SETTING THE STAGE

MIDSHIP

 Navy and Notre Dame will meet Saturday at Notre Dame Stadium (80,795) in South Bend in the 91st consecutive meeting between the two schools which is the longest continuous intersectional rivalry in college football. Kickoff is set for 3:30 PM (ET) and the game will be televised by NBC with Mike Tirico, Doug Flutie and Kathryn Tappen on the call. NBC will also air a one-hour pregame show starting at 2:30 PM with Liam McHugh, Paul Burmeister, Chris Simms and Carolyn Manno.

Navy is coming off a 43-40 win over SMU that made the Mids bowl eligible for the 14th time in the last 15 years. Sophomore Malcolm Perry rushed for a career-high 282 yards and four touchdowns on 33 carries in his first career start at quarterback. For his efforts he was named the Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week. The Mids won the game on an 18-yard field goal at the gun by sophomore kicker J.R. Osborn, who was attempting his first career scoring kick (field goal or PAT).

- Saturday's game matches two of the winningest programs in FBS history. Notre Dame stands second with 904 wins all-time, while Navy is 24th with 707.
- The Navy Football Insider Show on WBAL Radio 1090 AM will air from 1:00 PM-2:30 PM with WBAL's Keith Mills serving as the host.
- The Navy Football Tailgate Show on WNAV Radio 1430 AM / 99.9 FM will air from 1:30 PM-2:30 PM.
- The Navy Football Pregame Show with host Tim Murray will get underway at 2:30 PM, followed by game action beginning at 3:30 PM with Pete Medhurst, Tom O'Brien and Joe Miller on the call on the Navy Federal Navy Radio Network. Saturday's radio broadcast is presented by Navy Mutual.
- Following the contest, Medhurst, O'Brien, Miller and Murray will recap the day's events in a 30-minute postgame show.

NAVY FAST FACTS

- In just its second season in a conference, Navy won the 2016 AAC West Division title outright after sharing the division crown with Houston in its first year. Navy is one of 10 schools that has won at least a share of the division title in each of the last two years (or more), joining Alabama, Florida, Clemson, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Temple, Western Kentucky, Western Michigan and San Diego State. The Mids lost in the AAC Championship Game to Temple, 34-10, as Navy lost starting quarterback Will Worth and starting slot back Toneo Gulley on the same play in the second quarter.
- Navy is currently in third place in the AAC West Division with a 4-3 record. The Mids are 1/2 game behind Houston for second place with the two programs meeting in Houston a week from Saturday (11-24). Navy can still finish in a tie for first place, but can not win any of the tiebreakers.
- Navy is 32-11 (.744) over its last 43 games. The Mids own wins over No. 15 Memphis (2015) and No. 6 Houston (2016) during that time period, as well as a win over Notre Dame in Jacksonville (2016).
- Last year's senior class (Class of '17) finished with a 37-16 (.698) mark. The 37 wins are the most in school history by a senior class. This year's seniors (Class of '18) have a career record of 34-15 (.694), which puts them three wins away from tying the school record and four from breaking it. The Mids will have to win-out to break the record.
- Over the last five years, Navy is 28-2 (.933) when winning the turnover battle. This year the Mids have won the turnover battle just once, finishing +2 in a win over Air Force. Navy was even in the turnover battle against FAU (win), Cincinnati (win), SMU (win) and Temple (loss). The Mids were -1 vs. Tulsa (win), -2 vs. Tulane (win), -2 vs. UCF (loss) and -4 vs. Memphis (loss).
- Navy is 54-9 (.857) under head coach Ken Niumatalolo when scoring first, including 5-1 this year.
- Navy is 69-4 (.945) under Niumatalolo when entering the fourth quarter with the lead, including 6-0 this year.
- A win over Notre Dame would give the Mids a victory over a top-25 opponent for the third straight year. It would also mark the first time since 1941-45 that Navy has beaten a top-25 opponent in three consecutive seasons.
- Niumatalolo is in his 10th year at Navy, making him the longest-tenured coach in school history. Both George Welsh and Eddie Erdelatz served as head coach at Navy for nine seasons. His 83 career wins also makes him the winningest coach in school history.
- Niumatalolo has four wins against top-25 opponents as Navy's head coach, which is tied with George Welsh for the second most in school history. Eddie Erdelatz holds the record with nine.
- Niumatalolo has three wins over Notre Dame which is tied with Wayne Hardin for the most in school history.

BEATING A NOTRE DAME TEAM THAT FINISHES WITH A WINNING RECORD

 This year's Navy team will try and become just the sixth in program history to beat a Notre Dame team that finished with a winning record and the second to ever do it in South Bend. The Mids have beaten the Irish a total of 13 times in series history, but in only five of those contests did Notre Dame teams finish with a winning record.

- In 2010, with Ken Niumatalolo at the helm, Navy beat a Notre Dame team that finished 8-5 by a score of 35-17 at the Meadowlands.
- In 1957, Navy won in South Bend, 20-6, over a Notre Dame team that finished 7-3.
- In 1944, Navy beat a Notre Dame team that would finish 8-2, 32-13, in Baltiimore.
- In 1936, Navy defeated a Notre Dame team that would finish 6-3-1, 3-0 in Baltimore.
- In 1934, Navy defeated a Notre Dame team that would finish 6-3, 10-6 in Cleveland.

