NOTRE DAME HOCKEY THROUGH THE YEARS

Irish hockey begins its second season as part of the Big Ten Conference and enters its 50th varsity season.

THE EARLY YEARS

From playing on frozen lakes around the University of Notre Dame campus, to an outdoor rink near Badin Hall along with South Bend's Howard Park Rink, the Joyce Center and now the state-of-the-art Compton Family Ice Arena, the Notre Dame hockey program has experienced a little bit of everything in its on-again, off-again 100-year-plus history.

While most followers of Notre Dame's hockey history know the story since the program received Division I status in 1968, there are several earlier chapters and building blocks.

Notre Dame first played collegiate hockey with records showing an informal game being played as early as 1911-12 at Culver Academy, a 7-1 Irish win. In 1912-13, the team played a three-game schedule going 1-2-0 in what is recognized as the first full season of Notre Dame hockey.

After that early attempt to start hockey, the program took a seven-year hiatus, returning again in 1919-20. Two-time football All-America running back Paul Castner was seen skating on Saint Mary's Lake when Tony Gorman, a Canadian, joined him to show him some of the finer points of the game. Before long, the duo started discussing the possibility of hockey at Notre Dame. They met with the Rev. William F. Cunningham, C.S.C., who, according to The Dome, "was a priest who had played the game in the West. The Notre Dame lads proposed a hockey team to Cunningham who entered enthusiastically into the project."

Under Cunningham, who served in a variety of roles, including coach, manager, secretary, advisor and trainer, and Castner who served as player-coach for two years and then coach following graduation, the program grew.

In four seasons at the helm, Castner's teams were 18-4-0 while playing against the likes of Michigan College of Mines (now Michigan Tech), Carnegie Tech, Michigan, the Michigan Aggies (now Michigan State), Wisconsin, Culver Academy, St. Thomas and Assumption.

While Castner led the team on ice, Cunningham played a key role off the frozen pond. According to the 1921 edition of The Dome, "Rev. W. F. Cunningham, C.S.C., manager of the team for two seasons, is the man who much of the success can be attributed. Father Cunningham is oblivious to ordinary difficulties and his spirit was the spirit of the team."

Castner was not the only football player to play a key role in the early days of the Notre Dame hockey program. All-America offensive lineman Hunk Anderson was the goaltender on the 1920-21 team.

Anderson was followed by one of the most famous of all Irish athletes, Jim Crowley, who gained fame as the halfback in the Four Horseman backfield. Crowley was a freshman goaltender on the 1921-22 team that went 8-1, but his career was put on ice, so to speak, by legendary football coach Knute Rockne. Crowley recorded a pair of shutouts and turned in a stingy 1.33 goals-against average in his lone season between the Irish pipes.

Following Castner behind the Notre Dame hockey bench was former football All-American Tom Leib. A two-time (1921 and 1922) All-American at right tackle, Leib's teams were 3-8-3 between 1923-26.

The team played one more season in 1926-27 under the guidance of Benjamin Dubois. That team went 3-7-1 before the program, due to lack of a playing venue, ceased competition.

Despite sporadic attempts to revive the program from 1928 through the early 1960s -- including one game in which Heisman Trophy winner Angelo Bertelli was reported to have scored four goals -- Notre Dame hockey would not see consistent action until the 1963-64 season.

THE CLUB YEARS

A club version of hockey began an era at Notre Dame that helped the program eventually reach Division I status. From 1963, until its move to Division I in the 1968-69 season, the Irish sponsored a club hockey program that produced several of the players who would play key roles in the early varsity years of the program in the late '60s.

Around 1960, students organized, and the University recognized, the Notre Dame Hockey Club. Operating as a club sport, the team had a faculty advisor and reported to the director of intramurals and club sports, Dominic Napolitano.

The club began intercollegiate play in the 1963-64 season. Arrangements were made to play on South Bend's artificial rink (Howard Park) and campus-wide tryouts were held. Ralph Cardillo (Guelph, Ont.) served as the first captain and Paul Belliveau (Fitchburg, Mass.) notched the first goal. Playing club teams from Northwestern, Illinois, the Michigan State junior varsity and other Midwest varsity squads, Notre Dame went 0-5-0.

In 1964-65, the club program improved to 5-6-0 under the guidance of coach Richard Bressler. The club also started an intramural program to give other students access to the game of hockey.

Prior to the start of the 1965-66 season, the University's administration determined that hockey was to enter a "transition" period and the program was designated as a "minor sport." That designation was assigned to help the program transition from a club sport to full varsity status. The hockey program came under the direction of Notre Dame vice-president Rev. Edmund P. Joyce, C.S.C., and athletics director Edward "Moose" Krause.

The 1965-66 team began to receive funding from the athletic department and continued to play teams from the Midwest (Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio State) and even branched out to the East Coast, participating in a Christmas tournament at the Boston Garden. Under coach Jerry Paquette, the Irish were 6-9-3.

The program really began to take shape in 1966-67, playing mostly varsity-level programs while still being recognized as a club team. The Irish played in the first collegiate hockey tournament played at Chicago Stadium hosted by the Blackhawks and the Wirtz family. The Irish defeated Illinois in the opening game of the tourney before falling 6-5 in the championship game to Ohio State.

Notre Dame also won the Air Force Invitational at the Broadmoor World Arena on the way to a 14-5-3 record. The Irish were led offensively by Phil Wittliff (Port Huron, Mich.), Belliveau, alternate captain Tom Heiden (St. Paul, Minn.), captain Jim Haley (Boston, Mass.) and defenseman Eric Norri (Virginia, Minn.) and Frank Manning (Detroit, Mich.). Wittliff (who started his Notre Dame career on the football team), Norri and defenseman Dean Daigler (Tonawanda, N.Y.), all would go on to play on the first varsity team in 1968-69. Leo Collins (Fargo, N.D.), Ernie Gargaro (Bloomfield Hills, Mich.) and John Barry (Chicago, Ill.) were the team's goaltenders. Norri and Collins were both members of Notre Dame's 1966 national championship football team while playing tackle and linebacker, respectively. On March 16, 1967, it was announced that the Notre Dame hockey program would move to varsity status in 1968 at the time the new Athletic and Convocation Center was set to open.

In 1967-68, the club team played its final season – turning in a 13-3-0 mark – before making the move to Division I.

THE FIRST VARSITY YEARS

The University hired Charles “Lefty” Smith as the program's first coach for the 1968-69 season and the new Athletic and Convocation Center (later renamed the Joyce Center) opened, giving Notre Dame its first on-campus, indoor rink.

Notre Dame competed as an independent from 1968-71, compiling a record of 50-32-6, providing Smith three seasons to build a competitive program before the Irish became members of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA), beginning with the 1971-72 season.

The Irish opened their decade of play in the WCHA with a 10-16-0 record and qualified for the conference playoffs. The following season saw four years of development pay off as Notre Dame proved it was capable of skating with the top college hockey teams in the nation.

A 31-goal, 65-point effort from Eddie Bumbacco (Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.) led the WCHA in scoring and propelled the Irish to a series sweep of top-ranked Wisconsin. The team's 19-9-0 conference record was good for a second-place finish in 1972-73.

Smith was named WCHA coach of the year, while Bill Nyrop (Edina, Minn.) and Bumbacco became Notre Dame's first hockey All-Americans. The Irish defeated North Dakota 13-3 in a two-game, total-goal WCHA playoff series, but Notre Dame lost to eventual national champion Wisconsin 8-7 in the second round of the conference playoffs.

