Notre Dame Continues Western Swing At CordeValle

Looking to build upon its improved play of late, the Notre Dame men's golf team return from a three-week hiatus when it takes part in the CordeValle Collegiate on Monday and Tuesday at the CordeValle Golf Club in San Martin, Calif. The high-powered tournament is hosted by second-ranked UCLA and will feature five top-10 opponents among its 17-team field.

The Irish have not played since Oct. 16-17, when they turned in a solid seventh-place showing in The Prestige at PGA WEST, carding a season-low three-round score of 879 (+15). Notre Dame placed three players among the top 25 on the individual ladder, with sophomore Josh Sandman leading the way with a tie for 10th place behind a career-best 213 (-3).

As a team, Notre Dame has lowered its season stroke average to 298.44 and has moved up to 41st in the Golfstat rankings and 46th in the current Golfweek survey. Senior All-America candidate Cole Isban is the top Irish individual in the polls, standing 35th in the Golfweek survey with a team-best 72.89 stroke average.

Quoting Coach Kubinski ...

"This week presents a great opportunity for our program. The field is one of the strongest of the year. We have built momentum with each event thus far and feel we're ready to take on the best teams in the country.

"I liken what Cole (Isban) means to us as to what Brady Quinn means to Notre Dame football. If Cole doesn't play well, it's difficult for us to win — but he knows his role and flourishes in it. Josh (Sandman) has looked very good in practice this week and gave us a glimpse of his enormous talent at PGA West. I'm also looking for Adam (Gifford) to continue his steady play. Of course,

Did You Know?

Notre Dame has ties to two of the most famous players in golf history.

Billy Casper won 51 PGA Tour titles, including three majors (1959 & 1966 U.S. Open; 1970 Masters) and was sixth on that tour's all-time victories list upon retirement. He also logged nine wins on the Senior PGA Tour (now the Champions Tour), was an eight-time member of the U.S. Ryder Cup Team and was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1978. However, before turning pro, Casper attended Notre Dame in 1950 and won the Western Junior National Championship, which was contested at the old Notre Dame Golf Course. His Irish career was cut short when he was called away to military service in the Korean War.

Walter Hagen, Jr., was a three-year monogram winner at Notre Dame from 1938-40, helping the Irish to three consecutive NCAA Championship berths, including a sixth-place finish in 1938. If the name sounds familiar, it should be — his father, Walter Hagen, Sr., won 40 PGA titles, including 11 major championships (five PGA Championships, four British Opens and two U.S. Opens) in his storied career, ranking third behind Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods. The elder Hagen also was a six-time U.S. Ryder Cup captain, and five years after his death in 1969, he was part of the inaugural induction class for the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Eddie (Peckels) returns to an event where he was in the Top 10 after 36 holes last year, and Greg (Rodgers) should enjoy this layout as it suits his game.

"As with any event, if we can get our putters going and play to our strengths, we'll have a chance to win. We're certainly a program on the rise and are just looking for a staging point for our next ascension in the rankings. We now know how to compete. We just need to learn how to win."

Dates and Times

Teams will play two rounds (36 holes) on Monday, with the opening round teeing off via a shotgun start at 7 a.m. PT (10 a.m. ET). The second round will begin immediately following the conclusion of round one. Competitors will then return to the course Tuesday for the third and final round, also beginning at 7 a.m. (PT) — teams will go off from the No. 1 and No. 10 tees via pre-assigned start times based upon the 36-hole team standings.

Following The Irish

Live scoring for the CordeValle Collegiate will be available through the Golfstat web site (www.golfstat.com). Complete results following each day's action also will be posted on the official Notre Dame athletics web site (www.und.com). In addition, the latest information from the CordeValle Collegiate, including results, scheduling updates and weather delays, will be available on the Notre Dame Sports Hotline (574-631-3000).

