Irish Open Four-Game Homestand With Lake Superior State Improved Lakers are CCHA's hottest team with 2-0-1 mark in last three games.

- The Game: Notre Dame (5-3-1/4-3-1) vs. Lake Superior State Lakers (4-3-3/2-3-1)
- Date/Site/Times: Fri.-Sat., Nov. 21-22, 2003 - Joyce Center (2,713) - 7:35 p.m. (Fri.)/7:05 p.m. (Sat.)
- Broadcast Information: Notre Dame hockey can be heard live on ESPN Radio 1620, South Bend's SportsCenter. Mike Lockert, "the voice of Irish hockey" will call all the action. Irish hockey can also be heard live via the internet at www.und.com.

IRISH VERSUS LAKERS: Notre Dame returns to CCHA action this weekend versus the Lake Superior State Lakers. The series is the start of a four-game homestand for the Irish that continues next weekend with Northern Michigan. The Lakers will bring a three-game unbeaten streak (2-0-1), the longest active streak in the CCHA, to the Joyce Center on Nov. 21 and 22. Friday's game starts at 7:35 p.m. while Saturday's game faces off at 7:05 p.m. The Irish are coming off a 4-0 exhibition win over the U.S. National Under-18 team on Friday, Nov. 14. The Irish and Lakers met twice last season with Notre Dame taking 3-2 and 6-3 wins from Lake Superior in late February. The Lakers lead the all-time series with a 20-14-2 record while the Irish lead the series at the Joyce Center with a 9-7-2 record. In the last 10 meetings between the two schools, the Irish lead 7-3-1 and bring a six-game winning streak over the last two seasons into the series. At the Joyce Center, the Irish have an eight-game unbeaten streak (6-0-2) that dates back to Nov. 28, 1997 when Lake Superior took a 4-2 win. Goaltender Morgan Cey owns a 5-0-0 record versus Lake Superior with a 1.20 goals-against average and a .933 save percentage. He has recorded two of his four career shutouts versus the Lakers.

FAST START FOR THE IRISH: Notre Dame's 5-3-1 overall record is the best for the Irish after nine games since starting the 1998-99 season with a 7-1-1 overall mark. The team's 4-3-1 record in CCHA play is also the best since a 6-1-1 league start in the 1998-99 season.

QUIET NIGHTS: The officials for this weekend's games should have a pretty easy go of it as they will be officiating the two least penalized teams in the CCHA and two of the least penalized teams in the nation. Lake Superior State comes into the game averaging just 8.6 penalty minutes per game and 8.00 per CCHA game. Notre Dame is averaging 10.22 penalty minutes in its nine games and 10.50 in league play. The Lakers are the least penalized team in the league and the nation while the Irish are second in the CCHA and third in the nation.

THE PUCK STOPS HERE: Through nine games this season, the Irish have displayed the stingiest defense in the history of the program. Notre Dame's 1.98 goals-against average after the first nine games is the lowest the Irish have ever had after nine games. Goaltenders David Brown (Fr., Stoney Creek, Ont.), Morgan Cey (Jr., Wilkie, Sask.) and Rory Walsh (So., Milton, Mass.) have combined to surrender just 18 goals in the first nine games (545 minutes).

HE'S AT IT AGAIN: Even though it won't count in the statistics, Notre Dame freshman goaltender David Brown continued his red-hot play last weekend as he made 28 saves in a 4-0 win over the U.S. National Under-18 team at the Joyce Center. For Brown, the shutout was his fourth of the season. Earlier this year, he recorded three consecutive shutouts that do count versus Bowling Green (10/18), Boston College (10/24) and Nebraska-Omaha (10/31). For the season he is 3-2-1 with a 1.48 goals-against average and a .952 save percentage. His three shutouts lead the nation.

