Two-Minute Drill (what you need to know about this weekend's Notre Dame - Stanford matchup) -

- Notre Dame and Stanford are meeting for the 20th time, with the Irish leading the all-time series 13-6. The Irish are 4-4 all-time at Stanford Stadium, breaking a three-game losing streak at the facility with a 57-7 victory in 2003.
- Notre Dame is 73-39-6 (.644) all-time in against teams from the Pac-10 Conference. Stanford represents the third Pac-10 opponent for the Irish this season (W, 36-17 at Washington, L, 31-34 vs. #1 USC).
- The Irish are looking to claim their ninth victory of the season for fourth time in the last 10 years (1995, 1998, 2000, 2002).
- Junior QB Brady Quinn's stellar 2005 campaign has pushed him to ownership of all of Notre Dame's significant passing records, including career/single season yardage, career/single season attempts and completions and career/single season touchdown passes.
- Senior WR Maurice Stovall and junior WR Jeff Samardzija have combined to become the only pair of teammates in the country with 10 or more touchdown receptions. Samardzija has a school-record 13, while Stovall is close behind with 10 (including nine in Notre Dame's last four games).
- Samardzija needs just one receiving yard in this weekend's game to become Notre Dame's third 1,000-yard single-season receiver. Stovall is not far behind, needing 113 yards to reach 1,000 this season.
- Notre Dame is currently averaging 38.20 points per game, on pace to break the school record of 37.6 posted by the 1968 team. The Irish also have scored 50 touchdowns this season, nine off the record compiled by the 1991 team. The school record for points in a season (426 in 1991) is in reach as well, as the Irish currently have 382 points - needing 44 more to reach the single-season record.
- Notre Dame's offensive improvement in 2005 continues to lead the nation. The Irish have improved 126.2 yards per game this year from their 2004 production, ranking ahead of USC (+122.1) and Iowa (+121.8).
- Senior PK D.J. Fitzpatrick needs just one more successful PAT to become Notre Dame's single-season record holder. He is currently 48-48 on the season and tied with Craig Hentrich (1991) for both the single-season total and single-season percentage record.
- Sophomore RB Darius Walker needs 80 yards to become Notre Dame's ninth player to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season. The previous eight players combined to post 14 1,000-yard rushing seasons, the most recent by Julius Jones (1,268) in 2003.
- Senior TE Anthony Fasano has already compiled the best season for a third-year tight end (he did not play as a freshman in 2002) with 42 catches for 545 yards. He needs 12 more receptions to reach Ken MacAfee's school-record for single-season receptions by a tight end (54 in 1977).
- Senior LB Corey Mays has posted back-to-back 10-tackle performances for the Irish defense. He had a career-best 14 against Navy on Nov. 19 and followed up with 10 tackles against Syracuse last weekend.
- Notre Dame has moved up to eighth in the latest Bowl Championship Series rankings, the highest for the team since Nov. 3 and Nov. 10, 2002. The Irish are also sixth in the latest release of the Associated Press Top 25, the highest ranking for the team since Nov. 2, 2002.

Notre Dame head coach Charlie Weis will not hold his Sunday wrapup press conference this week.

He will hold a press conference on Thursday, Dec. 1, at 9:00 a.m. (EST) in the Guglielmino Athletics Complex Isban Auditorium to recap the Stanford game and the 2005 regular season.

The dial-in number will be the same as utilized for Coach Weis' usual weekly press conference.

For accredited members of the media who want to attend the weekly press conference, contact Doug Walker or Alan Wasielewski for more information. The Guglielmino Athletics Complex is located on the east side of campus, behind the Joyce Center and the Rolfs Recreation Center and just north of Moose Krause Stadium.

The Guglielmino Athletics Complex auditorium can be accessed through "The Gug's" main entrance, which is located on the west side of the building (facing the Rolfs Recreation Center and main campus).

Both teleconferences will be broadcast live (audio) on www.und.com each week. A full transcript from each teleconference will be posted on www.und.com as soon as possible.

Each Tuesday press conference also will be broadcast live on www.und.com.

Note: This is only a projection. Notre Dame has started with a different non-standard personnel package in each game this season.

2005: The Charlie Weis Era Begins

The 117th season of Notre Dame football is the first in the tenure of head coach Charlie Weis, who has started his career with a 8-2 record, including wins over three ranked opponents.

Weis was named the 28th head football coach in Notre Dame history on Sunday, Dec. 12, 2004. A 1978 Notre Dame graduate, Weis takes the reins of the Irish program after a highly-successful career as an assistant coach in the National Football League.

The owner of four Super Bowl champion rings as products of a stellar 15-season career as an NFL assistant, Weis is a widely-respected disciple of professional coaching standouts Bill Parcells and Bill Belichick. He came to Notre Dame after excelling as offensive coordinator of the New England Patriots, where he played an integral role in New England's victories in three of the last four Super Bowls.

Weis is the first Notre Dame graduate to hold the football head coaching position at his alma mater since Hugh Devore (a '34 graduate) served as interim coach in 1963 and is the first Notre Dame graduate to serve as the Irish football coach on a full-fledged basis since Joe Kuharich (a '38 graduate who coached at Notre Dame from 1959 through '62).

A veteran of 26 seasons in coaching, Weis coached nine seasons with the Patriots, including five as offensive coordinator. He helped produce four Super Bowl championships (New York Giants following the 1990 season, Patriots following '01, '03 and '04 seasons), five conference titles and seven division crowns.

Notre Dame - Stanford Series History and Notes

- Notre Dame and Stanford will be meeting for the 20th time on Saturday. The Irish lead the all-time series 13-6, including wins in the last three contests between the two teams.

- The series began on Jan. 1, 1925 (the end of the 1924 season) when Notre Dame's famed Four Horsemen and head coach Knute Rockne travelled across the country to meet Stanford's Pop Warner and Ernie Nevers. Notre Dame's 27-10 victory earned the Irish their first-ever national championship and the first of four national crowns to come via bowl wins.

- Notre Dame has won the last three meetings with Stanford and have held the Cardinal to just 29 points in the three games. The Irish won 31-7 in 2002, 57-7 in 2003 and 23-15 in 2004.

- Notre Dame is 4-4 all-time at Stanford Stadium, including losses in three of its last four trips to Palo Alto, Calif.

- Notre Dame and Stanford have met every season since 1997, with the Irish holding a 5-3 advantage in the series during that time. The two teams also met seven consecutive times from 1988-1994 and the Irish were ranked in every meeting during the run. Notre Dame finished that seven-game stretch with a 5-2 record against Stanford.

Notre Dame Versus the Pac-10 Conference

- Notre Dame has won 64 percent of its games versus Pac-10 Conference opponents, with a winning series record versus nine of the Pac-10 teams and an overall mark of 73-39-6 (.644) in 118 games. Most of those games (77) have come versus USC (42-30-5), while the Irish have faced Stanford (13-6-0) 19 times.

- Notre Dame has played a handful of games vs. California (4-0), Washington (6-0), Arizona (2-1), Oregon (1-0-1), Oregon State (0-2) and UCLA (2-0). Notre Dame and Arizona State met for the first time in 1998, while the Irish met Oregon State for the second time in the 2004 Insight Bowl. Notre Dame played its first-ever game against Washington State in 2003, downing the Cougars, 29-26, in overtime.

- The 118 games against Pac-10 teams is the second-most for the Irish against any conference. The Big Ten Conference (236) represents the most games played against Notre Dame, followed by the Pac-10 and the ACC (101).

- Notre Dame already has faced two Pac-10 teams this season, winning 36-17 at Washington and dropping a hard-fought 34-31 loss to #1 USC on Oct. 15.

Last Time at Stanford Stadium vs. Stanford

Notre Dame, 57, Stanford, 7, Nov. 29, 2003

For the first time in 2003, Notre Dame put everything together in all areas of the game winning its third consecutive game in easily defeating Stanford, 57-7, on Nov. 29, at Stanford Stadium.

The Irish got their running game going quickly as Julius Jones led the Irish down the field, amassing 74 yards on the opening drive and finishing with a 10-yard TD run as the Irish marched 90 yards on 10 plays. Jones went on to have another huge game as the senior from Big Stone Gap, Va., rushed for 106 yards in the first quarter, had 170 by the half and finished with 218 yards on 23 carries. He became the first player in Irish history to rush for three 200-yard plus games in a season and in a career.

It was the passing game that then stepped to the forefront as QB Brady Quinn found WR Matt Shelton on a 65-yard TD strike putting the Irish up 14-0 with 2:27 to go in the first quarter. For Shelton, it was the first TD catch of his career.

RB Ryan Grant also found his groove against the Cardinal as the Irish closed out the first quarter with a 21-0 lead on a Grant four-yard run. The junior, who found the end zone for the first three times that season, scored his second TD (a two-yard run) with 3:34 left in the first half.

The defense got on the scoreboard to close out the first half as FS Quentin Burrell had a loose ball pop into his arms and took it 65 yards to the house as the Irish took a convincing 34-0 lead into the locker room. The Irish opened the third period where they left off as Quinn once again stretched the field and found WR Maurice Stovall all alone for a 45-yard scoring strike and a 41-0 Irish lead.

After Stanford answered 10 seconds later with a 65-yard scoring pass from Chris Lewis to Mark Bradford, the Irish defense was again on the offensive as SS Garron Bible scooped up a loose ball and went 48 yards for a touchdown.

The Irish then posted a safety before Grant closed out the scoring with the first three-TD game of his career as the Irish won 57-7. The Irish posted a season-best 512 yards of total offense, which was (at the time) the most yards during Tyrone Willingham's tenure. The 57 points were also the most in the Willingham era and were the most points by the Irish since recording 62 vs. Rutgers to close out the 1996 season.

Defensively, Notre Dame held Stanford to only 20 yards rushing and 251 total yards in completely dominating the Cardinal. The Irish recorded seven sacks in the game, including a career-high 3.5 by DE Justin Tuck. Tuck also became the Notre Dame single-season sack leader in the game with 13.5 on the season, breaking the previous record of 10 which had been set twice previously.

Irish First-Year Head Coaches

As Charlie Weis continues his first season at the helm of the Irish, here are a few notes on Notre Dame's head coaches in their inaugural years (see page 25 for a recap of each coaching debut season in ND history).

- The 27 previous head football coaches in Notre Dame history have combined to amass a 168-60-12 (.700) record in their first years at the helm.

- Weis is the first coach to begin his Irish career by beating two ranked opponents in his first two games. The only other attempt was by Terry Brennan in 1954 (won 21-0 vs. #4 Texas, lost 27-14 vs. #19 Purdue).

- Weis is the first coach to begin his Notre Dame tenure with two victories on the road and on the opponent's home field since Knute Rockne in 1918 (at Case Tech, at Wabash). Hunk Anderson faced his first two games away from Notre Dame in '31 (at Indiana, vs. Northwestern at Soldier Field - a win and a tie, respectively) and Dan Devine also started with two games away from South Bend in '75 (vs. Boston College at Foxboro, at Purdue - both wins).

- The two most recent Irish head coaches (Bob Davie, 7-6 in 1997; Tyrone Willingham, 10-3 in 2002) posted winning records in their first seasons. The last Irish coach to turn in a sub-.500 season in his first year is Lou Holtz, whose '86 team finished 5-6. With a projected bowl game this season, Notre Dame has assured itself of a winning season in 2005.

- First-year coaching records since 1913 (most wins listed first) - Tyrone Willingham (10-3 in 2002), Ara Parseghian (9-1 in 1964), Terry Brennan (9-1 in 1954), Charlie Weis (8-2 in 2005), Frank Leahy (8-0-1 in 1941), Dan Devine (8-3 in 1975), Jesse Harper (7-0 in 1913), Bob Davie (7-6 in 1997), Hunk Anderson (6-2-1 in 1931), Elmer Layden (6-3 in 1934), Lou Holtz (5-6 in 1986), Gerry Faust (5-6 in 1981), Joe Kuharich (5-5 in 1959), Knute Rockne (3-1-2 in 1918).

- Since 1913, four Notre Dame coaches - Layden, Parseghian, Holtz and Willingham - have taken over the program the year after their predecessors were either .500 or below. All but Holtz, who went 5-6 in '86, posted winning records in their first seasons and the quartet had a combined 30-13 record in such seasons. The '04 Irish went 6-6 under Willingham.

Notre Dame Scoring At An Historic Pace

40 points - Notre Dame has scored over 40 points six times this season, matching the school record set by both the 1991 and 1992 teams.

30 points - The Irish have scored 30 or more points in nine of 10 games this season (a 17-10 victory at Michigan was the lone exception). The record for 30 point games in a season is nine by the 1991 edition of the Fighting Irish (which included a 30-point performance in a bowl game). Notre Dame also has scored 30 or more points in eight straight games, becoming the first Notre Dame team to accomplish that feat.

