WE ARE CSUN

We are now "CSUN" and request that CSUN be used to refer to the school and its Division I athletic programs. Please do not refer to the school as "Cal State Northridge," "CS Northridge," "CSU Northridge," "CS North" or "Northridge." Both the men's and women's programs are the "Matadors" and there is no need to add "Lady" before any women's athletic program.

Tip is set for 2 p.m. PT on Friday as the Matadors will face the Fighting Irish (who are ranked fourth in the USA Today/WBCA Top 25 and fifth in the AP Top 25 poll) in a game that will be televised on ESPN 2. Roy Philpott will be doing the play-by-play. Brooke Weisbrod will handle the color.

The CSUN Sports Network presented by Dignity Health coverage begins at 1:50 p.m. with Eric Kaback on the call.

The winner of the CSUN-Notre Dame game will play the winner of the game between the eighth seed South Dakota and the ninth seed Villanova on Sunday with a time to be determined.

Despite four season-ending injuries which left the Irish with seven healthy scholarship players (no scholarship guard off the bench), Coach Muffet McGraw led Notre Dame to a 29-3 record and a share of the ACC Regular Season championship.

The Fighting Irish lost 74-72 to Louisville in the ACC Tournament finals. Notre Dame had the No. 1 rated strength of schedule, defeating nine ranked opponents along the way, which stands as the second most in the country. McGraw was named USA Today Coach of the Year.

LETS TALK FLUKER

For the second year in a row, CSUN's Channon Fluker was named Big West Conference Women's Basketball Player of the Year.

Fluker led the conference in rebounding (12.1), blocked shots (2.7), double-doubles (21), and free throws made (158). She was third in the league in scoring (18.6), third in free throw shooting (76.7), and sixth in field goal shooting (51.1). On the NCAA leaderboard, the center ranks seventh in rebounds (400), seventh in rebounds per game and 15th in blocks per game and total blocks.

Fluker became the fifth player in BWC history to repeat as Big West Player of the Year and is the first since Brittany Crain of UC Riverside (2015, 2016). She is the fifth Big West player to lead the league and blocks in the same season and is only the second in to do it in consecutive seasons.

Fluker, who recorded 20 rebounds on three separate occasions this season, was also named Big West Conference Defensive Player of the Year, and first team All-Conference.

Fluker is only the second CSUN player (Ashlee Guay, 2015) to be named Big West Conference Player of the Year and is the third Matador in the last five seasons to be named Big West Defensive Player of the Year.

Fluker became the all-time leading rebounder at CSUN Feb. 3 when she recorded her second 20-rebound performance of 2017-18 against UC Davis.

Fluker hauled in 20 rebounds against UC Irvine Mar. 1 to surpass the 1,000-career rebound plateau. She has grabbed 1,061 rebounds, breaking the old mark of 923 which was set by Denise Sutton (1982-87). Fluker is seventh on the all-time rebound list in the Big West.

The 6-4 center is already the CSUN record holder for career rebounds per game (11.4). If she maintains the 11.4 career rebound average (which is second among active Division I players), she has a chance to become the Big West's all-time leading rebounder. The league record is 1,441 which was set by Hawai'i's Judy Mosley (1986-90).

The third leading scorer in school history with 1,582 points, Fluker is only 1-of-11 active Division I players with at least 1,000 career points and 1,000 career rebounds. She is only one of 14 active Division I players with at least 1000 career rebounds.

93 games into her CSUN career, Fluker is already among the school leaders in several categories.

She is second in career scoring average (17.0), second in career blocks (195), fourth in career field goal shooting (632-1224, .516), fourth in career field goals, fourth in career free throw attempts (473), fifth in career free throws (315) and sixth in field goal attempts.

The Pasadena native has been named Fluker has been named Big West Player of the Week five times this season and has been selected player of the week 12 times in her career. She has moved her into former UC Santa Barbara great Erin Buescher for the second most in league history. Anita Maxwell of New Mexico State is the record holder with 13.

