NOTRE DAME-UL-LAFAYETTE HISTORY

- Notre Dame is facing Louisiana-Lafayette for the first time on Tuesday night. The Ragin' Cajuns will become the 213th team to face the Fighting Irish.
- The last time Notre Dame faced a new opponent was on March 19, 2016, as the Irish downed North Carolina A&T, 95-61, at Purcell Pavilion in the first round of the NCAA Championship.
- Notre Dame has won its last 27 games against first-time opponents, including 2015-16 victories over Bucknell, Denver and North Carolina A&T.
- The last time the Irish lost to a first-time opponent came in the state of Texas with the Irish dropping a 76-65 decision at Baylor on Dec. 1, 2010.
- Curiously, despite boasting an all-time record of 900-322 (.736), Notre Dame does not lead the series against any teams from the state of Louisiana. The Irish are 2-2 all-time against LSU, 1-2 against Louisiana Tech and 0-1 against Northwestern State. Along with the Ragin' Cajuns, Notre Dame has never faced Grambling State, Louisiana-Monroe, McNeese State, New Orleans, Nicholls State, Southeastern Louisiana, Southern or Tulane in women's basketball.

SOMEBODY'S "0" MUST GO...AGAIN

- As a curious function of opening the season with the 16-team bracketed Preseason WNIT, UL-Lafayette (1-0) will be the fifth undefeated team to face the Irish in its five games so far in 2016-17.
- Notre Dame, still undefeated itself, has previously faced four similarly undefeated schools in Central Michigan (0-0), Fordham (1-0), Green Bay (2-0) and Washington (3-0), defeating each of them.
- The next opponent for the Irish, TCU, is also undefeated this year at 3-0 heading into a Tuesday night game with Grambling State. Should the Horned Frogs beat the Tigers, the first time Notre Dame would face a non-undefeated team this season would be on Nov. 30 when it travels to face 4-1 Iowa in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge at Carver Hawkeye Arena.

IRISH AT 4-0

- Notre Dame has opened the season on a four-game winning streak. It marks the fifth consecutive season in which the Irish have started at least 4-0.
- The 2015-16 Irish started 7-0 before falling at UConn on Dec. 5. The 2014-15 Irish stood at 8-0 before losing to UConn on Dec. 6, the 2013-14 Irish were 37-0 before losing to UConn in the national championship game and the 2012-13 Irish were 5-0 before falling to Baylor on Dec. 5.

NOTRE DAME COLLECTS 900TH WIN

- Notre Dame's victory over No. 17 Washington on Nov. 20 in the Preseason WNIT championship game was the 900th victory in school history, lifting the team to a 900-322 (.736) record all-time.
- The Irish became the 17th Division I team to reach this milestone and the second one this year, joining Penn State.
- Notre Dame's rise to 900 has been more meteoric than most, however. While Notre Dame is merely 17th all-time in total wins, the school is sixth all-time with its .736 winning percentage. The Irish trail only Tennessee, Louisiana Tech, UConn, Stanford and Green Bay in that category.
- Since 2012, Notre Dame's 180 wins rank second nationally behind only UConn's 187. Baylor stands third in the nation with 178 victories over the past five years.

WELCOME HOME BRI!

- This game has been scheduled as a Homecoming contest for junior center Brianna Turner from Pearland, Texas who was the Gatorade National High School Female Athlete of the Year at Manvel High School.
- Turner was the USA Today National High School Player of the Year, a McDonald's All-American (one of eight on the current Irish roster) and Texas Miss Basketball in 2014. She led Manvel to the Texas 5A state championship that year, earning MVP honors with a 17-point, 17-rebound showing in the championship game win over Duncanville High School. As a senior, she averaged 20.8 points, 11.5 rebounds, 4.2 assists, 3.9 blocks and 3.7 steals per game.
- She has continued this success at Notre Dame where she is one of five members of the 2016-17 AP Preseason All-America team.
- The 2016 ACC Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year, Turner has been named to the postseason All-America teams following each of her first two seasons with the Irish. She averaged 14.6 points per game and 7.3 rebounds per game last season as she helped lead the Irish to a 33-2 record and the program's third consecutive dual ACC regular season and tournament championships. She is the only Division I player to rank in the top 10 in the nation for field goal percentage in each of the last two years. Turner led the ACC in both field goal percentage (59.3) and blocks per game (3.03) in 2015-16.
- Turner's family is a familiar one on the local sports scene. Her father, Howard, played basketball at Lamar University in near-by Beaumont, Texas. Turner's mother, Kellye, played basketball at the University of Houston.

