Setting The (Golden Dome) Standard

When it comes to powerhouse programs in women's college soccer, one need look no further than Notre Dame. The Fighting Irish have won three NCAA titles (1995, 2004, 2010) to highlight a resume that includes eight NCAA national championship match appearances and 12 trips to the NCAA College Cup semifinals (second-most in tournament history). Notre Dame has earned 18 consecutive NCAA Championship berths (1993-2010) and is one of only two schools to reach the final-32 every year since 1993.

In their history, the Fighting Irish have developed four Hermann Trophy winners and 49 All-Americans, including 19 first-team selections. Now in its 24th season in 2011, Notre Dame owns an all-time record of 457-78-23 (.840).

A Quick Look At The Fighting Irish

Despite outshooting its opponents by a 2-to-1 margin through the first nine matches of the season, Notre Dame finds itself with a 4-4-1 record (1-1 in the BIG EAST's National Division), thanks to some untimely bounces and narrow misses that have seen the Fighting Irish lose three times by a single goal (twice on the road at top-five opponents, once in overtime).

Notre Dame returned to winning form last Sunday with a clinical 4-1 victory at Cincinnati, paced by senior All-America forward (and Hermann Trophy candidate) Melissa Henderson, who netted her second hat trick of the season. Sophomore midfielder Elizabeth Tucker dished out a pair of assists, while freshman forward Lauren Bohaboy opened her goal-scoring account in the closing minutes.

Henderson (10G-3A) continues to lead the way in most major BIG EAST offensive categories, while also ranking among the top 12 nationally in goals, points, goals per match and points per match. Sophomore midfielder Mandy Laddish sets the pace in the BIG EAST with five assists, while junior goalkeeper Maddie Fox has a league-best 0.64 GAA and an .864 save percentage that is second in the BIG EAST.

Scouting South Florida

USF comes into Thursday's match with a 4-3-2 record, (0-1-1 in the American Division). The Bulls also have lost just once in their last five matches, although they've had to work longer of late, with four of USF's past five outings going to overtime (three to a second extra period).

The Bulls are coming off a 2-2 draw at Pittsburgh on Sunday, with sophomore forward Demi Stokes scoring the tying goal in the 61st minute after earlier handing out an assist.

Junior midfielder Taylor Patterson leads USF in scoring (4G-3A), while junior Summer Ikeda has three goals, and Stokes and stand-out senior forward Chelsea Klotz are among a group of players with two goals apiece.

Senior Nicole McClure has the bulk of the time in the USF goal, posting a 1.32 GAA with two solo shutouts.

Head coach Denise Schilte-Brown is in her fifth season leading the Bulls with a 38-35-14 record at USF. She also has a 14-year career coaching record of 132-104-31, including an 0-2 mark against Notre Dame.

The Notre Dame-South Florida Series

Notre Dame and South Florida will be squaring off for just the fourth time, with the Fighting Irish having won the first three matchups, two in the regular season and one in the conference tournament, by a combined 12-0 score (all since USF joined the BIG EAST in 2005).

Notre Dame also is making its second visit to Tampa, having defeated the Bulls, 4-0 in their only prior trip to the USF campus on Oct. 2, 2005.

The Last Time Notre Dame And South Florida Met

Melissa Henderson registered her second career hat trick, while Lauren Fowlkes added a goal and an assist, as No. 5/7 Notre Dame rolled over South Florida, 5-0 in a BIG EAST Conference Championship quarterfinal match on Nov. 1, 2009, at Alumni Stadium.

Henderson did all her damage in the first 28:03 of the contest, carving up a Bulls' defense that had only allowed three goals in a match once all season, and converting on all three of her shots on goal in the contest.

Midfielder Ellen Jantsch netted her first goal of the season, and second of her career, in the 39th minute, as the Fighting Irish blitzed USF for all five of their scores in the opening 38:59 of play. In addition to Fowlkes' assist, Julie Scheidler, Jazmin Hall and Rose Augustin also picked up assists.

All three Notre Dame goalkeepers saw action in the win, with neither Nikki Weiss, Kelsey Lysander or Maddie Fox asked to make a save as the Fighting Irish recorded their 13th shutout of the 2009 season, and seventh in eight matches. USF starting netminder Malori Lofton-Malachi went the first 33:43 in goal, making one save and allowing four goals before giving way to Gaby Garton, who had four saves and one goal allowed during the remainder of the contest (the Bulls also were credited with a team save in the second half).

