Irish Head To Georgia For Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational

The Notre Dame men's golf team continues its rugged coast-to-coast schedule this weekend when it travels to Statesboro, Ga., for the 29th annual Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational, hosted by Georgia Southern. The Irish, who have played in Florida and California already this spring, will be making their first appearance in the event, which is named in honor of the late legendary broadcaster (and Indiana native) Chris Schenkel.

Notre Dame is coming off a 12th-place finish at the USC Collegiate Invitational back on March 3-4. The Irish will be looking to break through this weekend in a tournament that features seven Top 25 squads among its 18-team field. The tough opposition should come as no surprise to Notre Dame, with Irish having already competed in seven Top 40 tournaments in their first seven trips this year, including Top 25 events in the past three outings.

Quoting Coach Kubinski ...

"Georgia Southern is our biggest event of the season. We're on the NCAA bubble, and we need a solid finish in Statesboro against one of the strongest fields of the year. That's nothing new for us, since both Sawgrass and USC's events were also very strong. We need to pick up our play, though. Grabbing more wins than losses is imperative. Our young lineup has gained experience and I look for us to break out this week.

"We're looking for a faster start than we've had. When we do get that solid start, it'll give us the springboard we've needed. We've played with several top-ranked teams for a round or two. We just haven't always started that well or put three good rounds together. However, we're growing and once we get a little momentum, I expect these young guys to break out in a big way."

Did You Know?

Notre Dame has ties to two of the most famous players in golf history.

Billy Casper won 51 PGA Tour titles, including three majors (1959 & 1966 U.S. Open; 1970 Masters) and was sixth on that tour's all-time victories list upon retirement. He also logged nine wins on the Senior PGA Tour (now the Champions Tour), was an eight-time member of the U.S. Ryder Cup Team and was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1978. However, before turning pro, Casper attended Notre Dame in 1950 and won the Western Junior National Championship, which was contested at the old Notre Dame Golf Course. His Irish career was cut short when he was called away to military service in the Korean War.

Walter Hagen, Jr., was a three-year monogram winner at Notre Dame from 1938-40, helping the Irish to three consecutive NCAA Championship berths, including a sixth-place finish in 1938. If the name sounds familiar, it should be — his father, Walter Hagen, Sr., won 40 PGA titles, including 11 major championships (five PGA Championships, four British Opens and two U.S. Opens) in his storied career, ranking third behind Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods. The elder Hagen also was a six-time U.S. Ryder Cup captain, and five years after his death in 1969, he was part of the inaugural induction class for the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Dates and Times

Teams will play single rounds (18 holes) on each day of the tournament, beginning at 9 a.m. (ET) on Friday and Saturday and at 8 a.m. on Sunday. All three rounds will use a split-tee start from the first and 10th holes — on Friday, Notre Dame will be paired Kentucky and LSU, beginning at 9:45 a.m. from the No. 10 tee and continuing at nine-minute intervals. Tee times for the final two rounds will be based on the team standings after the previous round's play.

Following The Irish

Live scoring for the Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational will be provided through the Golfstat web site (www.golfstat.com). In addition, complete results will be posted on the official Notre Dame athletics web site (UND.com). The latest information from the tournament, including results, scheduling updates and weather delays, also will be available on the Notre Dame Sports Hotline (574-631-3000).

Furthermore, results will be available via the Irish ALERT text-message system, which provides fans with regular updates on Notre Dame's progress at the Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational through text messages sent to their cell phone. For more information or to sign up, visit the men's golf page of the official Notre Dame athletics web site (UND.com).

The Tournament Format

A total of 18 five-man teams (90 participants, plus six additional golfers competing on an individual basis) will be taking part in the Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational. Conventional collegiate golf team scoring rules will apply, with the lowest four scores in the five-man lineup for each round counting toward the team total. Scores by golfers competing on an individual basis do not count to the team score.

The Teams

Besides Notre Dame and tournament host Georgia Southern, the remaining teams in the 18-team field for the Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational are: Alabama, UAB, Auburn, Augusta State, Boston College, Florida, Kentucky, LSU, Michigan State, Minnesota, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Carolina State, North Florida, South Carolina and Tennessee.

