FIRST PITCH

The No. 2 Louisville baseball team plays the first of back-to-back ACC road series with a visit to Notre Dame starting Friday at 6:05 p.m., ET at Frank Eck Stadium. The series is also set for Saturday at 4:05 p.m., and Sunday at 1:05 p.m., and all three games will be televised on ACC Network Extra. Radio coverage for the first two games will be available on WXVW 1450 AM/96.1 FM, while 93.9 The Ville will broadcast the finale.

ABOUT THE LOUISVILLE CARDINALS

Louisville enters the weekend on an eight-game winning streak and 39-6 overall after a midweek win against Miami (Ohio) Tuesday at Patterson Stadium. The Cardinals are 17-4 in the ACC after earning a series victory against Duke on April 21-23. Louisville, which set a record for the best start to a season in school history with 19 straight wins, has won each of its 10 weekend series this season, including seven straight against ACC foes.

Brendan McKay, the two-time John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year, leads the Cardinals at the plate and on the mound. McKay is fifth in the nation in on-base percentage at .511, eighth in slugging percentage at .747 and 27th in batting with a .390 average to go with a team-leading 14 home runs and 43 RBI. The three-time ACC Pitcher of the Week also has a 6-3 record with a 2.15 ERA and 95 strikeouts (ninth in NCAA) in 10 Friday starts on the mound. McKay has a 27-10 career record with a 2.07 ERA and 340 strikeouts (second all-time at UofL) to go with a .338 career batting average in 162 starts as a hitter.

Drew Ellis enters the weekend on a 15-game hitting streak while ranking ninth in the nation in batting average at .405, fifth in slugging percentage at .759 and ninth in on-base percentage at .500 to go with 13 home runs and 44 RBI while splitting time between first base and third base. Devin Hairston is batting .322 with a 44 RBI at the plate and has just one error (.994 fielding percentage) while starting all 45 games at shortstop.

Junior Lincoln Henzman leads the Louisville bullpen as the righthander ranks fourth in the nation with 13 saves to go with a 2-0 record, 1.38 ERA and 27 strikeouts in 26.0 innings of work. Junior righty Sam Bordner has also been outstanding delivering 28.0 innings of scoreless relief with 22 strikeouts and just four walks.

ABOUT THE NOTRE DAME FIGHTING IRISH

Notre Dame is 23-23 overall following a midweek win over Northwestern and 10-14 in the ACC after winning two of three against Duke last weekend. The Blue Devils have won five of their last six games and three straight home series. Last season, Notre Dame was 27-27 overall and seventh in the ACC Atlantic with an 11-17 record.

SERIES HISTORY

Louisville is 22-8 all-time against Notre Dame, including a nine-game winning streak in the series. The Cardinals have swept three straight weekend series, including wins of 2-0, 6-4 (18 innings) and 3-0 in the their most recent visit to South Bend in 2015. Louisville is 8-1 all-time at Frank Eck Stadium.

ACC ATLANTIC DIVISION RACE

With three weekends remaining in the regular season, the back-to-back ACC Atlantic champions are atop the division with a 17-4 mark, while Clemson is second at 16-8. Wake Forest is third at 13-8 and is followed by Florida State (11-12), NC State (11-13), Notre Dame (10-14) and Boston College (7-17). North Carolina leads the ACC Coastal with an 18-5 record, five games ahead of second-place Virginia (14-10).

2017 MEDIA GUIDE

The 2017 University of Louisville baseball media guide is available online at GoCards.com.

ABOUT HEAD COACH DAN MCDONNELL

On June 27, 2006, Dan McDonnell, one of the top young minds in college baseball, was named the 18th head coach of the University of Louisville baseball team. And on June 15, 2007, McDonnell and the Cardinals took the field at hallowed Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha for game one of the 2007 College World Series.

Not bad for 353 days on the job.

As the first rookie head coach to lead his team to Omaha in 27 years, McDonnell was named National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com after guiding the Cardinals to a then-school record 47 wins during that 2007 season. He followed that impressive debut season by leading Louisville to eight more NCAA appearances during the next nine years, including back-to-back College World Series berths in 2013 and 2014, as well as seven conference regular season titles and two conference tournament championships. Louisville has hosted 10 different rounds of NCAA postseason baseball in the last 10 years with NCAA Super Regionals in 2007, 2014, 2015 and 2016 as well as six NCAA Regionals in 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016.