The Irish remained competitive in the WCHA over the next eight years but could do no better than another second-place finish in 1976-77. Several Notre Dame players gained national notoriety during that time, most notably Jack Brownschidle (East Amherst, N.Y.), who earned All-America honors in 1976 and 1977 and remains the Notre Dame hockey program's only two-time All-American. Brian Walsh (Cambridge, Mass.) earned All-America status and was named the 1976-77 WCHA MVP and Greg Meredith (Toronto, Ont.) earned All-America honors in 1979-80.

Four years later, Notre Dame joined Michigan, Michigan State and Michigan Tech as the newest members of the Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA). In 1981-82, Dave Poulin (Mississauga, Ont.) – a finalist for the Hobey Baker Award – led Notre Dame to a 23-15-2 record, a Great Lakes Invitational championship and a fourth-place finish in the regular-season standings.

THE RETURN TO VARSITY YEARS

Following a first-round playoff series win over Michigan, the Irish defeated Bowling Green 8-5 in the semifinals before falling to Michigan State 4-1 in the title game.

The Irish were unable to sustain that level the next season and struggled to a 13-21-2 record.

Following Notre Dame's loss to Bowling Green in a first-round playoff series, the University announced in the spring of 1983 that it would cease sponsoring varsity hockey. After competing as a club sport during 1983-84, varsity hockey returned to Notre Dame the following season (1984-85) when the Irish began competing as a non-scholarship independent team.

Smith remained at the helm through the end of the 1986-87 campaign, compiling a 19-year record of 307-320-30. The most impressive statistic from the Smith era is that all 126 players who completed their collegiate eligibility earned their college degrees.

In 1987, Smith turned the program over to Ric Schafer (New Brighton, Minn.), a four-time monogram winner for the Irish from '70-'74 and an assistant coach under Smith from 1975-80.

Notre Dame hockey continued as an independent during the first four seasons of Schafer's tenure, but with each year, the schedule became increasingly difficult and soon was littered with CCHA opponents. Schafer convinced the Notre Dame administration to gradually allocate scholarships as the program continued to grow and his efforts culminated with Notre Dame's return to the CCHA for the 1992-93 season.

Prior to stepping down as head coach following the 1994-95 campaign, Schafer compiled a 112-152-15 record over eight seasons and will be remembered as the coach who returned Notre Dame hockey to a competitive Division I level.

In 1995, Notre Dame turned to its most distinguished hockey alumnus to take over behind the bench. Dave Poulin returned to his alma mater following a 13-year career in the National Hockey League. During Poulin's 10-year tenure, Notre Dame made steady improvements and continued to earn national recognition.

In 1998-99, the Irish hosted a first-round CCHA playoff series for the first time since 1982, after spending most of the year ranked in the national top 10. Defenseman Benoit Cotnoir (Rouyn-Noranda, Que.) became the program's seventh All-American.

The following season produced another milestone as the Irish beat Ferris State in the first round of the CCHA playoffs and made their second trip to Joe Louis Arena for the CCHA semifinals.

In 2001-02 and 2002-03, the Irish pulled off playoff upsets and advanced to Joe Louis and the CCHA Super Six. In a five-year span, from 1999-00 to 2003-04, Notre Dame made it to Joe Louis Arena four times (2000, 2002, 2003, 2004).

In 2001-02, the Irish upset higher-seeded Nebraska-Omaha in a series that featured a 3-2 double-overtime loss to the Mavericks, followed by one-goal wins in games two and three.

The following year, the Irish traveled to higher-seeded Miami (Ohio) and – after dropping the first game, 4-2 – saw goaltender Morgan Cey (Wilkie, Sask.) spin back-to-back shutouts (a first in Notre Dame history), winning 1-0 and 5-0 to advance to “the Joe” again.

The 2003-04 season saw the Irish turn in their first 20-win season (20-15-4) since 1987-88, with a fourth-place finish (14-11-3) in the CCHA. The Irish played host to regional rival Western Michigan, winning the playoff series two games to one.

Notre Dame did not have much success at the CCHA Super Six, losing in the opening game each year – to Northern Michigan (3-1) in ‘01-’02 and Ohio State (3-2 and 6-5 in overtime) in ‘02-’03 and ‘03-’04 respectively.

The highly successful 2003-04 season ended with the Irish being selected to participate in their first NCAA Championship on the strength of a 5-1-1 record versus teams ranked in the top five during the regular season.

Notre Dame faced two-time defending NCAA champion Minnesota in the opening game at Van Andel Arena in Grand Rapids, Mich. After taking a 2-0 first-period lead, the Irish fell to the Gophers 5-2, but Notre Dame had finally arrived on the national level.

Following a disappointing 2004-05 season (5-27-6), Poulin stepped down as head coach, turning over the reins to Jeff Jackson, who has continued to take the Irish to national success.

In his first season at the helm, Jackson and his staff saw solid improvement as the team improved to 13-19-4 overall and earned home ice in the first round of the CCHA tournament with an 11-13-4 conference record.

Jackson’s second year behind the bench saw the Irish turn in the finest season in program history. With a veteran squad led by eight seniors, including first-team All-America -- the eighth All-American in school history -- goaltender David Brown (Stoney Creek, Ont.), Notre Dame compiled a school-record 32 wins on the way to a 32-7-3 mark and won its first CCHA regular-season title with a 21-4-3 league record.

Along the way, Jackson’s squad achieved the first No. 1 ranking in school history and was the top team in the nation for seven consecutive weeks from Feb. 5 to March 23.

The Irish swept Alaska (7-1, 3-1) in the second round to move to the CCHA semifinals.

In Detroit, Brown blanked Lake Superior 3-0 in the semis and the Irish knocked off Michigan 2-1 in the championship game for the school’s first CCHA tournament championship.

Notre Dame made its second NCAA Championship appearance at Grand Rapids, Mich., this time as the Midwest Regional’s top seed. There, the Irish won their first NCAA game, a 3-2 double-overtime thriller (at the time the longest game in program history - 94:32) versus Alabama-Huntsville. The dream season came to an end the following night in a heartbreaking 2-1 loss to eventual NCAA champion Michigan State.

In 2007-08, Notre Dame went one step further, advancing to the NCAA Frozen Four where the Irish fell in the national championship game 4-1 to Boston College.

They finished the year with a 27-16-4 overall record and were 15-9-4 in the CCHA, good for fourth place. Late-season scoring struggles almost cost Notre Dame an NCAA bid, but the Irish made it in as the final at-large team in the tournament.

In the West Regional at Colorado Springs, Colo., the Irish found the goal-scoring touch as they dispatched the region’s top-seed, New Hampshire 7-3 and then bounced Michigan State with a 3-1 win.

Notre Dame became the first No. 4 seed to make the NCAA Frozen Four and would face the nation’s top-ranked team, Michigan, in the semifinals at the Pepsi Center in Denver, Colo. Freshman left wing Calle Ridderwall (Stockholm, Sweden) became an overnight Irish hero when his goal at 5:44 of overtime sent Michigan home with a 5-4 loss and the Irish to the title game versus Boston College.

Jackson’s fourth season behind the bench in 2008-09 saw the Irish win their second CCHA regular-season and tournament championship with a 31-6-3 overall mark and a 21-4-3-3 in conference play. From Oct. 31 to Jan. 17, Notre Dame set a school record with a 20-game unbeaten streak (17-0-3).

During the season, Notre Dame spent seven weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation. The Irish were led by goaltender Jordan Pearce (Anchorage, Alaska) who led the nation in wins (30) and shutouts (eight) with a stingy 1.68 goals-against average. In the CCHA playoffs, Pearce blanked Nebraska-Omaha in back-to-back quarterfinal games to advance Notre Dame to its third straight trip to the CCHA championship at Joe Louis Arena.

