The Fighting Irish will open BIG EAST play at 4 p.m. CT Friday at DePaul, before closing out their non-conference slate at 4:30 p.m. CT Sunday at Northwestern.

Notre Dame (5-1-0) came away with a split of its southern California swing last weekend, falling 2-1 in overtime at 13th-ranked UCLA before rebounding with a 1-0 win at Loyola Marymount, both in the UCLA Women's Cup.

Junior forward Melissa Henderson scored the only goal in the LMU win, finding the back of the net for the third time this year just 71 seconds into the contest. Senior midfielder/forward Erica Iantorno had the other Notre Dame goal last weekend, scoring 45 seconds before half-time at UCLA.

Setting The (Golden Dome) Standard

When it comes to powerhouse programs in women's college soccer, one need look no further than Notre Dame. The Irish have won two NCAA titles (1995, 2004) to highlight a resume that includes seven NCAA national championship game appearances and 11 trips to the NCAA College Cup semifinals (second-most in tournament history). Notre Dame has earned 17 consecutive NCAA Championship berths (1993-2009) and is one of only two schools to reach the final-32 every year since 1993.

In their history, the Irish have developed four Hermann Trophy winners and 47 All-Americans, including 18 first-team selections. Now in its 23rd season in 2010, Notre Dame owns an all-time record of 434-73-20 (.843).

A Quick Look At The Fighting Irish

No one can say Notre Dame (5-1-0) hasn't been tested early this season, with five of the six Fighting Irish opponents to date having been ranked or receiving votes in the NSCAA poll. Notre Dame currently is ranked seventh in the NSCAA and 11th by Soccer America, with all five wins coming via shutout, and only a 2-1 overtime loss at No. 13 UCLA marring the resume.

The Fighting Irish defense has been rock solid thus far in 2010, allowing only the two scores to UCLA in more than 544 minutes of action. Notre Dame has been led by its co-captains and center backs, senior Lauren Fowlkes and junior Jessica Schuveiller, along with senior goalkeeper Nikki Weiss (0.33 GAA) — the latter two have played every minute, while Fowlkes has played all but eight minutes to date.

Offensively, the Fighting Irish are paced by their "Mel-Rose Place" duo of junior forward Melissa Henderson (3G-2A) and senior forward Rose Augustin (4G-1A), who have accounted for 17 of the team's 23 points and nearly half (21) of its 43 shots on goal thus far. All three of Henderson's tallies also have been gamewinners, including last Sunday's lone score in the second minute at Loyola Marymount.

Scouting DePaul

Like Notre Dame, DePaul kicks off BIG EAST play on Friday, having gone 4-2-2 through the majority of its non-conference schedule. The Blue Demons also are unbeaten (3-0-1) at home this season.

DePaul last took the pitch on Sept. 12, earning a 2-0 win over Drake at Wish Field. Seniors Lauren Pagone and Callie Hemming scored for the Blue Demons, who posted their second consecutive shutout and fourth of the season.

Pagone and Hemming share the team lead with three goals, with Hemming adding a team-best two assists for a team-high eight points. Sophomore Claire Hanold has played the vast majority of the minutes in the DePaul goal, earning every decision with a 0.70 goals-against average (GAA) and three solo shutouts.

Erin Chastain is in her fourth season as the Blue Demons' head coach with a 23-39-5 (.381) career record, including an 0-3 mark against Notre Dame.

The Notre Dame-DePaul Series

Notre Dame and DePaul will be squaring off for the sixth consecutive season, coinciding exactly with the Blue Demons' admission to the BIG EAST Conference in 2005. The Fighting Irish are 5-0 all-time against DePaul, including a 2-0 record at Wish Field, and have outscored the Blue Demons, 20-0, in five previous series matchups.

Last season, Notre Dame kicked off conference play with a 4-0 victory over DePaul on Sept. 18 at Alumni Stadium. Rose Augustin scored twice (once in each half), while Lauren Fowlkes and Melissa Henderson added single goals and Taylor Knaack picked up a pair of assists, as the Fighting Irish outshot DePaul, 23-5 (8-3 in shots on goal) en route to the win.