AMOSA-TAGOVAILOA OR TAGOVAILOA-AMOSA?

- Yes, Navy junior offensive guard Adam Amosa-Tagovailoa and Notre Dame freshman defensive lineman Myron Tagovailoa-Amosa are brothers despite the fact that their last names are flipped.
- Their father's (Tulileie) last name is Amosa and their mother's (Saipeti) maiden name is Tagovailoa.
- · Adam was born with the last name Amosa and Myron was born with the last name Tagovailoa-Amosa because their grandfather (High Chief Seu Tagovailoa, their mother's father) wanted one of his grandkids to hold the family name.
- · Prior to Adam's arrival at the Naval Academy Prep School in Newport, R.I., their grandfather passed away and their mom wanted all of her kids to hold their grandfathers last name. After finishing his final exams at NAPS, Adam came back home and legally changed his last name from Amosa to Amosa-Tagovailoa. Adam wanted to go with Tagovailoa-Amosa like Myron, but his mom wanted Amosa first so that during graduation he would be in the front of the class.
- Their cousin, Tua Tagovailoa, is a freshman quarterback at Alabama.
- · Myron, who was the 39th-ranked defensive tackle last year by Scout.com, strongly considered the Naval Academy and came on an official visit, but ultimately chose Notre Dame over Navy and USC.

SCOUTING NOTRE DAME

- Ninth-ranked Notre Dame enters Saturday's contest with an 8-2 record. The Irish own wins over Temple (49-16), Boston College (49-20), Michigan State (38-18), Miami of Ohio (52-17), North Carolina (33-10), USC (49-14), NC State (35-14) and Wake Forest (48-37) and have lost to Georgia (20-19) and Miami (41-8). Miami is currently ranked No. 2 in both polls, while Georgia is ranked No. 7.
- . The Irish are led by Heisman Trophy candidate Josh Adams, who has rushed for 1,231 yards and nine touchdowns on 153 carries. Quarterback Brandon Wimbush has proven dangerous running the ball, as well, rushing for 663 yards and 13 touchdowns on 112 carries. Notre Dame is sixth in the nation in rushing, averaging 303.2 yards per game, while Adams is 10th in rushing yards per game (123.1) and Wimbush is 13th in rushing touchdowns.
- · Wimbush has completed 113 of his 221 passes for 1,405 yards with 12 touchdowns and just four interceptions.
- · Chase Claypool and Equanimeous St. Brown each have 26 catches on the year and the duo has combined for five touchdowns.
- The Irish are 14th in the country in scoring (38.0 ppg) and 30th in scoring defense (20.7).
- . The Notre Dame defense is led by Te'Von Coney, who has 83 tackles, 11 tackles for a loss and three sacks. Nyles Morgan has recorded 71 tackles and five tackles for a loss
- · Kicker Justin Yoon is 9-13 on field goals, while Tyler Newsome is averaging 43.7 yards per punt.
- · Notre Dame has taken care of the football this year, committing just 11 turnovers (four lost fumbles), while the defense has come up with 19 turnovers

MALCOLM PERRY NAMED FBS WALTER CAMP OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- · Navy sophomore quarterback Malcolm Perry was named the FBS Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against SMU.
- Perry, making his first career start at guarterback, rushed for a career-high 282 yards and four touchdowns on 33 carries to help lead Navy to a 43-40 win over SMU. Perry had touchdown runs of 3, 92, 24 and 1 yard on the day. The 282 yards rushing is an American Athletic Conference record and the third most in school history.
- · Perry is the only player in the FBS this year to have two runs of 70 or more yards and one reception of 70 or more yards and is one of only two players (Denard Robinson of Michigan) to have rushed for 100 or more yards in a game as both a running back and quarterback in the same season. He is the only player in program history to have two 90-yard runs in a career.
- · Perry is just the second Navy player to earn the award since its inception in 2004, joining Shun White who won it on August 30, 2008.

