Storylines

- ◆ Notre Dame has won seven of its 11 BIG EAST openers since joining the conference in 1995-96.
- ◆ The last three times the Irish have played at Seton Hall, the margin of victory has been 5.7 ppg.

After a productive non-conference season that saw Notre Dame win nine of 13 games, including two over teams currently ranked in the national Top 25, the Irish will tip off BIG EAST Conference play Tuesday when they pay a visit to Seton Hall for a 7 p.m. (ET) contest at Walsh Gymnasium. Notre Dame put a pair of significant deposits into its NCAA postseason resume bank with victories over Purdue and Bowling Green in the season's first two months and now will look to enhance its standing with a strong performance in the always-rugged BIG EAST.

The Irish closed out non-conference action with a 78-54 loss at No. 4 Tennessee on Saturday. Notre Dame played the Lady Vols virtually even in the first half, trailed by just two points at the break, and was still within striking distance five minutes into the second half before UT went on a 22-2 run to take control.

Junior guard Charel Allen was the lone Irish player to score in double figures, finishing with 16 points, while freshman center Erica Williamson added a team-high seven rebounds.

Setting The Standard

Under the guidance of 20th-year head coach Muffet McGraw, Notre Dame has evolved into one of the country's leading women's basketball powers. The Irish have appeared in 13 NCAA Tournaments (including a current streak of 11 in a row) and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 six times in the previous 10 years. Notre Dame also has reached the NCAA Women's Final Four twice, winning college basketball's ultimate prize with the 2001 national championship.

In its history, Notre Dame has developed eight All-Americans, nine WNBA players (including six draft picks in the past six years) and four USA Basketball veterans (eight medals won). Now in their 30th season in 2006-07, the Irish own an all-time record of 602-270 (.690).

A Quick Look At The Fighting Irish

Less than two months into the 2006-07 season, the growth of the Notre Dame women's basketball team already is evident, and the best may be yet to come.

With a young and inexperienced roster that has only two seniors and is missing its top returning scorer from a year ago, the Irish have had to learn on the run — and run is exactly what they have done this season. Notre Dame is averaging 70.5 points per game thus far, a significant improvement over the previous five Irish squads, none of which has averaged better than 66.3 points per night.

Of course, the Irish have traditionally hung their hat on their defense, a trait that is much harder to master and takes a bit longer. On the one hand, Notre Dame's aggressive style has rattled opponents, causing 21.9 turnovers per game (including a BIG EAST-best 12.3 steals per night). However, the flip side has seen the Irish allow opponents to shoot .409 from the floor (.380 from the three-point line), while the Irish claim just a 1.5 rpg. edge on the boards), the two areas Notre Dame will continue to focus on as it begins BIG EAST play.

Junior guard Charel Allen has been one of the main offensive catalysts for the Irish to this point, averaging a team-high 14.2 ppg., while scoring in double figures in 11 of 13 outings to date. The Monessen, Pa., native, who was limited last year while recovering from knee surgery in the summer of 2005, also is collecting 5.7 rebounds and a team-high 2.5 steals per game and was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Dec. 4 after averaging 18.0 ppg. and 6.0 rpg. against Richmond, Michigan and Indiana.

Allen's classmate and backcourt running partner, Tulyah Gaines, is an early candidate as one of the conference's most improved players. The speedy Gaines has assumed the large footprint left at the point by All-American (and WNBA Draft pick) Megan Duffy and has stoked the Notre Dame offensive fire to an even hotter level, averaging 10.2 points and 3.4 assists per game with a .489 field goal percentage. Gaines, who came into the season with a 3.7 ppg. career scoring average, has twice scored 20 points in a game this year, including a career-high 25 points in a Nov. 13 overtime win vs. Bowling Green.

Another Irish junior, 6-foot-5 center Melissa D'Amico, continues to make strides in the post. The second-year starter is averaging 10.6 points and 5.1 rebounds per game with a .569 field goal percentage, and has looked even better of late, averaging 12.7 points and 6.3 rebounds with a .607 field goal percentage in the past six games. She also earned a spot on the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Dec. 18.

The most pleasing contributions of the year for Notre Dame to this point have come from its freshmen, three of whom have seen significant playing time. Guard Ashley Barlow is second on the team in scoring (10.9 ppg.) and steals (2.4 spg.), and came up with a career-high 21-points and nine rebounds on Dec. 28 vs. Prairie View A&M. Center Erica Williamson (6.6 ppg., 5.3 rpg., 1.5 bpg.) is proving to be a capable understudy to D'Amico, amassing a season-high 15 points vs. Prairie View A&M. And, guard Melissa Lechlitner (4.3 ppg., 2.5 apg.) has shown little drop off at the point behind Gaines, registering at least five assists in a game three times this year, and carding a season-high 11 points (3-of-4 3FG) at Penn State.

A thumbnail sketch of the newest Irish signees can be found on page 8 of these notes.
- Notre Dame currently is ranked ninth nationally in attendance (6,495 fans per game). Last season marked the sixth consecutive campaign the Irish were among the national top 20 in attendance (No. 11 ranking). Around the BIG EAST three Joyce Center sellouts of 11,418 (most recently on Dec. 31, 2005 vs. Tennessee).

- For the sixth time in school history, Notre Dame has been selected to host NCAA Tournament action, as the Joyce Center will be the site of NCAA Tournament first- and second-round games in 2010. In four of the five previous instances, Notre Dame was involved in NCAA Tournament play, going 6-1 all-time and advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16 three times (2000, 2001, 2004), with only a first-round loss to Minnesota in 1994 blotting the resume. Notre Dame also hosted the 1983 NCAA Mideast Regional at the Joyce Center, with Georgia defeating Tennessee, 67-63 in the regional final.

- The Irish have become a regular fixture in the WNBA Draft in recent years, as six Notre Dame players have been selected in the past six seasons. All-America guard Megan Duffy was the most recent Irish player to be chosen, going to the Minnesota Lynx in the third round (31st overall pick) of the 2006 WNBA Draft. Other active Notre Dame players in the WNBA during the 2006 season included Ruth Riley and Jacqueline Batteast (league champion Detroit Shock), while Niele Ivey sat out this year as a free agent, rehabilitating an injury after previously playing with Indiana, Detroit and Phoenix. Riley's WNBA title with Detroit was her second (she was the 2003 WNBA Finals MVP), while Batteast earned her first pro crown this year.

