Storylines

- ◆ Notre Dame has won 22 consecutive exhibition games and is 27-1 in preseason contests dating back to the start of the 1993-94 season.
- ◆ The 24th-ranked Irish are back in the Associated Press Top 25 poll for the first time since January 2006.

With the start of the 2007-08 regular season looming at the end of the week, Notre Dame gets one final chance to fine-tune its game when it plays host to Division II member Hillsdale in an exhibition contest Monday at 7 p.m. (ET) in the Joyce Center.

The Irish made their first appearance of the season last Thursday, registering an impressive 90-38 home victory over Southern Indiana. The Irish raced out to a 51-13 halftime lead and never looked back, forcing USI into 37 turnovers and a .240 field goal percentage for the night.

Sophomore center Erica Williamson led four Notre Dame players in double figures with 18 points in only 17 minutes. Freshman forward Devereaux Peters also looked sharp, chipping in 16 points and seven rebounds off the bench.

Hillsdale makes its season debut Monday night. The Chargers went 19-9 last year and finished second in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) South Division.

Rankings

- ◆ Notre Dame is ranked 24th in the preseason Associated Press poll and is receiving votes in the preseason ESPN/USA Today poll.

Setting The Standard

Under the guidance of 21st-year head coach Muffet McGraw, Notre Dame has evolved into one of the country's leading women's basketball powers. The Irish have appeared in 14 NCAA Tournaments (including a current streak of 12 in a row) and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 six times in the previous 11 years. Notre Dame also has reached the NCAA Women's Final Four twice, winning college basketball's ultimate prize with the 2001 national championship.

In its history, Notre Dame has developed nine All-Americans, nine WNBA players (including six draft picks in the past seven years) and four USA Basketball veterans (nine medals won). Now in their 31st season in 2006-07, the Irish own an all-time record of 613-278 (.688).

A Quick Look At The Fighting Irish

Even after a 20-12 record and a trip to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2006-07, Notre Dame still continues to fly below the national radar. Head coach Muffet McGraw wouldn't want it any other way.

Last year, the Irish learned quickly that respect is something that isn't handed to you, but rather earned on the court. It's also a quality that takes time to develop and doesn't come from trophy cases or record books. So although Notre Dame doesn't appear in the preseason ESPN/USA Today coaches poll, and was tabbed fifth in the preseason BIG EAST Conference balloting, it's not a great concern to McGraw and her charges. Instead, they focus on the things they can control and prefer to let the outside world judge them when the season is over.

This year could prove to be unlike any in recent memory for Notre Dame. For one, the Irish will roll out some impressive depth, going virtually two-deep at every floor position. In addition, Notre Dame's new offensive system (a Princeton-based set with four guards and a post) continues to evolve, building upon last year's 70.1 point-per-game average that was its highest since the 2000-01 NCAA national championship season.

Senior guard Charel Allen is the top returning scorer and rebounder for the Irish, leading the team in both categories last year (17.0 ppg., 6.2 rpg.). She also was a first-team all-BIG EAST and WBCA honorable mention All-America selection, and was a finalist for the 2007 USA U21 World Championship Team that struck gold this past summer in Moscow.

Allen's backcourt partner and classmate is point guard Tulyah Gaines. Now in her second full season at the helm of the Notre Dame offense, the speedy Gaines averaged 9.6 points per game along with team highs of 3.9 assists and 2.0 steals per contest. She also is a two-year team captain who commands instant respect from teammates, coaches and opponents.

The Irish will benefit from the return of junior guard Lindsay Schrader, who missed the entire 2006-07 season with a torn ACL in her right knee. Schrader, who retains three years of athletic eligibility, was Notre Dame's second-leading scorer (10.5 ppg.) and top rebounder (5.4 rpg.) as a rookie in 2005-06 and will look to regain that form this season.

Last year saw Notre Dame break new ground by becoming the first school ever to put three players on the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team. Guards Ashley Barlow (10.3 ppg., 5.4 rpg.) and Melissa Lechlitner (6.3 ppg., 2.7 apg.) will provide a superb complement to the veteran Allen-Gaines tandem, while center Erica Williamson (6.1 ppg., 5.3 rpg., 1.3 bpg.) showed flashes of potential throughout her rookie season and is poised for increased development this year.