MALCOLM IN THE MIDDLE

- · Sophomore Malcolm Perry, who moved from quarterback to slot back in the spring and then back to quarterback against SMU, rushed for more than 100 yards in three consecutive games (Cincinnati, Tulsa and Air Force) before being "held" to 68 vards on nine carries (7.6 yds/carry) against Memphis.
- · He is the first Navy slot back to have three consecutive 100-yard rushing days since Shun White in 2008. No slot back has ever had four straight 100-yard rushing games. White's four total (not consecutive) 100-yard rushing games in 2008 is the record for a slot back. Perry is the only other slot back to have three 100-yard rushing games in a season.
- · He rushed for 100 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries against Cincinnati and a then career-best 104 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries against Tulsa.
- · He had an incredible day against Air Force rushing for 127 yards and a touchdown on four carries, while catching two passes for 45 yards and a touchdown. His 91-yard touchdown run against the Falcons was at that time tied with Pat McGrew for the second-longest run in school history and the longest run in Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium history.
- · Against UCF, Perry caught a 75-yard touchdown pass from Abey and had a long touchdown run called back because of holding. Against Temple, Perry caught four passes for 94 yards
- and carried the ball five times for 23 yards. He also threw a five yard touchdown pass to Zach Abey.
- · Perry took over the starting quarterback job against SMU and rushed for an AAC-record 282 yards and four touchdowns on 33 carries to lead Navy to a 43-40 win. The 282 rushing yards are the fourth most in the country this year and the second most by a quarterback. It is also the fifth most in FBS history by a guarterback. His 92-yard touchdown run now stands at the longest run in Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium history and the second-longest run in program history.
- There have been only five runs of 90 yards or more in the history of Navy football and Perry has two of them - both this season.
- On the year, Perry has 77 carries for 736 yards (9.6 yds/ carry) and seven touchdowns and has caught 10 passes for 269 yards (26.9 yds/catch) and two touchdowns. He is also 1-2 passing for five vards and a touchdown. In 87 touches this year, Perry has 1,005 yards (11.6 yds/touch) and nine touchdowns.

- Navy has players from 31 states on its roster, but none from Indiana.
- The Mids do have one player from the Chicago area, freshman defensive lineman Jackson Perkins is from Barrington.

OSBORN'S FIRST CAREER KICK ONE TO REMEMBER

- · Sophomore kicker J.R. Osborn, making only his second career appearance in a game and on his first career attempt as a placekicker, hit an 18-yard field goal as time expired to give Navy a 43-40 victory over SMU and make the Mids bowl eligible for the 14th time in the last 15 years.
- · Osborn is Navy's third-string kicker, but the Mids were without starter Bennett Moehring (injury) and punter/ kicker Owen White (cramps), so Osborn was sent in to attempt the game-winning field goal and delivered.

IN SUPPORT OF JARREN JASPER

- Navy football players are wearing a sticker on the back of their helmets with the initials JJ inside of a heart in support of Navy offensive coordinator Ivin Jasper's son, Jarren.
- · Jarren Jasper, who is 14 years old,
- went for a routine physical on June 27 in advance of trying out for football at Broadneck High, where he would be a freshman this fall. The physician who performed the physical did not like the sound of the youngster's heart rhythm and referred the family to a pediatric cardiologist.
- Jarren underwent an echocardiogram and the cardiologist was concerned about the results, subsequently ordering a stress test and 24-hour Holter monitor. That is when it was discovered that Jarren had a condition known as Accelerated Indioventricular Rhythm. Ivin and his wife Donna took their son to see an electrophysiologist since the condition involves the electrical function of the heart.
- Jarren was admitted to Children's National Medical Center in D.C., where he was diagnosed with Ventricular Tachycardia - an abnormally fast heart rhythm arising from improper electrical activity in the upper portion of the heart. On Aug. 4, Jarren underwent a procedure called Catheter Ablation, which is designed to selectively destroy areas of the heart that are causing a heart rhythm problem. Thin, flexible wires with electrodes at the tips were inserted into the heart. Each electrode sends out radiowaves that create heat and destroys the bad heart tissue. Unfortunately, Jarren's heart swelled too much and completely closed off his coronary artery, which basically sent him into cardiac arrest. Jarren was placed on an Extracorporeal Membrane Oxygenation (ECMO) machine, which performs the heart function of pumping blood to all the vital organs.
- Jarren then received a stent to open his coronary artery and doctors were hopeful the heart would heal on its own and resume normal functioning. On Monday Aug. 14, Ivin and Donna were informed that things were not progressing positively and a heart assistance device would be necessary until a transplant can be performed. Jarren currently has the heart assistance device and was able to leave the hospital and return home on Thursday, Oct. 5. He has attended the last three home games.

SHOWTIME TO CHRONICLE THE 2017 NAVY FOOTBALL SEASON

- SHOWTIME Sports will chronicle the 2017 Naval Academy football team with weekly installments of the all-access documentary series A SEASON WITH NAVY FOOTBALL. The third edition of the groundbreaking franchise, A SEASON WITH, immerses viewers behind the scenes and into the lives of the football players and coaches at the storied Service Academy with weekly 30-minute episodes throughout the 2017 season.
- The series premieres Tuesday, Sept. 5 at 10 p.m. ET/PT on SHOWTIME, four days after Navy begins its season on the road against Florida Atlantic. New episodes will premiere each Tuesday as the Midshipmen balance the rigors of academics, athletics and military service while navigating a challenging 2017 NCAA FBS football schedule.
- After chronicling The Notre Dame Fighting Irish and Florida State Seminoles in its first two seasons, the SHOWTIME Sports original franchise returns to reveal a vastly different picture of student-athlete life.
- "It's an honor and privilege to be welcomed by the United States Naval Academy and given extensive access to its accomplished football program and prestigious institution," said Stephen Espinoza, Executive Vice President and General Manager, SHOWTIME Sports. "Special thanks are due to Naval Academy Superintendent Admiral Ted Carter, Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk, head coach Ken Niumatalolo and the entire Academy. We look forward to taking viewers into the rarely seen world of a service academy, where student-athletes must not only balance the rigorous demands of an elite academic institution with top-tier collegiate football, but also prepare themselves for service in the Navy or Marine Corps."
- "This is a tremendous opportunity through the extraordinary exposure of SHOWTIME to share the character and impact of Navy football to the nation," said Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk.
   "These stories have never before been told to the public and they will highlight the dedication and commitment reflected by our coaches and midshipmen who represent this program. SHOWTIME is big time in telling the inside story and they will make these weekly episodes something you won't want to miss."
- "It is an unbelievable opportunity for the Navy Football Brotherhood to be featured on SHOWTIME," said Niumatalolo. "We are excited to showcase the Navy Football culture. # IN THE CLASSROOM