- Notre Dame has been an elite program in the classroom as well. The Irish posted a perfect 100-percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR), according to figures released by the NCAA in October 2006. Notre Dame was one of 16 Division I-A programs to achieve this distinction, and one of only two BIG EAST programs (Syracuse is the other). Furthermore, since Muffet McGraw became the Irish head coach in 1987, every Notre Dame women's basketball player that has completed her athletic and academic eligibility at the University has graduated.

A Quick Look At Seton Hall

You could hardly blame any of the Seton Hall players or coaches if they came into the 2006-07 season with a bit of a chip on their shoulders. The Pirates were picked 16th in the preseason BIG EAST coaches' poll, and SHU has taken that sign of disrespect and run with it, all the way to a 9-3 record (1-0 in the BIG EAST) through the first two months of the campaign.

After splitting its first four games, Seton Hall has won seven of its last eight, including a road win at defending America East Conference champion Hartford (59-53 on Nov. 29) and a victory at Providence in the Pirates' BIG EAST opener (66-52 on Dec. 21). In fact, SHU's only loss since Thanksgiving has been a 20-point setback at Atlantic Coast Conference stalwart Virginia (85-65 on Dec. 2).

In-season tournament titles also can provide a team with a lift and Seton Hall got a boost by winning the Lehigh Christmas City Classic last weekend in Bethlehem, Pa. The Pirates defeated Central Michigan, 79-55 in their tourney opener before rallying from a 12-point halftime deficit to edge the host Mountain Hawks, 51-48 in the title game. Freshman guard Ashley Booker was the hero, banking in a shot from mid-court at the horn to pull out the victory.

Senior forward Monique Blake was the only SHU player to score in double figures with 10 points, but it was enough to earn her a place on the all-tournament team. Junior guard Ela Mukosiej was named the tournament MVP after averaging 12 points and four assists in two games.

Blake is Seton Hall's leader in several categories — scoring (12.4 ppg), rebounding (8.6 rpg.) and blocked shots (1.7 bpg.) among them. She also is second on the squad in field goal percentage (.509) and steals (1.6 spg.). Senior guard/forward Heta Korpivaara is the other Pirate scoring in double figures this season (11.1 ppg.), although Mukosiej (9.6 ppg.) and sophomore forward Noteisha Womack (7.1 ppg., 6.3 rpg.) also have made solid contributions.

Phyllis Mangina is in her 22nd season as the head coach at Seton Hall, owning a 303-309 (.495) record at her alma mater. Mangina is 4-14 all-time against Notre Dame.

The Notre Dame-Seton Hall Series

Notre Dame leads the all-time series with Seton Hall, 14-4, including a 6-2 record at Walsh Gymnasium. After the Pirates won the first two games against the Irish (non-conference battles in 1993 and 1994), Notre Dame took the upper hand in the series with 12 consecutive victories to open their BIG EAST Conference rivalry.

However, the series has been much closer of late, with the teams splitting the past four meetings — winning once each at home and on the road during that time.

Other Notre Dame-Seton Hall Series Tidbits

- Four of the past six series games have been decided by single digits, including each of the past three matchups at Walsh Gym.
- Only once in the past six games has either team managed to break the 70-point mark. Seton Hall did it last season in a 74-61 victory at the Joyce Center. By contrast, Notre Dame had scored at least 70 points in nine of 10 games vs. the Pirates from 1996-2002.
- SHU's 74 points last year were the most they scored against Notre Dame since their first-ever BIG EAST meeting in 1996 (an 88-79 overtime win for the Irish). The 13-point margin of victory also was the Pirates' largest in the 18-game series to date.
- Notre Dame's 51-45 loss at Seton Hall in 2004 marked just the second time in program history (and first as a Division I member) the Irish failed to have at least one player score in double figures.
- The 2005 game at Walsh Gym (a 41-35 Irish victory) yielded two school records for Notre Dame — fewest points allowed in a BIG EAST road game and fewest points scored in any road game.
- Notre Dame has opened its BIG EAST season against Seton Hall once before. Ironically, that game took place exactly two years ago to the day on Jan. 2, 2005, with the Irish claiming a 54-33 verdict at the Joyce Center.

- The coaching matchup between Notre Dame's Muffet McGraw and Seton Hall's Phyllis Mangina dates back nearly a quarter of a century to McGraw's previous tenure at Lehigh (1982-87), when her clubs split two games with Mangina's SHU squads.
- Seton Hall and Rutgers are the only two New Jersey schools Notre Dame has faced on the hardwood. The Irish are 14-4 all-time vs. SHU and 9-13 lifetime against RU, good for a combined 23-17 (.575) record against the Garden State. On the road, Notre Dame is 9-10 vs. teams from New Jersey — 6-2 at Seton Hall, 3-8 at Rutgers.

The Last Time Notre Dame and Seton Hall Met

Heta Korpivaara scored 13 of her 18 points in the second half, including six points during a decisive 17-6 run, to lead Seton Hall to a 74-61 upset of No. 12 Notre Dame on Jan. 7, 2006 at the Joyce Center.

The loss was the third in a row for the Irish (9-4, 0-2 BIG EAST), their longest losing streak in eight years. The victory was the first for Seton Hall (5-8, 0-2) against a ranked team since beating No. 23 Notre Dame 51-48 in South Orange on Feb. 8, 2004.

Korpivaara made a pair of free throws with 11:20 left to give the Pirates a 45-44 lead, then added another pair of free throws and a 17-foot jumper to make it 51-46. The Pirates extended the lead to 58-50 when Shantel Brown made a three-pointer and led by 10 when Monique Blake scored off her own miss.

The Pirates, who outrebounded the Irish 32-14 in the second half, made 12 of 14 free throws during the final 1:50 to hold on for the victory.

Jadis Rhodin had 13 points and six rebounds for Seton Hall and Amber Harris and Brown had 12 points each. Harris also added 11 rebounds and the Pirates had 14 second-chance points compared to five for the Irish.

Tulyah Gaines led Notre Dame with 12 points, Crystal Erwin had 11 points, despite going 1-for-7 from the free throw line, and Charel Allen added 10 points.

The Last Time Notre Dame and Seton Hall Met In South Orange

Charel Allen had 14 points and nine rebounds and No. 10 Notre Dame overcame a school record-tying low point total for a road game in posting a 41-35 victory over Seton Hall on March 1, 2005, at Walsh Gym in South Orange, N.J.

