Storylines

- ◆ Notre Dame has had at least five double-figure scorers in each of its last three games (believed to be a first in school history).
- ◆ Fewer than 1,000 tickets remain for Sunday's contest, as the Irish close in on the fourth sellout in program history.

Following one of the most explosive opening months in its history, No. 22/23 Notre Dame will continue its early-season success when it plays host to Michigan Sunday at 2 p.m. (ET) inside a nearly-sold out Joyce Center. The Irish are averaging a BIG EAST Conference-best 85 points per game in their first six outings and are outscoring their opponents by 30 points a night (second in the BIG EAST).

Notre Dame rang up a third consecutive 30-point victory for the first time in almost eight years with a 93-47 win over Canisius on Tuesday night at the Joyce Center. The Irish used a 14-0 run midway through the first half to blow the game wide open and forced the Golden Griffins to commit 29 turnovers en route to the victory.

Sophomore guard Ashley Barlow turned in a balanced effort for Notre Dame, posting game highs of 18 points, seven rebounds, a career-high six assists and four steals. Senior guard Charel Allen added 17 points and freshman forward Devereaux Peters came off the bench to chip in 12 points for the Irish.

Setting The Standard

Under the guidance of 21st-year head coach Muffet McGraw, Notre Dame has evolved into one of the country's leading women's basketball powers. The Irish have appeared in 14 NCAA Tournaments (including a current streak of 12 in a row) and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 six times in the past 11 years. Notre Dame also has reached the NCAA Women's Final Four twice, winning college basketball's ultimate prize with the 2001 national championship.

In its history, Notre Dame has developed nine All-Americans, nine WNBA players (including six draft picks in the past seven years) and four USA Basketball veterans (nine medals won). Now in their 31st season in 2007-08, the Irish own an all-time record of 618-279 (.689).

A Quick Look At The Fighting Irish

Even after a 20-12 record and a trip to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2006-07, Notre Dame still continues to fly below the national radar. Head coach Muffet McGraw wouldn't want it any other way.

Last year, the Irish learned quickly that respect is something that isn't handed to you, but rather earned on the court. It's also a quality that takes time to develop and doesn't come from trophy cases or record books. So although Notre Dame was tabbed fifth in the preseason BIG EAST Conference balloting, it's not a great concern to McGraw and her charges. Instead, they focus on the things they can control and prefer to let the outside world judge them when the season is over.

This year could prove to be unlike any in recent memory for Notre Dame. For one, the Irish will roll out some impressive depth, going virtually two-deep at every floor position. In addition, Notre Dame's new offensive system (a Princeton-based set with four guards and a post) continues to evolve, building upon last year's 70.1 point-per-game average that was its highest since the 2000-01 NCAA national championship season.

Senior guard Charel Allen is the top returning scorer and rebounder for the Irish, leading the team in both categories last year (17.0 ppg., 6.2 rpg.). She also was a first-team all-BIG EAST and WBCA honorable mention All-America selection, and was a finalist for the 2007 USA U21 World Championship Team that struck gold this past summer in Moscow.

Allen's backcourt partner and classmate is point guard Tulyah Gaines. Now in her second full season at the helm of the Notre Dame offense, the speedy Gaines averaged 9.6 points per game along with team highs of 3.9 assists and 2.0 steals per contest. She also is a two-year team captain who commands instant respect from teammates, coaches and opponents.

The Irish will benefit from the return of junior guard Lindsay Schrader, who missed the entire 2006-07 season with a torn ACL in her right knee. Schrader, who retains three years of athletic eligibility, was Notre Dame's second-leading scorer (10.5 ppg.) and top rebounder (5.4 rpg.) as a rookie in 2005-06 and will look to regain that form this season.

Last year saw Notre Dame break new ground by becoming the first school ever to put three players on the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team. Guards Ashley Barlow (10.3 ppg., 5.4 rpg.) and Melissa Lechitner (6.3 ppg., 2.7 apg.) will provide a superb complement to the veteran Allen-Gaines tandem, while center Erica Williamson (6.1 ppg., 5.3 rpg., 1.3 bpg.) showed flashes of potential throughout her rookie season and is poised for increased development this year.

Headlining a three-player freshman class (ranked 11th nationally by Blue Star Basketball) is Devereaux Peters, a smooth 6-2 forward who was a consensus All-American as a senior last year at national powerhouse Fenwick High School in Oak Park, Ill. Fellow post Becca Bruszewski (Valparaiso, Ind.) finished third in last season's Indiana Miss Basketball voting and was a perennial all-state pick. And, guard Brittany Mallory (Baltimore, Md.) offers a perimeter shooting threat, as well as a cerebral player who will mesh well in the Irish offensive system.

Around the BIG EAST

- The Irish have become a regular fixture in the WNBA Draft in recent years, as six Notre Dame players have been selected in the past seven seasons. Megan Duffy was the most recent Irish player to be chosen, going to the Minnesota Lynx in the third round (31st overall pick) of the 2006 WNBA Draft. Duffy and Ruth Riley (San Antonio) both have been active in the league during the 2007 season, with Riley making her sixth playoff appearance (on her third different team) in a solid seven-year pro career. All told, seven Notre Dame alums have competed in WNBA regular-season play, with three of them combining to win four league championships — Riley won a pair of crowns with the Detroit Shock (2003 Finals MVP, 2006), Coquese Washington toiled for the 2000 Houston Comets, while Jacqueline Batteast was Riley's teammate on the '06 title-winning squad in Detroit. Notre Dame has been an elite program in the classroom as well. For the second year in a row, the Irish posted a perfect 100-percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR), according to figures released by the NCAA in October 2007. Notre Dame was one of 23 Division I-A programs to achieve this distinction, and one of only two BIG EAST schools (Syracuse was the other). Furthermore, since Muffet McGraw became the Irish head coach in 1987, every Notre Dame women's basketball player that has completed her athletic and academic eligibility at the University has graduated (a perfect 53-for-53 success rate).

A Quick Look At Michigan

Consistency can be a major ingredient for success with any college basketball program. With that in mind, Michigan is definitely poised for upward mobility in the coming years.

