Irish Looking To Go Low In Valley Of The Sun

Few teams in the country have played a schedule as tough as the one Notre Dame has seen this season. The Irish will take part in their ninth consecutive top-50 event Sunday through Tuesday when they make the program's first-ever appearance in the state of Arizona for the National Invitational Tournament at the Omni Tucson National Golf Club.

The Catalina Course is considered demanding, but also open to low scoring, which should suit a Notre Dame squad that is coming off its best outing of the spring at last week's Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational. The Irish finished at 888 (+24), good for a 12th-place tie with 11th-ranked Auburn and only seven strokes from an upper-division finish at the high-powered tournament, which featured 12 top-50 teams, including seven who were appearing in the Golfweek Top 25.

Quoting Coach Kubinski ...

"This is a huge event for us in terms of NCAA qualifications. We've gained a lot of experience this spring playing several underclassmen within our starting five, but we've also taken a few more losses than in the fall. To get back to the mandated .500 record for NCAAs, we need to finish in the top four in Tucson. Otherwise, we'll need to look at the BIG EAST tournament automatic bid.

"We're certainly improving with each event this spring. We had a slow start, but the guys are really battling. Josh (Sandman) is playing as well as anyone in the country. Doug (Fortner) has gained some momentum and confidence, and Carl (Santos-Ocampo) competed well in Georgia despite an illness. We're adding Eddie (Peckels) and Dustin (Zhang) this week, both of whom are deserving of this opportunity after strong outings in Charleston. They can give us a lift, and we're looking for this lineup to be in contention come Tuesday."

Did You Know?

Notre Dame has ties to two of the most famous players in golf history.

Billy Casper won 51 PGA Tour titles, including three majors (1959 & 1966 U.S. Open; 1970 Masters) and was sixth on that tour's all-time victories list upon retirement. He also logged nine wins on the Senior PGA Tour (now the Champions Tour), was an eight-time member of the U.S. Ryder Cup Team and was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1978. However, before turning pro, Casper attended Notre Dame in 1950 and won the Western Junior National Championship, which was contested at the old Notre Dame Golf Course. His Irish career was cut short when he was called away to military service in the Korean War.

Walter Hagen, Jr., was a three-year monogram winner at Notre Dame from 1938-40, helping the Irish to three consecutive NCAA Championship berths, including a sixth-place finish in 1938. If the name sounds familiar, it should be — his father, Walter Hagen, Sr., won 40 PGA titles, including 11 major championships (five PGA Championships, four British Opens and two U.S. Opens) in his storied career, ranking third behind Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods. The elder Hagen also was a six-time U.S. Ryder Cup captain, and five years after his death in 1969, he was part of the inaugural induction class for the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Dates and Times

Teams will play single rounds (18 holes) on each day of the tournament, beginning at 8 a.m. PT (11 a.m. ET in South Bend) from Sunday through Tuesday. The start format (shotgun start, split-tee) was not determined at press time.

Following The Irish

Live scoring for the National Invitational Tournament will be provided through the Golfstat web site (www.golfstat.com). In addition, complete results will be posted on the official Notre Dame athletics web site (UND.com). The latest information from the tournament, including results, scheduling updates and weather delays, also will be available on the Notre Dame Sports Hotline (574-631-3000).

Furthermore, results will be available via the Irish ALERT text-message system, which provides fans with regular updates on Notre Dame's progress at the National Invitational Tournament through text messages sent to their cell phone. For more information or to sign up, visit the men's golf page of the official Notre Dame athletics web site (UND.com).

The Tournament Format

A total of 15 five-man teams (75 participants, plus the possibility of additional golfers competing on an individual basis) will be taking part in the National Invitational Tournament. Conventional collegiate golf team scoring rules will apply, with the lowest four scores in the five-man lineup for each round counting toward the team total. Scores by golfers competing on an individual basis do not count to the team score.

The Teams

Besides Notre Dame and tournament host Arizona (which will field varsity and junior varsity squads), the remaining schools in the 15-team field for the National Invitational Tournament are: Arizona State, Houston, Iowa, Kent State, New Mexico, Pepperdine, Sam Houston State, TCU, Tulsa, UNLV, UTEP and Virginia.

