FINAL COUNTDOWN: The Notre Dame Fighting Irish head into their final four games of the regular season looking to make a move on one of the final home-ice playoff spots. The Irish travel to Bowling Green this weekend, Feb. 17-18, for a pair of 7:05 p.m. games with the Falcons. Notre Dame enters the weekend with an 11-16-3 overall record and a 9-12-3 mark in the CCHA, good for 21 points and a tie with Alaska Fairbanks for ninth place. The Irish are just one point behind Ohio State and Northern Michigan, who are tied for seventh-place with 22 points. Ferris State, in sixth place, is just two points ahead of the Irish. Not to look too far ahead, Bowling Green enters the weekend with a 13-18-1 record and is 8-15-1 in the CCHA for 17 points and 11th place, just four points behind the Irish. The CCHA playoffs start on March 3-5 at campus sites. The first four teams get a bye with No. 5 hosting No. 12, No. 6 vs. No. 11, No. 7 against No. 10 and No. 8 getting the final home spot versus No. 9 in a best-of-three series. The four bye teams then host the four winners in a best-of-three series from March 10-12. The four winners advance to Joe Louis Arena.

REMAINING GAMES: Here's the remaining schedules for the 12 CCHA teams (current points in parentheses - all teams have four games left):

- Miami (38): at MSU (2), at BG, BG

- No. Michigan (22): at LSSU, LSSU, OSU (2)
- Notre Dame (21): at BGSU (2), UAF (2)
- Alaska Fairbanks (21): WMU (2), at ND (2)
- Bowling Green (17): ND (2), MIA, at MIA
- Western Michigan (15): at UAF (2), UNO (2)
-  Miami clinched regular-season title

IRISH VERSUS FALCONS: Notre Dame and Bowling Green have already met twice this year and 73 times in the all-time series that is tied at 34-34-5. In November, the two teams played twice at the Joyce Center with the Irish taking 9-4 and 4-2 wins. At the Bowling Green Ice Arena, the Irish are 13-22-1 all-time and 9-13-1 since rejoining the CCHA in 1992-93. Last season, Notre Dame dropped 3-1 and 4-1 games at BGSU. The last Irish win there came on Oct. 18, 2003, a 3-0 shutout by David Brown (Jr., Stoney Creek, Ont.). Since then, Notre Dame has lost three in a row at the BGSU Ice Arena.

CCHA GOALTENDER OF THE WEEK: Junior goaltender David Brown was named the RBK/CCHA goaltender of the week for the week ending Feb. 13. Brown stopped 55-of-58 shots (.948) in leading the Irish to a home-and-home sweep of Ferris State. In Friday's 4-1 win, Brown made 26 saves, including a game-saving stop on FSU's Greg Rallo in the third period with the Irish leading just 2-1. On Saturday, at Ferris State, Brown stopped 29-of-31 Bulldog shots on the way to a 3-2 win. All three goals he surrendered on the weekend came on the power play.

THE PUCK STOPS HERE: Goaltender David Brown has now seen action in 23 consecutive games for the Irish, starting 22 of them. In his last six games, Brown is 3-3-0, but has a 1.51 goals-against average and a .949 save percentage. In those six games, the Irish have scored just 11 goals (four in Friday's win). In his 23-game streak, Brown is 8-10-3 with a 2.32 goals-against mark and a .921 save percentage. On the season, Brown is 8-13-3 with a 2.65 goals against and a .909 save percentage.

FERRIS STATE RECAP: The Irish made it a sweep of Ferris State on Saturday night at Ewingleben Arena with a 3-2 victory. Goaltender David Brown turned in his second strong effort of the weekend with 29 saves, including 16 on nine Bulldog power-play chances. The Irish scored first in the game, just 46 seconds in, when Jason Paige (Jr., Saginaw, Mich.) collected his fourth goal of the season. Notre Dame would make it 2-0 at 16:02 when Josh Sciba (Jr., Westland, Mich.) scored his 14th of the year, this via the power-play goal. Ferris State would tie the game in the second period with power-play goals by Mark Bomersback (13th) and Eric Vesely (7th) at 12:23 and 16:21 respectively. The Irish would get the eventual game winner with just seven seconds left in the second period when Mark Van Guilder (So., Roseville, Mich.) redirected an Erik Condra (Fr., Livonia, Mich.) centering pass for his fifth goal of the year. Ferris State out shot the Irish by a 31-23 margin. The Bulldogs were 2-for-9 on the power play while Notre Dame converted 2-of-8 chances.

