Storylines

- ◆ Notre Dame is 12-1 against first-time opponents since 2000-01 and has won 12 consecutive home games vs. new foes.
- ◆ The Irish have limited their last five opponents to 58.8 points per game.

After playing twice in the past three weeks, Notre Dame will see its schedule kick back into high gear, beginning Thursday when it plays host to Prairie View A&M in a 4 p.m. (ET) contest at the Joyce Center. It's the first of three games in six days for the Irish, who will visit Tennessee Saturday and close the stretch with their BIG EAST opener at Seton Hall.

The Irish went into the Christmas holiday on a high note, earning a 60-59 victory at Valparaiso on Dec. 19. For the second time in as many road games, Notre Dame used clutch free throw shooting in the final seconds to pull out a victory — senior guard Breona Gray did the honors this time around on her foul shot with 1.2 seconds left. The Irish led almost the entire way against the Crusaders, but couldn't quite shake the hosts, who have been traditionally-tough opponents for Notre Dame.

Junior guard Charel Allen led a trio of Irish players in double figures with 18 points and a team-high eight rebounds. Junior center Melissa D'Amico chipped in 12 points and eight rebounds, while freshman guard Ashley Barlow also scored 12 points and grabbed six boards.

Setting The Standard

Under the guidance of 20th-year head coach Muffet McGraw, Notre Dame has evolved into one of the country's leading women's basketball powers. The Irish have appeared in 13 NCAA Tournaments (including a current streak of 11 in a row) and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 six times in the previous 10 years. Notre Dame also has reached the NCAA Women's Final Four twice, winning college basketball's ultimate prize with the 2001 national championship.

In its history, Notre Dame has developed eight All-Americans, nine WNBA players (including six draft picks in the past six years) and four USA Basketball veterans (eight medals won). Now in their 30th season in 2006-07, the Irish own an all-time record of 601-269 (.691).

A Quick Look At The Fighting Irish

Only six weeks into the 2006-07 season, the growth of the Notre Dame women's basketball team already is evident, and the best may be yet to come.

With a young and inexperienced roster that has only two seniors and is missing its top returning scorer from a year ago, the Irish have had to learn on the run — and run is exactly what they have done this season. Notre Dame is averaging 69.8 points per game thus far, a significant improvement over the previous five Irish squads, none of which has averaged better than 66.3 points per night.

Of course, the Irish have traditionally hung their hat on their defense, a trait that is much harder to master and takes a bit longer. On the one hand, Notre Dame's aggressive style has rattled opponents, causing 22.0 turnovers per game (including a BIG EAST-best 12.1 steals per night). However, the flip side has seen the Irish allow opponents to shoot .416 from the floor (.377 from the three-point line), while the Irish claim just an 0.7 rpg. edge on the boards), the two areas Notre Dame will continue to focus on as it closes out its non-conference schedule.

Junior guard Charel Allen has been one of the main offensive catalysts for the Irish to this point, averaging a team-high 14.4 ppg., while scoring in double figures in nine of 11 outings to date. The Monessen, Pa., native, who was limited last year while recovering from knee surgery in the summer of 2005, also is collecting 5.5 rebounds per game (second on the team) and was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Dec. 4 after averaging 18.0 ppg. and 6.0 rpg. against Richmond, Michigan and Indiana.

Allen's classmate and backcourt running partner, Tulyah Gaines, is an early candidate as one of the conference's most improved players. The speedy Gaines has assumed the large footprint left at the point by All-American (and WNBA Draft pick) Megan Duffy and has stoked the Notre Dame offensive fire to an even hotter level, averaging 10.5 points and 3.4 assists per game with a .506 field goal percentage. Gaines, who came into the season with a 3.7 ppg. career scoring average, has twice score 20 points in a game this year, including a career-high 25 points in a Nov. 13 overtime win vs. Bowling Green.

Another Irish junior, 6-foot-5 center Melissa D'Amico, continues to make strides in the post. The second-year starter is averaging 10.6 points and 5.3 rebounds per game with a .571 field goal percentage (fifth in the BIG EAST), and has looked even better of late, averaging 12.1 points and 6.4 rebounds per game with a .586 field goal percentage. She also earned a spot on the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Dec. 18.

The most pleasing contributions of the year for Notre Dame to this point have come from its freshmen, three of whom have seen significant playing time. Guard Ashley Barlow is fourth on the team in scoring (10.4 ppg.) and tops in steals (2.4 spg., fifth in BIG EAST), and came up with a 19-point, 10-rebound effort vs. Bowling Green, including 11-of-12 free throws and the two clinchers with 3.8 ticks left in OT. Center Erica Williamson (5.7 ppg., 4.9 rpg., 1.2 bpg.) is proving to be a capable understudy to D'Amico, amassing season highs of 12 points and nine rebounds at USC. And, guard Melissa Lechlitner (4.5 ppg., 2.5 apg.) has shown little drop off at the point behind Gaines, registering five assists in a game twice this year, and carding a season-high 11 points (including 3-of-4 three-pointers) at Penn State.

