John Hayt Collegiate Invitational

Sunday-Tuesday, Feb. 17-19, 2008

Tee times TBA all three days

Sawgrass Country Club

Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

Par 72/6,895 yards

Irish To Face Challenging Field In Spring Opener

Notre Dame head coach Jim Kubinski has never been one to pull his team away from a challenge, and that's exactly what the Irish will get as they open their spring schedule Sunday-Tuesday in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., at the John Hayt Collegiate Invitational (hosted by North Florida). No less than 10 of the nation's top 50 squads, including four consensus top-10 teams, will be competing in the tournament, which is considered one of the premier stops on the college golf circuit.

Notre Dame enjoyed mixed success during the fall, earning top-four finishes at Minnesota and Duke. The Irish own a 292.31 stroke average that ranks among the best in school history, with their biggest contributions coming from their underclassmen, led by sophomore Doug Fortner (72.77) and freshman/Ocala, Fla., native Tyler Hock (73.20). Junior Josh Sandman (74.00) also shot well during the fall, collecting three top-20 finishes.

Quoting Coach Kubinski ...

"Sawgrass Country Club has always been well received by college players and is a great test. It's all a player or coach can ask for in the sense that if you hit the shots, you can score. The real key though will be Mother Nature.

"Doug (Fortner) had a very solid fall campaign, leading the team in scoring average and really showed that he has a chance to become a top player on the national level with continued hard work and experience. I expect Josh (Sandman) and Greg (Rodgers) to build on their fall seasons, as both are very talented and offer great leadership. Josh has been playing in our No. 1 spot and, in truth, it often takes a semester for a player to become comfortable in that role. I look for Josh to have a great spring season."

Did You Know?

Notre Dame has ties to two of the most famous players in golf history.

Billy Casper won 51 PGA Tour titles, including three majors (1959 & 1966 U.S. Open; 1970 Masters) and was sixth on that tour's all-time victories list upon retirement. He also logged nine wins on the Senior PGA Tour (now the Champions Tour), was an eight-time member of the U.S. Ryder Cup Team and was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1978. However, before turning pro, Casper attended Notre Dame in 1950 and won the Western Junior National Championship, which was contested at the old Notre Dame Golf Course. His Irish career was cut short when he was called away to military service in the Korean War.

Walter Hagen, Jr., was a three-year monogram winner at Notre Dame from 1938-40, helping the Irish to three consecutive NCAA Championship berths, including a sixth-place finish in 1938. If the name sounds familiar, it should be — his father, Walter Hagen, Sr., won 40 PGA titles, including 11 major championships (five PGA Championships, four British Opens and two U.S. Opens) in his storied career, ranking third behind Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods. The elder Hagen also was a six-time U.S. Ryder Cup captain, and five years after his death in 1969, he was part of the inaugural induction class for the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Dates and Times

Teams will play single rounds (18 holes) on each day of the tournament, lasting Sunday through Tuesday. At press time, the schedule of tee times for the event was not available. For the most up-to-date information, consult the North Florida athletics web site (www.unfospreys.com).

Following The Irish

Live scoring for the John Hayt Collegiate Invitational will be provided through the Golfstat web site (www.golfstat.com). In addition, complete results will be posted on the official Notre Dame athletics web site (UND.com). The latest information from the tournament, including results, scheduling updates and weather delays, also will be available on the Notre Dame Sports Hotline (574-631-3000).

Furthermore, results will be available via the Irish ALERT text-message system, which provides fans with regular updates on Notre Dame's progress at the John Hayt Collegiate Invitational through text messages sent to their cell phone. For more information or to sign up, visit the men's golf page of the official Notre Dame athletics web site (UND.com).

The Tournament Format

A total of 15 five-man teams (75 participants, plus a handful of additional golfers competing on an individual basis, including Notre Dame sophomore Carl Santos-Ocampo) will be taking part in the John Hayt Collegiate Invitational. Conventional collegiate golf team scoring rules will apply, with the lowest four scores in the five-man lineup for each round counting toward the team total. Scores by golfers competing on an individual basis do not count to the team score.

The Teams

Besides Notre Dame and tournament host North Florida, the remaining teams in the 15-team field for the John Hayt Collegiate Invitational are: Alabama, Charlotte, Coastal Carolina, Florida, Georgia State, Indiana, Pepperdine, South Carolina, Tennessee, UAB, UCF, UCLA and Vanderbilt.

