Notre Dame Season Preview ...

By Pete LaFleur

The Notre Dame women's soccer team is celebrating the program's 20th season in 2007. The level of satisfaction from that season-long celebration ultimately will hinge on one primary goal: completing the program's third NCAA championship season, to go along with earlier titles won in 1995 and 2004.

Notre Dame – which compiled the best record in college soccer over the past three seasons (72-5-2, from 2004-06) – has been in the mix for the national title in eight of the past 13 seasons, advancing to the College Cup final weekend five times in the 1990s (1994-97, '99) and three more in the current decade (2000, '04 and '06; plus a 2005 season that is one of six when the Irish have been ranked number one). In addition to taking home the pair of first-place trophies, Notre Dame has been the NCAA runner-up four times ('94, '96, '99, '06) – so shooting for the top is now an annual rite of passage.

Waldrum – who entered the 2007 season with .773 career win percentage that is third-best among active Division I coaches – welcomed back seven starters, four top reserves and 17 total veterans from the 2006 NCAA runner-up squad that went 25-1-1 and held the nation's top ranking for most of the season. The headline returners include junior forward Kerri Hanks, who in 2005 became the youngest player (female or male) ever to receive the prestigious Hermann Trophy player-of-the-year award – along with junior center back Carrie Dew (the BIG EAST's 2006 defensive player of the year, with Hanks earning the offensive award) and senior forward/midfielder Amanda Cinalli, a three-time all-BIG EAST performer who will serve as the 2007 team captain.

Hanks and Cinalli have been named to the 2007 Hermann Trophy preseason watch list while joining Dew, junior midfielder Brittany Bock and sophomore forward Michele Weissenhofer among the 13 players who received 2007 preseason first team all-BIG EAST honors. Each of those five also is a current member of the U.S. Under-21/U-23 National Team player pool, with Cinalli and Weissenhofer playing on the U-21 team that won the 2007 Nordic Cup.

Notre Dame returned plenty of firepower from the potent 2006 offense, including all four double-digit goalscorers from a year ago. Hanks (22G-22A in '06) and Weissenhofer (18G-17A) had a rare 1-2 teammate finish atop the national scoring charts in 2006 (66 and 53 points, respectively) while Cinalli posted her third straight double-digit goal season (11G-4A) and Bock added 12G-5A.

All told, the Notre Dame returners accounted for 87 percent of the team's goals in 2006 (74 of 85). The four players mentioned above are equally adept at setting up goals as they are at scoring them, with 96 career assists between them to go along with their 123 combined career goals.

Nonetheless, the Irish still must replace their primary playmaker – departed three-year All-America midfielder Jen Buczkowski, who served as the engine for a Notre Dame program that outscored the opposition 337-57 (+280) during her four-year career. Sophomore Courtney Rosen and junior Rebecca Mendoza could use their unique talents to help fill the void created by Buczkowski's departure.

The biggest question mark resides in the defensive third, as Notre Dame looks to rework its lineup following the graduation of three battle-tested veterans: defensive midfielder Jill Krivacek (a second team all-region performer and a member of the 2006 Hermann Trophy watch list), center back Kim Lorenzen (the '06 team captain) and four-year all-BIG EAST performer Christie Shaner, who split time in her career as a starter at left back and at one of the center back spots.

Heir apparent to the 5-foot-11 Krivacek could be freshman Lauren Fowlkes, a prep All-American and U.S. Under-17 National Team member who packs plenty of diverse talents into her own 5-11 frame. Tenacious sophomore Amanda Clark also has prototypical defensive midfielder skills but she may be needed more on the back line, where she can serve as a center or right back.

Possibly the one defensive certainty entering the 2007 season is that sophomore Haley Ford will anchor one of the central back positions, a role she filled with veteran-like poise in the 2006 postseason (when Dew was sidelined due to an ACL knee injury). Dew – a first team all-region performer and Hermann Trophy watch list honoree in 2006 – was nearing the completion of her rehabilitation late in the summer of 2007 and, if healthy, could combine with Ford to form an impressive pair of center backs.

Both outside back spots could feature new starters, as senior Academic All-American Ashley Jones (the starting right back in '06) may return to her natural position of midfielder. Potential candidates to emerge at outside back include an intriguing junior pair of Elise Weber and Kerry Inglis, both of whom are more than competent leftside players. Weber is a rare transfer to the Notre Dame women's soccer program (after starting the past two years at Wisconsin) while Inglis has played a total of only 224 minutes in her Irish career, due to a chronic ankle injury.

Notre Dame could enjoy the best three-goalscorer depth in the program's history, with senior Lauren Karas returning as the starter while freshman Nikki Weiss also should be in the mix, following a prep All-America career and experience with U.S. youth national team programs.