Notre Dame held a decisive 25-4 shot advantage, including an 11-0 edge in shots on goal. The Fighting Irish also earned the upper hand in corner kicks by a 4-1 count.

Other Notre Dame-South Florida Series Tidbits

- Not only has Notre Dame outscored South Florida, 12-0, in its three prior series matchups, but the Fighting Irish also have outshot the Bulls by a combined 83-10 margin, including a 39-3 spread in shots on goal. What's more, Notre Dame has earned an 18-5 edge in corner kicks during its abbreviated series with USF.
- The 2005 Fighting Irish win at USF (4-0) was notable in that it was the first step on an NCAA Division I-record 77-match unbeaten streak (72-0-5) against conference opponents, a run that would last more than five years before ending on Oct. 31, 2010, with a 2-0 loss at home to Connecticut in the BIG EAST Championship quarterfinals.
- Notre Dame is 15-2-1 (.861) all-time against Florida schools, including a 5-1-1 (.786) record on the road. The Fighting Irish last visited the Sunshine State on Nov. 27, 2009, defeating No. 6 Florida State, 2-0 in the NCAA Championship quarterfinals at the Seminole Soccer Complex in Tallahassee.
- Notre Dame also is 9-0 all-time (2-0 on the road) against BIG EAST schools from Florida, going 6-0 against now-departed league member Miami, and 3-0 against USF.

Scouting Marquette

Marquette enters this weekend with an 8-2 record, including a 1-1 mark in the BIG EAST's American Division. The No. 12/14 Golden Eagles (who play host to DePaul Friday night) are one of three ranked teams in the league this week, joining No. 20/24 Notre Dame and No. 25/23 West Virginia.

Marquette had a four-match win streak snapped last Sunday with a 3-1 loss at WVU. The only other loss for the Golden Eagles this season was a similar 3-1 setback at No. 7 Florida State on Sept. 2. MU also has two wins over ranked opponents this year, downing No. rv/23 Long Beach State (2-1) and No. 14 Wisconsin-Milwaukee (1-0 in 2ot).

Sophomore midfielder/forward Maegan Kelly (9G-3A) ranks among the BIG EAST leaders in several offensive categories, while senior forward Lindsay Page and sophomore midfielder/forward Taylor Madigan are tied for second on the team with three goals, and three players have a team-high four assists.

Senior goalkeeper Natalie Kulla has an 0.85 GAA this season and has registered four solo shutouts in handling the majority of the duties in the Golden Eagles' net.

Head coach Markus Roeders is in his 16th season at Marquette, with a 226-87-34 record, including a 1-6 record against Notre Dame.

The Notre Dame-Marquette Series

Notre Dame and Marquette will be meeting for the 11th time, with the Fighting Irish holding a 6-3-1 edge in the series, including an active five-match winning streak. The two sides have not played in the regular season since Oct. 5, 2008 (a 3-1 Fighting Irish win at old Alumni Field) and have tangled just twice in regular season action since the Golden Eagles joined the BIG EAST in 2005 (MU took a 4-1 win in Milwaukee on Sept. 30, 2005).

The Last Time Notre Dame And Marquette Met

Notre Dame earned its 11th BIG EAST Championship title with a 2-1 victory over Marquette in a physical matchup of No. 1 seeds on Nov. 8, 2009, at Morrone Stadium in Storrs, Conn. Senior midfielder Amanda Clark scored what proved to be the match-winning goal at 70:13, also securing Notre Dame's fourth conference crown in five seasons.

Lauren Fowlkes fired a low drive into the far right corner of the net to beat Golden Eagle goalkeeper Natalie Kulla at 12:09 for the early 1-0 Fighting Irish lead.

The Golden Eagles answered with a goal of their own at 22:12 when Julia Victor sent a bounding ball into the box and Rachel Sloan nodded it into the net.

Kulla finished the day with five saves for Marquette, while Nikki Weiss made six saves for Notre Dame. The Golden Eagles held a 5-1 edge on corner kicks, and Marquette held a 21-14 advantage on shots (each team had seven shots on goal).