From an historic perspective, Notre Dame has only scored over 30 points in eight games or more just five times in the program's history. The 1966, 1992 and 1993 teams all posted eight 30-point performances (the '93 team total includes a bowl game as well).

Notre Dame is currently seventh in the nation in scoring offense, averaging 38.2 points per game. If the 38.2 average holds up, it would set a Notre Dame single-season record.

In addition, the 2005 Irish team has already scored more points this season (382) than any of the previous eight Notre Dame teams. The 1996 team finished the year with 407 points. The school record for points scored (426 in 1991) also is in reach, as the Irish need 44 points in their final regular-season game. Scoring 38 points in the final game of the season, plus a potential bowl game, would give the Irish 458 points.

With one regular-season game remaining, Charlie Weis' first Notre Dame team already has piled up 382 points - the most in a debut season for a non-interim Irish head coach.

Notre Dame's Offensive Improvement the Best in the Nation

Entering this weekend's action, Notre Dame's 126.2 yards-per-game improvement for the Irish offense this season is rated first in the nation, ahead of USC, Iowa and Washington State. Here is a look at this year's top 10 most improved offenses:

Most Improved Teams in Total Offense

Rank	School	2004	2005	Improvement
1.	Notre Dame	345.5	477.4	+126.2
2.	USC	449.1	577.6	+122.1
3.	Iowa	312.7	416.6	+121.8
4.	Washington State	368.6	487.5	+120.7
5.	Penn State	310.7	437.4	+113.6
6.	Central Florida	280.0	396.9	+113.0
7.	New Mexico	298.0	398.2	+99.4
8.	Maryland	298.0	399.4	+97.8
9.	Clemson	295.6	390.3	+90.8
10.	Arizona State	435.4	518.1	+82.7

Offense Piling Up Yardage

The offense has been the highlight of the 2005 Notre Dame football season thus far. The Irish are currently 10th in the country in total offense (471.70) and are on pace for the most prolific offensive season since the team ended the 1996 season ranked 10th in total offense. Currently, the Irish are averaging 324.5 passing yards per game and are on pace to shatter the Notre Dame record of 252.7 set in 1970 (Notre Dame finished that season ranked eighth in the country in passing offense and second overall with a school-record 510.5 total yards per game).

One measuring stick for offensive production is games in which the team compiles over 500 yards of total offense. Notre Dame has accomplished that feat six times this season (502 at Pittsburgh, 594 vs. Michigan State, 560 at Washington, 621 at Purdue, 511 vs. BYU, 505 vs. Navy) - marking the first time the Irish have posted six 500-yard performances since the 1970 season.

Here is a breakdown of Notre Dame's 500-plus games in two comparable seasons (1970, 1992) -

1970 (six): 633 vs. Purdue, 513 vs. Michigan State, 600 vs. Navy, 574 vs. Army, 606 vs. Pittsburgh, 557 vs. USC

1992 (five): 561 vs. Northwestern, 509 vs. Michigan State, 580 vs. Purdue, 521 vs. Pittsburgh, 576 vs. Boston College

Keep an Eye on Third Down

Notre Dame has been highly effective on third down offensively this season. The Irish are ninth in the nation (73 of 152, 480) on third down and are holding their opponents to a respectable .345 (49 of 152, 32nd in the nation) on defense.

Irish Rule The Red Zone

The Irish offense has been outstanding in red zone efficiency this season. Notre Dame has scored on 37 of its 44 trips into the red zone - and has proved capable of scoring both through the air and on the ground. Of the 31 touchdowns scored in the red zone, 15 have come via the passing game and 16 have come in the running game.

Notre Dame has forced its opponent into seven turnovers during 36 red zone visits this season. The Irish have caused three fumbles and intercepted four passes inside their own 20-yard line this season. Overall, Notre Dame's opponents are 28 for 36 (.778) in red zone chances with 22 touchdowns and six field goals.

First-Year Players Seeing Significant Time

Through the first 10 games of the 2005 season, Notre Dame has seen 25 players make their Irish playing debut. Included in the 25 players are 11 true freshmen from Notre Dame's 15-player class signed last year. The complete list of players that have played for the first time this season: James Bent, Justin Brown, David Bruton*, Maurice Crum, Jr., Casey Cullen, Paul Duncan*, Leo Ferrine, David Fitzgerald, David Grimes*, LaBrose Hedgemon III, Ray Herring*, Joey Hiben*, D.J. Hord*, Pat Kuntz*, Terrail Lambert, Ashley McConnell, Marty Mooney, Steve Quinn*, Asaph Schwapp*, Dwight Stephenson, Jr., Scott Smith*, Ronald Talley, Michael Turkovich* and Anthony Vernaglia.

Four Ranked Teams in Six Games

Including the Oct. 15 matchup with No. 1 USC, Notre Dame faced four ranked teams (according to the AP ranking) in this season's first six games for the fifth time in the program's history this year. Notre Dame won three of the games this year, taking down #23 Pittsburgh, #3 Michigan and #22 Purdue - all on the road.

Notre Dame faced a similar challenge in 2003, 2000, 1979 and 1953. The 1953 team (W, 28-21 at #6 Oklahoma; W, 24-14 vs. #15 Pittsburgh; W, 27-14 vs. #4 Georgia Tech; W, 38-7 vs. Navy) is the only Irish squad to win all four games.

Notre Dame's Solid Start in 2005

Notre Dame's three victories over ranked opponents have all occurred on the road this season - and all on the opponent's home field. That marks the first time Notre Dame has defeated three ranked teams on the road since 2002 (vs. #21 Maryland, at #18 Air Force, at #11 Florida State), but the first time since 1990 that feat has been achieved on the opponents' home fields (at #24 Michigan State, at #9 Tennessee, at #18 USC).

The three ranked victories also occurred in the first five games of the year. The 2005 season marks the 11th time Notre Dame has faced three ranked opponents in its first five games of the season - and the '05 season is the first time since 1980 (vs. #13 Miami, vs. #14 Michigan and vs. #9 Purdue) that the team has won all three such games in five attempts (1996, 1997, 1999, 2000, 2003).

Notre Dame Closing Gap In All-Time Winning Percentage

Notre Dame's recent final season records ended up pushing the Irish out of the top spot in college football's all-time winning percentage list. Notre Dame is currently second on the all-time winning percentage and all-time wins list behind Michigan, but the winning percentage gap has narrowed. Michigan, with its regular season complete and waiting for its bowl destination with a 7-4 record, is currently 849-279-36 all-time for a winning percentage of .7448.

The Irish are 8-2 and 810-265-42 all-time for a winning percentage of .7439. Should the Irish close out the regular season with a victory, their winning percentage would move to .7444 - and the Notre Dame - Michigan bowl game outcomes would determine ownership of the all-time winning percentage mark.

Notre Dame Winning Time-of-Possession Battle

While Notre Dame's offense has been piling up the yardage this season (averaging 471.7 yards per game), it also has won the time of possession battle in eight of 10 games this season. Only BYU (33:39) and Navy (31:35) have been able to hold the ball for more than 30 minutes against Notre Dame. Overall, Notre Dame averages 33:02 minutes per game with the ball, compared to 26:58 for its opponents. Here is a game-by-game breakdown:

Game	Notre Dame	Opponent
at Pitt	32:46	27:14
at Mich	30:56	29:04
MSU	35:49	24:11
Wash	36:56	23:04

Syracuse	32:13	27:47

Notre Dame in the Bowl Championship Series

Notre Dame has moved up to eighth in the latest release of the BCS Standings (available on page 25 of this notes package). That marks the highest ranking for the team since it was placed at seventh on Nov. 3 and Nov. 10, 2002. Notre Dame eventually appeared in the Gator Bowl that season.

For Notre Dame to qualify for the pool of potential at-large teams this season, it must win nine games and finish in the top 12 of the BCS Standings.

Notre Dame's Highest BCS Rankings -

Third - Oct. 20 and Oct. 27, 2002

Sixth - Nov. 17, 2002

Seventh - Nov. 3 and Nov. 10, 2002

Ninth - Dec. 8, 2002 and Nov. 14, 2005

Tenth - Dec. 1, 2002

Stovall Making the Most of His Senior Season

Senior WR Maurice Stovall is enjoying a career year in his last season with the Fighting Irish. The Philadelphia, Pa., native is second on the team with 53 catches for 887 yards and 10 touchdowns. His production over Notre Dame's last three games has been incredible as well, as he has caught nine touchdown passes in the team's last four victories. The nine touchdown passes in a four-game stretch is easily the best four-game performance for an Irish receiver. In fact, the nine scoring receptions would rank third on Notre Dame's all-time single-season list. With a total of 10 touchdown catches, Stovall trails Derrick Mayes (11, 1994) and teammate Jeff Samardzija (13, 2005) on the single-season record list at Notre Dame.

Here is a look at Stovall's production game-by-game this season -

Tony Roberts Honored

The National Football Foundation & College Football Hall of Fame selected Notre Dame play-by-play legend Tony Roberts to receive the 2005 Chris Schenkel Award.

The award, named for the legendary college football announcer, is given annually to a college football announcer who has excelled in his field and contributed to his community. The award was presented to Roberts on Friday, Aug. 12, at the Mayor's Breakfast during the College Football Hall of Fame's Enshrinement Festival in South Bend.

After graduating from Columbia College in Chicago with a degree in journalism, Roberts went on to become the voice of Indiana University basketball and football, Navy football, Washington Senators baseball and Washington Bullets basketball.

Now in his 26th year as a member of the Westwood One Radio Network broadcast team, Roberts is currently the voice of Notre Dame football. In addition to his play-by-play duties, he broadcasts three times daily for Westwood One/CBS Radio Sports and has covered the last five Summer Olympics for NBC Radio.

Stovall Moving Up the Career Charts

Senior WR Maurice Stovall currently sits in the top seven for career receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns at Notre Dame. His offensive explosion (469 yards, nine touchdowns) in the last four games has hastened his climb up the Irish all-time career charts.

Mo (Stovall) and Shark (Samardzija) - A Dynamic Duo

Senior WR Maurie Stovall and junior WR Jeff Samardzija currently are the only two teammates in the country with double-digit touchdown catches. Samardzija has a school-record 13 scoring grabs, while Stovall has caught nine in the last four games and 10 total. They are the first duo in Notre Dame history to post 10 or more touchdown receptions in the same season.

Quinn and the Notre Dame Record Book

Junior QB Brady Quinn, in his third full year as the Irish starter, already has made a lasting mark on the Irish football record book. Here is a quick overview of some of his accomplishments and rankings all-time at Notre Dame (additional records broken are listed on page 26 of this notes package):

Touchdown Passes, Single Game - 6 - vs. BYU, the school record, breaking his previous mark of five posted earlier this season against Michigan State.

Touchdown Passes, Career - 55 - first on the all-time list ahead of Ron Powlus (52).

Touchdown Passes, Season - 29 - the Notre Dame single-season record, breaking Powlus' mark of 19 from 1994.

Completions, Single Game - 33 - vs. Michigan State, matched Joe Theismann's school record from the 1970 game at USC. Quinn completed 32 passes against BYU on Oct. 22.

Consecutive Completions - 12 - vs. BYU, second on the all-time list (matching Jarious Jackson) behind Ron Powlus' 14 straight against Michigan State in 1997. Quinn has posted three consecutive completion streaks over 10 this season (11 at Pittsburgh and at Purdue, 12 vs. BYU).

Consecutive Passes Without an Interception - 130 - compiled vs. USC, BYU, Tennessee and Navy this season, breaking the old record of 127 by Carlyle Holiday during the 2002 season.

Passing Yards, Single Game - 487 - vs. Michigan State, second all-time behind Theismann's 526 at USC in '70.

Passing Yards, First Half - 287 - vs. BYU, breaking his own record of 283 against Purdue earlier this season.

Passing Yards, Single Season - 3,201 - besting Jarious Jackson's school record 2,753 from 1999.

Passing Yards, Career - 7,618 - breaking Powlus' mark of 7,602.

Passing Attempts, Single Season - 367 - breaking his own mark of 332 from 2003.

Passing Attempts, Career - 1,009 - passing Powlus (969).

Pass Completions, Single Season - 238 - breaking his own mark of 195 from 2004.

Pass Completions, Career - 584 - passing Powlus (558).

Games with Four or More Touchdown Passes - 4 - surpassing Powlus' mark of three. Quinn has thrown at least four touchdown passes against Washington (2004), Michigan State (2005), BYU (2005) and Navy (2005).

Games with 250+ Passing Yards - 14 - beaking Jackson's record of nine.

And here are the records he is currently on pace to break -

Passing Attempts Per Game, Season - 36.7 currently, would break his own record of 29.4 from 2004.

Passing Attempts Per Game, Career - 30.9 currently, would break Powlus' record of 22.0.

Pass Completions Per Game, Season - 23.8 currently, would break Terry Hanratty's 16.6 from 1968.

