-10 opponent, with the old mark coming on Jan. 6, 2001, in a 67-46 win over No. 9/10 Rutgers at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame earns its second consecutive series win against Tennessee after losing its first 20 meetings with the Lady Vols — the victory also was its first in nine series games at Purcell Pavilion ... Tennessee's 44 points were the fewest scored by the Lady Vols in head coach Pat Summitt's career ... the 28-point margin of defeat was the second-largest in the Summitt era ... Notre Dame has won seven of its last eight meetings with SEC opponents, including both this year against top-10 SEC foes ... Notre Dame reaches the 20-win mark faster than any team in school history (in terms of calendar date), hitting that milestone eight days earlier than the 2000-01 Fighting Irish squad (Jan. 31, 2001 - 64-44 win at home over Providence) ... the Fighting Irish have posted at least 20 wins for the 18th time in 19 seasons (22nd in 25-year Muffet McGraw era) ... the Fighting Irish tied a school record with their 14th game of the season holding the opponent to 50 points or fewer (including the past four) ... Peters logged her fourth double-double of the year (15th of her career), adding a career-high 16 rebounds and career-best six assists ... Peters is the first Notre Dame player with 15 points/15 rebounds in a game since Jan. 31, 2009, when Lindsay Schrader piled up 19 points and 15 rebounds against Cincinnati ... Peters' 16 rebounds are the most by a Notre Dame player in a game since Jan. 13, 2007, when Erica Williamson had 18 rebounds at USF ... Diggins scored a season high-tying 27 points (also at No. 1 Baylor on Nov. 20) ... Novosel had her streak of 27 consecutive games scoring in double figures (second-longest in school history) snapped, finishing in single digits for the first time since March 7, 2011 (eight points vs. DePaul) ... the Fighting Irish had their fifth sellout of the season (all in the past seven games), as well as 16th in the past three years and 22nd in school history.

Head Coach Muffet McGraw

25th season at Notre Dame
578-212 (.732)
30th season overall
666-253 (.725)
Saint Joseph's (Pa.) '77

"If we searched for an entire year, I don't think we would find anyone better suited for our program."

With those words, former Notre Dame athletics director Gene Corrigan announced the hiring of Muffet McGraw as the third head coach of the Fighting Irish women's basketball program on May 18, 1987. Corrigan may not have realized it at the time, but he also ushered in an era of unparalleled success in women's basketball at Notre Dame, brought to life on the shoulders of a 5-foot-6 dynamo who accepts nothing less than the very best from herself, her players and her program.

Ask anyone familiar with women's basketball about McGraw and her Notre Dame program and inevitably, you'll hear the same two words — consistency and excellence. And it's no wonder, when you consider what McGraw and the Fighting Irish have achieved in the past quarter-century:

- The 2001 NCAA Championship, defeating Purdue in the title game, 68-66. McGraw is one of only eight active Division I coaches to guide her team to a national title.
- Two trips in the NCAA Division I national championship game, adding a berth in the 2011 final against Texas A&M. McGraw is one of just seven active Division I coaches (and 11 all-time) with multiple appearances in the NCAA national championship game — and one of only four active Division I coaches with multiple title-game berths AND a national championship to her credit.
- Three trips to the NCAA Women's Final Four (1997, 2001 and 2011). McGraw is one of just nine active Division I coaches to lead her team to three Women's Final Four appearances.
- Nine NCAA Sweet 16 trips, all in the past 15 seasons (1997-2011). The Fighting Irish are one of only eight programs in the nation that can make that claim.
- Ranks ninth among active NCAA Division I coaches with 666 career wins (reaching the 600-win milestone on Jan. 19, 2010, at Louisville in her 839th game, at the time tying for 10th-fastest to 600 wins in Division I history) and 18th among active Division I coaches with a .724 all-time winning percentage.
- 22 seasons with 20-or-more victories, including 18 in the past 19 years (1993-2012). Notre Dame also has posted eight 25-win seasons and three 30-win campaigns in the past 15 years (1997-2011).
- 18 NCAA tournament appearances, including a current string of 16 consecutive NCAA tournament berths (the sixth-longest active run of consecutive appearances and 10th-longest streak at any time in NCAA tournament history). During this current streak (1996-2011), Notre Dame has won at least one NCAA postseason game 14 times.
- 81 wins over ranked opponents, including 69 in the past 14 seasons alone (1998-2012). In addition, 27 of those wins have come against top-10 opponents, including six against top-five teams and three against No. 1-ranked squads.
- 229 appearances in the Associated Press Top 25 poll (including an active school-record streak of 90 consecutive weeks in the AP poll). McGraw is 11th among active Division I coaches and 20th all-time in terms of AP poll appearances (through the Jan. 30, 2012 poll). Notre Dame also has spent 116 weeks ranked among the top 10 teams in the nation, all in the past 14 seasons (1997-2012).
- 13 top-four finishes in the BIG EAST Conference during Notre Dame's first 16 years in that league (1995-96 through 2010-11). The Fighting Irish also won a share of the 2001 BIG EAST regular-season title.
- 15 consecutive top-20 recruiting classes, dating back to the incoming class of 1997 (and including the incoming class of 2011, ranked as high as No. 9 in the nation). Notre Dame is one of just three programs in the nation that owns an active streak of that length.
- Third on the all-time wins list (regardless of sport) in the 125-year history of Fighting Irish athletics, trailing only former men's/women's fencing coach Michael DeCicco (774-80 combined record from 1962-95) and the late men's tennis/wrestling coach Tom Fallon (579-268-4 combined from 1957-87).
- Far and away the winningest basketball coach (men's or women's) in school history, with noted men's skipper Digger Phelps second on that list (393 wins).
- A perfect 100-percent graduation rate for all players entering the program since 1987 who have completed their athletic and academic eligibility at Notre Dame (a spotless 64-for-64 success rate, including two 2011-12 fifth-year players who earned their diplomas in May 2011). The Fighting Irish have posted a perfect 100-percent NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) score in each of the past five years, and they are one of only four programs in the country to record a perfect GSR and play for the national title in the same season.

