SCOUTING THE IRISH —

For the first time since the 1980-81 campaign, two top 10 teams will be squaring off at the Joyce Center as 10th-ranked Notre Dame (18-4, 6-2) plays host to fourth-ranked Pittsburgh (16-2, 6-1) on Sunday afternoon. It will be the second regular-season meeting between the two schools as the Irish will be looking to avenge their 72-55 loss to the Panthers in the BIG EAST opener for both teams on January 6.

The last matchup between two top 10 foes at the Joyce Center occurred on December 9, 1980 when No. 9 Notre Dame defeated No. 7 Indiana 68-64. Pittsburgh comes into the Joyce Center as the highest-ranked opponent an Irish team has faced at home since February 23, 1994 when fourth-ranked North Carolina came in and beat Notre Dame 80-71.

In this afternoon's matchup, Notre Dame, winners of 14 of their last 17 games, had its six-game BIG EAST wins streak snapped against Seton Hall on Wednesday night on the road as the Irish dropped a 78-72 decision. Heading into that matchup, the Irish had owned the league's longest conference win streak. Pittsburgh heads into the game having won seven of its last eight games. The Panthers are coming off of a 68-61 victory at home against Providence on Tuesday night. Pittsburgh suffered its lone conference loss (67-65) against Syracuse at the Carrier Dome eight days ago.

Notre Dame is off to its best BIG EAST start since joining the league in 1995-96. Prior to the loss to the Pirates, the Irish's six-game win streak was the second longest in seven-plus seasons as a league member. The Irish's longest conference win streak was eight games during Mike Brey's first season (2000-01). Last season, Brey's squad manufactured a five-game win streak.

Notre Dame heads into the contest unbeaten at home this season with a 12-0 record. Last Saturday's 93-92 double overtime victory against Georgetown extended the Irish's Joyce Center home-court win streak to 14 games dating back to the final two home games of the 2001-02 campaign. The last time an Irish team won its first 12 games at home was during the 1985-86 season as Notre Dame finished up with a perfect 15-0 mark at home. The current 14-game home win streak is the longest since that campaign.

The Irish are ranked 10th in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today rankings this week. Notre Dame moved up one spot in the AP poll and remained at 10 in the latter for the second straight week. Brey's squad has been ranked in the top 10 of the AP during seven of the last nine weeks and in the top 10 of the ESPN/USA Today poll during six of the last nine rankings.

The current 18-4 record marks the best start for a Notre Dame team since the 1980-81 season. That Irish team posted a 22-5 record before suffering its fourth loss in the 27th game of the season en route to a final 23-6 mark. In terms of calendar date, this is the earliest an Irish team has ever produced 18 wins in the 97-plus years of basketball at the University.

Today's game will be the final home matchup for the Irish for 13 days before back-to-back home games against Virginia Tech (February 22) and Connecticut (February 24). Following this afternoon's contest, Notre Dame plays at Syracuse on February 15 and at West Virginia on February 18.

Notre Dame will be facing its fifth ranked opponent this season. The Irish own a 3-2 mark versus ranked foes. Seven of the Irish's opponents are ranked in both of the polls this week. A win against Pittsburgh this afternoon would equal the most wins (four) by a Notre Dame team over a top 10 opponent in a single season.

Notre Dame has played four top 10 opponents and owns three wins over those teams — No. 10 Marquette (92-71), No. 8 Maryland (79-67) and No. 2 Texas (98-91). The Irish earned those victories in consecutive outings over a six-day stretch (Dec. 2-8). It marked the first time that an Irish team had beaten three straight top 10 opponents in the program's history. Prior to the victory over the Golden Eagles on December 2, Notre Dame had not beaten a top 10 team since Brey's first season when that Irish squad defeated Boston College (10th in AP and 9th in ESPN/USA Today polls). The win over the Longhorns was Notre Dame's first win over a top five opponent since January 5, 2000 versus No. 2 Connecticut (75-70) at the Hartford Civic Center.

The victory over Texas marked the fourth time in history that a Notre Dame team had beaten at least three top 10 opponents in a single season. The most top 10 wins by an Irish team in the same season is four — that was accomplished by the 1977-78 squad which advanced to the NCAA Final Four.

The 98 points scored by the Irish against Texas were the most scored by an Irish team over a ranked opponent since a 101-98 victory over Syracuse (ranked 10th at the time) on Feb. 15, 1992 at the Carrier Dome. The 21-point margin of victory against Marquette was the largest over a ranked opponent since a 98-67 win over then third-ranked Missouri on March 3, 1990.

Notre Dame owns a 24-21 advantage in the series and is 13-7 against the Panther in home games. Pittsburgh has not won at the Joyce Center since posting a 72-61 victory on January 6, 1998 and is 2-7 in the nine games it has played. Notre Dame is 6-3 versus the Panthers in the last nine matchups between the two teams. The Irish swept the regular-season series against Pittsburgh during both the 2000-01 and 2001-02 campaigns.

Notre Dame is averaging 80.4 points and has scored 90-plus points in seven games this season and has topped the century mark twice. Brey's team has averaged 88.5 points in its last four outings. The Irish are yielding 67.9 points per contest and have held their opponents to 65 points and under on 10 occasions.

Notre Dame has been very dominant at home, averaging 84.5 points and yielding just 62.7 points per game. The Irish's average margin of victory in games at the Joyce Center is 21.8 points per game. Notre Dame's largest margin of victory was 35 points in its 90-55 against Albany, while the closest margin was a 10-point decision (64-54) versus Seton Hall.

Matt Carroll (Horsham, Pa.) had a career-high 36-point outing against Georgetown last Saturday and is the only Irish player who has scored in double figures in all 22 games. He has topped the 30-point mark on three occasions this season and four times during his career. He continues to lead the Irish in scoring with a 20.9 scoring average overall and 23.0 average in eight conference games. He has scored 20-plus points in five of the last nine games. He heads into today's game with Pittsburgh having scored in double figures in 28 consecutive games.

Carroll owns the Notre Dame career three-point field goals made mark with 262 and is quickly approaching another milestone — the career games started mark of 116 held by former Irish great David Rivers (1984-88). Carroll has 113 career starts to his credit in 121 games played.

Chris Thomas (Indianapolis, Ind.) has averaged 21.0 points in Notre Dame's last four games and has a 17.9 scoring average overall and 19.1 average in BIG EAST play. He leads the team in assists (7.0) and steals (1.9). He has registered three double doubles this season and has dished off 10-plus assists in four games. He had a season-high 13 assists against Canisius, which also matched his career best. Thomas topped the 20-point mark for the ninth time last Saturday with 24 points against Georgetown and also dished off his 400th career assist in the contest.

Dan Miller (Mt. Holly, N.J.) is third on the Irish scoring list with a 14.2 average and is the team's second-leading rebounder at 6.1 rebounds per game. He is coming off of a BIG EAST career-best 21-point outing (and one below his career high) against Seton Hall on Wednesday night after tying his personal best with 11 rebounds versus the Hoyas in the previous outing. Miller has scored in double figures in all but six games (Creighton, Pittsburgh, Seton Hall, Rutgers, Providence and Georgetown) and has scored 20 or more points on six occasions.