Other Notre Dame-Marquette Series Tidbits

- Notre Dame's senior tri-captains, midfielder

Courtney Barg, forward Melissa Henderson and defender Jessica Schuveiller have played alongside Marquette senior goalkeeper Natalie Kulla for the past two years on the United States Under-23 National Team, most recently in May 2011. Henderson, Schuveiller and Kulla (as well as 2010 Notre Dame All-American Lauren Fowlkes) were members of the 2010 American U-23 side that won the Four Nations Tournament in Leicester, England.

- Five graduates of St. Teresa's Academy in Kansas City are on the rosters of the participating teams, including STA Class of 2010 graduates (and current college sophomores), defender Elizabeth Wilson of Notre Dame and midfielder/forward Maegan Kelly from Marquette (the duo also played club ball together with the KC Dynamos). Fighting Irish senior defender/midfielders Molly Campbell and Ellen Jantsch also attended St. Teresa's, graduating in 2008 alongside Marquette redshirt junior midfielder Britney Scott (who started at Purdue before transferring to MU last year).
- Notre Dame sophomore midfielder Rebecca Twining and Marquette freshman defender/midfielder Isabela Carrasco played their club ball at Houston's Challenge SC. Twining graduated from Second Baptist School in 2010, while Carrasco is a 2011 graduate of Cypress Woods High School.
- Fighting Irish sophomore forward Adriana Leon and Marquette sophomore midfielder/defender Vanessa Legault-Cordisco were teammates on the 2010 Canada Under-20 National Team that competed in CONCACAF U-20 World Cup qualifiers in Guatemala. Leon had two goals during group play, while Legault-Cordisco netted the match-winner against the host nation.

No Worries ... We've Got This

A few observers around the country may have raised an eyebrow at Notre Dame's early 4-4-1 start this season. But consider the following:

- The Fighting Irish played four of their seven non-conference matches against Top 25 opponents (actually all were ranked 17th or higher in at least one of the two major polls), and three of those contests came on the ranked team's home pitch. This doesn't even factor in Wisconsin, which rose to No. 23 in the Sept. 5 Soccer America rankings, more than two weeks after Notre Dame blanked the Badgers, 2-0 in the season opener at Alumni Stadium.
- Two of those losses were on the road at teams that would rise to No. 1 in the national rankings the following weeks (North Carolina and Stanford), and in both matches (plus the draw at No. 17/18 Santa Clara), Notre Dame was in a position to win or claim no worse than a draw inside the final 10 minutes.
- Following up on that point, the fates have been unkind to the Fighting Irish when it's mattered most. At UNC, senior defender/tri-captain Jessica Schuveiller had her potential game-winning header in the 85th minute tag the crossbar, something her classmate, midfielder Ellen Jantsch, would duplicate in the 72nd minute of a tied match at Santa Clara. In addition, Jantsch nearly doubled Notre Dame's lead at Stanford with a 72nd-minute header that grazed the left post, while Schuveiller almost netted the equalizer against Louisville in the 62nd minute as her free kick from outside the box beat Cardinals' goalkeeper Chloe Kiefer, only to be cleared off the line by Louisville defender Casey Whitfield.

- Head coach Randy Waldrum is known for playing a rugged non-conference schedule as a means of preparing his squad (especially his younger players) for the tests they will face later on, particularly in the postseason. In fact, in 12 of Waldrum's 13 seasons at Notre Dame (all but '06), the Fighting Irish have faced at least two Top 25 opponents during their non-conference slate.
- It's not as though Waldrum, his staff, and even some of his players haven't rebounded from a slow start before. In 2007, the Fighting Irish opened 3-4-1 before going unbeaten in their next 17 outings (16-0-1) to reach the College Cup. In 2009, Notre Dame began the year 3-3-0, then compiled a 19-match unbeaten streak (18-0-1) that led to another College Cup berth.

Keep Chopping Wood

One of the reasons for Notre Dame's slow start this season has been its polish in the final third. The Fighting Irish have created numerous golden scoring opportunities throughout their first nine outings, but they're still seeking that cutting edge in front of the net.

A prime example of this has come in the past three weekends. Notre Dame has rolled up a staggering 165 total shots (27.5 per match), including 65 shots on goal (10.83 per match), and yet the Fighting Irish have just 17 goals in that span (one goal every 9.7 shots, or one every 3.8 shots on frame).

