Irish Quick Facts:

- Notre Dame carries its longest win streak of the season (five games) into a home matchup with Loyola (Chicago) before entering the Hoosier Invitational this weekend.

- During the five-game win streak, Notre Dame has shut out four opponents and allowed no more than four hits in a game.

- Notre Dame has posted 13 hits as a team in each of its last two games.

Irish starting to hit their stride: A return to campus and familiar surroundings has helped the University of Notre Dame softball team compile its best win streak of the season entering a Thursday match up with Loyola (Chicago) before entering this weekend's Hoosier Invitational at Indiana University. After five consecutive weekends on the road, the Irish opened the regional part of the schedule with three victories last weekend.

Last week: After the Western Michigan doubleheader was cancelled (and moved to April 3), Notre Dame swept Eastern Michigan 2-0 and 9-1 in its first home doubleheader of the season. The Irish followed up on Tuesday, March 23, by dominating Valparaiso 9-0 in six innings. Junior Steffany Stenglein collected her second career perfect game vs. the Crusaders, striking out 14 of the 18 batters she faced.

Time change: Notre Dame's game vs. Loyola (Chicago) on Thursday, March 25 has been moved back one hour. The game will start at 5 p.m. EST.

Weekend opponents: Here is a look at Notre Dame's opponents this weekend:

Loyola (Chicago): The Ramblers are 10-13 this season and are coming off a doubleheader split with Northern Illinois on March 23. Becky Marx has been the top offensive threat this season, hitting .296 with five home runs and a team-high 23 RBI. The pitching staff is keyed by Lindsey LaChiana, who is 6-6 this season with a 2.95 ERA. Thursday's game will be the 35th meeting between the two teams, with the Irish holding a 29-5 advantage in the series. Notre Dame has won the last six meeting dating back to 2000, including 3-0 and 7-1 victories last season at Ivy Field.

Saint Louis: The Billikens will be the first opponent the Irish face during the Hoosier Invitational in Bloomington, Ind. Saint Louis is 9-20 in 2004, led on offense by Ashleigh Williams (.337, 3 HR, 16 RBI) and in the pitching circle by Elizabeth Nielsen (7-11, 4.17 ERA). Notre Dame and Saint Louis, who were both in the MCC Conference (now the Horizon League) at one time, will be meeting for the sixth time. Notre Dame leads the all-time series 4-1.

Indiana: The Hoosiers play host to their tournament owning a 17-14 record this season. They are coming off a sweep of Indiana State, in which Indiana piled up 18 runs in two games. Indiana has three hitters over .300, led by Karly McCormack (.376) who also has a team-high 17 RBI. Mariangee Bogado has seen the most time in the pitcher's circle, posting a 10-6 record and 1.64 ERA (110 Ks in 98.2 IP). Notre Dame and Indiana will be meeting for the 19th time and first since 1999. The Hoosiers lead the all-time series 10-8.

Western Kentucky: The Hilltoppers are 19-7 this season and are coming off a doubleheader split with Tennessee Tech on March 23. Western Kentucky is hitting .281 as a team this season, led by Renita Pennington (.367), while Jesscia Richardson has the power in the lineup (six HR, 16 RBI). The pitching staff boasts a solid 1.95 staff ERA, led by Allison Silver (10-4, 1.44 ERA). Notre Dame and Western Kentucky will be meeting for the first time.

Booth takes her game to another level: Sophomore Heather Booth is following up her BIG EAST rookie of the year performance in 2003 with an even more impressive campaign in 2004. The staff ace for the Irish, Booth currently boasts a 1.29 ERA, 10-3 record and 111 strikeouts in 103.1 innings pitched. The Riverside, Calif., native is already threatening her 158 strikeout season-best total from last season.

Booth won 21 games in 2003 and has earned 10 wins so far in '04. She has been at her best against top competition, posting wins over Nebraska (twice), CS Fullerton (eight-innings, 11 strikeouts), Florida State (four runs allowed over 9.2 innings) and has put up at least four strikeouts in every appearance this season. Her 12 complete games is close to the 13 she had during her rookie season and her four shutouts surpass the three from 2003.

In the month of March, Booth has posted a 5-2 record, 0.95 ERA, six complete games in seven appearances, three shutouts and 58 Ks in 51.1 IP. Booth has allowed just 28 hits in those 51.1 IP.

Beware the Ides of March? The Shakespearean warning held true for Julius Caesar, but not for the Notre Dame softball team. Notre Dame is 10-5 this month and enter Thursday night's game with a five-game winning streak.

Megan Ciolli (.417), Meagan Ruthrauff (.385), Stephanie Brown (.327) and Mallorie Lenn (.318) have all debunked the Soothsayer's warning by hitting over .300 this month. Ruthrauff has contributed a team-high 15 RBI in the 15 games, while Liz Hartmann has provided 10 RBI.