Pass Completions Per Game, Career - 17.2 currently, would break Powlus' record of 12.6..

Consecutive Games Completing A Pass - 34 - tied for second all-time, behind Powlus' 43 games.

Completion Percentage, Season - 64.9 currently, would break Kevin McDougal's record of 61.6 from 1993.

Completion Percentage, Career - 57.9 currently, behind McDougal's 62.2 from 1990-93.

Pass Efficiency Rating, Season - 161.47 currently, ahead of John Huarte's 155.1 from 1964.

Avg. Passing Yards Per Game, Season - 320.1 - far ahead of Joe Theismann's 242.9 from 1970.

Avg. Passing Yards Per Game, Career - 224.06 - currently first on the all-time list ahead of Powlus (172.7).

Quinn - Notre Dame Yardage King

Junior QB Brady Quinn already has surpassed the school records for single-season yardage gained (3,302) and career yardage gained (7,740), surpassing both records against Syracuse last weekend.

Quinn broke Jarious Jackson's total yardage mark from 1999 (3,217) and Ron Powlus' career yardage mark (7,479) from 1994-97.

Quinn vs. Other Top Quarterbacks

Graduation Rate

The University of Notre Dame ranks among the top three Division I-A institutions in five major student-athlete graduation rate categories – overall, football, men, women and African-American – according to statistics released in October 2004 by the NCAA.

The federally mandated '04 NCAA Graduation Rates Report, the 14th such survey issued by the association, covers students who enrolled between '94 and '97 at Division I institutions, including 117 in Division I-A. The NCAA bases graduation rates on the raw percentage of student-athletes who entered an institution and graduated within six years. Students who leave or transfer, regardless of academic standing, are considered non-graduates.

Among student-athletes who completed all four years of athletic eligibility at Notre Dame, 99 percent earned their degrees. The national average was 84 percent.

Using the NCAA formula, Notre Dame graduated a four-year average of 87 percent of its student-athletes, second only to Duke University at 90 percent, and tied with Stanford and Northwestern Universities. The national average for Division I-A schools is 61 percent.

In August '03, the NCAA presented an Academic Achievement Award to Notre Dame for its best-in-the-nation one-year graduation rate of 92 percent for all student-athletes who enrolled in '96.

Notre Dame graduated 71 percent of its African-American student-athletes, ranking ninth nationally, and Irish football players graduated at a 77 percent rate, to rank eighth.

Quinn 300

Since 1950, a Notre Dame quarterback has thrown for 300 yards or more 15 times. Junior QB Brady Quinn is responsible for six of those performances - the most for any single Notre Dame quarterback. Quinn has thrown for 350 (vs. Boston College, 2003), 432 (vs. Purdue, 2004), 487 (vs. Michigan State, 2005), 327 (at Washington, 2005), 440 (at Purdue, 2005) and 467 (vs. BYU, 2005).

Quinn is the only Notre Dame quarterback to throw for over 400 yards four times in a career (in fact, he is the only one to do it twice) - and in Notre Dame's last road game at Purdue he became the first Irish signalcaller to throw for more than 300 yards in three consecutive games. He also is the first Irish quarterback to throw for 300 or more yards four times in a season.

* - Notre Dame record

Quinn On A Streak

Junior QB Brady Quinn has thrown at least one touchdown pass in his last 15 games played (and started) for the Irish, breaking John Huarte's record of 10 set in 1964. The Dublin, Ohio, native has totaled 37 scoring tosses during the run (2.5 per game).

Quinn's touchdown passes over the last 14 games:

2005 - 2 vs. Syracuse, 4 vs. Navy 3 vs. Tennessee, 6 vs. BYU, 1 vs. USC, 3 at Purdue, 1 at Washington, 5 vs. Michigan State, 2 at Michigan, 2 at Pittsburgh

2004 - 2 vs. Oregon State (Insight Bowl), 1 at USC, 3 vs. Pittsburgh, 1 at Tennessee, 1 vs. Boston College

Quinn Throws Six

Junior QB Brady Quinn became the first Notre Dame quarterback to throw six touchdown passes in a single game against BYU on Oct. 22. Quinn finished the game 32 of 41 for 467 yards, six touchdowns and no interceptions. It ranks as possibly the greatest single-game performance by a Notre Dame quarterback and earned Quinn the ABC Sports/Cingular All-American Player of the Week award for the second time in 2005 (he also earned the award after his stellar performance at Purdue).

Quinn broke his own school record of five touchdown passes set earlier this season against Michigan State.

Quinn's touchdown passes vs. BYU:

- 10 yards to Maurice Stovall, first quarter, 7:12
- 14 yards to Jeff Samardzija, second quarter, 10:33
- 15 yards to Stovall, second quarter, 4:18
- 21 yards to Samardzija, third quarter, 12:50
- 36 yards to Stovall, third quarter, 4:47
- 24 yards to Stovall, third quarter, 2:16

Quinn Throws 21 in Notre Dame Stadium

Junior QB Brady Quinn shattered the Notre Dame record for touchdown passes at Notre Dame Stadium this season, exploding for 21 scoring tosses this season - 5 vs. MSU, 1 vs. USC, 6 vs. BYU, 3 vs. Tennessee, 4 vs. Navy, 2 vs. Syracuse.

The previous record for touchdown passes in Notre Dame Stadium in a single-season was 11 by Ron Powlus (1994) and Jarious Jackson (1999). Quinn's performance at home this season has been so dominating that his total home field touchdown passes would have broken the previous single-season record, regardless of venue, of 19 held by Ron Powlus. Quinn has thrown eight touchdown passes in four road games this season (29 total).

Quinn Now The Best Third-Year Starting Quarterback

In 2005, junior Brady Quinn has become just the 13th quarterback in Notre Dame history to start under center for three years. The following is a list of Quinn's predecessors, along with their stats (when available) from their third starting season. In the 12 seasons played by three-year starting Irish quarterbacks, prior to Quinn's '05 season, the group amassed a 90-30-4 combined record.

Quinn has already compiled the greatest season by any third-year starting quarterback in Notre Dame history. He has surpassed his predecessors in every key statistical category this season.

Quinn a Touchdown Machine

Junior QB Brady Quinn has accounted for two or more touchdowns in nine of Notre Dame's 10 games this season (a single touchdown pass at Washington was the lone exception) and currently rides a seven-game streak of multiple touchdown performances - three (passing) at Purdue, two (one run, one pass) vs. USC, six (passing) vs. BYU, three (passing) vs. Tennessee, four (passing) vs. Navy and two (passing) vs. Syracuse.

Samardzija Finishes Eight for First Eight in 2005

Junior WR Jeff Samardzija entered the 2005 campaign without a touchdown catch, but exploded this season to catch a touchdown pass in each of Notre Dame's first eight games. The two-sport athlete (who was a top-line starting pitcher for the Irish baseball team last season) became the first Irish receiver to begin the season with eight consecutive games with a touchdown catch - which made him the Notre Dame recordholder for consecutive games with a touchdown reception. He surpassed Malcolm Johnson's six-game run from 1998 against BYU. Johnson caught a scoring toss in six straight midseason contests (Arizona State, Army, Baylor, Boston College, Navy and LSU) from Oct. 10 through Nov. 11, during the '98 season.

Samardzija, who also serves as the team's holder on field-goal attempts, tied a Notre Dame record with three touchdown receptions versus Michigan State (since broken by teammate Maurice Stovall, who posted four touchdown receptions against BYU). Samardzija was the seventh player to catch three touchdown passes in a game and the first since Tom Gatewood versus Purdue in 1970.

Samardzija, Statistically Speaking

Junior WR Jeff Samardzija is enjoying a career season in 2005, leading the team with 63 catches for 999 yards and 13 touchdowns. He is ranked ninth in the country in receiving yards per game (99.9) and is poised to become Notre Dame's first 1,000-yard receiver since 1970 when Tom Gatewood posted 1,123. Samardzija is just 124 yards away from Gatewood's single-season reception yardage record.

He has already surpassed the single-season touchdown total. His 13 scoring receptions have bested Derrick Mayes' previous record of 11 from 1994

Zbikowski Returns

Junior Tom Zbikowski, who has seen action in just 21 games for the Irish, has already made a name for himself in the Notre Dame record books. At one point this season in a three-game stretch against USC, BYU and Tennessee, he returned a punt or interception for a touchdown four times - the first Irish defensive player to accomplish such a feat.

Here is a look at Zbikowski's returns this season -

- vs. USC - punt return 60 yards
- vs. BYU - interception return 83 yards
- vs. Tennessee - punt return 78 yards, interception return 33 yards

In addition, Zbikowski returned a fumble 75 yards against Michigan State in 2004.

With his interception and punt return for a touchdown against Tennessee on Nov. 5, Zbikowski became the first Irish player to accomplish that feat since Nick Rassas against Northwestern in 1965. Rassas returned an interception 92 yards for a touchdown and a punt 72 yards for a score in Notre Dame's 38-7 victory.

With his five career returns (two interceptions, two punts, one fumble), Zbikowski has already established himself among the best big-play return specialists in Notre Dame history.

Zbikowski Seventh Nationally in Punt Returns

Junior S Tom Zbikowski's emergence as a playmaker on special teams is reflected in the most recent NCAA statistical rankings. Zbikowski is seventh in the nation in punt return average (17.25) and has been ranked as high as third this year. With two punt returns for a touchdown, Zbikowski joins Drew, Texas' Aaron Ross and Wisconsin's Brandon Williams as the only players in the nation to have multiple scoring punt returns (Drew has three, Ross and Williams two).

Walker 80 Yards from 1,000 in 2005

Sophomore RB Darius Walker needs 80 yards in Notre Dame's final regular-season game (and a possible bowl game) to post the 14th 1,000-yard rushing season in school history. Walker would become the ninth Irish player to rush for 1,000 yards and the first since Julius Jones totaled 1,268 in 2003.

Walker's 100-Yard Games

Sophomore RB Darius Walker has rushed for 100 yards six times this season, marking the first time since 1993 that an Irish player has posted six or more 100-yard rushing performances in a season. Lee Becton ended the '93 campaign with seven consecutive 100-yard performances.

Sophomore running back Darius Walker set a Notre Dame freshman rushing record in 2004 with 786 yards, eclipsing the mark of 756 Jerome Heavens set in 1975, en route to earning third-team Freshman All-America honors from The Sporting News. If Walker stays on the pace he set in his first season with the Irish, he will be primed to turn in one of the finest statistical seasons ever by an Irish sophomore. Here's a look at how the top 10 rushers in Notre Dame history, plus a few other notables, fared in their sophomore year.

Walker's Great Start

Sophomore RB Darius Walker started the 2005 season with four consecutive 100-yard performances. He ran for an even 100 yards at #23/25 Pittsburgh (42-21 Irish victory), posted 104 yards in a 17-10 victory at #3/3 Michigan, rushed for 116 yards against Michigan State (44-41 OT loss) and had a career-high 128 yards at Washington on Sept. 24. Purdue ended Walker's streak of 100-yard games at four by holding him to 80 yards on 23 carries.

The effort against Washington made Walker the first Irish running back to start the season with four consecutive 100-yard rushing performances. The last Notre Dame running back to rush for over 100 yards in four straight games was Randy Kinder, who rushed for 100 yards against Purdue (142), Vanderbilt (110), Texas (129) and Ohio State (143) in 1995.

Walker Expanding His Game

While sophomore Darius Walker set the Notre Dame freshman rushing record last season (786 yards in '04), he was limited in his role in the Irish passing game (10 catches, 74 yards). He has already eclipsed those numbers in 2005, posting 31 catches (fourth on the team) for 259 yards and two touchdowns.

He is currently second on the all-time single season receptions by a back list at Notre Dame. He trails record holder Bob Gladieux (37 in 1968) by six entering this weekend's game.

Receptions by a Running Back - Season

Rank	Name	Number	Season
1.	Bob Gladieux	37	1968
2.	Darius Walker	31	2005
3.	Autry Denson	30	1997

	Mark Green	25	1986

Travis Thomas Steps Up

Looking for a change-of-pace back against No. 1 USC on Oct. 15, Notre Dame head coach Charlie Weis turned to junior RB Travis Thomas. Thomas, who has shined in reserve duty this season, stepped up to rush for 52 yards, including a 16-yard run to record Notre Dame's first touchdown of the day against the Trojans. Thomas also posted a career-best 58 yards rushing against Navy.

Thomas' production this season already surpasses his totals from 2004, his first season of action for the Irish:

Year	Games	Att.	Yards	Avg.	TD	Long
2004	11	25	25	1.0	0	12
2005	10	60	235	3.9	4	16

Fitzpatrick Puts His Name in the Irish Record Book

Senior PK/P D.J. Fitzpatrick has been perfect on all 48 of his PAT attempts this season, which puts him in a tie for the single-season record at Notre Dame with Craig Hentrich (1991). Fitzpatrick missed a chance to break the record last weekend against Syracuse, as he was roughed on a field-goal attempt and shaken up. Carl Gioia then put his name in the record book by scoring his first point on the PAT after Notre Dame's subsequent touchdown.

