Media Information

For interviews and/or information about the Notre Dame hockey program, contact Dan Colleran, Associate Director Athletics Communications (Hockey contact) in the University of Notre Dame Fighting Irish Media office at (574) 631-7519 (dcolleran@nd.edu). Head Coach Jeff Jackson will have weekly media availability and student-athletes will be available upon request.

Credentials for home games can be obtained by contacting the media relations office 24 hours prior to game time.

Radio stations wishing to broadcast from the Compton Family Ice Arena must inform the Notre Dame media relations office two weeks in advance. One courtesy radio line is provided for visiting Hockey East opponent's primary radio stations. Additional phone lines can be made available by calling Carolyn Rush of the Notre Dame telecommunications office, at (574) 631-6014.

Irish Hockey on New Country 99.9 FM

Notre Dame and the WSBT Radio Group have teamed up with New Country 99.9 FM Radio to begin the eighth season as the radio home of Notre Dame Fighting Irish hockey. Fans also can follow Irish hockey via live Internet broadcasts on Notre Dame's official athletic department website (www.und.com) and the WatchND App.

Darin Pritchett

Back for his seventh full season behind the microphone will be award-winning play-by-play broadcaster Darin Pritchett, the sports director at WSBT.

Now in his 16th year with the station, Pritchett took over the role as the voice of Irish hockey in late February 2009 on a moment's notice due to the untimely death of Mike Lockert, who had handled the play-by-play duties for seven seasons. Pritchett remained with the Irish through the NCAA Championships and took over the duties on a full-time basis in 2009-10.

A native of Petersburg, Illinois, Pritchett will continue to be heard each weekday on "JT in the Morning" and "Weekday Sportsbeat." He also will continue to host the popular "Gameday Sportsbeat" pregame Notre Dame football show on WSBT Radio. He also served as the South Bend Cubs' announcer in 2015 for games on WSBT.

Pritchett is a seven-time winner of the Associated Press outstanding play-by-play broadcasting in the major market division. In 2015, he earned the Michigan/Indiana Broadcasters Association Best Sports Play-By-Play for his call of the 2014 Notre Dame/UMass Lowell hockey game as well as the Indiana Associated Press Best Sports Play-By-Play for his call of the Notre Dame/Hartford college basketball game.

In 2005, the Indiana Broadcasters Association (IBA) gave the WSBT team a Spectrum Award for a first-place finish in sports play-by-play broadcasting.

In 2006, 2010 and 2011, the WSBT sports team received first place by the IBA for sports coverage.

Pritchett is a 1994 graduate of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville where he received his degree in radio and television broadcasting. At SIUE, he served as the voice of the men's and women's basketball programs on radio and television.

Prior to joining WSBT in 1999, Pritchett also worked as a sports producer for KMOX radio in St. Louis, Mo., where he worked as a producer for Cardinals baseball, Blues hockey, Rams football and sports talk shows.

Notre Dame Television Schedule

The University of Notre Dame hockey team begins its third season with home games being televised on the NBC Sports Network or streamed live via NBCSports.com. The 2015-16 season will have 10 games televised live on the NBC Sports Network with six more streamed by NBCSports.com. In addition, three Notre Dame home games will be distributed by ASN as part of Hockey East's television package.

HOCKEY EAST

HISTORY

RECORDS

When Rev. Edward F. Sorin, C.S.C., arrived in the northern Indiana wilderness, he had only $310, three log buildings badly in need of repair and a far-sighted vision of establishing a liberal arts school to meet the growing educational needs of the frontier. He dreamed of building a great university, and in 1842 he founded the University of Notre Dame du Lac.

Over the years, Notre Dame would evolve into a preeminent place for Catholic thought. While becoming one of the top undergraduate institutions in the country, Notre Dame also has been at the cutting edge of research, including such innovations as the transmission of wireless messages and the development of synthetic rubber. Today researchers are achieving breakthroughs in astrophysics, radiation chemistry, environmental sciences, psychology, tropical disease transmission, cancer treatment, robotics, peace/religious studies and nanoelectronics.

The University also has stressed residential life, with four-of-five students living on campus in 29 residence halls that serve as the focal point of social, spiritual and athletic activities. Notre Dame is one of a handful of universities with a truly national and international student body composed of young men and women who come from more than 90 nations and all 50 states. They attend Notre Dame not only to learn how to think, but to learn how to live, keeping faith with the vision of Father Sorin.

Notre Dame is one of the few universities to regularly rank in the top 25 in the U.S. News & World Report survey of America's best colleges and the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings of the best overall athletics programs. The University is second only to KU Leuven of Belgium among all Catholic universities worldwide, according to the Times Higher Education survey, and the Mendoza College of Business at Notre Dame boasts the No. 1 undergraduate business program in the nation according to Bloomberg BusinessWeek.

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C. President

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., is in his third five-year term as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame. His vision for Notre Dame to be the Catholic research university for our time – an institution that unifies, enlightens and heals by engaging in research and scholarship of the first rank while maintaining its distinctive Catholic character and long-time excellence in undergraduate education.

During his tenure, Notre Dame has made significant progress toward its research goal, including selection as the lead partner in the Midwest Institute for Nanoelectronics Discovery and the Center for Low Energy Systems Technology, the creation of the Innovation Park research facility and the construction of a world-class turbomachinery testing facility.

His commitment to undergraduate education has been marked by the Notre Dame Forums, yearlong initiatives that have examined important issues such as religion and world conflict, global health, immigration, education and energy.

The University's Catholic identity has been strengthened during Father Jenkins' tenure in multiple ways, including the appointment of a coordinator for University life initiatives and the construction of multimillion-dollar facilities for the Institute for Church Life, including the Center for Social Concerns, and the Institute for Educational Initiatives, which includes the Alliance for Catholic Education.

Father Jenkins earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively, and was ordained a priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross in 1983. He holds advanced degrees from Oxford and the Jesuit School of Theology. He is a professor of philosophy and the author of Knowledge and Faith in Thomas Aquinas. A native of Omaha, Nebraska, Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

The Irish battle Michigan State on Feb. 24, 2012, in front of a sellout crowd of 5,022, one of 29 in the first three seasons at the Compton Family Ice Arena. The building officially opened Oct. 18, 2011, with the first game played there Oct. 21 versus Rensselaer.

Dreams do come true.

One needs to look no further than the brand new, state-of-the-art Compton Family Ice Arena (CFIA) on the campus of the University of Notre Dame.

The home of the Notre Dame hockey team, the facility opened its doors to the public on Oct. 18, 2011, with the Fighting Irish playing their first game three nights later on, Oct. 21 in front of a capacity crowd of 5,022 that saw the Irish take a 5-2 win versus the Rensselaer (RPI) Engineers.

Since that crazy, hectic opening week, the building has been in constant use, serving both the Notre Dame and South Bend communities, hosting a wide-range of activities, including Notre Dame hockey games and camps, local high school and youth hockey, sled hockey, figure skating, public skating, physical education skating classes, learn-to-skate, learn-to-curl and other Compton Classroom instructional programs, Notre Dame intramural ice hockey and broomball, the Notre Dame men's and women's club hockey and precision skating teams, commencement ceremonies, concerts and three Chicago Blackhawks training camps (2013, 2014 and 2015), as well as serving a local meeting place.

Youth hockey tournaments with participating teams from around the country and managed by Hockey Time Productions (It's Hockey Time), showcase tournaments hosted by the High Performance Hockey League, Bauer Select camps, Chicago Mission games, the United States Hockey League (USHL), the Brian Boitano Skating Spectacular and a Montgomery Gentry and Florida Georgia Line concert have already been patrons of the CFIA in its first three years of operation.

Notre Dame's spacious locker room at the Compton Family Ice Arena.

The Compton Family Ice Arena

The Compton Family Ice Arena features two sheets of ice – the 200-foot-by-90-foot Charles “Lefty” Smith Rink that serves as the home of the Notre Dame hockey program and a 200-foot-by-100-foot Olympic-sized sheet that also serves patrons of the facility. The Lefty Smith Rink has a capacity of 5,022 while the Olympic-sized rink has seating for approximately 350 available.

Through its first four seasons of operation, the CFIA has already given the Irish a true home-ice advantage, as they own a 52-28-4 (.667) overall record, including a 7-1 mark in postseason contests. The 84 games played at the CFIA have included 36 sellouts while 295,430 fans have passed through the turnstile for an average of 4,743 per game.

Prior to moving into the Compton Family Ice Arena, the ice rink that serviced the Notre Dame community was the Joyce Center Rink, housed in the north dome of the Joyce Center. Opened in 1968, the Joyce Center seated 2,857 for hockey and was the home of the Irish for 44 years.

While Notre Dame hockey is the main tenant of the building, the CFIA has become much more than that. It has really become a community center and a meeting place for the entire Michiana area of Northwest Indiana and southern Michigan, a belief that Irish athletics director Jack Swarbrick talked about at the building’s ceremonial blessing on Sept. 11, 2010.

On that day, Swarbrick said, ““There’s a limit to how much the community can use our dormitories and our classrooms and our laboratories, but the athletic facilities can be a special point of contact.”

He continued, “I hope we win national championships with teams that train here and I hope we build new programs for our athletes and our students. But the ultimate success of this facility will be if we inspire a young boy or a young girl from the community to shoot higher, if we challenge them to be better people because they spend time on our campus. Then we’ve realized the potential of athletics at Notre Dame.”

As the home of the Notre Dame hockey team, the building includes a state-of-the-art team suite that includes both wet and dry locker rooms, a team auditorium for meetings and weekly team Mass, a sports medicine area, a player’s lounge, equipment areas, video operations and a multi-purpose room that will serve as a study lounge and dining area.

In addition to a dedicated visiting team suite for Notre Dame’s opponents, there also are four auxiliary locker rooms for the Smith Rink with showers and restrooms and one officials’ locker room with restroom and shower.

The Olympic Rink also has four auxiliary locker rooms with restrooms and showers and one officials' locker room with restroom and shower. In addition, 700 pairs of rental skates are available to patrons of public skating in the service pro shop at ice level along with essential equipment, accessories and skate sharpening.

The Compton Family Ice Arena is the home of O'Brien's, an exclusive 250-seat club area with an Irish pub theme, that features premium food and beverage services during Irish Hockey games for O'Brien's season ticket holders. O'Brien's also can be used for meetings and events during non-game times

The Arena also has a 15-foot-by-15-foot Daktronics four-sided center hung scoreboard with eight-foot, four-inch by 13-foot, six-inch 10mm video displays with integrated auxiliary displays and fascia boards.

The facility's media center includes a 36-seat working press area, two coaches booths, two radio booths, one television broadcast booth, one video-replay booth and one control room. Multiple TV camera locations are cabled throughout the building.

Located on the main concourse of the Compton Family Ice Arena are eight spacious public restrooms, four concession stands (operated by Centerplate) and a merchandise shop (the Irish Hockey Shop, managed by Follett's). The concourse level also houses the Notre Dame hockey offices.

Design and construction of the Compton Family Ice Arena was under the auspices of the Southfield, Mich., office of Barton Malow, a national design and construction services firm and their project partner Rossetti Architects, also of Southfield, Mich.

Planning for the facility began on Feb. 12, 2009, when Notre Dame executive vice-president John Affleck-Graves and Jack Swarbrick announced that the University's Board of Trustees approved the plan for a stand-alone rink.

On Sept. 11, 2010, a project blessing ceremony for the $50-million facility was held with many of the key benefactors in attendance. At the ceremony, Swarbrick announced that the building would be named the Compton Family Ice Arena in honor of the lead donors – Kevin and Gayla Compton and family - former members of the ownership group of the National Hockey League's San Jose Sharks.

He also talked about the new building and its importance to the Notre Dame and Michiana communities.

The official dedication of the Compton Family Ice Arena came on November 18 with the Irish facing off against Boston College on the ice.

The dedication ceremonies acknowledged all of the buildings donors, especially the lead benefactors, the Compton's and their children Cameron, Elena and Matthew for whom the building is named and key donors including the John and Mary Jo Boler family, their daughter Jill Boler McCormack and her husband, Dan, and the Boler's son, Matthew Boler and his wife, Christine; the family of Frank and Mary Beth O'Brien, including their late son, Frankie, who played hockey and lacrosse at Notre Dame from 1984-88; the Thomas J. Rolfs Family Foundation, the Michael T. McLoughlin family and the Timothy Sutherland family.

The Irish won the dedication game, knocking off the Eagles 3-2 in overtime with the game winner coming with 1.1 seconds left in the extra session.

Notre Dame Hockey By the Numbers

6,901

Career minutes played by goaltender Lance Madison (1986-90).

5,202

The largest crowd ever to watch college hockey in South Bend and the capacity of the Compton Family Ice Arena. Over four seasons, the Irish have played in front of 36 sellouts in 84 games at the on-campus arena. In 2013-14, Notre Dame was 16-5-1 at home and averaged 4,816 fans per game. Since the building opened, 398,438 fans have watched Irish hockey at the Compton Family Ice Arena.

2,557:46

The Notre Dame single-season record for minutes played by an Irish goaltender, set by Jordan Pearce during the 2007-08 season.

2011

October, 21, 2011 - Opening game at the Compton Family Ice Arena.

1968

First varsity hockey season of the modern era.

1912

First varsity hockey season.

408

Career coaching wins by current Irish head coach Jeff Jackson, between Notre Dame and Lake Superior State over 16 seasons.

307

Career coaching wins by Lefty Smith in 19 seasons at Notre Dame.

231:50

Steven Summerhays' consecutive-minutes shut-out streak started on Feb. 14, 2014 at Providence College and ran through Mar. 1, 2014 at Boston College. The streak included three consecutive shutouts - one versus Providence and two against Boston University, covering parts of five games. David Brown held the previous mark of 193:27 minutes streak set from Oct. 17 through Nov. 8, 2003.

226

Jeff Jackson's win total in his ten seasons behind the Notre Dame bench. The Irish bench boss is 226-143-40 (.601) since taking over prior to the 2005-06 season.

151:42

The elapsed time of college hockey's longest game, played between Notre Dame and UMass in the first round of the 2015 Hockey East Playoffs (March 6, 2015 at the Compton Family Ice Arena). The Minutemen won the game, 4-3, in the fifth overtime, but the Irish would go on to win the series, two games to one.

164

Stephen Johns and T.J. Tynan joined Kevin Deeth as leaders on the all-time games played list with 164. Johns and Tynan missed one game their sophomore years (2011-12) while playing in the World Junior Championships. Deeth missed three games, two in 2007-08 and one in 2009-10.

CAPTAIN FOGARTY

► Head Coach Jeff Jackson announced on Aug. 26 at Notre Dame's season-opening meeting that senior forward Steven Fogarty will serve as the team captain for a second consecutive season in 2015-16.

► Fogarty becomes the 15th two-year captain in Notre Dame hockey history and the first since T.J. Jindra served as team captain during Jackson's first two seasons behind the Irish bench (2005-07).

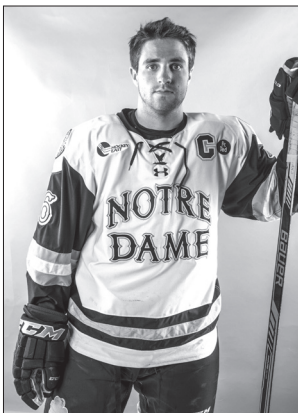

► Fogarty follows in a long line of Irish hockey players from Edina, Minn., to serve as team captain, including Anders Lee ('14), Ryan Thang ('10) and Dan Carlson ('01) in recent years.

► Fogarty has a family history of natural leadership capabilities: his father, William, is a retired United States Navy Admiral and his older brother, Charles, is currently serving in the Navy.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP

► Fogarty's classmates Thomas DiPauli, Sam Herr, Mario Lucia and Andy Ryan will serve as alternate captains in 2015-16.

► Notre Dame's leadership core of Fogarty (113), DiPauli (108), Herr (95), Lucia (114) and Ryan (86) have combined to play 516 career games.

Senior center Steven Fogarty will serve as Notre Dame's team captain once again in 2015-16, becoming the 15th two-year captain in program history. Fogarty follows a long line of Edina, Minn., natives to captain the Irish hockey team. He joins recent Edina standouts Anders Lee and Ryan Thang in wearing the captain's C for the Irish.

► Fogarty (2013-15), DiPauli (2013-15), Herr (2013-15), Lucia (2013-15) and Ryan (2014-15) have earned 14 combined monograms (varsity letters) over the past three seasons.

► Lucia's father, Don - a Notre Dame graduate and the current head coach at Minnesota - also served as an alternate captain during his senior season with the Irish (1980-81).

USA WORLD JUNIOR CAMP & STAFF

► Notre Dame sophomore Anders Bjork took part in USA Hockey's National Junior Evaluation Camp on August 1-8 in Lake Placid, New York.

► The evaluation camp was the first step in USA Hockey preparing to set a roster for the 2016 World Junior Championships.

► Camp was pared down throughout the week, but Bjork stayed for the entirety of the week.

► This year's installment of the World Junior Championships will be held from Dec. 26, 2015, to Jan. 5, 2016, in Helsinki, Finland.

► In addition to potentially having Bjork on the roster, the support staff will have a decidedly Notre Dame flavor to it as Irish coordinator of hockey operations, Nick Siergiej, will join the squad as its video coordinator.

► Additionally, Notre Dame equipment manager, Dave Gilbert, will serve in that same role for Team USA.

FOURTH-ANNUAL PRO CAMP

► Sixteen former Fighting Irish hockey players took part in Notre Dame's fourth annual Pro Camp, which was held from Aug. 31 - Sept. 3 at the Compton Family Ice Arena.

► The players returned to campus to begin preparing for various upcoming professional hockey training camps and tryouts.

► Camp included practices each morning from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m., in addition to daily scrimmages and lifting sessions.

► The roster of attendees included NHL players Erik Condra (Tampa Bay Lightning), Ian Cole (Pittsburgh Penguin), Anders Lee (New York Islanders), Bryan Rust (Pittsburgh Penguins) and Riley Sheahan (Detroit Red Wings).

