Storylines

- ◆ Notre Dame is 27-6 (.818) all-time on Senior Day, including a 20-3 (.870) record during the Muffet McGraw era.
- ◆ The Fighting Irish are 36-7 (.837) all-time at home against Ohio schools, including an active 16-game winning streak that dates back to 1993.

With the regular season entering its final weekend, No. 8/7 Notre Dame will take time to honor its departing seniors as the Fighting Irish play their final home game of the 2010-11 season Saturday when they welcome Cincinnati to Purcell Pavilion for a 2 p.m. (ET) matinee. Notre Dame also is seeking to record 15 home wins for the second consecutive season and just the fifth time in program history.

The Fighting Irish (23-5, 12-2 BIG EAST) returned to the win column on Tuesday with a 72-60 victory at No. 19/18 West Virginia, earning their fourth win over a ranked opponent this season. Notre Dame shot a blistering 57.7 percent from the floor and led by double digits for much of the night, bumping its lead as high as 18 points in the second half.

Junior guard Natalie Novosel led four Fighting Irish players in double figures with a game-high 22 points, while senior forward Devereaux Peters added 16 points in just 22 minutes.

Rankings

- ◆ Notre Dame is No. 8 in the latest Associated Press poll and is No. 7 in the current ESPN/USA Today poll.
- ◆ Cincinnati is not ranked.

Setting The Standard

Under the guidance of 24th-year head coach Muffet McGraw, Notre Dame has evolved into one of the country's leading women's basketball powers. The Irish have appeared in 17 NCAA Tournaments (including a current streak of 15 in a row) and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 eight times in the past 14 seasons. Notre Dame also has reached the NCAA Women's Final Four twice, winning college basketball's ultimate prize with the 2001 national championship.

In its history, Notre Dame has developed nine All-Americans, 10 WNBA players (including seven draft picks in the past decade) and four USA Basketball veterans (eight medals won). Now in their 34th season in 2010-11, the Irish own an all-time record of 712-307 (.699).

Quick Hitters

- With its season-high No. 8 ranking in the Feb. 21 Associated Press poll, Notre Dame now has appeared in the AP poll for a school-record 74 consecutive weeks, extending the program standard that began with the 2007-08 preseason poll.
- The Fighting Irish have posted a school-record nine wins this season by at least 35 points, topping the old program standard of four 35-point victories set in 2008-09.
- Notre Dame has scored at least 90 points in eight games this season, surpassing the school record of seven set in three separate seasons (1996-97, 1998-99 and 2007-08).
- Notre Dame has won 12 games by 30 points or more, eclipsing the school record of 10 30-point victories established in 2000-01.
- The Fighting Irish are 4-5 against ranked opponents this season, with those five losses (the only defeats for Notre Dame to date) coming by an average of just 8.6 points per game, and only one by more than 11 points. Three of those setbacks came to the nation's top two squads (76-65 at No. 2/3 Baylor on Dec. 1; 79-76 vs. No. 2 Connecticut on Jan. 8; 78-57 at No. 2 Connecticut on Feb. 19), with the first UConn contest being one of three Top 25 defeats in which Notre Dame led or had a chance to tie in the final 30 seconds of regulation (also 86-83 double-OT loss to No. 15 UCLA and 81-76 loss at No. 9/10 Kentucky).
- The Fighting Irish rank among the top 10 in the country in seven statistical categories, according to Friday's latest NCAA statistics report. Notre Dame ranks third in the nation in scoring margin (+25.8) and field goal percentage (.491); fourth in steals (13.6 spg.); fifth in three-point percentage defense (.249); sixth in assists (18.3 apg.); and seventh in scoring offense (79.8 ppg.) and rebounding margin (+10.0). These rankings are ironic for a Fighting Irish team that has no player ranking higher than 59th in any individual category.

- Notre Dame became the 32nd NCAA Division I program to record 700 wins, earning the landmark victory (91-47) vs. Loyola Marymount on Dec. 30 at the State Farm Holiday Hoops Classic in Seattle. The Fighting Irish are 712-307 (.699) over 34 seasons.
- Notre Dame celebrated another program milestone on Dec. 5 with its 1,000th all-time game (a 72-51 win over Purdue at Purcell Pavilion).
- Part of Notre Dame's success thus far can be traced to the improvement in two of its veterans, both of whom have exceeded their scoring output from last season by at least 50 percent. Junior guard Natalie Novosel (5.0 to 15.0) and senior forward Devereaux Peters (6.7 to 11.4) also are currently logging career-high scoring averages this year.

Other Notre Dame Notables

- Notre Dame is among the nation's winningest programs during the past 15 seasons (1996-97 to present), ranking sixth with 366 victories.
- Notre Dame has ranked among the top 20 in the nation in attendance each of the past 10 seasons. This year, the program is fifth in the NCAA attendance rankings with 8,516 fans per game, currently topping last year's single-season school attendance record of 8,377. The Fighting Irish also have drawn 5,000-or-more fans to 157 of their last 159 home games, logging 16 Purcell Pavilion sellouts (most recently on Feb. 12 vs. Rutgers).
- The Fighting Irish have become a regular fixture in the WNBA Draft in recent years, as seven Notre Dame players have been selected in the past decade. Charel Allen was the most recent Fighting Irish player to be chosen, going to the Sacramento Monarchs in the third round (43rd overall pick) of the 2008 WNBA Draft. Ruth Riley (San Antonio) was active in the league during the '10 season, helping the Silver Stars return to the playoffs for the fourth consecutive season. Three of Notre Dame's eight WNBA alums have won a total of four league championships — Riley won a pair of crowns with the Detroit Shock (2003 Finals MVP, 2006), Coquese Washington toiled for the 2000 Houston Comets, while Jacqueline Batteast was Riley's teammate on the 2006 title-winning squad in Detroit.
- For the fifth year in a row, the Fighting Irish posted a perfect 100-percent Graduation

Media Services

The official Notre Dame athletics web site contains schedules, rosters, updated statistics and some historical information from previous seasons. High-resolution color headshots and action photos of Fighting Irish players, coaches and staff are available upon request.

Official Notre Dame athletics web site:

- <http://www.UND.com>

In-Season Interview Policy

All requests for Notre Dame player, coach or staff interviews must be made through Chris Masters and 24 hours' notice is appreciated. Please be aware that student-athletes' academic obligations always take precedence before any interview requests.

Media members also may speak to Fighting Irish team personnel before or after practice sessions. While most practices are open to the media, some may be closed at the coaching staff's discretion — contact Chris Masters for the latest practice schedule and availability.

On game days, no interviews will be granted with any Notre Dame player or coach prior to competition.

Credentials / Parking

Season credentials will be issued to all media covering the Fighting Irish on a regular basis. Please note — any Notre Dame men's basketball season credential also offers access to all Fighting Irish women's basketball games.

For single-game credentials, contact Chris Masters no later than 24 hours before tipoff. Credential requests may be submitted via phone, fax or e-mail. Passes will be left at the media will call entrance (Gate 8) of Purcell Pavilion.

Parking is free for all Fighting Irish women's basketball games in the large lot south of Purcell Pavilion. Due to construction near the arena, there are no designated parking lots or specific parking passes for media members.

Credentials remain the property of the University of Notre Dame and may be revoked at any time.

Game Notes

Notre Dame's game notes package is completed and made available on-line through the official Irish athletics web site during the season, usually at least one day prior to tipoff. Notre Dame's game notes are in Adobe PDF format and will be distributed via electronic means only (e-mail or web). Fax distribution is by request only.

Please contact Chris Masters if you wish to be added to the e-mail distribution list for Notre Dame's regular women's basketball releases.

Gameday Services

Gameday packages containing game notes, programs and other information will be available prior to all home contests. A pre-game meal also will be served in the Monogram Room media area (exit through stands above Gate 6 to right of press row, entrance on right after exiting outer concourse doors) beginning 75 minutes before tipoff.

A bank of statistics monitors is located on press row for the media's convenience. Final statistics books include an official NCAA box score and play-by-play. Telephone, copier and fax services are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Purcell Pavilion also offers wireless Internet capability — check with Chris Masters for access.

Post-Game Interviews

Following each Notre Dame home game, Fighting Irish head coach Muffet McGraw and selected players, as well as the visiting head coach and selected players, will be available to speak with the media. Post-game press conferences are held in the Hammes Auditorium, located between Gates 1 & 2 on the first floor of Purcell Pavilion (exit court via Gate 1 ramp on opposite end of court from press row, go straight and turn right at the Notre Dame women's basketball office; auditorium entrance will be on your left).

Media members should submit player requests for post-game interviews to Chris Masters at the final media timeout of the second half.

Around the BIG EAST

Success Rate (GSR), according to figures released by the NCAA in October. What's more, since Muffet McGraw became head coach in 1987, every Notre Dame women's basketball player who has completed her athletic and academic eligibility at the University has earned her bachelor's degree (a 62-for-62 success rate), with all four members of this year's senior class on target to earn their diplomas.

A Quick Look At Cincinnati

Without question, no team in the BIG EAST Conference has been more troubled by the injury bug this season than Cincinnati. The Bearcats have seen their active roster dwindle to eight healthy players, thanks to season-ending injuries to sophomore forwards Daress McClung (ankle) and Elese Daniel (knee), the latter being a South Bend native.

UC (8-18, 1-13) has lost 12 in a row and 18 of its last 21 games, most recently dropping a narrow 55-53 decision at home to Syracuse on Tuesday night. The Bearcats led by as many as 19 points in the first half, before the Orange rallied and held off a potential game-winning shot by Cincinnati late in the contest.

Senior guard Shareese Ulis, who scored a game-high 20 points against Syracuse, leads the Bearcats in scoring (13.7 ppg.), three-point percentage (.353), assists (2.8 apg.) and steals (1.3 spg.). Freshman guard Kayla Cook is second on the team in scoring (8.0 ppg.), while fellow rookie Tiffany Turner nabs a team-high 6.3 rebounds per game.

Former Connecticut player and longtime Huskies' assistant coach Janelle Elliott is in her second season as the head coach at Cincinnati with a 20-36 (.357) record, including an 0-1 record against Notre Dame.

The Notre Dame-Cincinnati Series

Saturday's matinee will mark the seventh time Notre Dame and Cincinnati have squared off on the basketball hardwood, with the Fighting Irish having won each of the six previous matchups, including all five since the Bearcats joined the BIG EAST Conference in 2005-06. Notre Dame also is 3-0 all-time against UC at Purcell Pavilion.

The Last Time Notre Dame And Cincinnati Met

The crowd was small, the mood was subdued, the snow was falling outside. Fourth-ranked Notre Dame didn't feel a whole lot of energy at the opening tip.

Lindsay Schrader and the Fighting Irish defense eventually provided it.

Schrader scored 14 of her 16 points in the second half, and Notre Dame intensified its full-court pressure, building a 20-point lead and holding on for a 66-50 win over Cincinnati on Feb. 9, 2010, at Fifth Third Arena.

Schrader led the way against Cincinnati, shaking off a 1-for-7 shooting performance in a first half that lacked energy. Only 472 fans showed up for a game played as the city was digging out from another major snowstorm.

The fifth-year senior guard got the Fighting Irish revved by making three consecutive baskets early in the second half, pushing the lead to 20. When Cincinnati got the lead down to nine, Notre Dame coach Muffet McGraw called a timeout and called a play designed to get the ball inside to Schrader.

She caught the pass, made a layup, was fouled and completed a three-point play that ended Cincinnati's comeback.

Becca Bruszewski added 14 points and eight rebounds, helping the Fighting Irish get through a night when they started very slowly.

Kahla Roudebush had 17 points to lead Cincinnati, which couldn't take advantage of Notre Dame's ragged first half. The Fighting Irish led only 19-16 with 7:35 left in the half. That's when Notre Dame's pressure and dominance inside let the Fighting Irish take control.

The Bearcats went 1 of 8 with four turnovers the rest of the half, allowing Notre Dame to pull ahead 32-18. The Fighting Irish had 12 offensive rebounds in the half, setting up 14 points.

Brittany Mallory had a career-high eight rebounds in the first half alone. In one sequence during the late first-half run, the Fighting Irish got four offensive rebounds on one possession and finally scored on Devereaux Peters' putback.

Notre Dame opened the second half with an 8-2 run that featured three straight baskets by Schrader and pushed the lead to 40-20.

The Fighting Irish got the Bearcats' offense out of sync and forced sloppy moments that left coach Janelle Elliott pointing at her head. Cincinnati had an over-and-back violation, a shot clock violation, and threw the ball out of bounds on consecutive possessions.

Cincinnati finished with 23 turnovers, setting up 21 Fighting Irish points.

The Last Time Notre Dame And Cincinnati Met At Purcell Pavilion

Notre Dame had a lot of fun getting serious about defense.

After losing three of their past four games, the No. 17/13 Fighting Irish used 21 steals to bolster Lindsay Schrader's season-high 19 points and career-high 15 rebounds and beat Cincinnati 66-50 on Jan. 31, 2009, at Purcell Pavilion.

The Fighting Irish used a 13-2 run late in the first half and a 7-0 run to start the second half, forcing five straight turnovers, to move ahead 43-26 on a three-pointer by Becca Bruszewski. The Fighting Irish opened a 52-33 lead on a free throw by Kellie Watson with 12:01 left.

The Bearcats, led by Kahla Roudebush with 13 points, closed to 59-50 when Angel Morgan, who scored 10, cut drove the baseline and scored on a layup. They had a chance to cut the lead to six points, but Morgan missed a three.

Then Watson, who earlier ended an 0-for-14 streak over five games from three-point range, made back-to-back threes 40 seconds apart to clinch the victory.

Other Notre Dame-Cincinnati Series Tidbits

- The first three series games were decided by 11 points or fewer, but the past three have featured margins of at least 16 points per game, including the last two which featured the exact same final score (66-50).
- Among current BIG EAST members, Cincinnati (6-0) and Providence (19-0) are the only conference opponents Notre Dame has never lost to. The Fighting Irish defeated the Friars, 79-43, back on Dec. 8 in their BIG EAST opener at Providence.
- Notre Dame is 72-16 (.818) all-time against Ohio schools, with a 36-7 (.837) record against the Buckeye State at Purcell Pavilion. The Fighting Irish also have an active 16-game home winning streak against the state of Ohio since a 78-74 home loss to Dayton on March 8, 1993, in the quarterfinals of the Midwestern Collegiate Conference (now Horizon League) tournament.
- The city of Cincinnati remains home to one of the landmark moments in Notre Dame women's basketball history, as the Fighting Irish played in their first NCAA Women's Final Four on March 29, 1997, at Riverfront Coliseum, falling to eventual national champion, Tennessee, 80-66 (the last time Notre Dame lost in the Queen City).
- Notre Dame junior guard Natalie Novosel grew up less than 90 miles south of Cincinnati in Lexington, Ky., and graduated from

Going Out On Top

Prior to Saturday's game against Cincinnati, Notre Dame will take time to honor its four departing seniors (forwards Becca Bruszewski and Mary Forr, plus student managers Stephen Lauria and Brian Monson) for their contributions to the program.

