Storylines

- ◆ Notre Dame will be playing in its second tournament of the season, having previously won the WBCA Classic on the weekend after Thanksgiving.
- ◆ The Fighting Irish have won 24 of their last 27 regular-season tournament games, including a current streak of six in a row.

After playing just once in the past 18 days due to final exams and the Christmas holiday break, No. 17/15 Notre Dame will return to action this week as it takes part in the inaugural State Farm Holiday Hoops Classic at KeyArena in Seattle, Wash. The Fighting Irish will tangle with Gonzaga on Wednesday and Loyola Marymount on Thursday, with both games tipping off at 4:30 p.m. PT (7:30 p.m. ET).

Notre Dame (9-3, 1-0 BIG EAST) last took the hardwood on Dec. 20, leading wire-to-wire in a 94-43 win at Valparaiso. The Fighting Irish connected on 14 of their first 16 shots and never looked back en route to their fourth 50-point win of the season.

Junior guard Natalie Novosel scored a game-high 18 points (6-7 FG, 6-6 FT) in 20 minutes, while freshman forward Natalie Achonwa and senior guard Brittany Mallory each added 12 points for Notre Dame.

Rankings

- ◆ Notre Dame was No. 17 in last week's Associated Press poll and No. 15 in last week's ESPN/USA Today poll.
- ◆ Gonzaga and Loyola Marymount were not ranked last week.

Quick Hitters

- With its No. 17 ranking in the Dec. 20 Associated Press poll, Notre Dame now has appeared in the AP poll for a school-record 65 consecutive weeks, extending the program standard that began with the 2007-08 preseason poll.
- The Fighting Irish have posted a school-record six wins this season by at least 35 points, topping the old program standard of four 35-point victories set in 2008-09.
- Notre Dame has won seven games by 30 points or more, putting the Fighting Irish better than halfway to the school record of 10 30-point victories established in 2000-01.
- Notre Dame has scored at least 90 points in six games this season, just one shy of the program record of seven set in three separate seasons (1996-97, 1998-99 and 2007-08).
- The Fighting Irish rank among the top 16 in the country in eight statistical categories, according to the Dec. 13 NCAA statistics report. Notre Dame leads the nation in steals (now 16.3 spg.), while placing sixth in field goal percentage (.500), scoring margin (+30.0 ppg.), assists (20.3 apg.) and turnover margin (+9.33). The Fighting Irish also are 10th in the country in scoring offense (85.2 ppg.), 13th in three-point percentage defense (.233) and 16th in assist/turnover ratio (1.16).

- Notre Dame is closing in on the 700th win in school history, currently sporting a 698-305 (.696) record in 34 seasons of intercollegiate competition. There are 30 NCAA Division I programs that have reached the 700-win plateau, most recently Duke, Kansas and Missouri State earlier this month. Middle Tennessee has 699 victories, with the Blue Raiders set to play at No. 11 Kentucky on Wednesday.
- Notre Dame celebrated another program milestone on Dec. 5 with its 1,000th all-time game (a 72-51 win over Purdue at Purcell Pavilion).
- Part of Notre Dame's success thus far can be traced to the improvement in three of its veterans, each of whom has exceeded their scoring output from last season by at least 50 percent. Junior guard Natalie Novosel (5.0 to 15.4), senior forward Devereaux Peters (6.7 to 9.2) and junior forward Erica Solomon (3.4 to 6.4) also are currently logging career-high scoring averages this year.
- The Fighting Irish freshman class also has made significant contributions early on this season, led by forward Natalie Achonwa and guard Kayla McBride. Achonwa is averaging 9.1 points and a team-high 5.7 rebounds per game, and leads the BIG EAST with a .634 field goal percentage. McBride (who started four games around Thanksgiving when senior guard Brittany Mallory was slowed with an ankle injury) is averaging 8.2 points per game and is tied for seventh in the BIG EAST with a .539 field goal percentage. Between them, they have scored in double figures 10 times this season, with each scoring a season-high 14 points (Achonwa vs. Creighton Dec. 11, McBride vs. Morehead State on Nov. 15).

In-Season Interview Policy

All requests for Notre Dame player, coach or staff interviews must be made through Chris Masters and 24 hours' notice is appreciated. Please be aware that student-athletes' academic obligations always take precedence before any interview requests.

Media members also may speak to Fighting Irish team personnel before or after practice sessions. While most practices are open to the media, some may be closed at the coaching staff's discretion — contact Chris Masters for the latest practice schedule and availability.

On game days, no interviews will be granted with any Notre Dame player or coach prior to competition.

Credentials / Parking

Season credentials will be issued to all media covering the Fighting Irish on a regular basis. Please note — any Notre Dame men's basketball season credential also offers access to all Fighting Irish women's basketball games.

For single-game credentials, contact Chris Masters no later than 24 hours before tipoff. Credential requests may be submitted via phone, fax or e-mail. Passes will be left at the media will call entrance (Gate 8) of Purcell Pavilion.

Parking is free for all Fighting Irish women's basketball games in the large lot south of Purcell Pavilion. Due to construction near the arena, there are no designated parking lots or specific parking passes for media members.

Credentials remain the property of the University of Notre Dame and may be revoked at any time.

Game Notes

Notre Dame's game notes package is completed and made available on-line through the official Irish athletics web site during the season, usually at least one day prior to tipoff. Notre Dame's game notes are in Adobe PDF format and will be distributed via electronic means only (e-mail or web). Fax distribution is by request only.

Please contact Chris Masters if you wish to be added to the e-mail distribution list for Notre Dame's regular women's basketball releases.

Gameday Services

Gameday packages containing game notes, programs and other information will be available prior to all home contests. A pre-game meal also will be served in the Monogram Room media area (exit through stands above Gate 6 to right of press row, entrance on right after exiting outer concourse doors) beginning 75 minutes before tipoff.

A bank of statistics monitors is located on press row for the media's convenience. Final statistics books include an official NCAA box score and play-by-play. Telephone, copier and fax services are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Purcell Pavilion also offers wireless Internet capability — check with Chris Masters for access.

Post-Game Interviews

Following each Notre Dame home game, Fighting Irish head coach Muffet McGraw and selected players, as well as the visiting head coach and selected players, will be available to speak with the media. Post-game press conferences are held in the Hammes Auditorium, located between Gates 1 & 2 on the first floor of Purcell Pavilion (exit court via Gate 1 ramp on opposite end of court from press row, go straight and turn right at the Notre Dame women's basketball office; auditorium entrance will be on your left).

Media members should submit player requests for post-game interviews to Chris Masters at the final media timeout of the second half.

Around the BIG EAST

during the '10 season, helping the Silver Stars return to the playoffs for the fourth consecutive season. Three of Notre Dame's eight WNBA alums have won a total of four league championships — Riley won a pair of crowns with the Detroit Shock (2003 Finals MVP, 2006), Coquese Washington toiled for the 2000 Houston Comets, while Jacqueline Batteast was Riley's teammate on the '06 title-winning squad in Detroit.

- For the fifth year in a row, the Fighting Irish posted a perfect 100-percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR), according to figures released by the NCAA in October. What's more, since Muffet McGraw became head coach in 1987, every Notre Dame women's basketball player who has completed her athletic and academic eligibility at the University has earned her bachelor's degree (a 62-for-62 success rate), with all three members of this year's senior class on target to earn their diplomas.

A Quick Look At Gonzaga

Coming off the school's first-ever trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2010, Gonzaga has 10 letter-winners back in the fold, including two starters from that 25-5 squad.

The Bulldogs (10-3) seemingly haven't missed a beat, riding a nine-game winning streak coming into this week's tournament, most recently defeat Cal State Fullerton, 101-52 on Dec. 23 in Spokane. Senior guard/forward Janelle Bekkering had a near-perfect shooting day (10-11 FG, 2-2 3FG, 4-4 FT), scoring 26 points in just 24 minutes. Junior forward Kayla Standish added 22 points (10-13 FG) and nine rebounds, while senior guard Courtney Vandersloot posted a double-double with 14 points and 11 assists, sparking a Gonzaga offense that topped the 100-point mark for the third time this season.

Junior guard/forward Katelan Redmon leads the Bulldogs in scoring (18.5 ppg.) and is second in both rebounding (6.1 rpg.) and assists (3.2 apg.). Vandersloot is second in scoring (17.5 ppg.) and leads the nation in assists (9.7 apg.), while Standish adds 15.3 points per game and team highs of 7.7 rebounds per game and a .572 field goal percentage.

Head coach Kelly Graves is in his 11th season at Gonzaga with a 207-117 (.639) record at the school. Including a three-year stint at Saint Mary's (Calif.), Graves has a career record of 273-143 (.656).

The Notre Dame-Gonzaga Series

Wednesday's game will mark the first time Notre Dame and Gonzaga will meet on the hardwood.

Other Notre Dame-Gonzaga Series Tidbits

- Gonzaga is the sixth of seven first-time opponents on Notre Dame's schedule this year. The Fighting Irish are 3-2 against these new foes this season, defeating New Hampshire (99-48), Morehead State (91-28) and Wake Forest (92-69) at Purcell Pavilion, while falling at No. 9/10 Kentucky (81-76) and No. 2/3 Baylor (76-65).
- The Bulldogs will be the 186th different opponent in the 34-year history of Notre Dame women's basketball.

- Notre Dame is 44-7 (.863) against first-time opponents since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96, including a 24-3 (.889) mark vs. new teams since the start of the 2000-01 season.
- Notre Dame is 3-1 all-time against Washington schools, winning two of three matchups against the state's flagship institution, including the last Fighting Irish game against a Washington team (72-58 over UW on Dec. 11, 2004). Notre Dame also won at Pacific Lutheran, 57-48, on March 12, 1980, in the AIAW Division III National Tournament.
- Notre Dame has had three players on its all-time roster from the state of Washington. Kim Garrison (1986-87; Mill Creek) was the first Evergreen State product to suit up for the Fighting Irish, followed by Kari Hutchinson (1994-98; Nine Mile Falls). The most recent Washington native to suit up for Notre Dame was Yakima resident Teresa Borton, who played for the Fighting Irish from 2001-05.