According to the March 12 edition of the Golf World/Nike Golf Top 25 coaches' poll, No. 19 UNLV is the lone ranked club competing in this week's tournament. However, three other squads are receiving votes in the latest coaches' balloting — Arizona State (41 points, 28th if the poll were extended), Pepperdine (15 points, 32nd) and Arizona (eight points, tie-37th).

Meanwhile, the March 17 ratings in the Golfweek/Sagarin Performance Index show that four of this week's field are ranked among the top 50 in the nation. Leading the way is 15th-ranked UNLV, followed by No. 27 Arizona State, No. 28 Pepperdine and No. 43 Kent State.

In addition, the March 19 Golfstat rankings also indicate four of this week's participants are appearing in that service's Top 50. Again, UNLV sets the bar at No. 20, with Arizona State (33rd), Pepperdine (35th) and Kent State (39th) also on the first page of the rankings, and TCU (52nd) not far behind.

Head-To-Head

Notre Dame has previously faced six of the other 13 varsity teams in the National Invitational Tournament field during the 2007-08 season, compiling a 4-4 (.500) record against those schools. For the season, the Irish are 40-63-5 (.394) against Division I varsity opponents, with a 6-48-4 (.138) record against Golfweek Top 50 clubs (2-24-1 vs. the Top 25).

The Course

country's finest layouts, evidenced by its selection as one of Golf Digest's "75 Best Golf Resorts in North America". The par 72 course, which plays at more than 7,000 yards from the tips, has hosted more than 30 PGA Tour events (most recently the 2006 Chrysler Classic of Tucson, won by Kirk Triplett), as well as the 2006 NCAA West Regional (with Arizona and Florida sharing the regional title with a staggering 37-under par 827).

Opening in 1963, the Catalina Course was designed by Robert Van Hage and eight-time PGA Tour winner Bruce Devlin. The course uses a Parkland-style layout with eight lakes, 80 bunkers, and Bermuda grass fairways and greens. What's more, the signature 18th hole at Catalina was considered one of the toughest on the PGA Tour when it hosted the Chrysler Classic, with the fairway narrowing away from the tee and water lurking on either side.

Noting The National Invitational Tournament

- ◆ Notre Dame is making its first-ever appearance at Arizona's annual spring tournament. In fact, the Irish have never played in the Valley of the Sun during the program's 79 seasons of existence.
- ◆ Notre Dame has had just one monogram winner from the state of Arizona in its history. Paul Nolta earned four monograms with the Irish from 1987-88 through 1990-91, helping Notre Dame to a pair of Midwestern Collegiate Conference titles (now known as the Horizon League). Nolta also has team-high finishes in three tournaments during his career (best showing was a tie for 14th at 11-over par 153 in the 1991 Indiana Invitational) and carded a career-best 78.67 stroke average as a senior in 1990-91.
- ◆ Each of Notre Dame's first eight tournaments this year have been ranked among the 41 strongest events in the nation by Golfweek. That includes a current stretch of four consecutive Top 25 tournaments, led by the No. 7-ranked John Hayt Collegiate Invitational on Feb. 17-19.
- ◆ The Irish will make two lineup changes this week, with senior tri-captain Eddie Peckels and freshman Dustin Zhang getting the nod. Peckels owns a 76.08 stroke average in four tournaments this season (75.78 career in 55 rounds) and returns to the lineup after starting the first three events of the fall season. His most recent outing resulted in a ninth-place finish at the Charleston Southern Spring Kickoff (a "B" team event), where Peckels shot a season-low seven-over par 220 (72-75-73). Meanwhile, Zhang will make his debut on the Irish travel squad after registering a 77.22 stroke average in three events (twice on the "B" team and once as an individual). He tied for 32nd place at the CSU Spring Kickoff (232, +19) in his last tournament, and also had a season-best tie for eighth place (219, +6) at the Rutgers Invitational on Sept. 14-15.
- ◆ Zhang is the first foreign-born player to crack the Notre Dame lineup since April 28-29, 2001, when Alex Kent (Asuncion, Paraguay) wrapped up his career at the BIG EAST Conference Championship in East Providence, R.I.