Headlining a three-player freshman class (ranked 11th nationally by Blue Star Basketball) is Devereaux Peters, a smooth 6-2 forward who was a consensus All-American as a senior last year at national powerhouse Fenwick High School in Oak Park, Ill. Fellow post Becca Bruszewski (Valparaiso, Ind.) finished third in last season's Indiana Miss Basketball voting and was a perennial all-state pick. And, guard Brittany Mallory (Baltimore, Md.) offers a perimeter shooting threat, as well as a cerebral player who will mesh well in the Irish offensive system.

Potent Notables About The Irish

- Notre Dame is among the nation's winningest programs during the past 11 seasons (1996-97 to present), ranking seventh with 267 victories in that span.
- Notre Dame's incoming class of 2007 was ranked 11th in the nation by Blue Star Basketball, marking the 11th consecutive season that the Irish attracted a Top 25 recruiting class. Notre Dame is one of only three schools (along with Connecticut and Tennessee) to have an active streak of that length.
- Last season, Notre Dame ranked 10th nationally in attendance (6,364 fans per game), marking the seventh consecutive campaign the Irish were among the national top 20 in attendance. Notre Dame also has attracted 5,000-or-more fans to 94 of its last 96 home games, including three Joyce Center sellouts of 11,418 (most recently on Dec. 31, 2005 vs. Tennessee).

In-Season Interview Policy

All requests for Notre Dame player, coach or staff interviews must be made through Chris Masters and 24 hours' notice is appreciated. Please be aware that student-athletes' academic obligations always take precedence before any interview requests.

Media members also may speak to Irish team personnel before or after practice sessions. While most practices are open to the media, some may be closed at the coaching staff's discretion — contact Chris Masters for the latest practice schedule and availability.

On game days, no interviews will be granted with any Notre Dame player or coach prior to competition.

Credentials / Parking

Season credentials will be issued to all media covering the Irish on a regular basis. Please note — any Notre Dame men's basketball season credentials also offer access to all Irish women's basketball games.

For single-game credentials, contact Chris Masters no less than 24 hours before tipoff. Credential requests must be submitted via fax on official letterhead. Passes are left at the media will call entrance (Gate 1) of the Joyce Center.

Parking is free for all Irish women's basketball games.

Credentials remain the property of the University of Notre Dame and may be revoked at any time.

Game Notes

Notre Dame's game notes package is completed and made available on-line through the official Irish athletics web site during the season, usually at least one day prior to tipoff. Notre Dame's game notes are in Adobe PDF format and will be distributed via electronic means only (e-mail or web). Fax distribution is by request only.

Please contact Chris Masters if you wish to be added to the e-mail distribution list for Notre Dame's regular women's basketball release.

Gameday Services

Gameday packages containing game notes, flipcards and other information will be available on press row prior to all home contests. A pre-game meal also is served in the arena level media room (exit court via Gate 8 ramp behind visitors' bench, make first right, enter first door on right) beginning 75 minutes before tipoff.

A bank of statistics monitors is located on press row for the media's convenience. Final statistics books include an official NCAA box score and play-by-play. Telephone, copier and fax services are available on a first-come, first-served basis. The Joyce Center also offers wireless Internet capability — check with Chris Masters for access.

Post-Game Press Conferences

Following each Notre Dame home game, Irish head coach Muffet McGraw and selected players, followed by the visiting head coach and selected players, will be available to speak with the media. Post-game press conferences are held in the Joyce Center auditorium, located near Gate 1 on the first floor of the arena (exit floor via Gate 1 ramp to right of press row, go straight and turn right at WBB office).

Media members should submit player requests for post-game interviews to Chris Masters at the final media timeout of the second half.