In Detroit, the Irish won their second CCHA title, stopping Northern Michigan 2-1 in the semifinals before rallying from a 2-0 deficit versus Michigan in the championship game on the way to a 5-2 win.

In the NCAA Championship, the Irish were the top seed in the Midwest Regional at Grand Rapids, Mich., and were upset in the opening round in a 5-1 loss to Bemidji State.

Defenseman Ian Cole (Ann Arbor, Mich.) and forward Erik Condra (Livonia, Mich.) became the ninth and 10th Irish Notre Dame players to be named All-Americans following the season.

Following a disappointing 2009-10 season that was marred by injuries, the Irish returned to the top of the national scene in 2010-11 by advancing to the NCAA Frozen Four for the second time.

Notre Dame turned in a 25-14-5 overall record and a second-place finish in the CCHA. After winning the NCAA Northeast Regional with wins over Merrimack (4-3 in overtime) and New Hampshire (2-1), the Irish faced off in St. Paul, Minn., versus Minnesota-Duluth in the NCAA semifinals.

At the Xcel Energy Center, the Bulldogs prevailed with a 4-3 win against Notre Dame on the way to an overtime win versus Michigan in the national title game.

The program achieved a first in 2010-11 as freshman T.J. Tynan (Orland Park, Ill.) led the nation's rookies in scoring and, besides being the Irish and CCHA rookie of the year, was named the Hockey Commissioner's Association's (HCA) national rookie of the year.

In October 2011, the Notre Dame hockey program entered a new era on two fronts. First, on Oct. 5, it was announced that beginning with the 2013-14 season, the Irish would become the 11th member of Hockey East. The move came about due to the start of the Big Ten hockey conference and the beginning of the new National College Hockey Conference that signalled the end of the CCHA.

Second, on Oct. 21, 2011, the Notre Dame hockey program opened the brand new Compton Family Ice Arena. Behind an Anders Lee (Edina, Minn.) hat trick, the Irish dispatched the R.P.I. Engineers, 5-2, in front of a sell-out crowd of 5,022, the largest to ever watch Notre Dame hockey in South Bend.

The Irish would win their first five games at their new home, including a dramatic 3-2 overtime win versus Boston College in the dedication game on Nov. 18.

Notre Dame experienced plenty of ups and downs during the 2011-12 season, opening the year ranked No. 1 in the preseason polls, finishing 19-18-3 overall and eighth in the CCHA race. Tynan highlighted the season by becoming a first team all-CCHA selection while being the conference's co-leader in scoring.

In the final season of play for the CCHA, Notre Dame went out in style, winning the final Mason Cup championship with a pair of 3-1 wins over Ohio State and Michigan at Joe Louis Arena. The Irish were 25-13-3 overall and finished second in the regular-season standings. Lee paced the Irish (20g, 18a) on his way to becoming Notre Dame's 11th hockey All-American while Steven Summerhays (Anchorage, Alaska) turned in a 20-win season in goal.

The No. 1 seed in the NCAA Midwest Regional, Notre Dame dropped a first-round game to St. Cloud State by a 5-1 margin.

In 2013-14, the Irish opened play in their new conference -- Hockey East. They finished 9-9-2 in league play in the first season and 23-15-2 overall. Led by Summerhays' stellar goaltending (he led the nation with seven shutouts), Notre Dame upset regular-season winner Boston College in the Hockey East quarterfinals to advance to TD Garden and the league championship series. There, the Irish fell to UMass Lowell 4-0 but qualified for the NCAA Championship. As the No. 2 seed in the West Regional, Notre Dame saw its season come to an end with a heartbreaking, 4-3 overtime loss to St. Cloud State.

In 2014-15, the Irish closed the season strong to finish fifth in Hockey East (10-7-5), earning a first-round home series versus UMass. In game one, the Irish and Minutemen played the longest game in NCAA Div. I history (150:22), as UMass skated away with a 4-3 quintuple overtime win. But Notre Dame bounced back and took the series, two games to one. Then-freshman goaltender Cal Petersen (Waterloo, Iowa) made an NCAA Div. I record 87 saves. Notre Dame then fell at UMass Lowell in the quarterfinals. Following the season, defenseman

Robbie Russo (Westmont, Illinois) was named a Second Team (East) All-American after tying for the national lead for goals scored (15) by a defenseman and finishing second nationally in points by a blue liner (41).

The Irish ended their Hockey East tenure with a trip to the semifinal game in which they fell to UMass Lowell 5-1. The 2016-17 season also saw the Irish head back to the NCAA tournament for the ninth time in program history and their eighth trip with Jackson behind the bench, dating back to 2006. Jackson guided the team past Minnesota and UMass Lowell en route to Chicago where the Denver Pioneers eventually proved too much for the Irish in the Frozen Four, ending their season with a final record of 23-12-5.

The team started their inaugural season in the Big Ten conference sweeping all conference opponents in their first meetings as members of the Big Ten. After starting the season 3-3-1, the Irish went on a 16-game win-streak, the longest winning-streak in program history. The streak propelled them to the regular season Big Ten title as well as home-ice advantage throughout the Big Ten playoff race. Holding off Penn State in the semi-finals when Jack Jenkins scored the winning tally with 31 seconds remaining, the team welcomed Ohio State to town for the Big Ten Championship. Cam Morrison scored the game-winner for the Irish in overtime, clinching the post-season title in their first season as a member of the Big Ten.

Following the two conference titles, the Irish made their third consecutive berth in the NCAA tournament and second straight Frozen Four appearance. Defeating Michigan Tech in overtime and Providence in the waning seconds of regulation, the team made the trip to St. Paul, Minnesota for the Frozen Four. There, they topped Big Ten foe Michigan when senior captain Jake Evans snuck one through the five-hole with less than six seconds remaining in the third period. The goal secured a team trip to the Frozen Four National Championship, the second in program history.

In 13 seasons behind the Notre Dame bench, Jackson has seen his teams record a 274-166-54 mark, both a regular season and post-season Big Ten Championship, two regular-season CCHA titles, three Mason Cup championships, six trips to the NCAA Tournament and four Frozen Four visits.

Recognition for Notre Dame hockey though has continued to grow. In the first 49 years of the program, NHL teams have drafted 84 Irish players, including five in the 2007 and 2010 Entry Drafts. Since 2007, Notre Dame has seen three of its players selected in the first round.

The 2017-18 campaign saw eight former Notre Dame players see ice time with NHL teams. Thirty-one former Irish players have worn NHL jerseys with six of them -- Nyrop (three times with Montreal), defenseman Don Jackson (three times with Edmonton), Brett Lebda (with Detroit in 2007-08), Mark Eaton (Pittsburgh in 2008-09), Ian Cole (twice with Pittsburgh 2016-17) and Bryan Rust (twice with Pittsburgh 2016-17) -- drinking from the Stanley Cup.

2004 NCAA TOURNAMENT

MIDWEST REGIONAL

March 27, 2004 – Grand Rapids, Mich.

	1	2	3	F
#13 Notre Dame (20-15-4)	2	0	0	2
#3 Minnesota (27-13-3)	0	3	2	5

The Notre Dame hockey team made its first NCAA Championship appearance at Van Andel Championship Arena in Grand Rapids, Mich. The opponent was the two-time defending national champion and third-ranked Minnesota Golden Gophers.

