Storyline

- ◆ Notre Dame is 29-1 (.967) in exhibition games since 1993-94, coming into Tuesday's game with an active 24-game preseason winning streak.

Although the names and faces on the Notre Dame roster remain largely unchanged from last season, that's about all that the fourth-ranked Irish expect to stay the same, as they open their 2009-10 season Tuesday with a 7 p.m. (ET) exhibition game against Division II power Indianapolis at the newly-refurbished Purcell Pavilion.

Notre Dame posted a 22-9 record last season, tying for fourth in the BIG EAST Conference and advanced to its 14th consecutive NCAA Championship. However, the Irish saw their postseason run abruptly ended at home in round one by upset-minded Minnesota, giving Notre Dame nearly eight months to set their sights on writing a happier ending this time around.

Indianapolis is ranked fourth in the Women's Division II Bulletin preseason poll and returns four starters from last year's 24-10 club that made its first-ever NCAA Sweet 16 appearance. The Greyhounds opened preseason play Sunday afternoon by leading almost wire-to-wire in a 67-56 win at Division I foe Valparaiso.

Rankings

- ◆ Notre Dame is ranked fourth in the preseason Associated Press poll. The preseason ESPN/USA Today poll will be released Tuesday.

Setting The Standard

Under the guidance of 23rd-year head coach Muffet McGraw, Notre Dame has evolved into one of the country's leading women's basketball powers. The Irish have appeared in 16 NCAA Tournaments (including a current streak of 14 in a row) and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 seven times in the past 12 years. Notre Dame also has reached the NCAA Women's Final Four twice, winning college basketball's ultimate prize with the 2001 national championship.

In its history, Notre Dame has developed nine All-Americans, 10 WNBA players (including seven draft picks in the past nine years) and four USA Basketball veterans (eight medals won). Now in their 33rd season in 2008-09, the Irish own an all-time record of 660-296 (.690).

A Quick Look At The Fighting Irish

The faces may be the same, but the focus, drive and determination have never been greater for the Notre Dame women's basketball program as the Irish head into the 2009-10 season. With all 12 players returning from a year ago, along with an incoming freshman class ranked as high as ninth in the land, expectations are high as Notre Dame looks to not only reach a new level of success, but also wash away the bitter taste left by a first-round loss in last year's NCAA tournament.

Setting the tone for the Irish will be a trio of senior captains, including returning all-BIG EAST Conference guards Lindsay Schrader and Ashley Barlow, both of whom also were tabbed for this year's preseason all-conference team. Schrader was a first-team all-BIG EAST pick last season after piling up career bests of 12.6 points and 7.4 rebounds per game. In addition, she registered seven double-doubles, setting a new single-season school record for guards, and now has 11 career double-doubles, one off the mark for guards set by current Irish assistant coach Niele Ivey from 1996-2001.

Meanwhile, Barlow led the team in scoring last season at 12.7 points per game, and also logged 70 steals (2.4 spg.), making her only the fourth player in school history to record 60+ steals in three consecutive seasons. The Indianapolis native also made an early statement about her intentions this season, notching a team-high 13.0 ppg. with a .727 three-point percentage (8-11) and .577 field goal percentage during Notre Dame's three-game, 11-day European tour in May 2009.

Completing this leadership triumverate is point guard Melissa Lechlitner. As a first-year starter in 2008-09, Lechlitner averaged personal bests of 10.6 points and 3.4 assists per game, driving the Irish offense with a steady hand.

Another first-year starter who made huge strides last season was junior forward Becca Bruszewski. The Valparaiso product doubled her averages in scoring (10.7 ppg.) and rebounding (5.0 rpg.), while honing a reliable three-point shot to the tune of a team-high .375 percentage from beyond the arc.

Not to be overlooked are a pair of returning BIG EAST All-Freshman Team picks in rapidly-maturing sophomore guard Natalie Novosel (6.9 ppg., 45 steals in 2008-09) and sophomore forward Erica Solomon (6.0 ppg., 4.5 rpg., 1.2 bpg.), as well as their classmates in forward Kellie Watson (3.8 ppg., 28 3FGM) and Fraderica Miller (0.7 ppg., 0.7 spg.).