Notre Dame's 2007 roster includes seven Texas natives – four of them (namely Karas, Hanks and Ford) products of the elite Dallas Texans club – while six others played for the Chicago-based Eclipse Select club that recently has matched the Texans in racking up national titles. Most notably, Bock, Weissenhofer, Clark and Weber all played for the Eclipse before joining the Irish.

Volunteer Assistant Coach: Jen Buczkowski (ND '07)

IRISH NOTES – Notre Dame's exhibition games included a 2-2 tie with preseason #1 North Carolina (in a rare quick rematch of the NCAA title game) and a 3-1 win over #11 Virginia (in Ft. Wayne) ... Amanda Cinalli scored in the seventh minute vs. UNC and added a pair of goals against UVa ... Kerri Hanks also scored in the UNC game (just moments after the Tar Heels had taken a 2-1 lead) while Lauren Fowlkes added a goal in the UVa game (a header off a Michele Weissenhofer flip-throw) ... Weissenhofer's short cross from the left side also helped set up Cinalli's goal vs. UNC while Clark's long free kick sprung Hanks for her goal ... Cinalli's first goal vs. UVa came on a header (assisted by a Hanks free kick) and she later knocked home Weissenhofer's rebounded shot ... the crowd for the UNC game (3,412) was an Alumni Field record for a women's soccer game and is the biggest crowd at the facility since a 1994 ND-SMU men's soccer game drew 3,502 ... there was an unprecedented 1,318 presold tickets for the ND-UNC game ... ND ranked 4th in average home attendance during the 2006 season (1,901), behind Texas A&M, Portland and BYU ... the Irish played to a scoreless tie with Michigan in the 2007 regular-season opener, despite a 28-6 edge in shots (10-2 in shots on goal; 10-1 corner-kick margin) ... that game ended ND's home winning streak at 32 games, tied for third-longest D-I history (ND still owns the third-longest home unbeaten streak, at 42 games/40-0-2) ... the crowd vs. Michigan (3,264) is the largest ever for an official (non-exhibition) ND women's soccer home game ... the Irish held the Wolverines without a shot for 92 straight minutes of game time, stretching into the second OT ... the ensuing 2-0 win at #7 Florida saw newcomer Elise Weber (a transfer from Wisconsin) assist on Brittany Bock's early diving header ... following a long weather delay, Weber scored the first goal of her young Irish career to cap the win over the Gators ... that game started 22 minutes late due to an initial downpour and play then was halted after 30 minutes of action (lightning strikes and a steady downpour resulted a long delay that ultimately lasted four-and-a-half hours) ... more than half of Bock's career goals with the Irish (13 of 25) have come on headers, in addition to four rare corner-kick assists in her career ... Bock has totaled a team-best seven gamewinning goals over the past two seasons ... the win over Florida was the 350th of Randy Waldrum's career as a college soccer coach (combined men's and women's totals) ... the Irish have posted 36 straight wins when scoring the game's first goal (since mid-2005) and have 248 consecutive wins when claiming a 2-0 lead (dating back to 1991) ... ND's 27-game regular-season unbeaten streak (25-0-2) ended at #3 Santa Clara (7-1) ... ND then dropped a 2-1 game to Stanford in overtime, ending the program's OT unbeaten streak at 21 games (14-0-7) ... the Irish had been nearly perfect in Sunday games over the past three seasons (25-1-0; 2005-07) prior to the Stanford loss ... Bock and Fowlkes were named to the SCU Classic all-tournament team ... ND and SCU now have split 10 regular-season meetings (ND has an 8-5 overall series lead) and the home team is 9-2 in the ND-SCU series ... Hanks has 3A this season, making her the 39th player in D-I history to reach 40 career goals and 40 assists (50G-40A, in 56 career games) ... ND's all-time record at Alumni Field (193-14-4/.924, from 1990-2006) includes a .960 win pct. against teams not ranked in the NSCAA top-25 (130-4-3) ... the Irish went 32-0-0 during the 2005 and '06 seasons when Hanks scored at least one goal.

PRINCETON PREVIEW

By Andrew Borders (Princeton Sports Info.)

Looking for its seventh NCAA tournament bid since 1999, Princeton returns a pair of first team All-Ivy League honorees to a squad that shut out its opponents for nearly 400 minutes to end the 2006 season. That stellar defensive effort helped the Tigers achieve the program's 10th straight winning season under Julie Shackford, the 2004 Division I coach of the year. In her 13th season, Shackford is the program's winningest all-time coach and entered the season four wins from becoming the school's most victorious soccer coach, men's or women's, of all-time.

Princeton boasts a diverse roster, with players coming from 13 states and Canada. While the Tigers graduated three seniors from the 2006 team, Princeton returns nine starters and enters a freshman class eight strong.