According to the Nov. 7 edition of the Golf World/Nike Golf Top 25 coaches' poll (the final one of the fall 2007 season), no less than eight ranked teams will be competing in this week's tournament, including four top-10 squads (No. 2 Charlotte, No. 3 Alabama, No. 4 UCLA and No. 10 Florida). No. 15 South Carolina, No. 18 Pepperdine, No. 22 Indiana and No. 23 Tennessee also are in the field, with three other participating teams garnering votes — UCF (52 votes; 26th place), Coastal Carolina (26 votes; 29th place) and UAB (one vote; tie-50th place).

Meanwhile, Monday's latest ratings in the Golfweek/Sagarin Performance Index show that 10 of the top 50 Division I teams will be on hand for the John Hayt Collegiate Invitational. Leading the way is second-ranked Alabama, followed closely by No. 3 Charlotte, No. 5 UCLA, No. 9 Florida and No. 10 Tennessee. Next up are 19th-ranked Indiana, No. 20 South Carolina, and No. 24 UCF, with Pepperdine (27th) and UAB (31st) also appearing on the first page of the rankings.

In addition, Wednesday's new Golfstat rankings indicate 10 of this week's participants are appearing in that service's Top 50. No. 2 Charlotte sets the bar, with No. 3 Alabama, No. 4 UCLA, No. 10 Florida, No. 12 Tennessee, No. 14 South Carolina, No. 20 Indiana and No. 21 UCF also on the top half of the leaderboard. Two other squads — No. 30 Pepperdine and No. 33 UAB — aren't far off the pace.

1944 NCAA Champion • 1937 NCAA Runner-Up • 33 NCAA Postseason Appearances

Head-To-Head

Notre Dame has faced four of the other participants in this week's John Hayt Collegiate Invitational. The Irish have an 0-4-2 (.167) record against the field — Indiana (0-1-1), North Florida (0-1-1), UCF (0-1) and Vanderbilt (0-1). For the season, the Irish are 34-27-4 (.554), with a 6-19-1 (.250) record against Top 50 clubs (1-11-1 vs. the Top 25).

The Course

The Sawgrass Oceanside Course (East-West) gained its reputation as the home of the PGA Tour's Tournament Players Championship from 1977-81, when the course, along with the treacherous winds of Sawgrass, tested the greatest players of the game.

This par-72, 6,895-yard layout requires distance off the tee while putting a premium on accuracy. With water on 14 of the 18 holes, along with approaches into extremely well-bunkered greens, placement is of prime importance. In addition, the greens are shallow but wide, creating difficult hole locations.

Noting The John Hayt Collegiate Invitational

- ◆ Notre Dame returns to the John Hayt Collegiate Invitational for the second consecutive season. The tournament, which was previously known as both Queen's Harbour Intercollegiate and the Mercedes-Benz Collegiate Championship, will be played for the 17th time this week.
- ◆ In last year's tournament, the Irish tied with Augusta State for 13th place at 56-over par 920 (311-314-295), while Alabama won the team title. Cole Isban was Notre Dame's top individual finisher tying for 22nd place at nine-over par 225 (76-76-73). Among current Irish golfers, Eddie Peckels was the top finisher in a tie for 58th place at 17-over par 233 (78-81-74), while two players in this week's lineup saw action last season — Doug Fortner and Josh Sandman tied for 69th place at 21-over par 237 (Fortner 80-81-76; Sandman 80-76-81).
- ◆ Notre Dame has two Florida natives competing this week — freshman Tyler Hock (Ocala/Forest HS) and sophomore Carl Santos-Ocampo (Naples/Community School of Naples) — with Santos-Ocampo competing as an individual. Hock had five top-10 finishes in eight events on the Florida Junior Tour from 2005-07, and came on strong for the Irish late in the fall season, currently standing second on the team with a 73.20 stroke average. Meanwhile, Santos-Ocampo was a four-year team captain in Naples, and also was the 2002 Florida State Boys Junior Championship (ages 13-15). He has competed in six events since coming to Notre Dame last season, compiling a 76.00 career stroke average.

