Feb 28-March 4 ACC Tournament

^ Paradise Jam in Melbourne, Fla.

% Big Ten/ACC Challenge

* ACC conference game

FINAL STRECH

Tech sits at 6-8 in ninth place in the ACC with three four regular season games remaining.

Tech's two remaining games pit them against, Notre Dame and Miami for the second time this season.

The Hokies seek a third straight trip to the postseason, following appearances in the WNIT in 2016 and 2017. Last season the Hokies made it to the quarterfinals, before getting knocked out by eventual champion Michigan.

DON'T LET HER GET GOING

Taylor Emery scored 30 points for the second time in ACC play on against Virginia. She had a personal 15-point run to start the fourth quarter, igniting the Hokies' comeback.

Emery has 14 games of 20-plus points and leads Tech at 18.1 points per game.

A junior college transfer, Emery has been a starter since day one this season. She is shooting better than 50 percent from the field, 40 percent from the 3-point arc and 86 percent from the free throw line.

CAPTAIN CAMP

The Hokies have been boosted by the return of Rachel Camp this season after earning a redshirt with an injury in 2016-17.

Camp, Kenny Brooks' "Swiss Army Knife" has played almost every spot on the floor this season, filling in for the injured Alexis Jean at the four spot, and taking over ball handling responsibilities Jan. 11 vs Pitt.

Camp averages 7.6 points, 5.1 rebounds and 1.4 assists on the season. She recorded a double-double in her first start of the season at the Paradise Jam against No. 11 West Virginia. Camp totaled 15 points and 11 rebounds.

In the win over Clemson, Camp led the Hokies with 18 points.

Camp was named a captain for Tech in the middle of the season, joining Regan Magarity.

DANGEROUS AT EVERY SPOT

The Hokies are shooting 32.4 percent from the 3-point line this season as a team and have made 214 triples, the second most in the ACC (Syracuse 253).

Nearly all of the Hokies are capable of stepping out beyond the arc and with dangerous freshman Aisha Sheppard the Gatorade Player of the Year for Washington DC is coming off of the bench.

A VIRGINIA TECH WIN WOULD BE.....

The program's first over a ranked team since defeating No. 17 Tennessee in 2016 - a span of 10 straight games.

Tech's first win over a top 10 program since upending No. 8 Tennessee in 2015 in Knoxville, Tennessee.

The Hokies' first ranked league win since winning in Chapel Hill, North Carolina over No. 11 North Carolina in 2014.

The first top 10 ACC win since defeating No. 8 Maryland in 2012.

Notre Dame's first home loss in 22 games.

REGAN MAGARITY JOINS ELITE COMPANY

Forward Regan Magarity put her name in conversation with some of the Virginia Tech greats on Jan. 28, 2018 when she scored her 1,000 point of her career. She became the 26th woman to in program history to reach that milestone.

She is just the seventh player to reach 1,000 points and record 700 rebounds in a career.

The redshirt junior is averaging 14.1 points and 9.7 rebounds per game on the season. Her 14 double-doubles tie her for the most in the conference.

WHAT IS A HOKIE?

- That's the most frequently asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.
- With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell which still is used today.
- Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention.
- Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.
- Following is the "Old Hokie" yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
 Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!
 Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
 Polytech-Vir-gin-i-a!!
 Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE

- While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech."
- Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.
- Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.
- The "State University" was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.
- Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech."

*Only completed one season as head coach

Brooks joined the Hokies after an impressive 14-season stint as head coach at James Madison University where he compiled a record of 337-122 (.756), making him the winningest coach in that school's history. Brooks guided the Dukes to 11 consecutive postseason appearances, including six NCAA bids and five trips to the WNIT. Under his direction in 2015-16, JMU compiled a 27-6 record, including a 17-1 mark in conference play, as the Dukes made a third straight trip to the NCAA tournament.

Over 11 seasons at JMU, Brooks' squads never won fewer than 24 games, averaging 26.3 wins per year over that span. The Dukes won three consecutive (2014, 2015, 2016) Colonial Athletic Association championships under Brooks' tutelage and captured five conference titles over a seven season span. He was named CAA Coach of the Year for a fourth time in 2015-16, while his student-athletes also garnered CAA Player and Rookie of the Year honors.

Brooks registered winning campaigns in 13 of his 14 seasons in Harrisonburg, ascending to No. 23 in the AP Top 25 and No. 21 in the USA Today Coaches Poll in 2014-15 as his squad tied a school record with 29 victories. In 2013-14, he led the Dukes to their first NCAA Tournament victory since 1991 when his 11th-seeded Dukes knocked off sixth-seeded Gonzaga 72-63 in the first round. In 2007, the Dukes earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, marking only the second time a CAA team had received an at-large berth.