Torin Francis (Roslindale, Mass.) is averaging 10.1 points and a team-leading 8.5 rebounds. In addition, he leads the team with seven double doubles. He posted his most recent double double of the season against Valparaiso on January 4 as he finished with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Francis had a BIG EAST career-best 10 rebounds against Seton Hall on Wednesday night. Francis has started all 22 games and has reached double figures in 12 contests and grabbed 10-plus rebounds in eight games. He averaged 14.0 points and 8.0 rebounds in his homecoming to the New England area in wins at Providence and Boston College two weeks ago.

Jordan Cornette (Cincinnati, Ohio), who started the first six games of the season, has been in the Notre Dame starting lineup for each of the last eight games. He played a career-high 33 minutes in the win over Rutgers (January 14), scoring eight points, grabbing seven rebounds and blocking eight shots. Cornette has had a real impact for the Irish on the defensive end of the floor. He is averaging 3.0 points and 4.5 rebounds, in addition to 2.5 blocked shots. In the Belmont game, Cornette registered his first career double double with an unlikely combination of 13 rebounds and a Notre Dame and Joyce Center record 11 blocked shots. His 55 blocked shots this season are 38 more than he blocked all of last season. Cornette grabbed 11 rebounds against Boston College, his second double figure rebounding effort of the season.

Hills, Pa.). He hit the game-winning free throw with four seconds to play in Notre Dame's 93-92 double overtime victory over Georgetown. Jones is averaging 5.1 points and 3.1 rebounds. He had one of his best all-around efforts in an Irish uniform against Vanderbilt on December 30 as he scored 12 points, grabbed seven rebounds, dished off two assists and had a block and a steal in playing a career-high 29 minutes. Jones, who is averaging a career-best 19.4 minutes off the bench, has scored in double figures in three games. He has played 20-plus minutes in six of the last seven games and in 11 contests overall.

Chris Quinn (Dublin, Ohio) is averaging significant minutes off the bench at 16.1 minutes per game and has played 20-plus minutes in eight contests. He scored a career-high 12 points versus Marquette and is averaging 4.3 points and 1.5 rebounds. Quinn, along with Francis, is the only rookie who has played in all 22 games. He has connected on 31 field goals with 21 coming from three-point range. He was a key in the first half against Boston College on January 25 as he scored 10 points in 12 minutes of action.

Tom Timmermans (Driehuis, Netherlands) had started eight straight games before the Seton Hall game on January 12. He made his first career start in the victory over Marquette on December 1 and is averaging 13.4 minutes of playing time. Timmermans equalled his personal best of nine points against West Virginia, in addition to grabbing a career-high eight boards. He played 25 minutes in last Saturday's win against Georgetown, equalling his career best, and finished with six points and six rebounds. Timmermans followed that performance with six points and five rebounds in 15 minutes off the bench against Seton Hall. He is averaging 3.5 points and 2.9 rebounds.

Mike Brey is in his third year as the Notre Dame head coach and eighth in the collegiate ranks. He was named the 17th head coach in the program's history on July 14, 2000, following five seasons (1995-2000) as head coach at the University of Delaware, where he led the Blue Hens to an overall record of 99-52. Brey owns a 60-25 mark (.706) with the Irish and earned his 50th victory at Notre Dame with the win over Texas in the championship game of the BB&T Classic. He is the first coach in Notre Dame history to lead his teams to consecutive 20-win campaigns and NCAA tournament appearances in his first two seasons. Last year, he led his team to a 22-11 record and 10-6 mark in BIG EAST play after guiding the 2000-01 Irish to the 2000-01 BIG EAST West Division crown with an 11-5 record and finishing with a 20-10 overall record. Five of his eight teams have advanced to postseason competition (four NCAA and one NIT appearances). Since his arrival, he has led Notre Dame to a 27-13 mark in BIG EAST play during the regular season for a .675 winning percentage. In the two-year period from 2000-02, the Irish's BIG EAST wins are matched only by Boston College and Connecticut. His 21 wins after two seasons ranked as the third-best total in conference history. Only four other BIG EAST coaches, including St. John's mentor Mike Jarvis, have ever posted a better winning percentage in their first two seasons in the league. Among active BIG EAST coaches, Brey's 28-15 record (including regular season and championship contests) for a .651 winning percentage ranks him fourth behind Jarvis, Jim Boeheim and Jim Calhoun,

BREY VERSUS RANKED OPPONENTS —

As a head coach at both Notre Dame and Delaware, Mike Brey has coached in 27 games against ranked opponents. The Irish were 3-6 and 4-3 during the 2001-02 and 2000-01 campaigns, respectively. This year, Brey is 3-2 versus ranked foes. Overall, in his seven-plus seasons as a head coach, he owns an 10-17 record all-time against ranked opponents.

BREY HAS THE FORMULA FOR BIG EAST SUCCESS AT NOTRE DAME —

Since his arrival to Notre Dame, Mike Brey has led Notre Dame to a 27-13 record in BIG EAST regular-season games for a 67.5 winning percentage and 1-2 mark in tournament play for an overall record of 28-15 (.651) against league foes. The Irish won the BIG EAST West Division title in 2001 by fashioning an 11-5 record (the most conference wins in its six-year tenure in the league). Under Brey, Notre Dame is the only BIG EAST school to win 10-plus league games each of the past two seasons and the only school who has earned a first round bye in the BIG EAST tournament. Prior to Brey's arrival at Notre Dame, Irish teams had a 35-53 (39.8 percent) regular-season record in its conference games since 1995-96.

IRISH IN BIG EAST OPENERS —

Notre Dame's BIG EAST opener on the road at Pittsburgh on January 6 marked the seventh time in eight seasons (since joining the league in 1995-96) that the Irish opened up league play on the road. Notre Dame owns a 3-5 mark in conference openers. The only time an Irish team opened up BIG EAST play at the Joyce Center was last season as they dropped a 74-72 decision to Villanova. Irish teams have posted a 3-4 mark in its seven league openers on the road.

BREY AND THE IRISH IN OVERTIME GAMES —

Notre Dame is 3-0 in overtime games (two on the road and one at home) under head coach Mike Brey during his tenure. The Irish did not play an overtime game in Brey's first season. The first overtime game played by Notre Dame under Brey was last season's four-overtime epic matchup against Georgetown in which the Irish defeated the Hoyas 116-111 at the MCI Center. The Irish have played two overtime contests this season — at Boston College (101-96) and at home against Georgetown (93-92 in double overtime).

OVER THE CENTURY MARK —

Notre Dame's 101-96 overtime victory against Boston College on January 25 marked the second this season the Irish went over the century mark. The Irish also reached the century mark in their 102-71 victory over DePaul on January 14. Notre Dame has scored 100 points or more points five times during Mike Brey's tenure with the Irish.

SERIES RECORD VS. PITTSBURGH —

Today's game will be the 46th meeting between the two teams with Notre Dame holding a 24-21 advantage in the series. The Irish have won four of the last six meetings. This will be the 15th meeting between the two schools since Notre Dame joined the BIG EAST in 1995-96. The Irish are 8-6 versus Pittsburgh in league play.

