Things to Look For...

- A Temple win would be the first win in the Geoff Collins era.
- A Temple win would be the first against Notre Dame in program history.
- Sharif Finch is the only player on both rosters to have played in both previous matchups between the two schools. If he plays, he will have played in the entire series.
- Temple currently leads the country in blocked kicks since Ed Foley took over the unit in 2015. The Owls have 12 blocked kicks over that span and 17 over the last three seasons.
- Temple football has played 51 games since its 2013 season opener at Notre Dame. Phillip Walker started 47 of those 51 games. The other four starts came from Connor Reilly (3 starts) and Clinton 'Juice' Granger (1 start).
- Kicker Austin Jones currently sits seventh all-time in scoring with 182 points. Eight points will tie him for sixth with Cap Poklemba (190). Jones is also third all-time in field goals made (36). Ten will tie him for second with Bill Wright (46).

THIS WEEK

After much anticipation, game week is finally here. The Owls will fly out to South Bend, Ind. to take on the Notre Dame Fighting Irish. In Geoff Collins' first game as the Temple head coach, the Owls look to pick up the program's first-ever win over Notre Dame. Temple will not only see a career and program debut of their first-year head coach, but will also see a quarterback make their first career start. The Owls have had a four-way quarterback battle this summer - freshman Todd Centeio, redshirt freshman Logan Marchi, redshirt junior Frank Nutile and redshirt freshman Anthony Russo - all could see action on Saturday. Regardless of who plays, the quarterback will have a plethora of weapons at his disposal. The Owls return what could be one of the best receiving corps in the nation with redshirt senior Keith Kirkwood, senior Adonis Jennings and redshirt junior Ventell Bryant - not to mention a Doak Walker Award Watch List member in junior running back Ryquell Armstead.

Defensively, the Owls will return four starters - including three from the secondary. Seniors Sean Chandler and Artrel Foster are joined by junior Delvon Randall as those three starters. Temple has also added transfer cornerback Mike Jones to the mix who will likely provide solid minutes on defense and as a returner. The fourth Temple returning starter is junior Michael Dogbe. Dogbe looks to wreak havoc with the rest of the 'Wild Boyz.' Fellow defensive linemen Sharif Finch and Jacob Martin are returning to the mix this season and look to continue Temple's success on defense.

Kickoff is set for Saturday, Sept. 2 at 3:30 p.m. EST and will air on NBC, 97.5 The Fanatic and WHIP Radio.

LAST TIME v. NOTRE DAME

October 31, 2015. College Gameday. Primetime Football. There may not have been a more highly anticipated game in Temple football history than when the Owls hosted the Notre Dame Fighting Irish just two years ago. With ESPN's College Gameday in town, the city of Philadelphia was engrossed around Temple football. The game saw record views on national TV, as the Irish edged the Owls, 24-20. The Owls held a 20-17 lead with 4:45 remaining, but DeShone Kizer led the Irish down the field for the eventual game-winning touchdown with 2:09 left. Temple had one more chance to go down the field and make history, however, the Irish forced an a game-ending interception.

LAST TIME AT NOTRE DAME

The Owls started off the series with Notre Dame in 2013 and that was the only time that the Owls have traveled out to South Bend. The Fighting Irish took the series opener from the Owls, 28-6. Temple's only score of the game came on a Kenneth Harper 1-yard touchdown run in the final minute of the first half. The Notre Dame offense put up 543 total yards, averaging 8.8 yards/play.

UP NEXT

After Notre Dame, the Owls will have a two-game homestand. First, Temple will welcome Villanova to Lincoln Financial Field for the team's home opener (9/9). The following week, the Owls will be under the Friday night lights as they welcome in the UMass Minutemen (9/15).

THE 9

Wearing a single-digit jersey is considered to be one of the highest honors an Owl can earn. These are awarded to the student-athletes deemed by their teammates to be the toughest members of the team. Four players have carried over the honor from last season. Ventell Bryant, Sean Chandler, Nick Sharga, and Jacob Martin. Sharga has donned his number since 2015 and Chandler since 2014. Randall and Kirkwood earned theirs this spring. Three vacancies are waiting to be filled by the start of the 2017 season. Here is a list of Temple's TUFF Guys:

This Week

SHARIF GOES 3-3?

Since the start of the three game series vs. Notre Dame in 2013, redshirt-senior DE Sharif Finch is the only player to have the opportunity to play in the entire three-game series. Finch saw snaps in both of the previous two games (8/31/13 & 10/31/15).

COLLINS RETURNS

September 2, 2017 will mark just the second time in his life that head coach Geoff Collins will be at Notre Dame Stadium. The only other time Collins has stepped foot in the stadium was during the 2003 Sunburt Hall of Fame to Notre Dame Marathon. The marathon started at the College Football Hall of Fame and ended at the 50 yardline of Notre Dame Stadium. The first-year head coach repped bib number 398 and completed the race with a time of 3:39:23.

REMEMBERING HARDIN

The 2017 season opener will be the first game that the Temple Owls will play since the passing of Hall of Fame coach Wayne Hardin. The winningest football coach in Temple history, Hardin had an 80-52-3 record for 13 seasons (1970-82). He led the 1979 team to the Garden State Bowl where the Owls defeated California for their first bowl win. That 1979 squad finished 10-2 for the University's most wins ever in a season. That team also was ranked No. 17 in both the AP and UPI polls, the first time the Owls were in the national wire service polls.

NEXT MAN UP

Temple football has played 51 games since its 2013 season opener at Notre Dame. Former quarterback, Phillip Walker, started 47 of those 51 games. The other four starts came from Connor Reilly (3 starts) and Clinton 'Juice' Granger (1 start).

DEJA VU

September 2 will mark a new start for the Temple football program in more ways than one. Not only is it the start of the 2017 season, but both head coach Geoff Collins and the Owls' quarterback will be making their career starting debuts at their respective positions. All things common to 2013, the last time Temple experienced a coaching change.

Geoff Collins

A BRONX TALE

Among Geoff Collins' first coaching stops was tutoring the linebackers at Fordham University in the Bronx in 1996 under head coach Nick Quartaro. Three of Collins' top hires since coming to Temple were part of that same staff. Chief of staff Vinny Sinagra was the defensive coordinator, director of player personnel Tom Pajic handled receivers, and offensive coordinator Dave Patenaude was the special teams and quarterbacks coach.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

Geoff Collins has been creative with titles for new staff members and has received some attention for it. He named former college head coach Vinny Sinagra his "Chief of Staff" and promoted two graduate assistants into full-time positions - Dave Gerson was named "S.W.A.G. Coordinator" (Specialist With Advanced Graphics) and Pat Boyle to "Strategic Specialist."

SEC-OND TO NONE

Long thought of as the best conference in college football, the SEC was home to Geoff Collins for seven of the last 10 seasons. Collins served on Nick Saban's original Alabama staff in 2007 and then spent four seasons at Mississippi State and two at Florida before taking the head coaching position at Temple.

