Storylines

- ◆ Notre Dame is 4-1 against Big 12 Conference teams in NCAA tournament play.
- ◆ All three prior series games between the Irish and Sooners were played at neutral sites and all three were decided by 10 points or fewer.

Four months after they tangled in front of less than 1,000 fans in a far-off corner of the Caribbean, Notre Dame and Oklahoma will meet once again, this time in an NCAA Kansas City Regional semifinal contest at 6:34 p.m. (CT) Sunday from the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Mo. The game will be televised live nationally on ESPN2HD, and it's a rematch of the Paradise Jam Island Division title clash won by the Irish, 81-71, on Nov. 28 in the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Second-seeded Notre Dame (29-5) advanced to the second weekend of this year's NCAA Championship with an 84-66 win over No. 10 seed Vermont on Tuesday at Purcell Pavilion. Behind an aggressive defense that forced 25 Catamount turnovers, the Irish used a 32-13 run to close the first half and take control.

Freshman guard Skylar Diggins turned in one of the signature NCAA tournament performances in school history with a career-high 31 points, seven steals and six assists for the Irish.

- ◆ Notre Dame is No. 7 in the final Associated Press poll and No. 7 in the latest ESPN/USA Today poll.
- ◆ Oklahoma is No. 12 in the final Associated Press poll and No. 12 in the latest ESPN/USA Today poll.

- The Irish appeared in the top five of the AP poll for the first 15 weeks this season, marking the second-longest string of consecutive AP Top 5 rankings in program history behind only the final 17 weeks in 2000-01.
- Notre Dame's 15-game winning streak earlier this season tied for the third-longest in school history, and longest since a school-record 23-game run from Nov. 17, 2000-Feb. 14, 2001.
- At 15-0, the Irish posted the second-best start in program history, topped only by a 23-0 debut in 2000-01 (the season in which Notre Dame won its first NCAA title).
- The Irish have secured their 16th 20-win season in the past 17 years, as well as the 20th in the 23-year Muffet McGraw era (1987-88 to present) and the 24th in the program's 33-year history.
- Notre Dame has earned the seventh 25-win campaign in program history, with all seven in the past 14 years (1996-97 to present).
- The Irish have toppled six Top 25 opponents (Michigan State, San Diego State, Oklahoma, Vanderbilt, West Virginia, St. John's) this year, including four away from home.
- The Irish won the 2009 Paradise Jam Island Division title (their first regular-season tourney crown since the 2005 Duel in the Desert in Las Vegas), with freshman guard Skylar Diggins capturing MVP honors and senior guard/tri-captain Melissa Lechlitner making the all-tournament team.

The Notre Dame-Oklahoma Series

Notre Dame and Oklahoma will meet for the fourth time on Sunday night, with the Irish holding a 2-1 series edge on the Sooners.

A full series history can be found in the sidebar on page 5 of this notes package.

The Last Time Notre Dame And Oklahoma Met

Notre Dame might as well play ranked teams all the time.

Skylar Diggins scored 16 points and the fifth-ranked Fighting Irish beat its third ranked opponent in six games, knocking off No. 20 Oklahoma 81-71 on Nov. 28 to win the Island Division of the Paradise Jam at St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands.

Notre Dame (6-0) beat then-No. 21 Michigan State the previous week, then eased past No. 23 San Diego State on Thanksgiving Day in the Paradise Jam.

Oklahoma (4-2) led 51-48 with 12:53 left when the Fighting Irish locked down on defense, triggering a 20-0 run. The Sooners, with leading scorer Danielle Robinson on the bench with four fouls, were 0-of-8 shooting and committed eight turnovers during the run.

Notre Dame led 68-51 with 5:27 left, but Robinson scored 10 points during a 12-5 spurt that made it 73-63. Oklahoma got no closer the rest of the way.

Brittany Mallory scored 15 for Notre Dame. Ashley Barlow had 12 and Lindsay Schrader 11.

Robinson finished with 26 points to lead the Sooners. Amanda Thompson contributed 12 points, while Carlee Roethlisberger and Abi Olajuwon scored 11 points each.

- Notre Dame has had five players come from the state of Missouri in the program's 33-year history, with the most notable Show-Me State native to don the Irish colors being All-America point guard/St. Louis product (and current assistant coach) Niele Ivey, who led Notre Dame to the 2001 national championship.
- Notre Dame fifth-year senior guard Lindsay Schrader and Oklahoma senior forward Amanda Thompson are not only both Chicago-area natives and longtime acquaintances, but both also competed at the 2006 USA Basketball U20 National Team Trials in Colorado Springs.
- Irish head coach Muffet McGraw and Oklahoma head coach Sherri Coale both currently serve on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors; Coale is the group's immediate past president, while McGraw has served as the body's Division I Legislative Chair for several years.

Notre Dame vs. Big 12 Conference

Notre Dame is 8-9 (.471) all-time against current Big 12 Conference members, including wins in six of its last eight games against that conference. The two losses in that time both came by four points — 69-65 to Texas Tech in the 2000 NCAA Midwest Regional semifinals at The Pyramid in Memphis (the Irish led 17-0 to start that game), and 67-63 in overtime at Colorado in the 2003 WBCA Classic title game (CU forced OT with a 30-foot desperation shot at the regulation horn).

- 1997 NCAA East Region second round at Texas (W, 86-83)
- 1998 NCAA Midwest Region second round at Texas Tech (W, 74-59)
- 2000 NCAA Midwest Regional semifinal vs. Texas Tech at Memphis (L, 69-65)

Irish In The NCAA Championship

Notre Dame is making its 17th appearance in the NCAA Championship, and 15th in a row, as it takes the Sprint Center court Sunday night for its Kansas City Regional semifinal game against Oklahoma. The Irish have a .643 winning percentage (27-15) in NCAA tournament play, ranking 11th all-time in that category (minimum of 20 games played).

In addition, Notre Dame's current streak of 15 consecutive NCAA Championship appearances ranks sixth in the record books.

Here are some other facts about the Irish in the "Big Dance" (see pp. 174-190 in this year's media guide for box scores, results and records):

- Each of Notre Dame's 17 NCAA tournament appearances have come during the tenure of 23rd-year head coach Muffet McGraw.
- With its first-round win over Cleveland State, the Irish now have won their NCAA tournament opener in 13 of the past 15 seasons, corresponding exactly with both their current NCAA Championship appearance streak and

- Notre Dame will be playing an NCAA tournament game on March 28 for only the second time. In 1997, the Irish made their first appearance in the NCAA Women's Final Four, dropping an 80-66 decision to Tennessee at Riverfront Coliseum in Cincinnati.

However, that 2008 tournament saw the Irish offense roar to life, as Notre Dame topped the 70-point mark in its first two games (75-62 over SMU and 79-75 in overtime over Oklahoma) before a hard-fought 74-64 loss to Tennessee at the regional semifinals in Oklahoma City.

The back-to-back 70-point outings were the first for the Irish in the NCAA Championship since their Midwest Regional final and Final Four games in 2001, as they downed Vanderbilt (72-64) and Connecticut (90-75), respectively.

Notre Dame now has topped the 70-point mark in each of its last three NCAA tournament games, with its 86-58 first-round win at home over Cleveland State on March 21 representing the highest point production by the Irish in the NCAA Championship since that 2001 NCAA national semifinal win over Connecticut.

Bonus Basketball

Notre Dame is 2-0 all-time when going to overtime in the NCAA tournament, following its 2008 second-round win over Oklahoma (79-75 in West Lafayette, Ind.). The Irish also defeated Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State), 69-65, in extra time in their 2004 NCAA opener.

Notre Dame is 16-15 (.516) all-time when going to overtime, and have won four of its last six OT games, dating back to the 2005-06 season — the only losses in that stretch were an 87-78 setback at South Florida on Jan. 13, 2007, and a 63-59 defeat at Michigan on Dec. 10, 2008.

Dance Party

Notre Dame was one of 24 schools in the country to send both its men's and women's basketball programs to this year's NCAA Championship. Among the others in this select company are fellow BIG EAST Conference members Georgetown and West Virginia, as well as two of the other three schools that competed at Purcell Pavilion in last week's first and second round games — Vermont and Wisconsin.

It's the sixth time in the past decade that both Irish basketball teams have advanced to the NCAA tournament (also 2001, 2002, 2003, 2007 and 2008), and the third in the past four seasons. Notre Dame last appeared in both NCAA championships in 2008, with the Irish women advancing to the Sweet 16, while the Notre Dame men made it to the second round.

A BIG EAST Bonanza

Notre Dame is one of seven BIG EAST Conference schools that earned invitations to the 2010 NCAA Championship, joining a club that also includes six-time national champion Connecticut, DePaul, Georgetown, Rutgers, St. John's and West Virginia.

The BIG EAST is 7-5 (.583) through the first two rounds of this year's tournament, with Notre Dame and Connecticut carrying the conference banner into the regional rounds.

This year's seven selections are one off the conference (and NCAA Championship) record for the highest number of teams from one league

NCAA D-I Conferences Postseason Qualifying Pct.
Big Ten	81.8% (9/11)
◆BIG EAST	81.3% (13/16)
ACC	75.0% (9/12)
Big 12	75.0% (9/12)

Sowing The Seeds

Notre Dame has been seeded second for the second time in its 17 NCAA Championship appearances, earning its highest tournament seed since 2001, when the Irish were a No. 1 seed for the first time in program history.

In 2000, the Irish also were seeded second and opened the tournament with victories at Purcell Pavilion over 15th-seeded San Diego (87-61) and No. 7 seed George Washington (95-60), before bowing to third-seeded Texas Tech (69-65) in the Mideast Regional semifinals at The Pyramid in Memphis, Tenn.

Notre Dame has been awarded a top-eight seed for the 11th time in its 17 NCAA Championship visits. The Irish are 16-4 (.800) all-time as the higher seed in NCAA tournament play.

It Hinges On Defense

Notre Dame's success in the NCAA Championship can be directly traced to its performance at the defensive end of the floor. In its 17 NCAA tournament trips (42 games), the Irish are 15-2 (.882) when holding their opponent to 60 points or fewer. The two losses both came at the hands of top-seeded clubs — Penn State (55-49) in the 2004 East Regional semifinals, and North Carolina (60-51) in the second round of the 2007 Dallas Region.

Re-Stoking The Offensive Fires

Prior to the 2008 NCAA Championship, Notre Dame had gone 13 consecutive games without scoring more than 61 points in a regulation NCAA tournament contest, dating back to its 2001 national championship game win over Purdue (68-66 in St. Louis).

invited to a single NCAA tournament. The BIG EAST (2004, 2008) and SEC (1999, 2002) have hit that mark twice, while the Big 12 reached that total for the first time in 2008.

The BIG EAST also had five teams — Marquette, Pittsburgh, Providence, South Florida and Syracuse — selected for this year's Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT), while Louisville was tapped for the inaugural Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI), meaning a conference-record 13 schools have advanced to postseason play for the second consecutive season.

As of March 24, Providence and Syracuse remain alive in the WNIT.

Collectively, the BIG EAST (81.3%, 13 of 16) is second only to the Big Ten (81.8%, 9 of 11) in terms of conferences with the highest percentage of its membership participating in postseason action.