MATT CARROLL NAMED CO-BIG EAST PLAYER OF THE WEEK —

Matt Carroll earned BIG EAST Player of the Week honors for the second time this season and the third time in his career after leading the Irish to two victories last week. He averaged 27.0 points and 6.0 rebounds. Carroll scored 18 points and grabbed seven rebounds in an 88-69 win over West Virginia and then netted a career-high 36 points against Georgetown in a 93-92 double overtime victory.

REMEMBER NOVEMBER —

For the second straight year, Notre Dame played six games during the month of November and finished up the first month of the season with a 5-1 record. Last year, the Irish completed the first month of the season with a perfect 6-0 slate. It marked the most wins ever by a Notre Dame team in the month of November and the third time in the program's history that the Irish played six games during that month. Notre Dame also played six games in the month of November during both the 1999-2000 and 1998-99 campaigns and finished with 4-2 and 2-4 marks, respectively. Under Irish head coach Mike Brey, Notre Dame owns a 14-1 mark in November.

A PERFECT DECEMBER —

With its win over Vanderbilt on December 30, Notre Dame finished the month of December with an unblemished 6-0 mark. The last time an Irish team went undefeated during December was during the 1980-81 campaign as that Notre Dame squad also posted a perfect 6-0 mark.

A JANUARY JUMP —

Notre Dame finished the month of January with a 6-2 record in the eight games it played during the past month. Two years ago, Notre Dame compiled a 5-3 record in eight games during the first month of the New Year. Last season, Notre Dame was 4-4 in its eight January contests. Overall, the Irish are 15-9 (.625) under Brey during the month of January.

ON A ROLL —

Notre Dame has won 14 of its last 17 games. The Irish had their four-game win streak snapped when they lost to Seton Hall on Wednesday night. Notre Dame's longest win streak of the season was eight games (from Nov. 30-Jan. 5) before Pittsburgh ended the streak with its 72-55 victory on January 6. That marked the longest win streak for a Notre Dame team since 2000-01 campaign (Brey's first season), when that Irish squad put together eight consecutive victories midway through the season.

HOME SWEET HOME —

Since the inaugural season (1968-69) playing in the Joyce Center, Notre Dame owns a 418-122 record all-time for a .774 winning percentage. The Irish are 33-8 (.805) at the Joyce Center during Mike Brey's two-plus seasons, and since the 1996-97 campaign, they own a 83-27 mark for a .755 winning percentage.

THE IRISH ALL-TIME —

The 2002-03 campaign marks the 98th season of men's basketball at Notre Dame. Irish teams have posted 1523-832 record all-time for a .647 winning percentage.

NOTRE DAME ALL-TIME IN THE BIG EAST —

In seven-plus seasons as a member of the BIG EAST Conference, Notre Dame owns a 62-66 record all-time in conference regular-season play for a .484 winning percentage. In its first five years, Irish teams were 35-53 (.398), but since Mike Brey took over the program, the Irish have compiled a 27-13 (.675) mark in regular-season play.

THE HOME ADVANTAGE —

Notre Dame has an unblemished 12-0 record at home this season and has won 14 straight at the Joyce Center dating back to last season when the Irish won their final two home games of the regular season. The last loss at the Joyce Center for Notre Dame was against Syracuse (68-65) on February 17, 2002. The current 14-game win streak is the longest since 1985-86 season when that Irish squad finished with a perfect 15-0 mark at home.

IRISH FIND SUCCESS AT THE MCI CENTER —

Notre Dame is 5-1 all-time in games played at the MCI Center following wins against Maryland and Texas in early December. Since dropping a 76-56 decision the first time a Notre Dame squad took the floor of the MCI Center against Georgetown on February 7, 1998, Irish teams have won five straight with three wins coming against the Hoyas. Certainly one of the most memorable was the epic four-overtime contest as the Irish prevailed 60 minutes later with a 116-111 victory.

HISTORY MADE —

Wins over No. 10 Marquette, No. 8 Maryland and No. 2 Texas in consecutive outings proved historic as the 2002-03 Irish squad became the first team in school history to beat three consecutive top 10 foes. The victory against the Longhorns marked just the third time a Notre Dame team has beaten three top 10 teams in the same season. It also marked the fourth time in the history of the program that an Irish team has faced three consecutive top 10 opponents. The most top 10 wins in a single season is four set in 1977-78 when Notre Dame defeated No. 5 UCLA (69-66) on December 10, 1977, No. 3 UCLA (75-73) on January 22, 1978, No. 1 Marquette (65-59) on February 26, 1978 and No. 3 DePaul (84-64) on March 19, 1978.

A HISTORIC LEAP —

Notre Dame's rise from being unranked to No. 10 in the Associated Press Poll on December 9th marked the third highest jump since the ranking began including 25 teams. Kansas went from unranked to 4th on November 27 1989, while Arizona made its debut at No. 8 on November 20, 2001.

HOT SHOTS —

Notre Dame connected on a combined 58.2 percent of its shots from the field in back-to-back wins against DePaul and Canisius. The Irish shot 60.0 percent from the field against the Blue Demons as they made 30-50 shots. It marked the best shooting performance by an Irish team since November 22, 2000 when Notre Dame converted 36-56 field goals (64.3 percent) against Loyola (Chicago). It also was the second time a Brey-coached team shot 60 percent or better in a game. The Irish were 34-60 (.567) from the field against Canisius. Overall, Notre Dame is shooting 45.2 percent from the field this season and has shot 50.0 percent or better on five occasions.

SECOND HALF BLUES —

In seven of the last 11 games, Notre Dame has somewhat struggled offensively during the second half, averaging 37.8 points and shooting just 36.4 percent (116-319) from the field. Here's a breakdown of the Irish's last 11 games in both the first and second halves.

	1st Half	Second Half (including overtime)
Vanderbilt	17-30 (.567) — 45 pts.	8-29 (.276) — 31 pts.
Valparaiso	14-25 (.560) — 36 pts.	6-21 (.286) — 19 pts.
Pittsburgh	13-32 (.406) — 30 pts.	7-31 (.226) — 25 pts.
Seton Hall	14-26 (.538) — 46 pts.	9-29 (.310) — 28 pts.
Rutgers	11-23 (.478) — 35 pts.	8-20 (.400) — 33 pts.
Kentucky	11-33 (.333) — 30 pts.	11-31 (.355) — 43 pts.
Providence	12-31 (.387) — 33 pts.	11-23 (.478) — 38 pts.
Boston College	15-29 (.517) — 47 pts.	15-43 (.349) — 54 pts.
West Virginia	15-40 (.375) — 36 pts.	13-29 (.448) — 52 pts.
Georgetown	12-36 (.333) — 40 pts.	13-31 (.419) — 53 pts.
Seton Hall	12-39 (.400) — 32 pts.	15-32 (.469) — 40 pts.
Totals	146-344 (.424) — 410 pts. (37.3 pts.)	116-319 (.364) — 416 pts. (37.8 pts.)