* - due to tie in voting, extra player added to All-Freshman Team

- The Irish have become a regular fixture in the WNBA Draft in recent years, as six Notre Dame players have been selected in the past seven seasons. Megan Duffy was the most recent Irish player to be chosen, going to the Minnesota Lynx in the third round (31st overall pick) of the 2006 WNBA Draft. Duffy and Ruth Riley (San Antonio) both have been active in the league during the 2007 season, with Riley making her sixth playoff appearance (on her third different team) in a solid seven-year pro career. All told, seven Notre Dame alums have competed in WNBA regular-season play, with three of them combining to win four league championships — Riley won a pair of crowns with the Detroit Shock (2003 Finals MVP, 2006), Coquese Washington toiled for the 2000 Houston Comets, while Jacqueline Batteast was Riley's teammate on the '06 title-winning squad in Detroit.
- Notre Dame has been an elite program in the classroom as well. For the second year in a row, the Irish posted a perfect 100-percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR), according to figures released by the NCAA in October 2007. Notre Dame was one of 23 Division I-A programs to achieve this distinction, and one of only two BIG EAST schools (Syracuse was the other). Furthermore, since Muffet McGraw became the Irish head coach in 1987, every Notre Dame women's basketball player that has completed her athletic and academic eligibility at the University has graduated (a perfect 53-for-53 success rate).

A Quick Look At Hillsdale

The attitude around the Hillsdale women's basketball program has to be one of excitement and anticipation, but not for the reasons some might be thinking.

On the one hand, the Chargers are coming off a 19-9 season and 12-5 record in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC), good for a second-place finish in that league's South Division. Hillsdale then advanced to the GLIAC Tournament championship game before dropping an 88-77 decision to Gannon (Pa.). That loss turned out to be just enough to keep the Chargers out of the NCAA Division II Tournament, sending six seniors, including all five starters, out on a sour note.

This season, the excitement on the Hillsdale campus (located in Hillsdale, Mich., about two hours east-northeast of South Bend) could be attributed to the seven returning letterwinners and four newcomers who will infuse a new energy into the Chargers' program. The GLIAC coaches also believe Hillsdale may not be rebuilding so much as it will reload, picking the Chargers to finish second in the GLIAC South during this year's preseason poll.

With no returning everyday starters and 95 percent of its offense lost to graduation, Hillsdale will have to look to its top reserves from last year to take over the bulk of the scoring load. Senior forward Julie Slot is the most likely candidate for that role, having averaged 5.8 points and 2.0 rebounds with a .353 three-point percentage while appearing in all 28 games last year (making two starts). Junior forward Katie Cezat also will be called upon to contribute in the post, having averaged 4.1 points and 2.1 rebounds with a team-best .536 field goal percentage in 19 games last year. Sophomore guard/forward Brooke Knight saw significant action last year as well, starting nine times and averaging 2.5 points per contest.

While the Chargers will be taking the court for the first time this season when they face Notre Dame Monday night, Hillsdale is no stranger to facing Division I programs in exhibition play. Last year, the Chargers dropped a narrow 87-79 decision at Western Michigan, but in 2005-06, Hillsdale defeated the Broncos, 72-66 at WMU's University Arena in Kalamazoo.

Head coach Claudette Charney has spent the past five seasons at Hillsdale, having compiled an 87-51 (.630) record at the school. She also has coached at Muskegon (Mich.) Community College, Alma College, Saginaw Valley State and Grand Valley State during her 23-year career, amassing a 403-238 (.629) record.

The Notre Dame-Hillsdale Series

Notre Dame and Hillsdale will be playing one another for the first time ever in women's basketball when they tangle at the Joyce Center Monday night.

Other Notre Dame-Hillsdale Series Tidbits

- Hillsdale is the fourth different GLIAC opponent for Notre Dame in exhibition play, all during the past three years (2005-06 to present). The Irish are 3-0 against the GLIAC in that time, defeating Ferris State (96-45) in 2005, then downing Lake Superior State (82-55) and Northwood (82-35) last season. However, the Chargers will be the first GLIAC South Division opponent for Notre Dame.
- While the Irish women's basketball team will be meeting Hillsdale for the first time, the Notre Dame men's and women's outdoor track & field teams are quite familiar with the school, having participated in that school's Hillsdale Gina Relays for many years. Conversely, the Hillsdale cross country teams compete at the annual Notre Dame Invitational on a regular basis.
- The Irish football team played Hillsdale five times from 1892-1908, with Notre Dame posting a 4-0-1 record against the Chargers (all games played in South Bend).
- The Notre Dame baseball team has played Hillsdale 13 times, most recently on April 1, 2004, when the Irish defeated the visiting Chargers, 10-2 in a makeup game at Frank Eck Stadium.

