Two-Minute Drill (what you need to know about this weekend's Notre Dame - Navy matchup) -

- Notre Dame and Navy are meeting for the 79th consecutive year, making the series the longest continuous intersectional rivalry in the country. The Irish have won 41 games in a row over Navy (an NCAA record for consecutive wins against one opponent) and hold an overall edge of 68-9-1 (.878) in the series.
- Junior Brady Quinn needs just 107 yards against Navy on Saturday to break Jarious Jackson's single-season passing yardage record from 1999. Currently Quinn has 2,647 passing yards this season, trailing Jackson's total of 2,753. The Dublin, Ohio, native also is just 538 yards away from the career passing yardage mark of 7,064 by Ron Powlus.
- Quinn has already established himself as the top third-year starting quarterback in Notre Dame history. See page 10 of this notes package for a statistical breakdown.
- Notre Dame is looking to earn its seventh victory of the season for just the fourth time since 1997 (1997 - 7-6, 1998 - 9-3, 2000 - 9-3, 2002 - 10-3).
- The Irish, averaging 38.25 points per game, are on pace to set the Notre Dame single-season points-per-game record.
- Notre Dame has scored over 30 points seven times this season, accomplishing that feat for just the seventh time since 1913. During that span, the record for 30-point games in a season is nine by the 1991 team.
- Notre Dame's 128.5 yards-per-game improvement in total offense this season is rated second in the country this season behind No. 1 USC.
- Notre Dame is ranked in the NCAA Division I-A statistical top 10, as a team or individually, in 12 different categories, led by Quinn who is fourth in the nation in total offensive yards per game (339.9 average). See page 23 of this notes package for a complete list.
- The Irish have moved up to 11th in the latest Bowl Championship Series standings (Nov. 7). For Notre Dame to qualify for an at-large berth in the BCS, it must have nine wins and be ranked in the top 12 of the BCS standings. The BCS standings are available on page 24 of this notes package.
- Against Tennessee last weekend, junior Tom Zbikowski became the first Irish player since Nick Rassas in 1965 to return both a punt and interception in a single game. Rassas performed his feat against Northwestern in a 38-7 victory.
- Notre Dame has won 11 consecutive games against the service academies and is 125-22-5 against Navy, Army and Air Force.
- Notre Dame has broken or tied 17 offensive records this season, with many more records in reach. See page 26 of this notes package for a complete list.
- Streaks on the line this weekend - consecutive games with a touchdown pass (Brady Quinn, 13), consecutive games with a touchdown reception (Jeff Samardzija, eight), Notre Dame wins vs. service academies (11), Notre Dame wins vs. Navy (41).
- Notre Dame has moved up to seventh in all three national polls (Associated Press, USA Today and Harris Interactive, which are listed on page 27), marking the highest ranking for the team since they entered a matchup with USC on Nov. 30, 2002, ranked seventh.

2005: The Charlie Weis Era Begins

The 117th season of Notre Dame football is the first in the tenure of head coach Charlie Weis, who has started his career with a 6-2 record, including wins over three ranked opponents.

Weis was named the 28th head football coach in Notre Dame history on Sunday, Dec. 12, 2004. A 1978 Notre Dame graduate, Weis takes the reins of the Irish program after a highly-successful career as an assistant coach in the National Football League.

The owner of four Super Bowl champion rings as products of a stellar 15-season career as an NFL assistant, Weis is a widely-respected disciple of professional coaching standouts Bill Parcells and Bill Belichick. He came to Notre Dame after excelling as offensive coordinator of the New England Patriots, where he played an integral role in New England's victories in three of the last four Super Bowls.

Weis is the first Notre Dame graduate to hold the football head coaching position at his alma mater since Hugh Devore (a '34 graduate) served as interim coach in 1963 and is the first Notre Dame graduate to serve as the Irish football coach on a full-fledged basis since Joe Kuharich (a '38 graduate who coached at Notre Dame from 1959 through '62).

A veteran of 26 seasons in coaching, Weis coached nine seasons with the Patriots, including five as offensive coordinator. He helped produce four Super Bowl championships (New York Giants following the 1990 season, Patriots following '01, '03 and '04 seasons), five conference titles and seven division crowns.

Notre Dame - Navy Series History and Notes

- Notre Dame and Navy will play one another for the 79th consecutive year on Saturday, making it the longest continuous intersectional rivalry in the country. The Irish hold a 68-9-1 (.878) edge in the series with the Midshipmen, including a current 41-game winning streak that is the longest against one opponent in NCAA history. Notre Dame and Navy have met every year since 1927, playing 50 times at neutral sites and 28 times at Notre Dame Stadium.

- Notre Dame has had tremendous success against the U.S. service academies over the years, posting a 124-22-5 (.838) combined record against Army, Navy and Air Force. The Irish also are 31-1 (.969) against the service academies since 1986, with the only loss being a 20-17 overtime setback against Air Force in 1996 at Notre Dame Stadium.

- Notre Dame, Navy, Army and Temple are the only four independents playing Division I-A football this season.

- Navy and Notre Dame are meeting for the 79th time this season, the longest series in Notre Dame football history. This year's Notre Dame-Purdue and Notre Dame-USC games were the 77th in those series (tied for second-longest in school history).

- Notre Dame has won 41 consecutive games in the series. Navy's last win came in '63, when Heisman Trophy winner Roger Staubach helped Navy claim a 35-14 victory at Notre Dame Stadium. Notre Dame's 41 straight wins rank as the longest winning streak by one team over another in NCAA history (note: Nebraska's streak of 36 wins in a row over Kansas which began in 1969 was second on this list before the Jayhawks' 40-15 victory on Nov. 5, Tennessee's 22-game streak over Vanderbilt is now the second-best current winning streak over one opponent).

- In addition to the 28 series games at Notre Dame, the schools have met in seven other American cities (Baltimore, Chicago, Cleveland, East Rutherford (N.J.), Orlando, Philadelphia and Rajon, Md.), as well as Dublin, Ireland. Notre Dame is 43-6-1 (.870) against Navy at neutral sites, including an active 21-game winning streak that began with a 20-12 Irish win at Philadelphia's Municipal (John F. Kennedy) Stadium in 1962.

- The Irish have scored 30 or more points in 15 of the past 20 meetings with Navy. Dating back to the 1985 contest, Notre Dame has averaged 38.4 points per game in the series, including five 50-point eruptions and back-to-back 58-point outbursts in 1993 and '94. And, the Irish have scored more points against the Midshipmen (2,098) than any of the other 134 opponents in school history. Notre Dame topped the 2,000-point mark against Navy in 2001 on an eight-yard touchdown run by Terrance Howard in the third quarter of a 34-16 Irish victory.

Notre Dame Versus the Service Academies

- Notre Dame has won almost 84 percent of its games (125-22-5) vs. teams from the three service academies (Army, Navy and Air Force).

- The Irish have won 11 consecutive games against the service academies, and they are 32-1 (.969) against these schools since 1986 (including a 16-1 mark at home). The only defeat in that time was a 20-17 overtime loss to Air Force in 1996 at Notre Dame Stadium.

- More than half (78) of Notre Dame's 152 games against service academies, and more than half of its victories (68) have come against Navy, part of the longest continuous inter-sectional rivalry in the country.

- Notre Dame and Army met every season from 1913-47, with the exception of 1918. During an 11-season span from 1937-47, one or both teams were ranked, including six meetings when either side was first or second in the nation, and back-to-back "No. 1 vs. No. 2" matchups in 1945 and 1946. However, the Irish and Black Knights have played just 14 times since 1947, with Notre Dame winning 13 of those encounters. Their last meeting came in 1998, with the Irish pulling out a 20-17 win at home. Notre Dame leads the all-time series with Army, 36-8-4 (.792). The series with Army will be renewed for at least one game in Notre Dame Stadium next season on Nov. 18, 2006.

Last Time at Notre Dame Stadium vs. Navy

Placekicker D.J. Fitzpatrick booted a 40-yard field goal as time expired to give Notre Dame a 27-24 victory over Navy before another capacity crowd of 80,795 fans at Notre Dame Stadium. The kick extended an NCAA-record 40-game winning streak for the Irish over the Mids, beginning in 1964.

Fitzpatrick wasn't the only hero for Notre Dame, as running back Julius Jones had another dominating performance on the ground. The Big Stone Gap, Va., native rushed a career-high 33 times for 221 yards and two touchdowns, becoming the fourth player in school history to post multiple 200-yard games in a single season.

Quarterback Brady Quinn also showed remarkable poise in the closing moments, leading the Irish on an 11-play, 62-yard drive in the final two minutes to set up Fitzpatrick's winning kick. Quinn wound up connecting on 14 of 27 passes for 137 yards with one touchdown.

It was evident from the outset that this game would be decided on the offensive side of the ball. Both teams drove into opposing territory on their first possessions, but came away empty. Notre Dame was the first to crack the scoreboard, as Jones bounced off a pair of would-be tacklers and scurried 48 yards off the left side for the score with 5:06 left in the first quarter.

That lead lasted all of 12 seconds, as Navy's Tony Lane knotted the game with a 65-yard TD run on the Mids' first play after the Jones score. From there, the game was a battle for field position, with Navy holding an edge for much of the first half, pinning the Irish inside their 20-yard line twice.

The Midshipmen took a 10-7 lead when Eric Rolfs kicked a 35-yard field goal early in the second quarter and it appeared that margin would hold up going into halftime, but Quinn had other ideas. He piloted the Irish offense 58 yards in 10 plays before lofting a two-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Rhema McKnight with 14 seconds left in the half.

Navy countered and regained the lead early in the third quarter. Thanks to a short punt by Fitzpatrick, the Mids were set up at the Irish 40-yard line and they needed just six plays to find the end zone. Fullback Kyle Eckel scored from five yards out to give his team a three-point lead with 5:50 left in the third quarter. Again, that edge didn't last, as the Irish went right back downfield, taking just over three minutes to move in front. Jones did the honors with his second TD of the day from 12 yards away.

For a third time, Navy tried to deliver the knockout punch, using another short field to set up a one-yard plunge by Eckel with 9:53 to play. However, the Irish wouldn't falter, as Fitzpatrick kicked a 30-yard field goal four minutes later to tie the game and set the stage for his last-second heroics.