'CARROLL'-ING INTO THE RECORD BOOKS —

Senior guard Matt Carroll etched his name into the Notre Dame record books on February 1 when he became the school's career three-point shooting leader. His six three-pointers (equalling his personal best) against Georgetown moved ahead of David Graves' (1998-2002) former record of 259. In 121 career games played, Carroll has 262 three-point fields for an average of 2.17. He also is within reach of two other Irish career marks. With 113 career starts to his credit, he is four games away from breaking the mark for career games started (117) held by former Irish point guard David Rivers (1984-88). Carroll also is on pace to break Graves' career mark of 130 games played.

WHERE CHARITY BEGINS —

Notre Dame has outscored its opponents 401-254 from the free throw line this season and has attempted 143 more free throws (521-378). The Irish have made 77.0 percent of their free throw attempts, while their opponents are converting on just 67.2 percent. In 18 games, Notre Dame has made more free throws than its opponents and hit on better than 75.0 percent on 15 occasions. In the last seven games, the Irish are a combined 189-231 (.818) from the line compared to 110-152 (.724) for their opponents.

NOTRE DAME'S NAME GAME —

A quick glance at the Notre Dame roster can be confusing with two players whose first names begin with Chris; two players whose last name sounds the same, but is spelled differently; and two other players whose first names are nearly identical.

First off, two of Notre Dame's guards are named Chris — Chris Thomas (a sophomore) and Chris Quinn (a freshman). Both point guards, Thomas and Quinn wear jersey numbers 1 and 2, respectively.

Then, there's the frontline duo of sophomore Jordan Cornette and freshman Rick Cornett. Jordan wears No. 12 and Rick's jersey number is 11.

Very little separates the first names of junior Torrian (pronounced tour-REE-in) Jones and freshman Torin (tur-rin) Francis.

In addition, there are two players named Dan — senior forward Dan Miller and senior guard Dan Lustig, who joined the team this season as a walk-on.

Next year's roster could be even more confusing with two Omaris — current rookie Omari Peterkin and incoming freshman Omari Isreal.

HOME STRIPE —

Notre Dame has been particularly successful from the charity stripe in home games as the Irish are 238-305 (.780) compared to 135-196 (.689) for their opponents. In the last seven home games, Notre Dame is 176-211 (.834) from the line as the Irish have made an average of 25.1 free throws on 30.1 attempts and have averaged just 5.0 misses per game. Coach Mike Brey's squad shot a season best 95.7 percent from the line against Rutgers as the Irish were converted 22 of its 23 attempts.

CHAIRMEN OF THE BOARDS —

Heading into the West Virginia game February 18, the Irish had been outrebounded in six straight games, and in 12 games overall. Notre Dame reversed that fortune versus the Mountaineers as the Irish owned a decisive 51-27 advantage on the boards — the most rebounds in a game this season as well as the largest rebounding margin. The 51 rebounds also were the most by the Irish since last year's Georgetown game at the MCI Center when they totalled 64. It also was the largest rebounding margin ever by Notre Dame in Mike Brey's two-plus seasons. Notre Dame has been outrebounded in 13 of its 22 games this season.

RECORDS FALL AGAINST BELMONT —

Notre Dame's win over Belmont in the season opener, produced several new Irish records.

- The 19 blocked shots the Irish had as a team set the school and Joyce Center mark, eclipsing the old mark of 12. The team total ties for third all-time on the NCAA blocked shots list with Seton Hall (November of 2000).
- Jordan Cornette's 11 blocked shots broke the school record of eight set by LaPhonso Ellis in 1992 in an NIT game versus Kansas State. He also established a new Joyce Center record, breaking the record of 10 set by UCLA's Bill Walton on January 27, 1973.

IRISH SPELL SUCCESS — D-E-F-E-N-S-E —

Notre Dame's strong defensive showing in its 22 games has resulted in 18 wins as the Irish have held opponents to 67.9 points per game and a combined shooting percentage of 39.4. Notre Dame's defense has held six of its opponents to 55 points and under.

DEFENDING THE SHOT —

Irish opponents are shooting 39.4 percent from the field overall and 33.7 percent from three-point range. On 13 occasions this season, Notre Dame has limited teams to 40 percent and under. In seven of the last 13 games, the Irish have held their opponents to 40 percent and under and limited them to just 41.9 percent shooting from the field (352-840). Four teams have shot better than 50.0 percent against the Irish — Seton Hall (52.6) Kentucky (52.3), Pittsburgh (52.7) and Creighton (62.0). Ironically, those are the only four opponents the Irish have lost to during the season.

KEEPING IT CLOSE —

Notre Dame's 17-point loss (72-55) to Pittsburgh on January 6 marked the worst loss for an Irish team under head coach Mike Brey (spanning 85 games total). Prior to the contest, Notre Dame's worst loss was a 16-point setback to Connecticut during Brey's first season, the 2000-01 campaign. The Irish's 11 losses last season were by a combined total of 49 points for an average margin of defeat of 4.45 points. Only one loss (versus Georgetown - 83-73) was by double figures, while eight of those setbacks were by five points or less. In the 24 losses the Irish have suffered under Brey over the course of the last two-plus seasons, only six have been by a double-digit margin. In his first season (2001-01), Brey's squad lost 10 games by a combined 85 points with its biggest loss coming against Connecticut.

IRISH HAVE FACED DEFENDING NATIONAL CHAMPIONS 31 TIMES —

The Irish's matchup against Maryland on December 7 marked the 31st time an Irish team had played a team that had won the national title the previous year. With its win over the Terrapins, Notre Dame now owns an 8-23 mark, but has been victorious three of the last four times it has gone up against a team which had won the national championship the previous season. Notre Dame's 1999-00 squad beat Connecticut twice — 75-70 at the Harford Civic Center and 68-66 at the Joyce Center — the season after the Huskies claimed the '99 NCAA title.

THOMAS NAMED TO WOODEN MIDSEASON TOP 30 AND NAISMITH LISTS —

Sophomore point guard Chris Thomas has been named to the Top 30 Midseason list for the 2002-03 John R. Wooden Award. Thomas was on the preseason ballot of 50 players that was announced in the fall. He also was named as a preseason candidate (one of 30) for the 2002-03 Naismith College Basketball Player of the Year Award, which is presented annually by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. Thomas is among seven BIG EAST players still remaining on the Wooden List and one of five conference players on the Naismith ballot.

HE'S IRISH NOW —

Notre Dame forward Dan Miller played his first three seasons at Maryland before transferring in June of 2001. He faced his former team in the first round of the BB&T Classic on December 7 and had 17 points and seven rebounds in 38 minutes of action. Prior to that contest, the last time the Irish and Terrapins played each other in the consolation game of the Preseason NIT, Miller was wearing a Terrapin uniform. Miller started the game and played 32 minutes, while finishing with 12 points and four rebounds. Current Irish players Matt Carroll and Jere Macura played in the game. Maryland won the game 72-67 to claim third-place in the tournament.