Sunday School

Notre Dame is unbeaten in 22 of its last 24 matches on Sunday (19-2-3), including a 17-match unbeaten streak that was snapped with a 2-0 loss to Connecticut in the BIG EAST Championship quarterfinals on Oct. 31, 2010.

Still, the Fighting Irish own a 38-4-4 (.870) record in the past 46 contests when closing out the weekend, dating back to September 2007 (when Notre Dame lost three consecutive Sunday matches to nationally-ranked Stanford, Oklahoma State and Penn State, all by 2-1 scores and the first two in overtime).

Henderson A Trend Setter

If you're looking to spot a trend in Notre Dame's success during the past four seasons, look no further than senior forward Melissa Henderson. Since the Garland, Texas, native arrived in South Bend, she has scored 62 goals (second-most among active Division I players, and sixth in school history) and added 21 assists for 145 career points (11th in school history), making her one of 26 Fighting Irish players with at least 20 goals and 20 assists in her career.

This season, Henderson leads Notre Dame in goals (10) and points (23) and is tied for second in assists (3). She also leads the BIG EAST in virtually every offensive statistical category, including total goals, total points, goals per match (1.1), points per match (2.56) and total shots (43), and she is second in the conference in shots per match (4.78), as well as tied for eighth in total assists and tied for 10th in assists per match (0.33).

On the national stage, Henderson ranks among the top 12 in four NCAA statistical categories — total goals (8th), total points (8th), goals per match (12th) and points per match (12th).

What's more, Henderson has hat tricks this season against Indiana and Cincinnati (one of only three BIG EAST players with a three-goal night, and the only one to do it more than once), giving her five career hat tricks, which is tied for third in school history behind only two-time Hermann Trophy recipient Kerri Hanks (6) and Jenny Heft (6).

Fueled in part by her 4G-2A performance at the Notre Dame adidas Invitational, Henderson was voted by the participating coaches as the tournament's Offensive Most Valuable Player. She went on to be chosen as the BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Week, in addition to earning a spot on the Soccer America, Top Drawer Soccer and Our Game Magazine national teams of the week.

These markers have been particularly valuable to Fighting Irish fortunes. In fact, during Henderson's career, Notre Dame is 39-1-3 when she scores a goal, something she's done in 16 of her last 24 outings, dating back to last season. The Fighting Irish also are 48-1-3 all-time when Henderson tallies a point, which she has done in 32 of the past 44 contests, a stretch that carries back to 2009.

The only time Notre Dame has lost when Henderson had a goal or point was earlier this season (Sept. 9, 2011), when Henderson gave the Fighting Irish a 1-0 lead in the 67th minute at No. 2 Stanford before the Cardinal rallied with two goals in the final 10 minutes to snatch away the victory.

Man-O-Mandy

Sophomore midfielder Mandy Laddish has emerged as one of the leading playmakers in the nation this season, currently ranked 22nd in the NCAA and tops in the BIG EAST Conference with five assists (while adding a league-leading 0.56 assists/match).

Not bad for someone who played much of her rookie season at the holding midfield spot (in place of the injured Courtney Barg) and thus ended up with five points (2G-1A) for the year.

throughout her career. In fact, the rugged (and still remarkably underrated) center back from Plano, Texas, has started all 87 Fighting Irish matches and played 93.5 percent of her team's minutes (7,429 of a possible 7,949) since she set foot on campus more than three years ago.

In that time, Schuveiller has helped Notre Dame post 72 wins, 50 shutouts and a 0.69 goals-against average (GAA), with only two teams scoring more than two goals in a single match against the Fighting Irish under her watch (UNC 6-0 on Sept. 4, 2009, at Alumni Stadium; Duke 3-1 on Aug. 28, 2010, in Chapel Hill, N.C.).

A two-time NSCAA all-region pick and the 2010 NCAA Women's College Cup Most Outstanding Defensive Player, Schuveiller was one of 25 players (along with classmate Melissa Henderson) named to this year's Soccer America Preseason All-America Team.

Barg-ain Shopping

When healthy, senior midfielder Courtney Barg is among the best at her position in the country. A 2009 NSCAA first-team All-American, Hermann Trophy semifinalist and the BIG EAST Midfielder of the Year, Barg had her value on full display last season, coming back from a preseason injury to play the final six weeks (11 matches) of the season, including starts in all six NCAA Championship contests.

