Hat Trick History

Notre Dame players have combined to score 55 hat tricks in 18 seasons, including at least one every year from 1988-2000. Jenny Heft had three hat tricks in 1998 to bring her career total to five, tying Monica Gerardo and Rosella Guerrero for most in ND history. Heft then broke the record with a hat trick in '99 vs. Georgetown. Amy Warner in 2000 set the record for earliest hat trick by a Notre Dame freshman, based on date (Sept. 3, vs. Providence) while Guerrero was the only Irish freshman to notch a hat trick in the season opener (vs. North Carolina State in 1992) – with Kerri Hanks besting Wagner and matching Guerrero's feat after her hat trick in the 2005 opener vs. UNH (Aug. 26). A Tradition of Excellence in Academics, Spirituality, Athletics

“Early on when I was invited to serve the University of Notre Dame, we talked about the goal of having every one of our varsity athletics teams achieve a top five national ranking – and every day we come closer to making that goal a reality.”

- Dr. Kevin M. White,
Director of Athletics

Since Knute was at the helm, the Department of Athletics has played an undeniable role in Notre Dame's visibility, its unique place in the hearts of those around the world, and – ultimately – its climb to the top ranks of academic institutions.

It is the challenge to continue to play that role, fulfill those lofty goals, reflect its Catholic heritage, educate future world leaders and, particularly, find the means to fund those undertakings that faces Our Lady's University today.

Simply put, we want it all. We want Irish athletics to continue to be a source of revenue for the academy, but we also want to be the home of the model intercollegiate athletics program. We want to be the unsurpassed leader in academic performance and fiscal responsibility. And we want to do it the right way, the Notre Dame way, which demands the highest level of integrity on and off the field.

With the help of the Notre Dame family – alumni, parents and friends – all things are possible.