THERE'S NO SLOWING HIM DOWN —

Matt Carroll ended the 2001-02 campaign by scoring 20 points in Notre Dame's two BIG EAST and two NCAA tournament games. Carroll has continued that streak by scoring 20-plus points in 10 of the 21 contests of the season. He has netted 20-plus points in five of the last eight games. Carroll has had three 30-point outings this season, including Saturday's career-high 36-point outing against Georgetown and a 31-point effort at Pittsburgh. He has notched four 30-point outings during his career. Carroll also scored 33 points against DePaul on December 14. His other 20-plus point outings include: IUPUI (26 pts.),

Creighton (20 pts.), Texas (20 pts.), Canisius (25 pts.), Rutgers (25 pts.), Kentucky (29 pts.) and Providence (21 pts.). Carroll has recorded 14 20-point efforts in his last 25 games in an Irish uniform and owns 20 20-plus point games during his career. He is the only Notre Dame player who has scored in double figures in all 21 games this season and has netted double figures in 27 straight contests.

MILLER TIME —

After sitting out the 2001-02 campaign following his transfer to Notre Dame in the summer of 2001, Dan Miller is averaging 14.2 points (third best scoring total on the team) and 6.1 rebounds. He recorded double doubles in the first two games of the season against Belmont and IUPUI and has scored in double figures in all but six contests (Creighton, Pittsburgh, Seton Hall, Rutgers, Providence and Georgetown). Miller also has registered 20-point outings in six games — 20 points versus Furman, Marquette and Texas; 22 points versus Albany; a career-high 23 points in the win over Canisius in which he made a personal best six three-pointers; a BIG EAST career-best 21 points in Wednesday nights loss at Seton Hall. Against Belmont, he had 19 points and 10 rebounds and came back against IUPUI the following night to score 17 points and grab 11 rebounds (career-high). In his three seasons with the Terrapins (104 career games), he did not record a double double and never grabbed more than seven rebounds in a game; he also had scored in double figures just 19 times and had only finished with 20 or more points on one occasion. Miller had equalled his career best with 11 boards against Georgetown — the third time this season with 10-plus rebounds.

REGAINING HIS FORM —

After scoring in double figures in eight consecutive games prior to the start the beginning of BIG EAST play, Dan Miller struggled somewhat in his first four league games, scoring just 29 points (7.3) and grabbing 17 rebounds (4.3). He shot a combined 11-33 (.333) from the field and 3-15 (.200) from three-point range. Of late, Miller seems to have regained his early-season form. Against Boston College on January 25, he netted 16 points and grabbed five rebounds as he shot 5-10 from the field and 3-3 from the charity stripe. In a win over West Virginia, he finished with 15 points and nine rebounds. His 21-point outing against Seton Hall was his fourth time in double figures in the last six contests. In the last 11 games overall, he has shot 44-121 (.364) overall and 12-48 (.250) from three-point range.

FANTASTIC FRANCIS —

Rookie Torin Francis is averaging 10.1 points and a team-leading 8.5 rebounds, in addition to registering a team-high seven double doubles — versus IUPUI, Bucknell, Albany, Marquette, Texas, Vanderbilt and Valparaiso. He has had two 20-point outings this season which came in back-to-back outings against Maryland (20 points) and Texas (career-high 21 points) at the BB&T Classic. Francis has been in double figures in 12 of 22 games (and in 10 of the last 17 contests) and has posted a double double in five of those games. He also has grabbed 10-plus rebounds in eight games. In addition to his 21 points against the Longhorns, he grabbed 10 rebounds and blocked a career best eight shots. In the win over Maryland, he scored 20 points as he connected on all eight of his shot attempts. Against Marquette, he scored 11 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, which was preceded by a 15-point and 15-rebound outing against Albany. He registered his first career double double against IUPUI and had 11 points and 20 rebounds against the Bison. Francis produced back-to-back double doubles in Notre Dame's win wins over Vanderbilt (11 points and 11 rebounds) and Valparaiso (12 points and 10 rebounds). The 20 rebounds he had against Bucknell were the most ever by an Irish freshman and the most since former Irish All-American Troy Murphy grabbed 20 rebounds against Seton Hall on January 8, 2001.

BREY SHOWS IRISH THE WAY ON THE ROAD —

Notre Dame played just 13 homes games during the 2001-02 campaign, but found life on the road to be rather friendly. The Irish were 8-4 in contests played on the opponent's home floor and were 5-3 in neutral site contests for an overall record of 13-7 away from the Joyce Center. In Brey's first year, Notre Dame was 6-4 on the road and 2-2 in neutral site games for an overall record of 8-6. In two-plus seasons under Brey, Notre Dame has a 16-10 (.615) road mark and 11-6 (.647) mark in neutral site contests. Over the past two-plus seasons, Irish teams have compiled a 27-17 (.614) record playing away from home.

IRONMAN —

Matt Carroll played in his 100th career game in Notre Dame's win over Belmont and has seen action in 121 career games in an Irish uniform. He has started all but eight of those games and has missed just one contest throughout his career (Miami-Fla. on the road last season because of an ankle injury) in 122 contests overall.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL —

During the 2000-01 and 2001-02 campaigns (63 games), Notre Dame averaged 18.3 assists and just 13.7 turnovers for a 1.34 assist-to-turnover ratio. The Irish ranked third last season with a 1.45 assist-to-turnover ratio and ninth in '01-'02 with a 1.23 ratio. Notre Dame's 629 assists last season were second-most in school history — the 1999-2000 team had 643 assists in 37 games for a 17.4 assist per game average. Notre Dame has had more turnovers than assists in just five games this season — Bucknell, Furman, Vanderbilt, Seton Hall and Kentucky. During the 2001-02 season, only twice did Notre Dame have more turnovers than assists. The Irish own a 1.28 assist-to-turnover ratio and 0.61 assist-to-basket ratio this season and are averaging 16.5 assists and 12.9 turnovers.

DECISIVE FIRST-HALF RUNS —

In eight of Notre Dame's 22 games this season, it's been runs in the final eight minutes of the first half that have been decisive for the rest of the game in leading the Irish to victory.

- Against Belmont, Notre Dame led 26-21 with 2:57 remaining and closed out the half with a 14-5 run for a 40-21 halftime advantage.
- In the IUPUI game, Notre Dame trailed 23-22 with 6:34 left before the game, but used a 18-5 run to gain a 40-28 halftime lead.
- Leading by seven (23-16) with 4:41 remaining in the first half, Notre Dame outscored Bucknell 17-5 for a 40-21 halftime lead.

JONES PROVIDES THE SPARK —

Torrian Jones has been a spark for Notre Dame off the bench this season, and it's been his play at both the offensive and defensive end of the floor that has ignited the Irish. Against Georgetown, he notched the game-winning free throw with four seconds remaining in double overtime to lift Notre Dame to the one-point win. Jones had one of his best all-around performances in an Irish uniform against Vanderbilt on December 30 as he scored 12 points and grabbed a season-high seven rebounds. In the Bucknell game, it was his offensive play that helped produce the win as he scored 13 points (on 6-8 shooting from the field) while playing a season-high 21 minutes. He had his third double figure outing of the season in the loss at Kentucky as finished with 10 points and six rebounds. Against Furman, he also played 21 minutes and scored nine points, while making a career-high four steals. He averaged 6.0 points and 8.0 rebounds in the BB&T Classic as he finished with four points and a season-high six rebounds versus Maryland and eight points and two boards against Texas. Jones is averaging 5.1 points and 3.1 rebounds.