Don't Mess With Tradition

The Notre Dame women's basketball program has developed some traditions that should be quite evident during this week's NCAA tournament games in Kansas City.

- Green nails — each of the Irish players and female coaches wear green nail polish throughout the NCAA Championship. This tradition started during the 1997 tourney, when the Irish added the green polish to their fingers prior to their second-round St. Patrick's Day game at Texas, which Notre Dame won 86-83. The Irish ended up going to their first NCAA Final Four that season and the green nail polish was here to stay. As a show of solidarity, the male members of the travel party usually paint their left pinky green, and some (including associate head coach Jonathan Tsipis) have even gone so far as to shave their heads for the duration of the tournament.
- Green uniforms — though not limited exclusively to NCAA tournament play, Notre Dame's distinctive kelly green road uniforms have become a staple of the postseason in keeping with the St. Patrick's Day holiday, which often falls during the early rounds of the tournament (or in this year's case, during the week leading up to the preliminary rounds). The Irish last wore the alternate green road threads in the NCAA Championship for their 2008 second-round and regional semifinal games, splitting games with Oklahoma (W, 79-75 OT) and Tennessee (L, 64-74) — Notre Dame is 6-7 (.462) all-time in the NCAA tournament, including a 3-0 record at home, when featuring the "wearing o' the green." The Irish also broke out their alternate home whites with green trim for early-round games the past three seasons (2008 - a 75-62 win over SMU in West Lafayette, Ind.; 2009 - a 79-71 home loss to Minnesota; 2010 - an 86-58 home win over Cleveland State and 84-66 home win over Vermont), the first time those uniforms have been worn in NCAA tournament play.
- Irish jig — this unique pre-game ritual has become one of the widely-recognized traditions of Notre Dame women's basketball. Just prior to the introduction of the starting lineups, the Irish players will circle up in the lane with a basketball at their feet. As the Notre Dame pep band plays, the team will perform the Irish Jig (a popular step with Notre Dame fans, especially the student body) with the ball bouncing around in the midst of their dance. This tradition is believed to have started during the 1999-2000 season, but picked up steam during Notre Dame's 2000-01 national championship run and has been part of the Irish pre-game ritual ever since.

Hitting The Books

Notre Dame is one of 19 schools in this year's NCAA Championship field to post a perfect 100-percent graduation rate, according to a study released this week by Richard Lapchick, head of the University of Central Florida's Institute for Diversity and Ethics in Sport. The study looked at student-athletes in freshman classes from 1999-2003, allowing six years for graduation.

The other 2010 NCAA tournament participants with spotless graduation rates named in this survey were: Bowling Green, Connecticut, Dayton, DePaul, Iowa, Lehigh, Liberty, Marist, Nebraska, North Carolina, Northern Iowa, Ohio State, St. John's, Stanford, Tennessee, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Vermont.

The BIG EAST led all conferences in this report with four teams, while no other league had more than two schools named in the study. In fact, three of those four BIG EAST teams — Notre Dame, Connecticut and DePaul — also posted Academic Progress Rates (APR) among the top 15 in this year's 64-team NCAA Championship field.

What's more, Notre Dame was the only school to have both its men's and women's basketball teams advance to the NCAA Championship and have both register perfect 100-percent graduation rates.

Sharp Shooters

The Irish come into Sunday's NCAA Kansas City Regional semifinal riding some of their hottest shooting of the season. In its last eight games, Notre Dame has shot better than 50 percent from the floor six times (all victories), with the only exceptions coming in losses to top-ranked Connecticut on March 1 & 8.

During this latest six-win span, the Irish are connecting at a .534 clip from the floor, with a .520 field goal percentage through the first two rounds of this year's NCAA Championship.

48 Hours

Since the start of last season, Notre Dame has played 14 times when it has had a short one-day break (or less) between games, including three games in three days over this year's Thanksgiving weekend at the Paradise Jam in the U.S. Virgin Islands. However, when faced with such a tight turnaround, the Irish have risen to the occasion, going 10-4 (.714) on the back half of these two-game (or more) blitzes.

This season, Notre Dame is 6-3 in these 48-hour challenges, winning twice at the Paradise Jam (South Carolina and No. 20/17 Oklahoma), and then at home on New Year's Eve vs. No. 18/16 Vanderbilt (returning from a road trip to Central Florida less than two days earlier). The Irish also earned a 75-63 win at Rutgers on Feb. 1, two days after a narrow 74-73 win at Syracuse.

Notre Dame then lost on the back half of its next two "quick changes". On Feb. 16, the Irish dropped a 76-71 verdict at No. 22/23 St. John's, two days after a 90-66 home victory over DePaul (the game in which fifth-year senior guard/tri-captain Lindsay Schrader suffered a sprained left ankle and subsequently missed two games). Then, on March 1, Notre Dame fell at home to top-ranked Connecticut, 76-51, two days after a 72-47 win at Seton Hall.

At the BIG EAST Championship earlier this month in Hartford, Conn., the Irish defeated No. 16 St. John's, 75-67, in the quarterfinal round after toppling Louisville, 89-52 in a second-round contest the previous day. However, Notre Dame then dropped a 59-44 decision to No. 1 Connecticut the day after the St. John's win.

Most recently, the Irish earned an 84-66 victory over Vermont on March 23 at Purcell Pavilion in the second round of this year's NCAA Championship, following up on an 86-58 conquest of Cleveland State in their tournament opener two days earlier.

Thirty Deeds

Notre Dame is on the brink of collecting its 30th win of the season, something that only two Irish clubs have achieved in the program's 33-year history. In 1996-97, Notre Dame went 31-7 en route to its first NCAA Women's Final Four appearance in Cincinnati. Then, in 2000-01, the Irish charged to a school-record 34 wins, the last coming against in-state rival Purdue, 68-66, in the national championship game at St. Louis.

Pieces of Silver

Notre Dame collected its 25th win of the season on Feb. 27 with a 72-47 victory at Seton Hall. It's the seventh time in program history (all in the past 14 seasons) that the Irish have registered at least 25 wins in a campaign, and the first since posting a 25-9 record in 2007-08.

What's more, the Irish have reached the 25-win level in the regular season for the fourth time in school history, and the first since the 2004-05 campaign. The other 25-win regular seasons came in 1996-97 and 2000-01.

Twenty Questions

Notre Dame reached the 20-win mark for the 16th time in the past 17 seasons with its 75-63 victory at Rutgers on Feb. 1. The Irish now have registered 20-or-more wins 20 times in the 23-year Muffet McGraw era and 24 times in the program's 33-year history.

Notre Dame also hit the 20-win plateau in its 21st game this season, reaching that milestone faster than all but one Irish team — the 2000-01 squad that opened 23-0 and earned its 20th victory at Providence on Jan. 31, 2001 (one calendar day earlier than this year's club).

Tough Enough

Notre Dame has faced a rigorous schedule this season, taking on 11 ranked opponents to date. The Irish also have risen to that challenge well, winning six times (Michigan State, San Diego State, Oklahoma, Vanderbilt, West Virginia and St. John's), including four victories away from home (MSU, SDSU, OU and STJ).

In addition, two of the four losses to ranked opponents (at St. John's and at Georgetown) came by 10 points or fewer and occurred while fifth-year senior guard Lindsay Schrader was sidelined with a sprained left ankle (the first two games Schrader missed in her college career).

Four of Notre Dame's six wins over ranked opponents this year came during the regular season non-conference portion of the schedule, marking the second consecutive year in which the Irish defeated four Top 25 non-league foes in their pre-conference slate.

Comeback Kids

Notre Dame has rallied from a double-digit deficit to win four times this season:

- 10 points at Purdue on Jan. 4 (W, 79-75)
- 12 points at Louisville on Jan. 19 (W, 78-60)
- 13 points at home vs. West Virginia on Jan. 24 (W, 74-66)
- 10 points at home vs. Vermont on March 23 (W, 84-66)

The four double-digit comeback victories are the most for Notre Dame in a single season during the past decade. That tops the old mark of three double-figure rallies originally set in 2002-03, when the Irish came back to win at West Virginia (trailed by 14), at Providence (trailed by 10) and home vs. Seton Hall (trailed twice by 12).

Spread The Wealth

Notre Dame has seen at least eight different players led the team in scoring and rebounding this season. That has been even more evident in the past 12 games, with seven different players leading the Irish in scoring during that time.

In addition, 11 of the 13 players on the Irish roster have scored in double figures at least once this season, including sophomore guard Fraderica Miller, and freshman guards Skylar Diggins and Kaila Turner, who each topped the 10-point mark for the first time in their careers.

What's more, five different players have scored at least 20 points in a game this year.

Diggins has seven 20-point games (San Diego State, Louisville, Syracuse, Pittsburgh, St. John's [twice] and a 31-point outing vs. Vermont), while senior guard/tri-captain Melissa Lechlitrer (Purdue, Marquette) has reached that mark twice. Senior guard/tri-captain Ashley Barlow (Georgetown), junior forward Becca Bruszewski (DePaul) and junior guard Brittany Mallory (Valparaiso) have one 20-point game apiece.

Stat Sheet Stuffers

Another sign of Notre Dame's versatility is seen in the number of "5-5-5" games (5 or more in points, rebounds, assists, blocks and/or steals) posted by its players this year. In fact, no fewer than six Irish players have pulled off this feat at least once during the current campaign.

Freshman guard Skylar Diggins (UAPB, Charlotte, Syracuse, Pittsburgh, Marquette, Cleveland State, Vermont) has a team-high seven 5-5-5 games, while senior guard/tri-captain Ashley Barlow (Iona, South Florida, DePaul, St. John's) and junior guard Brittany Mallory (Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Oklahoma, Vanderbilt, DePaul) both have four 5-5-5 games. Junior forward Becca Bruszewski (Louisville), sophomore guard Natalie Novosel (Eastern Michigan) and junior forward Devereaux Peters (St. John's) each have one.

Barlow took it to another level in the Feb. 14 DePaul win with her first "5-5-5-5" game, piling up nine points, a career-high eight assists, six rebounds and five steals. Mallory nearly matched that trick in that same game with six points, seven rebounds, five steals and four assists.

Irish Trio Makes All-Region Team

For the first time in school history, Notre Dame has placed three players on the State Farm/WBCA All-Region I Team, it was announced March 16.

Senior guard/tri-captain Ashley Barlow, freshman guard Skylar Diggins and fifth-year senior guard/tri-captain Lindsay Schrader were among 52 all-region selections, including 12 from Region I, which covers teams in the BIG EAST, America East, Atlantic 10 and Northeast conferences, as well as the Ivy Group and Patriot League. The Irish trio — each of whom earned all-region honors for the first time — also were the first Notre Dame players to be selected for the region squad since Charel Allen in 2007.

The State Farm Coaches' All-America Team selection committee will trim the list of 52 all-region honorees to 40 finalists for the 10-member State Farm Coaches' All-America Team that will be announced during the open practices prior to the NCAA Women's Final Four on April 3 in San Antonio, Texas. Ruth Riley (2001) and Jacqueline Batteast (2005) are the two Irish players who have earned their way onto the prestigious squad.

