HEAD COACH BOBBY CLARK — Bobby Clark is in his second season at Notre Dame after being named the fifth head coach in the program's history on Jan. 19, 2001. In his 16th season as a collegiate coach, Clark has an overall record of 169-71-27 for an overall winning percentage of .683 and is 16-8-2 (.654) at Notre Dame. Heading into the 2002 campaign, he ranked 16th all-time among active Division I coaches in terms of winning percentage. Last season, he guided the Irish to a 12-7 mark and their first NCAA tournament appearance since 1996. Prior to coming to Notre Dame, he spent five seasons guiding the Stanford Cardinal to a 71-21-12 mark and .740 winning percentage from 1996-2000. Clark also was head coach at Dartmouth from 1985-93 where he led the Big Green to an 82-242-13 record (.646). Seven of Clark's teams have advanced to NCAA tournament play with his '98 Stanford squad finishing as the NCAA runnerup that season. In between his coaching stints at Dartmouth and Stanford, he was head coach of the New Zealand National Team (1994-95).

CLARK LEADS THREE DIFFERENT TEAMS INTO NAAs — As a head coach, Bobby Clark is certainly NCAA tournament tested. With Notre Dame's appearance in the 2001 championship, he has now guided three different schools to the NCAA postseason. At Dartmouth, he led the Big Green to two appearances in nine years, while his Cardinal teams at Stanford earned four berths in the five seasons he spent on Palo Alto, Calif., campus. Clark is the first Notre Dame coach to lead the Irish to the NAAs in his first season.

SERIES RECORD VS. ST. JOHN'S — This will be the 10th meeting between the Irish and the Red Storm with St. John's holding a 6-1-2 advantage in the series. All 10 of the meetings have occurred since Notre Dame became a member of the BIG EAST Conference. The two teams did not meet during the regular season last year, but did face each other in the semifinals of the BIG EAST Tournament as the Red Storm defeated Notre Dame 1-0 en route to the conference crown. The lone Irish victory in the series came in 2000 as Notre Dame earned a 1-0 victory on Alumni Field. Irish teams are 0-4 playing at St. John's and have been outscored 13-1 in those contests.

FURMAN WIN SIGNIFICANT — Notre Dame's 2-1 victory over Furman proved to be significant because it marked the highest ranked opponent that an Irish team had beaten since a 1-0 victory over second-ranked UNC Greensboro in the first round of the 1996 NCAA Tournament and was the last win over a top-10 team at home since a 1-0 victory over 10th-ranked St. John's during the 2000 campaign. In its 25-plus seasons of varsity competition, Notre Dame has nine wins over teams that have been ranked in the top 10 of either the NSCAA or Soccer America polls.

TOUGH STRETCH — Notre Dame's game against St. John's begins a tough stretch for the Irish as they will play four of its next five contests on the road. Following the matchup against the Red Storm, Notre Dame plays at Rutgers on Sun., Sept. 29 before returning home to face Pittsburgh on Fri., Oct. 4. The Irish then are on the road for games at Akron (Sun., Oct. 6) and Boston College (Sat., Oct. 12). Notre Dame concludes the regular season by playing four of its final six games at home.

THE CAPTAINS — Seniors Erich Braun and Justin Ratcliffe and junior Greg Martin are serving as captains for the 2002 men's soccer team. Braun and Ratcliffe will be serving as captains for the first time in their career, while Martin has been selected as one of the Irish leaders for the second consecutive year. In 2001, Martin was the first sophomore in the 25-year history of the program to serve as a captain and becomes just the 10th player ever to serve as a two-time captain.

BRAUN MOVING UP THE CHARTS — With his six goals this season, Erich Braun has moved to 10th on the all-time Irish goals scored list with 31. His 74 points (31goals, 12 assists) places him 12th on the all-time scoring list.

THREE CHEERS FOR CHAD — Chad Riley's three assists marked a single-game career-best for the junior who has led the Irish in that category during his two-plus seasons. He leads the team with six assists this season and registered six assists in both of his first two campaigns. In 43 career games, Riley has dished off 18 assists. The second-leading scorer on the Irish team with two goals and six assists, he has been Notre Dame's most consistent performer of late as he has scored two goals and dished off four goals in the Irish's last three games.

BIG EAST PLAY BRINGS OUT THE BEST IN SAWYER — Chris Sawyer has a knack for playing well in BIG EAST games. In Notre Dame's two BIG EAST contests, he has not surrendered a goal in 154:52 minutes of action. In 10 career league games, he has registered five complete-game shutouts. Sawyer has played 885:15 minutes in those 10 conference games and allowed just four goals for a 0.41 goals against average. In addition, he has made 34 saves and owns a .895 save percentage.

BOUGHEN HAS CAREER DAY AGAINST FRIARS — Sophomore Luke Boughen registered the first two goals of his collegiate career against Providence 1:12 apart. It also marked his first career points in an Irish uniform. Boughen scored his first goal at the 51:19 mark and then followed with his second score at 52:31.

RAFAEL IS COMING UP BIG — No Irish player has stepped up his level of play this season more than senior forward Rafael Garcia. He has two goals and three assists on the season and stands fourth in the scoring column with seven points. Garcia registered goals in both the Creighton and Seton Hall contests and is credited with assists in Southwest Missouri State and Furman matches. Garcia has started all seven games. Heading into the 2002 campaign, he had made 13 starts in 38 games and had scored two goals and dished off two assists.

PRESCOD POWER — Junior forward Devon Prescod has been slowed by nagging injuries this season that has limited his playing time during the game. Prescod is slowly regaining the form of a year ago, and on Sunday against Providence, tallied his first goal of the season. He has played in all seven games this season, and in addition to the goal, has dished off one assist.

IRISH MAINSTAYS — Four Irish veterans have started 90.0 percent or better of Notre Dame's games during their careers: Erich Braun (Sr.) — 57 of 59 (.967); Justin Ratcliffe (Sr.) — 56 of 62 (.903); Justin Detter (Jr.) — 42 of 43 (.977); and Chad Riley (Jr.) — 40 of 43 (.930).

QUICK FLICKS — Notre Dame has wasted little time in getting on the scoreboard in four of its first seven games. Erich Braun tallied the season's first goal 17 seconds into the contest in the season opener against Southwest Missouri State, while Rafael Garcia put in the Irish's lone goal versus Creighton at the 7:12 mark. Against Seton Hall, Garcia scored Notre Dame's initial goal 23:28 into the contest and Braun gave the Irish a 1-0 lead at the 11:04 mark of the match against Providence.

GETTING HIS STARTS — Freshman Dale Rellas (Plano, Texas) has been in the starting lineup for Notre Dame's first seven games. He was the only Irish rookie to see action against Southwest Missouri State in the season opener.