Around the BIG EAST

- three Joyce Center sellouts of 11,418 (most recently on Dec. 31, 2005 vs. Tennessee).
- For the sixth time in school history, Notre Dame has been selected to host NCAA Tournament action, as the Joyce Center will be the site of NCAA Tournament first- and second-round games in 2010. In four of the five previous instances, Notre Dame was involved in NCAA Tournament play, going 6-1 all-time and advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16 three times (2000, 2001, 2004), with only a first-round loss to Minnesota in 1994 blotting the resume. Notre Dame also hosted the 1983 NCAA Midwest Regional at the Joyce Center, with Georgia defeating Tennessee, 67-63 in the regional final.
- The Irish have become a regular fixture in the WNBA Draft in recent years, as six Notre Dame players have been selected in the past six seasons. All-America guard Megan Duffy was the most recent Irish player to be chosen, going to the Minnesota Lynx in the third round (31st overall pick) of the 2006 WNBA Draft. Other active Notre Dame players in the WNBA during the 2006 season included Ruth Riley and Jacqueline Batteast (league champion Detroit Shock), while Niele Ivey sat out this year as a free agent, rehabilitating an injury after previously playing with Indiana, Detroit and Phoenix. Riley's WNBA title with Detroit was her second (she was the 2003 WNBA Finals MVP), while Batteast earned her first pro crown this year.
- Notre Dame has been an elite program in the classroom as well. The Irish posted a perfect 100-percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR), according to figures released by the NCAA in October 2006. Notre Dame was one of 16 Division I-A programs to achieve this distinction, and one of only two BIG EAST programs (Syracuse is the other). Furthermore, since Muffet McGraw became the Irish head coach in 1987, every Notre Dame women's basketball player that has completed her athletic and academic eligibility at the University has graduated.

A Quick Look At Prairie View A&M

Based in Prairie View, Texas (near Houston), Prairie View A&M comes to town with a 2-7 record, having lost its last seven games after beginning the year with back-to-back victories. The Lady Panthers also will be playing the eighth game in a rugged 11-game, five-week road trip that has seen them visit four other states (Indiana is the fifth) and will not have PVAMU returning home until Jan. 6.

Prairie View A&M opened its campaign at home with wins over Texas A&M-Commerce (77-73) and Nicholls State (76-37). However, during their current seven-game losing streak, the Lady Panthers are allowing 82.9 points per game while scoring 60.7 points a night. The two closest calls for PVAMU of late have been a 77-74 loss at North Texas on Nov. 28, and a 96-90 double-overtime setback to Houston on Dec. 15 at USC's Women of Troy Classic in Los Angeles.

Prairie View A&M has been off since Dec. 19, when it dropped an 89-55 decision at Missouri.

The Lady Panthers led by as many as five points (21-16) halfway through the first period, but Missouri responded by scoring 43 of the next 53 points in a 16-minute stretch to take control. Freshman forward Gaati Werema scored a game-high 17 points and freshman guard Shakeya Johns came off the bench to add 15 points for PVAMU, which shot 33.3 percent from the field and was outrebounded, 53-35.

Junior guard Shavonne Smith leads Prairie View A&M in scoring this season at 15.8 points per game, while shooting a team-best .385 from three-point range. Meanwhile, Werema is averaging a double-double (15.1 ppg., 10.2 rpg.) in her first collegiate campaign.

Cynthia Cooper-Dyke, a four-time WNBA champion with the Houston Comets and member of that league's All-Decade Team, is in her second season as the head coach at Prairie View A&M, sporting a 9-28 (.243) record with the Lady Panthers. Thursday will mark her first-ever meeting against Notre Dame.

The Notre Dame-Prairie View A&M Series

Thursday's game will be the first-ever matchup between Notre Dame and Prairie View A&M in women's basketball.

Other Notre Dame-Prairie View A&M Series Tidbits

- Prairie View A&M is the second of two first-time opponents for Notre Dame this season. The Irish defeated IUPUI, 75-65 in their first-ever meeting back on Dec. 16 at the Joyce Center.
- Notre Dame is 32-5 (.865) against first-time opponents since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96. That includes a 12-1 (.923) record since the start of the 2000-01 season and a current seven-game winning streak. What's more, the Irish have won 12 consecutive home games against new opposition since an 87-64 loss to Connecticut on Jan. 18, 1996.
- Notre Dame and Prairie View A&M have met only once before in any sport. The Irish men's basketball team defeated the Panthers, 89-52 on Dec. 10, 1997 at the Joyce Center. However, the Notre Dame baseball team is slated to open its 2007 season (its first under new head coach Dave Schrage) against Prairie View A&M on Feb. 17 at Wolf Stadium in San Antonio, Texas.
- Notre Dame previously has faced six other schools from the state of Texas, going 5-5 against the Lone Star State (2-0 at the Joyce Center). Four of those 10 games occurred during the NCAA Tournament, with the Irish going 2-2 in those contests (1-0 vs. Texas, 1-2 vs. Texas Tech). The 1997 win at Texas

- The last time the Irish faced a Texas-based school, they lost at Rice, 72-61 on Dec. 28, 2001. The Owls also were the most recent Texas school to visit the Joyce Center, falling to Notre Dame, 80-40 on Dec. 31, 2000, in what was Muffet McGraw's 300th victory as the Irish head coach. The only other Texas team to play in South Bend was TCU, which lost to Notre Dame, 78-67 on Dec. 13, 1990.
- Notre Dame associate head coach Coquese Washington and Prairie View A&M head coach Cynthia Cooper-Dyke were teammates with the WNBA's Houston Comets during the 2000 season, helping that franchise win its fourth consecutive league championship.
- Notre Dame has had three Texas natives on its all-time roster. Kelly Hicks (Bandera, Texas) played for the Irish from 1977-80, while Ellen Mouch (Mineral Wells, Texas) saw action in five games for Notre Dame as a walk-on during the 1986-87 season. Most recently, shot-blocking specialist Amanda Barksdale (Friendswood, Texas) spent three seasons with the Irish from 1999-2002 and was a member of Notre Dame's NCAA national championship squad in 2001.

