TOP STORIES

- The hot-shooting of Dwight Hardy helped lift St. John's past Villanova 81-68 on Saturday afternoon at the Wells Fargo Center. Hardy's 34 points were the most scored by an individual Wildcat opponent all season.
- The tale of the final score was revealing yet again in Saturday's 81-68 loss to the Red Storm. The Wildcats are 17-1 (.944) in 2010-11 when scoring 70 or more points in a game and 4-7 (.364) when they fail to reach that number.
- It has taken senior guard Corey Stokes no time to find his stroke after missing three games due to a turf toe injury on his left foot. Stokes contributed 20 points against St. John's and has averaged 22 ppg in his two outings since returning on Feb. 21 against Syracuse. The 6-5 senior from Bayonne, N.J. is 14-of-24 from the field (.583) in those two games, including 11-of-20 (.550) from beyond the 3-point arc.
- On Saturday, St. John's out-rebounded Villanova 39-33. It marked only the second time since Jan. 29 that the Wildcats had not collected more caroms than their opponent. The other instance came against Syracuse on Feb. 21, when the teams finished with 39 boards apiece.
- The Wildcats close out the BIG EAST regular season with a game at the University of Pittsburgh (4:00 p.m./CBS). Villanova has yet to record a victory (0-3) at the Petersen Events Center.

2010-11 MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Storm at the Center

St. John's entered Saturday afternoon's matinee at the Wells Fargo Center riding a wave, having won eight of nine and having moved into the Top 25 of both polls for the first time in eight years.

The Red Storm kept the momentum rolling in South Philadelphia.

St. John's burst out to an 18-4 lead and never trailed again on its way to an 81-68 win before 16,042 at the Center.

"They are playing as well as any team in the country," stated Villanova head coach Jay Wright.

The Wildcats clawed all afternoon and pulled to within 41-36 at halftime. An Antonio Pena dunk off a pass from Corey Stokes on the first possession of the second half pulled Villanova to within 41-38. But a Dwight Hardy 3-pointer from beyond the NBA 3-point line with time on the shot clock winding down pushed the Red Storm lead back to six.

Villanova got to within 65-64 when sophomore guard Maalik Wayns completed a traditional 3-point play with four minutes to play in the contest.

But St. John's won the battle of the final minutes. The Red Storm outscored VU 16-4 over the final four minutes to secure the win.

"For us, it's just next game," stated Wright. "I think we've improved a little but not enough to win games like this."

Power Dip

After averaging 75.5 points per outing through 24 games in 2010-11, the Wildcats' offense has been misfiring of late.

Since connecting on better than 50 percent of their field goal attempts in games against West Virginia and Rutgers earlier in February, the Wildcats have not found the basket as easily in the latter part of the month.

In this recent stretch, which has included losses to Pitt, Syracuse and St. John's along with wins over Seton Hall and DePaul, VU is 107-of-276 (.388) from the field and 28-of-98 (.286) from beyond the 3-point arc.

On the season the Wildcats connect on .441 of their field goal attempts and .344 of their attempts from outside the 3-point arc.

Villanova scored only 22 field goals against St. John's. In this recent stretch it has averaged just 21.5 field goals per game.

The Wildcats have also seen some slippage at the free throw line of late after leading the BIG EAST Conference for most of the campaign in that department.

The 'Cats are 81-of-118 (.686) in the last five outings from the line. On the season they are 538-of-709 (.759).

VU has shot 40 percent or lower in four of its last five contests.

Wayns' World

Sophomore guard Maalik Wayns bounced back after suffering back spasms that limited him to 24 minutes in Villanova's game against Syracuse on Feb. 21.

The product of Philadelphia's Roman Catholic High School returned to the starting lineup on Saturday after being used as a reserve against the Orange.

He delivered a dynamic effort, particularly in the second half as the Wildcats made their push to chase down the Red Storm.

Wayns tallied 12 of his 19 points following intermission. On the day he converted 5-of-9 from the field and 9-of-11 at the free throw line. He also added five assists and a pair of steals.

On the year, Wayns ranks third on the Wildcats in scoring at 13.3 ppg.

Since the start of BIG EAST play, Wayns has been held to single digits in points four times. The Wildcats are just 1-3 (.333) in those games.

Million Milestone

With a crowd of 16,042 for Saturday's contest at the Wells Fargo Center, Villanova drew its one millionth fan to the arena in South Philadelphia.

Since the building opened in 1996, VU has drawn 1,012,613 to its games there, averaging better than 16,000 per game in 60 visits.

2010-11 MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Fisher Rises on All-time Charts

Corey Fisher now finds his name ranked among some of Villanova's most successful guards in its long basketball history.

Earlier this month at Rutgers the native of the Bronx, N.Y. became only the second Wildcat ever to record more than 1,500 points and 450 assists. Scottie Reynolds (2,222 points, 482 assists) is the only other VU player to accomplish that.

Fisher has scored 1,608 points at VU. That ties him with Hubie White (1,606) in 18th place. In close range are two more Wildcat legends - Bill Melchionni in 17th place (1,612) and Tom Ingelsby in 16th place (1,616).

In addition, the native of the Bronx, N.Y., moved into a seventh place tie with Joe Rogers (474) with his seven assists in the loss to St. John's on Feb. 26. He also ranks 11th in steals (172).

Cheek Steps In

Sophomore guard Dominic Cheek enjoyed his best offensive effort of the month on Saturday. The former McDonald's All-American contributed 11 points in 23 minutes of action against St. John's.

It marked the 6-6 guard's first double-figure effort since his 17 points helped VU hold off USF on Jan. 6.