In addition, Notre Dame could get a significant boost this year from incoming freshman guard Skylar Diggins, a three-time high school All-American from South Bend's Washington High School, who averaged 25.8 points, 5.7 rebounds and 5.6 assists per game during her prep career. The other Irish rookie guard, Kaila Turner of Joliet, Ill., has incredible upside as well, having twice earned all-state honors at Marian Catholic High School.

Potent Notables About The Fighting Irish

- Notre Dame is among the nation's winningest programs during the past 13 seasons (1996-97 to present), ranking seventh with 314 victories.
- Notre Dame has ranked among the top 20 in the nation in attendance each of the past nine seasons. Last year, the program finished ninth in the country for the second year in a row with an average of 7,168 fans for its 13 home games (the second-highest single-season attendance average in school history). The Irish also have drawn 5,000-or-more fans to 124 of their last 126 home games, including six Purcell Pavilion sellouts (most recently on Dec. 7, 2008 vs. Purdue).
- The Irish have become a regular fixture in the WNBA Draft in recent years, as seven Notre Dame players have been selected in the past nine seasons. Charel Allen was the most recent Irish player to be chosen, going to the Sacramento Monarchs in the third round (43rd overall pick) of the 2008 WNBA Draft. Ruth Riley (San Antonio) was active in the league during the '09 season, helping the Silver Stars return to the playoffs for the third consecutive season. Three of Notre Dame's eight WNBA alums have won a total of four league championships — Riley won a pair of crowns with the Detroit Shock (2003 Finals MVP, 2006), Coquese Washington toiled for the 2000 Houston Comets, while Jacqueline Batteast was Riley's teammate on the '06 title-winning squad in Detroit.

In-Season Interview Policy

All requests for Notre Dame player, coach or staff interviews must be made through Chris Masters and 24 hours' notice is appreciated. Please be aware that student-athletes' academic obligations always take precedence before any interview requests.

Media members also may speak to Irish team personnel before or after practice sessions. While most practices are open to the media, some may be closed at the coaching staff's discretion — contact Chris Masters for the latest practice schedule and availability.

On game days, no interviews will be granted with any Notre Dame player or coach prior to competition.

Credentials / Parking

Season credentials will be issued to all media covering the Irish on a regular basis. Please note — any Notre Dame men's basketball season credential also offers access to all Irish women's basketball games.

For single-game credentials, contact Chris Masters no later than 24 hours before tipoff. Credential requests may be submitted via phone, fax or e-mail. Passes will be left at the media will call entrance (Gate 1) of Purcell Pavilion.

Parking is free for all Irish women's basketball games in the large lot south of Purcell Pavilion. Due to construction in the vicinity of the arena, there are no designated parking lots or specific parking passes for media members.

Credentials remain the property of the University of Notre Dame and may be revoked at any time.

Game Notes

Notre Dame's game notes package is completed and made available on-line through the official Irish athletics web site during the season, usually at least one day prior to tipoff. Notre Dame's game notes are in Adobe PDF format and will be distributed via electronic means only (e-mail or web). Fax distribution is by request only.

Please contact Chris Masters if you wish to be added to the e-mail distribution list for Notre Dame's regular women's basketball releases.

Gameday Services

Gameday packages containing game notes, programs and other information will be available prior to all home contests. A pre-game meal also will be served in the Monogram Room media area (exit through stands above Gate 8 to right of press row, entrance on right after exiting outer concourse doors) beginning 75 minutes before tipoff.

A bank of statistics monitors is located on press row for the media's convenience. Final statistics books include an official NCAA box score and play-by-play. Telephone, copier and fax services are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Purcell Pavilion also offers wireless Internet capability — check with Chris Masters for access.

Post-Game Interviews

Following each Notre Dame home game, Irish head coach Muffet McGraw and selected players, followed by the visiting head coach and selected players, will be available to speak with the media. Post-game press conferences are held in the Hammes Auditorium, located between Gates 1 & 2 on the first floor of Purcell Pavilion (exit court via Gate 1 ramp on opposite end of court from press row, go straight and turn right at the Notre Dame women's basketball office; auditorium entrance will be on your left).