- The rigors a student-athlete faces at a Service Academy are unlike those a typical student-athlete might encounter on a day-to-day basis. Whether it's the added military training, mandatory room or uniform inspections or the academic schedule, Service Academy student-athletes are in a league of their own.
- The Naval Academy's academic day is divided into six 50-minute class periods beginning at 7:55 am and concluding at 3:20 pm. Unique to the Academies, all 4,400 Midshipmen reside on the Yard in Bancroft Hall and dine together in King Hall.

NAVY ONE OF 21 OFFENSIVE LINES ON THE JOE MOORE AWARD MID-SEASON HONOR ROLL

- The Foundation for Teamwork has announced the Mid-Season Honor Roll for the Joe Moore Award, which identifies notable performances by offensive line units in games played through October 7. The OL units from the following universities, with a combined record of 100-19, earned a spot on the Honor Roll (in alphabetical order): Alabama, Auburn, Buffalo, Clemson, Georgia, Miami, Navy, North Carolina State, New Mexico, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oregon, San Diego State, SMU, Stanford, TCU, Virginia Tech, Washington, Western Michigan, and Wisconsin.
- The Joe Moore Award Mid-Season Honor Roll includes units that display a high level of toughness, effort, teamwork, consistency, technique, and "finishing". The Voting Subcommittee uses game film and coach submitted cut-ups on The DragonFly Division I Network as the primary OL Unit evaluation tool. Advanced OL data and statistics are provided by STATS LLC, which helps to support the film evaluation process by highlighting key situations and moments over the course of the season.
- "The O-line position is much more technical than some realize. So when we watch the film, we're looking to see which units not only use good technique, but also for those that display a willingness to compete, finish, and set the tone for their offense," said Cole Cubelic, who is the current Chairman of the Joe Moore Award Voting Subcommittee, a sideline analyst for the SEC Network and played offensive line for Auburn 1996-2001. "Its early in the season, and it takes a while for units to get going, so we are especially working to identify groups that can do this consistently every game.'

Brian Madden rushed for 201 yards and threw for 113 vards in a 42-28 loss against Tulane in 2001. Brian Broadwater did it in 1998 against FCS Colgate, rushing for 216 yards and passing for 165 yards in a 42-35 win.
- · Abey's 235 yards rushing were the most by a Navy player since Keenan Reynolds rushed for 277 yards against Georgia Southern on Nov 15, 2014. It's the fourth-most yards by a QB in 2017 and is the 20th most by any player this year.
- · Abey's 235 yards rushing broke the record for the most rushing yards by a quarterback in American Athletic Conference history (later broke by temmate Malcoml Merry). The previous record was 210 vards set by USF's Quinton Flowers last year against Memphis. It is also tied as the 19th most rushing yards by a quarterback in NCAA history.
- Abey's 345 yards of total offense was the best by a Navy player since Oct. 28, 2016, when Will Worth set a school record with 428 yards of total offense against USF.
- Abey rushed for 108 yards and threw for 132 yards and a touchdown against Tulane and ran for 128 yards and threw for 53 against Cincinnati.
- · Abey's 79-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Carmona against Tulane was the longest TD pass by a Navy player since Ricky Dobbs threw an 85-yard touchdown pass to Greg Jones against Arkansas State in 2010.
- · Abey earned AAC Co-Offensive Player of the Week for the second time this season after rushing for 185 yards and three touchdowns on a career-high 36 carries, while completing three of his four passes for 90 yards at Tulsa. He is the first Navy player to run for three touchdowns since Will Worth did it against SMU last year.
- · Abey had his best game yet against Air Force, rushing for 214 yards and two touchdowns, while throwing for 86 yards and two TDs, including a 16-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Carmona with 15 seconds remaining that gave Navy a 48-45 win. Abey marched Navy 75 yards in 11 plays and took just 1:38 to do it and the Mids never needed to take a timeout (had two available).

Against Mempis, Abey rushed for 146 yards and three touchdowns on 37 carries, but completed just one of his seven passes for 20 yards while throwing two interceptions and losing three fumbles.