According to the latest edition of the Golf World/Nike Golf Top 25 coaches' poll that was released Wednesday, seven ranked teams will be competing in this weekend's tournament — top-ranked Alabama, No. 9 Tennessee, No. 10 Florida, No. 11 Auburn, No. 15 Michigan State, No. 16 South Carolina and No. 23 North Carolina. What's more, UAB also has earned 10 points in this week's poll, which would put the Blazers in a tie for 35th if the poll were extended.

Meanwhile, Sunday night's ratings in the Golfweek/Sagarin Performance Index show that a full two-thirds of this weekend's field (12 teams) are ranked among the top 50 in the nation. Seven of those teams are in the Golfweek Top 25: No. 2 Alabama, No. 8 Tennessee, No. 11 Auburn, No. 12 Florida, No. 15 Michigan State, No. 20 South Carolina and No. 23 North Carolina. Also on the first page of the rankings are: UAB (29th), North Carolina State (38th), Augusta State (44th), North Florida (46th) and LSU (48th).

In addition, Wednesday's updated Golfstat rankings also indicate 12 of this weekend's participants are appearing in that service's Top 50. Top-ranked Alabama sets the bar, followed by No. 6 Auburn, No. 9 Florida, No. 13 Tennessee, No. 17 South Carolina and No. 18 Michigan State. The second half of the rankings leaderboard includes: No. 27 North Carolina, No. 31 UAB, No. 40 North Florida, No. 41 North Carolina State, No. 47 Augusta State and No. 50 LSU.

1944 NCAA Champion • 1937 NCAA Runner-Up • 33 NCAA Postseason Appearances

Head-To-Head

Notre Dame has previously faced 12 of the other 17 teams in this weekend's field during the 2007-08 season, compiling a 3-11-2 (.250) record against those schools. For the season, the Irish are 35-52-4 (.407) against Division I varsity opponents, with a 6-37-3 (.163) record against Golfweek Top 50 clubs (1-19 vs. the Top 25).

The Course

Recognized as one of the finest courses in the Southeast, the Forest Heights Country Club is located in Statesboro, Ga., and has played host to the Southern Conference Tournament, the Georgia State Golf Association Four-Ball Tournament and the Southeastern Amateur, as well as the Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational.

Forest Heights opened in 1947 and was designed by George W. Cobb. It features wide, tree-lined fairways that allow for forgiveness off the tee, but the real challenge of this course lies on its undulating greens. Water also will come into play on a handful of holes, especially on the back nine.

Noting The Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational

- ◆ Notre Dame is participating in the tournament, hosted by Georgia Southern, for the first time. In recent years, the Irish have traveled to the Peach State during the spring, but it's been to play in Augusta State's tournament, which usually takes place around the first weekend in April. This year, Notre Dame had to forgo that event as it will be hosting the first-ever Irish Spring Invitational (a 36-hole event) on April 5 at the Warren Golf Course on the Notre Dame campus.
- ◆ For the first time this spring, the Irish have changed around their travel squad for this weekend's tournament. Sophomore Carl Santos-Ocampo gets the call in the No. 3 position, making his first varsity start since the Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic back in the fall. Santos-Ocampo has looked sharp in two spring tournaments this year (once as an individual, once on the "B" team) with a 74.50 stroke average and a tie for 10th place with a career-low 221 (+8) at the Charleston Southern Spring Kickoff on March 3-4.
- ◆ With the addition of Santos-Ocampo to the lineup, Notre Dame will feature arguably the youngest starting five at the Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational, with two freshmen and two sophomores making up the bulk of the Irish travel squad.

Last Time Out: USC Collegiate Invitational

Paced by a third-place tie from junior Josh Sandman, Notre Dame finished in 12th place at the USC Collegiate Invitational, which wrapped up March 4 at the North Ranch Country Club (par 71/6,869 yards) in Westlake Village, Calif. The Irish shot a three-round total of 73-over par 925 (318-302-305) at the 14-team event, which was won by the host school with a score of 885 (+33).