- Notre Dame freshman forward Natalie Achonwa and Gonzaga senior guard/forward Janelle Bekkering were teammates on the 2010 Canadian Senior National Team that finished 12th at the FIBA World Championships in Czech Republic. Achonwa averaged 4.6 points and 3.9 rebounds in the eight-game tournament, while Bekkering appeared in six contests, averaging 2.5 points and 0.7 rebounds per game. Achonwa and Bekkering also were two of the three NCAA Division I players competing in the 2010 FIBA World Championships along with Connecticut's Maya Moore, who won a gold medal with Team USA.
- While Wednesday will be the first meeting between Notre Dame and Gonzaga, Bulldogs head coach Kelly Graves has faced the Fighting Irish before. On March 13, 1999, Graves piloted Saint Mary's (Calif.) to its first-ever NCAA Championship berth, with the Gaels dropping a narrow 61-57 decision to a shorthanded Notre Dame squad in Baton Rouge, La. (it was days after Fighting Irish point guard Niele Ivey was sidelined for the season with a torn ACL).

A Quick Look At Loyola Marymount

Hopes were high for Loyola Marymount entering this season, with 11 letterwinners and four starters returning from last year's 13-17 squad. However, the Lions' toughest opponent to date hasn't been on the other end of the court, but rather the injury bug, which has done a number on LMU's roster.

Loyola Marymount (5-7) comes into this week's tournament on a three-game losing streak, most recently dropping a 54-33 verdict at Arkansas-Little Rock on Dec. 20. Junior guard Candice Nichols scored a team-high 11 points for the Lions, who were held to fewer than 40 points for the third consecutive game.

Part of the reason for LMU's recent offensive struggles has been its adjustment to the season-ending foot injury to junior guard/forward Alex Cowling, who was among the national scoring leaders (22.5 ppg.) and added a team-high 8.5 rebounds per game before going down right after Thanksgiving. In her absence, Nichols is the Lions' leading scorer (13.6 ppg.) and second-leading rebounder (5.3 rpg.), while freshman guard Hazel Ramirez adds 10.6 ppg.

Head coach Julie Wilhoit is in her 16th season at Loyola Marymount, sporting a 218-228 (.489) in southern California. Adding in her prior stops at IUPUI (1986-91) and Pitt-Bradford (1993-95), she has a 23-year career coaching record of 339-298 (.532).

The Notre Dame-Loyola Marymount Series

Notre Dame and Loyola Marymount will be meeting for just the second time, following a 78-40 Fighting Irish victory on Jan. 3, 1987, in Los Angeles (see recap below).

The Last Time

Notre Dame And Loyola Marymount Met

Heidi Bunek turned in a near-perfect shooting day (6-7 FG, 8-9 FT), scoring a game-high 20 points as Notre Dame rolled to a 78-40 win over Loyola Marymount on Jan. 3, 1987, at Gersten Pavilion in Los Angeles.

Sandy Botham added 10 points for the Fighting Irish, who shot 59.4 percent from the floor in the first half while racing to a 42-8 halftime lead (at the time, the second-fewest points ever allowed by Notre Dame in a single half).

Sylvia Bauer was the lone LMU player to score in double figures, tossing in 12 points.

Other Notre Dame-Loyola Marymount

Series Tidbits

- LMU is the last of four non-conference opponents Notre Dame is facing this season for the first time in more than a decade. The Fighting Irish also revived long dormant series with UCLA (12-year hiatus), Butler (11 years) and Creighton (29 years) earlier this season.
- LMU head coach Julie Wilhoit is an Indiana native, having been born in Greensburg and raised in Osgood before turning a standout playing career at Marian College (now University) in Indianapolis. She also coached five seasons at IUPUI (1986-91), amassing an 88-44 (.667) record with the Jaguars.
- Notre Dame and LMU have one common opponent this season — UCLA (currently ranked ninth in the nation). The Fighting Irish lost to the Bruins, 86-83 in double overtime on Nov. 18 at Purcell Pavilion, while the Lions dropped a 67-43 decision at home to UCLA on Dec. 3.

Notre Dame vs. The West Coast Conference

Notre Dame will be playing a current member of the West Coast Conference for just the seventh and eighth times in its 34-year history, and the first in more than a decade. The Fighting Irish are 5-1 all-time against the WCC, most recently

Other Notre Dame Tournament Tidbits

- Notre Dame is 1-5 (.167) all-time when playing in the state of Washington, with that lone win coming during the program's infancy (57-48 at Pacific Lutheran on March 12, 1980, in the AIAW Division III National Tournament).
- The Fighting Irish are 0-5 when playing in Seattle, dropping a pair of games at the Seattle Times/Husky Classic in both 1986 (57-54 vs. Oklahoma; 50-48 vs. Montana) and 1994 (91-70 vs. No. 9 Colorado; 79-76 vs. Miami-Ohio), as well as a single game at Washington (85-74 on Dec. 7, 2003 - the last time Notre Dame has played in Seattle).
- This week's tournament features two of the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history. Notre Dame's Muffet McGraw comes into the week with 622 victories in 29 seasons (the first five at Lehigh from 1983-87), while Seattle's Joan Bonvicini also has amassed 622 wins in 31 years on the sidelines (including prior stops at Long Beach State and Arizona). Both coaches rank 11th on the all-time wins list among active Division I coaches, and 16th in Division I history.

Tournament Tested

Notre Dame has felt right at home in tournament situations during the past 15 years. Starting with the 1996-97 season, the Fighting Irish have won 24 of their last 27 regular-season tournament games (multi-game events only), including three-game runs to the title at last year's Paradise Jam in the U.S. Virgin Islands, and this year's WBCA Classic at Purcell Pavilion.

The only Notre Dame losses during this current stretch were a pair of defeats to third-ranked teams in the Preseason WNIT semifinals (72-59 vs. Tennessee at Ruston, La., in 1996; 75-59 at Maryland in 2007) and a 67-63 overtime setback at No. 20 Colorado on Nov. 15, 2003 in the finals of the WBCA Classic — a game that saw the Buffaloes sink a desperation 30-footer at the end of regulation to force the extra session.

Notre Dame is playing its second regular-season tournament of the 2010-11 campaign, the first time the Fighting Irish have competed in multiple tournaments in the same season since 1996-97 (third place at Preseason WNIT; champion of Georgia Tech Comfort Inn Downtown Classic).

Only twice in school history has Notre Dame won two regular-season tournament titles in the same year, and both occurred during the program's Division III era. In 1978-79, the Fighting Irish won the Huntington (Ind.) University Tournament and the Northern Illinois Huskie Invitational. The following season, Notre Dame claimed top honors at the Taylor (Ind.) University Invitational and repeated as the champion of the Northern Illinois Huskie Invitational.

The Five-Finger Discount

Notre Dame comes into this week's tournament leading the nation in steals with 16.3 thefts per game. The Fighting Irish also have recorded double-digit steals in nine of 12 games this season, including four contests with 20-plus steals.

Highlighting this year's takeaway brigade for Notre Dame was a school-record 36-steal performance in the season-opening victory against New Hampshire on Nov. 12 at Purcell Pavilion. The Fighting Irish followed that up three days later with 26 thefts in a win over Morehead State, and also logged 24 steals at Valparaiso (Dec. 2) and 23 steals against IUPUI (Nov. 26).

Prior to this season, Notre Dame had posted 23 steals in a game just seven times in the first 33 years of the Fighting Irish women's basketball program (and only three games with 25-plus steals in that time, none since a then-record tying 29 steals at Saint Louis on Jan. 31, 1991).

Individually, Notre Dame has nine different players with double-digit steals this season, led by junior guard Natalie Novosel, who has registered 27 thefts (2.3 per game), and senior guard Brittany Mallory, who has collected a team-high 2.5 steals per game (tied for fifth in the BIG EAST).

The 700 Club

With an all-time record of 698-305 (.696), Notre Dame is closing in on the 700th win in school history, a milestone that 30 NCAA Division I programs have reached, including three this season (Duke, Kansas and Missouri State, all earlier this month).

The Fighting Irish actually are in a race with Middle Tennessee and Saint Joseph's (Pa.) to see which school will be the next to reach the 700-win mark. MTSU currently has 699 victories as they prepare to visit No. 11 Kentucky on Wednesday. Meanwhile, SJU next will play host to New Hampshire Tuesday afternoon.

Another Present Under The Tree

Notre Dame is 22-11 (.667) all-time in its first game after the Christmas holiday, with a 10-5 (.667) record away from South Bend and a 16-7 (.696) record in the Muffet McGraw era (1987-88 to present).

The Fighting Irish also have won their last seven games coming off the Christmas break,

Ringin' In The New Year

Notre Dame is 19-14 (.576) all-time in its last game of the calendar year, with an 11-11 record away from South Bend and a 16-7 (.696) record in the McGraw era. The Fighting Irish also have won their last three games when closing out the month of December, including a 74-69 victory over No. 18/16 Vanderbilt last Dec. 31 at Purcell Pavilion.

Game #12 Recap: Valparaiso

Natalie Novosel scored 18 points while Natalie Achonwa and Brittany Mallory added 12 apiece to help No. 17 Notre Dame easily beat Valparaiso 94-43 on Dec. 20 at VU's Athletics-Recreation Center.

Notre Dame (9-3) had 24 steals and led by as many as 50 in the second half.

The Fighting Irish, who have a tradition of slow starts against the Crusaders, jumped out to a 10-2 lead at the first media time out and never looked back.

They built the lead to 34-11 with 6:45 left in the first half before subbing liberally.

Novosel and Mallory had 10 points each at halftime for Notre Dame, which also recorded 14 steals and four blocked shots at the intermission.

The second half was more of the same as the Irish built their lead as high as 54 points in the final five minutes.

Stefanie Lang scored 11 points to lead the Crusaders (2-9).

