OHIO STATE SERIES:

Game 1 - Friday, March 2: Sophomore goaltender Steven Summerhays (Anchorage, Alaska) stopped a career-high 33 shots and Notre Dame got two goals from senior Billy Maday (Burr Ridge, III.) in a 2-0 shutout win over Ohio State in game one of the best-of-three first round CCHA playoff series. The shutout was Summerhays' second in a row as he also shutout Michigan State, 2-0, on Feb. 24. Ohio State out shot the Irish in the game, 33-30. For Maday, the two-goal game was his first of the year and fifth of his career. He put Notre Dame ahead, 1-0, at the 9:08 mark of the first period. Linemate Mike Voran (So., Livonia, Mich.) took a puck off the left wing boards and fired a shot at OSU goaltender Cal Heeter. Heeter made the stop with the rebound landing in front of the crease. Maday drove on the goal and the puck bounced off his shin pad past Heeter for his 10th of the season. He would get his second of the night at 2:50 of the second period, just 17 seconds into an Irish power play. Defenseman Sam Calabrese (Jr., Park Ridge, III.) moved the puck from the left circle to the right point to freshman Robbie Russo (Westmont, III.) Russo whipped a shot towards the goal that Anders Lee (So., Edina, Minn.) deflected off Heeter. The rebound landed on Maday's stick on the left side of the crease and he tucked the rebound home for his 11th of the season. The Irish were 1-for-4 on the power play while Ohio State was 0-for-5. Heeter finished with 28 saves in the game.

Game 2 - Saturday, March 3 - For the second night in a row, sophomore goaltender Steven Summerhays made 30-plus saves and four different players got on the scoresheet as Notre Dame defeated Ohio State, 4-2 on Saturday night in front of 4,202 at the Compton Family Ice Arena. Jeff Costello (So., Milwaukee, Wis.), Anders Lee, Mike Voran and Billy Maday scored for the Irish who rallied from a 2-1 first-period deficit with two goals in the second and one in the third on the way to the victory. Sean Duddy and Danny Dries scored the Ohio State goals. After blanking the Buckeyes on Friday night for his second straight shutout, Summerhays had his confidence tested early as the Buckeyes broke through at 4:35 of the first period with the game's first goal as Duddy whipped a shot from the right face-off circle over his glove. Notre Dame answered back at 9:20 as defenseman Kevin Lind (So., Homer Glen, III.) turned an errant Ohio State pass into a goal by Costello. A Buckeye clearing attempt came up the left wing boards in the neutral zone where Lind picked it off. He went cross-rink to Costello at the Ohio State blue line where the sophomore left wing took the puck and snapped a shot from the right circle that beat OSU goaltender Cal Heeter over his glove hand to tie the game at 1-1. The goal was Costello's fifth of the season. Ohio State had an answer for that goal as the Buckeyes converted on the power play at 17:19, for their only power-play goal in 10 chances on the weekend. Dries picked up his 13th goal of the season of a nice set up from defenseman Curtis Gedig. Whatever confidence OSU gained by getting that goal was wiped out just 2:08 into the second period when Bryan Rust (So., Novi, Mich.) set up Lee in the slot and the big left winger wasted no time burying the puck behind Heeter for his team-best 16th goal of the season. The Irish took the lead for good at 8:57 of the second stanza on Voran's fifth goal of the season to make it 3-2. Maday won a draw in the left circle to David Gerths (So., Ankeny, Iowa). Gerths carried the puck to the slot and took a shot that was blocked. He grabbed the rebound and shot again with Heeter making the stop. Voran was at the top of the crease and the puck hit him in the hands and went off a Buckeye defender past Heeter for the goal. From there, the Irish clamped down defensively, holding Ohio State at bay through the remainder of the second and all of the third as Summerhays made 20 of his 33 stops in the final two periods. As time wound down, the Buckeyes were called for boarding with 2:38 left in the game. They pulled Heeter in goal for an extra attacker but Maday sealed the win when he grabbed a loose puck at center ice and fired it into the empty net at 19:09 for his 12th of the season and third of the weekend for the 4-2 final score. The goal came on the power play, as the Irish were 1-for-4 with the man advantage while OSU was 1-for-5.

AN IRISH SWEEP: The sweep of the Buckeyes was the first sweep for Notre Dame since knocking off Alaska - November 11-12 - at the Compton Family Ice Arena. The four-goal outburst by the Irish was the first game with three or more goals since a 4-2 win at Alaska on Jan. 28, a span of 10 games.