Fitzpatrick is currently fourth on the career PAT percentage list with a mark of .980 (99 of 101), fourth on the PAT career total list (99, behind Jim Sanson with 108 from 1996-99) and fifth on the all-time field goal attempt list (47), behind Hentrich (56, 1989-92) in fourth place.

Older and Wiser

The 2005 Notre Dame offensive line is one of the most experienced units in school history. With the entire starting group from a year ago still in the fold, the Irish offense boasts almost 100 combined career starts on the line. Entering the '05 campaign, senior tackle Mark LeVair started the last 24 Notre Dame games and led the veteran group in starting assignments. Seniors Bob Morton and Dan Stevenson were a close second with 22 starts each, while junior Ryan Harris had 19 starts to his credit and junior John Sullivan was the junior man of the group with 12. Here is a look at the 10 most experienced offensive line units to wear the blue and gold since '85, with the '05 group added in for comparison.

RB - Rose Bowl

The Last Time... Notre Dame vs. Stanford (Oct. 9, 2004)

Notre Dame - 23
Stanford - 15
Notre Dame Stadium

NOTRE DAME, Ind. — Notre Dame head coach Tyrone Willingham found a way to beat his former Stanford team for a third straight time as the Irish claimed a 23-15 win. This one, though, was nowhere near as easy as the previous two. With the victory, Notre Dame became just the second Division I-A team to win 800 games (Michigan is the only other school to do so).

Notre Dame looked as if it was in trouble until a muffed punt snap by Stanford set up a go-ahead touchdown by Ryan Grant from 3 yards out early in the fourth quarter. The Irish added an insurance score on quarterback Brady Quinn's two-yard run with 4:10 left and turned back Stanford's last-gasp drive for a tying score. Quinn was 11-of-24 passing for 173 yards, but didn't play the last series after being shaken up on the TD run.

Stanford (3-2), which lost to the Irish (4-2) by 24 and 50 points the past two seasons, looked as though it might finally beat its former coach. The Cardinal were leading 15-10 until punter Jay Ottovegio dropped the snap late in the third quarter despite no pressure by the Irish. Ottovegio picked the ball up and tried to get the punt off, but was tackled by Corey Mays just as he released the ball and fanned on the kick. Stanford's David Bergeron recovered the ball on the 27 for Stanford, but the Irish took over on downs.

Grant, who missed the previous two games and the season-opener against Brigham Young because of an injured left hamstring, also had a 1-yard TD run in the third quarter. Grant finished with 67 yards on 19 carries for Notre Dame. Willingham said having Grant back was a key for the Irish.

Darius Walker ran for 82 yards on 20 carries. Notre Dame, held to 76 yards rushing in its loss to Purdue and 11 yards in its loss to Brigham Young, rushed for 149 yards and improved to 4-0 in games when it rushes for at least 100 yards.

The Cardinal couldn't finish their drives, settling for three field goals by Michael Sgroi, including two on their first two possessions when they drove inside the Notre Dame 10. Despite all their troubles, Stanford had a chance to tie it from the 39-yard line on the last play of the game. But Notre Dame knocked down the pass by Trent Edwards into the end zone to preserve the victory. Edwards was 17-of-38 passing for 267 yards for the Cardinal.

College Graduates

The 2005 Notre Dame roster features seven players who have already earned their undergraduate degree from the University. Fifth-year seniors Brian Beidatsch, D.J. Fitzpatrick, Mark LeVoi, Corey Mays, Rashon Powers-Neal, Matt Shelton and Dan Stevenson all graduated from Notre Dame in May of 2005. Teammate and current fifth-year player Brandon Hoyte would be among the group if he was not busy seeking DUAL degrees in psychology and management.

The fifth-year senior group also proved to be diligent workers in the classroom - especially in their final undergraduate semester at the University. None of the players earned lower than a 2.7 GPA in the spring semester of 2005.

- DL Brian Beidatsch - degree in marketing from the Mendoza College of Business (3.417 final semester GPA).
- K/P D.J. Fitzpatrick - degree in accounting from the Mendoza College of Business.
- OL Mark LeVoi - degree in anthropology from the College of Arts and Letters.
- LB Corey Mays - degree in psychology from the College of Arts and Letters (3.25 final semester GPA, 3.04 overall GPA).
- RB Rashon Powers-Neal - degree in finance from the Mendoza College of Business (3.000 final semester GPA).
- WR Matt Shelton - degree in marketing from the Mendoza College of Business (3.333 final semester GPA).
- OL Dan Stevenson - degree in marketing from the Mendoza College of Business (3.60 final semester GPA, 3.30 overall GPA).

Notre Dame's seven college graduates is tied for the sixth-best in the nation. The full list (minimum of six) -

On the 'Fas' Track to Success

Senior tight end Anthony Fasano turned in a breakout 2004 season for the Irish, catching 27 balls for 367 yards and four touchdowns. Against Purdue in '04, the 6-4, 257-pound Fasano hauled in a career-high eight passes for a Notre Dame tight end-record 155 yards and was named John Mackey National Tight End of the Week. His 27 catches in '04 tied him with former Irish standout Pete Chryplewicz for the fifth-highest single-season total by a tight end and he has far surpassed that total this season with 40 catches.

Barring injury Fasano has moved onto Notre Dame's top five all-time tight end receiving list. Here's a look at where he stands heading into the weekend:

Player	Receptions	Years
Ken MacAfee	128	1974-77
Anthony Fasano	86	2003-present
Derek Brown	62	1988-91
Dean Masztak	62	1978-81
Tony Hunter	55	1979-82
Mark Bavaro	55	1981-84

Player	Yards	Years
Ken MacAfee	1759	1974-77
Anthony Fasano	1114	2003-present
Dean Masztak	924	1978-81
Derek Brown	899	1988-91
Mike Creaney	890	1970-72
Mark Bavaro	771	1981-84

What makes Fasano's totals even more impressive is the fact that he has tallied them in a little more than two years of action, after not playing his freshman year in 2002. Here's a breakdown of what Notre Dame's other prolific pass-catching tight ends did in their third seasons in the blue and gold.

Player	Receptions-Yards	Touchdowns
Anthony Fasano	42-545	2
Ken MacAfee	34-483	3
Mike Creaney	17-321	2
Derek Brown	15-220	1
Mark Bavaro	23-376	3

Fasano also is in teach of the single-season mark for catches by a tight end, needing just 12 more this season to reach Ken MacAfee's record of 54 from 1977.

Player	Receptions	Year
Ken MacAfee	54	1977
Anthony Fasano	42	2005
Tony Hunter	42	1982
Ken MacAfee	34	1976
Mark Bavaro	32	1984

Don't Forget the Anniversary

The 2005 football season marks the 75th anniversary of the opening of fabled Notre Dame Stadium. The Irish have played 386 games in the facility to date and own a 291-90-5 (.760) record in the "House that Rockne Built."

The Irish were 3-3 in Notre Dame Stadium in '04, but rebounded to finish 4-2 at home this season and push the team's record at home to 95-32 (.748) over the last 21 years.

The most wins in a season by the Irish at home is seven by the '88 national championship team and the longest home winning streak in Notre Dame football history is 28 games (from 11/21/42 through 9/30/50).

In '55, the Stadium's 25th anniversary, Notre Dame went 8-2 on the season for coach Terry Brennan, including a 4-0 home record; the Irish turned in a 9-2-1 overall record and a 5-0 home mark to commemorate Notre Dame Stadium's 50th anniversary in '80.

Notre Dame Stadium Greatest Wins

As part of Notre Dame Stadium's 75th Anniversary in 2005, www.und.com, the official athletics website of the Fighting Irish, asked fans to vote for the most memorable victory in Notre Dame Stadium.

Voting was done over the summer on www.und.com and tabulated on Aug. 1. Here are some trends from the voting:

- According to voters, the greatest era in Notre Dame Stadium history was 1988 through 1993. Seven of the top 10 games fall into this time frame, including the top three choices by fans (1988 vs. #1 Miami, 1993 vs. #1 Florida State and 1990 vs. #2 Miami).

- Wins over longtime rivals (USC, Michigan) resonate among the Irish faithful. Twelve of the top 20 games selected were wins over USC (six) and Michigan (six).

- Signature moments cause a game to stand out in Notre Dame fans' memories. "The Snow Bowl" (Notre Dame vs. Penn State in 1992) was ranked fifth. "The Green Jersey Game" (Notre Dame vs. USC in 1977) was ranked fourth. "The Reggie Ho Game" (Notre Dame vs. Michigan in 1988) was ranked sixth. "The Harry 'O' Kick" (Notre Dame vs. Michigan in 1980) was ranked 10th.

- The new configuration of Notre Dame Stadium (rededicated in 1997) has yet to see its share of greatest victories. Notre Dame's recent upset wins over Michigan (2002 and 2004) were 11th and 12th on the list, but a win over Purdue (1998) was only able to break into the top 30.

- Notre Dame fans remember recent games more fondly than those played in the past. Of the top 20 games selected, only six were played before 1977.

Here is a list of the final top 10 as voted on by Irish fans on www.und.com (see the web page for short recaps on each victory).

1. #4 Notre Dame 31, #1 Miami 30, Oct. 15, 1988
  2. #2 Notre Dame 31, #1 Fla. St. 24, Nov. 13, 1993
  3. #6 Notre Dame 29, #2 Miami 20, Oct. 20, 1990
  4. #11 Notre Dame 49, #5 USC 19, Oct. 22, 1977
  5. #8 Notre Dame 17, #22 Penn St. 16, Nov. 14, 1992
  6. #13 Notre Dame 19, #9 Michigan 17, Sept. 10, 1988
  7. #1 Notre Dame 28, #4 Michigan 24, Sept. 15, 1990
  8. #1 Notre Dame 28, #9 USC 24, Oct. 21, 1989
  9. #8 Notre Dame 23, #6 USC 14, Oct. 27, 1973
  10. #8 Notre Dame 29, #14 Michigan 27, Sept. 20, 1980
- www.und.com also will have a complete list of the top 20 games as voted on by the fans.

Irish Have Faced Another Loaded Schedule

With the updates of the AP and USA Today/Coaches Poll, Notre Dame will continue to face one of the toughest schedules in the nation (rankings are AP/USA Today and Harris Interactive):

- Notre Dame is the only team that played three games against top four teams from the preseason polls - #1/1 USC (L, 31-34), #5/4 Tennessee (W, 41-21) and #3/3 Michigan (W, 17-10).
- Notre Dame is the only school that will face three teams that were in the top 10 of both preseason polls this season.
- Notre Dame will play games against six teams ranked in the top 25 this season at least once this season. The Irish have already defeated #23/25 Pittsburgh 42-21, #3/3 Michigan 17-10 and #22/20/22 Purdue.

The Irish also faced #1/1/1 USC, Tennessee (who was ranked as high as third this season) and Michigan State (who have been in and out of the top 25 this year).

In Front of the Nation

In 2004, the Notre Dame football team once again received more network television exposure and played in more highly-rated games than any other program in college football.

The Irish played in the highest-rated network game of the '04 regular season (and the highest-rated regular-season game overall in two seasons) in its '04 regular-season finale at USC. That game, televised by ABC Sports, received a 6.3 Nielsen rating and was seen in 6.898 million households.

Overall, Notre Dame played in six games that ranked among the top 25 highest-rated network telecasts and no other school played in more than five (Tennessee and Georgia each played in five).

Including Notre Dame's last game against Navy, the Irish have a remarkable streak of 157 consecutive games (more than 12 full seasons) that have been carried by either NBC (86), ABC (44), CBS (14) or ESPN (13). You have to go all the way back to the '92 season to find a Notre Dame game that wasn't on one of those four networks.

The streak will continue throughout the 2005 season as well. The last game of the 2005 season at Stanford will be broadcast on ABC.

In Front of a Full House

Notre Dame has played in front of sellout crowds in 180 of its previous 205 games, including 55 of its last 59 contests dating back to the end of the Fiesta Bowl at the end of the 2000 season (the '01 and '03 games at Stanford, last year's game vs. Navy at the Meadowlands and this season's game at Washington were not sellouts). At Michigan in '03, the Irish and Wolverines attracted the largest crowd in NCAA history (111,726), marking the third time in the history of the series that an NCAA attendance record has been set. It also represented the seventh time in the last four seasons that Notre Dame has been part of establishing a new stadium attendance record (at Nebraska and Texas A&M in '01; at Air Force and Florida State, home vs. Boston College in '02, vs. Oregon State in the Insight Bowl in '04 - the game set a Bank One Ballpark record for football configuration). Notre Dame and Michigan played before an over-capacity 111,386 at Michigan Stadium in September of this season. This season's Washington was played before less than a capacity crowd as 71,473 witnessed the Irish defeat the Huskies, 36-17, at Husky Stadium (capacity: 72,500) in Seattle.