- Abey was having a solid game against UCF before leaving in the third quarter with an injury. He rushed for 126 vards and a touchdown on 25 carries, while completing two of his four passes for 115 yards with one touchdown and one interception.
- · Against Temple, Abey had a good day throwing the ball completing six of his nine passes for 111 yards with one interception, but was held to just 60 yards on the ground on 25 carries.
- · Abey sat out the win over SMU with an injury
- · Abey rushed for 100 yards or more in a school-record eight straight games dating back to last year (114 vs. LA Tech, 235 vs. Florida Atlantic, 108 vs. Tulane, 128 vs. Cincinnati, 185 vs. Tulsa, 214 vs. Air Force, 146 vs. Memphis and 126 vs. UCF). That streak ended in the Temple game.
- · Abey has had nine games total of more than 100 yards rushing, as he also ran for 111 yards off the bench against SMU in 2016.
- · Abey's two 200-yard rushing games is tied with Keenan Reynolds (twice), Chris McCoy (twice) and Napoleon McCallum for the most in school history and is tied with Eddie Meyers for fourth on the career list.
- Abev has rushed for at least one touchdown in 10 of the 13 games he's played in, including in six of eight this year. He also caught a touchdown pass from Malcolm Perry in the Temple game.
- Abey is averaging 150.3 yards per game on the ground, which is the fifth-best rushing average in the country and second-best among quarterbacks.
- Abey's 13 rushing touchdowns are tied for the 12th most in the country and tied for the fourth most among quarterbacks.
- · Abey is averaging 10.5 points per game, which is the six-best average in the country and is third among quarterbacks.
- · Abey has rushed for 1,202 yards on the year and is just one yard behind Ricky Dobbs (2009) for 10th on Navy's single-season rushing list.

BIG PLAY BONNER

- Darryl Bonner entered last year's Houston game with just five carries for 66 yards and no catches in four career games.
- But when senior slot back Calvin Cass Jr. went down with an injury, Bonner stepped up and was one of the key players in Navy's upset win.
- Bonner finished with 20 yards on five carries and caught two passes for 42 yards and a touchdown, while throwing several key blocks on the perimeter that helped a fellow slot back pick up a first down.
- Bonner caught a 25-yard pass from Will Worth at the end of the first half that set up a Bennett Moehring field goal at the halftime gun that tied the score at 20. His 17-yard touchdown catch on the opening drive of the third quarter put Navy up for good at 27-20.
- Bonner came back against Memphis and had four carries for 22 yards and caught a career-long 52-yard pass from Worth.
- Against USF, Bonner caught three passes for 50 yards, including a nine-yard touchdown pass.
- Against Notre Dame, Bonner scored his first-career rushing touchdown scoring from 16-yards out. He finished with four carries for 21 yards.
- Against Tulsa, Bonner caught a 28-yard pass and scored on a four-yard touchdown run and against East Carolina he carried the ball three times for 32 yards.
- Against SMU, Bonner carried the ball once for 44 yards, caught one pass for 27 yards and returned a kickoff 46 yards.
- Against Louisiana Tech, Bonner carried the ball four times for 22 yards and caught two passes for 79 yards and a touchdown. His touchdown was a 64-yard pass from Zach Abey.
- In nine games of playing time at slot back, Bonner scored five touchdowns (2 rushing, 3 receiving) and was the third-leading receiver on the team with 10 catches for 278 yards.
- Bonner averaged 14.0 yards every time he touched the ball in 2016 (29 carries, 227 yards, 7.8 ypc; 10 catches, 278 yards, 27.8 ypc; 2 kickoff return, 71 yards, 35.5 ypr).
- Boner continued his big play ways in the 2017 season opener against Florida Atlantic, catching a 39-yard TD pass from Abey and carrying the ball six times for 24 yards.
- Against Tulane, Bonner caught two passes for 53 yards (26.5 yards per catch).
- Bonner missed the Cincinnati and Tulsa games with an ankle injury, but came back to flourish against Air Force where he rushed for a career-high 68 yards and a touchdown on five carries. His 10-yard touchdown run against the Falcons was one of the most memorable in Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium history as he jumped over an Air Force defender at the five-yard line, landed on his feet and went on to the end zone. It was picked as the No. 2 play in college football and the No.
   4 play in all of sports by ESPN.
- This season, Bonner has carried the ball 26 times for 143 yards (5.5 yds/carry) and a touchdown and has caught seven passes for 182 yards (26.0 yds/catch) and a touchdown.
- Bonner has four career touchdown catches on 16 career receptions.

CAUSING TURNOVERS

- Navy has forced at least one turnover in 37 of the last 43 games. The Mids did not create a turnover against Tulane or Tulsa this year.
- During that 43-game span, the Mids have forced 67 turnovers (34 interceptions and 33 fumble recoveries).

CONTROL THE FOOTBALL

 Navy has an average time of possession of 35:47 per game this season, which is the best mark in the country.