The Wolverines have 13 letterwinners, including all five starters, back in the fold from last year's club that went 10-20 overall and 3-13 in the Big Ten Conference. However, seven of UM's losses were by single digits, and the Wolverines were only one game below .500 early in the conference season before closing the year with 11 losses in their final 13 games.

Hardened by some of the travails of the 2006-07 season, this year's Michigan squad looks ready to put the past behind it and carve a new path for the program. The Wolverines are off to a solid start in that pursuit, jumping out to a 4-2 record this season despite playing its last five games away from home.

Michigan opened the season with three consecutive victories, including a 55-46 win at Notre Dame's fellow BIG EAST Conference member Cincinnati back on Nov. 13. The Wolverines also posted an impressive 65-50 win at ACC member Miami (Fla.), then split a pair of games at the Vanderbilt Thanksgiving Tournament, losing to Iowa State (67-43), but bouncing back with a sharp 80-43 pasting of Belmont in the consolation game.

UM last took the court on Thursday night, dropping a 69-41 decision at No. 13/12 Texas A&M. The Wolverines found themselves in a deep early hole, falling behind 18-2 a little more than six minutes into the game, and they never completely recovered. Michigan got as close as 26-19 with less than three minutes to go in the first half, but Texas A&M responded with a 26-6 run that crossed over halftime and put the game away.

A pair of seniors — guard Janelle Cooper and center/forward Ta'Shia Walker — led the Wolverines with nine points apiece. Cooper also shared team-high rebounding honors with six boards for UM, which was charged with 33 turnovers and shot .308 from the floor.

Sophomore center Krista Phillips leads Michigan in scoring (10.5 ppg.), field goal percentage (.667) and blocked shots (1.5 bpg.) although she has not yet started a game this season. Cooper is second in scoring (9.2 ppg.) and rebounding (4.5 rpg.) while making a team-best 12-of-25 (.480) from the three-point line.

Head coach Kevin Borseth is in his first season at Michigan after a successful runs at Wisconsin-Green Bay (1998-99 to 2006-07), Michigan Tech (1987-88 to 1997-98) and Gogebic Community College in Ironwood, Mich. (1982-83 to 1986-87). He has a 510-212 (.706) career record in 26 years of coaching, although Sunday will mark his first matchup with Notre Dame.

The Notre Dame-Michigan Series

Notre Dame holds a slim 8-6 lead in the all-time series against Michigan, although the Irish have held a decided 6-1 advantage when the scene shifts to the Joyce Center. In fact, the home team has had a major edge in the rivalry, with UM winning four of six matchups in Ann Arbor, as well as the lone neutral-site meeting (a 2002 victory in Grand Rapids).

Notre Dame also has won four of the past five games and eight of the past 11 contests in the series with Michigan, since the Wolverines took the first three matchups with the Irish. The teams met annually from 1978-79 through 1985-86, but the rivalry then went dormant with the exception of a home-and-home series in 1991 and 1992.

The two sides renewed acquaintances with a pair of tournament contests — the Irish defeated Michigan, 88-54 in the second round of the 2001 NCAA Tournament (at the Joyce Center) before the Wolverines returned the favor the following year with a 78-63 triumph at the Women's College Basketball Showcase in Grand Rapids.

The schools are in the third year of a four-year series, with Notre Dame having won the first two contests against UM (55-45 at the Joyce Center in 2005; 61-58 last year in Ann Arbor).

The Last Time Notre Dame And Michigan Met

It had been quite a while since the Notre Dame women's basketball team won a game at Michigan's Crisler Arena. However, the nearly 24-year wait turned out to be worth it on Dec. 1, 2006, as the Irish put together one of the more memorable comebacks in the program's 30-year history.

Notre Dame went on a 10-2 run and forced three turnovers in the final 47.3 seconds to rally past Michigan, 61-58 before a noisy and hostile crowd of 3,817 in Ann Arbor. Tulyah Gaines canned both ends of a one-and-one free throw situation with 3.3 seconds to go, giving the Irish the lead, before Charel Allen added two huge security foul shots in the final second to secure the win.

Allen finished with a game-high 15 points and three steals, while Gaines chipped in 11 points and three thefts. Ashley Barlow played a pivotal role off the bench, coming up with 14 points and a team-high seven rebounds, along with three steals. As a team, the Irish (5-2) struggled to find their shooting touch (.355 for the night), but were sharp at the foul line when it counted, going 10-of-13 (.769) in the second half.

Notre Dame's defense also turned out to be key on this night, as the Irish forced Michigan (5-3) into an opponent season-high 30 turnovers, with 15 of those coming on steals. The Irish also held the Wolverines to 58 points, their best defensive effort of the '06-07 season to date. Janelle Cooper had 11 points and Krista Phillips added 10 points for UM, but Phillips, a 6-6 post, didn't score during the final 30:48 of the contest.

Notre Dame took its largest lead of the evening (42-33) on an old-fashioned three-point play by Gaines with 13:34 to play. However, that margin evaporated during the next four minutes, with Michigan's Stephany Skrba pulling her team alongside Notre Dame at 46-46 on two foul shots just past the midpoint of the second half.

After going bucket for bucket, the Wolverines nosed in front when Kayln McPherson slashed in for a layup with 5:29 left. UM then backed the Irish into a corner when Jessica Minnfield and Carly Benson hit bookend three-pointers around a layup by Notre Dame's Erica Williamson, leaving Michigan with a crowd-pleasing 56-51 edge at the final media timeout. The assembled multitude didn't know it at the time, but the Wolverines wouldn't score another basket the rest of the way.

Still trailing by five with 1:01 left, Allen fouled Phillips to put UM in the double bonus situation. The Wolverine center missed both of her charities, and Barlow drew Notre Dame within two on a right-wing three-pointer with 47.3 seconds to go. Allen then stole the Michigan in-bounds pass under the Irish basket, but her reverse layup attempt hung tantalizing on the rim before falling out and the Wolverines drew a held ball (and the resulting possession arrow) with 40.9 ticks remaining.