Jacqueline Batteast added 11 points as the Irish (25-4, 13-3 BIG EAST) overcame 22 percent shooting (13-of-59) from the field to win for the 12th time in 13 games.

The 41 points tied the school record for fewest points on the road, set in a 66-41 loss at Marquette in 1978, the first year of women's basketball at Notre Dame. The record low for a game at home was set last year, when the Irish beat Villanova 38-36.

Ashley Bush had 19 points and 11 rebounds for Seton Hall in her final home game. Asia Carroll hit two late three-pointers for the Pirates (14-13, 6-10), with the last getting them within 36-31 with 1:11 to go. Allen then iced the game with four late free throws.

Down 17-15 at the half, Notre Dame took the lead for good with a 7-0 spurt that came during a span where the officials changed a three-pointer by Bush into a two-point basket.

The switch cut the lead to 19-18 and Allen hit two free throws to put the Irish ahead 20-19. Batteast then scored the next five points, hitting one of two free throws, a shot in the lane and a layup for a 25-19 lead with 14:16 to play.

Seton Hall twice cut the lead to four points, but Batteast hit a jumper to ignite a seven-point spurt that Megan Duffy capped with her only basket of the game.

Bush almost single-handedly gave Seton Hall its two-point halftime lead. She scored 11 of her team's 17 points and frustrated Batteast with her tough defense, limiting the conference's second-leading scorer to two points on 1-of-5 shooting.

Notre Dame did not score in the final 7:31 of the period, and it had only two points in the final 10:09 in matching its season-low for a half.

Blowing The Lid Off The BIG EAST

Notre Dame is 7-4 (.636) in BIG EAST Conference openers since it joined the league for the 1995-96 season. The Irish have won five of their last seven BIG EAST lidlifters, but are coming off a 66-63 loss at St. John's to begin last year's conference slate.

Tuesday's game will mark the sixth time Notre Dame has opened BIG EAST play on the road, having gone 2-3 its previous five outings. The last two times the Irish have encountered this scenario, they have come out on the losing side of the ledger, falling at Georgetown in 2004 (76-73) and last year at St. John's (66-63).

Ringin In The New Year

Notre Dame is 21-8 (.724) all-time in its first game of a new calendar year, with a 14-6 (.700) mark when that first January game takes place on the road. The Irish have celebrated the new year with a victory in 10 of their last 12 opportunities, including a 9-2 mark since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96. In that time, the only blemishes on the Notre Dame record have been losses to Purdue in 2003 (71-54) and last year at St. John's (66-63).

They Say It's Your Birthday

The Irish will have two players celebrating their 22nd birthdays during their current road trip to Seton Hall. Senior forward Crystal Erwin got to blow out the candles on New Year's Day, while senior guard Breona Gray will have the honors on Tuesday.

Poise Under Pressure

The Irish are 4-1 this season in games decided by 10 points or less, including a 3-1 record when the margin is five points or fewer. Going back the previous two seasons (2004-05 to present), Notre Dame is 11-5 in five-point games and 24-8 in 10-point contests — with three of those eight losses coming in overtime.

Four times this season, the Irish have sent a player to the free throw line with less than four seconds remaining in regulation or overtime and the game hanging in the balance. In those clutch situations, Notre Dame is 7-for-8 at the charity stripe, with the only miss being a semi-intentional one by senior guard Breona Gray on the second of two tries with 1.2 seconds to go in a 60-59 win at Valparaiso on Dec. 19.

Clutch When It Counts

Notre Dame is shooting 74.2 percent from the foul line (46-of-62) this season inside the final five minutes of regulation and overtime.

Upon closer inspection, the Irish have gotten some of their most critical free throw production from their freshmen — guards Ashley Barlow and Melissa Lechlitner are a combined 17-of-18 (.944) at the charity stripe down the stretch.

Junior Achievement

The common basketball adage holds that college players make their biggest improvement between their freshman and sophomore seasons. However, for Notre Dame, it's been the time between the sophomore and junior years that has been conducive to the most development.

Three of the top four Irish scorers this season are juniors and all three are posting the best scoring averages of their careers — guard Charel Allen (14.2 ppg.), center Melissa D'Amico (10.6 ppg.) and guard Tulyah Gaines (10.2 ppg.). Allen came into the year with an 8.1 ppg. career average, while D'Amico had a two-year ratio of 4.0 ppg., and Gaines was averaging 3.7 ppg. Between them, the junior trio had a combined 37 double-figure scoring games in two seasons entering the 2006-07 campaign — so far through this year, they have 24 double-digit efforts.

Spread The Wealth

The Irish have fielded at least three double-figure scorers in nine of 13 games this season, going 8-1 in those contests (only loss was at Penn State). Last week's Prairie View A&M game marked the third time this year Notre Dame had five players crack double digits in the same contest.

Play The Percentages

Judging by the numbers, Notre Dame's defense has looked sharp of late, holding four of the last five Irish opponents to less than 40 percent shooting from the field and going 4-1 during that stretch. Included among the recent list of cold-shooting Notre Dame foes are No. 10/9 Purdue (.390 in a 67-58 Irish win on Dec. 6) and No. 4 Tennessee (.381 in a 78-54 UT win on Dec. 30).

Keeping The Home Fires Burning

Notre Dame has been largely solid at home this season, going 7-1 due in part to a crisp offense that has averaged 79.3 points per game on the Joyce Center hardwood. Led by junior guard Charel Allen (13.9 ppg.), the Irish also have four players scoring in double figures through their eight home games and are shooting .471 from the floor in front of the Notre Dame faithful.

Riding The Long Island Express

Junior center (and Long Island native) Melissa D'Amico is showing signs of continuing the superb progress she made last season. After nearly tripling her scoring and rebounding outputs from her rookie season (up to 5.9 ppg., 3.7 rpg.), D'Amico is at it again, ranking third on the Irish roster in scoring (10.6 ppg.) and fourth in rebounding (5.1 rpg.), while leading the team in field goal percentage (.569) and placing second in blocked shots (1.2 bpg.).

D'Amico has been particularly sharp of late, averaging 12.7 points and 6.3 rebounds per game with a .607 field goal percentage (34-of-56) in Notre Dame's last six outings. She also has scored in double digits four times in that span (including a career-high-tying 20-point effort vs. IUPUI) and logged her first double-double of the year with 15 points and 10 rebounds against Indiana.