Last Time Out: UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship

Notre Dame wrapped up its 2007 fall season with a ninth-place finish at the UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship, which concluded Oct. 30 at the Forest Oaks Country Club (par 72/7,197 yards) in Greensboro, N.C. The Irish carded a three-round total of 14-over par 878 (292-295-291) and wound up 18 shots behind tournament champion Louisville. Notre Dame did gain some postseason capital at the tournament, defeating No. 25 (Golfweek) Arkansas by 10 shots and finishing a single stroke behind 11th-ranked Wake Forest in the 15-team event.

Junior Josh Sandman was in contention for medalist honors entering the final round, but an uncharacteristic 77 dropped him to a tie for 15th place at one-over par 217 (68-72-77). It marked just the third time in 13 rounds this year that the Greensboro native posted a score higher than 73, and only the second time his round didn't count to the team score. Louisville's Derek Fathauer was the tournament medalist at 10-under par 206.

Irish Among Nation's Elite Programs In Golf Digest Rankings

The Notre Dame men's golf program has been rated ninth in the nation, according to the latest in-depth Golf Digest rankings released in the August 2007 issue of the magazine. The Irish were cited for their impressive combination of athletic and academic success, as well as the quality of the program's new facilities and the accomplishments of its coaching staff.

Notre Dame was ranked among the top 35 in all three categories evaluated in the Golf Digest study. In the "golf-first" rating, which heavily weights a program's performance on the course through both adjusted scoring average and player growth during the past four seasons (2003-04 through 2006-07), the Irish checked in at No. 35. Under the "academics-first" classification, which depends largely on the school's standing in the latest U.S. News & World Report rankings and the golf program's graduation rates, Notre Dame was 14th in the nation. However, when combining those two rankings and factoring in facilities, coaching and climate (location) — the components of the "balanced" Golf Digest ranking — the Irish made their biggest impression, placing ninth in the country, second among all programs north of the Mason-Dixon Line, and tops in the BIG EAST Conference.

"We are understandably thrilled with the 2007-08 Golf Digest program rankings," Notre Dame head coach Jim Kubinski said. "We think this only confirms what we've believed for quite a while — that we have the pieces in places to compete as one of the elite programs in the country, both on the course and the classroom. The greatest days for Fighting Irish golf are still to come and we couldn't be more excited about what lies ahead."

In addition, Notre Dame's facilities were singled out as the third-best college golf footprint in the nation with a 98 rating — only Stanford and Duke had higher totals. The Irish have made tremendous strides in their physical plant during the past decade, beginning with the 2000 debut of the on-campus Warren Golf Course, designed by Bill Coore and PGA Tour great Ben Crenshaw and rated among the nation's top college and public layouts. The course already has hosted five BIG EAST Championships, the 2005 NCAA Central Regional, a 2004 U.S. Amateur Championship qualifier, and three Western Amateur Championship qualifiers in its eight-year existence.

Notre Dame's latest facility addition opened in September 2006, with the completion of the $2.1 million, 10,333-square foot Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility, located on the grounds of the Warren Golf Course. The Rolfs Facility features a 5,000-square foot indoor short game area, six covered tee stations that include state-of-the-art video equipment for instant coaching feedback, office space for the Irish men's and women's coaching staffs, and a fully-furnished lounge area with separate locker room areas for both teams.

The complete 2007-08 Golf Digest rankings in all three categories, as well as a full explanation of how the ratings were determined, can be found by going on-line at <http://www.golfdigest.com/rankings/college/2007/09/collegegolfrankings>.

Senior tri-captain Greg Rodgers tied for 25th place at four-over par 220 (75-73-72), while sophomore Doug Fortner took home a share of 29th place at five-over par 221 (74-74-73). Sophomore Kyle Willis finished in a 48th-place tie at nine-over par 225 (75-76-74), while freshman Tyler Hock tied for 63rd place at 12-over par 228 (76-80-72).

Young Guns

Notre Dame has gotten a significant boost from its underclassmen, with its two lowest scorers (and four of the top six) being either freshmen or sophomores. Sophomore Doug Fortner is setting the pace for the Irish so far this season with a 72.77 average and three top-20 finishes, followed by rookie Tyler Hock, who has a 73.20 stroke rate. Freshman Jeff Chen has seen action in one "B" event and once as an individual, amassing a 73.33 average that is third-best on the team, while sophomore Kyle Willis rounds out the six best stroke averages for Notre Dame with a 74.20 mark.

Captains Courageous

Notre Dame's three seniors have been selected as team captains for the 2007-08 season. Mike King, Eddie Peckels and Greg Rodgers all are serving in that capacity for the first time in their careers.