On the Field Saturday

During Saturday's game Dr. John B. "Jack" Matthews, USMC, (ret.), of the Notre Dame Class of 1963, will be presented the Rev. William Corby, CSC, Award in recognition of his distinguished military service. Lt. Col. Matthews will also present the colors before the game to the Irish Guard. The colors will be carried out to Lt. Col. Matthews by representatives of Notre Dame's Reserve Officer Training Corp (ROTC) branches - Rachel Walters (Army), Caitlin Diffley (Air Force), Tanner Fleck (Army) and Bryan Kreller (Navy).

Irish First-Year Head Coaches

As Charlie Weis continues his first season at the helm of the Irish, here are a few notes on Notre Dame's head coaches in their inaugural years (see page 25 for a recap of each coaching debut season in ND history).

- The 27 previous head football coaches in Notre Dame history have combined to amass a 168-60-12 (.700) record in their first years at the helm.
- Weis is the first coach to begin his Irish career by beating two ranked opponents in his first two games. The only other attempt was by Terry Brennan in 1954 (won 21-0 vs. #4 Texas, lost 27-14 vs. #19 Purdue).
- Weis is the first coach to begin his Notre Dame tenure with two victories on the road and on the opponent's home field since Knute Rockne in 1918 (at Case Tech, at Wabash). Hunk Anderson faced his first two games away from Notre Dame in '31 (at Indiana, vs. Northwestern at Soldier Field - a win and a tie, respectively) and Dan Devine also started with two games away from South Bend in '75 (vs. Boston College at Foxboro, at Purdue - both wins).
- The two most recent Irish head coaches (Bob Davie; 7-6 in 1997, Tyrone Willingham; 10-3 in 2002) posted winning records in their first seasons. The last Irish coach to turn in a sub-.500 season in his first year is Lou Holtz, whose '86 team finished 5-6. Even with a projected bowl game this season, Notre Dame has assured itself of at least a .500 record in 2005.
- The longest winning streak for a Notre Dame head coach to begin his career with the Irish is nine games, by Harper (1913-14) and Parseghian ('64).
- Since 1913, four Notre Dame coaches - Layden, Parseghian, Holtz and Willingham - have taken over the program the year after their predecessors were either .500 or below. All but Holtz, who went 5-6 in '86, posted winning records in their first seasons and the quartet had a combined 30-13 record in such seasons. The '04 Irish went 6-6 under Willingham.

Notre Dame Scoring At A Rapid Pace

Notre Dame is currently seventh in the nation in scoring offense, averaging 38.25 points per game. If the 38.25 average holds up, it would set a Notre Dame single-season record. The Irish have totalled 306 points this season and have scored over 30 points in seven of eight games played this season (a 17-10 victory at Michigan was the lone exception). From 2002-04, the Irish posted 30 or more points in a game a total of seven times.

The Irish also have scored 30 or more points in six straight games, becoming the first Notre Dame team to accomplish that feat since the 1993 edition of the Fighting Irish finished the regular season with seven consecutive games scoring over 30 points.

For a historic perspective, Notre Dame has only scored over 30 points in seven games or more just seven times since 1913 (Jesse Harper's first season). During that span, the record for 30-point games in a season is nine by the 1991 Irish team (which included a 30-point performance in a bowl game). The 1966, 1992 and 1993 teams all posted eight 30-point performances (the '93 team total includes a bowl game as well).

For consecutive 30-point games, the Notre Dame record is seven by the '66 squad. That streak was ended by the famous 10-10 tie at Michigan State.

With three regular-season games remaining, Charlie Weis' first Notre Dame team has already piled up 306 points - the most in a debut season for a non-interim Irish head coach.

Offense Piling Up Yardage

The offense has been the highlight of the 2005 Notre Dame football season thus far. The Irish are currently 10th in the country in total offense (474.00) and are on pace for the most prolific offensive season since the team ended the 1996 season ranked 10th in total offense. Currently, the Irish are averaging 334.38 passing yards per game and are on pace to break the Notre Dame record of 252.7 set in 1970 (Notre Dame finished that season ranked eighth in the country in passing offense and second overall with a school-record 510.5 total yards per game).

One measuring stick for offensive production is games in which the team compiles over 500 yards of total offense. Notre Dame has accomplished that feat five times this season (502 at Pittsburgh, 594 vs. Michigan State, 560 at Washington, 621 at Purdue, 511 vs. BYU) - marking the first time the Irish have posted five 500-yard performances since the 1992 season (the Irish posted six 500-yard games in 1970).

Here is a breakdown of Notre Dame's 500-plus games in two comparable seasons (1970, 1992) -
1970 (six): 633 vs. Purdue, 513 vs. Michigan State, 600 vs. Navy, 574 vs. Army, 606 vs. Pittsburgh, 557 vs. USC
1992 (five): 561 vs. Northwestern, 509 vs. Michigan State, 580 vs. Purdue, 521 vs. Pittsburgh, 576 vs. Boston College

Keep an Eye on Third Down

Notre Dame, Auburn, Texas and Ohio State are the only teams ranked in the top 18 nationally for both offensive third down percentage and defensive third down percentage. Notre Dame is ranked 10th in the nation and is averaging a solid 48 percent on third down this season (59 of 123), while holding its opponents to 32.7 percent (37 of 113), which is ranked 18th in the nation. Auburn is ranked (offense/defense) 5/16, Texas 6/11 and Ohio State 14/4.

Irish Rule The Red Zone

Notre Dame has forced its opponent into seven turnovers during 31 red zone visits this season. The Irish have caused three fumbles and intercepted four passes inside their own 20-yard line this season. Overall, Notre Dame's opponents are 23 for 31 (.741) in red zone chances with 18 touchdowns and five field goals. The Irish are 30 for 34 (.882) with 25 touchdowns and five field goals.

First-Year Players Seeing Significant Time

Through the first seven games of the 2005 season, Notre Dame has seen 25 players make their Irish playing debut. Included in the 25 players are 11 true freshmen from Notre Dame's 15-player class signed last year. The complete list of players that have played for the first time this season: James Bent, Justin Brown, David Bruton*, Maurice Crum, Jr., Casey Cullen, Paul Duncan*, Leo Ferrine, David Fitzgerald, David Grimes*, LaBrose Hedgemon III, Ray Herring*, Joey Hiben*, D.J. Hord*, Pat Kuntz*, Terrail Lambert, Ashley McConnell, Marty Mooney, Steve Quinn* Asaph Schwapp*, Dwight Stephenson, Jr., Scott Smith*, Ronald Talley and Michael Turkovich*, Anthony Vernaglia.

Four Ranked Teams in Six Games

Including the Oct. 15 matchup with No. 1 USC, Notre Dame faced four ranked teams (according to the AP ranking) in a season's first six games for the fifth time in the program's history this year. Notre Dame won three of the games this year, taking down #23 Pittsburgh, #3 Michigan and #22 Purdue - all on the road.

Notre Dame faced a similar challenge in 2003, 2000, 1979 and 1953. The 1953 team (W, 28-21 at #6 Oklahoma; W, 24-14 vs. #15 Pittsburgh; W, 27-14 vs. #4 Georgia Tech; W, 38-7 vs. Navy) is the only Irish squad to win all four games.

Notre Dame's Solid Start in 2005

Notre Dame's three victories over ranked opponents have all occurred on the road this season - and all on the opponent's home field. That marks the first time Notre Dame has defeated three ranked teams on the road since 2002 (vs. #21 Maryland, at #18 Air Force, at #11 Florida State), but the first time since 1990 that feat has been achieved on the opponents' home fields (at #24 Michigan State, at #9 Tennessee, at #18 USC).

The three ranked victories also occurred in the first five games of the year. The 2005 season marks the 11th time Notre Dame has faced three ranked opponents in its first five games of the season - and the '05 season is the first time since 1980 (vs. #13 Miami, vs. #14 Michigan and vs. #9 Purdue) that the team has won all three such games in five attempts (1996, 1997, 1999, 2000, 2003).

Notre Dame Winning Time-of-Possession Battle

While Notre Dame's offense has been piling up the yardage this season (averaging 489.7 yards per game), it also has won the time of possession battle in six of seven games this season. Only BYU (33:39) has been able to hold the ball for more than 30 minutes against Notre Dame. Overall, Notre Dame averages 33:56 minutes per game with the ball, compared to 26:04 for its opponents. Here is a game-by-game breakdown:

Game	Notre Dame	Opponent
at Pitt	32:46	27:14
at Mich	30:56	29:04
MSU	35:49	24:11
Wash	36:56	23:04
Purdue	36:03	23:57
USC	38:40	21:20
BYU	26:21	33:39

Zbikowski Returns

Junior Tom Zbikowski, who has seen action in just 19 games for the Irish, has already made a name for himself in the Notre Dame record books. He has returned a punt or interception for a touchdown four times in the last three games for Notre Dame - the first Irish defensive player to accomplish such a feat.

Here is a look at Zbikowski's returns this season -

- vs. USC - punt return 60 yards
- vs. BYU - interception return 83 yards
- vs. Tennessee - punt return 78 yards, interception return 33 yards

In addition, Zbikowski returned a punt 75 yards against Michigan State in 2004.

With his interception and punt return for a touchdown against Tennessee on Nov. 5, Zbikowski becomes the first Irish player to accomplish that feat since Nick Rassas against Northwestern in 1965. Rassas returned an interception 92 yards for a touchdown and a punt 72 yards for a score in Notre Dame's 38-7 victory.

With his five career returns (two interceptions, two punts, one fumble), Zbikowski has already established himself among the best big-play return specialists in Notre Dame history. Here is a look at some of Notre Dame's return stand-outs -

Tom Zbikowski - two interceptions, two punts, one fumble

Vontez Duff - Notre Dame's all-time leading kick returner (yards) was the first Irish player to return a kickoff, punt and interception for a touchdown in the same season during the 2002 season. He also joins Zbikowski as the only Irish defensive players to post touchdown returns in three consecutive games played. Duff returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown against Purdue in 2001, then missed the rest of the season with an injury. He returned in 2002 to return a punt 76 yards against Maryland and an interception 33 yards versus Purdue.

Allen Rossum - Possibly the best returns specialist in Notre Dame history, Rossum seemingly scored each time he touched the ball. Currently an all-pro return specialist for the Atlanta Falcons, Rossum posted a total of nine scoring returns during his career to set an NCAA record. Rossum return three kickoffs, three punts (all in the 1996 season, including two vs. Pittsburgh) and three interceptions from 1994-97.

Tony Roberts Honored

The National Football Foundation & College Football Hall of Fame selected Notre Dame play-by-play legend Tony Roberts to receive the 2005 Chris Schenkel Award.