In McDonnell's 10 seasons as head coach, Louisville ranks fifth nationally in wins with 456, including a school-record 51 wins in 2013. During the 10-year span, the Cardinals have produced 29 All-Americans, 77 all-conference selections, six conference Pitcher of the Year winners, three conference Player of the Year winners and one conference Freshman of the Year, while 50 Louisville players have signed professional contracts after being selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

The Louisville baseball program experienced another strong season in 2016 as the Cardinals won their second straight ACC Atlantic Division championship, advanced to a fourth straight NCAA Super Regional and reached the 50-win plateau for the fourth time in school history while finishing 50-14 overall. Louisville players received numerous honors and accolades in 2016, highlighted by Brendan McKay becoming the first repeat winner of the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award.

McKay was among seven different Cardinals (Zack Burdi, Devin Hairston, Drew Harrington, Kade McClure, Corey Ray, Nick Solak) earning All-America honors this season setting a single season school record. Louisville also received a pair of ACC awards for the second straight season as Harrington was tabbed as the league's Pitcher of the Year and McDonnell repeated as Coach of the Year.

For the third time in school history and the second straight season, Louisville was chosen by the NCAA Division I Selection Committee as a national seed for the 2016 NCAA Championship. Named as the No. 7 national seed in 2010 and No. 3 national seed in 2015, the Cardinals were in the No. 2 spot in 2016 after leading the nation in RPI top 50 wins with 20 and was second overall in the RPI. The Cardinals finished the season ranked in the top 10 nationally in nine different statistical categories -- hits allowed per 9 IP (2nd), sacrifice flies (3rd), shutouts (3rd), ERA (5th), batting average (6th), doubles (6th), slugging percentage (6th), WHIP (6th) and runs scored (9th).

The Louisville baseball program set a school record with three players selected in the first round of the 2016 MLB Draft, while seven of the team's eight selections were among the first 115 players selected overall. Ray became the highest draft selection ever for the Cardinals going No. 5 overall to the Milwaukee Brewers.

He was joined in the first round by Burdi (No. 26, Chicago White Sox) and Will Smith (No. 32, Los Angeles Dodgers). That trio was followed by Solak (2nd Round, No. 62, New York Yankees), Harrington (3rd Round, No. 80, Atlanta Braves), Blake Tiberi (3rd Round, No. 100, New York Mets), Kyle Funkhouser (4th Round, No. 115, Detroit Tigers) and Lincoln Henzman (31st Round, Seattle Mariners).

McDonnell graduated from The Citadel in 1992 and later completed his master's degree in business administration in 1995. He is married to the former Julie Anne Underwood of Charlotte, N.C. The couple has two sons, Jake and Justin.

LOUISVILLE IN NATIONAL POLLS EVERY WEEK SINCE BEGINNING OF 2012

Louisville, which surpassed its previous high national ranking of No. 2 (in 2016) with the No. 1 ranking on March 13 and March 20, has enjoyed a historic run by remaining ranked in at least one major national poll every week since the release of the 2012 preseason rankings -- the longest such span in school history. Ranked in the top 12 in all six major preseason polls for 2017, the Cardinals have received a preseason top 10 ranking in five straight seasons (2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017) and have earned a preseason national ranking in 10 straight seasons (2008-2017) overall. Louisville has held down the No. 2 national ranking in each of the last six weeks.

MCKAY EQUALS SCHOOL RECORD WITH FOUR HOME RUNS AT EKU

Brendan McKay matched a school record with four home runs and finished with a career-best nine RBI in Louisville's 14-4 win at Eastern Kentucky on April 25. The four home runs equaled the total achieved by Jim LaFountain against Western Kentucky on April 24, 1976. The performance by McKay marked the most home runs by an NCAA Division I player this season, while the nine RBI equaled the third highest total in the nation. McKay's 4-for-5 day at the plate included a two-run homer in the first inning, a two-run bomb in the second, a three-run homer in the fourth and another two-run shot in the ninth. The nine RBI for McKay were the most for a Louisville player since Chris Dominguez had nine RBI in a win over Milwaukee on May 6, 2009.

