ROAD WARRIORS

Colgate is in the midst of playing 10 of its first 14 games of the season on the road. The Raiders opened the season with five-straight away games before making their home debut on Nov. 29. Colgate then played three games in Charleston, S.C. before returning home for two contests. The Raiders close out non-league play with Monday’s game at Notre Dame and a Thursday tilt at Duquesne. Colgate then opens league play on Dec. 30 at Lafayette.

THE THREE IS KEY

Colgate’s performance from three-point range has proven to be crucial to its success this season. The Raiders shot 49.0 percent from downtown in their two wins and drained 25 three-pointers (12.5 per game) in the two games combined. Colgate has shot 34.1 percent (78-229) from beyond the arc in its nine losses, averaging 8.7 threes per contest. The Raiders made 18 treys in Colgate 91-68 win over Union, which set a new program single-game record and tied the Patriot League record. Colgate’s total of 103 three-point field goals made leads the Patriot League and ranks 28th in all of Division I, while the Raiders average of 9.4 threes per contest ranks 47th. Junior Jordan Swopshire leads the team with 31 made three-pointers, while classmate Sean O’Brien follows with 22 treys and a strong 42.3 three-point shooting percentage.

FRESHMAN PHENOM

First-year Will Rayman has burst onto the scene in his first ten collegiate games and currently leads the team with 13.0 points per game. The New York, N.Y. native went for a career-best 28 points at Penn State on Nov. 23 behind a 10-for-16 effort from the floor. He had a five-game double-digit scoring streak from Nov. 23 to Dec. 3. Rayman has earned honorable mention recognition for the Patriot League’s Rookie of the Week award for two of the last three weeks.

CAPTAINS SHOWING THE WAY

Seniors Nathan Harries and Andrew Bargmann, as well as junior Sean O’Brien, were elected as captains for the 2016-17 season. They wasted no time proving why they earned the leadership roles. O’Brien leads the squad with 46 assists, good for an average of 4.2 per game, to go along with his 12.7 points per contest. Harries recently erupted for a career-best 19 points in Colgate’s heartbreaking overtime loss at Columbia. Bargmann earned his first career start in Colgate’s win against Union and set new career highs in a number of statistical categories.

REBOUNTING REGISFORD

Sophomore Malcolm Regisford leads Colgate with an average of 7.0 rebounds per game this season. He has led the Raiders in rebounding in six of their 11 games this season. He pulled down a career-best 13 boards against Campbell to go along with 21 points for his first double-double of the season.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

Colgate’s schedule features contests against 10 teams that made National Postseason Tournament appearances a season ago. The Raiders will take on three NCAA Tournament competitors in Syracuse (Final Four), Notre Dame (Elite Eight) and Holy Cross (Patriot League Tournament Champion). Columbia claimed the CIT championship, while NJIT made it to the semifinals. Albany and Duquesne both competed in the CBI, while a total of four Patriot League teams made postseason appearances.

WHAT’S RETURNING

Colgate graduated its top scorer from a season ago in Austin Tillotson, but returns four starters and 13 letterwinners from last year’s campaign. Tillotson averaged 15.1 points per game en route to All-District and All-League laurels. He recently signed a professional contract with KB Peja in Kosova. The Raiders return 68.3 percent (1430-of-2093) of their point production from a season ago, led by juniors Jordan Swopshire and Tom Rivard who averaged 10.6 and 10.5 points per game, respectively, last season.

MATT LANGEL

Head Coach, Sixth Season

Matt Langel continues to create a Colgate Basketball program that is competing for Patriot League championships.

One year after leading the Raiders to a second-place regular season finish and advancement to the Patriot League tournament semifinals in, Langel's squad of four new starters found itself once again challenging the conference elite in 2015-16.

Colgate twice knocked off regular season champion Bucknell and tied for a fourth-place finish at 9-9. The Raiders are 21-15 against Patriot League competition over the last two seasons.

Colgate rewarded Langel with a five-year contract extension in March 2015, less than two weeks after the Raiders completed their best season since 1996. Colgate finished second in the 2014-15 Patriot League standings and advanced to the tournament semifinals. With the extension, Langel is now under contract at Colgate through the 2019-20 season.

It was Colgate's first Patriot League semifinal appearance since 2009, and the Raiders won 12 conference games for the first time in program history.

Langel was named Colgate head coach in April 2011 and just completed his fifth season with the Raiders.

Colgate this year welcomed four new starters and still maintained a .500 record in league play – despite six excruciating losses by five points or less. Colgate in its first four seasons under Langel won eight, 11, 13 and 16 games, respectively. The Raiders won two, five, six and 12 Patriot League games in those same four years.

Langel was named the 20th head coach in the 114-year history of Colgate basketball on April 25, 2011. Langel came to Colgate after spending five seasons as an assistant coach at Temple University (2006-11).

Langel worked under the tutelage of Fran Dunphy, who is one of the all-time winningest coaches in Philadelphia Big 5 history and has twice been named Eastern College Coach of the Year after guiding the Owls to their fourth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Langel was also a two-year member of Dunphy's Penn staff and helped guide his alma mater to consecutive Ivy League championships.

A 2000 graduate of Penn's Wharton School of Business, Langel helped lead the Quakers to two Ivy League titles and NCAA Tournament appearances during his four-year playing career (1996-2000). The Quakers went 27-1 in Ivy League action in his junior and senior campaigns and sported a 42-14 overall record. Langel was named Ivy League and Big Five Player of the Week numerous times and received the Big Five's Most Improved Player Award. He was also named to the Holiday Festival All-Tournament team (1998) and the University of California Golden Bear Holiday Classic All-Tournament Team (1999).