ND-U.S. UNDER-18 RECAP: For the fourth time in 10 games this season (even though it doesn't count in the stats), goaltender David Brown had all the answers as he stopped all 28 shots he faced in the 4-0 exhibition win over the U.S. National Under-18 team. He got all the offensive support he would need when Tom Galvin (Sr.,

Former National Hockey League star Dave Poulin begins his ninth season behind the Notre Dame bench. Going into this week's games versus Lake Superior State, the 1982 Notre Dame grad owns a 119-158-41 (.439) career record and an 86-117-34 (.432) record in CCHA play. He owns a 10-10-2 record versus Lake Superior in 22 games versus the Lakers. A three-time NHL all-star, Poulin returned to his alma mater in 1995 after 13 seasons in the NHL with the Philadelphia Flyers, the Boston Bruins and the Washington Capitals. The winner of the 1987 Selke Trophy (league's top defensive forward) and the 1993 King Clancy Trophy (for leadership on and off the ice), Poulin played in 724 NHL games with 205 goals, 325 assists for 530 career points. In his four seasons at Notre Dame (1978-82), Poulin scored 89 goals with 107 assists for 196 points in 135 games. He remains tied for first in game-winning goals (13) and hat tricks (8) with the Irish. His 89 goals rank him fifth on the all-time list, his assists rank him seventh and he is sixth on the all-time points list. As coach of the Irish, Poulin recorded his 100th career win in Notre Dame's 8-5 win at Western Michigan on Oct. 19, 2002. On March 15, 2003, at Miami (OH), he moved into second on Notre Dame's all-time win list. He now has 119 career wins with the Irish and trails only "Lefty" Smith, who is the all-time leader with 307.

IRISH VERSUS RANKED TEAMS: Notre Dame improved to 2-1-0 this season versus nationally ranked teams with the 1-0 win on Oct. 24 at #1/#2 Boston College. The last time the Irish knocked off a top-ranked team came on Jan. 3, 1999 when they won at number one North Dakota, 4-3. The Irish opened the 2003-04 season with a split versus #15/#14 Ohio State, winning the opener, 5-2, before dropping the second game, 3-1. Last season, Notre Dame was 2-5-3 in 10 games versus nationally ranked teams. The Irish were 1-2-2 at home, 1-2-1 on the road and 0-1-0 on neutral ice. Notre Dame's two wins over ranked teams came versus #14 Miami (2-1) and at #6 Michigan (4-3).

Miller Place, N.Y.) scored on the power play at 19:09 of the first period. Brett Lebda (Sr., Buffalo Grove, Ill.) and Tim Wallace (So., Anchorage, Alaska) added second-period goals and Mike Walsh (So., Northville, Mich.) closed the scoring with the lone goal of the third period. The Irish outshot the USA by a 39-28 margin. Jordan Pearce made 35 saves in the loss. The Irish were 1-for-6 on the power play and successfully killed all nine USA power-play chances.

ON THE SIDELINES: Defenseman Derek Smith (Jr., Marysville, Mich.) will miss the game with the U.S. Under-18 team as he is sidelined with post-concussion syndrome. He suffered a concussion on Jan. 4, 2003 at Nebraska-Omaha and has been sidelined since.

IRISH ON CSTV: College Sports Television (CSTV) has announced its second-half schedule for 2004 and the Irish are included. The Friday, Feb. 27 home game with Michigan has been added to the list that includes three other CCHA games. Face-off is set for 8:05 p.m. The Irish have been on CSTV twice this season and own a 2-0 record after beating Ohio State 5-2 on Oct. 10 and Boston College, 1-0, on Oct. 24. Notre Dame is scheduled to appear on CSTV again on Dec. 27 when they play Cornell in the Everblades Collegiate Classic in Estero, Fla. If they win the first game, the championship game of that tournament will also be televised.

RIVALRY CLUSTERS: Notre Dame and Lake Superior State will meet four times this season along with Northern Michigan and Bowling Green as all four teams are grouped in the same cluster this season. So far this year, the Irish are 1-1-0 versus their cluster, splitting a series with Bowling Green in October. The Irish were 7-4-1 last season versus their cluster with Bowling Green, Ferris State and Western Michigan.