Notre Dame vs. The Southwestern Athletic Conference

Notre Dame has faced a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) opponent only once before in its 30-year history. On March 17, 2001, the Irish doubled up Alcorn State, 98-49 at the Joyce Center in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. It would be the first of six consecutive postseason victories for Notre Dame, culminating with the program's first national championship two weeks later.

Put Away The Presents

Notre Dame is 5-0 all-time when playing at home in its first game after the Christmas break. Overall, the Irish are 18-11 (.621) in such games, including a current three-game winning streak. Exactly one year ago on Dec. 28, 2005, Notre Dame returned from the Yuletide holiday to post a wire-to-wire 58-50 victory over Valparaiso at the Joyce Center.

Poise Under Pressure

The Irish are 4-1 this season in games decided by 10 points or less, including a 3-1 record when the margin is five points or fewer. Going back the previous two seasons (2004-05 to present),

Notre Dame is 11-5 in five-point games and 24-8 in 10-point contests — with three of those eight losses coming in overtime.

Four times this season, the Irish have sent a player to the free throw line with less than four seconds remaining in regulation or overtime and the game hanging in the balance. In those clutch situations, Notre Dame is 7-for-8 at the charity stripe, with the only miss being a semi-intentional one by senior guard Breona Gray on the second of two tries with 1.2 seconds to go in a 60-59 win at Valparaiso on Dec. 19.

Clutch When It Counts

Notre Dame is shooting 74.2 percent from the foul line (46-of-62) this season inside the final five minutes of regulation and overtime.

Upon closer inspection, the Irish have gotten some of their most critical free throw production from their freshmen — guards Ashley Barlow and Melissa Lechlitner are a combined 17-of-18 (.944) at the charity stripe down the stretch.

Playin' With The Boys

For the fourth time this season, the Irish will be playing the front end of a day-night double-header with the Notre Dame men's basketball team when they take the court Thursday vs. Prairie View A&M (the Irish men will play host to

First Meeting

Prairie View A&M Series

Rider at 8 p.m.). This year, the Notre Dame hoops teams have swept all three of their previous twinbills (Nov. 10, Nov. 19 and Dec. 16) with one more scheduled for Feb. 24 (women vs. Rutgers, men vs. Marquette).

Keeping The Home Fires Burning

Notre Dame has been largely solid at home this season, going 6-1 due in part to an explosive offense that has averaged 77.1 points per game on the Joyce Center hardwood. Led by junior guard Charel Allen (14.3 ppg.), the Irish also have four players scoring in double figures through their seven home games and are shooting .464 from the floor in front of the Notre Dame faithful.

Staying Close To Home

Thursday's game will close out a seven-game stretch for Notre Dame (covering exactly one month), during which time the Irish will play five home games and travel only twice (bus trips to Michigan on Dec. 1 and Valparaiso on Dec. 19).

Inside this span of games was a run of four consecutive matchups against in-state opponents from Dec. 3-19. Indiana tipped off that stretch on Dec. 3, followed by Purdue (Dec. 6), IUPUI (Dec. 16) and Valparaiso (Dec. 19) to wrap things up. This block of consecutive in-state opponents was an extreme rarity for Notre Dame — to wit:

- Last time played four in-state opponents in same season: 2002-03 (Purdue [twice], Valparaiso, IPFW)
- Last time played four in-state opponents in regular season: 1993-94 (Butler [twice], Evansville [twice], Purdue)
- Last time played in-state opponents in consecutive games: Dec. 11 & 21, 1996 (Indiana and Valparaiso)
- Last time played four consecutive in-state opponents: Feb. 23-March 1, 1980 (Grace, Goshen, Huntington, Goshen); came in program's last year as Division III member

Riding The Long Island Express

Junior center (and Long Island native) Melissa D'Amico is showing signs of continuing the superb progress she made last season. After nearly tripling her scoring and rebounding outputs from her rookie season (up to 5.9 ppg., 3.7 rpg.), D'Amico is at it again, ranking second on the Irish roster in scoring (10.6 ppg.) and third in rebounding (5.3 rpg.), while leading the team in field goal percentage (.571, also fifth in BIG EAST) and blocked shots (1.3 bpg., also 12th in BIG EAST).

D'Amico has been particularly sharp of late, averaging 12.1 points and 6.4 rebounds per game with a .586 field goal percentage (41-of-70) in Notre Dame's last eight outings. She also has scored in double digits five times in that span (including a career-high-tying 20-point effort vs. IUPUI) and logged her first double-double of the year with 15 points and 10 rebounds against Indiana.

Contribute Early, Contribute Often

Notre Dame's freshman class has wasted little time in making its presence felt this season. Three of the Irish rookies — guards Ashley Barlow and Melissa Lechlitner, and center Erica Williamson — make up the team's primary bench rotation, with all three averaging at least 14 minutes per game, all three having scored in double figures at least once, and Barlow has posted a double-double already this season (19 points, 10 rebounds vs. Bowling Green).

Barlow also is fourth on the team in scoring (10.4 ppg.) and ranks among the BIG EAST Conference leaders in both free throw percentage (first at .927, also 11th in NCAA) and steals (fifth at 2.4 spg.). Williamson is carding 5.7 points and 4.9 rebounds per game and ranks 14th in the BIG EAST with 1.2 blocks per game. And, Lechlitner is logging 4.5 points and 2.5 assists per night with six three-pointers (tied for third on the squad).

