Post season Fates on the Line This Weekend in South Bend

Wrapping up the 2011 road schedule, the University of South Florida baseball team(22-25, 11-10) heads to the Midwest this weekend for yet another important BIG EAST weekend series which will likely decide the post season fates for both teams.

The Bulls will take on the Irish of Notre Dame (18-24-1, 9-11) in a three game set starting on Friday, May 13 with first pitch slated for 7:05 at Frank Eck Stadium in South Bend. Saturday and Sunday's games will begin at 2:05 p.m. and 1:05 p.m.

All three games can also be heard on 1010 AM CBS Sports as well as live on BullsVision audio by logging onto GoUSFBulls.com with Ronan O'Shea on the call.

The Bulls enter the weekend in a three-way tie for fifth place with Louisville and Cincinnati but just a game ahead of eighth place Seton Hall and 1.5 games in front of Notre Dame, who sits in ninth in the BIG EAST standings.

Up Next For the The Bulls

There will be no mid-week games for the Bulls following this weekend as the Bulls once again head north for their final road series of 2011 with a visit to South Bend, Ind., to take on Notre Dame May 13-15.

On the Mound for the Bulls

Fontanez was dominant striking out 12 en-route to his first win of the 2010 season. RHP Randy

Fontanez will make his usual Friday night start but keeping form of the previous few weekends, USF has not determined the rest of the weekend rotation.

Fontanez has been outstanding in BIG EAST play for the Bulls going 8.0 innings or more in five of his seven BIG EAST starts. He has 2.19 earned run average with opponents hitting .207 against him.

In a rematch of last season's series opener, Fontanez will face Notre Dame's Brian Dupra.

Dupra, who was out-shined last year in Tampa by Fontanez despite going 6.0 innings and giving up just a pair of earned runs, three total, on nine hits. Despite his 2-5 record on the season, Dupra posts an impressive 2.57 earned run average.

Bulls against the Irish All-Time

In 18 prior meetings, USF holds a 11-7 advantage in the all-time series, having won 10 of their last 12 against the Irish. The two teams have split six meetings in South Bend with each team winning three. In their last trip to South Bend, the Bulls dropped two of three to the Irish in 2009. Last season in Tampa, the Bulls opened the 2010 BIG EAST schedule with a three game sweep of the Irish, highlighted by then-junior Randy Fontanez's no-hitter in the series opener. The Bulls have swept two of their last three series against Notre Dame.

The Bulls New Assistant Coaches

Pitching Coach Chuck Hernandez

When Chuck Hernandez accepted Lelo Prado's offer to become USF's pitching coach, he instantly positioned himself as one of the most experienced and accomplished pitching coaches in all of college baseball and the only Division I pitching coach to have served as a pitching coach at the major league level.

Hernandez, who returns to his Tampa roots with 31 seasons of professional experience, both as a player and coach, has helped develop 2008 Cy Young Award winner Cliff Lee, three-time American League All-Star Justin Verlander and former All-Stars Chuck Finley, Kenny Rogers and Scott Kazmir, among others, during his prolific coaching career. Both Rogers and Verlander collected 17 wins under Hernandez's watch that year. The following season, Hernandez served as the pitching coach for the victorious American League in the 2007 All-Star game at AT&T Park in San Francisco.

Position Coach Chris Heintz

Chris Heintz returns to his alma mater where he is arguably one of the most decorated players on USF baseball history.

Heintz takes over as the Bulls' hitting coach and will also work with the infielders and catchers after spending the last two seasons coaching and managing in the Minnesota Twins organization.

Playing four seasons with the Bulls from 1993-96, the Clearwater Countryside High School product is still a fixture in a number of USF offensive categories and was a member of three NCAA regional teams. He sits in the top 10 in almost every career statistical category, ranking fourth in batting average, ninth in at-bats and runs scored, eighth in hits, fifth in runs batted in and fourth in doubles.

Heintz was named an All-American in 1996, capping a senior campaign that was one of the finest in USF history. That year, Heintz set USF single-season records for hits (106) and runs batted in (95), while hitting .400 with 16 home runs.

Vol. Assistant Coach Frank Maldonado

Frank Maldonado comes to USF from the University of Tampa, where he was instrumental in the success of the UT program, helping the Spartans to back to back NCAA national championships in 2006 and 2007.