SCHEDULE BREAK: Starting with this weekend's series with Lake Superior, the Irish play just six games before the Christmas holidays. Next week, the Irish have two with Northern Michigan and then on Dec. 5-6, travel to Western Michigan. They won't play again after Western Michigan until Sat., Dec. 27 when they face Cornell in the first round of the Everblades Collegiate Hockey Classic in Estero, Fla.

SPECIAL SPECIAL TEAMS: Notre Dame's power play came to life at Michigan State, scoring three times on seven chances in the two games. Mike Walsh (11/7) and Neil Komadoski (Sr., Chesterfield, Mo.) and Aaron Gill (Sr., Rochester, Minn.) in the 3-3 tie (11/8) all had man-advantage goals for the Irish. On the year, the Irish power play ranks sixth in the CCHA, converting on seven of 41 chances for a 17.1% success rate. On the penalty-killing side, the Irish had killed 20 consecutive opponent power plays until Jim Slater's third-period power-play goal. On the year, the Irish have only been scored on three times in 34 chances for a 91.2% success rate.

HCA ROOKIE OF THE MONTH: Notre Dame freshman goaltender David Brown was selected as the Hockey Commissioner's Association (HCA) national collegiate rookie of the month for the month of October. Brown had an October to remember as he recorded a Notre Dame school record three consecutive shutouts in his first four career starts and goes into this weekend's games with Michigan State with a school-record shutout string of 186:15 consecutive minutes. His three shutouts also set a Notre Dame record for shutouts in a season. For the month, the 5-11, 188-pound puck stopper was 3-2-0 with a CCHA-leading 1.15 goals-against average and a .946 save percentage to go with the three shutouts. Among his three shutouts was a 1-0, 27-save performance on Oct. 24 versus the top-ranked Boston College Eagles at Conte Forum in Chestnut Hill, Mass. Nationally, Brown ranks fifth in the nation with the 1.15 goals against average and his .946 save percentage is third overall. The three shutouts are the most by anyone so far this season in college hockey and have come versus Bowling Green (10/18), Boston College (10/24) and Nebraska-Omaha (10/31). He has been selected as the CCHA rookie of the month twice this season (10/19 and 11/2).

ALL GOOD THINGS MUST END: Irish goaltender David Brown saw his streak of three consecutive shutouts end in the Nov. 8 game versus Michigan State. Jim Slater's goal at 7:12 of the first period ended his consecutive-minute streak at 193:27. That is a new Notre Dame record. The last time Brown had given up a goal was on Oct. 17 versus Bowling Green with 4:22 left in the third period. He followed with shutouts versus Bowling Green (Oct. 18), Boston College (10/24) and Nebraska-Omaha (10/31).

GILL THE THRILL: Irish team captain Aaron Gill turned in his third three-point game of the season in Notre Dame's 3-3 tie at Michigan State (11/8). Gill set up goals by Mike Walsh and Neil Komadoski and then picked up the game-tying goal with 1:06 left on the clock. He leads the Irish in scoring 11 points (3g, 8a). His two power-play goals are tied for tops on the team.

FIT TO BE TIED: Notre Dame's 3-3 tie with Michigan State on Nov. 8 marked the seventh consecutive overtime for the Irish to end in a tie. The Irish were 0-0-6 in 2002-03. Since the start of the 1999-2000 season, the Irish have been involved in 34 overtime games and are 5-2-27 in those contests. The last time Notre Dame won an overtime game during the regular season was on Jan. 25, 2002, a 4-3 overtime win for the Irish at Miami. The Irish had two postseason games decided in overtime during the 2001-02 season (a 3-2 double overtime loss to Nebraska-Omaha and a 2-1 win versus the Mavericks).