The award, named for the legendary college football announcer, is given annually to a college football announcer who has excelled in his field and contributed to his community. The award was presented to Roberts on Friday, Aug. 12, at the Mayor's Breakfast during the College Football Hall of Fame's Enshrinement Festival in South Bend.

After graduating from Columbia College in Chicago with a degree in journalism, Roberts went on to become the voice of Indiana University basketball and football, Navy football, Washington Senators baseball and Washington Bullets basketball.

Now in his 26th year as a member of the Westwood One Radio Network broadcast team, Roberts is currently the voice of Notre Dame football. In addition to his play-by-play duties, he broadcasts three times daily for Westwood One/CBS Radio Sports and has covered the last five Summer Olympics for NBC Radio.

Raghib "Rocket" Ismail - One of the most electrifying athletes to wear the Notre Dame uniform, Rocket Ismail returned six kicks for a touchdown in his career - specializing in kickoff returns with five. Possibly his greatest single performance was a punt return against Colorado in the 1991 Orange Bowl that did not even count. With 43 seconds remaining in Notre Dame's eventual 10-9 loss to Colorado, Ismail returned a punt 91 yards for an apparent game-winning touchdown. The spectacular run was for naught, however, as a controversial clipping call against Notre Dame's Greg Davis nullified the play.

Tim Brown - The 1987 Heisman Trophy winner (the most recent of Notre Dame's seven Heisman award winners), Brown returned three punts for a touchdown during his Heisman campaign in 1987, including two against Michigan State in Notre Dame Stadium. Throughout his career, Brown compiled a total of six return touchdowns (three punt returns, three kick returns).

Zbikowski Third Nationally in Punt Returns

Junior S Tom Zbikowski's emergence as a playmaker on special teams is reflected in the most recent NCAA statistical rankings. Zbikowski is third in the nation in punt return average (19.69), trailing UCLA's Maurice Drew (29.07) and Nebraska's Terrence Nunn (20.69). With two punt returns for a touchdown, Zbikowski joins Drew and Wisconsin's Brandon Williams as the only players in the nation to have multiple scoring punt returns (Drew has three, Williams two).

Quinn and the Notre Dame Record Book

Junior QB Brady Quinn, in his third full year as the Irish starter, already has made a lasting mark on the Irish football record book. Here is a quick overview of some of his accomplishments and rankings all-time at Notre Dame:

Touchdown Passes, Single Game - 6 - vs. BYU, the school record, breaking his previous mark of five posted earlier this season against Michigan State.

Touchdown Passes, Career - 49 - second on the all-time list behind Ron Powlus (52).

Touchdown Passes, Season - 23 - the Notre Dame single-season record, breaking Powlus' mark of 19 from 1994.

Completions, Single Game - 33 - vs. Michigan State, matched Joe Theismann's school record from the 1970 game at USC. Quinn completed 32 passes against BYU on Oct. 22.

Consecutive Completions - 12 - vs. BYU, second on the all-time list (matching Jarious Jackson) behind Ron Powlus' 14 straight against Michigan State in 1997. Quinn has posted three consecutive completion streaks over 10 this season (11 at Pittsburgh and at Purdue, 12 vs. BYU).

Passing Yards, Single Game - 487 - vs. Michigan State, second all-time behind Theismann's 526 at USC in '70.

Passing Yards, First Half - 287 - vs. BYU, breaking his own record of 283 against Purdue earlier this season.

Passing Yards, Single Season - 2,647 - second on the Notre Dame single-season list and just 106 yards behind Jarious Jackson's school record 2,753 from 1999. Quinn has already surpassed his previous career-best single-season total of 2,586 from last season.

Yards, Career - 7,064 - becoming just the second Irish quarterback to throw for better than 7,000 yards, Quinn stands 538 yards behind Ron Powlus as the career yardage leader with 7,602.

Avg. Passing Yards Per Game, Career - 220.75 - currently first on the all-time list ahead of Powlus (172.7).

Quinn also is well ahead of the pace to set the single-season passing yardage record for the Irish. At his current pace (330.9 yards per game, three scheduled games remaining), he would total 3,640 yards. The single-season record is held by Jarious Jackson, who threw for 2,753 yards in 1999. Averaging 250 yards per game for the rest of the season he would end up with 3,397 yards. The Dublin, Ohio, native is on track to becoming Notre Dame's first 3,000-yard single-season passer.

Quinn 300

Since 1950, a Notre Dame quarterback has thrown for 300 yards or more 15 times. Junior QB Brady Quinn is responsible for six of those performances - the most for any single Notre Dame quarterback. Quinn has thrown for 350 (vs. Boston College, 2003), 432 (vs. Purdue, 2004), 487 (vs. Michigan State, 2005), 327 (at Washington, 2005), 440 (at Purdue, 2005) and 467 (vs. BYU, 2005).

Quinn is the only Notre Dame quarterback to throw for over 400 yards four times in a career (in fact, he is the only one to do it twice) - and in Notre Dame's last road game at Purdue he became the first Irish signalcaller to throw for more than 300 yards in three consecutive games. He also is the first Irish quarterback to throw for 300 or more yards four times in a season.

Quinn On A Streak

Junior QB Brady Quinn has thrown at least one touchdown pass in his last 13 games played (and started) for the Irish, breaking John Huarte's record of 10 set in 1964. The Dublin, Ohio, native has totaled 31 scoring tosses during the run (2.3 per game).

Quinn's touchdown passes over the last 13 games:

2005 - 3 vs. Tennessee, 6 vs. BYU, 1 vs. USC, 3 at Purdue, 1 at Washington, 5 vs. Michigan State, 2 at Michigan, 2 at Pittsburgh

2004 - 2 vs. Oregon State (Insight Bowl), 1 at USC, 3 vs. Pittsburgh, 1 at Tennessee, 1 vs. Boston College

Quinn Throws Six

Junior QB Brady Quinn became the first Notre Dame quarterback to throw six touchdown passes in a single game against BYU on Oct. 22. Quinn finished the game 32 of 41 for 467 yards, six touchdowns and no interceptions. It ranks as possibly the greatest single-game performance by a Notre Dame quarterback and earned Quinn the ABC Sports/Cingular All-American Player of the Week award for the second time in 2005 (he also earned the award after his stellar performance at Purdue).

Quinn broke his own school record of five touchdown passes set earlier this season against Michigan State.

Quinn's touchdown passes vs. BYU:

- 10 yards to Maurice Stovall, first quarter, 7:12
- 14 yards to Jeff Samardzija, second quarter, 10:33
- 15 yards to Stovall, second quarter, 4:18
- 21 yards to Samardzija, third quarter, 12:50

Graduation Rate

The University of Notre Dame ranks among the top three Division I-A institutions in five major student-athlete graduation rate categories – overall, football, men, women and African-American – according to statistics released in October 2004 by the NCAA.

The federally mandated '04 NCAA Graduation Rates Report, the 14th such survey issued by the association, covers students who enrolled between '94 and '97 at Division I institutions, including 117 in Division I-A. The NCAA bases graduation rates on the raw percentage of student-athletes who entered an institution and graduated within six years. Students who leave or transfer, regardless of academic standing, are considered non-graduates.

Among student-athletes who completed all four years of athletic eligibility at Notre Dame, 99 percent earned their degrees. The national average was 84 percent.

Using the NCAA formula, Notre Dame graduated a four-year average of 87 percent of its student-athletes, second only to Duke University at 90 percent, and tied with Stanford and Northwestern Universities. The national average for Division I-A schools is 61 percent.

In August '03, the NCAA presented an Academic Achievement Award to Notre Dame for its best-in-the-nation one-year graduation rate of 92 percent for all student-athletes who enrolled in '96.

Notre Dame graduated 71 percent of its African-American student-athletes, ranking ninth nationally, and Irish football players graduated at a 77 percent rate, to rank eighth.

Quinn Now The Best Third-Year Starting Quarterback

In 2005, junior quarterback Brady Quinn has become just the 13th signal-caller in Notre Dame history to start under center for three years. The following is a list of Quinn's predecessors, along with their stats (when available) from their third starting season. In the 12 seasons played by three-year starting Irish quarterbacks, prior to Quinn's '05 season, the group amassed a 90-30-4 combined record.

Quinn has already compiled the greatest season by any third-year starting quarterback in Notre Dame history. He has surpassed his predecessors in every key statistical category this season.

Jinx?, What Jinx?

Sophomore running back Darius Walker set a Notre Dame freshman rushing record in 2004 with 786 yards, eclipsing the mark of 756 Jerome Heavens set in 1975, en route to earning third-team Freshman All-America honors from The Sporting News. If Walker stays on the pace he set in his first season with the Irish, he will be primed to turn in one of the finest statistical seasons ever by an Irish sophomore. Here's a look at how the top 10 rushers in Notre Dame history, plus a few other notables, fared in their sophomore year.

Travis Thomas Steps Up

Looking for a change-of-pace back against No. 1 USC on Oct. 15, Notre Dame head coach Charlie Weis turned to junior RB Travis Thomas. Thomas, who has shined in reserve duty this season, stepped up to rush for a career-high 52 yards, including a 16-yard run to record Notre Dame's first touchdown of the day against the Trojans.

Thomas' production this season already surpasses his totals from 2004, his first season of action for the Irish:

Samardzija Eight for Eight

Junior WR Jeff Samardzija entered the 2005 campaign without a touchdown catch, but has since caught at least one scoring toss in each of this season's first eight games. The two-sport athlete (who was a top-line starting pitcher for the Irish baseball team last season) becomes the first Irish receiver to begin the season with eight consecutive games with a touchdown catch - which also give him the Notre Dame record for consecutive games with a touchdown reception. He surpassed Malcolm Johnson's six-game run from 1998 against BYU. Johnson caught a scoring toss in six straight midseason contests (Arizona State, Army, Baylor, Boston College, Navy and LSU) from Oct. 10 through Nov. 11, during the '98 season.

Samardzija, who also serves as the team's holder on field-goal attempts, tied a Notre Dame record with three touchdown receptions versus Michigan State (since broken by teammate Maurice Stovall, who posted four touchdown receptions against BYU). Samardzija was the seventh player to catch three touchdown passes in a game and the first since Tom Gatewood versus Purdue in 1970.

Samardzija, Statistically Speaking

Junior WR Jeff Samardzija has started the season off in impressive fashion, leading the team with 51 catches for 877 yards and 12 touchdowns. He is ranked fourth in the country in receiving yards per game (109.63) and could become Notre Dame's first 1,000-yard receiver since 1970 (Tom Gatewood, 1,123 yards, the ND single-season record). Samardzija is currently on pace for 1,205 receiving yards this season, which would break Gatewood's record.