Quackenbush in Save Opportunities

12 times this season Quackenbush has entered the game in a save situation and 11 times he has recorded the final out to preserve a USF win... In those 12, his ERA is 0.60 allowing just five hits and striking out 16 hits. Opponents are hitting .106... In four of his 11 saves, he has had record more than three outs, including an eight out save at Louisville... In his lone blown save, Quackenbush entered the game in the eighth looking for a six out save but yielded two runs with one being unearned.. Nationally, Quackenbush is ranked 13th nationally in saves.

No-No's in Bulls History

Fontanez was the third in USF history and the first for the Bulls since Mark Reed threw a perfect game 18 years ago (March 1992) against Charlotte. Steve Ruling threw the first no-hitter in USF history in 1974 against Connecticut. It is the was the first BIG EAST no-hitter since Scott Barnes of St. John's reached the feat against Georgetown on April 20, 2007. Fontanez's no-hitter is the sixth nine-inning no-hitter in BIG EAST history and was the only no-hitter by a BIG EAST pitcher in 2010.

Looking back at Fontanez's No-No vs. ND

- Fontanez faced just four batters over the minimum
 - Fontanez did not allow a runner to reach second base until there was one out in the top of the ninth
 - Of the 31 batters faced, Fontanez threw 17 first pitch strikes.
 - Fontanez only reached a three ball count three times.
 - Fontanez threw 12 or less pitches in six of the nine innings. He tallied nine pitch innings in the second and shutout innings. Fontanez struck out nine and did not walk a batter en route to his fourth BIG EAST win of the season. After escaping the first-inning jam, Fontanez settled down to retire 16 of the final 17 batters he faced, including nine-straight to end his night. Fontanez is now tied for fourth on the Bulls' all-time strikeout list.

The award marks the first for Fontanez of 2011, but the fifth of his career after garnering the award twice in 2010. He is now tied with Notre Dame's Tom Throthon and Boston College's Chris Lambert for the second-most career awards in BIG EAST history.

Brazeal was clutch throughout the Bulls' 3-1 week, hitting .455 with a pair of homers and five runs driven in. His homer against Miami tied the game in the fifth inning and his go-ahead, two-run homer vs. St. John's propelled the Bulls to a 5-2 series-clinching win on Saturday. He had a slugging percentage of 1.091 and on-base percentage of .647. He started all four games at first base playing errorless defense with 41 putouts.

Fontanez Honored By College Baseball 360

A day after picking up BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week honors, senior RHP Randy Fontanez of the University of South Florida baseball team was named to the College Baseball 360 Primetime Performers Weekly honor roll Wednesday morning.

Fontanez (5-3) was dominant in the Bulls' 2-0 win over St. John's on Friday, out-dueling last week's BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week Kyle Hansen with eight shutout innings. Fontanez struck out nine and did not walk a batter en route to his fourth BIG EAST win of the season. After escaping the first-inning jam, Fontanez settled down to retire 16 of the final 17 batters he faced, including nine-straight to end his night. Fontanez is now tied for fourth on the Bulls' all-time strikeout list.

The Oviedo, Fla., native has paced USF pitchers with a 2.59 earned run average and 68 strikeouts.

Following his no-hitter against Notre Dame, Fontanez was named CollegeBaseball360.com Primetime Pitcher of the Week.

Bulls Sellout USF Baseball Stadium for First Time

The Bulls game against No. 1 Florida on 3/9 marked the first sellout in the Bulls new stadium as 3,211 came through the gates setting a new USF Baseball attendance record. The attendance eclipsed the old mark of 3,126 set in the home opener on Feb. 25 against Elon.

Barbosa to Miss Remainder of 2011 Season

Senior LHP Andrew Barbosa will miss the remainder of the 2011 season after having successful Tommy John surgery on the morning of 3/17/2011.

A 2011 All-BIG EAST Preseason selection, Barbosa was 0-1 with a 0.90 earned run average, striking out 13 in two starts this season. Barbosa, the Bulls No. 2 pitcher, left his second start of the season on Feb. 26 against Elon after four plus innings of work and has not pitched since.

In his first season with the Bulls, Barbosa made an immediate impact going 8-2 with a BIG EAST-leading 2.40 ERA, while holding down the No. 2 spot in the Bulls' rotation. The 6'8 lefthander emerged as one of the conference's most prolific strikeout pitchers, fanning 95 batters in just 86.1 innings of work.