CCHA ROOKIE OF THE WEEK, PART 2: For the second time in the first four weeks of the season, Notre Dame freshman goaltender David Brown was selected as the CCHA rookie of the week. Brown turned in his third consecutive shutout on Fri., Oct. 31, making 22 saves in a 2-0 win over Nebraska-Omaha. He also played the final 1:53 of the Thursday night game when Morgan Cey was injured in a goal-mouth collision. The shutout extended his consecutive minutes of scoreless hockey to 186:15, a Notre Dame record.

BEATING THE BEST: Notre Dame's 1-0 shutout win at Boston College on Oct. 24 came versus the Eagles while they were ranked first in the nation in the USA Today/American Hockey Magazine poll. The last time the Irish beat a top-ranked team came on Jan. 3, 1999 when they won 4-3 at North Dakota.

IRISH WINS VERSUS #1 TEAMS:

- 10/24/03 - at Boston College, 1-0
- 1/3/99 - at North Dakota, 4-3
- 11/10/78 - at Minnesota, 3-2
- 1/13/78 - vs. Denver, 5-3
- 1/18/74 - vs. Michigan Tech, 7-1
- 2/24/73 - vs. Wisconsin, 8-5
- 2/23/73 - vs. Wisconsin, 4-3

The last time the Irish faced a top-ranked team prior to Oct. 24 was on Nov. 10, 2000 when they played Boston College. Notre Dame lost that game by a 5-3 score.

PUTTING THE "P" IN POWER: Sophomore left wing Mike Walsh is quickly becoming one of the top power forwards in the CCHA. On top of that, he also has a knack for scoring in the clutch. Walsh believes that the quickest way to get from point A to point B is a straight line as he barges and charges to the net. He scored a goal in each of the games of the Michigan State series and now has points in five of his last six games (4g, 2a). Two of his four goals this season are game winners and, his lone goal as a freshman won the game, making 60% of his career goals, game-winning goals.

HE'S BACK: Irish goaltender Morgan Cey returned to the lineup on Oct. 30 after missing the first five games of the season while recovering from summer knee surgery. In his first start, he recorded a 4-2 win over the Nebraska-Omaha Mavericks making 29 saves. The 6-3, 175-pound junior dressed for the Boston College game (Oct. 24) but did not play. Cey had started 71 of Notre Dame's 79 games as a freshman and sophomore. He was 15-15-6 last season with a 2.87 goals-against average and a .912 save percentage with two shutouts. Career-wise, Cey is 31-29-9 with a 2.79 goals-against average and a .911 save percentage with four shutouts. He is sixth on Notre Dame's all-time wins list with 31. His 2.79 goals-against average and .911 save percentage are tops in the program's history and his four shutouts tie him for first at Notre Dame.

THE LAKE SUPERIOR STATE GAME NOTES: November 21-22, 2003

FAST STARTING GLOBKE: Senior right wing Rob Globke (West Bloomfield, Mich.) is off to a fast start this season with five goals and four assists for nine points in his first nine games. He opened the season with a hat trick in Notre Dame's 5-2 win at Ohio State. The hat trick was the second of his career. After not getting a point in the second game of that series, Globke had a goal and two assists versus Bowling Green (Oct. 17-18). He now has 54 career goals (29th player in Notre Dame history to record 50 or more goals in his career). Globke's hat trick in the CCHA opener marked the first time since the 1995-96 season that a Notre Dame player recorded a hat trick in the first league game of the year. On Oct. 19, 1995, Brian Urick scored four goals in Notre Dame's 7-4 win at Alaska Fairbanks. That game was also the first victory (and second game for Dave Poulin as coach of the Fighting Irish).

MORE GLOBKE GOODIES: Rob Globke had the best season of his Notre Dame career in 2002-03, leading the Irish with 21 goals and 15 assists for 36 points. He now has 54 goals and 39 assists for 93 career points. He needs just seven more points to become the 40th player in school history to reach the 100-point plateau in his career at Notre Dame. Globke's 21 goals as a junior made him the first Irish player to score more than 20 goals in a season since Aniket Dhadphale had 25 during the 1997-98 season. The talented right winger opened the season with his first career hat trick in a 5-3 win at Minnesota-Duluth and then added two goals the following game in a 4-2 win versus Western Michigan. The five goals in two games was a first for a Notre Dame player since Tim Harberts had five in two games to open the 1994-95 season.

