Miscellaneous Achievements

- Youngest player by class year (male or female) to receive prestigious M.A.C. Hermann Trophy (2006); could join Mia Hamm (UNC, 1992-93), Cindy Parlow (UNC, 1997-98) and Christine Sinclair (Portland, 2004-05) as only multiple-year Hermann Trophy recipients ... would also be the first to earn honor in non-consecutive seasons.
- First Division I player ever to amass at least 73G-73A in a career ... one of three players in Division I history with 70 career goals and 70 career assists, along with Mia Hamm (103G-72A, UNC, 1989-93) and Jenny Streiffer (70G-71A, ND, 1996-99).
- Joined Hamm (32G-33A, UNC '92) as only Division I players ever to end a season as national leader in goals and assists (22G-22A in '06) ... became just the 11th Division I player ever to reach 20G-20A in same season (one of only six ever to reach 22G-22A).
- Joined Katie Thorlakson in 2005 as second pair of Division I teammates ever to reach 70 points in same season (both had 71) ... Hanks then joined Michele Weissenhofer (53) to rank 1-2 atop the nation's points leaders in 2006 (23rd set of teammates to reach 50 points in same season).
- Had points in 26 of 30 career postseason games (with goals in 15) ... Katie Thorlakson (27) is only Notre Dame player with more points in one postseason than Hanks (25 in 2006; 7G-11A).
- Only player in school history to have both a hat trick (vs. Oakland, '06) and a three-assist game (vs. Penn State, '06; vs. Loyola-Chicago, '07) in NCAA Tournament play.
- Holds BIG EAST records for Offensive Player of the Week selections in one season (4 in 2008) and career (8 from 2005-08).
- Graduated one semester early in May 2008 with bachelor's degree in sociology.

The Hanks Legacy

Simply put, senior All-America forward and Hermann Trophy candidate Kerri Hanks is the best player to ever don the blue and gold for Notre Dame and among the greatest in NCAA history. Just take a look at her incomparable resume and what has made her a two-time Hermann Trophy finalist (and the 2006 recipient of the prestigious award):

CAREER

The three-time first-team NSCAA All-American is the holder (or co-holder) of an astounding 67 records in the school, BIG EAST or NCAA record books, while also earning a place among the top 25 on 10 NCAA single-season or career lists (see chart at left for a complete breakdown). She also became the 23rd NCAA Division I player to be a four-time All-America honoree in early December.

2008 SEASON — BY THE NUMBERS

Hanks enjoyed another of her signature seasons in 2008, despite missing the final two games of Notre Dame's BIG EAST Championship run with a minor knee injury.

Hanks, a four-time first-team all-conference selection and two-time BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year, finished the 2008 campaign ranked fifth in the nation in total goals (20), tied for third in total assists (15) and tied for second in total points (55).

Hanks was the only Division I player to rank in the top five nationally in total goals, assists and points this season. Additionally, she was one of only two players in the country with at least 15 goals and 15 assists this year, along with Cynthia Morote-Ariza (18G-19A) of Loyola-Chicago.

Hanks and Arkansas-Pine Bluff's Jade West also were the only players ranked in the top 11 nationally for goal, assist and point averages with Hanks ending up seventh in points, 10th in goals and 11th in assists.

What's more, Hanks and freshman forward Melissa Henderson (17G) finished as the second-most prolific goalscoring tandem in the country, just one behind the leaders.

2008 SEASON HONORS

Besides her fourth consecutive All-America citation (and third first-team citation), Hanks was named to the NCAA College Cup All-Tournament Team, earned her second BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year award in 2008 (a unanimous selection by the league's head coaches), and was named to a national team of the week seven times this season (four by Top Drawer Soccer, three by Soccer America) — by comparison, when she earned the '06 Hermann Trophy, Hanks received two national team of the week citations.

She also set new BIG EAST records with four Offensive Player of the Week selections this year and eight for her career, while earning her second consecutive Offensive MVP award at the Inn at Saint Mary's Classic.

In addition, Hanks was named the 2008 recipient of the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for excellence on the field, in the classroom, in the community and in sportsmanship.