The Five-Finger Discount

Notre Dame's aggressive defense has forced 22.0 turnovers per game this season, logging 20-or-more takeaways in nine of 11 games — the lone exceptions were by Bowling Green (19) and Valparaiso (15). In addition, the Irish caused an opponent season-high 30 turnovers at Michigan on Dec. 1, the first 30-turnover outing by the Notre Dame defense since Feb. 25, 2004 (37 turnovers by Miami at the Joyce Center).

The Irish also lead the BIG EAST Conference (and rank 20th in the nation) with 12.1 steals per night. In fact, Notre Dame has posted double-digit steal totals in eight of 11 games this season (and never fewer than seven in one game), with freshman guard Ashley Barlow committing the most larcenies to date (26, 2.4 per game, fifth in BIG EAST) and leading four Irish players with at least 20 steals this season.

Barlow recorded a combined 11 steals vs. Western Michigan (six) and at USC (five). That made her the first Notre Dame player with back-to-back five-steal games since March 30-April 1, 2001, when Niele Ivey did so against Connecticut (five) and Purdue (six) at the NCAA Women's Final Four in St. Louis.

Defense Wins Championships

Notre Dame has stepped up its defensive intensity in the past five games, holding its opponents to an average of 58.8 ppg. while forcing 21.6 turnovers per night.

The Irish also hold a special distinction, as they held the nation's leading scorer (Western Michigan's Carrie Moore) to her second-lowest output of the season, limiting her to 18 points in an 87-67 Notre Dame win on Nov. 19. In fact, it is one of only three times all season Moore has been held below 20 points — the others were vs. Marquette (19) and Temple (2). Moore currently is averaging 27.9 ppg. this season.

Making Adjustments

The Irish have been particularly sharp after halftime this season, averaging 39.0 ppg. in the second half and outscoring opponents by an average of nearly five points in the period. Notre Dame also has come back to win after trailing at halftime twice this season — vs. Bowling Green and Purdue (teams that currently are ranked in both major national polls).

Game #11 Recap: Valparaiso

For the second time in less than three weeks, Notre Dame pulled out a tough road victory with clutch free throw shooting in the final seconds. This time, senior guard Breona Gray was the hero, canning the first of two free throws with 1.2 seconds remaining to lift the Irish past Valparaiso, 60-59 on Dec. 19 at the Athletics-Recreation Center in Valparaiso, Ind. It was the third consecutive win and fifth in the past six games for Notre Dame, although this victory was the closest for the Irish in the 20-game series with the Crusaders (of which Notre Dame has won each time out).

Junior guard Charel Allen returned to double figures after a two-game offensive dry spell, registering team highs of 18 points and eight rebounds, the latter total just one off her career best. Junior center Melissa D'Amico chipped in 12 points and eight rebounds despite playing much of the second half in foul trouble. Off the bench, freshman guard Ashley Barlow continues to provide a spark, contributing 12 points, six rebounds and a career-high-tying four assists at Valparaiso.

Betsy Rietema led all scorers with 22 points for the Crusaders, while Agnieszka Kulaga was the only other player in double digits for the hosts, scoring 10 points.

Playing its first road game since a memorable final-minute comeback win at Michigan on Dec. 1, Notre Dame (8-3) looked sluggish, turning the ball over on four of its first five possessions. However, as would be the case most of the night, the Irish relied on their defense to overcome their offensive shortcomings, forcing Valparaiso to miss 16 of its first 18 shots from the floor (a .111 field goal percentage). Barlow came in early and dropped in a pair of buckets to help ignite a 10-2 run that put Notre Dame in front, 15-7 just past the midway point of the first half.

Valparaiso (4-6) came back with eight unanswered points to level the score, but the Irish rebuilt their eight-point lead later in the period, going in front by a 28-20 count on Allen's jumper with a minute to go. But, the Crusaders trimmed their deficit in half by the break, as Sarah Ott knocked down two free throws and Sanna Helenius beat the halftime horn with a baseline jumper.

Notre Dame tried again to break free with four of the first five points in the second half. And again, Valparaiso had a response, as Carrie Myers drained three-pointers on consecutive possessions and Rietema added a triple of her own to give the hosts their first lead since the opening minute of play, 36-35 with 14:24 left. Myers buried her third trey of the second half less than a minute later to give the Crusaders (as it turned out) their largest lead of the night at 39-37, but Gray came back with a three-pointer of her own, rattling in a bomb from the corner at the 13:06 mark to put the Irish in front.

Gray's three sparked a 9-2 run, a spurt that Valparaiso countered with its own 8-2 charge, leaving the hosts back in the lead by a scant 49-48 margin with 8:26 remaining. However, on the next trip down, Allen found all cotton on her 15-foot jumper and Notre Dame never trailed again. Still, the Irish couldn't quite shake the pesky Crusaders, leading 57-53 inside the final two minutes when Rietema single-handedly brought her team back with six consecutive points, hitting a foul shot and a transition layup, then following D'Amico's putback with an old-fashioned three-point play that knotted the score at 59-all with 25.3 seconds left.

Notre Dame called timeout before Rietema's tying free throw, setting up its play for the final possession. The initial look was to go to Allen, but when the Valparaiso defense collapsed on her, the lanky Irish wing smartly found a cutting Gray on the right block and Crusader forward Aimee Litka could do nothing but commit the foul to prevent an uncontested layup with 1.2 seconds to go. Gray then stepped to the stripe, made her first charity, and then after Valparaiso burned its final timeout, she missed her second free throw, allowing the Crusaders no chance to get a shot off before time expired.