Following a Michigan timeout, Notre Dame fouled Cooper, who converted one of her two foul shots to keep the Irish within one possession. Yet, Notre Dame's fortunes seemed to dim when Gaines' driving layup try was blocked by Phillips and the Irish guard then fouled UM's Sireece Bass with 22.3 seconds left. Like Cooper, Bass made the front end of her two free throws, rebuilding a 58-54 Michigan lead.

Without a timeout, Gaines pushed into the front court and got the ball on the left wing to Allen, who buried a three-pointer with 10.9 seconds to go. Allen fouled Bass again on the inbounds (:07.5), but Bass missed both free throws, giving Notre Dame an opportunity. Gaines took advantage, navigating through the backtracking Michigan defense before Bass fouled her at the top of the key with 3.3 seconds to be played, putting the Wolverines over the limit and giving the Irish co-captain a one-and-one free throw possibility.

With the crowd reaching a fever pitch, Gaines coolly stepped to the foul line and found nothing but net on her first free throw. The bonus toss was a little more ticklish, hanging on the front lip of the rim for an instant before tipping softly into the twine. Michigan, which also had exhausted its prescribed number of timeouts, tried to advance the ball to midcourt, but Melinda Queen was called for traveling after making the catch at the timeline with two seconds left. Allen took the subsequent inbounds pass, was fouled and hit two free throws with a scant 0.7 seconds to go, leaving the Wolverines with a baseball pass down the floor, which was picked off as the horn sounded.

The Last Time Notre Dame And Michigan Met At The Joyce Center

Most of Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw's previous 499 career victories looked a lot better than win No. 500. She will take the 55-45 victory on Nov. 18, 2005 over Michigan just the same, especially after seeing Charel Allen return from a knee injury in the 2005 NCAA Tournament to lead the 15th-ranked Irish with 16 points and Lindsay Schrader get 10 points and 14 rebounds in her debut.

McGraw became the 27th women's coach with 500 wins and the 10th to accomplish the feat before turning 50. Three other active BIG EAST coaches also won 500 before 50: Rutgers' C. Vivian Stringer, Connecticut's Geno Auriemma and Villanova's Harry Perretta.

It looked for a while like McGraw might have to wait for the milestone victory with the Irish offense struggling. But Allen scored inside with 13:39 left to start a 12-3 run, during which she scored six points as the Irish went ahead 42-38. The Irish opened a 49-43 lead when Allen hit a 16-footer.

The 14 rebounds by Schrader were the most by an Irish player since Jacqueline Batteast had 18 against Connecticut nearly three years earlier. Melissa D'Amico added 10 points for the Irish. Ta'Shia Walker led Michigan with 16 points and nine rebounds, making her first six shots before missing the final four. The Irish out-rebounded the Wolverines 54-33.

Other Notre Dame-Michigan Series Tidbits

- If history is a guide, Notre Dame's defensive effort could be a key indicator in the outcome of Sunday's game. In their eight victories over Michigan, the Irish have held the Wolverines to less than 60 points seven times (only exception: 76-71 on Dec. 5, 1985 at the Joyce Center). Conversely, in UM's six series wins, it has tallied at least 75 points on five occasions (only exception: 66-60 in overtime on Dec. 8, 1979 at the Joyce Center).
- Last year's 61-58 Irish win was the closest by either side in the series and the first Notre Dame victory in Ann Arbor since Dec. 12, 1982, when the Irish won by virtually the same score (62-58).
- The aggregate point total in the 14-game series remains razor thin, with Notre Dame scoring 934 points and Michigan logging 932 points.
- Notre Dame is 49-19 (.721) all-time against teams from the state of Michigan, including a 30-6 (.833) record away from home. The Irish also are 29-7 (.806) against the Great Lakes State in the Muffet McGraw era (1987-present). Notre Dame has won its last six games against Michigan schools, since an 82-73 overtime loss to Michigan State on Dec. 2, 2004 at the Joyce Center.

Last year, the Irish won a pair of home games against Michigan institutions, defeating Central Michigan (88-66) and Western Michigan (87-67). Sunday's game is the second of two this season for Notre Dame against Michigan teams, following a 94-41 Irish win at CMU on Nov. 20.

- The two head coaches both rank among the top 25 active NCAA Division I coaches in terms of winning percentage. Michigan's Kevin Borseth has a winning percentage of .735 (NCAA four-year schools only) that stands 16th among current skippers, while Notre Dame's Muffet McGraw has a .710 career winning percentage that puts her 21st among active Division I coaches.
- The state of Michigan has been home to 14 Notre Dame women's basketball players during the past 31 years. That's second only to Indiana (18) for the most players from one state in program history. The Irish will add two more Michigan natives to their roster next season, as Ionia's Kellie Watson and Oak Park's Erica Solomon become the first Michigan residents to play women's basketball at Notre Dame since 2000, when Ann Arbor's Julie Henderson completed her Irish career.

Notre Dame vs. The Big Ten Conference

Notre Dame is 34-46 (.425) all-time against the Big Ten Conference, including a 19-16 (.543) record at home. The Irish also are 27-32 (.458) against the Big Ten in the Muffet McGraw era (14-11, .560 at home) and have won seven of their last 11 games against that league.

Michigan is the first of two Big Ten teams on Notre Dame's '07-08 schedule, with the Irish slated to visit Purdue next Saturday (Dec. 8) in a 4 p.m. (ET) game that will be broadcast regionally on the Big Ten Network. Last season, Notre Dame split four games against the Big Ten, winning at Michigan (61-58) and home vs. Purdue (67-58), while losing at Penn State (75-49) and home vs. Indiana (54-51).

Thirty Deeds

Four of Notre Dame's five wins this season have come by at least 30 points, while the Irish held a 32-point lead midway through the second half of the fourth victory (a 78-59 conquest of Western Kentucky on Nov. 13). This marks the first time in school history that Notre Dame has fashioned four 30-point wins in its first six games.

It's also the first time since the 2000-01 national championship season that the Irish have logged at least four 30-point wins in a single season. That year, Notre Dame collected a school-record 10 30-point victories, but only two of those came in the first six games.

What's more, the Irish are on a current streak of three consecutive 30-point wins. The last time Notre Dame did that was Jan. 20-30, 1999, when the Irish had four straight 30-point victories, all during BIG EAST Conference play — at Seton Hall (87-47), home vs. St. John's (99-60), at Syracuse (94-61) and at Providence (97-59).