At Purdue, the Irish and Boilermakers played before 60,491 football fans, a Ross-Ade Stadium record (since the renovation of the facility in 2003).

Making the Grade

The last four seasons of Notre Dame football have produced some impressive semesters in the classroom for the Notre Dame football team. In fact, the Irish had a 2004 spring semester in which the team's 104 players combined for a 2.96 grade-point average that ranks as the program's best semester GPA on record (dating back to 1992). The Notre Dame football program's top six semester GPAs since '92 were all posted in the seven semesters prior to the fall of '04, including the three semesters from fall of '02 to fall of '03 (2.84 in fall of '02, 2.79 in spring of '03 and 2.82 in fall of '03). The football program's second-best semester GPA of the past 12 years came in the spring of '02 (2.90), followed by a 2.80 in the spring of '01 and a 2.69 in the fall of '01. Upon closer examination, the 2004 spring semester saw 11 Irish football players post a Dean's List GPA (sliding scale, based on major), while 21 turned in a semester GPA of 3.4-plus and more than half (53) had a GPA of 3.0 or better. In addition, two players - former DE Kyle Businscak and senior LB Brandon Hoyte - received Academic All-District V honors in '03, marking Budinscak's third selection and Hoyte's second to the prestigious squad. Budinscak followed up with another All-District V honor in '04.

Taking Care of Business Off the Field, Too

The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) annually honors the school with the highest graduation rate based on a particular entering freshman football class, and Notre Dame has won the award six times, most recently in 2001 with its 100-percent graduation rate (22 of 22 entering freshmen from '96 earned their degrees within five years). The '01 award followed Notre Dame's previous honors in '82, '83, '84, '88 and '91. Notre Dame also holds the distinction of producing the first 100-percent rate in a single year when 24 of 24 student-athletes from the entering class of '82 earned their degrees within a five-year period (and 16 of those 24 did so within four years). Only eight other times has a school registered a 100-percent graduation rate. The '88 award had special meaning, as it was the first time a school won the national championship on the football field - as Notre Dame did, finishing 12-0 after a Fiesta Bowl win over unbeaten West Virginia - and in the classroom. Including the special mention category, the Irish have received some sort of recognition in 23 of the 24 years the award has been presented, with Duke next at 21.

Notre Dame Athletics Continues Relationship with SIRIUS Satellite Radio

After a successful debut season in 2004, SIRIUS Satellite Radio will continue to offer Notre Dame football, and selected men's/women's basketball, games on its nationwide service.

Inside the Irish Huddle DVD

Legendary Notre Dame Quarterbacks, a project dedicated to the lore and history of University of Notre Dame football and its rich quarterbacking tradition, is beginning its existence with the release of a DVD, Inside the Irish Huddle, Stories from the Legendary Notre Dame Quarterbacks.

The DVD is now available and can ordered on NDQB1.com, the official website of the Legendary Notre Dame Quarterbacks.

Inside the Irish Huddle, made in association with Indianapolis and Chicago based Pathway Productions, includes interviews with and collegiate highlights of some of the most high-profile players and coaches in Notre Dame and college football history. Joe Montana, Joe Theismann, Paul Hornung, Johnny Lujack, Tom Clements and Terry Hanratty are just a few of former players featured on Inside the Irish Huddle.

The project is spearheaded by former Irish quarterback Blair Kiel (1980-83).

Notre Dame Stadium Update

Thanks to funding by the Notre Dame Monogram Club, Notre Dame Stadium features a new look for its 75th anniversary this season.

- Positioned in the 195 portals of the original Stadium walls (now visible in the lower bowl concourse), there now are individual, four-by-10-foot, mesh banners with old-school, black-and-white photos highlighting Notre Dame's 11 consensus national-championship seasons, its 139 first-team football All-Americans, its seven Heisman Trophy winners, its five national-championship coaches and its eight representatives in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

- Hanging from the ceiling around the lower concourse are 15 full-color, 12-by-15-foot banners - 10 of them featuring action shots of members of the 2005 Irish squad, and five featuring the 75th anniversary logo for Notre Dame Stadium. In addition, there will be four other five-by-eight-foot representations of the logo within the Stadium.

- One addition visible from inside the Stadium is a sign on the facing of the wall just above the tunnel - it reads "Irish" and includes the Monogram Club logo.

- Attached to light polls on Moose Krause Circle surrounding the Stadium and in the Stadium and Joyce North and South parking lots are 100 two-by-four foot pole banners, all of them featuring various Notre Dame marks and phrases - including combinations of Irish, We Are ND, a shamrock, the leprechaun, University of Notre Dame, Here Come the Irish, Fighting Irish, a gold helmet and the 75th anniversary Stadium logo.

- In addition, there are plans over the next few years to theme the entry gates at the Stadium - with the intention of creating specific recognition of Notre Dame's national championships, its All-Americans, its Heisman Trophy winners and its national championship coaches. The gate completed was Gate B. It recognizes the Irish Heisman winners with three-foot by eight-foot replicas of the Heisman Trophy. The displays were designed by Rockwell Group of New York and fabricated by Show Motion Inc. of Connecticut. The work was accomplished with the cooperation of the Downtown Athletic Club and the Heisman Trophy Trust.

Most of the signage and design work is being handled by Sport Graphics, Inc., in Indianapolis, Ind. Additional work for the gate designs is by the Rockwell Group in New York, N.Y.

Football Banquet Tickets Sold Out

Former University of Notre Dame head football coach Lou Holtz will serve as the guest speaker for the sold-out 84th University of Notre Dame Football Banquet.

The banquet, sponsored by the Notre Dame Club of St. Joseph Valley, will be held Friday, Dec. 2, 2005, in the north dome of the Joyce Center on the Notre Dame campus. A reception on the concourse and a silent auction in the Monogram Room both begin at 5:45 p.m. EST and the dinner begins at 7:00 p.m.

The program will include a special tribute to senior members of the 2005 Irish squad - as well as a series of awards honoring members of the Notre Dame team.

Proceeds benefit the Notre Dame Club of St. Joseph Valley Scholarship Fund.

Holtz coached 132 games in 11 seasons at Notre Dame (1986-96) and guided his teams to a 100-30-2 record. He coached more games than any other Irish head coach and finished second to Knute Rockne in victories. Holtz led the Irish to the 1988 national championship and remains 11th on the NCAA all-time win list for Division I-A coaches. He took his Notre Dame teams to nine straight New Year's Day bowl games from 1987 through '95 and coached the Irish to finishes of sixth or better in the final Associated Press poll in five seasons. Holtz was named the national coach of the year in 1988 by several organizations and saw his team play the most difficult schedule in the country in three seasons.

Before coming to Notre Dame Holtz served as head coach at William & Mary (1969-71), North Carolina State (1972-75), Arkansas (1977-83) and Minnesota (1984-85). He served as a college football analyst for CBS Sports in '97 and '98, was head football coach at South Carolina from 1999 through 2004 and currently is an analyst for ESPN.

Guglielmino Athletics Complex Officially Dedicated

The Guglielmino Athletics Complex, new home to the University of Notre Dame football program, was dedicated Friday, Oct. 14, 2005. The dedication program included a blessing of the building, an afternoon Mass at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart and a dedication dinner in the rotunda of the Main Building. A special, 18-by-24-inch, commemorative poster (printed by Mossberg & Company in South Bend and designed by recent Notre Dame graduate Tim O'Connor) created for the dedication was available free of charge Friday night as fans left the pep rally at Notre Dame Stadium.

Opened in August and located on the east side of campus, the 96,000-square-foot building commonly referred to as "The Gug" is a spacious, state-of-the-art facility that houses the football program's locker rooms, offices and meeting rooms, in addition to giving the 800 student-athletes in Notre Dame's 26 varsity sports enhanced space for all training, strength and conditioning, and medical needs. The Guglielmino Athletics Complex has been made possible through the generous gift of the late Don F. Guglielmino and his wife Flora. A longtime supporter of Notre Dame, Guglielmino attended the University in the 1939-40 academic year.

Irish Football on the Printed Page

This fall, three new books about Fighting Irish football have debuted. The Spirit of Notre Dame, by Jim Langford and Jeremy Langford, officially went on sale during the last week of August. Detailing both athletic and student/alumni stories from the University, the book is said to be "the absolute essential title for the millions of people who have a place in their heart for the Fighting Irish." The book is a production of The Doubleday Broadway Publishing Group and can be bought on www.randomhouse.com.

South Bend Tribune and Notre Dame football beat writer Eric Hansen has seen the release of his new book, Notre Dame, Where Have You Gone? Hansen catches up with former Fighting Irish football players, from the All-Americans to the walk-ons to the one-play wonders to the once-tragic figures. The book is available for order at www.sportspublishinginc.com.

The third offering comes from Senior Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations at Notre Dame - John Heisler. Echoes of Notre Dame Football, The Greatest Stories Ever Told, was edited by the former long-time sports information director. A member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame, Heisler's book stitches together the best columns from the best columnists. It not only recounts the greatest moments in Notre Dame lore, it also tracks the chronological progression sportswriting styles from the esoteric to the ultra-modern. The book is available by calling 800-335-5323 or by sending an e-mail to WebOrders@triumphbooks.com. The book also features a foreword by Notre Dame head coach Charlie Weis.

Kevin White Radio Show

Look for the Kevin White Show for the next 30 weeks on ESPN 1000 AM radio in Chicago.

The hour-long program debuted Sept. 4 in its sixth season - with first-night guests including former Irish football-walk-on Dan "Rudy" Ruettiger (subject of the 1993 movie "Rudy"), former Irish placekicker Harry Oliver (he kicked a 51-yard field goal 25 years ago this week to help Notre Dame beat Michigan 29-27 in 1980), and current

The show can be heard in more than 30 states around the country on ESPN 1000 in Chicago.

Katrina Collection Update

Collections taken up throughout the University of Notre Dame community in recent weeks—in the student residence hall chapels and dining halls and even the football stadium—have raised over $240,000 for the relief of victims of the Hurricane Katrina catastrophe.

A collection in the Notre Dame Stadium during the football game with Michigan State raised $195,871. Collections also have been taken up at Masses in the Basilica of the Sacred Heart and in the Hammes Notre Dame Bookstore but have not yet been tabulated.

Funds raised in the University's Katrina collections are being distributed among Catholic Charities USA; Catholic parishes in the Gulf region which are administered by Notre Dame's founding religious order, the Congregation of Holy Cross; and regional parochial schools participating in Notre Dame's Alliance for Catholic Education (ACE) volunteer teacher program.

The University will continue to accept donations throughout the semester. Contributions may be sent to: Notre Dame Katrina Collection, P.O. Box 198, University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, IN 46556-019.

Instant Replay

Notre Dame will utilize the Big Ten Conference instant replay system during all other home games this season. The opposing team is given the option of agreeing to use the system as well, and it will only be implemented if both teams decide to utilize the system.

- The Big Ten instant replay model and the NFL instant replay system are different. In the Big Ten model, only the Big Ten Technical Advisor, working in the press box, can stop a game to review a play. Unlike the NFL model, in the Big Ten neither the coaches nor the game officials on the field may ask for a review.

- In order for a play to be changed the Technical Advisor must have indisputable video evidence that an error occurred. Television broadcast of the game will be the sole source of whether there is indisputable video evidence.

- The replay system will not guarantee that all officiating mistakes are identified and corrected.

- The types of plays that are reviewable include plays that are governed by the sideline, goal line, end zone and end line, passing plays, and other detectable infractions, such as forward progress with respect to first down.

USC Television Rating Highest In 11 Seasons

The USC-Notre Dame football game earned the best overnight television rating for a Notre Dame home game in more than a decade. The 7.9 overnight rating and 17 share was the highest since Notre Dame-Michigan earned a 8.4/21 overnight on Sept. 10, 1994.

The rating peaked at a 14.2/27 from 7:30-7:45 as USC QB Matt Leinert scored with three seconds remaining leading the Trojans to a dramatic 34-31 victory. Notre Dame had taken the lead with 2:02 left. No. 9 Notre Dame had been bidding to end No. 1 USC's 27-game winning streak.

NBC's college football analyst Pat Haden called the contest, "as entertaining a last three minutes of a college football game as I've ever seen."

The top-rated markets were:

1. Indianapolis, 14.7/30
2. Los Angeles, 13.4/31
3. Knoxville, 12.6/25
4. Oklahoma City, 11.9/25
5. Portland, 11.0/25
6. Chicago, 10.7/24
7. Birmingham, 10.4/19
8. Boston, 10.3/21.

Notre Dame - NBC Sports Television Ratings

Here is a look at the top 10 all-time rated games since Notre Dame and NBC began their partnership in 1991. This season's ND - USC game checks in at fifth place on the list.