Noting The Valparaiso Win

- Coming into the game, Breona Gray had attempted just two foul shots inside the final five minutes of a game this season — and she had missed them both.
- Notre Dame has won five of its last six games against Valparaiso by 10 points or less, including its last three visits to north-west Indiana.
- The Irish have been responsible for three of the Crusaders' 14 home losses (in 69 home games) in the past six seasons.
- Notre Dame went into the Christmas break on a winning note for the 11th consecutive season.
- The Irish have held four of their last five opponents to less than 60 points after not doing so once in their first six games of the year.
- Notre Dame limited Valparaiso to an opponent season-low .368 field goal percentage; conversely, the Irish posted their best road field goal percentage of the season (.453).
- Notre Dame's bench outscored its Valparaiso counterparts by an 18-11 count, marking the ninth time in 11 games the Irish have won the battle of second units (8-1 record).
- Notre Dame concludes a four-game stretch against in-state opponents with a 3-1 record, defeating Purdue, IUPUI and Valparaiso, while losing a narrow three-point decision to Indiana.

Injury Bug Bites Irish Early

Sophomore guard Lindsay Schrader will miss the 2006-07 season after suffering a torn ACL in her right knee during practice on Oct. 15. Schrader underwent corrective surgery on Oct. 27, with the normal rehabilitation timeline extending 6-9 months.

Schrader was to be Notre Dame's top returning scorer and rebounder this season, after averaging 10.5 points and 5.4 rebounds per game during her rookie campaign in 2005-06.

2006-07: The Anniversary Season

- 2006-07 marks the 30th season of Notre Dame women's basketball, with the Irish having compiled an all-time record of 601-269 (.691) since making their varsity debut in 1977-78. Actually, Notre Dame spent its first three seasons at the Division III level, playing under the banner of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (IAIW) before making the move to Division I status in 1980-81 (the NCAA began sponsoring a women's basketball championship the following season). The Irish have an overall Division I record of 552-249 (.689).
- This year also represents Muffet McGraw's 20th season as the head women's basketball coach at Notre Dame and her 25th campaign overall, including her five-year run at Lehigh (1982-87). McGraw's record is a stellar one — she is 437-170 (.720) at the helm of the Irish and has a career record of 525-211 (.713) in her silver anniversary season on the sidelines.
- In addition, Notre Dame is celebrating the 35th anniversary of women's athletics at the University during the 2006-07 season. All Irish women's sports teams will hold events to commemorate this milestone during their respective seasons. What's more, all Notre Dame women's teams are sporting special 35th anniversary logo patches on their uniforms for the '06-07 campaign.

Notre Dame Ranked 11th In Preseason BIG EAST Coaches' Poll

According to a preseason poll of the BIG EAST Conference coaches, Notre Dame will finish 11th in the conference this season. Those were the results released at the league's annual Media Day Oct. 26 at the ESPN Zone in New York's Times Square. The Irish earned 108 points, while reigning BIG EAST Championship victor, Connecticut (221 points, 11 first-place votes) was tabbed first, ahead of regular-season champion Rutgers (215 points, five first-place votes). The BIG EAST sent 11 teams to the postseason last year, including seven NCAA Tournament qualifiers (Notre Dame was one).

The Irish are beginning their 12th season as a member of the BIG EAST Conference in 2006-07. The Irish have gone 145-39 (.788) all-time in regular-season conference games, posting the best winning percentage in league history. Connecticut is second with a .783 success rate. Notre Dame also has finished among the top three in the final BIG EAST regular-season standings nine times in its first 11 seasons in the conference, including a share of the BIG EAST title in 2000-01.

Half And Half

During the past seven seasons, Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable when it has the lead at halftime. The Irish are 114-10 (.919) since the start of the 2000-01 campaign when they go into the dressing room with the lead, including wins in 42 of their last 46 such contests. Five times this year, Notre Dame has led at the break, going on to win each time (Central Michigan, Western Michigan, Richmond, IUPUI and Valparaiso).

The Best Offense Is A Good Defense...

During the past 12 seasons, Notre Dame has discovered that a solid defensive effort can almost certainly guarantee a victory. In fact, since the beginning of the 1995-96 season (Notre Dame's first in the BIG EAST Conference), the Irish have an amazing 162-10 (.942) record when they hold their opponents below 60 points in a game. Notre Dame has held four of its last five foes to less than 60 points, and is 3-1 in those games (wins over Michigan, Purdue and Valparaiso; loss to Indiana).

...But Sometimes You Have To Score If You Want To Win

Not resting solely on its defensive laurels, Notre Dame also seemingly has found the magic mark when it comes to outscoring its opponents. During the past 12 seasons (1995-96 to present), the Irish are 95-3 (.969) when they score at least 80 points in a game. The only blemishes on that record are a pair of overtime losses to Texas A&M (88-84) and Michigan State (87-83) in 1995 and a 106-81 loss to Connecticut in 1998. Notre Dame has topped the 80-point mark four times this season, winning on each occasion (Central Michigan, Bowling Green, Western Michigan and Richmond).