He has already surpassed the single-season touchdown total. His 12 scoring receptions have bested Derrick Mayes' previous record of 11 from 1994

Walker's Great Start

Sophomore RB Darius Walker started the 2005 season with four consecutive 100-yard performances. He ran for an even 100 yards at #23/25 Pittsburgh (42-21 Irish victory), posted 104 yards in a 17-10 victory at #3/3 Michigan, rushed for 116 yards against Michigan State (44-41 OT loss) and had a career-high 128 yards at Washington on Sept. 24. Purdue ended Walker's streak of 100-yard games at four by holding him to 80 yards on 23 carries.

The effort against Washington made Walker the first Irish running back to start the season with four consecutive 100-yard rushing performances. The last Notre Dame running back to rush for over 100 yards in four straight games was Randy Kinder, who rushed for 100 yards against Purdue (142), Vanderbilt (110), Texas (129) and Ohio State (143) in 1995.

Walker Expanding His Game

While sophomore Darius Walker set the Notre Dame freshman rushing record last season (786 yards in '04), he was limited in his role in the Irish passing game (10 catches, 74 yards). He has already eclipsed those numbers in 2005, posting 26 catches (fourth on the team) for 230 yards and two touchdowns.

He is currently fifth on the all-time single season receptions by a back list at Notre Dame. He trails record holder Bob Gladieux (37 in 1968) by 11 entering this weekend's game.

Older and Wiser

The 2005 Notre Dame offensive line is one of the most experienced units in school history. With the entire starting group from a year ago still in the fold, the Irish offense boasts almost 100 combined career starts on the line. Entering the '05 campaign, senior tackle Mark LeVoir started the last 24 Notre Dame games and led the veteran group in starting assignments. Seniors Bob Morton and Dan Stevenson were a close second with 22 starts each, while junior Ryan Harris had 19 starts to his credit and junior John Sullivan was the junior man of the group with 12. Here is a look at the 10 most experienced offensive line units to wear the blue and gold since '85, with the '05 group added in for comparison.

Ndukwe a Turnover Machine

Junior safety Chinedum Ndukwe (pronounced Chin-eh-DOOM en-DUKE-way), seeing the most playing time of his career this season, has turned into a playmaker in Notre Dame's defensive backfield and on special teams. Ndukwe has played a part in seven of Notre Dame's 19 forced turnovers this season.

He recovered a fumble in the first four games of the season for the Irish, forced a fumble at Washington and intercepted passes against Michigan State and USC at home.

So far this season, Ndukwe has 45 tackles, two TFL, and two PBU in addition to his turnover creations.

On the 'Fas' Track to Success

Senior tight end Anthony Fasano turned in a breakout 2004 season for the Irish, catching 27 balls for 367 yards and four touchdowns. Against Purdue, the 6-4, 257-pound Fasano hauled in a career-high eight passes for a career-high and Notre Dame tight end-record 155 yards in '04 and was named John Mackey National Tight End of the Week. His 27 catches in '04 tied him with former Irish standout Pete Chryplewicz for the fifth-highest single-season total by a tight end.

Barring injury Fasano has moved onto Notre Dame's top five all-time tight end receiving list. Here's a look at where he stands heading into the weekend:

Player	Receptions	Years
Ken MacAfee	128	1974-77
Anthony Fasano	76	2003-present
Derek Brown	62	1988-91
Dean Masztak	62	1978-81
Tony Hunter	55	1979-82
Mark Bavaro	55	1981-84

Player	Yards	Years
Ken MacAfee	1759	1974-77
Anthony Fasano	949	2003-present
Dean Masztak	924	1978-81
Derek Brown	899	1988-91
Mike Creaney	890	1970-72
Mark Bavaro	771	1981-84

What makes Fasano's totals even more impressive is the fact that he has tallied them in a little more than two years of action, after not playing his freshman year in 2002. Here's a breakdown of what Notre Dame's other prolific pass-catching tight ends did in their third seasons in the blue and gold.

Player	Receptions-Yards	Touchdowns
Ken MacAfee	34-483	3
Anthony Fasano	36-468	1
Mike Creaney	17-321	2
Derek Brown	15-220	1
Mark Bavaro	23-376	3

Already in the Books

In 2004, Notre Dame wide receiver Matt Shelton cemented his name in the lore of Notre Dame football last season by setting a single-season record for average yards per reception. Shelton's average of 25.8 yards per catch eclipsed Tony Hunter's mark of 25.6 from the 1979 campaign. Here's a look at the top five single seasons in school history in terms of yards per reception.

Player	Avg.	Year
1. Matt Shelton	25.8	2004
2. Tony Hunter	25.6	1979
3. Jim Morse	22.1	1956
4. Raghil Ismail	21.8	1990
4. Kris Haines	21.8	1978

Don't Forget the Anniversary

The 2005 football season marks the 75th anniversary of the opening of fabled Notre Dame Stadium. The Irish have played 384 games in the facility to date and own a 289-90-5 (.759) record in the "House that Rockne Built."

The Irish were 3-3 in Notre Dame Stadium in '04, running their home record to 91-30 (.752) over the last 20 years.

The most wins in a season by the Irish at home is seven by the '88 national championship team and the longest home winning streak in Notre Dame football history is 28 games (from 11/21/42 through 9/30/50).

In '55, the Stadium's 25th anniversary, Notre Dame went 8-2 on the season for coach Terry Brennan, including a 4-0 home record; the Irish turned in a 9-2-1 overall record and a 5-0 home mark to commemorate Notre Dame Stadium's 50th anniversary in '80.

Irish Face Another Loaded Schedule

With the updates of the AP and USA Today/Coaches Poll, Notre Dame will continue to face one of the toughest schedules in the nation (rankings are AP/USA Today and Harris Interactive):

- Notre Dame is the only team that played three games against top four teams from the preseason polls - #1/1 USC (L, 31-34), #5/4 Tennessee (W, 41-21) and #3/3 Michigan (W, 17-10).
- Notre Dame is the only school that will face three teams that were in the top 10 of both preseason polls this season.
- Notre Dame will play games against six teams ranked in the top 25 this season at least once this season. The Irish have already defeated #23/25 Pittsburgh 42-21, #3/3 Michigan 17-10 and #22/20/22 Purdue.

The Irish also faced #1/1/1 USC, Tennessee (who was ranked as high as third this season) and Michigan State (who have been in and out of the top 25 this year).

In Front of the Nation

In 2004, the Notre Dame football team once again received more network television exposure and played in more highly-rated games than any other program in college football.

The Irish played in the highest-rated network game of the '04 regular season (and the highest-rated regular-season game overall in two seasons) in its '04 regular-season finale at USC. That game, televised by ABC Sports, received a 6.3 Nielsen rating and was seen in 6.898 million households.

Overall, Notre Dame played in six games that ranked among the top 25 highest-rated network telecasts and no other school played in more than five (Tennessee and Georgia each played in five).

Including Notre Dame's last game against Tennessee, the Irish have a remarkable streak of 156 consecutive games (more than 12 full seasons) that have been carried by either NBC (84), ABC (44), CBS (14) or ESPN (13). You have to go all the way back to the '92 season to find a Notre Dame game that wasn't on one of those four networks.

The streak will continue throughout the 2005 season as well. All three remaining games this season are scheduled to be broadcast on NBC or ABC.

The Last Time... Notre Dame vs. Navy (Oct. 16, 2004)Notre Dame - 27
Navy - 9
Giants Stadium

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. - Ryan Grant ran for 114 yards and two touchdowns and Notre Dame (5-2) had little trouble extending its NCAA-record winning streak against Navy (5-1) with a 27-9 victory. Navy came in unbeaten with hopes of finally ending four decades of futility against the Irish. Adding to the optimism for the Midshipmen were their performances against Notre Dame the past two seasons when the Irish needed late-game heroics in both to extend the streak.

Grant and Notre Dame's dominant lines wrapped this one up early for the Irish. Notre Dame needed two possessions to take a 14-0 lead.

The Irish went into halftime up 17-0, having allowed Navy's triple-option attack to break midfield at Giants Stadium just once. The Midshipmen got their ground game going on the first drive of the second half, marching 81 yards without throwing a pass. But Navy stalled and settled for a field goal to make it 17-3.

Kyle Eckel finished with 102 yards on 22 rushes for Navy, but playing from behind just doesn't suit the Midshipmen. Navy completed three-of-six passes for 44 yards.

Navy came in to the game averaging 267 yards rushing, but led by defensive tackles Greg Pauly and Derek Landri, Notre Dame had five sacks and limited the Midshipmen to 216 yards rushing.

Navy's only touchdown came on a late five-yard run by Frank Divis. Notre Dame showed off its version of power football on its first drive of the second half. The Irish went 73 yards on 13 plays throwing just two short passes. Grant, from nearby Nyack, N.Y., accounted for 64 yards on the drive - 55 on nine rushes. He skipped into the end zone from a yard out to make it 24-3 late in the third quarter.

Grant carried the ball 20 times for his first 100-yard game in two years. Notre Dame opened the game with an 81-yard drive that couldn't have gone more smoothly. Quinn completed his first two throws for 37 yards and Marcus Wilson, a third-stringer from New York City, scored his first career touchdown on a 33-yard run through a huge opening.

Notre Dame's second possession went much like the first, with Quinn hooking up with Matt Shelton for 30 yards to the Navy 20 and Grant handling the rest on the ground. The senior tailback went 19 yards off tackle, then bounced to the outside for a one-yard run that made it 14-0.

Navy managed only 95 yards in the first half, all on the ground. Notre Dame balanced its attack with 110 on the ground and 116 through the air.

College Graduates

The 2005 Notre Dame roster features seven players who have already earned their undergraduate degree from the University. Fifth-year seniors Brian Beidatsch, D.J. Fitzpatrick, Mark LeVoiir, Corey Mays, Rashon Powers-Neal, Matt Shelton and Dan Stevenson all graduated from Notre Dame in May of 2005. Teammate and current fifth-year player Brandon Hoyte would be among the group if he was not busy seeking DUAL degrees in psychology and management.

The fifth-year senior group also proved to be diligent workers in the classroom - especially in their final undergraduate semester at the University. None of the players earned lower than a 2.7 GPA in the spring semester of 2005.