Noting The Valparaiso Game

- Notre Dame posts its fourth 50-point win this season, and sixth by at least 35 points (both school records).
- The 51-point margin tied for the third-largest road win in school history, and largest since Nov. 20, 2007 (94-41 at Central Michigan).
- The Fighting Irish also top the 90-point mark for the sixth time this year, one shy of the school record set three times (1996-97, 1998-99 and 2007-08).
- Notre Dame earns its 23rd consecutive win when coming out of its December final exam break, a run that started following a 73-67 home loss to UCLA on Dec. 21, 1985 (two seasons before Muffet McGraw took over as the Fighting Irish head coach — no games played between exams and Christmas in 1994 and 1997); the last two seasons, the Fighting Irish have won their first game after finals by at least 50 points (90-31 over Charlotte exactly one year earlier at Purcell Pavilion).
- Notre Dame earns its 15th consecutive win heading into the Christmas holiday break and rises to 25-9 (.735) all-time in pre-Yuletide contests (last loss: 87-83 at Michigan State on Dec. 21, 1995, the program's first in the BIG EAST Conference).
- The Fighting Irish register their 36th consecutive victory against a current Horizon

League member (second this season after an 85-54 win over Butler on Nov. 28 at Purcell Pavilion), a streak that began after a 65-62 home loss to Butler on Jan. 22, 1994; Notre Dame is 107-14 (.884) all-time against current Horizon League teams, including a 45-9 (.833) mark on the road.

- The Fighting Irish have won 16 consecutive games against other Indiana schools, improving to 121-32 (.791) all-time against in-state opponents, with a 61-21 (.744) record outside of South Bend — Notre Dame went 4-0 against Indiana schools this season, also defeating IUPUI (95-29), Butler (85-54) and Purdue (72-51).
- The Fighting Irish move to 24-0 all-time against Valparaiso, with an 11-0 series record on the road.
- The 51-point margin is the second-largest in Notre Dame's 24-game series with Valparaiso, topped only by an 84-27 Fighting Irish win over the Crusaders on Jan. 21, 1982, in Valparaiso.
- Notre Dame has held Valparaiso to fewer than 60 points in 22 of 24 series games.
- The Fighting Irish recorded at least 20 steals for the fourth time this season, notching at least 24 steals for the third time (Notre Dame had just seven 23-steal games in the program's first 33 years of existence).
- The Fighting Irish shot at least 50 percent from the field for the fourth consecutive game and seventh time in the past eight outings (season-low .387 at second-ranked Baylor on Dec. 1).
- Notre Dame posted a season-high +21 rebound margin (44-23, including 18 offensive rebounds), its largest advantage on the glass since Jan. 6, 2009, at DePaul (50-29, +21).
- The Fighting Irish dished out at least 20 assists for the eighth time this year.
- Brittany Mallory scored a season-high 12 points and matched her season best with five steals.
- Fraderica Miller scored a season-high eight points and tied her career high with five steals.
- For the second consecutive game, a Notre Dame player came close to a perfect shooting night — Natalie Novosel had a game-high 18 points (6-7 FG, 6-6 FT) after freshman forward Natalie Achonwa scored a career-best 14 points (7-8 FG) in the Dec. 11 win over Creighton at Purcell Pavilion.
- Devereaux Peters recorded a season-high four blocked shots.
- Skylar Diggins handed out a game-high five assists, the seventh time this season she has had 5+ assists in a game.

Polling Station

Notre Dame was ranked 17th in the Dec. 20 Associated Press poll. That marked the 65th consecutive AP poll appearance for the Fighting Irish, extending the program record that started with the AP preseason poll in 2007-08 (the old record was 59 consecutive weeks from 1998-2001).

This year's No. 12 preseason ranking (currently a season high) also represented the 11th time in the past 12 years (starting with the 1999-2000 campaign) that Notre Dame has appeared in the preseason AP poll, something only eight schools in the nation have done — Connecticut, Duke and Tennessee have shown up in all 12 during that span, while Georgia, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Stanford join the Irish with 11 preseason AP poll berths.

Notre Dame has been ranked in the AP poll for 204 weeks during the program's 34-year history, with every one of those appearances coming in the Muffet McGraw era (since 1987-88). McGraw ranks 13th among all active NCAA Division I head coaches for weeks in the AP poll, and also is 22nd all-time in that category.

In addition, the Fighting Irish are ranked 15th in the Dec. 21 ESPN/USA Today/WBCA coaches' poll. Notre Dame now has been ranked in the coaches' survey for 65 of the past 66 weeks, falling just outside the Top 25 in the final poll of the 2008-09 season. Nevertheless, the Fighting Irish have appeared in the coaches' poll for a total of 196 weeks during their history (all coming during McGraw's tenure).

More Polling Data

Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw is one of 30 people in NCAA Division I women's basketball history who have both played for and coached a team that has appeared in the Associated Press Top 25 poll.

Besides her 204 AP poll appearances while coaching at Notre Dame, McGraw was the starting point guard at Saint Joseph's (Pa.) as a senior in 1977, helping the Hawks rise to No. 3 in the nation.

Of the 30 people on this list, 16 currently are NCAA Division I head coaches (see accompanying chart), including former Fighting Irish point guard and assistant coach Coquese Washington ('92), who helped Notre Dame to its first-ever AP poll ranking in 1990-91, and is in her fourth season as head coach at Penn State, guiding the Lady Lions into the AP poll at No. 23 on Jan. 25, 2010.

Six of the 16 active coaches in this group — including McGraw — led their teams to this year's NCAA Championship, while McGraw and Baylor's Kim Mulkey are the only active skippers to play for and coach a team in the AP poll, and

A Grand Occasion

The Dec. 5 game against Purdue marked a significant milestone in Notre Dame women's basketball history, as the Fighting Irish played their 1,000th all-time game, defeating the Boilermakers, 72-51. Notre Dame has an all-time record of 697-305 (.696) in 34 seasons of varsity competition, including a 346-87 (.799) record at Purcell Pavilion.

The Fighting Irish played their first game on Dec. 3, 1977, defeating Valparaiso, 48-41 at Purcell Pavilion. Notre Dame would play its first three seasons as a Division III program in the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) before moving up to the Division I level in 1980-81. The following season, the Fighting Irish would begin competing under the NCAA banner.

Peters Adds Griner To SWAT Team

Senior forward Devereaux Peters has made a living as a shot blocking presence in the paint for Notre Dame throughout her career, with her 6-foot-2 frame and 77-inch wingspan. However, on Dec. 1 at No. 2/3 Baylor, she added another notch to her belt in historic fashion.

At the 10:22 mark of the second half, the Lady Bears threw an entry pass in to their 6-foot-8 sophomore All-America center Brittney Griner, but as she turned to shoot, Peters rotated perfectly from the weak side and rejected Griner's shot out of bounds. It was one of the highlights in a 17-2 Fighting Irish run that pulled Notre Dame within six points of Baylor with five minutes left.

It's believed to be the first time in Griner's two-year college career that she has had a shot blocked. A video clip of Peters' block has been posted on the Notre Dame Women's Basketball YouTube channel (search for "notredameirish-hoops" or click the link through the sidebar on the women's basketball page at www.UND.com).

Notre Dame Picked Fourth In 2010-11

BIG EAST Coaches' Preseason Poll

Notre Dame was selected to finish fourth in the BIG EAST Conference in 2010-11, according to a preseason vote of the league's 16 head coaches released on Oct. 21 during the annual BIG EAST Women's Basketball Media Day at the B.B. King Blues Club & Grill in New York City.

The Fighting Irish picked up 177 points in the balloting (coaches may not vote for their own teams), placing behind only two-time defending national champion Connecticut, which was a unanimous choice to win the conference title with 225 points, West Virginia (207 points, one first-place vote) and Georgetown (186 points) — St. John's rounded out the top five with 173 points.

Diggins Earns 2010-11 Preseason All-BIG EAST Honors

Along with picking Notre Dame to finish fourth in the conference this year in their preseason poll, the BIG EAST coaches unanimously voted sophomore guard Skylar Diggins to the 10-player Preseason All-BIG EAST Team.

A preseason candidate for the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA)/State Farm Wade Trophy, Naismith Trophy and the John R. Wooden Award, as well as a consensus preseason All-American by most major media outlets, Diggins is coming off one of the finest rookie seasons in Fighting Irish women's basketball history as the first freshman in 17 seasons to lead Notre Dame in scoring and the first rookie in 16 years to top 100 assists in her debut season. What's more, she finished as just the third player in program history (and the first freshman) to log 400 points, 100 assists and 75 steals in a single season, joining a pair of All-Americans and Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award (top senior in the nation 5-foot-8 and under) recipients — current Notre Dame assistant coach Niele Ivey (2000-01) and Megan Duffy (2004-05) — in achieving that distinction.

A 2009-10 honorable mention All-America selection by both the Associated Press and WBCA, Diggins led Notre Dame in scoring (13.8 ppg.), steals (2.6 spg.) and assists (tied - 3.2 apg.) last season, while ranking third on the squad in three-point percentage (.350) and free throw percentage (.782). She also chalked up a team-high 24 double-digit scoring games, including seven 20-point outings, capped by a season-high 31 points against Vermont in the second round of the NCAA Championship at Purcell Pavilion. That scoring effort was the highest ever recorded by a Fighting Irish rookie in NCAA postseason play, while her 13 field goals made tied the program record for an NCAA tournament game.

In 2009-10, Diggins set Notre Dame freshman records for steals (90), free throws made (111), free throws attempted (142) and minutes played (1,028), while ranking among the top five on the Irish rookie charts for points (3rd - 484), scoring average (tied/4th - 13.8 ppg.), field goals made (3rd - 169), field goals attempted (3rd - 385), three-point field goals made (4th - 35), three-point attempts (5th - 100), three-point percentage (5th - .350), assists (3rd - 112), steals per game (2nd - 2.6 spg.), games started (tied/2nd - 30), games played (2nd - 35) and minutes per game (5th - 29.4).

McGraw Is Simply Legendary

The announcement on July 10, 2010, may have made it official, but it really only confirmed what Notre Dame fans have known for a very long time — head coach Muffet McGraw is a Hall of Famer.

McGraw, the 2001 consensus national coach of the year and winner of more than 600 games in her illustrious career, was one of six people — and the lone coach — named to the 2011 Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Class, as announced in Uncasville, Conn., during the "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Stars at the Sun Game" that was televised live nationally on ESPN from Mohegan Sun Arena.