Now That's A Home Court Advantage

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's success has been its stellar play at home. In fact, the Irish have been virtually untouchable at home in recent years, winning 141 of their last 158 games (.892) at the 11,418-seat Joyce Center, including winning streaks of 51 and 25 games in that span. Notre Dame also has a 80-12 (.870) record in BIG EAST Conference play at the Joyce Center, sporting a 31-game league winning streak at home before it ended with a 48-45 loss to Villanova in the '02 home finale.

The Irish have been particularly strong when it comes to non-conference games at home, winning 63 of their last 68 non-BIG EAST contests (.926) at the Joyce Center, dating back to the 1994-95 season. Four of the losses in that span came at the hands of Big Ten Conference opponents — Wisconsin in 1996 (81-69), Purdue in 2003 (71-54), Michigan State in 2004 (82-73 OT) and Indiana this year (54-51), with the fifth defeat coming to Tennessee last year (62-51). The Purdue loss also snapped a 33-game non-conference home winning streak which began after the UW setback.

Since its inaugural season in 1977-78, Notre Dame has played all of its games at the Joyce Center, posting a 291-78 (.789) record at the venerable facility. Three times (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04), the Irish went a perfect 15-0 at home, setting a school record for home wins in a season. The 2006-07 campaign will tie for the most regular-season home games (16) in school history, although in 2004-05, the Irish played host to all four rounds of the Preseason WNIT before its regular 12-game home slate began.

Jammin' The Joyce

Beginning with its national championship season of 2000-01, Notre Dame has ranked among the top 20 in the nation in attendance each of the past six years. This season looks to be no exception, as the Irish currently are ninth in the nation in average attendance (6,501 fans per game), according to the latest unofficial weekly rankings compiled by the University of Wisconsin Sports Information Office.

What's more, each of the top 20 women's basketball crowds in Joyce Center history have occurred during the 20-year tenure of head coach Muffet McGraw (1987-present), with 19 of those 20 occurring in the past seven seasons (2000-01 to present). Lastly, the Irish have attracted at least 5,000 fans to 85 of their last 87 home games, including 15 contests with at least 8,000 fans and the first three sellouts in the program's history (two in 2000-01, one in 2005-06).

Oh Captain, My Captain

Senior guard Breona Gray and junior guard Tulyah Gaines will serve as team captains for the 2006-07 season. Both players are serving as captains for the first time in their respective careers, and each received the captain's honor following a vote of their teammates prior to the season.

States of Grace

Notre Dame is one of 12 schools in the country to have more than one player on its roster who was named a high school Player of the Year in their home state. Irish junior guard Tulyah Gaines was tapped as the 2004 Gatorade Nevada Player of the Year, while sophomore guard Lindsay Schrader was chosen as the 2005 Illinois Miss Basketball and Illinois Gatorade Player of the Year.

Notre Dame On The Small Screen

Notre Dame will have 11 of its regular-season games televised during the 2006-07 season. Highlighting this year's television docket are five nationally-televised Irish women's basketball contests, including a pair of games on the ESPN family of networks a week apart in early February.

This year's TV slate continues a recent trend that has seen the Irish become a regular fixture on television. Beginning with the NCAA championship season of 2000-01 and continuing through this year, Notre Dame has played in 74 televised games, including 46 that were broadcast nationally.

Notre Dame made its 2006-07 television debut Nov. 16 when its road opener at Penn State aired live on College Sports Television (CSTV). That was the first of three Irish women's basketball broadcasts for the national cable network, with the second coming Jan. 23 at Marquette (8 p.m. CT tip) and the third coming in the regular-season finale on Feb. 26 at DePaul (8 p.m. CT). The latter two contests are part of the BIG EAST-CSTV Game of the Week package, now in its second season. Counting the Penn State contest, CSTV now has aired 12 Notre Dame women's basketball games during the past five seasons, with the first being that network's inaugural broadcast of any sport (a Feb. 2003 game at Connecticut).

The Irish also are scheduled to make two appearances on the ESPN family of networks, beginning with a Feb. 4 home game against West Virginia that will be broadcast live on ESPNU and will start at 5:30 p.m. (ET). The following Sunday (Feb. 11), Notre Dame will play host to DePaul for a 5:30 p.m. (ET) game that will air on ESPN2 as part of that network's "February Frenzy" split-national coverage designed to preview a similar coverage pattern for the NCAA Tournament. During the past six seasons, Notre Dame has appeared on the ESPN family of networks 28 times, averaging nearly five telecasts per year on "The Worldwide Leader in Sports".

In addition, Notre Dame will play in five regionally-televised games this season. The first of those took place Dec. 6, when the Irish defeated No. 10/9 Purdue at the Joyce Center in a game seen live on Comcast Local (based in Detroit). On Saturday, Notre Dame will venture to Tennessee for a 2 p.m. (ET) contest at Thompson-Boling Arena that can be seen live on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast. And, on Jan. 27, the Irish will visit Connecticut for a 7 p.m. (ET) matchup that will be carried live on Connecticut Public Television (CPTV).

Notre Dame will appear twice on the BIG EAST-Regional Sports Network (RSN) package this season with contests at South Florida (Jan. 13, noon ET) and home against Rutgers (Feb. 24, noon ET). SportsNet New York will serve as the flagship for the BIG EAST package, with additional clearances to be announced at a later date.

The other televised game for the Irish was a local broadcast (WHME-TV in South Bend/Lakeshore Public Television in Chicagoland) of the Dec. 19 contest at Valparaiso.

