*Qualified for NCAA Championship

Fighting Irish

The Notre Dame Invitational is one of the nation's oldest and largest intercollegiate cross country meets. It is annually run at the University of Notre Dame Golf Course. The Invitational was started by former Irish head coach Alex Wilson in 1956 and regularly features runners from approximately 60 schools around the country. A 5,000-meter women's race was added in 1987 to the current men's event (lengthened from four to five miles in 1968).

National Catholic Championship

The National Catholic Championship was founded in the fall of 1980 by former head men's cross country coach Joe Piane. Over the course of the 35 years, the men have claimed the crown 21 times and have had 15 individual first-place finishers. The women's race was added in 1984 and since, the women have won 17 team titles and 14 individual titles.