On Friday night at the Joyce Center, senior left wing Mike Walsh (Northville, Mich.) turned in the first two-goal game of his career, including his fourth game-winning goal, and goaltender David Brown continued his hot play with 26 saves to lead Notre Dame to a 4-1 win in front of a sellout crowd of 2,763. Freshman Erik Condra and defenseman Wes O'Neill (Jr., Essex, Ont.) had the other two goals for Notre Dame in the win. O'Neill (1g, 1a) and Mark Van Guilder with two assists, each had two-point nights for the Irish. Adam Welch scored Ferris State's lone goal of the game on a second-period power play. Ferris State out shot Notre Dame by a 27-24 margin. Mitch O'Keefe made 20 saves for the Bulldogs. Both teams were 1-for-4 on the power play.

ROOKIE SUCCESS: With six goals and 23 assists for 29 points, freshman Erik Condra (Livonia, Mich.) leads the Irish in scoring. His 29 points are the most by a Notre Dame freshman since rookie defenseman Mark Eaton had 29 points (12g, 17a) in his only year at Notre Dame in 1997-98. The last freshman to get more than 29 points in a rookie season was Jamie Ling '96, with 40 points, in 1992-93. Condra currently has a five-game scoring streak (2-4-6).

PERANI CUP STANDINGS

Perani's Hockey World is the CCHA's sponsor of the league's "Three Stars of the Game." Members of the media are asked to select the game's three stars for which points are accumulated – 1st Star gets five points, 2nd Star gets three and 3rd Star gets one. Here are the standings for Notre Dame players in CCHA games only:

Noah Babin - CCHA defenseman of the week (Nov. 14).

Erik Condra - CCHA rookie of the week (Dec. 12).

Jordan Pearce - CCHA rookie of the week (Oct. 31).

Tim Wallace - CCHA offensive player of the week (Dec. 19).

David Brown - CCHA goaltender of the week (Feb. 12).

A SERIES SWEEP: Notre Dame's sweep of Ferris State on Feb. 10-11 came three months to the day of the last Irish sweep. Notre Dame took two from Bowling Green (9-4 and 4-2) at home on Nov. 10-11 for their first series sweep of any kind and first back-to-back wins on Nov. 13-26, 2004 when the Irish won at Western Michigan and then at Alaska Fairbanks. The last time the Irish swept a road CCHA series came on Feb. 14-15, 2003 with a pair of 3-2 wins at Bowling Green, a span of three years and 11 two-game road series.

ON A ROLL: Notre Dame's weekend sweep of Ferris State was the second CCHA series sweep for the Irish this season and the first since Nov. 10-11 when Notre Dame took two from Bowling Green at home. Since Dec. 3, the Irish are 8-7-2 going into the final two weeks of the regular season.

HOME FAN FAVORITES: With a sellout crowd of 2,763 on Friday, Feb. 10 versus Ferris State, Notre Dame has now had three consecutive home sellouts - Michigan State (2/4) and Miami (1/14). The last time the Irish played in front of three straight sellouts was Feb. 14-28 when they sold out once against Ferris State (Feb. 14) and twice versus Michigan (Feb. 27-28).

ROAD WARRIORS: With the win on Feb. 11 at Ferris State, Notre Dame is now 5-3-1 on the road since a Dec. 6 win at Minnesota State. The Irish played six of their eight games in January on the road and finished the month with a 3-3-2 record. In the six road games, Notre Dame was 3-2-1. The Irish are 1-1-0 on the road in February.

A WALSH FIRST: Senior Mike Walsh collected the first two-goal game of his career on Feb. 10 in the 4-1 win over Ferris State. His first goal of the game proved to be the game winner, his team-best fourth of the season. For his career, the game winner moved him into a tie for ninth on the all-time game winning goal list with Dan Carlson '01 and Kirt Bjork '83. Three of his game winners have been the lone goals in 1-0 Irish wins. Nine of Walsh's 25 career goals have been game winners.

DOUBLE-DIGIT SCORERS: With two goals on Feb. 10 versus Ferris State, left wing Mike Walsh now has 10 goals on the season to join Josh Sciba (13) and Tim Wallace (10) as double-digit goal scorers for the Irish. Last year, Notre Dame's top goal scorer had just six goals. The last time the Irish had three or more players with 10 or more goals was the 2003-04 season when five players had 10 or more goals on the year.

OPENING NIGHT TURNAROUND: The Feb. 10 win over Ferris State (4-1) was just the third of the year for the Irish in the opening game of a CCHA series and the first since Jan. 6 when they won 4-1 at Nebraska-Omaha. Notre Dame is just 3-7-2 in the opening game of CCHA series this year. In game two of a weekend series in conference play, the Irish are 6-5-1.