Notre Dame is 27-6 (.818) all-time on Senior Day, including a 20-3 (.870) record in the Muffet McGraw era (1987-88 to present). In fact, the Fighting Irish lost their first Senior Day game under McGraw (69-68 vs. DePaul in 1988), but have proceeded to win on 20 of the past 22 Senior Days since then. The only setbacks during this current stretch came in 2002, when Villanova edged the Fighting Irish, 48-45, to break Notre Dame's school-record 51-game home winning streak, and in 2007, when Rutgers pulled away late for a 76-60 win.

Peaking When It Counts

When the regular season enters its stretch run in the month of February, Notre Dame historically seems to raise its level of play. Since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96, the Fighting Irish are 92-26 (.780) in February games, including a 52-5 (.912) mark at home.

In the 24-year Muffet McGraw era (1987-present), the Fighting Irish are 140-41 (.773) in the month of February, including a 74-11 (.871) home record. In that time, Notre Dame has not had a losing February (including this year's 5-1 record), and only once did the Fighting Irish end the month at .500 (4-4 in 1988-89, McGraw's second season in South Bend).

Celebrating The Bicentennial

With a 200-62 (.763) all-time record in BIG EAST Conference regular season play, Notre Dame has become just the third BIG EAST school to record 200 regular season conference wins, joining Connecticut (377) and Villanova (250) in that elite company.

What makes Notre Dame's feat even more impressive is the fact the Fighting Irish have reached their bicentennial in less than 16 seasons (1995-96 to present), while both Connecticut and Villanova were charter members of the BIG EAST when it debuted women's basketball competition in 1982-83 — 13 seasons before Notre Dame came aboard. Another charter member (Providence) is fourth all-time with 196 BIG EAST victories.

The Fighting Irish also rank second in conference history with a .763 winning percentage, trailing only Connecticut (.818) and joining the Huskies as the only programs in BIG EAST history (current or former) to have won at least 70 percent of their conference games (Rutgers is third at .698).

Century City

The current Notre Dame senior class (Becca Bruszewski, Mary Forr, Brittany Mallory, Devereaux Peters) is closing in on a collective career milestone, with the group having led the Fighting Irish to a 99-29 (.772) record since they arrived on campus in 2007-08.

Only five senior classes in program history have registered 100 wins in their four-year tenures, led by the 2000-01 national championship seniors (Imani Dunbar, Meaghan Leahy, Niele Ivey, Ruth Riley and Kelley Siemon), who amassed 109 victories from 1997-2001 (Ivey was a fifth-year senior in '00-01, following a knee injury five games into her rookie season of '96-97).

The other 100-win Notre Dame classes came in 1998-99 (102 wins), 1999-2000 (106 wins), 2001-02 (107 wins) and 2002-03 (102 wins).

It should be noted that Forr joined the Fighting Irish roster as a walk-on prior to this season, while both Mallory and Peters have the option to return for a fifth year of eligibility next season after both suffered knee injuries early in the 2008-09 campaign.

Twenty Questions

Notre Dame reached the 20-win mark for the 17th time in the past 18 seasons with its 76-68 victory at South Florida on Feb. 5. The Fighting Irish now have registered 20-or-more wins 21 times in the 24-year Muffet McGraw era and 25 times in the program's 34-year history.

McGraw herself has coached 23 20-win seasons (adding in two during her five-year tenure at Lehigh from 1982-87), tying her for ninth all-time among NCAA Division I coaches.

Conference Call

For the 15th time in its 16-year membership in the BIG EAST Conference, Notre Dame has posted double-digit league wins. With the exception of 2005-06 (when they went 8-8), the Fighting Irish have never posted fewer than 10 BIG EAST wins in a season, finishing among the top four in the conference 13 times in their 16 seasons in the league, including this year (Notre Dame already has secured a top-four finish and "double bye" for next week's BIG EAST Championship).

Taking it a step further, Notre Dame has registered double-digit conference wins in 21 of head coach Muffet McGraw's 24 seasons under the Golden Dome, with the only other exceptions coming in 1987-88 (her first season when the Fighting Irish went 7-3 in the now-defunct North Star Conference) and 1991-92 (when Notre Dame went 8-4 in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference/Horizon League, then won three in a row at the conference tournament to earn the program's first-ever NCAA Championship berth, despite a losing overall record of 14-16, becoming the first school ever to pull off that feat).

The Rare Air Up There

For the fourth consecutive week (and the first time since Dec. 9, 2002), both Notre Dame basketball teams are ranked in the top 10 of their respective Associated Press polls. The Fighting Irish women are ranked eighth this week, while Mike Brey's men check in at No. 9.

Notre Dame is one of only two schools in the country with two top-10 basketball programs, along with Duke (No. 9 women/No. 1 men).

If you want to go one further, this marks the first time in Notre Dame athletics history that both Fighting Irish basketball teams AND the Notre Dame hockey team are ranked in the top 10 at the same time (the Fighting Irish icers currently stand eighth in the nation).

The Five-Finger Discount

Notre Dame comes into Saturday's game ranked fourth in the nation in steals with 13.6 thefts per game. The Fighting Irish also have recorded double-digit steals in 20 games this season, including four contests with 20-plus steals.

Highlighting this year's takeaway brigade for Notre Dame was a school-record 36-steal performance in the season-opening victory against New Hampshire on Nov. 12 at Purcell Pavilion. The Fighting Irish followed that up three days later with 26 thefts in a win over Morehead State, and also logged 24 steals at Valparaiso (Dec. 2) and 23 steals against IUPUI (Nov. 26).

Prior to this season, Notre Dame had posted 23 steals in a game just seven times in the first 33 years of the Fighting Irish women's basketball program (and only three games with 25-plus steals in that time, none since a then-record tying 29 steals at Saint Louis on Jan. 31, 1991).

Individually, Notre Dame has 11 different players with double-digit steals this season (four with at least 50 thefts), led by senior guard Brittany Mallory, who has collected a team-high 2.3 steals per game (sixth in the BIG EAST).

Helping Hands

Notre Dame also enters Saturday's game ranked sixth in the country in assists (18.3 apg.), having dished out at least 20 assists in 13 games this season.

Further illustrating the Fighting Irish giving spirit, Notre Dame has assisted on 61.8 percent of its baskets this season, with 512 assists on 829 field goals.

At the head of the Fighting Irish assist company is sophomore Skylar Diggins, who has adapted well to her role as Notre Dame's primary point guard, ranking fifth in the BIG EAST Conference at 4.7 assists per game, and just outside the top 15 in the league with a 1.27 assist/turnover ratio. She also has handed out at least five assists in 18 games this season, after tallying seven five-assist games during her entire freshman campaign.

Sharp Shooters

Notre Dame also ranks third in the nation with a .491 field goal percentage, shooting 50 percent or better from the floor in 16 games this season, and at least 45 percent in 23 outings.

Notre Dame also has seen a rise in its three-point shooting numbers following a slow start this season. During the past 19 games, the Fighting Irish are connecting at a 40.8 percent clip (69-of-169) from beyond the arc. Compare that with the first nine contests of the season, when Notre Dame had a .269 (29-of-108) three-point percentage.

National Leaders

Notre Dame ranks among the top 10 in the nation in seven categories according to last Friday's NCAA statistics report — third in scoring margin (+25.8) and field goal percentage (.491); fourth in steals (13.6 spg.); fifth in three-point percentage defense (.249); sixth in assists (18.3 apg.); and seventh in scoring offense (79.8 ppg.) and rebounding margin (+10.0).

In addition, Notre Dame ranks in the top 25 in the NCAA in 11 of a possible 17 categories (not counting won-loss percentage), adding in turnover margin (11th, +5.71), scoring defense (15th, 54.0 ppg.), assist/turnover ratio (20th, 1.03) and field goal percentage defense (21st, .352).

Yet for all of these high team statistical marks, no Fighting Irish individual ranks higher than No. 59 in any single category — sophomore guard Skylar Diggins is 59th in the nation in assists (4.7 apg.).

High Octane Offense

Behind one of the nation's top 10 scoring offenses (79.8 ppg., seventh as of Friday), Notre Dame is moving into uncharted territory in the school's record books.

The Fighting Irish have scored 90 points in a game in eight contests this season, setting a new school record for 90-point games in a season (the previous mark was seven on three occasions - 1996-97, 1998-99 and 2007-08).

Notre Dame also has set a new school record with nine wins by at least 35 points, more than doubling the previous program record of four 35-point wins set in 2008-09.

What's more, the Fighting Irish have won 12 games by at least 30 points, topping the school record of 10 30-point victories, which was set during the program's 2000-01 national championship season.

Last year, Notre Dame averaged 77.2 points per game, the fifth-highest single-season scoring average in school history, and best since the Fighting Irish logged a school-record 81.0 ppg. mark in 1998-99.

Glass Houses

One of Notre Dame's greatest areas of improvement this season has been in the rebounding column, where the Fighting Irish are averaging 41.6 caroms per game, up more than two rebounds from last year's total at this time (39.5 rpg.) and good enough for third in the BIG EAST.

Notre Dame also is giving up just 31.6 rebounds per game, nearly five caroms better than last year at this time (36.1 rpg.) and placing second in the conference.

With a +10.0 rpg. margin this season, the Fighting Irish rank third in the BIG EAST and seventh in the country as of Friday.

What's more, Notre Dame has outrebounded its opponent by double digits in 14 games this season, including eight games in which the Fighting Irish posted rebound margins of +15 or better, topped by a season-high +42 mark (66-24) on Jan. 2 against Southeast Missouri State at Purcell Pavilion.

Everyone Gets Into The Act

The Fighting Irish have spread the wealth so far this season, with six different players leading the team in scoring in at least one game thus far, with four different 20-point scorers along the way.

Notre Dame also has seen no fewer than eight different players claim team-high rebounding and assist honors at some point this year.

Missed It By That Much

Notre Dame may hold a 23-5 record coming into Saturday's game, but the Fighting Irish are oh-so-close to owning a much better mark, with all five losses coming to top-15 opponents by an average margin of just 8.6 points per game (three by single digits and a fourth by 11 points).

What's more, Notre Dame led inside the final 30 seconds of regulation in two of those losses, both at home (No. 15 UCLA, also at the end of the first overtime; No. 2 Connecticut), and the Fighting Irish also had a possession to tie the game in the final 30 seconds at No. 9/10 Kentucky.

The fourth loss (at No. 2/3 Baylor) saw Notre Dame battle to within six points (65-59) with five minutes remaining and have a look at a three-pointer to halve the margin further on their next possession, but the shot rattled out and the Lady Bears managed to put the game away with nine free throws (despite making only one field goal during the final 8:23).

Diggins Named Semifinalist For Nancy Lieberman Award

Sophomore guard Skylar Diggins is among a group of 11 players who have been selected as semifinalists for the 2011 Nancy Lieberman Award, given to the nation's top point guard, it was announced Feb. 19 by the award's organizer, the Rotary Club of Detroit. Diggins is the only underclass player among the 11 remaining nominees, joining eight seniors and two juniors in contention for this year's award.

Diggins is the first Notre Dame player to be chosen as a Nancy Lieberman Award semifinalist since All-American Megan Duffy in 2006, and the third since the award's inception in 2001 (when another Notre Dame All-American and current Fighting Irish assistant coach Niele Ivey was a finalist). This year's 11 nominees were selected by a panel of sportswriters from around the country, based on the criteria of floor leadership, play-making and ball-handling skills that personified Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame selection Nancy Lieberman during her career. That same sportswriter panel will choose the three finalists and this year's award recipient during the weekend of the NCAA Women's Final Four (April 3-5), with the recipient to attend an awards luncheon on April 27 at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Diggins is one of three BIG EAST Conference players among the 11 Lieberman Award semifinalists, along with Sarah Miles (West Virginia) and Sam Quigley (DePaul). The other remaining nominees are: Cetera DeGraffenreid (North Carolina), Dawn Evans (James Madison), Melissa Jones (Baylor), Jeanette Pohlen (Stanford), Samantha Prahalis (Ohio State), Danielle Robinson (Oklahoma), Jasmine Thomas (Duke) and Courtney Vandersloot (Gonzaga).

Diggins Makes Naismith Midseason List

On Feb. 14, sophomore guard Skylar Diggins earned a place on the Naismith Trophy Midseason Top 30 List, according to an announcement by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. The Naismith Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top player, compiled its midseason candidates based upon individual performance and team results during the 2010-11 season to date.

It's the second midseason national award candidate list that Diggins has made, following her place on the John R. Wooden Award chart last month, and like that rundown, she is one of only three sophomores to be tapped for the designation along with Baylor's Brittney Griener and Georgetown's Sugar Rodgers.

Novosel Is Just Plain Nasty

Nicknamed "Nasty" for her playmaking abilities, junior guard Natalie Novosel is rapidly making a strong case as one of the most improved players in the BIG EAST Conference, if not the entire country.

The Lexington, Ky., native currently leads the Fighting Irish (and ranks seventh in the league) in scoring at 15.0 points per game, tripling her offensive output from a season ago. She also has scored at least 20 points in a game five times this year (after coming into the campaign with a career single-game high of 19 points) and has scored in double figures a team-high 24 times after doing so a total of 14 times in her first two seasons combined at Notre Dame.

In addition, Novosel added some hardware to her personal trophy case as well, taking home Most Valuable Player honors at the WBCA Classic, earning a spot on the State Farm Holiday Hoops Classic All-Tournament Team and also garnering a place on the Nov. 29 BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll.

Thus, it's no surprise that ESPN.com's Gram Hays tweeted the following comment after Novosel's career-high 27 points (8-11 FG, 2-2 3FG, 9-9 FT) vs. Gonzaga in a 70-61 Fighting Irish win on Dec. 29 in Seattle:

"Is Natalie Novosel the most improved player in the nation? Gotta be on the short list."

Peters Showing Her Own Development

If Novosel is among the nation's most improved players, senior forward Devereaux Peters can't be far behind. The veteran frontliner is playing some of the best basketball of her career this season, putting a pair of knee injuries and three surgeries well in the rearview mirror.

A three-time BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll selection, Peters currently is averaging career highs of 11.4 points per game (28th in the BIG EAST) and 7.0 rebounds per game (10th), along with a .590 field goal percentage (third), 1.5 blocks per game (sixth), 1.8 steals per game (15th) and a career-high .762 free throw percentage.

Peters' numbers in BIG EAST play are even more eye-popping, as she ranks among the top five in the league in field goal percentage (second - .620), rebounding (second - 7.7 rpg.) and blocks (tied-fourth - 1.7 bpg.), while ranking 16th in scoring (12.8 ppg.). She also is tied for second in the BIG EAST with four double-doubles during conference action.