Fluker recorded the third triple-double in CSUN history and 13th in Division I this season on Dec. 30 against Seattle U. She scored 28 points, grabbed 16 rebounds, and blocked a school-record 13 shots against the Redhawks. Fluker broke the previous school record of 11 blocks which was set by Camille Mahlknecht against Cal State Fullerton On Feb. 8, 2014.

Fluker's 13 blocks are the most by a Division I player in a game this season and reset the Big West Conference record for most blocks in a game. Simone Srubek held the previous mark of 12 which she accomplished on two occasions, most recently on Mar. 2, 1990 against UNLV.

She made a career high 14 free throws against the Redhawks, the 26th highest total by a Division I player in a game this season.

Fluker has grabbed 20 rebounds in a game three times this season. which is among the top 30 performances in a game by a D-1 player.

She is fifth among active D-1 players in double-doubles (53) and is only one of two juniors in the top 10 career leaders.

She is 13th among active Division I players in career rebounds, 24th in career blocks, and 82nd in career points.

Fluker reset the school records in 2017-18 for most points (619), rebounds (400), free throws (158), free throw attempts (206), and rebound average (12.1).

Coming into the season, Fluker's major weakness was from the free throw line. Her free throw percentage of 76.7 is the third-best in the Big West.

At one point, she made 23 consecutive free throws over three games from Dec. 30-Jan. 18 and was 36-of-41 during that time). Over her previous two seasons, Fluker had converted 157-of-267 from the line, a 58.8% conversion rate.

Fluker got a jump on the 2017-18 season by spending the summer at the 2017 USA Basketball Women's U23 National Team Training Camp and was the only player from a "Mid-Major" school in the camp.

BOAGNI NAMED BWC TOURNAMENT MVP

Tessa Boagni was named Big West Conference Tournament MVP Mar. 10. The 6-2 New Zealand native average 19.3 points, 8.5 rebounds, and 2.8 assists per game during the tournament.

Boagni shot 53.7% (29-of-54) from the floor and 79.2% (19-of-24) from the free throw line. Boagni added five steals and two blocks during the tournament.

She became the 12th CSUN women's basketball player to score at least

1,000 points in a career Mar. 6 when she scored 19 against the University of Hawai'i.

Boagni scored a career high 36 points Jan. 6 at Cal State Fullerton, the fifth most in a game by a CSUN player at the Division I level. Her 14 free throws against the Titans tie her with teammate Channon Fluker and one other for the fourth most in a game by a Matador player at the Division I level.

1-of-3 seniors on the team, Boagni is fourth in school history in career games played (122), sixth in career blocks (101), seventh in career rebounds (700), ninth in career field goals (407), and 10th in career field goal attempts (923),

THE LONG ROAD TO THE TITLE

CSUN took the long road to the Big West Tournament title. The Matadors became the first five seed to win the league tournament and became the first team to earn the title by winning four games (in five days).

The Big West first used the double bye format from 2004-2010 but the tournament was actually over consecutive days.

In 2011, the Big West women's tournament went to the traditional eight team format to coincide with our move to Honda Center. That lasted on the women's side for two years. In 2013, the Big West went back to the double bye format but it was spread over five days. So while a team having to play on day one still has to win four, the off day is different from the previous double-bye format.

IRON TANABE

Point guard Hayley Tanabe is the CSUN leader in minutes played per game. The 5-4 Torrance, Calif. native is averaging 35.6 minutes per game which is the second most in the Big West and is 115th in Division I in the category.

In the four-game Big West Tournament, Tanabe played 149 of a possible 160

IT WAS DESTINY

Freshman Destiny Brooks helped CSUN to the Big West Tournament title with a jumper that was banked in in the final moments of the championship game against UC Davis Mar. 10. After only in playing in seven of the first 27 Matadors' games this season, Brooks has played in seven consecutive games and has made five straight starts.

