2005 BIG EAST Conference Championship

Saturday-Sunday, April 23-24, 2005
8 a.m. (CDT/EST) Saturday-Sunday
Warren Golf Course
(7,011 Yards, Par 70)
Notre Dame, Ind.

Irish Look To Defend BIG EAST Title This Weekend

After using a dramatic back-nine comeback to win last year's BIG EAST Conference title, Notre Dame will be out to ensure the conference trophy stays in South Bend when it plays host to the 2005 BIG EAST Championship Saturday and Sunday at the Warren Golf Course. The Irish have won four league titles since joining the BIG EAST a decade ago, and a fifth crown would give Notre Dame an automatic berth into the NCAA Central Regional, which will take place May 19-22, also at the Warren Golf Course.

Under the guidance of first-year head coach Jim Kubinski, the Irish have had a successful spring season, going 41-23-2 (.636) with three top-five finishes, including the championship at the NOKIA Sugar Bowl Tulane Invitational back in March.

Quoting Coach Kubinski ...

"We've played too well this spring to let a bad weekend in Texas take away from our momentum or detract from our improving confidence. You don't beat ACC champion Duke, Wake Forest, Clemson or Southern California by accident. You beat good teams by playing well. Our guys are talented and have put the work in. My main goal for us this weekend is to get off to a good start. The reasoning is two-fold. First, as the top seed, we don't want the other teams to gain confidence. We need to make a statement from the outset. Second, with a forecast calling for inclement weather, building a lead is critical in the event the championship is reduced from 54 holes.

"Let's get off to a good start and stay patient, as the elements and a great golf course will test us. If we can follow that recipe, we should contend for the championship come Sunday afternoon."

Did You Know?

Notre Dame has ties to two of the most famous players in golf history.

Billy Casper won 51 PGA Tour titles, including three majors (1959 & 1966 U.S. Open; 1970 Masters) and was sixth on that tour's all-time victories list upon retirement. He also logged nine wins on the Senior PGA Tour (now the Champions Tour), was an eight-time member of the U.S. Ryder Cup Team and was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1978. However, before turning pro, Casper attended Notre Dame in 1950 and won the Western Junior National Championship, which was contested at Notre Dame's Burke Memorial Golf Course.

Walter Hagen, Jr., was a three-year monogram winner at Notre Dame from 1938-40, helping the Irish to three consecutive NCAA Championship berths, including a sixth-place finish in 1938. If the name sounds familiar, it should be — his father, Walter Hagen, Sr., won 40 PGA titles, including 11 major championships (five PGA Championships, four British Opens and two U.S. Opens) in his storied career, ranking second behind Jack Nicklaus and two ahead of Tiger Woods. He also was a six-time U.S. Ryder Cup captain and five years after his death in 1969, he was part of the inaugural induction class for the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Dates and Times

Teams will play two rounds (36 holes) on Saturday, with the opening round heading off at 8 a.m. (EST — the equivalent of Central time) from the first tee. Notre Dame's first golfer (freshman Mike King) will start at 8:50 a.m. (EST), with the remaining Irish players going off at 10-minute intervals afterward. The second round will start in a similar format at 1 p.m. (EST), with King set to open Notre Dame's afternoon session at 1:50 p.m. (EST). In the first two rounds, the top-seeded Irish are paired with No. 2 seed Rutgers and third seed Georgetown.

Competitors will then return Sunday morning for the final round, which also will begin at 8 a.m. (EST) from the first tee with groups from the fourth-sixth place teams from the first two rounds. The top three teams in the standings will start at 8:50 a.m. (EST), also from the No. 1 tee.

Tournament Updates/Results

Live scoring will be available for this tournament, courtesy of Golfstat (www.golfstat.com). Complete results following each day's action also will be posted on the official Notre Dame athletics web site (www.und.com). In addition, the latest information on the Irish is available on the Notre Dame Sports Hotline (574-631-3000). Callers should select option #9, then press #2 for the latest information on the tournament, as well as weather or scheduling delays.

The Tournament Format

A total of six five-man teams (30 participants) will be participating in the BIG EAST Conference Championship. Conventional collegiate golf team scoring rules will apply, with the lowest four scores in the five-man lineup in each round counting toward the team total.