The Irish jumped out to a 2-0 first-period lead on goals by Cory McLean and Aaron Gill only to see the Gophers score five unanswered goals on the way to a 5-2 win over Notre Dame.

Sophomore All-American Thomas Vanek led Minnesota's comeback with two goals and an assist. Matt Koalska, Danny Irmen (ppg) and Troy Riddle also scored for the Gophers.

The Irish got on the scoreboard just 54 seconds into the contest as McLean teamed with Gill on a two-on-one to beat Minnesota goaltender Kellen Briggs for McLean's 10th goal of the year.

Notre Dame took advantage of a Minnesota penalty late in the first period and made it 2-0 at 19:18 on the power play. Rob Globke and Mike Walsh set up Gill's team-high ninth power-play goal of the year on a redirection past Briggs for Gill's 17th of the year.

Koalska cut the lead in half to open the middle stanza with a goal just 26 seconds into the period.

The powerful Gopher offense would even the score at 9:13 when Irmen steered a bouncing puck past Morgan Cey for a power-play tally to make it 2-2.

Vanek put the Gophers ahead 3-2 at 16:24 when he poked a loose puck past Cey for his first goal of the game.

The talented Vanek sealed the win at 11:52 of the final period when he beat Cey on a wrap-around goal to make it 4-2.

Riddle closed out the scoring for Minnesota with an empty-net goal at 19:24 to end Notre Dame's season.

Cey equaled a season high with 40 saves. Briggs made 20 saves in the Minnesota goal.

2007 NCAA TOURNAMENT

MIDWEST REGIONAL

March 23, 2007 – Grand Rapids, Mich.

	1	2	3	OT	2OT	F
Alabama-Huntsville(13-20-3)	0	2	0	0	0	2
#3 Notre Dame (32-6-3)	2	0	0	0	1	3

For over 94 minutes, Notre Dame and Alabama-Huntsville battled tooth and nail, looking for that one scoring chance to end the contest.

This time the luck of the Irish was in full force as freshman Ryan Thang drilled a shot from the left wing circle that beat Charger goaltender Marc Narduzzi to give Notre Dame the 3-2 win in the longest game in Irish hockey history at the time.

The win also was the first NCAA Tournament victory in Irish hockey history and advanced Notre Dame to the Midwest Regional final to face Michigan State.

Notre Dame got off to a fast start, scoring a pair of goals in the first five minutes of the game as senior left wing Josh Sciba scored just 3:18 into the game. Thang followed with his first goal of the night at 4:26 when he took a feed from Erik Condra and ripped a low shot that beat Blake MacNicol, giving the Irish a 2-0 lead. The goal sent MacNicol to the UAH bench in favor of Marc Narduzzi.

Alabama Huntsville got back in the game at 10:20 of the second period as Dominick Rozman's shot deflected off an Irish defenseman past David Brown to cut the Notre Dame lead to 2-1.

The Chargers got the equalizer at 16:06 when Cale Tanaka fired a shot from the slot that beat Brown to the upper corner.

From there the goaltenders took over. Brown finished with 28 saves in the game while Narduzzi made 49 saves, giving up just one goal.

The Irish got the game-winner via the power play. Defensemen Brett Blatchford and Kyle Lawson played catch at the point until Lawson slid a pass to the left wing boards where Thang took the puck and whipped a shot over Narduzzi's blocker for the game winner.

Thang's goal was his 20th of the season and set off a wild celebration on the ice as the Irish had their first NCAA Championship win and lived to play another day.

MIDWEST REGIONAL FINAL

March 24, 2007 – Grand Rapids, Mich.

	1	2	3	F
#10 Michigan State (24-13-3)0	1	1	2
#1 Notre Dame (32-7-3)	0	0	1	1

The 2006-07 Notre Dame hockey season will go down as the one of the best in the program's history as the Irish set record after record on the way to a 32-7-3 final tally. The ride came to an end, though, as CCHA foe Michigan State handed the Irish a 2-1 loss in the NCAA Midwest Regional championship game.

Chris Mueller and Tim Kennedy scored power-play goals for the Spartans while junior Evan Rankin scored Notre Dame's lone goal in the loss.

The regional championship got off to a slow start as the two teams tried to get a read on each other. The game would remain scoreless after one period of play.

Michigan State finally broke through at 6:04 of the second period as Mueller stuffed a rebound on the power play past David Brown for a 1-0 lead.

The lead would go to 2-0 on another power-play chance at 5:59 of the third period.

Working the puck behind the net, Kennedy walked in front and tucked the puck between Brown's pads for his 17th goal of the year.

Notre Dame finally broke through on Michigan State goaltender Jeff Lerg at 14:52 of the third. Defenseman Brett Blatchford fired a shot on goal that went off of Rankin and past Lerg, cutting the lead to 2-1. For Rankin, the goal was his fourth of the season.

The Irish got several chances in the waning moments as Brown was pulled for the final 1:15 of the game in favor of a sixth attacker, but Notre Dame could not score.

Defenseman Wes O'Neill and forward Ryan Thang were selected to the all-regional team from Notre Dame. They were joined by Michigan State forwards Tim Kennedy and Chris Mueller, defenseman Tyler Howells and goaltender Jeff Lerg. Lerg was named regional Most Valuable Player.

2008 NCAA TOURNAMENTWEST REGIONAL

March 28, 2008 – Colorado Springs, Colo.

	1	2	3	F
#12 Notre Dame	2	2	3	7
#4 New Hampshire	0	2	1	3

For most of the second half of the 2007-08 season, the Notre Dame Fighting Irish struggled to score goals. The struggles came to an end at the World Arena in the first semifinal of the NCAA West Regional.

Notre Dame got seven goals from six different players as the Irish advanced to the West Regional final with a 7-3 win over top-seeded New Hampshire.

Junior Christian Hanson scored two goals while Ian Cole (ppg), Kyle Lawson (ppg), Dan Kissel, Ryan Thang and Kevin Deeth had single goals in the win.

New Hampshire got two goals from Jerry Pollastrone and one from Phil DeSimone while James vanRiemsdyck added three assists in the game.

The win improved Notre Dame to 25-15-4 on the year while fourth-ranked New Hampshire ended its season with a 25-10-3 mark.

Pollastrone gave the Wildcats a 1-0 lead at 1:04 of the first as he fired a rebound shot past Jordan Pearce.

The Irish answered 58 seconds later on the power play when Cole drilled a wrist shot through Kevin Regan's pads to tie the game at the 2:02 mark.

UNH made it 2-1 at 5:41 when Pollastrone got his second of the period and the game, beating Pearce on a rebound to make it 2-1.

Notre Dame tied the score at 2-2 with a power-play goal at 17:25. Thang set up Lawson at the right point and the sophomore defenseman drilled a wrist past Regan for his fifth of the year.

The Irish took the lead for good at 2:39 of the second period as Hanson scored his 11th goal of the year off a Stewart Carlin rebound to make it 3-2.

The lead would go to 4-2 on a tremendous individual short-handed effort by Kissel as he stickhandled through three UNH defenders and fired a shot inside the left post at 9:53 for his ninth goal of the season.

New Hampshire came right back and cut the lead to 4-3 when DeSimone scored at 13:09.

Notre Dame restored the two-goal lead just 23 seconds into the third as Thang drilled one of his patented wrist shots past Regan for his 17th goal of the year and a 5-3 lead.

With less than four minutes left in the game and the teams skating four on four, UNH pulled its goaltender, with Deeth scoring on a rebound to make it 6-3 with 3:06.

