HEAD COACH BOBBY CLARK — Bobby Clark is in his second season at Notre Dame after being named the fifth head coach in the program's history on Jan., 19, 2001. In his 16th season as a collegiate coach, Clark has an overall record of 169-72-28 for an overall winning percentage of .680 and is 16-9-3 (.625) at Notre Dame. Heading into the 2002 campaign, he ranked 16th all-time among active Division I coaches in terms of winning percentage. Last season, he guided the Irish to a 12-7 mark and their first NCAA tournament appearance since 1996. Prior to coming to Notre Dame, he spent five seasons guiding the Stanford Cardinal to a 71-21-12 mark and .740 winning percentage from 1996-2000. Clark also was head coach at Dartmouth from 1985-93 where he led the Big Green to an 82-242-13 record (.646). Seven of Clark's teams have advanced to NCAA tournament play with his '98 Stanford squad finishing as the NCAA runnerup that season. In between his coaching stints at Dartmouth and Stanford, he was head coach of the New Zealand National Team (1994-95).

CLARK LEADS THREE DIFFERENT TEAMS INTO NCAAAs — As a head coach, Bobby Clark is certainly NCAA tournament tested. With Notre Dame's appearance in the 2001 championship, he has now guided three different schools to the NCAA postseason. At Dartmouth, he led the Big Green to two appearances in nine years, while his Cardinal teams at Stanford earned four berths in the five seasons he spent on Palo Alto, Calif., campus. Clark is the first Notre Dame coach to lead the Irish to the NCAAAs in his first season.

Prior to that game, the two teams had battled to three consecutive ties. Notre Dame's lone win in the series was a 3-0 win at Alumni Field during the 1996 campaign. Pittsburgh has a 1-1-1 record in three appearances at Alumni Field.

SERIES RECORD VS. AKRON — Notre Dame is 0-6-2 against Akron in eight meetings, but this will be the first matchup between the two schools since the 1989 season. The Irish are 0-4 in games played at Akron. The last meeting was a 0-0 overtime tie.

FURMAN WIN SIGNIFICANT — Notre Dame's 2-1 victory over Furman proved to be significant because it marked the highest ranked opponent that an Irish team had beaten since a 1-0 victory over second-ranked UNC Greensboro in the first round of the 1996 NCAA Tournament and was the last win over a top-10 team at home since a 1-0 victory over 10th-ranked St. John's during the 2000 campaign. In its 25-plus seasons of varsity competition, Notre Dame has nine wins over teams that have been ranked in the top 10 of either the NSCAA or Soccer America polls.

TOUGH STRETCH — Notre Dame is in the midst of a tough stretch in which the Irish are playing four of five games on the road, Coach Bobby Clark's squad played at St. John's and at Rutgers last week. In 2001, Martin was the first sophomore in the 25-year history of the program to serve as a captain and becomes just the 10th player ever to serve as a two-time captain.

GOING OVERTIME — Through the first nine games of the season, Notre Dame has already played four overtime contests. The Irish are 1-0-3 in those double overtime games. Notre Dame registered its double overtime victory against Furman as the Irish tallied the game-winner with 2:31 left in the second overtime session. Last season, Notre Dame played just three overtime in 19 outings and were 1-2 in those contests. Under head coach Bobby Clark, Notre Dame is 2-2-3 in overtime games.

BRAUN MOVING UP THE CHARTS — With his eight goals this season, Erich Braun has moved to 10th on the all-time Irish goals scored list with 31. His 74 points (31goals, 12 assists) places him 12th on the all-time scoring list.

THREE CHEERS FOR CHAD — Chad Riley's three assists against Providence marked a single-game career-best for the junior who has led the Irish in that category during his two-plus seasons. He leads the team with six assists this season and registered six assists in both of his first two campaigns. In 45 career games, Riley has dished off 19 assists. The second-leading scorer on the Irish team with two goals and seven assists, he has been Notre Dame's most consistent performer of late as he has scored two goals and dish five assists in Notre Dame's last five games. His team-leading seven are the most since Ryan Cox's eight during the 1998 campaign.

It also marked his first career points in an Irish uniform. Boughen scored his first goal at the 51:19 mark and then followed with his second score at 52:31.

RAFAEL IS COMING UP BIG — No Irish player has stepped up his level of play this season more than senior forward Rafael Garcia. He has two goals and three assists on the season and stands fourth in the scoring column with seven points. Garcia registered goals in both the Creighton and Seton Hall contests and is credited with assists in Southwest Missouri State and Furman matches. Garcia has started all eight games. Heading into the 2002 campaign, he had made 13 starts in 38 games and had scored two goals and dished off two assists.

PRESCOD POWER — Junior forward Devon Prescod has been slowed by nagging injuries this season that has limited his playing time during the game. Prescod is slowly regaining the form of a year ago, against Providence, tallied his first goal of the season. He has played in all nine games this season, and in addition to the goal, has dished off one assist.