MAYHEM IS COMING

Geoff Collins came to Philadelphia with the title "Minister of Mayhem" and the Temple community quickly learned why. His Mississippi State and Florida defenses were designed to confuse offenses, cause havoc and create turnovers. However, his workouts and practices, for those not in the planning, look chaotic complete with fire engines, Easter bunnies, national flags, water guns, and more.

POSITION FLEXIBILITY

One of Geoff Collins' coaching philosophies is to incorporate position flexibility throughout his roster. He has always taught his defense globally so that players know what the man next to him is doing and so they can play each other's positions. Now that he controls the whole roster, that has led to many players being given the chance to play on both sides of the ball. Some of those are: Shaun Bradley (LB/RB), Keith Kirkwood (WR/DE), Freddie Booth-Lloyd (DL/FB), Dan Archibong (DL/OL), and Derrek Thomas (CB/WR).

MONEY DOWN

Head coach Geoff Collins believes that third down is where teams and players earn their money. For Temple, third down is now known as 'money down.' Throughout the game, fans will see Temple staff jumping up and down on the sidelines with money down signs. To show their support at home games, fans will be throwing fake money in the air on third down. The fake dollar bills will feature the face of Collins.

Offense

FOUR QUARTERS

For the first time in recent memory, there is a quarterback competition on North Broad. With the graduation of Phillip Walker (a free agent signee of the Indianapolis Colts), there are four candidates vying for the starting spot - redshirt junior Frank Nutile, redshirt sophomore Logan Marchi, redshirt freshman Anthony Russo and true freshman Todd Centeio.

TOTE THE RYQ

RB Ryquell Armstead enters the season out of the shadows of Jahad Thomas, Temple's leading ground gainer the past two seasons and currently a member of the Dallas Cowboys. Armstead led the Owls with 14 rushing touchdowns in 2016 and finished slightly behind Thomas in rushing yards (919/953). Last season, the duo were the only pair of running backs in FBS to each rush for 900+ yards and 13+ TDs.

MOVES LIKE JAGER

While junior Ryquell Armstead is the returning running back with the most experience, Jager Gardner enters the season as the top backup. Gardner owns the school record for the longest run from scrimmage with a 94-yard run in his first career start - at SMU in 2015.

SHARG-NATO

One of the smartest players on the team with a 3.79 GPA in kinesiology, Nick Sharga is also one of the best fullbacks in the nation. His bone-crushing blocks led the way for both Jahad Thomas and Ryquell Armstead to each rush for 900+ yards and 13+ TDs in 2016, becoming the only pair of running backs in FBS to accomplish that feat. Sharga wears a single-digit (#4) awarded to Temple's toughest players. However, Sharga, one of 11 children - all single births - insists that his mother is tougher than him.

TEMPLE AT A GLANCE

Temple is in the 4th largest media market in the country, with over 2.9 million TV homes according to Nielsen. The designated market area (DMA) is 7.6 million.

Temple is located in a region of 6.53 million people, and is only 95 miles from NYC and 120 miles from Washington DC. In fact, more than 40% of the US population is within a day's drive from Philadelphia.

Temple is the 26th largest public University in the country with over 41,000 students founded in 1884 and has 404 academic programs including five professional schools of law, medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, and podiatry.

Temple is a Research I institution, a Carnegie Classification in 2015 as the highest level and ranked by US News and World Report at 115 (6th) with an overall graduation rate of 70%, and has a full time retention rate for undergraduate students at 89%.

Temple is one of 11 institutions in the country with multi-year APR scores of 970 or greater for all teams including a 2015 multi-years APR score of 971. Temple has over 300,000 alumni around the world including over 170,000 alumni that live in the Philadelphia DMA.

Temple's athletic department has 19 sports and 500 student-athletes.

Temple has been bowl eligible six out of the last eight years. The Owls finished 10-4, won the AAC Eastern Division and were ranked in the Top 25 each of the past two seasons. They won the AAC Championship in 2016.

Temple posted the largest attendance gain during the 2015 season, playing in front of an average home crowd of 44,159, an increase of 20,789 per game. This excitement led ESPN to bring their popular pregame show, Game Day, to Philadelphia.

The Temple game played against Notre Dame in 2015 had a 3.9 national rating and an 18.1 local rating. It was ABC's highest ranking game ever in the Philadelphia area which is impactful given we are in the 4th largest media market in the country.

Temple's athletic facilities are among the finest in the country. The football team plays its games in the NFL stadium operated by the Philadelphia Eagles and there are ongoing discussions to build an on campus football stadium as well. The basketball arena is a state-of-the-art facility with a capacity crowd of 10,000. Over the last four years Temple has spent over $50 million for athletics multipurpose facilities with all the athletic facilities being state-of-the-art.

The University itself has over $400 million planned for capital projects over the next five years including a $170 million state of the art library.

The men's basketball team is led by two-time AAC Coach of the Year, Fran Dunphy, and is the 2015-16 AAC regular season basketball champions. The basketball program is the 5th winningest program in the history of college basketball.

UNDER THE HOOD

@TrizzyTrehood is the Twitter moniker for RB David Hood. That makes sense for a budding rap artist who is one of four in his family with the name David - he has a father, brother and son with the same name. While there is little confusion in the Temple locker room for the redshirt junior who enters the 2017 season second among active Owls with 329 career rushing yards, it was a bit confusing at Absegami High where both he and his brother David were running backs.

CAPTAIN KIRK

Keith Kirkwood has become the benchmark by which Geoff Collins' players will be measured. A solid player with a great work ethic on and off the field, Kirkwood impressed the new head coach throughout the winter/spring workouts so much that he was awarded one of the prestigious single-digit jerseys. Not only was it the first one handed out in the Collins' era but it was #5, Collins' old college number. Kirkwood was also the first player to exhibit "position flexibility" producing at his receiver spot and collecting a sack as a defensive end in the spring game.

SHOW AND TELL

With nearly 1,500 yards, Ventell Bryant enters 2017 as the team's most productive offensive player. He begins the year ranked in the Top 15 in school history in career receptions (93) and receiving yards (1,474). And if the redshirt junior adds his average of 46.5 receptions and 737 yards, he can move into the Top 2. An 800-yard season would make him Temple's all-time leader in that category.

WORLD WIDE LEADER

Not only is Bristol, Conn. home to ESPN, the World Wide Leader in Sports, but it's also home to redshirt sophomore quarterback Logan Marchi. Marchi played his high school ball at St. Paul Catholic where he tallied 112 passing touchdowns and 9,702 passing yards.

MOVING ON UP WITH GEORGE AND WIESE-Y

Temple returns a number of offensive linemen and they will have a familiar face coaching them. Chris Wiesehan, who coached the position from 2014-15, returns to coach the offensive line after spending a season with the running backs. Last season, 46-year coaching veteran George DeLeone tutored the linemen before departing.

DREADED DUO

The Temple offensive line could be anchored this season by a pair of athletes flaunting a stylish hairstyle - dreadlocks. Redshirt senior Leon Johnson and redshirt junior Jaelin Robinson are each expected to play at tackle and could be the two bookends to the offensive line.