Regan was again pulled with under three minutes left in the game and Hanson closed the scoring at 17:54 with his second of the night for the final of 7-3.

New Hampshire outshot Notre Dame 35-34. Pearce finished the night with 32 saves while Regan had 27.

#9 Michigan State	0	1	0	1

The Notre Dame hockey team earned its first trip to the Frozen Four with a 3-1 win over Michigan State in the championship game of the NCAA West Regional at the Colorado Springs World Arena.

The Fighting Irish became the first team seeded fourth in a regional to advance to the NCAA Frozen Four and avenged their 2-1 loss to the Spartans in the '06-'07 Midwest Regional final.

Christian Hanson, Mark Van Guilder and Teddy Ruth scored for Notre Dame in the victory with Van Guilder getting the game-winner with 5:54 remaining in the third period.

Michigan State dominated play early in the game but could not get the puck past goaltender Jordan Pearce who stopped all 10 first-period shots.

Hanson broke through on the scoreboard for the Irish at 2:43 of the second stanza when he stuffed a rebound past Spartan goaltender Jeff Lerg. That gave Hanson three goals and an assist in the two games and earned him a spot on the all-regional team.

Michigan State's Justin Abdelkader banged a laser off the crossbar three minutes later, then tied the game with 10:55 to play in the period when he put a one-timer from the left circle behind Pearce to make it 1-1.

The game would remain that way until Van Guilder snapped the tie with just under six minutes left in the game. He took a pass from Ben Ryan and beat Lerg inside the near post with wrist shot from the slot.

The Irish added an insurance goal just 1:14 later when Ruth put a slap shot past Lerg high on the glove side with assists to Justin White and Hanson.

The Notre Dame defense played a huge role in both victories. The Irish blocked 12 shots in the victory over Michigan State University and killed all four Spartan power plays and all nine in the two regional games.

Pearce allowed just one goal on 21 Michigan State shots and had 32 saves in the victory over New Hampshire, posting back-to-back victories over Hobey Baker semifinalists Lerg and Kevin Regan.

Van Guilder, Hanson and defenseman Brock Sheahan were selected to the NCAA West Regional all-tournament team with Van Guilder being named Most Outstanding Player.

Ridderwall came into the game with three goals in his rookie season, but he saved some of his best play of the year for college hockey's biggest stage as he also scored the opening goal in the first period. He was joined on the Irish side of the scoresheet by Mark Van Guilder, Ryan Thang and Kevin Deeth. Chad Kolarik scored twice for Michigan with Matt Rust and Carl Hagelin getting single goals in the loss.

Ridderwall opened the scoring just five minutes into the game when he rifled a shot over Michigan goaltender Billy Sauer's right shoulder for his fourth goal of the year.

Just 42 seconds later, the Irish had a 2-0 lead when Thang dropped a pass for Van Guilder who ripped a shot from the left circle under Sauer's left arm for his 13th of the season at 5:42.

Thang took his turn at 19:25 of the first period when he scored a brilliant short-handed goal, beating the Wolverine defense at the blueline, then flipping a backhander over Sauer's blocker for his 18th goal of the year and a 3-0 Irish lead.

Sauer was replaced by Bryan Hogan in the Michigan goal to start the second period and he held the Irish at bay until the Wolverines could get back in the game.

They would score twice in a 15-second span midway through the middle period to get back in the game. Kolarik scored his first of the night at 8:48 with a wrist shot over the left shoulder of Notre Dame goaltender Jordan Pearce.

Seconds later, Rust redirected an Aaron Palushaj pass from the left corner behind Pearce at 9:03 to make it a 3-2 game after two periods.

The Wolverines would get the equalizer on the power play at 2:16 of the third period as Kolarik scored his second of the game off his own rebound for his 30th goal of the year.

The Irish grabbed the lead back with 8:30 remaining in the game as Dan Kissel and Deeth combined on a two-on-one play. Kissel put a pass on Deeth's stick and the sophomore center cut in front of the goal, chipping a shot over Hogan for his 10th goal of the season to give Notre Dame the 4-3 lead.

Michigan answered back, tying the game at 4-4 at 14:39 when Hagelin won the race to a loose puck in the Irish zone and fired a shot from the goal line that somehow found its way between Pearce's pad and the near post to send the game into overtime.

That set up Ridderwall's overtime heroics. White dropped a pass to the right point to defenseman Dan VeNard. The senior blueliner drilled a low shot on goal that Hogan stopped with the rebound sliding to the slot. Ridderwall was there and put his head down driving the puck past Hogan to set off a wild celebration on the Pepsi Center ice with the 5-4 Notre Dame win.

The win was the first in overtime for the Irish during the 2007-08 season and their first since defeating Alabama-Huntsville in the 2006-07 NCAA Championship.

Pearce made 29 saves in the victory while Hogan stopped 18-of-20 shots in 45:44 minutes. Sauer finished with six saves in the first 20 minutes of action.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

#5 Notre Dame	0	1	0	1
#3 Boston College	0	3	1	4

The Notre Dame hockey team ventured where no other Irish hockey squad had ever been. It faced off in the NCAA Frozen Four championship game against Boston College at the Pepsi Center in Denver, Colo.

The Irish ran into a red-hot Nathan Gerbe as the third-ranked Eagles ended Notre Dame's season with a 4-1 loss in front of a sell-out crowd of 18,632. Gerbe scored twice and assisted on Boston College's other two goals on his way to a four-point game and Most Valuable Player honors. Kevin Deeth scored the lone goal for the Irish who finished the year with a 27-16-4 record.

Both teams had chances in a tightly-played first period that led to the fourth scoreless opening frame in NCAA title game history (also 1968, 2001 and 2007). Boston College ended up with a 7-4 shot advantage in the opening 20 minutes, while Notre Dame went on the power play three times in the period, coming up empty on all three.

The Eagles snapped the scoreless tie just 2:23 into the second period, converting an Irish turnover into a goal. Brian Gibbons forced the turnover and found Gerbe inside the left circle where he whipped a shot over Jordan Pearce's left shoulder for his 34th goal of the year.

Gerbe was at it less than three minutes later, this time on a Boston College power play. Ben Smith's shot from the slot was wide of the goal but rebounded off the back dasherboards into the crease where the Eagles' top scorer was there to jam the rebound past Pearce for a 2-0 lead at 5:37.

Boston College made it 3-0 at 8:11 of the second period, converting a second power-play chance, this time with a four-on-three advantage. Joe Whitney did the honors as he took a feed from Gerbe at the top of the slot and drove a slapshot past Pearce for his 11th goal of the year.

The Irish finally broke through just over a minute later at 9:07 when Deeth took a feed from defenseman Kyle Lawson and snapped a shot past Eagles' goaltender John Muse to cut the lead to 3-1 after two periods of play.

Notre Dame looked like it had cut the margin to 3-2 just 4:56 into the third period. Ian Cole's centering pass got caught up in Lawson's skates near the right post and deflected toward the goal, trickling past Muse and over the goal line. Although it was ruled a goal on the ice by referee Todd Anderson, video replay official Greg Shepherd overturned the score after a lengthy delay, ruling the puck was apparently propelled into the net by Lawson's skate in a distinct kicking motion.

The no-goal call took on added significance less than a minute later when Boston College scored to make it a 4-1 game. Gerbe tracked down the puck behind the net and threw a centering pass back in front for Smith, who fanned on his shot attempt but got enough of the bouncing biscuit for it to knuckle over Pearce's shoulder at 5:31 of the period for the final score of 4-1.