Contribute Early, Contribute Often

Notre Dame's freshman class has wasted little time in making its presence felt this season. Three of the Irish rookies — guards Ashley Barlow and Melissa Lechlitner, and center Erica Williamson — make up the team's primary bench rotation, with all three averaging at least 15 minutes per game, all three having scored in double figures at least twice, and Barlow has posted a double-double already this season (19 points, 10 rebounds vs. Bowling Green).

Barlow also is second on the team in scoring (10.9 ppg.) and ranks among the BIG EAST Conference leaders in both free throw percentage (.929, also 11th in NCAA) and steals (2.4 spg.). Williamson is carding 6.6 points, 5.3 rebounds and 1.5 blocks per game. And, Lechlitner is logging 4.3 points and 2.5 assists per night with six three-pointers (tied for fourth on the squad).

The Five-Finger Discount

Notre Dame's aggressive defense has forced 21.9 turnovers per game this season, logging 20-or-more takeaways in 10 of 13 games. In addition, the Irish caused an opponent season-high 30 turnovers at Michigan on Dec. 1, the first 30-turnover outing by the Notre Dame defense since Feb. 25, 2004 (37 turnovers by Miami at the Joyce Center).

The Irish also lead the BIG EAST Conference (and rank 20th in the nation) with 12.3 steals per night. In fact, Notre Dame has posted double-digit steal totals in nine games this season (and never fewer than seven in one game), with junior guard Charel Allen committing the most larcenies to date (32, 2.5 per game) and leading five Irish players with at least 20 steals this season.

In addition, freshman guard Ashley Barlow recorded a combined 11 steals vs. Western Michigan (six) and at USC (five). That made her the first Notre Dame player with back-to-back five-steal games since March 30-April 1, 2001, when Niele Ivey did so against Connecticut (five) and Purdue (six) at the NCAA Women's Final Four in St. Louis.

Game #13 Recap: Tennessee

Candace Parker had 22 points and 10 rebounds and Shannon Bobbitt had a season-high 17 points to lead No. 4 Tennessee to a 78-54 victory over Notre Dame on Saturday before a crowd of 19,092 in Knoxville.

Sidney Spencer added 17 points for the Lady Vols, playing the final non-conference game before their Southeastern Conference opener at home against Alabama on Wednesday. Bobbitt was 5-of-7 from three-point range, and the Lady Vols also had 12 blocks, including five by Parker.

Notre Dame (9-4), led by junior guard Charel Allen with 16 points, fell to 0-18 in the series with Tennessee.

Tennessee (12-1) led the entire first half but never by more than eight points. Alexis Hornbuckle hit a 15-footer in transition with 4:11 left to give the Lady Vols a 27-19 lead, but Notre Dame finished the half with an 8-2 run, closing to within 29-27.

The Lady Vols shot just 34.5 percent from the field in the first half and Notre Dame shot 46.2 percent. Tennessee had 11 points off turnovers in the first half.

The Lady Vols opened the second half with an 11-2 run, taking a 40-29 lead on Spencer's two free throws with 16:25 left.

Bobbitt, who hit four three-pointers in the first 10 minutes of the second half, scored eight straight points in a span of 26 seconds to extend the lead to 26 points. She hit a three-pointer with 10:38 left, made two foul shots after being intentionally fouled by junior guard Tulyah Gaines on a drive, and hit another three-pointer with 10:12 to play for a 64-38 lead with 10:12 left.

That came during a 22-2 run by the Lady Vols, who rolled to the victory in the last 10 minutes. The Irish uncharacteristically finished with 29 turnovers and the Lady Vols with 15.

Noting The Tennessee Game

- The Irish are 1-1 against ranked opponents this season (d. #10/9 Purdue, 67-58 on Dec. 6), although they also downed Bowling Green, 85-81 in overtime on Nov. 13 (before the Falcons moved into the Top 25 of both polls).
- Notre Dame held Tennessee to both its second-closest halftime margin of the season and its second-lowest field goal percentage of the year; the Lady Vols trailed 40-25 at the break at No. 2 North Carolina on Dec. 3 and wound up shooting a season-low .362 in that game.
- The Irish have dropped their last two games in Knoxville by the exact same 24-point margin (83-59 in 2003).
- Notre Dame isn't alone among talented teams who lost to UT by 20+ points this year — #20/21 UCLA (83-60), Middle Tennessee (88-64), #21/19 George Washington (85-62) and #23/24 Texas (67-46) also have fallen to the Lady Vols in 2006-07.
- Notre Dame has limited four of its last five opponents to less than 40 percent shooting, including top-10 opponents Purdue (.390) and Tennessee (.381).

Injury Bug Bites Irish Early

Sophomore guard Lindsay Schrader will miss the 2006-07 season after suffering a torn ACL in her right knee during practice on Oct. 15. Schrader underwent corrective surgery on Oct. 27, with the normal rehabilitation timeline extending 6-9 months.

Schrader was to be Notre Dame's top returning scorer and rebounder this season, after averaging 10.5 points and 5.4 rebounds per game during her rookie campaign in 2005-06.

2006-07: The Anniversary Season

- 2006-07 marks the 30th season of Notre Dame women's basketball, with the Irish having compiled an all-time record of 602-270 (.690) since making their varsity debut in 1977-78. Actually, Notre Dame spent its first three seasons at the Division III level, playing under the banner of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) before making the move to Division I status in 1980-81 (the NCAA began sponsoring a women's basketball championship the following season). The Irish have an overall Division I record of 553-250 (.689).
- This year also represents Muffet McGraw's 20th season as the head women's basketball coach at Notre Dame and her 25th campaign overall, including her five-year run at Lehigh (1982-87). McGraw's record is a stellar one — she is 438-171 (.719) at the helm of the Irish and has a career record of 526-212 (.713) in her silver anniversary season on the sidelines.
- In addition, Notre Dame is celebrating the 35th anniversary of women's athletics at the University during the 2006-07 season. All Irish women's sports teams will hold events to commemorate this milestone during their respective seasons. What's more, all Notre Dame women's teams are sporting 35th anniversary logo patches on their uniforms for the '06-07 campaign.

Notre Dame Ranked 11th In Preseason BIG EAST Coaches' Poll

According to a preseason poll of the BIG EAST Conference coaches, Notre Dame will finish 11th in the conference this season. Those were the results released at the league's annual Media Day Oct. 26 at the ESPN Zone in New York's Times Square. The Irish earned 108 points, while reigning BIG EAST Championship victor, Connecticut (221 points, 11 first-place votes) was tabbed first, ahead of regular-season champion Rutgers (215 points, five first-place votes). The BIG EAST sent 11 teams to the postseason last year, including seven NCAA Tournament qualifiers (Notre Dame was one).