MCKAY, ELLIS EARN PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS ON MAY 1

Brendan McKay was named ACC Co-Player of the Week on May 1. Additionally, both McKay and Drew Ellis were named as National Players of the Week by Collegiate Baseball newspaper. ACC weekly honors are determined by a vote of a select media panel. This is the sixth career weekly award for McKay (five Pitcher of the Week honors, including three this season, and one Player of the Week award), tying the all-time ACC record for weekly recognition held by Clemson's Kris Benson, Florida State's J.D. Drew, and Paul Wilson, and NC State's Terry Harvey.

McKay and Ellis were among the nine players selected by Collegiate Baseball newspaper as national standouts for the week. Louisville was the only school with multiple players on this week's list.

McKay hit .429 with six home runs, 12 RBIs and a 1.286 slugging percentage as the Cardinals went 5-0 overall during the week. On April 25, he matched a school record with four home runs to go with a career-best nine RBIs in the 14-4 win at Eastern Kentucky. The four home runs is tied for the third most in a game in NCAA history. While hitting safely in all five games for the Cardinals, the first baseman from Darlington, Pennsylvania, capped the week with another multi-home run performance, connecting for two homers and three RBIs in Sunday's 17-2 win against Toledo. On the mound, the lefthander finished with 12 strikeouts in eight innings to earn the victory in Friday's series-opening win against Toledo.

Ellis was outstanding during the week of April 25-30 hitting .611 (11-for-18) with four home runs, two doubles, one triple, seven RBI, .636 on-base percentage and 1.500 slugging percentage for Louisville. The infielder finished with at least two hits in each of the five games, including connecting for a pair of home runs in the 6-4 win over Northern Kentucky on April 26. The Jeffersonville, Indiana native had an extra-base hit in four of the five games and drove in at least one run in four of the games.

MCKAY ON GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD MIDSEASON WATCH LIST

Brendan McKay was named Wednesday to the midseason watch list for the 2017 Golden Spikes Award. The 40-player list was announced by USA Baseball and is the second step in identifying the top amateur baseball player in the nation for the 2017 season. The announcement marked the third consecutive year McKay has been included on the midseason watch list for the Golden Spikes Award. The Darlington, Pennsylvania native was selected as a semifinalist for the award in each of his first two collegiate seasons. The 40th Golden Spikes Award will be presented in partnership with the Rod Dedeaux Foundation on June 29 in Los Angeles.

HENZMAN NAMED TO STOPPER OF THE YEAR MIDSEASON WATCH LIST

Junior righthander Lincoln Henzman was named on April 26 to the midseason watch list for the 2017 National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Award. Among 40 of the nation's top relief pitchers on the watch list, Henzman ranks third nationally with his 13 saves while also accumulating a 1-0 record with a 1.54 ERA and 22 strikeouts in 23.1 innings pitched and 16 total appearances. The Lexington, Kentucky native ranks fourth on Louisville's single season saves leaderboard and sixth in career saves with 16. Previous winners of the award include former Cardinals standout and 2014 recipient Nick Burdi.

MCKAY NAMED ACC PITCHER OF THE WEEK THREE TIMES IN 2017

Brendan McKay earned his third ACC Pitcher of the Week honor on April 17 after receiving the award in back-to-back weeks on March 13 and March 20.

McKay's most recent Pitcher of the Week selection came after he allowed just one hit in eight dominant innings on the mound to lead No. 2 Louisville to a 3-0 victory over Georgia Tech in the series-opening win at Russ Chandler Stadium on April 13. McKay finished with eight strikeouts while surrendering only a fourth inning single to go with two walks to move to 5-2 on the season and 26-9 in his collegiate career.

The second Pitcher of the Week honor was awarded after McKay finished with 12 strikeouts and scattered five singles with one walk in seven shutout innings to move to 4-0 on the season in a win over Boston College on March 17. The first of the three honors came after McKay had a career-high 15 strikeouts while allowing only two hits in seven shutout innings against Pitt on March 10. The 15 strikeouts were two better than McKay's previous high of 13.

NCBWA NAMES MCKAY NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE MONTH FOR FEBRUARY

Brendan McKay was named National Player of the Month for February by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association. McKay had a prolific month, both at the plate and on the mound. In seven games, McKay hit .619 (13-for-21) with a double, three homers and 11 RBI. He had six walks, was hit by two pitches and struck out just once. In two Friday starts, McKay posted wins and a 0.82 ERA in 11 innings. He allowed only six hits and four walks, striking out 14.

