IRISH VERSUS THE ORANGE: Notre Dame and Syracuse have met 11 times in the all-time series with the Orange enjoying an 8-3 advantage. Syracuse has won the last two meetings in the series, taking a 16-13 overtime win at the Loftus Center at Notre Dame last year and a 16-13 decision at the Carrier Dome in 2007. The last Irish win in the series came on April 29, 2006, an 11-10 Notre Dame win at Moose Krause Stadium. The Irish have never won at the Carrier Dome as they own an 0-5 record against Syracuse and also have a BIG EAST Tournament loss to Georgetown in 2007 for an 0-6 mark at the home of the Orange. The Irish are 3-2 versus Syracuse at Notre Dame and 0-1 at neutral sites.

TWO FOR THE ROAD: Notre Dame saw its first action against the BIG EAST's newest members last weekend, winning a pair of road games at Cincinnati and at Louisville. At Cincinnati, the Irish scored five of the first six goals in the game on the way to a 10-3 halftime lead and an eventual 16-5 win over the Bearcats. Senior All-American candidate Jillian Byers (Northport, N.Y.) led the way with five goals and an assist in the win. Junior Gina Scioscia (Summit, N.J.) added two goals and three assists for five points while sophomore Ansley Stewart (Alexandria, Va.) had a career-high four-goal game in the win. Freshman Maggie Tamasitis (Boyertown, Pa.) had the first of two four-point games, scoring a pair with two assists. Joining the scoring were Kailene Abt (So., Huntington, N.Y.), Shaylyn Blaney (So., Stony Brook, N.Y.) and Maggie Zentgraf (Jr., Charlottesville, Va.) with one goal each. Senior goalkeeper Erin Goodman (Cortlandt Manor, N.Y.) played up three goals in 46:08, making nine saves in the game. Amy Winik (Jr., Freehold, N.J.) played the final 13:52, giving up a pair of goals. On Sunday afternoon in Louisville, Ky., the Irish offense picked up where it left off on Friday night, scoring eight of the first nine goals of the game on the way to a 9-3 halftime lead. After allowing the first two goals of the second half to allow the Cardinals to cut the lead to 9-5, Notre Dame scored five consecutive goals in a 5:49 span and 11 of the next 13 goals on the way to a 20-8 win. Byers again led the way with seven points (5g, 2a) with Scioscia, Tamasitis and Blaney each getting three goals each. Stewart and Abt each netted a pair with Kelly Driscoll (Fr., Andover, Mass.) and Meredith Locasto (So., Pittsburgh, Pa.) scoring single goals in the win. Goodman played 46:21 of this one, giving up six goals while making nine saves and was followed by Winik who closed out the final 13:39, surrendering two goals while making one save.

2009 NOTRE DAME WOMEN'S LACROSSE

BIG EAST DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Junior defender Rachel Guerrero (Wantagh, N.Y.) was named the BIG EAST defensive player of the week for the week ending April 5. During the week, Guerrero's play helped limit Cincinnati and Louisville to just 13 goals in two BIG EAST wins. The junior recorded nine ground balls, two draw controls and six caused turnovers. In the 16-5 victory at Cincinnati, Guerrero had four ground balls and one caused turnover. She followed that with a career-high afternoon in the 20-8 win at Louisville, getting a career-high five ground balls, two draw controls and five caused turnovers. The five caused turnovers equaled a season-high for the Irish as Shannon Burke (Sr., Timonium, Md.) had five caused turnovers versus California earlier this season.

50 HERE, 50 THERE: All-American and Tewaaron Award candidate Jillian Byers recorded 10 goals and three assists for 13 points in Notre Dame's wins over Cincinnati and Louisville. Her 10 goals last week give her 50 on the season in the first 13 games. The 50-goal season marks the fourth consecutive year that she has had 50 or more goals (54 in '06, 58 in '07 and 67 in '08). She is the only player in the 13-year history of the Notre Dame women's lacrosse program to have 50 goals in each of her four seasons with the Irish.

SECRET WEAPON: Freshman midfield/attack Maggie Tamasitis (Boyertown, Pa.) turned in the best week of her young career with a pair of four-point contests versus Cincinnati and Louisville. In the win over the Bearcats, Tamasitis had two goals and two assists for four points. Versus the Cardinals, she had a career-high three-goal game with an assist for four points. She already has seven games this season with three or more points. Tamasitis has played in all 13 games, coming off the bench to provide a spark for the Irish offense either at attack or midfield. Without starting a game this season, she is sixth in scoring with 11 goals and 14 assists for 25 points. Her 14 points are second on the team.