NEW KID ON THE BLOCK: Freshman right wing Erik Condra leads Notre Dame in scoring with six goals and 23 assists for 29 points in 30 games during his rookie year. He currently leads all CCHA rookies in scoring and is two points ahead of Michigan's Jack Johnson (7-20-27). Nationally, Condra is seventh among rookie scorers. His two-assist game on Feb. 11 versus Ferris State was his seventh game with two or more points (4-three-point games and two with two points). He also is tied for 17th in the CCHA scoring race and his 23 assists tie him for fifth in the league in that category.

PLAYING WITH THE LEAD: Notre Dame scored the first goal of the game in each of its games with Ferris State last weekend and held the lead after one period for the fifth and sixth times this season. The Irish are 6-0-0 when leading after one period. They are 10-0-3 when leading after two periods and have now scored the first goal in a game 15 times this year, going 10-2-3 in those games PACKING THE HOUSE: Notre Dame played in front of its third consecutive sellout crowd (2,763) at the Joyce Center in the Feb. 10 4-1 win over Ferris State. The standing room only crowd was the fourth of the year for the Irish. Capacity crowds have watched the Irish on Jan. 14 (vs. Miami), Feb. 3 (vs. Michigan State) and last night. The first sellout came on Nov. 4 (vs. Michigan). The last time Notre Dame played in front of three consecutive sellouts was Feb. 14-28, 2004 when the Irish had a sellout crowd for Ferris State and two versus Michigan.

TOP CITIZEN: Notre Dame senior defenseman Chris Trick (Troy, Mich.) is one of seven finalists for college hockey's Humanitarian Award that is awarded each year to college hockey's top citizen. An assistant captain with the Irish, Trick oversees the team's community service projects. He has been a two-year member of Notre Dame's Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC) and has been the team's organizer for various community service projects the last two seasons. Away from Notre Dame, Trick has worked with the Michigan Amateur Hockey Association's (MAHA) Great Lakes Sled Dogs, a sled hockey program in Fraser, Mich, playing for the team, coaching and helping in fund-raising efforts. The Hockey Humanitarian Award is awarded every year at the NCAA Frozen Four in April.

SIX AND COUNTING: David Brown's 1-0 shutout at Ohio State (Jan. 28) was the sixth of his career and second of the season for the junior goaltender. He had four in his freshman year to set the single-season record. He is now tied for first on the career shutout list with Morgan Cey '05, as both now have six in their Notre Dame careers.

POWER-PLAY LEADER: Junior center Josh Sciba (Westland, Mich.) collected his team leading 14th goal of the season on Feb. 11 and his ninth power-play tally in the 3-2 win at Ferris State. Sciba's nine power-play goals this year tie him for first in the CCHA. They are the most for a Notre Dame player since Aaron Gill '04 had nine in 2003-04. On the year, Sciba has career highs in goals (14), assists (12), points (26) and power-play goals (9). For his career, Sciba has 27 goals with 14 of them coming on the power play.

CAREER YEAR: Mark Van Guilder's (So., Roseville, Minn.) five goals and 16 assists on the season for 21 points gives him a career highs in all three categories. He recorded the fourth multiple-point game of his career with a goal and two assists versus Nebraska-Omaha on Jan. 6. He is currently third in scoring on the Irish roster. He recorded his first career game winner in the 3-2 win at Ferris State.

FAN FAVORITES: During their six road games in January, the Irish helped the opposition draw some of its biggest crowds of the year. On Jan. 6-7 at Nebraska-Omaha, the Mavericks drew back-to-back season-high crowds of 6,366 and 7,642. On Jan. 21 at Northern Michigan, the game drew the Wildcats' third biggest crowd of the year, 3,992. Last weekend at Ohio State, the two games drew the biggest crowds of the year with 10,857 on Friday and 11,141 on Saturday at Value City Arena. At the Joyce Center, the Irish have played in front of sellout crowds (2,763) in each of their last three games.

POWER-PLAY PRODUCER: Wes O'Neill leads Notre Dame's defense in scoring with five goals and 15 assists for 20 points, tying his career high in points set last season (6g, 14a). His 15 assists are now a career high. Four of his five goals this season have come on the power play. The big defenseman recorded the first three-point game of his career at Minnesota State (Dec. 6) with three assists on the night. On the year, O'Neill has five multiple-point games and for his career, now has 10 games with two or more points. The 2004 New York Islander draft choice has seen 15 of his points (4g, 11a) come on the power play. In his two-plus seasons with the Irish, O'Neill now has 13 goals and 39 assists for 52 points with 32 of those coming via the power play (10g, 22a).

NOAH KNOWS: Defenseman Noah Babin (Jr., Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.) is second among Irish defensemen in scoring with three goals and 11 assists for 14 points. He now has career-highs in assists and points, surpassing last year's totals of five goals and six assists for 11 points. His three-point game (1g, 2a) against Lake Superior State (Dec. 18) was a career-high for the junior defenseman.