Defense

WILD BOYZ

Temple's defensive line has been dubbed with the nickname "Wild Boyz" over the past decade and the unit has lived up to the special billing. Two NFL first round draft choices - Muhammad Wilkerson (2011, NY Jets) and Haason Reddick (2016, Cardinals) - and a handful of other pro players have learned their trade at Temple. DT Michael Dogbe, and DEs Sharif Finch and Jacob Martin lead a solid young group who hope to follow in their footsteps.

SHARIF DON'T LIKE IT

The 1982 hit record, "Rock the Casbah," by The Clash foresaw the attitude an unborn Sharif Finch had on punting. "Sharif don't like it..." is the lead line of the chorus and Finch has proven that he doesn't like opponents to punt, blocking five in his career, the most among active FBS players.

FIGHT IN THE DOGBE

The lone remaining starter on the defensive line from a year ago, Michael Dogbe is expected to continue his own development and emerge as a leader for the group. Not an easy job for a unit that lost three players to the professional levels - Haason Reddick (Arizona Cardinals), Praise Martin-Oguike (Miami Dolphins), and Avery Ellis (Ottawa Redblacks). A workout warrior with a 495 bench press and 705 squat, Dogbe is used to hard work.

UNDISPUTED CHAMP

The nickname "Champ" belongs to the two-time second team all-conference safety Sean Chandler. He has quickly become one of the most important players on Temple's roster. In fact, he was moved from corner to safety last offseason to take advantage of his playmaking skills. He enters 2017 ranked among the school's all-time leaders with seven interceptions and is the active leader with 186 tackles and three fumble recoveries. He's also earned the respect of his teammates as being the first freshman ever to be given one of the prestigious single digit numbers, awarded to Temple's nine toughest players each season.

THE ULTIMATE WEAPON

Philadelphia football fans are familiar with a guy named Randall being "the ultimate weapon." Randall Cunningham was dubbed that in 1990 on the cover of Sports Illustrated. Now, Temple's Delvon Randall takes on the role. Randall was a ball-hawking takeaway machine a year ago with 65 tackles, 6.0 TFLs, four interceptions, and two fumble recoveries - most among returning Owls. He earned a prestigious single-digit jersey (#2) awarded on the eve of the spring game.

CALLING MR. LINEBACKER

Last season's starting linebackers all graduated and it's too early to know who the starters will be in 2017. However, following spring ball the WILL spot was led by William Kwenkeu and the SAM position was held down by Sam Franklin. This prompted Shaun Bradley, the leading MIKE linebacker, to consider changing his first name.

LUCKY NUMBER 7?

Amongst all of Div. I college football, Temple ranks seventh in fewest starts by linebackers on a team's current roster. For the Owls, the combined seven starts comes from Jared Folks (5 starts) and Chapelle Russell (2 starts).

A-E-I-O-U

Former Temple basketball player Bill Mikvy lives in school folklore as "The Owl Without a Vowel." Now Temple University can also claim "The Owl with Every Vowel." Sophomore DT Karamo Dioubate's surname is complete with all five vowels. Dioubate hopes one day to not just live alongside Mikvy in uniqueness but in Temple's Hall of Fame.

Special Teams

ISN'T THAT SPECIAL?

Ed Foley joined Temple's football program in 2008 and is now working under his fourth head coach. He has held many roles, including interim head coach for the 2016 Military Bowl, and continues as the special teams coordinator for the third straight season. During that time, the kicking game has flourished with both Austin Jones and Aaron Boumerhi among the most accurate kickers in the nation. Since 2015, the Owls lead the nation with 12 blocked kicks.

BLOCK PARTY

Since the start of Ed Foley's tenure as the team's special teams coordinator, the Owls have led the NCAA in block kicks (punts, field goals and PATs). Over the last three years, the Owls have registered at least five blocked kicks per season.

| Total | 2016 | 2015 | 2014 | Punts | FG/PATs | |

AUSTIN POWERS

In 2015, Temple received so many team and individual awards that most overlook the record breaking season kicker Austin Jones had. That year, Jones broke the Temple record for most field goals made in a season (23), most points by a kicker (113), and best field goal percentage for anyone with over 20 attempts (82.1%). He carried that over to 2016 setting the school record with 19 consecutive field goals made before suffering a torn ACL in game six at Memphis. He currently ranks seventh in school history with 182 career points and third in field goals with 36.

BOOM BOOM

Aaron Boumerhi entered the 2016 season as a walk-on freshman and didn't play through the first five games. Following Austin Jones' ACL injury in the fourth quarter of game six, Boumerhi was thrust into the leading role and made the most of his opportunity, finishing the year 15-17 on field goals, 74 points, second team all-conference honors and a scholarship.

Miscellaneous

TEMPLE TUFF

The phrase "Temple Tuff" is synonymous with the fight and grit of Temple's football team. However, it was coined by legendary Temple basketball coach John Chaney whose teams also were noted for their hard-nosed, lunch-pail passion by which they played.

WE'RE MOVIN' ON UP

The Owls saw seven players go to the pros after a very successful 2015 season topped by 10 more players in 2016. Three players in each year were drafted, including DE/LB Haason Reddick who was selected by Arizona with the #13 overall pick in 2016. OL Dion Dawkins and CB Nate Hairston joined Reddick in 2016 while CB Tavon Young, DL Matt Ioannidis, and LB Tyler Matakevich were the 2015 draft choices. There are currently 18 former Owls playing in the NFL.

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl 50 saw the Denver Broncos defeat the Carolina Panthers 24-10 in a low-scoring battle. A huge key to the success of the Broncos that day was the kicking of Brandon McManus who went 3/3 on field goals and tacked on one extra point. He also happens to be a proud Temple grad. Like McManus, Temple has a number of alumni who have experienced success on the NFL's biggest stage. Out of the 21 times that an alum from Temple has played in the Super Bowl, 16 of them happen to be on the winning team. Notable names include former Ravens' RB Bernard Pierce (2011), former Patriots' DL Dan Klecko (2004,2005) and former Redskins' DB Todd Bowles (1983), who is now a head coach for the New York Jets. Former Owls head coach Bruce Arians was also an offensive coordinator for the Steelers in 2009, helping head coach Mike Tomlin win his first Super Bowl that year.

TEMPLE MADE

"Temple Made and Temple Proud," has been a mantra from recent graduates of Philadelphia's largest university. Two current football players truly embody that ideal. Red-shirt sophomore DB Kareem Ali is the son of two former Temple student-athletes, Tasha, a track star, and Kareem Sr., a football player. Freshman DL Casey Williams was born at Temple University Hospital.

REPEAT CHAMPIONS

Temple football has played in both American Athletic Conference Championship games since the conference instituted one in 2015. Temple joins UConn women's basketball, USF men's tennis, and Houston baseball to participate in every one of the AAC Championships in their respective sports.

BEST OF CLASS

Temple's senior class enters its fourth season with 26 victories. That ranks tied for ninth all-time in school history over a four-year span. However, with a full season remaining, this year's class has a chance to become the all-time winningest in school history [31 wins (2011), 30 (2012), 28 (1931, 1974, 1975), 27 (1930, 1973, 1976), 26 (1932, 1979, 1980, 1981, 2017)].