Media members should submit player requests for post-game interviews to Chris Masters at the final media timeout of the second half.

Around the BIG EAST

For the third year in a row, the Irish posted a perfect 100-percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR), according to figures released by the NCAA in October 2008. What's more, since Muffet McGraw became the Irish head coach in 1987, every Notre Dame women's basketball player that has completed her athletic and academic eligibility at the University has graduated (a 57-for-57 success rate), with all five members of this year's senior class on target to graduate by May 2010 (Lindsay Schrader and Erica Williamson will complete work on their degrees in December 2009).

A Quick Look At Indianapolis

As is the case at Notre Dame, hopes are high for great things at Indianapolis in 2009-10. The Greyhounds return four starters and seven letterwinners from last year's club that posted a 24-10 record (11-7 in the Great Lakes Valley Conference) and advanced to their first-ever NCAA Division II Sweet 16.

Ranked fourth in the recently-released Women's D-II Bulletin preseason poll, Ulndy got off to a flying start on Sunday, going on the road to knock off Division I foe Valparaiso, 67-56. Junior forward Samantha Meissel posted team highs of 18 points and seven rebounds to pace four Greyhound scorers in double figures. Indianapolis also won the battle on the boards, 37-33, and forced the Crusaders into 23 turnovers and a .367 field goal percentage.

The Greyhounds are playing a tough pre-season slate with three games against Division I opponents. Ulndy will close out its exhibition schedule Saturday at 11th-ranked Xavier.

Meissel was a second-team all-region and first-team all-conference selection last year after averaging 18.7 points and 4.6 rebounds per game. Senior guard Jessica Canary pitched in 14.4 points and a team-high 5.3 rebounds a night on the way to second-team all-GLVC honors.

Head coach LeAnn Freeland is gearing up for her third season in Indianapolis, sporting a 46-18 (.719) record at the school. She will be coaching against Notre Dame for the first time.

The Notre Dame-Indianapolis Series

Tuesday's game will mark the second time Notre Dame and Indianapolis have squared off in preseason play. Back in 2005, the Irish defeated the Greyhounds, 84-59 at the Joyce Center (see following recap for details).

The Last Time ND And Indianapolis Met

Senior All-America guard Megan Duffy scored a team-high 18 points to pace four Notre Dame players in double figures as the Irish tipped off their season with an 84-59 exhibition victory over Division II entity Indianapolis on Nov. 1, 2005, before a crowd of 5,053 fans at the Joyce Center.

Duffy connected on 7-of-13 shots from the floor, including 4-of-8 from three-point range, and added a game-high seven assists with just one turnover. Sophomore center Melissa D'Amico looked strong as well, collecting 16 points (7-12 FG) and a game-best seven rebounds. Freshman guard Lindsay Schrader got the starting nod in her first outing and responded with 13 points (6-13 FG), while matching D'Amico's game-high seven rebounds. Senior forward Courtney LaVere rounded out the double-figure scoring quartet with 10 points (5-9 FG).

As a team, Notre Dame shot 53 percent from the floor (35-of-66) and owned a 40-29 edge on the boards. The Irish also had 25 assists and only 14 turnovers on the evening, with sophomore guard Tulyah Gaines nearly equalling Duffy's performance with six assists and one turnover.

Indianapolis was led by Mandy Geryak's game-high 23 points, as the transfer from Xavier was making her first appearance in a Greyhound uniform after redshirting last season. Vanessa Jackson, a transfer from Morehead State, added 11 points off the bench.

Notre Dame stormed from the gate with a 15-5 run during the first 6:08 of the contest, getting six points from D'Amico in the stretch. However, Indianapolis rallied back with a 19-7 run of its own and actually took the lead when Geryak hit a layup at the 9:54 mark.

With the crowd buzzing nervously, the Irish went to work, closing the first half on a 22-7 spurt, with Schrader and LaVere each kicking in six points for the home team. Sophomore guard Amanda Tsipis also contributed during the run with a basket, two rebounds, an assist and a steal in the final four minutes of the period as Notre Dame went to the locker room on top, 44-31.