Notre Dame Football on the Small Screen... and Radio!

The University of Notre Dame football team will once again produce its two signature television shows this season. The traditional Notre Dame Football Replay will be shown across the country (mostly on Sunday mornings) from Raleigh, N.C., to Anchorage, Alaska, and Inside Notre Dame Football with Charlie Weis can be seen in many national outlets as well. Local Irish fans can tune in to three different radio shows to keep track of their favorite team. The official Notre Dame Football Coach's Show will be held each week of the season, providing in-depth interviews with the Irish coaching staff and players. The official Notre Dame pregame and postgame radio shows can be heard locally as well.

The Notre Dame Football Replay

A condensed version of each Notre Dame home game will be produced and shown on a variety of different cable and on-air television outlets. For a complete list of affiliates, go to the football page on www.und.com and the lists are under the sidebar subject "multimedia."

Local Irish fans can catch the replay on WB 25 (Cable Channel 5) at 10:00 a.m. Sunday mornings. Irish fans across the nation with access to Direct TV can see the replay on Direct TV Channel 321 at 2:00 a.m. Sunday.

Notre Dame's NBC coverage is also replayed each week on NBC's high definition channel - UNI-HD. Check your local listing for specific times each week.

Inside Notre Dame Football with Charlie Weis

Produced each week of the season (save for bye weeks) and hosted by Jeff Jeffers, Inside Notre Dame Football with Charlie Weis will feature a recap of the previous week's contest, an interview with Coach Weis and different player interviews and features throughout the season. In the South Bend market, the show can be seen each Saturday on WNDU Channel 16 (Cable Channel 8) before WNDU's weekly pre-game show. The show can be seen nationwide on College Sports Television (CSTV) at 6:00 p.m. on Thursdays and Direct TV Channel 321 at 4:30 a.m. on Tuesday.

Notre Dame Football Coach's Show (radio)

The Official Notre Dame Football Coach's Show, presented by Boling Laser Center and hosted by Jeff Jeffers, debuted Monday, Aug. 29, at 7:00 p.m. EST at Logan's Roadhouse in Mishawaka, Ind. Irish head coach Charlie Weis was the special on-site guest for the first show, which features a segment with Weis each week, an appearance by an Irish player and other features involving the Irish staff and program. The show can be heard locally on U93 (92.9 FM) and on the official Notre Dame athletic's website, www.und.com.

Produced by Notre Dame Sports Properties, the show air dates are September 26, October 3, 17, 24, November 7, 14. The show is a cooperative venture between NDSP, the Notre Dame Athletic Department, plus U93 and its parent company, Artistic Media Partners.

Official Notre Dame Pregame Radio Show

Live on U93 (92.9 FM), 1490 AM and ESPN Radio 1580 AM in South Bend, Irish fans can hear the official pregame show of the Fighting Irish. Hosted by Sean Stires and featuring Brian Noe, Vince DeDario, and Colin Burns, the show will get every Irish fan ready for kickoff.

Official Notre Dame Postgame Radio Show

Immediately after Westwood One signs off upon completion of the game, the Notre Dame Postgame Radio Show will take to the airwaves for 90 minutes to recap the day's game and provide in-depth analysis and player/coach interviews. Hosted by Jack Nolan and featuring former Irish stars Reggie Brooks and Mirko Jurkovic, the show can be heard live on U93 (92.9 FM), 1490 AM and ESPN Radio 1580 AM.

Not Local? No Problem!

Irish fans who cannot make it to South Bend each weekend of the season (or see the Irish on the road) can still hear many of the above mentioned shows live via the world wide web. Subscribers to Fighting Irish All-Access on www.und.com will have access to the Official Notre Dame Football Coach's Radio Show and the pregame and postgame shows live! In addition, Inside Notre Dame Football with Charlie Weis will be archived and loaded onto the website as soon as possible for Fighting Irish All-Access subscribers.

NOTRE DAME 42, (No. 23) PITTSBURGH 21
SEPTEMBER 3, 2005 • HEINZ FIELD

PITTSBURGH — Perhaps the most anticipated season-opening matchup in recent Notre Dame football history produced an outcome and a performance that surpassed what even the most optimistic observer of Irish football could have hoped for as the Irish opened the Charlie Weis era in style with a 42-21 pasting of 23rd-ranked Pittsburgh in front of a sellout crowd at Heinz Field.

The retooled Notre Dame offense hummed via the power of the precision passing of quarterback Brady Quinn, big-play performances by running backs Darius Walker and Rashon Powers-Neal, and a punishing offensive line. The Irish produced six touchdowns, 502 yards of total offense (275 rushing, 227 passing) and a staggering 33 first downs in a methodically dominant performance reminiscent of the performances of Weis's offenses from his previous tenure with the NFL's New England Patriots.

In a game in which few had the Irish pegged as pre-game favorites, Notre Dame overcame an early deficit and had salted away the verdict by halftime with a 28-point second-period explosion that created a 35-13 lead. So dominant was the Irish offensive effort that the unit had produced more total yardage in the first half (319 yards) that it had in five entire games last season.

Complementing the offensive prowess was an impressive performance by the Irish defense and special teams. A maligned unit much of the last two seasons, the Notre Dame defense held to 323 total yards (153 in the first half) a Pittsburgh offense that had produced 432 yards and 41 points just nine months earlier in an Irish loss. In addition, Notre Dame defenders caused two turnovers (one fumble on a kickoff return and one interception) and limited the Panthers to a 4-of-14 night on third downs.

How effective was the Irish offense? The unit converted 10-of-15 third down opportunities into first downs, including 10 of its first 11 chances in those situations. Quarterback Brady Quinn passed with startling accuracy much of the night, completing 11 consecutive passes over one span covering the second and third periods. For the game, Quinn passed for 227 yards and two touchdowns while completing 18-of-27 attempts with one interception. He averaged 12.5 yards per completion and 8.4 yards per attempt.

Running back Darius Walker rushed for 100 yards on 20 carries and caught three passes for 52 yards while backfield mate Rashon Powers-Neal scored three rushing touchdowns while averaging 5.1 yards per carry (eight rushes, 41 yards). Defensively, the Irish were led in tackles by cornerback Ambrose Wooden with 12 tackles (10 solos) in his first start. The Irish sacked Palko five times; including two sacks by linebacker Brandon Hoyte (nine tackles) and solo sacks by ends Victor Abiamiri (five tackles) and Chris Frome, and linebacker Corey Mays (three tackles).

After the Panthers opened the game with a 39-yard scoring pass from Palko to wideout Greg Lee, the Irish responded quickly. Walker keyed a 78-yard, six-play march to tie it at 7-7 by rushing four times for 17 yards before making a difficult catch on a delayed screen pass from Quinn and following a convoy of Irish blockers 51 yards for the first touchdown.

After the Panthers moved to a 10-7 lead later in the first period, the Irish took the lead for good on a 65-yard march capped by a two-yard run around left end by Walker for a 14-10 lead. That drive became the first of five consecutive drives that ended in Notre Dame touchdowns as the Irish reached paydirt on six of their first seven possessions of the game.

Following a Panther punt, the Irish again marched 65 yards to a score. Two passes from Quinn to tight end Anthony Fasano, spanning 12 and 18 yards, keyed the drive that was capped by a two-yard run by Powers-Neal for a 21-10 Notre Dame lead. The Irish upped their lead to 28-10 just 45 seconds later. Chinedum Ndukwe recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff forced by Casey Cullen. Jeff Samardzija made a spectacular leaping catch of a Quinn pass for a 19-yard scoring play.

After Pitt responded with a drive to a field goal, the Irish moved back for another touchdown for a 35-13 halftime lead. The 70-yard drive was keyed by Quinn's passing as he connected with Stavall for 11 yards, Powers-Neal for 18 and McKnight for 16 before Powers-Neal blasted through the middle for nine yards and the score with 1:39 left in the half.

The Irish salted away the verdict by opening the second half with an impressive 20-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 7:01 of game time. The Irish converted five third-down plays into first downs on the march that ended with Powers-Neal's third scoring run of the night, this one from four yards out.

"I'm relieved to have this first game under our belt," Weis said. "I'm happy for Notre Dame, I'm happy for our players and I'm happy for our fans. I thought our team played aggressive. We won the battles out there on the field tonight. This game was so much talk about Weis vs. (Dave) Wannstedt, and I was afraid it would be a distraction to our team."

(No. 20) NOTRE DAME 17, (No. 3) MICHIGAN 10
SEPTEMBER 10, 2005 • MICHIGAN STADIUM

ANN ARBOR, Mich. - A mere two games into his Notre Dame tenure, Charlie Weis joined Knute Rockne in the record books as the 20th-ranked Fighting Irish pulled off a 17-10 upset victory at No. 3 Michigan that gave the Irish a 2-0 start.

Brady Quinn threw two touchdown passes in the first half and the Irish held on to beat the Wolverines, making Weis the first Notre Dame coach to win his first two games on the road since Rockne in 1918.

"If I answered by dignifying that, (Bill) Parcells and (Bill) Belichick would humiliate me," Weis said about his coaching mentors when asked about his connection to Rockne. "I've just coached two games and they've played two games. Let's come back and revisit that in about 10 years."

Notre Dame (2-0), snapped the Wolverines' 16-game winning streak at Michigan Stadium and handed them their first loss against a nonconference team at home since 1998. The Irish - two years removed from losing 38-0 in Ann Arbor - also won at Michigan for the first time since 1993.

Against Michigan, the Irish offense began with a shotgun formation and an empty backfield. The Irish didn't use a huddle but for the last play during the opening 12-play drive and didn't face a third down situation.

"I think that sent a message to start the game like that," said Quinn, who ended the impressive possession with a 5-yard touchdown pass to Rhema McKnight.

The Wolverines (1-1) slowed down Notre Dame's offense, but they squandered several chances in the fourth quarter to pull within a touchdown before finally capitalizing on their third opportunity.

On a fourth-and-three, Chad Henne lofted a 25-yard pass to Mario Manningham with 3:47 left to make it 17-10.

The Wolverines then forced Notre Dame to punt, but four incomplete passes later, the Irish were celebrating on the sideline. As the final seconds ticked off the dock, players ran into the end zone to celebrate with their fans. "Coming into the Big House and getting a win can be a once-in-a-lifetime experience," defensive end Victor Abiamiri said. "You want to do everything you can to let it sink in."

Notre Dame didn't need much help to beat the Wolverines for the third time in four years, but instant replay overturned two calls in its favor in the fourth quarter.

On a sneak from inside Notre Dame's one-yard line, Henne was ruled down, but a review showed that he fumbled and that the Irish's Chinedum Ndukwe recovered the ball in the end zone. On the ensuing possession, officials ruled that Quinn fumbled, but a review showed that his knee was down, allowing the Irish to keep the ball deep in their territory.

Quinn was 19-for-30 for 140 yards and Darius Walker ran for 104 yards for the Irish.

D.J. Fitzpatrick's 43-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Notre Dame a 17-3 lead. On its next possession, Walker fumbled, giving Michigan some hope.

The Wolverines drove to Notre Dame's 5, but were turned away after being stuffed on two runs and two passes that fell incomplete. They got inside Notre Dame's 1 on their next possession, before Henne's fumble.

Henne was 19-of-44 for 223 yards with a touchdown. He was intercepted at Notre Dame's one in the third quarter by Tom Zbikowski and had the key fumble in the fourth. Kevin Grady, replacing the injured Mike Hart, ran for 79 yards. Jason Avant caught five passes for 90 yards.

The game was a defensive struggle as the Wolverines were held to their lowest point total since Iowa beat them 34-9 in 2002. That game started a home-winning streak that Notre Dame snapped in front of 111,386 fans.

Both teams lost a key player in the first half. Michigan running back Michael Hart left after being hit hard by linebacker Corey Mays in the first quarter. Notre Dame's McKnight twisted his right knee after being tackled by Brandt Englemon on an incomplete pass in the second quarter.

Steve Breaston's 30-yard reverse on the last play of the first quarter gave Michigan the ball in Irish territory for the first time. Garrett Rivas' 38-yard field goal made it 7-3. Notre Dame responded with its second 12-play drive for a touchdown, capped by Quinn's five-yard pass to Jeff Samardzija for a 14-3 lead with 4:24 left in the second quarter. After the Irish's strong start offensively, Michigan's defense held them in check for the most part, limiting them to 244 yards.

(No. 10) NOTRE DAME 41, MICHIGAN STATE 44
SEPTEMBER 17, 2005 • NOTRE DAME STADIUM

NOTRE DAME, Ind. – The home debut of Irish head coach Charlie Weis was spoiled by an old nemesis as Michigan State (3-0) weathered a dramatic Notre Dame (2-1) comeback to pull out a dramatic victory in overtime at Notre Dame Stadium.