ABOUT THE SHAMROCK SERIES

- Unable to secure a Houston-area opponent for Brianna Turner's Homecoming game, Muffet McGraw has referred to this neutral-site contest as the team's "Shamrock Series game."
- For the benefit of those reading this in Houston and Lafayette, for the past eight seasons, the Notre Dame football team has played one of its home games at a neutral site in an effort to better continue Knute Rockne's legacy of transforming his small Catholic school in Indiana into a truly national program. The Irish are 8-0 in those games.
- Among the most notable venues for Shamrock Series games are Fenway Park (2015 vs. Boston College), Yankee Stadium (2010 vs. Army) and Soldier Field (2012 vs. Miami). This year's Shamrock Series game was played not far from Houston as the Irish beat Army on Nov. 12 at the Alamodome in San Antonio.
- The women's basketball team taken this approach to scheduling Homecoming games before. On Dec. 1, 2013, Notre Dame beat Duquesne, 100-61, in Toronto as a Homecoming game for Guelph, Ontario native Natalie Achonwa.

ALLEN NETS 1,000

- During the second quarter of Notre Dame's win over Green Bay on Nov. 17, senior point guard Lindsay Allen became the 35th Irish player to score 1,000 points in her career.
- Allen has since pushed her career total to 1,015, placing her 33rd all-time on the Irish scoring chart, surpassing both Melissa Lechlitner (1,005 from 2006-10) and Kelley Siemon (1,006 from 1997-2001) during the Nov. 20 win over No. 17 Washington.
- A 36th member of the 1,000 point club could be coming shortly as junior Brianna Turner has 965 points scored in her Irish career, leaving her 35 shy of the milestone.

IRISH DOWN WASHINGTON TO CLAIM WNIT TITLE

- Notre Dame has several trophies it hopes to win this season and it received a challenge worthy of claiming a trophy on Nov. 20 in defeating No. 17 Washington, 71-60, to claim the Preseason WNIT championship.
- Final Four participants in 2016, the Huskies brought the nation's fifth-ranked offense (93.3 points per game) to Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center but the Irish proved to be up to the challenge, opening the game on a 12-0 run and not looking back. The Irish never trailed by fewer than nine points after the first quarter, fending off several spurts from their opponents in the process, and walked off of its home court with a trophy in-hand.
- Arike Ogunbowale was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player while Lindsay Allen also earned a spot on the all-tournament team. Ogunbowale capped a strong four-game run with a team-high 17 points against Washington, including five rebounds, four steals and three assists. Allen scored 13 points in the final with four assists and five rebounds. Meanwhile, her steady leadership helped the Irish in a close semifinal contest against Green Bay in particular.
- Two other Irish players considered but not named to the all-tournament team added significantly to the Washington win. Brianna Turner had a double-double with 10 points and 12 rebounds. Kathryn Westbeld scored 14 points while adding in eight rebounds with three assists and three steals.
- Notre Dame's defense and vociferous home crowd of 8,106 helped keep the formidable Husky offense off balance for much of the game. Washington shot just 36.8% for the game including a 22.6% first half clip (7-for-31). The Irish forced 17 turnovers, being credited with 13 steals on the day. Notre Dame held Washington to just four offensive rebounds.