Diana Matheson, a senior midfielder and three-time first-team All-Ivy honoree, was an NSCAA All-America selection in 2004 while helping guide Princeton to the College Cup semifinals. Princeton's leading scorer in 2006 with eight goals, Matheson enters 2007 one assist shy of matching a 17-year-old record for career assists (20). The Toronto-area native will spend September continuing her international competition, suiting up for Canada at the Women's World Cup. Matheson has been playing for the full national squad since 2003 and has played in more than 60 international games in that span, gaining a starting role.

Princeton's returners accounted for 22 of the 27 goals in 2006, with eight of those goals coming from Matheson and six from current sophomore Vicki Anagnostopoulos, who tied a program record with four goals in the 5-0 win over Harvard (the largest margin of victory in that long-running series). Juniors Aarti Jain (3G), Sarah Peteraf (2G), Numann (1G) and Om (1G), and sophomore Marci Pasenello (1G), also scored in the 2006 season.

Senior goalkeeper and team captain Maren Dale joins junior defender Taylor Numann (a first team all-league performer) as the team's leaders in the defensive third. Dale logged most of the minutes in Princeton's eight 2006 shutouts and owns a 1.09 career GAA.

OKLAHOMA STATE PREVIEW

By Wade McWhorter (OSU Sports Information)

The Oklahoma State women's soccer team in 2006 advanced to the NAAs for the second time in the program's 12-year history – followed by a 7-0-1 record in the spring season and a nationally-ranked status heading into the 2007 season. The Cowgirls return eight starters, including six of their top seven scorers and the core of a defense that was among the Big 12's best in 2006.

One of the team's international stars, Adriane Radtke, will be looking to cap her standout career. The all-Big 12 forward and German native entered the season with 26 career goals to rank second on OSU's all-time list (her 18 assists rank third). Sophomore Leah Hope also returns, after tying for second on the 2006 team with five goals. The others in the forward mix include senior Stephanie Lovely (who is coming off an injury), freshman Katie Richardson (a top in-state talent) and fellow newcomer Kelsey Van Sickle.

Seniors Yolanda Odenyo and Sara Jackson lead a veteran midfield. Odenyo is the most highly-decorated player in OSU soccer history and was on the 2007 preseason watch list for the Hermann Trophy. The Sweden native's All-America junior season (5G-8A, after 7G-4A in '05) included sharing Big 12 player-of-the-year honors. Jackson scored five goals in 2006 while the young midfielders include Siera Strawser (2006 Freshman All-American; 5G-6A) and fellow sophomore Kasey Langdon (3 GWG in '06) – with junior Jamie Markaverich and redshirt freshman Annika Niemeier also expected to contribute.

The OSU defense – which allowed only 85 shots on goal in 2006 (3.7/gm) – is anchored by senior Niccole Grimaldi, an all-region performer who led the '06 team with nine assists. Sophomore Bridget Miller was one of the Big 12's top newcomers in 2006 while junior Jessica Jarrell started 16 games in '06. Sophomores Lindsay Lawson and Andrea Sartin add experience at the defender spot while a pair of decorated freshman recruits – Allyson Leggett and Whitney Wernimont – could contribute immediately.

Junior goalkeeper Erin Stigler started eight games in 2006 and recorded eight shutouts while leading the Big 12 with a 0.71 GAA – with freshman Kaitlyn Gustaves giving the squad another talented 'keeper.

WASHINGTON STATE PREVIEW

By Craig Lawson (WSU Information)

With virtually its entire starting lineup returning from a 2006 team that went 9-7-4 and finished fourth in the Pacific-10 Conference, the Washington State women's soccer team could be on track for one of the top seasons in the program's history.

WSU's forward group could produce several combination options, with talented freshman Emma Stolz joining a veteran group that includes sophomore Kiersten Dallstream (who recently trained at a U.S. Under-20 National Team camp) and the senior duo of Brooke Bemis and Kim Bonnes.

The Cougars' midfield unit likewise will be counted on to perform in a variety of systems while also providing some scoring punch. The veteran midfield is led by senior Anna Miller – who had a team-high six assists in 2006 – and the sophomore trio of Carly Dobratz (a 2006 all-West Region selection), Caeli Abeyta and Elysse Van Leer. Seniors Molly Alexander and Natalie Elkind add further depth to what could be the key position for Washington State during the 2007 season.

WSU's defensive unit set a team record for fewest goals allowed in 2006 (15), with most of the key defenders set to return for the 2007 season. The top returners include senior Allison Scurich (a second team all-Pacific-10 Conference performer in '06) and sophomores Jenny Christoph, Maggie Dougher and Laura Powell (each of whom started 18-20 games in '06). The defense could receive an added boost from the return of junior Shaye Harrel (who missed most of the 2006 season due to injury) and the arrival of freshmen Ashley Johnson, Erin Holzmeister and Nici Patrizi.

The Washington State goalkeepers tied a team record with 10 shutouts in 2006, with current senior Brynn Bemis posting seven. Newcomer Lindsay Parlee led her high school team to the state title and is expected to push Bemis for playing time.