CORY'S THE STORY: Junior right wing Cory McLean (Jr., Fargo, N.D.) had the second two-goal game of his career in the Oct. 30 win over Nebraska-Omaha. On the season, he has scored in six of Notre Dame's nine games and is third in scoring with four goals and four assists for eight points. His season-opening four-game point scoring streak (2-3-5) was snapped at Boston College. He had a breakout year with the Irish in 2002-03 as he recorded 10 goals and seven assists for 17 points. Four of his goals came on the power play. As a freshman, McLean had just one goal and four assists for five points.

CONSECUTIVE GAME STREAK: Graduated defenseman Evan Nielsen ('03) set Notre Dame's record for consecutive games played last season with 114 in a row from 2000-03. Coming into this weekend with Michigan State, seniors Rob Globke and Brett Lebda have each played in 67 consecutive games and are the leaders among active players. The only games Lebda has missed in his career came in 2001-02 when he missed four games while playing at the World Junior Championships. He has played 122 of 126 career games.

Player	Consecutive games
Rob Globke	67
Brett Lebda	67
Neil Komadoski	54
Tim Wallace	49

LEBDA FOR THE DEFENSE: Senior defenseman Brett Lebda (Buffalo Grove, Ill.) leads all Notre Dame defensemen in scoring with five assists. The speedy blueliner had three assists in the weekend series versus Nebraska-Omaha with eight shots on goal and was +3 for the weekend. In his career, Lebda now has 20 goals and 46 assists for 66 career points in 122 career games.

POWER PRODUCER: Senior defenseman Neil Komadoski snapped an 0-for-13 Notre Dame power-play scoring drought in the Oct. 31 win over Nebraska-Omaha. He followed with his second power-play goal of the year in the 3-3 tie at Michigan State. His last three goals for the Irish (including the 2002-03 season) have come via the power play. In 2002-03, he led Notre Dame defensemen in scoring with one goal and 23 assists for 24 points. He now has seven goals in his career with three coming on the power play.

THE KIDS ARE ALRIGHT: Notre Dame's eight-man freshman class has acquitted itself quite well through nine games this season. Goaltender David Brown has appeared in seven of nine games this year with three shutouts and a CCHA-leading 1.48 goals-against average and a .952 save percentage. The remaining seven members have combined for four goals and eight assists for 12 points. Left wing Mike Bartlett (Morton Grove, Ill.) leads the way with two goals and an assist for three points, including the game winner versus Nebraska-Omaha on Oct. 31. Linemate T.J. Jindra (Faribault, Minn.) got his first career-point versus Nebraska-Omaha. Defenseman Wes O'Neill (Essex, Ont.) has a goal and two assists for three points and leads the Irish with a +3. Matt Williams-Kovacs (Calgary, Alb.) and Jason Paige (Saginaw, Mich.) have two assists each and Paige ranks second among Irish players, winning 54.9% of his faceoffs. Josh Sciba (Westland, Mich.) has a goal in the eight games he's played and has won 65.7% of his faceoffs to lead the team. Defenseman Noah Babin (Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.) has played a steady defense, appearing in eight of the team's nine games.

NICE GUYS: Notre Dame's Oct. 30 game with Nebraska-Omaha featured just one penalty. The Irish were not penalized at all while UNO picked up one minor for two minutes. Notre Dame was 0-for-1 on its only power-play chance. That has been the story of Notre Dame's season as the Irish have just 46 penalties for 92 minutes in nine games this season. Notre Dame is second in the CCHA with the fewest penalty minutes (10.22) and ranks third in the nation for the fewest penalty minutes.