SMARTY PANTS

On its current roster, Temple has nine players that have already graduated with their bachelors degrees. This ranks Temple in the top 20 nationwide. Those players are OL Cole Boozer, OL Brian Carter, DL Sharif Finch, DB Artrel Foster, OL Leon Johnson, DB Mike Jones, WR Keith Kirkwood, OL Adrian Sullivan, and DL Julian Taylor.

IT'S ALL ACADEMIC

While excelling on the field, Temple football student-athletes have also performed well in the classroom. Enrolled in 41 different majors, the team posted a combined cumulative GPA of 2.88 in 2016-17. That was the highest in two years, although it marked nine consecutive semesters of 2.7+. Temple remains one of two (Purdue) football programs in the nation whose multi-year Academic Progress Rate has never decreased and its recent Graduate Success Rate (86) ranked 14th in the nation amongst all FBS institutions. In the past two bowl seasons Temple ranked in the top three in number of graduates on the roster and this year should be no different – nine players enter the season with degrees in hand and an additional 14 students will complete their degrees prior to possibly competing in a bowl game - thus marking our third consecutive year of 20+.

OWL SCHOLARS

In an effort to recognize the outstanding academic accomplishments of Temple University's student-athletes, Temple Athletics introduced the Owl Scholars Program in the Fall of 2016. Through team apparel, student-athletes on all of Temple's 19 sports regularly have the opportunity to wear items that represent their athletic lives while on campus or in the classroom; the Owl Scholars Program aims to accomplish the reverse - provide an easily identifiable symbol of academic success for student-athletes to wear on their respective field or court of competition.

The Owl Scholars Patch has been designed to pay homage to the rich history of the Temple Owls, while invoking images of the infamous speech of Temple

University's founder Russell Conwell, Acres of Diamonds. The three stars above the regal owl symbolize the three different ways a student-athlete can earn the honor of having the patch included on their uniform/game warm-up:

- 1) 3.0 semester GPA in previous term
- 2) 3.0 cumulative GPA prior to bringing of semester
- 3) Successfully completed his/her undergraduate degree at Temple

- 49 Football players will wear the patch this season
- 43 Football players wore the patch last season
- 18 Football players have worn the patch in both seasons

Position by Position Roundup

QUARTERBACKS

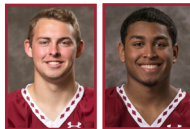

Unlike the past three years, there will be an open competition for the 2017 starting quarterback after the departure of four-year starter Phillip Walker who broke nearly every passing record at Temple. Heading the unit will be first-year offensive coordinator David Patenaude. He comes off a five-year stint at Coastal Carolina, where he served in the same role for the Catamounts.

The two quarterbacks coming back with game experience from last year are redshirt sophomore Logan Marchi and redshirt junior Frankie Nutile. After redshirting his freshman year, Marchi spent most of the 2016 season backing up Walker. He saw action in five games and was the only other quarterback on the roster to lead the Owls on a scoring drive. Nutile saw action in three games during the 2016 season after being the primary backup for Walker during 2015.

Marchi

Nutile

Russo

Centeio

Anthony Russo spent his freshman year redshirting. A local product from Archbishop Wood, Russo was a very highly touted recruit for the Owls in 2016. The coaches expect him to compete for the starting quarterback position.

The 2017 recruiting class welcomes the addition of Todd Centeio (West Palm Beach, Fla./Dwyer High) who enrolled into school early and will benefit from working with the Owls during the spring.

RUNNING BACKS

Leading the running backs this season will be first-year coach Tony Lucas, who comes from Georgetown serving in the same position.

Returning for his junior year, Ryquell Armstead looks to lead the unit. His backfield mate from a year ago, Jahad Thomas, was lost to graduation. Armstead led the team in rushing touchdowns (14) and was second on the team in rushing yards (919) behind Thomas. In 2016, Armstead and Thomas were the only two backs to each rush over 900 yards and 13 TDs. Armstead had four 100-yard rushing games last season including vs. USF, where he ran for a career-high 210 yards and a 76-yard touchdown which was the longest play from scrimmage by any Owl last season. His power, size and speed will help lead the Owls' rushing attack once again.

Armstead

Junior Jager Gardner and redshirt junior David Hood have shined in the Owls' offense when opportunities presented themselves. Hood looked impressive early in 2016 for the Owls before being sidelined with an injury. He had 16 carries for 87 yards on the season including a career-high 47 yards vs. Army in the opener. Gardner had two rushing TDs last season. Both were top special teams performers.

Bursting onto the scene last year was true freshman wide receiver Isaiah Wright. A multi-position threat, Wright saw action in many different roles for the Owls last season including RB, WR, punt returner and even QB in the Wildcat formation. He was the third leading rusher on the team with 235 yards and caught eight balls for 74 yards. He also had a 31-yard touchdown at Tulane.

Johnny Forrest and Tyliek Raynor both redshirted their freshman year and hope to make more of an impact for the Owls during the 2017 campaign.

WIDE RECEIVERS

This unit is led by Stan Hixon who brings 36 years of coaching experience to Temple this season.

Hixon inherits a very talented unit that returns everyone from the 2016 squad. The success of this unit starts with redshirt junior Ventell Bryant. He is one of four Temple players returning with a single-digit jersey, given to the toughest players on the team. Last season, Bryant led the team in receptions (54), yards (895) and tied for second in receiving touchdowns (4) while playing in just

Bryant

Jennings

11 games due to an injury he suffered early in the season. He also led the team in first down receptions with 40.

Redshirt senior Keith Kirkwood and senior Adonis Jennings are two former transfers who have really stepped up big for the unit. Kirkwood was second on the team in receptions (42), receiving yards (648) and tied for second in receiving touchdowns with four. He impressed head coach Geoff Collins enough to be awarded a single digit (#5) this spring. Jennings finished the season with 27 receptions for 474 yards and four touchdowns. He really came on strong towards the end of the season posting two 100-yard outings in his last three games.

Redshirt junior Brodrick Yancy has proven to be a tough slot receiver when healthy. Last year, he played in 11 games, starting four, with 24 receptions before suffering a season-ending leg injury. Another redshirt junior, Marshall Ellick, provides much needed depth. Last year he played in nine games with five starts and finished the year with 12 receptions and 141 yards.

Bursting onto the scene last year was true freshman Isaiah Wright. A multi-position threat, Wright saw action in many different roles for the Owls last season including RB, WR, punt returner and even QB in the Wildcat formation. He was the third-leading rusher on the team with 235 yards and caught eight balls for 74 yards.

Sophomore Randle Jones and redshirt sophomore Travon Williams provide sparks in the kick return and punt return game, and add much depth to a unit loaded with talent. Jones served as a primary kick returner last year while Williams saw primarily special teams action.

Freddie Johnson and Brandon Mack are two players who were part of the 2016 recruiting class and ended up redshirting. Anthony Cruz and John Ruza were added on as walk-ons in 2016 and T.J. Backer, Eric Kiewiak and Brandon McCann were added in the spring of 2017.

The 2017 recruiting class welcomes the additions of Jaden Blue (Hightstown, N.J./Peddie Prep), LJeron Holder (Marlboro, N.J./Manalapan), and Jeremy Jennings (Downingtown, Pa./Downingtown East).