Last Time Out: Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational

Notre Dame finished in a 12th-place tie at the Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational, which concluded March 16 at the Forest Heights Country Club (par 72/6,962 yards) in Statesboro, Ga. The Irish posted a three-round total of 24-over par 888 (297-294-297), finishing even with No. 11 Auburn and two shots ahead of 15th-ranked Michigan State in the 18-team tournament, which was won by second-ranked Alabama (849, -15).

Junior Josh Sandman collected his second consecutive top-10 finish (and fifth of his career), tying for sixth with a career-low score of four-under par 212 (73-71-68). Sophomore Carl Santos-Ocampo wrapped up a solid tournament in a tie for 44th place at six-over par 222 (76-73-73), posting his best score as a member of the Irish travel squad and one shot off his best career 54-hole

Irish Among Nation's Elite Programs In Golf Digest Rankings

The Notre Dame men's golf program has been rated ninth in the nation, according to the latest in-depth Golf Digest rankings released in the August 2007 issue of the magazine. The Irish were cited for their impressive combination of athletic and academic success, as well as the quality of the program's new facilities and the accomplishments of its coaching staff.

Notre Dame was ranked among the top 35 in all three categories evaluated in the Golf Digest study. In the "golf-first" rating, which heavily weights a program's performance on the course through both adjusted scoring average and player growth during the past four seasons (2003-04 through 2006-07), the Irish checked in at No. 35. Under the "academics-first" classification, which depends largely on the school's standing in the latest U.S. News & World Report rankings and the golf program's graduation rates, Notre Dame was 14th in the nation. However, when combining those two rankings and factoring in facilities, coaching and climate (location) — the components of the "balanced" Golf Digest ranking — the Irish made their biggest impression, placing ninth in the country, second among all programs north of the Mason-Dixon Line, and tops in the BIG EAST Conference.

"We are understandably thrilled with the 2007-08 Golf Digest program rankings," Notre Dame head coach Jim Kubinski said. "We think this only confirms what we've believed for quite a while — that we have the pieces in places to compete as one of the elite programs in the country, both on the course and the classroom. The greatest days for Fighting Irish golf are still to come and we couldn't be more excited about what lies ahead."

In addition, Notre Dame's facilities were singled out as the third-best college golf footprint in the nation with a 98 rating — only Stanford and Duke had higher totals. The Irish have made tremendous strides in their physical plant during the past decade, beginning with the 2000 debut of the on-campus Warren Golf Course, designed by Bill Coore and PGA Tour great Ben Crenshaw and rated among the nation's top college and public layouts. The course already has hosted five BIG EAST Championships, the 2005 NCAA Central Regional, a 2004 U.S. Amateur Championship qualifier, and three Western Amateur Championship qualifiers in its eight-year existence.

Notre Dame's latest facility addition opened in September 2006, with the completion of the $2.1 million, 10,333-square foot Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility, located on the grounds of the Warren Golf Course. The Rolfs Facility features a 5,000-square foot indoor short game area, six covered tee stations that include state-of-the-art video equipment for instant coaching feedback, office space for the Irish men's and women's coaching staffs, and a fully-furnished lounge area with separate locker room areas for both teams.

The complete 2007-08 Golf Digest rankings in all three categories, as well as a full explanation of how the ratings were determined, can be found by going on-line at <http://www.golfdigest.com/rankings/college/2007/09/collegegolfrankings>.

mark. Sophomore Doug Fortner finished two strokes behind his classmate in a tie for 56th place at eight-over par 224 (74-76-74).

After two good early rounds, freshman Tyler Hock slipped to an 83rd-place tie at 15-over par 231 (74-74-83). Meanwhile, freshman Connor Alan-Lee wound up in a tie for 92nd place at 18-over par 234 (76-76-82).