Other Notre Dame-DePaul Series Tidbits

- Notre Dame has scored at least four goals in four of its five prior matches against DePaul, although the one exception came the last time the Fighting Irish visited Wish Field in 2008. On that Friday afternoon, Notre Dame earned a 1-0 win over the Blue Demons on Kerri Hanks' 78th-minute goal (off an assist from Chicago-area product Erica Iantorno) to punch through a bunkered DePaul side that took only two shots on the day (one on goal from long distance).
- Chicago's Eclipse Select club program has produced numerous players on both teams, with many of them competing side-by-side on various age-group squads for Eclipse — Erica Iantorno and Kecia Morway for Notre Dame, as well as DePaul's Arianna Foster, Chelsea Grant, Claire Hanold, Janina Locascio, Susie O'Connor, Erin Pekovitch and Tara Strickland.
- Notre Dame junior defender Ellen Bartindale, DePaul senior midfielder Callie Hemming and Blue Demons' senior goalkeeper Kelsey Hoinkes all played for Illinois' Fox Valley Strikers club.
- Notre Dame sophomore goalkeeper Madie Fox and DePaul junior forward Morgan Celaya both hail from San Jose, Calif., and both also played for the powerful Pleasanton (Calif.) Rage club program.

Scouting Northwestern

Northwestern enters this weekend's action with a 3-2-2 record, including a 2-1-1 mark at Lakeside Field. The Wildcats, who play host to Illinois State Friday before welcoming Notre Dame to town on Sunday, also own one of the signature wins of the 2010 season to date with a 1-0 victory over then-No. 3 UCLA on Aug. 29 in Madison, Wis.

NU is coming off a 3-1 home win over Eastern Michigan on Sept. 12, snapping a three-game winless streak. Freshman forward Kate Allen potted her team-high fourth goal of the year early in the second half, and sophomore defender Briana Westlund converted a penalty kick in the 87th minute to seal the win.

In addition to Allen's four goals, five other Wildcats have single tallies this year, while junior midfielder Jill Dunn owns a team-high two assists. Senior goalkeeper Carolyn Edwards has played every minute for Northwestern, notching a 0.92 GAA and two shutouts.

Head coach Stephanie Erickson is in the midst of her fifth season at NU, sporting a 37-38-11 (.494) record at the school and a seven-year career mark of 66-45-14 (.635), including a 1-1 record against Notre Dame (the 1-0 win coming in the third round of the 2002 NCAA Championship when she was serving as the Cardinal's interim co-head coach that year).

The Notre Dame-Northwestern Series

Sunday will mark the second consecutive season that Notre Dame and Northwestern have met on the soccer pitch, but just the fourth time in series history. The Fighting Irish are 3-0 all-time against the Wildcats (16-1 aggregate scoring margin), with this year's visit to Evanston being the first time the teams have faced off on the NU campus.

Last season, Notre Dame posted a 2-0 win over the Wildcats on Sept. 20 at Alumni Stadium. Courtney Barg got the Fighting Irish on the board just 6:24 into the match, and Julie Scheidler netted her first career goal in the 50th minute off an assist by Lauren Fowlkes to secure the victory for Notre Dame, which outshot Northwestern, 15-10 (7-3 in shots on goal).

Other Notre Dame-Northwestern Series Tidbits

- Notre Dame and Northwestern faced off in South Bend twice in the first three seasons that the Fighting Irish program competed at the varsity level (3-0 win in 1988 at Moose Krause Stadium, and 11-1 victory at old Alumni Field in 1990). The Wildcats didn't achieve varsity status until 1994, which is why the NU record books do not reflect those first two matches in the series.
- Northwestern is the second Big Ten Conference opponent for Notre Dame this season, with the Fighting Irish already owning a 1-0 win over Minnesota on Melissa Henderson's 79th-minute goal in the season opener on Aug. 20 at Alumni Stadium. Notre Dame has won eight consecutive matches against Big Ten opponents since a 2-1 loss to 14th-ranked Penn State on Sept. 23, 2007, at old Alumni Field.
- Notre Dame will be visiting a Big Ten school for the first time since Sept. 21, 2008, when the Fighting Irish collected a 3-1 victory at No. 17/16 Penn State. Notre Dame is 22-3 (.880) all-time on the road against the Big Ten, and has won 22 consecutive road matches against Big Ten opponents (7-0 in the Randy Waldrum era) after dropping its first three Big Ten road contests in 1988 and 1989.
- Notre Dame junior defender Ellen Bartindale and Northwestern junior forward Katie Doyle were classmates at St. Charles (Ill.) East High School, graduating in 2008.