New this year is the Irish ALERT system, which provides fans with regular updates on Notre Dame's progress in the CordeValle Collegiate through text messages sent right to their cell phone. For more information or to register for this free service, visit the official Notre Dame athletics web site (www.und.com).

The Tournament Format

A total of 17 five-man teams (85 participants, plus the possibility of several golfers also competing on an individual basis) will be taking part in the CordeValle Collegiate. Conventional collegiate golf team scoring rules will apply, with the lowest four scores in the five-man lineup for each round counting toward the team total. Scores by golfers competing on an individual basis do not count to the team score.

The Teams

Besides Notre Dame and tournament host UCLA, the remaining teams in the field for the CordeValle Collegiate are: Arizona, Arkansas, Augusta State, California, Coastal Carolina, Lamar, Northwestern, Oklahoma, Pepperdine, Santa Clara, South Carolina, Stanford, TCU, USC and Washington.

According to the latest GCAA/Bridgestone Top 25 poll (released Oct. 26), six ranked teams — No. 5 UCLA, No. 7 Stanford, No. 8 Coastal Carolina, No. 9 USC, No. 15 Lamar and No. 24 TCU — are scheduled to take part in this week's tournament. Three other teams received votes in the current coaches' poll — Washington (18 votes; 29th place), South Carolina (three votes; tie-36th place) and Northwestern (two votes; 38th place).

Meanwhile, the Nov. 3 ratings in the Golfweek/Sagarin Performance Index show that 13 of the top 50 teams will be on hand for the CordeValle Collegiate. Leading the way is No. 3 UCLA, followed by No. 5 Coastal Carolina, No. 8 Lamar and ninth-ranked Stanford. Also on the first page of the Golfweek ratings are No. 13 USC, No. 22 TCU, No. 35 Washington, No. 36 Northwestern, No. 37 Pepperdine, No. 44 South Carolina, No. 46 Notre Dame, No. 48 California and No. 50 Arizona.

In addition, the most recent Golfstat rankings (unveiled Nov. 1) indicate

11 of this week's participants appearing in that service's Top 50. UCLA is tops at No. 2, followed by fourth-ranked Coastal Carolina, No. 6 USC, No. 8 Lamar, 10th-ranked Stanford and No. 23 TCU. Appearing in the second half of the Golfstat Top 50 this week are: No. 33 Northwestern, No. 40 Pepperdine, 41st-ranked Notre Dame, No. 43 Washington and No. 47 South Carolina. Augusta State (55th) and California (59th) are just outside the first page of the Golfstat rankings.

Head-To-Head

Notre Dame has faced seven of the other 16 teams in the CordeValle Collegiate field, amassing a combined 2-7 (.222) record against those clubs. The Irish record vs. the rest of the CordeValle Collegiate teams breaks down as follows: Augusta State (1-0), California (1-0), Lamar (0-2), Northwestern (0-1), Stanford (0-2), USC (0-1) and UCLA (0-1).

The Course

The championship course at the CordeValle Golf Club was designed by renowned golf architect Robert Trent Jones, Jr., and is considered one of his finest layouts. It measures 7,119 yards and will play as a par-72 course.

Situated on 270 acres of gently rolling terrain in a pastoral valley located approximately 25 miles southeast of San Jose in San Martin, Calif., the CordeValle Golf Club utilizes the natural elevation changes (150 feet over the 18-hole course) of its peaks and canyons, enhanced by broad meadows, streams, striking sycamore trees and mature California oak trees. It demands numerous strategies and club selections throughout each round, due in part to its strategically-placed bunkers, challenging bays and other topographical twists. The land surrounding the course is part of a private preserve numbering more than 1,000 acres, untouched by residential or commercial development.