LUCIA AMONG ACTIVE CAREER LEADERS

► Senior forward Mario Lucia is among the active career leaders in points, goals and power-play goals entering the 2015-16 season.

► Points:

1. Kevin Roy, Northeastern - 124
2. Danny O'Regan, Boston University - 110
3. Andrew Gladiuk, Bentley - 108
4. Alex Petan, Michigan Tech - 102
5. Zac Lynch, Robert Morris - 101
6. Kalle Kossila, St. Cloud State - 99
7. Jimmy Vesey, Harvard - 98
8. Tyler Morley, Alaska - 92
9. Tyson Spink, Colgate - 91
10. Mario Lucia, Notre Dame - 86

► Goals:

1. Jimmy Vesey, Harvard - 56
2. Kevin Roy, Northeastern - 55
2. Andrew Gladiuk, Bentley - 55
4. Bryce Gervais, Minnesota State - 51
5. Mario Lucia, Notre Dame - 49
5. Danny O'Regan, Boston University - 49
7. Sam Anas, Quinnipiac - 45

► Power-Play Goals:

1. Andrew Gladiuk, Bentley - 27
2. Sam Anas, Quinnipiac - 19
3. Mario Lucia, Notre Dame - 16
3. Danny O'Regan, Boston University - 16
3. Ahti Oksanen, Boston University - 16
6. Ralph Cuddemi, Canisius - 16

NHL ALUMS ON THE MOVE

► Several of Notre Dame's alums in the National Hockey League have switched teams in the recent months and/or re-signed NHL contracts.

► Erik Condra, who had played in the Ottawa Senators organization for the past six seasons signed a three-year deal with the Tampa Bay Lightning in June, 2015.

► Anders Lee, who was an impending restricted free agent, re-signed with the New York Islanders on a four-year deal, also in June of 2015.

► In March of 2015, Ian Cole was traded from the St. Louis Blues to the Pittsburgh Penguins. Then as an impending restricted free agent, Cole re-signed for three years with the Penguins.

PETERSEN BETWEEN THE PIPES

► Sophomore goaltender Cal Petersen will be looking to pick up where he left off after turning in an impressive second half during his freshman season.

► Down the stretch last season, he earned either the Hockey East's Player of the Week, Defensive Player of the Week or Rookie of the Week honor for five consecutive weeks between Feb. 9 and March 9.

► Highlighting that streak was his NCAA Division I record 87-save performance in Notre

163

The number of consecutive games played by Notre Dame's all-time "Iron Man" Mark Van Guilder. Van Guilder graduated following the 2007-08 season and did not miss a game his entire career.

104

Notre Dame record for career goals, set by Greg Meredith (1976-80), after scoring twice in his final game to beat Eddie Bumbacco's (1970-74) previous record of 103.

96

All-time Notre Dame hockey monogram winners from the state of Minnesota.

87

The number of saves Cal Petersen made in Notre Dame's 4-3, five overtime loss to UMass in the first round of the 2015 Hockey East Playoffs (March 6, 2015 at the Compton Family Ice Arena) to set the single game NCAA record.

78

The number of Notre Dame players drafted by teams in the National Hockey League's Entry Draft since the draft started in 1969. The 2015-16 team has nine players that have been drafted - Mario Lucia (Minnesota), Steven Fogarty (New York Rangers), Thomas DiPauli (Washington), Anders Bjork (Boston), Jake Evans (Montreal), Connor Hurley (Buffalo), Cal Petersen (Buffalo), Dennis Gilbert (Chicago) and Joe Wegwerth (Florida).

59

The number of wins owned by goaltender Jordan Pearce in his Notre Dame career, making him the winningest goaltender in the program history. Pearce was 59-26-7 from 2005-09 with a .679 winning percentage. He passed Lance Madson who owned the record with 56.

54

Points scored by T.J. Tynan in his freshman year (2010-11), as he had 23 goals and 31 assists for 54 points. That was the most points for an Irish player since David Bankoske had 56 during the 1989-90 season. Tynan's 50 or more points marked the first time a Notre Dame player had 50 or more since Curtis Janicke had 54 in 1992-93.

48

The number of Notre Dame hockey players to score 100 or more points during their Irish careers. T.J. Tynan and Anders Lee are the last to reach that mark, doing it in 2012-13. Tynan finished his career tied for 12th on the all-time points list with 54 goals and 107 assists for 161 points. Lee finished his career ranked 35th with 116 points (61 goals and 55 assists).

47

Saves posted by Matt Eisler in 3-0 win over Ohio State on Oct. 25, 1996 (most ever in a Notre Dame shutout).

Mario Lucia enters the 2015-16 season as one of the nation's top returning scorers. His 49 career goals rank as the fifth-most in the country, while his 86 career points rank 10th. The last players to reach 100-career points in an Irish uniform were T.J. Tynan and Anders Lee in 2012-13.

Notre Dame Hockey By the Numbers

35

Players from the U.S. National Team Developmental Program to play at Notre Dame since the U.S. National program started in 1997-98.

32

The number of wins achieved by the Notre Dame hockey team during its record-setting season in 2006-07. The Irish were 32-7-3 for the year.

30

The Notre Dame record for wins in a season by a goaltender is held by David Brown (2006-07) and Jordan Pearce (2008-09). Brown was 30-6-3 with a miniscule 1.58 goals-against average to lead the nation in both categories. Pearce led the nation with his 30-6-3 overall record and was second with a 1.68 goals-against average.

29

The number of points scored by T.J. Tynan in 28 CCHA games in 2011-12. His nine goals and 20 assists tied him with Michigan State's Torey Krug for the CCHA scoring title. He became the first Notre Dame player to win or tie for the CCHA scoring championship in the 23 years the Irish were in the conference. He is the second Notre Dame player to win a league scoring title as he follows Eddie Bumbacco who won the WCHA scoring championship in 1972-73.

26

The number of former Notre Dame players to see action with a National Hockey League team. The last two players to make NHL debuts include forwards Mark Van Guilder (Nashville Predators), who saw his first NHL action during the '13-'14 season, and Bryan Rust, who suited up for 14 games with Pittsburgh in 2014-15.

18

The spot in the 2007 NHL Entry Draft where the St. Louis Blues selected Irish defenseman Ian Cole. That made him the first Notre Dame player ever selected in the first round of the NHL Draft and the earliest any Irish player has ever been selected in the draft.

14

The number of career game-winning goals for senior Ryan Thang in his Notre Dame career. That left him as Notre Dame's all-time game-winning goal leader.

13

Notre Dame's career mark for shutouts that is held by Steven Summerhays (2010-14). He passed the previous record holders (12) - Jordan Pearce (2005-09) and David Brown (2003-07) - leading the nation in his senior season with seven.

11

The number of brother combinations to play hockey at Notre Dame. The 2013-14 team was represented by junior defenseman Eric Johnson and sophomore defenseman Andy Ryan. Johnson's older brother, Mike, played from 2009-13. Ryan's older brother, Ben, played from 2007-11.

Dame's 4-3 quintuple overtime loss to Massachusetts in the Hockey East playoffs first round (March 6).

► Last February, Petersen led the nation by posting a .962 save percentage, stopping 279 of the 290 shots he faced.

FAMILY TIES

► Sophomore forward Anders Bjork is part of the fourth Notre Dame hockey-playing son to follow his father to Notre Dame.

► His dad, Kirt Bjork, was an All-America at Notre Dame during the 1982-83 campaign and is tied for 12th on Notre Dame's all-time points list with 161, after notching 76 goals and 85 assists in 141 career games.

► Kirt is currently a director of regional development in Notre Dame's development office.

► Anders Bjork also has another family tie to Irish hockey, as his cousin is former Irish standout Erik Condra, who is currently a member of the Tampa Bay Lightning.

► As the fourth son to follow his father to Notre Dame, Anders joins current Irish left wing Mario Lucia (Don Lucia) and graduated players Kevin Nugent (Kevin Nugent, Sr.) and Rory Walsh (Brian Walsh) to play at Notre Dame after their fathers.

► For the fourth time in as many seasons, father and son will face off against each other when Minnesota plays at Notre Dame on Nov. 6-7.

► Don Lucia, a 1981 Notre Dame graduate and the head coach of the Gophers, played four seasons (1977-81) at Notre Dame for Coach Lefty Smith.

► As a defenseman, he saw action in 124 games, scoring seven goals with 23 assists for 30 points.

► Now in his 17th season as the head coach at Minnesota, Lucia has been a collegiate head coach for 29 seasons.

► In five games versus his dad's team, Mario has two goals and one assist for three points.

► A second member of the Minnesota coaching staff, associate head coach Mike Guentzel, also sent a son to Notre Dame: Ryan Guentzel '11 played for Jeff Jackson at Notre Dame from 2007-11 and was a member of two Frozen Four teams (2008 and 2011).

HAWKS RETURN

► In what has become an annual tradition, the Stanley Cup champion Chicago Blackhawks opened training camp on campus at Notre Dame.

► The team held a season-opening press conference and it's first three days of training camp at Notre Dame's Compton Family Ice Arena (Sept. 17-20).

► Members of the Blackhawks team and staff also attended a football pep rally on Friday afternoon as well as Notre Dame's football game against Georgia Tech on Saturday, Sept. 19 at Notre Dame Stadium.

STAFF ADDITIONS

► Head Coach Jeff Jackson announced Brian Mahoney-Wilson and Mason Graddock have been added to the University of Notre Dame Hockey the staff (Sept. 10).

► Mahoney-Wilson will be the team's new Volunteer Assistant Coach, while Graddock will serve as the Hockey and Programming Intern.

During the 2014-15 National Hockey League season, forward Bryan Rust became the 26th former Notre Dame player to appear in an NHL game when he suited up for 14 games with the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Irish Hockey Notebook

► Mahoney-Wilson joins the Notre Dame program after spending the 2014-15 season as a Volunteer Assistant Coach/Goaltending Coach with the United States Military Academy in West Point, New York.

► Mahoney-Wilson graduated from Lake Superior State University in 2011 and as a four-year goaltender for the Lakers, he was named the Central Collegiate Hockey Association's (CCHA) Freshman Goaltender of the Year in 2008.

► Graddock spent the previous four seasons as an assistant coach at Middlebury College, where he was the head of recruiting and worked closely with the Panthers' forwards.

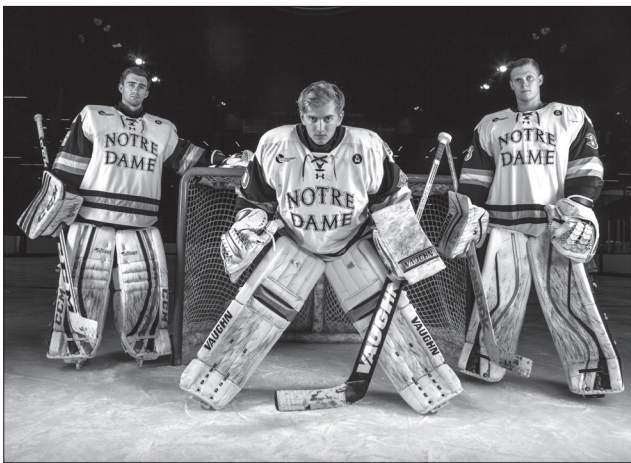

► Graddock graduated from Middlebury College in 2009 and helped the Panthers to the 2006 DIII Men's Ice Hockey NCAA Championship.

RUSSO SIGNS WITH DETROIT

► Recent graduate Robbie Russo signed a two-year, entry-level contract with the Detroit Red Wings of the National Hockey League on Sunday (Aug. 16).

► As a senior (2014-15), Russo tied for the national lead in goals scored among defensemen and claimed AHCA/CCM All-America honors.

► Russo matched Denver's Joey LaLeggia with 15 goals for most in the country among blue-liners, while his 41 points fell one shy of the national defenseman pace of 42.

The Notre Dame roster features three returning goaltenders for the 2015-16 season, including (l-r) senior Nick Stasack, sophomore Cal Petersen and junior Chad Katunar. Each member of the returning trio was named to the Hockey East All-Academic team following the 2014-15 season.

2014-15 RECAP

► A young Irish hockey team, which regularly dressed seven or eight freshmen, came together as the year progressed en route to an 18-19-5 record.

► The team defeated three top-10 teams in February, including eventual national champion Providence and eventual national runner-up Boston University.

► Benefitting from the stronger second half to the season, Notre Dame finished 10-7-5 in Hockey East games, placing fifth of 12 teams in what proved to be the nation's top conference in 2014-15.

► Hockey East proved to be the country's top conference in 2014-15 and two of its six best came from Notre Dame as both forward Vince Hinostroza and Russo earned first-team all-conference accolades.

► The coupling of Hinostroza and Russo marked the first time Notre Dame had two first-team all-conference picks in the same season since 1976-77 when Jack Brownschilde and Brian Walsh were both named to the all-WCHA first team.

► Additionally, Petersen earned league recognition as he was named as the goaltender on the Hockey East all-rookie team.

Notre Dame Hockey By the Numbers

9:21

The first goal scored at the Compton Family Ice Arena was scored by Anders Lee at 9:21 of the first period on Oct. 21, 2011. The goal was one of three scored by Lee in Notre Dame's 5-2 win over Rensselaer to christen the new building.

The number of game-winning goals recorded by former captain Anders Lee during the 2010-11 season. That tied Notre Dame's single-season record set by David Bankoske in 1989-90.

6:50

Quickest hat trick in Notre Dame history, by Sterling Black in 1993.

Sophomore Anders Bjork is the fourth son of a former Notre Dame player to play for the Irish. His father, Kirt Bjork, was an All-America selection in his senior year and is tied for 12th on the all-time point list with 161 career points. He is joined by current junior Mario Lucia, as his father, Don Lucia, currently the head hockey coach at the University of Minnesota, played at Notre Dame from 1977-81. They join recent graduate, Kevin Nugent Jr. (2009-13), who followed his father, Kevin Nugent Sr., who played for the Irish from 1974-78. The fourth father-son combination is former goaltender Rory Walsh (2002-06) who followed his father, Brian Walsh, who played from 1973-77.

The highest that Notre Dame has ever ended the season in the final USA Today/American Hockey Magazine rankings. For the first time in the program's history, the Irish also were in the national rankings all 27 weeks during the 2007-08 campaign.

1.58

The lowest single-season goals-against average by an Irish goaltender. David Brown recorded that mark during his record-setting senior year in 2006-07.

Notre Dame's ranking in the 2006-07 national hockey polls from Feb. 5 to March 23, 2007, a seven-week span. The Irish would again reach number one status for seven weeks during the 2008-09 season when they held the top spot from Dec. 1 through Jan. 26.

.931

The top single-season save percentage by a Notre Dame goaltender - set by David Brown as a senior in 2006-07 and duplicated by Jordan Pearce in his senior year of 2008-09.

:09

The earliest goal to start a game by a Notre Dame player. Tim Wallace scored just nine seconds into Notre Dame's Dec. 2, 2005, game at Western Michigan in a 4-3 loss to the Broncos.

:08

The fastest the Irish have scored two goals in a game. On Jan. 21, 2006, at Northern Michigan, Erik Condra scored a game-tying goal at 8:42 of the third period. Just eight seconds later at 8:50, Tom Sawatske scored the game winner in a 4-3 victory.

The 2015-16 hockey season marks University of Notre Dame hockey coach Jeff Jackson's 11th season behind the Irish bench. During his first 10 seasons, the program has enjoyed a great deal of success. The highly regarded Jackson now has over 29 years of coaching experience.

Notre Dame's Jeff Jackson era began in 2005 when the University searched for a man who could move the program among the elite hockey schools in the country.

The veteran coach owned a resume packed with success at the collegiate, junior hockey, professional and international levels. Throughout his coaching career, Jackson's teams had been successful both on and off the ice and the hope was that he could deliver those same qualities at Notre Dame.

After 10 seasons, it's safe to say the Irish hit a home run with the selection of the popular coach.

During his 10-year run, Notre Dame has become one of the nation's top teams, winning the Central Collegiate Hockey Association's (CCHA) regular-season title twice (2006-07 and 2008-09) while earning three Mason Cup championships ('07, '09 and the final one in 2013). Then in 2013-14, the team's first season in Hockey East, the Irish upset the conference's top team - Boston College - in the quarterfinals to advance to Boston's TD Garden for the Hockey East semifinals.

During Jackson's tenure, his teams have made six trips to the NCAA Tournament (2006-09, 2010-11 and 2012-14), advancing to the Frozen Four twice, playing in the 2008 title game and the 2011 national semifinals.

Since his second season at Notre Dame (2006-07), Jackson's program has been among the top programs in the nation in wins and winning percentage, going 213-125-36 (.618) over the nine-year span.

Between 2006-09, the Irish turned in win totals of 32, 27 and 31 for three consecutive seasons of 25 or more wins and three consecutive NCAA tournament appearances, a first in program history.

Jackson's success on the ice also has had a major impact off the ice for the Irish. With the wins came a commitment from the University that led to the new home of Irish hockey - The Compton Family Ice Arena - one of the finest college hockey facilities in the nation. The new venue opened for business on Oct. 21, 2011.

Since Jackson's arrival, the Irish have had 29 players selected in the National Hockey League Entry Draft, including four first round selections. In that same span, 20 players from USA Hockey's National Team Development Program have matriculated to Notre Dame.

During his tenure, the Irish have had five players garner All-America honors – Robbie Russo in 2015, Anders Lee in 2013, Ian Cole and Erik Condra in 2009 and David Brown in 2007. In addition, 12 of Jackson's players have gone on to play in the NHL.

Jackson enters the 2015-16 season with a 16-year collegiate record of 408-196-65 for a .658 winning percentage, the second-best percentage among all active Division I coaches with five years or more in Division I. His 408 career wins rank seventh among active coaches.