Pearce finished with 19 saves in goal while Muse stopped 20 in the game. The Irish were zero-for-eight on the power play while Boston College was able to convert on two of four tries.

Pearce finished the year with 23 wins and the team's 27 wins were the second most in the program's history. Lawson and Deeth were selected to the Frozen Four all-tournament team.

#2 Notre Dame	0	0	1	1

The Fighting Irish made their third consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament, this time as the No. 1 seed at the Midwest Regional, facing Bemidji State. For Notre Dame, everything that could go wrong did, at Van Andel Arena, as the Irish were upset by the Beavers in a 5-1 loss.

Ranked second in the nation coming into the regional, the loss ended Notre Dame's season with a 31-6-3 record. Bemidji went on to win the regional and advance to its first NCAA Frozen Four.

The first Bemidji goal set the tone for the entire game. The Beavers dumped the puck behind the Irish net, where senior goaltender Jordan Pearce came out to play it. The puck took a funny bounce off the back dasher, then caromed off the side of the goal and back into the crease at the right post. As Pearce scrambled to get back in his net, Bemidji State's Chris McKelvie came charging in from the right wing and chopped at the puck, muscling it over the line just 1:42 into the contest.

The Beavers made it 2-0 at 11:03 of the first when Tyler Schofield scored on a power-play deflection between Pearce's pads.

Notre Dame had its chances in the first period, outshooting Bemidji by an 11-7 margin.

The lead went to 3-0 in the second period when Ben Kinne's shot from the point caromed through a crowd behind Pearce at 13:19.

The Irish would start the third period on the power play, but their hopes would die just 49 seconds into the third period when Matt Read blasted a slapshot from the top of the right circle over Pearce's blocker to give the Beavers a 4-0 lead.

Notre Dame would finally get on the board at 6:02 when Dan Kissel buried a shot past Bemidji goaltender Matt Dalton from the left circle for his sixth goal of the year to cut the lead to 4-1.

The Irish pulled Pearce with just under four minutes left in favor of a sixth attacker only to see the Beavers win a big faceoff before Schofield fired a loose puck into an empty net for the final margin of 5-1.

Pearce finished the game with 14 saves while Dalton made 34 stops in the Bemidji net.

After missing the NCAA Championship in 2010, Notre Dame returned to postseason action in 2011 at the Northeast Regional in Manchester, N.H., as the third seed at the Verizon Wireless Arena.

The Irish opened the tournament future Hockey East foe Merrimack and the Warriors saw Notre Dame rally from a pair of two-goal deficits to win in overtime 4-3 to advance to the regional final.

Freshman left wing Anders Lee led the way for the Irish, recording two goals, including the overtime game winner 5:18 into the extra stanza for the win. Junior Billy Maday and senior Calle Ridderwall added single goals in the victory.

Merrimack got goals from Kyle Bigos, Ryan Flanigan and Rhett Bly, as the Warriors led 2-0 in the first period and 3-1 midway through the second. Notre Dame outshot the Warriors 37-35. Irish goaltender Mike Johnson made 32 saves while Merrimack's Joe Cannata had 33.

The victory improved the ninth-ranked Irish to 24-13-5 while seventh-ranked Merrimack closed its season with a 25-10-4 mark.

The Warriors jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first period, scoring once on the power play and once short-handed.

Bigos opened the scoring at 13:23 when he managed to jam a loose puck in the crease past Johnson for his second goal of the season.

Merrimack got its second goal of the night as Flanigan teamed with Stephane DeCosta on a two-on-one short-handed goal at 16:00 for the 2-0 lead.

The Irish answered 27 seconds later on the power play as Ridderwall ripped a shot from between the hashmarks, beating Cannata for his 15th goal of the season.

Merrimack built the lead to 3-1 at 2:58 of the middle stanza as Bly backhanded a shot over Johnson.

Notre Dame cut the lead to 3-2 at 13:29 when Lee fired a wrist shot over Cannata's glove hand and into the upper right corner. Bryan Rust cleared the puck out of the Irish zone from the right boards to Lee who raced down the left side and fired from the top of the left circle, scoring his team-high 23rd goal of the season.

The Irish got the equalizer at 5:32 of the third period as Maday drove to the goal and was able to get a stick on the puck and push it through the goaltender's pads for his ninth goal of the season and a 3-3 tie.

While the Irish ended regulation with the momentum, Merrimack came out flying in the extra stanza putting the pressure on the Notre Dame goal with six shots in the first five minutes.

Lee would get the game winner at 5:18 on pure hustle and a little bit of luck. Off a faceoff, the Irish threw the puck into the Merrimack zone where a Warrior defender skated behind the goal with Lee in pursuit. As the defenseman cut inside at the right post, Lee took a swing at the puck and deflected it past Cannata to give Notre Dame its first and only lead of the night and the win.

For the third time in five trips to the NCAA Championship, Notre Dame played in a regional championship game, this time facing New Hampshire at Verizon Wireless Arena in Manchester, N.H.

Sophomore goaltender Mike Johnson stopped 37 of 38 shots and got goals from Stephen Johns and Billy Maday as the Fighting Irish downed the Wildcats 2-1 to send Notre Dame to the NCAA Frozen Four for the second time in the program's 43-year history.

Johnson held the Wildcats off the scoreboard early in the game and then withstood their third-period comeback attempt. The Verona, Wis., native finished the weekend with 69 saves and a pair of wins.

The lone New Hampshire goal came with 6:23 left in the game and was scored by Mike Sislo.

The victory improved ninth-ranked Notre Dame to 25-13-5 overall while 11th-ranked New Hampshire finished the year with a 22-11-6 mark.

Following a television timeout at the 7:11 mark of the first period, the Irish got their second shot of the period and it found the back of the Wildcat net.

Johns got Notre Dame on the scoreboard at 7:26 of the first as he hammered a shot from the center point past netminder Matt DiGirolamo's stick hand for the 1-0 lead.

With time running down in the second, Riley Sheahan centered a pass from the New Hampshire goal line. The puck found Maday at the bottom of the left circle where he got off a backhander that beat DiGirolamo at 19:55 to give the Irish a 2-0 lead. The goal was Maday's second of the weekend and 10th of the season.

New Hampshire broke through on Johnson, snapping his shutout bid at 13:37 of the third period, on a goal by Sislo from right in front to cut Notre Dame's lead to 2-1.

From there the Irish held off the Wildcats, including a penalty kill in the final four minutes.

Notre Dame was outshot by New Hampshire 38-36. DiGirolamo finished with 34 saves in the Wildcat goal.

The win improved the Irish to 6-4 all-time in NCAA Championship games.

Four Notre Dame players were selected to the all-Northeast Regional Team. Johnson was selected as the all-tourney goaltender with Johns on defense. Maday and Anders Lee were selected as forwards on the squad with Johnson being named MVP of the tournament.

Notre Dame made its second trip to the NCAA Frozen Four in four seasons and opened versus Minnesota-Duluth at the Xcel Energy Center in St.

Paul, Minn.

The Bulldogs used three power-play goals to dash Irish national championship hopes on the way to a 4-3 win to end Notre Dame's outstanding 2010-11 season.

J.T. Brown, Mike Connolly and Jack Connolly scored on the power play and Kyle Schmidt added the fourth goal for the Bulldogs.

The Irish got goals from Jeff Costello, T.J. Tynan and Calle Ridderwall (shg) as they had leads of 1-0 and 2-1 in the game but could not hold on to either advantage.

The loss ended fourth-ranked Notre Dame's season with a 25-14-5 mark while Minnesota-Duluth moved on to face Michigan in the title game.