Last Time Out: The Prestige at PGA WEST

Getting strong performances from the top half of its lineup, Notre Dame rose one spot to finish seventh in the 15-team Prestige at PGA WEST, which concluded Oct. 17 in La Quinta, Calif., on the Greg Norman Course (par 72/7,156 yards) at the famed PGA WEST facility. The Irish carded a season-low 282 (-6) in the final round, finishing the 54-hole event at 15-over par 879 (302-295-282), 30 shots behind tournament co-host and ninth-ranked Stanford. The third-round 282 matched Notre Dame's sixth-best 18-hole team score ever, and it was the best for the Irish since they closed with a school-record 272 (-16) at the 2006 BIG EAST Championship last April.

Sophomore Josh Sandman completed arguably the best tournament effort of his budding college career, firing a personal-best 67 (-5) in the final round and ending up tied for 10th place in the 78-man field with a three-round total of three-under par 213 (76-70-67), also a career-low. Sandman now has placed 20th or better in five of his eight college events thus far, with his outing at The Prestige being the second top-10 finish of his career — he wound up six shots behind tournament medalist Zack Miller of Stanford.

Senior All-America candidate Cole Isban has been rock solid in his play all season long, and this event was no exception, as the Irish veteran finished in 14th place at one-under par 215 (71-73-71), marking his third consecutive top-20 finish and seventh in his last 11 tournaments. Like Sandman, senior co-captain Adam Gifford turned in a career-best scorecard at The Prestige, placing 25th with a personal-low score of four-over par 220 (76-74-70). Gifford's 25th-place outing was his best tournament finish ever as a member of the Irish starting five, as was his closing-round 70 (-2), which also was the first under-par round of his career.

Warren Golf Course Named One Of Nation's Top 15 College Courses

The University of Notre Dame's Warren Golf Course has been chosen as one of the top 15 college courses in the nation, according to a feature article in the September 2005 issue of Golf Digest. The magazine used a variety of criteria in rating the various layouts, including shot values, resistance to scoring, design variety, memorability, aesthetics, conditioning, ambience and bonus walking points. The Warren Golf Course was ranked 15th in the country and is one of the newest courses on the 2005 Golf Digest list.

Co-designed by Bill Coore and PGA Tour veteran Ben Crenshaw, the Warren Golf Course opened on May 1, 2000 and has played host to a 2004 U.S. Amateur Championship sectional qualifier, the 2005 NCAA Central Regional, two Western Amateur Championship qualifiers and five BIG EAST Conference Championships. In addition, the par-70, 7,011-yard tree-lined layout has welcomed numerous junior golf tournaments and serves as the home course for the Notre Dame men's and women's golf teams.

"This is a remarkable honor for us when you consider the age of this course," said John Foster, General Manager and Head PGA Professional at the Warren Golf Course. "The emergence of our course is due in no small part to the commitment shown by Bill Warren to make this the nation's premier golf facility. We're also extremely fortunate to have a talented and dedicated staff that have helped make this course what it is today, led by our course superintendent, Matt Cielen."

"I am very pleased with, and appreciative of, Golf Digest for recognizing our Warren Golf Course as one of the top 15 college golf courses in the country," Notre Dame head men's golf coach Jim Kubinski said. "To be recognized with other top courses after having opened just six years ago is a tremendous honor. It's a great test of golf for all players, and I know our team feels the course tests every facet of their games."

Notre Dame Dedicates New Indoor Training Facility

On Sept. 30, the University of Notre Dame held a dedication ceremony for the new Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility at the Warren Golf Course. The recently-completed $2.1 million building is located adjacent to Warren's No. 2 tee box, with access via the roundabout at Douglas and Twyckenham Roads on the north edge of the Notre Dame campus.

The 10,333-square foot Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility now serves as the home of the Notre Dame men's and women's golf teams, adding a new dimension in the growth of both programs, which have combined to win five BIG EAST Conference titles and make five NCAA regional appearances in the past four seasons alone.

The cornerstone of the Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility is an expansive 4,820-square foot indoor putting green and chipping area, complete with a sand bunker. In addition, six heated indoor/outdoor "tee stations" allow players to use the driving range in all seasons, while the Irish coaches are able to study players' swing techniques through the use of the latest in video equipment and software analysis.