The .500 Rule

According to a new rule passed by the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Committee, teams must finish their season with a winning head-to-head record (i.e. better than .500) against Division I opposition to be considered for a berth in post-season play. Notre Dame currently has a 34-27-4 (.554) record this season.

Things You Should Know About The Irish

- ◆ Notre Dame has won six BIG EAST Conference titles in its 12-year league affiliation, stringing together three consecutive crowns from 1995-97 and again from 2004-06. The Irish also have made 33 NCAA postseason appearances in their history (most recently in 2006 with a trip to the NCAA East Regional), winning the 1944 national title and finishing second in 1937.
- ◆ Notre Dame has taken its play to new levels in recent years, posting three of the top seven single-season stroke averages in school history since head coach Jim Kubinski took over as head coach in January 2005. The Irish also have carded nine of the top 12 tournament scores (54 holes) in program history during the Kubinski era, including a school-record 842 (-22) at the 2006 BIG EAST Championship.
- ◆ Notre Dame's impressive resurgence of late has been augmented by its play against nationally-ranked opponents. In fact, since Kubinski arrived under the Golden Dome, the Irish have defeated 14 Top 25 teams (according to Golfweek) and posted 14 top-five tournament finishes, including three event titles (most recently the '06 BIG EAST Championship).
- ◆ Kubinski himself was nominated for a place on the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, after being placed into consideration by the Indiana Section of the PGA. Approximately 400-500 people are chosen annually from the 30,000 PGA professionals nationwide for a few select places on the GOLF Magazine list, whose membership includes such notables as Hank Haney, Butch Harmon, David Leadbetter and Rick Smith.

Next Up: USC Collegiate Invitational (March 3-4)

Notre Dame heads to the West Coast in two weeks for the USC Collegiate Invitational, to be played at North Ranch Country Club in Westlake Village, Calif. The Irish last played in USC's tournament in 2004, and will face a strong field that also includes Tennessee, Oregon, Oregon State and Washington.

1944 NCAA Champion • 1937 NCAA Runner-Up • 33 NCAA Postseason Appearances

JIM KUBINSKI

Head Coach • Fourth Year at Notre Dame Springfield College (1993)

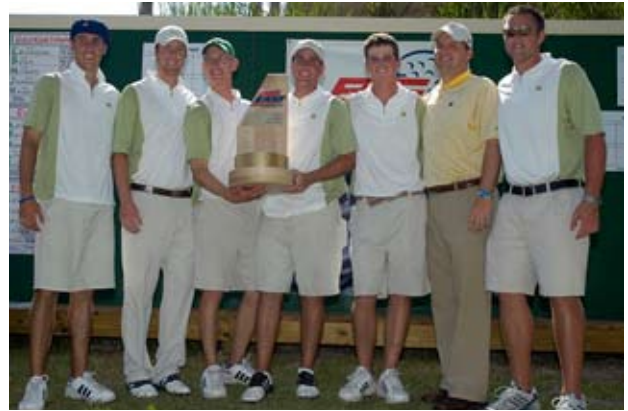

One of the nation's top young golf teachers, Jim Kubinski is in his fourth season as the head coach at Notre Dame. Having assumed the post on Jan. 28, 2005, Kubinski is just the sixth head coach in the 78-year history of the Irish men's golf program, inheriting a storied tradition that includes the 1944 national championship, 19 top-10 NCAA Championship finishes and 33 NCAA postseason appearances.

"We feel Jim is one of the rising stars in the golf coaching community and someone who can continue to develop our program into a perennial national contender," Notre Dame director of athletics Kevin White said.

It hasn't taken long for Kubinski to make his mark at Notre Dame and reward White's confidence in his abilities. In his first tournament at the helm of the Irish, just one month after setting foot on campus, Kubinski helped guide Notre Dame to the championship of the 2005 NOKIA Sugar Bowl Tulane Invitational, winning the title on the first hole of a sudden death playoff against UNC Wilmington. It was the first of two tournament crowns in the 2004-05 season for Notre Dame and made Kubinski the first Irish men's golf coach since 1961 to win the opening event of his career. That season, Rev. Clarence Durbin, C.S.C., led the Irish to a 23.5-6.5 dual-match win over Western Michigan.