Windy City Irish

The state of Illinois, and particularly the Chicagoland area, has been a prime locale for Notre Dame women's soccer talent through the years, with no fewer than 19 Fighting Irish players hailing from the Land of Lincoln, including 17 from the Windy City or surrounding area.

This season, Notre Dame has three players from the state of Illinois on its roster, with two from Chicagoland. Senior forward/midfielder Erica Iantorno is from Hinsdale (2007 graduate of Hinsdale High School), and freshman defender Kecia Morway is from Lake Villa (2010 graduate of Lakes Community High School), while junior defender Ellen Bartindale is from downstate in St. Charles (2008 graduate of St. Charles East High School).

Iantorno and Morway also are part of the continuing pipeline of Notre Dame talent to come out of Chicago's powerhouse Eclipse Select club program, which has produced such other Fighting Irish notables as two-time All-America midfielder/forward Brittany Bock ('09, now with the Washington Freedom of WPS), and 2010 graduates Amanda Clark and Michele Weissenhofer.

Game #6 Recap: Loyola Marymount

Junior forward Melissa Henderson scored just 71 seconds into last Sunday's match at Loyola Marymount, and No. 3/4 Notre Dame made it stand up, as the Fighting Irish rebounded from their first loss of the season with a 1-0 victory over the Lions on the second day of the UCLA Women's Cup at Sullivan Field in Los Angeles.

Henderson netted her third goal of the season (all gamewinning tallies) at the 1:11 mark of the first half, cutting into the penalty area and volleying a right-side cross from senior defender Julie Scheidler into the upper right side of the net from 12 yards out.

Senior goalkeeper Nikki Weiss made four saves, two in each half, to post her fifth solo shutout in six matches this season. Lions netminder Brittany Jagger largely kept her team in the running after the early score, finishing with nine saves and also benefitting from a timely team save by LMU defender Etajha Gilmer with less than seven minutes to go in the first half.

Notre Dame (5-1) outshot Loyola Marymount, 17-7, in the contest, including an 11-4 edge in shots on goal. The Fighting Irish also earned four of the five corner kicks on the day, while LMU (4-2) held a slight 9-8 lead in fouls called.

Game #5 Recap: UCLA

Senior midfielder Erica Iantorno scored in the final minute of the first half, and No. 3/4 Notre Dame had 13th-ranked UCLA on the ropes for a good portion of the second half, but the host Bruins managed to find the back of the net in overtime and pull out a 2-1 victory in the UCLA Women's Cup opener for both teams on Sept. 10 at Drake Stadium in Los Angeles.

Senior forward Rose Augustin picked up the assist on Iantorno's goal, extending her point scoring streak to four matches. Jenna Richmond netted both goals for UCLA, including the gamewinner 4:02 into the first extra session. Ariana Martinez assisted on both of Richmond's tallies, with Lauren Barnes earning a secondary assist on the overtime score.

Senior goalkeeper Nikki Weiss made six saves in the Fighting Irish nets, while Chante' Sandiford was credited with one stop in the UCLA goal (in addition to a team save by the Bruins with less than a minute to go in regulation).

UCLA wound up with a 16-9 edge in total shots, including an 8-3 margin in shots on goal. Each team attempted four corner kicks in the match, while Notre Dame was whistled for 12 of the 16 fouls on the night.

UCLA mounted steady early offensive pressure, which culminated in the match's first goal. On the scoring sequence, Zakiya Bywaters sent a cross from the left side that skittered all the way through the top of the box to the right side, where Martinez hit a low ball back into the goal mouth. Richmond made an angled run just outside the six-year box, collected the pass and zipped a low shot into the right corner of the net (19:09).

Notre Dame had a handful of chances during the latter part of the first half, but none resulting in clean looks on goal until the closing moments, when lightning struck and changed the complexion of the match. Augustin started the play by winning a ball at midfield and driving down the middle before laying off a pass to lantorno at the top right corner of the box. lantorno then cut inside her mark and drove a rising left-footed shot that eluded Sandiford and clipped the inside of the left post before settling into the net just 45 seconds before halftime.

That goal seemed to fire up Notre Dame, as the Fighting Irish would dominate large stretches of play in the second half, outshooting UCLA, 7-2 during the final 45 minutes of regulation.