Like Novosel, Peters regularly has been pulling in accolades this season, earning a spot on the WBCA Classic All-Tournament Team and garnering MVP honors at the State Farm Holiday Hoops Classic in Seattle. During the latter tournament on Dec. 29-30, she averaged 13.0 points, 8.0 rebounds, 2.5 steals and 2.5 blocks per game with a .684 field goal percentage (13-of-19) in wins over Gonzaga and Loyola Marymount.

That tournament effort has been the cornerstone of Peters' post-Christmas surge. In the past 16 games, the Chicago native is averaging 13.0 points and 8.4 rebounds with six double-doubles and a .621 field goal percentage (90-of-145).

Peters Is Secretary Of Defense

One of the key factors in Notre Dame's defensive resurgence this season, senior forward Devereaux Peters is one of only two players in the BIG EAST to rank among the top 15 in the conference in its three major defensive categories (rebounds, blocks, steals).

Peters currently is 10th in the league in rebounding (7.0 rpg.), while ranking sixth in blocks (1.5 bpg.) and 15th in steals (1.8 spg.).

The only other player in the BIG EAST that has shown similar defensive prowess this season is Connecticut's Maya Moore.

Peters Adds Griner To SWAT Team

Senior forward Devereaux Peters has made a living as a shot blocking presence in the paint for Notre Dame throughout her career, with her 6-foot-2 frame and 77-inch wingspan. However, on Dec. 1 at No. 2/3 Baylor, she added another notch to her belt in historic fashion.

At the 10:22 mark of the second half, the Lady Bears threw an entry pass in to their 6-foot-8 sophomore All-America center Brittney Griner, but as she turned to shoot, Peters rotated perfectly from the weak side and rejected Griner's shot out of bounds. It was one of the highlights in a 17-2 Fighting Irish run that pulled Notre Dame within six points of Baylor with five minutes left.

It's believed to be the first time in Griner's two-year college career that she has had a shot blocked. A video clip of Peters' block has been posted on the Notre Dame Women's Basketball YouTube channel (search for "notredameirishhoops" or click the link through the sidebar on the women's basketball page at www.UND.com).

Bruszewski Joins 1,000-Point Club

With 12 points vs. Syracuse on Feb. 1, senior forward/co-captain Becca Bruszewski became the 27th Notre Dame women's basketball player to score 1,000 points in her career. She currently ranked 24th on the program's all-time scoring list with 1,057 points.

Bruszewski also became the fifth player from Notre Dame's 2007-08 NCAA Sweet 16 team to hit the 1,000-point mark, joining Charel Allen (1,566 from 2004-08), Ashley Barlow (1,492 from 2006-10), Lindsay Schrader (1,429 from 2005-10) and Melissa Lechlitner (1,005 from 2006-10) in that group.

Five other teams in Fighting Irish women's basketball history have featured at least five current or future 1,000-point scorers on the same roster — from 1995-96 through 1999-2000, every Notre Dame squad had five or more players who had reached or would reach the 1,000-point plateau during their careers (including a school-record six on the 1996-97 and 1997-98 squads).

Aside from head coach Muffet McGraw and current associate coach Carol Owens, the one common link between those teams was guard Danielle Green, who scored 1,106 points from 1995-2000, missing the 1996-97 Final Four season with a preseason Achilles injury and coming back for a fifth year of eligibility in 1999-2000.

Game #28 Recap: West Virginia

Natalie Novosel scored 22 points and the No. 8/7 Fighting Irish overcame 30 turnovers to beat the No. 19/18 Mountaineers 72-60 Tuesday night at WVU Coliseum in Morgantown, W.Va.

The Fighting Irish (23-5, 12-2 BIG EAST) saw their nine-game winning streak end in a 78-57 loss at No. 2 Connecticut on Feb. 19 in which they shot just 36 percent from the floor. Notre Dame bounced back against West Virginia, hitting 58 percent of its field goals to make those turnovers seem less painful.

Twenty-two of Notre Dame's 30 baskets came on layups and the nation's sixth-best offense more than handled the fifth-best scoring defense.

Devereaux Peters added 16 points, and Skylar Diggins and Becca Bruszewski each scored 10 for the Fighting Irish.

Sarah Miles scored 16 points and Madina Ali added 12 for West Virginia (21-7, 7-7). The Mountaineers trailed by double digits for most of the second half and fell for the fourth time in five games.

The Fighting Irish didn't need any help from their bench. The starters scored all but five points and Notre Dame outrebounded West Virginia, 40-31.

WVU had 16 steals but committed 23 turnovers, shot just 35 percent (24 of 68) from the floor and made only 10 of 18 free throws.

Notre Dame kept its attack-the-basket mantra going after building a 13-point halftime lead.

Ali, who's been bothered by a stress fracture in her lower leg most of the season, played just 4 minutes in the first half but answered after the break with hit a three-pointer and a layup 27 seconds apart to bring West Virginia within 53-44 with 11 minutes left.

Peters then made a layup, Brittany Mallory followed with a three-pointer and Notre Dame kept its lead in double digits the rest of the game.

Peters scored the final six points of a 13-1 run that put the Fighting Irish ahead 28-14 with 5:54 left in the half. West Virginia went 6 minutes between field goals before Miles hit the Mountaineers' final three baskets and they trailed 38-25 at halftime.

Notre Dame shot 65 percent (15 of 23) from the floor in the first half and beat West Virginia for the 18th time in 20 all-time meetings.

Noting The West Virginia Game

- Notre Dame picked up its fourth win over a ranked opponent this season, and its first road win at a Top 25 opponent since Nov. 19, 2009, when they edged No. 21 Michigan State, 68-67 in East Lansing, Mich..
- This marked the largest margin of victory for Notre Dame at a ranked opponent since Feb. 16, 2008, when it posted a 79-67 win at No. 21/23 Syracuse.
- The Fighting Irish continue to show excellent resilience, improving to 58-14 (.806) in their first game after a double-digit loss since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96, including a current run of six in a row covering the past two seasons.
- Notre Dame shot better than 65 percent in a single half (.652 in first half) for the first time since Feb. 8 (.667 in first half vs. Seton Hall at Purcell Pavilion).
- Notre Dame tied its season low with five steals (set two other times, the last on Feb. 5 at South Florida), while West Virginia had an opponent season-high 16 thefts (previous was 15 by UCLA on Nov. 18 in a double-overtime contest at Purcell Pavilion).
- How uncharacteristic was Notre Dame's 30-turnover night? It was the most by the Fighting Irish in a single game since Nov. 15, 2003, when they had a similar 30 giveaways in a 67-63 overtime loss at 20th-ranked Colorado in the title game of the WBCA Classic.
- Notre Dame improves to 18-2 all-time against West Virginia, including a 7-2 road record.
- The Fighting Irish earned their first victory at WVU Coliseum in exactly five years (70-58 on Feb. 22, 2006).
- Notre Dame's 72 points are the most the Fighting Irish have scored at WVU since Jan. 24, 2001 (87-64 win).
- Novosel posted her fifth 20-point game of the season after coming into the campaign with a career high of 19 points.
- Novosel also notched her first career 20-point game against a BIG EAST opponent, having scored 19 points in BIG EAST play on three occasions (the last on Feb. 5 at South Florida).
- Diggins tallied her team-high seventh "5-5-5" game this season, and the 15th of her career, with 10 points, seven rebounds and a game-high seven assists.

- Diggins dished out at least seven assists for the sixth time this year, and at least five assists for the 18th time this season.
- Peters turned in her best shooting performance against a BIG EAST team this year (8-of-10) and matched her third-best effort overall this season.
- Peters' three blocks give her 124 career rejections, tying her for ninth place in school history with Trena Keys (1982-86).

Polling Station

For the fourth consecutive week, Notre Dame is ranked a season-high No. 8 in the Feb. 21 Associated Press poll. That marked the 74th consecutive AP poll appearance for the Fighting Irish, extending the program record that started with the AP preseason poll in 2007-08 (the old record was 59 consecutive weeks from 1998-2001).

With its current poll position, Notre Dame now has appeared in the top 10 of the AP poll in each of the past four seasons and 11 of the past 15 seasons (1996-97 to present), as well as 100 weeks overall since the Fighting Irish earned their initial AP top-10 ranking (No. 9 on Nov. 24, 1996).

This year's No. 12 preseason ranking also represented the 11th time in the past 12 years (starting with the 1999-2000 campaign) that Notre Dame has appeared in the preseason AP poll, something only eight schools in the nation have done — Connecticut, Duke and Tennessee have shown up in all 12 during that span, while Georgia, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Stanford join the Fighting Irish with 11 preseason AP poll berths.

Notre Dame has been ranked in the AP poll for 213 weeks during the program's 34-year history, with every one of those appearances coming in the Muffet McGraw era (since 1987-88). McGraw ranks 13th among all active NCAA Division I head coaches for weeks in the AP poll, and also is 22nd all-time in that category.

In addition, the Fighting Irish rose to a season-best No. 7 in the Feb. 22 ESPN/USA Today/WBCA coaches' poll. Notre Dame has been ranked in the coaches' poll for 74 of the past 75 weeks, falling just outside the Top 25 in the final poll of the 2008-09 season. Nevertheless, the Fighting Irish have appeared in the coaches' poll for a total of 205 weeks during their history (all coming during McGraw's tenure).

This marks the third consecutive season Notre Dame has been ranked in the top 10 of the ESPN/USA Today/WBCA poll, as well as nine of the past 13 campaigns (1998-99 to present).

basketball history who have both played for and coached a team that has appeared in the Associated Press Top 25 poll.

Besides her 213 AP poll appearances while coaching at Notre Dame, McGraw was the starting point guard at Saint Joseph's (Pa.) as a senior in 1977, helping the Hawks rise to No. 3 in the nation.

Of the 30 people on this list, 16 currently are NCAA Division I head coaches (see accompanying chart on previous page), including former Fighting Irish point guard and assistant coach Coquese Washington ('92), who helped Notre Dame to its first AP poll ranking in 1990-91, and is in her fourth season as head coach at Penn State, guiding the Lady Lions into the AP poll for two weeks in mid-February.

Six of the 16 active coaches in this group — including McGraw — led their teams to this year's NCAA Championship, while McGraw and Baylor's Kim Mulkey are the only active skippers to play for and coach a team in the AP poll, and coach that team to a national title (McGraw in 2001, Mulkey in 2005).

Half And Half

During the past decade, Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable when it has the lead at half-time. The Fighting Irish are 210-17 (.925) since the start of the 2000-01 campaign when they go into the dressing room with the lead, including wins in 138 of their last 149 such contests, and 47 in a row since a 58-47 loss to Villanova on March 8, 2009, in the BIG EAST Championship quarterfinals at Hartford's XL Center (Notre Dame led 25-21 at intermission).

The Fighting Irish have been up at the break in 22 games this year, including their Feb. 22 win at West Virginia when they led 38-25 through the first 20 minutes.

The Best Offense Is A Good Defense...

During the past 16 seasons, Notre Dame has discovered that a solid defensive effort can almost certainly guarantee a victory. In fact, since the beginning of the 1995-96 season (Notre Dame's first in the BIG EAST Conference), the Fighting Irish have an amazing 226-15 (.938) record when they hold their opponents below 60 points in a game, including victories in 18 contests this season (New Hampshire, Morehead State, IUPUI, Butler, Purdue, Providence, Creighton, Valparaiso, Loyola Marymount, Southeast Missouri State, Marquette, Pittsburgh, Georgetown, St. John's, Villanova, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Rutgers).

...But Sometimes You Have To Score If You Want To Win

Not resting solely on its defensive laurels,

Notre Dame also seemingly has found the magic mark when it comes to outscoring its opponents. During the past 16 seasons (since 1995-96), the Fighting Irish are 153-5 (.968) when they score at least 80 points in a game. The only blemishes on that record are three overtime losses to Texas A&M (88-84) and Michigan State (87-83) in 1995 and UCLA (86-83 in double OT) in 2010, as well as a 106-81 loss to Connecticut in 1998, and an 81-80 loss to DePaul in 2008.

Notre Dame has topped the 80-point mark in 14 games this year (13-1 record) after going 17-0 last season when it scored at least 80 points.

Now That's A Home Court Advantage

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's success has been its stellar play at home. In fact, the Fighting Irish have been virtually untouchable at home in recent years, winning 203 of their last 230 games (.883) at the 9,149-seat Purcell Pavilion, including winning streaks of 51 and 25 games in that span. Notre Dame also has a 112-19 (.862) record in BIG EAST Conference play at the former Joyce Center, sporting a 31-game league winning streak at home before it ended with a 48-45 loss to Villanova in the '02 home finale.

The Fighting Irish have been particularly strong when it comes to non-conference games at home, winning 93 of their last 101 non-BIG EAST contests (.921) at Purcell Pavilion, dating back to the 1994-95 season. Five of the eight losses in that span came at the hands of Big Ten Conference opponents (four by 12 points or less) — Wisconsin in 1996 (81-69), Purdue in 2003 (71-54), Michigan State in 2004 (82-73 OT), Indiana in 2006 (54-51) and Minnesota in 2009 (79-71) — with the other defeats coming to Tennessee in 2005 (62-51) and 2008 (87-63), and to UCLA in 2010 (86-83 in 2OT). The Purdue loss also snapped a 33-game non-conference home winning streak which began after the UW setback.

Since its inaugural season in 1977-78, Notre Dame has played all of its games at the former Joyce Center, posting a 352-88 (.800) record at the venerable facility. Three times (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04), the Fighting Irish went a perfect 15-0 at home, which was the school record for home victories in a season prior to last year, when Notre Dame went 16-1, capped by an 84-66 triumph over Vermont on March 23, 2010, in the second round of the NCAA Championship.

Irish Are The Hottest Ticket In Town

The 2009-10 season saw an unprecedented surge in fan support for Notre Dame women's basketball, as the Fighting Irish set new program records for the highest year-end NCAA attendance ranking (fourth), highest average attendance (8,377 fans per game) and most sellouts (six) in a single season. And, as the old saying goes — "you ain't seen nothin' yet."

For the second consecutive preseason, Notre Dame fans have all but exhausted the program's season ticket packages (close to 7,500) and are snapping up single-game ducats at a rate that will have the Fighting Irish

Ruth Riley, a three-time All-America center at Notre Dame during her storied career from 1997-2001, and the 2001 consensus national player of the year, was inducted into Notre Dame's Ring of Honor on Nov. 12 during a pre-game ceremony before the Fighting Irish opened their 2010-11 season against New Hampshire at Purcell Pavilion.

A banner honoring Riley's iconic number 00 was unveiled and now permanently hangs in the rafters on the east side of Purcell Pavilion, making her the first women's basketball player added to the Ring of Honor, and the second player overall following last spring's induction of men's basketball All-America forward Luke Harangody.

Beginning in 2010-11, the Notre Dame Athletics Department plans to honor annually additional former and present men's and women's basketball and volleyball players who have made distinguished and noteworthy contributions during their career while student-athletes at the University. A committee that will consist of Fighting Irish coaches and administrators will be formed to determine future inductees, with men's basketball legend Austin Carr the next player slated to join the Ring of Honor (Feb. 26, 2011).