The others in McGraw's Hall of Fame class include former Olympic gold medalists Ruthie Bolton (Auburn) and Vicky Bullett (Maryland), as well as Val Ackerman, the first WNBA president (1996-2005) and first female president of USA Basketball (2005-08), and a pair of three-time All-America players from the pre-NCAA era, Pearl Moore (Frances Marion) and Lometa Odom (Wayland Baptist).

The '11 class officially was introduced at the 2010 State Farm Tip-Off Classic on Nov. 16 at the XL Center in Hartford, Conn., before the Connecticut-Baylor game. The group will be enshrined June 10-12, 2011, during the 13th annual Induction Weekend at the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in Knoxville, Tenn.

McGraw becomes the first Notre Dame selection for the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. The Irish skipper also is the third BIG EAST Conference coach chosen for the honor, joining Rutgers' C. Vivian Stringer (2001) and Connecticut's Geno Auriemma (2006) in that elite company. First-year Seton Hall head coach Anne Donovan also was a member of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inaugural class in 1999, going in primarily for her accomplishments as a player at Old Dominion.

McGraw also will be the ninth active college head coach to enter the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame on the basis of her success on the sidelines. Besides Stringer and Auriemma, the others on this notable list are: Pat Summitt (1999 - Tennessee), Van Chancellor (2001 - LSU), Tara VanDerveer (2002 - Stanford), Sylvia Hatchell (2004 - North Carolina), Andy Landers (2007 - Georgia) and Debbie Ryan (2008 - Virginia).

Riley's Double Zero Goes To The Rafters

Ruth Riley, a three-time All-America center at Notre Dame during her storied career from 1997-2001, and the 2001 consensus national player of the year, was inducted into Notre Dame's Ring of Honor on Nov. 12 during a pre-game ceremony before the Fighting Irish opened their 2010-11 season against New Hampshire at Purcell Pavilion.

A banner honoring Riley's number 00 was unveiled and now permanently hangs in the rafters of Purcell Pavilion, making her the first women's basketball player added to the Ring of Honor, and the second player overall following last spring's induction of men's basketball All-America forward Luke Harangody.

Beginning in 2010-11, the Notre Dame Athletics Department plans to honor annually additional former and present men's and women's basketball and volleyball players who have made distinguished and noteworthy contributions during their career while student-athletes at the University. A committee that will consist of Fighting Irish coaches and administrators will be formed to determine future inductees.

basketball history with 2,000 career points and 1,000 rebounds, Riley ranks as the program's all-time leader in seven categories, including rebounds (1,007), blocked shots (370 - fifth in NCAA history) and field goal percentage (.632 - 11th in NCAA history). What's more, the Macy, Ind., native ranks third in school history with 2,072 points, and holds the Fighting Irish single-game scoring record with 41 points in a January 1998 win over Providence. Riley also played a pivotal role in Notre Dame's run to the 2001 NCAA national championship, earning Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors after scoring 28 points and grabbing 13 rebounds in the title game victory over Purdue, capped by her gamewinning free throws with 5.8 seconds remaining.

A 10-year WNBA veteran (the past four with the San Antonio Silver Stars), two-time WNBA champion and 2004 Olympic gold medalist, Riley was back on campus with the other members of the 2001 championship team for ceremonies honoring the 10th anniversary of that milestone achievement in Notre Dame athletics history.

Half And Half

During the past decade, Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable when it has the lead at half-time. The Fighting Irish are 197-17 (.921) since the start of the 2000-01 campaign when they go into the dressing room with the lead, including wins in 125 of their last 136 such contests, and 34 in a row since a 58-47 loss to Villanova on March 8, 2009, in the BIG EAST Championship quarterfinals at Hartford's XL Center (Notre Dame led 25-21 at intermission).

The Fighting Irish have been up at the break in nine games this year, including their Dec. 20 win at Valparaiso when they led 49-23 through the first 20 minutes.

The Best Offense Is A Good Defense...

During the past 16 seasons, Notre Dame has discovered that a solid defensive effort can almost certainly guarantee a victory. In fact, since the beginning of the 1995-96 season (Notre Dame's first in the BIG EAST Conference), the Fighting Irish have an amazing 216-15 (.935) record when they hold their opponents below 60 points in a game, including victories in eight contests this season (New Hampshire, Morehead State, IUPUI, Butler, Purdue, Providence, Creighton, Valparaiso).

...But Sometimes You Have To Score If You Want To Win

Not resting solely on its defensive laurels, Notre Dame also seemingly has found the magic mark when it comes to outscoring its opponents. During the past 16 seasons (since 1995-96), the Fighting Irish are 147-5 (.967) when they score at least 80 points in a game. The only blemishes on that record are three overtime losses to Texas A&M (88-84) and Michigan State (87-83) in 1995 and UCLA (86-83 in double OT) in 2010, as well as a 106-81 loss to Connecticut in 1998, and an 81-80 loss to DePaul in 2008.

Notre Dame has topped the 80-point mark in eight games this year (7-1 record) after going 17-0 last season when it scored at least 80 points, including four games when it topped the 90-point mark (a plateau the Fighting Irish already have attained six times this season, one short of the school record set on three occasions - 1996-97, 1998-99 and 2007-08).

Now That's A Home Court Advantage

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's success has been its stellar play at home. In fact, the Fighting Irish have been virtually untouchable at home in recent years, winning 196 of their last 222 games (.883) at the 9,149-seat Purcell Pavilion, including winning streaks of 51 and 25 games in that span. Notre Dame also has a 106-18 (.855) record in BIG EAST Conference play at the former Joyce Center, sporting a 31-game league winning streak at home before it ended with a 48-45 loss to Villanova in the '02 home finale.

The Fighting Irish have been particularly strong when it comes to non-conference games at home, winning 92 of their last 100 non-BIG EAST contests (.920) at Purcell Pavilion, dating back to the 1994-95 season. Five of the eight losses in that span came at the hands of Big Ten Conference opponents (four by 12 points or less) — Wisconsin in 1996 (81-69), Purdue in 2003 (71-54), Michigan State in 2004 (82-73 OT), Indiana in 2006 (54-51) and Minnesota in 2009 (79-71) — with the other defeats coming to Tennessee in 2005 (62-51) and 2008 (87-63), and to UCLA in 2010 (86-83 in 2OT). The Purdue loss also snapped a 33-game non-conference home winning streak which began after the UW setback.

Since its inaugural season in 1977-78, Notre Dame has played all of its games at the former Joyce Center, posting a 346-87 (.799) record at the venerable facility. Three times (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04), the Fighting Irish went a perfect 15-0 at home, which was the school record for home victories in a season prior to last year, when Notre Dame went 16-1, capped by an 84-66 triumph over Vermont on March 23, 2010, in the second round of the NCAA Championship.

Irish Are The Hottest Ticket In Town

The 2009-10 season saw an unprecedented surge in fan support for Notre Dame women's basketball, as the Fighting Irish set new program records for the highest year-end NCAA attendance ranking (fourth), highest average attendance (8,377 fans per game) and most sellouts (six) in a single season. And, as the old saying goes — "you ain't seen nothin' yet."

For the second consecutive preseason, Notre Dame fans have all but exhausted the program's season ticket packages (close to 7,500) and are snapping up single-game ducats at a rate that will have the Fighting Irish challenging their freshly-minted single-season average attendance record in 2010-11.

Notre Dame has wasted little time in getting started with that challenge, averaging 8,452 fans for its first eight home games this season, including a sellout crowd of 9,149 for the Dec. 5 win over in-state rival Purdue.

Part of the appeal of Notre Dame women's basketball can be traced to the renovated

Irish On Your Radio Dial

Beginning with the 2008-09 athletics year, the Notre Dame athletics department announced it had partnered with the LeSEA Broadcasting Network, making Pulse FM (96.9/92.1) the new radio home of Notre Dame women's basketball in the South Bend market.

LeSEA originates all Notre Dame women's basketball games, with those events carried on Pulse FM (96.9/92.1), marking a return to the FM side of the dial for the first time since the 1998-99 season. Combined, these two stations blanket the nation's No. 91 media market (South Bend-Elkhart), covering a 21-county area in northern Indiana and southwest Michigan that contains more than 1.35 million listeners (better than 800,000 in the greater South Bend area alone). All told, Notre Dame's women's basketball network stretches from Kalamazoo, Mich., to the north, North Judson, Ind., to the west, Macy, Ind., (home of former Irish All-America center Ruth Riley) to the south, and LaGrange, Ind., to the east.

Women's basketball game broadcasts also continue to be streamed live and free of charge on Notre Dame's official athletics web site (www.UND.com) through the Fighting Irish All-Access multimedia package.

Bob Nagle, the voice of Notre Dame women's basketball from 1996-97 through 1998-99 (including the program's first NCAA Final Four berth in 1997), returns for his third season in his second stint as the radio play-by-play broadcaster for the Fighting Irish.

Notre Dame On The Small Screen

Notre Dame will have at least 24 regular season games televised during the 2010-11 season. Highlighting this year's broadcast schedule are seven nationally- or regionally-televised Fighting Irish women's basketball contests, including the program's fourth-ever appearance on network television (Jan. 8 vs. Connecticut on CBS), two showings on the ESPN family of networks, and three others on CBS College Sports.

In addition, Notre Dame continues to expand its broadcast reach globally on the Internet. All Fighting Irish regular-season home games not selected for commercial TV coverage will be webcast live on the official Notre Dame athletics web site, www.UND.com, via the site's free multimedia package, Fighting Irish All-Access.

This year's TV slate continues a trend that has seen the Fighting Irish become a regular fixture on television. Beginning with the NCAA championship season of 2000-01 and continuing through the Dec. 20 Valparaiso contest (a Horizon League TV webcast), Notre Dame has played in 177 televised games, including 123 that were broadcast nationally.

Oh Captain, My Captain

Senior forward Becca Bruszewski and senior guard Brittany Mallory are serving as Notre Dame's team captains for the 2010-11 season. Both players received the captain's honor for the first time in their respective careers following a preseason vote by their teammates.

Irish Fans Crave Another Big Mac Attack

It's year four of Notre Dame's wildly-successful "Big Mac" promotion, offering fans a coupon for a free Big Mac from South Bend-area McDonald's restaurants if the Fighting Irish score at least 88 points in a home game.