Some of the other highlights of the facility include: separate locker rooms for the Irish men's and women's teams with custom-made wood lockers for each player, a spacious 890-square foot player lounge with state-of-the-art amenities such as wide-screen plasma televisions and computers with high-speed Internet access, offices for each member of the respective coaching staffs, and an on-site equipment room with stations for customized club fitting and repair.

Three Tournaments, Three Aces For Irish

It would be difficult to script a much better start than Notre Dame freshmen Doug Fortner and Carl Santos-Ocampo have experienced this fall. Between them, the two Irish rookies have fired three aces in three tournaments, including matching holes-in-one in their respective college debuts 10 days apart.

Fortner was the first to card a "single" on Sept. 16 in the second round of the Gopher Invitational in Wayzata, Minn., pulling out a pitching wedge and sinking his tee shot on the par-3, 139-yard 17th hole at the Spring Hill Golf Club. Not to be outdone, Santos-Ocampo made his mark in the final round of the John Dallio Memorial (a "B" team event for the Irish) in West Chicago, Ill., using a 7-iron to bury his tee shot on the par-3, 175-yard third hole at the Prairie Landing Golf Club.

Santos-Ocampo was at it again on Oct. 10 in the final round of the Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic. Playing into a stiff breeze, the diminutive Notre Dame freshman took an 8-iron to the tee of the par-3, fourth hole at the Warren Golf Course and promptly buried his 136-yard tee shot.

Both Fortner and Santos-Ocampo were featured in the Oct. 30 edition of Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd" for their accomplishment, which is believed to be the first of its kind in NCAA Division I history.

Things You Should Know About The Irish

- ◆ Notre Dame is the three-time defending BIG EAST Conference champion (and three-time NCAA regional qualifier), winning the 2006 BIG EAST title with a dramatic 12-stroke comeback (second-largest in school and league history) in the final round to defeat Louisville on the first playoff hole. The Irish joined St. John's as the only programs in the 26-year history of the BIG EAST Championship to win three consecutive titles on two separate occasions. The Irish recorded their first hat trick from 1995-97, while St. John's posted a pair of "four-peats" from 1981-84 and 1986-89.
- ◆ Notre Dame's impressive resurgence of late has been augmented by its play against nationally-ranked opponents. In fact, since Jim Kubinski took over as head coach in January 2005, the Irish have toppled 12 Top 25 teams (according to Golfweek), including seven last season.
- ◆ Senior Cole Isban is a prime candidate to become Notre Dame's first All-American since 1980 (John Lundgren - honorable mention), coming off consecutive selections to the PING All-Midwest Region Team. Isban owns the school's single-season and career stroke average (see chart on page 3), has qualified for the last three U.S. Amateur Championships, and is ranked 35th in the latest Golfweek individual rankings (as of Nov. 3).
- ◆ Kubinski himself has been nominated for a place on the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, after being placed into consideration by the Indiana Section of the PGA. Approximately 400-500 people are chosen annually from the 30,000 PGA professionals nationwide for a few select places on the GOLF Magazine list, whose membership regularly carries over and includes such notables as Hank Haney, Butch Harmon, David Leadbetter and Rick Smith. The '07 GOLF Magazine Top 100 selections will be announced later this month.

Next Up: Aloha Purdue Collegiate Invitational (Nov. 22-23)

Notre Dame will wrap up the fall portion of its 2006-07 schedule Nov. 22-23 when the Irish make their first-ever trip to Hawaii for the Aloha Purdue Collegiate Invitational. The unique tournament, which will include men's and women's events and is slated to conclude on Thanksgiving Day, will be held at the Kiahuna Golf Club in the town of Poipu on the island of Kauai. Some of the other participants in the nine-team men's bracket are: Alabama, Clemson, Texas, Pepperdine and Virginia Tech.