The only player in Notre Dame women's basketball history with 2,000 career points and 1,000 rebounds, Riley ranks as the program's all-time leader in seven categories, including rebounds (1,007), blocked shots (370 - fifth in NCAA history) and field goal percentage (.632 - 11th in NCAA history). What's more, the Macy, Ind., native ranks third in school history with 2,072 points, and holds the Fighting Irish single-game scoring record with 41 points in a January 1998 win over Providence. Riley also played a pivotal role in Notre Dame's run to the 2001 NCAA national championship, earning Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors after scoring 28 points and grabbing 13 rebounds in the title game victory over Purdue, capped by her gamewinning free throws with 5.8 seconds remaining.

A 10-year WNBA veteran (the past four with the San Antonio Silver Stars), two-time WNBA champion and 2004 Olympic gold medalist, Riley was back on campus with the other members of Notre Dame's 2001 championship team for ceremonies honoring the 10th anniversary of that milestone achievement in Fighting Irish athletics history.

challenging their freshly-minted single-season average attendance record in 2010-11.

Notre Dame has wasted little time in tackling that challenge, averaging 8,516 fans for its 16 home games this season (fifth in the country according to this week's NCAA attendance report), including sellout crowds of 9,149 for its games against games against Purdue (Dec. 5), Connecticut (Jan. 8), St. John's (Jan. 23) and Rutgers (Feb. 12).

Part of the appeal of Notre Dame women's basketball can be traced to the renovated Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center, which has yet another new feature this season with the addition of a four-sided LED video scoreboard high above center court, as well as LED auxiliary scoreboards above all four court-level entrance ramps and at the scorer's table.

McGraw Is Simply Legendary

The announcement on July 10, 2010, may have made it official, but it really only confirmed what Notre Dame fans have known for a very long time — head coach Muffet McGraw is a Hall of Famer.

McGraw, the 2001 consensus national coach of the year and winner of more than 600 games in her illustrious career, was one of six people — and the lone coach — named to the 2011 Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Class, as announced in Uncasville, Conn., during the "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Stars at the Sun Game" that was televised live nationally on ESPN from Mohegan Sun Arena.

The others in McGraw's Hall of Fame class include former Olympic gold medalists Ruthie Bolton (Auburn) and Vicky Bullett (Maryland), as well as Val Ackerman, the first WNBA president (1996-2005) and first female president of USA Basketball (2005-08), and a pair of three-time All-America players from the pre-NCAA era, Pearl Moore (Frances Marion) and Lometa Odom (Wayland Baptist).

The '11 class officially was introduced at the 2010 State Farm Tip-Off Classic on Nov. 16 at the XL Center in Hartford, Conn., before the Connecticut-Baylor game. The group will be enshrined June 10-12, 2011, during the 13th annual Induction Weekend at the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in Knoxville, Tenn.

McGraw becomes the first Notre Dame selection for the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. The Fighting Irish skipper also is the third BIG EAST Conference coach chosen for the honor, joining Rutgers' C. Vivian Stringer (2001) and Connecticut's Geno Auriemma (2006) in that elite company. First-year Seton Hall head coach Anne Donovan also was a member of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inaugural class in 1999, going in primarily for her accomplishments as a player at Old Dominion.

McGraw also will be the ninth active college head coach to enter the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame on the basis of her success on the sidelines. Besides Stringer and Auriemma, the others on this list are: Pat Summitt (1999 - Tennessee), Van Chancellor (2001 - LSU), Tara VanDerveer (2002 - Stanford), Sylvia Hatchell (2004 - North Carolina), Andy Landers (2007 - Georgia) and Debbie Ryan (2008 - Virginia).

Irish On Your Radio Dial

Beginning with the 2008-09 athletics year, the Notre Dame athletics department announced it had partnered with the LeSEA Broadcasting Network, making Pulse FM (96.9/92.1) the new radio home of Notre Dame women's basketball in the South Bend market.

LeSEA originates all Notre Dame women's basketball games, with those events carried on Pulse FM (96.9/92.1), marking a return to the FM side of the dial for the first time since the 1998-99 season. Combined, these two stations blanket the nation's No. 91 media market (South Bend-Elkhart), covering a 21-county area in northern Indiana and southwest Michigan that contains more than 1.35 million listeners (better than 800,000 in the greater South Bend area alone). All told, Notre Dame's women's basketball network stretches from Kalamazoo, Mich., to the north, North Judson, Ind., to the west, Macy, Ind., (home of former Irish All-America center Ruth Riley) to the south, and LaGrange, Ind., to the east.

Women's basketball game broadcasts also continue to be streamed live and free of charge on Notre Dame's official athletics web site (www.UND.com) through the Fighting Irish All-Access multimedia package.

Bob Nagle, the voice of Notre Dame women's basketball from 1996-97 through 1998-99 (including the program's first NCAA Final Four berth in 1997), returns for his third season in his second stint as the radio play-by-play broadcaster for the Fighting Irish.

Notre Dame On The Small Screen

Notre Dame will have at least 26 regular season games televised during the 2010-11 season. Highlighting this year's broadcast schedule are seven nationally- or regionally-televised Fighting Irish women's basketball contests, including the program's fourth-ever appearance on network television (Jan. 8 vs. Connecticut on CBS), two showings on the ESPN family of networks, and three others on CBS College Sports.

In addition, Notre Dame continues to expand its broadcast reach globally on the Internet. All Fighting Irish regular-season home games not selected for commercial TV coverage will be webcast live on the official Notre Dame athletics web site, www.UND.com, via the site's free multimedia package, Fighting Irish All-Access.

This year's TV slate continues a trend that has seen the Fighting Irish become a regular fixture on television. Beginning with the NCAA championship season of 2000-01 and continuing through the Feb. 22 West Virginia contest (televised live on College Sports), Notre Dame has played in 189 televised games, including 134 that were broadcast nationally.

Oh Captain, My Captain

Senior forward Becca Bruszewski and senior guard Brittany Mallory are serving as Notre Dame's team captains for the 2010-11 season. Both players received the captain's honor for the first time in their respective careers following a preseason vote by their teammates.

Notre Dame Sets Pace For Pink Zone

Following last year's wildly-successful fundraising efforts for the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's Pink Zone breast cancer initiative, Notre Dame reached even higher this season, as the Fighting Irish already have raised a program-record $116,405 for the initiative, easily the most by any Division I school in the country this year. That also lifts Notre Dame's combined Pink Zone fundraising total in the last three years to more than a quarter of a million dollars (approximately $260,000).

In 2009-10, the Fighting Irish collected nearly $104,000 for the global unified effort by the WBCA's membership to assist in raising breast cancer awareness on the court, across campuses, in communities and beyond.

Notre Dame's local Pink Zone drive is led by primary sponsor Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center, with donations divided between the Foundation for Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center's Women's Task Force and the Kay Yow Cancer Fund.

This year, Notre Dame brought back some of its more popular fundraising activities, including the Fighting Irish Three-Point Pledge (fans donate a certain amount for every three-pointer made by Notre Dame this season) and the Notre Dame Pink Zone Store (sales of various Pink Zone items, including t-shirts, buttons, tote bags, etc., in the Joyce Center's Heritage Hall at all Fighting Irish home games). The Notre Dame Gameday Silent Auction also was a huge hit again in 2010-11, with more than 100 items generating $13,000 in bids for this year's effort.

Some new events added for this year included the Pink Zone Treadmill Campaign (celebrities walked on a courtside treadmill during the Jan. 23, Feb. 1, 8 and 12 games) and the Notre Dame Women's Basketball SPIN-A-THON (a 24-hour event to ride stationary bikes on Jan. 22-23 at South Bend's Knollwood Country Club, which raised $30,000 for the cause).

In addition, NBC correspondent Anne Thompson (a Notre Dame alumna and breast cancer survivor) was the keynote speaker at the inaugural "Docs in Pink" luncheon at Club Naimoli in Purcell Pavilion, an event that generated more than $20,000.

For more information, or to make a donation, please visit the Notre Dame Pink Zone web page at www.UND.com/pinkzone.

Nice Threads, Coach

While Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw and assistant coach Niele Ivey are well-known for their fashion sense on the sidelines, another Fighting Irish assistant stole the spotlight at Notre Dame's Pink Zone game on Feb. 12 against Rutgers.

Associate head coach Jonathan Tsipis took the floor wearing a snappy pink blazer, courtesy of none other than former Villanova men's basketball coach and 1985 NCAA national champion Rollie Massimino.

For the past few years, Tsipis has visited Massimino's current home at NAIA Division II member Northwood University (West Palm Beach, Fla.) to observe the legendary coach's practices. Last summer, the Notre Dame coach noticed Massimino wearing a pink sportcoat in one of his school's media guides and asked where he could obtain one of his own. Massimino quickly offered to loan his jacket to Tsipis, and the rest is "Pink Zone" history.

Irish Fans Crave Another Big Mac Attack

It's year four of Notre Dame's wildly-successful "Big Mac" promotion, offering fans a coupon for a free Big Mac from South Bend-area McDonald's restaurants if the Fighting Irish score at least 88 points in a home game.

In the four-year history of the promotion (and counting exhibition games), Notre Dame has hit the 88-point mark 26 times, including wins this year over Michigan Tech (exhibition), New Hampshire, Morehead State, IUPUI, Wake Forest, Creighton and Southeast Missouri State and Seton Hall.

It should come as no surprise that in the short history of the promotion, the Notre Dame player with the most "Big Mac" baskets shares the same initials with the tasty burger — senior guard Brittany Mallory, who has sent the crowd home happy (and presumably with full bellies) five times, including four during the promotion's inaugural run in 2007-08.

And for those tracking such things (or perhaps falling under the heading of "media relations director has too much time on his hands"), 15 different players have converted the "burger ball", including eight current members of the Fighting Irish roster.

What's more, of the 26 Big Mac games to date, 13 have been reached on two-point baskets, nine on free throws, and four on three-pointers.

Next Game: DePaul

The Fighting Irish will wrap up the regular season Monday night when they travel to Chicago for a 9 p.m. (ET)/8 p.m. (CT) BIG EAST Conference matchup with No. 7/11 DePaul at McGrath-Phillips Arena. Regardless of Saturday's outcomes, Monday's game will decide the No. 2 seed for next week's BIG EAST Championship in Hartford, Conn.

The Blue Demons (25-4, 12-2) had their four-game winning streak snapped Wednesday with a 68-55 loss at Louisville. DePaul heads north to No. 24/22 Marquette on Saturday night before returning home to face Notre Dame two nights later.

2010-11 Signees

University of Notre Dame head women's basketball coach Muffet McGraw announced Nov. 11 that three of the country's top high school student-athletes have chosen to continue their academic and athletic careers with the Fighting Irish, each signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Notre Dame beginning in the fall of 2011.

Madison Cable, a 5-11 guard from Mount Lebanon, Pa. (Mount Lebanon High School), Whitney Holloway, a 5-4 guard from Plainfield, Ill. (Montini Catholic High School) and Markisha Wright, a 6-2 forward from Des Moines, Iowa (Des Moines East High School) all made their official commitments to the Fighting Irish during the early signing period.

All three student-athletes are rated among the top 60 players in the country by various national recruiting services. As a group, this trio currently is a consensus top-20 class by all major recruiting outlets (as high as No. 7 by Blue Star Basketball), giving Notre Dame a Top 25 class for the 15th consecutive year, a streak only two other schools in the country (Connecticut and Tennessee) can match.

A capsule look at the newest additions to the Notre Dame women's basketball program follows:

New Hampshire 12 36 — 48
Notre Dame 53 46 — 99

FG Pct: New Hampshire 51.4, Notre Dame 51.4. 3-PT FG Pct: New Hampshire 27.3, Notre Dame 20.0. FT Pct: New Hampshire 63.6, Notre Dame 74.2. Turnovers: New Hampshire 49, Notre Dame 19. Blocked Shots: New Hampshire 3, Notre Dame 3 (Peters 2). Steals: New Hampshire 10 (Hogan, Wells 3), Notre Dame 36 (Novosel 7). Attendance: 8,614.

NOTES: Notre Dame's 36 steals shattered the old school record of 29 thefts that was set twice before — Feb. 9, 1985, against Xavier, and most recently on Jan. 31, 1991, at Saint Louis ... the Fighting Irish also broke a nearly 30-year-old school record by forcing 49 New Hampshire turnovers — the previous record of 48 was set on Jan. 11, 1980, at the Huskie Invitational in DeKalb, Ill., during Notre Dame's final season as an AIAW Division III program (the Fighting Irish moved up to Division I for the 1980-81 campaign) ... Notre Dame's 28 consecutive points in the first half were just three shy of the school record for the longest interrupted string of points, with the 31-0 record run occurring on Jan. 18, 1997, at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish allowed just 12 UNH points in the first half, the fewest given up by Notre Dame in a single period since Dec. 13, 2003, when Dayton tallied just 11 points in a 78-41 Notre Dame win at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish improve to 26-8 (.765) in season openers, stretching their current winning streak in lidifiers in 16 consecutive games (Notre Dame also is 21-3 in season openers during the 24-year tenure of head coach Muffet McGraw) ... the Fighting Irish now are 26-8 in home openers and 20-4 under McGraw ... the 51-point margin is the second-largest winning spread in a season opener in school history, topped only by a program-record 78-point margin of victory (113-35) in the 1989-90 season opener against Liberty (Nov. 24, 1989) at the UCF Rotary Classic in Orlando, Fla. ... it's the second consecutive season in which Notre Dame won a game by at least 50 points, following last year's 90-31 win over Charlotte on Dec. 20, 2009, at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame is 42-5 (.894) against first-time opponents since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96, with a 22-1 (.957) record since the start of the 2000-01 season and an active 17-game winning streak; New Hampshire was the first of seven first-time opponents on Notre Dame's schedule this season ... the Fighting Irish also now have won 20 consecutive home games against new opposition, dating back to Jan. 18, 1996 ... Notre Dame moves to 3-0 all-time against the America East Conference ... Peters' previous career-high scoring night was 15 points, and she also set a career high with 11 made field goals ... junior guard Natalie Novosel swiped a career-high seven steals.

Morehead State 7 21 — 28
Notre Dame 40 51 — 91

FG Pct: Morehead State 17.5, Notre Dame 52.4. 3-PT FG Pct: Morehead State 10.0, Notre Dame 50.0. FT Pct: Morehead State 48.0, Notre Dame 66.7. Turnovers: Morehead State 40, Notre Dame 20. Blocked Shots: Morehead State 2, Notre Dame 4. Steals: Morehead State 8 (Bozeman 4), Notre Dame 26 (Mallory, Miller 5). Attendance: 8,614.