Young Guns

Notre Dame has gotten a significant boost from its underclassmen, with its two lowest scorers (and five of the top six) being either freshmen or sophomores. Freshman Jeff Chen (73.67), who has played exclusively as an individual or "B" team member, ranks second on the squad behind junior Josh Sandman (73.55), while sophomore Doug Fortner (73.82) has teamed with Sandman to form the cornerstone of the Irish varsity squad. Sophomores Kyle Willis (75.08) and Carl Santos-Ocampo (75.40), and freshman Tyler Hock (75.79) also have contributed on the Notre Dame travel squad.

Captains Courageous

Notre Dame's three seniors have been selected as team captains for the 2007-08 season. Mike King, Eddie Peckels and Greg Rodgers all are serving in that capacity for the first time in their careers.

The .500 Rule

According to a new rule passed by the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Committee, teams must finish with a winning head-to-head record (i.e. better than .500) against Division I varsity opposition to be considered for a berth in postseason play. Notre Dame currently has a 40-63-5 (.394) record this season.

Things You Should Know About The Irish

- ◆ Notre Dame has won six BIG EAST Conference titles in its 12-year league affiliation, stringing together three consecutive crowns from 1995-97 and again from 2004-06. The Irish also have made 33 NCAA postseason appearances in their history (most recently in 2006 with a trip to the NCAA East Regional), winning the 1944 national title and finishing second in 1937.
- ◆ Notre Dame has taken its play to new levels in recent years, posting three of the top seven single-season stroke averages in school history since head coach Jim Kubinski took over as head coach in January 2005. The Irish also have carded nine of the top 12 tournament scores (54 holes) in program history during the Kubinski era, including a school-record 842 (-22) at the 2006 BIG EAST Championship.
- ◆ Notre Dame's impressive resurgence of late has been augmented by its play against nationally-ranked opponents. In fact, since Kubinski arrived under the Golden Dome, the Irish have defeated 15 Top 25 teams (according to Golfweek) and posted 14 top-five tournament finishes, including three event titles (most recently the '06 BIG EAST Championship).
- ◆ Kubinski himself was nominated for a place on the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, after being placed into consideration by the Indiana Section of the PGA. Approximately 400-500 people are chosen annually from the 30,000 PGA professionals nationwide for a few select places on the GOLF Magazine list, whose membership includes such notables as Hank Haney, Butch Harmon, David Leadbetter and Rick Smith.

Next Up: Notre Dame Spring Invitational (April 5)

Notre Dame will host a one-day, 36-hole tournament on April 5 at its on-campus Warren Golf Course. Some of the teams scheduled to compete include: Cleveland State, IPFW and Penn.

JIM KUBINSKI

Head Coach • Fourth Year at Notre Dame Springfield College (1993)

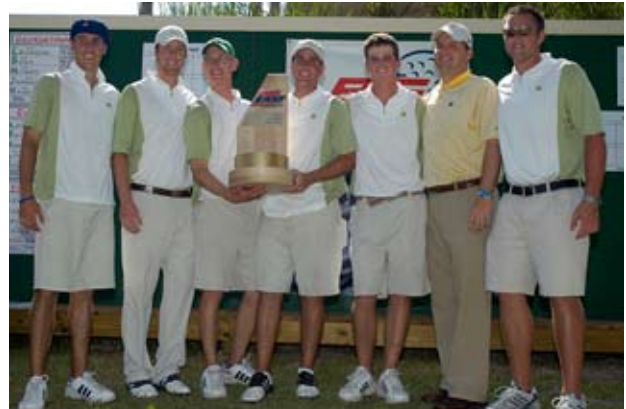

One of the nation's top young golf teachers, Jim Kubinski is in his fourth season as the head coach at Notre Dame. Having assumed the post on Jan. 28, 2005, Kubinski is just the sixth head coach in the 78-year history of the Irish men's golf program, inheriting a storied tradition that includes the 1944 national championship, 19 top-10 NCAA Championship finishes and 33 NCAA postseason appearances.

"We feel Jim is one of the rising stars in the golf coaching community and someone who can continue to develop our program into a perennial national contender," Notre Dame athletics director Kevin White said.