JIM KUBINSKI

Head Coach • Third Year at Notre Dame Springfield College (1993)

One of the nation's top young golf teachers, Jim Kubinski begins his third season as the head coach at Notre Dame. Having assumed the post on Jan. 28, 2005, Kubinski is just the sixth head coach in the 77-year history of the Irish men's golf program, inheriting a storied tradition that now includes the 1944 national championship, 19 top-10 NCAA Championship finishes and 33 NCAA postseason appearances.

"We feel Jim is one of the rising stars in the golf coaching community and someone who can continue to develop our program into a perennial national contender," Notre Dame director of athletics Kevin White says.

It hasn't take long for Kubinski to make his mark at Notre Dame and reward White's confidence in his abilities. In his first tournament at the helm of the Irish, just one month after setting foot on campus, Kubinski helped guide Notre Dame to the championship of the 2005 NOKIA Sugar Bowl Tulane Invitational, winning the title on the first hole of a sudden death playoff against UNC Wilmington. It was the first of two tournament crowns in the 2004-05 season for Notre Dame and made Kubinski the first Irish men's golf coach since 1961 to win the opening event of his career. That season, Rev. Clarence Durbin, C.S.C., led the Irish to a 23.5-6.5 dual-match win over Western Michigan.

That was the start of what has been a magical three-year run for the Notre Dame skipper, who has piloted the Irish to consecutive BIG EAST Conference titles and NCAA regional appearances, not to mention a 171-137-8 (.554) record and 12 wins over teams ranked in the Golfweek Top 25. What's more, Notre Dame has regularly collected votes in the GCAA/Bridgestone Coaches Top 25 poll and rose as high as No. 12 in the Golfweek rankings (Oct. 2, 2005).

Under Kubinski's guidance, Notre Dame has registered 10 top-five finishes in 22 tournaments, including three tourney titles (two coming in sudden-death playoffs). The Irish also have carded two of the top six single-season stroke averages in school history, following a 299.89 mark in 2004-05 (sixth all-time) with a school-record pace of 292.97 last year. In addition, Notre Dame has fired six of the top-10 single-round scores in school history since Kubinski arrived on campus, including impressive final-round postseason efforts at the 2005 NCAA Central Regional (282, +2) and the 2006 BIG EAST Championship (school-record 272, -16). The latter score highlighted a 12-stroke comeback victory over Louisville, the second-best rally in the storied history of the program, and led the Notre Dame's selection as the Golfweek National Team of the Week (May 1, 2006) for the first time in program history.

Individually, Kubinski has produced impressive results with several Irish players in a short span of time. Senior All-America candidate Cole Isban is the school record holder for single-season stroke average (72.97 in 2005-06) and career stroke average (74.01), and he is the first Notre Dame golfer in 25 years to earn regional or national accolades, garnering a spot on the last two PING All-Midwest Region Teams. Sophomore Josh Sandman got a late start to his college career in 2005-06 due to an injury, but since he hit the links, he has been superb, posting a 73.46 stroke average in 24 career rounds that put him on pace to challenge Isban's career stroke average record. Thus, it's no wonder Kubinski has been nominated for the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, honoring the nation's pre-eminent golf instructors.

"As a lifelong Notre Dame fan, I couldn't ask for a greater opportunity than to be the head coach of the Fighting Irish," Kubinski said. "It's certainly a special time to play for Notre Dame and be a part of this great university. I'm looking forward to an exciting time ahead and feel that we're building something here that will be a great source of pride for our players and our university in the years to come.

"Notre Dame exemplifies the best of everything in a college environment, both academically and athletically," Kubinski continued. "It's my goal to ensure that we are a perennial top-10 program on the course and in the classroom, consistent with the best traditions of Notre Dame, and I truly believe we can achieve this goal."