IN THE SPIRIT OF GIVING —

Chris Thomas' unselfish play continues to be one of the reasons why the Irish have been so successful the past two seasons in compiling a 40-15 (.723) mark over the last 55 games. As a freshman, he ranked fifth nationally with a 7.64 assist average. This season, Thomas is averaging 7.0 assists, good for seventh nationally. He has dished off 10-plus assists in four games — IUPUI (11), Marquette (10), DePaul (10) and Canisius (13). His 13 assists in the Canisius game matched his career best. Thomas has dished off 10 or more assists 14 times during his career.

TWENTY SOMETHING —

Chris Thomas has scored 20-plus points in nine games this season, including four of the last eight contests. He had 24 points against Georgetown and 28 points versus Boston College (25 in the second half). His performance against the Eagles followed his game-high 23 points at Providence four days earlier. Against Seton Hall in the first meeting between the two schools, he scored 22 points in Notre Dame's win over the Pirates. Thomas matched his personal best with 32 points against Marquette on December 2 and recorded his third double double, and 10th of his career, against Canisius as he finished with 17 points and 13 assists in just 23 minutes. Thomas had three straight 20-point outings for the first time in his career against Bucknell, Furman and Creighton, scoring 20 points against the Bison and Paladins and then tossing in 22 in the loss to the Blue Jays in the championship game of the Guardians Classic. Last season, he began his career by registering 24 and 22 points in the first two games of the season versus New Hampshire and Cornell. He also had back-to-back 20-plus point outings against Rutgers (32) and Georgetown (22) and then against West Virginia (26) and Miami (32). Thomas has scored 20-plus points 18 times during his career (55 games). His 32 points against the Golden Eagles this season marked the third time in his career that he has scored 30-plus points. He has failed to score in double figures just 12 times during his career.

FORTY-MINUTE MAN —

For the first time this season in the win over Rutgers on January 14, Chris Thomas played all 40 minutes of the contest. He played 42 minutes in the January 25th overtime win at Boston College and 45 versus Georgetown before fouling of the game for the first time in 54 career games. As a freshman last season, he played the entire game in 11 of 18 BIG EAST games (regular season and two tournament contests) and averaged 40.2 minutes in league contests and 38.0 minutes overall. Thomas also played all 60 minutes in Notre Dame's epic four-overtime win (116-111) at Georgetown last February. In addition, he played the entire game on 14 occasions.

MAKING THE "QUINN"-ESSENTIAL POINT —

Freshman Chris Quinn has played in all 22 games for the Irish and is averaging 16.1 minutes per game and 4.1 points per game. Quinn had his best outing of the season against Marquette, scoring a personal best 12 points (hit 5-8 shots from the field) while playing 26 minutes. He played a career-best 28 minutes in Notre Dame's win over Maryland and had a career-high six rebounds versus Valparaiso. In the Boston College game, he scored 10 points in the first half in 12 minutes off the bench. He played the final 3:55 of double overtime against the Hoyas when Chris Thomas fouled out of the game. Quinn has played 20-plus minutes in eight games.

TOM TERRIFIC —

A lower back problem forced Tom Timmermans to miss three games, but the Irish center started eight straight games prior to Notre Dame's last six outings. Timmermans tied a personal best with nine points in 14 minutes off the bench against West Virginia and also finished with a career-high eight rebounds. He played a career best 25 minutes against Vanderbilt and finished with four points, three rebounds and a career-high three assists. He also played 25 minutes in Saturday's game against Georgetown and finished with six points and six rebounds. Timmermans had a career-high nine points against DePaul as he connected on all three of his field goals and free throw attempts and grabbed a personal best seven rebounds versus Canisius. He earned his first career start in the win over Marquette on Dec. 2. After missing the first two contests against Belmont and IUPUI, Timmermans played nine minutes against Bucknell and finished with two rebounds. He did not see action against Furman, but played 21 minutes in the loss to Creighton and had six points and six rebounds.

BLOCK PARTY —

Notre Dame set the single-season team record for blocked shots in 2000-01 campaign with 178 in 30 games for an average of 5.93 blocks per game. Last season, the Irish finished with 163 blocks for an average of 4.94 per

The Concept of Team Basketball

Mike Brey's Notre Dame teams have relied on teamwork and unselfish player to be successful. There has always been a great balance between the number of assists to the number of baskets made. The 2000-01 Irish team owned a 0.65 assist-to-basket ratio, while last year's squad had a 0.67 ratio. This season's squad has displayed that same unselfish attitude with a 0.61 assist-to-basket ratio (364 assists to 597 baskets made).

Here's a look at the game-by-game breakdown:

Game	FGM ...	Assists	Ratio
Belmont	25	18	0.72
IUPUI	34	25	0.74
Bucknell	28	13	0.46
Furman	26	9	0.35
Creighton	29	13	0.44
Albany	35	23	0.45
Marquette	33	18	0.54
Maryland	28	20	0.71
Texas	33	19	0.58
DePaul	30	22	0.73
Canisius	34	26	0.76
Vanderbilt	25	16	0.64
Valparaiso	20	16	0.80
Pittsburgh	20	14	0.70
Seton Hall	23	8	0.35
Rutgers	19	14	0.74
Kentucky	22	11	0.50
Providence	23	12	0.52
Boston College	30	18	0.60
West Virginia	28	17	0.61
Georgetown	25	18	0.72

game. Notre Dame is on pace to break that single-season mark as the Irish are averaging 6.14 per game this season (135 blocks). Jordan Cornette and Torin Francis lead the way with 55 and 42, respectively.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION —

Head coach Mike Brey and the Irish once again will receive tremendous exposure with 10 nationally-televised games on CBS, ABC, ESPN and ESPN2. Notre Dame was featured on national television 16 times in the regular season during the past two seasons.

ONE OF JUST 12 —

Getting back into the NCAA tournament last season put Notre Dame in rather elite company as the Irish were one of just 12 schools to win at least one NCAA game in both 2001 and 2002. The list also includes: Arizona, Cincinnati, Duke, Illinois, Kansas, Kent State, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri, Stanford and UCLA.

BROTHERLY LOVE —

Three members of the Notre Dame squad have brothers playing at other Division I schools. Matt Carroll's brother Pat is a sophomore at St. Joseph's (Pa.); Jordan Cornette's brother Joel is a senior at Butler; and Jere Macura has a brother Petar who is a freshman at IUPUI. Jere and Petar both saw action on the floor at the same time in Monday night's matchup.

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS —

By beating Maryland and Texas to win the BB&T Classic at the MCI Center in Washington, D.C., Notre Dame won a regular-season tournament title for the second straight year. The Irish advanced to the championship game of the Guardians Classic earlier this season, but fell to Creighton in the championship game. Last season, Notre Dame won the Hawaii Pacific Thanksgiving Classic in November which marked the first regular-season tournament championship for an Irish team since the 1992-93 season when that squad claimed the title at the Sugar Bowl Tournament.

vs. Maryland (first round): Notre Dame beat the defending national champion Terrapins 79-67 as four of the five starters netted double figures. Notre Dame closed the first half with a 16-5 run as the Irish grabbed a 35-25 halftime advantage.