POWER-PLAY POWER: After struggling early in the season on the power play, Notre Dame has now scored at least one power-play goal in 11 of its last 13 games, including five with two or more. In those 13 games, the Irish are 17-for-75 on the power play for a 22.7% success rate. For the year, Notre Dame has 35 power-play goals in 191 chances (18.2%) in 30 games. Last season, the Irish had 23 power-play goals in 238 chances (9.8%) in 38 games. The Irish power play currently ranks third in the CCHA.

POWER-PLAY POINT GETTERS: Here are Notre Dame's top five scorers on the power play this season:

Name	Goals	Assists	Points
Josh Sciba	9	9	18
Wes O'Neill	4	12	16
Erik Condra	3	13	16
Mark Van Guilder	4	11	15
Noah Babin	3	6	9

IRON MEN: Senior right wing Tim Wallace has played in all 147 games during his three-plus seasons at Notre Dame. He became Notre Dame's all-time "Iron Man," passing former defenseman Evan Nielsen ('03) who held the record with 114 games between 2000-03. Other Irish consecutive game streaks of 35 games or more include:

Mark Van Guilder - 68 games
Mike Walsh - 63 games

Van Guilder joins Wallace as the only two players with two or more years experience on the Irish roster who have not missed a game during their careers. Chris Trick saw his streak of 61 consecutive games snapped on Jan. 20 when he did not play at Northern Michigan.

BACK-TO-BACK SHUTOUTS: Notre Dame has been involved in back-to-back 1-0 shutouts three times in their history. Last weekend marked the first time the two teams involved split the games. On Feb. 12-13, 1999, the Irish lost back-to-back 1-0 games at Michigan State and then at home with Ferris State. On Dec. 28-Jan. 3, 2003-04, the Irish won 1-0 games versus Maine and Findlay.

STREAK IS SNAPPED: Notre Dame's 1-0 shut-out of Ohio State on Jan. 28 snapped a seven-game Buckeye win streak versus the Irish. It was the first Irish win since Oct. 10, 2003. The win also put a dent in Ohio State's recent domination of the Irish as the Buckeyes are now 13-2-3 versus Notre Dame in the last 18 meetings.

WALLY'S WORLD: Senior right wing Tim Wallace (Anchorage, Alaska) is having a career-year for the Irish in 2005-06. His assist on Wes O'Neill's goal in the 4-1 win over Ferris State gives him career highs in goals (10), assists (10), points (20) and power-play goals (4). Wallace recorded his fifth multiple-point game of the year on Jan. 20 with a goal and an assist at Northern Michigan. The senior right wing has four two-point games on the year and one game with three points (2g, 1a) - a career high. He has a pair of two-goal games to his credit - Oct. 28 vs. Princeton and Dec. 18 vs. Lake Superior - giving him three for his career. Wallace continues to add to his "Iron Man" streak as he has now played in 147 consecutive games for the Irish.

UNLIKELY HEROES: Notre Dame's 4-3 win at Northern Michigan produced a couple of unlikely heroes for the Irish in freshman goaltender Jordan Pearce (Anchorage, Alaska) and junior defenseman Tom Sawatske (Duluth, Minn.). Pearce saw his first action since Dec. 2 at Western Michigan when he entered the game with 13:28 left in the second period and the Irish trailing 3-1. He stopped all 14 shots he faced in the game, including three on a five-minute power-play due to a major penalty with 3:49 left in the game, to pick up his first win since Nov. 10. Sawatske scored his first goal with the Irish on his ninth shot in a Notre Dame uniform for the game winner at 8:50 of the third period. The goal was Sawatske's first collegiate goal since Nov. 29, 2003 versus Michigan State when he was a member of the Wisconsin Badgers.

BATTLING BACK: Notre Dame's come-from-behind win at Northern Michigan on Jan. 21 was the first for the Irish this season. Notre Dame went into that game with an 0-13-0 record when trailing after two. It was the team's first come-from-behind win (when trailing, entering the third period) since Dec. 10, 2004, when they came from a 2-1 deficit to beat Michigan State, 3-2 in overtime.

SCORING BY CLASS: Here's how Notre Dame scoring breaks down by classes this season.

Class (Skaters)	Goals	Assists	Points
Seniors (5)	27	22	49
Juniors (7)	30	52	82
Sophomores (8)	9	27	36
Freshmen (4)	9	27	36
Totals	75	130	205

IRISH VERSUS TOP 15-RANKED TEAMS: Following the weekend series with Michigan State (Feb. 3-4), the Irish have now played 10 games this season versus teams ranked in the Top 15 nationally. In those games, Notre Dame is 0-8-2 with the two ties coming versus Miami (11/18 and 1/13). The last Irish win versus a ranked team came on Oct. 22, 2004 when the Irish knocked off then No. 1 Boston College, 3-2. The Nov. 19 tie at Miami snapped a 15-game losing streak versus ranked teams. Since that win versus BC, the Irish are 0-19-2 versus ranked teams.