Sandman carded a seven-over par 220 (72-75-73) at the USC tournament to post his highest individual finish since a career-best runner-up showing at the 2006 Boilermaker Invitational. The Notre Dame veteran ended the tournament just two shots behind medalist Tim Sluiter of USC (218, +5), who competed as an individual participant and outdistanced the 80-man field.

Sophomore Doug Fortner ended up in a 39th-place tie during his homecoming, shooting a 17-over par 230 (81-74-75) after fighting through blustery conditions during the opening round. Another southern California native, freshman Connor Alan-Lee tied with sophomore teammate Kyle Willis in 56th place at 21-over par 234 -- both players carded rounds of 82-75-77 during the tournament. Willis was making his spring season debut and played

Irish Among Nation's Elite Programs In Golf Digest Rankings

The Notre Dame men's golf program has been rated ninth in the nation, according to the latest in-depth Golf Digest rankings released in the August 2007 issue of the magazine. The Irish were cited for their impressive combination of athletic and academic success, as well as the quality of the program's new facilities and the accomplishments of its coaching staff.

Notre Dame was ranked among the top 35 in all three categories evaluated in the Golf Digest study. In the "golf-first" rating, which heavily weights a program's performance on the course through both adjusted scoring average and player growth during the past four seasons (2003-04 through 2006-07), the Irish checked in at No. 35. Under the "academics-first" classification, which depends largely on the school's standing in the latest U.S. News & World Report rankings and the golf program's graduation rates, Notre Dame was 14th in the nation. However, when combining those two rankings and factoring in facilities, coaching and climate (location) — the components of the "balanced" Golf Digest ranking — the Irish made their biggest impression, placing ninth in the country, second among all programs north of the Mason-Dixon Line, and tops in the BIG EAST Conference.

"We are understandably thrilled with the 2007-08 Golf Digest program rankings," Notre Dame head coach Jim Kubinski said. "We think this only confirms what we've believed for quite a while — that we have the pieces in places to compete as one of the elite programs in the country, both on the course and the classroom. The greatest days for Fighting Irish golf are still to come and we couldn't be more excited about what lies ahead."

In addition, Notre Dame's facilities were singled out as the third-best college golf footprint in the nation with a 98 rating — only Stanford and Duke had higher totals. The Irish have made tremendous strides in their physical plant during the past decade, beginning with the 2000 debut of the on-campus Warren Golf Course, designed by Bill Coore and PGA Tour great Ben Crenshaw and rated among the nation's top college and public layouts. The course already has hosted five BIG EAST Championships, the 2005 NCAA Central Regional, a 2004 U.S. Amateur Championship qualifier, and three Western Amateur Championship qualifiers in its eight-year existence.

Notre Dame's latest facility addition opened in September 2006, with the completion of the $2.1 million, 10,333-square foot Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility, located on the grounds of the Warren Golf Course. The Rolfs Facility features a 5,000-square foot indoor short game area, six covered tee stations that include state-of-the-art video equipment for instant coaching feedback, office space for the Irish men's and women's coaching staffs, and a fully-furnished lounge area with separate locker room areas for both teams.

The complete 2007-08 Golf Digest rankings in all three categories, as well as a full explanation of how the ratings were determined, can be found by going on-line at <http://www.golfdigest.com/rankings/college/2007/09/collegegolfrankings>.

as an individual. Senior tri-captain Greg Rodgers finished tied for 75th place at 30-over par 243 (85-78-80), while freshman Tyler Hock completed the Irish scoring in 77th place at 32-over par 245 (83-81-81).

Young Guns

Notre Dame has gotten a significant boost from its underclassmen, with its two lowest scorers (and five of the top six) being either freshmen or sophomores. Freshman Jeff Chen (73.67) has played exclusively as an individual or "B" team member, while sophomore Doug Fortner (73.68) and junior Josh Sandman (74.00) have been the cornerstones of the Irish varsity squad. Sophomore Kyle Willis (75.08), freshman Tyler Hock (75.56) and sophomore Carl Santos-Ocampo (75.75) also have contributed on the Notre Dame travel squad, with each making at least one varsity start this year.

Captains Courageous

Notre Dame's three seniors have been selected as team captains for the 2007-08 season. Mike King, Eddie Peckels and Greg Rodgers all are serving in that capacity for the first time in their careers.