The Notre Dame pitching staff ERA has posted equally impressive numbers this month, as the staff has compiled a 1.36 ERA. Booth leads the way at 0.95 (5-2), followed by Carrie Wisen (1.56, 1-0) and Steffany Stenglein (1.82, 4-3).

Notre Dame offense explodes for 26 hits in two games: The Notre Dame offense seems to be finding its stride late in March, as the Irish are coming off back-to-back 13-hit/nine-run performances in the last two games. After defeating Eastern Michigan 2-0 in the home opener, Notre Dame pasted the Eagles in game two with 13 hits and two home runs (Mallorie Lenn, Liz Hartmann). The Irish reached 13 hits again on Tuesday evening, defeating Valparaiso 9-1. Lenn, Nicole Wicks and Meagan Ruthrauff all hit home runs in the contest. The 26 hits in two game are the most since Notre Dame has 29 in a doubleheader vs. Valpo last season at Ivy Field.

Wisn lost in the boxscore?: One of Notre Dame's signature pitching performances was delivered during the FSU Invitational two weeks ago, but the stat line might have been lost in the game's boxscore. Notre Dame defeated Georgia State 3-2 on March 13, getting a sacrifice fly from Liz Hartmann in the eighth inning to secure the victory. The hero of the game, however, was junior pitcher Carrie Wisen.

With starting pitcher Steffany Stenglein struggling with the strike zone (six walks in 2.1 IP), Wisen entered the game and completely shut down Georgia State's offense. Picking up her third win of the season, Wisen threw 5.2 innings of relief, striking out nine of 18 batters she faced and not allowing a single hit. Georgia State was able to just get three balls out of the infield against Wisen that afternoon.

Notre Dame matchup with #20/22 Nebraska on April 12 to be shown nationally on CSTV: The University of Notre Dame will travel to Lincoln, Neb., to face the Cornhuskers for the third time this season - and College Sports Television (CSTV) will televise the game live across the country. The contest on Monday, April 12, will be part of CSTV Softball, which will show eight regular-season games this season, in addition to the Big Ten and Conference USA post season tournaments.

In addition to its softball telecasts, College Sports TV will cover the sport extensively within its CSTV Primetime and CSTV Scoreboard live studio shows originating from the CSTV Fieldhouse in New York. Daily coverage of women's softball will also be found on CSTV.com.

Looking back at the perfectos: Steffany Stenglein's second career perfect game (and first since 2002) requires some further analysis. The junior from Irvine, Calif., completely shut down Valparaiso, striking out 14 of the 18 batters she faced. No ball left the infield during the game, as ground outs to the shortstop, third base and first base, along with a pop up to second base, where the other for outs in the contest.

Stenglein struck out the first four batters she faced, then the next five after the pop up to second base. After two ground outs, she sat down the five of the last six batters in the game.

The 14 strikeouts are a career-best for Stenglein, eclipsing the 11 she threw just one game prior vs. Eastern Michigan. She has 25 strikeouts in her last two games.

Homers in the clutch: The Deanna Gumpf era at Notre Dame has provided some of the most memorable clutch home runs in Irish history. Over the past three seasons, Notre Dame has claimed an upset victory on the road (vs. #4 Nebraska, 2002), an amazing comeback victory on the road (vs. La.-Lafayette, 2003), a BIG EAST Championship (vs.

Villanova, 2003) and two first-weekend come-from-behind victories (at the UNLV Classic this season) via dramatic home runs.

Liz Hartmann has played a role in three of the memorable moments. In 2002, her three-run blast in the top of the seventh pushed Notre Dame to a 3-2 victory over #4 Nebraska at the Cornhuskers' dedication of their new field in Lincoln. Last season, Hartmann tied the school record for home runs in a single game with two shots vs. La-Lafayette. Her first against the Lady Cajuns tied up the game in the seventh inning (after Notre Dame had rallied from a 5-1 deficit) and then ended the game in the ninth inning on a three-run round tripper.

The 2003 BIG EAST Championship was claimed on a walk off home run by '03 graduate Andrea Loman, who smashed a solo shot in the bottom of the ninth.

During the UNLV Classic four weeks ago, Notre Dame utilized four clutch home runs to secure two victories. Sophomore Kellie Middleton launched a two-run shot to complete Notre Dame's rally from a 7-4 deficit to defeat Hawaii 8-7. The next day, freshman Stephanie Brown completed another Irish rally with a two-run shot in the top of the seventh vs. #8/8 Nebraska - followed by another two-run shot by Hartmann to claim the winning margin. Hartmann had previously cut the Cornhusker lead down to 4-2 with a two-run homer in the fifth.