Barbosa decided to return for his senior season after being selected in 15th round of the 2010 MLB Player Draft last June.

USF will look into a sixth-year for the 6'8 Riverview HS product.

Eastham Picks Up BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week Honors, Ramsay Named to Honor Roll

Senior RHP Kyle Eastham of the University of South Florida baseball team was named 3/7 BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week following his gem of a performance in the series finale against Florida A&M this past week.

Making his first start since the 2008 season, Eastham was nearly unhittable. The Riverview HS product fanned 11 Florida A&M batters over the course of seven scoreless innings of work. He did not allow a walk on the day, pounding the strike zone as 68 of his 94 pitches found the strike zone. The seven innings pitched were a career-high along with the 11 strikeouts. The start was just the second of his career.

The honor was the first of his career.

Eastham is the first Bull to pick up a weekly honor from the BIG EAST this season. In 2010, four times USF pitchers were named Pitcher of the Week. Senior Randy Fontanez picked up the award twice and Andrew Barbosa and Teddy Kaufman were both honored once.

Fontanez Picks Up the Lumber

After DH Andrew Longley was forced into the game at catcher, senior RHP Randy Fontanez was given the opportunity to step into the batters box for the first time in his career. After some lobbying by Fontanez to Bulls skipper Lelo Prado, Fontanez replaced Rockhold as the Bulls clean-up hitter and stepped into the batter's box for the first time in his collegiate career.

Fontanez would make the most of it as he sent a shot to second base that FAMU's Oscar Santalo couldn't handle. It would be ruled a hit and he later swiped second as part of a double steal and finished 1-for-2 at the plate. on the plate.

Fontanez got his first start in the DH role against UCF on 3/15, he went 0-for-2 with a pair of groundouts.

Ramsay Homers in First Collegiate Game

True freshman RF James Ramsay homered in the ninth inning of his first collegiate baseball game, the season opener at No. 1 Florida. The home run was the first by a Bull and came off Florida reliever Alex Panteliodis with a 2-1 count. Ironically, Ramsay's second homer of the season came against Panteliodis again in Tampa on 3/9.

Kosco Extend's Streak to 222 Straight Starts

Since stepping on to USF's campus, junior Jonathan Kosco has started each and every game for the Bulls. He has now started 222 consecutive games, having split time at third base, shortstop and second base. The streak is tied for the second longest nationally among active collegiate division one players.

South Florida to a 4-2 win over the Miami Hurricanes Tuesday night at Steinbrenner Field in Game 1 of the 2011 Florida Four.

With the bases loaded, Longley sent a 2-2 offering from Miami reliever Daniel Miranda up the middle, ricocheting off second-baseman Michael Broad's glove and into shallow center. The hit allowed Todd Brazeal and Sam Mende to score, providing the final 4-2 outcome.

The win is the Bulls' first over the Hurricanes since 2004.

Making his first start of the season, junior LHP Matt Reed tossed seven solid innings, allowing just one run while scattering four hits. Reed was efficient on the evening throwing just 73 pitches, 44 of which were strikes.

On two separate occasions, Reed relied on his defense to turn double plays to escape potential Miami scoring threats.

With Reed in control on the mound, USF would get on the board in the second inning. Brazeal kept his hot bat rolling with a leadoff double to the wall in right, and with one out, freshman James Ramsay singled down the rightfield line, easily scoring Brazeal from second.

USF then tacked on another run in the third on an RBI groundout by Brazeal.

Miami would finally reach Reed for a run in the seventh on a David Villasuso sacrifice fly to cut the USF advantage to 2-1. Reed then escaped the inning with a runner standing on third with a fly out to center by Shane Rowland.

Reed left after the seventh with a 2-1 lead but did not factor in the decision as reliever Jimmy Moran allowed a run in the eighth on a RBI fielder's choice from Brad Fieger.

Moran became the pitcher of record and was put in line for the win after the Bulls' two-run eighth inning.

Senior Kevin Quackenbush continued his strong early season by working a scoreless ninth to give him his first save of the season and the 11th of his career.