FOUR IN THE NHL: With his recall on Jan. 30 by the Columbus Blue Jackets, former Irish standout Ben Simon '00 gives Notre Dame four alumni now playing in the National Hockey League. Simon joins Rob Globke '04 (Florida), Brett Lebda '04 (Detroit) and Mark Eaton (Nashville) now playing in the NHL. Only one other time, have the Irish had more players in the NHL in one season. That came during the 1982-83 season when the Irish had five players see time in the NHL. That group included: Jim Brown '82 (three games with Los Angeles), Jack Brownschidle '77 (72 games with St. Louis), Jeff Brownschidle '81 (four games with Hartford), Don Jackson '78 (71 games with Edmonton) and Dave Poulin '82 (two games with Philadelphia).

AHEAD OF PACE: With 75 goals in the first 30 games of the season, the Irish have already surpassed last season's mark of 60 goals that was recorded in 38 games. The 60 goals (1.58 per game) were the fewest ever scored by the Irish in a single season. Notre Dame is averaging 2.50 goals per game this season.

GETTING INVOLVED: Tom Sawatske became the third Notre Dame defenseman to score a goal this season with his third-period game winner versus Northern Michigan on Jan. 21. He joins Wes O'Neill (5) and Noah Babin (3) on the goal-scoring list for defensemen. For the year, O'Neill leads the team's defensemen in scoring with five goals and 15 assists for 20 points. Babin is second with three goals and 11 assists for 14 points. Sophomore Brock Sheahan (Lethbridge, Alb.) has a career-high eight assists. Senior Chris Trick (Troy, Mich.) has three assists. Sawatske has a goal and two assists for three points while sophomore Dan VeNard (Vernon Hills, Ill.) has one assist on the year. For the season, Notre Dame's defense has contributed nine goals and 40 assists for 49 points on the year.

ALUMNI NOTES: Former Notre Dame goaltender Forrest Karr '99 was named the director of athletics and campus recreation at the University of Alaska Fairbanks on Tues., Jan. 11. Karr joined the Nanook athletics' staff in 2004 as the school's compliance coordinator. On July 22, 2005, he became the interim athletics director at UAF, taking over for Dr. Cory Schwartz. He is a 1999 CCHA all-academic pick and a second team Academically All-American in the same season. A four-year letter winner for the Irish, Karr was 27-2525-6 in goal for the Irish with a 2.92 career goals-against average and a .899 save percentage. Two other former Notre Dame hockey players were busy during the Christmas holidays. Morgan Cey '05, who is currently a member of the Tampa Bay Lightning organization and playing in Johnstown of the ECHL was selected to play for Team Canada in the 2005 Spengler Cup Tournament in Davos, Switzerland from Dec. 26-31. Cey, who saw limited playing time, collected a silver medal as Canada finished second in the tournament. Former Irish scoring standout Rob Globke '04 saw his hockey dream come true as he made his NHL debut with the Florida Panthers on Dec. 28 in a 6-4 win over Boston. Globke was recalled from the Rochester Americans of the AHL on Dec. 27. He scored his first NHL goal on Feb. 4 versus the Tampa Bay Lightning.

TOPPING THE LIST: The University of Notre Dame is in first place in the 2005-06 National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Cup all-sports competition after the fall sports seasons. The Irish recorded 412 points based on a third-place finish at the NCAA men's cross country championship, a seventh-place finish at the NCAA women's cross country championship, a quarterfinal appearance in women's soccer, a third-round appearance in men's soccer, a third-round appearance by the volleyball team and while football finished ranked 11th in the final USA Today Poll. The top five teams in the NACDA Director's Cup standings:

1. Notre Dame 412
2. Penn State 308.5
3. Stanford 282
4. Duke 280
5. Wisconsin 277

THREE FOR THE ROAD: Notre Dame's three-point weekend versus Nebraska-Omaha was the first road series for the Irish with three or more points since Jan. 17-18, 2004 when Notre Dame won and tied at Wisconsin. It's the most points the Irish have recorded in a CCHA road series since a sweep at Bowling Green on Feb. 14-15, 2003.

ROAD WARRIORS: Junior center Josh Sciba and sophomore right wing Mark Van Guilder each had three-point games at Nebraska-Omaha in the Jan. 7, 4-1 win. Sciba had a power-play goal and two assists while Van Guilder scored a short-handed marker with two assists on the night. For both, it was the second three-point games of the season and their careers. Both players added an assist in Saturday's 2-2 tie for four points on the weekend.