NOTES: Notre Dame has posted back-to-back wins by at least 50 points for the first time in school history, following its 51-point victory (99-48) over New Hampshire with the win over Morehead State ... Notre Dame tied a school record (and set a new Purcell Pavilion record) for fewest points allowed in one half by holding Morehead State to seven points in the first half; the Fighting Irish also limited Maryland to seven points in the opening 20 minutes of a 49-40 win on Jan. 9, 1985, in College Park, Md. ... Notre Dame gave up just 28 points to MSU, the third-fewest points ever allowed by the Fighting Irish in a single game — the only lower opponent point totals came on Jan. 31, 1978 (68-25 win over Grace at Purcell Pavilion) and Jan. 21, 1982 (an 84-27 win at Valparaiso) ... Notre Dame's 63-point margin of victory equals the second-largest winning spread in school history, topped only by a 78-point win (113-35) over Liberty on Nov. 24, 1989, at the UCF Rotary Classic in Orlando, Fla. (also the last time the Fighting Irish won a game by at least 63 points) ... the margin of victory also tied the Purcell Pavilion record set twice before — Dec. 8, 1981, a 92-29 win over Saint Mary's (Ind.), and most recently on Feb. 28, 1985, with a 99-36 victory over Butler ... the Fighting Irish have forced at least 40 turnovers in each of their first two games (school-record 49 vs. New Hampshire, 40 vs. Morehead State), the first time in school history they have registered consecutive 40-takeaway games ... Notre Dame nabbed 26 steals against Morehead State, the fifth-highest single-game steal total in school history ... Morehead State's .175 field goal percentage (7-for-40) was the lowest by a Fighting Irish opponent since Butler shot an opponent record-low .149 (9-for-61) on Jan. 30, 1984, at historic Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis ... Morehead State's two first-half field goals were one off the Notre Dame opponent record for fewest baskets made in one half, trailing Dayton's 1-for-20 effort in the opening 20 minutes on Dec. 13, 2003, at Purcell Pavilion ... Morehead State was credited with just two assists, the fewest helpers for a Fighting Irish opponent since Jan. 14, 1993, when Detroit Mercy also had two assists in an 80-55 Notre Dame win at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame is 43-5 (.896) against first-time opponents since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96, including a 23-1 (.958) mark against new teams since the start of 2000-01, with a current 18-game winning streak and 21-game home winning streak against first-time opponents ... Notre Dame improves to 63-11 (.851) in the month of November since joining the BIG EAST 16 seasons ago; the Fighting Irish also have an active 16-game November winning streak.

NOTES: This was the fourth double-overtime game in Notre Dame women's basketball history and the first since Nov. 30, 1997, when the Fighting Irish defeated UCLA, 93-91 at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles ... it also was just the second double-OT women's basketball game in Purcell Pavilion history — Nebraska defeated Notre Dame, 89-88 in two extra periods on Feb. 25, 1982 ... the Fighting Irish were playing their first overtime game at home (of any length) since Nov. 13, 2006, when they defeated Bowling Green, 85-81 in one OT ... this marked the eighth consecutive season in which Notre Dame has played at least one overtime game ... the Fighting Irish fall to 4-9 all-time against UCLA, with the series in South Bend now knotted at 3-3 ... the loss snaps a 16-game Fighting Irish winning streak in the month of November, a run that started on Nov. 20, 2007, with a 94-41 win at Central Michigan ... Notre Dame is 63-12 (.840) in November games since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96 ... the Fighting Irish fall to 18-17 (.514) against Pac-10 Conference teams, with the Bruins being the first Pac-10 team to defeat Notre Dame since USC earned a 69-58 win on Nov. 24, 2006, at the Galen Center in Los Angeles ... the Fighting Irish also tumble to 9-4 (.692) against the Pac-10 at Purcell Pavilion, ending their seven-game winning streak against that conference; UCLA is the first Pac-10 team to defeat Notre Dame at Purcell Pavilion since Nov. 24, 1991, when No. 5/7 Stanford defeated the Fighting Irish, 88-76 ... it was just the eighth in Notre Dame's last 95 non-conference home games, and the first since March 22, 2009, when Minnesota upset the Fighting Irish, 79-71 in the first round of the NCAA Championship; it's the first regular-season non-conference home loss for Notre Dame since Jan. 5, 2008, when third-ranked Tennessee earned an 87-63 win ... the Fighting Irish had their 19-game regular-season non-conference winning streak snapped ... it was just the fifth time in 147 games (since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96) that Notre Dame lost when scoring at least 80 points; most recently, an 81-80 loss to DePaul on Jan. 22, 2008, also at Purcell Pavilion ... Natalie Novosel tied her career high with 19 points ... Skylar Diggins posted her eighth career 20-point game ... Diggins' 47 minutes played were the most by a Fighting Irish player in a single game since Nov. 30, 1997, when Mollie Peirick also played 47 minutes in the double-OT win at UCLA ... Becca Bruszewski collected her third career double-double, and first since Nov. 15, 2009, when she nabbed 19 points and 10 rebounds in a season-opening win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff at Purcell Pavilion ... Bruszewski's 13 rebounds also were a career high, as was her 44 minutes played.

FG Pct: Notre Dame 42.1, Kentucky 39.4. 3-PT FG Pct: Notre Dame 13.3, Kentucky 29.6. FT Pct: Notre Dame 62.5, Kentucky 65.6. Turnovers: Notre Dame 17, Kentucky 12. Blocked Shots: Notre Dame 5 (Novosel 2), Kentucky 4 (Dunlap 3). Steals: Notre Dame 5 (Achonwa, Turner 2), Kentucky 5 (Dunlap 2). Attendance: 6,794.

NOTES: Notre Dame was facing back-to-back opponents ranked in the top 15 of the Associated Press poll during the regular season for the first time since the 2004 Preseason WNIT, when the Fighting Irish defeated #6 Duke (76-65 on Nov. 17) and #10/9 Ohio State (66-62 on Nov. 20) ... Notre Dame sees its 18-game winning streak against first-time opponents snapped, falling to a new foe for the first time since Nov. 21, 2001, when Colorado State shaded the Fighting Irish, 72-66, in Fort Collins, Colo. ... Notre Dame is 23-2 against first-time opponents since the start of the 2000-01 season and 43-6 against new teams since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96 ... Kentucky was the third of seven first-time opponents on this year's Fighting Irish schedule, and third in four games following home wins over New Hampshire (99-48) and Morehead State (91-28) during the opening weekend of the season ... Notre Dame basketball teams fall to 0-5 all-time at Memorial Coliseum, with this being the first time a Fighting Irish hoops squad played in the historic venue since 1961, when the UK men's team defeated its Notre Dame counterpart, 100-53 ... Notre Dame also had its four-game winning streak against Southeastern Conference opponents come to an end, falling to an SEC school for the first time since March 30, 2008, when Tennessee rallied past the Fighting Irish, 74-64 in the NCAA Oklahoma City Regional semifinals at the Ford Center in Oklahoma City, Okla. ... for the second time this season, Notre Dame posted a rebound margin of +16 or better, having notched a season-high +18 margin on the backboards (47-29) against Morehead State on Nov. 15 at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame grabbed a season-high 51 rebounds, its best total on the glass since Dec. 31, 2009, when the Fighting Irish nabbed 56 caroms in a 74-69 win over #18/16 Vanderbilt, also at Purcell Pavilion ... in her homecoming game, Lexington, Ky., native (and junior guard) Natalie Novosel scored a career-high 21 points, two more than her previous best set twice before (most recently three days earlier in the double-overtime loss to #15 UCLA at Purcell Pavilion) ... Novosel also tied her career high with eight rebounds, having reached that mark twice before (most recently on Dec. 2, 2009, against Eastern Michigan), and she set new personal bests with eight field goals (previous: seven, three times, including vs. UCLA), 24 attempts (previous was 12 against UCLA), seven three-point attempts (previous was four against UCLA), and two blocks (previous: one on 10 occasions, the last against Oklahoma on March 28, 2010 in the NCAA regional semifinals) ... freshman forward Natalie Achonwa grabbed a season-high 13 rebounds, also tying senior forward Becca Bruszewski for the most boards by a Fighting Irish player this season (Bruszewski had a baker's dozen against UCLA).

Summary table for Game 6: Wake Forest 28 41 - 69, Notre Dame 45 47 - 92

FG Pct: Wake Forest 37.7, Notre Dame 50.0. 3-PT FG Pct: Wake Forest 26.7, Notre Dame 23.1. FT Pct: Wake Forest 79.2, Notre Dame 86.0. Turnovers: Wake Forest 25, Notre Dame 24. Blocked Shots: Wake Forest 2, Notre Dame 5 (Solomon 2). Steals: Wake Forest 10 (Thomas 3), Notre Dame 16 (Novosel 4). Attendance: 8,294.

NOTES: Notre Dame has won 23 of its last 26 regular-season tournament games, dating back to the start of the 1996-97 season ... the Fighting Irish set a school record by making 37 free throws, topping the old mark of 33 converted foul shots, set on three different occasions (the last on Feb. 4, 2007, in a win over West Virginia at Purcell Pavilion) ... Notre Dame's 43 free throw attempts tied for the fourth-most in school history, and most since Jan. 15, 2001, when the Fighting Irish went to the stripe a school record-tying 46 times against Connecticut in a 92-76 win at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame also shot at least 50 percent for the field for the fourth time in six games this season ... Wake Forest was the fourth of seven first-time opponents on Notre Dame's schedule this season, with the Fighting Irish improving to 44-6 (.880) against new foes since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96, and 24-2 (.923) against first-time opponents since the start of the 2000-01 season ... Notre Dame rises to 13-2 (.867) all-time against teams from the state of North Carolina, including a 5-0 record at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish lift their all-time record against current Atlantic Coast Conference teams to 41-17 (.707), including a 36-11 (.766) record in the 24-year Muffet McGraw era (1987-88 to present) and a 20-1 (.952) all-time record against the ACC at Purcell Pavilion ... Wake Forest was the 10th different ACC opponent Notre Dame has faced, with the Fighting Irish now having played every school in that conference except Clemson and Florida State ... for the third time this season, junior guard Natalie Novosel tied or set a career high for scoring, with her 23 points being two more than her previous high set six days earlier at No. 9/10 Kentucky ... Novosel also set new personal bests by going 11-for-12 at the free throw line; entering the contest, she had never made more than six free throws or attempted more than eight in a game (both marks she most recently hit for the third time in her career on Nov. 15 against Morehead State) ... junior forward Erica Solomon finished one point shy of her career scoring high, which she set on Nov. 23, 2008, at Boston College.

FG Pct: Butler 30.5, Notre Dame 50.8. 3-PT FG Pct: Butler 25.0, Notre Dame 23.1. FT Pct: Butler 85.7, Notre Dame 75.9. Turnovers: Butler 19, Notre Dame 15. Blocked Shots: Butler 1, Notre Dame 6 (Diggins 2). Steals: Butler 11 (Bowen 3), Notre Dame 8 (Novosel, McBride 2). Attendance: 8,279.

NOTES: Notre Dame wins the WBCA Classic, the 14th regular season tournament title in program history, and the second in as many seasons following last Thanksgiving's three-game run to the Paradise Jam Island Division championship in the U.S. Virgin Islands ... the Fighting Irish now have won 24 of their last 27 regular season tournament games since the start of the 1996-97 season, with the only three losses coming in the Preseason WNIT semifinals (1996 - 72-59 vs. #3/2 Tennessee in Ruston, La.; 2007 - 75-59 at #3 Maryland) and the title game of the 2003 WBCA Classic (67-63 in overtime at #20 Colorado) ... since the Maryland loss, Notre Dame has won six consecutive regular season tournament games ... the Fighting Irish were playing Butler for the first time since Dec. 1, 1999, although it was the 26th all-time meeting between the in-state rivals, who played regularly as members of the now-defunct North Star Conference and Midwestern Collegiate Conference (now known as the Horizon League); it's the second-most games played against a current non-conference opponent behind the 28-game series with Dayton ... Notre Dame improves to 20-6 all-time against Butler and extends its current series winning streak against the Bulldogs to six consecutive games ... Butler becomes the ninth Fighting Irish opponent that Notre Dame has defeated at least 20 times in series history, joining Marquette (29), Georgetown (23), Syracuse (23), Valparaiso (23), Dayton (22), Detroit (22), Loyola-Chicago (21) and Xavier (20) on that list ... the 31-point margin also was the largest in the Notre Dame-Butler series since Feb. 12, 1991, when Notre Dame downed Butler, 94-62 at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish rise to 119-32 (.788) all-time against other Indiana schools, including an active 14-game winning streak ... Notre Dame also moves to 59-11 (.843) all-time against in-state opponents at Purcell Pavilion ... junior guard Natalie Novosel earned the second regular season tournament MVP by a Fighting Irish player in as many seasons, following Skylar Diggins' selection as the Paradise Jam Island Division MVP last year ... Novosel's all-tournament team selection was the first of her career; she was joined on the squad by teammates Devereaux Peters and Erica Solomon (also the first all-tournament selections of their careers).

NOTES: Notre Dame was playing its third top-15 team in the past 13 days, with those three opponents (#15 UCLA, #9/10 Kentucky and #2/3 Baylor) accounting for the three Fighting Irish losses this season, all by 11 points or fewer, two on the road (UK and BU) and the UCLA defeat coming by three points in double overtime ... in all three losses, Notre Dame either led or was within six points of the lead with less than five minutes remaining ... Baylor was the fifth of seven first-time opponents on Notre Dame's schedule this year, with the Fighting Irish tumbling to 3-2 against those new foes ... Notre Dame also drops to 44-7 (.863) against first-time opponents since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96, with a 24-3 (.889) record since the start of the 2000-01 season ... the Fighting Irish are 7-7 all-time against Texas schools (4-7 away from South Bend), with this being the first game for Notre Dame in the Lone Star State since Dec. 28, 2001 (a 72-61 loss at Rice) ... the Fighting Irish are 8-11 (.421) all-time against the current Big 12 Conference alignment; this marked the first time Notre Dame played a Big 12 school outside of a tournament setting (regular season or postseason) in 10 meetings since the conference was founded in 1996-97 ... this was the first time all season Notre Dame did not have at least four players score in double figures (although two players finished with eight points in addition to the two double-digit scorers) ... the Fighting Irish were outrebounded for just the second time all season (UCLA finished with a 46-43 edge on the glass on Nov. 18 in its double-OT matchup at Notre Dame) ... sophomore guard Skylar Diggins tied her career high with four three-pointers, a total she reached twice before (most recently on Jan. 30, 2010, at Syracuse) ... Diggins' four treys were part of a season-high six three-pointers made by the Fighting Irish ... Diggins also dished out at least five assists for the fifth time in eight games this season.