Bulls Play Record Tying 16 Inning Game in Series Finale against Elon

Played in 3:24, the Bulls played a record tying 16 inning game on 2/24 in the series finale against Elon. The Bulls rallied for three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the game but eventually fell 7-5 in the 16th frame. It tied the longest games in USF history with the Bulls' 16 inning win over Notre Dame on 5/16/08 and a 9-7 win over Cincinnati on 4/22/2000. USF used nine pitchers and at one point six USF relievers combined to pitch 10.2 innings of scoreless ball.

Weekend Series Against Elon Serves as Soft Opening For New Baseball Stadium

This weekend's series against Elon served as a 'Soft Opening' of USF Baseball's brand new, state-of-the-art baseball stadium.

Remarkably, construction of the new stadium has reached near-completion in less than nine months. While there are still exciting elements to be finished over the next three weeks, including state-of-the-art scoreboards at both fields, a comprehensive graphics package and tributes to the generous donors that helped make this project possible, the new USF baseball and softball stadiums offer a one-of-a-kind design, sure to make the fan experience one of the best in athletics, collegiate or professional.

Bulls Set Single Game and Weekend Attendance Record

On opening night(2/25) of the Bulls new baseball stadium against Elon, attendance shattered the old record of 2,517 set last year against Florida as 3,126 came out to the ball park. Over the next two days, USF drew over 2,100 fans for each game bringing the three day total to 7,577 from this weekend, the most in USF history for a three-game set.

Bulls Picked Fourth in BIG EAST Preseason Poll

The University of South Florida baseball team was picked to finish fourth in the BIG EAST preseason poll.

Out of 12 teams, the Bulls were only picked behind conference favorite Connecticut, St. John's and Louisville. USF received 87 votes from BIG EAST coaches.

Barbosa, Fontanez Named Preseason All-BIG EAST

Seniors LHP Andrew Barbosa and RHP Randy Fontanez have been selected by the BIG EAST coaches to the All-BIG EAST preseason team,.

During the offseason, both Barbosa and Fontanez turned down Major League contracts to return for their senior seasons. They were each selected to the All-BIG EAST second team following the 2010 season.

The preseason first-team nod is the second of Fontanez's career after being named the BIG EAST Preseason Pitcher of the Year prior to the 2010 season while it is the first for Barbosa.

USF Coaching Staff Revamped, Hernandez, Heintz and Maldonado Named to Coaching Staff

2011 brings a revamped staff to the USF baseball program under Lelo Prado. With the addition of pitching coach Chuck Hernandez and hitting coach Chris Heintz, the two bring major league pedigrees to the Bulls program in addition to Prado's 20 plus years coaching experience.

Then add volunteer assistant Frank Maldonado, who comes to USF from the University of Tampa,. Maldonado was instrumental in the success of the UT program, helping the Spartans to back to back NCAA national

Fontanez, Barbosa Forego Pros, Return for Senior Seasons

The annual Major League Baseball Prospect Draft is an event that leaves college coaches around the country on edge and worried as the MLB raids the college ranks of its top prospects.

With the passing of the August 16th signing deadline, USF baseball coach Lelo Prado rested a little easier heading into the 2011 season knowing that the front end of his starting pitching rotation has decided to return to USF.

eniors Fontanez and Barbosa decided to return to the Bulls program after having successful junior seasons. And with the opening of the program's state of the art stadium set to open by the start of season, Prado likely has his starting pitcher duo tabbed for Friday and Saturday night.

With the two's return, Barbosa and Fontanez will recreate one of the conferences more formidable one-two pitching tandems as the duo was 11-3 against BIG EAST foes while holding conference hitters to batting averages of .218 and .231, respectively. Barbosa was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the 15th round as the 467th overall selection and Fontanez was who was selected in the 23rd round by Cincinnati Reds.

Along with Barbosa and Fontanez returning, the Bulls also added left-hander Nick Gonzalez, who comes to the Bulls after turning a contract from the Philadelphia Phillies, not to mention an accumulation of talented pitchers.

Fontanez Deals in the Cape

Senior RHP Randy Fontanez made an immediate impact for the Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox in the famed Cape Cod League after joining the team mid-way through the season.

After taking some time to relax and spend time with his family, Fontanez joined the Red Sox in the latter portion of June as a "temporary player.

Making eight starts, Fontanez went 3-1 with 2.84 ERA helping the Red Sox to the Cape Cod Championship Series.