Exhibition Excellence For Irish

Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable in exhibition games through the years, going 30-5 (.857) all-time in the preseason, dating back to the 1987-88 season (Muffet McGraw's first as Irish head coach). What's more, during the past 15 seasons (1993-94 to present), Notre Dame is 27-1 (.964) in these preseason tilts and own an active 22-game exhibition winning streak. Also since 1993-94, Notre Dame has outscored its preseason opponents by an aggregate score of 2,427-1,659, which is good for an average score of 87-59. The last squad to defeat the Irish in exhibition play was the Lithuanian National Team, which edged Notre Dame, 94-89 in 1996-97. But the Irish were not fazed by that loss — they went on to reach their first NCAA Final Four that year.

New NCAA rules in recent years have allowed Division I teams to play exhibitions against Division II, III or NAIA institutions. The Irish are 6-0 against these College Division programs, having downed six NCAA Division II schools since 2001 (Christian Brothers in 2001-02, Indianapolis and Ferris State in 2005-06, Lake Superior State and Northwood (Mich.) in 2006-07, and Southern Indiana last week).

Warming Up Quickly

In addition to Notre Dame's team success in exhibition games, several players also have performed well during preseason play. Here's a brief thumbnail on how some of the Irish players have done in exhibitions during their careers:

- Charel Allen - 10.3 ppg., 5.6 rpg., 20 pts. and 10 rebs. vs. Lake Superior St. in '06
- Ashley Barlow - 11.3 ppg., 6.3 rpg., 4.0 spg., 14 pts. and 10 rebs. vs. Northwood in 2006
- Melissa D'Amico - 11.6 ppg., 5.9 rpg., .576 FG% (34-59), 16 pts. vs. Indianapolis and Ferris State in 2005; double-double (11p, 10r) vs. Southern Indiana in '07
- Tulyah Gaines - 4.7 ppg., 3.6 rpg., 4.3 apg., nine points and six assists vs. Lake Superior State in 2006
- Melissa Lechlitner - 6.7 ppg., 3.7 apg., 2.3 spg., eight points and four steals vs. Lake Superior State in 2006

Exhibition Game #1 Recap: Southern Indiana

Behind a frenetic defense and a crisp offense, Notre Dame tipped off the 2007-08 exhibition season with a 90-38 rout of NCAA Division II member Southern Indiana on Nov. 1 before a crowd of 5,252 at the Joyce Center. The 52-point margin punctuated the largest exhibition win in program history, and also was the 22nd consecutive preseason victory for Notre Dame as well as its 27th exhibition win in 28 outings during the past 15 years.

Sophomore center Erica Williamson led a potent inside attack for Notre Dame, scoring a game-high 18 points (7-10 FG) while adding six rebounds and four blocks in only 17 minutes of action. Freshman forward Devereaux Peters chipped in 16 points and seven rebounds off the bench, while senior center Melissa D'Amico also bolstered the Irish post game in a reserve role with a double-double (11 points, game-high 10 rebounds) in 15 minutes. Notre Dame wound up outscoring the Screaming Eagles in the paint, 54-2 and shot an even 48 percent (36-of-75) on the night.

Not to be overlooked, sophomore guard Ashley Barlow turned in a superb all-around effort with 13 points on 6-of-10 shooting, four rebounds, five assists and five steals. Junior guard Lindsay Schrader also made her return to action after a year-long layoff with a torn ACL, finishing with eight points, seven rebounds and four assists.

As a team, Notre Dame was outstanding at the defensive end, forcing 37 USI turnovers and holding the Screaming Eagles to a .240 field goal percentage (12-of-50). The Irish also parlayed those 37 takeaways into 44 points at the offensive end. Carly Clendenen was the lone USI player to score in double figures, finishing with 11 points.

Notre Dame wasted little time in taking control of Thursday's game, scoring 16 of first 18 points in a little more than six minutes. Southern Indiana battled back to within 20-8 when Jasmine Baines hit a jumper with 11:41 left in the first half. The Irish then stepped on the gas and pulled clear of the Screaming Eagles, going on a 31-5 run to end the period.