Put A Tiger In Your Tank

Less than two seasons after posting the program's lowest scoring output (64.5 ppg) since 1980-81, Notre Dame has reversed that trend in a big way.

The Irish currently lead the BIG EAST Conference in scoring at 85.0 points per game, having tallied at least 78 points in each of their five wins. What's more, Notre Dame also has the second-highest scoring average after six games in program history, topped only by the 1998-99 squad (85.2 ppg.), which went on to post a single-season school record with an 81.0-ppg. scoring average.

Notre Dame also ranks second in the conference in scoring margin, outpacing its opposition by 30.0 points per night.

Spreading The Wealth

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's squad this season is its balance and depth. That's been particularly evident through the first eight games of the season (counting the exhibitions), with six different players from all five floor positions and all four classes leading the team in scoring.

Double Trouble

Another example of Notre Dame's balance this season is seen in its point distribution. No fewer than nine of the 11 Irish players on this year's roster have scored in double figures at least once this season, with only sophomore center Erica Williamson and senior guard Amanda Tsipis yet to crack the 10-point mark.

Notre Dame also has had at least five double-figure scorers in the past three games. It's believed to be the first time in school history (and certainly the first time in the Muffet McGraw era) the Irish have pulled off that feat, although records are incomplete prior to the 1983-84 season.

Protecting The Pill

Notre Dame has gotten off to a strong start this season, thanks in large part to its ability to take care of the basketball. The Irish are averaging just 12.3 turnovers per game and have yet to commit more than 16 giveaways this year. On the flip side, Notre Dame is forcing 24.7 turnovers per night, resulting in a BIG EAST Conference-best +12.33 turnover margin (a full +5.33 better than second-place Connecticut).

The Irish took ball protection to a new level in their loss at No. 3 Maryland on Nov. 16. Notre Dame set a school record with only three turnovers against the Terrapins, with two of those giveaways coming on offensive fouls. The previous school record for fewest turnovers was six, set on Feb. 12, 2006 at DePaul.

With only three turnovers, it's probably comes as no surprise that Maryland did not register a steal against Notre Dame. However, what is surprising is that it was the first time in the 31-year history of the Irish program that an opponent did not record a steal against Notre Dame. Several opponents had only one steal vs. the Irish, with the most recent being Boston College on March 19, 2006 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament (played at West Lafayette, Ind.).

Keeping It On The Plus Side

Notre Dame has registered a positive assist-to-turnover ratio in five of its six games this season, only finding the red in its Nov. 13 win over Western Kentucky (12 assists, 15 turnovers).

For the year, the Irish rank second in the BIG EAST with a 1.49 assist-to-turnover ratio, trailing only second-ranked Connecticut (1.63). Notre Dame also has assisted on 53.1 percent of its field goals this year (110 assists on 207 baskets), ranking third in the conference with 18.33 assists per game.

Off And Running

Notre Dame has wasted little time in jumping ahead of its opponents this season. In four of their five wins, the Irish have opened up a double-digit lead less than 10 minutes into the game, while a 20-0 run late in the first half at Central Michigan put that victory on ice as well.

Even in its lone defeat at third-ranked Maryland, Notre Dame made a statement early with a 10-0 run in the first five minutes of action and led by as many as five points in the first half before the Terrapins rallied back for the win.

Polling Station

Notre Dame is ranked 22nd in this week's Associated Press Top 25 poll, climbing one spot from the previous survey.

Notre Dame now has been ranked in the AP poll for 143 weeks during the program's history, with every one of those appearances coming in the Muffet McGraw era. McGraw now ranks 14th among all active NCAA Division I head coaches for weeks in the AP poll, and with this week's poll selection, she moves into sole possession of 25th place all-time in that category, breaking a tie with retired Colorado mentor Ceal Barry.

The Irish also are appearing in the ESPN/USA Today coaches poll for the third consecutive week on Nov. 20, checking in at No. 23 after placing 24th in the previous poll.

game against Michigan at the Joyce Center. Should those remaining tickets get snapped up, it would mark the fourth sellout in program history and the first since Dec. 31, 2005, when a capacity crowd of 11,418 fans watched the Irish battle top-ranked Tennessee to the wire before falling, 62-51.

Even if not another ticket is sold for the Michigan game, it already will go down as the fourth-largest crowd in school history and the fourth audience of 10,000 fans in the Notre Dame women's basketball record books. A full rundown of the top crowds in Joyce Center history can be found in the sidebar on page 7 of this notes package.

No Easy Road

Notre Dame has always played a difficult schedule, using it as a means of preparation for future tests in both the BIG EAST Conference and the postseason. However, this year's slate could be one of the more rugged ones in recent memory.

With the addition of third-ranked Maryland to the docket in the Preseason WNIT semifinals, the Irish now will face four of the top five teams (including the top three) in the latest Associated Press poll. Still to come this season are No. 1 Tennessee (Jan. 5 at the Joyce Center), No. 2 Connecticut (Jan. 27 at the Joyce Center) and No. 5 Rutgers (Feb. 19 in Piscataway, N.J.). The top three teams in the poll have combined to win three of the past four national championships, with Tennessee currently holding the hardware.

Leave The Driving To Us

The Nov. 20 game at Central Michigan was the first of only four road contests for the Irish prior to the end of the calendar year. Even more notable — all four road games will be played no further than 200 miles from the Notre Dame campus, either within the state of Indiana or in neighboring states (Michigan or Ohio).

Allen Named To Preseason WNIT All-Tournament Team

Senior guard Charel Allen earned a spot on the Preseason WNIT All-Tournament Team after averaging 13.3 points and 5.7 rebounds in Notre Dame's three tournament games. Allen is the fourth Irish player in history to be named to the squad, joining Katryna Gaither (1996), Megan Duffy (2004) and '04 Most Valuable Player Jacqueline Batteast.

Guess Who's Back ... Back Again?