Those 30 finalists not chosen for this year's coaches' All-America squad will earn State Farm Coaches' All-America Honorable Mention status, something earned by seven Notre Dame players in the past two decades (most recently Allen in 2007).

Sky-light Reel

In her first season at Notre Dame, freshman guard Skylar Diggins already is rising to seldom-seen heights in the Irish history books.

Here's a look at her more noteworthy accomplishments this season:

- She already holds the school record for steals (84) and free throws made (111) by a freshman.
- She became the first Notre Dame rookie ever to make the BIG EAST Championship All-Tournament Team after leading the Irish to their first semifinal berth since 2005.
- She was named the Most Valuable Player of the Paradise Jam's Island Division, becoming the first Notre Dame freshman in 10 seasons to earn all-tournament team honors at a regular-season event (Alicia Ratay made the Wachovia Women's Basketball Invitational squad in 1999).
- Diggins has scored 474 points, the most by an Irish rookie in 17 years (518 by Beth Morgan in 1993-94).
- Diggins' team-high scoring average (13.4 ppg.) puts her in a position to become the first Notre Dame freshman in 17 seasons to lead the team in scoring (Morgan was the last rookie to do so in 1993-94).
- Diggins has 108 assists, the third-highest total ever posted by an Irish rookie, and most since Coquese Washington delivered 114 assists in 1989-90.
- Perhaps most noteworthy of all, Diggins has become the third player in school history (and first freshman) to amass 400 points, 100 assists and 75 steals in a single season. The only other Irish players who can make that claim are current assistant coach Niele Ivey (434p/247a/94s in 2000-01) and Megan Duffy (407p/178a/90s in 2004-05).

Taking What We Can Get

Fueled by a renewed attention to defense this offseason, Notre Dame has been in the taking mood this year, forcing its opponents into at least 20 turnovers in 25 of 34 games thus far, with Irish foes averaging 22.8 giveaways per game, and Notre Dame chalking up a +6.32 turnover margin that was 10th-best in the nation (as of March 24).

In a two-game stretch bookending the Christmas holiday, Notre Dame harassed its opponents into a combined 79 turnovers (43 by Charlotte on Dec. 20 and 36 at UCF on Dec. 29).

Charlotte's 43 turnovers tied for the second-most opponent giveaways in a game in school history and the most since Dec. 8, 1981, when the Irish forced sister school Saint Mary's (Ind.) into 43 turnovers during the program's second season at the Division I level. The Notre Dame record for opponent turnovers in a game is 48 by Southern Illinois-Edwardsville on Jan. 11, 1980, at DeKalb, Ill.

The Irish also are making even the most disciplined teams fall victim to their aggressive defensive style. Villanova came into its Jan. 9 game with Notre Dame ranked second in the nation with just 12.6 turnovers per game, but the Irish dogged the Wildcats into 34 turnovers (17 in each half).

More recently, Notre Dame faced Vermont in the second round of the NCAA Championship on March 23 at Purcell Pavilion. The Catamounts were ranked 10th nationally in fewest turnovers (13.9 per game at tipoff), but the Irish nearly doubled that total by forcing UVM into 25 giveaways.

Notre Dame was especially hard on opponents at home this season, forcing 25.1 turnovers per game and collecting at least 25 takeaways in nine of its 17 Purcell Pavilion contests.

The Five-Finger Discount

According to the March 24 NCAA statistical report, Notre Dame ranks fourth in the nation in steals (12.9 spg.). The Irish already have broken the single-season school record for steals with 439 thefts (the old mark of 397 was set twice before — 1990-91 and 2007-08), posting double-digit steal totals in 25 games this season, including five 20-steal efforts.

What makes Notre Dame's steal total even more impressive is the fact that the Irish are equal opportunity thieves. Ten different Notre Dame players have recorded double-digit steals this season, with five topping the 40-steal mark (the third time in four years the Irish have pulled off that feat).

Leading the way is freshman guard Skylar Diggins with 84 steals (good for 61st in the nation at 2.5 spg.). Diggins already has broken Coquese Washington's school record for thefts by a rookie (67 in 1989-90).

Meanwhile, senior guard/tri-captain Ashley Barlow is second on the squad with a career-high 78 steals (85th in the nation at 2.3 spg.). In fact, Barlow now has topped the 60-steal mark in each of her four seasons under the Golden Dome, making her just the third Irish player ever to accomplish that feat, along with Washington (1989-93) and current Notre Dame assistant coach Niele Ivey (1997-2001).

The twin 70-steal efforts by Diggins and Barlow are rare in Notre Dame history, as it marks just the third time that's occurred in a single season. Furthermore, they are the first duo in program annals to collect at least 77 steals in a single season.

In 1990-91, Washington had 83 steals, Krissi Davis added 76 steals and Karen Robinson chipped in 67 thefts. Most recently, in the 1996-97 Final Four campaign, Jeannine Augustin had 92 steals, Katryna Gaither logged 76 steals and Beth Morgan chalked up 66 thefts.

That 1996-97 season also was the last in which the Irish had three players with 65+ steals, something that could be repeated this year if junior guard Brittany Mallory adds to her career-high 61-steal total (Notre Dame last had three 60-steal players in 2006-07).

Glass Houses

Notre Dame and Connecticut are the only two BIG EAST teams with at least three current players having 500+ career rebounds. Irish fifth-year senior guard/tri-captain Lindsay Schrader is seventh all-time at Notre Dame with 820 boards (the seventh player in school history with at least 800 rebounds), while senior guard tri-captain Ashley Barlow has 644 caroms and senior center Erica Williamson has 535 career rebounds.

Polling Station

Notre Dame was ranked seventh in the final Associated Press poll of the season that was released March 15, marking the fourth time in program history that the Irish have finished in the top 10 of the year-end AP poll (and first since a three-year run from 1999-2001, capped with a No. 2 ranking).

Earlier this season, Notre Dame had a run of 15 consecutive weeks in the top five — it was the second-longest run in the AP Top 5 in program history, and the longest for the Irish since the 2000-01 season, when Notre Dame was a top-five fixture for the final 17 weeks.

Notre Dame's current poll appearance run of 58 consecutive weeks is the second-longest in school history behind a 59-week stretch from 1998-2002). The Irish also spent a total of seven weeks this year at a season-high No. 3 ranking, which was Notre Dame's highest poll position since the week of Nov. 29, 2004, when the Irish also were ranked third.

What's more, Notre Dame's No. 4 preseason ranking on Oct. 30 was its the highest ever, topping its No. 6 debut in the 2000-01 poll.

With this week's poll position, the Irish now have appeared in the top 10 of the AP poll during 10 of the past 14 seasons (1996-97 through 2009-10), with their current 19-week stint being the second-longest in program history behind a 31-week stretch from 1999-2001.

Notre Dame has been ranked in the AP poll for 197 weeks during the program's 33-year history, with every one of those appearances coming in the Muffet McGraw era (since 1987-88). McGraw ranks 13th among all active NCAA Division I head coaches for weeks in the AP poll, and also is 22nd all-time in that category.

In addition, the Irish are ranked seventh in the current ESPN/USA Today/WBCA coaches' poll. Notre Dame reached its season high in the ESPN/USA Today poll for eight weeks earlier this year with a No. 3 ranking, which also was the highest it has been ranked in the coaches' survey since the 2004-05 season, when the Irish were third for two separate weeks (Nov. 30 and Jan. 5) during the year.

What's more, it was the first time Notre Dame was in the top three in consecutive weeks since the final 14 weeks of the 2000-01 season (capped by a No. 1 ranking in the final poll after winning the national championship).

This marks the second consecutive season Notre Dame has been ranked in the top 10 of the ESPN/USA Today/WBCA poll, as well as eight of the past 12 campaigns (1998-99 to present).

Notre Dame was ranked in the coaches' survey for 38 consecutive weeks before falling just

More Polling Data

Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw is one of 28 people in NCAA Division I women's basketball history who have both played for and coached a team that has appeared in the Associated Press Top 25 poll.

Besides her 197 AP poll appearances while coaching at Notre Dame, McGraw was the starting point guard at Saint Joseph's (Pa.) as a senior in 1977, helping the Hawks rise to No. 3 in the nation.

Of the 28 people on this list, 16 currently are NCAA Division I head coaches (see accompanying chart), including former Irish point guard and assistant coach Coquese Washington ('92), who helped Notre Dame to its first-ever AP poll ranking in 1990-91, and is in her third season as head coach at Penn State, guiding the Lady Lions into the Jan. 25 AP poll at No. 23.

Six of the 16 active coaches in this group — including McGraw — led their teams to this year's NCAA Championship, while McGraw and Baylor's Kim Mulkey are the only active skippers to play for and coach a team in the AP poll, and also coach that team to a national title (McGraw in 2001, Mulkey in 2005).

Game #34 Recap: Vermont (NCAA Championship - Second Round)

The NCAA tournament jitters didn't last long for Skyler Diggins.

After making one basket on four attempts, both season lows, in Notre Dame's opening round victory against Cleveland State, the 5-foot-9 freshman guard bounced back with a season-high 31 points and seven steals to lead second-seed Notre Dame to an 84-66 victory over 10th-seeded Vermont in the second round on Tuesday night at Purcell Pavilion.

Diggins, who admitted to being a bit nervous to start the first game, looked calm against the Catamounts. She flashed a smile as she went in for a fastbreak basket a half minute into the game.

"I was smiling because we want to play with a lot of positive emotion. Last game I think we were a little uptight. We weren't having as much fun as we usually do. We just wanted to make sure we were having fun with each other. We had a great crowd out there. I think that's why you saw a lot of raw emotion. Positive emotion."

Diggins scored Notre Dame's first eight points and 15 of its first 20 as the Irish started slow. Then she began passing the ball, finishing with a team-high six assists.

"She is wise beyond her years. I think she recognized she was doing a lot of scoring, then you saw her try to drive and dish and really look for the post players and really get everybody involved," coach Muffet McGraw said. "That was an incredible performance."

She also set the tone defensively for the Irish (29-5) as they finished with 19 steals and forced the Catamounts (27-7) into a season-high 25 turnovers. Diggins also helped slow down Vermont's two high-scoring guards as May Kotsopoulos finished with 12 points and Courtney Pilypaitis had 11, but also turned the ball over 10 times. Kostopoulos said the pressure by Diggins was key.

"She's a great, strong player but I think we just turned the ball over too much," she said.

Vermont coach Sharon Dawley said while the Irish defense was tough, the Catamounts were sloppy.

"Big stage, big game. A lot of nerves going on," she said. "It doesn't matter whether you're a freshman or a senior. I think a lot of nerves showed."

Lindsay Schrader had 14 points and 11 rebounds and Melissa Lechlitrner added 12 points as Notre Dame advanced to the Kansas City Regional semifinal, their eighth trip to the round of 16 in last 14 years. Alissa Sheftic and Kendra Seto added 14 points each for Vermont, which lost for just the second time in 13 games.

Notre Dame fell behind 20-10 as the Catamounts hit nine of their first 13 shots with just two turnovers. But then Brittany Mallory had two quick steals, Devereaux Peters blocked a shot by Kostopoulos and the momentum quickly changed.