The second half proved to be much of the same, as Barlow converted a fast break layup to hike the Notre Dame lead to 66-16 with 14:35 to play. The Irish would remain in front by at

Noting The Southern Indiana Game

- Notre Dame improves to 30-5 (.857) all-time in exhibition games.
- Before the USI game, the largest victory margin for the Irish in an exhibition game was 51 points, achieved twice before (96-45 vs. Ferris State in 2005; 88-37 vs. Estonian National Team in 1998).
- Notre Dame has scored at least 80 points in its last eight exhibition games since a 78-45 win over Team Concept in 2003.
- The USI game marked the debut of a new promotion at the Joyce Center, with fans receiving coupons for a free McDonald's Big Mac if the Irish score at least 88 points; after reaching the 87-point mark with 3:26 left, the home crowd nearly went home hungry before Williamson let them off the hook on an old-fashioned three-point play with 16.8 seconds left.

Exhibition Easy For "E"

Sophomore center Erica Williamson — nicknamed "E" by her teammates — was remarkably efficient in Notre Dame's exhibition win over Southern Indiana last Thursday. Williamson scored a game-high 18 points (7-10 FG) while adding six rebounds and four blocks in just 17 minutes of action. Had it been a regular-season game, it would have been the first career "point-a-minute" game for the Charlotte, N.C., native, while her 18 points would have topped her career high of 15 (set vs. Prairie View A&M on Dec. 28, 2006).

A Dandy Debut

The Notre Dame freshmen wasted little time in making their presence felt during last week's exhibition opener vs. Southern Indiana. Forward Devereaux Peters and guard Brittany Mallory combined to make six of their first seven shots from the field (Peters 4-4 FG, Mallory 2-3 3FG) during a 22-6 first-half run as the Irish took command by the midway point of the opening period. Peters finished with 16 points and seven rebounds in 19 minutes, while Mallory's two treys accounted for her six points in 16 minutes.

Polling Station

For the first time since the 2005-06 season, Notre Dame is appearing in the Associated Press Top 25 poll, checking in at No. 24 in the preseason edition of the media survey announced Nov. 3. The Irish last were ranked in the AP poll during the week of Jan. 23, 2005, when they were slotted 21st before losses at Rutgers (69-43) and at home to South Florida (68-64, ot) knocked them out of the AP Top 25.

Notre Dame has been ranked in the AP poll for 140 weeks during the program's history, with every one of those appearances coming in the Muffet McGraw era. McGraw now ranks 14th among all active NCAA Division I head coaches for weeks in the AP poll, and is poised to break into the top 25 all-time in that category, trailing retired Colorado mentor Ceal Barry by just two weeks.

Irish Picked Fifth In BIG EAST Poll

Notre Dame was projected to finish fifth in the BIG EAST Conference this season, according to a preseason vote of the league's 16 head coaches that was announced Oct. 25 during BIG EAST Women's Basketball Media Day at the ES-PNZone in New York City. The Irish collected 165 points, with Connecticut (15 first-place votes, 225 points), Rutgers (one first-place vote, 211 points), West Virginia (186 points) and Pittsburgh (169 points) joining Notre Dame in the top five.

Senior guard Charel Allen was one of 11 players selected to this year's Preseason All-BIG EAST Team. Allen averaged a team-high 17.0 points and 6.2 rebounds per game last season and ranked second in the BIG EAST with 19.3 points per game in league play. She went on to earn first-team all-BIG EAST and honorable mention All-America laurels, while helping the Irish go 20-12 and reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Half And Half

During the past eight seasons, Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable when it has the lead at halftime. The Irish are 124-12 (.912) since the start of the 2000-01 campaign when they go into the dressing room with the lead, including wins in 52 of their last 58 such contests. Notre Dame led at the break 17 times last year, winning on 15 occasions. The only blemishes came at Pittsburgh (Jan. 31) and against DePaul in the first round of the BIG EAST Championship (March 3).

The Best Offense Is A Good Defense...

During the past 13 seasons, Notre Dame has discovered that a solid defensive effort can almost certainly guarantee a victory. In fact, since the beginning of the 1995-96 season (Notre Dame's first in the BIG EAST Conference), the Irish have an amazing 168-10 (.944) record when they hold their opponents to less than 60 points in a game. Notre Dame held 10 foes under 60 points last season, going 9-1 in those games (losing only to Indiana).

...But Sometimes You Have To Score If You Want To Win

Not resting solely on its defensive laurels, Notre Dame also seemingly has found the magic mark when it comes to outscoring its opponents. During the past 13 seasons (1995-96 to present), the Irish are 100-3 (.971) when they score at least 80 points in a game. The only blemishes on that record are a pair of overtime losses to Texas A&M (88-84) and Michigan State (87-83) in 1995 and a 106-81 loss to Connecticut in 1998.