Ramsay Claims 2010 Saladino Award as Hillsborough Top Senior

James Ramsey was named the winner of the 2010 Tony Saladino Award – an honor given annually to the best senior baseball player in Hillsborough County.

Ramsay, who committed to the Bulls in December of 2008 and signed with the program last fall, is currently taking summer classes at USF.

The Brandon native decided to keep his pledge and come to USF, turning down an offer to begin a professional career after being drafted earlier this month. Ramsay was selected by the New York Yankees in the 38th round of the 2010 MLB Draft with pick No. 1,165.

The 2008 St. Petersburg Times Hillsborough County Player of the Year as a sophomore, Ramsay hit .417 in his senior year at nearby Brandon High School.

A torn ACL wiped out all but three games of Ramsay's junior year, but he showed no ill effects as he returned for his senior campaign to hit three home runs and seven doubles with 17 RBI. Ramsay struck out just five times in 25 games and did not commit an error while manning centerfield.

The Saladino Award, given out every season since 1971, is selected by a vote of county baseball coaches. It is selected based on playing ability as well as scholarship, leadership and character. Past recipients of the award include major leaguers Mike Heath (1973), Dave Magadan (1980), Rich Monteleone (1982), Tino Martinez (1985), Gary Sheffield (1986) and Jason Romano (1997).

Ramsay also joins five other Bulls who are past recipients of the Saladino Award. They are John Shouse (1975), Scott Glaser (1994), Romano (1997) and Ryan Glogler (1999).

Taylor Selected to Play in 2010 Mid-Atlantic Classic

Rising sophomore Chad Taylor of the University of South Florida baseball team was selected to play in the 2010 Mid-Atlantic Classic on Wed., July 14, 2010 at Shirley Povich Field in Bethesda, Md.

Taylor, who plays for the Valley League's Youse's Orioles, hit .296 with 14 RBI and 15 runs scored while playing in all 31 games, serving as the Orioles' every day centerfielder. He has made just one error with seven outfield assists.

The Jefferson High product is perfect on the base paths having swiped 14 bases.

Taylor is one of two BIG EAST players to be selected to play in the contest on the Ripken Team as Georgetown's Rand Ravnaas will team up with Taylor while UConn's Greg Nappo and Georgetown's Charles Steinman were named to the Valley League.

The Mid-Atlantic Classic features All-Stars from the Cal Ripken League taking on their counterparts from the Valley Baseball League in a rare inter-league summer college baseball match-up.

Hunt Signs with Reds

Junior outfielder Stephen Hunt inked a deal with the Cincinnati Reds' organization deciding to forgoe his senior season as a Bull.

The Reds selected Hunt in the 15th round with the 457th overall pick in the 2010 MLB Draft.

Hunt, who started 56 games in right field for the Bulls in 2010, led USF in almost every offensive category other than batting average and on-base percentage.

Prado Announces 2011-12 Signing Class

University of South Florida head baseball coach Lelo Prado has announced the signing of seven high school recruits and one junior college transfer to National Letters of Intent for the 2011-12 academic year. in early December

The class of 2011-12 includes: Steven Leasure - RHP - State College of Florida; Michael Clarkson - RHP/IF - Dunedin HS - Oldsmar, Fla.; Joe Kreibiel - SS/ RHP - Seminole HS - Seminole, Fla.; Austin Lueck - OF - Lake Brantley - Longwood, Fla.; Buddy Putnam - IF/ OF - Bartow High School - Bartow, Fla.; Max Rowe - RHP - Plant HS/Tampa, Fla.; Blake Sydeski - C/1B - New Smyrna Beach HS - Edgewater, Fla.; and Kyle Teaf - 2B/SS - Trinity Catholic HS - Leesburg, Fla.

The class, which is the fifth of Prado's tenure at USF, is headlined by the 2010 Pinellas County Player of the Year, in addition to a number of student-athletics who garnered all-state and all-area honors.

Of the eight signees, four hail from the Tampa Bay area, and will join the 20 Bulls already on the USF roster from the Bay Area.

Wrapping up 2010

Llerena Takes USF Batting Title, Hunt Leads Everything else

Powered by a 7-for-13 performance in the BIG EAST Championships, sophomore second baseman Luis Llerena ran away with the USF batting title with a .344 clip in 44 games.

After splitting time with freshman Chad Taylor, Llerena asserted himself as the everyday second baseman starting the final 23 games of the season. Over the final 23 games, Llerena hit at a .385 clip with OBP of .477.