Maryland scored the first five points of the second half to close the lead to 35-30, but the Irish then outscored the Terrapins 18-7 over a seven-minute stretch as they built a 16-point lead (53-37). Maryland was never able to get closer than eight points as the Irish maintained a double-digit lead for the final 8:13 of the contest. Notre Dame led by as many 18 points in the second half.

Torin Francis led the Irish with 20 points and eight rebounds as he made all eight of his shots from the field, while Matt Carroll finished with 19 points. Dan Miller had 17 points and seven rebounds against his former teammates. Chris Thomas chipped in 10 points and dished off a game-high nine assists, just one fewer than the whole Maryland team.

Notre Dame held Maryland to 37.1 percent shooting in the game, but was outrebounded 47-37. The Irish turned the ball over just 10 times in the contest and had 20 assists on the 28 baskets they made.

With the win over the Terrapins, Notre Dame snapped an 11-game losing streak to the ACC and it was head coach Mike Brey's first win in seven tries against a team from the Atlantic Coast Conference. Before that win, the last time an Irish team defeated an ACC foe was on January 11, 1992 at Madison Square Garden as Notre Dame upended North Carolina 88-76.

vs. Texas (championship game): Torin Francis scored a career-high 21 points, grabbed 10 rebounds and blocked eight shots in helping Notre Dame to the 98-92 victory over the second-ranked Longhorns. Dan Miller finished with 20 points and eight rebounds, while counterpart Matt Carroll also scored 20 points and grabbed six boards. Chris Thomas chipped in 19 points and dished off eight assists.

The Irish scored a season-high 51 points in the first half in grabbing a second-point (51-44) halftime advantage. Notre Dame led by as many as nine in the first half on several occasions.

Following the intermission, the Irish built a 13-point lead (59-46) with 17:40 left in the game, but the Longhorns used a 30-11 run over an 11-minute stretch to go up by six (76-70) with 8:47 to play. Jordan Cornette cut the lead to one (77-76) with a layup with 6:37 remaining, but the Longhorns extended the lead to five with 4:02 to play.

Torrian Jones' layup with 2:11 to play cut the deficit to 83-82 before a three-pointer by Thomas gave the Irish the lead for good with 2:06 remaining. Francis hit five of six foul shots in the final 1:44 of the game.

Notre Dame shot 45.8 percent from the field (33-72) and turned the ball over just nine times in the game, while Irish players combined for 19 assists.

Charting the Irish

Dan Miller and Torin Francis were named to the BB&T Classic All-Tournament Team after leading the Irish to the tournament title. Miller averaged 18.5 points and 7.5 rebounds in the two games in the 38.5 minutes he played. Francis averaging 20.5 points, 9.0 rebounds and 5.5 blocked shots in 32.0 minutes per game. He shot 75.5 percent from the field and 73.3 percent from the free throw line.

GUARDIANS CLASSIC RECAP (Kansas City, Mo.) —

vs. Furman (semifinal): Chris Thomas and Dan Miller scored 20 points each to lead the Irish into the championship game with a 75-50 victory over Furman in the semifinals. Notre Dame held its fourth straight opponent to 50 points and under as the Paladins shot 40.0 percent from the field and 11.1 percent from three-point range.

The Irish connected on 26-60 from the field (43.3 percent) and shot 66.7 percent (8-12) from three-point range. Matt Carroll, who finished with 15 points and six rebounds, was three-of-six from beyond the arc. Torin Francis grabbed a game-high nine rebounds.

Notre Dame held an 18-14 advantage with 9:44 remaining in the first half, but used a 21-9 run to close out the half for a 39-23 halftime advantage.

Furman outscored the Irish 8-0 to begin the second half to close the lead to eight (39-31) with 17:20 remaining, but Notre Dame countered with a 12-2 run of its own to break open the game. The final 25-point outcome was the largest point differential of the contest.

vs. Creighton (championship): The Irish fell to the Blue Jays 80-75 in the championship game. Chris Thomas and Matt Carroll, both named to the Guardians Classic All-Tournament Team, scored 22 points and 20 points, respectively, as the only two Irish players in double figures.

Creighton shot a blistering 62.0 percent from the field (31-50) and 58.8 percent (10-17) from three-point range. Its the best that any team has ever shot against a Mike Brey-coached Irish team. In addition, the Blue Jays owned a 36-29 advantage on the boards.

Creighton led for most of the first half before the Irish used a 21-10 run to grab a seven-point lead (35-28) with 3:02 remaining before halftime. The Blue Jays, however, outscored the Irish 10-0 to close out the first half and grab a three-point halftime advantage (38-35).

The Blue Jays led by as many as 10 in the second half (54-44) with 14:01 remaining. Notre Dame grabbed its first lead of the second half (75-74) with 1:35 remaining on Thomas' three-pointer, but the Irish were held scoreless in the final minute of the game. Creighton tied the game at 75-75 with 24 seconds remaining and then nailed a three-pointer and a free throw which sealed the victory.

GUARDIANS CLASSIC RECAP (NOTRE DAME REGIONAL) — vs. Belmont: Dan Miller recorded the first double double of his career in his debut in an Irish uniform as he scored a game-high 19 points and grabbed 10 rebounds, while Jordan Cornette blocked a school and Joyce Center record 11 blocked shots. In addition, he grabbed a career-best 13 rebounds.

Cornette broke the school record of eight blocked (set by LaPhonso Ellis in 1992) and Joyce Center mark of 10 (set by Bill Walton of UCLA in 1973). Several of his blocked shots came in a decisive 30-5 run. Notre Dame was leading 26-21 with 2:57 remaining before halftime and closed out the first half with a 14-0 run that gave the Irish a 40-21 halftime lead.

Notre Dame held Belmont to just eight points in the first 12:30 of the contest in building a 37-point advantage (66-29). The Irish held the Bruins to just 28.1 shooting accuracy from the field and forced 17 turnovers.

Matt Carroll and Chris Thomas each finished with 15 points each. Thomas also had eight assists in the game.

Notre Dame's 19 blocked shots also established new school and Joyce Center records.

vs. IUPUI: Matt Carroll scored 26 points as he hit four-of-eight three-point attempts, while Dan Miller registered his second straight double double as he netted 17- points and grabbed 11 rebounds in leading the Irish to an 89-45 victory over IUPUI. Torin Francis registered his first career double double as he tossed in 16 points and grabbed 10 boards. Chris Thomas finished with 11 assists and eight points.

Notre Dame used a late first-half run to finish off the Jaguars. The Irish ended the first half with an 18-5 run and then opened the second half with a 20-6 run to the put the game out of reach.

The Jaguars shot 24.3 percent for the game and made just seven baskets (on 36 attempts), while shooting 19.4 percent in the second half. Notre Dame forced 17 turnovers and blocked 13 shots in the game.

Notre Dame finished the game by shooting 54.6 percent from the field and 50.0 percent from three-point range.