AT NOTRE DAME - In 2014-15, Jackson led a young team, which regularly dressed seven or eight freshmen, that jelled as the year progressed en route to an 18-19-5 record. The team defeated three top-10 teams in February, including eventual national champion Providence and eventual national runner-up Boston University. Benefitting from the stronger second half to the season, Notre Dame finished 10-7-5 in Hockey East games, placing fifth of 12 teams. The Irish lineup in 2014-15 featured 10 NHL draftees, tying for third-most nationally and standing as the top sum in Hockey East.

After tying for the national lead in goals scored among defensemen, Russo was rewarded for his stellar 2014-15 season by being named an AHCA Second Team (East) All-American. Russo tied for the national lead among defensemen with 15 goals, while his 41 points ranked second among blue liners. A First Team All-Hockey East selection, Russo led the conference in both goals and points by a defenseman. Freshman goaltender Cal Petersen turned in a spectacular second half of the season, earning either the league's player of the week, defensive player of the week or rookie of the week honor for five consecutive weeks between Feb. 9 and March 9. Highlighting that streak was his NCAA Division I record 87-save performance in Notre Dame's 4-3 quintuple overtime loss to Massachusetts in the first round of the Hockey East playoffs. Petersen recorded four shutouts in 2014-15, tying the Notre Dame freshman record and tying for the Hockey East lead. His four shutouts also ranked second in the nation among freshmen.

Hockey East proved to be the country's top conference in 2014-15 and two of its six best came from Notre Dame as both forward Vince Hinostroza and Russo earned first-team all-conference accolades. The coupling of

Head Coach

Hinostrroza and Russo marked the first time that Notre Dame had two first-team all-conference picks in the same season since 1976–77. Additionally, Petersen earned league recognition as he was named as the goaltender on the Hockey East all-rookie team.

Notre Dame joined the Hockey East Association for the 2013-14 season. In conference play, the Irish were 9-9-2 to finish eighth. Overall the team was 23-15-2 and finished the year ranked 11th in both national polls.

To open the postseason, Notre Dame won the one-game, first-round contest versus Boston University at home to advance to the Hockey East quarterfinals versus top-ranked Boston College. At Conte Forum, the Irish took the best-of-three series, two games to one, winning 7-2 in the opener, dropping a 4-2 decision in game two before winning the deciding game by a 4-2 verdict.

In the Hockey East semifinals at the TD Garden (Boston, Massachusetts) Notre Dame fell to eventual champion, UMass Lowell, by a 4-0 score.

The Irish were the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional in Minneapolis, Minn. There the season came to an end for the second consecutive year at the hands of the St. Cloud State Huskies, as the Irish lost a 4-3 overtime thriller.

Jackson and his 2012-13 team closed out the final season of play in the CCHA by finishing second in the regular-season standings before going on to win the final CCHA postseason championship at Joe Louis Arena.

The Irish finished the year with a 25-13-3 overall mark and were 17-8-3-3 in conference play to finish three points behind first-place Miami in the regular season.

Notre Dame defeated Bowling Green, two games to one in the quarterfinals, before downing Ohio State and Michigan by identical 3-1 scores in Detroit. The win over Michigan in the title game marked the third time that Notre Dame had knocked off the Wolverines in a CCHA championship contest and was the fifth win on the year against Michigan.

The Irish would go on to be a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Midwest Regional in Toledo, Ohio, where they dropped a 5-1 decision to St. Cloud State in the opening game.

The 2012-13 season was a bounce-back year for Notre Dame, as the team experienced a wild rollercoaster ride in the 2011-12 season, going 19-18-3 for the season while tying for eighth in the CCHA with a 12-13-3 conference mark. The Irish defeated Ohio State in the first round of the playoffs before being ousted in the quarterfinals by Michigan.

In 2010-11 Notre Dame went on a magical run to the Frozen Four. The Irish were 25-14-5 overall while leading the CCHA until the final week of the season. They finished 18-7-3-2 in the conference and finished second to Michigan by two points.

After dropping both games in the CCHA Tournament, the Irish got hot in the NCAA Tournament, winning the Northeast Regional with victories over Merrimack (4-3 in overtime) and New Hampshire (2-1) to advance to the Frozen Four in St. Paul, Minn.

There, Notre Dame fell in the semifinals to eventual NCAA champion Minnesota Duluth with a 4-3 loss.

In 2011, Jackson was selected as the CCHA coach of the year for the third time ('90-'91, '06-'07 and '10-'11) and was a finalist for the Spencer Penrose Award as the national coach of the year.

The Frozen Four run in 2011 erased the memories of a disappointing 2009-10 season for Notre Dame as the Irish struggled, battling injuries and a scoring slump on the way to a 13-17-8 overall record and a 9-12-7-2 mark in the CCHA that put the Irish ninth in the conference.

The 2008-09 campaign was a season to remember as Notre Dame won its second conference title and playoff title in three years.

After a 2-3-0 start, it would be three months before the Irish would lose again as they went on a 20-game unbeaten streak (17-0-3), from Oct. 31 to Jan. 17, while being number one in the nation for seven consecutive weeks for the second time in the program's history.

After seeing the streak stopped, Notre Dame lost just one more time during the '08-'09 regular season. The Irish ended the regular season and the CCHA tournament on a 10-game winning streak.

Notre Dame finished first in the conference with a 21-4-3-3 mark, eight points ahead of second-place Miami and Michigan.

The Irish advanced to Joe Louis Arena for the third consecutive year by beating Nebraska Omaha in the second round of the playoffs. They then knocked off Northern Michigan, 2-1, in the semifinals and rallied from a 2-0 deficit to beat Michigan for the CCHA title in a 5-2 victory.

Notre Dame went into the NCAA Tournament as the top seed in the Midwest Regional and was upset in the opening round by Bemidji State, 5-1. The 31 wins were the second most by a Notre Dame hockey team and the Irish had the lowest goals-against average in the nation (1.71) for the second time in three years.

In 2007-'08 the Irish were 27-16-4 and finished fourth in the CCHA with a 15-9-4 mark. They advanced to the CCHA Tournament in Detroit, but lost to Miami in the semifinals and Northern Michigan in the third-place contest.

The last at-large team to make the NCAA tournament, Notre Dame's offense came to life when it counted.

Advancing to the NCAA West Regional, the Irish knocked off New Hampshire, 7-3, in the first game of the weekend and then stopped Michigan State, 3-1, to win the region, becoming the first fourth-seeded team to advance to the NCAA Frozen Four.

At the Frozen Four, Jackson's squad upset No. 1-ranked Michigan, 5-4, in overtime to move to the national championship game versus Boston College. The Eagles ended the magical ride with a 4-1 victory in Denver.

After going 13-19-4 in his first season behind the bench in 2005-06, Jackson's 2006-07 team got the ball rolling towards Irish hockey success.

During that season, Notre Dame set school records for overall wins (32) and CCHA victories (21) on the way to capturing the school's first-ever CCHA regular-season and tournament championships.

For the first time in the program's history, the Irish were ranked No. 1 in the nation, holding that lofty perch for seven straight weeks. They made their second appearance in the NCAA championship (first as a No. 1 seed) and won their first tournament game.

RECORDS

For his successful season behind the Irish bench, Jackson was named the CCHA coach of the year and the winner of the Spencer Penrose Award as the national coach of the year.

The 60-year-old bench boss took over the Notre Dame hockey program on May 6, 2005, as the fourth coach since the program's Division I inception in 1968. For Jackson, it was a return to his roots - coaching at the collegiate level - as he got his start behind the bench at Lake Superior State.

He inherited a team that struggled through a difficult 5-27-6 season in 2004-05. The Roseville, Michigan native and his staff went right to work to change the team's attitude and perception.

They made giant strides on and off the ice in that first season directing the team's fortunes.

After a slow start (3-9-1), his players began to buy into what the new coach was selling and the Irish finished the year with a 10-10-3 mark over the final 23 games. In CCHA play the Irish showed a 15-point improvement over 2004-05 - going from 3-20-5 to 11-13-4 - good for eighth place in the league and the final home-ice spot in the CCHA playoffs. Only Miami made a bigger jump in 2005-06 with a 16-point improvement.

In Jackson's first 10 seasons, the Irish have played with poise and discipline, relying on team defense, strong goaltending and excellent special teams play. They also laid the foundation for future seasons with major success on the recruiting trail.

In taking over the Irish coaching duties in 2005, Jackson became the first Notre Dame head coach to have won an NCAA Division I championship with another program before being hired as an Irish head coach.

AT LAKE SUPERIOR STATE - Success is nothing new for Jackson at the NCAA Division I level. In six years as the head coach at Lake Superior State (1990-96), Jackson's teams won two NCAA titles in 1992 and 1994 (also advancing to the finals in 1993), two CCHA regular-season championships (1991 and 1996) and four CCHA Mason Cup trophies (1991, 1992, 1993 and 1995).

Jackson got his start in college hockey as an assistant coach at Lake Superior State in 1986 where he served four years under Frank Anzalone, helping guide the Lakers to one CCHA championship and the 1988 NCAA title.

When Anzalone moved to the pro ranks following the 1989-90 season, Jackson took over as the head coach and in a six-year span (1991-96) guided them to six consecutive NCAA appearances, including three straight trips to the title game.

In his first season behind the Lakers' bench, Jackson's squad was 33-10-3 overall and 26-2-4 in league play, winning the CCHA regular-season and tournament titles. The Lakers lost in the NCAA quarterfinals to Clarkson, two games to one.

A year later, Lake Superior State ran off its second 30-plus win season under Jackson, going 30-9-4 on the year, while finishing second in the league with a 20-8-4 mark. The Lakers advanced through the NCAA Tournament to knock off Wisconsin (5-3) in Albany, N.Y., in the first of three trips to the Frozen Four. The Lakers were 32-8-5 during the 1992-93 season and finished third in the CCHA with a 20-5-5 record. They captured the league's tournament title by beating Miami, 3-0, in the finals at Joe Louis Arena. Lake Superior State defeated Minnesota-Duluth in the West Regional to advance to the finals in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. There the Lakers defeated Boston University in the semifinals before falling to Maine in the finals, 5-4.

Lake Superior State didn't dwell on the loss to Maine as the Lakers rebounded with a 31-10-4 record and a second-place CCHA finish in 1993-94. After losing to Michigan in the CCHA title game, Jackson's team rebounded by winning overtime games versus Northeastern (6-5), Michigan (5-4) and Harvard (3-2) to face Boston University in the title game in St. Paul, Minnesota. The Lakers bounced the Terriers, 9-1, to record their second championship in three years.

Jackson's Lakers followed their second championship season in 1994-95 with a 23-12-6 record and won their fourth CCHA tournament title. In the NCAA tournament, they lost to Boston University in the Regional final.

In his final season in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, Jackson saw the Lakers return to the 30-win plateau, going 30-8-2 overall, winning their second regular-season title with a 22-6-2 mark. Lake Superior State lost to Michigan in the CCHA title game (just the second CCHA championship loss in Jackson's six years - 24-2) and saw the season come to an end with a loss in the East Regionals to Vermont.

During his six years guiding the Lakers, Jackson produced 12 All-Americans (five first team and seven second team), one Academic All-American, and in 1991, he was recognized as the CCHA coach of the year. He is just one of 12 coaches to win multiple NCAA championships. From 1993-96, he also served as the director of athletics at Lake Superior State.

Several of Jackson's players advanced to play in the NHL. The list includes Doug Weight, Brian Rolston, Keith Aldridge, Blaine Lacher, John Grahame, Bates Battaglia and Jim Dowd.

Jackson was inducted into the Lake Superior State University athletics hall of fame on July 23, 2009.

WITH USA HOCKEY - On June 7, 1996, Jackson was named the national coach and senior director of the newly founded U.S. National Team Development program based in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

In his first season putting the program in place, he served as the head coach for the United States Junior National Team that captured the silver medal at the 1997 World Junior Championships, at the time the best-ever finish for the U.S. team.

The following year Jackson served as an assistant coach for Team USA at the 1998 Winter Olympics in Nagano, Japan. In his four years directing the national program, eight former Notre Dame players came from the developmental program.

IN THE OHL - In 2000, Jackson left the U.S. program and took over as coach of the Ontario Hockey League's (OHL) Guelph Storm where he turned a losing franchise around, finishing in second place in his first season with a 34-23-9-2 record. In the 2001-02 season the Storm went 37-23-7-1 and hosted the Memorial Cup, advancing to the tiebreaker game where they lost to Victoriaville. In two-and-a-half seasons in Guelph, Jackson had an 87-67-24-4 record.

IN THE NHL - From Guelph, Jackson moved on to the NHL's New York Islanders, where he served as an assistant coach on Steve Stirling's staff from 2003-05. In 2003-04, the Islanders finished third in the NHL's Atlantic Division with a 38-29-11-4 record, good for 91 points.

PERSONAL - A 1978 graduate of Michigan State University with a degree in communications, Jackson followed with an education degree from Michigan State in 1979.

In May 2003, Inside College Hockey, ranked Jackson 12th on its list of the 16 greatest college coaches of all-time with only five of the 16 still active in coaching.

Jackson is a member of the USA Hockey Coaches Achievement Program, the American Hockey Coaches Association and the National Hockey League Coaches Association.

Following the 2006-07 season, Jackson was honored as the national coach of the year with the Spencer Penrose Award.

Associate Head Coach

Paul Pooley returns for his 11th season at the University of Notre Dame as the team's associate head coach. He was named to the position on June 3, 2005, by head coach Jeff Jackson.

It is Pooley's second tour of duty serving as Jackson's associate head coach. During Pooley's first stint, at Lake Superior State (1992-94), he was instrumental in the Lakers' success as they advanced to the NCAA finals three times, winning in 1992 and 1994.

In 10 seasons at Notre Dame, Pooley, along with Jackson and fellow assistant Andy Slaggert, has helped change the culture of Irish hockey.

After a 13-19-4 first season, Pooley has seen the last nine Notre Dame teams go a combined 213-125-36, win a pair of CCHA regular-season titles and three CCHA Mason Cup championships (2007, 2009, 2013) while advancing to the NCAA Tournament five times (2006-09, 2011, 2013), including a pair of trips to the Frozen Four (2008, 2011).

Overseeing the Irish defense, Pooley has seen Notre Dame give up the fewest goals per game (1.67 in '06-'07), the fifth fewest in '07-'08 (2.13) and the fewest again in '08-'09, just 1.71 per game.

At Notre Dame, he has been instrumental in 11 defensemen - Noah Babin (Carolina), Wes O'Neill (Colorado), Ian Cole (St. Louis), Kyle Lawson (Carolina), Teddy Ruth (Columbus), Joe Lavin (Chicago), Sean Lorenz (Minnesota), Stephen Johns (Chicago), Kevin Lind (Anaheim), Shayne Taker (Florida) and Robbie Russo (Detroit) - signing NHL contracts.

During that same time frame, Lawson was named a second-team CCHA all-star and the league's best defensive defenseman ('08-'09). Cole was a first-team all-star in the same year while taking first team All-America honors and in 2011, Lorenz was honored as the CCHA's top defensive defenseman and Johns was a second-team all-Hockey East choice. Most recently, Russo was a first team All-Hockey East selection and went on to earn second team All-America honors in 2015.

In making the announcement of Pooley's hiring, Jackson said, "Paul Pooley brings a certain level of integrity, work ethic and professionalism that I have great respect for. Our relationship in the past became a friendship, but our experience in the past will stay in the past. We're hoping to re-establish a new center of excellence similar to the one that we had at Lake Superior State together."

The veteran coach joined the Irish staff after spending 11 seasons (1994-2005) as head coach at Providence College. During those 11 seasons, Pooley's Friars were a combined 185-187-40, winning the Hockey East title in 1995-96 and appearing in two NCAA tournaments (1996 and 2001).

The 2001 Hockey East and New England coach of the year and a two-time finalist for the Spencer Penrose Award as the national coach of the year, Pooley was instrumental in the development of four All-America players during his tenure at Providence - forwards Chad Quenneville and Devin Rask, goaltender Nolan Schaefer and defenseman Stephen Wood. Six players who played for him with the Friars - Hal Gill, Joe Hulbig, Fernando Pisani, Mike Farrell, Jon DiSalvatore and Schaefer - went on to play in the National Hockey League.

A 1984 Ohio State graduate (cum laude in accounting and marketing), Pooley got his start in college coaching at his alma mater, serving as an assistant to Jerry Welsh with the Buckeyes for three seasons (1988-91) following the end of his professional career.

No stranger to the CCHA, Pooley was one of the conference's top players from 1980-84 and was a second-team selection to the conference's all-decade team of the 1980's. A three-time member of the CCHA's all-academic team, he took Academic All-America honors in 1984.

A second-team all-CCHA selection in 1981, he also was selected as the CCHA's co-rookie of the year that season. Pooley capped his brilliant Ohio State career in 1984 as he was selected as the CCHA player of the year and Bauer's national player of the year, leading the nation in scoring with 32 goals and 64 assists for 96 points in 41 games. Selected first-team all-CCHA and first team All-America as a senior, Pooley is Ohio State's all-time leader in goals (114), assists (156) and points (270) and joined the Ohio State Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994. He became the first Ohio State hockey player to have his number retired on Nov. 4, 2006 during a game between Notre Dame and the Buckeyes.

A native of Exeter, Ontario, Pooley signed with the NHL's Winnipeg Jets following his collegiate career and played two seasons with the Jets' top farm team, the Sherbrooke Canadiens of the American Hockey League, playing on a Calder Cup championship team in 1985. He moved on to play one season with the Fort Wayne Komets of the International Hockey League where he was co-captain of a Komet team that won the 1987 regular-season championship. In his three seasons as a pro, Pooley played in 15 NHL games with the Jets. He retired in 1987 to go into private business with his twin brother, Perry, also an Ohio State hockey All-American.

Pooley and his wife, Kelly, have two children - 21-year old, Scott, who is a sophomore hockey player at College of the Holy Cross, and 18-year old Taylor.

Associate Head Coach

Andy Slaggert, a two-time hockey monogram winner for the Irish, begins his 23rd season as a coach with the University of Notre Dame hockey program and his seventh as associate coach after being promoted in the summer of 2008.