While Llerena led the Bulls in average, junior Stephen Hunt led the Bulls in virtually every other offensive category. The Jesuit HS product led the Bulls in hits (67), doubles (47), extra base hits (27), runs scored (47), total bases (108), RBI (44), stolen bases (13) and tied sophomore Daniel Rockhold with seven homers on the season.

Hunt led USF outfielders with four assists and 87 putouts. He also made an appearance on the mound against North Florida working a scoreless inning while striking out the side.

He's Really a Walk-On??

Junior Andrew Barbosa went from walk-on, a relative unknown, to the Bulls' No. 2 starter and one of the top pitchers in the BIG EAST Conference and member of the 2010 All-BIG EAST second team. Barbosa paced the Bulls on the mound with a 2.40 ERA and a team-high eight wins in 14 starts including 16 strikeouts in his complete-game shutout against Cincinnati on April 2.

His 16 strikeout performance earned him five national pitcher of the week awards in addition to BIG EAST pitcher of the week honors.

His 2.40 earned run average is the sixth lowest ERA by a pitcher in USF history.

Of his 14 starts on the season, Barbosa went 5.0 or more innings in 13 of his starts with the exception being 1.1 scoreless innings against St. John's due to a lower leg injury.

Barbosa emerged as one of the conference's most prolific powers pitchers, striking out 95 batters in just 86.1 innings of work. He struck out 10 or more batters on four separate occasions and averaged just fewer than 10 strikeouts per nine innings pitched.

More impressive, Barbosa showcased an impeccable command of the strike zone. The 6'8" south paw walked just 22 batters on the season.

In BIG EAST play, Barbosa was especially strong going 6-1 with a 1.66 ERA, while holding opposing batters to a .218 batting average. In eight conference starts, he allowed just nine earned runs over 48.2 innings of work.

USF Becomes First School to Win Three Straight National Pitcher of the Week awards

Over three consecutive weeks, three separate USF pitchers were recognized by national collegiate baseball publications as national Pitchers of the Week. Senior Teddy Kaufman (March 22) and juniors Randy Fontanez (March 29) and Andrew Barbosa (April 6) were named Louisville Slugger, TheCollegeBaseballBlog.com, CollegeBaseball360.com, College Baseball Foundation and Diamond Sport's and CollegeBaseballInsider.com Pitcher of the Week in addition to being recognized by the BIG EAST Conference as the top weekly hurler.

USF is the first school to have three different pitchers awarded national weekly honors in consecutive weeks. However, USF is not the first school to have consecutive winners. In 2009, Stephen Strasburg of San Diego State won it four weeks in a row. Prior to that, the only person to win it three or more times in a row was Mark Prior of Southern California in 2000.

Kaufman began the streak after his 14-strikeout performance against UCF on March 16 in Orlando. Kaufman was followed by Fontanez's no-hitter on March 27 against Notre Dame and Barbosa rounded out the trio of awards after his complete game shutout of Cincinnati on April 2.

Fontanez Puts up Career Highs in 2010

Despite his 5-7 record, junior Randy Fontanez reaffirmed his status as one of the top pitchers in the BIG EAST. Fontanez set career highs in strikeouts (105), innings (110.1) and starts (15). He had four complete games raising his career total to 10 with one being his no-hit shutout of Notre Dame on March 27.

After raking into national and conference honors following his no-hitter, he was also named the BIG EAST pitcher of the week after a complete-game shutout of Villanova and after his one run, seven inning out against Connecticut.

Fontanez extended his streak of 5.0+ innings starts as well. In each of his last 34 starts, Fontanez has throw at least 5.0 innings.

Bulls Go 11-4 at Home in BIG EAST Play, Series Streak Snapped

The Bulls completed the 2010 home portion of their BIG EAST schedule with an 11-4 record while winning four of the five conference series with sweeps of Notre Dame and Georgetown. Prior to the UConn series, which the Bulls lost two of three to the Huskies, USF had won 10 straight BIG EAST series, including six sweeps, at Red McEwen Field.

USF is 22-5 in their last 27 homes games against BIG EAST opposition.