In fact, it was her calm demeanor and poise in the possession game that was a major factor in Notre Dame's run to its third national championship. Most notably in the title match against top-ranked Stanford, she helped the Fighting Irish control the flow of the contest before ultimately scoring the winning goal in the 63rd minute. Barg went on to be named to the NCAA College Cup All-Tournament Team, one of six Notre Dame players on that squad.

As a senior, Barg already has been tapped as one of 45 preseason candidates for the Hermann Trophy (along with classmate Melissa Henderson), and down the road, she could even be in a position to join the U.S. National Team player pool after electing to bypass the U-23 pool the past two summers while taking part in job-related internships (including one in England in the summer of 2010).

Three Best Friends Anyone Could Have

Chemistry is key to the success of any team, but Notre Dame has a unique formula that supports its framework this season. The Fighting Irish are led by three senior captains — midfielder Courtney Barg, forward Melissa Henderson and defender Jessica Schuveiller — who not only form the backbone of their starting lineup, but have been best friends since the fifth grade growing up back in suburban Dallas. In fact, the trio played together on age-group teams for the elite Dallas Texans soccer club starting with the U-11s and continuing through the rest of their pre-college days (moving to the newly-formed Sting Dallas club for their final season in 2007-08 before coming to Notre Dame).

Actually, Barg and Schuveiller have known each other even longer, going back nearly 15 years to the second grade before linking up with Henderson three years later.

We Love The New Digs

Alumni Stadium is quickly earning a reputation as not only one of the nation's finest college facilities, but also a truly intimidating place for visiting teams. In fact, following Notre Dame's loss to top-ranked North Carolina in its first match at the new stadium (Sept. 4, 2009), the Fighting Irish have won 28 of their last 30 at home, outscoring their opponents, 82-10 in that span while recording 21 shutouts. Notre Dame also had a 23-match home winning streak before it was snapped on Oct. 31, 2010, with a 2-0 loss to Connecticut in the BIG EAST Championship quarterfinals.

Packing Them In

Not only has Notre Dame experienced great success at Alumni Stadium, but the Fighting Irish also are seeing the rewards at the turnstiles as well. Notre Dame currently ranks sixth in the nation with an average of 2,297 fans per home match this season, which would easily top the old school record for single-season average attendance (1,938 in 2007).

Notre Dame's rise in attendance this season includes a stadium-record 3,511 fans for its Sept. 2 contest against Tulsa on the opening night of the Notre Dame adidas Invitational. That crowd was not only the second sellout in stadium history (after 3,007 attended the opener vs. North Carolina on Sept. 4, 2009), but also the ninth-largest crowd in the nation this season.

Incidentally, Notre Dame's match at North Carolina on Aug. 26 attracted the largest crowd of the 2011 season thus far, with 5,236 fans on hand for the Tar Heels' 2-1 overtime win.

The Fighting Irish also have played in front of three sellout crowds in their last six matches (home vs. Tulsa on Sept. 2; at Stanford on Sept. 9; at Cincinnati on Sept. 18).

ND Seniors Among Nation's Best

The 2011 Notre Dame senior class currently is the third-most successful group in the country on the basis of total victories, with a four-year record to date of 72-11-4 (.851) that includes a national championship (2010), an NCAA runner-up finish (2008) and a trip to the 2009 NCAA Women's College Cup semifinals.

The .851 winning percentage compiled by the Fighting Irish seniors is fourth-best on the national scene.

Preseason Honors Pour In For Irish

Senior tri-captains Melissa Henderson, Courtney Barg and Jessica Schuveiller each earned preseason national award recognition, it was announced in early August.

Henderson was a double honoree, joining Barg on the 45-player watch list for the 2011 Missouri Athletic Club Hermann Trophy (presented annually by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America to the nation's top Division I player), and also appearing with Schuveiller on the 25-person Soccer America Preseason All-America Team.

Notre Dame was one of eight schools to place two players on this year's Hermann Trophy watch list, with the others being Boston College, Florida, Florida State, North Carolina, Oklahoma State, Stanford and Texas A&M.

Henderson was the first runner-up for the 2010 Hermann Trophy (and is the lone returnee from among last year's three finalists), while Barg was a semifinalist for the '09 Hermann Trophy. The BIG EAST Conference had a total of five players named to this year's Hermann Trophy watch list, tying the Big Ten, Pac-12 and Southeastern conferences for the second-most selections from one league behind the Atlantic Coast Conference (9).