STREAKY IRISH: Six members of the Notre Dame lineup go into this weekend at Syracuse with point-scoring streaks:

- Jillian Byers - 13 games (50g, 12a, 52 pts)
- Shaylyn Blaney - 13 games (32g, 2a, 34 pts)
- Gina Scioscia - 11 games (34g, 22a, 56 pts)
- Ansley Stewart - 11 games (19g, 6a, 25 pts)
- Kailene Abt - 6 games (12g, 5a, 17 pts)
- Maggie Tamasitis - 2 games (5g, 3a, 8 pts)

Byers has 11 games this season with three or more goals while Scioscia has eight with three or more and Blaney has seven.

SCORING BARRAGE: Through the first 13 games of the season, Notre Dame has scored 209 goals for an average of 16.08 per game. That leads the BIG EAST and is third in the nation. Prior to this season, Notre Dame's top scoring season came in 2006 when the Irish averaged 13.84 goals per game.

The win was the 32nd of her career, moved her past Jen White '03, who recorded 31 in three seasons as the starting goalkeeper. Since then she has added two more wins and has now started 49 consecutive games and has a 34-15 record (.694). Besides the win mark, Goodman also ranks among the top goalkeepers in several different categories:

EN FUEGO: Junior attack standout Gina Scioscia has been "on fire" this season as she surpassed her career high in points last weekend and now has 63 (38g, 25a) on the season to lead the team. She is second in the BIG EAST in scoring, two behind Syracuse's Katie Rowan who has 65 points in 12 games, and ranks fourth nationally with the 63 points. In 2008, Scioscia had 20 goals and 35 assists for 55 points, all career highs at the time. That came after a freshman year that saw her get just eight points on four goals and four assists. The 47-point improvement was the most ever for a Notre Dame player from one season to the next. On March 17 versus Rutgers, Scioscia had a career-high eight-point game, scoring twice with six assists. The six assists tied a Notre Dame single-game record. On March 29 versus Loyola, she had a career-high six-goal game in the 16-13 win over the Greyhounds. Scioscia has one three-point game, three games with four points, three games with five points, three with six points, one seven-point game and one with eight this season.

FAST START: Notre Dame's 11-2 start is the best for the Irish after 13 games in the program's 13-year history. Notre Dame saw its seven-game winning streak stopped on March 27 with the loss to Georgetown. The longest Irish win streak is 14 games and was set between the end of the 2003 season and the start of 2004.

VERSUS THE RANKED: Notre Dame enters Saturday's game at Syracuse with a 4-2 record against teams ranked in the IWLCA poll when they face the Irish. The Irish own wins over #16 Stanford, #13 Dartmouth, #17 James Madison and #13 Loyola. The losses have come to #1 Northwestern and #6 Georgetown.

HEAD COACH TRACY COYNE: Tracy Coyne is in her 13th season at Notre Dame and her 22nd year in collegiate lacrosse. Coyne brings a 235-105 (.691) career record into this weekend's game at Syracuse. On Sunday, Feb. 17, 2008, she recorded her 100th career win at Notre Dame with a 16-4 win over Duquesne. As the only head coach in the Notre Dame program's history, Coyne is 121-79 (.605). A 1983 Ohio University graduate, Coyne recorded her 200th career win at the end of the 2006 season with a 16-8 win over Cornell in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. She has guided Notre Dame to four NCAA tournament appearances (2002, 2004, 2006, 2008) in the last seven seasons, including the school's first-ever NCAA finals appearance in 2006. In her first 22 years of coaching, Coyne was 23-5 in two seasons at Denison (1988-89), 91-21 in seven years at Roanoke (1990-96) and 121-79 in this, her 13th season at Notre Dame. The Pittsburgh, Pa., native led Denison (1988) and Roanoke (1990, 1991, 1992, 1994, 1996) to the NCAA Division III tournament during stops at those schools. Coyne also has coached on the international level as the head coach for the Canadian women's lacrosse national team from 1999-2005. In June of 2005, she led Team Canada to a fourth-place finish at the 2005 World Cup, her second, fourth-place finish (2001) as Canada's field boss. Coyne has faced Syracuse 11 times in her career and is 3-8 against the Orange.