FEELING AT HOME INSIDE JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since opening the gates at Jim Patterson Stadium in 2005, the Cardinals have won more than 77 percent of their games in the ballpark posting a 340-95 record (.781 winning percentage), including an impressive 36-3 mark during the 2016 season at the corner of Third and Central. Louisville has won 60 of its last 63 regular season games at Jim Patterson Stadium.

29 CARDINALS ASSIGNED TO MLB, MiLB TEAMS FOR 2017

During Dan McDonnell's tenure as head coach, University of Louisville baseball alumni have consistently made the successful transition from college to professional baseball. A total of 29 former Cardinals were assigned to MLB and MiLB teams to begin the 2017 season. A complete list of #ProCards is available online at gocards.com/probaseballcards.

Since McDonnell's hiring prior to the 2007 season, 50 Louisville players have signed professional contracts after being selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including a school record nine Cardinals in 2010. The 2016 MLB Draft featured a record-setting three first round selections from Louisville and seven total draftees in the first 115 picks overall. Seven former Cardinals appeared in MLB games during the 2016 season, led by Cincinnati Reds outfielder and All-Star Adam Duvall.

SPARGER, SUMMERS AND TAYLOR NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Senior righthanded pitcher Jake Sparger and senior outfielders Ryan Summers and Logan Taylor were selected by Louisville players and coaches as team captains for the Cardinals baseball team in 2017. Sparger had 50 career appearances on the mound in his first three seasons with the Cardinals, including five starts, and accumulated a 3-2 record with a 3.42 ERA. Summers had 37 collegiate starts while appearing in 108 games during his first three years at Louisville. Taylor played in 177 games and made 81 total starts during his first three seasons as a Cardinal.

LOUISVILLE PICKED TO FINISH SECOND IN ACC ATLANTIC IN 2017

Louisville was the second choice in the 2017 ACC Atlantic Division race in a vote of the conference's 14 head coaches, while Florida State was chosen as the favorite to win the division and conference championships. The Seminoles were picked by 10 coaches as the team to beat in the conference. Back-to-back ACC Atlantic Division champion Louisville, Clemson, North Carolina, and NC State also had one vote each for overall conference champion.

Florida State led the way in the Atlantic Division with 93 points, followed by Louisville (79), Clemson (66), NC State (64), Wake Forest (38), and Boston College and Notre Dame (26). The Seminoles were selected as division favorite by 10 coaches, while Louisville (2), Clemson and NC State (1) also picked up first place votes.

Six coaches picked North Carolina to win the Coastal Division, with Virginia (4), Miami (3), and Georgia Tech (1) also had first place votes. The Tar Heels picked up 86 points, ahead of Virginia (84), Miami (77), Georgia Tech (59), Duke (40), Virginia Tech (26), and Pitt (20).

MCKAY NAMED PRESEASON NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Junior Brendan McKay was named preseason National Player of the Year by Collegiate Baseball newspaper. McKay was the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year and earned First Team All-America honors in each of his first two collegiate seasons. As a sophomore, McKay had a 12-4 record with a 2.30 ERA and 128 strikeouts in 17 starts on the mound, while hitting .333 with six home runs, 19 doubles and 41 RBI at the plate. The two-time All-ACC First Team selection also had a stellar summer hitting .326 with five RBI in 13 starts and registering a 2-1 record with a 1.35 ERA and 10 strikeouts in 13.1 innings on the mound for the USA Collegiate National Team.

SUCCESS IN THE CLASSROOM CONTINUES FOR THE CARDINALS

As the Louisville baseball team was making significant progress on the field during its 2016 fall workouts, the Cardinals also maintained their impressive work in the classroom registering a cumulative team GPA of 3.0 or better for the 11th consecutive semester. The notable stretch of academic success has covered five-and-a-half years overall since starting with fall semester in 2011. The span of 11 straight semesters with a team GPA of 3.0 or better includes the 2013 and 2014 seasons, which culminated with back-to-back appearances at the College World Series. In each of those trips to Omaha, the Cardinals received the CWS Academic Award for having the highest team GPA of the eight programs advancing to the pinnacle of collegiate baseball.

LOUISVILLE SLUGGER FIELD TO HOST 2017 ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

The 2017 Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Championship will be played at Louisville Slugger Field in downtown Louisville as announced by the conference on Oct. 4. Louisville Slugger Field, which opened in 2000, boasts a seating capacity of 13,131. Home to the Louisville Bats' minor league team, the stadium played host to the 2008 Triple-A All-Star Game and features 32 private suites in addition to second-level club seating.