The Irish ended the half on a 32-13 run and Vermont could never mount a serious challenge in the second half.

Noting The Vermont Game

- The Fighting Irish improved to 27-15 (.643) all-time in NCAA play (17th appearance) and advanced to the Sweet 16 for the eighth time in program history (all under head coach Muffet McGraw) and the second time in three seasons (now 8-5 all-time in second round contests). Notre Dame is 2-5 in regional semifinal games but subsequently advanced to the Final Four after both wins (1997, 2001), bringing home the national championship trophy in 2001.
- Diggins' 31 points were the most for an Irish player since Charel Allen dropped 35 on Oklahoma in an NCAA Oklahoma City Region second round game almost exactly two years earlier (79-75 OT victory).
- Diggins' production was the fourth-highest point total ever posted by a Notre Dame player in the NCAA Championship (and most ever by an Irish freshman). Beth Morgan scored a program-record 36 points in a 1997 East Regional semifinal win over Alabama in Columbia, S.C., while the old rookie record was 29 points by current fifth-year senior guard Lindsay Schrader against Boston

Academics

Notre Dame Student-Athletes Rank Among Nation's Best

By virtually any measurement, the University of Notre Dame wins the 2009 national championship for graduating its student-athletes.

Whether measured by the federal government in its Department of Education report or by the NCAA through its Graduation Success Rate (GSR) numbers, graduation rates for Notre Dame student-athletes rank either number one or among the handful of national leaders in all major categories among all major football-playing colleges and universities.

Notre Dame's institutional research found that Irish student-athletes ranked number one in eight of 10 major categories, ranking second in one and third in another. Those are far and away the best results for Notre Dame in the five years the NCAA has published both the GSR and federal numbers. The eight top rankings are four more than ever achieved in any other year (the four No. 1 rankings came in 2008).

Notre Dame led the nation in the GSR ratings for all student-athletes (at 99), while also ranking first in both the GSR and federal standings for male student-athletes (98 GSR, 88 federal), female student-athletes (100 GSR, 94 federal) and black student-athletes (97 GSR, 85 federal) — as well as first in the GSR listing for football student-athletes (96).

In calculations for all student-athletes in all sports, Notre Dame was first among the FBS schools in the GSR figures initiated in 2005 by the NCAA. The University's 99 percent GSR for all its student-athletes ranked ahead of the 98 figure for the U.S. Naval Academy. Using the federal formula, Notre Dame graduated a four-year average of 90 percent of its student-athletes, just behind Stanford at 91 percent.

Notre Dame graduated 94 percent of all women competing in varsity athletics, to rank first among its peer institutions based on the federal calculations (ahead of Stanford, Northwestern and Rice at 93). Notre Dame also graduated 85 percent of its black student-athletes, ranking first nationally based on the federal rate.

In the GSR standings, the Irish scored a sweep. In addition to its number-one ranking for all student-athletes, Notre Dame finished tied for first (with the Naval Academy) among female student athletes at 100, first among male student-athletes at 98 percent (ahead of the Naval Academy and Duke at 97), and first among black student-athletes at 97 percent (ahead of the Naval Academy and Vanderbilt at 93).

The NCAA also calculated graduation rates over a 10-year period (student-athletes who entered from 1993-94 through 2002-03). During those 10 years, Notre Dame had 635 student-athletes who exhausted their eligibility — and 100 percent of them graduated within the allotted six-year period. By comparison, Northwestern had a 100 percent rate, Vanderbilt, Duke and Boston College recorded 99 percent, and Rice had a 98 percent rate.

Academic All-Americans

Entering the 2009-10 academic year, Notre Dame ranks second in the nation with 210 Academic All-America® selections, including a national-best 84 in the past decade. The Academic All-America® Program is administered by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), whose membership votes on the award winners, and the program is sponsored by ESPN The Magazine.

The Notre Dame women's basketball program has produced five Academic All-America® honorees in its 33-year history, with those five players winning a total of seven citations. In addition, two-time first-team Academic All-America® pick Ruth Riley was tapped as the 2001 Academic All-America® Women's Basketball Team Member of the Year, as well as the Academic All-America® Team Member of the Year. Riley also is one of only 12 student-athletes in Notre Dame history to earn All-America and Academic All-America® honors twice in her career.

Megan Duffy was the latest honoree in 2006, when she was named a first-team Academic All-America® selection, becoming the second Irish player to attain that distinction.

2009 European Tour

Notre Dame Enjoys Successful Tour of Europe In Summer of 2009

In May 2009, the Notre Dame women's basketball program embarked on a memorable 11-day adventure to France, Monaco and Italy, visiting some of the world's most historic landmarks, including the Eiffel Tower in Paris, the Prince's Palace in Monaco, picturesque Lake Como in the foothills of the Italian Alps, the famed El Duomo cathedral in Milan, the Colosseum and Forum in Rome, as well as St. Peter's Basilica and the Sistine Chapel located at The Vatican.

The Irish also had the chance to play three exhibition games against international opponents on the tour, winning all three contests against the French Junior National Team (77-44) and Italian professional teams GEAS Sesto San Giovanni (78-68) and Roma Athena Basket (94-39). The win over the French side was particularly noteworthy, as it came only weeks before France won the gold medal at the European U20 Championships with much of the same team that faced the Irish last May.

Senior guard/tri-captain Ashley Barlow led Notre Dame in scoring (13.0 ppg.) and three-point percentage (.727, 8-11) on the trip, while junior forward Becca Bruszewski was second in scoring (12.0 ppg.) and fourth in rebounding (5.7 rpg.). Other statistical leaders included: fifth-year senior guard Lindsay Schrader (6.3 rpg.), sophomore guard Natalie Novosel (3.3 spg.), senior guard Melissa Lechlitrer (3.3 spg.) and sophomore forward Erica Solomon (2.5 ppg.).

- In addition, Diggins tied school records in NCAA Championship play for field goals made (13 by two other players) and steals (7 by Niele Ivey in 1998 first-round game vs. Southwest Missouri State [now Missouri State] at Lubbock, Texas).
- Diggins also set career highs for field goals (13) and attempts (21). This comes one game after she had season lows in both categories (1-for-4) against Cleveland State. Likewise, her seven steals were were a career best.
- Notre Dame improved to 21-1 versus first-time opponents since the start of the 2000-01 season and have now won 16 straight (19 in a row at home). The last first-time opponent to defeat the Fighting Irish was Colorado State on 11/21/01 (72-66).
- Diggins cracked the top ten in steals in Notre Dame single-season history (6th with 84).
- Senior guard/tri-captain Ashley Barlow (one steal) has now gone 29 straight games with at least one theft; she has been held without a steal in just 12 of 129 career contests.
- Barlow also has now attempted the 10th-most three-pointers in a season in Irish history (52-for-144), while her current streak of 15 consecutive games with a three-pointer is fourth on the Irish single-season list and the longest since 1998-99, when Sheila McMillen had a 20-game three-point run.
- Senior guard/tri-captain Melissa Lechlitrer passed Le'Tania Severe (384 assists from 2000-04) for eighth place on Notre Dame's career assists chart after a three-assist night (now 385 career helpers).
- Notre Dame extended its streak of five-steal games (19 against Vermont) to 53 and its streak of consecutive games forcing 10 turnovers (25 turnovers for Vermont) to 40.
- Lechlitrer (7-for-8 from the line) has now converted 31 of her last 33 free throws (.939); she has missed just the two free throws in the last 22 games. Throw in Barlow's 2-for-2 night, and the pair have combined to go 36-for-39 (.923) from the stripe in the last 13 games and 66-for-72 (.917) in the past 18.
- Schrader (1410 points, 820 rebounds) became the fourth player in Notre Dame history to eclipse 1400 career points and 800 rebounds, joining Katryna Gaither (2126 pts, 986 reb; 1993-97), Ruth Riley (2072 pts, 1007 reb; 1997-01), and Jacqueline Batteast (1874 pts, 965 reb; 2001-05).
- Schrader's double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds) was her sixth of the season and the 17th of her career, extending her record for career double-doubles as a guard in program history. She also holds the season record of seven (last season).
- Junior forward Devereaux Peters tied her career high with four assists, while senior walk-on guard Alena Christiansen nabbed a personal-best two rebounds.
- Notre Dame decimated its previous high-water mark for total attendance this season with 142,412 fans, more than 30,000 ahead of the 2007-08 record (112,253 in one fewer game) despite playing in an arena with nearly 2,300 fewer seats.

Getting The Jump

At 15-0, Notre Dame got off to the second-best start in the program's 33-year history. The only time the Irish opened with a better record than this season was in 2000-01, when they reeled off a school-record 23 consecutive wins en route to a 34-2 final record and the program's first national championship.

Streak Stats

Notre Dame's season-opening 15-game winning streak tied for the third-longest success string in program history (at any time), and it was the longest since the school-record 23-game run to begin the 2000-01 season.

McGraw Earns 600th Career Win

Irish head coach Muffet McGraw reached her second important career milestone of the season on Jan. 19, as she became the 19th Division I coach to record 600 career wins when the Irish posted a 78-60 victory at Louisville.

McGraw earned the milestone win in her 839th career game (she now has a 28-year mark of 613-243, .716), tying her with former Saint Peter's coach Mike Granelli as the 10th-fastest to the 600-win plateau in Division I history.

In honor of the historic 600th victory, Notre Dame fans at Purcell Pavilion held up signs with the number "600" on them when McGraw and her staff took the floor prior to the Jan. 24 win over No. 16/11 West Virginia. The visibly-moved Irish coach later called the scene "one of the top five moments" of her Notre Dame career.

McGraw Joins Elite Notre Dame Club

With a 84-79 win over No. 23/24 San Diego State on Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 26) at the Paradise Jam in the U.S. Virgin Islands, Irish head coach Muffet McGraw reached a personal milestone, becoming the fourth coach in school history (in any sport) to register 500 victories while coaching under the Golden Dome. McGraw now has a record of 525-202 (.722) in 23 seasons at Notre Dame (1987-88 to present) and a 613-243 (.716) record in 28

Fencing's Michael DeCicco (680-45 from 1962-86) and Yves Aurilio (525-33 from 1986-2002), and baseball's Jake Kline (558-449-5 from 1934-75) are the only other members of the "Fighting Irish Five Hundred Club," with one able to connect 75 years of Notre Dame athletics history and success via just four degrees of separation (Kline to DeCicco to Aurilio to McGraw).

McGraw reached two other mileposts on Dec. 2 vs. Eastern Michigan, as she coached her 700th game at Notre Dame, as well as her 300th at Purcell Pavilion.

As it turned out, that EMU game also saw the school honor McGraw with an on-court post-game celebration for her 500th win, capped by a visit from her 19-year-old son, Murphy, who secretly drove four hours from his college campus at Indiana University in Bloomington to surprise his mother with a bouquet of flowers and the game ball from her milestone win.

Keeping It Close To Home

Although Notre Dame has traditionally had a national reputation in recruiting circles, in recent seasons, the Irish have found their strongest talent comes from right in their own backyard. In fact, of the 13 players on this year's Notre Dame roster, four are from Indiana, while five others are from states that border Indiana (including sophomore forward Erica Solomon, who lived in Oak Park, Mich., and graduated from Detroit Country Day School in 2008 before her family moved back to her birthplace of Charleston, W.Va., this past summer).