FIRING THE BISCUIT: Notre Dame peppered Bowling Green goaltender Jordan Sigalet with 59 shots in the Oct. 17, 5-3 loss to the Falcons. The 59 shots were the most by an Irish team since Feb. 22, 2003 when they fired 56 shots at Lake Superior's Terry Denike. Sigalet's 56 saves are the most since Denike made 50 in a 6-3 Notre Dame win. The Irish have been outshot in four of their five games this season.

THE CAPTAINS: Senior center Aaron Gill will serve as the team captain for the Irish in 2003-04. Gill was an alternate captain last season. As a junior, he finished fourth on the Irish in scoring with 13 goals and 12 assists for 25 points. Four of his 13 goals came on the power play and he recorded his first career hat trick on Oct. 19 in an 8-5 win over Western Michigan. Coach Dave Poulin announced his two alternate captains prior to the Western Ontario game (10/3). Serving as alternate captains this season are senior right wing Rob Globke and senior defenseman Neil Komadoski. Globke led the Irish in scoring last season with 21 goals and 15 assists for 36 points. Komadoski was Notre Dame's top scorer from the blue line last year as he scored a goal and added 23 helpers. His 23 assists and 24 points were career-highs for the veteran defenseman.

SEN-CEY-SATIONAL: Junior goaltender Morgan Cey is in his third season as Notre Dame's go-to-guy in goal. Coming into the 2003-04 season, Cey appeared in 71 of the team's 79 games from 2001-2003. As a sophomore, Cey was 15-15-6 with a 2.87 goals-against average and a .912 save percentage. He is already tied for sixth on Notre Dame's all-time win list with 30 career wins. His .911 career save percentage and last season's mark of .912 are school records. Cey is currently tied for first with four career shutouts. In the eight career postseason games, the Wilkie, Sask., native is 4-4 with a 1.66 goals-against average and a .945 save percentage. During the first round of the 2002-03 CCHA playoffs, Cey recorded back-to-back shutouts versus Miami (a first at Notre Dame) and set a then school record with 147:19 of shutout hockey.

OFFENSIVE DEFENSEMEN: Notre Dame's roster features three senior defensemen who excel at both ends of the ice. Neil Komadoski, Brett Lebda (Buffalo Grove, Ill.) and Tom Galvin (Miller Place, N.Y.) combined for 11 goals and 46 assists during the 2002-

THE LAKE SUPERIOR STATE GAME NOTES: November 21-22, 2003

03 campaign. Komadoski led all Irish defensemen in scoring with a career-best 24 points (one, goal, 23 assists). Lebda tied for seventh in team scoring with seven goals and 14 assists for 21 points. He also led the team with 139 shots on goal (also led the team in 2001-02 with 150). Galvin added three goals and nine assists for 12 points after leading Irish defensemen the previous season with four goals and 19 assists.

BRAIN POWER: Senior defenseman T.J. Mathieson (Clarksville, Md.) is a candidate for Rhodes, Mitchell and Marshall Scholarships for post-graduate studies. Mathieson owns a 3.812 grade-point average in aerospace engineering in Notre Dame's School of Engineering. He is a two-time winner of Notre Dame's Rockne Scholar-Athlete Award. He spent the past summer working at General Electric Aircraft Engines in Cincinnati. There, he worked doing stress analysis of high-pressure turbines for commercial aircraft engines.

FOR OPENERS: The Irish opened the 2003-04 season with a 5-2 win at Ohio State. That gives Notre Dame an all-time record of 19-16-1 in season-opening games in the 36-year history of the program. In home openers, Friday's 5-3 loss to the Falcons gives Notre Dame a 20-16-0 mark in first games at the Joyce Center. Last season, the Irish opened the home schedule with a 4-2 win versus Western Michigan. Head coach Dave Poulin is 5-4-0 in home openers and 4-4-1 in season openers.

NHL DRAFTTEES: Notre Dame has three players on the 2003-04 roster that have been selected in the National Hockey League Entry Draft. Senior Rob Globke was a second-round choice of the Florida Panthers in the 2002 NHL Entry Draft. Selected 40th overall, Globke's selection was the earliest any Notre Dame player has ever been chosen. Senior defenseman Neil Komadoski was selected in the third round of the 2001 draft by the Ottawa Senators. Sophomore left wing Mike Walsh was selected in the fifth round of the 2002 draft by the New York Rangers.