In the four-year history of the promotion (and counting exhibition games), Notre Dame has hit the 88-point mark 24 times, including wins this year over Michigan Tech (exhibition), New Hampshire, Morehead State, IUPUI, Wake Forest and Creighton.

It should come as no surprise that in the short history of the promotion, the Notre Dame player with the most "Big Mac" baskets shares the same initials with the tasty burger — senior guard Brittany Mallory, who sent the crowd home happy (and presumably with full bellies) four times during the promotion's inaugural run in 2007-08.

And for those tracking such things (or perhaps falling under the heading of "media relations director has too much time on his hands"), 14 different players have converted the "burger ball", including eight current members of the Fighting Irish roster.

What's more, of the 24 Big Mac games to date, 13 have been reached on two-point baskets, eight on free throws, and three on three-pointers.

Next Game: Southeast Missouri State

After returning from Seattle, Notre Dame will ring in the new year at home on Jan. 2, as it plays host to Southeast Missouri State in a 2 p.m. (ET) matinee at Purcell Pavilion. It will be the first-ever matchup between the schools, while the Fighting Irish will be aiming to open January with a victory for the 14th time in its 16-year BIG EAST Conference era.

Southeast Missouri (4-8) has lost three in a row as it prepares to come off the Christmas break on Thursday, playing host to Lindenwood-Belleveille in an afternoon contest, its lone game prior to visiting South Bend next weekend.

2010-11 Signees

University of Notre Dame head women's basketball coach Muffet McGraw announced Nov. 11 that three of the country's top high school student-athletes have chosen to continue their academic and athletic careers with the Fighting Irish, each signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Notre Dame beginning in the fall of 2011.

Madison Cable, a 5-11 guard from Mount Lebanon, Pa. (Mount Lebanon High School), Whitney Holloway, a 5-4 guard from Plainfield, Ill. (Montini Catholic High School) and Markisha Wright, a 6-2 forward from Des Moines, Iowa (Des Moines East High School) all made their official commitments to the Fighting Irish during the early signing period.

All three student-athletes are rated among the top 60 players in the country by various national recruiting services. As a group, this trio currently is a consensus top-20 class by all major recruiting outlets (as high as No. 7 by Blue Star Basketball), giving Notre Dame a Top 25 class for the 15th consecutive year, a streak only two other schools in the country (Connecticut and Tennessee) can match.

A capsule look at the newest additions to the Notre Dame women's basketball program follows:

New Hampshire 12 36 — 48
Notre Dame 53 46 — 99

FG Pct: New Hampshire 51.4, Notre Dame 51.4. 3-PT FG Pct: New Hampshire 27.3, Notre Dame 20.0. FT Pct: New Hampshire 63.6, Notre Dame 74.2. Turnovers: New Hampshire 49, Notre Dame 19. Blocked Shots: New Hampshire 3, Notre Dame 3 (Peters 2). Steals: New Hampshire 10 (Hogan, Wells 3), Notre Dame 36 (Novosel 7). Attendance: 8,614.

NOTES: Notre Dame's 36 steals shattered the old school record of 29 thefts that was set twice before — Feb. 9, 1985, against Xavier, and most recently on Jan. 31, 1991, at Saint Louis ... the Fighting Irish also broke a nearly 30-year-old school record by forcing 49 New Hampshire turnovers — the previous record of 48 was set on Jan. 11, 1980, at the Huskie Invitational in DeKalb, Ill., during Notre Dame's final season as an AIAW Division III program (the Fighting Irish moved up to Division I for the 1980-81 campaign) ... Notre Dame's 28 consecutive points in the first half were just three shy of the school record for the longest interrupted string of points, with the 31-0 record run occurring on Jan. 18, 1997, at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish allowed just 12 UNH points in the first half, the fewest given up by Notre Dame in a single period since Dec. 13, 2003, when Dayton tallied just 11 points in a 78-41 Notre Dame win at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish improve to 26-8 (.765) in season openers, stretching their current winning streak in lidifiers in 16 consecutive games (Notre Dame also is 21-3 in season openers during the 24-year tenure of head coach Muffet McGraw) ... the Fighting Irish now are 26-8 in home openers and 20-4 under McGraw ... the 51-point margin is the second-largest winning spread in a season opener in school history, topped only by a program-record 78-point margin of victory (113-35) in the 1989-90 season opener against Liberty (Nov. 24, 1989) at the UCF Rotary Classic in Orlando, Fla. ... it's the second consecutive season in which Notre Dame won a game by at least 50 points, following last year's 90-31 win over Charlotte on Dec. 20, 2009, at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame is 42-5 (.894) against first-time opponents since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96, with a 22-1 (.957) record since the start of the 2000-01 season and an active 17-game winning streak; New Hampshire was the first of seven first-time opponents on Notre Dame's schedule this season ... the Fighting Irish also now have won 20 consecutive home games against new opposition, dating back to Jan. 18, 1996 ... Notre Dame moves to 3-0 all-time against the America East Conference ... Peters' previous career-high scoring night was 15 points, and she also set a career high with 11 made field goals ... junior guard Natalie Novosel swiped a career-high seven steals.

Morehead State 7 21 — 28
Notre Dame 40 51 — 91

FG Pct: Morehead State 17.5, Notre Dame 52.4. 3-PT FG Pct: Morehead State 10.0, Notre Dame 50.0. FT Pct: Morehead State 48.0, Notre Dame 66.7. Turnovers: Morehead State 40, Notre Dame 20. Blocked Shots: Morehead State 2, Notre Dame 4. Steals: Morehead State 8 (Bozeman 4), Notre Dame 26 (Mallory, Miller 5). Attendance: 8,614.

NOTES: Notre Dame has posted back-to-back wins by at least 50 points for the first time in school history, following its 51-point victory (99-48) over New Hampshire with the win over Morehead State ... Notre Dame tied a school record (and set a new Purcell Pavilion record) for fewest points allowed in one half by holding Morehead State to seven points in the first half; the Fighting Irish also limited Maryland to seven points in the opening 20 minutes of a 49-40 win on Jan. 9, 1985, in College Park, Md. ... Notre Dame gave up just 28 points to MSU, the third-fewest points ever allowed by the Fighting Irish in a single game — the only lower opponent point totals came on Jan. 31, 1978 (68-25 win over Grace at Purcell Pavilion) and Jan. 21, 1982 (an 84-27 win at Valparaiso) ... Notre Dame's 63-point margin of victory equals the second-largest winning spread in school history, topped only by a 78-point win (113-35) over Liberty on Nov. 24, 1989, at the UCF Rotary Classic in Orlando, Fla. (also the last time the Fighting Irish won a game by at least 63 points) ... the margin of victory also tied the Purcell Pavilion record set twice before — Dec. 8, 1981, a 92-29 win over Saint Mary's (Ind.), and most recently on Feb. 28, 1985, with a 99-36 victory over Butler ... the Fighting Irish have forced at least 40 turnovers in each of their first two games (school-record 49 vs. New Hampshire, 40 vs. Morehead State), the first time in school history they have registered consecutive 40-takeaway games ... Notre Dame nabbed 26 steals against Morehead State, the fifth-highest single-game steal total in school history ... Morehead State's .175 field goal percentage (7-for-40) was the lowest by a Fighting Irish opponent since Butler shot an opponent record-low .149 (9-for-61) on Jan. 30, 1984, at historic Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis ... Morehead State's two first-half field goals were one off the Notre Dame opponent record for fewest baskets made in one half, trailing Dayton's 1-for-20 effort in the opening 20 minutes on Dec. 13, 2003, at Purcell Pavilion ... Morehead State was credited with just two assists, the fewest helpers for a Fighting Irish opponent since Jan. 14, 1993, when Detroit Mercy also had two assists in an 80-55 Notre Dame win at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame is 43-5 (.896) against first-time opponents since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96, including a 23-1 (.958) mark against new teams since the start of 2000-01, with a current 18-game winning streak and 21-game home winning streak against first-time opponents ... Notre Dame improves to 63-11 (.851) in the month of November since joining the BIG EAST 16 seasons ago; the Fighting Irish also have an active 16-game November winning streak.

NOTES: This was the fourth double-overtime game in Notre Dame women's basketball history and the first since Nov. 30, 1997, when the Fighting Irish defeated UCLA, 93-91 at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles ... it also was just the second double-OT women's basketball game in Purcell Pavilion history — Nebraska defeated Notre Dame, 89-88 in two extra periods on Feb. 25, 1982 ... the Fighting Irish were playing their first overtime game at home (of any length) since Nov. 13, 2006, when they defeated Bowling Green, 85-81 in one OT ... this marked the eighth consecutive season in which Notre Dame has played at least one overtime game ... the Fighting Irish fall to 4-9 all-time against UCLA, with the series in South Bend now knotted at 3-3 ... the loss snaps a 16-game Fighting Irish winning streak in the month of November, a run that started on Nov. 20, 2007, with a 94-41 win at Central Michigan ... Notre Dame is 63-12 (.840) in November games since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96 ... the Fighting Irish fall to 18-17 (.514) against Pac-10 Conference teams, with the Bruins being the first Pac-10 team to defeat Notre Dame since USC earned a 69-58 win on Nov. 24, 2006, at the Galen Center in Los Angeles ... the Fighting Irish also tumble to 9-4 (.692) against the Pac-10 at Purcell Pavilion, ending their seven-game winning streak against that conference; UCLA is the first Pac-10 team to defeat Notre Dame at Purcell Pavilion since Nov. 24, 1991, when No. 5/7 Stanford defeated the Fighting Irish, 88-76 ... it was just the eighth in Notre Dame's last 95 non-conference home games, and the first since March 22, 2009, when Minnesota upset the Fighting Irish, 79-71 in the first round of the NCAA Championship; it's the first regular-season non-conference home loss for Notre Dame since Jan. 5, 2008, when third-ranked Tennessee earned an 87-63 win ... the Fighting Irish had their 19-game regular-season non-conference winning streak snapped ... it was just the fifth time in 147 games (since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96) that Notre Dame lost when scoring at least 80 points; most recently, an 81-80 loss to DePaul on Jan. 22, 2008, also at Purcell Pavilion ... Natalie Novosel tied her career high with 19 points ... Skylar Diggins posted her eighth career 20-point game ... Diggins' 47 minutes played were the most by a Fighting Irish player in a single game since Nov. 30, 1997, when Mollie Peirick also played 47 minutes in the double-OT win at UCLA ... Becca Bruszewski collected her third career double-double, and first since Nov. 15, 2009, when she nabbed 19 points and 10 rebounds in a season-opening win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff at Purcell Pavilion ... Bruszewski's 13 rebounds also were a career high, as was her 44 minutes played.