Meanwhile, the Fighting Irish also were one of just three teams in the nation with multiple selections to the Soccer America Preseason All-America Team, joining Boston College and Stanford in that select company. The BIG EAST had four honorees on the list, placing second among all conferences behind only the ACC (7).

Our Fearless Leader

Now in his 13th season at Notre Dame, head coach Randy Waldrum ranks third on the NCAA Division I career winning percentage list with a .787 (364-90-24) mark in his 22 years in the women's game. He also is second among active coaches for career winning percentage, while his 364 career wins rank fifth on the all-time NCAA Division I charts — Waldrum earned his 350th career victory on Oct. 3, 2010, vs. St. John's at Alumni Stadium.

A two-time National Coach of the Year (2009 by Soccer America, 2010 by NSCAA), Waldrum has led Notre Dame to eight NCAA College Cups, five NCAA finals and two national championships (2004 and 2010). He also is second in NCAA Division I history with eight College Cup appearances and five title-match berths in his storied career.

New Kid On The Block

Notre Dame added another player to its roster on Sept. 13, as junior midfielder Nicole Borner joined the squad after successfully competing in preseason tryouts.

A native of Pendleton, N.Y., and a 2009 graduate of Starpoint High School, Borner spent the 2009-10 academic year at Binghamton University, where she played in 15 matches for the Bearcats, helping them to a 9-7-2 record and berth in the America East Conference championship semifinals. She then transferred to Notre Dame prior to the 2010-11 academic year, but did not play soccer after undergoing a pair of surgeries on her right foot.

The 2-0 Guarantee

Notre Dame is 328-0-1 all-time when claiming a 2-0 lead and is unbeaten in its past 305 contests when going ahead 2-0 (dating back to a 3-3 draw with Vanderbilt on Sept. 15, 1991, in Cincinnati).

In fact, just two of the past 217 Fighting Irish opponents to face a 2-0 deficit have forced a draw, something achieved by four opponents in Notre Dame history: Duke on Oct. 17, 1993, in Houston (ND won 3-2), Connecticut on Nov. 10, 1996, in the BIG EAST final at old Alumni Field (ND led 2-0, later tied 2-2 and 3-3, ND won 4-3), Duke on Nov. 30, 2007, in the NCAA quarterfinals at old Alumni Field (ND won 3-2), and most recently, Villanova on Oct. 12, 2008 in Villanova, Pa. (ND won 3-2 in OT).

Three ... Is The Magic Number

Scoring three goals has meant virtually an automatic win in Notre Dame women's soccer history, with a 299-3-1 (.988) record in those games, including a 201-1-0 (.995) mark since Oct. 6, 1995.

Golden Domers Golden In OT

Overtime has usually been the right time for Notre Dame, as the Fighting Irish are 20-5-12 (.703) all-time in the Randy Waldrum era (since 1999) when going to an extra period or two. Notre Dame also is unbeaten in 10 of its last 12 overtime contests.

The Fighting Irish already have gone to extra time twice this season, falling at No. 3 North Carolina, 2-1, on Aug. 26 on a goal 5:25 into overtime, and then drawing at No. 17/18 Santa Clara, 1-1 on Sept. 11.

Two current Notre Dame players have scored "golden goals" in their college careers — senior forward Melissa Henderson (Nov. 9, 2008 vs. Connecticut in the BIG EAST final at old Alumni Field) and senior defender Jessica Schuveiller (Nov. 6, 2009 vs. St. John's in the BIG EAST semifinals at Storrs, Conn.).

Captains' Choice

A trio of seniors — midfielder Courtney Barg, forward Melissa Henderson and defender Jessica Schuveiller — were selected to serve as Notre Dame's captains this year, according to a preseason vote of their teammates.

Schuveiller is making history as the first three-year captain in the 24-year history of Fighting Irish women's soccer. When she first earned the armband in 2009, Schuveiller was Notre Dame's first non-senior captain since Amy Warner in 2002.

Barg and Henderson are in their first seasons as team captains.

Next Up: Connecticut/Providence

Notre Dame returns to Alumni Stadium next weekend, playing host to Connecticut on Sept. 30 in a 7:30 p.m. (ET) contest that will be televised live on ESPN2, before Providence comes calling on Oct. 2 for a 1 p.m. (ET) match.

