Geno AURIEMMA

HEAD COACH
33RD SEASON
997-135 (.881) OVERALL
472-61 (.885) CONFERENCE

Geno Auriemma has redefined the meaning of success in women's college basketball in his 33rd year as head coach of the University of Connecticut.

During his illustrious tenure, Auriemma has transformed the UConn program into the standard that all others are measured, both on and off the court.

Under his guidance, the Huskies have been transformed from a program with only one winning season, to its current state, which includes 11 national titles, 18 Final Fours, six perfect seasons (1995, 2002, 2009, 2010, 2014, 2016) and 45 Conference titles, all since Auriemma's arrival in 1985.

Off the court, success means a flawless, 100 percent graduation rate among four-year players and one of the most beloved and followed sports teams in the country.

This unmatched success, which is the standard for collegiate programs nationally, was recognized with Auriemma's induction into both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame (Springfield, Mass.) and the Women Basketball Hall of Fame (Knoxville, Tenn.) in 2006.

In addition, Auriemma recently finished a successful eight-year term as he was named the head coach of the U.S. National Team, which won the gold medal at the 2012 Olympic Games in London and at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio. Former Husky greats Sue Bird, Tina Charles, Maya Moore and Diana Taurasi won gold medals in each of the last two games while Swin Cash and Asjha Jones were with Auriemma in 2012 and Breanna Stewart won gold in 2016.

He is the only coach in women's basketball history to guide a team to 10-consecutive Final Four appearances and his 22-6 record in Final Four games, including an 11-0 mark in national championship games is the best in NCAA history.

Auriemma has won a major National Coach of the Year honor in nine different seasons and has been named the conference Coach of the Year 14 times, including the 2016-17 honor.

He reached the 600, 700, 800 and 900-win mark faster than any other coach in the history of college basketball and became the sport's all-time leader in winning percentage when he surpassed Leon Barmore's previous mark of .869

1995, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

UConn swept both the league regular season and tournament crowns in 19 different seasons - all since Auriemma has taken over the program's reins.

His 32-year overall record stands at 997-135 (.881), the best winning percentage in the history of the sport and he became only the fourth coach all-time to eclipse the 900-win mark when the Huskies defeated Cincinnati on February 3, 2015. Auriemma reached win number 900 in fewer games than any coach in the history of the game.

The Huskies have won the conference tournament crown in 11 of the past 13 seasons. Connecticut extended its streak of consecutive NCAA Regional appearances to 24 straight and advanced to the NCAA Final Four for the 18th time in the program's history. Auriemma also guided UConn to its 22nd 30-win season in 2016-17 and its 22nd in the past 24 seasons.

UConn won the American Athletic Conference regular season and tournament titles for the fourth-straight year in 2016-17 and captured its record fourth-straight national championship after advancing to its ninth-straight Final Four, which extended its own record for most consecutive Final Four trips. UConn went undefeated for the sixth different season in 2015-16 while three Huskies, Moriah Jefferson, Breanna Stewart and Morgan Tuck, were selected as consensus First Team All-Americans.

Stewart was selected as the unanimous National Player of the Year earning honors from the the Associated Press, the WBCA (Wade Trophy), The LA Athletic Club (Wooden Award) the United States Basketball Writers Association, the Atlantia Tip-Off Club (Naismith Trophy), and was selected as the winner of the Honda Sports Award.

Following the season, the All-America trio were the first triumvirate of teammates in history to be selected with the first three picks in the WNBA Draft.

The Huskies enter 2016-17 on a 75-game winning streak, which is only 15 shy of their own NCAA record of 90-consecutive wins. The team has also won 38-straight road games, which is only six shy of tying the record of 30-consecutive road game wins held by UConn (2007-11) and Notre Dame (2011-15).

Auriemma is a 1981 graduate of West Chester with a B.A. in political science. He resides in Manchester, Conn., with his wife Kathy. They have three children and three grand children.