NOTES: Notre Dame was facing back-to-back opponents ranked in the top 15 of the Associated Press poll during the regular season for the first time since the 2004 Preseason WNIT, when the Fighting Irish defeated #6 Duke (76-65 on Nov. 17) and #10/9 Ohio State (66-62 on Nov. 20) ... Notre Dame sees its 18-game winning streak against first-time opponents snapped, falling to a new foe for the first time since Nov. 21, 2001, when Colorado State shaded the Fighting Irish, 72-66, in Fort Collins, Colo. ... Notre Dame is 23-2 against first-time opponents since the start of the 2000-01 season and 43-6 against new teams since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96 ... Kentucky was the third of seven first-time opponents on this year's Fighting Irish schedule, and third in four games following home wins over New Hampshire (99-48) and Morehead State (91-28) during the opening weekend of the season ... Notre Dame basketball teams fall to 0-5 all-time at Memorial Coliseum, with this being the first time a Fighting Irish hoops squad played in the historic venue since 1961, when the UK men's team defeated its Notre Dame counterpart, 100-53 ... Notre Dame also had its four-game winning streak against Southeastern Conference opponents come to an end, falling to an SEC school for the first time since March 30, 2008, when Tennessee rallied past the Fighting Irish, 74-64 in the NCAA Oklahoma City Regional semifinals at the Ford Center in Oklahoma City, Okla. ... for the second time this season, Notre Dame posted a rebound margin of +16 or better, having notched a season-high +18 margin on the backboards (47-29) against Morehead State on Nov. 15 at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame grabbed a season-high 51 rebounds, its best total on the glass since Dec. 31, 2009, when the Fighting Irish nabbed 56 caroms in a 74-69 win over #18/16 Vanderbilt, also at Purcell Pavilion ... in her homecoming game, Lexington, Ky., native (and junior guard) Natalie Novosel scored a career-high 21 points, two more than her previous best set twice before (most recently three days earlier in the double-overtime loss to #15 UCLA at Purcell Pavilion) ... Novosel also tied her career high with eight rebounds, having reached that mark twice before (most recently on Dec. 2, 2009, against Eastern Michigan), and she set new personal bests with eight field goals (previous: seven, three times, including vs. UCLA), 24 attempts (previous was 12 against UCLA), seven three-point attempts (previous was four against UCLA), and two blocks (previous: one on 10 occasions, the last against Oklahoma on March 28, 2010 in the NCAA regional semifinals) ... freshman forward Natalie Achonwa grabbed a season-high 13 rebounds, also tying senior forward Becca Bruszewski for the most boards by a Fighting Irish player this season (Bruszewski had a baker's dozen against UCLA).

NOTES: Notre Dame's 66-point margin of victory is the second-largest in school history, topped only by a 78-point spread (113-35) against Liberty on Nov. 24, 1989, in the UCF Rotary Classic in Orlando, Fla. ... the margin also is the largest home win in school history, surpassing the 63-point difference (91-28) against Morehead State just 11 days earlier ... prior to this season, Notre Dame had won three times by 60-or-more points in the program's first 33 seasons (and not once since that November 1989 win over Liberty) ... the 29 points by IUPUI tie for the fourth-fewest points allowed by Notre Dame in a single game - the only lower opponent point totals came on Jan. 31, 1978 (68-25 win at home vs. Grace), Jan. 21, 1982 (84-27 win at Valparaiso) and Nov. 15, 2010 (91-28 win at home vs. Morehead State); the Fighting Irish also defeated Saint Mary's (Ind.), 92-29 on Dec. 8, 1981, at Purcell Pavilion ... for the third time in five games this season, Notre Dame forced at least 35 opponent turnovers and recorded at least 20 steals ... conversely, Notre Dame turned the ball over a season-low nine times, its fewest giveaways since Feb. 6, 2010, when it had a similar nine-turnover day in an 86-76 win over Pittsburgh at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish have won 22 of their last 25 regular-season tournament games ... Notre Dame extends its current winning streak against Indiana schools to 13 in a row and improves to 118-32 (.787) all-time against the rest of the Hoosier State, including a 58-11 (.841) record at home ... junior forward Erica Solomon registered her first career double-double with 12 points and a career-high 12 rebounds (topping her previous high of 10 rebounds on Jan. 24, 2009, at Villanova) ... Solomon also matched her career best with three steals, a mark she equaled for the third time after most recently doing so on Nov. 15 vs. Morehead State ... freshman forward Ariel Braker posted season highs with 10 points, six rebounds and two blocks ... sophomore guard Kaila Turner collected her first career "5-5-5" game with eight points and career-high-tying marks of five assists and five steals; she last had five assists on Nov. 15 vs. Morehead State, and five steals on Dec. 20, 2009, vs. Charlotte at Purcell Pavilion ... the attendance of 8,848 was a season high.

NOTES: Notre Dame has won 23 of its last 26 regular-season tournament games, dating back to the start of the 1996-97 season ... the Fighting Irish set a school record by making 37 free throws, topping the old mark of 33 converted foul shots, set on three different occasions (the last on Feb. 4, 2007, in a win over West Virginia at Purcell Pavilion) ... Notre Dame's 43 free throw attempts tied for the fourth-most in school history, and most since Jan. 15, 2001, when the Fighting Irish went to the stripe a school record-tying 46 times against Connecticut in a 92-76 win at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame also shot a season-best .860 from the foul line and shot at least 50 percent for the field for the fourth time in six games this year ... Wake Forest was the fourth of seven first-time opponents on Notre Dame's schedule this season, with the Fighting Irish improving to 44-6 (.880) against new foes since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96, and 24-2 (.923) against first-time opponents since the start of the 2000-01 season ... Notre Dame rises to 13-2 (.867) all-time against teams from the state of North Carolina, including a 5-0 record at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish lift their all-time record against current Atlantic Coast Conference teams to 41-17 (.707), including a 36-11 (.766) record in the 24-year Muffet McGraw era (1987-88 to present) and a 20-1 (.952) all-time record against the ACC at Purcell Pavilion ... Wake Forest was the 10th different ACC opponent Notre Dame has faced, with the Fighting Irish now having played every school in that conference except Clemson and Florida State ... for the third time this season, junior guard Natalie Novosel tied or set a career high for scoring, with her 23 points being two more than her previous high set six days earlier at No. 9/10 Kentucky ... Novosel also set new personal bests by going 11-for-12 at the free throw line; entering the contest, she had never made more than six free throws or attempted more than eight in a game (both marks she most recently hit for the third time in her career on Nov. 15 against Morehead State) ... junior forward Erica Solomon finished one point shy of her career scoring high, which she set on Nov. 23, 2008, at Boston College.

NOTES: Notre Dame wins the WBCA Classic, the 14th regular season tournament title in program history, and the second in as many seasons following last Thanksgiving's three-game run to the Paradise Jam Island Division championship in the U.S. Virgin Islands ... the Fighting Irish now have won 24 of their last 27 regular season tournament games since the start of the 1996-97 season, with the only three losses coming in the Preseason WNIT semifinals (1996 - 72-59 vs. #3/2 Tennessee in Ruston, La.; 2007 - 75-59 at #3 Maryland) and the title game of the 2003 WBCA Classic (67-63 in overtime at #20 Colorado) ... since the Maryland loss, Notre Dame has won six consecutive regular season tournament games ... the Fighting Irish were playing Butler for the first time since Dec. 1, 1999, although it was the 26th all-time meeting between the in-state rivals, who played regularly as members of the now-defunct North Star Conference and Midwestern Collegiate Conference (now known as the Horizon League); it's the second-most games played against a current non-conference opponent behind the 28-game series with Dayton ... Notre Dame improves to 20-6 all-time against Butler and extends its current series winning streak against the Bulldogs to six consecutive games ... Butler becomes the ninth Fighting Irish opponent that Notre Dame has defeated at least 20 times in series history, joining Marquette (29), Georgetown (23), Syracuse (23), Valparaiso (23), Dayton (22), Detroit (22), Loyola-Chicago (21) and Xavier (20) on that list ... the 31-point margin also was the largest in the Notre Dame-Butler series since Feb. 12, 1991, when Notre Dame downed Butler, 94-62 at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish rise to 119-32 (.788) all-time against other Indiana schools, including an active 14-game winning streak ... Notre Dame also moves to 59-11 (.843) all-time against in-state opponents at Purcell Pavilion ... junior guard Natalie Novosel earned the second regular season tournament MVP by a Fighting Irish player in as many seasons, following Skylar Diggins' selection as the Paradise Jam Island Division MVP last year ... Novosel's all-tournament team selection was the first of her career; she was joined on the squad by teammates Devereaux Peters and Erica Solomon (also the first all-tournament selections of their careers).

NOTES: Notre Dame was playing its third top-15 team in the past 13 days, with those three opponents (#15 UCLA, #9/10 Kentucky and #2/3 Baylor) accounting for the three Fighting Irish losses this season, all by 11 points or fewer, two on the road (UK and BU) and the UCLA defeat coming by three points in double overtime ... in all three losses, Notre Dame either led or was within six points of the lead with less than five minutes remaining ... Baylor was the fifth of seven first-time opponents on Notre Dame's schedule this year, with the Fighting Irish tumbling to 3-2 against those new foes ... Notre Dame also drops to 44-7 (.863) against first-time opponents since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96, with a 24-3 (.889) record since the start of the 2000-01 season ... the Fighting Irish are 7-7 all-time against Texas schools (4-7 away from South Bend), with this being the first game for Notre Dame in the Lone Star State since Dec. 28, 2001 (a 72-61 loss at Rice) ... the Fighting Irish are 8-11 (.421) all-time against the current Big 12 Conference alignment; this marked the first time Notre Dame played a Big 12 school outside of a tournament setting (regular season or postseason) in 10 meetings since the conference was founded in 1996-97 ... this was the first time all season Notre Dame did not have at least four players score in double figures (although two players finished with eight points in addition to the two double-digit scorers) ... the Fighting Irish were outrebounded for just the second time all season (UCLA finished with a 46-43 edge on the glass on Nov. 18 in its double-OT matchup at Notre Dame) ... sophomore guard Skylar Diggins tied her career high with four three-pointers, a total she reached twice before (most recently on Jan. 30, 2010, at Syracuse) ... Diggins' four treys were part of a season-high six three-pointers made by the Fighting Irish ... Diggins also dished out at least five assists for the fifth time in eight games this season.