OH CANADA: Freshman defenseman Wes O'Neill was a member of Canada's Under-18 Select team that played in this summer's Under-18 Select World Cup tournament. O'Neill had a goal and four assists in helping Canada to a fourth-place finish. The former Green Bay Gambler also played for Team Ontario at the Under-17 World Championships in Feb. of 2003. There he had three goals and nine assists in six games. O'Neill was the second pick in the 2002 Ontario Hockey League (OHL) Draft by the Kingston Frontenacs. He is the highest-drafted OHL player to decide to play college hockey.

FAMILY MATTERS: After having as many as four players whose fathers played in the National Hockey League, only one remains for the 2003-04 season. That would be Neil Komadoski, Jr. (Sr., Chesterfield, Mo.), whose father, Neil Komadoski, Sr., played eight NHL seasons as a defenseman with the Los Angeles Kings ('72-'78) and the St. Louis Blues ('77-'80), totaling 16G-76A and 632 penalty minutes in 501 career games.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: Two Irish sophomore hockey players - Rory Walsh (So., Milton, Mass.) and Mike Walsh - have fathers who attended Notre Dame. Rory Walsh's father, Brian ('77), was an all-American hockey player for the Irish. A center iceman, the elder Walsh is Notre Dame's all-time leading scorer after recording 234 career points on 89 goals and 145 assists. Mike Walsh's father, Max, ('74) was an offensive lineman on the Notre Dame football team and a member of the 1973 national championship team.

PENALTY SHOTS: Notre Dame goaltender Morgan Cey has faced four penalty shots in his Irish hockey career, including three last season. On Feb. 28, in a 4-2 loss to Western Michigan, Cey stopped Bronco Vince Bellissimo at 14:06 of the third period. A month earlier, Jan. 25, in a 3-3 tie with Michigan State, Cey stopped Jim Slater at 16:23 of the second period. His first stop in 2002-03 came on Nov. 22 at Michigan. In that game, a 4-2 loss to the Wolverines, he stopped Milan Gajic at 12:36 of the second period. The first penalty shot Cey faced came during his freshman season when he stopped Bowling Green's Greg Day on Dec. 8, 2001. That stop came in a 4-2 loss to the Falcons.

FROZEN TUNDRA: The Irish have developed a pipeline with the Green Bay Gamblers of the United State's Hockey League. Three members of the current Notre Dame team have played in the Land of Lombardi. Junior defenseman Joe Zurenko (Arlington Heights, Ill.) played there during the '00-'01 season and freshmen blueliners Noah Babin (Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.) and Wes O'Neill were teammates there last year. New assistant coach Layne LeBel also spent the past two seasons with the Gamblers.

FOURTH TIME: Morgan Cey's back-to-back shut-outs (1-0 and 5-0) versus Miami in the first round of last season's CCHA playoffs made him the fourth goaltender to turn the trick. The others are:

- 1988-1989 -
Bruce Hoffer, LSSU beat Ferris State, 5-0, 3-0.
- 1993-94 -
Blaine Lacher, LSSU beat Ohio State, 5-0, 8-0
- 1999-00 -
Ryan Miller beat Notre Dame, 4-0 in semis and Nebraska-Omaha, 6-0 in finals.

U.S. JUNIOR NATIONALS: Sophomore right wing Tim Wallace was one of 43 players invited to USA Hockey's Junior Evaluation Camp held in Lake Placid, N.Y., in August. From those 43 players, USA Hockey will select its 2004 U.S. Junior National Team that will play in the World Junior Championships in Finland. Notre Dame has sent eight players to the World Juniors since 1996-97.