The Fighting Irish will wear specially-designed jerseys during the weekend, with those shirts available to the public via an on-line auction and proceeds going to the Steve Emrich Fund (see sidebar on this page for more).

The UConn fixture is a rematch of last year's BIG EAST quarterfinal, won by the Huskies, 2-0 to end Notre Dame's record-setting 77-match league unbeaten streak. UConn is 4-4 this year (1-1 in the American Division) as it entertains Louisville and Cincinnati this weekend.

Providence is 3-3-4 (1-1 in the American Division) as it also faces Cincinnati and Louisville..

Before We Go...

Henderson Up For Senior CLASS Award

Senior forward/tri-captain Lauren Fowlkes has been chosen as one of the 30 candidates for the 2011 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, it was announced Aug. 18. The Senior CLASS Award is presented annually to the nation's top senior player based on dedication and achievement in four areas: Classroom, Character, Community and Competition.

From the list of 30 candidates in each division, a group of 10 finalists will be selected in early October, based on personal qualities that define a complete student-athlete. They then will be placed on the official ballot for a nationwide vote which ends in mid-November. Votes from coaches and media are coupled with fan balloting to determine the recipient of the award, with this year's honoree to be announced during the NCAA Women's College Cup Dec. 2-4 in Kennesaw, Ga.

Henderson is aiming to follow in the footsteps of former teammates Kerri Hanks (the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award recipient), Brittany Bock (a finalist in 2008) and Lauren Fowlkes (a finalist in 2010). One of the nation's premier players, Henderson was a consensus first-team All-American last year, while also taking home the Honda Sports Award for women's soccer and finishing as the first runner-up for the Hermann Trophy.

Irish Fighting For A Fan In Need

For years, the Notre Dame women's soccer team has been known for its assists on the field, but now the Fighting Irish are taking that help into the community to help a special fan in need. For each goal the defending national champions score during the 2011 season, fans can pledge any amount they choose ($1, $2, $5, etc.) towards a fund that will help defray medical expenses for Steve Emrich, a 38-year-old Fighting Irish supporter and father of three young girls from Raleigh, N.C.

Emrich has been in the neurocare program at WakeMed Hospital in Cary, N.C., since May 27 following seizures and subsequent cardiac arrest that left him without a pulse for more than 20 minutes. After his wife, Lisa, helped perform CPR and he was brought to the hospital to be put on an ice protocol therapy, Emrich spent more than three weeks in a coma and the early prognosis was poor due to early onset myoclonus, a movement disorder indicating severe brain damage.

However, Emrich's condition improved dramatically on Father's Day 2011, when he came out of the coma and repeated the names of his three daughters. Since that time, his cognition is excellent and his personality (including his wonderful sense of humor) is completely intact, although he remains physically challenged due to severe action myoclonus, which has made it difficult for him to feed himself, sit up on his own or walk. As such, his recovery will take months or even years, and the long-term physical outcome is uncertain.

Each Fighting Irish player now carries with her a pledge card that fans can fill out with the designated per-goal donation, and an on-line web page also has been created where fans also can make their pledges (UND.com/emrich). At the end of the season, fans will receive a note in the mail with an update on the team's final goal output and their pledge total.

For more on Emrich's condition, including photos and updates, please visit his web site at www.caring-bridge.com/visit/steveemrich.

Irish Alums Are WPS Champions ... Again!

Two former Notre Dame All-Americans — midfielder Brittany Bock ('09) and defender Candace Chapman ('05) — were members of the 2011 Women's Professional Soccer (WPS) regular-season and postseason champion Western New York Flash.

Bock and Chapman join Shannon Boxx ('99), Jen Buczkowski ('07), Carrie Dew ('09) and Kerri Hanks ('08) as Fighting Irish alums who also are WPS champions. Buczkowski and Hanks helped Sky Blue FC to win the 2009 WPS title, while Boxx and Dew were teammates with Chapman on FC Gold Pride last year. The seven Notre Dame WPS champions are the most from any college program in the country.

All told, Notre Dame has had 13 alums play in WPS (six of whom were drafted, plus two other assigned during the U.S. National Team allocation draft) during the league's first three seasons, second-most of any college program.