"The city of Louisville knows how to host big events, especially sporting events, and I believe all of the ACC teams will enjoy the experience of playing in a great sports town and in a terrific ballpark," said UofL baseball head coach Dan McDonnell. "I'm also excited our fan base will have the opportunity to experience and support the ACC Baseball Championship."

The 2017 ACC Baseball Championship will be the event's first time to be held in the state of Kentucky. It will also be the first year under a new format, as the championship will include 12 teams and feature a pool play format leading into a four-team, single-elimination bracket to determine the league champion.

The 12 teams in the championship will be grouped into four pools of three teams apiece. Pool play will take place Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, with three games per day. Each pool will play a round robin, with the top team advancing to the semifinals. The semifinals will take place on Saturday, followed by the championship on Sunday.

49 OF 56 REGULAR SEASON GAMES SLATED FOR ESPN PLATFORMS

The Louisville baseball team's 2017 television schedule features 49 of 56 regular season games on ESPN platforms, including all 30 ACC contests. The 49 regular season games slated for television coverage are the most in school history. The Cardinals will play once on ESPN2 with their May 14 contest at Clemson and once on ESPNU when they host Florida State in the regular season finale on May 20 at Jim Patterson Stadium. Louisville will make one appearance on the ACC's Regional Sports Network with the March 25 game at NC State, while 45 games will be televised exclusively on ACC Network Extra, available on WatchESPN and the ESPN app. The Cardinals will make one appearance on the SEC Network with their April 18 game at Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, MCDONNELL AGREE ON NEW 10-YEAR CONTRACT

University of Louisville baseball coach Dan McDonnell agreed to a new contract that will keep him as the Cardinals head coach for the next 10 years, UofL Vice President and Director of Athletics Tom Jurich announced on June 1, 2016. McDonnell had five years remaining on his current contract and the new agreement will extend his relationship with UofL through the 2025-26 season. The winningest coach in Louisville baseball history, McDonnell guided the Cardinals to three College World Series appearances, six NCAA Super Regional berths and nine NCAA Championship appearances in his first 10 seasons.

LOUISVILLE AMONG SEVEN TO HOST SIX REGIONALS IN EIGHT YEARS

Louisville is one of just seven Division I schools to have hosted six or more NCAA Regionals over the last eight seasons (since 2009). That list features Florida (7), Florida State (7), Louisville (6), LSU (6), South Carolina (6), TCU (6) and Virginia (6). Additionally, the Cardinals are among just four teams to host in each of the last four seasons (Florida State, LSU and Vanderbilt).

FIVE CONSECUTIVE 40-WIN SEASONS FOR THE CARDINALS

Winning at least 50 games for the fourth time ever in 2016, Louisville reached the 40-win plateau for the fifth straight season and the ninth time in 10 seasons. The Cardinals have registered 40 or more regular season wins in four consecutive seasons, including matching a school record with 46 regular season wins in 2016 equaling the total accomplished in 2010 and 2013.

BACK-TO-BACK ACC ATLANTIC DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIPS

A year after setting the single season record for ACC wins in its debut campaign with a 25-5 conference mark, Louisville successfully defended its Atlantic Division title by winning seven of its 10 ACC series in 2016. The Cardinals, who have won five straight regular season conference championships, have lost just three of their 20 ACC series the last two seasons while compiling a 47-13 record during that stretch, including a 27-3 mark at home.

FIVE STRAIGHT CONFERENCE TITLES IN THREE DIFFERENT LEAGUES

On May 19, 2016, Louisville clinched its second consecutive ACC Atlantic Division championship marking the program's fifth straight regular season conference title across five different leagues. Last season, the Cardinals set an ACC record for regular season wins finishing 25-5 overall to win the Atlantic Division in their debut season in the conference. After finishing with an 18-9 record and sharing the 2012 Big East title with St. John's, the Cardinals stood alone as champions in their final season in the league in 2013. In the program's only season in the American Athletic Conference in 2014, Louisville finished with a 19-5 league record for sole ownership of the inaugural conference title. Overall, the Cardinals have won seven regular season conference titles in 10 seasons under Dan McDonnell.