The .500 Rule

According to a new rule passed by the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Committee, teams must finish with a winning head-to-head record (i.e. better than .500) against Division I varsity opposition to be considered for a berth in postseason play. Notre Dame currently has a 35-52-4 (.407) record this season.

Things You Should Know About The Irish

- ◆ Notre Dame has won six BIG EAST Conference titles in its 12-year league affiliation, stringing together three consecutive crowns from 1995-97 and again from 2004-06. The Irish also have made 33 NCAA postseason appearances in their history (most recently in 2006 with a trip to the NCAA East Regional), winning the 1944 national title and finishing second in 1937.
- ◆ Notre Dame has taken its play to new levels in recent years, posting three of the top seven single-season stroke averages in school history since head coach Jim Kubinski took over as head coach in January 2005. The Irish also have carded nine of the top 12 tournament scores (54 holes) in program history during the Kubinski era, including a school-record 842 (-22) at the 2006 BIG EAST Championship.
- ◆ Notre Dame's impressive resurgence of late has been augmented by its play against nationally-ranked opponents. In fact, since Kubinski arrived under the Golden Dome, the Irish have defeated 14 Top 25 teams (according to Golfweek) and posted 14 top-five tournament finishes, including three event titles (most recently the '06 BIG EAST Championship).
- ◆ Kubinski himself was nominated for a place on the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, after being placed into consideration by the Indiana Section of the PGA. Approximately 400-500 people are chosen annually from the 30,000 PGA professionals nationwide for a few select places on the GOLF Magazine list, whose membership includes such notables as Hank Haney, Butch Harmon, David Leadbetter and Rick Smith.

Next Up: National Invitational Tournament (March 23-25)

Notre Dame heads to the Valley of the Sun for the National Invitational Tournament, to be held March 23-25 at the Arizona National Golf Club in Tucson, Ariz. Among the schools joining the Irish and host Arizona in this year's field are Arizona State, Iowa, New Mexico, UNLV, Tulsa and Virginia.

1944 NCAA Champion • 1937 NCAA Runner-Up • 33 NCAA Postseason Appearances

JIM KUBINSKI

Head Coach • Fourth Year at Notre Dame Springfield College (1993)

One of the nation's top young golf teachers, Jim Kubinski is in his fourth season as the head coach at Notre Dame. Having assumed the post on Jan. 28, 2005, Kubinski is just the sixth head coach in the 78-year history of the Irish men's golf program, inheriting a storied tradition that includes the 1944 national championship, 19 top-10 NCAA Championship finishes and 33 NCAA postseason appearances.

"We feel Jim is one of the rising stars in the golf coaching community and someone who can continue to develop our program into a perennial national contender," Notre Dame director of athletics Kevin White said.

It hasn't taken long for Kubinski to make his mark at Notre Dame and reward White's confidence in his abilities. In his first tournament at the helm of the Irish, just one month after setting foot on campus, Kubinski helped guide Notre Dame to the championship of the 2005 NOKIA Sugar Bowl Tulane Invitational, winning the title on the first hole of a sudden death playoff against UNC Wilmington. It was the first of two tournament crowns in the 2004-05 season for Notre Dame and made Kubinski the first Irish men's golf coach since 1961 to win the opening event of his career. That season, Rev. Clarence Durbin, C.S.C., led the Irish to a 23.5-6.5 dual-match win over Western Michigan.

That was the start of what has been a solid four-year run for the Notre Dame skipper, who piloted the Irish to consecutive BIG EAST Conference titles in 2005 and 2006, and back-to-back NCAA regional appearances both years. He also has an overall record of 260-259-14 (.501) record and 14 wins over teams ranked in the Golfweek Top 25. What's more, Notre Dame has regularly collected votes in the Golf World/Nike Golf Top 25 poll and has risen as high as No. 12 in the Golfweek rankings (Oct. 2, 2005).