- DL Brian Beidatsch - degree in marketing from the Mendoza College of Business (3.417 final semester GPA).
- K/P D.J. Fitzpatrick - degree in accounting from the Mendoza College of Business.
- OL Mark LeVoiir - degree in anthropology from the College of Arts and Letters.
- LB Corey Mays - degree in psychology from the College of Arts and Letters (3.25 final semester GPA, 3.04 overall GPA).
- RB Rashon Powers-Neal - degree in finance from the Mendoza College of Business (3.000 final semester GPA).
- WR Matt Shelton - degree in marketing from the Mendoza College of Business (3.333 final semester GPA).
- OL Dan Stevenson - degree in marketing from the Mendoza College of Business (3.60 final semester GPA, 3.30 overall GPA).

In Front of a Full House

Notre Dame has played in front of sellout crowds in 178 of its previous 203 games, including 53 of its last 57 games dating back to the end of the Fiesta Bowl at the end of the 2000 season (the '01 and '03 games at Stanford, last year's game vs. Navy at the Meadowlands and this season's game at Washington were not sellouts). At Michigan in '03, the Irish and Wolverines attracted the largest crowd in NCAA history (111,726), marking the third time in the history of the series that an NCAA attendance record has been set. It also represented the seventh time in the last four seasons that Notre Dame has been part of establishing a new stadium attendance record (at Nebraska and Texas A&M in '01; at Air Force and Florida State, home vs. Boston College in '02, vs. Oregon State in the Insight Bowl in '04 - the game set a Bank One Ballpark record for football configuration). Notre Dame and Michigan played before an over-capacity 111,386 at Michigan Stadium in September of this season. This season's Washington was played before less than a capacity crowd as 71,473 witnessed the Irish defeat the Huskies, 36-17, at Husky Stadium (capacity: 72,500) in Seattle.

At Purdue, the Irish and Boilermakers played before 60,491 football fans, a Ross-Ade Stadium record (since the renovation of the facility in 2003).

Making the Grade

The last four seasons of Notre Dame football have produced some impressive semesters in the classroom for the Notre Dame football team. In fact, the Irish had a 2004 spring semester in which the team's 104 players combined for a 2.96 grade-point average that ranks as the program's best semester GPA on record (dating back to 1992). The Notre Dame football program's top six semester GPAs since '92 were all posted in the seven semesters prior to the fall of '04, including the three semesters from fall of '02 to fall of '03 (2.84 in fall of '02, 2.79 in spring of '03 and 2.82 in fall of '03). The football program's second-best semester GPA of the past 12 years came in the spring of '02 (2.90), followed by a 2.80 in the spring of '01 and a 2.69 in the fall of '01. Upon closer examination, the 2004 spring semester saw 11 Irish football players post a Dean's List GPA (sliding scale, based on major), while 21 turned in a semester GPA of 3.4-plus and more than half (53) had a GPA of 3.0 or better. In addition, two players - former DE Kyle Budinscak and senior LB Brandon Hoyte - received Academic All-District V honors in '03, marking Budinscak's third selection and Hoyte's second to the prestigious squad. Budinscak followed up with another All-District V honor in '04.

Taking Care of Business Off the Field, Too

The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) annually honors the school with the highest graduation rate based on a particular entering freshman football class, and Notre Dame has won the award six times, most recently in 2001 with its 100-percent graduation rate (22 of 22 entering freshmen from '96 earned their degrees within five years). The '01 award followed Notre Dame's previous honors in '82, '83, '84, '88 and '91. Notre Dame also holds the distinction of producing the first 100-percent rate in a single year when 24 of 24 student-athletes from the entering class of '82 earned their degrees within a five-year period (and 16 of those 24 did so within four years). Only eight other times has a school registered a 100-percent graduation rate. The '88 award had special meaning, as it was the first time a school won the national championship on the football field - as Notre Dame did, finishing 12-0 after a Fiesta Bowl win over unbeaten West Virginia - and in the classroom. Including the special mention category, the Irish have received some sort of recognition in 23 of the 24 years the award has been presented, with Duke next at 21.

Notre Dame Stadium Greatest Wins

As part of Notre Dame Stadium's 75th Anniversary in 2005, www.und.com, the official athletics website of the Fighting Irish, asked fans to vote for the most memorable victory in Notre Dame Stadium.

Voting was done over the summer on www.und.com and tabulated on Aug. 1. Here are some trends from the voting:

- According to voters, the greatest era in Notre Dame Stadium history was 1988 through 1993. Seven of the top 10 games fall into this time frame, including the top three choices by fans (1988 vs. #1 Miami, 1993 vs. #1 Florida State and 1990 vs. #2 Miami).

- Wins over longtime rivals (USC, Michigan) resonate among the Irish faithful. Twelve of the top 20 games selected were wins over USC (six) and Michigan (six).

- Signature moments cause a game to stand out in Notre Dame fans' memories. "The Snow Bowl" (Notre Dame vs. Penn State in 1992) was ranked fifth. "The Green Jersey Game" (Notre Dame vs. USC in 1977) was ranked fourth. "The Reggie Ho Game" (Notre Dame vs. Michigan in 1988) was ranked sixth. "The Harry 'O' Kick" (Notre Dame vs. Michigan in 1980) was ranked 10th.

- The new configuration of Notre Dame Stadium (rededicated in 1997) has yet to see its share of great victories. Notre Dame's recent upset wins over Michigan (2002 and 2004) were 11th and 12th on the list, but a win over Purdue (1998) was only able to break into the top 30.

- Notre Dame fans remember recent games more fondly than those played in the past. Of the top 20 games selected, only six were played before 1977.

Here is a list of the final top 10 as voted on by Irish fans on www.und.com (see the web page for short recaps on each victory).

1. #4 Notre Dame 31, #1 Miami 30, Oct. 15, 1988
2. #2 Notre Dame 31, #1 Fla. St. 24, Nov. 13, 1993
3. #6 Notre Dame 29, #2 Miami 20, Oct. 20, 1990
4. #11 Notre Dame 49, #5 USC 19, Oct. 22, 1977
5. #8 Notre Dame 17, #22 Penn St. 16, Nov. 14, 1992
6. #13 Notre Dame 19, #9 Michigan 17, Sept. 10, 1988

Notre Dame Stadium Update

Thanks to funding by the Notre Dame Monogram Club, Notre Dame Stadium features a new look for its 75th anniversary this season.

- Positioned in the 195 portals of the original Stadium walls (now visible in the lower bowl concourse), there now are individual, four-by-10-foot, mesh banners with old-school, black-and-white photos highlighting Notre Dame's 11 consensus national-championship seasons, its 139 first-team football All-Americans, its seven Heisman Trophy winners, its five national-championship coaches and its eight representatives in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

- Hanging from the ceiling around the lower concourse are 15 full-color, 12-by-15-foot banners – 10 of them featuring action shots of members of the 2005 Irish squad, and five featuring the 75th anniversary logo for Notre Dame Stadium. In addition, there will be four other five-by-eight-foot representations of the logo within the Stadium.

- One addition visible from inside the Stadium is a sign on the facing of the wall just above the tunnel – it reads “Irish” and includes the Monogram Club logo.

- Attached to light polls on Moose Krause Circle surrounding the Stadium and in the Stadium and Joyce North and South parking lots are 100 two-by-four foot pole banners, all of them featuring various Notre Dame marks and phrases – including combinations of Irish, We Are ND, a shamrock, the leprechaun, University of Notre Dame, Here Come the Irish, Fighting Irish, a gold helmet and the 75th anniversary Stadium logo.

- In addition, there are plans over the next few years to theme the entry gates at the Stadium – with the intention of creating specific recognition of Notre Dame's national championships, its All-Americans, its Heisman Trophy winners and its national championship coaches. The gate completed was Gate B. It recognizes the Irish Heisman winners with three-foot by eight-foot replicas of the Heisman Trophy. The displays were designed by Rockwell Group of New York and fabricated by Show Motion Inc. of Connecticut. The work was accomplished with the cooperation of the Downtown Athletic Club and the Heisman Trophy Trust.

Most of the signage and design work is being handled by Sport Graphics, Inc., in Indianapolis, Ind. Additional work for the gate designs is by the Rockwell Group in New York, N.Y.

A reception on the concourse and a silent auction in the Monogram Room both begin at 5:45 p.m. EST and the dinner begins at 7:00 p.m.

Holtz coached 132 games in 11 seasons at Notre Dame (1986-96) and guided his teams to a 100-30-2 record. He coached more games than any other Irish head coach and finished second to Knute Rockne in victories. Holtz led the Irish to the 1988 national championship and remains 11th on the NCAA all-time win list for Division I-A coaches. He took his Notre Dame teams to nine straight New Year's Day bowl games from 1987 through '95 and coached the Irish to finishes of sixth or better in the final Associated Press poll in five seasons. Holtz was named the national coach of the year in 1988 by several organizations and saw his team play the most difficult schedule in the country in three seasons.

Before coming to Notre Dame Holtz served as head coach at William & Mary (1969-71), North Carolina State (1972-75), Arkansas (1977-83) and Minnesota (1984-85). He served as a college football analyst for CBS Sports in '97 and '98, was head football coach at South Carolina from 1999 through 2004 and currently is an analyst for ESPN.

Guglielmino Athletics Complex Officially Dedicated

The Guglielmino Athletics Complex, new home to the University of Notre Dame football program, was dedicated Friday, Oct. 14, 2005. The dedication program included a blessing of the building, an afternoon Mass at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart and a dedication dinner in the rotunda of the Main Building. A special, 18-by-24-inch, commemorative poster (printed by Mossberg & Company in South Bend and designed by recent Notre Dame graduate Tim O'Connor) created for the dedication was available free of charge Friday night as fans left the pep rally at Notre Dame Stadium.

Opened in August and located on the east side of campus, the 96,000-square-foot building commonly referred to as "The Gug" is a spacious, state-of-the-art facility that houses the football program's locker rooms, offices and meeting rooms, in addition to giving the 800 student-athletes in Notre Dame's 26 varsity sports enhanced space for all training, strength and conditioning, and medical needs. The Guglielmino Athletics Complex has been made possible through the generous gift of the late Don F. Guglielmino and his wife Flora. A longtime supporter of Notre Dame, Guglielmino attended the University in the 1939-40 academic year.

Irish Football on the Printed Page

This fall, three new books about Fighting Irish football have debuted. The Spirit of Notre Dame, by Jim Langford and Jeremy Langford, officially went on sale during the last week of August. Detailing both athletic and student/alumni stories from the University, the book is said to be "the absolute essential title for the millions of people who have a place in their heart for the Fighting Irish." The book is a production of The Doubleday Broadway Publishing Group and can be bought on www.randomhouse.com.