Notre Dame topped the 80-point mark nine times last season, winning each time (Central Michigan, Bowling Green, Western Michigan, Richmond, Prairie View A&M, Cincinnati, St. John's, Syracuse and Providence). The nine 80-point games were the most for the Irish in a single season since 2000-01, when Notre Dame reached that level 15 times during its run to the national championship.

Now That's A Home Court Advantage

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's success has been its stellar play at home. In fact, the Irish have been virtually untouchable at home in recent years, winning 149 of their last 167 games (.892) at the 11,418-seat Joyce Center, including winning streaks of 51 and 25 games in that span. Notre Dame also has an 87-13 (.870) record in BIG EAST Conference play at the Joyce Center, sporting a 31-game league winning streak at home before it ended with a 48-45 loss to Villanova in the '02 home finale.

The Irish have been particularly strong when it comes to non-conference games at home, winning 64 of their last 69 non-BIG EAST contests (.928) at the Joyce Center, dating back to the 1994-95 season. Four of the losses in that span came at the hands of Big Ten Conference opponents — Wisconsin in 1996 (81-69), Purdue in 2003 (71-54), Michigan State in 2004 (82-73 OT) and Indiana in 2006 (54-51) — with the fifth defeat coming to Tennessee in 2005 (62-51). The Purdue loss also snapped a 33-game non-conference home winning streak which began after the UW setback.

Since its inaugural season in 1977-78, Notre Dame has played all of its games at the Joyce Center, posting a 299-79 (.791) record at the venerable facility. Three times (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04), the Irish went a perfect 15-0 at home, setting a school record for home wins in a season. For the third time in four years, and the second consecutive season, Notre Dame will equal the most regular-season home games (16) in school history. However, in 2004-05, the Irish played host to all four rounds of the Preseason WNIT before its regular 12-game home slate began. Notre Dame also will play at least two Preseason WNIT games at home this season, in addition to its previously-scheduled 14-game Joyce Center docket.

Notre Dame On The Small Screen

Notre Dame will have a school-record 22 regular-season games televised during the upcoming 2007-08 season. Highlighting this year's television schedule are nine nationally-televised Irish women's basketball contests, including one appearance on CBS (Jan. 5 vs. Tennessee), four games on the ESPN family of networks, and another four contests on CSTV.

In addition, Notre Dame has expanded its broadcast reach globally on the Internet. All Irish home games (11 regular-season, two exhibition) that have not been selected for commercial TV coverage will be televised live on the official Notre Dame athletics web site, UND.com.

This year's TV slate continues a recent trend that has seen the Irish become a regular fixture on television. Since the start of its 2000-01 NCAA championship season, Notre Dame has played in 92 televised games, including 52 that were broadcast nationally.

Oh Captain, My Captain

Senior guards Charel Allen, Tulyah Gaines and Amanda Tsipis are team captains for the 2007-08 season. Gaines is in her second year as a captain for the Irish, while Allen and Tsipis are first-time captains. All three players received the captain's honor through a vote of their teammates prior to the season.

Joyce Center Arena Renovation On Tap

On Oct. 3, 2007, Notre Dame announced that construction on the Joyce Center arena addition and renovation will begin in September 2008. The University has selected the architects for the project, and they currently are in the process of completing final design plans.

The first phase of the project, to begin next September, involves construction of a new three-story structure at the south end of the arena. That structure will include a new two-story lobby, the Notre Dame ticket operations (approximately 4,500 square feet) and a varsity shop to sell apparel and souvenirs (approximately 3,000 square feet), in addition to a new club seating and hospitality area.

Replacement of the Joyce Center arena seating, including installation of chair-back seating throughout the arena, is expected to take place after the University's Commencement Exercises in May 2009. The project is scheduled for completion in January 2010. The arena is expected to re-open by mid-October 2009, in time for the start of the men's and women's basketball seasons and the end of the women's volleyball season.

The University announced last October that this $26.3 million project had received a $12.5 million leadership gift from Notre Dame alumnus and Trustee Philip J. Purcell III. A month later, another major gift of $5 million from Notre Dame graduate Vincent J. Naimoli was announced.

The arena will be named Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center — and the new club/hospitality area and two outdoor patios will be named for the Naimoli family.