EIGHT CARDINALS SELECTED IN 2016 MLB DRAFT, INCLUDING SEVEN OF TOP 115 PICKS

The Louisville baseball team set a school record with three players selected in the first round of the 2016 MLB Draft, while seven of the team's eight selections were among the first 115 players selected overall. Outfielder Corey Ray became the highest draft selection ever for the Cardinals going No. 5 overall to the Milwaukee Brewers. He was joined in the first round by pitcher Zack Burdi (No. 26, Chicago White Sox) and catcher Will Smith (No. 32, Los Angeles Dodgers). That trio was followed by infielder Nick Solak (2nd Round, No. 62, New York Yankees), pitcher Drew Harrington (3rd Round, No. 80, Atlanta Braves), infielder Blake Tiberi (3rd Round, No. 100, New York Mets), pitcher Kyle Funkhouser (4th Round, No. 115, Detroit Tigers) and pitcher Lincoln Henzman (31st Round, Seattle Mariners), who returned to UofL for the 2017 season.

SCHOOL RECORD SEVEN CARDINALS CHOSEN AS ALL-AMERICANS IN 2016

The Louisville baseball team set a school record as seven players received All-America honors in 2016. A record-high four members of the Louisville baseball team earned 2016 Louisville Slugger All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball newspaper, marking the first time in school history four Cardinals received All-America recognition from one organization.

Here is the complete list of Louisville's 2016 All-America honorees:

- Zack Burdi (NCBWA First Team, Louisville Slugger Second Team)
- Devin Hairston (ABCA Third Team)
- Drew Harrington (Louisville Slugger First Team, NCBWA First Team, D1Baseball Second Team, Perfect Game Second Team)
- Kade McClure (NCBWA First Team, Perfect Game Third Team)
- Brendan McKay (ABCA First Team, Baseball America First Team, D1Baseball First Team, NCBWA First Team, Perfect Game Second Team, Louisville Slugger Third Team)
- Corey Ray (ABCA First Team, D1Baseball First Team, NCBWA First Team, Perfect Game First Team, Baseball America Second Team, Louisville Slugger Second Team)
- Nick Solak (D1Baseball Second Team, NCBWA Second Team, Perfect Game Second Team, Baseball America Third Team)

HARRINGTON NAMED ACC PITCHER OF THE YEAR, MCDONNELL REPEATS AS COACH OF THE YEAR

Junior lefthander Drew Harrington was named 2016 Atlantic Coast Conference Pitcher of the Year and Dan McDonnell received his second straight ACC Coach of the Year award as the Cardinals led the way with nine All-ACC honorees, including five first team selections. Harrington became the sixth Louisville player in the last 10 seasons to earn conference pitcher of the year honors as the Cardinals claimed two of the ACC's four major awards for the second consecutive season. The Cardinals also registered five All-ACC First Team selections for the second straight year as Harrington was joined by relief pitcher Zack Burdi, outfielder Corey Ray and two-way standout Brendan McKay, who was named to the first team as both a starting pitcher and designated hitter/utility player. Second baseman Nick Solak was tabbed as a second team honoree, while catcher Will Smith, shortstop Devin Hairston and third baseman Blake Tiberi received third team accolades. Additionally, infielder Devin Mann was named to the ACC All-Freshman team.

CARDINALS SET SCHOOL RECORD WITH 11 SHUTOUTS IN 2016

With its 2-0 win over No. 10 NC State on May 13, the Louisville baseball team set a school record with its 11th shutout of the season breaking the previous mark of 10 during the 2010 season. The Cardinals closed the season ranked third nationally with the 11 shutouts, while five of those shutouts have come against ACC foes. The starting pitcher breakdown in those 11 shutouts included four each for Drew Harrington and Brendan McKay, two for Kade McClure and one for Kyle Funkhouser.

LOUISVILLE STEALS HOME IN BACK-TO-BACK SEASONS

Under head coach Dan McDonnell, Louisville has earned a reputation for being among the nation's most aggressive teams on the bases and that approach has helped the Cardinals steal home in each of the last two seasons. On March 16, 2016, Logan Taylor capped Louisville's five-run fifth inning against Wright State by stealing home in a play that landed at No. 3 on the SportsCenter Top 10 the following morning. Even more amazing is that Taylor's accomplishment marked the second time in 11 months the Cardinals had stolen home as Corey Ray achieved the feat on April 18, 2015 against Wake Forest.