South Bend Tribune and Notre Dame football beat writer Eric Hansen has seen the release of his new book, Notre Dame, Where Have You Gone? Hansen catches up with former Fighting Irish football players, from the All-Americans to the walk-ons to the one-play wonders to the once-tragic figures. The book is available for order at www.sportspublishinginc.com.

The third offering comes from Senior Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations at Notre Dame - John Heisler. Echoes of Notre Dame Football, The Greatest Stories Ever Told, was edited by the former long-time sports information director. A member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame, Heisler's book stitches together the best columns from the best columnists. It not only recounts the greatest moments in Notre Dame lore, it also tracks the chronological progression sportswriting styles from the esoteric to the ultra-modern. The book is available by calling 800-335-5323 or by sending an e-mail to WebOrders@triumphbooks.com. The book also features a foreword by Notre Dame head coach Charlie Weis.

Katrina Collection Update

Collections taken up throughout the University of Notre Dame community in recent weeks—in the student residence hall chapels and dining halls and even the football stadium—have raised over $240,000 for the relief of victims of the Hurricane Katrina catastrophe.

A collection in the Notre Dame Stadium during the football game with Michigan State raised $195,871. Collections also have been taken up at Masses in the Basilica of the Sacred Heart and in the Hammes Notre Dame Bookstore but have not yet been tabulated.

Funds raised in the University's Katrina collections are being distributed among Catholic Charities USA; Catholic parishes in the Gulf region which are administered by Notre Dame's founding religious order, the Congregation of Holy Cross; and regional parochial schools participating in Notre Dame's Alliance for Catholic Education (ACE) volunteer teacher program.

The University will continue to accept donations throughout the semester. Contributions may be sent to: Notre Dame Katrina Collection, P.O. Box 198, University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, IN 46556-019.

Instant Replay

Notre Dame will utilize the Big Ten Conference instant replay system during all other home games this season. The opposing team is given the option of agreeing to use the system as well, and it will only be implemented if both teams decide to utilize the system.

- The Big Ten instant replay model and the NFL instant replay system are different. In the Big Ten model, only the Big Ten Technical Advisor, working in the press box, can stop a game to review a play. Unlike the NFL model, in the Big Ten neither the coaches nor the game officials on the field may ask for a review.

- In order for a play to be changed the Technical Advisor must have indisputable video evidence that an error occurred. Television broadcast of the game will be the sole source of whether there is indisputable video evidence.

- The replay system will not guarantee that all officiating mistakes are identified and corrected.

- The types of plays that are reviewable include plays that are governed by the sideline, goal line, end zone and end line, passing plays, and other detectable infractions, such as forward progress with respect to first down.

USC Television Rating Highest In 11 Seasons

The USC-Notre Dame football game earned the best overnight television rating for a Notre Dame home game in more than a decade. The 7.9 overnight rating and 17 share was the highest since Notre Dame-Michigan earned a 8.4/21 overnight on Sept. 10, 1994.

The rating peaked at a 14.2/27 from 7:30-7:45 as USC QB Matt Leinert scored with three seconds remaining leading the Trojans to a dramatic 34-31 victory. Notre Dame had taken the lead with 2:02 left. No. 9 Notre Dame had been bidding to end No. 1 USC's 27-game winning streak.

NBC's college football analyst Pat Haden called the contest, "as entertaining as last three minutes of a college football game as I've ever seen."

2. Los Angeles, 13.4/31

Notre Dame Football on the Small Screen... and Radio!

The University of Notre Dame football team will once again produce its two signature television shows this season. The traditional Notre Dame Football Replay will be shown across the country (mostly on Sunday mornings) from Raleigh, N.C., to Anchorage, Alaska, and Inside Notre Dame Football with Charlie Weis can be seen in many national outlets as well. Local Irish fans can tune in to three different radio shows to keep track of their favorite team. The official Notre Dame Football Coach's Show will be held each week of the season, providing in-depth interviews with the Irish coaching staff and players. The official Notre Dame pregame and postgame radio shows can be heard locally as well.

The Notre Dame Football Replay

A condensed version of each Notre Dame home game will be produced and shown on a variety of different cable and on-air television outlets. For a complete list of affiliates, go to the football page on www.und.com and the lists are under the sidebar subject "multimedia."

Local Irish fans can catch the replay on WB 25 (Cable Channel 5) at 10:00 a.m. Sunday mornings. Irish fans across the nation with access to Direct TV can see the replay on Direct TV Channel 321 at 2:00 a.m. Sunday.

Notre Dame's NBC coverage is also replayed each week on NBC's high definition channel - UNI-HD. Check your local listing for specific times each week.

Inside Notre Dame Football with Charlie Weis

Produced each week of the season (save for bye weeks) and hosted by Jeff Jeffers, Inside Notre Dame Football with Charlie Weis will feature a recap of the previous week's contest, an interview with Coach Weis and different player interviews and features throughout the season. In the South Bend market, the show can be seen each Saturday on WNDU Channel 16 (Cable Channel 8) before WNDU's weekly pre-game show. The show can be seen nationwide on College Sports Television (CSTV) at 6:00 p.m. on Thursdays and Direct TV Channel 321 at 4:30 a.m. on Tuesday.

Notre Dame Football Coach's Show (radio)

The Official Notre Dame Football Coach's Show, presented by Boling Laser Center and hosted by Jeff Jeffers, debuted Monday, Aug. 29, at 7:00 p.m. EST at Logan's Roadhouse in Mishawaka, Ind. Irish head coach Charlie Weis was the special on-site guest for the first show, which features a segment with Weis each week, an appearance by an Irish player and other features involving the Irish staff and program. The show can be heard locally on U93 (92.9 FM) and on the official Notre Dame athletic's website, www.und.com.

Produced by Notre Dame Sports Properties, the show air dates are September 26, October 3, 17, 24, November 7, 14. The show is a cooperative venture between NDSP, the Notre Dame Athletic Department, plus U93 and its parent company, Artistic Media Partners.

Official Notre Dame Pregame Radio Show

Live on U93 (92.9 FM), 1490 AM and ESPN Radio 1580 AM in South Bend, Irish fans can hear the official pregame show of the Fighting Irish. Hosted by Sean Stires and featuring Brian Noe, Vince DeDario, and Colin Burns, the show will get every Irish fan ready for kickoff.

Official Notre Dame Postgame Radio Show

Immediately after Westwood One signs off upon completion of the game, the Notre Dame Postgame Radio Show will take to the airwaves for 90 minutes to recap the day's game and provide in-depth analysis and player/coach interviews. Hosted by Jack Nolan and featuring former Irish stars Reggie Brooks and Mirko Jurkovic, the show can be heard live on U93 (92.9 FM), 1490 AM and ESPN Radio 1580 AM.

Not Local? No Problem!

Irish fans who cannot make it to South Bend each weekend of the season (or see the Irish on the road) can still hear many of the above mentioned shows live via the world wide web. Subscribers to Fighting Irish All-Access on www.und.com will have access to the Official Notre Dame Football Coach's Radio Show and the pregame and postgame shows live! In addition, Inside Notre Dame Football with Charlie Weis will be archived and loaded onto the website as soon as possible for Fighting Irish All-Access subscribers.

NOTRE DAME 42, (No. 23) PITTSBURGH 21
SEPTEMBER 3, 2005 • HEINZ FIELD

PITTSBURGH — Perhaps the most anticipated season-opening matchup in recent Notre Dame football history produced an outcome and a performance that surpassed what even the most optimistic observer of Irish football could have hoped for as the Irish opened the Charlie Weis era in style with a 42-21 pasting of 23rd-ranked Pittsburgh in front of a sellout crowd at Heinz Field.

The retooled Notre Dame offense hummed via the power of the precision passing of quarterback Brady Quinn, big-play performances by running backs Darius Walker and Rashon Powers-Neal, and a punishing offensive line. The Irish produced six touchdowns, 502 yards of total offense (275 rushing, 227 passing) and a staggering 33 first downs in a methodically dominant performance reminiscent of the performances of Weis's offenses from his previous tenure with the NFL's New England Patriots.

In a game in which few had the Irish pegged as pre-game favorites, Notre Dame overcame an early deficit and had salted away the verdict by halftime with a 28-point second-period explosion that created a 35-13 lead. So dominant was the Irish offensive effort that the unit had produced more total yardage in the first half (319 yards) that it had in five entire games last season.

Complementing the offensive prowess was an impressive performance by the Irish defense and special teams. A maligned unit much of the last two seasons, the Notre Dame defense held to 323 total yards (153 in the first half) a Pittsburgh offense that had produced 432 yards and 41 points just nine months earlier in an Irish loss. In addition, Notre Dame defenders caused two turnovers (one fumble on a kickoff return and one interception) and limited the Panthers to a 4-of-14 night on third downs.

How effective was the Irish offense? The unit converted 10-of-15 third down opportunities into first downs, including 10 of its first 11 chances in those situations. Quarterback Brady Quinn passed with startling accuracy much of the night, completing 11 consecutive passes over one span covering the second and third periods. For the game, Quinn passed for 227 yards and two touchdowns while completing 18-of-27 attempts with one interception. He averaged 12.5 yards per completion and 8.4 yards per attempt.

Running back Darius Walker rushed for 100 yards on 20 carries and caught three passes for 52 yards while backfield mate Rashon Powers-Neal scored three rushing touchdowns while averaging 5.1 yards per carry (eight rushes, 41 yards). Defensively, the Irish were led in tackles by cornerback Ambrose Wooden with 12 tackles (10 solos) in his first start. The Irish sacked Palko five times; including two sacks by linebacker Brandon Hoyte (nine tackles) and solo sacks by ends Victor Abiamiri (five tackles) and Chris Frome, and linebacker Corey Mays (three tackles).

After the Panthers opened the game with a 39-yard scoring pass from Palko to wideout Greg Lee, the Irish responded quickly. Walker keyed a 78-yard, six-play march to tie it at 7-7 by rushing four times for 17 yards before making a difficult catch on a delayed screen pass from Quinn and following a convoy of Irish blockers 51 yards for the first touchdown.

After the Panthers moved to a 10-7 lead later in the first period, the Irish took the lead for good on a 65-yard march capped by a two-yard run around left end by Walker for a 14-10 lead. That drive became the first of five consecutive drives that ended in Notre Dame touchdowns as the Irish reached paydirt on six of their first seven possessions of the game.