What's more, of the five most common Notre Dame starters this season, four are from the state of Indiana — senior guard Ashley Barlow (Indianapolis), junior forward Becca Bruszewski (Valparaiso) and the all-South Bend backcourt of senior guard Melissa Lechlitner and freshman guard Skylar Diggins — while the fifth starter (fifth-year senior guard Lindsay Schrader) is from Bartlett, Ill., located right outside Chicago.

As if that weren't enough, the quartet of Barlow, Lechlitner, Bruszewski and Schrader have been mainstays in the Irish lineup for the past two seasons and have a combined total of 345 career starts between them.

Schrader reached a personal milestone on Dec. 12 against Valparaiso, becoming the 12th player in school history with 100 starting assignments in her career. Schrader now is third in school history with 123 career starts, trailing only Alicia Ratay (129 from 1999-2003) and Ruth Riley (124 from 1997-2001). Schrader also had a streak of 73 starts in a row from Jan. 16, 2008-Feb. 14, 2010 (sixth-best in school history) before missing the Feb. 16 game at St. John's with an ankle injury.

Experience Matters

For the first time in Notre Dame women's basketball history, four players have hit the 100 games played mark in the same season. Senior guards/tri-captains Ashley Barlow, Melissa Lechlitner and Lindsay Schrader, along with senior center Erica Williamson, all reached the century mark during the Thanksgiving weekend at the Paradise Jam (Lechlitner and Williamson on Nov. 26 vs. San Diego State, Barlow and Schrader on Nov. 27 vs. South Carolina).

Current Irish assistant coach Niele Ivey holds the school record with 132 games played from 1996-2001, while the current Irish senior quartet is intent on crashing the top 10 in that category. Lechlitner presently is tied for fourth at 130 (along with Alicia Ratay [1999-2003] and Julie Henderson [1996-2000]), while Barlow and Williamson are in a seventh-place tie at 129 (joining former teammate Charel Allen [2004-08] and Ericka Haney [1998-2002]), and Schrader isn't far behind at 127.

Upwardly Mobile

Two of Notre Dame's senior guards and tri-captains — Ashley Barlow and Lindsay Schrader — are already members of the program's 1,000-Point Club, and will spend this season trying to work their way up the Irish all-time scoring ladder.

Barlow currently ranks ninth in school history with 1,479 career points, while Schrader is 13th with 1,410 points.

8.	Charel Allen ('04-'08).....	1,566
9.	♦ A. Barlow ('06-pres.)... 1,479
10.	Sandy Botham ('84-'88) ..	1,460

12.	Niele Ivey ('96-'01).....	1,430
13.	♦ L. Schrader ('05-pres.)..	1,410

They could be joined by their fellow senior guard and tri-captain, Melissa Lechlitner, who has 983 points to date.

Only one other time in program history has Notre Dame fielded three 1,000-point scorers on its roster at the same time — and it literally happened for less than one game. Ruth Riley, Niele Ivey and Kelley Siemon all reached the millennium mark and played on the 2000-01 Irish national championship squad, with Siemon reaching the milestone in her final collegiate contest after scoring 10 points in Notre Dame's 68-66 title-game victory over Purdue in St. Louis.

Lechlitner Named Second-Team Academic All-District

Senior guard/tri-captain Melissa Lechlitner has been named to the 2010 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District V Second Team, it was announced Feb. 4 by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

It's the first time Lechlitner has earned the award, and she is the first Fighting Irish player to garner academic all-district status since 2006, when former Notre Dame point guard Megan Duffy received her second consecutive district award and parlayed that into first-team Academic All-America honors. What's more, Lechlitner becomes the eighth Fighting Irish women's basketball player in the past 12 seasons to be an academic all-district selection.

Lechlitner currently maintains a 3.377 cumulative grade-point average (GPA) in the College of Arts and Letters, where she is pursuing her bachelor's degree in psychology. She earned dean's list honors in the spring of 2007 with a 3.75 semester GPA, and is coming off a stellar fall 2009 term that saw her post a 3.583 GPA. In addition, she is a three-time BIG EAST

Purcell Pavilion

Following an intensive five-month, $26.3 million interior renovation, the arena for the newly-christened Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center made its regular season women's basketball debut on Nov. 15 when Notre Dame defeated Arkansas-Pine Bluff, 102-57.

The UAPB game was part of the culmination of a two-year project to upgrade the home for Notre Dame basketball and volleyball.

The first (exterior) phase of the project, that began in September 2008, involved construction of a new three-story structure at the south end of the arena. That structure included a new three-story lobby, which houses the Notre Dame ticket operations (approximately 4,500 square feet) and a varsity shop to sell apparel and souvenirs (approximately 3,000 square feet), in addition to a new club seating and hospitality area.

Replacement of the existing arena seating footprint, including installation of single-color chair-back seating throughout the arena, began following the University's Commencement Exercises in May 2009 and was completed in time for the Irish volleyball team to play the first athletic event in the facility on Oct. 30 (a 3-1 win over Seton Hall).

One of the other unique features of this renovation stage was an intensive theming initiative on the upper concourse inside the arena walls, featuring many of the historic moments and visitors to the arena during its four-decade history. In addition, the facility signage took on a Celtic script, while the evolution of the distinctive Notre Dame monogram logo is prominently displayed on the concourse.

The University announced in October 2007 that this ambitious arena renovation had received a $12.5 million leadership gift from Notre Dame alumnus and Trustee Philip J. Purcell III, the retired chairman and chief executive officer of Morgan Stanley.

Additional cornerstone donations were made by Vincent J. Naimoli ('59), whose $5 million contribution led to the creation of the new Naimoli Family Club Room, and South Bend-area auto dealership owner Mike Leep Sr., whose generous gift has been recognized with the naming of the Mike Leep Sr. Varsity Shop.

Both of those areas, along with the three-story Rosenthal Atrium (named for former Notre Dame director of athletics Dick Rosenthal) opened to the public on Jan. 9, 2010, when the Irish basketball teams swept a BIG EAST doubleheader (women defeated Villanova, 81-46; men upset No. 8 West Virginia, 70-68).

Purcell Pavilion was officially dedicated at the Feb. 4 men's basketball game vs. Cincinnati, while the Naimoli Family Club Room was dedicated on Feb. 6 at the women's basketball game vs. Pittsburgh.

WBCA Pink Zone

Notre Dame was proud to be a participant in the third annual Pink Zone initiative, created by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) in order to heighten breast cancer awareness and raise money for research towards finding a cure for the disease.

Last year, the Irish raised more than $48,000 through the Pink Zone program, earning the first WBCA Pink Zone Challenge award for the most money raised among the nation's top 25 attendance leaders. This season, Notre Dame elevated its Pink Zone fund-raising goal to $55,000 and wound up far exceeding that total, generating $103,750 for the fight against breast cancer.

Throughout the 2009-10 season, the Irish have taken part in several activities centered around the Pink Zone initiative, including:

- Open Practice/Tip-Off Luncheon - On Oct. 19, the Irish open the doors to one of their preseason practice sessions and allowed approximately 600 season ticket holders to watch the team prepare for the upcoming season. A luncheon with the team followed and a total of $3,500 was raised.
- Three-Point Pledge - Fans could pledge an amount to donate for every three-pointer the Irish make this season. Notre Dame enters Sunday night's NCAA Kansas City Regional semifinal with 163 treys.
- Aprons/Player Buttons/Chocolate - The Irish sold special-edition Notre Dame women's basketball aprons ($20), player buttons ($1) and Fannie May chocolate bars ($1) during the season.
- T-Shirt Sales - Specially-commissioned pink t-shirts were on sale in the Hammes Bookstore on the Notre Dame campus, as well as the Irish women's basketball office and on game days at Purcell Pavilion. Proceeds from the sales of the t-shirt went to breast cancer awareness and research.
- Game Day (Feb. 14 vs. DePaul) - The Irish selected their Valentine Day's game against DePaul as their annual Pink Zone contest, presented by Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center. The Irish took the court in white, pink and navy uniforms and pink shoes, specially-designed by the school's official athletics apparel provider, adidas. The first 1,000 fans in attendance received special Notre Dame women's basketball Pink Zone trading cards, compliments of the Notre Dame College of Science. In addition, hundreds of breast cancer survivors were recognized on the court during a special halftime ceremony, along with a unique dance tribute featuring Ade Obayomi and Melissa Sandvig from the hit Fox TV show "So You Think You Can Dance".
- Team Donations - For the second consecutive season, all 15 Notre Dame players and student managers voted unanimously to donate their post-game per diem from the Feb. 14 Pink Zone game to the cause. In addition, head coach Muffet McGraw once again donated $10 for every rebound the Irish collected during their Pink Zone game (this year, it was 38 rebounds, good for a $380 contribution to the effort).
- Silent Auction - More than 100 specialty items and entertainment packages were donated for a game-day silent auction that was held in the Monogram Room at Purcell Pavilion and raised $16,000 (a full $5,000 more than last year's auction). Some of the unique items on the auction block included: the pink shoes worn by Irish players in the Pink Zone win over DePaul (autographed), commemorative Notre Dame women's basketball pink jerseys (autographed) and private dinners with Irish coaches and players.

Proceeds from all of Notre Dame's Pink Zone events this season will be divided equally between the Kay Yow/WBCA Cancer Fund and three local charities associated with the Foundation of Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center — Women's Task Force, Young Survivors Group and Secret Sisters Society. All-Academic Team selection and is a prime candidate to make that squad again this year.

Pomp And Circumstance

On Jan. 3, senior center Erica Williamson received her bachelor's degree in film, television & theater from Notre Dame's College of Arts and Letters. Williamson, who also serves as the president of the school's Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC), graduated a full semester early and started graduate studies at Notre Dame this spring.

She subsequently has earned admission into the graduate program at Syracuse University's prestigious S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, where she anticipates continuing her pursuit of a sports broadcasting career in the fall of 2010.

With Williamson collecting her diploma, all 58 Notre Dame women's basketball student-athletes who have completed their athletic and academic eligibility under head coach Muffet McGraw (1987-present) have earned their degrees.

Half And Half

During the past decade, Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable when it has the lead at half-time. The Irish are 188-17 (.917) since the start of the 2000-01 campaign when they go into the dressing room with the lead, including wins in 116 of their last 127 such contests.

Notre Dame has led at the break in 25 games this season and has gone on to earn victories each time.

The Best Offense Is A Good Defense...

During the past 15 seasons, Notre Dame has discovered that a solid defensive effort can almost certainly guarantee a victory. In fact, since the beginning of the 1995-96 season (Notre Dame's first in the BIG EAST Conference), the Irish have an amazing 208-15 (.933) record when they hold their opponents below 60 points in a game, including a 13-1 record this season.

The lone loss? A 59-44 setback to top-ranked Connecticut in the BIG EAST Championship semifinals on March 8 in Hartford, Conn.