TWO OUARTERBACKS OVER 100 YARDS PASSING

- Navy threw for a season-high 226 yards (13 for 19, three touchdowns and one interception) against Temple.
- The 226 yards passing were the most by Navy since last year's USF game when Will Worth threw for 299 yards.
- The Temple game provided another oddity, however, as the Mids had two different quarterbacks throw for more than 100 yards in the game. Zach Abey completed six of his nine pass attempts for 111 yards with one interception, while Garret Lewis came off the bench to complete six of nine passes for 110 yards and two touchdowns. Slot back Malcolm Perry accounted for the third touchdown pass when he tossed a five-yard TD pass to Abey.

PALMORE COMING UP WITH THE BALL

- Senior outside linebacker D.J. Palmore has been Navy's top playmaker this year leading the Mids in tackles for a loss (10.5) and fumble recoveries (3) and is second in sacks (2.5). Palmore is also third on the team in tackles with 50
- With three fumble recoveries, Palmore is tied for second in the country.

WILLIAMS BUILDING OFF HUGE ARMY-NAVY GAME

- Safety Sean Williams had a huge Army-Navy game last year with a career-high 14 tackles and three turnovers (two fumble recoveries and an interception).
- The interception was the first of his career, while the fumble recoveries were his second and third of his career (all this year).
- Williams has had a great 2017 so far, leading the Mids in tackles with 63, including 49 solo stops, 2.5 tackles for a loss, four pass breakups, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and four pass breakups.

TIME TO GET READY

 Under Niumatalolo, Navy is 25-16 (.610) with more than one week to prepare for an opponent.

NAVY DEFENSE PLAYS TOUGH AGAINST UCF

- The Navy defense held UCF, which entered the game leading the country in scoring at 50.6 points per game, to just 31 points in the Mids' 31-21 loss.
- The 31 points are tied for the fewest points UCF has scored in a game all year. SMU also held the Knights to 31 points.

KEEP THE BALL, WIN THE GAME

- Navy is 28-2 (.933) over the last six years when winning the turnover battle and 23-22 (.511) when breaking even or losing the turnover battle.
- The Mids are 5-3 this year when breaking even or losing the turnover battle and 1-0 when winning the turnover battle (Air Force).

NEVER GIVE IN

 The Navy defense has allowed just 14 touchdowns on the last 54 turnovers (.259) by the Navy offense dating back to the 2014 season (does not count offensive turnovers returned for touchdowns)

TOO MANY TURNOVERS

- Navy turned it over five times in its 30-27 loss at Memphis on Oct. 14. It was the most turnovers by a Navy team since 2002 when Navy turned it over six times against Boston College in 2002.
- Navy turned it over three more times in its 10-point loss to No. 20 UCF (a fumble and two interceptions) and threw an interception against Temple, giving the Mids nine turnovers and just three takeaways during their three-game losing streak
- The Mids have turned it over 17 times in nine games this year (9 times in the 3 losses, 8 times in the 6 wins) after turning it over just 16 times in 14 games last year.
- Navy has lost nine fumbles in its nine games after losing just nine fumbles in 14 games last year.

OT BABY

- Navy owns a 7-4 record all-time in overtime games with each of the four losses coming on a missed or blocked kick: Tulsa (blocked extra-point), Ball State (blocked field goal), Air Force (blocked extra-point), Toledo (missed field goal).
- The Toledo game was the first time Navy lost a multiple overtime contest.

NIUMATALOLO THE ONLY FBS HEAD COACH WITH TWO SONS PLAYING FBS FOOTBALL

- Navy head coach Ken Niumatalolo is the only FBS head coach that has two sons playing FBS football.
- Va'a is a senior linebacker at BYU, while Ali'i is a freshman linebacker at Utah. Utah beat BYU, 19-13, on Sept. 9.
- On Sept. 16, thanks to Navy's bye week and some fortuitous scheduling, Niumatalolo got to watch both sons play in person as BYU hosted Wisconsin in the afternoon and Utah hosted San Jose State at night. Both Va'a and Ali'i saw action on special teams.

- Defensive coordinator Dale Pehrson is in his 22nd year at Navy, which is tied for the fifth-longest tenured assistant in the FBS. Niumatalolo is in his 20th year at Navy and his 10th as the head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Ivin Jasper is in his 18th year, slot backs coach and special teams coordinator Danny O'Rourke is in his 16th year, outside linebackers coach Justin Davis is in his 11th year, while Ashley Ingram (OL/running game coordinator), Steve Johns (LB) and Mike Judge (FB) are all entering their 10th year at Navy.