The Teams

Notre Dame is the top seed in this weekend's six-team BIG EAST Conference Championship. The Irish are joined by (in order of seeding): Rutgers, Georgetown, St. John's, Boston College and Villanova. In the current Golfstat rankings (as of April 19), Notre Dame is ranked 52nd in the nation. Rutgers is next at No. 117, followed by Georgetown (No. 183), Boston College (No. 203), St. John's (No. 214) and Villanova (No. 223).

This season, Notre Dame has not faced any of the other five teams in this year's BIG EAST Championship.

The Course

For the fourth consecutive year and fifth time in the past six seasons, Notre Dame's Warren Golf Course is playing host to the BIG EAST Conference Championship. A par-70, 7,011-yard layout designed by PGA Tour veteran Ben Crenshaw and Bill Coore, the Warren Golf Course is based on a traditional walkable Irish and American courses favored around the turn of the 20th century. The course winds its way through 250 wooded acres and is based on subtleties rather than special effects, including small, undulating greens and several strategically-placed bunkers (many of which were recently renovated as part of a course-wide improvement project).

The Warren Golf Course also will play host to the NCAA Central Regional next month, in addition to U.S. Amateur and Western Amateur qualifiers this summer.

Irish In The BIG EAST Championship

Since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995, Notre Dame has participated in the conference tournament every year, making its 10th appearance in 2005.

In that time, the Irish have won four titles (1995, 1996, 1997, 2004) and have placed second on three occasions (1998, 2002, 2003). Only St. John's has won more BIG EAST men's golf titles than Notre Dame, taking home the hardware nine times.

The Irish also have had three medalists come out of the BIG EAST Championship. Bill Moore took top honors in 1995 (143) and Todd Vernon followed suit in 1997 (141). Steve Ratay is the most recent Notre Dame player to finish first, carding a 215 (+5) winding up in a three-way tie in 2001 with St. John's Andrew Svoboda and Virginia Tech's Brian Krusoe.

Thumbnails On The Irish Lineup

Cole Isban (74.94 spring; 74.19 overall) — Has started all 11 tournaments for the Irish this season ... leads team in overall stroke average and spring average (among regulars) ... overall stroke average is eighth-best single-season mark in school history ... has four top-10 finishes this year, including three top-five showings ... has not placed lower than 30th in any tournament this year ... has had a team-best 90.6 percent of his rounds (29 of 32) count toward the team score ... 2004 all-BIG EAST selection after tying for third at 218 (+8).

Mark Baldwin (75.00 spring; 75.12 overall) — Is second to Isban in overall and spring stroke average ... has played in nine tournaments this year ... has a pair of top-five finishes to his credit, including medalist honors at TCU dual match ... shot school and Warren Golf Course-record 63 (-7) in opening round of TCU dual ... has ended up 20th or higher in five of his last seven events (four times in spring season) ... has had 90 percent of his rounds (18 of 20) count to the team total ... has shaved nearly one-third of a stroke off his career average (down to 75.90) and is enjoying the best year of his three-year tenure ... 2003 all-BIG EAST choice following his sixth-place finish at 224 (+14).

Scott Gustafson (77.07 spring; 77.04 overall) — Junior still not 100 percent following injuries suffered in fall automobile accident ... 2003 all-BIG EAST pick after placing second with a score of 221 (+11) ... is second among Irish veterans with 75.29 career stroke average ... has five career top-10 finishes, including two this year (tied for eighth at TCU dual).

Eric Deutsch (78.64 spring; 76.69 overall) — has started eight events (three this spring) ... has three top-10 finishes this year, including a sixth-place outing at the TCU dual ... led all Notre Dame individuals at that match, carding a five-over par 145 ... was 2004 all-BIG EAST selection after tying for fifth place at 219 (+9) last year.

Mike King (78.80 spring; 75.85 overall) — freshman has started seven tournaments this year, but makes his first appearance in the Irish lineup this spring ... earned his way into the starting five with scores of 67, 71 and 72 in his last three rounds (team playoff) at the Warren Golf Course ... has two top-10 finishes this season, most recently tying for eighth as an individual at the TCU dual match.