LUSTIG ADDED TO IRISH ROSTER —

Senior Dan Lustig has joined the Irish as a walk-on for the 2002-03 campaign. The 6-5, 195-pound guard hails from Alexandria, Ind., and attended Alexandria Monroe High School. He led his high school prep team to the 1998 Indiana Class II-A state championship and an appearance in the semifinals in 1999. A member of the Irish Guard, he is the sixth family member of nine children to attend Notre Dame. He will wear No. 24 this season.

MARKWOOD TRANSFERS TO MAINE —

Junior guard Chris Markwood has left the team and will transfer to the University of Maine. The 6-4, 202-pound guard played in 24 games for the Irish during his career. He missed the entire 2000-01 campaign after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery in September of 2000.

KEVIN WHITE RADIO SHOW —

A weekly half-hour talk show featuring Notre Dame athletics director Kevin White airs on Chicago's ESPN Radio 1000 (1000 AM in Chicago, www.espnradio1000.com). In its third season, "The Kevin White Show" can be heard in 35 states Thursdays at 9:00 p.m. Central time. White welcomes to the show a series of guests and prominent figures associated with college athletics, including administrators, coaches and media members.

Sporting News Recognition

• Notre Dame's backcourt tandem of Matt Carroll and Chris Thomas was ranked the top guard combination by their impact thus far during the 2002-03 season. Said Kyle Veltrop of The Sporting News, "Carroll now is an elite scorer, not just a sharpshooter. Thomas may be the nation's best combined scorer and distributor. Indiana's Tom Coverdale and Bracey Wright were ranked second, followed by Brandin Knight and Julius Page of Pittsburgh; Taliek Brown and Ben Gordon of Connecticut; and Jason Parker and Dante Swanson of Tulsa, rounding out the top five.

• In The Sporting News' Midseason College Basketball Report, Matt Carroll earned a spot on the publication's Midseason All-American squad. He was one of five players who were called "Half-All-Americans by the magazine. Listed along with Carroll were point guard Jameer Nelson of St. Joseph's; center Nick Collison of Kansas; power forward Brian Cook of Illinois; and strong forward Jarvis Hayes of Georgia.

In the October 7, 2002 issue of Sports Illustrated, Notre Dame was ranked the 15th best Sports College among Division I schools for the 2001-02 school year. Texas and Stanford finished first and second, respectively. SI combined a variety of factors in arriving at its 2002 rankings, which included performance during the school year in five sports (baseball, football, hockey and men's and women's basketball); position in the '01-'02 Sears Cup NCAA all-sports standings; number of varsity, club and intramural sports; range of recreational facilities; and whether or not spirit-boosting events like Midnight Madness were held.

USA TODAY/NCAA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD —

Notre Dame received a 2002 USA Today/NCAA Academic Achievement Award for graduating 90 percent of its freshmen student-athletes who enrolled in 1995. Now in its second year, the awards were presented in late September of 2002 to 10 institutions with the highest overall graduation rates for scholarship student-athletes who began college in the 1995-96 academic year. Rice University finished with a rate of 91 percent, one percentage point higher than Notre Dame, Stanford and Duke.

IRISH INK TWO IN EARLY SIGNING PERIOD —

Notre Dame head coach Mike Brey signed two players to national letters of intent during the early signing period — Colin Falls, a 6-4, 200-pound shooting guard out of Park Ridge, Ill., and Omari Isreal, a 6-8, 210-pound forward from Rockville, Md. Falls averaged 24.0 points, 5.5 rebounds and 4.0 assists during his junior season at Loyola Academy in Wilmette, Ill. In addition, he captured first-team all-Chicago Catholic League honors for the second consecutive year, while also earning second-team all-state accolades. Isreal averaged 18.5 points, 9.0 rebounds and 3.0 blocked shots in his junior season at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Wheaton, Md. An all-Washington Catholic Athletic Conference (WCAC) second-team selection each of the last two years, he earned first team all-county honors from both the Montgomery County Journal and Montgomery County Gazette.

TOUGH TICKET AT THE JOYCE CENTER —

Six of Notre Dame's 12 games at the Joyce Center this season have been sell outs — Bucknell, Marquette, DePaul, Vanderbilt, West Virginia and Georgetown. The remaining four games on the Irish home slate are already sold out to date. Before the start of the season, six games were sell outs, which equalled the total number at the Joyce Center during the entire 2001-02 campaign. All 3,160 student ticket packages available this year sold out in 36 hours. With the six sell outs already and the expected four left for the remainder of the home season, that would give the Irish a total of 10 — the most since the 1985-86 season when 14 of the team's 17 games drew a capacity crowd at the Joyce Center.

DRAFT ANALYSIS —

Former Irish standout Ryan Humphrey was chosen as the 19th overall pick in the 2002 NBA Draft, marking the second straight year Notre Dame has had a player chosen in the first round. In 2001, former two-time consensus All-American Troy Murphy was tabbed as the 14th pick overall. Humphrey became the 12th Irish player in the program's history to be chosen in the first round. Notre Dame is one of just four schools (the others include Duke, Indiana and Stanford) to have had at least one player chosen in the first round of each of the last two NBA drafts.

NOTRE DAME BASKETBALL BANQUET —

Tickets are now on sale for the annual Notre Dame Men's Basketball Banquet -- scheduled for Tuesday, April 15, 2003, at the Joyce Center. A reception and silent auction begins at 5:45 p.m. EST in the Monogram Room, followed at 6:00 p.m. by a player autograph session on the concourse and the dinner at 7:00 p.m. on the arena floor. All proceeds benefit the Notre Dame Club of St. Joseph Valley Scholarship Fund. Tickets are $35 each (tables of eight are available). Checks can be made payable to University of Notre Dame and mailed to Athletics Business Office, 112 Joyce Center, Notre Dame, IN 46556. Telephone reservations are not accepted. Reservation forms are available at all remaining home basketball games and at the Joyce Center second-floor ticket windows. Deadline for reservations is Monday, April 4. For additional information, call 574-631-5031.

WORKING FOR A CAUSE

Irish head coach Mike Brey and his wife have always given their time and effort to the fight against cancer. While at the University of Delaware, the couple was actively involved in the Coaches vs. Cancer program as they helped make it one of the top fundraising schools in the country through that program.

With the support of the Notre Dame and South Bend communities, Mike and Tish hosted the first annual Notre Dame Basketball Coaches vs. Cancer Golf Classic in August of 2002 and the "Night of the Stars" at their home in Granger, Ind., that same month. More than 90,000 was raised from both events for cancer research in the local community and the Coaches vs. Cancer program. The "Night of the Stars" evening honored cancer survivors in the South Bend area as well as paid tribute to members of the community at-large who have given countless hours of their time and effort in the fight against the disease.

The "Mike Brey Radio Show" featuring Irish basketball coach Mike Brey and Jack Nolan, color analyst on the Notre Dame Basketball Network, airs every Sunday live on WDND stations 1620 AM and 1490 AM. The one-hour radio show originates from Logan's Roadhouse (4225 North Main Street in Mishawaka, Ind.) and will air thru March 16. The show also can be heard on www.und.com, the official website of the Notre Dame Athletic Department.

The weekly call-in show features special guests along with current Fighting Irish players. Brey and Nolan recap games from the past week and preview upcoming contests. In addition, patrons at the restaurant have the opportunity to ask questions.