Fall Signees

University of Notre Dame head women's basketball coach Muffet McGraw announced Nov. 8 that three of the country's top high school student-athletes have chosen to continue their academic and athletic careers with the Irish, each signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Notre Dame beginning in the fall of 2007. Becca Bruszewski, a 6-1 forward from Valparaiso, Ind. (Wheeler High School), Brittany Mallory, a 5-10 guard from Baltimore, Md. (McDonogh School) and Devereaux Peters, a 6-2 forward from Chicago, Ill. (Fenwick High School) all made their official commitments to the Irish during the early signing period.

All three student-athletes are rated among the top 100 players in the country by Blue Star Basketball, with that outlet also ranking the Notre Dame incoming class of 2007 as the No. 11 group in the nation. It marks the 11th consecutive year that the Irish have attracted a Top 25 recruiting class, a streak only two other programs in the country (Connecticut and Tennessee) can match.

"I think we've done a tremendous job of addressing our needs with the addition of these three ladies," McGraw said. "We're getting some very skilled offensive players who will fit well into our system. There's a good balance between perimeter shooting and rebounding, and I think rebounding was the area that we felt was our biggest need. What I also like about these players is that they're smart, competitive athletes who catch on to new ideas and concepts quickly. They're all should complement our current team very well and we're excited to have them join our program next year."

Academics

Notre Dame Student-Athletes Rank Among Nation's Best

Whether measured by the federal government in its Department of Education report or by the NCAA through its newer Graduation Success Rate (GSR) numbers, graduation rates for Notre Dame student-athletes again rank among the national leaders in all major categories among all Division I-A football-playing colleges and universities, according to statistics released Nov. 9 by the NCAA.

The federally-mandated NCAA Graduation-Rates Report, the 16th such survey issued by the association, covers students who enrolled between 1996 and 1999 at all Division I institutions. The NCAA bases graduation rates on the raw percentage of student-athletes who entered an institution and graduated within six years. Students who leave or transfer are considered non-graduates. All those receiving athletics aid are included in the statistics.

Using the federal formula, Notre Dame graduated a four-year average of 89 percent, behind Duke at 90 percent, and ahead of Stanford and Northwestern (88 percent).

Notre Dame ranks second among Division I-A football schools (and also among all 318 I-A programs) on another scale, called the GSR, which was instituted two years ago by the NCAA. The University's 98 percent GSR for all its student-athletes is second only to the 99 percent of the United States Naval Academy, which is exempt from the federal survey because it does not offer grants-in-aid to student-athletes.

The GSR was created to more accurately reflect actual graduation rates by including transfer data in the calculation. College and university presidents asked the NCAA to develop a new methodology that takes into account the mobility among students in today's higher education environment.

Among 627 student-athletes who completed all four years of athletic eligibility at Notre Dame from among those entering over a 10-year period from 1990-91 through 1999-2000, 99 percent earned their degrees.

Notre Dame graduated 94 percent of all women competing in varsity athletics, to rank second (tied with Duke), behind only Northwestern's 95 percent rate among its peer institutions based on the federal calculations. Notre Dame also graduated 75 percent of its black student-athletes.

In the GSR standings, Notre Dame finished second among all student-athletes at 98 percent (behind only the U.S. Naval Academy at 99), fourth among black student-athletes at 91 percent (behind the Naval Academy at 96, Northwestern at 93 and Wake Forest at 93) and tied for fourth among female student-athletes at 99 percent (Vanderbilt, Northwestern and the Naval Academy finished at 100).

Academic All-Americans

Entering the 2006-07 academic year, Notre Dame ranks second in the nation with 176 Academic All-America® selections, including 14 last year alone. The Academic All-America® Program is administered by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), whose membership votes on the award winners, and the program is sponsored this year by ESPN The Magazine.

The Notre Dame women's basketball program has produced five Academic All-America® honorees in its 30-year history, with those five players winning a total of seven citations. In addition, two-time first-team Academic All-America® pick Ruth Riley was tapped as the 2001 Academic All-America® Women's Basketball Team Member of the Year, as well as the Academic All-America® Team Member of the Year. Riley also is one of only 10 student-athletes in Notre Dame history to earn All-American and Academic All-America® honors twice in her career.

Last year, Megan Duffy was named a first-team Academic All-America® selection, becoming the second Irish player ever to attain that distinction. Duffy graduated in May 2006 with a 3.576 grade-point average (GPA) and a degree in psychology and computer applications from Notre Dame's College of Arts and Letters. She also garnered Dean's List honors in four of her final five semesters (spring 2004, fall 2004, spring 2005, fall 2005).

air on commercial radio in South Bend, and for the seventh year in a row, Notre Dame can be heard on the flagship station of the Artistic Media Partners (AMP) Network — WDND-AM (ESPN Radio 1490) in South Bend. Veteran broadcaster and AMP sports director Sean Stires is now in his seventh season handling the play-by-play for Notre Dame. The Irish also can be heard free of charge on the Internet at Notre Dame's official athletics web site (www.und.com).

Irish Debut Free Video Coverage

In the latest instance of the wide-ranging media avenues afforded the Notre Dame women's basketball program, the Irish will have several of their 2006-07 home games televised free of charge through the official Notre Dame athletics web site (www.und.com). Thanks to the considerable efforts of CSTV Online (based in Carlsbad, Calif.) and its new Fighting Irish All-Access package, fans of Notre Dame women's basketball can watch every minute of exciting action at the Joyce Center live from the comfort of their own homes. The video will be supplemented by an audio simulcast of the Notre Dame radio broadcast, led by veteran sportscaster Sean Stires.