The Greyhounds kept the margin at 13 points for the first two minutes of the second half. The Irish then iced the game with a 20-8 run that pushed them in front by a 68-43 count on a three-pointer by Duffy at the 8:33 juncture.

Other Notre Dame-Indianapolis Series Tidbits

- Notre Dame senior guard/tri-captain Ashley Barlow is a native of Indianapolis and a 2006 graduate of Pike High School.
- Notre Dame could potentially set a new school record for exhibition game attendance. The current high-water mark for a preseason game is 6,996, set on Nov. 13, 2001, for an 87-39 win over Christian Brothers University, a Division II program from Memphis, Tenn.

ND vs. Great Lakes Valley Conference

Notre Dame has played two Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) opponents in its history, both in exhibition play. In 2005, the Irish downed Indianapolis, 84-59, at the Joyce Center, and two years later, they knocked off visiting Southern Indiana, 90-38.

Exhibition Excellence For The Irish

Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable in exhibition games during the past 16 seasons. Since the 1993-94 campaign, the Irish are 29-1 (.967) in these preseason tilts and own an active 24-game exhibition winning streak. During that time, Notre Dame has outscored its preseason opponents by an aggregate score of 2,619-1,753, which is good for an average score of 87-58.

The last squad to defeat the Irish in exhibition play was the Lithuanian National Team, which edged Notre Dame, 94-89 in 1996-97. However, the Irish were not fazed by that loss — they went on to reach their first NCAA Final Four that season.

New NCAA rules in recent years have allowed Division I teams to play exhibitions against Division II, III or NAIA institutions. The Irish are 8-0 against these College Division programs, having downed seven NCAA Division II schools since 2001 (Christian Brothers in 2001-02, Indianapolis and Ferris State in 2005-06, Lake Superior State and Northwood (Mich.) in 2006-07, Southern Indiana and Hillsdale in 2007-08, and Gannon last season).

Here's a look at how Notre Dame has fared since 1993-94 in exhibition games (college opponents in italics):

Notre Dame Picked Second In 2009-10 BIG EAST Coaches' Preseason Poll

Notre Dame was selected to finish second in the BIG EAST Conference in 2009-10, according to a preseason vote of the league's 16 head coaches released Oct. 22 during the annual BIG EAST Women's Basketball Media Day at the ESPN Zone in New York City.

The Fighting Irish picked up 210 points and one first-place vote in the balloting (coaches may not vote for their own teams), placing behind only defending national champion Connecticut, which was a unanimous choice to win the conference title with 225 points. DePaul and reigning NCAA runner-up Louisville shared the third spot in the BIG EAST preseason poll with 171 points, while Pittsburgh rounded out the top five with 167 points.

Trio Of Irish Earn 2009-10Preseason All-BIG EAST Honors

Along with picking Notre Dame to finish second in the conference this year in their preseason poll, the BIG EAST coaches voted fifth-year senior guard/tri-captain Lindsay Schrader and senior guard/tri-captain Ashley Barlow to the 12-player Preseason All-BIG EAST Team.

Schrader, a two-time all-conference selection, garnered first-team recognition last year after averaging career highs of 12.6 points and a team-best 7.4 rebounds per game with a .463 field goal percentage. What's more, she registered seven double-doubles, setting a single-season school record for guards, and giving her 11 career double-doubles, one behind current assistant coach Niele Ivey for the Notre Dame all-time record for guards in that category.

Meanwhile, Barlow is another returning two-time all-BIG EAST honoree, having copped second-team laurels a season ago with a team-high 12.7 points, 4.8 rebounds and 2.4 steals per game, as well as a career-high .364 three-point percentage. Barlow is one of only four players in school history to record at least 60 steals in three consecutive seasons (she had a career-high 70 thefts last year) and she and Schrader both are members of Notre Dame's 1,000-Point Club -- Barlow is 20th in program history with 1,107 points, while Schrader is 23rd all-time with 1,057 points.