...But Sometimes You Have To Score If You Want To Win

Not resting solely on its defensive laurels, Notre Dame also seemingly has found the magic mark when it comes to outscoring its opponents. During the past 15 seasons (since 1995-96), the Irish are 140-4 (.972) when they score at least 80 points in a game. The only blemishes on that record are a pair of overtime losses to Texas A&M (88-84) and Michigan State (87-83) in 1995, a 106-81 loss to Connecticut in 1998, and an 81-80 loss to DePaul in 2008.

This season, Notre Dame is 17-0 when it scores at least 80 points, including four games when it topped the 90-point mark.

Now That's A Home Court Advantage

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's success has been its stellar play at home. In fact, the Irish have been virtually untouchable at home in recent years, winning 189 of their last 214 games (.883) at the 9,149-seat Purcell Pavilion, including winning streaks of 51 and 25 games in that span. Notre Dame also has a 106-18 (.855) record in BIG EAST Conference play at the former Joyce Center, sporting a 31-game league winning streak at home before it ended with a 48-45 loss to Villanova in the '02 home finale.

The Irish have been particularly strong when it comes to non-conference games at home, winning 85 of their last 92 non-BIG EAST contests (.924) at Purcell Pavilion, dating back to the 1994-95 season. Five of the seven losses in that span came at the hands of Big Ten Conference opponents (four by 12 points or less) — Wisconsin in 1996 (81-69), Purdue in 2003 (71-54), Michigan State in 2004 (82-73 OT), Indiana in 2006 (54-51) and Minnesota in 2009 (79-71) — with the other two defeats coming to Tennessee in 2005 (62-51) and 2008 (87-63). The Purdue loss also snapped a 33-game non-conference home winning streak which began after the UW setback.

Since its inaugural season in 1977-78, Notre Dame has played all of its games at the former Joyce Center, posting a 339-86 (.798) record at the venerable facility. Three times (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04), the Irish went a perfect 15-0 at home, which was the school record for home victories in a season prior to this year, when Notre Dame went 16-1, capped by an 84-66 triumph over Vermont on March 23 in the second round of the NCAA Championship.

It's Fan-Demonium At Notre Dame

If the preseason was any indication, Notre Dame women's basketball is easily the hottest ticket in South Bend. For the first time in school history, all Irish women's basketball season ticket packages (close to 7,500) were sold, including more than 1,000 packages to first-time season ticket purchasers when they went on sale Aug. 14. Furthermore, fans were waiting in line at the Purcell Pavilion ticket office as early as 4:30 that morning, more than four hours before the ticket windows opened. Those early birds were rewarded with a visit from Irish head coach Muffet McGraw, who delivered coffee and bagels, courtesy of McGraw and athletics director Jack Swarbrick.

It didn't take long for this heightened enthusiasm to come to fruition, as the crowd of 9,080 for the Nov. 15 win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff was the largest season-opening audience in program history, more than 1,100 higher than the old mark set in 2001-02 (7,960 vs. Valparaiso).

This season, Notre Dame averaged a school-record 8,377 fans per game, good for fourth in the nation and putting the Irish more than 1,350 fans ahead of last year's average (7,168), not to mention nearly 700 fans ahead of their previous school-record attendance average of 7,825 fans per game, also set in 2001-02.

Notre Dame also has posted 12 sellouts in program history, with half of those capacity crowds coming this season in the newly-renovated arena — including four of the final six home games and six of the past eight (all during BIG EAST Conference play).

The most recent sellout came on March 1, when the Irish drew 9,149 fans to Purcell Pavilion for their matchup with top-ranked Connecticut.

A full rundown of the top women's basketball crowds in arena history, as well as a detailed history of the Purcell Pavilion/Joyce Center renovation and expansion, can be found in the sidebar on page 12 of this notes package.

Irish On Your Radio Dial

Beginning with the 2008-09 athletics year, the Notre Dame athletics department announced it had partnered with the LeSEA Broadcasting Network, making Pulse FM (96.9/92.1) the new radio home of Notre Dame women's basketball in the South Bend market.

LeSEA originates all Notre Dame women's basketball games, with those events carried on Pulse FM (96.9/92.1), marking a return to the FM side of the dial for the first time since the 1998-99 season. Combined, these two stations blanket the nation's No. 89 media market (South Bend-Elkhart), covering a 21-county area in northern Indiana and southwest Michigan that contains more than 1.35 million listeners (better than 800,000 in the greater South Bend area alone). All told, Notre Dame's women's basketball network stretches from Kalamazoo, Mich., to the north, North Judson, Ind., to the west, Macy, Ind., (home of former Irish All-America center Ruth Riley) to the south, and LaGrange, Ind., to the east.

Women's basketball game broadcasts also continue to be streamed live and free of charge on Notre Dame's official athletics web site (www.UND.com) through the Fighting Irish All-Access multimedia package.

Bob Nagle, the voice of Notre Dame women's basketball from 1996-97 through 1998-99 (including the program's first NCAA Final Four berth in 1997), returns for his second season in his second stint as the radio play-by-play broadcaster for the Irish.

Notre Dame On The Small Screen

Notre Dame will have at least 25 games televised during the 2009-10 season. Highlighting this year's broadcast schedule are 16 nationally-televised Irish women's basketball contests, including at least 10 games on the ESPN family of networks (three on ESPN2's "Big Monday" package) and four others on CBS College Sports.

In addition, Notre Dame continues to expand its broadcast reach globally on the Internet. All Irish regular-season home games not selected for commercial TV coverage (with the exception of the Nov. 15 game vs. Arkansas-Pine Bluff) were webcast live on the official Notre Dame athletics web site, www.UND.com, via the site's free multimedia package, Fighting Irish All-Access.

What's more, the Thanksgiving weekend Paradise Jam was webcast in its entirety through Fox College Sports Broadband on a pay-per-view basis.

This year's TV slate continues a recent trend that has seen the Irish become a regular fixture on television. Beginning with the NCAA championship season of 2000-01 and continuing through this year (not counting Sunday's NCAA Kansas City Regional semifinal game vs. Oklahoma), Notre Dame has played in 166 televised games, including 112 that were broadcast nationally.

Oh Captain, My Captain

Fifth-year senior guard Lindsay Schrader and senior guards Ashley Barlow and Melissa Lechlitter all return for their second year as team captains for the 2009-10 season. All three players received the captain's honor following a vote of their teammates prior to the season.

This marks the first time in program history that the same players are serving as captains in consecutive seasons.

Irish Sign Three For 2010-11 Season

Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw announced Nov. 13 that three of the country's top high school student-athletes have chosen to continue their academic and athletic careers with the Fighting Irish, each signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Notre Dame beginning in the fall of 2010.

Natalie Achonwa (last name pronounced uh-CHAWN-wuh), a 6-3 forward from Guelph, Ontario (St. Mary's Catholic Secondary School/National Elite Development Academy), Ariel Braker, a 6-1 forward from Grosse Pointe Woods, Mich. (Grosse Pointe North High School) and 2010 McDonald's All-American Kayla McBride, a 5-11 guard from Erie, Pa. (Villa Maria Academy) all made their official commitments to the Fighting Irish during the early signing period, which ended Nov. 18.

All three student-athletes are rated among the top 50 players in the country by various national recruiting services. As a group, this trio is ranked as the No. 10 recruiting class in the country by All-Star Girls Report (and a consensus top-16 class by other recruiting services), giving Notre Dame a Top 25 recruiting class for the 14th consecutive year, a streak only two other schools in the country (Connecticut and Tennessee) can match. It's also the third consecutive top-10 recruiting class for the Fighting Irish.

"I'm very excited about the class that we're signing this year," McGraw said. "I think we really addressed our needs, with three very good players coming in. They're going to change the way we do some things at both ends of the floor next year. We're going to be able to be more aggressive on defense because we're adding athleticism, length and speed, and on offense, we'll look at ways that we can take advantage of the size that we're going to have. It will probably be a whole new look, going from the more guard-oriented team that we have now, to next year when we'll have some depth in the post as well."

"Notre Dame emphasized strengthening their perimeter game and did so with size, ath-

Irish Signee Kayla McBride Named McDonald’s All-American

Notre Dame incoming freshman guard Kayla McBride (Erie, Pa./Villa Maria Academy) is one of 24 student-athletes who have been named to the 2010 McDonald’s Girls’ High School All-America Team, it was announced Feb. 11. With the selection, McBride will compete for the East team in the McDonald’s High School All-America Game, which is scheduled to take place at 5:30 p.m. (ET) on March 31 and will be televised live to a national cable audience by ESPN from Value City Arena in Columbus, Ohio.

“This is an incredible honor and we are so proud of Kayla,” Fighting Irish head coach Muffet McGraw said. “She put in so much time and effort during the off-season to improve her game, and it’s such a thrill to see that kind of hard work and dedication pay off. We’re looking forward to following Kayla throughout the rest of her high school career, and excited to have her joining us next season.”

The 5-foot-11 McBride is the sixth future Notre Dame women’s basketball player, and third in four seasons, to earn McDonald’s High School All-America recognition since the girls’ team was first created in 2002. Other incoming Fighting Irish cagers who played in the McDonald’s game have included Courtney LaVere (2002), Crystal Erwin (2003), and a trio of current Notre Dame players — Lindsay Schrader (2005), Devereaux Peters (2007) and Skylar Diggins (2009). Diggins shared Most Valuable Player honors at last year’s McDonald’s game in Coral Gables, Fla., after collecting a game-high 18 points, five rebounds and three steals for the East team in a 69-68 loss to the West squad.

McBride, who also earned a spot on the ESPN Hoopgurlz All-Star Team that likewise was released Feb. 11, has been ranked as one of the top 25 players in the nation in the Class of 2010 by both ESPN Hoopgurlz (20th) and All-Star Girls Report (22nd). She recently became the all-time scoring leader in Villa Maria Academy history and has helped VMA — the defending Pennsylvania Class AA state champion — to a No. 1 ranking in the state in Class AA. The Victors also have been ranked among the top 15 teams in the East Region by several national media outlets this year.

Notre Dame Lends A Hand For Haiti Earthquake Relief

Fundraising efforts held in conjunction with two University of Notre Dame home basketball games have resulted in more than $250,000 in donations that will go toward relief efforts in Haiti in the aftermath of the devastating earthquake that hit the island nation on Jan. 12.

Through the generosity of fans and alumni, as well as contributions from the University and the Notre Dame Monogram Club, the money was raised at the men’s and women’s basketball games that were played Jan. 23 and 24, respectively, at Purcell Pavilion.

Notre Dame donated full gate receipts and net concession revenue from both games to the relief effort. In addition, a collection organized by the Notre Dame Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC) — led by president and current Irish women’s basketball senior center Erica Williamson, as well as baseball player Ryan Connolly and rower Emily Crosby — raised more than $25,000 from fans and alumni who contributed during the games. The Monogram Club added a $10,000 matching gift to the student total.

Money raised will benefit short-term needs and long-term rebuilding efforts in Haiti and will be distributed to the Notre Dame Haiti Program, which works to eradicate the debilitating mosquito-borne disease lymphatic filariasis; the Congregation of Holy Cross, which has served in Haiti since 1944 and was heavily affected by the earthquake; and Catholic Relief Services, the international humanitarian agency of the Catholic community in the United States.