NAVY SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE HONORED BY FOOTBALL WRITERS ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA

- Navy was one of 11 schools whose sports information staff was honored in 2016 by the Football Writers Association of America.
- Five previous winners and six first-time winners comprised the Eighth Annual Super 11 Awards, which the Football Writers Association of America gives out annually to the best performing sports information departments in the Football Bowl Subdivision.
- USC claimed its seventh Super 11 award, including third straight, while Nebraska won for the fifth time overall and fourth time in five seasons. Clemson and Colorado each won for a fourth time. It was Clemson's second straight award and Colorado's third award in four seasons.
- Navy was the other past winner, having claimed a spot back in 2010.
- The first-time winners included Air Force, Arkansas State, Miami (Ohio), Oklahoma State, Tennessee and UTEP in the awards selection that dates back to the 2009 season.
- Criteria employed in determining the winners not only included how press boxes and media operations were operated, but also the quality and timeliness of information provided. Also judged was the amount of information presented and appropriately updated on websites, and personal responsiveness to media inquiries as well as the accessibility of a program's players, coaches and assistant coaches. The ratings considered those departments that went the extra mile in servicing the media.
- In January 2009, the FWAA formed the first Super 11 Committee. The concept has been supported and endorsed by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), many of whom are members of the FWAA.
- The Football Writers Association of America consists of more than 1,300 men and women who cover college football for a living. The membership includes journalists, broadcasters and publicists, as well as key executives in all the areas that involve the game. The FWAA works to govern areas that include game day operations, major awards, a national poll and its annual All-America team.

He was the difference again with 108 yards on 29 carries. Abey also completed 4 of 12 passes for 132 yards, including a 79-yard touchdown throw to Tyler Carmona.
- Tulane quarterback Jonathan Banks, a junior college transfer, took a hard hit in the second quarter and did not return with an undisclosed injury. Sophomore Johnathan Brantley, however, provided a spark off the bench and scored his first career touchdown with a 3-yard run in the second quarter.
- The Green Wave cut the margin to 23-21 on a 1-yard dive by Dontrell Hilliard and a twopoint conversion with 12:56 left in the game. Tulane, however, failed to convert a pair of key fourth downs late in the game to extend drives.
- · A penalty for too many players on the field gave Navy a 4th and 1 from the Green Wave's 46 with 1:58 left. Abey converted the first down and the Midshipmen were able to run out the clock to seal the win.
- · Brantley completed five of eight passes for 58 yards. He also ran for 73 yards on nine carries with the score.
- . The game was a battle of two teams that have a similar offense.
- · Midshipmen coach Ken Niumatalolo ran the triple-option as a quarterback at Hawaii and was later an assistant under coach Paul Johnson, who ran the same system. Tulane's Willie Fritz has used the zone option throughout his 24-year coaching career.
- On this day, Navy was more successful moving the ball, out-gaining the Green Wave 326 to 262.

• Tulane was looking to open the season with two straight wins for the first time since 2002.

2017 NAVY FOOTBALL GAME NOTES: 39

GM 7 #20 UCF 31, NAVY 21 OCT. 21, 2017 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NMC MEMORIAL STADIUM • 35,277

 Adrian Killins ran for 122 yards and two touchdowns, McKenzie Milton passed for 233 yards and No. 20 Central Florida beat Navy 31-21 for the first 6-0 start in school history.

It was tied in the third quarter before Killins bolted down the right sideline for a 79-yard touchdown run to put the Knights ahead for good.

- With the victory, Central Florida (6-0, 4-0 American Athletic Conference) became bowl eligible, matched its win total of last year and improved to 6-0 for the first time in the 39year history of the program.
- The Midshipmen (5-2, 3-2) kept it close, but their chances of pulling off an upset dwindled after quarterback Zach Abey was forced from the game in the third quarter. Abey was dazed from a hit to the helmet at the end of a run and had to be helped off the field.
- Abey, the key figure in Navy's triple option, carried 25 times for 126 yards and a touchdown - his school-record eighth straight 100-yard game. He also threw a touchdown pass.
- His backup, Garret Lewis, directed a 75-yard drive that got the Midshipmen to 24-21 with 12:50 left.
- Navy then intercepted a pass and moved inside the UCF 40 before Lewis sent a late pitch

GM 8 TEMPLE 34, NAVY 26 NOV. 2, 2017 • PHILADELPHIA, PA. • LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 26,127

- Frank Nutile threw for 289 yards and four touchdowns, and Temple's struggling offense awoke to beat Navy, 34-26, at Lincoln Financial Field on national television.
- Nutile, making his second straight start in place of the injured Logan Marchi, completed 22 of 30 passes with one interception as Temple (4-5, 2-3 American Athletic Conference) snapped a two-game skid.
- Adonis Jennings had five catches for 127 yards, including touchdown catches of 34 and 40 yards. Keith Kirkwood and Jake Robinson also caught TDs for the Owls, who entered averaging just 20.9 points a game, 112th best in the FBS.
- Navy quarterback Zach Abey, who sustained a concussion in a loss to UCF on Oct.
   21, rushed for 87 yards and caught a touchdown pass on trick play before leaving with another injury. The Midshipmen (5-3, 3-3) rushed for 136 yards, well below their nation-best average of 376.
- A trip to Lincoln Financial Field had always ended on a positive note for the Midshipmen, who entered 12-0 at the home of the Philadelphia Eagles - including a 10-0 mark against rival Army.
- But much like a year ago when Temple cruised to a 34-10 win in the AAC title game, Navy's defense faltered.
- Navy cornerback Tyris Wooten was suspended for violating team rules. Noruwa Obanor started in his place and the Owls picked on the Midshipmen's secondary.
- Jennings beat Elijah Merchant on his two scores and Robinson's first career catch came against Merchant. Khaylan Williams was beaten in the end zone on Kirkwood's 8-yard catch that made it 17-3 in the second quarter.
- Temple, playing a triple-option team for the second-straight game after losing in overtime at Army on Oct. 21, plugged running lanes with an eight-man front that left Navy frustrated.
- Abey left after taking a hit on his interception early in the fourth. Garret Lewis entered with Temple trailing 34-13 and threw touchdown passes to Brandon Colon and Tyler Carmona.