The Irish are beginning their 12th season as a member of the BIG EAST Conference in 2006-07. The Irish have gone 145-39 (.788) all-time in regular-season conference games, posting the best winning percentage in league history. Connecticut is second with a .783 success rate. Notre Dame also has finished among the top three in the final BIG EAST regular-season standings nine times in its first 11 seasons in the conference, including a share of the BIG EAST title in 2000-01.

Half And Half

During the past seven seasons, Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable when it has the lead at halftime. The Irish are 115-10 (.920) since the start of the 2000-01 campaign when they go into the dressing room with the lead, including wins in 43 of their last 47 such contests. Six times this year, Notre Dame has led at the break, going on to win each time (Central Michigan, Western Michigan, Richmond, IUPUI, Valparaiso and Prairie View A&M).

The Best Offense Is A Good Defense...

During the past 12 seasons, Notre Dame has discovered that a solid defensive effort can almost certainly guarantee a victory. In fact, since the beginning of the 1995-96 season (Notre Dame's first in the BIG EAST Conference), the Irish have an amazing 163-10 (.942) record when they hold their opponents below 60 points in a game. Notre Dame has held five of its last seven foes to less than 60 points, and is 4-1 in those games (wins over Michigan, Purdue, Valparaiso and Prairie View A&M; loss to Indiana).

...But Sometimes You Have To Score If You Want To Win

Not resting solely on its defensive laurels, Notre Dame also seemingly has found the magic mark when it comes to outscoring its opponents. During the past 12 seasons (1995-96 to present), the Irish are 96-3 (.970) when they score at least 80 points in a game. The only blemishes on that record are a pair of overtime losses to Texas A&M (88-84) and Michigan State (87-83) in 1995 and a 106-81 loss to Connecticut in 1998. Notre Dame has topped the 80-point mark five times this season, winning on each occasion (Central Michigan, Bowling Green, Western Michigan, Richmond and Prairie View A&M).

The five 80-point games are the most for the Irish in a single season since 2000-01, when Notre Dame reached that level 15 times during its run to the national championship.

Now That's A Home Court Advantage

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's success has been its stellar play at home. In fact, the Irish have been virtually untouchable at home in recent years, winning 142 of their last 159 games (.893) at the 11,418-seat Joyce Center, including winning streaks of 51 and 25 games in that span. Notre Dame also has a 80-12 (.870) record in BIG EAST Conference play at the Joyce Center, sporting a 31-game league winning streak at home before it ended with a 48-45 loss to Villanova in the '02 home finale.

The Irish have been particularly strong when it comes to non-conference games at home, winning 64 of their last 69 non-BIG EAST contests (.928) at the Joyce Center, dating back to the 1994-95 season. Four of the losses in that span came at the hands of Big Ten Conference opponents — Wisconsin in 1996 (81-69), Purdue in 2003 (71-54), Michigan State in 2004 (82-73 OT) and Indiana this year (54-51), with the fifth defeat coming to Tennessee last year (62-51). The Purdue loss also snapped a 33-game non-conference home winning streak which began after the UW setback.

Since its inaugural season in 1977-78, Notre Dame has played all of its games at the Joyce Center, posting a 292-78 (.789) record at the venerable facility. Three times (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04), the Irish went a perfect 15-0 at home, setting a school record for home wins in a season. The 2006-07 campaign will tie for the most regular-season home games (16) in school history, although in 2004-05, the Irish played host to all four rounds of the Preseason WNIT before its regular 12-game home slate began.

Jammin' The Joyce

Beginning with its national championship season of 2000-01, Notre Dame has ranked among the top 20 in the nation in attendance each of the past six years. This season looks to be no exception, as the Irish currently are ninth in the nation in average attendance (6,495 fans per game), according to the latest unofficial weekly rankings compiled by the University of Wisconsin Sports Information Office.

What's more, each of the top 20 women's basketball crowds in Joyce Center history have occurred during the 20-year tenure of head coach Muffet McGraw (1987-present), with 19 of those 20 occurring in the past seven seasons (2000-01 to present). Lastly, the Irish have attracted at least 5,000 fans to 86 of their last 88 home games, including 15 contests with at least 8,000 fans and the first three sellouts in the program's history (two in 2000-01, one in 2005-06).

Oh Captain, My Captain

Senior guard Breona Gray and junior guard Tulyah Gaines will serve as team captains for the 2006-07 season. Both players are serving as captains for the first time in their respective careers, and each received the captain's honor following a vote of their teammates prior to the season.

States of Grace

Notre Dame is one of 12 schools in the country to have more than one player on its roster who was named a high school Player of the Year in their home state. Irish junior guard Tulyah Gaines was tapped as the 2004 Gatorade Nevada Player of the Year, while sophomore guard Lindsay Schrader was chosen as the 2005 Illinois Miss Basketball and Illinois Gatorade Player of the Year.

Notre Dame On The Small Screen

Notre Dame will have 11 of its regular-season games televised during the 2006-07 season. Highlighting this year's television docket are five nationally-televised Irish women's basketball contests, including a pair of games on the ESPN family of networks a week apart in early February.

This year's TV slate continues a recent trend that has seen the Irish become a regular fixture on television. Beginning with the NCAA championship season of 2000-01 and continuing through this year, Notre Dame has played in 75 televised games, including 46 that were broadcast nationally.

Notre Dame made its 2006-07 television debut Nov. 16 when its road opener at Penn State aired live on College Sports Television (CSTV). That was the first of three Irish women's basketball broadcasts for the national cable network, with the second coming Jan. 23 at Marquette (8 p.m. CT tip) and the third coming in the regular-season finale on Feb. 26 at DePaul (8 p.m. CT). The latter two contests are part of the BIG EAST-CSTV Game of the Week package, now in its second season. Counting the Penn State contest, CSTV now has aired 12 Notre Dame women's basketball games during the past five seasons, with the first being that network's inaugural broadcast of any sport (a Feb. 2003 game at Connecticut).