Next Game: NCAA Regional Final

The winner of Sunday’s NCAA Kansas City Regional semifinal game between Notre Dame and Oklahoma will advance to a regional final contest against either No. 1 seed Nebraska or fourth-seeded Kentucky on Tuesday (March 30) at the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Mo. The game will tip off at 8:07 p.m. CT (9:07 p.m. ET) and will be televised live to a national cable audience on ESPN.

The Irish are 1-1 all-time against Nebraska, last facing the Huskers in the 2004 Preseason WNIT quarterfinals at Purcell Pavilion (a 73-57 Notre Dame win).

Meanwhile, the Irish have yet to face Kentucky on the hardwood.

NOTES: Notre Dame improves to 6-0 all-time against Cincinnati, with the Bearcats and Providence (18-0) remaining the two BIG EAST Conference teams the Fighting Irish have never lost to; in a strange twist, the final score was the same as last year's result at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame is now 71-16 (.816) against Ohio schools, stretching its current winning streak against the Buckeye State to 16 games (dating back to March 1993) while going to 31-7 (.816) on the road against the state of Ohio, and 16-2 (.889) all-time in the city of Cincinnati ... the Fighting Irish rise to 3-0 in the month of February and 84-23 (.785) in February games since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96 (132-38, .776 in the 23-year Muffet McGraw era) ... Notre Dame forced at least 20 opponent turnovers for the 19th time in 23 games this season ... the Fighting Irish logged double-digit steals for the 16th time this season ... Notre Dame now is 27-10 (.730) on the road since the start of the 2007-08 campaign ... Cincinnati's five assists were the second-fewest by a Notre Dame opponent this year, with Charlotte having four handouts in a 90-31 Fighting Irish win on Dec. 20 at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame posted its second-best defensive outing of the BIG EAST season, allowing only 50 points (it yielded just 46 points to Villanova in the 81-46 conference opener on Jan. 9 at Purcell Pavilion) ... Cincinnati's 18 first-half points were the fewest allowed by Notre Dame in the opening 20 minutes since that Dec. 20 win over Charlotte, when the Fighting Irish gave up just 14 first-half points to the 49ers ... fifth-year senior guard Lindsay Schrader jumped up one spot on both the school's scoring and rebounding charts — she now is 14th all-time with 1,327 points (passing Margaret Nowlin, who had 1,312 points from 1988-92) and seventh all-time with 776 rebounds (passing Sandy Botham, who grabbed 774 boards from 1984-88) ... Schrader also made her 114th career start, tying current Fighting Irish assistant coach Niele Ivey for seventh in school history (Ivey made 114 starts from 1996-2001) ... junior guard Brittany Mallory snared a career-high eight rebounds, one more than her previous best that she had set three times previously (the last coming on Nov. 28, 2009, vs. #20/17 Oklahoma at the Paradise Jam in the U.S. Virgin Islands) ... the weather-depleted crowd of 472 (affected by a significant snowstorm in the Cincinnati area) was the smallest to see a Notre Dame game (home, away or neutral) this season — the previous low had been 506 for the Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 26) 84-79 win over #23/24 San Diego State in the Paradise Jam, marking McGraw's 500th coaching victory at Notre Dame.

NOTES: Notre Dame earns its fourth consecutive win over DePaul, extending its series-long winning streak against the Blue Demons (the Fighting Irish had won three in a row vs. DePaul from 1985-86) ... DePaul still leads the all-time series with Notre Dame, 18-15, although the Fighting Irish have a 9-6 edge at Purcell Pavilion ... Notre Dame's 90 points are the most they have scored against the Blue Demons in the 33-game series, topping the old mark of 87 points set on Jan. 16, 1995, in a 96-87 DePaul victory in Chicago ... in 12 of the past 14 series games, the winning team has scored at least 75 points ... Notre Dame matches the 2000-01 team for the best 24-game start in school history (that club opened at 23-0 before losing its 24th game, 54-53 at Rutgers) ... Notre Dame forces at least 20 opponent turnovers for the 20th time in 24 games this season, tallying at least 25 takeaways for the 10th time overall (and eighth time in 13 home games) ... the Fighting Irish log double-digit steals for the 17th time this season, topping the 15-steal threshold for the ninth time ... Notre Dame harassed an opposing player (DePaul's Sam Quigley) into double-digit turnovers for the first time since Feb. 22, 2004, when #21/19 Miami (Fla.) had two players with at least 10 giveaways — Chanivia Broussard (13) and Yalonda McCormick (10) ... Becca Bruszewski posted new career highs in scoring, field goals made and field goals attempted ... Bruszewski is the fourth Fighting Irish player to score 20 points in a game this season, joining Skylar Diggins, Melissa Lechlitner and Brittany Mallory ... Ashley Barlow dished out a career-high eight assists ... Barlow and Mallory both registered "5-5-5" games; it's the second time this season two Notre Dame players have had "5-5-5" outings in the same game, with Diggins and Mallory pulling off that feat in the season opener on Nov. 15 vs. Arkansas-Pine Bluff ... it was Barlow's third "5-5-5" outing of the season (and the first "5-5-5-5" by a Notre Dame player this year), while Mallory ties Diggins for team-high honors with her fourth "5-5-5" performance ... Barlow also moved up another rung on the Fighting Irish all-time scoring list, rising to 12th place with 1,381 points, supplanting Shari Matvey (1,373 points from 1979-83) ... Notre Dame attracted its school-record fourth sellout of the season, as well as the 10th capacity crowd in program history ... Notre Dame played on Valentine's Day for the seventh time, improving to 6-1 on Feb. 14 (first Valentine's game since 2004, an 81-51 home win over Providence) ... the Fighting Irish designated the game as its "Pink Zone" contest, with the players sporting special white and pink uniforms for the game, which was tailored to raise money and awareness for breast cancer research — Notre Dame raised more than $40,000 in advance of the game, then added another $30,000 in donations on game day.

Notre Dame loses to a New York school for only the fifth time in 52 career games, with three of those five losses coming on the last three Fighting Irish visits to St. John's (2006, 2008, 2010) ... five of the past seven series games between Notre Dame and St. John's have been decided by 10 points or less ... Notre Dame faced a tight turnaround (one day off between games) for the 10th time in the past two seasons, including the fifth time this season; the Fighting Irish are 8-2 on the back half of these quick turnarounds, with a 4-1 record this year ... Notre Dame lost for the first time in 20 games this season when having three double-figure scorers ... the Fighting Irish drop to 27-11 on the road in the past two-plus seasons (since the start of 2007-08), with eight of the past nine road defeats for Notre Dame coming by 12 points or fewer (average margin of defeat of only 8.0 ppg.) ... Notre Dame registered double-digit steals for the 18th time this season ... the Fighting Irish tied their season high with 10 blocked shots (also vs. #18/16 Vanderbilt on Dec. 31 at Purcell Pavilion) ... Notre Dame shot 85 percent (17-of-20) from the foul line, with two of the three misses coming with four-tenths of a second remaining ... freshman guard Skylar Diggins recorded her fifth 20-point game of the season, while setting new career highs for free throws made (10) and attempted (12) ... Diggins is the first Fighting Irish player to make 10 foul shots in a game since March 25, 2008, when Charel Allen went 12-for-12 from the gift line in a 79-75 overtime win over #14/13 Oklahoma in the second round of the NCAA Championship in West Lafayette, Ind. ... junior guard Brittany Mallory made her first start of the season (and fourth of her career), and responded with 17 points in a career-high 36 minutes ... junior forward Devereaux Peters flirted with a double-double, coming off the bench to tally nine points, a career-high 14 rebounds (previous: 12 vs. Connecticut on Jan. 27, 2008) and career-best six blocks (previous: five vs. Miami-Ohio on Nov. 9, 2007) ... Peters' six blocks are the most by a Notre Dame player in a single game since Dec. 2, 2004, when Teresa Borton also had six blocks in an 82-73 overtime loss to #15 Michigan State at Purcell Pavilion ... senior guard/tri-captain Ashley Barlow collected a season-high six steals (she had five on two occasions, most recently this past Sunday vs. DePaul at Purcell Pavilion) ... Barlow's six steals give her 63 thefts for the season, making her the third Notre Dame player ever to record 60+ steals in four consecutive seasons, joining Coquese Washington (1989-93) and current Fighting Irish assistant coach Niele Ivey (1997-2001) in that elite company ... Barlow ties Diggins and Mallory for team-high honors with her fourth "5-5-5" game of the season, and her second in as many games ... Peters notched her third career "5-5-5" game, and first this season.

Notre Dame earns its 12th BIG EAST victory of the season, hitting that mark for the 10th time in 15 seasons as a conference member (1995-96 to present), but the first time since going 13-3 in 2004-05 ... the Fighting Irish will finish with an 8-3 road record this year (all post-season contests will be neutral sites or home games), giving Notre Dame a 28-12 (.700) record on the road during the past three seasons ... the Fighting Irish rise to 18-4 all-time against Seton Hall, including an 18-2 record against the Pirates in BIG EAST play (17-2 in the regular season) ... Connecticut's .556 field goal percentage not only was an opponent season high, but also marked the first time in 75 games that a Notre Dame opponent had shot better than 50 percent from the field — DePaul was the last to do so, hitting 60 percent of its shots (30-of-50) in an 81-80 win at Purcell Pavilion on Jan. 22, 2008 ... junior forward Devereaux Peters logged her third double-digit scoring games of the season and tied her career high with 15 points, a mark she first set against Villanova on Jan. 16, 2008, at Purcell Pavilion ... Peters shared team-high scoring honors with classmate Becca Bruszewski, with Peters being the sixth different leading scorer for Notre Dame in its last seven games ... Peters is averaging 12.3 points and 9.0 rebounds in three career outings against Connecticut (and two of her three double-digit scoring games this year have come against the Huskies) ... Bruszewski scored in double figures for the 12th time this season and first since she potted a career-high 25 points vs. DePaul on Feb. 14 at Purcell Pavilion ... fifth-year senior guard Lindsay Schrader made her 118th career start, tying Mollie Peirick (1994-98) for fourth on Notre Dame's all-time list ... rookie guard Skylar Diggins nabbed two more steals, giving her 65 thefts for the season and putting her just two away from tying Coquese Washington's school record for steals by a freshman (67 in 1989-90) ... FG Pct: Notre Dame 31.3, Connecticut 45.5. 3-PT FG Pct: Notre Dame 14.3, Connecticut 31.6. FT Pct: Notre Dame 100.0, Connecticut 30.0. Turnovers: Notre Dame 11, Connecticut 17. Blocked Shots: Notre Dame 1, Connecticut 7 (Charles 4). Steals: Notre Dame 8 (Diggins 3), Connecticut 5 (Doty 2). Attendance: 9,334.