Poll Position

For the first time in recent memory, the Irish are receiving votes in the Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA)/Bridgestone Coaches' Poll (as of April 8). Notre Dame picked up three votes in the latest balloting, which would put it in a tie for 46th place with Stanford if the poll were extended.

One of the reasons for the Irish ascension into the poll was Notre Dame's success at the Augusta State Invitational earlier this month. In that event, the Irish placed seventh and outshot five ranked teams, including then-No. 8 Wake Forest (by a staggering 29 strokes) and 10th-ranked Southern California.

Notre Dame Ninth In Latest USSA Directors' Cup Standings

The University of Notre Dame is in ninth place with 540 points in the third set of winter sports standings released in the 2004-05 United States Sports Academy Division I Directors' Cup all-sports competition sponsored by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (formerly known as Sears Directors' Cup).

At the conclusion of the fall sports season, Notre Dame was in first place, marking the first time in the 12-year history of the program that the Irish had been ranked number one. Their previous highest ranking was second in the 2004-05 second set of fall standings.

Fall NCAA competition earned the Irish 337 points based on their NCAA title in women's soccer (100 points), their fourth-place finish in women's cross country (80 points), their 11th-place finish in men's cross country (57 points) and their second-round NCAA appearances in both men's soccer and volleyball (50 points each).

Winter competition has netted 203 points for Notre Dame, courtesy of a combined national championship in fencing (50 points), a second-round berth in women's basketball (50 points), a 20th-place finish in men's indoor track & field (53.5 points) and a 24th-place showing in women's swimming (49.5 points).

Stanford (797.75 points) has moved into first place on the strength of its recent regional finalist spot in women's basketball and second-round showing in men's basketball. Michigan (781.25 points) is in second place, staying within striking distance thanks to a regional finals berth in men's ice hockey and a sixth-place finish in men's gymnastics.

The current standings include results from all NCAA fall sports, as well as NCAA winter competitions in men's and women's basketball, men's gymnastics, men's ice hockey, fencing, rifle, skiing, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's indoor track & field and wrestling.

In previous years in which the Directors' Cup competition has been held, Notre Dame has finished 11th in 1993-94, 30th in 1994-95, 11th in 1995-96, 14th in 1996-97, tied for 31st in 1997-98, 25th in 1998-99, 21st in 1999-2000, 11th in 2000-01, 13th in 2001-02, tied for 13th in 2002-03 and 19th in 2003-04.

Here are the current standings:

1.	Stanford	797.75
2.	Michigan	781.25
3.	Wisconsin	626.75
4.	Texas	618.25
5.	North Carolina	596.5
6.	Ohio State	572.0
7.	Duke	564.5
8.	Tennessee	552.25
9.	NOTRE DAME	540.0
10.	Minnesota	527.5

Warren Golf Course To Host Qualifier For '05 Western Amateur

The University of Notre Dame's Warren Golf Course will host one of two qualifying tournaments for the 2005 Western Amateur, Western Golf Association Tournament Director John Kaczowski announced in January.

The qualifying event will be held Monday, July 25, with the second qualifier to be held in Benton Harbor, Mich., at long-time qualifying site Lake Michigan Hills Golf Club. Approximately 50 players in the final field of 156 will qualify for the 103rd Western Amateur at one of the two qualifying sites. Warren replaces Hampshire Country Club (Dowagiac, Mich.), which had hosted an annual qualifier since 1974.

"Warren Golf Course is a wonderful facility, and we're proud to be affiliated with such a prestigious university as Notre Dame," Kaczowski said. "We expect that the reputation and quality of the course definitely will help us promote the Western Amateur to our national field."

John Foster, Warren's general manager and head professional, added that hosting an event with the history and tradition of the Western Amateur fits well with the university's mission of serving golf with a first-class venue.

"After meeting with representatives of the Western Golf Association, we agreed that holding the qualifier at Warren was mutually beneficial," said Foster. "This is further proof that the University of Notre Dame is committed to becoming one of the premier collegiate golf facilities in the country."

