BIG EAST Preview

The Notre Dame men's tennis team begins postseason play in pursuit of the program's eighth BIG EAST title on Friday, April 17 at the University of South Florida Varsity Courts in Tampa, Fla. The Fighting Irish enter the four-day event as the second seed among the nine-team field.

2009 marks the 13th BIG EAST men's tennis championship. Nine of the 16 members of the BIG EAST Conference field teams in men's tennis, but the league does not require round-robin competition during the season. All nine teams, as seeded by the conference based on national ranking and head-to-head results, earn invitations to the league championship, a single-elimination team tournament with the winner gaining the league's automatic berth in the NCAA Championship. Play begins with eighth-seeded Villanova taking on ninth-seeded Connecticut at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, April 16. The winner of that match will face top-seeded Louisville at 9:00 a.m. on Friday, April 17. The second-seeded Irish will face seventh-seeded Georgetown; also on Friday at 9:00 a.m. Saturday's semifinal matches and Sunday's Championship will all begin at 9:00 a.m. as well.

Daily recaps will be posted at und.com, while complete results and updated matchups will be posted on www.bigeast.org.

The Georgetown Matchup

The Irish have played the Hoyas of Georgetown on seven occasions dating back to 1958, with the Irish holding a 6-1 series lead. The teams first met in 1958 in the finals of the Cherry Blossom Tournament in Washington, D.C. The Irish won that match, 8-1. Georgetown's lone win in the series came in 1962, with the Hoyas earning a 5-4 win, also in the Cherry Blossom Tournament. The teams most recently squared off in the quarterfinals of the 2006 BIG EAST tournament in Tampa, Fla. Notre Dame recorded a 4-0 win on that day.

The Hoyas enter Friday's match with a 4-19 overall record in 2009. They earned wins over Richmond on Jan. 16 (4-1), Duquesne on March 15 (4-3), Connecticut on March 21 (5-2) and versus Villanova on April 5 (4-3). Georgetown and Notre Dame have not faced any common opponents this year.

Gordie Ernst (Brown 1990) is in his third season serving as the Hoyas' men's and women's tennis head coach. He is assisted by Emily DeCamilla (Ohio State 2005), who assists with the women's team as well. Senior Adam Gross, a native of Quogue New York, serves as the men's team captain.

BIG EAST History

The BIG EAST men's tennis tournament dates back to the 1979 season, as Boston College captured the inaugural championship, besting runner-up Georgetown, 16-14. From 1979-1994, the tournament was decided on an individual point-scoring basis, with players earning points towards the overall team score. Following the 1994 season, the tournament switched to the current team championship format. 2009 marks the fifth-consecutive year in which the tournament is taking place in Tampa, Fla.

Conference Dominance

Since becoming a member of the BIG EAST Conference in the 1995-96 season, the Irish have reached the title match of the league tournament every season, claiming seven titles. Nine members of the BIG EAST Conference – Connecticut, DePaul, Georgetown, Louisville, Marquette, Notre Dame, South Florida, St. John's, and Villanova – field teams in men's tennis, but the league does not require round-robin competition during the season. ND has an all-time record of 103-4 (.963) against those teams. Prior to joining the BIG EAST, the Irish won seven Midwestern Collegiate Conference titles from 1988-89 through 1994-95. All told, Notre Dame has earned 14 conference titles.

Notre Dame faced Miami in eight straight BIG EAST finals (1996-

The Irish won three times (1996, '99, 2002) against the Hurricanes (who hosted the event until leaving the conference after the 2003-04 season). The 2003 final was rained out in progress, with conference policy awarding the NCAA automatic berth to the top-seeded Hurricanes. In 17 early-round matches (first round through semifinals), Notre Dame is undefeated, having registered 17 shutouts. The Irish have been the top seed heading into the tournament ten times, while they were the No. 2 seed in 2000 and '04 and the No. 3 seed in 2003.

2008 BIG EAST Awards Sweep

Following their BIG EAST team titles, the Notre Dame tennis program captured the conference's major awards, namely Coach of the Year and Most Outstanding Player. Head coach Bobby Bayliss was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season, while Brett Helgeson captured the conference's Most Outstanding Player award. Both of the awards were voted on by the BIG EAST coaches.

It marked Bayliss' seventh Coach of the Year award in the past 11 seasons. Helgeson was dominant in singles play at the 2008 BIG EAST Tournament, dropping just four total games in three easy victories. He became the second straight Notre Dame player to capture the Most Outstanding Player award, following Stephen Bass's honor in 2007. In addition, Helgeson was named to both the singles and doubles all-tournament teams for the second time in his career. He teamed with senior captain Sheeva Parbhu to win two doubles matches for the Irish at the 2008 BIG EAST Tournament.

Parbhu earned all-conference recognition in both singles and doubles for the second time in as many years. Daniel Stahl also earned a place on the all-conference singles team while Andrew Roth and Santiago Montoya were named to the all-Big East doubles team. Stahl's lone win of the weekend came in the final match of the tournament, as he clinched the title with a win over Diego Toledo of South Florida with the match tied at three.