Following a Panther punt, the Irish again marched 65 yards to a score. Two passes from Quinn to tight end Anthony Fasano, spanning 12 and 18 yards, keyed the drive that was capped by a two-yard run by Powers-Neal for a 21-10 Notre Dame lead. The Irish upped their lead to 28-10 just 45 seconds later. Chinedum Ndukwe recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff forced by Casey Cullen. Jeff Samardzija made a spectacular leaping catch of a Quinn pass for a 19-yard scoring play.

After Pitt responded with a drive to a field goal, the Irish moved back for another touchdown for a 35-13 halftime lead. The 70-yard drive was keyed by Quinn's passing as he connected with Stavall for 11 yards, Powers-Neal for 18 and McKnight for 16 before Powers-Neal blasted through the middle for nine yards and the score with 1:39 left in the half.

The Irish salted away the verdict by opening the second half with an impressive 20-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 7:01 of game time. The Irish converted five third-down plays into first downs on the march that ended with Powers-Neal's third scoring run of the night, this one from four yards out.

"I'm relieved to have this first game under our belt," Weis said. "I'm happy for Notre Dame, I'm happy for our players and I'm happy for our fans. I thought our team played aggressive. We won the battles out there on the field tonight. This game was so much talk about Weis vs. (Dave) Wannstedt, and I was afraid it would be a distraction to our team."

(No. 20) NOTRE DAME 17, (No. 3) MICHIGAN 10
SEPTEMBER 10, 2005 • MICHIGAN STADIUM

ANN ARBOR, Mich. - A mere two games into his Notre Dame tenure, Charlie Weis joined Knute Rockne in the record books as the 20th-ranked Fighting Irish pulled off a 17-10 upset victory at No. 3 Michigan that gave the Irish a 2-0 start.

Brady Quinn threw two touchdown passes in the first half and the Irish held on to beat the Wolverines, making Weis the first Notre Dame coach to win his first two games on the road since Rockne in 1918.

"If I answered by dignifying that, (Bill) Parcells and (Bill) Belichick would humiliate me," Weis said about his coaching mentors when asked about his connection to Rockne. "I've just coached two games and they've played two games. Let's come back and revisit that in about 10 years."

Notre Dame (2-0), snapped the Wolverines' 16-game winning streak at Michigan Stadium and handed them their first loss against a nonconference team at home since 1998. The Irish - two years removed from losing 38-0 in Ann Arbor - also won at Michigan for the first time since 1993.

Against Michigan, the Irish offense began with a shotgun formation and an empty backfield. The Irish didn't use a huddle but for the last play during the opening 12-play drive and didn't face a third down situation.

"I think that sent a message to start the game like that," said Quinn, who ended the impressive possession with a 5-yard touchdown pass to Rhema McKnight.

The Wolverines (1-1) slowed down Notre Dame's offense, but they squandered several chances in the fourth quarter to pull within a touchdown before finally capitalizing on their third opportunity.

On a fourth-and-three, Chad Henne lofted a 25-yard pass to Mario Manningham with 3:47 left to make it 17-10.

The Wolverines then forced Notre Dame to punt, but four incomplete passes later, the Irish were celebrating on the sideline. As the final seconds ticked off the dock, players ran into the end zone to celebrate with their fans. "Coming into the Big House and getting a win can be a once-in-a-lifetime experience," defensive end Victor Abiamiri said. "You want to do everything you can to let it sink in."

Notre Dame didn't need much help to beat the Wolverines for the third time in four years, but instant replay overturned two calls in its favor in the fourth quarter.

On a sneak from inside Notre Dame's one-yard line, Henne was ruled down, but a review showed that he fumbled and that the Irish's Chinedum Ndukwe recovered the ball in the end zone. On the ensuing possession, officials ruled that Quinn fumbled, but a review showed that his knee was down, allowing the Irish to keep the ball deep in their territory.

Quinn was 19-for-30 for 140 yards and Darius Walker ran for 104 yards for the Irish.

D.J. Fitzpatrick's 43-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Notre Dame a 17-3 lead. On its next possession, Walker fumbled, giving Michigan some hope.

The Wolverines drove to Notre Dame's 5, but were turned away after being stuffed on two runs and two passes that fell incomplete. They got inside Notre Dame's 1 on their next possession, before Henne's fumble.

Henne was 19-of-44 for 223 yards with a touchdown. He was intercepted at Notre Dame's one in the third quarter by Tom Zbikowski and had the key fumble in the fourth. Kevin Grady, replacing the injured Mike Hart, ran for 79 yards. Jason Avant caught five passes for 90 yards.

The game was a defensive struggle as the Wolverines were held to their lowest point total since Iowa beat them 34-9 in 2002. That game started a home-winning streak that Notre Dame snapped in front of 111,386 fans.

Both teams lost a key player in the first half. Michigan running back Michael Hart left after being hit hard by linebacker Corey Mays in the first quarter. Notre Dame's McKnight twisted his right knee after being tackled by Brandt Englemon on an incomplete pass in the second quarter.

Steve Breaston's 30-yard reverse on the last play of the first quarter gave Michigan the ball in Irish territory for the first time. Garrett Rivas' 38-yard field goal made it 7-3. Notre Dame responded with its second 12-play drive for a touchdown, capped by Quinn's five-yard pass to Jeff Samardzija for a 14-3 lead with 4:24 left in the second quarter. After the Irish's strong start offensively, Michigan's defense held them in check for the most part, limiting them to 244 yards.

SEPTEMBER 17, 2005 • NOTRE DAME STADIUM

NOTRE DAME, Ind. – The home debut of Irish head coach Charlie Weis was spoiled by an old nemesis as Michigan State (3-0) weathered a dramatic Notre Dame (2-1) comeback to pull out a dramatic victory in overtime at Notre Dame Stadium.

The Spartans overcame a 21-point comeback by the 10th-ranked Fighting Irish and pulled out a 44-41 decision. Spartans running back Jason Teague dashed 19 yards with an option pitch for the game-winning touchdown, handing Weis his first loss as Irish coach after starting the season 2-0 on the road.

“I told (the Notre Dame players) you don't get any medals for trying,” Weis said. “I'm never content when you end up losing.”

Even in defeat, the Irish showed grit and determination in erasing a 21-point, third-quarter deficit. Quarterback Drew Stanton led the Spartans offensively, throwing for three touchdowns and running for another. Michigan State amassed 488 yards total offense against the Irish. Stanton was 16-of-27 for 327 yards. The Spartans joined Purdue (1954-62) as the only opponent to win five straight at Notre Dame Stadium. Michigan State's 12 wins at Notre Dame are the most by an Irish opponent.

The Fighting Irish rallied from 21 points down in the third quarter to tie the score, then took the lead in overtime on a 44-yard field goal by D.J. Fitzpatrick on the opening possession of the extra period, but couldn't make it stand up.

“When you come back like that, you've got a lot of emotion and you feel pretty good about yourself,” Notre Dame quarterback Brady Quinn said. “And then when you can't come through with the victory, I think there's the ability to be a big letdown.”

Quinn passed for a school-record five touchdowns and a career-high 487 yards, the second highest total in Notre Dame history. But it wasn't enough. It was Notre Dame's first loss of the year following wins over Pittsburgh and Michigan to start the season. Those victories had propelled Notre Dame into the top 10 for the first time since 2002.

It appeared for a while Michigan State would win easily when they went ahead 38-17 in the third quarter on a 65-yard screen pass from Stanton to Matt Trannon, who had 126 yards on five catches. The Spartan defense, while it gave up some big plays and a 594 yards, came up big when it had to. On the second play of the second half, Sir Darean Adams picked off a pass from Quinn and returned it 30 yards for a score to give the Spartans a 31-17 lead.

The Irish appeared ready to close to within a touchdown on first-and-goal from the MSU one. Notre Dame fullback Asaph Schwapp attempted to lunge across the middle with the ball ahead of him, but Domata Peko knocked the ball out and Scott Smith recovered for the Spartans on the 7. Soon after Trannon scored on the screen pass to spread the lead to 21 points.

The Irish managed to close to 38-31 when Darius Walker scored on a six-yard pass and Maurice Stovall, who had eight catches for 176 yards, scored on a seven-yard pass. The Irish had a chance to tie it earlier in the fourth quarter, but on fourth-and-one from the Michigan State 20, Schwapp was stopped on a run up the middle. The Irish tied the score at 38 with 2:31 left on a catch by Jeff Samardzija, his third of the game. Quinn became the first Irish quarterback to have two 400-yard passing games. Joe Theismann holds the school record with 576 yards at Southern California in 1970.

Weis became just the third Notre Dame coach since 1913 to lose his home opener, joining Elmer Layden in 1934 and Lou Holtz in 1986.

(No. 16) NOTRE DAME 36, WASHINGTON 17
SEPTEMBER 24, 2005 • HUSKY STADIUM

SEATTLE – Notre Dame’s offense controlled the tempo of the game as the Irish racked up more than 500 yards of offense in a 36-17 win over the Washington Huskies on a beautiful, sun-drenched day at Husky Stadium in Seattle.

The 16th-ranked Irish, clicking in the air and on the ground after a slow start, rolled past the Huskies in a game that had little to do with coaches matching wits and everything to do with slick execution by Notre Dame (3-1) and untimely mistakes by Washington (1-3).

While much of the pre-game hype centered on the two coaches, the game itself was decided by Notre Dame’s explosive offense and an opportunistic Irish defense that forced turnovers in several key situations. First-year Irish head coach Charlie Weis and former Irish head coach Tyrone Willingham shook hands before the game, and then got down to business. At the end, Notre Dame players swarmed around Willingham to shake his hand and wish him well.

A year after Notre Dame won 38-3 in South Bend against Washington; the Irish took their show on the road to do virtually the same thing against the Huskies before 71,473 fans in Husky Stadium. The win made Notre Dame 6-0 against Washington.

Quarterback Brady Quinn compiled 327 yards passing in a balanced attack that saw sophomore halfback Darius Walker rush for a career-high 128 yards on 21 carries. Walker became the first running back in Notre Dame history to rush for more than 100 yards in each of his first four games.

Quinn, who also ran for 29 yards, spread the wealth of passes around to his targets, with wide receiver Jeff Samardzija leading them all and gaining a career-high 164 yards. Notre Dame’s dominating offense controlled the game, and the Irish never punted until 11 seconds were left. They held possession of the ball for 36:56, breaking open the game with 24 points in the second half. Rashon Powers-Neal had a 2-yard touchdown run, Samardzija scored on a 52-yard pass and Travis Thomas scored on an 11-yard run.