Warren Golf Course at Notre Dame, designed by Ben Crenshaw and Bill Coore, opened in the spring of 2000 and has hosted four BIG EAST Men's Golf Championships, two BIG EAST Women's Golf Championships and two men's U.S. Amateur Qualifiers. In May, Warren also will be the site of the NCAA Central Regional Men's Golf Championship.

Foster said he was prompted to pursue hosting the qualifier at the suggestion of Warren Superintendent Matt Cielen, who had worked closely with the Western Golf Association during his three years as assistant superintendent at Point O' Woods Golf and Country Club in Benton Harbor. Point O' Woods has served as the host club for the Western Amateur since 1971.

Warren Golf Course has undergone two major alterations over the short five years it has been open. The first, completed in the fall of 2003, entailed building eight new tees that added 270 yards to the course, resulting in championship yardage of 7,011.

The second alteration is now underway, with the renovation of the course's 86 bunkers. All of the original sand is being removed, new drainage systems and fabric liners are being installed and a new, more angular and coarse grade of sand is being used to fill the bunkers.

The 103rd Western Amateur will be played July 25-31 at Point O' Woods. First held in 1899, the championship traditionally features an international field of top-ranked amateur golfers in a medal and match play format. The champion will earn an exemption into the 2006 Cialis Western Open. The 2004 Western Amateur field included competitors from more than 30 states and five foreign countries. Past champions include Jack Nicklaus, Tiger Woods, Phil Mickelson, Ben Crenshaw, Curtis Strange, Hal Sutton, Lanny Wadkins and Justin Leonard.

Notre Dame sophomore and South Bend native Cole Isban made the 36-hole cut at the '04 Western Amateur, the first South Bend-area player to make the cut in three years.

A Record-Setting Mark

JunioMark Baldwin (Laconia, N.H./New Hampton Prep) set a new school and Warren Golf Course record on April 9, carding a seven-under par 63 in the first round of a 36-hole dual match against No. 11 TCU. Baldwin broke the nearly 42-year-old Irish single-round mark of 64, set by Mike O'Connell on May 4, 1963, in a quadrangular match against Northwestern, Ball State and Bellarmine (Ky.) College at Notre Dame's old Burke Memorial Golf Course.

Baldwin also topped the previous Warren Golf Course record of 66 (-4), established by Indiana's Jeff Overton on Sept. 19, 2004 in the final round of the Notre Dame Invitational/Central Regional Preview. PGA and Champions Tour veteran Jerry Pate (the 1976 U.S. Open champion and PGA Tour Co-Player of the Year) actually shot an eight-under par 62 (30-32) at the par-70 Warren Golf Course on July 28, 2001. However, that round took place from the regulation men's tees (6,744 yards) before numerous renovations were made to the course, including the completion of the championship-length tees (7,011 yards) that Baldwin played from.

Baldwin registered an eagle and two birdies on the front nine and went out in 31 (-4), before coming home with a 32 on the back nine (four birdies, one bogey). He actually had an opportunity to push his score even lower, three-putting for a bogey on No. 16, before rebounding with consecutive birdies to close out his historic round.

Last Tournament — Aggie Invitational

Despite trailing the rest of the field heading into Sunday's play at the Aggie Invitational, Notre Dame turned in one of the low rounds on the final day of action. The Irish fired a nine-over par 297 at the par 72, 7,235-yard Traditions Golf Club in Bryan, Texas, to finish with a 54-hole total of 919 (318-304-297) and in 14th place. Sophomore Cole Isban began the day in a tie for 26th yet climbed all the way up to 17th after carding an even par 72 on the day and a 221 (77-72-72) for the tournament.

Oklahoma State took home the team title with a three round total of 870 (+6) and Oklahoma's Anthony Kim and New Mexico's Spencer Levin shared medalist honors with six-under par 210s. Ten of the 14 teams in the field are either ranked in the top-25 of the latest GCAA Coaches' Poll or are receiving votes including the Irish, who garnered three votes. Oklahoma State is No. 1, while New Mexico joins the Cowboys in the top-five at No. 5.