Junior guard Lindsay Schrader looked very sharp in her return to action on Nov. 9 vs. Miami (Ohio). In her first meaningful game in nearly 20 months, Schrader scored exactly one point for every month she was out, finishing with 20 points on 10-of-12 shooting, converting her first six shots before the game was eight minutes old. The Bartlett, Ill., native wound up playing just 17 minutes against the RedHawks, resulting in the first "point-a-minute" game of her career.

Game #6 Recap: Canisius

points, senior guard Charel Allen added a season-high 17 points and No. 22/23 Notre Dame used a pressing defense to open a big first-half lead and beat Canisius 93-47 on Tuesday night at the Joyce Center.

The Fighting Irish (5-1) forced 29 turnovers and held the Golden Griffins (3-2) to a season-low 34 percent shooting. The Irish also out-scored Canisius 50-12 inside and had a 46-28 rebounding edge.

Freshman forward Devereaux Peters added 12 points, and junior guard Lindsay Schrader and freshman guard Brittany Mallory added 10 points each for the Irish, who shot 51 percent. Laura Buetow and Amanda Cavo led Canisius with 10 points each.

After the Irish quickly took an 8-0 lead, the Golden Griffins answered with an 8-0 run of their own. But they couldn't keep up when the Irish began pressing full court. The first trip down the court, Micayla Drysdale missed a three-pointer she put up just as the shot clock expired.

The Irish then went on a 25-6 run, with seven players scoring. During one five-minute scoreless drought, the Griffins turned the ball over seven times on nine possessions, including three traveling calls. Canisius only got off two shots during that spurt and one of them was blocked by Erica Williamson.

The Irish forced 18 turnovers in the first half, including 11 steals, to open a 49-22 halftime lead. Notre Dame won its third straight game by at least 30 points, the first time that's happened since January 1999.

Noting The Canisius Game

- Notre Dame posted its third consecutive game with at least 88 points, the first time that's happened since Jan. 23-30, 1999, when the Irish strung together four such victories against St. John's (99-60), Syracuse (94-61) and Providence (97-59).
- The Irish had five double-figure scorers for the third consecutive game, a feat that is believed to be a first in program history (records incomplete prior to 1983-84).
- For the third time in six games this season, all 11 Notre Dame players on the roster scored points (also vs. Miami-Ohio and Central Michigan).
- The Irish forced at least 25 turnovers for the third time this season (also Western Kentucky and Boston College).
- Notre Dame registered double-digit steals for the third consecutive game and fourth time this season — in the past three games, the Irish are averaging 15.7 steals per game.
- Notre Dame knocked down a season-high six three-pointers on a season-best .400 three-point percentage.
- The Irish shot better than 50 percent for the third time this season (also Miami-Ohio and Central Michigan).
- Notre Dame has limited its last three opponents to an average of 48.7 points per game and a .200 three-point percentage (7-of-35).
- The Irish now are 22-0 all-time at home (41-3 overall) against New York schools.
- Notre Dame has won 16 of its last 17 games (11 in a row) vs. first-time opponents, including a perfect 9-0 record at home in that time (2000-01 to present).

- Sophomore guard Ashley Barlow dished out a career-high six assists, topping her old mark of four dimes, set on four occasions (most recently vs. California in the first round of the NCAA Tournament on March 18, 2007).
- Junior guard Lindsay Schrader tied her career high with four assists, the fifth time she's had that total (most recently at Cincinnati on Feb. 25, 2006).
- Freshman forward Devereaux Peters tied her season high with 12 points and blocked at least three shots for the third time this year.
- Freshman guard Brittany Mallory scored in double figures for the second consecutive game and delivered a season-high three assists.

Irish Picked Fifth In BIG EAST Poll

Notre Dame was projected to finish fifth in the BIG EAST Conference this season, according to a preseason vote of the league's 16 head coaches that was announced Oct. 25 during BIG EAST Women's Basketball Media Day at the ESPNZone in New York City. The Irish collected 165 points, with Connecticut (15 first-place votes, 225 points), Rutgers (one first-place vote, 211 points), West Virginia (186 points) and Pittsburgh (169 points) joining Notre Dame in the top five.

Senior guard Charel Allen was one of 11 players selected to this year's Preseason All-BIG EAST Team. Allen averaged a team-high 17.0 points and 6.2 rebounds per game last season and ranked second in the BIG EAST with 19.3 points per game in league play. She went on to earn first-team all-BIG EAST and honorable mention All-America laurels. While helping the Irish go 20-12 and reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Half And Half

During the past eight seasons, Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable when it has the lead at halftime. The Irish are 129-12 (.915) since the start of the 2000-01 campaign when they go into the dressing room with the lead, including wins in 57 of their last 63 such contests. Notre Dame has opened this season with five victories in as many games after taking the lead to the locker room.

The Best Offense Is A Good Defense...

During the past 13 seasons, Notre Dame has discovered that a solid defensive effort can almost certainly guarantee a victory. In fact, since the beginning of the 1995-96 season (Notre Dame's first in the BIG EAST Conference), the Irish have an amazing 173-10 (.945) record when they hold their opponents to less than 60 points in a game. Notre Dame added to this trend in all five of its wins this season.

...But Sometimes You Have To Score If You Want To Win

Not resting solely on its defensive laurels,

Notre Dame also seemingly has found the magic mark when it comes to outscoring its opponents. During the past 13 seasons (1995-96 to present), the Irish are 104-3 (.972) when they score at least 80 points in a game. The only blemishes on that record are a pair of overtime losses to Texas A&M (88-84) and Michigan State (87-83) in 1995 and a 106-81 loss to Connecticut in 1998.

Notre Dame has topped the 80-point mark four times this season, winning all four contests (Miami-Ohio, Central Michigan, Boston College and Canisius).

Now That's A Home Court Advantage

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's success has been its stellar play at home. In fact, the Irish have been virtually untouchable at home in recent years, winning 153 of their last 171 games (.895) at the 11,418-seat Joyce Center, including winning streaks of 51 and 25 games in that span. Notre Dame also has an 87-13 (.870) record in BIG EAST Conference play at the Joyce Center, sporting a 31-game league winning streak at home before it ended with a 48-45 loss to Villanova in the '02 home finale.