PITCHING A SHUTOUT: Notre Dame goaltender Steven Summerhays made a career high 33 saves in the 2-0 shutout of Ohio State on March 2. The shutout was the first for Summerhays in the post season and the first for a Notre Dame goaltender in the playoffs since March 14, 2009 when Jordan Pearce '09 blanked Nebraska-Omaha, 1-0, in game two of a second-round series. Pearce also had a shutout in game one of that series, a 5-0 blanking of the Mavericks. Notre Dame now has six shutouts in CCHA playoff action in the 22 years that the Irish have been members of the CCHA.

TWO IN A ROW: Goaltender Steven Summerhays recorded his second consecutive shutout in the 2-0 win over Ohio State on March 2. His two shutouts came after he was lifted from a game on Feb. 11 after 5:24 of the first period, giving up two goals on five shots in a loss at Miami. The back-to-back shutouts are the first for a Notre Dame goaltender since March 13-14, 2009 when Jordan Pearce '09 blanked Nebraska-Omaha in back-to-back playoff games. The back-to-back shutouts are the first for the Irish since Oct. 16 and Oct 23, 2009 when Mike Johnson (Jr., Verona, Wis.) shutout Providence, 2-0, at the Joyce Center and Brad Phillips blanked Boston University in Boston, 3-0.

HOT HAND: Sophomore goaltender Steven Summerhays has a three-game winning streak in goal for the Irish since Feb. 24. During that span, he has given up two goals for a 0.67 goals against average. He has stopped 89-of-91 shots in that span for a .987 save percentage. On the year, he is now 10-6-0 with a 2.47 goals-against and a .908 save percentage with two shutouts.

A SCORING CHAMPION: Sophomore center T.J. Tynan closed out the 2011-12 CCHA schedule with a short-handed goal in the 4-2 loss to Michigan State to give him nine goals and 20 assists for 29 points in 28 CCHA games. That was good for a share of the CCHA scoring title along with Michigan State's Torey Krug. With the co-championship, Tynan became the first Irish player to win a CCHA scoring title in the 22 seasons that the team has been a member of the conference. He is just the second Notre Dame player to win a conference scoring crown as he joins Eddie Bumbacco '74 who won the WCHA scoring title in the 1972-73 season with 31 goals and 34 assists for 65 points in 28 league games.

TWO IN A ROW: T.J. Tynan now has 41 points overall for Notre Dame on 13 goals and 28 assists, giving him 40 or more points in each of his first two seasons at Notre Dame. He is the first Irish player to put together back-to-back 40-point campaigns since David Bankoske '93 recorded a 56-point season in 1989-90 and a 49-point campaign in 1990-91.

COLD, HARD FACTS: Notre Dame's 4-2 win over Ohio State on March 3 marked the first time since Jan. 28 that Notre Dame scored three or more goals in a game. In the month of Februay, the Irish were 2-6-0, scoring just 10 goals.

When Notre Dame scores two or less goals in a game, the Irish are 3-13-3. When they score three or more in a game, the Irish are 16-3-0.

IRISH VERSUS TOP-RANKED TEAMS: Notre Dame has played 23 games to date versus ranked teams and has a record of 9-11-3 in those contests. In games against the top six teams in this week's USCHO.com poll, the Irish are a combined 6-5-0.

1. Boston College (1-0) 2. Ferris State (1-3) 3. Minnesota-Duluth (1-1) 4. Michigan (1-1) 5.Minnesota (1-0) 6. Boston University (1-0)

ALL-ROOKIE TEAM: Freshman defenseman Robbie Russo (Westmont, III.) has been named to the 2011-12 CCHA all-rookie team. Russo is second among Irish defensemen in scoring with four goals and 11 assists for 15 points. His 15 points tie him for 15th among CCHA freshmen in scoring but he is the top freshman defensive scorer. For the Irish he is the 14th player named to the CCHA all-rookie team and is the first Irish defenseman since Kyle Lawson '10 in 2006-07 to be named to the all-rookie team.

FIRST TEAM ALL-CCHA: Sophomore center T.J. Tynan has been selected first team all-CCHA for the 2011-12 season. The conference's leading scorer, Tynan is the first Irish player selected first team since defenseman lan Cole was chosen in 2008-09. To date, the Irish have had four players chosen first team -Tynan, Cole, goaltender David Brown '07 and defenseman Benoit Cotnoir '99. Tynan is the first Notre Dame player to be chosen all-CCHA twice in his career in the 22 years that the Irish have been in the CCHA. He is joined by Jack Brownschidle '77 as the only Notre Dame players selected to two all-conference teams in their careers. Brownschidle was a first team all-WCHA choice in 1976 and 1977. Tynan's current linemate - Anders Lee - was an honorable mention choice this season after being a second team choice in 2010-11.