Junior Mark Baldwin finished tied for 36th after firing rounds of 78, 75 and 75 for a 12-over par 228 total. Baldwin's classmate, Scott Gustafson turned in his best round of the event with a one-over par 73 on Sunday and finished with a 231 (82-76-73), which was good for a tie at 51st. Fellow junior Eric Deutsch tallied a 78 on the day to go with rounds of 81 and 82 fired on Saturday to conclude with a 241 and in 69th-place.

Freshman Greg Rodgers also recorded his best round of the invitational on Sunday with a five-over par 77 to finish with a 247 (89-81-77) and in a tie for 72nd. Sophomore Shane Sigsbee, who played as an individual, rounded out the field for the Irish with a 261 (91-77-93) to place 74th.

Next For The Irish

Notre Dame's future tournaments this season hinge upon its success at this weekend's BIG EAST Championship. Should the Irish defend their conference title, they will receive the BIG EAST's automatic bid to the 2005 NCAA Regionals, and likely will be placed in the Central Regional, which will take place May 19-22 at Notre Dame's Warren Golf Course.

If the Irish do not win the league title, they will wait for the announcement of the at-large selections to the 2005 NCAA Regionals, set to take place May 9.

JIM KUBINSKI

Head Coach • First Year at Notre Dame
Springfield College (1993)

Jim Kubinski, an assistant golf coach at Duke University since 2003 and one of the nation's top young golf teachers, was named the new head men's golf coach at the University of Notre Dame on Jan. 28. Kubinski is just the sixth head coach in the 76-year history of the Irish men's golf program, inheriting a storied tradition that includes the 1944 national championship, 10 top-five NCAA Championship finishes and 31 trips to the NCAA Championship.

It hasn't take long for Kubinski to make his mark at Notre Dame. In his first tournament at the helm of the Irish, the rookie mentor helped guide Notre Dame to the championship of the NOKIA Sugar Bowl Tulane Invitational, winning the title on the first hole of a sudden death playoff against UNC Wilmington. It was the first tournament crown of the 2004-05 season for Notre Dame and made Kubinski the first Irish men's golf coach since 1961 to win the opening event of his career. That season, Rev. Clarence Durbin, C.S.C., led the Irish to a 23.5-6.5 dual-match win over Western Michigan.

Overall, Kubinski has guided Notre Dame to a 41-23-2 (.636) record this spring, including five wins over ranked opponents. As a result, for the first time in recent memory, the Irish are receiving votes in the current GCAA/Bridgestone Coaches' Poll.

Kubinski, 34, took over a Notre Dame squad that looked sharp during the fall 2004 season, posting a 298.67 stroke average (currently third-best in school history). Fresh off their first NCAA postseason berth in 38 years, the Irish also are seeking to make back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances for the first time since a run of seven consecutive NCAA berths from 1960-66.

Kubinski came to Notre Dame after spending a year and a half as the assistant men's and women's golf coach at Duke. During his tenure, the Blue Devil men's team won three tournaments, qualified for the 2004 NCAA East Regional (missing the NCAA Championship field by a single stroke), and rose to No. 13 in the Golfweek rankings at the close of the fall 2004 season. He also worked closely with 2004 third-team All-American and all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection Nathan Smith, as well as '04 honorable mention All-American and all-ACC pick Ryan Blaum, resulting in his nomination for the Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) Assistant Coach of the Year award.

In his capacity as an aide with the Duke women's squad, he played an integral role in the Blue Devils' 10 tournament victories (in 11 events), their ascension to No. 1 in the Golfweek rankings, the 2004 ACC and NCAA East Regional titles, and a third-place finish at the '04 NCAA Championship.

Kubinski was a three-year golf letterman and two-year team captain at Springfield (Mass.) College before graduating in 1993. A two-time all-Northeast 10 Conference selection in 1991 and 1992, he also received the Springfield College Maroon Club Award for academic and athletic achievement in 1992. His playing experience continued on the North Atlantic Tour where he tied for sixth place at the Boston Open in 1995, and he also has competed in the Carolinas Section PGA.

Born May 4, 1970 in Springfield, Mass., Kubinski is engaged to Sarah Struthers of Durham, N.C., with the couple slated to marry in October 2005.