In addition to the preseason accolades for the two Fighting Irish veterans, rookie guard Skylar Diggins was a unanimous choice as the BIG EAST Preseason Freshman of the Year, according to the league's head coaches. Diggins was the consensus 2008-09 national high school player of the year, and also was named the '08-09 Gatorade National High School Female Athlete of the Year (for all sports) during a ceremony held just prior to the ESPY Awards this past summer in Los Angeles.

Diggins averaged 29.0 points and 6.3 assists per game as a senior last season, leading Washington High School to the cusp of the Indiana Class 4A title and the mythical prep national championship before a last-second loss in the final. She went on to earn MVP honors at both the McDonald's and Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) High School All-America Games (joining former Tennessee guard Alexis Hornbuckle as the only players ever to pull off that double) and she was a co-captain on the 2009 USA Basketball U19 World Championship Team that won the gold medal at the FIBA U19 World Championships in Bangkok, Thailand, back in August.

Irish Enjoy Successful '09 European Tour

In May, the Notre Dame women's basketball program embarked on a memorable 11-day adventure to France, Monaco and Italy, visiting some of the world's most historic landmarks, including the Eiffel Tower in Paris, the Prince's Palace in Monaco, picturesque Lake Como in the foothills of the Italian Alps, the famed El Duomo cathedral in Milan, the Colosseum and Forum in Rome, as well as St. Peter's Basilica and the Sistine Chapel located at The Vatican.

The Irish also had the chance to play three exhibition games against international opponents on the tour, winning all three contests against the French Junior National Team (77-44) and Italian professional teams GEAS Sesto San Giovanni (78-68) and Roma Athena Basket (94-39). The win over the French side was particularly noteworthy, as it came only weeks before France won the gold medal at the European U20 Championships with much of the same team that faced the Irish in May.

Senior guard/tri-captain Ashley Barlow led Notre Dame in scoring (13.0 ppg.) and three-point percentage (.727, 8-11) on the trip, while junior forward Becca Bruszewski was second in scoring (12.0 ppg.) and fourth in rebounding (5.7 rpg.). Other statistical leaders included: fifth-year senior guard Lindsay Schrader and sophomore forward Kellie Watson (6.3 rpg.), sophomore guard Natalie Novosel (3.3 spg.), senior guard Melissa Lechlitner (3.3 apg.) and sophomore forward Erica Solomon (2.5 bpg.).

Polling Station

Notre Dame is ranked fourth in the 2009-10 pre-season Associated Press poll, released on Oct. 30. Not only is it the 39th consecutive AP poll appearance for the Irish, but it's also the highest pre-season AP ranking ever for Notre Dame, topping its No. 6 debut in the 2000-01 poll.

With their current poll position, the Irish now have appeared in the top 10 of the AP poll during 10 of the past 14 seasons (1996-97 through 2009-10) with their No. 4 ranking being the highest for the program since the week of Jan. 4, 2005, when the Irish also rose to fourth following a 12-1 start and the 2004 Preseason WNIT title.

Notre Dame has been ranked in the AP poll for 179 weeks during the program's 33-year history, with every one of those appearances coming in the Muffet McGraw era (since 1987-88). McGraw ranks 12th among all active NCAA Division I head coaches for weeks in the AP poll, and also is 23rd all-time in that category.

In addition, the Irish are likely to be ranked in the preseason ESPN/USA Today/WBCA coaches' poll that will be released Tuesday. Notre Dame was ranked in the coaches' survey for 38 consecutive weeks before falling just outside the Top 25 in the final poll of last season. Nevertheless, the Irish are poised to appear in the coaches' poll for the 171st week during their history (all coming during McGraw's tenure).

different Irish players (all but Lechlitner) scored during the run and none of them had more than five points. The Knights managed to stem the tide for the remainder of the first half, but still found themselves looking up at a 45-16 deficit going to the locker room.

Things didn't get much better for the visitors in the second half, as Notre Dame continued to rotate in fresh bodies — every player saw between 13 and 27 minutes of action on the night. A Schrader layup in the first minute of the period hiked the Irish lead over 30 points, while a massive 34-8 run across the middle stages of the half quashed any hopes for a Gannon comeback. The Notre Dame defense also maintained its level of intensity despite the wide margin, holding the Knights to a single basket and forcing 11 turnovers during the final 9:42 of the game.