It hasn't taken long for Kubinski to make his mark at Notre Dame and reward White's confidence in his abilities. In his first tournament at the helm of the Irish, just one month after setting foot on campus, Kubinski helped guide Notre Dame to the championship of the 2005 NOKIA Sugar Bowl Tulane Invitational, winning the title on the first hole of a sudden death playoff against UNC Wilmington. It was the first of two tournament crowns in the 2004-05 season for Notre Dame and made Kubinski the first Irish men's golf coach since 1961 to win the opening event of his career. That season, Rev. Clarence Durbin, C.S.C., led the Irish to a 23.5-6.5 dual-match win over Western Michigan.

That was the start of what has been a solid four-year run for the Notre Dame skipper, who piloted the Irish to consecutive BIG EAST Conference titles in 2005 and 2006, and back-to-back NCAA regional appearances both years. He also has an overall record of 265-270-15 (.495) record and 15 wins over teams ranked in the Golfweek Top 25. What's more, Notre Dame has regularly collected votes in the Golf World/Nike Golf Top 25 poll and has risen as high as No. 12 in the Golfweek rankings (Oct. 2, 2005).

Under Kubinski's guidance, Notre Dame has registered 14 top-five finishes, including three tourney titles (two coming in sudden-death playoffs). The Irish also have carded three of the top seven single-season stroke averages in school history, following a 299.89 mark in 2004-05 (seventh all-time) with a school-record pace of 292.97 in '05-06 and a 295.71 mark last season (second all-time). In addition, Notre Dame has fired nine of the top 12 single-round scores in school history since Kubinski arrived on campus, including impressive final-round postseason efforts at the 2005 NCAA Central Regional (282, +2) and the 2006 BIG EAST Championship (school-record 272, -16). The latter score highlighted a 12-stroke comeback victory over Louisville, the second-best rally in the storied history of the Irish men's golf program, and led the Notre Dame's selection as the Golfweek National Team of the Week (May 1, 2006) for the first time in program history.

Individually, Kubinski has produced impressive results with several Irish players in a short span of time. Cole Isban became the first three-time PING All-Midwest Region selection (2005-07) in program history under Kubinski's tutelage, and graduated in May 2007 as the school record holder for single-season stroke average (72.71 in 2006-07), and career stroke average (73.76). Junior Josh Sandman got a late start to his college career in '05-06 due to an injury, but since he hit the links, he has been superb, posting a 73.69 career stroke average in 71 rounds (25 tournaments) that puts him on pace to threaten Isban's school record. Thus, it's no wonder Kubinski was nominated for the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, honoring the nation's pre-eminent golf instructors.

"As a lifelong Notre Dame fan, I couldn't ask for a greater opportunity than to be the head coach of the Fighting Irish," Kubinski said. "It's certainly a special time to play for Notre Dame and be a part of this great university. I'm looking forward to an exciting time ahead and feel that we're building something here that will be a great source of pride for our players and our university in the years to come.

"Notre Dame exemplifies the best of everything in a college environment, both academically and athletically," Kubinski continued. "It's my goal to ensure that we are a perennial top-10 program on the course and in the classroom, consistent with the best traditions of Notre Dame, and I truly believe we can achieve that goal."

Kubinski was a three-year golf letterman and two-year team captain at Springfield (Mass.) College before graduating in 1993. A two-time all-Northeast 10 Conference selection in 1991 and 1992, he also received the Springfield College Maroon Club Award for academic and athletic achievement in 1992. His playing experience continued on the North Atlantic Tour where he tied for sixth place at the '95 Boston Open, and he also competed in the Carolinas Section PGA.

Born May 4, 1970 in Springfield, Mass., Kubinski and his wife, Sarah, now live in South Bend. The couple celebrated the birth of their first child, daughter Kelly, in September 2007.