Under Brooks, James Madison tallied six CAA Players of the Year, three Rookies of the Year and two Defensive Players of the Year. The Dukes also earned 31 All-CAA selections, 11 Defensive team and 10 All-Rookie team selections during his tenure.

The Waynesboro, Virginia, native, has coached three WNBA Draft picks, including first-round pick Tamera Young and most recently (April 2016) second-round selection Jazmon Gwathmey, in addition to three other players who have signed professional contracts.

A 1992 graduate of James Madison, he played three seasons under legendary coach Lefty Driesell and made two NIT appearances while earning a degree in business management. He began his coaching career as a part-time assistant for the 1993-94 JMU men's squad that won the CAA Tournament and advanced to the NCAA tournament.

After four seasons as an assistant for the men's program at VMI (1994-98), he moved back to his alma mater as a men's assistant from 1998-2002. He was named interim women's head coach on Dec. 6, 2002 before taking over those duties on a full-time basis on March 21, 2003.

CASSELL COLISEUM

A TRUE HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

CARILION CLINIC COURT

The court at Cassell Coliseum received a make-over during the summer months in 2017. Three iconic campus landmarks, Torgersen Bridge, Burruss Hall and the Pylons are depicted on the court, in addition to a Hokie Stone design surrounding the playing surface. Featured prominently near midcourt is the logo of Carilion Clinic, a proud supporter of Virginia Tech Athletics. The court was named Carilion Clinic Court at Cassell Coliseum as part of the partnership between Carilion Clinic and Virginia Tech Athletics.

CASSELL COLISEUM - HOME OF THE HOKIES

For more than half a century, Cassell Coliseum has provided Virginia Tech with one of the greatest home venues in all of college sports. Winning has been the norm in the facility since its opening in 1961, and Cassell is perhaps even more exciting today than ever in its history.

Cassell serves as the home to Virginia Tech women's basketball, volleyball and wrestling programs, and in 2010-11, the Virginia Tech athletics department celebrated Cassell's 50th anniversary by bringing back many of the former great players and coaches in various sports who have played in the arena. Also, the first men's basketball team ever to play in Cassell was recognized.

Construction for the main portion of Cassell began in 1961, and though not completed, the Tech men's basketball team opened the arena on Jan. 3, 1962, with a 91-67 victory over Alabama. The team played in the building for two years before workers from T.C. Brittain and Company of Decatur, Ga., finished the building in December of 1964 at a cost of $2.7 million.

For years, the arena was called the Virginia Tech Coliseum. But on September 17, 1977, Virginia Tech officials and friends dedicated the coliseum in honor of the late Stuart K. Cassell, who spearheaded the project. In the late 1950s, Cassell, who was the chief business officer at the time and later became the vice president of the school, saw the need for a new basketball arena to replace the outdated War Memorial Gymnasium, and he eventually managed to get the state legislature to approve the building of the 8,000-seat arena. Cassell, though, found a seat manufacturer that made seats a little smaller than normal seats and squeezed an extra 2,000 seats into the building, bringing the capacity to 10,000.

Since that time, Cassell Coliseum has undergone many renovations and additions to make it the building it is today. The latest addition came in the fall of 2013 when Tech officials hired Panasonic to install two new video scoreboards with high-definition LED displays on each end of the arena. The scoreboards are 18 feet high and 29 feet wide – more than double the size of the previous video scoreboards – and enhance the fan experience. Combined with a new video scoreboard for Lane Stadium, the Hokies' football home, and a new control room, the project cost nearly $7 million.

Other improvements have been made. Prior to the 2003-04 season, the concourse area was renovated and now features more accessible concession areas, new flooring, video monitors that allow fans to watch the action when not in the arena and the addition of Hokie stone to many of the entrances to the seating area. In 2001-02, the seats were stripped of their original paint and refinished to retain their natural wood look. In 1996-97, workers replaced the roof of the facility and installed structural access to the heating and lighting systems. They also restored and resealed the exterior concrete walls and buttresses.

Through new projects, renovations and maintenance reserve projects, Cassell Coliseum has undergone approximately $10 million in improvements over the past decade.

The athletics department has taken out some seats to make room for more seating for the handicapped, and also renovations in certain areas forced the need to eliminate some seating. The capacity of the building now sits at nearly 9,275.

Cassell Coliseum today ranks as one of the most difficult places for opposing teams to play and is considered one of the best home environments in all of college sports.