Noting The Gannon Game

- The previous largest margin for the Irish in an exhibition game (dating back to 1993-94) had been 52 points, set just in 2006-07 in a 90-38 win over Division II member Southern Indiana at the Joyce Center.
- It's also the fewest points Notre Dame has allowed in an exhibition game during that 16-year span, bettering the 34 points it allowed to Slavyanka (Russia) in 1997-98; in fact, the last time the Irish allowed fewer points in a regular-season game was Jan. 21, 1982, when they posted an 84-27 win at Valparaiso.
- Notre Dame has scored at least 90 points in its last three preseason games and four of the past six, and has topped the 80-point mark in nine consecutive exhibition contests beginning with the 2004-05 season.
- Notre Dame is 8-0 all-time against College Division (Division II, III or NAIA) opponents in the preseason, a practice that began for the Irish in 2001-02 with an 87-39 win over Christian Brothers University of Memphis, Tenn.
- Had the Gannon game been a regular-season contest, the 46 turnovers forced by the Irish defense would have been only two away from the school record set way back in the program's AIAW Division III incarnation on Jan. 11, 1980 (48 by SIU-Edwardsville in a 65-51 Notre Dame win at the Huskie Invitational in DeKalb, Ill.).
- Notre Dame's 29 steals also would have tied the school record set twice before (most recently on Jan. 31, 1991, in a 97-48 win at Saint Louis).

Half And Half

During the past decade, Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable when it has the lead at half-time. The Irish are 163-17 (.906) since the start of the 2000-01 campaign when they go into the dressing room with the lead, including wins in 91 of their last 102 such contests.

Last season, Notre Dame went 17-3 when it was ahead at the break, losing 63-59 in overtime at Michigan, 75-65 at Marquette and 58-47 to Villanova in the BIG EAST Championship quarterfinals at Hartford, Conn.

2008-09 Exhibition Recap: Gannon

Freshman guard Natalie Novosel came off the bench to score a game-high 14 points and pace four Notre Dame players in double figures as the No. 16/14 Irish cruised to a 96-30 exhibition win over Gannon on Nov. 5, 2008, before a crowd of 5,428 at the Joyce Center.

Notre Dame forced the Knights into a whooping 46 turnovers (with 29 coming on Irish steals), and parlayed those takeaways into 56 points while registering its largest exhibition victory in 16 years and improving to 29-1 in preseason play since 1993-94, including an active 24-game exhibition winning streak.

Junior guard Melissa Lechlitner tossed in 33 points, all in the second half, while senior guard Lindsay Schrader and sophomore forward Becca Bruszewski added 12 points apiece. Four other Irish players had at least eight points, while all 10 players in uniform scoring at least five points. Collectively, Notre Dame shot 46.8 percent from the field (37-of-79), won the rebounding battle by a 45-42 margin, and finished with a positive assist/turnover ratio (19 assists, 12 turnovers).

Gannon, an NCAA Division II school from Erie, Pa., was led by Brittany Tabron, who posted a double-double with 10 points and a game-high 11 rebounds before fouling out with a little less than seven minutes to play. The Knights, who return four starters and eight letterwinners from last year's 16-12 squad, shot 22.4 percent from the floor (11-of-49), including 1-of-10 from the three-point line.

The Irish jumped out to an 8-0 lead 3:26 into the game on the strength of three steals and four Gannon turnovers. However, Lechlitner picked up her second foul moments later and would be relegated to the bench for the rest of the half. Meanwhile, the Knights battled back and got as close as three points on two occasions, the second at 10-7 on Kristina Freeman's layup with 13:51 remaining in the first half.

From there, Notre Dame slammed its foot on the accelerator and didn't let up, with Novosel's fast break layup igniting a 27-2 run covering the next 8:44 that blew the game wide open. Bruszewski had steals on four out of five Gannon possessions early in the surge, while nine

The Best Offense Is A Good Defense...

During the past 15 seasons, Notre Dame has discovered that a solid defensive effort can almost certainly guarantee a victory. In fact, since the beginning of the 1995-96 season (Notre Dame's first in the BIG EAST Conference), the Irish have an amazing 195-14 (.933) record when they hold their opponents below 60 points in a game.