NOTES: All five of Notre Dame's losses this season have come to ranked opponents (Connecticut three times, plus at St. John's and Georgetown), four away from home, with the Fighting Irish now 6-5 this season against Top 25 teams ... Notre Dame holds Connecticut to its lowest single-game and first-half point totals in nearly three years, dating back to March 26, 2007, when the Huskies scored only 22 points in the first half of a 73-50 loss to LSU in the NCAA Fresno Regional final in Fresno, Calif. ... Notre Dame also logs the third-closest game against Connecticut this season, with only Stanford (12 points) and St. John's (14 points) managing to come closer to defeating the Huskies in 2009-10 ... during Connecticut's present winning streak, Notre Dame twice has come within 15 points of defeating the Huskies (it lost by two points during the 2008-09 regular season in Hartford), joining St. John's as the only schools that can make that claim (the Red Storm lost to visiting Connecticut by 13 points last season) ... the Fighting Irish were held to their lowest point total since Jan. 24, 2006, when they dropped a 69-43 decision at #10/9 Rutgers ... the 44 points were the fewest scored by Notre Dame in a BIG EAST Championship game since March 9, 2003, when the Fighting Irish fell in the tournament quarterfinals to #20/18 Villanova, 50-39, in Piscataway, N.J. ... Notre Dame limited Connecticut to its second-lowest point total in the 29-game series between the schools, and lowest since a 65-59 Fighting Irish win on Jan. 30, 2005, in Storrs, Conn. (Notre Dame's most recent victory prior to the current nine-game Huskies' win streak in the series) ... Notre Dame's two free throws made and attempted were the fewest for the Fighting Irish in a single game since March 21, 1991, when they went 2-for-3 from the stripe in an 81-65 loss to Santa Clara in the first round of the old National Women's Invitation Tournament (NWIT) in Amarillo, Texas ... Connecticut's .300 free throw percentage was the lowest by a Notre Dame opponent this season, surpassing the .333 mark by Charlotte on Dec. 20 at Purcell Pavilion ... the Fighting Irish fall to 5-3 this season (and 9-4 in the past two years) when playing with one day's rest (or less) ... for the first time in program history, Notre Dame played a top-ranked team three times in one season.

Notre Dame moves to 8-2 in NCAA tournament play at Purcell Pavilion, and 85-7 (.924) in its last 92 non-BIG EAST home games (dating back to the 1994-95 season) ... the Fighting Irish overcame a double-digit deficit for the fourth time this season (Vermont's largest lead was 20-10 at 11:37 of the first half), and first since Jan. 24 vs. West Virginia ... Notre Dame rose to 21-1 versus first-time opponents since the start of the 2000-01 season and have now won 16 straight (19 in a row at home) ... Vermont entered the NCAA tournament ranked 10th in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (13.9 at tipoff), yet the Fighting Irish forced the America East tourney champs into 25 giveaways (the 23th 20-turnover game and 11th 25-turnover game for Notre Dame opponents this season) ... Skylar Diggins' 31 points were the most for a Fighting Irish player since Charel Allen dropped 35 on Oklahoma in the second round almost exactly two years ago (79-75 OT victory) ... Diggins' production also was the fourth-highest point total ever posted by a Notre Dame player in the NCAA Championship (and most ever by a Fighting Irish freshman) ... in addition, Diggins tied school records in NCAA Championship play for field goals made (13 by two other players) and steals (7 by Niele Ivey in 1998 first-round game vs. Southwest Missouri State) ... Notre Dame extended its streak of five-steal games to 53, and lengthened its streak of consecutive games forcing at least 10 turnovers to 40 ... Devereaux Peters tied her career high in assists with four ... Notre Dame recorded its school-record 16th home win this season, topping the old mark of 15 victories at Purcell Pavilion, set three times previously (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04) ... the Fighting Irish also set a new program record for average attendance with 8,377 fans per game, shattering the old standard of 7,825 in 2001-02 ... what's more, Notre Dame decimated its previous high-water mark for total attendance this season with 142,412 fans, more than 30,000 ahead of the 2007-08 record (112,253 in one fewer game) despite playing in an arena with nearly 2,300 fewer seats ... the Fighting Irish registered a school-record six sellouts this season, doubling the program's all-time number of capacity crowds.

Head Coach Muffet McGraw

23rd season at ND (525-202, .722) • 28th season overall (613-243, .716)

"If we searched for an entire year, I don't think we would find anyone better suited for our program."

With those words, former Notre Dame athletics director Gene Corrigan announced the hiring of Muffet McGraw as the third head coach of the Irish women's basketball program on May 18, 1987. Corrigan may not have realized it at the time, but he also ushered in an era of unparalleled success in women's basketball at Notre Dame, brought to life on the shoulders of a 5-foot-6 dynamo who accepts nothing less than the very best from herself, her players and her program.

Ask anyone familiar with women's basketball about McGraw and her Notre Dame program and inevitably, you'll hear the same two words — consistency and excellence. And it's no wonder, when you consider what McGraw and the Irish have achieved in the past 23 years:

- The 2001 NCAA Championship, defeating Purdue in the title game, 68-66. McGraw is one of only eight active Division I coaches to guide her team to a national title.
- Two trips to the NCAA Final Four (1997 and 2001). McGraw is one of just 14 active Division I coaches to lead her team to multiple Final Four appearances.
- Eight NCAA Sweet 16 trips, all in the past 14 seasons (1997-2010). The Irish are one of only 10 programs in the nation that can make that claim.
- 20 seasons with 20-or-more victories, including 16 in the past 17 years (1993-2010). Notre Dame also has posted seven 25-win seasons and two 30-win campaigns in the past 14 years (1997-2010).
- 17 NCAA Tournament appearances, including a current string of 15 consecutive NCAA Tournament berths. During the 15 years of this current streak (1996-2010), Notre Dame has won at least one NCAA postseason game 13 times.
- 66 wins over ranked opponents, including 56 in the past 11-plus seasons alone (1998-2010). In addition, 20 of those wins have come against top-10 opponents.
- 197 appearances in the Associated Press Top 25 poll, putting McGraw 13th among active Division I coaches and 22nd all-time on that list (through the final 2009-10 poll). Notre Dame also has spent 95 weeks ranked among the top 10 teams in the nation, all in the past 12-plus seasons (1997-2010).
- 12 top-four finishes in the BIG EAST Conference during Notre Dame's first 15 years in that league (1995-96 through 2009-10). The Irish also won a share of the 2001 BIG EAST regular-season title.
- 14 consecutive top-20 recruiting classes, dating to the incoming class of 1997. Notre Dame is one of just three programs in the nation that owns an active streak of that length.
- One of only four coaches in the 123-year history of Fighting Irish athletics to win 500 games at Notre Dame, joining fencing's Michael DeCicco and Yves Auriol, and baseball's Jake Kline.
- The winningest basketball coach (men's or women's) in school history, with noted men's skipper Richard "Digger" Phelps second on that list (393 wins).
- A perfect 100-percent graduation rate for all players entering the program since 1987 who have completed their athletic and academic eligibility at Notre Dame (a spotless 58-for-58 success rate, including current senior center Erica Williamson, who officially earned her diploma a full semester early on Jan. 3, 2010).

McGraw also ranks among the top 20 active NCAA Division I coaches with 613 career wins (reaching the 600-win milestone on Jan. 19, 2010, at Louisville in her 839th game, tying for 10th-fastest in Division I history) and a .716 all-time winning percentage.

Still, with all of those accomplishments in hand, McGraw has shown no signs of slowing down any time soon. In July 2008, the veteran head coach signed a contract extension that will keep her patrolling the Irish sidelines through the 2014-15 campaign.

"For more than 20 years, Muffet has led our program with integrity and passion, and, of course, to much success," said Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., Notre Dame's president. "As we look forward to many more years together, I am confident that the excellence she has achieved on and off the court will continue."

Under McGraw's guidance, the past 15 seasons (1995-96 to 2009-10) have been the most successful in Notre Dame's history. The Irish have compiled an impressive 366-122 (.750) record, including a sparkling 188-60 (.758) regular-season mark in BIG EAST play, the second-best winning percentage in league history. Notre Dame also has averaged better than 24 victories per year during that span, with two 30-win seasons and seven 25-win campaigns to its credit.

Success for McGraw also has meant coaching great players. During her illustrious career, the Notre Dame skipper has coached nine All-Americans, including 2001 consensus National Player of the Year Ruth Riley. She also has worked with five players who have been selected for USA Basketball National Teams, with those players going on to win a total of nine medals (highlighted by Riley's gold with the '04 U.S. Olympic Team). In addition, McGraw has coached 22 players who have earned all-conference recognition a total of 48 times, including 15 first-team picks who have been chosen a total of 27 times, and has helped shape several other national award winners, namely two Frances Pomeroy Naismith award recipients (Niele Ivey in 2001, Megan Duffy in 2006) and 2002 United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) National Freshman of the Year Jacqueline Batteast.

Another sign of McGraw's success has been her ability to prepare her players for the next level. No less than 18 Notre Dame cagers have gone on to play professionally (domestically or overseas), including nine who either have been drafted or signed as free agents with WNBA teams. The past nine years have seen the greatest influx of Irish talent into the WNBA, with seven Notre Dame players having been selected in the league's annual draft since 2001. Four of those players — Riley, Ivey, Kelley Siemon and Ericka Haney — were starters on the '01 Irish NCAA championship team, and five of the recent Irish WNBA draftees (Riley, Ivey, Batteast, Duffy and Charel Allen) earned All-America status during their careers at Notre Dame.

Dedicated to helping grow and further the sport in any way possible, McGraw has groomed 12 of her former players and/or assistant coaches who currently are serving as coaches at either the high school or college level. Of those dozen proteges, seven presently are Division I head coaches — 1988 Notre Dame graduate Sandy Botham (Wisconsin-Milwaukee), 1997 Notre Dame graduate and the school's all-time leading scorer Beth (Morgan) Cunningham (Virginia Commonwealth), Bill Fennelly (Iowa State), Kevin McGuff (Xavier), Carol Owens (Northern Illinois), 1991 Notre Dame graduate Coquese Washington (Penn State) and most recently, 1994 Notre Dame graduate Kristin (Knapp) Cole (New Hampshire). McGuff, Owens and Washington comprised McGraw's assistant coaching staff on the 2001 Irish NCAA national championship squad, while McGuff and Owens also were on staff for Notre Dame's run to the 1997 NCAA Final Four.

A native of West Chester, Pa., McGraw received her bachelor's degree in sociology from Saint Joseph's University (Pa.) in 1977. Following graduation, she coached for two seasons at Philadelphia's Archbishop Carroll High School where she guided her teams to a 50-3 record. McGraw then played point guard for one year with the California Dreams, a team in the since-folded Women's Professional Basketball League (WBL). She returned to her alma mater in 1980, serving as an assistant coach under Jim Foster (now the head coach at Ohio State). Two years later, McGraw was named head coach at Lehigh University, her teams finishing 88-41 (.683) during her five-year tenure.

In 1986, she was inducted into the SJU Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, followed by her enshrinement into the Philadelphia Big Five Women's Hall of Fame in 1989. In November 2002, McGraw's alma mater came calling once again, inducting her into the SJU Athletics Hall of Fame. McGraw also was named an honorary alumna by the Notre Dame Alumni Association in 1997 and received an honorary monogram from the Notre Dame Monogram Club that same year.

McGraw and her husband, Matt, celebrated their 32nd wedding anniversary in 2009 and make their home in Granger, Ind. They are the proud parents of 19-year-old son Murphy, who is a sophomore at Indiana University.