The Irish also are scheduled to make two appearances on the ESPN family of networks, beginning with a Feb. 4 home game against West Virginia that will be broadcast live on ESPNU and will start at 5:30 p.m. (ET). The following Sunday (Feb. 11), Notre Dame will play host to DePaul for a 5:30 p.m. (ET) game that will air on ESPN2 as part of that network's "February Frenzy" split-national coverage designed to preview a similar coverage pat-

Fall Signees

University of Notre Dame head women's basketball coach Muffet McGraw announced Nov. 8 that three of the country's top high school student-athletes have chosen to continue their academic and athletic careers with the Irish, each signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Notre Dame beginning in the fall of 2007. Becca Bruszewski, a 6-1 forward from Valparaiso, Ind. (Wheeler High School), Brittany Mallory, a 5-10 guard from Baltimore, Md. (McDonogh School) and Devereaux Peters, a 6-2 forward from Chicago, Ill. (Fenwick High School) all made their official commitments to the Irish during the early signing period.

All three student-athletes are rated among the top 100 players in the country by Blue Star Basketball, with that outlet also ranking the Notre Dame incoming class of 2007 as the No. 11 group in the nation. It marks the 11th consecutive year that the Irish have attracted a Top 25 recruiting class, a streak only two other programs in the country (Connecticut and Tennessee) can match.

"I think we've done a tremendous job of addressing our needs with the addition of these three ladies," McGraw said. "We're getting some very skilled offensive players who will fit well into our system. There's a good balance between perimeter shooting and rebounding, and I think rebounding was the area that we felt was our biggest need. What I also like about these players is that they're smart, competitive athletes who catch on to new ideas and concepts quickly. They're all should complement our current team very well and we're excited to have them join our program next year."

Notre Dame Student-Athletes Rank Among Nation's Best

Whether measured by the federal government in its Department of Education report or by the NCAA through its newer Graduation Success Rate (GSR) numbers, graduation rates for Notre Dame student-athletes again rank among the national leaders in all major categories among all Division I-A football-playing colleges and universities, according to statistics released Nov. 9 by the NCAA.

The federally-mandated NCAA Graduation-Rates Report, the 16th such survey issued by the association, covers students who enrolled between 1996 and 1999 at all Division I institutions. The NCAA bases graduation rates on the raw percentage of student-athletes who entered an institution and graduated within six years. Students who leave or transfer are considered non-graduates. All those receiving athletics aid are included in the statistics.

Using the federal formula, Notre Dame graduated a four-year average of 89 percent, behind Duke at 90 percent, and ahead of Stanford and Northwestern (88 percent).

Notre Dame ranks second among Division I-A football schools (and also among all 318 I-A programs) on another scale, called the GSR, which was instituted two years ago by the NCAA. The University's 98 percent GSR for all its student-athletes is second only to the 99 percent of the United States Naval Academy, which is exempt from the federal survey because it does not offer grants-in-aid to student-athletes.

The GSR was created to more accurately reflect actual graduation rates by including transfer data in the calculation. College and university presidents asked the NCAA to develop a new methodology that takes into account the mobility among students in today's higher education environment.

Among 627 student-athletes who completed all four years of athletic eligibility at Notre Dame from among those entering over a 10-year period from 1990-91 through 1999-2000, 99 percent earned their degrees.

Notre Dame graduated 94 percent of all women competing in varsity athletics, to rank second (tied with Duke), behind only Northwestern's 95 percent rate among its peer institutions based on the federal calculations. Notre Dame also graduated 75 percent of its black student-athletes.

In the GSR standings, Notre Dame finished second among all student-athletes at 98 percent (behind only the U.S. Naval Academy at 99), fourth among black student-athletes at 91 percent (behind the Naval Academy at 96, Northwestern at 93 and Wake Forest at 93) and tied for fourth among female student-athletes at 99 percent (Vanderbilt, Northwestern and the Naval Academy finished at 100).

Academic All-Americans

Entering the 2006-07 academic year, Notre Dame ranks second in the nation with 176 Academic All-America® selections, including 14 last year alone. The Academic All-America® Program is administered by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), whose membership votes on the award winners, and the program is sponsored this year by ESPN The Magazine.

The Notre Dame women's basketball program has produced five Academic All-America® honorees in its 30-year history, with those five players winning a total of seven citations. In addition, two-time first-team Academic All-America® pick Ruth Riley was tapped as the 2001 Academic All-America® Women's Basketball Team Member of the Year, as well as the Academic All-America® Team Member of the Year.

Riley also is one of only 10 student-athletes in Notre Dame history to earn All-American and Academic All-America® honors twice in her career.

Last year, Megan Duffy was named a first-team Academic All-America® selection, becoming the second Irish player ever to attain that distinction. Duffy graduated in May 2006 with a 3.576 grade-point average (GPA) and a degree in psychology and computer applications from Notre Dame's College of Arts and Letters. She also garnered Dean's List honors in four of her final five semesters (spring 2004, fall 2004, spring 2005, fall 2005).

Academics

tern for the NCAA Tournament. During the past six seasons, Notre Dame has appeared on the ESPN family of networks 28 times, averaging nearly five telecasts per year on "The Worldwide Leader in Sports".

In addition, Notre Dame will play in five regionally-televised games this season. The first of those took place Dec. 6, when the Irish defeated No. 10/9 Purdue at the Joyce Center in a game seen live on Comcast Local (based in Detroit). On Dec. 30, Notre Dame visited Tennessee in a contest at Thompson-Boling Arena that was seen live on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast. And, on Jan. 27, the Irish will visit Connecticut for a 7 p.m. (ET) matchup that will be carried live on Connecticut Public Television (CPTV).

Notre Dame will appear twice on the BIG EAST-Regional Sports Network (RSN) package this season with contests at South Florida (Jan. 13, noon ET) and home against Rutgers (Feb. 24, noon ET). SportsNet New York will serve as the flagship for the BIG EAST package, with additional clearances to be announced at a later date.

The other televised game for the Irish was a local broadcast (WHME-TV in South Bend/Lakeshore Public Television in Chicagoland) of the Dec. 19 contest at Valparaiso.

Notre Dame On The Airwaves

For the 11th consecutive season, every Irish women's basketball game (home and away) will air on commercial radio in South Bend, and for the seventh year in a row, Notre Dame can be heard on the flagship station of the Artistic Media Partners (AMP) Network — WDND-AM (ESPN Radio 1490) in South Bend. Veteran broadcaster and AMP sports director Sean Stires is now in his seventh season handling the play-by-play for Notre Dame. The Irish also can be heard free of charge on the Internet at Notre Dame's official athletics web site (www.und.com).