Not only did Ray steal home, but he did it in the bottom of the ninth to score the game-winning run and complete a series sweep of the visiting Demon Deacons. Moments after the Cardinals had tied the game on a wild pitch, Ray charged down the third base line sliding around the attempted tag and across home plate. The play was featured at No. 8 in on the SC Top 10 on April 19 and was also used by ESPN during its opening segment of SportsCenter that morning.

The person with the best view of the two swipes of home was Will Smith, who was at the plate for each of the dramatic plays. Who better to hold his ground in the box as a teammate came sliding across the plate than Louisville's primary catcher each of the two seasons.

"THE SHIRT"

For Louisville baseball players, "The Shirt" has become a source of pride and accomplishment in the Cardinals' clubhouse. Awarded to a player who had an outstanding performance or made a key play in a Cards' victory, "The Shirt" was an honor coach Dan McDonnell introduced to the program in 2007.

Prior to each game, a new shirt hangs in the Cards' dugout with a number on the back of it representing the team's next win. Following the game, McDonnell awards the shirt to his key contributor for that Louisville victory.

For 2017, the message on "The Shirt" is "RUN TOWARDS THE ROAR" with inspiration from the book Chase the Lion, written by Mark Batterson. Continuing the trend from the "Help the Helper" theme in 2013, after Coach McDonnell awards the shirt to a player for his contribution that day, that player then gives it to a teammate or member of the program he believes was most deserving on that day. Below is the winners of "The Shirt" from Coach McDonnell and who those players then chose to be the final recipients.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since its opening in 2005, Jim Patterson Stadium has provided the University of Louisville baseball program with one of the great home field advantages in all of college baseball. With an initial seating capacity of 2,500 upon opening, the ballpark underwent an expansion project prior to the 2013 season increasing capacity to more than 4,000 and maintaining Jim Patterson Stadium as one of the elite facilities in the nation.

Spearheaded by the leadership gift of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson, the privately funded expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was a $4 million facility development plan which featured the addition of 1,500 chair back seats, a 6,400 sq. ft. terrace directly accessible above the chair back seats and a two-tiered ground level terrace extending from the first and third base dugouts. The project also included an expanded press box, which doubled the previous space used to facilitate media and hospitality, and a visiting team locker room behind the third base dugout.

The expansion doubled the number of chair back seats taking the total to 3,000 while the overall capacity of more than 4,000 places Jim Patterson Stadium among the Top 30 of university controlled collegiate ballparks in the nation. The increased seating enables Louisville to host NCAA Regional and Super Regional games without the additional expense of temporary bleacher rentals. Since its opening, Jim Patterson Stadium has hosted six NCAA Regionals (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016) and four NCAA Super Regionals (2007, 2014, 2015, 2016).

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinals battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

Along with the 3,000 chairback seats, Jim Patterson Stadium has a tiered, turf berm in left field. The press box features an expanded television suite, two radio booths, game operations booth, an expanded seating area for non-broadcast media, an AD suite and a development suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center. Prior to the 2015 season, the University of Louisville partnered with ANC Sports for the installation of a new LED video board in right-centerfield at Jim Patterson Stadium. The all-digital surface more than quadrupled the size of the previous video space and measures 36-feet wide and 23-feet tall.

The playing surface is FieldTurf, same as the Tampa Bay Rays' Tropicana Field, as well as Louisville's Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The playing field was completely resurfaced in the summer of 2013 providing the Cardinals with one of the nation's best surfaces. The exterior of the ballpark has elements that mirror UofL's nearby football facility.

The adjacent building along the first base side of the ballpark houses the baseball offices, while the basement of the building features three pitching/batting cages, full club house facilities with a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, weight room, equipment room, computer lab, training room and laundry facilities.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field, and infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound. The 2008 off-season included a complete reconstruction of the left field berm, with terracing giving the fans a place for a lawn chair or blanket. Children of all ages can enjoy the playground beyond the fence in centerfield.

The Cardinals have won more than 75 percent of their games at Jim Patterson Stadium since opening the gates during the 2005 season. Of the eight NCAA postseason rounds contested at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Louisville baseball program has advanced through six of those, including sweeping the 2014 NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional to clinch the program's second straight College World Series appearance and the third trip to Omaha overall. In NCAA Championship games at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Cardinals have produced a 19-6 record overall.

Admission to most home games at Patterson Stadium is free, and all areas of the park are accessible to those with physical disabilities.