Add it all up and you have the framework for a Hall of Fame career. And, on June 11, 2011, that's exactly what McGraw became, as she officially was the first Notre Dame representative to be inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, an accomplishment now immortalized with a banner hanging in Purcell Pavilion.

Still, with all of those accomplishments in hand, McGraw has shown no signs of slowing down any time soon. In July 2008, the veteran head coach signed a contract extension that will keep her patrolling the Irish sidelines through the 2014-15 campaign.

"For nearly 25 years, Muffet has led our program with integrity and passion, and, of course, to much success," said Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., Notre Dame's president. "As we look forward to many more years together, I am confident that the excellence she has achieved on and off the court will continue."

Under McGraw's guidance, the past 17 seasons (1995-96 to 2011-12) have been the most successful in Notre Dame's history. Since joining the BIG EAST prior to that '95-96 season, the Fighting Irish have compiled an impressive 419-132 (.760) record, including a sparkling 210-63 (.769) regular-season mark in conference play, the second-best winning percentage in BIG EAST history. Notre Dame also has averaged nearly 25 victories per year during that span, with three 30-win seasons and eight 25-win campaigns to its credit. The Fighting Irish have won at least one NCAA Tournament game 14 times in the past 16 years, advancing to the Sweet 16 nine times (1997, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2008, 2010, 2011), the Final Four three times (1997, 2001 and 2011), the NCAA national championship twice (2001 and 2011) and winning the 2001 NCAA title.

Success for McGraw also has meant coaching great players. During her illustrious career, the Notre Dame skipper has coached 13 All-Americans, including 2001 consensus National Player of the Year Ruth Riley, and three Fighting Irish players who have returned in 2011-12 — guards Skylar Diggins and Natalie Novosel, and forward Devereaux Peters. McGraw also has worked with seven players who have been selected for USA Basketball National Teams, with those players going on to win a total of 12 medals (highlighted by Riley's gold with the '04 U.S. Olympic Team). In addition, McGraw has coached 24 players who have earned all-conference recognition a total of 51 times, including 18 first-team picks who have been chosen a total of 30 times, and has helped shape several other national award winners, namely two Frances Pomeroy Naismith award recipients (Niele Ivey in 2001, Megan Duffy in 2006) and 2002 United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) National Freshman of the Year Jacqueline Batteast.

Another sign of McGraw's success has been her ability to prepare her players for the next level. No less than 22 Notre Dame cagers have gone on to play professionally (domestically or overseas), including nine who either have been drafted or signed as free agents with WNBA teams. The past 11 seasons have seen the greatest influx of Fighting Irish talent into the WNBA, with seven Notre Dame players having been selected in the league's annual draft since 2001. Four of those players — Riley, Ivey, Kelley Siemon and Erica Haney — were starters on the '01 NCAA championship team, and five of the recent Fighting Irish WNBA draftees (Riley, Ivey, Batteast, Duffy and Charel Allen) earned All-America status during their careers at Notre Dame.

Dedicated to helping grow and further the sport in any way possible, McGraw has groomed 13 of her former players and/or assistant coaches who currently are serving on basketball staffs at either the high school or college level. Of those 13 proteges, five presently are Division I head coaches — 1988 Notre Dame graduate Sandy Botham (Wisconsin-Milwaukee), 1997 Notre Dame graduate and the school's all-time leading scorer Beth (Morgan) Cunningham (Virginia Commonwealth), Bill Fennelly (Iowa State), Kevin McGuff (Washington) and 1991 Notre Dame graduate Coquese Washington (Penn State). McGuff and Washington (along with current Fighting Irish associate coach Carol Owens) comprised McGraw's assistant coaching staff on Notre Dame's 2001 NCAA national championship squad, while McGuff and Owens also were on staff for the Fighting Irish during their run to the 1997 NCAA Women's Final Four.

A native of West Chester, Pa., McGraw earned her bachelor's degree in sociology from Saint Joseph's University (Pa.) in 1977. Following graduation, she coached for two seasons at Archbishop Carroll High School (50-3 record) in the Philadelphia suburb of Radnor, and two more at her alma mater as an assistant coach under Jim Foster (now the head coach at Ohio State). In 1982, McGraw was named head coach at Lehigh University, her teams finishing 88-41 (.683) during her five-year tenure.

McGraw and her husband, Matt, celebrated their 34th wedding anniversary in 2011 and make their home in Granger, Ind. They are the proud parents of 21-year-old son Murphy, who now is in his senior year at Indiana University.