Under Kubinski's guidance, Notre Dame has registered 14 top-five finishes, including three tourney titles (two coming in sudden-death playoffs). The Irish also have carded three of the top seven single-season stroke averages in school history, following a 299.89 mark in 2004-05 (seventh all-time) with a school-record pace of 292.97 in '05-06 and a 295.71 mark last season (second all-time). In addition, Notre Dame has fired nine of the top 12 single-round scores in school history since Kubinski arrived on campus, including impressive final-round postseason efforts at the 2005 NCAA Central Regional (282, +2) and the 2006 BIG EAST Championship (school-record 272, -16). The latter score highlighted a 12-stroke comeback victory over Louisville, the second-best rally in the storied history of the Irish men's golf program, and led the Notre Dame's selection as the Golfweek National Team of the Week (May 1, 2006) for the first time in program history.

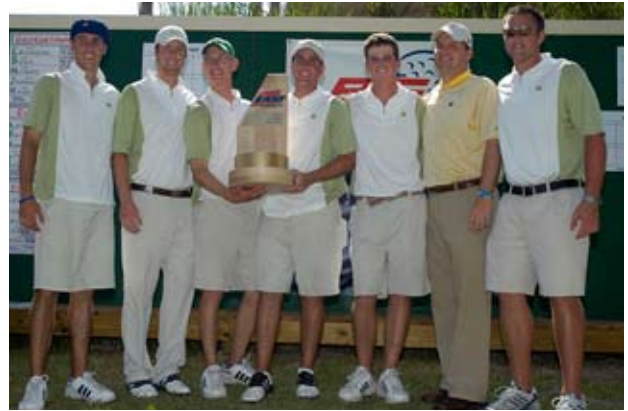

Individually, Kubinski has produced impressive results with several Irish players in a short span of time. Cole Isban became the first three-time PING All-Midwest Region selection (2005-07) in program history under Kubinski's tutelage, and graduated in May 2007 as the school record holder for single-season stroke average (72.71 in 2006-07), and career stroke average (73.76). Josh Sandman got a late start to his college career in '05-06 due to an injury, but since he hit the links, he has been superb, posting a 73.82 career stroke average in 68 rounds (24 tournaments) that puts him on pace to threaten Isban's school record. Thus, it's no wonder Kubinski was nominated for the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, honoring the nation's pre-eminent golf instructors.

"As a lifelong Notre Dame fan, I couldn't ask for a greater opportunity than to be the head coach of the Fighting Irish," Kubinski said. "It's certainly a special time to play for Notre Dame and be a part of this great university. I'm looking forward to an exciting time ahead and feel that we're building something here that will be a great source of pride for our players and our university in the years to come.

"Notre Dame exemplifies the best of everything in a college environment, both academically and athletically," Kubinski continued. "It's my goal to ensure that we are a perennial top-10 program on the course and in the classroom, consistent with the best traditions of Notre Dame, and I truly believe we can achieve that goal."

Kubinski was a three-year golf letterman and two-year team captain at Springfield (Mass.) College before graduating in 1993. A two-time all-Northeast 10 Conference selection in 1991 and 1992, he also received the Springfield College Maroon Club Award for academic and athletic achievement in 1992. His playing experience continued on the North Atlantic Tour where he tied for sixth place at the '95 Boston Open, and he also competed in the Carolinas Section PGA.

Born May 4, 1970 in Springfield, Mass., Kubinski and his wife, Sarah, now live in South Bend. The couple celebrated the birth of their first child, daughter Kelly, in September 2007.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame has participated in all three years the Gopher Invitational has been in existence, posting two top-five finishes (fifth in 2005) ... the Irish three-round total of 891 was two shots better than its previous low score at the Gopher Invitational (893, +29 in 2005) ... senior tri-captain Greg Rodgers picked up where he left off at last year's BIG EAST Championship (tie-11th), collecting his first career top-10 finish with his highest individual showing ever (the '07 BIG EAST placement had been his best) ... Rodgers' opening-round 69 matched his lowest 18-hole mark, previously carded twice (last in the final round at the '07 BIG EAST Championship) ... sophomore Doug Fortner notched his second career top-20 finish and first since a fourth-place outing in the 2007 Triumph at Pauma Valley ... freshman Connor Alan-Lee was making his collegiate debut ... Irish assistant coach Steve Colnitis piloted the team at the tournament while head coach Jim Kubinski was home for the birth of his first child, daughter Kelly.