Tournament Notes: This was the second year for the Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic ... for the second consecutive year, a Notre Dame golfer tied for second place (Cole Isban - 2006) ... sophomore Doug Fortner's finish, single-round and tournament scores all were personal bests (previous: 69 and 212 to finish fourth in 2007 Triumph at Pauma Valley) ... sophomore Kyle Willis carded the best 18- and 54-hole scores of his career (had shot 72 three times before, while best tourney score had been 224 at last year's Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic) ... senior Mike King and freshman Tyler Hock made their season debuts ... MSU's Ryan Brehm shot a second-round 64, which would be one stroke off the course record but the round was played under "lift, clean and place" rules due to wet conditions.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame earned another victory over a Golfweek-ranked team, finishing 10 strokes clear of No. 22 Arkansas ... the Irish held a share of the first-round lead with the College of Charleston and were in front as late as the midpoint of the second round ... junior Josh Sandman, a native of Greensboro, was in position to win medalist honors in his hometown (and playing on his home course), trailing by only two shots entering the final round ... Sandman finished 16th or better in three of five tournaments this fall, and carded rounds of 73 or lower in 10 of 13 rounds ... senior tri-captain Greg Rodgers notched his second top-25 finish of the fall season.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame played in the North Florida tournament for the second consecutive year ... the tournament featured 10 of the nation's top 50 teams, including four consensus top-10 squads ... freshman Connor Alan-Lee made his second appearance on the travel squad this season, following his berth in the lineup at the Gopher Invitational to open the fall campaign ... for the fourth consecutive tournament, the core group of Fortner, Sandman, Hock and Rodgers made the travel squad ... Ocala, Fla., native Hock continues to close strong this season with a final-round 70 (-2); he now has carded par or better to close out three of four full-length tournaments ... another Florida resident, Naples sophomore Carl Santos-Ocampo, made his third appearance of the season, and first as an individual participant.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame was participating in USC's tournament for the first time since 2004 ... UCLA sent its "B" team to the event, with the Bruins' score and the head-to-head results not counting to season totals for the team or its opponents ... scores for the opening round were exceptionally high virtually across the board, due primarily to very windy conditions ... junior Josh Sandman posted his best individual finish of the season and highest since a career-best second-place tie at the 2006 Boilermaker Invitational ... it also was the fourth top-20 finish of the season for Sandman.

Tournament Notes: This was the second "B" team tournament for Notre Dame in 2007-08, with no "B" team scores or head-to-head results counting towards the national rankings ... the Irish were making their first-ever visit to Charleston Southern ... with the exception of sophomore Carl Santos-Ocampo, the other five players were making their spring debuts ... Santos-Ocampo carded a career-low 221, one stroke better than his previous best that had been set on two occasions (most recently back on Sept. 14-15 at the Rutgers Invitational, another "B" team event) ... Santos-Ocampo also tied his best individual finish, having previously shared 10th at the 2006 Tillinghast (a "B" team event) ... senior Eddie Peckels turned in his best outing of the season and recorded his second career top-10 finish (other was seventh-place tie at 2004 Earl Yestingsmeier Invitational, a "B" team tournament) ... freshman Jeff Chen finished in the top 20 at his second consecutive "B" team event, having tied for eighth at the Rutgers Invitational ... senior Mike King collected his best finish since a career-high fourth-place tie at the 2006 Tillinghast.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame was making its first appearance at the prestigious tournament, which was hosted by Georgia Southern and is named in honor of the late legendary broadcaster (and Indiana native) Chris Schenkel ... the Irish picked up their second Golfweek Top 25 win of the season, shading No. 15 Michigan State by two strokes; Notre Dame also tied 11th-ranked Auburn ... junior Josh Sandman fired a career-low 212, one shot better than his previous best that had been set twice (most recently at the Coca-Cola Duke Classic back on Oct. 7-8) ... Sandman also carded an eagle on No. 18 (his ninth hole) during the final round, becoming the only player in the 96-man field to eagle the 18th at Forest Heights during the tournament ... sophomore Carl Santos-Ocampo turned in his best career performance as a member of the Irish travel squad, with his 54-hole total of 222 only one stroke off his career low set in his previous outing (at the Charleston Southern Spring Kickoff, a "B" team event).