Notre Dame has faced a loaded early season schedule: In what has developed into a yearly tradition for the Fighting Irish softball team, Notre Dame hit the road for the first five weekends of the season to face several of the top teams in the nation. According to the latest national polls, over the first five weekends of the season Notre Dame faced nine ranked teams (ESPN.com/USA Softball ranking first, followed by USA Today/NFCA):

- #2/3 California (L, 1-2) - now ranked #3/3
- #6/6 Georgia, (L, 1-7) - now ranked #6/5
- #11/12 Michigan (L, 0-3) - now ranked #10/11
- #8/8 Nebraska (W, 6-4), now ranked

The Irish also will take on DePaul and #ORV/25 Northwestern later this season, as both teams have earned votes in the top 25 this season. In addition, Texas A&M, Florida Atlantic and Hawaii have all received votes for the national polls this season.

While a tough schedule might affect Notre Dame's early season record, it has paid huge dividends over the last two years when the Irish return to the Midwest for conference and regional play. The 2002 season saw Notre Dame open up 8-12 while facing eight ranked teams in the first two months of the season. Notre Dame responded by winning 34 of its next 37 games and the BIG EAST Championship entering the NCAA regional. The 2003 season followed a similar pattern, as Notre Dame found itself facing six ranked teams and holding a 10-10 record on March 14. The Irish bounced back with a 20-game win streak and 26 win in its last 30 games entering the NCAA regional.

Head coach Deanna Gumpf: The 2004 season marks Notre Dame head coach

Deanna Gumpf's third at the helm of the Irish softball program. Her 82 wins over the first two seasons are the most in school history (Liz Miller had 77 while Brian Boulac posted 61) and she has guided the team to set school records for home runs, RBI and fielding percentage over the last two seasons.

Gumpf's record at Notre Dame stands at 102-43 (.703) entering this weekend's action and her teams have captured back-to-back BIG EAST titles and NCAA regional appearances.

The 2004 season will feature Gumpf's distinctive stamp on the program. The graduation of four starters in the infield gives the opportunity for the Irish starting lineup to feature five players from Gumpf's first two recruiting classes at Notre Dame.

Megan Ciolli named to USA Softball Player of the Year watch list: The Amateur Softball Association (ASA) and USA Softball have announced their initial watch list for the third-annual USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award and Notre Dame junior Megan Ciolli (Terre Haute, Ind.) was one of the 40 players to make the list.

Ciolli will embrace a new role as team leader for the Irish this season, which begins next weekend (Feb. 13) at the UNLV Classic in Las Vegas, Nev. The Irish have radically shifted from a senior laden team to one of the youngest squads in the Midwest.

A starter since she arrived on campus three years ago, Ciolli boasts a .350 career average – hitting either first or second in the Irish line up. A three-tool player able to bunt, slap and hit for power, the junior boasts 131 hits in her career, eight home runs and 48 RBI. She also has stolen 23 bases in her career and her .350 career average puts her in the top five all-time at Notre Dame.

So far in 2004, Ciolli has paced the Irish offense with a team-high 38 hits (.418 average), 13 stolen bases (in 14 attempts) and has contributed three out-field assists.

Notre Dame picked to win its third-straight BIG EAST title: Notre Dame has been picked to finish first in the BIG EAST Conference for the 2004 season, as voted on by the league coaches and released by the conference office. The Irish garnered seven of 11 first place votes and 95 total points in the poll, followed by Villanova (83 points) and Boston College (74).

Notre Dame won a share of the BIG EAST regular-season crown for the seventh-straight season last year, finishing the conference schedule with a 14-3 record. Led by conference player of the year Andrea Loman, Notre Dame swept through the BIG EAST Championship, scoring 21 runs in three games and earning the title on a walk off home run by Loman in the ninth inning against Villanova.

2004 BIG EAST Preseason Softball Coaches Poll

1. Notre Dame, 95 points
2. Villanova, 83 points
3. Boston College, 74 points
4. Seton Hall, 70 points
5. St. John's, 55 points
6. Virginia Tech, 55 points
7. Syracuse, 50 points
8. Connecticut, 49 points

9. Rutgers, 43 points
10. Pittsburgh, 20 points
11. Providence, 12 points

Keeping up with the Irish on the road: A complete recap, plus game boxscore, will be posted on www.und.com as soon as possible upon completion of Notre Dame's scheduled games for the day (although during preseason tournament action, the schedule might allow for game-by-game updates). The Notre Dame softball hotline will also be updated as soon as possible after each game, that line can be reached by calling (574) 631-3000, press 4, then 2.

BIG EAST Championship switched to Syracuse, N.Y. for 2004: The 2004 BIG EAST Championship will be hosted by Syracuse University this season. During the previous two seasons, the BIG EAST Championship was held in Roanoke, Va., but a schedule change in the Division II National Championship (hosted by the city of Roanoke) dictated a return to campus sites for the BIG EAST Championship. The conference title will be on the line during play beginning Thursday, May 13 and continues until Saturday, May 15, with a raindate on Sunday, May 16.