Tournament Notes: This was the second year for the Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic ... for the second consecutive year, a Notre Dame golfer tied for second place (Cole Isban - 2006) ... sophomore Doug Fortner's finish, single-round and tournament scores all were personal bests (previous: 69 and 212 to finish fourth in 2007 Triumph at Pauma Valley) ... sophomore Kyle Willis carded the best 18- and 54-hole scores of his career (had shot 72 three times before, while best tourney score had been 224 at last year's Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic) ... senior Mike King and freshman Tyler Hock made their season debuts ... MSU's Ryan Brehm shot a second-round 64, which would be one stroke off the course record but the round was played under "lift, clean and place" rules due to wet conditions.

Tournament Notes: The Irish post their best team finish since last year's BIG EAST Championship, when they were the tournament runner-up ... the team score of 857 (-7) is the fifth-lowest in school history and best since that same '07 BIG EAST Championship, when Notre Dame shot 856 (-8) ... it was the first time this season the Irish have broken par in a single round, doing so in all three rounds at Duke ... freshman Tyler Hock made the most of his debut with the Notre Dame travel squad, sharing team-low scoring honors ... junior Josh Sandman tied his career-low 54-hole score, previously set in the 2006 Prestige at PGA WEST ... senior Greg Rodgers lowered his personal-best tournament mark, which had been 216, which he carded at the '04 Nelson Invitational on the par-69 Stanford Golf Course (under renovation) ... sophomore Doug Fortner picked up his third top-20 finish in as many starts this season.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame earned another victory over a Golfweek-ranked team, finishing 10 strokes clear of No. 22 Arkansas ... the Irish held a share of the first-round lead with the College of Charleston and were in front as late as the midpoint of the second round ... junior Josh Sandman, a native of Greensboro, was in position to win medalist honors in his hometown (and playing on his home course), trailing by only two shots entering the final round ... Sandman finished 16th or better in three of five tournaments this fall, and carded rounds of 73 or lower in 10 of 13 rounds ... senior tri-captain Greg Rodgers notched his second top-25 finish of the fall season.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame played in the North Florida tournament for the second consecutive year ... the tournament featured 10 of the nation's top 50 teams, including four consensus top-10 squads ... freshman Connor Alan-Lee made his second appearance on the travel squad this season, following his berth in the lineup at the Gopher Invitational to open the fall campaign ... for the fourth consecutive tournament, the core group of Fortner, Sandman, Hock and Rodgers made the travel squad ... Ocala, Fla., native Hock continues to close strong this season with a final-round 70 (-2); he now has carded par or better to close out three of four full-length tournaments ... another Florida resident, Naples sophomore Carl Santos-Ocampo, made his third appearance of the season, and first as an individual participant.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame was participating in USC's tournament for the first time since 2004 ... UCLA sent its "B" team to the event, with the Bruins' score and the head-to-head results not counting to season totals for the team or its opponents ... scores for the opening round were exceptionally high virtually across the board, due primarily to very windy conditions ... junior Josh Sandman posted his best individual finish of the season and highest since a career-best second-place tie at the 2006 Boilermaker Invitational ... it also was the fourth top-20 finish of the season for Sandman.

Tournament Notes: This was the second "B" team tournament for Notre Dame in 2007-08, with no "B" team scores or head-to-head results counting towards the national rankings ... the Irish were making their first-ever visit to Charleston Southern ... with the exception of sophomore Carl Santos-Ocampo, the other five players were making their spring debuts ... Santos-Ocampo carded a career-low 221, one stroke better than his previous best that had been set on two occasions (most recently back on Sept. 14-15 at the Rutgers Invitational, another "B" team event) ... Santos-Ocampo also tied his best individual finish, having previously shared 10th at the 2006 Tillinghast (a "B" team event) ... senior Eddie Peckels turned in his best outing of the season and recorded his second career top-10 finish (other was seventh-place tie at 2004 Earl Yestingsmeier Invitational, a "B" team tournament) ... freshman Jeff Chen finished in the top 20 at his second consecutive "B" team event, having tied for eighth at the Rutgers Invitational ... senior Mike King collected his best finish since a career-high fourth-place tie at the 2006 Tillinghast.
