SCOUTING THE IRISH —

Notre Dame, defending BIG EAST West Division regular-season champions in 2000-01 returns four veteran players who led the Irish to a 20-10 overall mark and 11-5 record in league play a year ago. Last season, the Irish returned to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 1990 and advanced to the second round.

The Irish lost two key starters in point guard Martin Ingelsby and two-time BIG EAST Player of the Year Troy Murphy, but return four players who with considerable experience in the starting lineup.

Senior tri-captains David Graves (Lexington, Ky.), Ryan Humphrey (Tulsa, Okla.) and Harold Swanagan (Hopkinsville, Ky.) return along with junior Matt Carroll (Horsham, Pa.). All four were in the Irish starting lineup a year ago.

Humphrey and Swanagan will anchor a Notre Dame frontline that will be tested early on because of its lack of depth up front. Humphrey returns as the Irish's top returning scorer, rebounder and blocked shots leader as he averaged 14.1 points, 9.0 rebounds and 2.72 per game while starting all 29 games he appeared in last season. Swanagan made 15 starting appearances as a junior and averaged 4.2 points and 3.4 rebounds.

Graves, who could finish his Irish career as the all-time leading three-pointer shooter, has averaged double figures in each of his three seasons. He owns a 13.1 career scoring average and 180 career three-pointers. Carroll will be in the Notre Dame starting lineup for the third straight season. He has started 60 of the 67 games he has played in during his career. Last season he was was of just two players who started all 30 games and averaged 12.4 points and 5.0 rebounds. Carroll, who led the Irish in three-pointers last season with 65, forms one of the best outside shooting combinations in the country with Graves. The two combined for 127 of Notre Dame's total of 219 three-pointers.

With the loss of Ingelsby in the backcourt, the starting point guard duties will be handed over to freshman Chris Thomas (Indianapolis, Ind.). The first Mr Basketball from Indiana to attend Notre Dame, he was a McDonald's and Parade All-American a year ago after averaging 23.4 points, 3.9 rebounds, 5.7 assists and 3.7 steals and leading his Pike High School team to its second Indiana state championship in four years.

The loss of Murphy in the frontcourt and the transfer of Ivan Kartelo leaves Notre Dame with a year young frontline will be very young. Expect junior Jere Macura (Split, Croatia), sophomore Tom Timmermans (Driehuis, Netherlands) and freshman Jordan Cornette (Cincinnati, Ohio) to see significant playing time. Macura was more of a perimeter player last season, but will move closer to the basket to better utilize his inside talents. Cornette averaged 14.0 points and 7.0 rebounds and 4.0 blocked shots in his final scholastic campaign while earning all-state honorable mention honors.

The trio of Graves, Carroll and Thomas will enable the Irish to have a strong perimeter and backcourt game. In addition, look for sophomore Torrian Jones (Morrisville, Pa.) to bolster Notre Dame's play as he will have a greater role on the team.

Sophomore Chris Markwood (South Portland, Me.) was sidelined all of last season following knee surgery, but is expected to see considerable playing time in 2001-02, especially as a defensive stopper.

The Irish again will look to embrace that same philosophy as well continue to have a presence on the defensive boards.

EXHIBITION GAME RECAP —

The Notre Dame men's basketball team was impressive in its first exhibition test of the season as the Irish, defending BIG EAST West Division champions, cruised to a 108-75 victory over the Sport is War.com All-Stars. Notre Dame displayed a balanced scoring attack with six players finishing in double figures.

Senior Ryan Humphrey had 21 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, in addition to blocking five shots, while classmate David Graves recorded a double-double of his own as he finished with 20 points, 10 rebounds and seven assists. Junior Matt Carroll tied for game-high scoring honors as he contributed 21 points.

Freshman point guard Chris Thomas had 14 points and nine assists in his debut while playing 29 minutes. Sophomore Torrian Jones added 11 points off the bench, while junior Jere Macura finished with 10 points and six rebounds. Harold Swanagan was the only starter who did not score in double figures as he finished nine points, but had eight rebounds, four assists and three blocked shots in 30 minutes of action.

Notre Dame jumped out to a 52-36 halftime advantage while only trailing once in the contest. The Irish shot 51.3 percent from the field while holding its opponent to just 39.5 percent from the field. Notre Dame also owned a 58-39 advantage on the boards.

The Irish shot 40.0 percent from three-point range (10-25), but struggled from the foul line hitting just 18-30 (.600) from the charity stripe.

HEAD COACH MIKE BREY —

Mike Brey is in his second career as the Notre Dame head coach and seventh in the collegiate ranks. He was named the 17th head coach in the program's history on July 14, 2000 following five seasons (1995-2000) as head coach at the University of Delaware where he led the Blue Hens to an overall record of 99-52. In his first season with the Irish, he guided Notre Dame to a 20-10 record and 11-5 BIG EAST mark in claiming the league's West divisional championship, the first conference title in school history. In addition, he helped Notre Dame earn an NCAA tournament berth for the first time in 11 seasons as the Irish advanced to the second round for the first time since 1989. Brey has an overall record of 119-62 (.657) as a head coach. He earned his first victory as Irish head coach on Nov. 18 with a 104-58 triumph over Sacred Heart, which also marked the 100th of his coaching career and came in the 152nd game as a head coach. While at Delaware, Brey guided the Blue Hens to a 99-52 record during his tenure as his teams earned berths in three postseason tournaments. Under Brey, Delaware appeared in two NCAA tournaments ('98 and '99) and played in the National Invitation Tournament in his final season (2000). Prior to his arrival in Newark, Del., he spent eight seasons (1987-95) on the Duke sidelines along Blue Devil head coach Mike Krzyzewski, and before that stint was an assistant coach at DeMatha High School under legendary coach Morgan Wootten from 1982-87.

THE CAPTAINS —

Seniors David Graves, Ryan Humphrey and Harold Swanagan will serve as Notre Dame's tri-captains for the 2001-02 campaign. Both natives of the state of Kentucky, Graves and Swanagan hail from Lexington and Hopkinsville, respectively, Graves averaged 13.8 points and 4.7 rebounds last season, while Swanagan netted 4.1 points and 3.4 rebounds. Humphrey was the second-leading scorer and rebounder for the Irish a year ago with averages of 14.1 points and 9.0 rebounds.

FIRST YEAR SUCCESS FOR BREY —

Notre Dame's 19 wins during the regular season under Mike Brey represented the most wins by an Irish coach in his first season. He also became just the second coach in school history to take his team to the NCAA Tournament in his first year as a head coach and the only first-year coach to lead his team for a first-round victory. John Dee also made the tournament in his first season in 1964-65, but lost in the first round to finish 15-12.

WING-ING IT —

The perimeter play of outside shooters David Graves and Matt Carroll give the Irish a deadly three-point shooting arsenal. The duo made 127 (57.9 percent) of Notre Dame's 219 three-point field goals last season and attempted 323 of team's 570 shots from beyond the arc. Carroll shot 40.9 percent from three-point range, while Graves made 37.8 percent of his attempts.

IRONMEN —

They saw action in 30 games as freshmen and juniors and played in 37 contests in their sophomore season. Graves has earned 81 starting appearances during this three seasons, while Swanagan has made 51 starts.