OFFENSIVE LINE

This unit will be headed by Chris Wiesehan. Entering his fourth year at Temple, he was the running backs coach during the 2016 season but had spent the prior two seasons as the offensive line coach. Wiesehan has 22 years of coaching experience, including 19 years in college and three years in the pros. He comes into a unit that lost first-team all-conference tackle Dion Dawkins (Buffalo Bills' 2nd round pick) and center Brendan McGowan, both of whom started every game for the Owls in 2016.

Johnson

Fair

Hennessey

Carter

Boozer

Even though this unit has suffered some big losses, it returns a lot of talent including Leon Johnson, Adrian Sullivan and Jovahn Fair who are all returning starters. Johnson and Sullivan started every game for the Owls last season while Fair started 13 out of the 14 games and saw action in every game. They were all big parts of a unit that helped Ryquell Armstead and Jahad Thomas become the only pair of running backs in the country to each rush for over 900 yards and 13 TDs.

Brian Carter returns for his redshirt senior season and has the most game experience of any Owls' offensive lineman appearing in 36 games over his three-year career with 12 starts. He was a big part of the rotation last year and saw action in every game at guard. Jaelin Robinson saw increased time as the season went on including in the last 10 games of the season rotating in at right tackle. He hopes to see an increased role for the Owls this year with the absence of Dawkins.

The Owls used a lot of multiple tight end packages to open up big holes in the running game. Cole Boozer, a converted tight end, played a huge role in the success of the unit. He saw action in every game last year and has played in 27 games over his three seasons entering his final year.

As a true freshman last year, Matt Hennessey showed early promise before sitting the rest of the season and redshirting. He has played multiple positions on the line for the Owls at the guard and center spots and hopes to see an increased role with the loss of McGowan.

James McHale, Gordon Thomas, Aaron Ruff and Nick Apostolu are all entering their redshirt junior years and give the Owls much-needed depth across the board at multiple positions. The quartet has played in a combined 22 games throughout the course of their careers. As redshirt freshmen, Benson Israel saw action in three games last year.

Darian Bryant and Vincent Picozzi both redshirted last season and hope to earn an increased role in 2017.

The 2017 recruiting class sees the additions of Chris Jimenez (Collegeville, Pa./Perkiomen High) and Griffin Sestili (Sewickley, Pa./North Allegheny High). The Owls added Andrew Eisenson (Durham, N.C./Northern) as a walk-on freshmen this summer.

TIGHT ENDS & FULLBACKS

Ed Foley takes on leading the tight ends in his fifth year at the position. He has the longest tenure at Temple of any coach on the current staff as he enters his ninth year with the Owls. Foley will look to replace honorable mention all-conference tight end Colin Thompson and leading pass catcher Romond Deloatch for the upcoming season.

Redshirt junior Chris Myarick and redshirt sophomore Jake Robinson come back to the Owls as the most experienced players on the unit. Myarick had three starts last year and recorded his first career reception at Penn State. The former walk-on was awarded a scholarship earlier this spring. Robinson started the opener vs. Army. Both players saw action in every game last season in multiple tight end packages and on special teams.

Myarick

Yeboah

Kenny Yeboah saw action in one game last year vs. Charlotte before an injury forced him to redshirt. Redshirt sophomore Domenic Nigrelli saw action in one game last year. Steve Petrick was sidelined with an injury his true freshman year and ended up redshirting.

The 2017 recruiting class sees the addition of Emil Moody (Philadelphia, Pa./Neumann-Goretti High).

The fullback position is led by redshirt senior Nick Sharga. As a sophomore, he was awarded a single-digit jersey, a Temple tradition given to the nine toughest players on the team voted on by the team. Last season he had 17 carries for 98 yards with one reception and was a major reason for the success of the running game. Redshirt junior Rob Ritrovato is the backup fullback who saw action in 13 games on special teams and had three carries for eight yards.

Sharga

DEFENSIVE LINE

The "Wild Boyz," nickname of Temple's defensive line unit, will be under new leadership this season after suffering some key losses such as Haason Reddick, Praise

Finch

Taylor

Martin

Martin-Oguike, Avereé Robinson, and Avery Ellis. The position is still loaded with talent and plenty of players to make a difference. They will be led by first-year coach Jim Panagos who spent the past 10 seasons at UCF (2007-11), Rutgers (2012-15), and Pitt (2016).

When healthy, seniors Sharif Finch and Jullian Taylor have been a force to be reckoned with. Over four years, Finch has played in 40 games and had 89 tackles, 16.5 TFLs, 6.0 sacks and two interceptions. Last season Finch was sidelined for most of the season due to a knee injury. Taylor had eight tackles in just three games last year before suffering a season-ending injury as well. Both ended up redshirting, and are expected to return.

Jacob Martin is a tough kid who has provided the Owls with quality playing time throughout his three-year career. He earned a single-digit jersey, given to the nine toughest players on the team as voted on by his teammates. He has played 37 games with three starts in his three years with the program.

Two key defensive tackles returning to this unit are redshirt juniors Michael Dogbe and Freddie Booth-Lloyd. Dogbe is the lone starter from the unit returning from last year. He was tied for fifth on the team in TFLs with 5.0. Booth-Lloyd's size and quickness make him a difficult matchup to block having played in 26 games with two starts throughout his career.

Dogbe

Redshirt senior Greg Webb, sophomore Karamo Dioubate, and redshirt freshman Dan Archibong provide more depth to a talented unit. In their first year with the Owls, they played in a combined 27 games last season. A transfer from Hutchinson College, Webb had seven tackles and 1.5 TFLs, while as true freshmen, Dioubate and Archibong combined for six tackles.

Dana Levine and Deandre Kelly are players who will be returning for their redshirt sophomore years. They add more depth to the unit and have played in a combined seven games throughout the course of their careers.

Quincy Roche was part of the 2016 recruiting class and ended up redshirting this past season. Hez Trahan is a redshirt junior who joined as a walk-on and provides more depth to the unit. Redshirt sophomore Prosper Mekoba rejoined the team to add depth.

Two players, redshirt junior Zack Mesday and redshirt freshman Taiyir Wilson, are making the conversion to defensive end from linebacker and fullback, respectively.

Twins Anthony and Michael Nobile joined the team as walk-ons in the spring. The 2017 recruiting class sees the additions of Malik Burns (Marbury, Md./Lackey High), Arnold Ebiketie (Silver Spring, Md./Albert Einstein High), Ifeanyi Maijeh (Far Rockaway, N.Y./Poly Prep High), and Casey Williams (South Philadelphia (Pa.) High). Williams was an early enrollee and participated in spring practices.

LINEBACKERS

This unit will be headed by first-year coach Andrew Thacker who comes to Temple from Kennesaw State. Thacker will have his work cut out for him as he has to replace the starting trio of Jared Alwan, Stephaun Marshall, and Avery Williams.

The one player returning with the most experience is redshirt junior Jared Folks. Last year, Folks started in five games at middle linebacker and played in all but one game. He finished 12th on the team in tackles with 32 and had one interception.