This free service is limited to those home games that have not been selected for broadcast by other TV outlets. The Irish have been televised on und.com twice this season (Indiana and IUPUI), with the remainder of this year's Internet video broadcast schedule to be announced at a later date.

Joyce Center Arena Renovation On Tap

On Oct. 5, Notre Dame announced plans for a nearly $25 million renovation of the Joyce Center arena, including new chairback seating, a four-sided digital video scoreboard, and a club/hospitality area (as part of a new two-story addition to be built on the south side of the facility).

The $24.7 million renovation project has been underwritten with a $12.5 million leadership gift from Philip J. Purcell III, a Notre Dame alumnus and Trustee, and the retired chairman and CEO of Morgan Stanley. Upon completion, the arena will be known as Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center. The Purcell gift, combined with other benefactions, including a $5 million gift from 1959 Notre Dame graduate and Tampa Bay Devil Rays owner Vince Naimoli, brings the total contributions to the project to $22 million.

In accordance with University policies for new construction, work on the renovation will begin after the project is fully funded and designed. The University is actively seeking additional contributions.

The contest will be broadcast live to a regional audience on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast, with Comcast SportsNet Chicago airing the game on a delayed basis Sunday at 2:30 a.m. (ET).

Tennessee (11-1) is ranked fourth in both major national polls this week and will be playing its first game after the Christmas holiday. The Lady Vols last took the court on Dec. 22 at Old Dominion, downing the Lady Monarchs, 75-59, behind 32 points and 10 rebounds from sophomore forward Candace Parker.

NOTES: Notre Dame now is 22-8 (.733) all-time in season openers, including a 12-game winning streak that corresponds exactly with the program's membership in the BIG EAST Conference ... the Irish are 28-14 (.667) against Mid-American Conference schools, with a 17-4 (.810) mark at home; Notre Dame also has won its last 11 games against current MAC members ... the 88 points scored by the Irish are their highest point total since Nov. 12, 2004, when they defeated Illinois State, 92-73 in the opening round of the Preseason WNIT at the Joyce Center; coincidentally, that also was the earliest season opener in program history prior to this evening ... Notre Dame's .839 free throw percentage was its best with a minimum of 10 attempts since Feb. 19, 2005, when the Irish connected at an .857 rate (18-of-21) in a loss at Rutgers ... Notre Dame improves to 110-10 (.917) when leading at the half since the start of the 2000-01 season ... the Irish also are now 92-3 (.968) when scoring at least 80 points during the past 11-plus seasons (1995-96 to present) ... Notre Dame's crowd of 6,702 was the second-largest season-opening audience in program history, topped only by a gathering of 7,960 on Nov. 18, 2001 vs. Valparaiso (the day the Irish raised their 2001 NCAA championship banner to the rafters) ... Notre Dame is 58-4 (.935) against non-conference opponents at the Joyce Center, dating back to the 1994-95 season ... junior center Melissa D'Amico registered the second "point-a-minute" game of her career — she had a career-high 20 points in 18 minutes vs. Arkansas State on Dec. 17, 2005 at the Duel in the Desert in Las Vegas; sophomore forward Chandrica Smith was just as efficient with a career-high 11 points, but her nine minutes played just missed the minimum threshold of 10 minutes to qualify for record-keeping ... Smith's previous scoring high was nine points at Rutgers on Jan. 24, 2006.

Notre Dame had two 20-point scorers in the same game for the first time since March 21, 2005, when Megan Duffy scored 24 and Jacqueline Bateast tallied 20 in a 70-61 loss to Arizona State in the second round of the NCAA Tournament at Fresno, Calif. ... Ashley Barlow's 19 points narrowly missed giving the Irish three 20-point scorers for the first time since Jan. 7, 1999 vs. West Virginia (Danielle Green 28, Sheila McMillen 26, Ruth Riley 23 in 111-90 win) ... Tulyah Gaines' previous career scoring high was 14 points in an overtime win at Cincinnati on Feb. 25, 2006 ... D'Amico's only other previous double-double came on Nov. 27, 2005 against USC at the Joyce Center (13 points, 10 rebounds); it's also the second double-double of the year for Notre Dame after Barlow's 19-point, 10-rebound effort vs. Bowling Green ... D'Amico also previously had 10 rebounds at Georgetown on Jan. 21, 2006 ... Allen grabbed a career-high nine rebounds for the fourth time in her collegiate tenure, most recently doing so against Utah on Dec. 18, 2005 at the Duel in the Desert in Las Vegas ... the Indiana game marked just the second time all year the Irish didn't have at least three double-figure scorers (also at USC on Nov. 24) ... the Notre Dame bench was held to a season-low eight points and was outscored for just the second time all year (Irish have lost both games) ... the crowd of 9,494 was the sixth-largest in program history and the 15th time Notre Dame has drawn a crowd of 8,000 fans or more.

Notre Dame had two 20-point scorers in the same game for the second time this year — Tulyah Gaines had 25 and Charel Allen had 21 vs. Bowling Green on Nov. 13 ... Tulyah Gaines posted her second 20-point game of the year after coming in with a career high of 14 points and just five double-figure scoring games in her career ... Notre Dame debuted new alternate home uniforms (white with green trim and blue lettering), marking the first time the Irish had ever played a regular-season home game with green on their uniforms — they did sport all green jerseys for their NCAA Tournament openers in 2000 (vs. San Diego) and 2001 (vs. Alcorn State), both of which were played at the Joyce Center and both of which took place on St. Patrick's Day.