NOTRE DAME PLAYERS ON JUNIOR NATIONAL TEAM: (since '96-'97):

YOST BUSTERS: Notre Dame's 4-3 win at Michigan on Nov. 23 was the first regular-season win for the Irish at Yost Arena since they returned to the CCHA in 1992-93. Prior to that, the last time Notre Dame won in Ann Arbor was Oct. 22, 1982, a span of 14 regular-season games. The Irish did win a CCHA playoff game at Yost in the 1998 playoffs. In the regular season, Notre Dame is now 1-14-1 in the last 16 meetings and since 1992-93, the Irish are 2-18-1 versus the Wolverines at Yost Arena. Over the last three meetings, the Irish are 1-1-1 when playing in Ann Arbor.

GOLD MEDAL ASSISTANT: Irish assistant hockey coach, Andy Slaggett, served as an assistant coach with USA Hockey's gold-medal winning Under-18 Select Team in August at the World Under-18 Select tournament in the Czech Republic. The 11-year assistant at Notre Dame has been involved in coaching with USA Hockey since the 1996-97 season. This was his first time for coaching on the international level.

PATRIOTIC GROUP: Notre Dame's current roster includes eight players who have past experience with USA Hockey, as members of the National Team Development Program (NTDP) and/or the National Junior Team. Since the program began, the Irish have had a total of 13 NTDP alumni grace their roster. The current contingent includes seniors Rob Globke, Neil Komadoski and Brett Lebda, junior Derek Smith (Marysville, Mich.), sophomore Tim Wallace (Anchorage, Alaska) and freshmen Noah Babin (Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.), Michael Bartlett (Morton Grove, Ill.) and Josh Sciba (Westland, Mich.)

Former Irish players Brett Henning, Paul Harris, Michael Chin, Connor Dunlop and John Wroblewski are all alumni of the U.S. Developmental Program.

CCHA ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM: Notre Dame saw its streak of seven consecutive seasons with at least one player named to the CCHA all-Academic Team last season. The Irish have produced eight previous first-team CCHA All-Academic selections since rejoining the CCHA in '92-'93: Curtis Janicke and Carl Picconatto ('92-'93), Garry Gruber ('95-'96), Steve Noble ('96-'97, '97-'98), Forrest Karr and Aniket Dhadphale ('98-'99), Andy Jurkowski (99-'00), Dan Carlson (2000-01) and David Inman (2001-02). During that 11-year span, only Western Michigan (12) has produced more CCHA All-Academic selections than Notre Dame's 10.

HOMETOWNS: The 2003-04 Notre Dame hockey team features players from 10 states and four Canadian provinces - Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario and Saskatchewan. In the eight-year tenure of head coach Dave Poulin, the Notre Dame hockey letterwinners have hailed from 20 different states and provinces - those listed below, plus: Colorado, Delaware, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Prince Edward Island and Quebec.

2003-2004 CCHA TELEVISION SCHEDULE: The Central Collegiate Hockey Association has announced its 13-game CCHA television schedule with Fox Sports Detroit and an eight-game package with College Sports Television (CSTV) for the first half of the season.

CSTV, which will broadcast a national "Game of the Week" package on Friday nights, opens its collegiate hockey coverage on Saturday, Oct. 3 with St. Lawrence facing Miami at the Lefty McFadden Invitational. Notre Dame is scheduled to appear twice on CSTV's package. The Irish will appear on Oct. 10 at Ohio State and on Dec. 27 versus Cornell in a first-round game of the Everblades Classic in Estero, Fla. CSTV is also scheduled to televise the championship game of that tournament, giving the Irish a third opportunity to appear nationally.

CSTV has announced its second-half schedule and the Irish are included once again as the Friday, Feb. 27 game at the Joyce Center versus Michigan will now be televised.

The Irish are scheduled to appear once on Fox Sports Detroit during the regular season as their Feb. 14 game with Ferris State at the Joyce Center is on the schedule.

Fox Sports coverage of the CCHA also includes "CCHA Weekly," a 30-minute weekly magazine show that begins in January and provides in-depth coverage of the league.