Franklin

Bradley

Russell

Shaun Bradley played in 11 games as a true freshman and was in and out of the lineup as he battled a season-long injury. He showed enough promise to play at each of the linebacker positions.

As a true freshman, Sam Franklin saw action in every game on special teams and finished the year with four tackles. He is converting to linebacker after spending time at cornerback and wide receiver last season. Redshirt sophomore Chapelle Russell saw action in 10 games and started in two before a knee injury sidelined him for the remainder of the season. He had 25 tackles and one sack on the season.

Jeremiah Atoki, William Kwenkeu, and Chris Smith are players on the unit who each saw action in 10+ games last year on special teams. The trio combined for 25 tackles last year.

Junior Todd Jones and redshirt sophomore Daishaun Grimes each saw action in seven games last season, and show much talent for the future going forward. Kevin DeCeasar and Mike DiFrancesco are both former walk-ons who saw little game action last season.

Isaiah Graham-Mobley was part of the 2016 recruiting class, and Sam Kramer joined the team as walk-ons. Both ended up redshirting the 2016 season.

The 2017 recruiting class sees the addition of Audley Isaacs (Philadelphia, Pa./Valley Forge High).

CORNERBACKS

This unit will be headed up by first-year coach Cory Robinson. Robinson comes from the University of Toledo, where he served the same position during the 2016 season. The unit suffers the key loss of starting corner Nate Hairston (Indianapolis Colts' 5th round pick).

Position by Position Roundup

Returning to the unit as a starting corner is redshirt senior Artrel Foster. He started all but one game last year, led all corners in total tackles with 34, and had one forced fumble. Redshirt junior Derrek Thomas hopes to provide the Owls with another big season as he saw action in 13 games last year and finished up with 29 tackles and seven pass breakups.

The unit also has really high expectations for graduate transfer Mike Jones, who comes to Temple from North Carolina Central. Over his career, he had 35 starts and racked up 114 tackles, 36 pass breakups, and 11 interceptions with the Eagles.

Senior Cequan Jefferson and sophomore Linwood Crump are both players who saw a lot of time on special teams last year and have played in a combined 42 games throughout their careers. Kareem Ali is a talented individual who suffered an injury in the second game last year and did not return until the end of the season. Booker McLean joined the team as a walk-on in 2016 and will be entering his redshirt junior season.

Adding depth to the unit is Kimere Brown, part of the 2016 recruiting class, who redshirted last season.

The 2017 recruiting class sees the additions of Christian Braswell (Washington, D.C./Friendship Collegiate Academy) and Ty Mason (Silver Spring, Md./James Hubert Blake High). Freshman walk-on Joshua Allen (Sicklerville, N.J./Winslow Township) joined the team this summer.

SAFETIES

First-year defensive coordinator Taver Johnson will also tutor the safeties. He has coached college football over 20 years with his most recent stops being the defensive backs coach at Purdue and Ohio State.

Johnson's job with the safeties will be infinitely easier as he returns one of the best tandems in the country in Sean Chandler and Delvon Randall. Chandler is returning for his senior year as a two-time second team all-conference selection. In just 10 games last year, he had 51 tackles, 3.5 TFLs, a sack, two interceptions and three forced fumbles. He is also a "Temple Tuff" single-digit jersey member, which he has worn since his freshman year. Randall started every game for the Owls last season and finished tied for second on the team in tackles with 65. He also led the team in takeaways with six, which was tied most by an individual in the American Athletic Conference. Randall earned a single-digit jersey this spring.

Redshirt junior Jyquis Thomas and sophomore Ben- ny Walls provide the Owls with depth at the position. Walls had 12 tackles on the season to go along with an interception while Thomas finished the year with seven tackles. Keyvone Bruton and Amir Tyler are both freshmen who ended up redshirting last year.

The 2017 recruiting class welcomes the additions of George Reid (Glenside, Pa./Abington) and Collin Washington (Philadelphia Pa./Central High).

SPECIAL TEAMS

Once again, Ed Foley will be heading the unit which he has done since 2015. The unit will have to decide between two fabulous kickers in senior Austin Jones and sophomore Aaron Boumerhi. Jones started the season going 11-13 on field goals before suffering a season-ending ACL tear at Memphis. In 2015, he set the school record for field goals made (23) and points by a kicker (133). When Boumerhi filled in for Jones the second half of the season, he connected on 15-17 field goals including a career-high four made in the Military Bowl vs. Wake Forest. He earned second-team all-conference honors.

Senior Alex Starzyk was suspended by the team in the spring and returned to the team in August. He has been the Owls' punter ever since his freshman season. Last season, he had 44 punts for an average of 39.5 yards, with 17 punts inside the 20. His longest punt of the season was 55 yards, but he excelled at the rugby-style punt which left many kicks unreturnable. Walk-on freshman Connor Bowler (Glenmoore, Pa./Downingtown West) will get a long look this summer.

The unit is also strengthened by long snapper Corey Lerch, who has held the spot down ever since his freshman season in 2014.

Redshirt senior Josh Lang and freshman Cole Lerch add depth at long-snapper.

Head Coach
Western Carolina '94

1st Season at Temple

Geoff Collins accepted the head coaching position at Temple University on December 14, 2016, becoming the 27th head football coach in Owls' history. Armed with 23 years of coaching experience, Collins has proven to be a driven leader who is not bashful about the word love. He has demonstrated a love for his players and they have reciprocated that passion in their actions and words.

"I could not speak more highly of Coach Collins," said Houston Texans' LB Benardrick McKinney who played for Collins at Mississippi State. "He has done so much for shaping the player I am today. He coached aggressively with a tremendous amount of energy and fun. He loved his players. Coach Collins would do anything for us, on and off the field. Not only did he train us to be the best defensive players we could be on the field, but also the best men we would be off the field."

Collins' creative spirit has paid dividends on and off the field. Whether devising original game-plans, creating new methods to teach, or splashy ways to pursue recruits, Collins' ideas are mimicked throughout college football.

He has been recognized as one of the leading assistant coaches in the nation numerous times and is the only coach to be a Broyles Award nominee, given to the nation's best assistant coach, at three schools [FIU (2010), MSU (2014) and Florida (2015)].

"The excitement over Temple football has been growing for years, and Geoff is going to ensure that Temple's reputation for quality on the field and in the classroom is going to continue," said President Richard M. Englert. "Our student-athletes are great representatives of this university and make me proud every time I see them play."

"Geoff Collins is an extraordinary leader, and it's clear he is the right person to take an already successful program and advance it to the next level," added the University's Board of Trustees Chairman Patrick J. O'Connor. "We are thrilled to have him join the Temple University community."

Collins is an alumnus of Western Carolina University, where he played defensive back and linebacker. Collins has coached all over, beginning at his alma mater, and most recently working in the SEC at both Florida, where he helped the Gators to back-to-back SEC East Division Titles, and Mississippi State in the role of defensive coordinator. Over the course of his career, Collins has helped guide 31 of his student-athletes to careers in the National Football League.

"As soon as I met with Geoff I knew right away that this was the right coach at the right time for Temple University," said Director of Athletics Dr. Patrick M. Kraft. "Well beyond Geoff's acumen as a coach of hard, physical football, he shares our values of embracing the student-athlete and demanding excellence in all that we do."