Slaggert is currently the only person to be involved with the Notre Dame hockey program for 20-plus seasons. He holds the unique distinction of having played for the first two coaches of the modern era of Notre Dame hockey - Lefty Smith and Ric Schafer - while also serving as an assistant for Schafer, Dave Poulin and Jeff Jackson.

A tireless worker with a keen eye for talent, Slaggert coordinates the program's highly successful recruiting plan that includes on-and-off campus recruiting and the observation and evaluation of prospective student-athletes.

The popular coach was honored by his peers during the '09-'10 season when he was named the winner of the American Hockey Coaches Association's Terry Flanagan Award for 2010. The award is named in honor of the former New Hampshire player and Bowling Green assistant and honors an assistant coach for his career body of work.

Following the 2008-09 campaign, Slaggert received the Notre Dame hockey team's Distinguished Alumni Award that is presented each year to an alumnus of the program to acknowledge his accomplishments and the example he sets for others as an alumnus of the Notre Dame hockey program.

During Slaggert's 22 seasons as an assistant, he has been involved in the recruiting of 44 players who were selected in the National Hockey League Draft.

That group of 44 includes first round selections Ian Cole (St. Louis in 2007), Kyle Palmieri (Anaheim in 2009) and Riley Sheahan (Detroit in 2010).

This season, two members of the incoming freshman class have been drafted, including Dennis Gilbert (Chicago, third round) and Joe Wegwerth (Florida, fourth round). Last season, four members of the freshman class were drafted, including Connor Hurley (Buffalo, second round), Cal Petersen (Buffalo, fifth round), Anders Bjork (Boston, fifth round) and Jake Evans (Montreal, seventh round).

Notre Dame enters the 2015-16 season with nine NHL draftees on its roster.

The Irish also have had 35 players from the U.S. National Team Development Program play at Notre Dame with 17 playing for the U.S. Junior National Team in the World Junior Championships.

The energetic and hard-working assistant has been highly involved with coaching on the national level since 1997.

During the summer of 2004, Slaggert reached his highest level when he was named head coach of the U.S. Under-17 select team that went on to finish second at the Five Nations Tournament in Halle, Germany. The previous year (2003) the veteran assistant got his first taste of coaching with USA Hockey at the international level when he served as an assistant coach on the U.S. Under-18 Select team that captured the gold medal at the Under-18 World Cup held in the Czech Republic.

During the summers of 2002-05 the native of Saginaw, Michigan, served as head coach at the United States Select 15 tournament held at St. Cloud State.

Since 1997 Slaggert has been involved in coaching Michigan Select teams. During the summer of 2000 he coached the Michigan Select 15 Junior Olympic Festival Team. In 1998 he served as a head coach at the Michigan State Select 16 Festival helping evaluate players who were competing for a chance to play in the national tournament.

In the summer of 1997, Slaggert served as an assistant coach for Team Michigan at the United States Select 15 Festival. From 1997 to 2004 he served as a head coach and evaluator at the Michigan State Bantam Camp in Big Rapids, Mich.

Slaggert also was the primary moving force behind the Notre Dame hockey program's PowerPlay Run/Walk to benefit the fight against cancer.

Slaggert received his bachelor of arts degree from Notre Dame in 1989. He then went on to earn his master's degree in physical education from Ohio University in 1991.

A right wing for the Irish from 1986-89, Slaggert totaled seven goals and six assists over 55 games during his three-year Notre Dame career.

Slaggert's first venture into coaching came in 1989 with the Amerisport International European Hockey Tour and he returned to Notre Dame in 1992.

Slaggert and his wife, Tara, were married in the summer of 1996. The couple resides in South Bend with their hockey-playing sons Graham (16), Landon (13) and Carter (11).

NICK SIERGIEJ

Coordinator of Hockey Operations
8th Season at Notre Dame
Wisconsin-River Falls '06

BRIAN MAHONEY-WILSON

Volunteer Assistant Coach
1st Season at Notre Dame

Nick SiergieJ (pronounced SIR-gay) begins his eighth season with the University of Notre Dame hockey program, serving as the program's coordinator of hockey operations. SiergieJ joined the Irish at the beginning of the 2008-09 campaign after three seasons as the director of hockey operations at the University of Minnesota Duluth.

With the Irish, SiergieJ oversees all aspects of the team's video operations, including filming and editing games and practices to create, maintain and manage a complete statistical and video library for the Notre Dame coaching staff.

SiergieJ also serves as the program's marketing, media and service liaison and assists with the daily operations of the hockey program.

During the summer, SiergieJ is the assistant director of the highly successful Notre Dame hockey camps.

This season, SiergieJ will also serve as Team USA's video coordinator at the 2016 World Junior Championships, which will be held from Dec. 26, 2015, to Jan. 5, 2016, in Helsinki, Finland.

A native of Eagle River, Wis., SiergieJ joined the Minnesota Duluth hockey program in 2006 after spending four years at the University of Wisconsin-River Falls where he also served as the director of hockey operations for the Division III power Falcons.

The 32-year old SiergieJ handled all the video-related duties with the Bulldogs, including game breakdowns and pre-scouting while assisting the coaching staff with various administrative duties.

A 2006 graduate of Wisconsin-River Falls, SiergieJ earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in business administration and a master's degree in education from Minnesota in 2008.

A graduate of Northland Pines High School in Eagle River, he was a four-year letter winner in golf. As a senior he was team captain and took team most valuable player honors. While at Northlands, SiergieJ was the equipment manager and administrative assistant for the boys hockey team.

SiergieJ and his wife, Dawn, a Notre Dame women's soccer assistant coach, were married in May 2014 and reside in South Bend.

Brian Mahoney-Wilson begins his first season with the Notre Dame hockey program in 2015-16, serving as the team's Volunteer Assistant Coach.

Mahoney-Wilson joins the Notre Dame program after spending the 2014-15 season as a Volunteer Assistant Coach/Goaltending Coach with the United States Military Academy in West Point, N.Y. While with the Black Knights, Mahoney-Wilson assisted with goaltender and defenseman development, created weekly scouting reports, prepared and managed practices and edited video.

Prior to Army, Mahoney-Wilson was an Assistant Coach/Goaltending Coach with the South Shore Kings of the United States Premier Hockey League (USPHL) in 2013-14. During his time with the Kings, he worked with the Premier, Elite, and U-18 teams and was responsible for on-ice instruction of all goaltenders, in addition to practice and video analysis and scouting.

Mahoney-Wilson has also served as a Director and Goaltending Instructor at Stop It Goaltending (Foxboro, Massachusetts) as well as a goaltending instructor for Massachusetts Crease (Dedham, Massachusetts) and at Lovell's Hockey Schools (Dedham, Massachusetts).

Mahoney-Wilson graduated from Lake Superior State University in 2011 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications. A four-year goaltender for the Lakers, he was named the Central Collegiate Hockey Association's (CCHA) Freshman Goaltender of the Year in 2008. As a sophomore, he posted a 2.66 goals-against average and a .915 save percentage in 25 games.

Following his time with the Lakers, he played the 2011-12 season with the Allen Americans, the Missouri Mavericks and the Bloomington Blaze of the Central Hockey League (CHL). He was drafted in the ninth round (288th overall) by the San Jose Sharks in the 2004 NHL Draft.

Mahoney-Wilson resides in South Bend.

TOM NEVALA

Senior Associate Athletic Director
Hockey Administration
Notre Dame '90

Tom Nevala is in his 25th year as a member of the athletics administration at the University of Notre Dame and currently serves as senior associate athletics director for business operations. In his present role he oversees all financial matters for the Notre Dame athletics department.

From 2011 through 2015, Nevala served as the first general manager of the Compton Family Ice Arena, overseeing the operations, programming and financials of this regional center of activity that has made the significant impact for the campus and local community as it was envisioned.

Nevala previously spent five years as associate athletics director from 2005 to 2009, while spending the five years before that as assistant athletics director for business operations.

Nevala is a member of the ACC finance committee for a three-year term through the 2015-16 academic year.

Nevala serves as the day-to-day administrative contact for the Irish hockey program. He represents Notre Dame on the Hockey East Association Board of Directors. In partnership with the Chicago Sports Commission, the United Center and the Chicago Blackhawks, he helped develop the successful bid to host the NCAA Frozen Four in Chicago in 2017. Previously Nevala served in a similar capacity for the Central Collegiate Hockey Association. He served as chair of the CCHA's executive committee in 2006-07, and also served on the CCHA's strategic planning committee. During the recent changes in college hockey, Nevala led Notre Dame's efforts to determine its future conference alignment that culminated in the decision to join Hockey East in 2013-14. He also led the effort for Notre Dame to partner with Fort Wayne to host the Midwest Regional during the 2010 NCAA Men's Ice Hockey Tournament. Nevala served a four-year term as the CCHA's representative on the NCAA Division I Men's Ice Hockey Committee. He served as the chair of that committee for 2012-13, which concluded with the NCAA Frozen Four in Pittsburgh, Pa.

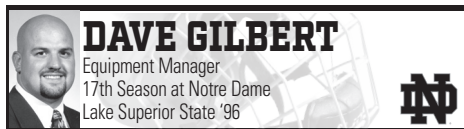

Nevala played a key role for the athletics department from 2008 through 2011 as a member of the team that developed the concept, the final design and then oversaw construction of the Compton Family Ice Arena.

Active in campus matters, Nevala has served on the University's equity in athletics task force, served on the continuous improvement departmental assessment team, represents athletics on the campus administration guidance counsel for the Office of Information Technology, and the University's business managers group. Nevala spent five years as the business manager for athletics, following time as business manager of the Joyce Center and two years as director of the Varsity Shop and ice rink manager for that facility.

During the 1999-2000 academic year Nevala coordinated the effort to form the Notre Dame alumni football team that traveled to Germany in July of 2000 and defeated the Hamburg Blue Devils in the Charity Bowl. He also served as tournament director of the 1997 BIG EAST Men's Golf Championship.

A 1990 Notre Dame graduate with a degree in aerospace engineering, Nevala returned to the University in the fall of that year to attend graduate school and work in the athletics business office. He earned his MBA in interdisciplinary studies in May of 1992.

An associate football manager for the 1989 season as an undergraduate, Nevala is a native of Maynard, Mass. He is married to the former Jen Turgeon, a 1993 Saint Mary's graduate and a native of Brunswick, Maine. They have two children, a daughter, Sofia (10), and a son, Benjamin (8).

DAVE GILBERT

Equipment Manager
17th Season at Notre Dame
Lake Superior State '96

Dave Gilbert enters his 17th season as equipment manager at the University of Notre Dame — and he is no stranger to head coach Jeff Jackson.

One of the premier equipment specialists in college hockey, Gilbert was a member of Jackson's 1991-92 NCAA title team as a walk-on goaltender at Lake Superior State. The Marquette, Michigan, native served as a backup to a pair of eventual NHL goaltenders — Darrin Madeley and Blaine Lacher — during that championship season.

During his final four years as an undergraduate, Gilbert worked for the Lakers' hockey program as a student equipment manager. In that capacity, he was associated with the NCAA runner-up squad in 1992-93, the NCAA championship team of 1993-94, and two other teams that reached the NCAA quarterfinals (1994-95 and 1995-96).

Gilbert's year-long responsibilities involve overseeing the equipment and travel needs of the Irish hockey program. This season, Gilbert will also serve as Team USA's equipment manager at the 2016 World Junior Championships, which will be held from Dec. 26, 2015, to Jan. 5, 2016, in Helsinki, Finland.

Gilbert graduated from Lake Superior State in May 1996 with a degree in exercise science, and he remained for the next two years as the head equipment manager for the school's 11 varsity sports.

During his time with the Lakers' hockey program, Gilbert was associated with several individuals who remain active in hockey at other levels. Gilbert served under head equipment manager Paul Boyer at Lake Superior State in '92-'93, with Boyer now holding the position of head equipment manager for the Detroit Red Wings.

Besides being reunited with Jackson in 2005-06, Gilbert also rejoined associate head coach Paul Pooley who also was a member of Jackson's staff at Lake Superior State from 1992-94 while Gilbert played and worked for the Lakers.

During the summer of 2005, Gilbert was a member of the equipment staff at USA Hockey's Junior National Team tryout camp, held in Lake Placid, New York.

At the Notre Dame hockey team's 2009 postseason awards program, Gilbert was selected to receive the team's Honorary Alumnus Award that is presented each year to a person who, while not an alumnus of the program, made major contributions due to his affiliation with the hockey program.

Gilbert, and his wife Heather have one son, Dolan (14), and a daughter, Halle (13). They reside in South Bend.

TONY ROLINSKI

Director of Strength and Conditioning
17th Season at Notre Dame
Penn State '91

Tony Rolinski, a veteran member of the University of Notre Dame strength and conditioning staff since 1998, was named Director of Strength and Conditioning for Olympic Sports on July 1, 2010. The 2015-16 season will mark his 18th working within the Notre Dame athletics department. Rolinski is responsible for the development and implementation of the strength and conditioning programming for 25 Irish sports while continuing to have day-to-day oversight for the men's basketball and hockey teams.

Rolinski's position is part of Notre Dame's Sports Performance Program, an initiative that began at the start of the 2009-10 school year. The Sports Performance Program focuses on the areas of strength and conditioning, athletic training/rehabilitation, sports medicine, sports nutrition, sports psychology and equipment with the goal of assisting all athletic teams to achieve maximum athletic success.

Rolinski had served as the associate director prior to his promotion for the past four years. Previous to that, he spent five years as the program's strength and conditioning coordinator and three years as an assistant strength coach. He continues to be responsible for the day-to-day operation of the Joyce Center and Compton Family Ice Arena strength training facilities and the management of the Olympic sport's strength and conditioning staff. Further, he will help facilitate new programming for the Sports Performance Program.

He joined the Fighting Irish strength and conditioning staff following a one-year stint as the head strength and conditioning coach at Duquesne University during the 1997-98 school year, where he implemented and oversaw programs for 20 varsity sports.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Rolinski received his bachelor's degree in health education with a minor in exercise science from Penn State in 1991. From 1994-96, while earning his master's degree in exercise physiology at the University of Pittsburgh, he served as an intern on the Panther football staff where he assisted with all aspects of the strength and conditioning program. Following his stint at Pittsburgh, Rolinski was the head strength and conditioning coach at North Hills High School in suburban Pittsburgh (1996-97).

In May of 2014, Rolinski received the highest honor given in the strength and conditioning coaching profession when he was named a Master Strength and Conditioning coach (MSCC) by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa). He has also earned certification through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSC). Rolinski was honored at the hockey team's 2014 postseason awards program, as he received the team's Honorary Alumni Award.

Born December 10, 1968, Rolinski and his wife, the former Julie Connolly, have two daughters, Allie and Jaclyn, and two sons, Jake and Jared.

Notre Dame hockey's cardio room includes 15 Keiser M3 spin bikes, five Keiser M3 total body bikes, one UBE, two Woodway Curve treadmills, two Woodway Force treadmills, one Woodway Desmo treadmill and Slideboards available for the team's conditioning needs.

The Notre Dame hockey team has its own state-of-the-art strength and conditioning center, located in the Compton Family Ice Arena. The center includes a 4,500-square foot weight room and a 1,500-square foot cardio area. Both are located just steps away from the Irish hockey locker room and the "Lefty" Smith Rink.

The mission of the Notre Dame strength and conditioning program is to provide a well-designed, collaborative training program based on sound physiological principals. Sport-specific focus, experimentally proven methods, safe and productive physical training by means of a periodic plan are the primary points of emphasis while maximizing the genetic potential of the student-athlete population. The goal is to provide the student-athlete with the best "hands on" strength and conditioning program in the country.

To help Notre Dame hockey players achieve success in the mission, they have at their disposal one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the nation and it's just steps from the Irish hockey locker room and the ice at the Compton Family Ice Arena.

The Irish have at their disposal a 4,500-square foot weight room and a 1,500-square foot cardio area, packed with top-of-the-line and state-of-the-art equipment.

THE HOCKEY WEIGHT ROOM FEATURES:

- 12 Platform/Rack/Benches work stations with Technique Boxes

- One UBE
- Two Woodway Curve Treadmills
- Two Woodway Force Treadmills
- One Woodway Desmo Treadmill
- Slideboards

Chad Grotegut is in his fourth season as the academic counselor for the University of Notre Dame hockey program. He is in his ninth year at Notre Dame, having joined the Office of Academic Services for Student-Athletes in August 2007.

In his current position, Grotegut works with the Fighting Irish hockey team, women's lacrosse and the men and women's soccer programs.

A 2000 graduate of Iowa State, Grotegut monitors the academic performance and eligibility status of assigned student-athletes. He also helps student-athletes create individual learning plans, gauges academic success, oversees components of the first-year transition program and coordinates programming for the summer bridge program geared towards incoming first-year student-athletes.

Prior to arriving at Notre Dame, Grotegut worked as an academic program coordinator at Iowa State University from 2000-07.

A native of Postville, Iowa, Grotegut earned his Bachelor of Education degree in 2000 and a Master's in Educational Leadership & Policy Studies from Iowa State in 2003.

Grotegut and his wife, Jennifer, who also is a graduate of Iowa State, reside in South Bend.

Chad Grotegut serves as the academic advisor for the Notre Dame hockey team. Here he meets with Steven Fogarty (left) and Mario Lucia (right) to discuss the players' weekly class schedule.

The Coleman-Morse Center is the home to Notre Dame's Academic Services for Student-Athletes. The center houses classrooms, staff offices, a tutoring center, a computer cluster, workrooms and a lounge available to all Notre Dame students.

The office of Academic Services for Student-Athletes is designed to help Notre Dame fulfill its commitment to all student-athletes in their pursuit of college degrees and academic excellence. In order to achieve these goals, Academic Services has four major aims: to maintain the academic integrity of the University; to comply with University and NCAA rules and regulations; to maintain the academic good standing of every student-athlete; and to assist every student-athlete to graduate in four years. These objectives work together and are aimed at teaching student-athletes to be responsible for themselves academically.