Notre Dame was 11-2 in such games last season, with wins over LSU, Boston College, Georgia Southern, Purdue, Valparaiso, Loyola-Chicago, Vanderbilt, Cincinnati, DePaul (second game), Providence and St. John's (second game).

As is often the case, both of last year's losses in this category came against Villanova and its methodical style of play — 55-48 in the regular season (at VU) and 58-47 in the BIG EAST Championship quarterfinals (at Hartford, Conn.).

...But Sometimes You Have To Score If You Want To Win

Not resting solely on its defensive laurels, Notre Dame also seemingly has found the magic mark when it comes to outscoring its opponents. During the past 15 seasons (since 1995-96), the Irish are 123-4 (.969) when they score at least 80 points in a game. The only blemishes on that record are a pair of overtime losses to Texas A&M (88-84) and Michigan State (87-83) in 1995, a 106-81 loss to Connecticut in 1998, and an 81-80 loss to DePaul in 2008.

Notre Dame scored at least 80 points in nine games last year, winning each time.

Now That's A Home Court Advantage

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's success has been its stellar play at home. In fact, the Irish have been virtually untouchable at home in recent years, winning 173 of their last 197 games (.878) at the 9,149-seat Purcell Pavilion, including winning streaks of 51 and 25 games in that span. Notre Dame also has a 99-17 (.853) record in BIG EAST Conference play at the Joyce Center, sporting a 31-game league winning streak at home before it ended with a 48-45 loss to Villanova in the '02 home finale.

The Irish have been particularly strong when it comes to non-conference games at home, winning 76 of their last 83 non-BIG EAST contests (.916) at the Joyce Center, dating back to the 1994-95 season. Five of the losses in that span came at the hands of Big Ten Conference opponents (four by 12 points or less) — Wisconsin in 1996 (81-69), Purdue in 2003 (71-54), Michigan State in 2004 (82-73 OT), Indiana in 2006 (54-51) and Minnesota in 2009 (79-71) — with the other two defeats coming to Tennessee in 2005 (62-51) and 2008 (87-63). The Purdue loss also snapped a 33-game non-conference home winning streak which began after the UW setback.

Since its inaugural season in 1977-78, Notre Dame has played all of its games at the Joyce Center, posting a 323-85 (.792) record at the venerable facility. Three times (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04), the Irish went a perfect

It's Fan-Demonium At Notre Dame

If the preseason is any indication, Notre Dame women's basketball is easily the hottest ticket in South Bend. For the first time in school history, all Irish women's basketball season ticket packages (close to 7,500) have been sold, including more than 1,000 packages to first-time season ticket purchasers when they went on sale Aug. 14. Furthermore, fans were waiting in line at the Purcell Pavilion ticket office as early as 4:30 that morning, more than four hours before the ticket windows opened.

In fact, while it's likely that some tickets will be made available for individual games during the weeks and days prior to the contests, there's a very real possibility that Notre Dame could sell out every one of its regular-season home games at the newly-refurbished 9,149-seat Purcell Pavilion.

The Irish have posted six sellouts in program history, the most recent coming on Dec. 7, 2008, for a 62-51 win over in-state rival Purdue. That capacity crowd not only was the first on-campus sellout in the 22-game series with the Boilermakers, but it also helped Notre Dame win the NCAA/BIG EAST Conference Pack The House Challenge for 2008-09.

Only one Division I women's basketball program has ever sold out all of its games for an entire season — Connecticut filled the stands for more than 100 consecutive home sellouts during the early part of this decade.

Irish On Your Radio Dial

Beginning with the 2008-09 athletics year, the Notre Dame athletics department announced it had partnered with the LeSEA Broadcasting Network, making Pulse FM (96.9/92.1) the new radio home of Notre Dame women's basketball in the South Bend market.