The Irish have been particularly strong when it comes to non-conference games at home, winning 68 of their last 73 non-BIG EAST contests (.932) at the Joyce Center, dating back to the 1994-95 season. Four of the losses in that span came at the hands of Big Ten Conference opponents — Wisconsin in 1996 (81-69), Purdue in 2003 (71-54), Michigan State in 2004 (82-73, ot) and Indiana in 2006 (54-51) — with the fifth defeat coming to Tennessee in 2005 (62-51). The Purdue loss also snapped a 33-game non-conference home winning streak which began after the UW setback.

Since its inaugural season in 1977-78, Notre Dame has played all of its games at the Joyce Center, posting a 303-79 (.793) record at the venerable facility. Three times (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04), the Irish went a perfect 15-0 at home, setting a school record for home wins in a season. For the third time in four years, and the second consecutive season, Notre Dame will equal the most regular-season home games (16) in school history. However, in 2004-05, the Irish played host to all four rounds of the Preseason WNIT before its regular 12-game home slate began. Notre Dame also played two Preseason WNIT games at home this season, in addition to its previously-scheduled 14-game Joyce Center docket.

Notre Dame On The Small Screen

Notre Dame will have a school-record 22 regular-season games televised during the upcoming 2007-08 season. Highlighting this year's television schedule are nine nationally-televised Irish women's basketball contests, including one appearance on CBS (Jan. 5 vs. Tennessee), four games on the ESPN family of networks, and another four contests on CSTV.

In addition, Notre Dame has expanded its broadcast reach globally on the Internet. All Irish home games (11 regular-season, two exhibition) that have not been selected for

Fall Signees

Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw announced Nov. 14 that three of the country's top high school student-athletes have chosen to continue their academic and athletic careers with the Irish, each signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Notre Dame beginning in the fall of 2008. Natalie Novosel (last name pronounced KNOW-vuh-sell), a 5-11 guard from Lexington, Ky. (Lexington Catholic High School), Erica Solomon, a 6-2 power forward from Oak Park, Mich. (Detroit Country Day School) and Kellie Watson, a 6-2 small forward from Ionia, Mich. (Ionia High School) all committed to the Irish during the early signing period.

All three student-athletes are rated among the top 35 players in the country by various national recruiting services. The four major recruiting outlets all have ranked this year's Irish class among the top 25 in the nation (peaking at eighth by Dan Olsen Collegiate Girls Basketball Report) with an average ranking of 15th. As a result, Notre Dame now has fielded a Top 25 recruiting class for the 12th consecutive year, a streak only two other schools (Connecticut and Tennessee) can match.

Notre Dame Student-Athletes Rank Among Nation's Best

Eighteen of 22 athletics programs at the University of Notre Dame compiled graduation rates of 100 percent, and none were below 90 percent, according to the third year of Graduation Success Rate measurements developed by the NCAA and released Oct. 3.

None of the 120 Division I-A football-playing programs in the country had a higher percentage of 100 GSR scores than did Notre Dame with its .818 figure.

NCAA figures showed that, among Notre Dame's men's sports, baseball, cross country/track, fencing, ice hockey, soccer, swimming and tennis achieved 100 percent GSR scores. Lacrosse scored 97 percent, football scored 93 percent, golf was 91 percent and basketball was 91 percent. The same seven Irish men's programs also scored 100 percent in both the 2005 and 2006 data.

All 11 Irish women's programs posted a GSR of 100 percent — basketball, cross country/track, fencing, golf, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball. That's one more perfect score than a year ago for the Irish women, after soccer scored a 94 percent GSR in 2006.

Rowing, like men's lacrosse, was included for the first time last year in 2006 for Notre Dame, because the University offered grants in aid during the years covered in the survey. Beyond rowing, the other nine Irish women's programs earning 100 percent ratings in 2006 also earned 100 percent figures in 2005.

In 2005, among the 119 NCAA Division I-A football-playing institutions, Notre Dame had the highest percentage of its sports with 100 percent scores, with a .800 figure (16 of 20). The 2006 data put Notre Dame's percentage at .773 (17 of 22), to rank second behind the U.S. Naval Academy. The 2007 data put Notre Dame's percentage at .818 (18 of 22), which again ranks number one.

The GSR was created two years ago by the NCAA to more accurately reflect actual graduation rates by including transfer data in the calculation. The graduation rate methodology used by the Department of Education counts all student-athletes who transfer from or leave an institution for any reason as non-graduates from their initial school, even if they leave in good academic standing.

The 2007 national GSR for Division I-A is 77 percent, the same as a year ago (up one percent from 76 in 2005).

The 2007 GSR data is based on entering classes from 1997 to 2000. The 2006 GSR data was based on entering classes from 1996 to 1999. The 2005 first-year GSR data was based upon the entering classes from 1995 to 1998.

Academic All-Americans

Entering the 2006-07 academic year, Notre Dame ranks second in the nation with 176 Academic All-America® selections, including 14 last year alone. The Academic All-America® Program is administered by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), whose membership votes on the award winners, and the program is sponsored this year by ESPN The Magazine.

The Notre Dame women's basketball program has produced five Academic All-America® honorees in its 30-year history, with those five players winning a total of seven citations. In addition, two-time first-team Academic All-America® pick Ruth Riley was tapped as the 2001 Academic All-America® Women's Basketball Team Member of the Year, as well as the Academic All-America® Team Member of the Year. Riley also is one of only 10 student-athletes in Notre Dame history to earn All-American and Academic All-America® honors twice in her career.

In 2006, Megan Duffy was named a first-team Academic All-America® selection, becoming the second Irish player ever to attain that distinction. Duffy graduated in May 2006 with a 3.576 grade-point average (GPA) and a degree in psychology and computer applications from Notre Dame's College of Arts and Letters. She also garnered Dean's List honors in four of her final five semesters (spring 2004, fall 2004, spring 2005, fall 2005).

Academics

commercial TV coverage will be televised live on the official Notre Dame athletics web site, UND.com.

This year's TV slate continues a recent trend that has seen the Irish become a regular fixture on television. Since the start of its 2000-01 NCAA championship season (and including this year's broadcasts to date), Notre Dame now has played in 96 televised games, including 52 that were broadcast nationally.