Koscso Reaches 200 Career Hits

With his fifth-inning double against West Virginia in the second round of the BIG EAST Championships, Jonathan Koscso eclipsed 200 hits for his career. The Jesuit HS product is a .311 career hitter and accomplished the feat in 650 at-bats. Ryan Lockwood sits four hits shy of the milestone.

Koscso Ties Career Hit by Pitch Mark

Jonathan Koscso tied the career hit by pitch mark after being struck by a pitch in the eighth inning of the second round game against West Virginia in the BIG EAST Championships. He has been hit 55 times in his career.

Taking A Lot For The Team

It is no secret that USF batters aren't afraid to step into a pitch every now and then. In fact, the Bulls ranked first in the BIG EAST and fourth nationally in the category after being hit 113 times.

LELO PRADO

Head Coach | Fifth Season | Tampa '85

Havana, Cuba | Tampa ('89-'95) | Louisville ('95-'06) | USF ('07-Present)

Meet Lelo Prado

Born: Nov. 5, 1962 in Havana, Cuba
Alma Mater: University of Tampa, 1985
Wife: Pam Children: Jason, Tyler, Zach
Named USF Head Coach: June 16, 2006
Education: B.S. - adult fitness
Prado's Collegiate Career-745-560-2

On June 16, 2006, Lelo Prado, a native of Cuba who grew up in Tampa before embarking on an ultra-successful college coaching career that includes back-to-back NCAA Division II National Championships in his hometown, returned to Tampa to become the fifth head coach in the USF baseball program's history.

Now in his fifth season at the helm of the USF Baseball program and armer with a new stadium, the Bulls' are primed to become the championship-caliber team that Prado envisioned when he returned home.

In his four seasons, Prado, who has worn the No. 1 on his back at all three of his coaching stops, has laid the ground work of a BIG EAST title contending team that came up just a hair short in 2009.

In four seasons with the Bulls, Prado has produced four straight BIG EAST Championship appearances. He has led USF to 125 wins in his two years in Tampa, posting four 30-win seasons.

With 723 career wins, Prado ranks 33rd among active coaches in wins. He is one of two active BIG EAST coaches with over 700 career victories

In 2009, Prado had the Bulls on the doorstep of claiming their first BIG EAST regular season Championship but came up a .5 game short. Prado becomes a first-time winner of the BIG EAST Coach of the Year award in 2009 after leading USF to a 34-25 overall record and an 18-9 mark in the BIG EAST, improving by four places from last year's sixth-place finish. It marks the fifth conference coach of the year honor for Prado, who was the 2002 Conference USA Coach of the Year while serving as head coach at Louisville and was the Sunshine State Conference Coach of the Year three times while head coach at Division II Tampa.

In 2008, Prado coached a pair of Freshman All-Americans in outfielder Ryan Lockwood and utility player Stephen Hunt. Three Bulls from the 2008 squad were selected in the MLB Draft - Addison Maruszak, Daniel Thomas and David Torcise - as well as seven recruits from the 2009 class.

In his first season with the Bulls, Prado led the squad into the Final Four of the 2007 BIG EAST Conference Championship, completing his inaugural USF campaign with a 36-24 record and a 13-14 conference clip.

Prado earned his 600th career win just two games into his rookie year at USF and then eclipsed the 700 win mark during the 2010 season. He holds a 723-534-2 mark after 20 years as a collegiate head coach.

In 2007 he coached three BIG EAST all-conference players as well as five College

Baseball Foundation National Players of the Week and seven players who earned nine weekly league awards.

Prado led the team to a 9-0 start, which boosted the Bulls in to the national spotlight. At the end of February, College Baseball News ranked USF No. 30 in their national weekly poll and the Bulls received votes in the USA Today/ESPN and National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association polls.

Prado joined USF from the University of Louisville, where in 11 seasons he became that school's all-time winningest coach with 320 victories. In addition to his first year at USF, his 19 seasons as a head coach include seven at the University of Tampa and 11 at the University of Louisville. A proven winner, Prado has collected two Division II National Championships (1992, 1993), eight NCAA appearances and three Division II World Series appearances. At Louisville, he took the program to its first-ever NCAA appearance in 2002 and he was the 2002 Conference USA Coach of the Year, the same year he won USA Baseball Coach of the Year honors.