NOTES: This was the 1,000th game in Notre Dame women's basketball history, with the Fighting Irish owning a 695-305 (.695) record in 34 seasons of intercollegiate competition ... Notre Dame extends its series-long win streak over Purdue to five games, one shy of the longest success string by either side in the 24-game series that dates back to 1984 ... the Fighting Irish post their largest win ever against the Boilermakers, surpassing a 17-point victory (86-69) on Jan. 16, 2005, at Purcell Pavilion ... in four of the past five series meetings, Notre Dame has held Purdue to fewer than 60 points after not managing that feat once in the first 19 games of the series ... the Fighting Irish improve to 41-48 (.461) all-time against Big Ten Conference opponents, with a 24-17 (.585) record at Purcell Pavilion; Notre Dame also is 34-34 all-time against the Big Ten (19-12 at home) in the 24-year Muffet McGraw era, and has won 14 of its last 20 games against Big Ten schools ... the Fighting Irish jump to 120-32 (.789) all-time against other in-state opponents, with a 60-11 (.845) record at home; Notre Dame also has won 15 consecutive games against other Indiana schools, including all three this season (IUPUI, Butler, Purdue) ... the Fighting Irish have shot 50 percent or better from the floor in all six of their wins this season ... Notre Dame has outrebounded its opponents in seven of nine games this season, with the two exceptions (UCLA and Baylor) featuring rebound margins of five caroms or fewer ... McGraw celebrated her birthday on Sunday, with Notre Dame rising to 5-1 all-time when playing on the head coach's birthday ... freshman forward Natalie Achonwa scored a season-high 12 points ... sophomore guard Skylar Diggins chalked up at least five assists for the sixth time in nine games this season, including her third consecutive outing and fourth in five games ... for the first time this season, Notre Dame wore its alternate home uniform (white with green trim).

Summary table for Game 10: Notre Dame 35 44 - 79, Providence 27 16 - 43

FG Pct: Notre Dame 50.0, Providence 30.6. 3-PT FG Pct: Notre Dame 40.0, Providence 12.5. FT Pct: Notre Dame 65.4, Providence 80.0. Turnovers: Notre Dame 10, Providence 28. Blocked Shots: Notre Dame 6 (Peters, Solomon 2), Providence 5 (Okafor 3). Steals: Notre Dame 16 (Solomon 5), Providence 3. Attendance: 179.

NOTES: Notre Dame now has won 10 of its last 12 BIG EAST Conference openers and is 12-4 (.750) in league lidlifters since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96 ... this was the eighth time in 10 seasons that the Fighting Irish tipped off conference play on the road, with Notre Dame posting a 6-3 (.667) record in BIG EAST openers away from home since joining the conference 16 seasons ago ... this marked the earliest BIG EAST opener for Notre Dame since Dec. 6, 2000, when the Fighting Irish defeated Villanova, 64-33 at Purcell Pavilion ... the 36-point margin of victory was Notre Dame's largest in a conference opener during both its BIG EAST membership and the Muffet McGraw era (1987-88 to present); in fact, the last time the Fighting Irish won a league opener by more than the margin at PC was Dec. 13, 1985, when Notre Dame earned a 90-46 win at Marquette to tip off that year's play in the now-defunct North Star Conference (almost exactly 25 years ago and two seasons before McGraw took the head coaching reins at Notre Dame) ... the win also was the largest for the Fighting Irish on the road since Nov. 23, 2008, when Notre Dame won 102-54 at Boston College ... the Fighting Irish improve to 19-0 all-time against Providence, winning by double digits for the 16th time in the series ... the 36-point spread was the largest for Notre Dame over the Friars since Jan. 30, 1999 (a 97-59 win at Providence) ... the 43 points allowed were the second-fewest by the Fighting Irish defense in the 19-game series, topped only on Jan. 19, 2002, with a 69-41 Notre Dame win at Alumni Hall ... junior forward Erica Solomon recorded her second career double-double, with both coming in the past six games (12 points, 12 rebounds vs. IUPUI) ... Solomon also notched a career-high five steals (previous high was three on three occasions, the last on Nov. 27 against Wake Forest at Purcell Pavilion) and tied her personal best with three assists (last achieved on Nov. 15 against Morehead State at Purcell Pavilion) ... three days after scoring a season (and career) high 12 points against Purdue, freshman forward Natalie Achonwa did one better at Providence with a team-high 13 points in just nine minutes; Achonwa is the second Fighting Irish player this season to register a "point-a-minute" performance (min. 10 points scored), after Devereaux Peters had a career-high 23 points in 16 minutes against New Hampshire on Nov. 12 in the season opener at Purcell Pavilion ... speaking of Peters, the senior forward tied her career high with four assists, a mark she first set in the Nov. 18 home game against UCLA.

GAME 11 #18 Notre Dame 91, Creighton 54 December 11, 2010 Purcell Pavilion (Notre Dame, Ind.)

Summary table for Game 11: Creighton 26 28 - 54, Notre Dame 42 49 - 91

FG Pct: Creighton 33.3, Notre Dame 63.3. 3-PT FG Pct: Creighton 26.9, Notre Dame 75.0. FT Pct: Creighton 42.9, Notre Dame 85.7. Turnovers: Creighton 17, Notre Dame 10. Blocked Shots: Creighton 1, Notre Dame 8 (Peters, Braker 2). Steals: Creighton 4 (Tritz 2), Notre Dame 11 (Miller 3). Attendance: 8,848.

NOTES: Notre Dame posts its school-record fifth win of the season by 35-plus points, topping the previous standard of four set in 2008-09 ... the Fighting Irish also have six 30-point victories, more than halfway to the program record of 10 set in 2000-01 ... Notre Dame eclipsed the 90-point mark for the fifth time this year, closing in on the school record of seven 90-point games set three times before (1996-97, 1998-99 and 2007-08) ... the Fighting Irish shot a season-high 63.3 percent (38-of-60) from the floor, their best field goal percentage in a single game since Nov. 23, 2008, when they connected at a .646 clip (42-of-65) in a 102-54 win at Boston College ... Notre Dame's .655 second-half field goal percentage (19-of-29) was its best in a single half since Jan. 10, 2009, when it shot .667 (18-of-27) from the floor in the second half of an 84-63 win over Georgetown at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish shot better than 60 percent from the field in both halves of a game for the first time since Feb. 13, 2008 (62.1 and 66.7) in a 99-76 win over Marquette at Purcell Pavilion ... for the second consecutive game, Notre Dame was charged with just 10 turnovers ... the Fighting Irish were facing Creighton for the first time in 28 years, 11 months and two days (Jan. 9, 1982 - 69-48 Notre Dame win at St. Paul, Minn.), the longest hiatus between series games in the 34-year history of Notre Dame women's basketball ... the Fighting Irish earn their eighth consecutive win against the current Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) alignment and improve to 26-2 (.929) all-time against the Valley, including a 13-1 (.929) record at home, where they also have now won 12 in a row against that league ... Notre Dame rises to 17-1 (.944) against the MVC during the 24-year McGraw era (1987-88 to present), including a 10-0 record at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish had four players score in double figures for the eighth time this season (6-2 record) ... for the third consecutive game, Natalie Achonwa posted a career-high scoring total, finishing with 14 points (7-8 FG) which also matched the most points scored by a Notre Dame reserve this season ... Becca Bruszewski dropped in a season-high 17 points ... Brittany Mallory tied her career high with seven assists (also vs. Charlotte on Dec. 20, 2009 at Purcell Pavilion) ... Devereaux Peters dished out a career-high six assists, after having four assists in a game on four separate occasions (most recently on Dec. 8 at Providence) ... Kaila Turner tied her career best with five assists, having hit that mark in two prior outings (most recently on Nov. 26 against IUPUI at Purcell Pavilion) ... several hundred stuffed animals were collected at halftime during Notre Dame's annual "Teddy Bear Toss," with all collections going to area charities including Riley Children's Hospital.

NOTES: Notre Dame posts its fourth 50-point win this season, and sixth by at least 35 points (both school records) ... the 51-point margin tied for the third-largest road win in school history, and largest since Nov. 20, 2007 (94-41 at Central Michigan) ... the Fighting Irish also top the 90-point mark for the sixth time this year, one shy of the school record set three times (1996-97, 1998-99 and 2007-08) ... Notre Dame earns its 23rd consecutive win when coming out of its December final exam break, a run that started following a 73-67 home loss to UCLA on Dec. 21, 1985 ... Notre Dame earns its 15th consecutive win heading into the Christmas holiday break and rises to 25-9 (.735) all-time in pre-Yuletide contests ... the Fighting Irish register their 36th consecutive victory against a current Horizon League member; Notre Dame is 107-14 (.884) all-time against current Horizon League teams, including a 45-9 (.833) mark on the road ... the Fighting Irish have won 16 consecutive games against other Indiana schools, improving to 121-32 (.791) all-time against in-state opponents, with a 61-21 (.744) record outside of South Bend ... the Fighting Irish move to 24-0 all-time against Valparaiso, with an 11-0 series record on the road ... the 51-point margin is the second-largest in Notre Dame's 24-game series with Valparaiso, topped only by an 84-27 Fighting Irish win over the Crusaders on Jan. 21, 1982, in Valparaiso ... Notre Dame has held Valparaiso to fewer than 60 points in 22 of 24 series games ... the Fighting Irish recorded at least 20 steals for the fourth time this season, notching at least 24 steals for the third time ... the Fighting Irish shot at least 50 percent from the field for the fourth consecutive game and seventh time in the past eight outings ... Notre Dame posted a season-high +21 rebound margin, its largest advantage on the glass since Jan. 6, 2009, at DePaul (50-29, +21) ... the Fighting Irish dished out at least 20 assists for the eighth time this year ... Brittany Mallory scored a season-high 12 points and matched her season best with five steals ... Fraderica Miller scored a season-high eight points and tied her career high with five steals ... for the second consecutive game, a Notre Dame player came close to a perfect shooting night - Natalie Novosel had a game-high 18 points (6-7 FG, 6-6 FT) after Natalie Achonwa scored a career-best 14 points (7-8 FG) in the Dec. 11 win over Creighton at Purcell Pavilion ... Devereaux Peters recorded a season-high four blocked shots ... Skylar Diggins handed out a game-high five assists, the seventh time this season she has had 5+ assists in a game.

Gonzaga 35 26 — 61
 Notre Dame 33 37 — 70

FG Pct: Gonzaga 36.6, Notre Dame 49.1. 3-PT FG Pct: Gonzaga 11.8, Notre Dame 60.0. FT Pct: Gonzaga 63.6, Notre Dame 58.8. Turnovers: Gonzaga 18, Notre Dame 26. Blocked Shots: Gonzaga 3 (Standish 2), Notre Dame 3 (Peters 3). Steals: Gonzaga 9 (Standish, Bowen, Vandersloot 2), Notre Dame 10 (Novosel, Mallory 3). Technical Foul: Peters (ND). Attendance: 1,352.

NOTES: Notre Dame has won 25 of its last 28 regular-season tournament games (dating back to the start of the 1996-97 season), including a current streak of seven in a row ... the Fighting Irish improve to 4-2 this season against first-time opponents, 25-3 (.893) against new foes since the start of the 2000-01 season, and 45-7 (.865) against first-time opponents since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96 ... Notre Dame rises to 4-1 all-time against schools from Washington state (2-1 vs. Washington, 1-0 vs. Gonzaga, 1-0 vs. Pacific Lutheran) ... the Fighting Irish are 6-1 (.857) all-time against current West Coast Conference teams, with this being the first for Notre Dame against a WCC opponent since March 17, 2000 (an 87-61 win over San Diego in the first round of the NCAA Championship at Purcell Pavilion) ... this was Notre Dame's first win in six all-time games in Seattle, and just its second in seven career games in the state of Washington (the Fighting Irish defeated Pacific Lutheran, 57-48, in Tacoma on March 12, 1980, in the AIAW Division III Tournament) ... Notre Dame has won eight in a row and is 23-11 (.676) all-time when playing its first game after the Christmas holiday, including an 11-5 (.688) mark away from South Bend and a 17-7 (.708) record in the 24-year McGraw era ... Notre Dame won for the first time this season (in three tries) when trailing at halftime ... for the first time this season, the Fighting Irish won when shooting less than 50 percent from the floor (albeit barely, as they connected as a .491 clip against Gonzaga) ... Notre Dame's .600 three-point percentage was its second-best of the season (.750, 3-4 vs. Creighton Dec. 11) ... the Fighting Irish committed 26 turnovers, their second-highest total of the season (27 vs. UCLA on Nov. 18) ... Notre Dame had two players register double-doubles in the same game for the first time since March 23, 2008, when Ashley Barlow (20 pts/12 rebs) and Charel Allen (14 pts/11 rebs) turned the trick against SMU in the first round of the NCAA Championship at West Lafayette, Ind. ... Natalie Novosel scored a career-high 27 points, four more than her previous high set on Nov. 27, 2010, against Wake Forest at Purcell Pavilion ... Novosel's 27 points are the most by a Notre Dame player since Skylar Diggins' 31-point effort against Vermont in the second round of last year's NCAA Championship (March 23, 2010) at Purcell Pavilion ... Novosel's 9-for-9 free throw shooting performance against Gonzaga was the best by a Notre Dame player since March 25, 2008, when Allen went 12-for-12 from the charity stripe against Oklahoma in the second round of the NCAA Championship at West Lafayette, Ind. ... Diggins posted her second career double-double and grabbed a career-high 11 rebounds, after her previous double-double (vs. Pittsburgh, Feb. 6, 2010 at Purcell Pavilion) featured her former personal high with 10 rebounds ... Devereaux Peters also chalked up the second double-double of her career, and first since Jan. 27, 2008, when she tallied 10 points and 12 rebounds against Connecticut at Purcell Pavilion.

NOTES: Notre Dame is the 32nd NCAA Division I school to earn its 700th all-time women's basketball victory — the Fighting Irish now are 700-305 (.697) in 34 seasons of varsity competition ... Notre Dame has won 26 of its last 29 regular-season tournament games, including eight in a row (and all five this season) ... although the State Farm Holiday Hoops Classic didn't officially declare a tournament champion (the matchups were pre-determined because Gonzaga and Loyola Marymount could not play each other as members of the West Coast Conference since they will meet later on in league play), the game with LMU was a de-facto title clash ... Devereaux Peters was voted as the tournament Most Valuable Player, while Natalie Novosel made the all-tournament team ... the Fighting Irish registered their seventh win this season by 35 points or more, extending their school record in that category ... this also was the eighth 30-point triumph this year, two shy of the school record in that department (set in 2000-01) ... the Fighting Irish topped the 90-point mark for the seventh time this season, tying the school record set on three other occasions (1996-97, 1998-99 and 2007-08) ... Notre Dame came into this week's tournament having never won in the city of Seattle (and just once in six previous games in the state of Washington), but leaves the Emerald City with two victories ... the Fighting Irish also improve to 7-1 (.875) all-time against WCC schools ... Notre Dame is 2-0 all-time against Loyola Marymount, having also won 78-40 back on Jan. 3, 1987, in Los Angeles ... the LMU series was the last of four non-conference rivalries that Notre Dame renewed this year following a hiatus of a decade or longer — the others were UCLA (12 years), Butler (11 years) and Creighton (29 years) ... the Fighting Irish move to 23-15 (.605) all-time against California schools, including a 21-7 (.750) record in the 24-year Muffet McGraw era ... Notre Dame rises to 20-14 (.588) all-time in its final game before the start of the new year (12-11, .522 away from South Bend), with a 17-7 (.708) record in the McGraw era and its current "end-of-December" winning streak stretching to four games ... the Fighting Irish shot .578 from the floor, their second-best field goal percentage of the season ... for the second consecutive game, a Notre Dame player posted a new career scoring high, as Kayla McBride scored a career-high 20 points and also tied her career high with six rebounds ... Kaila Turner dished out a career-high six assists ... Becca Bruszewski's 6-for-6 effort was a career best but one short of the minimum number of made shots for inclusion in the school's record books.