Irish Fans Crave A Big Mac Attack

Notre Dame has introduced a new promotion this season, offering fans a coupon for a free Big Mac from South Bend-area McDonald's restaurants if the Irish score at least 88 points in a game. The coupons are issued at the Joyce Center gates as fans leave the arena following the game.

Next Game: Miami (Ohio)

The Irish tip off the 2007-08 season Friday at 9 p.m. (ET) against Miami (Ohio) in the opening round of the Preseason Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) at the Joyce Center. Notre Dame will be making its third appearance in the Preseason WNIT, winning the title in 2004 and placing third in 1996. Friday's late start is necessitated by the volleyball match (vs. Cincinnati, 4 p.m.) and football pep rally (approximately 6 p.m.) taking place in the arena before the basketball game.

#52 Erica Williamson

Center • 6-4 • So.-1V • Charlotte, N.C. (South Mecklenburg HS)

Overview

Gifted center who already has shown exceptional learning curve ... made impressive strides from opening day of practice all the way into postseason ... eager to learn and improve with inherent ability to quickly grasp new concepts and put them into action ... not affected by high-profile pressure situations, appearing to perform better in such games ... agile post player with good touch around the basket ... also has shown solid mid-range game ... physical presence at both ends of court, ranking among BIG EAST shot blocking leaders ... outgoing personality makes her fan favorite ... should play significant role in Irish rotation this season.

Freshman Season (2006-07)

Effective reserve as rookie, appearing in 31 games ... averaged 6.1 points, 5.3 rebounds and team-best 1.26 blocks per game (ninth in BIG EAST); 39 total blocks were third-most by freshman in school history ... during conference play, ranked among BIG EAST leaders in blocks (11th - 1.13 bpg.) while also pulling down 5.6 rebounds per game ... contributed six points, eight rebounds and five blocks during debut game vs. Central Michigan ... turned in solid game at USC with 12 points (6-10 FG) and nine rebounds ... collected nine points (4-6 FG) and game-high seven rebounds vs. Richmond ... had career-high 15 points (7-8 FG), eight boards and four blocks vs. Prairie View A&M ... stood tall at No. 4 Tennessee with seven points, team-high seven rebounds and two blocks ... recorded first career-double in overtime loss at South Florida, winding up with 11 points and game-high 18 rebounds (most ever by Notre Dame freshman) ... piled up eight points and game-high 11 rebounds against Syracuse ... tallied game-high 12 points and team-best eight rebounds at No. 7/5 Connecticut ... had second consecutive double-figure scoring night with 10 points and game-high eight rebounds at Pittsburgh ... got back into double digits in scoring column at Providence with 10 points and seven rebounds ... scored nine points (3-4 FG, 3-4 FT) against No. 21/22 Rutgers ... had six points (6-6 FT) and game-high seven rebounds in BIG EAST Tournament debut vs. DePaul ... made all three shots from field (six points) in NCAA Tournament debut vs. California, sinking critical basket with 1:37 left to help fuel Irish win.

High School

Averaged 10.0 ppg., 10.4 rpg. and 4.7 bpg. during final two prep seasons ... ranked 89th nationally by All-Star Girls Report ... holds rare distinction of winning state championships in each of final two years in two different states (New York and North Carolina) ... spent senior year at South Mecklenburg High School in Charlotte, N.C., after family relocated in summer 2005 when father changed jobs ... averaged 9.9 points, 8.2 rebounds and 4.0 blocks per game while helping South Mecklenburg to 27-3 record and North Carolina Class 4A state title (school's first in 20 years); named Western Regional MVP of state title game after scoring 13 points in victory ... second-team all-state pick by NCPreps.com ... second-team Charlotte Observer all-area selection ... all-Southwestern 4A Conference choice ... selected to play in Carolinas Classic and Charlotte Pro-Am all-star games ... spent first three prep seasons at Honeoye Falls-Lima High School in Rochester, N.Y. ... as junior in 2004-05, averaged 10.0 points, 12.5 rebounds and school-record 5.3 blocks per game while helping squad to 24-2 record and New York Class A state title (team was state runner-up in 2003-04) ... all-state selection (2005) ... all-area pick (2005) ... three-time all-conference choice (2003, 2004, 2005) ... New York State High School Federation Class A All-Tournament