The constant second-half pressure almost yielded a dramatic gamewinner for Notre Dame in the final minute of regulation. With 45 seconds left, junior forward Melissa Henderson got loose in the left channel and pushed a pass through to freshman midfielder Elizabeth Tucker inside the area as Sandiford charged off her line to try and gobble up the ball. However, Tucker won the battle and poked the ball back to Augustin at the top left corner of the box, but the striker's low blast towards a seemingly empty net was cleared off the line by Barnes near the left post.

UCLA had the better of play in the overtime period, with Sydney Leroux getting her best look of the night in the 92nd minute on a low drive that Weiss did well to save diving toward the right post. Two minutes later, the Bruins ended it, and in much the same fashion as their first goal. Barnes crossed a ball from the left flank, with the pass squirting all the way through to Martinez at the top right of the box. The UCLA back mis-hit her attempted shot on goal, but caught a break when the ball sailed directly toward Richmond in the goal mouth, and she re-directed the "pass" into the right side of the net (94:02).

Mel-Rose Place

No signs of Billy, Jane, Michael or Sydney, but early on this season, Notre Dame has taken on the look of Mel-Rose Place. Specifically, the offensive duo of junior forward Melissa Henderson and senior forward Rose Augustin have combined for seven of the nine Fighting Irish goals and 17 of 23 points through the first six matches of the season. What's more, both of Henderson's assists this year have set up Augustin scores (vs. Wisconsin-Milwaukee on Aug. 22, and vs. Santa Clara on Sept. 3).

Quickstrike Offense, Part I

Junior forward Melissa Henderson and senior forward Rose Augustin scored 47 seconds apart (at 23:51 and 24:38) midway through the first half of the Sept. 5 win over Texas Tech at Alumni Stadium. It was the fastest two-goal flurry for Notre Dame since Sept. 28, 2008, at Cincinnati, when Henderson scored 33 seconds after Courtney Rosen found the back of the net.

Quickstrike Offense, Part II

Junior forward Melissa Henderson's goal just 1:11 in Notre Dame's win at Loyola Marymount on Sept. 12 was the fastest opening tally by the Fighting Irish since Dec. 7, 2008, when Kerri Hanks scored only 16 seconds into the NCAA national championship match against North Carolina in Cary, N.C. (setting an NCAA College Cup record in the process).

Henderson's goal against LMU also was the sixth-fastest opening score in the 12-year Randy Waldrum era (1999-present).

Henderson A Trend Setter

If you're looking to spot a trend in Notre Dame's success during the past three seasons, look no further than junior forward Melissa Henderson. Since the Garland, Texas, native arrived in South Bend, she has scored 38 goals (fourth-most among active Division I players) and added nine assists, good for 85 career points.

Those markers have been particularly valuable to Fighting Irish fortunes. In fact, during Henderson's career, Notre Dame is 26-0 when she scores a goal and 32-0 when she tallies a point, the latter of which she has done in five of six matches this year and 12 of the past 16 contests, dating back to last season.

Department of Defense

Notre Dame opened this season with four consecutive shutouts, marking the second time in three years (but just the third time in school history) that the Fighting Irish have started with four clean sheets. The other instances occurred in 1995 (eight in a row) and 2008 (four in a row).

Looking at the larger picture, Notre Dame has allowed 0-1 goals in 20 of its last 21 matches, dating back to Oct. 4, 2009, at Pittsburgh. Prior to a 2-1 overtime loss at 13th-ranked UCLA on Sept. 10, the Fighting Irish had a 19-game streak of allowing one goal or fewer, the fifth-longest streak in the program's 23-year history and its longest since Oct. 25, 2002-Oct. 26, 2003, when the Fighting Irish yielded a goal or fewer in 24 consecutive matches.

During this current 21-match defensive run (which coincided with the installation of senior Nikki Weiss as Notre Dame's full-time starting goalkeeper), the Fighting Irish are 18-2-1 with 15 shutouts (12 solo and three shared by Weiss), a 47-7 scoring margin and a 0.33 goals-against average (GAA).

Sunday School

Notre Dame is unbeaten in its last 11 matches on Sunday (10-0-1) and owns a 29-2-2 (.909) record in the past 33 contests when closing out the weekend, dating back to September 2007 (when the Fighting Irish lost three consecutive Sunday matches to nationally-ranked

ND Seniors Among Nation's Best

The 2010 Notre Dame senior class is second only to North Carolina as the most successful group in the country on the basis of total victories, with a four-year record to date of 71-11-3 (.853) that includes three consecutive trips to the NCAA College Cup and an appearance in the 2008 national title match.