She has scored 51-of-her 72 points this season in the last seven games including a season high 15 in the second round of the Big West Tournament against UC Santa Barbara.

NATE SLIDES OVER TO CSUN BASKETBALL TEAM

Fifth year senior Taylor Nate joined the Matadors this season after a successful CSUN softball career.

Nate was named to the Big West Conference All-Freshman team in 2014. In 201 career appearances, Nate hit .268 with 13 home runs and 68 runs batted in.

The 6-0 forward began her CSUN basketball career with a start at No. 11 Oregon Nov. 10. She has appeared in 25 games this season, starting seven times. Nate is averaging 2.1 points and 2.1 rebounds per game.

She resumes a basketball career that began at Rocky Mount High school in her native Idaho. Nate was an All-League selection multiple times during her prep career.

CSUN DEFEATS ARIZONA FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1978

CSUN defeated Arizona 66-63 in the third-place game of the Warner Center Marriott Thanksgiving Basketball Classic Nov. 25.

The victory marked the first time since Dec. 1, 1978 that CSUN defeated Arizona (99-77 during a tournament at UNLV). The Nov. 25 victory marked the first time since Dec. 10, 2013 that the Matadors have defeated a Pac-12 opponent (65-64 vs. USC). The victory was the fourth for CSUN over a Power-5 conference school since the start of the 2011-12 season.

GET YOUR SCORECARD HERE

Through 34 games, CSUN has used 18 different starting lineups. All 12 active players on the Matadors' roster have started at least one game this season.

DEFENSE-DEFENSE

CSUN allowed only 30 points at UC Santa Barbara Jan. 31 in the 18-point victory over the Gauchos. The fewest points the Matadors have allowed in a game was 21 which UCSB scored on Feb. 14, 2015.

GETTING TO THE FREE THROW LINE

Getting to the free throw line was key for CSUN in the 86-66 victory over Cal Poly Feb. 17. The Matadors were 38-of-49 from the charity stripe against the Mustangs.

The 49 free throw attempts were the most for CSUN since the Matadors attempted 43 free throws against UC Irvine on Feb. 27, 2010. The 49 attempts are the third most in a game by a Division I club this season.

The school record for most free throw attempts in a game is 55, which was recorded on Dec. 8, 1979.

The 38 made free throws tied the school record which was also set against the Wolfpack on Dec. 8, 1979. The mark is the second most made in a Division I game this season and are the most in a Division I game by the Matadors since CSUN made 30 against Colgate on Nov. 25, 2011.

HEAD COACH JASON FLOWERS

8th Season • UCLA, 2001 •

BIG WEST COACH OF THE YEAR

Entering his eighth season as the head coach of the CSUN women's basketball in 2017-18, HEAD COACH JASON FLOWERS has completely reshaped the identity and culture of the Matadors.

player in more than 25 years to lead the league in scoring, rebounding and blocked shots. The 6-4 center spent the summer of 2017 as part of USA Basketball Women's U23 National Team Training Camp.

Eliza Matthews became the third Matador to be named Big West Conference Freshman of the Year in 2017 while Claudia Ramos played for the Mexican National Team at the 2017 FIBA Women's Americup.

Ashlee Guay received Big West Player of the Year honors in 2014, the first Matador in program history to be named her league's top honor. Guay left CSUN as the school's all-time leader in multiple categories, including career points, assists, steals and 3-pointers.

Camille Mahlkecht (2014) and Janae Sharpe (2015) each won Big West Defensive Player of the Year honors. In two seasons at CSUN, Cinnamon Lister, who transferred into the program, knocked down 154 3-pointers and set a school record with 89 in her first year at CSUN.

Several Matadors entered the professional ranks overseas, including Guay, Mahlkecht, Violet Alama and Jasmine Erving. There are Matadors currently playing in Germany, Israel and in other countries throughout the world.

Flowers' prowess is beginning to get noticed as he was invited to be a Court Coach for the USA Junior National Team in the summer of 2015 as the team prepared for international competition.