NOTES: Notre Dame set six school records in the victory — fewest points allowed in a game, fewest points allowed in a half, lowest opponent field goal percentage, largest rebound margin, most consecutive points scored (at any time) and most consecutive points scored at the start of the game ... the Fighting Irish opened on a 36-0 run covering the first 14:39 of the game, during which time Southeast Missouri State missed all 18 of its shots and had 12 turnovers ... Notre Dame also posted the second-largest margin of victory in school history (76 points), topped only by a 78-point margin in a 113-35 win over Liberty on Nov. 24, 1989, at the UCF Rotary Classic in Orlando ... the Fighting Irish pulled down 66 rebounds, the fifth-highest total in school history and most since Nov. 21, 1998, when they had 67 boards against Duke in an 84-57 home win ... this was Notre Dame's eighth 90-point game of the season, erasing the old school record of seven that was set three times (1996-97, 1998-99 and 2007-08) ... the Fighting Irish registered their ninth 30-point win of the year, one shy of the school record set in 2000-01 ... Southeast Missouri State was the seventh different first-time opponent for Notre Dame this season; the Fighting Irish are 5-2 against new foes this season, as well as 26-3 (.897) since the start of the 2000-01 season and 46-7 (.868) joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96 ... Notre Dame also now has won 23 consecutive home games against first-time opponents, dating back to Jan. 18, 1996 ... the Fighting Irish are 10-1 all-time against schools from the state of Missouri and 3-0 all-time against current members of the Ohio Valley Conference ... Notre Dame is 14-2 (.875) in its first game of a new calendar year, having now won five in a row and seven of their last eight January openers ... Devereaux Peters recorded her third career double-double and second this season (both in the past three games) ... Fraderica Miller pulled down a career-high 10 rebounds.

FG Pct: Connecticut 42.1, Notre Dame 36.0. 3-PT FG Pct: Connecticut 29.4, Notre Dame 18.2. FT Pct: Connecticut 96.3, Notre Dame 80.0. Turnovers: Connecticut 20, Notre Dame 14. Blocked Shots: Connecticut 4 (Moore, Dolson 2), Notre Dame 7 (Peters 4). Steals: Connecticut 8 (Hartley 4), Notre Dame 7 (Diggins, Mallory 2). Attendance: 9,149 (sellout).

NOTES: The 76 points scored by Notre Dame were the most by any team against Connecticut in more than two years - Nov. 30, 2008, when the Huskies defeated fourth-ranked Oklahoma, 106-78 at Gampel Pavilion in Storrs, Conn. ... while Connecticut won its 10th consecutive game in the series, this was the closest margin between Notre Dame and UConn since March 6, 2001, when the Huskies won the BIG EAST title with a 78-76 championship game win at Gampel Pavilion (on Sue Bird's jumper at the horn) ... the 76 points were the most Notre Dame has scored against Connecticut since March 30, 2001, when the Fighting Irish avenged their BIG EAST title game loss with a 90-75 win over the Huskies in the NCAA Women's Final Four in St. Louis ... this was Notre Dame's closest game against a top-five opponent since Jan. 13, 2004, when the Fighting Irish defeated fourth-ranked Connecticut, 66-51 at Purcell Pavilion ... the 41-41 halftime tie marked the first time Notre Dame was tied or leading Connecticut at the break since Jan. 30, 2005, when the Fighting Irish were up 34-24 on the way to earning their most recent win over Connecticut (65-59 at Gampel Pavilion) ... Notre Dame shot a season-low .360 from the floor, just the third time all season the Fighting Irish have connected on less than 45 percent of their shots (first since a then-season low .387 at #2/3 Baylor on Dec. 1) ... Notre Dame's 23 offensive rebounds were third-best this season, exceeded only by 25 at #9/10 Kentucky (Nov. 21) and 24 against Southeast Missouri State (Jan. 2) ... Connecticut had not given up more than 20 offensive rebounds in a game this season ... Connecticut set a Purcell Pavilion opponent record by shooting .962 (26-of-27) from the foul line, topping the old mark of .952 (20-of-21) set by West Virginia on Jan. 14, 1998 (record requires minimum of 10 attempts to qualify) ... Connecticut's Kelly Faris is the third opposing player in Purcell Pavilion history to go at least 10-for-10 from the charity stripe and the first since Jan. 27, 2009, when Rutgers' Epiphany Prince made 12-of-12 free throws ... Notre Dame has scored at least 30 points in the paint in every game this season and has outscored or tied its opponent in the paint in all but one game this year (30-46 at #2/3 Baylor on Dec. 1) ... the 38 points in the paint also were the most allowed by Connecticut this season ... Connecticut's Maya Moore is the first Notre Dame opposing player to score 30 points in a game since March 21, 2010, when Cleveland State's Kailey Klein also scored 31 points in an 86-58 Notre Dame win at Purcell Pavilion in the first round of the NCAA Championship ... Devereaux Peters chalked up her third double-double of the season, all in the past five games; she also tied her season high with four blocked shots ... Skylar Diggins not only went a season-best 6-for-6 from the foul line, but also dished out at least five assists for the 10th time this season ... despite record-setting snowfall in South Bend (more than two feet), the game was an advanced sellout, the second capacity crowd of the season for Notre Dame and the 14th in program history (eighth in the last two seasons).

NOTES: Notre Dame tied a school record with its 10th win by 30-or-more points this season, a mark that first was set by the Fighting Irish in 2000-01 ... Notre Dame has won its last four road games, with three of those victories coming by at least 30 points ... the Fighting Irish scored 50 points in the first half, their sixth 50-point half of the season (first since a 51-point second half vs. Southeast Missouri State on Jan. 2), and second in the opening 20 minutes (53 vs. New Hampshire in the season opener on Nov. 12 at Purcell Pavilion) ... the 31-point halftime margin is the fourth-largest this season for the Fighting Irish ... Notre Dame improves to 20-3 all-time against Pittsburgh, including a 9-2 record on the road ... the Fighting Irish broke a two-game losing streak to Pittsburgh at the Petersen Events Center, defeating the Panthers in the Steel City for the first time since Feb. 5, 2005 (75-47, also the last time Notre Dame gave up fewer points to Pittsburgh than it did this year) ... the 32-point margin of victory is the third-largest for the Fighting Irish in their 23-game series against the Panthers, and largest since Feb. 17, 1996 (an 89-51 win at Pittsburgh's previous home, Fitzgerald Field House) ... Notre Dame recorded a double-digit steal total for the 14th time this season ... the Fighting Irish shot better than 45 percent from the field for the 16th time this year ... Notre Dame shot 57.6 percent (19-of-33) from the field in the first half, its best shooting half since Jan. 2, when the Fighting Irish shot 67.7 percent (21-of-31) from the field in the second half against Southeast Missouri State ... Notre Dame held Pittsburgh to eight offensive rebounds, one shy of the Fighting Irish opponent season-low (set by Morehead State on Nov. 15 and matched by IUPUI on Nov. 26, both at Purcell Pavilion) ... the Fighting Irish posted a +18 rebound margin (46-28), tying their fourth-best mark of the season — Notre Dame has had a double-digit rebound advantage in nine games this season, including seven games where the Fighting Irish had a rebound edge of 15 boards or more ... during Pittsburgh's 11-3 game-ending run against the Notre Dame reserves in the final three minutes, the Fighting Irish were whistled for only their second shot clock violation of the entire season ... Skylar Diggins chalked up her third 20-point game of the season and 10th of her young career ... Diggins also dished out at least five assists for the 12th time this season and sixth time in the past eight games ... Devereaux Peters collected her fourth double-double of the season, all in the past seven games, and the fifth double-double of her career.

NOTES: Notre Dame sets a new school record with its 11th win of the season by at least 30 points, topping the old mark of 10 30-point wins set in 2000-01 ... in its last two games, the Fighting Irish defeated a pair of ranked teams (#16/17 Georgetown and #RV/23 St. John's) by an average of 27.5 points per game ... prior to the win over Georgetown, Notre Dame had not defeated a ranked team by more than 17 points since Feb. 25, 2004 (93-58 at home over #21/19 Miami (Fla.)), but the Fighting Irish did that in its last two games ... Notre Dame defeats ranked opponents in back-to-back games for the first time since Jan. 30 and Feb. 2, 2005, when the Fighting Irish won at #9/10 Connecticut (65-59) and at home against #16/13 Boston College (64-57) ... the 36 points by St. John's are the fewest Notre Dame has allowed to a ranked opponent since Jan. 24, 2004, when the Fighting Irish edged No. 23/25 Villanova, 38-36 at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame improves to 49-5 (90.7) all-time against New York schools, including a 26-0 record at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish rise to 20-3 (.870) all-time against St. John's, including a 10-0 record at home ... the 33-point margin of victory is the largest for Notre Dame against the Red Storm since Feb. 13, 2002 (a 66-31 triumph at Purcell Pavilion) ... the 36 points by St. John's mark its second-lowest point total in the 23-game series against the Fighting Irish, and the 16th time Notre Dame has held the Red Storm to 60 points or fewer ... the Fighting Irish dished out at least 20 assists for the 12th time this season ... Notre Dame also registered double-digit steals for the 16th time this year ... the Fighting Irish shot better than 45 percent from the field for the 18th time this season ... Notre Dame outrebounded its opponents by a double-digit margin for the 10th time this year ... the Fighting Irish earn their 350th all-time win at Purcell Pavilion, moving to 350-88 (.799) at the venerable Notre Dame arena, including a 109-19 (.852) record in BIG EAST play ... Becca Bruszewski scored a season-high 19 points and becomes the sixth different Fighting Irish player to lead the team in scoring at least once this season ... Devereaux Peters recorded her fifth double-double of the season, all in the past nine games — she also posted her sixth double-digit rebounding game in that time ... Peters added a season-high five blocks ... Peters was one of three Notre Dame players to record a "5-5-5" game — it was Peters' second of the season, while Skylar Diggins posted her third of the year, and Brittany Mallory charted her first of the season and fifth of her career ... Diggins handed out at least five assists for the fifth consecutive game ... Notre Dame attracted its third sellout crowd of the season and the 15th in program history.

SU's 48 points are the fewest allowed by Notre Dame in the series since March 2, 2004, when the Fighting Irish posted a 54-33 win in the regular season finale at Purcell Pavilion ... the 23-point margin is the largest for Notre Dame in the Syracuse series since Jan. 20, 2007, when the Fighting Irish earned an 83-55 victory at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame rises to 50-5 (.909) all-time against New York schools, including a 27-0 record at home ... since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96, the Fighting Irish are 88-25 (.779) all-time in the month of February, with a 50-5 (.909) record at home ... in the 24-year Muffet McGraw era, Notre Dame is 136-40 (.773) in February games, including a 72-11 (.867) mark at home ... the Fighting Irish logged double-digit steals for the 18th time, and at least 20 assists for the 13th time this year ... Syracuse came into the game leading the nation with a +16.6 rebounding margin, but Notre Dame ended up with a +10 edge on the glass, the 12th time this season it has outbounded an opponent by double figures ... the Fighting Irish held their opponent to a three-point percentage of 20 percent or lower for the ninth time this year ... Becca Bruszewski became the 27th Fighting Irish player to score 1,000 career points, currently standing 25th on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,007 points (passing Melissa Lechtinier and Kelley Siemon later in the game) ... Bruszewski also cracked double digits for the fourth consecutive game and fifth time in the past six outings ... Devereaux Peters posted her sixth double-double of the season, all in the past 11 games, and nabbed double-digit rebounds for the fourth time in five games ... Natalie Achonwa collected her eighth double-figure scoring game of the season, and first since Jan. 5 (12 points at Marquette) ... Skylar Diggins registered her fourth "5-5-5" game of the season (and first career "5-5-5" outing), packing the stat sheet with eight points, seven rebounds, five assists and a season-high five steals.

NOTES: Notre Dame picked up its 10th BIG EAST Conference win of the season, the 15th time in the program's 16-year BIG EAST membership (1995-96 to present) that the Fighting Irish have recorded double-digit conference wins ... it's also the 21st time in the 24-year tenure of head coach Muffet McGraw that Notre Dame has posted at least 10 league wins ... the 51-point margin of victory was the second-largest spread ever for Notre Dame in a BIG EAST Conference regular season game, topped only by a 91-35 win over Seton Hall on Jan. 31, 1998 at Purcell Pavilion; the Fighting Irish also posted an 89-33 win over Georgetown in the quarterfinals of the 2001 BIG EAST Championship (March 4, 2001 in Storrs, Conn.) ... Notre Dame held Seton Hall to a .246 field goal percentage, the lowest by a BIG EAST opponent since Jan. 2, 2005, when Seton Hall shot .222 from the field in a 54-33 Notre Dame win at Purcell Pavilion ... conversely, the Fighting Irish shot a season-high .640 from the field, tying for the 10th-best field goal percentage in school history, and best since Nov. 23, 2008 (.646 in a 102-54 win at Boston College), and Notre Dame's third-best field goal percentage ever against a BIG EAST opponent (best since Feb. 13, 2008, when it shot .643 in a 99-76 win over Marquette at Purcell Pavilion) ... the Fighting Irish tied their season high with six double-figure scorers, having first achieved that against Louisville on Jan. 12 (80-60 win at Purcell Pavilion) ... the Fighting Irish are 19-4 all-time against Seton Hall (9-2 at Purcell Pavilion) and have won the last five games in the series, as well as 19 of the 21 meetings since Notre Dame joined the BIG EAST in 1995-96 ... Skylar Diggins tallied her fifth game with seven-plus assists this season, and her 16th five-assist outing of the year (she had seven all of last season) ... for the second time in three games, Diggins packed the stat sheet with a "5-5-5" game (14 points, seven assists, six rebounds, season-high-tying five steals), the second of her career, as well as the 13th career "5-5-5" outing for the South Bend native ... Becca Bruszewski extended her double-digit scoring streak to a career-high six games ... Natalie Novosel collected her career-best 10th consecutive double-figure scoring night ... Natalie Achonwa scored in double figures for the third consecutive game ... Brittany Mallory posted her fifth double-digit scoring night of the year (first since a season-high 14 points in a win over #16/17 Georgetown on Jan. 18 at Purcell Pavilion) ... Mallory also tied her season high with five steals, the fourth time this year she's had five thefts in a game ... Ariel Braker tied for game-high honors with six rebounds, the ninth different Fighting Irish player to lead the team in rebounds at least once this season.