The Spartans overcame a 21-point comeback by the 10th-ranked Fighting Irish and pulled out a 44-41 decision. Spartans running back Jason Teague dashed 19 yards with an option pitch for the game-winning touchdown, handing Weis his first loss as Irish coach after starting the season 2-0 on the road.

"I told (the Notre Dame players) you don't get any medals for trying," Weis said. "I'm never content when you end up losing."

Even in defeat, the Irish showed grit and determination in erasing a 21-point, third-quarter deficit. Quarterback Drew Stanton led the Spartans offensively, throwing for three touchdowns and running for another. Michigan State amassed 488 yards total offense against the Irish. Stanton was 16-of-27 for 327 yards. The Spartans joined Purdue (1954-62) as the only opponent to win five straight at Notre Dame Stadium. Michigan State's 12 wins at Notre Dame are the most by an Irish opponent.

The Fighting Irish rallied from 21 points down in the third quarter to tie the score, then took the lead in overtime on a 44-yard field goal by D.J. Fitzpatrick on the opening possession of the extra period, but couldn't make it stand up.

"When you come back like that, you've got a lot of emotion and you feel pretty good about yourself," Notre Dame quarterback Brady Quinn said. "And then when you can't come through with the victory, I think there's the ability to be a big letdown."

Quinn passed for a school-record five touchdowns and a career-high 487 yards, the second highest total in Notre Dame history. But it wasn't enough. It was Notre Dame's first loss of the year following wins over Pittsburgh and Michigan to start the season. Those victories had propelled Notre Dame into the top 10 for the first time since 2002.

It appeared for a while Michigan State would win easily when they went ahead 38-17 in the third quarter on a 65-yard screen pass from Stanton to Matt Trannon, who had 126 yards on five catches. The Spartan defense, while it gave up some big plays and a 594 yards, came up big when it had to. On the second play of the second half, Sir Darean Adams picked off a pass from Quinn and returned it 30 yards for a score to give the Spartans a 31-17 lead.

The Irish appeared ready to close to within a touchdown on first-and-goal from the MSU one. Notre Dame fullback Asaph Schwapp attempted to lunge across the middle with the ball ahead of him, but Domata Peko knocked the ball out and Scott Smith recovered for the Spartans on the 7. Soon after Trannon scored on the screen pass to spread the lead to 21 points.

The Irish managed to close to 38-31 when Darius Walker scored on a six-yard pass and Maurice Stovall, who had eight catches for 176 yards, scored on a seven-yard pass. The Irish had a chance to tie it earlier in the fourth quarter, but on fourth-and-one from the Michigan State 20, Schwapp was stopped on a run up the middle. The Irish tied the score at 38 with 2:31 left on a catch by Jeff Samardzija, his third of the game. Quinn became the first Irish quarterback to have two 400-yard passing games. Joe Theismann holds the school record with 576 yards at Southern California in 1970.

Weis became just the third Notre Dame coach since 1913 to lose his home opener, joining Elmer Layden in 1934 and Lou Holtz in 1986.

(No. 16) NOTRE DAME 36, WASHINGTON 17
SEPTEMBER 24, 2005 • HUSKY STADIUM

SEATTLE – Notre Dame’s offense controlled the tempo of the game as the Irish racked up more than 500 yards of offense in a 36-17 win over the Washington Huskies on a beautiful, sun-drenched day at Husky Stadium in Seattle.

The 16th-ranked Irish, clicking in the air and on the ground after a slow start, rolled past the Huskies in a game that had little to do with coaches matching wits and everything to do with slick execution by Notre Dame (3-1) and untimely mistakes by Washington (1-3).

While much of the pre-game hype centered on the two coaches, the game itself was decided by Notre Dame’s explosive offense and an opportunistic Irish defense that forced turnovers in several key situations. First-year Irish head coach Charlie Weis and former Irish head coach Tyrone Willingham shook hands before the game, and then got down to business. At the end, Notre Dame players swarmed around Willingham to shake his hand and wish him well.

A year after Notre Dame won 38-3 in South Bend against Washington; the Irish took their show on the road to do virtually the same thing against the Huskies before 71,473 fans in Husky Stadium. The win made Notre Dame 6-0 against Washington.

Quarterback Brady Quinn compiled 327 yards passing in a balanced attack that saw sophomore halfback Darius Walker rush for a career-high 128 yards on 21 carries. Walker became the first running back in Notre Dame history to rush for more than 100 yards in each of his first four games.

Quinn, who also ran for 29 yards, spread the wealth of passes around to his targets, with wide receiver Jeff Samardzija leading them all and gaining a career-high 164 yards. Notre Dame’s dominating offense controlled the game, and the Irish never punted until 11 seconds were left. They held possession of the ball for 36:56, breaking open the game with 24 points in the second half. Rashon Powers-Neal had a 2-yard touchdown run, Samardzija scored on a 52-yard pass and Travis Thomas scored on an 11-yard run.

Washington, down 29-3 in the fourth quarter, made the final score slightly more respectable with two late touchdowns, the first on a 1-yard run by Mark Palaita, and the second with 2:26 left on a 41-yard pass from reserve quarterback Johnny Durocher. Starting Husky quarterback Isaiah Stanback finished with 353 yards on 17-of-34 passing.

A fumble near the goal line on Washington’s game-opening, length-of-the-field drive cost the Huskies one touchdown, and an interception in the end zone, after Stanback’s career-high 69-yard pass to Marion Wood, cost them another in the second quarter. Notre Dame’s only costly turnover came on a botched field goal snap after driving to the Huskies’ 24 on its first possession.

Notre Dame led 12-3 at halftime, scoring on Walker’s 17-yard touchdown run, blowing an extra point, making field goals from the 25 in the first quarter, the 39 in the second quarter and holding Washington to a 27-yard field goal early in the second quarter. Washington gained all but five of its 243 yards in the first half on passes, while Notre Dame had the more balanced attack - 146 yards in the air, 102 on the ground.

(No. 13) NOTRE DAME 49, (No. 22) PURDUE 28
OCTOBER 1, 2005 • ROSS-ADE STADIUM

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. - Brady Quinn passed for 440 yards and three touchdowns against 22nd-ranked Purdue, leading No. 13 Notre Dame to a 49-28 victory before a national television audience (ESPN) and 65,491 fans at Ross-Ade Stadium.

Quinn looked a lot like another student of current Irish head coach Charlie Weis, Tom Brady of the New England Patriots, in the way he beat the Purdue secondary, mixing mostly short passes with just enough deep throws to keep the Boilermakers off balance.

Quinn was 20-for-23 for 283 yards in the first half to lead Notre Dame (4-1) to a 28-0 intermission lead. He finished the game 29-of-36 - a career-high 80.5 percent - and threw a TD pass for a 10th straight game, tying a school record set by Heisman Trophy winner John Huarte in 1964.

Quinn had lost his first two games against the Boilermakers despite passing for a combined 729 yards. The problem in 2003, his first collegiate start, was he was intercepted four times and didn't have a touchdown pass. Last year he was sacked seven times in a 41-16 loss.

On Saturday night, Quinn didn't throw an interception until Notre Dame was up 35-14 - and the Irish intercepted the ball back on the next play - and he was hardly pressured, as he cut up the Purdue secondary. Quinn passed for at least 300 yards for a third straight game. Previously, no Irish quarterback had passed for 300 yards twice in a season. He now has five games in his career of over 300 yards passing. In three of those he has surpassed 400 yards, but before Saturday night the two 400-yard efforts had ended in defeat.

Quinn completed eight straight passes at one point and 11 straight at another. Quinn's primary targets were Maurice Stovall and Samardzija. Stovall finished with eight catches for 134 yards, including four catches for 71 yards on Notre Dame's second scoring drive. Samardzija had a diving one-handed catch for 41 yards to the one-yard line to set up Notre Dame's first score. He also had a 55-yard scoring catch and a four-yard catch for a score, becoming the first Irish receiver to have touchdown catches in the team's first five games.

Notre Dame tight end John Carlson had his first career touchdown catch in the fourth quarter, a 22-yard pass from Quinn, who left the game with 11:31 left in the fourth quarter. Dorien Bryant had a career-high 14 catches for Purdue, two of them for touchdowns, for 127 yards. Brandon Kirsch was 29-of-44 passing for 274 yards with one interception. Kory Sheets ran for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

Quinn's performance Saturday night gave him 6,038 career yards passing, third on the school's career list behind Steve Beuerlein with 6,527 in 1983-86 and Ron Powlus with 7,602 in 1994-97.

The Irish defense continued its stingy ways at the goal line, forcing two Purdue turnovers to squelch scoring threats. The first turnover, a fumble recovery by Mike Richardson at the Irish two-yard line, came after linebacker Brandon Hoyte forced Purdue's Jerod Void to fumble. The miscue set up a 98-yard Irish scoring drive that gave Notre Dame a 14-0 lead and control of the game.

The second turnover ended Purdue's fading hopes of a comeback in the third quarter. After Quinn's interception was returned by Rob Ninkovich to the Irish 26, Boilermaker quarterback Brandon Kirsch threw a pass to the corner of the end zone that Richardson picked off with a sliding catch to protect Notre Dame's 35-14 edge with 4:27 left in the period.

Notre Dame's offense racked up 621 yards of total offense on the night, including 468 through the air and 153 on the ground as the Irish controlled the ball for 36:03 of game time. The Irish punted only twice in the game and did not allow Quinn to be sacked.

(No. 9) NOTRE DAME 31, (No. 1) USC 34
OCTOBER 15, 2005 • NOTRE DAME STADIUM

NOTRE DAME, Ind. – With help from a push by a teammate, University of Southern California quarterback Matt Leinart spun his way into the end zone with three seconds left to cap a chaotic finish as top-ranked USC escaped with its 28th straight victory, a dramatic 34-31 win over ninth-ranked Notre Dame in a game that lived up to the hype.

For a moment the Irish, dressed in kelly green jerseys, appeared to have added another stunning upset to their illustrious history. One play before the climactic quarterback sneak, Leinart scrambled inside the Irish five-yard line, launched himself toward the end zone but was stopped short and the ball was sent flying out of bounds on a hit by linebacker Corey Mays.

The clock kept ticking down to 0:00. Notre Dame's fans rushed the field and Irish head coach Charlie Weis raised his hands in victory, but after the officials huddled, seven seconds was put back on the clock and the ball was spotted inside the one-yard line. Leinart, the 2004 Heisman Trophy winner, took it in himself on the next play, going over the left side for the score. His first push appeared stopped but he bounced off of the pile and received a nudge from Trojans tailback Reggie Bush that sent him past two Irish defenders and into the end zone.

Irish quarterback Brady Quinn had given Notre Dame a 31-28 lead with 2:04 left, dashing around right end for a five-yard touchdown, extending his right arm across the goal line with the ball to complete a flawless 87-yard march in eight plays to re-take the lead. But Leinart wasn't done. He completed a 61-yard pass to Dwayne Jarrett on a fourth-and-nine at his own 26, Jarrett making the catch despite excellent coverage by Irish cornerback Ambrose Wooden. A few plays later, Leinart called his own number for the deciding score.

Bush ran for 160 yards and three touchdowns for the two-time defending champions, making a huge statement for his own bid for the 2005 Heisman.

Weis tapped into the Fighting Irish's storied past and even in defeat etched a spot in it for himself and his team. He used every motivational play at his disposal, bringing in Dan "Rudy" Ruettiger and Joe Montana to fire up his team and the fans in Friday night's pep rally, then putting the Irish in their green jerseys after pre-game warm-ups.

The Trojans (6-0) trailed at the half for the third time this season, this time by 21-14 after Tom Zbikowski's 60-yard punt return early in the second quarter gave the Irish (4-2) their first lead. After Bush gave USC an early 7-0 lead with a 36-yard touchdown run, the Irish responded with a 16-yard score by running back Travis Thomas to cap a 13-play, 80-yard drive to tie it at 7-7.

USC ended the first period with a 14-7 lead after LenDale White scored on a three-yard run with 2:02 left in the quarter, but the Irish responded early in the second period with a 72-yard drive capped by a 32-yard pass from Quinn to Samardzija on a third down play. After Zbikowski's punt return gave the Irish the lead at the half, Bush tied the game with a 45-yard scoring gallop early in the third.

Notre Dame got the lead back with a 32-yard D.J. Fitzpatrick field goal early in the fourth quarter, but Bush struck again, going around the corner from nine yards out with 5:09 left to make it 28-24 to set up a chance for Quinn and the Irish to create a new Notre Dame legend.

The junior quarterback responded flawlessly as he guided the Irish on an 87-yard drive, completing all three of his passes and putting Notre Dame up, 31-28, with 2:04 left on a five-yard quarterback keeper around the right side. Quinn finished 19-for-35 passing for 264 yards and rushed for 21 yards and a score.