THE QUICKEST, THE LATEST AND THE FASTEST TWO: Tim Wallace's goal at 00:09 of the first period versus Western Michigan on Dec. 2 was the quickest goal at the start of a game in Notre Dame history. It broke the mark of 12 seconds set by Sterling Black on Jan. 6, 1990 versus Arizona. Erik Condra's goal with nine seconds left on the clock versus Minnesota State (Dec. 6) was the latest regulation-time, game-winning goal ever for the Irish, edging T.J. Jindra's (Jr., Faribault, Minn.) short-handed game winner against Boston College last season by six seconds (19:45). On Jan. 21 at Northern Michigan, Erik Condra and Tom Sawatske scored a pair of goals just eight seconds apart in the third period of a 4-3 win. Condra scored a power-play goal at 8:42 of the third period and Sawatske scored off the following faceoff just eight seconds later at 8:50 for the game-winning goal.

ALL TIED UP: Notre Dame has now recorded three 2-2 ties on the season, giving the Irish 52 overtime games since the start of the 1999-2000 season. In those games, the Irish are 7-6-39. During the 2004-05 season, Notre Dame played in nine overtime contests, going 1-2-6 in those games. The lone overtime win came on Dec. 10 versus Michigan State and was the first regular-season overtime win since Jan. 25, 2002, snapping a 16-game winless (0-2-14) skid in regular-season overtime games. This season, the Irish are 0-0-3 in overtime.

NO. 1 TEAMS: Through the first 30 games of the season, the Irish will have played 10 of them versus ranked teams. The Irish opened with No. 4 Colorado College and then played No. 9 Denver. The second week of the season, the Irish played No. 3 Michigan in a pair of games. On Nov. 18-19, the Irish played a pair of games versus No. 11/12 Miami at Oxford, Ohio. On Jan. 13-14, the Irish faced No. 3 Miami, getting a 2-2 tie and a 3-2 loss versus the RedHawks. All four of those teams have been ranked No. 1 in the nation at one time or another this year. The Irish dropped two games to No. 14 Michigan State last weekend.

LUCKY 13: Notre Dame scored 13 times in its two games last weekend versus Bowling Green. To put that number in perspective for the Irish and the goal-scoring woes they suffered in 2004-05, during January of 2005, the Irish played 11 games and scored just 12 goals.

NINE IS FINE: Notre Dame's nine goals versus Bowling Green on Nov. 10 were the most by the Irish since Nov. 20, 1998, a 9-5 win over Western Michigan at the Joyce Center.

INCOMING IRISH: Forward Kevin Deeth (Gig Harbor, Wash.), one of four incoming recruits for Notre Dame for the fall of 2006, played in the United States Hockey League's 2006 Prospects/All-Star game that was held in Sioux City, Iowa on Feb. 7. Deeth, a member of the Green Bay Gamblers, leads the team in scoring with 15 goals and 31 assists for 46 points in 45 games this season and is tied for seventh overall in the USHL. Three other incoming Irish recruits are also playing in the USHL this season. The list includes:

Christian Minella (Aurora, Colo.) who is currently playing for the USHL's Sioux City Musketeers. In 45 games for the Stampede, Minella has 16 goals and 10 assists for 26 points.

Kyle Lawson (New Hudson, Mich.) is a defenseman with the Tri-City Storm. He has seven goals and 12 assists for 19 points in 40 games this season.

Ryan Thang (Edina, Minn.) is a forward who has played for the Sioux Falls Stampede and the Omaha Lancers this season. In 42 games, he has 16 goals and 22 assists for 38 points and is tied for 20th in scoring in the league.

THE LAST TIME: Notre Dame's 9-4 win over Bowling Green on Nov. 11 was the first CCHA win for the Irish since Dec. 10, 2004 when they defeated Michigan State, 3-2 in overtime at the Joyce Center. The win snapped a 17-game (0-15-2) conference regular-season winless skid and a 19-game (0-17-2) winless skid versus CCHA teams (includes two playoff games versus Michigan).

HATS OFF: Junior center Josh Sciba recorded the first hat trick of his career in the 9-4 win over Bowling Green on Nov. 10. Sciba scored two goals on the power play and added a short-handed marker to cap his evening. He followed that with a third power-play goal of the weekend when in Friday's 4-2 win over the Falcons. Sciba's hat trick was the first for a Notre Dame player since March 18, 2004 when Aaron Gill '04 scored three goals in a 6-5 Irish loss to Ohio State in the first round of the CCHA Super Six. His hat trick was also the first for a Notre Dame player at the Joyce Center since Aniket Dhadphale '99 scored three on November 13, 1998 in a 6-2 win over Bowling Green. Before Sciba's hat trick, the last five Irish three-goal efforts came on the road.