IRISH DOWN GREEN BAY IN WNIT SEMIFINAL

- Notre Dame extended its Purcell Pavilion winning streak to 33 games and the player who wears number 33 for the Irish, Kathryn Westbeld, helped seal the team's 71-67 victory over feisty Green Bay on Nov. 17 in the Preseason WNIT semifinals.
- A Mehryn Kraker 3-pointer for the Phoenix had cut the Irish lead to just five points at 66-61 and Green Bay got the ball back with just over a minute to play. Westbeld locked down on Phoenix star Jessica Lindstrom at the defensive end and tied up the ball, giving it back to the Irish on the possession arrow with 1:08 to play. Arike Ogunbowale missed a 3-point try on the ensuing Notre Dame possession, but Westbeld grabbed an offensive rebound (Notre Dame's 20th of the night) and dished it to Marina Mabrey. Mabrey was fouled while shooting, sank both free throws with 35 seconds to play, and the Irish went on to claim the tight Pre-season WNIT semifinal matchup.

• Ogunbowale led the Irish with 18 points on the night. Westbeld topped the team with her eight rebounds accompanied by 10 points. Senior point guard Lindsay Allen filled out the box score nicely with eight assists, eight points, five rebounds and three steals while playing all 40 minutes. As usual, reigning Horizon League Player of the Week Lindstrom was the top player for the Phoenix with 20 points and 16 rebounds.

• Freshman guard Jackie Young made her long-awaited Irish debut after missing the first two games with a thumb injury. The 2016 Indiana Miss Basketball and Naismith National Player of the Year checked into the contest during a media timeout with 4:51 to play in the first quarter. Young played 15 minutes on the night, scored three points, grabbed seven rebounds and assisted on a basket.

IRISH START GAME AND SEASON HOT

• Notre Dame hoped to get a fast start to its season on opening night against Central Michigan. Thanks to a fast start to the game, scoring each of the contest's first 15 points, the Irish got the fast start they hoped for, commencing their year with a 107-47 win over the Chippewas on Nov. 11.

• In scoring 107 points, the Irish tied the most points scored in a season opener since beating Liberty 113-35 on Nov. 24, 1989, on a neutral floor in Orlando, Florida. The Irish also scored 107 points on Nov. 26, 2002, opening that season with a 107-65 win over Cleveland State. The 60-point margin of victory also makes it the most lopsided season-opening game since that 78-point win over the Lady Flames in 1989. Notre Dame has enjoyed great historical success in both its home openers and also specifically when opening a season at home.

• The Irish have won now each of their last 22 home openers, dating back to an 87-83 loss to No. 13 Purdue on Nov. 30, 1994.

• The Irish have won each of the last 17 games when its home opener was also its season opener, not losing since an 86-70 defeat to No. 3 Penn State on Nov. 22, 1991.

• Regardless of venue, Notre Dame has not lost a season opener in its last 22 seasons, stretching back to a loss at No. 25 Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1994.

OH GOODNESS, OGUNBOWALE!

• The first round of the Preseason WNIT proved to be a banner night for sophomore Arike Ogunbowale who obliterated her previous career high of 21 by scoring 30 points in Notre Dame's Nov. 11 win over Central Michigan.

• For her performance against the Chippewas, Ogunbowale was named the ACC's Player of the Week on Nov. 14.

• Ogunbowale hit all five of her 3-point attempts on the night, a feat that had not been seen for the Irish in 26 years. Ogunbowale provided just the third game in Irish lore where a player took at least five 3-pointers and did not miss one.

Alicia Ratay sank all seven of her 3-point shots at Rutgers on Feb. 19, 2000, while Sheila McMillen went a perfect five-for-five behind the arc against UConn on Dec. 8, 1998.

• Her 12-of-13 from the floor narrowly missed becoming a school record for field goal percentage. Karen Robinson set that mark by going 12-for-12 at St. Louis on Jan. 14, 1989.

• It also marked the first time a Notre Dame player had hit the 30-point mark in a game since Jewell Loyd tallied 31 at Georgia Tech on Feb. 19, 2015.