The .853 winning percentage compiled by the Fighting Irish seniors is fifth-best on the national scene.

And Juniors Aren't Half Bad Either

Like their senior teammates, the Fighting Irish juniors have the second-most wins among all junior classes, with a three-year record to date of 52-6-1 (.890), including two trips to the NCAA College Cup and a berth in the 2008 title match.

That record could be even more impressive when one considers that three of those six losses occurred in a nine-day span (Sept. 4-13) last season. The only other losses were late-game one-goal setbacks to North Carolina in the past two College Cups (2-1 in the '08 final, 1-0 in the '09 semifinals) and earlier this season at 13th-ranked UCLA (2-1 in OT on Sept. 10), along with a 0-0 draw at Pittsburgh last year (a match in which Notre Dame outshot the Panthers, 25-7).

Fresh-Faced Contributors

Freshman midfielders Mandy Laddish and Elizabeth Tucker have wasted little time in getting their feet wet at the college level. The pair have earned starting nods in all six matches so far this season, with Laddish tying for second on the team in total minutes (536) by a field player, and Tucker potting the game-winning goal early in the second half of Notre Dame's 3-0 victory over Wisconsin-Milwaukee on Aug. 22. It was the first time a Fighting Irish rookie tallied a gamewinner within her first two college matches since two-time Hermann Trophy recipient Kerri Hanks pulled off that feat on Aug. 28, 2005, as part of a four-goal outburst in a 6-0 win at Vermont.

Pick Three For The Hermann Watch

Senior defender/midfielder Lauren Fowlkes, junior midfielder Courtney Barg and junior forward Melissa Henderson have been named to the 45-player watch list for the 2010 Missouri Athletic Club Hermann Trophy, it was announced Aug. 11 by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA). The Hermann Trophy is presented annually to the nation's top Division I women's soccer player.

Notre Dame was one of only five schools (along with Boston College, Portland, Stanford and UCLA) to place three players on this year's Hermann Trophy watch list. Both Fowlkes and Henderson also appeared on last year's Hermann Trophy preseason chart, while Barg was a midseason addition to the candidate list and wound up being selected as one of 15 semifinalists for the '09 award.

The BIG EAST Conference had a total of five players named to the 2010 Hermann Trophy watch list, tying the Big Ten and Big 12 conferences for the third-most selections from one league behind the Atlantic Coast Conference (9) and Pac-10 Conference (7).

Notre Dame is one of only two programs to field four or more different recipients of the prestigious Hermann Trophy since its inception in 1988, with Cindy Daws (1996), Anne Maki-nen (2000) and Kerri Hanks (2006 & 2008) taking home the crystal ball award. The 2010 Hermann Trophy winner will be selected by Division I head coaches who are current members of the NSCAA. The list of 15 semifinalists will be chosen by a coaches committee, with the three finalists revealed in early December. All three will be invited to a news conference on Jan. 7, 2011, at the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis, where the winner will be announced, with a presentation banquet to follow.

Beasts Of The BIG EAST

With a 2-1 win over Marquette in last year's BIG EAST Championship final, Notre Dame now owns an NCAA Division I-record 66-game unbeaten streak (63-0-3) against BIG EAST opposition, dating back to a 4-1 loss at No. 15 Marquette on Sept. 30, 2005. In that time, the only ties were scoreless draws at Connecticut (Oct. 13, 2006) and Pittsburgh (Oct. 4, 2009), and a 1-1 deadlock at No. 12 West Virginia in the 2007 BIG EAST final (won by the Mountaineers on penalties, 5-3, but the game is recorded as a tie).

Since joining the BIG EAST 15 years ago, the Fighting Irish are 134-8-5 (.928) all-time in regular-season conference games, 35-2-1 (.934) in the BIG EAST Championship, and hold a 713-85 scoring edge dating back to that first league season in 1995.

What's more, Notre Dame maintains a 15-year, 94-game home unbeaten streak (93-0-1) against BIG EAST teams, with Connecticut the lone conference team ever to defeat the Fighting Irish at home (5-4 in overtime on Oct. 6, 1995, at old Alumni Field). The only result separating Notre Dame from a 94-game conference home winning streak has been a 0-0 draw with Rutgers on Oct. 22, 2004, also at old Alumni Field.