CENTURY CLUB: Senior center Billy Maday finally became a member of Notre Dame's "Century Club," on Sat., Feb. 25 when he assisted on Anders Lee's power-play goal. He is now 42nd on the all-time scoring list with 45 goals and 59 assists for 104 points. For the season, Maday is third on the team with 12 goals and 14 assists for 26 points. Inching closer to the 100-point mark is sophomore center T.J. Tynan who enters the Michigan series with 36 goals and 59 assists for 95 points in just 81 career games.

ROAD DOGS: The Irish have now lost three in a row on the road to fall to 6-8-3 away from the Compton Family Ice Arena. In CCHA contests, the Irish are 4-7-3 away from Compton Arena. Notre Dame's three non-league road games came at Minnesota- Duluth (a split) and at Minnesota (a win).

CLASS OF THE CLASS: Notre Dame senior defenseman Sean Lorenz has selected as one of 10 finalists for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award that honors student athletes who excel both on and off the ice and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. Lorenz is a three-time monogram winner for the Irish and serves as one of Notre Dame's alternate captains in 2011-12. He is coming off a career year as a junior (2010-11) for the Irish where he played in 44 games with career highs in goal (4), assists (11) and points (15) while being +33 on the year. He also was the CCHA defensive, defenseman of the year and the winner of Notre Dame's William Donald Nyrop Award as the team's top defenseman. Lorenz This season, Lorenz is second among Irish defensemen in scoring with three goals and 10 assists for 13 points and two game-winning goals. The Irish have had six players in the six-year history of the award make the list of 10 finalists. Former Notre Dame goaltender David Brown '07 won the award in 2007.

HOME SWEET HOME: Notre Dame has closed out its home schedule and finished the year with a 12-7-0 mark in its first 19 games at the new Compton Family Ice Arena and 13-8-0 on home ice this season. In the 19 games played at the Compton Family Ice Arena this season, Notre Dame has played in front of 11 sellout crowds of 5,022, including seven of the last nine games. In the first 19 games at the CFIA, the Irish drew have drawn 91,078 for an average of 4,793 per game.

THE KIDS ARE ALRIGHT: Freshman right wing Austin Wuthrich (Anchorage, Alaska) leads Notre Dame rookies in scoring with seven goals and 10 assists for 17 points. That ties him for 11th in the CCHA among freshman scorers. Rookie defenseman Robbie Russo (Westmont, III.) is right behind him with four goals and 11 assists for 15 points. That ties him for 15th among CCHA rookies in scoring and makes him the top scoring rookie defenseman in the CCHA this season. He also is tied for 9th in the CCHA among power-play scorers with four goals and eight assists for 12 points. Wuthrich was recently ranked 73rd among North American skaters in the NHL Central Scouting's mid-term rankings. Wuthrich also is the answer to a Notre Dame trivial pursuit question - Who scored the last goal in the Joyce Center? Austin Wuthrich at 18:35 of the third period on Oct. 15.

CRAZY TRAIN: Junior goaltender Mike Johnson has followed the same track as the Irish in this up-and-down 2011-12 season. Johnson has had a personal-best 10-game unbeaten streak (7-0-3), followed by a personal-worst five-game losing streak from Nov. 26 through Jan. 27. On Jan. 28, he snapped that streak with a 4-2 win at Alaska and went on a two-game winning streak.

Since a Feb. 3 win over Bowling Green, Johnson has lost four in a row. For the season, Johnson is now 9-10-3 with a 2.68 goals-against average and a .883 save percentage. He needs just one more win to become the seventh goaltender in Notre Dame history to win 40 games in his career. Johnson also was selected as Notre Dame's CCHA scholar-athlete of the year and is now a finalist for the conference's top scholar award that will be presented on March 15 at the Fox Theatre in Detroit.

POWER-PLAY POINT PRODUCERS: The Notre Dame roster includes five of the CCHA's top 15 power-play point producers this season. Leading the way is center T.J. Tynan who leads the conference with 19 points (5g, 14a) on the power play. He is followed in a tie for third by left wing Anders Lee who has seven goals and eight assists for 15 points. Center Riley Sheahan is tied for fifth with14 power-play points (5g, 9a) along with senior forward Billy Maday with seven goals and seven assists for his 14 points. Freshman defenseman Robbie Russo is tied for ninth with 12 points on four goals and eight assists.