NOTES: Notre Dame stretches its current winning streak to nine games, the longest BIG EAST regular-season winning streak for the Fighting Irish since the 2004-05 season, when they put together a similar nine-game conference success string from Jan. 19-Feb. 15, 2005 ... Notre Dame earns its first win over Rutgers at Purcell Pavilion since Jan. 23, 2005 (a 63-47 victory), and its second consecutive win in the series, which RU now leads 16-11 (the Fighting Irish hold a 6-4 edge in South Bend) ... Notre Dame wins back-to-back series games against Rutgers for the first time since March 1, 1999 (68-61 in BIG EAST Championship semifinal) and Feb. 19, 2000 (78-74 in overtime), with both games played in Piscataway ... the Fighting Irish post their second-largest margin of victory in the 27-game series with the Scarlet Knights, topped only by an 86-58 win over Rutgers on March 2, 1997, in the BIG EAST Championship quarterfinals at Storrs, Conn. ... Notre Dame scored 70 points against RU for the second consecutive meeting, the first time the Fighting Irish have done that since Feb 19, 2000 (the aforementioned 78-74 OT win in Piscataway) and March 6, 2000 (an 81-72 overtime loss to the Scarlet Knights in the BIG EAST Championship semifinals at Storrs, Conn.) ... Notre Dame had never scored 70+ points against Rutgers in consecutive regular season meetings prior to the past two matchups ... the Fighting Irish held the Scarlet Knights to 49 points, their third-lowest output in series history and lowest since the 2005 Notre Dame win (63-47) at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame became just the second Rutgers opponent to make more than half its shots this season (Tennessee connected at an RU-opponent high .525 from the floor on Dec. 30 in Knoxville, Tenn.) ... the Fighting Irish had two 20-point scorers in the same game for the first time since Feb. 24, 2009, against Syracuse (Lindsay Schrader -23; Becca Bruszewski-20) ... Brittany Mallory collected her first career double-double, making her the fifth different Notre Dame player this season to record a double-double ... with 10 points and a career-high 10 assists, Mallory is the first Fighting Irish player to log double-digit assists (and also record a points/assists double-double) since Feb. 26, 2005, when Megan Duffy tallied 12 points and 10 assists in an 82-57 win over West Virginia at Purcell Pavilion ... for the third time in four games, Skylar Diggins chalked up a "5-5-5" performance, giving her six on the season and 14 for her career ... Peters posted her third 20-point game of the season (and her career), while Diggins notched her fifth 20-point outing of the campaign and the 12th of her career ... Bruszewski moved up to 24th on Notre Dame's career scoring list with 1,039 points, passing Mollie Peirick (1,034 points from 1994-98) ... the Fighting Irish registered their fourth sellout of the season, and 10th in the past two years ... this was designated as Notre Dame's annual WBCA Pink Zone game, with the program raising $116,405, topping last year's total of nearly $104,000 and boosting the program's combined Pink Zone fundraising total in the last three years to more than a quarter of a million dollars (approximately $260,000).

NOTES: Notre Dame sees its season-high nine-game winning streak snapped ... the Fighting Irish scored a season-low 57 points, one fewer than their total in a 58-43 win at Villanova on Jan. 29 ... Notre Dame was defeated by 20+ points for the first time since March 1, 2010, when Connecticut posted a 76-51 win at Purcell Pavilion ... the Huskies match their series-long winning streak (11, first set from 1996-2000) against Notre Dame, improving to 27-4 all-time against the Fighting Irish, including a 16-1 mark at home (Storrs or Hartford) ... Notre Dame trailed at the half for the first time since Dec. 29, when it was down 35-33 against current No. 25 Gonzaga before rallying for a 70-61 win over the Bulldogs at the State Farm Holiday Hoops Classic in Seattle ... the Fighting Irish had only two double-figure scorers for just the second time all season, the other coming on Dec. 1 in a 76-65 loss at then-No. 2/3 Baylor (Diggins -21; Novosel -12) ... Connecticut is just the second Notre Dame opponent to shoot better than 50 percent from the floor this year, the other being another New England school (.514 by New Hampshire on Nov. 12 in a 99-48 Notre Dame win at Purcell Pavilion) ... the Fighting Irish chalked up double-digit steals for the 20th time this season ... Skylar Diggins scored at least 20 points for the second consecutive game and a team-high sixth time this season ... Diggins scored 17 of her 22 points in the first half, the most by a Connecticut opposing individual in the first half this season, as well as more than five different Connecticut opposing teams in the first half this year, most notably No. 3 Duke (15 on Jan. 31) and BIG EAST opponents Villanova (12 on Jan. 5) and Providence (12 on Feb. 12), and nearly No. 14/12 Oklahoma on Feb. 14 (the Sooners had 18 points at the half) ... Brittany Mallory played in the 100th game of her college career ... Notre Dame broke out its alternate green road uniforms for the first time this year, the fifth different uniform combination the Fighting Irish have worn at least once (white/blue, white/green, white/pink, blue/white).

NOTES: Notre Dame picked up its fourth win over a ranked opponent this season, and its first road win at a Top 25 opponent since Nov. 19, 2009, when they edged No. 21 Michigan State, 68-67 in East Lansing, Mich. ... this marked the largest margin of victory for Notre Dame at a ranked opponent since Feb. 16, 2008, when it posted a 79-67 win at No. 21/23 Syracuse ... Notre Dame became just the third BIG EAST Conference school to record 200 BIG EAST regular-season victories, improving to 200-62 (.763) in less than 16 seasons as a conference member (1995-96 to present) ... the Notre Dame senior class collectively recorded its 99th career win (now 99-29, .773) ... the Fighting Irish continue to show excellent resilience, improving to 58-14 (.806) in their first game after a double-digit loss since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96, including a current run of six in a row covering the past two seasons ... the Fighting Irish also secured a winning month of February for the 23rd time in the 24-year Muffet McGraw era ... Notre Dame shot better than 65 percent in a single half (.652 in first half) for the first time since Feb. 8 (.667 in first half vs. Seton Hall at Purcell Pavilion) ... Notre Dame tied its season low with five steals (set two other times, the last on Feb. 5 at South Florida), while West Virginia had an opponent season-high 16 thefts (previous was 15 by UCLA on Nov. 18 in a double-overtime contest at Purcell Pavilion) ... how uncharacteristic was Notre Dame's 30-turnover night? It was the most by the Fighting Irish in a single game since Nov. 15, 2003, when they had a similar 30 giveaways in a 67-63 overtime loss at 20th-ranked Colorado in the title game of the WBCA Classic ... Notre Dame improves to 18-2 all-time against West Virginia, including a 7-2 record in Morgantown ... the Fighting Irish earned their first victory at WVU Coliseum in exactly five years (70-58 on Feb. 22, 2006) ... Notre Dame's 72 points are the most the Fighting Irish have scored at WVU since Jan. 24, 2001 (87-64 win) ... Natalie Novosel posted her fifth 20-point game of the season after coming into the campaign with a career high of 19 points ... Novosel also notched her first career 20-point game against a BIG EAST opponent, having scored 19 points in BIG EAST on three occasions (the last on Feb. 5 at South Florida) ... Skylar Diggins tallied her team-high seventh "5-5-5" game this season, and the 15th of her career ... Diggins dished out at least seven assists for the sixth time this year, and at least five assists for the 18th time this season ... Devereaux Peters turned in her best shooting performance against a BIG EAST team this year and matched her third-best effort overall this season ... Peters' three blocks give her 124 career rejections, tying her for ninth place in school history with Trena Keys (1982-86) ... Kaila Turner tied her career high with four rebounds.

Head Coach Muffet McGraw

24th season at ND (548-208, .725) • 29th season overall (636-249, .719)

"If we searched for an entire year, I don't think we would find anyone better suited for our program."

With those words, former Notre Dame athletics director Gene Corrigan announced the hiring of Muffet McGraw as the third head coach of the Irish women's basketball program on May 18, 1987. Corrigan may not have realized it at the time, but he also ushered in an era of unparalleled success in women's basketball at Notre Dame, brought to life on the shoulders of a 5-foot-6 dynamo who accepts nothing less than the very best from herself, her players and her program.

Ask anyone familiar with women's basketball about McGraw and her Notre Dame program and inevitably, you'll hear the same two words — consistency and excellence. And it's no wonder, when you consider what McGraw and the Irish have achieved in the past 24 seasons:

- The 2001 NCAA Championship, defeating Purdue in the title game, 68-66. McGraw is one of only eight active Division I coaches to guide her team to a national title.
- Two trips to the NCAA Final Four (1997 and 2001). McGraw is one of just 15 active Division I coaches to lead her team to multiple Final Four appearances.
- Eight NCAA Sweet 16 trips, all in the past 14 seasons (1997-2010). The Irish are one of only 10 programs in the nation that can make that claim.
- 21 seasons with 20-or-more victories, including 17 in the past 18 years (1993-2011). Notre Dame also has posted seven 25-win seasons and two 30-win campaigns in the past 14 years (1997-2010).
- 17 NCAA Tournament appearances, including a current string of 15 consecutive NCAA Tournament berths. During the first 15 years of this current streak (1996-2010), Notre Dame has won at least one NCAA postseason game 13 times.
- 70 wins over ranked opponents, including 60 in the past 13 seasons alone (1998-2011). In addition, 20 of those wins have come against top-10 opponents.
- 213 appearances in the Associated Press Top 25 poll, putting McGraw 13th among active Division I coaches and 22nd all-time on that list (through the Feb. 21, 2011 poll). Notre Dame also has spent 100 weeks ranked among the top 10 teams in the nation, all in the past 13-plus seasons (1997-2011).
- 13 top-four finishes in the BIG EAST Conference during Notre Dame's first 16 years in that league (1995-96 through 2010-11). The Fighting Irish also won a share of the 2001 BIG EAST regular-season title.
- 15 consecutive top-20 recruiting classes, dating to the incoming class of 1997. Notre Dame is one of just three programs in the nation that owns an active streak of that length.
- Ranks among the top 20 active NCAA Division I coaches with 636 career wins (reaching the 600-win milestone on Jan. 19, 2010, at Louisville in her 839th game, at the time tying for 10th-fastest to 600 wins in Division I history) and a .719 all-time winning percentage.
- One of only six coaches in the 124-year history of Fighting Irish athletics to win 500 games at Notre Dame, joining fencing's Michael DeCicco and Yves Auriol, tennis/wrestling coach Tom Fallon and baseball's Jake Kline and Paul Mainieri.
- Far and away the winningest basketball coach (men's or women's) in school history, with noted men's skipper Richard "Digger" Phelps second on that list (393 wins).
- A perfect 100-percent graduation rate for all players entering the program since 1987 who have completed their athletic and academic eligibility at Notre Dame (a spotless 62-for-62 success rate). The Irish have posted a perfect 100-percent NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) score in each of the past four years, and they are one of only five programs in the country to combine a perfect GSR score with a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 twice within the past three seasons (2008 and 2010).

Add it all up and you have the framework for a Hall of Fame career. And, on July 10, 2010, that's exactly what McGraw became, as she was named to the six-person Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2011. McGraw officially will become the Hall's first Notre Dame representative when she is inducted during Enshrinement Weekend activities June 10-12, 2011, in Knoxville, Tenn.

Still, with all of those accomplishments in hand, McGraw has shown no signs of slowing down any time soon. In July 2008, the veteran head coach signed a contract extension that will keep her patrolling the Irish sidelines through the 2014-15 campaign.

"For more than 20 years, Muffet has led our program with integrity and passion, and, of course, to much success," said Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., Notre Dame's president. "As we look forward to many more years together, I am confident that the excellence she has achieved on and off the court will continue."

Under McGraw's guidance, the past 16 seasons (1995-96 to 2010-11) have been the most successful in Notre Dame's history. The Irish have compiled an impressive 389-128 (.752) record, including a sparkling 200-62 (.763) regular-season mark in BIG EAST play, the second-best winning percentage in league history. Notre Dame also has averaged more than 23 victories per year during that span, with two 30-win seasons and seven 25-win campaigns to its credit. The Irish have won at least one NCAA Tournament game 13 times in the past 15 years, advancing to the Sweet 16 eight times (1997, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2008, 2010) and the Final Four twice (1997 and 2001).

Success for McGraw also has meant coaching great players. During her illustrious career, the Notre Dame skipper has coached 11 All-Americans, including 2001 consensus National Player of the Year Ruth Riley. She also has worked with five players who have been selected for USA Basketball National Teams, with those players going on to win a total of nine medals (highlighted by Riley's gold with the '04 U.S. Olympic Team). In addition, McGraw has coached 22 players who have earned all-conference recognition a total of 48 times, including 15 first-team picks who have been chosen a total of 27 times, and has helped shape several other national award winners, namely two Frances Pomeroy Naismith award recipients (Niele Ivey in 2001, Megan Duffy in 2006) and 2002 United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) National Freshman of the Year Jacqueline Batteast.

Another sign of McGraw's success has been her ability to prepare her players for the next level. No less than 21 Notre Dame cagers have gone on to play professionally (domestically or overseas), including nine who either have been drafted or signed as free agents with WNBA teams. The past decade has seen the greatest influx of Irish talent into the WNBA, with seven Notre Dame players having been selected in the league's annual draft since 2001. Four of those players — Riley, Ivey, Kelley Siemon and Ericka Haney — were starters on the '01 Irish NCAA championship team, and five of the recent Irish WNBA draftees (Riley, Ivey, Batteast, Duffy and Charel Allen) earned All-America status during their careers at Notre Dame.

Dedicated to helping grow and further the sport in any way possible, McGraw has groomed 10 of her former players and/or assistant coaches who currently are serving as coaches at either the high school or college level. Of those 10 proteges, five presently are Division I head coaches — 1988 Notre Dame graduate Sandy Botham (Wisconsin-Milwaukee), 1997 Notre Dame graduate and the school's all-time leading scorer Beth (Morgan) Cunningham (Virginia Commonwealth), Bill Fennelly (Iowa State), Kevin McGuff (Xavier) and 1991 Notre Dame graduate Coquese Washington (Penn State). McGuff and Washington (along with current Irish associate coach Carol Owens) comprised McGraw's assistant coaching staff on the 2001 Irish NCAA national championship squad, while McGuff and Owens also were on staff for Notre Dame's run to the 1997 NCAA Final Four.

A native of West Chester, Pa., McGraw received her bachelor's degree in sociology from Saint Joseph's University (Pa.) in 1977. Following graduation, she coached for two seasons at Philadelphia's Archbishop Carroll High School (50-3 record) and two more at her alma mater as an assistant coach under Jim Foster (now the head coach at Ohio State). In 1982, McGraw was named head coach at Lehigh University, her teams finishing 88-41 (.683) during her five-year tenure.

McGraw and her husband, Matt, celebrated their 33rd wedding anniversary in 2010 and make their home in Granger, Ind. They are the proud parents of 20-year-old son Murphy, who is a junior at Indiana University.

Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, 2011

Consensus National Coach of the Year, 2001

Naismith National Coach of the Year Finalist, 1997, 1998, 2001, 2005