USC came in averaging 51 points per game, but the Irish put pressure on Leinart and intercepted him twice, the first time since the final game of the 2003 regular season he tossed two picks. The dynamic backfield of White and Bush was turned into a solo act, as Bush kept USC in it until Leinart made the plays of the game. His completion to Jarrett on the huge fourth-down conversion allowed him to finish with 301 yards passing.

Notre Dame's bid to reshape the national title race fell painfully short, but the Irish had established themselves as a force to be reckoned with nationally in a game many were calling one of the best ever played.

(No. 9) NOTRE DAME 49, BYU 23
OCTOBER 22, 2005 • NOTRE DAME STADIUM

NOTRE DAME, Ind. – Notre Dame (5-2) won at home for the first time in 2005 while embarking on a record-setting passing day as the Irish made sure there would be no last-minute dramatics, beating Brigham Young (3-4) 49-23 behind Brady Quinn's school-record six touchdown passes. It was the first home win for Notre Dame head coach Charlie Weis, the first Irish coach in 109 years to lose his first two home games - an overtime loss to Michigan State and in the final seconds to No. 1 USC.

Quinn was 32-of-41 for 467 yards, his third 400-yard passing game of the season. He broke the single-game school mark of five touchdown passes he set against Michigan State earlier this season by completing 25-of-30 in the first half for a school-record 287 yards. Senior Maurice Stovall became the first Irish receiver every to grab four touchdown catches in a game, catching a career-high and Irish record 14 passes for 207 yards. Jeff Samardzija had 10 catches for 152 yards and two touchdowns.

Stovall and Samardzija, who are both 6-foot-5, became the first Irish receivers to each have more than 10 catches in the same game, repeatedly going over smaller BYU defenders to catch passes. "Notre Dame's passing game was better than our coverage in every instance today," BYU coach Bronco Mendenhall said.

The Fighting Irish, who were beaten by BYU last season when they were held to 11 yards rushing, didn't try to run much against the Cougars until the reserves were playing in the fourth quarter, instead depending on Quinn's passing to open up the BYU defense.

BYU, which saw its two-game winning streak come to an end, lost its 12th straight to a ranked opponent. After falling behind 28-10 early in the third quarter when Quinn threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Samardzija, the Cougars rallied briefly to make the game interesting. John Beck threw a 24-yard pass to Jonny Harline to set up a 10-yard scoring run by Beck.

After forcing an Irish punt, Nathan Meikle returned the punt 22 yards to the Notre Dame 33 to set up BYU's next score. Beck threw a 10-yard scoring pass to Todd Watkins to cut the lead to 28-23. BYU went for the two-point conversion, but Beck's pass was intercepted by Notre Dame safety Tom Zbikowski.

Quinn quickly regained control, throwing a 42-yard touchdown pass to Samardzija and a 24-yard scoring pass to Stovall to give the Irish a 42-23 lead. Quinn's big day also included breaking the school record for touchdown passes in a season as he ran his total to 20, surpassing the 19 thrown by Ron Powlus in 1994.

For BYU, Beck was 26-of-45 passing for 317 yards with two interceptions. Harline finished with eight catches for 100 yards.

Quinn, who extended his record of consecutive games with touchdown passes to 12, also moved ahead of Steve Beuerlein into second place on Notre Dame's career passing yards. Quinn has thrown for 6,769 yards. Powlus is the school career leader with 7,602.

Samardzija, who had scoring catches of 14 and 21 yards, became the first Irish receiver to have touchdown catches in seven straight games, breaking the mark set by Malcolm Johnson in 1998. He also tied the school record of 11 touchdown catches in a season set by Derrick Mayes in 1994.

(No. 8) NOTRE DAME 41, TENNESSEE 21
NOVEMBER 5, 2005 • NOTRE DAME STADIUM

NOTRE DAME, Ind. – Once again, Notre Dame (6-2) found a way to win when the game tightened in the late going. In a game that reflected the story of the season for the two teams, the Irish continued to move closer to being an elite team while Tennessee (3-5) continued to struggle.

The Volunteers looked as though they might be able to rally for a victory after coming back from 18 points down to tie the score at 21 late in the third quarter. But Irish quarterback Brady Quinn completed a 73-yard pass to Jeff Samardzija to set up the go-ahead touchdown and spark the eighth-ranked Irish to a 41-21 victory.

“All the momentum swung back our way on that one play,” Notre Dame coach Charlie Weis said.

The play was an eight-yard pass to the left, but Samardzija eluded a couple of tacklers and raced down the sideline before being caught from behind by Antwan Stewart at the UT two-yard line.

“I was looking back trying to give a stiff arm, when I really didn't need to,” Samardzija said. “(Maurice) Stovall put on a great block for me up on the 50 and it just kind of opened up the whole seam for me down the sideline.”

Two plays later, Samardzija capped the drive with four-yard touchdown catch for Quinn's third scoring pass of the game. Quinn was 20-of-33 for 295 yards and threw two touchdown passes in the span of a minute during the first quarter to give the Irish a 14-0 lead. The Vols managed to slow him until late in the third quarter, when Quinn finished the game by completing 5-of-8 passes for 93 yards, setting up the go-ahead score and a pair of field goals by D.J. Fitzpatrick.

Samardzija's touchdown catch was his 12th of the season, breaking the mark of 11 set by Derrick Mayes in 1994. Tom Zbikowski iced the victory with an interception return of 33 yards for a touchdown. He also had a 78-yard punt return for a touchdown in the second quarter. The two returns for touchdowns give Zbikowski four touchdowns in the last three games. He also had a 60-yard punt return against USC and an 83-yard interception return against Brigham Young.

Weis was pleased to see his defense and special teams contribute, even if it was Zbikowski on both plays. The victory made Notre Dame bowl eligible in consecutive years for the first time since 1997-98. The Volunteers lost their fourth straight for the first time since 1988, which also is the last time they failed to go to a bowl game.

The 41 points were the most allowed this season by Tennessee, which gave up 27 points at LSU and against Georgia. The three touchdown passes surrendered by the Volunteers also equaled the amount they gave up in their first seven games combined.

(No. 7) NOTRE DAME 42, NAVY 21
NOVEMBER 12, 2005 • NOTRE DAME STADIUM

NOTRE DAME, Ind. – An efficient Notre Dame offense proved too much for Navy to handle as the seventh-ranked Fighting Irish took a methodical 42-21 victory over the Midshipmen at Notre Dame Stadium, extending its NCAA-record winning streak over Navy to 42.

Notre Dame scored on all three of its second quarter possessions, including two touchdowns 88 seconds apart to build a 28-7 halftime lead.

Brady Quinn passed for four touchdowns, three to Maurice Stovall, and continued to rewrite the Notre Dame record book, finishing 22-of-31 passing for 284 yards. Darius Walker rushed for 118 yards on 19 carries, his first 100-yard game since opening the season with four straight.

The Irish (7-2) turned to their running game more against Navy (5-4) to keep the Midshipmen from controlling the clock themselves.

"We knew whenever they got the ball they were going to eat up a lot of the clock," Quinn said. "So we knew our defense was going to be out there for a good amount of time. So not only when we get out there do we need to score and be efficient, (but) we also had some long drives and to give our defense some breaks so they're not on the field so long."

Notre Dame coach Charlie Weis said he was hard on the Irish all week in practice to make sure they wouldn't let up against Navy.

"You never let them think you're happy because if they think you are happy then they start to loosen up," Weis said. "You just keep your foot on their throat the whole time. It was not a good week for them."

The plan worked as the Irish kept their hopes for a Bowl Championship Series berth alive. They must beat Syracuse and Stanford to be eligible. Navy still needs a win over either Temple or Army to become bowl eligible.

Quinn set the single-season school passing mark with 2,931 yards, breaking the record of 2,753 yards set by Jarious Jackson in 1999. Quinn needs 254 yards passing in Notre Dame's final two games to pass the school career mark of 7,602 set by Ron Powlus from 1994-97. Despite that, Quinn wasn't pleased.

"I should have done better, whether it be mental mistakes or physical things, there's still lots of room for improvement," he said. "I was unhappy with the way I performed."

Navy coach Paul Johnson was disappointed Quinn had so much time to pass.

"Our big deal is we couldn't get any pressure on the passer," Navy coach Paul Johnson said. "They broke off some runs, but basically they were doing about what they wanted."

Quinn's four touchdown passes give him 53 for his career, breaking the school mark set by Powlus. Quinn extended his school record of games with touchdown passes to 14 straight. He also set a school record by throwing 130 passes without an interception before safety DuJuan Price intercepted his pass at the 12-yard line in the fourth quarter. The old mark was 126 straight set by Carlyle Holiday in 2001 and 2002. It was Quinn's fifth interception this season.

The main target for Quinn on Saturday was Stovall, who had scoring catches of 31, 16 and 10 yards to give him eight touchdown catches in the past three games. Stovall finished with eight catches for 130 yards. Jeff Samardzija saw his school record streak of games with at least one scoring catch end at eight.

Navy linebacker Rob Caldwell, who led Navy with 14 tackles, said the Irish are the best offense he's seen.

"They've got playmakers everywhere," he said. "They did a great job making plays, I mean you see those guys catching it with one hand, they'll be playing on Sundays."

Navy, which entered the game second in the nation in rushing at 282.6 yards a game, finished with 239 yards running on 58 attempts. The Midshipmen played most of the game without Matt Hall, their second leading rusher, because he sprained his left knee on his first carry. Quarterback Lamar Owens led Navy with 62 yards on 26 carries.

Defensively, linebacker Corey Mays' 14 tackles and a fumble recovery led the Irish.

(No. 6) NOTRE DAME 34, SYRACUSE 10
NOVEMBER 19, 2005 • NOTRE DAME STADIUM

NOTRE DAME, Ind. – Brady Quinn broke the Notre Dame career passing yards mark while throwing two touchdowns and the Irish defense held Syracuse to 221 total yards in a 34-10 victory on Senior Day at Notre Dame Stadium. The Irish overcame a sluggish start with another big second period outburst before putting the game away with a strong second half.

Trailing by three points late in first quarter, Notre Dame began taking control of the game. The Irish offense struck for two quick touchdown passes by Quinn, scoring on drives of three and two plays to gain control. The victory left Notre Dame (8-2) needing only a win over Stanford to remain eligible for its first Bowl Championship Series berth since 2000. Students threw tortillas back and forth throughout the game in anticipation of a possible Fiesta Bowl invitation. Someone also threw an orange on the field after an Irish touchdown.

Meanwhile, Syracuse (1-9) lost its eighth straight - its longest losing streak since losing its final game of 1972 and the first eight games of 1973 - and needed a win over nationally-ranked Louisville in the season finale to avoid the first 10-loss season in school history.

"It's frustrating because you want it to happen. You want to see it start to go," Syracuse coach Greg Robinson said. "We got a little something going there in the first quarter and then we went dormant."

Quinn thought the Irish started slow because they wanted to play well for the seniors playing their last home game.

"We weren't as loose as we usually are," he said.

The Irish offense finally kicked into gear in the second quarter after Chase Anastasio partially blocked a punt by Brendan Carney, giving them the ball on Syracuse's 36. Notre Dame scored just three plays later, a 25-yard touchdown pass from Quinn to Maurice Stovall.

After Notre Dame held Syracuse to a three-and-out, the Irish struck quickly again. Tom Zbikowski returned the punt eight yards to the Syracuse 40. After an 11-yard run by Darius Walker, Quinn threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Samardzija.

On Syracuse's first possession of the second half, Leo Ferrine returned an interception 16 yards for a touchdown.

Walker, who rushed for 123 yards on 26 carries, added a 3-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. Walker had his sixth 100-yard game, the first Notre Dame player to do that since Atruy Denson in 1998.

Syracuse managed 105 yards and a field goal in the first quarter, but managed just 47 yards of total offense the rest of the way until Weis took out the defensive starters with seven minutes to play and put in seniors, some of who had not played this season. Weis was most pleased with a 16-yard pass from Marty Mooney to Michael O'Hara, both senior walk-ons.

"My favorite play of the game," he said.

Syracuse scored its only touchdown, on an 18-yard pass from Perry Patterson to Joe Kowalewski, after the Irish emptied their bench. Much of Syracuse's offense against Notre Dame's starters came on three plays: runs of 30 and 23 yards by Patterson and a 51-yard run by Damien Rhodes, who finished with 112 yards rushing. Patterson was 9-of-22 passing for 78 yards.

Quinn was 21-of-37 passing for 270 yards, becoming Notre Dame's all-time leading passer. Quinn has 7,618 yards passing, moving past Ron Powlus, who threw for 7,602 yards from 1994-97. He has 3,201 yards passing this season, becoming the first Irish quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in a season.

Still, it wasn't a good performance by Quinn's standards.

"I would probably have to stretch back to maybe the Michigan game to feel as bad as I do now as how I played today," Quinn said.