Before arriving at CSUN, Flowers worked as an assistant coach at UC Riverside. He helped the Highlanders qualify for the 2010 NCAA Tournament and 2009 WNIT. UCR set a new program record for Big West wins and recorded its first win ever over a nationally ranked foe with Flowers on the staff.

Prior to his stint with the Highlanders, Flowers began his college coaching career at Long Beach State where he was an assistant coach for four seasons (2004-08). While at Long Beach State, Flowers helped coach the 49ers to the 2005-06 Big West Conference Championship. Flowers' head coaching experience began at Valley High School in Santa Ana where he served as the head coach of the girls basketball program (2003-04).

Under Flowers' watch, CSUN won the Big West Tournament Championship in 2014 and 2015 to earn the league's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament. The Matadors also won the Big West Regular Season Title in 2014 for the first time in program history.

Inheriting a program that won 13 games in the three seasons prior to his arrival, Flowers has transformed the Matadors into a regional power. For his work, Flowers was named the Big West Coach of the Year following the 2011-12 and 2013-14 seasons.

Led by a senior quintet comprised of his first true recruiting class, the 2014-15 team set a program record with 23 victories. The Matadors finished 11-5 in Big West action and knocked off UC Davis in the Semifinals and Hawai'i in the Finals to repeat as Big West Tournament Champions.

In 2013-14, the Matadors rebounded from a 4-10 start to finish 18-15 overall and 12-4 in Big West play. CSUN knocked off UC Irvine in the Big West Tournament Semifinals and toppled Cal Poly in the Big West Tournament Championship to earn both the regular season and tournament titles.

After a four-win season in his first year, the Matadors orchestrated the best turnaround in NCAA Division I in 2011-12 by finishing 18-15. CSUN finished second in the Big West Standings that year and participated in the Women's National Invitational Tournament.

Flowers' student-athletes have earned multiple Big West honors in his time in charge of the program. Channon Fluker was named the 2016 Big West Conference Freshman of the Year, CollegeSportsMadness.com's National Mid-Major Freshman of the Year and was became the first freshman to earn first team All-Big West honors in over a decade.

Fluker built on her impressive start and earned 2017 Big West Conference Player of the Year honors. She became the first

BIG WEST COACH OF THE YEAR

In addition to his coaching experience, Flowers played at UC Irvine and UCLA. As a student-athlete, Flowers was a Big West Scholar-Athlete in 1999 at UC Irvine, the 2000 recipient of the Coaches vs. Cancer Scholar-Athlete Award and in 2001, the UCLA Alumni Association Academic Award winner while a member of the Bruins basketball team. Following his graduation with a Sociology degree at UCLA in 2001, Flowers served as the team's academic coordinator from 2001-03 as well as a volunteer assistant coach with the Bruins.

Flowers played in 47 games (21 as a starter) in two seasons at UC Irvine (1997-98, 1998-99). His best games included a 25-point effort against Long Beach State and eight rebounds against New Mexico State in 1997-98. The following year (1998-99), Flowers tallied a career-high six assists against Cal State Fullerton and a career-high five steals against North Texas. Also in 1998-99, Flowers shot .472 from three-point territory.

Flowers' roots in Southern California are strong. Flowers graduated from Bellflower High School (Bellflower, CA) where he averaged 12.4 points and 6.5 assists in helping his team to a 21-5 record during his senior campaign. His efforts landed him a spot on the All-Suburban League first team. Flowers also played baseball where he also gained all-league honors.

Flower's coaching strength runs through the family. Flowers is married to Tairia Flowers, the CSUN softball head coach. Tairia was a member of the United States National Team (2001-08), won a gold medal as a member of the 2004 U.S. Olympic softball team in Athens (Greece) and a silver medal at the 2008 Beijing Games.

The couple has three children: daughters Jasmine and Trystin, and son, Jayce.