Oh Captain, My Captain

Senior guards Charel Allen, Tulyah Gaines and Amanda Tshipis are team captains for the 2007-08 season. Gaines is in her second year as a captain for the Irish, while Allen and Tshipis are first-time captains. All three players received the captain's honor through a vote of their teammates prior to the season.

Joyce Center Arena Renovation On Tap

On Oct. 3, 2007, Notre Dame announced that construction on the Joyce Center arena addition and renovation will begin in September 2008. The University has selected the architects for the project, and they currently are in the process of completing final design plans.

The first phase of the project, to begin next September, involves construction of a new three-story structure at the south end of the arena. That structure will include a new two-story lobby, the Notre Dame ticket operations (approximately 4,500 square feet) and a varsity shop to sell apparel and souvenirs (approximately 3,000 square feet), in addition to a new club seating and hospitality area.

Replacement of the Joyce Center arena seating, including installation of chair-back seating throughout the arena, is expected to take place after the University's Commencement Exercises in May 2009. The project is scheduled for completion in January 2010. The arena is expected to re-open by mid-October 2009, in time for the start of the men's and women's basketball seasons and the end of the women's volleyball season.

The University announced last October that this $26.3 million project had received a $12.5 million leadership gift from Notre Dame alumnus and Trustee Philip J. Purcell III. A month later, another major gift of $5 million from Notre Dame graduate Vincent J. Naimoli was announced.

The arena will be named Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center — and the new club/hospitality area and two outdoor patios will be named for the Naimoli family.

Irish Fans Crave A Big Mac Attack

Notre Dame has introduced a new promotion this season, offering fans a coupon for a free Big Mac from South Bend-area McDonald's restaurants if the Irish score at least 88 points in a game. The coupons are issued at the Joyce Center gates as fans leave the arena following the game.

This season's burger watch already is at five, as the Irish have hit the 88-point mark in exhibition wins over Southern Indiana and Hillsdale, as well as regular-season victories over Miami (Ohio), Boston College and Canisius.

It's probably also not a surprise that the Notre Dame player with the most "Big Mac baskets" this season has the same initials as that of the tasty burger — freshman guard Brittany Mallory, who has sent the crowd home happy (and presumably with full bellies) three times, including the past two home games.

Next Game: Bowling Green

Notre Dame heads back on the road for a pair of games next week, beginning Wednesday with a 7 p.m. (ET) contest at Bowling Green. The Irish and Falcons will look to duplicate last year's thrilling contest, which was one of the highlights of the non-conference season, with Notre Dame outlasting BG, 85-81 in overtime at the Joyce Center.

Despite losing six seniors, including four starters, from last year's NCAA Sweet 16 club, Bowling Green is a perfect 6-0 this year after winning the Cornell Classic with a 70-54 win over the host school on Saturday afternoon. The Falcons will be hosting Notre Dame for the first time since Nov. 23, 1996, when the Irish claimed an 85-70 win at Anderson Arena.

FG Pct: Miami (Ohio) 27.9, Notre Dame 53.9. 3-PT FG Pct: Miami (Ohio) 20.0, Notre Dame 33.3. FT Pct: Miami (Ohio) 57.1, Notre Dame 64.7. Turnovers: Miami (Ohio) 23, Notre Dame 12. Blocked Shots: Miami (Ohio) 2, Notre Dame 8 (Peters 5). Steals: Miami (Ohio) 8 (Reed 3), Notre Dame 8 (Barlow, Mallory 2). Attendance: 6,034.

NOTES: Notre Dame runs its record in season openers to 23-8 (.742) all-time, including 18-3 (.857) in the Muffet McGraw era, and picks up its 13th consecutive season-opening win, which coincides exactly with the program's membership in the BIG EAST Conference ... McGraw earned her 450th win at Notre Dame on Friday night (450-179, .715), while the Irish collected the 300th home victory in program history (300-79, .809 - all played at the Joyce Center) ... the Irish improve to 2-4 all-time against Miami (Ohio), earning their first win over the RedHawks since a 64-59 victory on Dec. 10, 1982, also at the Joyce Center ... the 98 points scored, 50 points allowed and 48-point margin of victory all were series bests for either team ... the 48-point spread also was the largest for Notre Dame since March 17, 2001, when the Irish defeated Alcorn State at home, 98-49 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament ... Notre Dame's 98 points represented its highest offensive output since Nov. 26, 2002, when the Irish opened the season with a 107-65 win over Cleveland State at the Joyce Center ... Notre Dame also posted the most points by one team in a Preseason WNIT game since 2000, when Virginia opened with a 100-61 victory over Mount St. Mary's ... Notre Dame's 41 field goals made were a Preseason WNIT record (previous: 39 by Texas A&M vs. Lamar in 1995 and Connecticut vs. North Carolina in 2001) and the most for the Irish since that 2002 win over Cleveland State when they made 42 shots ... Notre Dame dished out 27 assists, only one off the Preseason WNIT record ... the Irish had all 11 players in uniform score against Miami (Ohio), the first time they have gotten everyone into the scorebook since Dec. 28, 2006 in a 94-55 conquest of Prairie View A&M ... Notre Dame has won 14 consecutive games against current Mid-American Conference schools and is 31-14 (.689) all-time against the MAC, including a 20-4 (.833) home record ... junior guard Lindsay Schrader posted her first career "point-a-minute" game and the first by a Notre Dame player (minimum 10 minutes) since Nov. 10, 2006, when current senior center Melissa D'Amico had 16 points in 15 minutes of a season-opening 88-66 win over Central Michigan at the Joyce Center ... Schrader also chalked up her fourth career 20-point game and first since her last meaningful contest, a career-high 29-point performance against Boston College in the first round of the 2006 NCAA Tournament ... senior center Erica Williamson earned her first career start.