CLIMBING THE CHARTS: Notre Dame's All-American and Tewaaraton Trophy candidate Jillian Byers continues her assault on the Irish record books. After setting the Notre Dame goal-scoring record on Feb. 28, Jillian Byers continues to score at a torrid pace for the Irish. In the win over Hofstra (3/14), she recorded her 200th career goal and 250th career point. Versus California she broke the all-time mark for draw controls. KARDIAC KIDS: For the third time this season, Notre Dame fell behind in a game during the first half, trailed at halftime and then went on to win the game in the second half. This time it happened versus Loyola (Md.) on March 29. In the game the Irish fell behind by four goals in the first half at 6-2 and 7-3 before rallying to cut the lead to 8-7 at halftime in favor of the Greyhounds. After giving up the first goal of the second half, to trail 9-7, the Irish scored five consecutive goals for a 12-9 lead on the way to the 16-13 win. Other come-from-behind wins include:

3/3 at Dartmouth: Irish gave up the first six goals of the contest and trailed 8-2 late in the first half before coming alive. They scored three late goals in the opening half and then rolled off eight more in the second before Dartmouth responded for a total of 11 consecutive goals. Bouncing back from the six-goal deficit was the largest deficit that the Irish have ever recovered from.

3/10 vs. James Madison (at Orlando, Fla.): The Irish trailed 5-2 with over 18 minutes left in the first half before they rallied to trail just 9-7 at halftime. They then opened the second half with four consecutive goals for an 11-9 lead. The closest that the Dukes would get was 11-10 as Notre Dame pulled out a second close win.

BAD NEWS BURKE: Defensive standout Shannon Burke (Timonium, Md.) continues to be a dominant force for the Irish in the defensive midfield. The senior captain grabbed 10 ground balls, had one draw controls and four caused turnover in the wins at Cincinnati and Louisville. Versus the Bearcats, her six ground balls were a career high. In 13 games this season, the preseason all-BIG EAST selection has scored three goals with two assists for five points. On the defensive side, Burke leads the team with 34 ground balls, is tied for fifth with 22 draw controls and leads the team with 22 caused turnovers. She is among the school's all-time leaders in all three categories (3rd in draw controls - 112; list on previous page):

SUPER SOPHOMORES: The Irish have gotten strong play from their sophomore scorers this season. The group of five - Shaylyn Blaney (30g, 2a), Kailene Abt (25g, 6a), Ansley Stewart (22g, 7a), Jackie Doherty (5g, 8a) and Kaitlin Keena (8g, 10a) have accounted for 90 goals and 33 assists for 123 points. The five have 90 of the team's 209 goals, 33 of 90 assists and 123 of 299 points this season.

SHE'S ABT TO SCORE: Sophomore midfielder Kailene Abt is quickly becoming a major scoring threat for the Irish in her second season. Already this year, the Huntington, N.Y., native is fourth on the team in scoring with career highs in goals (25), assists (6) and points (31). She recorded a career-high six-point game in Notre Dame's 20-4 win over California, scoring four goals and two assists. The four-goal game tied a career high set earlier this season against Ohio State. Over the last six games, Abt has 12 goals and five assists for 17 points.

2009 NOTRE DAME WOMEN'S LACROSSE

MIDFIELD MASTER: Sophomore midfielder Shaylyn Blaney is having a strong second season gotten her second season off to a fast start, scoring at least one goal in each of the first 13 games, including four last weekend against Cincinnati and Louisville. She ranks third on the team in scoring with 32 points and third with 30 goals scored. Thirteen of her 30 goals this season have come off free-position shots. Blaney is coming off a freshman year that saw her score 43 goals with nine assists for 52 points. That was the second-best total for a Notre Dame freshman, trailing just Jill Byers 78-point campaign (52g, 24a) in 2006. Her 43 goals were the eighth best single-season output for the Irish. She already has 73 goals and 11 assists for 84 points in her career.

THE IRISH ALL-TIME: The 2008-09 season is the 13th campaign for the Notre Dame women's lacrosse program. The Irish (11-2 this year) come into the weekend with a 121-79 (.605) all-time record. That includes a 60-29 (.674) home mark and a 48-43 (.527) road record. Notre Dame is 14-7 all-time on neutral fields. The win in the season opener at Duquesne gives the Irish an 11-2 mark in season-opening games.

PREMIER PLAYMAKER: Gina Scioscia's eight-point game versus Rutgers was a career best for the Irish playmaker. Her previous best was a seven-point game last season set against Rutgers (4/20/08) where she had two goals and five assists. She also had a seven-point game this season versus Duquesne in the season opener, scoring four goals with three assists. Her six-assists were the most in a game since Kerry Callahan '99, had six assists in a 20-10 win over Gannon on March 17, 1999. Callahan had nine points in that game.