To this end, Academic Services provides student-athletes many services that begin when freshmen arrive on campus and continue through graduation. The office provides consistent counseling and appropriate interventions regarding academic matters and refers student-athletes to campus offices where they can meet regularly with their professors and use support services provided by the various colleges and departments.

As soon as student-athletes begin classes, Academic Services monitors their progress through professor surveys that ask professors to comment on each student's work level, attendance and any need for tutorial help. If a professor or student-athlete feels there is need for additional help, Academic Services provides tutorial assistance.

In addition to this interaction with the faculty, the members of the Academic Services office meet with student-athletes to develop personal relationships. These sessions help develop semester-long and career academic goals. Discussions may include such topics as summer-school attendance, class scheduling and career possibilities.

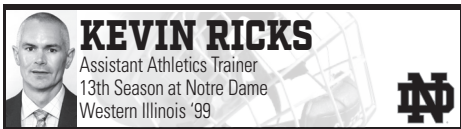

In 2001 the Academic-Services department received a new home through a generous donation by football alumnus Jim Morse and his wife, Leah Rae, when the Coleman-Morse Center was completed. A $14-million building, the James and Leah Rae Morse Center for Academic Services houses Notre Dame's First Year of Studies Program and Academic Services for Student-Athletes. It also contains the University Writing Center and a satellite office for the Center for Social Concerns, plus classrooms, staff offices, a tutoring center, a computer cluster, workrooms and a lounge.

Working alongside the athletic department's Student Welfare and Development office, Academic Services helps coordinate numerous workshops and speakers to assist student-athletes with post-graduate planning and transition into professional careers. Offered in conjunction with the University Counseling Center, workshops cover such topics as stress management, socialization to college life, adjusting to physical trauma and conflict management.

KEVIN RICKS

Assistant Athletics Trainer
13th Season at Notre Dame
Western Illinois '99

Kevin Ricks begins his 15th year as an athletic trainer at Notre Dame and his 13th with the Irish hockey program. He currently serves as the hockey athletic trainer while assisting with football.

During his previous 14 seasons at Notre Dame, he also has worked with the women's soccer team, women's rowing, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's track and the men's and women's fencing programs.

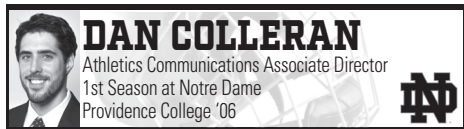

Prior to coming to Notre Dame, Ricks worked two years at the University of Mississippi as a graduate assistant athletic trainer, spending one year working with the men's and women's track and field teams and one year working with the football team. He earned his master's degree in exercise science, with an emphasis in biomechanics, from Mississippi in 2001.

Ricks spent the summer of 1999 as an intern at Chicago's Athletico Sports Medicine and Physical Therapy Clinic. In the summer of 1998 he served as a student athletic trainer intern at the St. Louis Rams training camp and Rams preseason football games.

A native of Peoria, Illinois, Ricks is a 1999 graduate of Western Illinois University, where he received his degree in athletic training.

Ricks is a certified member of the National Athletic Training Association.

Ricks and his wife Cheryl have two sons, Hunter, who will turn eight at the beginning of the season and Levi, who is five. They reside in South Bend.

DAN COLLERAN

Athletics Communications Associate Director
1st Season at Notre Dame
Providence College '06

Dan Colleran returned to the Notre Dame staff as an Associate Director of Athletics Communications in July of 2015. He is the primary contact for the hockey and men's golf programs.

Prior to returning to Notre Dame, Colleran spent three years (2012-15) as the Senior Assistant Director of Athletic Media Relations at his alma mater, Providence College. He served as the primary contact for the nationally ranked and 2015 NCAA Div. I champion men's hockey team as well as the nationally ranked and 2014 NCAA Div. I College Cup semifinalist men's soccer team. He also worked closely with several graduate assistants who handled media relations for the women's soccer, women's hockey and softball teams.

While with the Friars, Colleran handled all publicity and media relations efforts for the men's hockey team's 2015 NCAA Div. I Championship run, which was the College's first NCAA men's team title. He successfully promoted two-time All-American (2013 & 2015) and National Rookie of the Year (2013) Jon Gillies. He also increased the use of social media platforms such as Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and Snapchat to further promote the Friar brand, while increasing engagement with fans, alumni and national and local media.

Colleran also oversaw the publicity efforts surrounding the Grand Re-Opening of Schneider Arena (Sept. 2013) and served as a media relations volunteer for the NCAA's Frozen Four media relations committee (2014). During the Big East's transition phase, he served as the men's soccer communications contact for the 2013 season and compiled the Conference's weekly release.

Prior to Providence College, Colleran spent two years at the Ivy League conference office (2010-12) in Princeton, N.J., ending his tenure as an Assistant Executive Director for Communications and Championships. With the League, he served as the primary communications contact for men's and women's soccer, men's lacrosse, men's and women's ice hockey, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's golf, men's and women's fencing, field hockey and softball. He also assisted in the planning and executing of several of the league's championship events.

At the Ivy League, Colleran integrated the conference with social media platforms and new media endeavors and created the League's London Olympics Blog and subsequent coverage, which promoted the League's 48 athletes and nine coaches who took part in the 2012 Olympic Games. He also served on multiple committees, including the Ad Hoc Men's Ice Hockey Committee on Concussions and the Digital Strategies Committee, which ultimately led to the creation of the Ivy League Digital Network.

Colleran first worked at the University of Notre Dame as a sports information assistant from 2008-10, handling media relations responsibilities for the Irish men's and women's fencing teams, the men's tennis and men's and women's golf programs. He also assisted with the women's soccer and hockey teams.

Colleran arrived at Notre Dame after spending two years as a graduate assistant in the Providence College sports information office while working on his MBA (marketing concentration), which he received in May 2008. As a graduate assistant, Colleran served as the primary contact for the women's hockey and women's soccer programs, while assisting with the men's hockey, men's soccer, softball, men's basketball and men's lacrosse squads.

Colleran graduated from Providence College with a bachelor's degree in English in May of 2006. He worked in the sports information office as a student assistant from 2002-06.

A native of Walpole, Mass., Colleran and his wife, Liz, reside in South Bend, Ind.

MASON GRADDOCK

Hockey and Programming Intern
1st Season at Notre Dame
Middlebury College '09

Mason Graddock begins his first season with the Fighting Irish in 2015-16, serving as the Notre Dame Hockey Programming and Operations Intern.

A native of Stowe, Vermont Graddock graduated from Middlebury College in 2009 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics. A two-sport student-athlete, Graddock lettered in hockey in each of his four seasons with the Panthers and served as a team captain in 2008-09. In addition, Graddock lettered in tennis as a junior and senior.

During his four seasons of ice hockey, he helped the Panthers to the 2006 DIII NCAA Championship as well as another title-game appearance in 2007. The Panthers won NESCAC titles in 2006 and 2007 and made it to the championship game in each of Graddock's four seasons. As a senior, he posted a career-high 14 goals and added nine assists for 23 points in 27 games. He earned the NESCAC Sportsmanship Award and went on to play professionally from 2009-11 with the Norfolk Admirals (AHL), IFK Arboga IK (Swedish First Division), the Utah Grizzlies (ECHL) and with Bjorkloven IK (Swedish First Division).

Before joining the Notre Dame staff, Graddock spent the previous four seasons as an assistant coach at Middlebury, where he was the head of recruiting and worked closely with the Panthers' forwards. During those four seasons, he recruited four all-NESCAC ice hockey selections, one NESCAC Rookie of the Year and one AHCA First Team All-American. He was heavily involved in the Panthers' special teams, developing and implementing penalty kill and power-play units that were nationally ranked.

Graddock, who also served as an assistant women's tennis coach at Middlebury (2012-15), graduated from Stowe High School in 2006. He resides in South Bend.

• A young Irish hockey team, which regularly dressed seven or eight freshmen, came together as the year progressed en route to an 18-19-5 record. The team defeated three top-10 teams in February, including eventual national champion Providence and eventual national runner-up Boston University. Benefitting from the stronger second half to the season, Notre Dame finished 10-7-5 in Hockey East games, placing fifth of 12 teams in what proved to be the nation's top conference in 2014-15.

• After tying for the national lead in goals scored among defensemen, senior Robbie

Russo was rewarded for his stellar 2014-15 season with a spot on the CCM Hockey

All-America team. Russo matched Denver's Joey LaLeggia with 15 goals for most in the country among blue-liners—while his 41 points fell one shy of the national defenseman pace of 42 set by Mike Reilly of Minnesota. A first-team all-Hockey East selection, Russo led the conference in both goals and points by a defenseman.

• Freshman goaltender Cal Petersen turned in a spectacular second half of the season between the pipes, earning either the Hockey East's Player of the Week, Defensive Player of the Week or Rookie of the Week honor for five consecutive weeks between Feb. 9 and March 9. Highlighting that streak was his NCAA Division I record 87-save performance in Notre Dame's 4-3 quintuple overtime loss to Massachusetts in the Hockey East playoffs first round (March 6). In February, Petersen led the nation by posting a .962 save percentage, stopping 279 of the 290 shots he faced.

• Hockey East proved to be the country's top conference in 2014-15 and two of its six best came from Notre Dame as both forward Vince Hinostroza and Russo earned first-team all-conference accolades. The coupling of Hinostroza and Russo marked the first time Notre Dame had two first-team all-conference picks in the same season since 1976-77 when Jack Brownschidle and Brian Walsh were both named to the all-WCHA first team. Additionally, Petersen earned league recognition as he was named as the goaltender on the Hockey East all-rookie team.

• The Irish lineup in 2014-15 featured 10 NHL draftees, tying for third-most nationally and standing as the top sum in Hockey East. Seven of the 10 will return for 2015-16, to be joined by a trio of incoming drafted freshmen. The 10 draftees from 2014-15 were

Season In Review

Anders Bjork (Boston), Thomas DiPauli (Washington), Jake Evans (Montreal), Steven Fogarty (New York Rangers), Hinostrza (Chicago), Connor Hurley (Buffalo), Mario Lucia (Minnesota), Petersen (Buffalo), Russo (New York Islanders) and Austin Wuthrich (Washington).

- Off of the ice, senior Peter Schneider earned Capital One Academic All-America honors on the spring at-large team. Boasting a 3.91 cumulative grade-point average as a double major, earning degrees in economics and finance and a minor in actuary from the Mendoza College of Business, Schneider also was named the recipient of the Notre Dame Club of St. Joseph Valley Rockne Student-Athlete Award for the third time in his career. Schneider was joined on the Hockey East all-academic team by teammates Joe Aiken, Tony Bretzman, Fogarty, Eric Johnson, Chad Katunar, Petersen, Luke Ripley, Andy Ryan and Nick Stasack.

- Both Jordan Gross and Mario Lucia posted identical nine-game point scoring streaks which were both snapped on Saturday, Jan. 24 at Northeastern. The identical runs stand as the longest Notre Dame point scoring streaks since Ryan Thang recorded an 11-game streak from Feb. 9 to March 23, 2007. Gross and Lucia both contributed to the scoring on Dec. 5 at UMass and every game afterwards until the second night at Matthews Arena. Lucia had eight goals and three assists for 11 points over the run while Gross had 12 points, coming on three goals and nine assists.

- With Bryan Rust playing in his first NHL game on Dec. 13, 2014 for the Pittsburgh Penguins, Notre Dame had six former players playing in the National Hockey League during the 2014-15 season. Rust joined Erik Condra (Ottawa), Anders Lee (New York Islanders), Riley Sheahan (Detroit), Ian Cole (St. Louis) and Kyle Palmieri (Anaheim). The most players the Irish have ever had in the NHL at one time is seven.

- For the third time in as many seasons, father and son faced off against each other when Minnesota faced Notre Dame on Nov. 7 and 9. Don Lucia, a 1981 Notre Dame graduate and the head coach of the Gophers, faced his son, Irish left wing Mario Lucia. Don Lucia played four seasons (1977-81) at Notre Dame for Coach Lefty Smith, as a defenseman where he saw action in 124 games, scoring seven goals with 23 assists for 30 points. Now in his 16th season as the head coach at Minnesota, Lucia has been a collegiate head coach for 28 seasons. Mario, a junior, leads Notre Dame with 20 goals so far this season. In five games versus his dad's team, Mario has two goals and one assist for three points. The Irish are 1-4-0 in the five contests. A second member of the Minnesota coaching staff, associate head coach Mike Guentzel, also sent a son to Notre Dame. Ryan Guentzel '11 played for Jeff Jackson at Notre Dame from 2007-11 and was a member of two Frozen Four teams (2008 and 2011).

- Freshman Anders Bjork (Mequon, Wis.) became the fourth Notre Dame hockey-playing son to follow his father to Notre Dame. His dad, Kirt Bjork, was an All-America at Notre Dame during the 1982-83 campaign and is tied for 12th on Notre Dame's all-time points list with 161, after notching 76 goals and 85 assists in 141 career games. He is currently a director of regional development in Notre Dame's development office. Anders Bjork also has another family tie to Irish hockey, as his cousin is former Irish standout Erik Condra, who is currently a member of the Ottawa Senators. As the fourth son to follow his father to Notre Dame, Anders joins current Irish left wing Mario Lucia (Don Lucia) and graduated players Kevin Nugent (Kevin Nugent, Sr.) and Rory Walsh (Brian Walsh) to play at Notre Dame after their fathers.

Vince Hinostrza led Notre Dame by posting a career-high 44 points on 11 goals and 33 assists during the 2014-15 season. He was named a 2015 All-Hockey East First Team selection.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. -- For the second consecutive night, University of Notre Dame goaltender Chad Katunar made 32 saves with none bigger than his final save of the night when he stopped UMass Lowell's Joe Gambardella on a breakaway with five seconds left in overtime to give the Irish a 2-2 tie with the River Hawks.

Notre Dame built a 2-0 lead in the game on goals by Mario Lucia and Sam Herr, only to see UMass Lowell battle back to tie the game at 2-2 on goals by John Edwardh and Gambardella. The Irish looked like they took the lead at 13:52 of the third period, scoring on a power-play goal by Austin Wuthrich but after a referee's video review, an Irish player was ruled in the crease and the goal overturned.

The River Hawks out shot Notre Dame by a 34-23 margin with Katunar, who started back-to-back games for the first time in his career, 32 saves to equal his career high set on Thursday night. Kevin Boyle had 21 saves for UMass Lowell.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. -- Union College right wing Matt Wilkins scored his second goal of the night and the game winner with 22 seconds left in overtime to give the Dutchmen a 3-2 win over the University of Notre Dame Friday night in the opening round of the 2014 Shillelagh Tournament.

The win sends Union to the championship game at 4:05 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 29 versus Western Michigan. The Broncos advanced with a 6-2 victory over Ohio State in the opening game of the tournament at the Compton Family Ice Arena.

The Irish led in the game against Union 2-0 on goals by Sam Herr and Austin Wuthrich and despite the stellar goaltending of sophomore Chad Katunar, could not make the lead stand up as Union got third-period goals from Spencer Foo and Watkins to tie the game.

AMHERST, Mass. -- Senior defenseman Robbie Russo scored twice and Austin Wuthrich and Mario Lucia each scored once while freshman goaltender Cal Petersen stopped all 14 shots he faced as the University of Notre Dame blanked the University of Massachusetts 4-0 Saturday night at the Mullins Center.

Sophomore forward Vince Hinostroza picked up three assists in the game while Wuthrich and Lucia also had assists for two-point nights. For Petersen, the shutout was the second of his young career.

The win, coupled with Friday night's 7-5 victory, gives the Irish their first Hockey East road sweep since joining the conference at the start of the 2013-14 season.

ESTERO, Fla. -- Down 2-0 with 6:43 remaining in the third period against No. 6 Miami University, the University of Notre Dame hockey team scored two goals in the game's final minutes, and then a third with 46 seconds remaining in overtime to stun the RedHawks in game one of the Florida College Hockey Classic at Germain Arena.

With the win, the Irish (9-8-2) advance to the championship game of the two-day tournament to play Lake Superior State at 7:35 p.m. ET Monday. The Lakers beat Cornell in a shoot out in Sunday's nightcap. Notre Dame already owns a pair of victories over Lake Superior State this year at Compton Family Ice Arena, 5-3 and 5-1.

Many heroes appeared for the Irish in the comeback win, but maybe none more so than freshman right winger Jake Evans, who found the back of the net for the game-tying and game-winning goals while also assisting on Notre Dame's first lamp lighter.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. -- The Notre Dame hockey team peppered the Connecticut net all night long, taking a season-high 44 shots on goal, but Husky netminder Rob Nichols was able to save 41 of them to help preserve a 3-3 tie on Friday night at a sold out Compton Family Ice Arena.

The 44 shots are Notre Dame's most in Hockey East play and its most overall since placing 45 shots on net against Lake Superior State on Jan. 18, 2014. The Irish knotted the score on the power play midway through the third period on an Austin Wuthrich goal.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. -- Robbie Russo became the first Notre Dame hockey defenseman to score a hat trick since 1988, lifting the Irish to a 6-1 win over Connecticut on Sunday afternoon.

Russo leads all defensemen nationally with both his 11 goals and 24 points on the year. He completed the first hat trick by a Notre Dame defenseman since Frank O'Brien on Feb. 20, 1988 against Lake Forest, prior to the program fully joining the Division I ranks.

The win was also the 400th of Notre Dame head coach Jeff Jackson's 16-year career. Jackson is the seventh active Division I coach to reach the 400 career win milestone, doing it in five fewer seasons than any of the other six.

Cal Petersen made 28 saves in the Irish net to pick up his sixth victory of the season. Rob Nichols stopped 35 shots for the Huskies. Notre Dame outshot the Huskies, 41-29.

BOSTON, Mass. -- The Notre Dame hockey team fought courageously in the third period, erasing a 2-0 deficit, but Northeastern found a way to notch a final strike to lift the Huskies to a 3-2 win over the Irish on Friday night at Matthews Arena in Boston.