NOTES: This was the 1,000th game in Notre Dame women's basketball history, with the Fighting Irish owning a 695-305 (.695) record in 34 seasons of intercollegiate competition ... Notre Dame extends its series-long win streak over Purdue to five games, one shy of the longest success string by either side in the 24-game series that dates back to 1984 ... the Fighting Irish post their largest win ever against the Boilermakers, surpassing a 17-point victory (86-69) on Jan. 16, 2005, at Purcell Pavilion ... in four of the past five series meetings, Notre Dame has held Purdue to fewer than 60 points after not managing that feat once in the first 19 games of the series ... the Fighting Irish improve to 41-48 (.461) all-time against Big Ten Conference opponents, with a 24-17 (.585) record at Purcell Pavilion; Notre Dame also is 34-34 all-time against the Big Ten (19-12 at home) in the 24-year Muffet McGraw era, and has won 14 of its last 20 games against Big Ten schools ... the Fighting Irish jump to 120-32 (.789) all-time against other in-state opponents, with a 60-11 (.845) record at home; Notre Dame also has won 15 consecutive games against other Indiana schools, including all three this season (IUPUI, Butler, Purdue) ... the Fighting Irish have shot 50 percent or better from the floor in all six of their wins this season ... Notre Dame has outrebounded its opponents in seven of nine games this season, with the two exceptions (UCLA and Baylor) featuring rebound margins of five caroms or fewer ... McGraw celebrated her birthday on Sunday, with Notre Dame rising to 5-1 all-time when playing on the head coach's birthday ... freshman forward Natalie Achonwa scored a season-high 12 points ... sophomore guard Skylar Diggins chalked up at least five assists for the sixth time in nine games this season, including her third consecutive outing and fourth in five games ... for the first time this season, Notre Dame wore its alternate home uniform (white with green trim).

NOTES: Notre Dame now has won 10 of its last 12 BIG EAST Conference openers and is 12-4 (.750) in league lidlifters since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96 ... this was the eighth time in 10 seasons that the Fighting Irish tipped off conference play on the road, with Notre Dame posting a 6-3 (.667) record in BIG EAST openers away from home since joining the conference 16 seasons ago ... this marked the earliest BIG EAST opener for Notre Dame since Dec. 6, 2000, when the Fighting Irish defeated Villanova, 64-33 at Purcell Pavilion ... the 36-point margin of victory was Notre Dame's largest in a conference opener during both its BIG EAST membership and the Muffet McGraw era (1987-88 to present); in fact, the last time the Fighting Irish won a league opener by more than the margin at PC was Dec. 13, 1985, when Notre Dame earned a 90-46 win at Marquette to tip off that year's play in the now-defunct North Star Conference (almost exactly 25 years ago and two seasons before McGraw took the head coaching reins at Notre Dame) ... the win also was the largest for the Fighting Irish on the road since Nov. 23, 2008, when Notre Dame won 102-54 at Boston College ... the Fighting Irish improve to 19-0 all-time against Providence, winning by double digits for the 16th time in the series ... the 36-point spread was the largest for Notre Dame over the Friars since Jan. 30, 1999 (a 97-59 win at Providence) ... the 43 points allowed were the second-fewest by the Fighting Irish defense in the 19-game series, topped only on Jan. 19, 2002, with a 69-41 Notre Dame win at Alumni Hall ... junior forward Erica Solomon recorded her second career double-double, with both coming in the past six games (12 points, 12 rebounds vs. IUPUI) ... Solomon also notched a career-high five steals (previous high was three on three occasions, the last on Nov. 27 against Wake Forest at Purcell Pavilion) and tied her personal best with three assists (last achieved on Nov. 15 against Morehead State at Purcell Pavilion) ... three days after scoring a season (and career) high 12 points against Purdue, freshman forward Natalie Achonwa did one better at Providence with a team-high 13 points in just nine minutes; Achonwa is the second Fighting Irish player this season to register a "point-a-minute" performance (min. 10 points scored), after Devereaux Peters had a career-high 23 points in 16 minutes against New Hampshire on Nov. 12 in the season opener at Purcell Pavilion ... speaking of Peters, the senior forward tied her career high with four assists, a mark she first set in the Nov. 18 home game against UCLA.

NOTES: Notre Dame posts its school-record fifth win of the season by 35-plus points, topping the previous standard of four set in 2008-09 ... the Fighting Irish also have six 30-point victories, more than halfway to the program record of 10 set in 2000-01 ... Notre Dame eclipsed the 90-point mark for the fifth time this year, closing in on the school record of seven 90-point games set three times before (1996-97, 1998-99 and 2007-08) ... the Fighting Irish shot a season-high 63.3 percent (38-of-60) from the floor, their best field goal percentage in a single game since Nov. 23, 2008, when they connected at a .646 clip (42-of-65) in a 102-54 win at Boston College ... Notre Dame's .655 second-half field goal percentage (19-of-29) was its best in a single half since Jan. 10, 2009, when it shot .667 (18-of-27) from the floor in the second half of an 84-63 win over Georgetown at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish shot better than 60 percent from the field in both halves of a game for the first time since Feb. 13, 2008 (62.1 and 66.7) in a 99-76 win over Marquette at Purcell Pavilion ... for the second consecutive game, Notre Dame was charged with just 10 turnovers ... the Fighting Irish were facing Creighton for the first time in 28 years, 11 months and two days (Jan. 9, 1982 - 69-48 Notre Dame win at St. Paul, Minn.), the longest hiatus between series games in the 34-year history of Notre Dame women's basketball ... the Fighting Irish earn their eighth consecutive win against the current Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) alignment and improve to 26-2 (.929) all-time against the Valley, including a 13-1 (.929) record at home, where they also have now won 12 in a row against that league ... Notre Dame rises to 17-1 (.944) against the MVC during the 24-year McGraw era (1987-88 to present), including a 10-0 record at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish had four players score in double figures for the eighth time this season (6-2 record) ... for the third consecutive game, Natalie Achonwa posted a career-high scoring total, finishing with 14 points (7-8 FG) which also matched the most points scored by a Notre Dame reserve this season ... Becca Bruszewski dropped in a season-high 17 points ... Brittany Mallory tied her career high with seven assists (also vs. Charlotte on Dec. 20, 2009 at Purcell Pavilion) ... Devereaux Peters dished out a career-high six assists, after having four assists in a game on four separate occasions (most recently on Dec. 8 at Providence) ... Kaila Turner tied her career best with five assists, having hit that mark in two prior outings (most recently on Nov. 26 against IUPUI at Purcell Pavilion) ... several hundred stuffed animals were collected at halftime during Notre Dame's annual "Teddy Bear Toss," with all collections going to area charities including Riley Children's Hospital.

Notre Dame earns its 23rd consecutive win when coming out of its December final exam break, a run that started following a 73-67 home loss to UCLA on Dec. 21, 1985 ... Notre Dame earns its 15th consecutive win heading into the Christmas holiday break and rises to 25-9 (.735) all-time in pre-Yuletide contests ... the Fighting Irish register their 36th consecutive victory against a current Horizon League member; Notre Dame is 107-14 (.884) all-time against current Horizon League teams, including a 45-9 (.833) mark on the road ... the Fighting Irish have won 16 consecutive games against other Indiana schools, improving to 121-32 (.791) all-time against in-state opponents, with a 61-21 (.744) record outside of South Bend ... the Fighting Irish move to 24-0 all-time against Valparaiso, with an 11-0 series record on the road ... the 51-point margin is the second-largest in Notre Dame's 24-game series with Valparaiso, topped only by an 84-27 Fighting Irish win over the Crusaders on Jan. 21, 1982, in Valparaiso ... Notre Dame has held Valparaiso to fewer than 60 points in 22 of 24 series games ... the Fighting Irish recorded at least 20 steals for the fourth time this season, notching at least 24 steals for the third time ... the Fighting Irish shot at least 50 percent from the field for the fourth consecutive game and seventh time in the past eight outings ... Notre Dame posted a season-high +21 rebound margin, its largest advantage on the glass since Jan. 6, 2009, at DePaul (50-29, +21) ... the Fighting Irish dished out at least 20 assists for the eighth time this year ... Brittany Mallory scored a season-high 12 points and matched her season best with five steals ... Fraderica Miller scored a season-high eight points and tied her career high with five steals ... for the second consecutive game, a Notre Dame player came close to a perfect shooting night - Natalie Novosel had a game-high 18 points (6-7 FG, 6-6 FT) after Natalie Achonwa scored a career-best 14 points (7-8 FG) in the Dec. 11 win over Creighton at Purcell Pavilion ... Devereaux Peters recorded a season-high four blocked shots ... Skylar Diggins handed out a game-high five assists, the seventh time this season she has had 5+ assists in a game.

Head Coach Muffet McGraw

24th season at ND (534-206, .722) • 29th season overall (622-247, .716)

"If we searched for an entire year, I don't think we would find anyone better suited for our program."

With those words, former Notre Dame athletics director Gene Corrigan announced the hiring of Muffet McGraw as the third head coach of the Irish women's basketball program on May 18, 1987. Corrigan may not have realized it at the time, but he also ushered in an era of unparalleled success in women's basketball at Notre Dame, brought to life on the shoulders of a 5-foot-6 dynamo who accepts nothing less than the very best from herself, her players and her program.