The Irish got off to a fast start in the game as Costello whipped a wrist shot from the top of the right circle past Bulldog goaltender Kenny Rieter just 49 seconds into the game for a 1-0 lead. Costello's 12th goal of the season became the quickest for the Irish in NCAA postseason action.

Duluth answered with the first of three power-play goals at 3:04 when Brown turned and fired a shot from the left circle that beat Mike Johnson through his pads for his 16th goal of the season.

The Irish answered less than six minutes later on Tynan's 23rd goal of the season at 9:46. Ryan Guentzel fired a shot wide but the puck came off the boards to Tynan on the goal line. The freshman center tucked a shot inside the right post to give the Irish a 2-1 lead.

Just 1:06 later, the Bulldogs got their lone even-strength goal when Schmidt broke down the left side and beat Johnson with a shot to the short side for his 10th of the year at 10:52 to tie the game at 2-2.

Minnesota-Duluth took the lead for good at 13:31 via the power play when Mike Connolly whipped a shot from the between the hash marks past Johnson for a 3-2 lead.

The second period saw the Bulldogs score their third of the night on the power play. This time, Jack Connolly beat Johnson from the right face-off dot at 5:51 to give the Bulldogs a 4-2 lead.

The Irish got back in the game in the third as Ridderwall hammered his 16th goal of the year past Reiter, this one short-handed at 2:05, to cut the Duluth lead to 4-3 with plenty of time left in the contest.

Notre Dame carried the play in the third, out shooting Minnesota-Duluth 15-2 in the period but could not score again in the game.

The Irish had a 34-21 edge in shots. Reiter finished with 31 saves while Johnson had 17. The Bulldogs were three for six on the power play while Notre Dame was zero for five.

#11 St. Cloud State	1	3	1	5
#4 Notre Dame	0	0	1	1

Notre Dame returned to the NCAA Championship after missing out in 2011-12 and ran into a buzzsaw in St. Cloud State as the Huskies ended the season for the Irish with a 5-1 win.

Joey Benik scored a pair of power-play goals and St. Cloud State got single goals from Ben Hanowski, Cory Thorson and Jonny Brodzinski in the win. Mike Voran scored Notre Dame's lone goal of the game.

The loss ended the season for the Irish with a 25-13-3 overall record and snapped a six-game winning streak in March and a nine-game unbeaten streak (7-0-2) that started on Feb. 17.

St. Cloud State opened the scoring at 11:32 of the opening period as Hanowski scored his 17th goal of the season past Irish starter Steven Summerhays to make it 1-0.

The Irish looked like they tied the game just 28 seconds later when Anders Lee put the rebound of a Peter Schneider shot past St. Cloud goaltender Ryan Faragher. The officials went to the replay and ruled that Lee had directed the puck past Faragher with his foot and waved the goal off.

The second stanza belonged to St. Cloud State as the Huskies scored three times to open a 4-0 lead after 40 minutes of play.

Benik gave St. Cloud a 2-0 lead at 9:28 of the second period when he scored on the power play.

The lead would go to 3-0 at 13:35 when Thorson tucked a shot between Summerhays' pads for his 11th goal of the year.

Brodzinski, St. Cloud's leading goal scorer on the year, closed out the period with his 22nd of the season at 14:43 to make it a 4-0 game.

Mike Johnson replaced Summerhays in goal to start the third as the Notre Dame starter finished with 14 saves.

The Irish killed three consecutive penalties and held St. Cloud State off the scoreboard while finally breaking through on Faragher with a short-handed goal at 7:44 to make it a 4-1 game.

With the Huskies applying pressure in the Irish zone, Bryan Rust broke up a pass and carried the puck to the top of the left circle in the St. Cloud State zone. There he fired a shot at Faragher. The sophomore made the stop but Voran fired the rebound over his glove for his fifth of the year.

The Huskies then closed out the scoring with their second power-play goal of the night, with Benik banging a rebound past Johnson for his fifth of the season at 11:07 for the 5-1 final.

The Huskies were two for seven on the power play while the Irish had just one chance and did not convert.

St. Cloud State outshot Notre Dame 23-18 in the game. Faragher made 17 saves in picking up the victory. Johnson made four saves in the final 20 minutes of the game.

For the second consecutive year, Notre Dame advanced to the NCAA Championship and would face the St. Cloud State Huskies in the opening game. And, for the second consecutive year, St. Cloud State would end the season for the Irish, this time with a dramatic, 4-3, overtime loss at Xcel Energy Center.

Senior center Nic Dowd whipped a wrist shot from the left wing circle over Irish goaltender Steven Summerhays' glove at 17:21 of the first overtime to give the Huskies the dramatic win 4-3 in a game that saw Notre Dame come from behind three times to force the extra stanza.

The Irish got goals from seniors Bryan Rust and Kevin Lind and sophomore Thomas DiPauli to offset St. Cloud State goals by Ryan Papa, Brooks Bertsch and Jonny Brodzinski to set up Dowd's heroics.

Notre Dame outshot the Huskies by a 42-28 margin, holding St. Cloud State to just six shots in the second and third periods combined.

Summerhays finished with 24 saves, including 15 in overtime as the Huskies had a 16-6 margin in extra time while junior Ryan Faragher had 39 saves in the win.

The loss ended the season for the Irish with a 23-15-2 overall record, including an 8-3-1 mark since Feb. 8.

The Huskies got the first goal of the game off a pretty passing play along the Notre Dame goal line with Papa getting the goal, his sixth of the season at 6:54.

The Irish would answer at the 10:30 mark of the first with Rust getting his 17th of the season as he snapped a wrist shot past Faragher to tie the game at 1-1.

St. Cloud re-took the lead with 34.9 seconds left in the first as Bertsch was left alone in front and took a centering pass from center Cory Thornson and threw it over Summerhays to make it 2-1 heading into the first intermission.

Notre Dame dominated the second period, outshooting the Huskies by an 18-4 margin but could score just once.

That goal came at 8:18 of the second stanza as Lind drilled a laser beam from the right circle past Faragher to tie the game at 2-2.

For the second period in a row, St. Cloud scored in the final minute, with this one coming on the power play with 24.5 seconds left on the clock as the Irish could not get the puck out of their own zone.

Kossila had his pass deflected to Brodzinski at the top of the left circle and the Huskies' leading scorer wasted no time whipping a shot past Summerhays and inside the right post for his 21st goal of the year to give St. Cloud the 3-2 lead.

Notre Dame got the tying goal at 9:35 of the third period when DiPauli scored on a low wrist shot that broke through Faragher's pads to make it 3-3.

Again the Irish dominated the period, outshooting the Huskies by a 9-2 margin as St. Cloud did not get its first shot until 3:37 remained in the third and it came on a power play.

After 60 minutes, the Irish had outshot St. Cloud State by a 36-12 margin, but the score remained tied 3-3.

In overtime, the tide changed, as the Huskies controlled the play and the Irish killed two penalties in the period to keep the game even.

On the final play, the Irish turned it over at their own blue line twice with David Morley controlling the puck. He fed it ahead to Dowd who finished Notre Dame's season with a perfect shot that hit the cross bar and went in for the 4-3 game winner.

Notre Dame and Michigan played an exciting, back-and-forth hockey game, but Tyler Motte found the back of the net at 8:19 of overtime to lift the Wolverines to a 3-2 win in the second semifinal of the 2016 NCAA Midwest Regional at the U.S. Bank Arena (5,332) in Cincinnati.