That was the start of what has been a stellar four-year run for the Notre Dame skipper, who piloted the Irish to consecutive BIG EAST Conference titles in 2005 and 2006, and back-to-back NCAA regional appearances both years. He also has a four-year record of 259-233-14 (.526) record and 14 wins over teams ranked in the Golfweek Top 25. What's more, Notre Dame has regularly collected votes in the Golf World/Nike Golf Top 25 poll and has risen as high as No. 12 in the Golfweek rankings (Oct. 2, 2005).

Under Kubinski's guidance, Notre Dame has registered 14 top-five finishes, including three tourney titles (two coming in sudden-death playoffs). The Irish also have carded three of the top seven single-season stroke averages in school history, following a 299.89 mark in 2004-05 (seventh all-time) with a school-record pace of 292.97 in '05-06 and a 295.71 mark last season (second all-time). In addition, Notre Dame has fired nine of the top 12 single-round scores in school history since Kubinski arrived on campus, including impressive final-round postseason efforts at the 2005 NCAA Central Regional (282, +2) and the 2006 BIG EAST Championship (school-record 272, -16). The latter score highlighted a 12-stroke comeback victory over Louisville, the second-best rally in the storied history of the Irish men's golf program, and led the Notre Dame's selection as the Golfweek National Team of the Week (May 1, 2006) for the first time in program history.

Individually, Kubinski has produced impressive results with several Irish players in a short span of time. Cole Isban became the first three-time PING All-Midwest Region selection (2005-07) in program history under Kubinski's tutelage, and graduated in May 2007 as the school record holder for single-season stroke average (72.71 in 2006-07), and career stroke average (73.76). Josh Sandman got a late start to his college career in '05-06 due to an injury, but since he hit the links, he has been superb, posting a 73.81 career stroke average in 62 rounds (22 tournaments) that puts him on pace to threaten Isban's school record. Thus, it's no wonder Kubinski was nominated for the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, honoring the nation's pre-eminent golf instructors.

"As a lifelong Notre Dame fan, I couldn't ask for a greater opportunity than to be the head coach of the Fighting Irish," Kubinski said. "It's certainly a special time to play for Notre Dame and be a part of this great university. I'm looking forward to an exciting time ahead and feel that we're building something here that will be a great source of pride for our players and our university in the years to come.

"Notre Dame exemplifies the best of everything in a college environment, both academically and athletically," Kubinski continued. "It's my goal to ensure that we are a perennial top-10 program on the course and in the classroom, consistent with the best traditions of Notre Dame, and I truly believe we can achieve that goal."

Kubinski was a three-year golf letterman and two-year team captain at Springfield (Mass.) College before graduating in 1993. A two-time all-Northeast 10 Conference selection in 1991 and 1992, he also received the Springfield College Maroon Club Award for academic and athletic achievement in 1992. His playing experience continued on the North Atlantic Tour where he tied for sixth place at the '95 Boston Open, and he also competed in the Carolinas Section PGA.

Born May 4, 1970 in Springfield, Mass., Kubinski and his wife, Sarah, now live in South Bend. The couple celebrated the birth of their first child, daughter Kelly, in September 2007.

Tournament Notes: This was the second year for the Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic ... for the second consecutive year, a Notre Dame golfer tied for second place (Cole Isban - 2006) ... sophomore Doug Fortner's finish, single-round and tournament scores all were personal bests (previous: 69 and 212 to finish fourth in 2007 Triumph at Pauma Valley) ... sophomore Kyle Willis carded the best 18- and 54-hole scores of his career (had shot 72 three times before, while best tourney score had been 224 at last year's Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic) ... senior Mike King and freshman Tyler Hock made their season debuts ... MSU's Ryan Brehm shot a second-round 64, which would be one stroke off the course record but the round was played under "lift, clean and place" rules due to wet conditions.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame earned another victory over a Golfweek-ranked team, finishing 10 strokes clear of No. 22 Arkansas ... the Irish held a share of the first-round lead with the College of Charleston and were in front as late as the midpoint of the second round ... junior Josh Sandman, a native of Greensboro, was in position to win medalist honors in his hometown (and playing on his home course), trailing by only two shots entering the final round ... Sandman finished 16th or better in three of five tournaments this fall, and carded rounds of 73 or lower in 10 of 13 rounds ... senior tri-captain Greg Rodgers notched his second top-25 finish of the fall season.