OVERTIME MAGIC: Five of Notre Dame's nine games during the month of November ended in overtime. In those games, the Irish were 2-0-3. Prior to the 2-2 tie with Western Michigan on Nov. 22, the Irish defeated Boston College, 3-2, in overtime. They also have an overtime win against Alaska (Nov. 12) and ties at Northern Michigan (Nov. 4-5). The tie with Western Michigan extended Notre Dame's unbeaten streak in overtime to 26 games (7-0-19) with the streak going back to March 21, 2008 when the Irish lost in overtime (2-1) to Miami in the CCHA semifinals. The Irish have not lost a CCHA regular-season game in overtime since a Jan. 8, 2005, 2-1 loss at Lake Superior. Last season, Notre Dame was 2-0-5 in overtime and this year the Irish are 2-0-3.

PAT ON THE BACK: Senior center Patrick Gaul (Pittsburgh, Pa.) is in the midst of his best season with the Irish as he now has career highs in goals (2), assists (5) and points (7). In 31 games this season, Gaul has seven points after scoring just three points (a goal and an assist) in the first 48 games of his career.

SECONDARY SCORING: Two players that the lrish count on for secondary scoring have found the back of the net in recent weeks. Sophomore Jeff Costello has scored twice in his last four games since returning from an injury that sidelined him for seven games. Costello now has five goals and six assists for 11 points. He leads the lrish with three game-winning goals this season. Fellow sophomore Mike Voran snapped a 17-game, goal-scoring drought on March 3 when he scored the game winner in the 4-2 win over Ohio State in game two. Voran has a goal and an assist in his last two games. For the year, he has five goals and four assists for nine points.

LEFTY SMITH: Former Irish head coach and college hockey coaching legend, Charles "Lefty" Smith passed away on Tuesday, Jan. 3 from natural causes. The 81-year old Smith was a native of South St. Paul, Minn., and was planning on traveling with the Irish to the Hall of Fame game last weekend to attend a dinner in his honorheld by the Notre Dame Club of Minnesota. Smith was hired to serve as the first head coach of the Notre Dame varsity hockey program in 1968 and served as head coach for 19 years, retiring in 1987 with 307 career wins. Under his tutelage, Notre Dame produced six All-Americans -- Eddie Bumbacco (1973), Bill Nyrop (1973), Jack Brownschidle (1976, 1977), Brian Walsh(1977), Greg Meredith (1980) and Kirt Bjork(1983)--and finished second in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA) twice (1972-73, 1976-77). He was named WCHA coach of the year following the 1972-73 season. In 1981-82, the Irish moved to the Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA) where Smith guided the Irish to the Great Lakes Invitational Championship and the CCHA championship game that season. Among players on that team was former Irish head coach Dave Poulin (current vice president of hockey operations for the NHL Toronto Maple Leafs). Smith remained the head coach through the 1986-87 season and retired with a career record of 307-320-30. In his 19 seasons, all 126 players who played for him completed their collegiate eligibility and earned college degrees. Smith served two years as president of the American Hockey Coaches Association (AHCA) and also coached the Central team at the 1978 National Sports Festival. Eight members of that team would go on to be members of the gold-medal winning 1980 United States Olympic team. In 1992 he was inducted into the Minnesota Hockey Coaches Association Hall of Fame and in 2003 was named a "Legend of Hockey" by the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Foundation. Smith and longtime Irish assistant Tim McNeill combined to start the Irish Youth Hockey League that first brought youth hockey to the South Bend area. Born Jan. 5, 1930, Smith got his start in coaching in South St. Paul, Minn., where he was instrumental in developing the fabled South St. Paul high school program before moving to South Bend. A 1951 graduate of St. Thomas University, where he was a standout hockey and baseball player, Smith became an assistant coach at South St. Paul in 1953 and took over as head coach in 1958. He remained there until 1968, turning in a record of 201-69-11 before leaving to coach the varsity hockey program at Notre Dame. Smith and his late wife Mickey (Mary McNally of New Richmond, Wis.) are the parents of seven living children (the Smiths were preceded in death by a son Greg), 16 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

LONG, LONG TIME: Notre Dame's 4-3 win at Minnesota on Jan. 7 was the first win for the Irish against the Gophers since Nov. 8, 1980, a 6-5 win at Williams Arena. That was the final game the two teams played as members of the WCHA. After that game, the teams have met just three times in 31 years with Minnesota taking all three games.