Washington, down 29-3 in the fourth quarter, made the final score slightly more respectable with two late touchdowns, the first on a 1-yard run by Mark Palaita, and the second with 2:26 left on a 41-yard pass from reserve quarterback Johnny Durocher. Starting Husky quarterback Isaiah Stanback finished with 353 yards on 17-of-34 passing.

A fumble near the goal line on Washington’s game-opening, length-of-the-field drive cost the Huskies one touchdown, and an interception in the end zone, after Stanback’s career-high 69-yard pass to Marion Wood, cost them another in the second quarter. Notre Dame’s only costly turnover came on a botched field goal snap after driving to the Huskies’ 24 on its first possession.

Notre Dame led 12-3 at halftime, scoring on Walker’s 17-yard touchdown run, blowing an extra point, making field goals from the 25 in the first quarter, the 39 in the second quarter and holding Washington to a 27-yard field goal early in the second quarter. Washington gained all but five of its 243 yards in the first half on passes, while Notre Dame had the more balanced attack - 146 yards in the air, 102 on the ground.

(No. 9) NOTRE DAME 31, (No. 1) USC 34
OCTOBER 15, 2005 • NOTRE DAME STADIUM

NOTRE DAME, Ind. – With help from a push by a teammate, University of Southern California quarterback Matt Leinart spun his way into the end zone with three seconds left to cap a chaotic finish as top-ranked USC escaped with its 28th straight victory, a dramatic 34-31 win over ninth-ranked Notre Dame in a game that lived up to the hype.

For a moment the Irish, dressed in kelly green jerseys, appeared to have added another stunning upset to their illustrious history. One play before the climactic quarterback sneak, Leinart scrambled inside the Irish five-yard line, launched himself toward the end zone but was stopped short and the ball was sent flying out of bounds on a hit by linebacker Corey Mays.

The clock kept ticking down to 0:00. Notre Dame's fans rushed the field and Irish head coach Charlie Weis raised his hands in victory, but after the officials huddled, seven seconds was put back on the clock and the ball was spotted inside the one-yard line. Leinart, the 2004 Heisman Trophy winner, took it in himself on the next play, going over the left side for the score. His first push appeared stopped but he bounced off of the pile and received a nudge from Trojans tailback Reggie Bush that sent him past two Irish defenders and into the end zone.

Irish quarterback Brady Quinn had given Notre Dame a 31-28 lead with 2:04 left, dashing around right end for a five-yard touchdown, extending his right arm across the goal line with the ball to complete a flawless 87-yard march in eight plays to re-take the lead. But Leinart wasn't done. He completed a 61-yard pass to Dwayne Jarrett on a fourth-and-nine at his own 26, Jarrett making the catch despite excellent coverage by Irish cornerback Ambrose Wooden. A few plays later, Leinart called his own number for the deciding score.

Bush ran for 160 yards and three touchdowns for the two-time defending champions, making a huge statement for his own bid for the 2005 Heisman.

Weis tapped into the Fighting Irish's storied past and even in defeat etched a spot in it for himself and his team. He used every motivational play at his disposal, bringing in Dan "Rudy" Ruettiger and Joe Montana to fire up his team and the fans in Friday night's pep rally, then putting the Irish in their green jerseys after pre-game warm-ups.

The Trojans (6-0) trailed at the half for the third time this season, this time by 21-14 after Tom Zbikowski's 60-yard punt return early in the second quarter gave the Irish (4-2) their first lead. After Bush gave USC an early 7-0 lead with a 36-yard touchdown run, the Irish responded with a 16-yard score by running back Travis Thomas to cap a 13-play, 80-yard drive to tie it at 7-7.

USC ended the first period with a 14-7 lead after LenDale White scored on a three-yard run with 2:02 left in the quarter, but the Irish responded early in the second period with a 72-yard drive capped by a 32-yard pass from Quinn to Samardzija on a third down play. After Zbikowski's punt return gave the Irish the lead at the half, Bush tied the game with a 45-yard scoring gallop early in the third.

Notre Dame got the lead back with a 32-yard D.J. Fitzpatrick field goal early in the fourth quarter, but Bush struck again, going around the corner from nine yards out with 5:09 left to make it 28-24 to set up a chance for Quinn and the Irish to create a new Notre Dame legend.

The junior quarterback responded flawlessly as he guided the Irish on an 87-yard drive, completing all three of his passes and putting Notre Dame up, 31-28, with 2:04 left on a five-yard quarterback keeper around the right side. Quinn finished 19-for-35 passing for 264 yards and rushed for 21 yards and a score.

USC came in averaging 51 points per game, but the Irish put pressure on Leinart and intercepted him twice, the first time since the final game of the 2003 regular season he tossed two picks. The dynamic backfield of White and Bush was turned into a solo act, as Bush kept USC in it until Leinart made the plays of the game. His completion to Jarrett on the huge fourth-down conversion allowed him to finish with 301 yards passing.

Notre Dame's bid to reshape the national title race fell painfully short, but the Irish had established themselves as a force to be reckoned with nationally in a game many were calling one of the best ever played.

(No. 9) NOTRE DAME 49, BYU 23
OCTOBER 22, 2005 • NOTRE DAME STADIUM

NOTRE DAME, Ind. – Notre Dame (5-2) won at home for the first time in 2005 while embarking on a record-setting passing day as the Irish made sure there would be no last-minute dramatics, beating Brigham Young (3-4) 49-23 behind Brady Quinn's school-record six touchdown passes. It was the first home win for Notre Dame head coach Charlie Weis, the first Irish coach in 109 years to lose his first two home games - an overtime loss to Michigan State and in the final seconds to No. 1 USC.

Quinn was 32-of-41 for 467 yards, his third 400-yard passing game of the season. He broke the single-game school mark of five touchdown passes he set against Michigan State earlier this season by completing 25-of-30 in the first half for a school-record 287 yards. Senior Maurice Stovall became the first Irish receiver every to grab four touchdown catches in a game, catching a career-high and Irish record 14 passes for 207 yards. Jeff Samardzija had 10 catches for 152 yards and two touchdowns.

Stovall and Samardzija, who are both 6-foot-5, became the first Irish receivers to each have more than 10 catches in the same game, repeatedly going over smaller BYU defenders to catch passes. "Notre Dame's passing game was better than our coverage in every instance today," BYU coach Bronco Mendenhall said.

The Fighting Irish, who were beaten by BYU last season when they were held to 11 yards rushing, didn't try to run much against the Cougars until the reserves were playing in the fourth quarter, instead depending on Quinn's passing to open up the BYU defense.

BYU, which saw its two-game winning streak come to an end, lost its 12th straight to a ranked opponent. After falling behind 28-10 early in the third quarter when Quinn threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Samardzija, the Cougars rallied briefly to make the game interesting. John Beck threw a 24-yard pass to Jonny Harline to set up a 10-yard scoring run by Beck.

After forcing an Irish punt, Nathan Meikle returned the punt 22 yards to the Notre Dame 33 to set up BYU's next score. Beck threw a 10-yard scoring pass to Todd Watkins to cut the lead to 28-23. BYU went for the two-point conversion, but Beck's pass was intercepted by Notre Dame safety Tom Zbikowski.

Quinn quickly regained control, throwing a 42-yard touchdown pass to Samardzija and a 24-yard scoring pass to Stovall to give the Irish a 42-23 lead. Quinn's big day also included breaking the school record for touchdown passes in a season as he ran his total to 20, surpassing the 19 thrown by Ron Powlus in 1994.

For BYU, Beck was 26-of-45 passing for 317 yards with two interceptions. Harline finished with eight catches for 100 yards.

Quinn, who extended his record of consecutive games with touchdown passes to 12, also moved ahead of Steve Beuerlein into second place on Notre Dame's career passing yards. Quinn has thrown for 6,769 yards. Powlus is the school career leader with 7,602.

Samardzija, who had scoring catches of 14 and 21 yards, became the first Irish receiver to have touchdown catches in seven straight games, breaking the mark set by Malcolm Johnson in 1998. He also tied the school record of 11 touchdown catches in a season set by Derrick Mayes in 1994.

(No. 8) NOTRE DAME 41, TENNESSEE 21
NOVEMBER 5, 2005 • NOTRE DAME STADIUM

NOTRE DAME, Ind. – Once again, Notre Dame (6-2) found a way to win when the game tightened in the late going. In a game that reflected the story of the season for the two teams, the Irish continued to move closer to being an elite team while Tennessee (3-5) continued to struggle.

The Volunteers looked as though they might be able to rally for a victory after coming back from 18 points down to tie the score at 21 late in the third quarter. But Irish quarterback Brady Quinn completed a 73-yard pass to Jeff Samardzija to set up the go-ahead touchdown and spark the eighth-ranked Irish to a 41-21 victory.

“All the momentum swung back our way on that one play,” Notre Dame coach Charlie Weis said.

The play was an eight-yard pass to the left, but Samardzija eluded a couple of tacklers and raced down the sideline before being caught from behind by Antwan Stewart at the UT two-yard line.

“I was looking back trying to give a stiff arm, when I really didn't need to,” Samardzija said. “(Maurice) Stovall put on a great block for me up on the 50 and it just kind of opened up the whole seam for me down the sideline.”

Two plays later, Samardzija capped the drive with four-yard touchdown catch for Quinn's third scoring pass of the game. Quinn was 20-of-33 for 295 yards and threw two touchdown passes in the span of a minute during the first quarter to give the Irish a 14-0 lead. The Vols managed to slow him until late in the third quarter, when Quinn finished the game by completing 5-of-8 passes for 93 yards, setting up the go-ahead score and a pair of field goals by D.J. Fitzpatrick.

Samardzija's touchdown catch was his 12th of the season, breaking the mark of 11 set by Derrick Mayes in 1994. Tom Zbikowski iced the victory with an interception return of 33 yards for a touchdown. He also had a 78-yard punt return for a touchdown in the second quarter. The two returns for touchdowns give Zbikowski four touchdowns in the last three games. He also had a 60-yard punt return against USC and an 83-yard interception return against Brigham Young.

Weis was pleased to see his defense and special teams contribute, even if it was Zbikowski on both plays. The victory made Notre Dame bowl eligible in consecutive years for the first time since 1997-98. The Volunteers lost their fourth straight for the first time since 1988, which also is the last time they failed to go to a bowl game.

The 41 points were the most allowed this season by Tennessee, which gave up 27 points at LSU and against Georgia. The three touchdown passes surrendered by the Volunteers also equaled the amount they gave up in their first seven games combined.