IRISH CAPTAINS: Notre Dame head coach Jeff Jackson named his captain and alternates for the 2005-06 season on Oct. 5. Junior T.J. Jindra (Faribault, Minn.) was selected as the team's captain, making him the first junior captain since Evan Neilsen '03. Jindra is the 13th junior in the program's history to be selected captain. He will be assisted by seniors Mike Walsh (Northville, Mich.) and Chris Trick (Troy, Mich.) along with junior Jason Paige. Walsh and Paige are in their second seasons as alternate captains for the Irish.

HIGH-SCORING AFFAIRS: After struggling to score goals in 2004-05, the Fighting Irish have now been involved in two games this season where they combined with their opponent to score 13 goals in a game. On Nov. 4, Notre Dame dropped an 8-5 decision to Michigan. On Nov. 10, the Irish prevailed, 9-4, versus Bowling Green. Previously, the last time Notre Dame and its opponent combined for 13 goals in a game was Dec. 5, 2003 when the Irish lost an 8-6 decision to Western Michigan.

HIGH FIVES: The last time that Notre Dame won a game by five goals was on March 16, 2003 when the Irish defeated Miami, 5-0, in game three of the first round of the CCHA playoffs. The Irish had five goals in the third period of the win over Bowling Green. The last time they scored five goals in a period came on Oct. 20, 2000 when they scored five second-period goals in a 6-4 win over Northeastern at the Joyce Center.

FAST START: Freshman Erik Condra's three-point game (0g, 3a) versus Denver was the first three-point game by an Irish rookie since Brett Lebda '04 had five points (1g, 4a) versus Nebraska-Omaha on Dec. 20, 2000. His three-point game was the first for the Irish since Nov. 5, 2004 when both Mike Walsh and Cory McLean '05 had three points versus Bowling Green in a 4-4 tie.

BEATING THE BEST: In each of the last two seasons, the Irish have faced a No. 1 ranked team and each year they've come away with a victory. In 2004-05, Notre Dame knocked off the No. 1 ranked Boston College Eagles in South Bend by a 3-2 score. The previous year, the Irish traveled to Chestnut Hill, Mass., and knocked off the top-ranked Eagles, 1-0. Here's the list of Irish wins versus top-ranked teams in the 38-year history of the program.

10/22/04 - vs. Boston College, 3-2
10/23/03 - at Boston College, 1-0
1/3/99 - at North Dakota, 4-3
11/20/78 - at Minnesota, 3-2
1/13/78 - vs. Denver, 5-3
1/18/74 - vs. Michigan Tech, 7-1
2/24/73 - vs. Wisconsin, 4-3
2/23/73 - vs. Wisconsin, 8-5

GOING FOR THE GOLD: For the first time since the 1975-76 season, the Notre Dame hockey team will wear gold helmets. When head coach Jeff Jackson took over the program he wanted the hockey program to have an identity. Most people identify Notre Dame with the Golden Dome and the gold football helmets worn by the football team. Irish equipment manager Dave Gilbert contacted the various hockey equipment companies during the summer and Bauer was able to recreate the Irish helmets with the same gold metallic paint that is used on the helmets of the Notre Dame football team. These helmets feature white cages (except for players who wear visors) and like the football helmets have no other markings except for an American flag on the back.

FLUSHING AWAY THE LOSSES: When new Irish head hockey coach Jeff Jackson met with his team for the first time in the 2005-06 school year, they went over team rules, regulations, set up schedules and met with other administrators. At the end of the meeting, he gave the team's returning players an index card to write down everything that they hated from the previous season (a 5-27-6 year that ended in a 19-game winless skid - 0-17-2).

After doing that, the team went to where center ice would be at the Joyce Center rink and threw the cards into a waste basket to burn them, symbolizing that the previous year was done and it was time to move on. Jackson had the ashes placed in a jar that was kept in the locker room to remind everyone about the previous season.

"I thought that it would be good to keep them as a reminder of what happens when you're not committed," said Jackson.

On Saturday night (Oct. 29) following the first period at home versus Princeton, after starting the season at 0-3 and coming off a bad second period performance the night before (in a 5-3 loss to the Tigers), Jackson walked into the locker room and before talking to the team, took the ashes into the restroom and flushed them down the toilet.

"With the first three games, our second periods were horrible, so we flushed last year away," said Jackson.

"They (the players) laughed a little, but the toilet flushed and last year is behind us. Those losses from last year were still lingering over the team and I'm just glad it's behind them and that now we can move on."

The Irish went out and scored two goals in the second period in the 2-0 win and the winless skid was over.