After Justin Selman gave Michigan a 1-0 lead midway through the first period, a goal by Anders Bjork near the end of the first period and then another goal by Thomas DiPauli 24 seconds into the second period turned a 1-0 deficit into a 2-1 Notre Dame lead.

As the end-to-end action continued in the third, Sam Herr dug the puck out of the corner in the Wolverines' offensive zone and fed Jake Evans for a one-timer in the slot but goaltender Steve Racine fought it off for one of his best saves of the night.

Then at 9:52 of the third, Michigan defenseman Zach Werenski snapped a shot from the high slot through traffic that tied the game at 2-2.

Both teams had several more chances down the stretch of the third, including a Steven Fogarty shot with under 30 seconds remaining in regulation that went just wide of Racine's net.

Overtime opened with the same fast pace but at 8:19 Motte finished in front to give Michigan the win.

Petersen totaled 32 saves on the night, including six in overtime, while Racine finished with 28.

Down 1-0 just over two minutes into the game, the Irish found themselves fighting from behind for the majority of the first two periods. The Irish started their comeback when Andrew Oglevie found the back of the net with just over five minutes to go in the second. Anders Bjork tied it up just 56 seconds after the first Irish goal to make it 2-2.

The third period was all Irish as they went up 3-2 after a scramble at the net which left Minnesota goaltender sprawled out on the ice opening up the net for Bjork to notch his second of the night.

The Irish were outshot 33-29 in the game but Cal Petersen recorded 31 saves to keep Notre Dame's season alive.

The Irish found the back of the net first after Anders Bjork forced a turnover and sent a pass up to Cam Morrison for a breakaway. The initial shot was blocked by goaltender Tyler Wall but Morrison picked up his own rebound, knocking it in 11:49 into the first. With just over a minute to go in the first period UMass Lowell's Ryan Collins beat Cal Petersen to tie the game at 1.

The second period was a lot of back-and-forth action from both sides, with UML holding a slim advantage in shots, 9-8. The Irish kept the game tied through 40 minutes of play thanks to the strength and endurance of their penalty kill unit which killed off all three power play chances the River Hawks saw in the second period.

UML broke the tie at 11:38 of the third, pounding the Irish defensive core with 13 shots in the opening eight minutes of the period. Notre Dame's speed proved to be a challenge for the Red Hawks and the Irish quickly knotted the game at 2, with that score remaining until the end of regulation.

Notre Dame wasted no time in the overtime period, scoring just 2:44 into the extra period. Andrew Oglevie picked up a pass from Bjork and shot it into the top left corner of the net, beating Wall stick side.

The Irish were narrowly outshot by the Red Hawks, 29-28, with Petersen making 27 saves including a major one in overtime.

#1 Denver	2	3	1	6

For the third time under Jeff Jackson the Irish found themselves playing for a berth in the championship game. Unfortunately, for the Irish, their season ended just shy of the championship, falling to the Denver Pioneers 6-1.

The first two periods were all Denver, firing six shots at goaltender Cal Petersen before Notre Dame even got a shot at the other end. The Pioneers opened scoring at the 8:18 mark in the first, when Emil Romig fired a shot past Petersen, stick side. Through the first 20 minutes Notre Dame was outshot 13-3, with Petersen keeping the Irish hopes alive, stopping 11 of the 13 shots.

In the second Denver scored three more, putting them up 5-0, the third goal of the frame coming with just under two to go.

Notre Dame finally broke down Tanner Jaillet, sneaking the puck past him on a deflection by Morrison at 11:24 of the third. It was the only power play goal scored, coming on Denver's only penalty.

Denver scored one more for a final of 6-1.

Petersen had a stellar game, stopping 36 of 42 shots. The Denver defense proved to be too much for the Irish as they only recorded 17 shots in the 60 minutes of play.

In their second consecutive Frozen Four appearance, the University of Notre Dame hockey program defeated the University of Michigan in unforgettable fashion. After topping Providence with just 27 seconds remaining in regulation to advance to the Frozen Four, the Irish one-upped themselves, knocking out Michigan with 5.7 seconds remaining.

After trailing 1-0 at the end of the first, the Irish were in comeback mode for the final two periods. Falling behind 2-0 less than 20 seconds into the second, the team controlled the better portion of the final 30 minutes of play. The team scored the next three goals of the contest to go up 3-2.

With a little over five minutes left, the Wolverines tied it up as Michael Pastujov snuck one past Cale Morris. A series of desperation shots peppered both goaltenders in the final minutes of regulation, with both standing tall in net.

In what was presumed to be a game decided in overtime, Jack Jenkins stole the puck in the defensive zone passing it to Jake Evans who found Cam Morrison racing up the ice. As Morrison neared the Wolverine net, he tossed the puck back to Evans, throwing off the goaltender. Evans caught the puck between the legs of the defender and shot the puck five-hole, watching it trickle past Hayden Lavigne in net and over the goal-line. The game-winner, Evans' fifth of the season, came with just 5.7 seconds remaining in regulation and was the fifth consecutive game in which the game was decided in the final minute or went to overtime.

WILLIAM DONALD NYROP AWARD – DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Bill Nyrop was one of the finest defenseman ever to play at Notre Dame. The Edina, Minn., native was a standout blueliner from 1970-74, playing in 119 games with 17 goals and 72 assists for 89 points. Selected in the fifth round of the 1972 NHL Entry Draft by the Montreal Canadiens, Nyrop was selected second team all-WCHA in 1973 and was an All-American selection that season.

In 2002, he was chosen to the WCHA's 50th anniversary team along with teammate Jack Brownschidle. Following his Notre Dame career, Nyrop went on to play on three Stanley Cup championship teams with the Montreal Canadiens (1976-78).

He passed away on Dec. 31, 1995 due to cancer at the age of 43. His memory and legacy at Notre Dame will live on with the William Donald Nyrop Defensive Player of the Year Award that is presented to the team's top defensive player each season.

CHARLES "LEFTY" SMITH COACHES AWARD

Charles "Lefty" Smith came to Notre Dame in 1968 to start the Notre Dame hockey program and remained the head coach of the Fighting Irish for 19 seasons before retiring in 1987. During his time behind the bench, Notre Dame produced six All-Americans and finished second in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA) twice (1972-73 and 1976-77). He was selected the WCHA coach of the year following the 1972-73 season. The popular head coach retired following the 1986-87 season with a career record of 307-320-31.

Following his coaching career, Smith became the director of the Loftus Sports Center until his death in 2012. In 2002, he was honored for his outstanding accomplishments in hockey at the Hobey Baker Award Banquet as a "Legend of Hockey" honoree.

Smith's name always will be synonymous with Irish hockey as his name now graces the Coaches Award that goes annually to the unsung hero of the Notre Dame hockey program, the player who is unheralded, has overcome adversity and shows loyalty and commitment to his teammates, Notre Dame hockey and the University of Notre Dame.

THE IRISH AND USA HOCKEY

The Notre Dame hockey program has seen many of its players contribute to USA Hockey on the national and international scene since 1971 when Dick Tomasoni saw action in goal for the U.S. National Team in the World Championships held in Switzerland. Since then, the Irish have seen their players play for the U.S. National Team, the U.S. Junior National Team and as members of the U.S. National Team Developmental Program in Ann Arbor, Mich. Thirty-six players that have attended Notre Dame have been members of the U.S. National Developmental Program.

THANK YOU

Special thanks to Jim Bognar '82 for providing his notes and research from the early years of the Notre Dame hockey program. His hard work and research provided updated information for the early years of the program, as well as, the roster and photos of players from those years. His work also provided the records and rosters for the club era that are now available in the media guide.