Collins first began at Florida in 2015, hired by Jim McElwain to be on his initial staff at the school. Collins' opportunity to serve as defensive coordinator at Florida was his second defensive coordinator job in the SEC, as he held the same title at Mississippi State for two seasons.

The Florida defense was relentless under the guidance of Collins, finishing the season ranked eighth nationally in 2015. His Gators' defense was also ranked third in the SEC during that time, only allowing 310.2 yards per game. Collins' defense also set a number of other records during his time in Gainesville, including being one of only seven FBS teams in the last 20 years to not allow a touchdown against three FBS Power 5 schools on the road, in a single season.

In the 2015 season alone, Collins helped prepare three players who eventually earned first-team All-SEC honors, including CB Jalen "Teez" Tabor, DL Jon Bullard, and CB Vernon Hargreaves. Hargreaves was also a consensus first team All-American in 2015. In total, five of Collins' defensive players were selected in the 2016 NFL Draft; two first round selections (CB Vernon Hargreaves and S Keanu Neal) along with DT Jonathan Bullard (3rd), LB Antonio Morrison (4th), and DE Alex McCalister (7th), along with Brian Poole who started for the Falcons in the Super Bowl after joining Atlanta as a rookie free agent.

The Florida team capitalized on the success of its defense in 2016, finishing 8-4 on the year and earning its second straight SEC East Division Title. The unit finished among the nation's best in multiple categories - first in pass efficiency (92.87), second in pass defense (148.5), third in defensive scores (5), fourth in red zone defense (71.8), fifth in total defense (293.0), sixth in scoring defense (16.8 ppg), and seventh in first downs allowed (206). Collins also helped three of his players earn All-SEC selections in the 2016 season. Florida's defensive unit developed seven more draft picks in 2017, including four in the first two rounds.

Prior to his time at Florida, Collins was a member of the coaching staff at Mississippi State. Originally hired to serve as the linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator for the 2011 season, Collins was promoted to the position of defensive coordinator in 2013.

Mississippi State had tremendous success while he was on the coaching staff, most notably the 2014 season, when the Bulldogs when they were ranked #1 in the country for most of the season and finished with a 10-3 record. This 10-win season was the best finish at the school in 15 years, and concluded with a berth in the Orange Bowl. Collins' defense was dominant that season, producing the most sacks in the SEC (37), as well as the #1 ranked red zone defense and ninth ranked scoring defense in the country.

The season prior, Mississippi State went 7-6 and defeated Rice in the Liberty Bowl, 44-7. Collins' unit was one of the best in the SEC. In his first season as full-time defensive coordinator, his defense ranked among the SEC's top five in a number of categories, including fourth in total defense (349.3 yards per game), fourth in rushing defense (144.2 yards per game) and fifth in passing defense (205.2 yards per game). He also held his last three opponents during the 2013 season to just 11.3 points per game.

In 2012, the Bulldogs finished the year 8-5 and made an appearance in the Gator Bowl. That year, Collins tutored DB Darius Slay, a second team All-SEC selection. Along with Slay, who was picked in the second round of the NFL Draft, Collins helped prepare a number of other Mississippi State players for careers in the NFL, including Jim Thorpe Award winner CB Jonathan Banks (2nd round), Will Redmond (3rd round), and DT Josh Boyd (5th round).

During his first season on the staff, Mississippi State finished the season 7-6 as the Bulldogs went to the Music City Bowl, defeating Wake Forest, 25-17. In Collins' first season as a co-defensive coordinator for the Bulldogs, he helped mentor DT Fletcher Cox, a first team All-American and first team All-SEC selection in 2011. Cox was selected 12th overall in the first round of the NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles, and earned All-Pro honors in 2014 and 2015.

Collins' ability to mold a defense was evident well prior to his time in Mississippi State and Florida. Before coaching in the SEC, he sharpened his teeth as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida International University in 2010. During that season, his defense was ranked first in the Sun Belt Conference in total defense, scoring defense, pass defense efficiency, and turnover margin. This, off of the prior year when the team was ranked 119th in total defense nationally. This dramatic turnaround led Collins to be named a finalist for the Broyles Award in 2010, an award for the top assistant in college football.

Before joining the staff at FIU, Collins was a linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach George O'Leary at UCF for two seasons. In 2009, he was part of a staff the led the Knights to an 8-5 record and a berth in the St. Petersburg Bowl. Even though UCF did not make a bowl game in 2008, he had the defense ranked second in Conference USA in total and scoring defense.

Collins also spent some time working at both the University of Alabama and Georgia Tech. In 2007, he worked at Alabama as the director of player personnel under head coach Nick Saban and had the #1 recruiting class in the country. That class included Mark Ingram Jr., the 2008 Heisman Trophy winner and the first-ever by an Alabama player. He spent the 2006 season at Georgia Tech as director of player personnel. Georgia Tech secured their best recruiting class in team history that year as well.

Between the years of 2002 and 2005, Collins was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater Western Carolina. Collins' defense was continually ranked near the top nationally at the FCS level while under his guidance. In 2005, the team was ranked first nationally in pass defense and 18th in total defense. The team also led the So-Con conference in rushing defense for the first time in program history in that season.

From 1999-2000, Collins served as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech under O'Leary. During that time, the Yellow Jackets had a 25-12 record, including reaching three consecutive bowl games. In Collins' last season at Georgia Tech he was promoted to tight ends coach under current Houston Texans' head coach Bill O'Brien and the Yellow Jackets defeated the Stanford Cardinal in the 2001 Seattle Bowl, 25-12.

Collins got his chance at being a defensive coordinator at Albright College from 1997-1998. Before that, he was a linebackers coach for the Fordham Rams for the 1996 season. In 1995, he was an assistant coach for Franklin High School in North Carolina. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Western Carolina University, contributing as a student assistant during the 1993 and 1994 seasons.

Collins played college football at WCU as an outside linebacker and defensive back from 1989-1992. He totaled 194 career tackles during his four year career with the Catamounts. As a junior, he was the team's fifth-leading tackler (68), while registering 6.0 tackles-for-loss. As a senior, he helped Western Carolina to a 7-4 record, totaling 62 total tackles and 5.0 tackles-for-loss.

The Conyers, Ga., native was born April 10, 1971. He and his wife, Jennifer (formerly Haynes), have one daughter, Astrid (one).

What They're Saying About Geoff Collins

"Geoff Collins was a great hire for Temple University. He is a very organized and detailed coach who will get maximum effort from his team. Geoff also happened to be an outstanding recruiter who evaluates talent very well. He will hit the ground running."

- George O'Leary, former head coach Georgia Tech and UCF

"Geoff did an outstanding job for us during his time at the University of Alabama, and we are very excited to see him get this head coaching opportunity. He is a fantastic hire for the Temple Owls. He brings an extraordinary amount of positive energy and enthusiasm to his job. Geoff is a very intelligent football coach and someone who works extremely hard to help his team be successful. We are very happy for Geoff and wish him the best of luck at Temple."