Before We Go

Our Fearless Leader

Now in his 12th season at Notre Dame, head coach Randy Waldrum ranks fourth on the NCAA Division I all-time winning percentage list with a .788 (344-85-21) mark in his 21 years in the women's game. He also is third among active coaches for career winning percentage, while his 344 career wins rank fifth on the all-time NCAA Division I charts.

A two-time National Coach of the Year (2008 by the NSCAA, 2009 by Soccer America), Waldrum has led Notre Dame to seven NCAA College Cups, four NCAA finals and the 2004 national championship. He is second in NCAA Division I history with seven College Cup appearances and four title-game berths in his storied career.

The 2-0 Guarantee

Notre Dame is 318-0-1 all-time when claiming a 2-0 lead and is unbeaten in its past 295 contests when going ahead 2-0 (dating back to a 3-3 tie with Vanderbilt on Sept. 15, 1991, in Cincinnati).

In fact, just two of the past 207 Fighting Irish opponents to face a 2-0 deficit have forced a tie, something achieved by four opponents in Notre Dame history: Duke on Oct. 17, 1993, in Houston (Irish won 3-2), Connecticut on Nov. 10, 1996, in the BIG EAST final at old Alumni Field (ND led 2-0, later tied 2-2 and 3-3, ND won 4-3), Duke on Nov. 30, 2007, in the NCAA quarterfinals at old Alumni Field (Irish won 3-2), and most recently, Villanova on Oct. 12, 2008 in Villanova, Pa. (ND won 3-2 in OT).

Three Is The Magic Number

Scoring three goals has meant virtually an automatic win in Notre Dame women's soccer history, with a 287-3-1 (.988) record in those games, including a 189-1-0 (.995) mark since Oct. 6, 1995. The Fighting Irish also are 392-10-15 (.958) when holding the opposition to 0-1 goals.

Golden Domers Golden In OT

Overtime has usually been the right time for Notre Dame, as the Fighting Irish are 20-4-9 (.742) all-time in the Randy Waldrum era (since 1999) when going to an extra period or two, with the Sept. 10 loss at 13th-ranked UCLA snapping a seven-game unbeaten streak (5-0-2) in added time, dating back to the 2007 season.

Last year, Notre Dame went to overtime on three occasions, defeating West Virginia (3-2 on Oct. 2) and St. John's (2-1 on Nov. 6 in the BIG EAST semifinal in Storrs, Conn.) and ending in a scoreless draw at Pittsburgh (Oct. 4).

Four current Fighting Irish players have scored "golden goals" in their college careers — senior midfielder Rose Augustin (Oct. 12, 2008 at Villanova), junior forward Melissa Henderson (Nov. 9, 2008 vs. Connecticut in BIG EAST final), senior forward Taylor Knaack (Oct. 2, 2009 at West Virginia) and junior defender Jessica Schuveiller (Nov. 6, 2009 vs. St. John's in BIG EAST semifinal).

Captains Choice

Senior defender/midfielder Lauren Fowlkes and junior defender Jessica Schuveiller have been selected to serve as Notre Dame's captains this year, according to a preseason vote of their teammates. Fowlkes is in her first season as a team captain, while Schuveiller is a second-year captain after becoming the first non-senior to wear the armband for the Fighting Irish since Amy Warner in 2002.

New Ways To Follow The Fighting Irish

The Notre Dame women's soccer program has expanded its reach this season through a number of media outlets. Most notably, the Fighting Irish have created three Twitter accounts for fans to follow the team on a daily basis — one is operated by head coach Randy Waldrum (@NDCoachWaldrum), a second by assistant coach Ken Nuber (@NDSoccer) and a third by associate media relations director Chris Masters (@NDSoccernews).

In addition, the official Notre Dame athletics web site (www.UND.com) is featuring live in-game blogs for all Fighting Irish home matches this season, allowing fans to ask questions, make comments and share in the excitement of Notre Dame women's soccer right from their own computers.

These blogs, along with live in-game stats (courtesy of the CBSsports.com College Gametracker) and other special features, are available through the UND.com Women's Soccer Gameday Central page, which is posted on-line within 24 hours of each home contest.