LeSEA originates all Notre Dame women's basketball games, with those events carried on Pulse FM (96.9/92.1), marking a return to the FM side of the dial for the first time since the 1998-99 season. Combined, these two stations blanket the nation's No. 89 media market (South Bend-Elkhart), covering a 21-county area in northern Indiana and south-west Michigan that contains more than 1.35 million listeners (better than 800,000 in the greater South Bend area alone). All told, Notre Dame's women's basketball network stretches from Kalamazoo, Mich., to the north, North Judson, Ind., to the west, Macy, Ind., (home of former Irish All-America center Ruth Riley) to the south, and LaGrange, Ind., to the east.

Women's basketball game broadcasts also continue to be streamed live and free of charge on Notre Dame's official athletics web site (www.UND.com) through the Fighting Irish All-Access multimedia package.

Bob Nagle, the voice of Notre Dame women's basketball from 1996-97 through 1998-99 (including the program's first NCAA Final Four berth in 1997), returns for his second season in his second stint as the radio play-by-play broadcaster for the Irish.

Notre Dame On The Small Screen

Notre Dame will have at least 15 games televised during the 2009-10 season. Highlighting this year's broadcast schedule are 11 nationally-televised Irish women's basketball contests, including at least six games on the ESPN family of networks and four others on CBS College Sports (check schedule on page 1 of these notes for exact broadcast coverage).

In addition, Notre Dame continues to expand its broadcast reach globally on the Internet. At least four Irish regular-season home games not selected for commercial TV coverage will be webcast live on the official Notre Dame athletics web site, www.UND.com, via the site's free multimedia package, Fighting Irish All-Access. At press time, those games scheduled for webcast on UND.com are: Iona (Nov. 22), Eastern Michigan (Dec. 2), IPFW (Dec. 8) and Valparaiso (Dec. 12).

This year's TV slate continues a recent trend that has seen the Irish become a regular fixture on television. Beginning with the NCAA championship season of 2000-01 and continuing through this year, Notre Dame has played in 138 televised games, including 87 that were broadcast nationally.

Oh Captain, My Captain

Fifth-year senior guard Lindsay Schrader and senior guards Ashley Barlow and Melissa Lechlitner all return for their second year as team captains for the 2009-10 season. All three players received the captain's honor following a vote of their teammates prior to the season.

This marks the first time in program history that the same players are serving as captains in consecutive seasons.

Purcell Pavilion Opens Its Doors

Following an intensive five-month, $34.3 million interior renovation, the arena for the newly-christened Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center will make its women's basketball debut Tuesday night when Notre Dame plays host to Indianapolis.

Tuesday's tipoff is part of the culmination of a two-year project to upgrade the home for Notre Dame basketball and volleyball.

The first (exterior) phase of the project, that began in September 2008, involves construction of a new three-story structure at the south end of the arena. That structure will include a new three-story lobby, which will house the Notre Dame ticket operations (approximately 4,500 square feet) and a varsity shop to sell apparel and souvenirs (approximately 3,000 square feet), in addition to a new club seating and hospitality area.

Replacement of the existing arena seating footprint, including installation of single-color chair-back seating throughout the arena, began following the University's Commencement Exercises in May 2009 and was completed in time for the Irish volleyball team to play the first athletic event in the facility on Oct. 30 (a 3-1 win over Seton Hall). The entire project is scheduled for completion in January 2010.

The University announced in October 2007 that this ambitious arena renovation had received a $12.5 million leadership gift from Notre Dame alumnus and Trustee Philip J. Purcell III, the retired chairman and chief executive officer of Morgan Stanley.

Additional cornerstone donations were made by: Vincent J. Naimoli ('59), whose $5 million contribution will lead to the creation of the new Naimoli Family Club Room, and South Bend-area auto dealership owner Mike Leep Sr., whose generous gift will be recognized with the naming of the Mike Leep Sr. Varsity Shop.

Next Game: Arkansas-Pine Bluff

Notre Dame will tip off the 2009-10 season for real on Sunday, Nov. 15, when it welcomes Arkansas-Pine Bluff to Purcell Pavilion for a 7 p.m. (ET) contest. It will be the first-ever meeting between the Irish and Lady Lions, who went 12-19 last year and finished fourth in the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) race with a 10-8 league record.

UAPB opens its season on Nov. 13 with a visit to Mississippi State, then will immediately travel to South Bend to get ready for its matchup with Notre Dame.