Notre Dame did not trail at any point against Western Kentucky, and with the exception of a 3-3 tie for a 22-second span in the first half against WKU (18:21 to 17:59), the Irish have been ahead from wire-to-wire in their first two games this season ... working back to the two exhibition games, Notre Dame has had four different players from three different classes lead the team in scoring this season — sophomore center Erica Williamson (Southern Indiana), senior guard Tulyah Gaines (Hillsdale), junior guard Lindsay Schrader (Miami-Ohio) and sophomore guard Ashley Barlow (Western Kentucky) ... sophomore guard Melissa Lechlitner tied her career high with four steals, matching the mark she originally set on Dec. 28, 2006 vs. Prairie View A&M ... during the past 18 regular-season games (dating back to last season), Notre Dame has not committed more than 19 turnovers in a game, including 15 or fewer in its last four outings.

NOTES: Notre Dame suffers just its second loss in 11 Preseason WNIT games all-time; both losses have come in the tournament semifinals at the hands of the nation's third-ranked team (Tennessee in 1996; Maryland in 2007) ... the Irish also lose for just the third time in 21 regular-season tournament games, dating back to the start of the 1996-97 season (the other loss came in overtime at 20th-ranked Colorado in the 2003 WBCA Classic title game) ... Notre Dame set a school record with only three turnovers against Maryland, two of which occurred on offensive fouls; the previous school record for fewest giveaways was six on Feb. 12, 2006 at DePaul ... Maryland also became the first Irish opponent ever to go an entire game without a single steal ... the Terrapins are one of 11 other NCAA champions Notre Dame has played at some point (either before or after they won the title); Baylor (2005) remains the only national champion the Irish have never faced ... Notre Dame is 15-16 (.484) all-time in road openers — 12-9 (.571) in the Muffet McGraw era — and has lost its first road test the past two seasons ... freshman forward Devereaux Peters registered her first career double-digit scoring game ... sophomore guard Ashley Barlow had an abbreviated night, first getting saddled with a pair of fouls two seconds apart in the opening 2:16, then leaving for good when she was shaken up in a collision under the basket midway through the second half.

NOTES: The 53-point win was the largest for Notre Dame since March 4, 2001, when the Irish defeated Georgetown, 89-33 in a BIG EAST Conference Championship quarterfinal at Storrs, Conn. ... the winning margin also is the second-largest ever recorded by a Notre Dame squad on an opponent's floor — largest of the 21-year Muffet McGraw era — and exceeded only by an 84-27 win at Valparaiso on Jan. 21, 1982 ... the Irish posted their highest point total in a true road game since Jan. 30, 1998, when they posted a 97-59 win at Providence ... Notre Dame had six double-figure scorers in a game for the first time since Nov. 12, 2004, when the Irish also had six double-digit producers against Illinois State in the first round of the Preseason WNIT at the Joyce Center ... Notre Dame shot a blistering .559 from the field, its best field goal percentage since Jan. 4, 2006, when the Irish shot an even 56 percent in a 66-63 loss at St. John's ... Notre Dame held an opposing team without a single double-digit scorer for the first time since Jan. 2, 2005, when the Irish defeated Seton Hall, 54-33 at the Joyce Center (SHU's leading scorer that night was Heta Korpivaara with seven points) ... Notre Dame allowed only 41 points, its best defensive effort since March 1, 2005 (a 41-35 win at Seton Hall) ... CMU's 19 first-half points matched last year's season-low by a Notre Dame opponent, established by Prairie View A&M on Dec. 28, 2006 at the Joyce Center ... the Irish picked up their 15th consecutive win over a Mid-American Conference opponent, a streak that dates back to 1995 ... Notre Dame continued an impressive run of balanced production, as freshman forward Becca Bruszewski became the sixth different player (counting both exhibitions) to lead the team in scoring this season; what's more, sophomore guard Ashley Barlow became the fifth different Irish player to lead the squad in rebounding (only freshman forward Devereaux Peters has had multiple team-high rebounding nights vs. Hillsdale and Western Kentucky) ... Barlow's 11 rebounds were a career high, one more than her previous best that she'd set twice before (most recently vs. California on March 18, 2007 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament) ... Barlow's double-double was the second of her career, following a 19-point, 10-rebound effort in an overtime win vs. Bowling Green on Nov. 13, 2006 at the Joyce Center ... senior guard Tulyah Gaines knocked down her first career three-pointer at Central Michigan ... in each of Notre Dame's three wins this season, the Irish have not trailed for a single second, and have been tied for a total of 22 seconds after the first basket has been scored (3-3 vs. WKU on Nov. 13).

Notre Dame has yet to trail in any of its four wins this season, three of which have come by 30+ points (and ND had a 32-point lead midway through the second half of its 78-59 win over Western Kentucky on Nov. 13) ... the Irish now are 19-1 (.950) at home against current ACC members in the Muffet McGraw era (1987-present) ... Notre Dame had five double-figure scorers for the second consecutive game ... the Irish forced a season-high 33 turnovers, their best effort since Feb. 25, 2004, when they caused 37 turnovers in a 93-58 home win over #21/19 Miami (Fla.) ... Notre Dame had a season-high 21 steals, the most thefts for the Irish in a game since Dec. 13, 1997, when they had 22 steals in a 73-50 win over South Florida at the Joyce Center (school record is 29, set twice and most recently on Jan. 31, 1992 at Saint Louis) ... Notre Dame has not committed more than 15 turnovers in a game this season and has had a positive assist-to-turnover ratio in four of five games (only blemish was Nov. 13 vs. WKU) ... since Maryland made 12-of-20 three-pointers in Notre Dame's only loss on Nov. 16, the Irish have held their last two opponents (Central Michigan and Boston College) to a combined 2-of-21 (.095) from beyond the arc ... junior guard Lindsay Schrader became the first Irish player this season to lead the team in scoring more than once — Notre Dame had seen four different players lead it in scoring in its first four games ... senior guard Charel Allen moved into 19th place on the Irish all-time scoring list with 1,114 points, passing Danielle Green (1,106 from 1995-2000), who happened to be in attendance at the BC game ... Allen also recorded a career-high eight assists, two more than her previous best that she set twice (most recently at Villanova on Feb. 13, 2007) ... in addition, Allen tied her career high with five steals, a mark she's set three times previously (most recently at Marquette on Jan. 23, 2007) ... freshman guard Brittany Mallory scored a season-high 13 points, becoming the ninth different Notre Dame player to score in double digits this season.