NATIONAL LETTERS-OF-INTENT: Irish head coach Jeff Jackson announced on Nov. 30 that Notre Dame has signed five student-athletes to national letters-of-intent. The five are: Thomas DiPauli (Woodridge, Ill.), Sam Herr (Hinsdale, III.), Vince Hinostroza (Bartlett, III.), Mario Lucia (Plymouth, Minn.) and Justin Wade (Aurora, III.). DiPauli is a 5-10, 183-pound center who currently plays for the USA Under-18 team in Ann Arbor, Mich. Herr (pronounced Hair) is a 6-1, 192-pound left wing who is in his second season with the USHL's Green Bay Gamblers. Hinostroza is a 5-10, 170-pound center who is in his second season with the USHL's Waterloo Blackhawks. Lucia is a 6-3, 195-pound left wing who currently plays for the Penticton Vees in the British Columbia Hockey League. He is the son of University of Minnesota hockey coach and former Notre Dame defenseman, Don Lucia, a 1981 graduate. Wade rounds out the group and is a 6-2, 210-pound defenseman who is playing for the Fargo Force in the USHL. Those five join Steven Fogarty (Edina, Minn.) and Andy Ryan (Brighton, Mich.) who signed letters-of-intent last year but deferred attending Notre Dame until the fall of 2012. In the recent NHL Central Scouting mid-term rankings, DiPauli was ranked 72nd among North American skaters, Hinostroza is 137th and Wade is 166th. FOR OPENERS: The season-opening loss to Minnesota-Duluth, Notre Dame is now 21-21-2 in all-time season openers. In road season openers Notre Dame falls to 17-23-4 for the 44-year history of the program. After knocking off Ohio State at the Joyce Center on Oct. 14, the Irish are now 25-18-1 all-time in the home opener.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE: Freshman forward Peter Schneider (Vienna, Austria) will become the third European to play at Notre Dame when he takes the ice for the Irish this season. A native of Vienna, Austria, Schneider played last season in the United States Hockey League (USHL) for the Indiana Ice. With the Ice, he had 30 goals and 24 assists for 54 points in 55 games. He joins Swedish natives Calle Ridderwall '11 and Robin Bergman as the three Europeans to play at Notre Dame. Ridderwall spent four years with the Irish (2007-11) while Bergman played part of the 2007-08 campaign. In 16 games with the Irish this season, Schneider has four assists.

CONFERENCE CALL: The Hockey East Association and the University of Notre Dame announced on Wednesday, Oct. 5 that the Fighting Irish have been accepted into the league as the 11th member school and will begin play in the 2013-14 campaign. The announcement came at a press conference on the ice at Notre Dame's new Compton Family Ice Arena.

In making the announcement, Hockey East commissioner Joe Bertagna said, "It is not an overstatement to say that this is one of the most significant days in the history of our conference. The addition of new institutions is always exciting but Notre Dame brings a unique set of qualities and circumstances to the continued growth of our league. We are proud to welcome Notre Dame into the fold and we look forward to getting to the many details that come with this announcement."

Notre Dame Vice President and Director of Athletics Jack Swarbrick said, "We are excited to be joining Hockey East beginning in the 2013-14 season. Many factors played a role in our decision, but three were of special importance to us. The first two were the critical issues of the studentathlete experience and Notre Dame's fit with the other schools in the conference. But of special importance in this instance, was our goal of giving our hockey program an unprecedented level of national exposure through our expanded partnership with the NBC Sports Group. Athletics at Notre Dame has always served as a platform for promoting the University."

Notre Dame head coach Jeff Jackson added, "We are honored and pleased to join Hockey East for the 2013-14 season. The conference is an established league with a great tradition and outstanding programs that share Notre Dame's values. The exposure for our players and team in a major media and NHL market will be second to none. Hockey East's commitment to playing a smaller league schedule will allow us to enhance our home and non-conference schedule with traditional western and Big Ten rivals. This will allow us to bring great games to the Compton Family Ice Arena and create a more diverse, nationally-televised schedule. We are grateful to Joe Bertagna and the Hockey East Association members for this tremendous opportunity."

Notre Dame is currently a member of the Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA) and has had two stints with the CCHA during its 44 years of Division I hockey. The Irish first joined the conference from 1981-83 and then again in 1992 through the 2012-13 season. During that time, Notre Dame has won two CCHA regular-season and postseason tournament titles (2007 and 2009).

The current shift in conferences began with the Big Ten's decision to form their own hockey league beginning in 2013-14. That started the realignment process in both the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA) and the CCHA that has occurred this past summer and fall.

HOMETOWNS: The 2011-12 Notre Dame hockey team features players from 13 states, two Canadian provinces and Austria. Over the past 16 seasons, the Irish have had monogram winners from 26 different states, provinces and countries – those listed below, plus: Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Washington, Alberta, Prince Edward Island, Quebec, Saskatchewan and Sweden.