Most encouraging was Cheek's effort from beyond the 3-point arc, where he sank 3-of-8. It was his first game of multiple triples since he was a perfect 4-of-4 against the Bulls of USF in Tampa in the second BIG EAST game of the season.

Pena's Place

Antonio Pena - who was honored on Saturday with a basketball commemorating his 1,000th point, scored earlier in February against Marquette - continues to be a leader for the Wildcats.

On Saturday he tied Mouphtaou Yarou for the team lead with eight rebounds. With those caroms, Pena now has 752 for his career. That ranks 15th all-time. The native of Brooklyn, N.Y., can climb past Hubie White into 14th place with four more caroms.

The 6-8 1/2 forward is one of only 19 Wildcats to record 1,000 or more points and 700 or more rebounds in his career.

Seniors Set a Standard

This class is only the second at Villanova to boast three 1,000 point scorers - Fisher (1,606), Stokes (1,256) and Pena (1,064). The first was the class of 2006, which included Allan Ray (2,025), Randy Foye (1,966) and Curtis Sumpter (1,651).

Sumpter redshirted in 2005-06 and played the 2006-07 season but already had his 1,000 points after three seasons.

This senior class has 98 victories to its credit. That ranks third all-time. The class of 2009 won 104 games and the class of 2010 was a part of 99 wins.

That 70's Show

When it comes to points, the numbers illustrate Villanova is usually better off when the scoreboard is clicking.

The Wildcats are 4-9 (.308) when scoring less than 70 points since the start of 2009-10. They are 41-5 (.891) when they reach the 70-point plateau.

Eye on the Line

A year ago, Villanova offered a statistical contradiction of sorts. For while it ranked second in the BIG EAST regular season in defensive field goal percentage at just under 41 percent, it was listed 14th in the league in points allowed.(75.6 ppg).

The disparity was owed to free throw shooting.

In BIG EAST action last season, the Wildcats put their opponents at the free throw line 531 times - an average of 29.5 attempts per contest. For the complete schedule, VU put its opponents on the line 910 times - an average of 27.6 attempts per game.

For the balance of 2010-11, Villanova has done a better job of keeping its foes off the line. Opponents have made 566 trips in 29 games - an average of 19.5 attempts per game.

In the Wildcats' eight losses this season, their opponents have attempted 213 free throws - an average of 26.6 per game.

The 'Cats have attempted 143 more free throws than their opponents thus far in 2010-11.

Villanova is 538-of-709 (.759) from the line on the season.

2010-11 MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Perfect in the Philadelphia Big Five

Villanova completed the Philadelphia Big Five portion of its slate on Dec. 30 with a 78-74 victory over Temple at the Pavilion. The win gave the Wildcats their fourth perfect City Series slate in the last six seasons and the outright title.

Earlier in December, VU downed Saint Joseph's, Penn, and La Salle.

Four More on the Way

Four athletes have inked national letters of intent to enroll at Villanova and join the men's basketball program in the fall of 2011, it was announced today. The group includes: 6-5 Darrun Hilliard of Liberty (Pa.) High School; 6-2 Tyrone Johnson of Montrose Christian School (Md.); 6-9 Markus Kennedy of Brewster (N.H.) Academy; and 6-4 Achraf Yacoubou of Long Island (N.Y.) Lutheran High School.

"Our staff is very excited about this class," stated Wildcats head coach Jay Wright. "Each one of these young men brings great talent, character and commitment to our program and we're thrilled to have them join our Villanova Basketball Family."

Hilliard averaged 18 ppg in helping Liberty High School to the Pennsylvania Class AAAA state semifinals in 2009-10. He played his AAU basketball for the New Jersey Warriors.

"Darrun brings us so many qualities that we value at Villanova," states Wright. "He has a great feel for the game and a knack for doing what's needed to win. He scores when his team needs him to score, gets big rebounds and is an extremely versatile player. Darrun has received excellent coaching from Chad Landis at Liberty. We think he's very well prepared to make the transition to this level."

Johnson hails from Plainfield, N.J., where he established himself as an elite prospect in 2009-10 at Plainfield High School. He averaged 18.9 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game and becomes the latest of a group of Garden State natives to play for Wright that includes Randy Foye, Mike Nardi, Corey Stokes and Dominic Cheek. Johnson has since transferred to Montrose Christian School in Maryland, where he is playing in 2010-11. On the AAU circuit, he played with Team Final.

"Ty continues the great line of Villanova guards from the state of New Jersey," noted Wright. "We think with his ball-handling and athletic skills, he can make an immediate contribution to our program. He has the kind of toughness and tenacity we look for in young players. We know that he is being well-schooled at Montrose by Coach Stu Vetter."

Kennedy, a 6-9 forward, is a Yeadon, Pa., product who signed a national letter of intent to attend Villanova in the fall of 2009. He subsequently elected to enroll for a prep year at Brewster Academy after playing the 2009-10 campaign at the Winchendon (Mass.) School. On the AAU circuit, he has played for the New England Playaz.

"Markus is a versatile forward who has really benefitted from the prep school experience," stated Wright. "He is a fine young man who has grown into an impressive basketball player. We think he will develop into an outstanding Big East power player as his college career unfolds. Under the tutelage of Jason Smith, we know he will be very well prepared when he arrives next fall."

Yacoubou, is like former VU standout Allan Ray and current senior Corey Fisher, a native of the Bronx, N.Y. He has made his mark as an outstanding wing player at Long Island Lutheran High School and played for Rich Soils AAU squad.

"Asch' is a hard-working and talented guard with tremendous upside," said Wright. "He is very committed to becoming a great player and has been well taught by his coach John Buck. We're excited to have him join our basketball family."