BACK BEHIND THE BENCH: Notre Dame head coach Jeff Jackson returns to collegiate coaching this season for the first time since leaving Lake Superior State following the 1995-96 season. In six years with the Lakers, Jackson compiled a 182-52-25 career record with two national championships, two CCHA regular-season titles and four CCHA tournament championships. He came into the season as the NCAA's winningest active coach with at least five years experience with a .751 winning percentage. His 182 career wins (at the start of the year) ranked him 26th among active coaches. Included in his 182 wins are 36 postseason victories and a .837 winning percentage (36-7 in postseason). In CCHA postseason action, Jackson's teams were 24-2 (.923).

OPENING NIGHT STAND OUT: Senior right wing Tim Wallace has come up big on "Opening Night" for the Irish in his four seasons. On Oct. 21 at Colorado College, he continued a personal "Opening Night" streak with an assist versus the Tigers. During his four seasons at Notre Dame, Wallace has scored a point in the first game each season. In 2002, as a freshman, he scored a goal on his first career shot at Minnesota-Duluth. As a sophomore, he had a pair of assists in a 5-2 win at Ohio State. Last season, he set up Notre Dame's first goal of the season and this year he assisted on the lone goal versus Colorado College. In four season openers, Wallace has a goal and four assists for five points.

FIRST TIMERS: Freshman left wing Garrett Regan (Hastings, Minn.) became the first Irish freshman to score a goal this season when he notched his first career goal at 3:59 of the second period. The goal was also the game winner. After getting no points in the first game of the season, Erik Condra burst on the scene with three assists in his second game of the year and now has five assists. Condra added his first career goal versus Michigan on Nov. 4. Goaltender Jordan Pearce had his first win and first shutout of the season on Oct. 29 versus Princeton. Christian Hanson scored his first goal and point with a third-period goal against Bowling Green. Defenseman Tom Sawatske (Jr., Duluth, Minn.) picked up his first assist on Nov. 5 at Michigan and his first goal on Jan. 21, a game winner versus Northern Michigan. Justin White (Fr., Traverse City, Mich.) has seen action in eight games and is still looking for his first points of the year.

MOVING ON: Over the last two seasons, Notre Dame has seen six of its players sign contracts with National Hockey League teams. Only Michigan (7) and Minnesota (6) have as many or more NHL signees. This past summer, goaltender Morgan Cey (Wilkie, Sask.) and former Irish forward Yan Stastny (St. Louis, Mo.) signed with the Tampa Bay Lightning and the Edmonton Oilers respectively. They joined 2003-04 signees - Neil Komadoski (Ottawa Senators), Brett Lebda (Detroit Red Wings), Aaron Gill (San Jose Sharks) and Rob Globke (Florida Panthers). Komadoski, Globke and Stastny were selected in the NHL Draft (Stastny was a Boston Bruin pick) while Cey, Gill and Lebda were free-agent signees. Stastny played at Notre Dame from 2001-03 before playing professionally in Germany. He would have been a senior in 2004-05.

FAMILY MATTERS: Two Irish freshmen - forwards Erik Condra (Livonia, Mich.) and Garrett Regan (Hastings, Minn.) - join seniors Rory Walsh (Milton, Mass.) and Mike Walsh as Irish hockey players with family ties to Notre Dame athletics. Condra's uncle is All-American forward Kirt Bjork ('83) who played at Notre Dame from 1979-83. He scored 76 goals with 85 assists for 161 career points in 141 career games. He took All-American honors in 1983 when he had 29 goals and 34 assists for 63 points. Regan's uncle - Sean Regan - was a defenseman for the Irish from 1981-83 before finishing his career at the University of Minnesota. In two seasons, Regan had eight goals and 34 assists for 42 points in 60 games. Rory Walsh's father, Brian ('77), was an all-American hockey player for the Irish. A center, the elder Walsh is Notre Dame's all-time leading scorer after recording 234 career points on 89 goals and 145 assists. Mike Walsh's father, Max ('74), was an offensive lineman on the Notre Dame football team and a member of the 1973 national championship team. Rory Walsh is one of Notre Dame's goaltenders and Walsh plays left wing for the Irish.

PUTTING ON THE FOIL: Notre Dame freshman Christian Hanson (Venetia, Pa.) becomes the sixth player to play for the Irish whose father played in the National Hockey League. His father, Dave Hanson, played 10 years of professional hockey between 1974-75 and 1983-84, including stints with the Detroit Red Wings and the Minnesota North Stars and the World Hockey Association's (WHA) Minnesota Fighting Saints and the New England Whalers. Fans might also be familiar with Dave Hanson, as one of the famed Hanson Brothers, made famous in the hockey movie - Slapshot. Hanson currently is the director of the Island Sports Center, home of Robert Morris University's hockey team, in suburban Pittsburgh.