GM 9 NAVY 43, SMU 40 Nov. 11, 2017 • Annapolis, Md. • NMC Memorial stadium • 36,157

- Navy's Malcolm Perry ran for 282 yards with four touchdowns in his first start at quarterback and backup kicker J.R. Osborn hit an 18-yard game-winning field goal as time expired to give Navy a 43-40 victory over SMU.
- Perry was originally recruited as a quarterback, but converted to slot back in the spring. Starting quarterback Zach Abey was active after suffering a shoulder injury last week against Temple, but Perry got the nod to run the triple-option offense and that proved to be a wise decision for Navy (6-3, 4-3 American Athletic Conference).
- Perry had the third most rushing yards in school history before leaving late in the fourth quarter with an apparent leg injury.
- SMU quarterback Ben Hicks threw a 29-yard touchdown to Courtland Sutton and then completed another pass to Trey Quinn for a 2-point conversion that tied the game, 40-40, with 3:32 remaining to play.
- Garret Lewis entered for the injured Perry and handed the ball to fullback Anthony Gargiulo, who managed 50 yards on two carries to the Mustangs' 9-yard line that eventually set up the game-winning kick.
- Gargiulo finished with a career-high 145 yards on 15 carries and had the game's first touchdown on a 4-yard run. The Midshipmen snapped a three-game losing streak and became bowl-eligible for the sixth consecutive season.
- The Mustangs (6-4, 3-3) struggled against the Midshipmen's running attack, allowing 559 yards.
- Perry gave Navy a 27-11 lead with a 92-yard touchdown scamper in the second quarterthe second longest run in school history.
- Trailing 34-11 at the half, SMU got back in the game on a 14-yard touchdown pass from Hicks to Sutton and a 3-yard touchdown run by Xavier Jones early in the third quarter. Jones finished with 106 yards on 18 carries.

68 > DAVID FORNEY CENTER | S0. | 6-3 | 318 | WALKERSVILLE, MD.

 At Navy: One of the biggest players on the team ... has dropped 15 pounds since last year, which should help him get off the line of scrimmage faster ... expected to push Parker Wade for the starting job.

Trending: Member of Navy's offensive line that has been named to the Mid-Season Honor Roll for the Joe Moore Award ... helped slot back-turned-quarterback Malcolm Perry rush for an AAC record 282 yards (third most in program history) against SMU ... Navy has had only five 90-plus yard touchdown runs in school history, Perry has two of the five - 92 vs. SMU and 91 vs. Air Force this season ... Perry's 92-yard TD run set a Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium record for longest rush ... the previous long was 91 yards set in 1997 by Pat McGrew against Kent State and tied earlier this year against Air Force by Perry ... it is also the second-longest run in program history behind John Sai's record-setting 93-vard run against Duke in 1963 ... for the first time in program history, Navy was able to string together three straight games of 400-plus yards rushing - 569 vs. Cincinnati, 421 vs. Tulsa, 471 vs. Air Force ... Navy had two players rush for over 100 yards in three consecutive games for just the second time in school history (Zach Abey and Malcolm Perry vs. Cincinnati, Tulsa and Air Force) ... Navy also did it in 1996 vs. Rutgers (Tim Cannada 107, Chris McCoy 101), SMU (Chris McCoy 140, Omar Nelson 108) and Boston College (Chris McCoy 183, Omar Nelson 118) ... the line allowed Navy's starting quarterback Zach Abey to rush for 100 yards or more in a school-record eight straight contests dating back to 2016 - 114 vs. LA Tech, 235 at Florida Atlantic, 108 vs. Tulane, 128 vs. Cincinnati, 185 at Tulsa, 214 vs. Air Force, 146 at Memphis, 136 vs. UCF (broke the record) ... Abey is the only player in school history to rush for 100 or more yards in each of the season's first seven contests ... he is the first Navy player to rush for 150-plus yards in back-to-back games (185 vs. Tulsa, 214 vs. Air Force) since Adam Ballard in 2005 (167 vs. Temple and 192 vs. Army) ... Abey is just the fourth different Navy player to rush for 200 yards TWICE in a season (235 vs. Florida Atlantic, 214 vs. Air Force), joining Keenan Reynolds (2013, and 2014), Chris McCoy (1996 and 1997) and Napoleon McCallum (1983) it's the sixth time overall it's happened in a Navy single season.

2017: A member of the Mids' PAT and field goal units, made his collegiate debut in Navy's opener at Florida Atlantic ... has seen action as a key reserve on the line.

2016: Did not see any varsity action.