The Irish enjoyed a 13-8 shot advantage in the third period but that did not erase the cumulative effects of the opening two periods as the Huskies outshot the Irish 40-25 on the evening. Cal Petersen made 37 saves, his most since Nov. 7, in a valiant but losing effort.

BOSTON, Mass. -- The Notre Dame hockey team saw its power play click better than it has all season, producing a pair of goals on three attempts, but that success was not enough to overcome Northeastern as the Huskies picked up a 4-2 victory over the Irish to complete a weekend sweep on their home ice at Matthews Arena.

Notre Dame got the first of those two goals back on the power play, cutting its deficit to just 3-2 with 4:41 left in regulation. Defenseman Robbie Russo provided a heavy shot from the point and Anders Bjork was able to pick up the rebound for his second career goal. The assist was Russo's 25th point of the year. He entered the contest leading all blueliners nationally in both goals and points. In a dramatic change of fortunes, it marked Notre Dame's sixth power play goal in the last five games.

Petersen made 22 saves in the Irish net while Clay Witt stopped 21 shots to earn the win for Northeastern.

ORONO, Maine -- Vince Hinostroza assisted on three goals to help the Notre Dame hockey team pick up a point on the road with a 4-4 tie at Maine's Alfond Arena on Friday night.

The Black Bears and Irish played two back-and-forth periods before settling into a scoreless third period and overtime to split the two points in the standings. Hinostroza had multiple points for the first time in the past six games, all of which he has at least one point in. It marked his second three-assist game of the year, joining his Dec. 6 effort at Massachusetts, and matches the most by a Notre Dame skater since 2010.

ORONO, Maine -- For the second night in a row, Vince Hinostroza tallied three points to earn the first star, but this time it was in a victorious effort as the Notre Dame hockey team claimed a 5-1 win over Maine at Alfond Arena. Thanks in part to Hinostroza's two-goal, four-assist weekend, Notre Dame took three out of the four points in Orono and leap into sole possession of fifth place in the Hockey Eats standings.

Hinostroza's linemates of Mario Lucia and Anders Bjork helped fuel the team's fire. Bjork scored twice and added two assists this weekend while Lucia collected points each night as well. The trio combined to record 12 points this weekend. Freshman netminder Cal Petersen helped steady the Irish ship on Saturday, making 33 saves, several of them in spectacular fashion.

Providence College hockey team think it was facing an NHL goaltender on Friday night as Petersen made 38 saves for the Irish in a 2-0 shutout of the Friars at Notre Dame's Compton Family Ice Arena.

The reigning Hockey East Defensive Player of the Week, Petersen set the tone for the evening and he extended his personal shutout streak to 112:37. Petersen has now stopped 81 of his last 82 shots. Tonight's shutout is Petersen's third of the year

Vince Hinostroza factored into each Notre Dame goal, scoring the second and picking up the primary assist on the first. The sophomore has recorded multiple points in five of his last eight contests.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. -- Wintry weather enveloped South Bend on Saturday and fans either arriving late to Notre Dame's hockey game at the Compton Family Ice Arena, or leaving it early, missed none of the offensive action as all five goals were scored in a frantic second period. Unfortunately for the home fans, three of the five second period goals came from No. 10 Providence College, lifting the Friars to a 3-2 win over the Irish and a split of the weekend series.

Notre Dame killed three third period penalties but didn't get a goal of its own at the offensive end and the final score remained 3-2. Jon Gillies made 23 saves on the night while Cal Petersen ended up with 32 for Providence.

BOSTON, Mass. -- No. 2 Boston University had not surrendered points to the same opponent twice this season until it ran headlong into Notre Dame and Cal Petersen. The freshman netminder made 44 saves on Saturday night to lift the Irish to a 3-2 win at the Terriers' Agganis Arena a night after stopping 34 pucks in a 2-2 tie.

Notre Dame prevented BU from securing the Hockey East regular season championship for the second consecutive night.

The two-time defending Hockey East Defensive Player of the Week, Petersen stopped 78 of 82 shots this weekend, the four goals against marking the fewest all year in a weekend series against a single opponent by the nation's second-ranked offense in BU.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. -- Last year the Notre Dame hockey team denied top-seeded Boston College a Hockey East tournament championship with a best-of-three quarterfinal series victory. On Friday night, No. 9 Boston College kept its hopes for a regular season conference championship alive by posting a 2-0 shutout over Notre Dame at the Compton Family Ice Arena.

The Eagles stayed in second-place with the win, two points behind league front-runner Boston University, while the Irish dipped from a tie for third place into sixth place in the constricted league standings with just Saturday night's regular season finale against BC to go.

In the first home varsity athletic contest since the passing of University president emeritus Fr. Theodore Hesburgh late Thursday night, the hockey team honored the campus icon prior to the game with a moment of silence and the playing of a tribute video on the IrishVision screens. The team also wore round black remembrance decals on the back of their gold helmets saying "Fr. Ted."

BOSTON, Mass. -- The Notre Dame hockey team played in its traditional Senior Night kelly green uniforms but goaltender Cal Petersen left No. 9 Boston College seeing red. The freshman made 55 saves to lead the Irish to a 3-1 win at the Compton Family Ice Arena. It is the third week in a row where Notre Dame has defeated a top 10 opponent, joining a Feb. 13 win over No. 10 Providence and a Feb. 21 victory over No. 2 Boston University.

Petersen, who has earned one of Hockey East's weekly honors each of the past three weeks staked a claim to a fourth as he made 88 saves on 91 shots this weekend against the No. 9 Eagles. In the month of February, Petersen stopped 279 out of 290 shots, a .962 save percentage that led the nation.

It marked the most saves by a Notre Dame goalie since Nov. 12, 1988 when Lance Madson made 57 in a 6-3 loss to Air Force. The last time a Notre Dame netminder has stopped as many as 50 shots in a game came on Oct. 22, 2004 when Morgan Cey blocked 50 in a 3-2 win over Boston College.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. -- Originally credited with a hat trick but later changed to just two goals, Steven Iacobellis of the Massachusetts hockey team normally would have been a star of the game but he was just one of 21 student-athletes in maroon merely happy to lift his arms in victory, assuming he had the strength remaining, after UMass beat Notre Dame, 4-3, in five overtimes Friday night in the longest hockey game in college hockey history. A Compton Family Ice Arena crowd of 3,994, several hundred of which stayed for more than 2.5 regulation games worth of action, saw history unfold.

On a night where Notre Dame goaltender Cal Petersen set an NCAA record by making 87 saves, UMass goaltender Steve Mastalerz stopped 75 shots, tied for fifth-most in NCAA history, and Shane Walsh scored to end the contest at 1:24 a.m. EST after 151:42 of game-time.

The previous record for the longest game in college hockey history was a 150:22 marathon where Quinnipiac defeated Union, 3-2, in the ECAC quarterfinals on March 12, 2010. The previous Notre Dame record was a mere 95:18, a mark set on March 23, 2007, against Alabama-Huntsville in the first round of the NCAA tournament. Tonight's game eclipsed that mark by 56:24, nearly an entire regulation game.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. -- Yesterday, the Notre Dame and Massachusetts hockey teams stood tied after two periods and let that deadlock stand for hours before the Minutemen claimed the longest game in college hockey history 11:42 into the fifth overtime period. Tonight, similarly deadlocked after 40 minutes of play, Vince Hinostroza prevented a recurrence of Friday's long march into early Saturday morning, scoring twice in the first 4:00 of the third period to lift the Irish to a 5-3 win.

The win evens the best-of-three Hockey East first round playoff series at one win apiece and sets up a decisive game three on Sunday night at the Compton Family Ice Arena between Notre Dame and UMass. The Irish would advance to a best-of-three quarterfinal series at UMass Lowell with a win on Sunday while, with re-seeding after the first round, UMass would travel to Boston University should it claim victory. The loser's season will draw to a close.

In addition to Hinostroza's two goals, Thomas DiPauli had three assists for the Irish while Robbie Russo assisted on a pair of goals. Mario Lucia scored his 20th goal of the year and added an assist. A night after setting an NCAA Division I record for the most saves in a game with 87, Cal Petersen had a far more conventional evening in the Notre Dame net, stopping 22 out of the 25 shots he faced.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. -- Two days after setting an NCAA Division I record for the most saves in a game, Cal Petersen matched Notre Dame's freshman record by recording his fourth shutout of the season as the Irish hockey team blew past Massachusetts, 7-0, on Sunday night at the Compton Family Ice Arena. The Irish rallied back from Friday's five over-time loss, the longest game in college hockey history at 151:42, to win the best-of-three Hockey East first round playoff series, 2-1.

With the win, Notre Dame advanced to a best-of-three quarterfinal series March 13-15 at UMass Lowell in a rematch of last year's Hockey East semifinal won by the River Hawks. The 7-0 final score ties for Notre Dame's most lopsided shutout win since beating Villanova, 14-0, on Feb. 12, 1988.

It marked the 10th time that the Irish have ever played in a decisive third game of a postseason series. Notre Dame is now 8-2 all-time in those situations, winning each of its last eight.

Petersen made 23 saves to earn his fourth shutout of the season, matching the school's freshman record set by David Brown in 2003-04. For the weekend, Petersen saved 132 of the 139 shots that he faced for a .950 save percentage. Despite the cumulative fatigue of playing 261:17 of hockey over three days, Petersen posted a 1.61 goals against average this weekend.

LOWELL, Mass. -- Since joining Hockey East last year, the Notre Dame hockey team is 4-1 when facing elimination from the Hockey East tournament. The Irish will have a chance to improve that record even further on Saturday night after falling to No. 14 UMass Lowell, 5-0, in game one of a best-of-three quarterfinal series on Friday night at the Tsongas Center.

Five different River Hawks scored in a game where the Irish suffered their worst shutout loss since a 5-0 defeat at the hands of No. 1 Minnesota on Nov. 7. Kevin Boyle made 21 saves in the River Hawk net to earn a shutout in his 16th victory of the season.

LOWELL, Mass. -- In the final game of what will likely be an award-filled senior year for Robbie Russo, the Notre Dame defenseman, scored twice and added a pair of goals but the Irish hockey team were unable to overcome an early deficit and fell by a 6-4 score to No. 14 UMass Lowell on Sunday in the third and decisive game of a best-of-three Hockey East quarterfinal series at the Tsongas Center.

Losing for just the second time in seven elimination games as Hockey East members, the Irish wrap up their 2014-15 campaign at 18-19-5 while UMass Lowell (20-11-6) advances to the league semifinals on Friday night at TD Garden in Boston.

The Hockey East Association enters its 32nd season on the ice in 2015-16 as it has consistently proven as the strongest NCAA Division I college hockey conference from top to bottom, boasting the reigning NCAA National Champions and home of the two most recent Hobey Baker winners.

Hockey East has seen a steady rise to prominence since its founding charter on July 11, 1983, when the possibility of an apparent Ivy League departure threatened the ECAC. In response, the athletics directors from Boston College, Boston University, New Hampshire, Northeastern and Providence unveiled a new Division I men's ice hockey conference. Together, Bill Flynn of Boston College, John Simpson of Boston University, Andy Mooradian of New Hampshire, Joe Zabalski of Northeastern and Lou Lamoriello of Providence launched Hockey East with Lamoriello assuming the role of the league's first commissioner.

Later that summer, the Board of Directors added the University of Maine and the University of Lowell (now UMass Lowell). Official conference competition of the seven-team league began with the 1984-85 season. Soon after, the league expanded to nine teams with the additions of Merrimack College (1989) and the University of Massachusetts (1993). The entry of the University of Vermont for the 2005-06 season raised the conference membership to 10 teams before the University of Notre Dame was accepted as the league's 11th member on October 5, 2011. The Fighting Irish started Hockey East play in 2013-14, the season before Hockey East's newest program, the University of Connecticut, began play.

Hockey East has set new competitive standards for college hockey success, annually compiling an impressive collective winning percentage against non-conference opponents, including a record .705 during the 2002-03 season and a .669 win percentage during the 25th anniversary season of 2008-09. Over the last 20 years, Hockey East has cemented itself as the nation's elite college hockey league, having earned 32 of the 80 berths in the NCAA Frozen Four and boasting nine NCAA title winners: the University of Maine in 1993 and 1999, Boston University in 1995 and 2009, Boston College in 2001, 2008, 2010 and 2012 and Providence College in 2015. The recent run of Hockey East success has led to the conference winning five of the last eight national titles.

In its most impressive NCAA postseason showing, Hockey East boasted three of the four Frozen Four participants in 1999, as Maine triumphed over UNH, 3-2, in overtime in an All-Hockey East final, the second time in five seasons that had occurred. Hockey East sent three teams to the NCAA Tournament in 2015, marking 11 times in the last 12 seasons that three or more Hockey East teams have qualified. Two of those squads, Boston University and Providence, clashed in the NCAA title game at the TD Garden in Boston, Massachusetts.

Hockey East has proven to be an equally strong presence off the ice and in the classroom. League athletes continue to demonstrate their commitment to overall excellence, as the Hockey East All-Academic Team honored a league-record 133 student-athletes for outstanding academic achievement during the 2014-2015 academic year, eight of whom achieved elite Distinguished Scholar status for qualifying for the All-Academic team in each of four seasons played.

Hockey East athletes also make a positive impact on many community service programs across the region, volunteering with youth hockey associations and community service organizations. Six Hockey East athletes have received the prestigious Hockey Humanitarian Award, while nine others have been finalists for the honor.

However, it is the quality of its individual players as leading athletes that most sets Hockey East apart from the rest. Nine Hockey East players have won the Hobey Baker Memorial Award as the top player in college hockey, most recently Boston University's Jack Eichel, the first freshman to claim the trophy since Maine's Paul Kariya in 1993. Dozens more have been named as finalists and hundreds of other Hockey East players have moved on to play in the NHL. A total of 601 Hockey East student-athletes have been selected in the NHL Entry Draft in the 32-year history of the league, and more than 75 Hockey East alumni appeared on NHL rosters in 2014-2015, while three alumni captured the 2015 Stanley Cup with the Chicago Blackhawks (Trevor van Riemsdyk – UNH, Patrick Sharp – UVM, Scott Darling – Maine).

The reach of Hockey East continues to grow as new state-of-the-art facilities are constructed, increasing capacities and amenities for college hockey fans. In turn, fans have responded with over one million spectators coming out to watch Hockey East teams during the 2014-15 season for the 10th consecutive year.

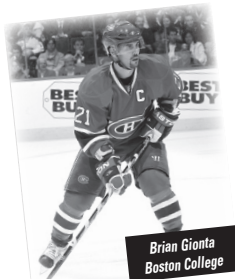

Robbie Russo was a First Team All-Hockey East selection as a senior in 2014-15.

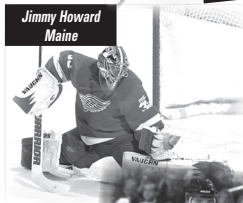

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

• The 12 Hockey East teams have combined to win nine NCAA championships in the last 31 seasons: Boston College (2001, 2008, 2010, 2012), Boston University (1995, 2009) the University of Maine (1993, 1999) and Providence College (2015).

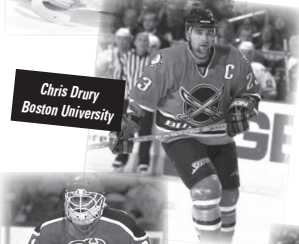

• Since 2000, Hockey East has sent 11 of its 12 teams to the NCAA Championships. Boston College leads the list with 15 appearances while New Hampshire is right behind with 11. Maine and Boston University have made eight appearances, followed by Vermont, UMass Lowell and Providence with three appearances each. Merrimack, Massachusetts, Northeastern and Notre Dame have one appearance each.

HOBEBAKER WINNERS

• Nine Hockey East players have received the Hobey Baker national player-of-the-year award: Boston College forward David Emma (1991), Maine forward Scott Pellerin (1992), Maine forward Paul Kariya (1993), Boston University forward Chris Drury (1998), New Hampshire forward Jason Krog (1999), Boston College defenseman Mike Mottau (2000), Boston University blue liner Matt Gilroy (2009), Boston College forward Johnny Gaudreau (2014) and Boston University forward Jack Eichel (2015).

ALL-AMERICANS

• Hockey East players have combined for 210 All-America honors, including 100 first-team selections and 110 players chosen second team. In 2003-04, 11 of the 12 Eastern players selected All-America came from Hockey East. In the league's first year, 1984-85, six players were selected with Providence College having three, including first-team choices forward Tim Army and goaltender Chris Terreri.

• Six Hockey East players earned All-America honors following the 2014-15 season. Boston University teammates Jack Eichel and Matt Grzelcyk were first team selections, while Notre Dame's Robbie Russo was joined by Providence's Jon Gillies, Northeastern's Kevin Roy and Vermont's Mike Pallotta on the second team.

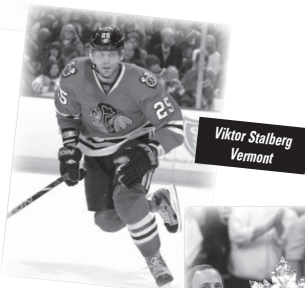

THE NHL DRAFT

• A total of 588 players from Hockey East institutions have been selected in the NHL draft (since 1985), including 40 first-round selections.

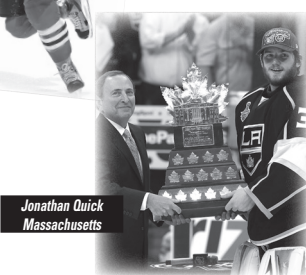

COACHES AND MANAGEMENT

• Boston College coach Jerry York is college hockey's winningest coach as he has won 984 career games in 43 seasons. York has achieved his record total at three schools (Clarkson, Bowling Green and Boston College).