Kubinski, 36, came to Notre Dame after spending a year and a half as the assistant men's and women's golf coach at Duke. During his playing days, he was a three-year letterman and two-year team captain at Springfield (Mass.) College before graduating in 1993. A two-time all-Northeast 10 Conference selection in 1991 and 1992, he also received the Springfield College Maroon Club Award for academic and athletic achievement in 1992. His playing experience continued on the North Atlantic Tour where he tied for sixth place at the '95 Boston Open, and he also competed in the Carolinas Section PGA.

Born May 4, 1970 in Springfield, Mass., Kubinski and his wife, Sarah, now live in South Bend. The couple was married in Durham, N.C., on Oct. 15, 2005.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame now has participated both years the Gopher Invitational has been in existence (fifth-place finish in 2005) ... due to cold, windy conditions throughout the tournament, only one team broke 300 in either the first or third rounds, and the average final-round team score was 307 (+19) ... freshman Doug Fortner made his college debut and already has a highlight to his credit, sinking an ace on the par-3, 139-yard 17th hole with a pitching wedge during the second round ... senior co-captain Adam Gifford made his fourth career start with the Irish varsity five (first since last spring's Boilermaker Invitational), while junior Mike King returned to the Notre Dame lineup for the first time since last year's Administristaff Augusta State Invitational ... the 12th-place squad was comprised of members of the Finnish National Team.

Tournament Notes: This was the first of two "B" team tournaments Notre Dame will play in 2006-07, with no "B" team scores counting on the national rankings lists (Golfstat/Golfweek), although individual scores are accepted ... the Irish fielded a lineup that included three freshmen (Olavo Batista, Carl Santos-Ocampo, Kyle Willis) making their college debuts ... for the second consecutive tournament, a Notre Dame rookie sank a hole-in-one in his first college tournament, as Santos-Ocampo aced the par-3, 175-yard third hole with a 7-iron in the final round ... junior Eddie Peckels posted his best finish since a seventh-place showing at the 2004 Earl Yestingsmeier Invitational (another "B" team event), when he also recorded his top college score (215, +5) ... Peckels' final-round 69 also was the best of his career, one stroke better than his third-round 70 at the '04 Yestingsmeier ... the tournament was an early homecoming for Willis, who hails from Lake Forest, Ill., and graduated from Lake Forest High School last spring.

Notre Dame's 54-hole score of 879 was its best in three visits to PGA WEST ... the Irish fired a season-low 282 in the final round, their best 18-hole mark since their dramatic school-record 272 to close out the 2006 BIG EAST Conference Championship (ND won on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff) ... sophomore Josh Sandman carded career lows with his final-round 67 and his three-round score of 213 (-3) ... Sandman and senior Cole Isban both posted their third top-20 finish in as many events this season ... senior Adam Gifford fired a career-low 70 in the third round to cap off a personal-best score of 220 (+4).

Notre Dame "B" Results

2. NOTRE DAME "B"	287	311	598 (+34)
4. (tie) Mike King	71	76	147 (+6)
(tie) Shane Sigsbee	72	75	147 (+6)
10. (tie) Carl Santos-Ocampo	70	80	150 (+9)
26. (tie) Eddie Peckels	76	80	156 (+15)
35. (tie) Olavo Batista	80	80	160 (+19)

Tournament Notes: This was the second of two "B" team tournaments Notre Dame played in 2006-07, with no "B" team scores counting on the national rankings lists (Golfstat/Golfweek), although individual scores are accepted ... the Irish had played in the tournament in 2003 as an "A" team event, placing second at 592 (+32) ... the two rounds of this year's tournament were played on different courses, due to an event conflict at Fenway Golf Club prior to the opening round ... the second round was played in inclement weather (rain, wind, cold) ... junior Mike King posted the best individual finish of his career (tie-fourth), topping his tie for seventh at the 2004 Earl Yestingsmeier Invitational (another "B" team event) ... senior Shane Sigsbee also competed in The Tillinghast as a freshman in 2003, tying for third place at 146 (+6) ... freshman Carl Santos-Ocampo now has finished in the top 25 in each of his three college events to date, including consecutive top-15 showings in the past two outings.