TWEAARATON WATCH LIST: Two members of the Notre Dame women's lacrosse team have been named to the Tewaaraton Trophy "Watch List" for the 2009 season. Senior Jillian Byers and sophomore Shaylyn Blaney were among the 45 players selected to the watch list. That group will be cut down later in the season to a candidates list followed by a list of finalists. For Byers, this is her third year on the watch list while Blaney is making her first appearance. She is the sixth Notre Dame player to be named to the Watch List in the 13-year history of the Notre Dame women's lacrosse program.

WELCOME BACK: Former Irish midfield standout Kassen Delano '04 has returned to the Irish sideline as a member of Tracy Coyne's coaching staff. Delano is a volunteer assistant this season as she also works as an academic counselor in Academic Services for Student-Athletes at Notre Dame. In four seasons with the Irish, Delano had 50 goals and 17 assists for 67 points in 62 games from 2001-04.

FRESHMEN MAKING THEIR MARK: Several members of the Notre Dame freshman class have performed well in their rookie seasons. Maggie Tamasitis leads the class in scoring with 11 goals and 14 assists for 25 points in her first 13 games. Her 14 assists are second on the team. Megan Sullivan (Winchester, Mass.) has scored three goals and an assist, getting a pair of markers in the win over Rutgers on March 17. Kate Newall (Middlesex, England) has moved into the starting lineup at defensive midfield and has six ground balls, seven draw controls and three caused turnovers since making her first start on March 17 against Rutgers. Kelly Driscoll (Andover, Mass.) has three goals on the season, including a pair versus California.

CAPTAINS: Seniors Shannon Burke (Timonium, Md.) and Jillian Byers (Northport, N.Y.) have been selected team captains for the 2009 season. Burke leads the Notre Dame defense and is coming off her best season ever as she had eight goals and three assists for 11 points while finishing second on the team in ground balls (33) and draw controls (51) and leading the team with 32 caused turnovers. She was a second team all-BIG EAST selection and is a preseason all-BIG EAST choice this year. Byers is a three-time, second-team All-American and has been a unanimous first team all-BIG EAST selection in each of her first three years. She led the Irish with 67 goals and 14 assists for 81 points last season and set a Notre Dame record with 52 draw controls.

WEARING THE GREEN: Notre Dame's win on St. Patrick's Day against Rutgers improved the Irish record to 4-0 in games played on March 17. The 18-9 win over Rutgers marked the first time that Notre Dame has played on St. Patrick's Day since March 17, 2002.

CAN'T CATCH KOLOUP: Senior defender Beth Koloup (Phoenix, Md.) has always been tough and tenacious on defense. This year she's become a threat to score as she has three goals and an assist for four points in 11 games. Defensively, the speedster has 20 ground balls, seven draw controls and seven caused turnovers.

GOOD FOR GOODMAN: Senior goalkeeper Erin Goodman was named the BIG EAST defensive player of the week for the week ending March 1 as she helped lead the Irish to a 17-8 win over Stanford. Goodman made six saves in the first 30 minutes of the game as Notre Dame opened a 9-3 lead and followed with seven more in the second half, playing 52:55 before giving way to junior Amy Winik for the final seven minutes.

The group includes: #1 Northwestern, #6 Georgetown, #9 Syracuse, #10 Vanderbilt, #13 Dartmouth, #14 Stanford, #15 Ohio State, #16 Loyola (Md.), #19 Cornell and #20 James Madison and Cornell.

NEW HOME: Arlotta Stadium will become the new home for the Notre Dame men's and women's lacrosse programs upon completion, which is scheduled for June of 2009. Construction on the facility began in August of 2008. The conceptual plans suggest a 2,000-seat, lighted stadium that would include an artificial-turf field, locker rooms, restrooms and concession areas. The state-of-the-art facility is named after Notre Dame graduate John Arlotta, president and chief executive officer of Denver-based Coram Inc. He and his wife, Bobbie, pledged the lead gift toward the stadium to be built to the east of the Joyce Center as part of the University's new athletics quadrangle. The Arlotta children - Mindy, Andy and Jon - also have pledged an additional gift from The Arlotta Family Foundation toward the project. In addition to their generous donation, alumni and friends of the lacrosse programs have donated over two million dollars. The new stadium replaces Moose Krause Stadium where the Irish women's team played for the first 12 years of the program along with indoors at the Loftus Sports Center. For the 2009 season, the Irish women's team will split games between the Loftus Center and Alumni Field, home of the Irish soccer teams, until the completion of Arlotta Stadium.

NEW KIDS: Head coach Tracy Coyne announced in November that nine student-athletes had signed national letters-of-intent to attend Notre Dame in the fall of 2009. Here are the nine players who will join the Irish next season.