Irish Debut Free Video Coverage

In the latest instance of the wide-ranging media avenues afforded the Notre Dame women's basketball program, the Irish will have several of their 2006-07 home games televised free of charge through the official Notre Dame athletics web site (www.und.com). Thanks to the considerable efforts of CSTV Online (based in Carlsbad, Calif.) and its new Fighting Irish All-Access package, fans of Notre Dame women's basketball can watch every minute of exciting action at the Joyce Center live from the comfort of their own homes. The video will be supplemented by an audio simulcast of the Notre Dame radio broadcast, led by veteran sportscaster Sean Stires.

This free service is limited to those home games that have not been selected for broadcast by other TV outlets. The Irish have been televised on und.com twice this season (Indiana and IUPUI), with the remainder of this year's Internet video broadcast schedule to be announced at a later date.

Joyce Center Arena Renovation On Tap

On Oct. 5, Notre Dame announced plans for a nearly $25 million renovation of the Joyce Center arena, including new chairback seating, a four-sided digital video scoreboard, and a club/hospitality area (as part of a new two-story addition to be built on the south side of the facility).

The $24.7 million renovation project has been underwritten with a $12.5 million leadership gift from Philip J. Purcell III, a Notre Dame alumnus and Trustee, and the retired chairman and CEO of Morgan Stanley. Upon completion, the arena will be known as Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center. The Purcell gift, combined with other benefactions, including a $5 million gift from 1959 Notre Dame graduate and Tampa Bay Devil Rays owner Vince Naimoli, brings the total contributions to the project to $22 million.

In accordance with University policies for new construction, work on the renovation will begin after the project is fully funded and designed. The University is actively seeking additional contributions.

Next Game: Cincinnati

For the third time in the past five weeks, Notre Dame will have at least a week off between games. This time, the Irish go on an eight-day hiatus before returning to the hardwood on Jan. 10 for their BIG EAST Conference home opener vs. Cincinnati at the Joyce Center. It will be the Bearcats' first visit to the Joyce Center since 1982 and just the third all-time meeting between the teams.

UC is 9-3 this year (0-1 in the BIG EAST) and like Notre Dame, the Bearcats have been very successful at home, going 7-0 at Fifth Third Arena. In addition, two of Cincinnati's three losses to date have come to ranked opponents, including its most recent outing, a 94-82 setback at No. 24/23 Arkansas on Dec. 28. The Bearcats will have games vs. Georgetown (Wednesday) and at South Florida (Saturday) before heading to South Bend next week.

Notre Dame is 58-4 (.935) against non-conference opponents at the Joyce Center, dating back to the 1994-95 season ... junior center Melissa D'Amico registered the second "point-a-minute" game of her career — she had a career-high 20 points in 18 minutes vs. Arkansas State on Dec. 17, 2005 at the Duel in the Desert in Las Vegas; sophomore forward Chandrica Smith was just as efficient with a career-high 11 points, but her nine minutes played just missed the minimum threshold of 10 minutes to qualify for record-keeping ... Smith's previous scoring high was nine points at Rutgers on Jan. 24, 2006.

Ashley Barlow's 19 points narrowly missed giving the Irish three 20-point scorers for the first time since Jan. 7, 1999 vs. West Virginia (Danielle Green 28, Sheila McMillen 26, Ruth Riley 23 in 111-90 win) ... Tulyah Gaines' previous career scoring high was 14 points in an overtime win at Cincinnati on Feb. 25, 2006 ... NOTES: Notre Dame's last (and only prior) loss to USC came on Jan. 2, 1985 in a 69-53 neutral site decision at Fullerton, Calif. ... that 1985 game also set the series standards for most points by USC (tied this year) and fewest points by the Irish (this year's total of 58 was second on the chart) ... Notre Dame lost for only the fourth time in its last 18 games against Pac-10 Conference opponents ... the Irish forced an opponent season-high 27 turnovers, the most for Notre Dame since Nov. 22, 2004, when Colorado State had 29 turnovers in a 69-47 Irish win at the Joyce Center ... it's also the fourth time in five games this year Notre Dame has come up with 20-or-more takeaways ... in addition, the Irish recorded double-digit steals for the fifth time in as many games this season, with their 16 thefts the most by a Notre Dame club since March 21, 2005, when they had 17 steals in an NCAA Tournament second-round loss to Arizona State in Fresno, Calif. ... junior guard Ashley Barlow came up with five more steals against USC, following a six-steal effort against Western Michigan on Nov. 19; she's the first Irish player with back-to-back five-steal games since March 30-April 1, 2001, when Niele Ivey did it against Connecticut (5) and Purdue (6) in the NCAA Women's Final Four ... freshman center Erica Williamson became the ninth different Irish player to score in double figures this season ... Notre Dame had shot better than 80 percent from the foul line in three of its first four games this year before its 7-of-17 (.412) showing at USC ... senior forward Crystal Erwin was whistled for an unusual "indirect" technical foul for delay of game when she inadvertently contacted the ball while a USC player was attempting to inbound after a made basket in the second half.

NOTES: Notre Dame earned its first win over Michigan at Crisler Arena since Dec. 12, 1982, when the Irish earned a 62-58 victory behind 15 points from Trena Keys ... Notre Dame now leads the series with Michigan, 8-6, and has won four of the last five meetings, but the 14-game series' aggregate point total remains razor thin (ND 934, UM 932) ... of the eight Irish wins against Michigan, seven have come when Notre Dame held the Wolverines to less than 60 points ... the winning margin was the closest in the series since UM took a 66-60 overtime win on Dec. 8, 1979 at the Joyce Center ... the Irish have won six of their last nine games against Big Ten Conference opponents ... Notre Dame forced 30 Michigan turnovers, the most by an Irish opponent since Feb. 25, 2004, when Miami (Fla.) was charged with 37 turnovers in a 93-58 Notre Dame victory at the Joyce Center ... the Irish have hassled opponents into 20-plus turnovers in six of seven games this year ... Notre Dame also has recorded double-digit steals in six of seven games thus far, with the Michigan game marking the third 15-steal effort for the Irish defense this season, all in the past four outings (also 15 vs. Western Michigan and 16 at USC) ... conversely, Notre Dame had 17 turnovers, stretching its streak of games with fewer than 20 turnovers to 19 in a row ... only once this year has Notre Dame failed to have at least three double-digit scorers (two at USC), with Allen, Barlow and Gaines doing the honors at Michigan ... Notre Dame's second platoon at Michigan, which consisted of three freshmen (Barlow, Williamson, Lechlitner), outscored the Wolverine bench, 25-23, making it six times in seven games that the Irish reserves have outpointed the opposition (ND is 5-1 in those games).