Ask anyone familiar with women's basketball about McGraw and her Notre Dame program and inevitably, you'll hear the same two words — consistency and excellence. And it's no wonder, when you consider what McGraw and the Irish have achieved in the past 23 seasons:

- The 2001 NCAA Championship, defeating Purdue in the title game, 68-66. McGraw is one of only eight active Division I coaches to guide her team to a national title.
- Two trips to the NCAA Final Four (1997 and 2001). McGraw is one of just 15 active Division I coaches to lead her team to multiple Final Four appearances.
- Eight NCAA Sweet 16 trips, all in the past 14 seasons (1997-2010). The Irish are one of only 10 programs in the nation that can make that claim.
- 20 seasons with 20-or-more victories, including 16 in the past 17 years (1993-2010). Notre Dame also has posted seven 25-win seasons and two 30-win campaigns in the past 14 years (1997-2010).
- 17 NCAA Tournament appearances, including a current string of 15 consecutive NCAA Tournament berths. During the first 15 years of this current streak (1996-2010), Notre Dame has won at least one NCAA postseason game 13 times.
- 66 wins over ranked opponents, including 56 in the past 12-plus seasons alone (1998-2011). In addition, 20 of those wins have come against top-10 opponents.
- 204 appearances in the Associated Press Top 25 poll, putting McGraw 13th among active Division I coaches and 22nd all-time on that list (through the Dec. 20, 2010 poll). Notre Dame also has spent 95 weeks ranked among the top 10 teams in the nation, all in the past 13-plus seasons (1997-2011).
- 12 top-four finishes in the BIG EAST Conference during Notre Dame's first 15 years in that league (1995-96 through 2009-10). The Irish also won a share of the 2001 BIG EAST regular-season title.
- 15 consecutive top-20 recruiting classes, dating to the incoming class of 1997. Notre Dame is one of just three programs in the nation that owns an active streak of that length.
- Ranks among the top 20 active NCAA Division I coaches with 622 career wins (reaching the 600-win milestone on Jan. 19, 2010, at Louisville in her 839th game, tying for 10th-fastest to 600 wins in Division I history) and a .715 all-time winning percentage.
- One of only five coaches in the 124-year history of Fighting Irish athletics to win 500 games at Notre Dame, joining fencing's Michael DeCicco and Yves Auriol, men's tennis/wrestling coach Tom Fallon and baseball's Jake Kline.
- Far and away the winningest basketball coach (men's or women's) in school history, with noted men's skipper Richard "Digger" Phelps second on that list (393 wins).
- A perfect 100-percent graduation rate for all players entering the program since 1987 who have completed their athletic and academic eligibility at Notre Dame (a spotless 62-for-62 success rate). The Irish have posted a perfect 100-percent NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) score in each of the past four years, and they are one of only five programs in the country to combine a perfect GSR score with a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 twice within the past three seasons (2008 and 2010).

Add it all up and you have the framework for a Hall of Fame career. And, on July 10, 2010, that's exactly what McGraw became, as she was named to the six-person Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2011. McGraw officially will become the Hall's first Notre Dame representative when she is inducted during Enshrinement Weekend activities June 10-12, 2011, in Knoxville, Tenn.

Still, with all of those accomplishments in hand, McGraw has shown no signs of slowing down any time soon. In July 2008, the veteran head coach signed a contract extension that will keep her patrolling the Irish sidelines through the 2014-15 campaign.

"For more than 20 years, Muffet has led our program with integrity and passion, and, of course, to much success," said Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., Notre Dame's president. "As we look forward to many more years together, I am confident that the excellence she has achieved on and off the court will continue."

Under McGraw's guidance, the past 16 seasons (1995-96 to 2010-11) have been the most successful in Notre Dame's history. The Irish have compiled an impressive 375-126 (.748) record, including a sparkling 190-60 (.759) regular-season mark in BIG EAST play, the second-best winning percentage in league history. Notre Dame also has averaged more than 24 victories per year during that span, with two 30-win seasons and seven 25-win campaigns to its credit. The Irish have won at least one NCAA Tournament game 13 times in the past 15 years, advancing to the Sweet 16 eight times (1997, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2008, 2010) and the Final Four twice (1997 and 2001).

Success for McGraw also has meant coaching great players. During her illustrious career, the Notre Dame skipper has coached 11 All-Americans, including 2001 consensus National Player of the Year Ruth Riley. She also has worked with five players who have been selected for USA Basketball National Teams, with those players going on to win a total of nine medals (highlighted by Riley's gold with the '04 U.S. Olympic Team). In addition, McGraw has coached 22 players who have earned all-conference recognition a total of 48 times, including 15 first-team picks who have been chosen a total of 27 times, and has helped shape several other national award winners, namely two Frances Pomeroy Naismith award recipients (Niele Ivey in 2001, Megan Duffy in 2006) and 2002 United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) National Freshman of the Year Jacqueline Batteast.

Another sign of McGraw's success has been her ability to prepare her players for the next level. No less than 21 Notre Dame cagers have gone on to play professionally (domestically or overseas), including nine who either have been drafted or signed as free agents with WNBA teams. The past decade has seen the greatest influx of Irish talent into the WNBA, with seven Notre Dame players having been selected in the league's annual draft since 2001. Four of those players — Riley, Ivey, Kelley Simon and Erica Haney — were starters on the '01 Irish NCAA championship team, and five of the recent Irish WNBA draftees (Riley, Ivey, Batteast, Duffy and Charel Allen) earned All-America status during their careers at Notre Dame.

Dedicated to helping grow and further the sport in any way possible, McGraw has groomed 10 of her former players and/or assistant coaches who currently are serving as coaches at either the high school or college level. Of those 10 proteges, five presently are Division I head coaches — 1988 Notre Dame graduate Sandy Botham (Wisconsin-Milwaukee), 1997 Notre Dame graduate and the school's all-time leading scorer Beth (Morgan) Cunningham (Virginia Commonwealth), Bill Fennelly (Iowa State), Kevin McGuff (Xavier) and 1991 Notre Dame graduate Coquese Washington (Penn State). McGuff and Washington (along with current Irish associate coach Carol Owens) comprised McGraw's assistant coaching staff on the 2001 Irish NCAA national championship squad, while McGuff and Owens also were on staff for Notre Dame's run to the 1997 NCAA Final Four.

A native of West Chester, Pa., McGraw received her bachelor's degree in sociology from Saint Joseph's University (Pa.) in 1977. Following graduation, she coached for two seasons at Philadelphia's Archbishop Carroll High School (50-3 record) and two more at her alma mater as an assistant coach under Jim Foster (now the head coach at Ohio State). In 1982, McGraw was named head coach at Lehigh University, her teams finishing 88-41 (.683) during her five-year tenure.

McGraw and her husband, Matt, celebrated their 33rd wedding anniversary in 2010 and make their home in Granger, Ind. They are the proud parents of 20-year-old son Murphy, who is a junior at Indiana University.

2010-11 Highlights

- ◆ Third on team in scoring (9.2 ppg) and tied for second in rebounding (5.3 rpg) ... third in field goal percentage (.536) ... team-high 16 blocks (1.3 bpg).
- ◆ Made big splash in season opener vs. New Hampshire with career-high 23 points (career-high 11 FGM on 13 FGA), eight rebounds four steals and two blocks in only 16 minutes ... her first career “point-a-minute” game.
- ◆ Collected eight points, four rebounds and four steals against Morehead State.
- ◆ Tied career high with four assists against #15 UCLA.
- ◆ Great outing on the glass at #9 Kentucky with six

- rebounds (three offensive/three defensive).
- ◆ Recorded three-straight double-digit scoring performances at the WBCA Classic while shooting .652 from the floor ... also drained each of her 11 free throws and pulled down 18 rebounds during the three-game stretch.
- ◆ One of her two blocks at #2/3 Baylor was a second-half rejection of 6-foot-8 Brittney Griner, which is believed to be the first time the sophomore center has been stuffed during her college career.
- ◆ Solid with seven points and nine boards against Purdue.
- ◆ Posted a tremendous ‘hustle stat line’ at Providence with four assists, two blocks and three steals.
- ◆ Had career-high six assists vs. Creighton.
- ◆ Rejected a season-high four shots at Valparaiso.

Altoona, Pa. (Bishop Guilfoyle)

Overview

- ◆ Officially added as a walk-on player during preseason.
- ◆ Previously spent parts of three seasons as a member of Notre Dame's "Sixth Man Team" (practice squad), a role also held by former walk-on guard and 2010 graduate Alena Christiansen.
- ◆ Has been active in Notre Dame's RecSports program, winning a total of 11 team/individual intramural championships and being named the Notre Dame

RecSports Female Athlete of the Year in 2009.

- ◆ Determined, fundamentally-sound post player who adds depth to Fighting Irish front line corps, both in practices and games.

High School

- ◆ Four-year starter at Bishop Guilfoyle High School in Altoona, Pa.
- ◆ Averaged 17.0 points and 6.0 rebounds per game as a senior in 2006-07, leading team to a 30-1 record and the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association (PIAA) Class A state championship.
- ◆ First-team all-state selection, as well as Mountain Athletic Conference Player of the Year and Blair County Sports Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2006-07.
- ◆ Also played tennis in high school, twice earning second-team all-state honors.

Personal Data

- ◆ Born Nov. 3, 1988, in Altoona, Pa. ... youngest of three children (older sister Marita and older brother Tommy, a 2007 Notre Dame graduate) born to Patricia and R. Thomas Forr, Jr.
- ◆ One of three Pennsylvania residents on this year's Fighting Irish roster, joining freshman guard Kayla McBride (Erie) and fellow walk-on, junior guard Veronica Badway (Pittsburgh).
- ◆ Enrolled in the College of Arts and Letters as a double major in political science and philosophy.
- ◆ Worked three summers at Helen Diller Home for the Blind and can read grade one braille.
- ◆ Spent time as basketball coach for St. Joseph County (Ind.) Special Olympics, and sister of former Special Olympian of the Month, Marita Forr.
- ◆ Just the third Fighting Irish player to wear No. 41, following Imani Dunbar (1997-2001) and Courtney LaVere (2002-06).

2010-11 Highlights

- ◆ Saw first collegiate action in season opener against New Hampshire, piling up six points (3-4 FG), two rebounds and an assist in nine minutes.
- ◆ Played six minutes against Morehead State, finishing with an assist and rebound.
- ◆ Each of her two shots at Valparaiso found the bottom of the net for four points in six minutes.