• Ogunbowale also had two steals, two assists and three rebounds on the night.

JOHNSON MAKES FIRST START

• Junior Mychal Johnson made her first career start on Nov. 11 against Central Michigan and gave the Irish backcourt a nice lift. She scored seven points, matched her career high with four steals, had four assists against no turnovers, and blocked one shot.

• The blocked shot proved to be the final exclamation point of the win and one of the night's highlights for the Irish. With 17.0 seconds to play, she never stopped hustling and extended from the top of the key to swat a 3-point try by Gabrielle Bird out of bounds. The energized Irish bench jumped up and erupted with joy for Johnson's defensive effort, coming on the heels of a tough preseason where she battled hard through several minor injuries.

THE FULL NELSON

• Throughout preseason camp, Muffet McGraw regularly responded when asked that Kristina Nelson was her team's most improved player since last year and she is poised to have a break-out season. Early indicators certainly pointed in that direction after a solid opening two games.

• Her contributions off of the bench were crucial to Notre Dame's 67-36 win over Fordham on Nov. 14. The Irish led by just eight points at 38-26 with 2:39 left in the third quarter. Nelson keyed a 45-second 6-0 spurt for the Irish in which she scored all six points and gathered three rebounds.

• Nelson finished up with nine points against the Rams, just one off of her career high, seven rebounds, and brought McGraw to her feet applauding with 3:35 to go when she took a charge to cause a Fordham turnover.

• In the season-opener against Central Michigan (Nov. 11), Nelson played 20 minutes off of the bench and narrowly missed what could have been her first career double-double with a career-high nine rebounds and eight points, two shy of her career high.

• Nelson also matched her career high against the Chippewas with two steals while blocking out a shot and dishing out a pair of assists.

IRISH HOLD UNANIMOUS POLE POSITION

- Notre Dame received the No. 1 spot in the preseason Associated Press poll. Notre Dame stood at No. 2 in the preseason coaches poll but leapt up to No. 1 on Nov. 15, surpassing defending national champion Connecticut.
- This marked Notre Dame's first time holding the AP's top spot entering a season.
- The only other time the Irish sat atop the AP poll came during the 2001 season when Notre Dame earned the No. 1 ranking for a total of five weeks - four straight from Jan. 22 to Feb. 12, regaining it on March 5.
- Before this season, Notre Dame's last game as the No. 1-ranked team in the country was a 78-76 loss to No. 2 UConn, in the BIG EAST final on March 6, 2001, at Gampel Pavilion. The Irish, carrying the No. 2 ranking, avenged that defeat to the Huskies by beating them in the NCAA Final Four en route to claiming the national championship two days later with a win over Purdue.
- The Irish have made a habit of standing among the nation's elite in the AP poll. This week, Notre Dame is in the top 10 for the 205th time, surpassing North Carolina's 204 for the 10th-most AP top 10 appearances all-time.
- Notre Dame has been ranked in the top 10 for each of the last 107 polls since a No. 11 ranking on Jan. 17, 2011.

ALLEN RETURNS TO LIEBERMAN AWARD WATCH LIST

- Perhaps the top point guard in the nation as she entered her senior year at Notre Dame, Lindsay Allen took the first step towards receiving formal recognition as such by the end of the year as she was one of 20 players named on Oct. 24 to the watch list for the Nancy Lieberman Award.
- In both 2015 and 2016, Allen was a finalist for the accolade, presented annually by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame to the country's best point guard. Allen will have ample opportunity to stake a claim to the honor this winter as she goes head-to-head against five other watch list members during the regular season alone (Connecticut's Kia Nurse, DePaul's Jessica January, Duke's Lexie Brown, Miami's Adrienne Motley and Syracuse's Alexis Peterson). The Irish could also face Washington and Kelsey Plum depending on how the Preseason WNIT's 16-team bracket progresses.
- Allen would become the second Irish recipient of the Award, joining Skylar Diggins who claimed the honor in both 2012 and 2013.
- Allen claimed honorable mention All-America honors in 2015-16 after dishing out 5.8 assists per game with a 2.52 assist/turnover ratio. Allen led the ACC in assists for the second straight season and, in 2016, was one of four players in Power Five conferences to rank in the top 20 nationally for both assists and assist/turnover ratio. Allen is second among all active players nationally in career assists (559) and fourth in career assists per game (4.99).
- Allen boasts a school-record 116 consecutive starts, having yet to miss one in her three-year Notre Dame career. She has served as a team captain for each of the past three seasons and has helped guide the Irish to 106-6 record over her playing career, including three ACC regular season titles, three ACC Tournament championships and a pair of NCAA Final Four appearances.