• Hockey East coaches have won the Spencer Penrose Award seven times with UMass-Lowell head coach Norm Bazin taking the honors for the 2012-13 season. New Hampshire's Richard Umile

Viktor Stalberg
Vermont

Jonathan Quick
Massachusetts

won the award in 1999 while Jerry York won it pre-Hockey East in 1977. Notre Dame's Jeff Jackson won the award in while behind the Notre Dame bench in 2007.

• More than 55 former Hockey East players and another 40 alumni of Hockey East schools have gone on to careers in coaching or management in junior, collegiate or professional hockey and were active in the 2014-15 season.

NHL PLAYERS

• A total of 67 former Hockey East players played in the NHL during the 2014-15 season.

• Among the notable Hockey East alumni to play in the NHL in 2014-15 were Tampa Bay goaltender Ben Bishop (Maine), Detroit forward Gustav Nyquist (Maine), Los Angeles goaltender Jonathan Quick (Massachusetts), Calgary forward Johnny Gaudreau (Boston College), New York Ranger Chris Kreider (Boston College) and Edmonton's Mark Fayne (Providence).

• Among former NHL greats who are Hockey East alumni are: Brian Leetch (Boston College), Paul Kariya (Maine), Keith Tkachuk (Boston University), Chris Terreri (Providence) and Tony Amonte (Boston University).

STANLEY CUP WINNERS

• Thirty-seven former Hockey East players have hoisted the Stanley Cup as NHL champs.

• Scott Darling (Maine) and Trevor van Riemsdyk won the 2015 Stanley Cup with the Chicago Blackhawks, who were led by General Manager and Notre Dame graduate Stan Bowman.

• Los Angeles King goaltender Jonathan Quick is a two-time winner (2012, 2014), picking up the Conn Smythe Award in 2012.

• Forwards Viktor Stalberg (Vermont) and Ben Smith (Boston College) were members of the Chicago Blackhawks in their 2013 Cup run.

• In 2012, Quick (Massachusetts) was joined by teammates Dustin Penner (Maine) and Rob Scuderi (Boston College).

• In 2009, four Hockey East players carried the Cup in Pittsburgh's championship year - Hal Gill (Providence), Bill Guerin (Boston College), Brooks Orpik (Boston College) and Scuderi (Boston College).

• Lou Lamoriello (Providence) guided the New Jersey to three Stanley Cup titles since taking over the Devils management duties in 1987.

Notre Dame Hockey Through The Years

Irish hockey begins year three in Hockey East as the program enters its 48th season at the Division I level.

THE EARLY YEARS

From playing on frozen lakes around the University of Notre Dame campus, to an outdoor rink near Bardin Hall along with South Bend's Howard Park Rink, the Joyce Center and now the state-of-the-art Compton Family Ice Arena, the Notre Dame hockey program has experienced a little bit of everything in its on-again, off-again 100-year-plus history.

While most followers of Notre Dame's 47-year hockey history know the story since the program received Division I status in 1968, there are several earlier chapters that were the building blocks.

Notre Dame first played collegiate hockey with records showing an informal game being played as early as 1911-12 at Culver Academy, a 7-1 Irish win. In 1912-13, the team played a three-game schedule going 1-2-0 in what is recognized as the first full season of Notre Dame hockey.

After that early attempt to start hockey, the program took a seven-year hiatus, returning again in 1919-20. Two-time football All-America running back Paul Castner was seen skating on Saint Mary's Lake when Tony Gorman, a Canadian, joined him to show him some of the finer points of the game. Before long, the duo started discussing the possibility of hockey at Notre Dame. They met with the Rev. William F. Cunningham, C.S.C., who according to The Dome, "was a priest who had played the game in the West. The Notre Dame lads proposed a hockey team to Cunningham who entered enthusiastically into the project."

Under Cunningham, who served in a variety of roles, including coach, manager, secretary, advisor and trainer, and Castner who served as player-coach for two years and then coach following graduation, the program grew.

In four seasons at the helm, Castner's teams were 18-4-0 while playing against the likes of Michigan College of Mines (now Michigan Tech), Carnegie Tech, Michigan, the Michigan Aggies (now Michigan State), Wisconsin, Culver Academy, St. Thomas and Assumption.

While Castner led the team on ice, Cunningham played a key role off the frozen pond. According to the 1921 edition of The Dome, "Rev. W. F. Cunningham, C.S.C., manager of the team for two seasons, is the man who much of the success can be attributed. Father Cunningham is oblivious to ordinary difficulties and his spirit was the spirit of the team."

Castner was not the only football player to play a key role in the early days of the Notre Dame hockey program. All-America offensive lineman Hunk Anderson was the goaltender on the 1920-21 team.

Anderson was followed by one of the most famous of all Irish athletes, Jim Crowley, who gained fame as the halfback in the Four Horseman backfield. Crowley was a freshman goaltender on the 1921-22 team that went 8-1-1, but his career was put on ice, so to speak, by legendary football coach Knut Rockne. Crowley recorded a pair of shutouts and turned in a stingy 1.33 goals-against average in his lone season between the Irish pipes.

Following Castner behind the Notre Dame hockey bench was former football All-American Tom Leib. A two-time (1921 and 1922) All-American at right tackle, Leib's teams were 3-8-3 between 1923-26.

The team played one more season in 1926-27 under the guidance of Benjamin Dubois. That team went 3-7-1 before the program, due to lack of a playing venue, ceased competition.

Despite sporadic attempts to revive the program from 1928 through the early 1960s - including one game in which Heisman Trophy winner Angelo Bertelli was reported to have scored four goals - Notre Dame hockey would not see consistent action until the 1963-64 season.

THE CLUB YEARS

A club version of hockey began an era at Notre Dame that helped the program eventually reach Division I status. From 1963, until its move to Division I in the 1968-69 season, the Irish sponsored a club hockey program that produced several of the players who would play key roles in the early varsity years of the program in the late '60s.

Around 1960, students organized, and the University recognized, the Notre Dame Hockey Club. Operating as a club sport, the team had a faculty advisor and reported to the director of intramurals and club sports, Dominic Napolitano.

The club began intercollegiate play in the 1963-64 season. Arrangements were made to play on South Bend's artificial rink (Howard Park) and campus-wide tryouts were held. Ralph Cardillo (Guelph, Ont.) served as the first captain and Paul Belliveau (Fitchburg, Mass.) notched the first goal. Playing club teams from Northwestern, Illinois, the Michigan State junior varsity and other Midwest varsity squads, Notre Dame went 0-5-0.

In 1964-65, the club program improved to 5-6-0 under the guidance of coach Richard Bressler. The club also started an intramural program to give other students access to the game of hockey.

Prior to the start of the 1965-66 season, the University's administration determined that hockey was to enter a "transition" period and the program was designated as a "minor sport." That designation was assigned to help the program transition from a club sport to full varsity status. The hockey program came under the direction of Notre Dame vice-president Rev. Edmund P. Joyce, C.S.C., and athletics director Edward "Moose" Krause.

The 1965-66 team began to receive funding from the athletic department and continued to play teams from the Midwest (Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio State) and even branched out to the East Coast, participating in a Christmas tournament at the Boston Garden. Under coach Jerry Paquette, the Irish were 6-9-3.

The program really began to take shape in 1966-67, playing mostly varsity-level programs while still being recognized as a club team. The Irish played in the first-ever collegiate hockey tournament played at Chicago Stadium hosted by the Blackhawks and the Wirtz family. The Irish defeated Illinois in the opening game of the tourney before falling 6-5 in the championship game to Ohio State.

Notre Dame also won the Air Force Invitational at the Broadmoor World Arena on the way to a 14-5-3 record. The Irish were led offensively by Phil Wittliff (Port Huron, Mich.), Belliveau, alternate captain Tom Heiden (St. Paul, Minn.), captain Jim Haley (Boston, Mass.) and defenseman Eric Norri (Virginia, Minn.) and Frank Manning (Detroit, Mich.). Wittliff (who started his Notre Dame career on the football team), Norri and defenseman Dean Daigler (Tonawanda, N.Y.), all would go on to play on the first varsity team in 1968-69. Leo Collins (Fargo, N.D.), Ernie Gargaro

The Notre Dame hockey teams of the 1920s included several well-known members of the school's football team. The 1920-21 team (pictured above) featured goaltender Hunk Anderson (seated, second from left), an All-America offensive lineman in 1921 who served as head coach of the Notre Dame football program from 1931-33. Seated next to Anderson is Paul Castner (second from right), a two-time football All-America as a running back. Castner served as a player/coach for the Notre Dame hockey program from 1919-21 before coaching the team for two more seasons following his graduation. The Rev. William F. Cunningham who played a key role in the early days of Irish hockey is in the middle of the back row.

Irish Hockey History

(Bloomfield Hills, Mich.) and John Barry (Chicago, Ill.) were the team's goaltenders. Norri and Collins were both members of Notre Dame's 1966 national championship football team while playing tackle and linebacker respectively. On March 16, 1967, it was announced that the Notre Dame hockey program would move to varsity status in 1968 at the time the new Athletic and Convocation Center was set to open.

In 1967-68, the club team played its final season - turning in a 13-3-0 mark - before making the move to Division I.

THE RETURN TO VARSITY STATUS

The University hired Charles "Lefty" Smith as the program's first coach for the 1968-69 season and the new Athletic and Convocation Center (later renamed the Joyce Center) opened, giving Notre Dame its first on-campus, indoor rink.

Notre Dame competed as an independent from 1968-71, compiling a record of 50-32-6, providing Smith three seasons to build a competitive program before the Irish became members of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA), beginning with the 1971-72 season.

The Irish opened their decade of play in the WCHA with a 10-16-0 record and barely qualified for the playoffs. The following season saw four years of development pay off as Notre Dame proved it was capable of skating with the top college hockey teams in the nation.

A 31-goal, 65-point effort from Eddie Bumbacco (Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.) led the WCHA in scoring and propelled the Irish to a series sweep of top-ranked Wisconsin. The team's 19-9-0 conference record was good for a second-place finish in 1972-73.

Smith was named WCHA coach of the year, while Bill Nyrop (Edina, Minn.) and Bumbacco became Notre Dame's first hockey All-Americans. The Irish defeated North Dakota 13-3 in a two-game, total-goal WCHA playoff series, but Notre Dame lost to eventual national champion Wisconsin 8-7 in the second round of the conference playoffs.

The Irish remained competitive in the WCHA over the next eight years but could do no better than another second-place finish in 1976-77. Several Notre Dame players gained national notoriety during that time, most notably Jack Brownschilde (East Amherst, N.Y.), who earned All-America honors in '76 and '77 and remains the Notre Dame hockey program's only two-time All-American. Brian Walsh (Cambridge, Mass.) earned All-America status and was named the 1976-77 WCHA MVP and Greg Meredith (Toronto, Ont.) earned All-America honors in 1979-80.

Four years later, Notre Dame joined Michigan, Michigan State and Michigan Tech as the newest members of the Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA). In 1981-82, Dave Poulin (Mississauga, Ont.) - a finalist for the Hobey Baker Award - led Notre Dame to a 23-15-2 record, a Great Lakes Invitational championship and a fourth-place finish in the regular-season standings.

Following a first-round playoff series win over Michigan, the Irish defeated Bowling Green 8-5 in the semifinals before falling to Michigan State 4-1 in the title game.

The Irish were unable to sustain that level the next season and struggled to a 13-21-2 record.

Following Notre Dame's loss to Bowling Green in a first-round playoff series, the University announced in the spring of 1983 that it would cease sponsoring varsity hockey. After competing as a club sport during 1983-84, varsity hockey returned to Notre Dame the following season (1984-85) when the Irish began competing as a non-scholarship independent team.

Smith remained at the helm through the end of the 1986-87 campaign, compiling a 19-year record of 307-320-30. The most impressive statistic from the Smith era is that all 126 players who completed their collegiate eligibility earned their college degrees.

In 1987, Smith turned the program over to Ric Schafer (New Brighton, Minn.), a four-time monogram winner for the Irish from '70-'74 and an assistant coach under Smith from 1975-80.

Notre Dame hockey continued as an independent during the first four seasons of Schafer's tenure, but with each year, the schedule became increasingly difficult and soon was littered with CCHA opponents. Schafer convinced the Notre Dame administration to gradually allocate scholarships as the program continued to grow and his efforts culminated with Notre Dame's return to the CCHA for the 1992-93 season.

Prior to stepping down as head coach following the 1994-95 campaign, Schafer compiled a 112-152-15 record over eight seasons and will be remembered as the coach who returned Notre Dame hockey to a competitive Division I level.

In 1995, Notre Dame turned to its most distinguished hockey alumnus to take over behind the bench. Dave Poulin returned to his alma mater following a 13-year career in the National Hockey League. During Poulin's 10-year tenure, Notre Dame made steady improvements and continued to earn national recognition.

In 1998-99, the Irish hosted a first-round CCHA playoff series for the first time since 1982, after spending most of the year ranked in the national top 10. Defenseman Benoit Cotoir (Rouyn-Noranda, Que.) became the program's seventh All-American.

The following season produced another milestone as the Irish beat Ferris State in the first round of the CCHA playoffs and made their second-ever trip to Joe Louis Arena for the CCHA semifinals.

In 2001-02 and 2002-03, the Irish pulled off playoff upsets and advanced to Joe Louis and the CCHA Super Six. In a five-year span, from 1999-00 to 2003-04, Notre Dame made it to Joe Louis Arena four times (2000, 2002, 2003, 2004).

In 2001-02, the Irish upset higher-seeded Nebraska-Omaha in a series that featured a 3-2 double-overtime loss to the Mavericks, followed by one-goal wins in games two and three.

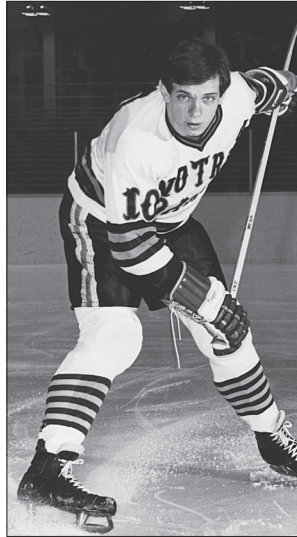

The following year, the Irish traveled to higher-seeded Miami (Ohio) and — after dropping the first game, 4-2 — saw goaltender Morgan Cey (Wilkie, Sask.) spin back-to-back shutouts (a first in Notre Dame history), winning 1-0 and 5-0 to advance to "the Joe" again.

The 2003-04 season saw the Irish turn in their first 20-win season (20-15-4) since 1987-88, with a fourth-place finish (14-11-3) in the CCHA. The Irish played hosted regional rival Western Michigan, winning the playoff series two games to one.

Notre Dame could not have much success at the CCHA Super Six, losing in the opening game each year — to Northern Michigan (3-1) in '01-'02 and Ohio State (3-2 and 6-5 in overtime) in '02-'03 and '03-'04 respectively.

The highly successful 2003-04 season ended with the Irish being selected to participate in their first-ever NCAA Championship on the strength of a 5-1-1 record versus teams ranked in the top five during the regular season.

Notre Dame faced two-time defending NCAA champion Minnesota in the opening game at Van Andel Arena in Grand Rapids, Mich. After taking a 2-0 first-period lead, the Irish fell to the Gophers 5-2, but Notre Dame had finally arrived on the national level.

Following a disappointing '04-'05 season (5-27-6), Poulin stepped down as head coach, turning over the reins to Jeff Jackson, who has continued to take the Irish to national success.

In his first season at the helm, Jackson and his staff saw solid improvement as the team improved to 13-19-4 overall and earned home ice in the first round of the CCHA tournament with an 11-13-4 conference record.

Jackson's second year behind the bench saw the Irish turn in the finest season in the program's history. With a veteran squad led by eight seniors, including first-team All-American — the eighth All-American in school history — goaltender David Brown (Stoney Creek, Ont.), Notre Dame compiled a school-record 32 wins on the way to a 32-7-3 mark and won its first CCHA regular-season title with a 21-4-3 league record.

Along the way, Jackson's squad achieved the first number one-ranking in school history and was the top team in the nation for seven consecutive weeks from Feb. 5 to March 23.

The Irish swept Alaska (7-1, 3-1) in the second round to move to the CCHA semifinals.

In Detroit, Brown blanked Lake Superior 3-0 in the semis and the Irish knocked off Michigan 2-1 in the championship game for the school's first CCHA tournament championship.

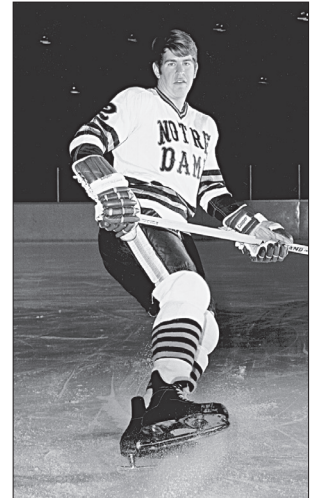

Notre Dame made its second NCAA Championship appearance at Grand Rapids, Mich., this time as the Midwest Regional's top seed. There, the Irish won their first NCAA game, a 3-2 double-overtime thriller (the longest game in program history - 94:32) versus Alabama-Huntsville. The dream season came to an end the following night in a heartbreaking 2-1 loss to eventual NCAA champion Michigan State.

In 2007-08, Notre Dame went one step further, advancing to the NCAA Frozen Four where the Irish fell in the national championship game 4-1 to Boston College.

They finished the year with a 27-16-4 overall record and were 15-9-4 in the CCHA, good for fourth place. Late-season scoring struggles almost cost Notre Dame an NCAA bid, but the Irish made it in as the final at-large team in the tournament.

In the West Regional at Colorado Springs, Colo., the Irish found the goal-scoring touch as they dispatched the region's top-seed, New Hampshire 7-3 and then bounced Michigan State with a 3-1 win.

Notre Dame became the first No. 4 seed to make the NCAA Frozen Four and would face the nation's top-ranked team, Michigan, in the semifinals at the Pepsi Center in Denver, Colo. Freshman left wing Calie Ridderwall (Stockholm, Sweden) became an overnight Irish hero when his goal at 5:44 of overtime sent Michigan home with a 5-4 loss and the Irish to the title game versus Boston College.