Notre Dame had been averaging 86.8 points and shooting .496 from the floor in its first four home games ... the Irish held Indiana to an opponent season-low 54 points (previous: 58 by Michigan on Dec. 1) ... Notre Dame forced 20 IU turnovers, the seventh time in eight games this year the Irish defense has come up with 20 or more takeaways, although Notre Dame had a season-low eight steals vs. Indiana ... the Irish were tabbed with 21 turnovers, snapping a 19-game streak of games with less than 20 turnovers — it was the most giveaways for Notre Dame since Jan. 24, 2006 (22 at Rutgers) ... the .345 field goal percentage for the Irish was their second-lowest of the seasons (.268 at Penn State) and their lowest at home (previous: .433 vs. Bowling Green) ... Notre Dame's rebounding margin (+14) was its best since Jan. 4, 2006 at St. John's, when they outrebounded the Red Storm by a 41-21 spread (also the fewest rebounds by a Notre Dame opponent prior to the IU game) ... the Irish shot a season-best .909 from the foul line, their best mark since Nov. 30, 2004, when they set a school record by going 18-of-18 from the stripe at Valparaiso ... D'Amico's only other previous double-double came on Nov. 27, 2005 against USC at the Joyce Center (13 points, 10 rebounds); it's also the second double-double of the year for Notre Dame after Barlow's 19-point, 10-rebound effort vs. Bowling Green ... D'Amico also previously had 10 rebounds at Georgetown on Jan. 21, 2006 ... Allen grabbed a career-high nine rebounds for the fourth time in her collegiate tenure, most recently doing so against Utah on Dec. 18, 2005 at the Duel in the Desert in Las Vegas ... the Indiana game marked just the second time all year the Irish didn't have at least three double-figure scorers (also at USC on Nov. 24) ... the Notre Dame bench was held to a season-low eight points and was outscored for just the second time all year (Irish have lost both games) ... the crowd of 9,494 was the sixth-largest in program history and the 15th time Notre Dame has drawn a crowd of 8,000 fans or more.

Wednesday's victory was the 550th for Notre Dame as a Division I member (1980-81 to present), as well as the program's 599th overall win in its 799th all-time game during its 30th season ... the Irish have won four of the past five games vs. Purdue at the Joyce Center ... Notre Dame held Purdue to its lowest point total ever in the series, topping a 73-60 Irish win on March 15, 1996 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Lubbock, Texas (Notre Dame's first-ever NCAA Tournament victory) ... the Irish defeated their highest-ranked Purdue squad since April 1, 2001, when Notre Dame downed the No. 9/8 Boilers, 68-66 in the NCAA national championship game at the Savvis Center in St. Louis ... the Irish have defeated 14 of their last 16 in-state opponents, with their only losses coming to Purdue (Jan. 2003) and Indiana (Dec. 2006) ... the Purdue win was the second this season for the Irish when rallying from a double-digit deficit — they trailed by 13 points in the first half vs. Bowling Green on Nov. 13, but came back to defeat the Falcons in overtime, 85-81 at the Joyce Center ... Notre Dame had two 20-point scorers in the same game for the second time this year — Tulyah Gaines had 25 and Charel Allen had 21 vs. Bowling Green on Nov. 13 ... Breona Gray's previous career scoring high was 17 points vs. Syracuse (Jan. 5, 2005) and she had made a career-high two three-pointers on eight different occasions (most recently vs. Western Michigan on Nov. 19, 2006) ... Gray's seven rebounds also were one off her career high (eight vs. USC on Nov. 27, 2005) ... Tulyah Gaines posted her second 20-point game of the year after coming in with a career high of 14 points and just five double-figure scoring games in her career ... Charel Allen was held to single-digit scoring for the first time all season, but contributed in other ways, including a career-high five assists (previous: four on three times, last vs. Providence on Feb. 4, 2006) ... Notre Dame debuted new alternate home uniforms (white with green trim and blue lettering), marking the first time the Irish had ever played a regular-season home game with green on their uniforms — they did sport all green jerseys for their NCAA Tournament openers in 2000 (vs. San Diego) and 2001 (vs. Alcorn State), both of which were played at the Joyce Center and both of which took place on St. Patrick's Day.

NOTES: Coming into the game, Breona Gray had attempted just two foul shots inside the final five minutes of a game this season — and she had missed them both ... four times this season, Notre Dame has had a player step to the line in the final four seconds of regulation or overtime with the game in her hands, and she has come through every time (Ashley Barlow 2-2 FT with 3.8 seconds left in OT vs. Bowling Green; Tulyah Gaines 2-2 FT and Charel Allen 2-2 FT in final 3.3 seconds at Michigan; Breona Gray 1-2 FT with 1.2 seconds left at Valparaiso) ... Notre Dame has won five of its last six games against Valparaiso by 10 points or less, including its last three visits to northwest Indiana ... the Irish have been responsible for three of the Crusaders' 14 home losses (in 69 home games) in the past six seasons ... Notre Dame goes into the Christmas break on a winning note for the 11th consecutive season ... the Irish have held four of their last five opponents to less than 60 points after not doing so once in their first six games of the year ... Notre Dame limited Valparaiso to an opponent season-low .368 field goal percentage ... conversely, the Irish posted their best road field goal percentage of the season (.453) ... the Valparaiso game marked just the second time all season Notre Dame didn't force at least 20 opponent turnovers (19 by Bowling Green on Nov. 13) ... Notre Dame's bench outscored its Valparaiso counterparts by an 18-11 count, marking the ninth time in 11 games the Irish have won the battle of second units (8-1 record) ... Notre Dame concludes a four-game stretch against in-state opponents with a 3-1 record, defeating Purdue, IUPUI and Valparaiso, while losing a narrow three-point decision to Indiana.

Notre Dame held PVAMU to 19 first-half points, the fewest by an Irish opponent in one half since Jan. 21, 2006, when Georgetown scored 18 points in the opening 20 minutes of a 54-52 Notre Dame win ... Melissa Lechlitner's six assists and four steals were personal highs ... the Irish improve to 33-5 (.868) against first-time opponents in the past 12 seasons, including a 13-1 (.929) record since 2000-01.