McGRAW GETS LEGENDS OF COACHING HONOR

- Now in her 30th year at Notre Dame and 35th as a collegiate head coach, Muffet McGraw's legacy of success on the court is visible in the plethora of banners hanging above the Purcell Pavilion court. Her legacy of success off the court is plainly visible in the scores of Irish women's basketball alumni who have been successful in their professions and life.
- This dual-success has been recognized by the John R. Wooden Award Committee which on Oct. 11 announced McGraw as its 2017 Legends of Coaching Award recipient.
- The lifetime achievement award is presented to a singular college basketball coach who exemplifies Wooden's high standards of coaching success and personal achievement. The accolade is just the latest national honor for McGraw – the only three-time consensus national coach of the year.
- An enshrine in the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame and a 2016 finalist for induction in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, McGraw is the third woman to receive the Legends of Coaching Award – an accolade which was first bestowed in 1999 upon Dean Smith of North Carolina. Its 18th recipient, McGraw joins Tennessee's Pat Summitt and Stanford's Tara VanDerveer as the lone female honorees.
- The winningest single-sport coach in Notre Dame history with 736 victories for the Irish, McGraw has guided Notre Dame to 23 NCAA Championship appearances, seven Final Fours (including five in a row from 2011-15) and the 2001 national championship. McGraw is one of just five coaches of any gender with 800 career wins, seven Final Fours and five appearances in the NCAA championship game, joining Smith, Duke's Mike Krzyzewski, Summitt and UConn's Geno Auriemma.

IRISH WELCOME TWO CLASS OF 2021 SIGNEES

- Notre Dame received two National Letters of Intent from the Class of 2021 on Nov. 9 as forward Danielle Patterson and center Mikayla Vaughn signed on to continue their academic and athletic careers with the Irish.
- Standing at 6-foot-2, Patterson (Brooklyn, New York/The Mary Louis Academy) is the No. 5-ranked small forward in the country, according to espnW/HoopGurlz reporter Dan Olson.
- A five-star recruit, Patterson averaged 22 points, 10 rebounds, two steals and two assists as a junior. She led The Mary Louis Academy to an 18-8 record and an appearance in the Brooklyn/Queens semifinals in 2016. She participated in the U17 Team USA Trials as a junior and was selected to the 2016 New York City Pre-Season Top 10 list prior to this season.
- Throughout high school, Patterson guided two AAU squads to championships, including the Philadelphia Belles to the 15U Boo Williams Championship and the New Jersey Sparks to the 2015 Peach State Championship.
- Vaughn, a four-star recruit, averaged 15 points, 10 rebounds and two blocks per game as a junior at Friends' Central School, before transferring to Paul VI Catholic High School (Fairfax, Virginia) for her senior season. She was named co-captain of the team, guiding it to the league championship in back-to-back seasons.
- Vaughn, 6-foot-3, was named 2016 first-team Class A all-state in Pennsylvania, following the school's run to the PAISSA quarterfinals her junior year. She has thrice received All-Mainline first-team honors.
- Vaughn, like Patterson, was a member of the Philadelphia Belles. She played lacrosse her freshman year and contributed to the team's PAISSA state championship.