- Nick Saban, Alabama head coach

"They're going to get a guy that motivates players. A guy that really understands the game and understands both sides of the ball, not just the defensive side. A relentless, competitive recruiter, and a guy that's now been around at some places to see how he can establish his own kinds of ways of doing things."

- Jim McElwain, University of Florida head coach

"Geoff Collins is the perfect choice to be the head football coach at Temple University. Geoff is a tremendous person with a brilliant defensive mind. He is a relentless recruiter, and he will always put the players first! I'm so excited that he and Jennifer are coming to Philadelphia and know that he will lead Temple into a brilliant and successful future."

- Matt Rhule, Baylor head coach

"Geoff Collins is an outstanding, high-energy coach that is an even better person. He is a tremendous motivator, players love playing for him, and he gets the most out of all of his guys. He is a tireless recruiter with an infectious personality. He's been a winner after every stop of his career, and it was only a matter of time before he became a head coach. I am extremely happy for Geoff, and I commend Temple for hiring one of the bright, up-and-coming head coaches in the game."

- Dan Mullen, Mississippi State head coach

"Geoff Collins has a proven record of success in one of the best conferences in the country and he accomplished it by being innovative off the field and developing talented football players on the field."

- Kirby Smart, Georgia head coach

"Going back to our time together at Alabama, it was evident that Geoff was very intelligent and very driven. He is a hard worker with an incredible motor and a great grasp for the game. He's another great addition to our league and I know Temple will be well prepared with an aggressive attitude each week."

- Major Applewhite, University of Houston head coach

"Geoff was with us for one year [at Georgia Tech] and did a great job heading up our recruiting and was a very energetic, hard-working guy. I know he will do a great job at Temple."

- Chan Gailey, former New York Jets' offensive coordinator

"Coach Collins is one of the best. He has really helped my career in a big way...Very energetic...he demands excellence out of his players. He's going to push you hard and love you hard at the same time. When we break down every meeting he tells us that he loves us....I remember one play...I made a lot of good plays, interceptions, PBUs, tackles but this one time I gave up a 60-yard touchdown and when I got to the sidelines he wasn't mad. He asked me what happened and I told him I messed up. He said 'I love you.' That's not what you expect to hear from a coach in that moment."

- Jalen "Teez" Tabor, Florida, Detroit

"Geoff is always thinking big and always spoke the truth. He helped everybody. He was big on teaching. Geoff is super competitive. He meant a lot to the guys he was coaching. That's why the players loved him so much. He loves his guys. He will lay it all on the line for his guys. He demands greatness out of everyone no matter whether you're the starter or the backup."

- Fletcher Cox, MSU, Philadelphia

"I loved him man. One of the best defensive coordinators I've ever had, one of the best coaches I've ever had. You guys got a great coach in Coach Collins. I can't say enough about him. I miss him. He's got a winning attitude. You couldn't have picked a better person and a better coach. He's going to change the program and make it a big time program...Man, I mean he's a super smart guy. He puts people in the perfect position to make plays. My one year that I did play under him, my junior year, I think I had my best season. I was All-American that year. I had five picks. Coach Collins, he's going to do a great job putting his players in the best position to succeed on the field."

- Johnathan Banks, MSU, Chicago

"As a defensive coordinator, he was awesome. He's an energetic coach; which everyone likes to see. He's going to bring a lot to the players. He's going to give the guys a lot to play for...I feel like he's going to bring a lot of knowledge to the team. I know playing against him, he knew just about everything as defensive coordinator and he heard a lot of plays that could be very helpful to the offense. He'll be a great head coach with his knowledge of the game. He's going to be a really great coach and I'm just excited for him at Temple, now that he's a head coach there. He's going to bring the guys a lot of life. They'll love to play for him. They're going to have a lot of edge when they go out there and play. I'm confident in what he can make those guys do, with play-calling and everything else he brings to the table."

- Preston Smith, MSU, Washington

"I could not speak more highly of Coach Collins. He has done so much for shaping the player I am today. He coached aggressively with a tremendous amount of energy and fun. He loved his players. Coach Collins would do anything for us, on and off the field. Not only did he train us to be the best defensive players we could be on the field, but also the best men we would be off the field. I took the same aggressive, energetic, 'go out and have fun' mentality of football that Coach Collins instilled in us back at Mississippi State and applied that to how I play the game in the NFL. Coach Collins always said 'Go out and play with Juice' and that is exactly what I do every time I step out on the field...Coach Collins has done a lot for my career and always pushed me to be a greater man. It was an honor to play for him and have the opportunity to be a student of his game. Thank you, Coach Collins."

- Benardrick McKinney, MSU, Houston

"Coach Collins is a guy who truly cares about the well-being of his players on and off the field no matter where you are on the depth chart. He has high energy and his attention to detail is through the roof. Coach Collins is one of the best coaches I've had over my career."

- Alex Anzalone, Florida, New Orleans

"Geoff Collins passion for the game is unbelievable. He was more than a coach to me. He was more like family!"

- Brian Poole, Florida, Atlanta

"Geoff Collins is a major reason I decided to attend UCF because he is a passionate and enthusiastic coach who loves the game of football. His attitude and desire to improve are both infectious and can be felt throughout the team. He is extremely knowledgeable and I'll be rooting for him to succeed at Temple."

- Blake Bortles, UCF, Jacksonville

"He's an amazing guy. Most important, he's not just a coach, he's a friend. He's a people person. He's a great coach and a great mentor. I hope he coaches long enough that my son can play for him."

- Chris Jones, MSU, Kansas City

"Coach Collins always bring the juice and the swag! Always in a good mood, always ready to help and always up tempo! He's the ultimate players coach. I loved my time with him!"

- Vernon Hargreaves, Florida, Tampa Bay

"True definition of a player's coach. As a player under him our relationship was always deeper than just ball itself. Always ask genuinely about the family and how I was, and he did that with all his guys. During the combine I trained with a few guys he coached previously at Mississippi State. All those guys would tell you the same thing. On defense he brought a whole new meaning to third down with the energy and teaching the importance field position. Just all around genius of a coach. I wish could've played under Collins as a head coach. Temple future is definitely bright with one of the best coaches in the game running things."

- Alex McCallister, Florida, Philadelphia

Conference Championship Game

On Saturday, December 3, 2016, the American Athletic Conference will hold its second Conference Championship Game. Kickoff will be at 12:00 noon and will be televised nationally by ABC or ESPN. The game will pit the divisional champions from the East and West divisions.

The divisional champions will be the teams from each division with the highest winning percentage in all conference games — both divisional and non-divisional. In the event of a two-team tie within a division, the head-to-head result between the tied teams will determine the divisional champion. The site of the American Athletic Conference Football Championship will be the home venue of the divisional champion with the best record in conference games.

2017 Temple Football

Since he was first asked about depth charts and two-deeps, Geoff Collins has insisted that he doesn't believe in them. He coaches his players to be "Above the Line" (ATL). Those who are ATL are ready to play and can see game action, while others work to get to that level. This season in place of a traditional two-deep that often omits some players who see action and lists others who seldom enter the game, Temple will list those players who are ATL (in numerical order by position). Those players who started the previous week (in this case last season's Military Bowl), will be printed in bold.