ND Supporters Group Debuts In 2010

Fans are encouraged to be a part of the new Notre Dame soccer supporters' group, The Rakes of Mallow. This student-based organization is attending all Fighting Irish home games this year and aims to create a special home pitch atmosphere unlike any in college soccer. To learn more, visit The Rakes of Mallow web site (www.rakesofmallow.net).

Next Up: Cincinnati/Louisville

Notre Dame continues BIG EAST Conference play next weekend with its traditional home/away split weekend series against Cincinnati and Louisville. The Fighting Irish will play host to UC at 7:30 p.m. (ET) on Friday, Sept. 24, inside Alumni Stadium, before heading to Louisville for a 1 p.m. (ET) match on Sunday, Sept. 26 against the Cardinals.

Cincinnati (5-1-1) is off to one of the best starts in its history, going unbeaten in its first six matches before a loss to visiting Illinois last weekend. The Bearcats rose as high as 15th in the Soccer America poll earlier this year, the highest ranking in UC history.

Louisville (6-0-0) is appearing in both major national polls this week (23rd by the NSCAA, 16th by Soccer America), and likewise is off to one of its best-ever starts to a season.

The Cardinals played host to Cincinnati Thursday night in the conference opener for both squads, before each side hits the road on Sunday (UC at Xavier, Louisville at Illinois).

Fowlkes A Senior CLASS Award Candidate

Senior All-America defender/midfielder (and Hermann Trophy candidate) Lauren Fowlkes is among 30 nominees for the 2010 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top senior player based on their dedication and achievement in four areas: Classroom, Character, Community and Competition.

A national media committee will select the 10 finalists in October, with the official ballot opened for nationwide fan voting on Oct. 9. That fan balloting, coupled with votes from coaches and media, will determine this year's recipient, who will be announced at the NCAA Women's College Cup Dec. 3-5 in Cary, N.C.

Also a 2010 preseason All-America selection by Soccer America and the BIG EAST Preseason Co-Defensive Player of the Year, Fowlkes is aiming to follow in the footsteps of former Fighting Irish teammate Kerri Hanks, who took home the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award on the way to earning her second Hermann Trophy.

Last year, Fowlkes earned National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) third-team All-America honors and ESPN The Magazine second-team Academic All-America accolades after piling up career highs of 10 goals and four assists (24 points) following an early-season move to forward due to various injuries on the Notre Dame roster. Fowlkes also was named the BIG EAST Co-Offensive Player of the Year and BIG EAST Championship Most Outstanding Offensive Player, as well as a NSCAA first-team all-region and first-team all-conference selection, and she could become the first player in BIG EAST history (since league play started in 1995) to collect both the conference's offensive and defensive player-of-the-year awards during her career.

What's more, Fowlkes also is in the unique position of possibly being just the 13th student-athlete in Notre Dame athletics history (and the third Fighting Irish women's soccer player) to couple All-America and Academic All-America honors in the same season on two different occasions. The 1996 NSCAA Player of the Year, goalkeeper Jen Renola, was the first to pull off that feat in 1995 and 1996, and more recently, midfielder/forward Brittany Bock (now with the Washington Freedom of Women's Professional Soccer) matched that double in 2007 and 2008.

For more information on the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, visit its official web site at www.seniorclassaward.com.

Irish Alums Are WPS Playoff-Bound

Five former Notre Dame greats have helped their respective Women's Professional Soccer (WPS) clubs to the league playoffs, which kick off Sunday afternoon.

Three of those five — midfielder Shannon Boxx ('99) and defenders Candace Chapman ('05) and Carrie Dew ('09) — are members of the 2010 WPS regular-season champion FC Gold Pride, which is based in the San Francisco Bay Area. As the regular-season champion, FC Gold Pride will play host to the WPS Championship Match at 2:30 p.m. (ET) Sept. 26 live on Fox Sports Net.

In addition to that trio, midfielder Jen Buczkowski ('07) has helped the expansion Philadelphia Independence make the postseason, as has defender Brittany Bock ('09) with the Washington Freedom. The Independence and Freedom will square off in a WPS first-round playoff match at 2:30 p.m. (ET) Sunday in Philadelphia, with FSN also televising that match live.

The winner then will head to Boston for the WPS Super Semifinal on Sept. 23 (8 p.m. ET on Fox Soccer Channel), with the survivor of that contest taking on FC Gold Pride three days later for the WPS title.