During his time at Louisville, Prado compiled more wins than any other coach in Cardinal history. He surpassed Dr. John Heldman Jr. (309) when he registered win No. 310 on May 7, 2006 (a 9-6 win over the No. 8-ranked Notre Dame Fighting Irish). The Cardinals closed the 2006 season with a 12-game winning streak before falling in the championship game of the BIG EAST Conference Championship, posting a 31-29 record with a third-place regular season finish (17-10) in the team's initial year in the BIG EAST.

Prado guided the Cardinals to 11-consecutive conference tournament appearances, including 10-straight in Conference USA, as Louisville was one of three teams in the league that advanced to the C-USA Tournament in each of conference's first 10 seasons, joining Southern Miss and Tulane.

He was the only coach in Louisville baseball history to record more than two 30-win seasons, tallying seven (31 in '98, 37 in '99, 32 in '01, 39 in '02, 34 in '03, 32 in '05 and 31 in '06).

Under Prado, the team earned its first-ever postseason appearance in 2002, advancing to the NCAA Regional in Atlanta, Ga. Prado led Uofl. to a single-season record 39 wins in 2002, as well as an all-time best conference record of 21-9, placing second. During the 2002 season, Prado also guided the USA Baseball National Team as its head coach, the first coach in C-USA history to do so, leading the collegiate amateur squad to a 23-7 record, and a silver medal at the first-ever FISU World University Baseball Championships in Messina, Italy. The team also captured the gold medal at the Haarlem Baseball Week in Haarlem, The Netherlands, and defeated the Japanese Collegiate All-Stars three games to two, in the 31st annual USA/Japan Collegiate Championship Series.

In 2000, he was one of three assistant coaches on the under-22 USA National Team, which posted an all-time best 27-3-1 record and featured college stars like Mark Teixeira, Mark Prior, Xavier Nady and fellow C-USA member Jake Gautreau. Prado served on the USA Baseball selection committee from 1995-1998 and helped select the '96 Olympic bronze medal winning squad.

During his 11 years at Louisville, Prado saw 20 players (Matt Berger, Danny Haas, James McAuley, Jorge Maduro, Mike Davis, Brian Bentley, Sean Green, Chad Petty, Justin Woodrow, Bill Gatti Jr., Key Voshell, Adam Haley, Grant Williams, Josh Bolen, Carlos Fernandez, Ron Braun, Mark Jurich, Scott Barber, J.T. LaFountain and Brian Halford) make the pro ranks.

Before he was hired at Louisville in June of 1995, Prado spent seven seasons as the head coach at the University of Tampa. In his seven seasons at Tampa, Prado compiled a 278-124-1 record, the winningest record in UT's history, averaging nearly 40 wins per season. His .691 winning percentage ranks among the top 10 in Division II history. In addition to the two national championships, his teams also reached the College World Series in 1990, finishing third, and were an NCAA South Region finalist in each of his other four seasons as head coach (1989, 1991, 1994 and 1995).

He was named the ABCA National Coach of the Year in 1992 and 1993, and he was the South Region Coach of the Year in 1990, 1992 and 1993. He also won conference coach of the year in 1989, 1990 and 1995 and was inducted into the Sunshine State Conference Hall of Fame in 1995. His No. 1 jersey is retired at Tampa.

Prado coached 17 first or second team All-America selections at Tampa, including national player of the year Sam Militello in 1990, two Academic All-Americans, 43 All-South Region picks and 32 All-Sunshine State Conference Selections.

During his tenure at Tampa, seven Spartans were drafted by major league clubs, nine of whom played pro ball and four have reached the major leagues, including Tino Martinez (Yankees), Jeff Carter (Chicago White Sox), Ozzie Timmons (Chicago Cubs) and Militello (Yankees).

Prado served as Assistant Director of Athletics at Tampa, focusing on fundraising and community support coordination. Prado has also worked with the Nicaraguan National Baseball Team.

After playing two seasons at Hillsborough Community College, he completed his college career at Tampa in 1985, where he earned a bachelor's degree in adult fitness.

He was an assistant coach at Hillsborough one year (1985) before accepting a similar position at Tampa, where he worked as an assistant for three seasons (1986-88) prior to his advancement as the Spartans' head coach. His first coaching experience was leading the District VI All-Stars to the 1982 Big League World Series.

As a sophomore in high school, Prado was the catcher on Tampa Catholic's state championship team in 1979. During his senior campaign in 1981, he batted .504 on his way to All-Hillsborough County honors.