Bill Nyrop is one of 25 former Notre Dame players who have gone on to careers in the National Hockey League and one of five to play in the Stanley Cup Finals, joining Dave Poulin, Don Jackson, Brett Lebda and Mark Eaton in that distinction.

Jackson's fourth season behind the bench in 2008-09 saw the Irish win their second CCHA regular-season and tournament championship with a 31-6-3 overall mark and a 21-4-3-3 in conference play. From Oct. 31 to Jan. 17, Notre Dame set a school record with a 20-game unbeaten streak (17-0-3).

During the season, Notre Dame spent seven weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation. The Irish were led by goaltender Jordan Pearce (Anchorage, Alaska) who led the nation in wins (30) and shutouts (eight) with a stingy 1.68 goals-against average. In the CCHA playoffs, Pearce blanked Nebraska-Omaha in back-to-back quarterfinal games to advance Notre Dame to its third straight trip to the CCHA championship at Joe Louis Arena.

In Detroit, the Irish won their second CCHA title, stopping Northern Michigan 2-1 in the semifinals before rallying from a 2-0 deficit versus Michigan in the championship game on the way to a 5-2 win.

In the NCAA Championship, the Irish were the top seed in the Midwest Regional at Grand Rapids, Mich., and were upset in the opening round in a 5-1 loss to Bemidji State.

Defenseman Ian Cole (Ann Arbor, Mich.) and forward Erik Condra (Livonia, Mich.) became the ninth and 10th Irish Notre Dame players to be named All-Americans following the season.

Following a disappointing 2009-10 season that was marred by injuries, the Irish returned to the top of the national scene in 2010-11 by advancing to the NCAA Frozen Four for the second time.

Notre Dame turned in a 25-14-5 overall record and a second-place finish in the CCHA. After winning the NCAA Northeast Regional with wins over Merrimack (4-3 in overtime) and New Hampshire (2-1), the Irish faced off in St. Paul, Minn., versus Minnesota-Duluth in the NCAA semifinals.

At the Xcel Energy Center, the Bulldogs prevailed with a 4-3 win against Notre Dame on the way to an overtime win versus Michigan in the national title game.

The program achieved a first in '10-'11 as freshman T.J. Tynan (Orland Park, Ill.) led the nation's rookies in scoring and, besides being the Irish and CCHA rookie of the year, was named the Hockey Commissioner's Association's (HCA) national rookie of the year.

In October of 2011, the Notre Dame hockey program

Notre Dame faced off against Michigan in its first-ever NCAA Frozen Four appearance. The game was played at Denver's Pepsi Center with the Irish winning in overtime 5-4.

entered a new era on two fronts. First, on Oct. 5, it was announced that beginning with the 2013-14 season, the Irish would become the 11th member of Hockey East. The move came about due to the start of the Big 10 hockey conference and the beginning of the new National College Hockey Conference that signalled the end of the CCHA.

On Oct. 21, 2011, the Notre Dame hockey program opened the brand new Compton Family Ice Arena. Behind an Anders Lee (Edina, Minn.) hat trick, the Irish dispatched the R.P.I. Engineers, 5-2, in front of a sell-out crowd of 5,022, the largest to ever watch Notre Dame hockey in South Bend.

The Irish would win their first five games at the new ice castle, including a dramatic 3-2 overtime win versus Boston College in the dedication game on Nov. 18.

Notre Dame experienced plenty of ups and downs during the 2011-12 season, opening the year ranked No. 1 in the preseason polls, finishing 19-18-3 overall and eighth in the CCHA race. Tynan highlighted the season by becoming a first team all-CCHA selection while being the conference's co-leader in scoring.

In the final season of play for the CCHA, Notre Dame went out in style, winning the final Mason Cup championship with a pair of 3-1 wins over Ohio State and Michigan at Joe Louis Arena. The Irish were 25-13-3 overall and finished second in the regular-season standings. Lee paced the Irish (20g, 18a) on his way to becoming Notre Dame's 11th hockey All-American while Steven Summerhays (Anchorage, Alaska) turned in a 20-win season in goal.

The No. 1 seed in the NCAA Midwest Regional, Notre Dame dropped a first-round game to St. Cloud State by a 5-1 margin.

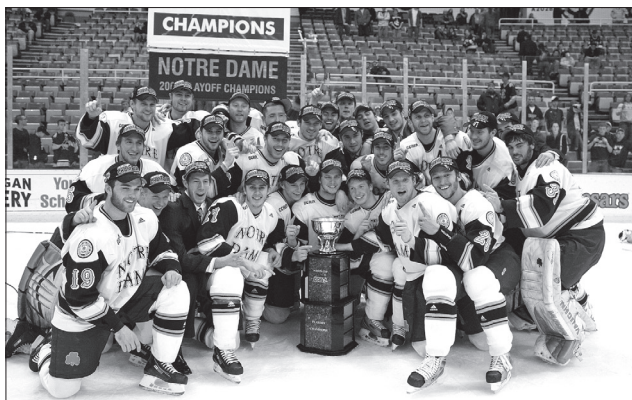

In 2013-14, the Irish opened play in their new conference - Hockey East. They finished 9-9-2 in league play in the first season and 23-15-2 overall. Led by Summerhays' stellar goaltending (he led the nation with seven shutouts), Notre Dame upset regular-season winner Boston College in the Hockey East quarterfinals to advance to TD Garden and the league championship series. There, the Irish fell to UMass Lowell 4-0 but qualified for the NCAA Championship. As the No. 2 seed in the West Regional, Notre Dame saw its season come to an end with a heartbreaking, 4-3 overtime loss to St. Cloud State.

In 2014-15, the Irish closed the season strong to finish fifth in Hockey East (10-7-5), earning a first round home series versus UMass. In game one, the Irish and Minutemen played the longest game in NCAA Div. I history, as UMass skated away with a 4-3 quintuple overtime win. But Notre Dame bounced back and took the series, two games to one. Then freshman goaltender Cal Petersen (Waterloo, Iowa) made an NCAA Div. I record 87 saves. Notre Dame then fell at UMass Lowell in the quarterfinals. Following the season, defenseman Robbie Russo (Westmont, Illinois) was named a Second Team (East) All-American after tying for the national lead for goals scored (15) by a defenseman and finishing second nationally in points by a blue liner (41).

In 10 seasons behind the Notre Dame bench, Jackson has seen his teams record a 226-143-40 mark, two regular-season CCHA titles, three Mason Cup championships, five trips to the NCAA Championship and two Frozen Four visits.

Recognition for Notre Dame hockey though has continued to grow. In the first 47 years of the program, NHL teams have drafted 80 Irish players, including five in the 2007 and 2010 Entry Drafts. Since 2007, Notre Dame has seen four of its players selected in the first round.

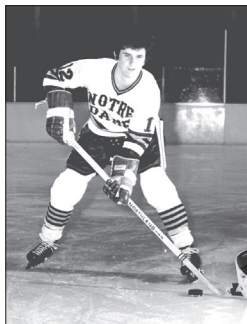

The 2014-15 campaign saw six former Notre Dame players see ice time with NHL teams. Twenty-six former Irish players have worn NHL jerseys with four of them - Nyrop (three times with Montreal), defenseman Don Jackson (three times with Edmonton), Brett Lebda (with Detroit in 2007-08) and Mark Eaton (Pittsburgh in 2008-09) - drinking from the Stanley Cup.

The 2008-09 Notre Dame hockey team celebrates its second CCHA title at Joe Louis Arena after defeating Michigan 5-2 in the 2009 title game.

2004 NCAA Tournament - Championship

Midwest Regional

#3 Minnesota 5 • #13 Notre Dame 2
March 27, 2004 • Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Notre Dame hockey team made its first-ever NCAA Championship appearance at Van Andel Championship Arena in Grand Rapids, Mich. The opponent was the two-time defending national champion and third-ranked Minnesota Golden Gophers.

The Irish jumped out to a 2-0 first-period lead on goals by Cory McLean and Aaron Gill only to see the Gophers score five unanswered goals on the way to a 5-2 win over Notre Dame.

Sophomore All-American Thomas Vanek led Minnesota's comeback with two goals and an assist. Matt Koalska, Danny Immen (ppg) and Troy Riddle also scored for the Gophers.

The Irish got on the scoreboard just 54 seconds into the contest as McLean teamed with Gill on a two on one to beat Minnesota goaltender Kellen Briggs for McLean's 10th goal of the year.

Notre Dame took advantage of a Minnesota penalty late in the first period and made it 2-0 at 19:18 on the power play. Rob Globke and Mike Walsh set up Gill's team-high ninth power-play goal of the year on a redirection past Briggs for Gill's 17th of the year.

Koalska cut the lead in half to open the middle stanza with a goal just 26 seconds into the period.

The powerful Gopher offense would even the score at 9:13 when Immen steered a bouncing puck past Morgan Cey for a power-play tally to make it 2-2.

Vanek put the Gophers ahead to stay 3-2 at 16:24 when he poked a loose puck past Cey for his first goal of the game.

The talented Vanek sealed the win at 11:52 of the final period when he beat Cey on a wrap-around goal to make it 4-2.

Riddle closed out the scoring for Minnesota with an empty-net goal at 19:24 to end Notre Dame's season.

Cey equaled a season high with 40 saves. Briggs made 20 saves in the Minnesota goal.

Notre Dame made its first NCAA Championship appearance in 2004 at the Midwest Regional held in Grand Rapids, Mich. The Irish faced off against two-time defending champion Minnesota and, despite taking a 2-0 lead after one period, fell to the third-ranked Gophers 5-2 at Van Andel Arena.

2007 NCAA Championship - Semifinal

Midwest Regional

#1 Notre Dame 3 • Alabama-Huntsville 2 (2ot)
March 23, 2007 • Grand Rapids, Mich.

For over 94 minutes, Notre Dame and Alabama-Huntsville battled tooth and nail, looking for that one scoring chance to end the contest.

This time the luck of the Irish was in full force as freshman Ryan Thang drilled a shot from the left wing circle that beat Charger goaltender Marc Narduzzi to give Notre Dame the 3-2 win in the longest game in Irish hockey history.

The win also was the first NCAA Tournament victory in Irish hockey history and advanced Notre Dame to the Midwest Regional finals to face Michigan State.

Notre Dame got off to a fast start, scoring a pair of goals in the first five minutes of the game as senior left wing Josh Sciba scored just 3:18 into the game.

Thang followed with his first goal of the night at 4:26 when he took a feed from Erik Condra and ripped a low shot that beat Blake MacNicol, giving the Irish a 2-0 lead. The goal sent MacNicol to the UAH bench in favor of Marc Narduzzi.

Alabama got back in the game at 10:20 of the second period as Dominick Rozman's shot deflected off an Irish defenseman past David Brown to cut the Notre Dame lead to 2-1.

The Chargers would get the equalizer at 16:06 when Cale Tanaka fired a shot from the slot that beat Brown to the upper corner.

From there the goaltenders took over. Brown would finish with 28 saves in the game while Narduzzi made 49 saves, giving up just one goal.

The Irish got the game winner via the power play. Defensemen Brett Blatchford and Kyle Lawson played catch at the point until Lawson slid a pass to the left wing boards where Thang took the puck and whipped a shot over Narduzzi's blocker for the game winner.

Thang's goal was his 20th of the season and set off a wild celebration on the ice as the Irish had their first NCAA Championship win and lived to play another day.

2007 NCAA Tournament - Championship

Midwest Regional Final

#10 Michigan State 2 • #1 Notre Dame 1
March 24, 2007 • Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Notre Dame 2006-07 hockey season will go down as the one of the best in the program's history as the Irish set record after record on the way to a 32-7-3 final tally. The ride came to an end though as CCHA foe Michigan State handed the Irish a 2-1 loss in the NCAA Midwest Regional championship game.

Chris Mueller and Tim Kennedy scored power-play goals for the Spartans while junior Evan Rankin scored Notre Dame's lone goal in the loss.

The regional championship got off to a slow start as the two teams tried to get a read on each other. The game would remain scoreless after one period of play.

Michigan State finally broke through at 6:04 of the second period as Mueller stuffed a rebound on the power play past David Brown for a 1-0 lead.

The lead would go to 2-0 on another power-play chance at 5:59 of the third period.

Working the puck behind the net, Kennedy walked in front and tucked the puck between Brown's pads for his 17th goal of the year.

NCAA Tournament History

Notre Dame finally broke through on Michigan State goaltender Jeff Lerg at 14:52. Defenseman Brett Blatchford fired a shot on goal that went off of Rankin and past Lerg, cutting the lead to 2-1. For Rankin, the goal was his fourth of the season.

The Irish would get several chances in the waning moments as Brown was pulled for the final 1:15 of the game in favor of a sixth attacker, but Notre Dame could not score.

Defenseman Wes O'Neill and forward Ryan Thang were selected to the all-regional team from Notre Dame. They were joined by Michigan State forwards Tim Kennedy and Chris Mueller, defenseman Tyler Howells and goaltender Jeff Lerg. Lerg was their regional most valuable player.

2008 NCAA Tournament - First Round

West Regional

#12 Notre Dame 7 • #4 New Hampshire 3

March 28, 2008 • Colorado Springs, Colo.

For most of the second half of the 2007-08 season, the Notre Dame Fighting Irish struggled to score goals. The struggles came to an end at the World Arena in the first semifinal of the NCAA West Regional.

Notre Dame got seven goals from six different players as the Irish advanced to the West Regional final with a 7-3 win over top-seeded New Hampshire.

Junior Christian Hanson scored two goals while Ian Cole (ppg), Kyle Lawson (ppg), Dan Kissel, Ryan Thang and Kevin Deeth had single goals in the win.

New Hampshire got two goals from Jerry Pollastrone and one from Phil DeSimone while James vanRiemsdyck added three assists in the game.

The win improved Notre Dame to 25-15-4 on the year while fourth-ranked New Hampshire ended its season with a 25-10-3 mark.

Pollastrone gave the Wildcats a 1-0 lead at 1:04 of the first as he fired a rebound shot past Jordan Pearce.

The Irish answered back 58 seconds later on the power play when Cole drilled a wrist shot through Kevin Regan's pads to tie the game at the 2:02 mark.

UNH made it 2-1 at 5:41 when Pollastrone got his second of the period and the game, beating Pearce on a rebound to make it 2-1.

Notre Dame would tie the score at 2-2 with a power-play goal at 17:25. Thang set up Lawson at the right point and the sophomore defenseman drilled a wrist shot past Regan for his fifth of the year.

The Irish took the lead for good at 2:39 of the second period as Hanson scored his 11th goal of the year off a Stewart Carlin rebound to make it 3-2.

The lead would go to 4-2 on a tremendous individual short-handed effort by Kissel as he stickhandled through three UNH defenders and fired a shot inside the left post at 9:53 for his ninth goal of the season.

New Hampshire came right back and cut the lead to 4-3 when DeSimone scored at 13:09.

Notre Dame restored the two-goal lead just 23 seconds into the third as Thang drilled one of his patented wrist shots past Regan for his 17th goal of the year and a 5-3 lead.

With less than four minutes left in the game and the teams skating four on four, UNH pulled its goaltender, with Deeth scoring on a rebound to make it 6-3 with 3:06.

Regan would again be pulled with under three minutes left in the game and Hanson closed the scoring at 17:54 with his second of the night for the final of 7-3.

New Hampshire outshot Notre Dame 35-34. Pearce finished the night with 32 saves while Regan had 27.

2008 NCAA Championship - Finals

West Regional

#12 Notre Dame 3 • #9 Michigan State 1

March 29, 2008 • Colorado Springs, Colo.

The Notre Dame hockey team earned its first-ever trip to the Frozen Four with a 3-1 win over Michigan State in the championship game of the NCAA West Regional at the Colorado Springs World Arena.

The Fighting Irish became the first team seeded fourth in a regional to advance to the NCAA Frozen Four and avenged their 2-1 loss to the Spartans in the '06-'07 Midwest Regional final.

Christian Hanson, Mark Van Guilder and Teddy Ruth scored for Notre Dame in the victory with Van Guilder getting the game winner with 5:54 remaining in the third period.

Michigan State dominated play early in the game but could not get the puck past goaltender Jordan Pearce who stopped all 10 first-period shots.

Hanson broke through on the scoreboard for the Irish at 2:43 of the second stanza when he stuffed a rebound past Spartan goaltender Jeff Lerg. That gave Hanson three goals and an assist in the two games and earned him a spot on the all-regional team.

Michigan State's Justin Abdelkader banged a laser off the crossbar three minutes later, then tied the game with 10:55 to play in the period when he put a one-timer from the left circle behind Pearce to make it 1-1.

The game would remain that way until Van Guilder snapped the tie with just under six minutes left in the game. He took a pass from Ben Ryan and beat Lerg inside the near post with wrist shot from the slot.

The Irish added an insurance goal just 1:14 later when Ruth put a slap shot past Lerg high on the glove side with assists to Justin White and Hanson.

The Notre Dame defense played a huge role in both victories. The Irish blocked 12 shots in the victory over Michigan State University and killed all four Spartan power plays and all nine in the two regional games.

Pearce allowed just one goal on 21 Michigan State shots and had 32 saves in the victory over New Hampshire, posting back-to-back victories over Hobey Baker semifinalists Lerg and Kevin Regan.

Van Guilder, Hanson and defenseman Brock Sheahan were selected to the NCAA West Regional all-tournament team with Van Guilder being named most outstanding player.

Frozen Four

#5 Notre Dame 5 • #41 Michigan 4 (ot)
April 10, 2008 • Denver, Colo.

Freshman left wing Calle Ridderwall scored his second goal of the game at 5:44 of overtime, lifting fifth-ranked Notre Dame to a 5-4 victory over top-seeded Michigan in the NCAA Frozen Four semifinals at a sold-out (18,544) Pepsi Center in Denver. The win moved the Irish into their first national championship game versus Boston College.

Ridderwall came into the game with three goals in his rookie season, but he saved some of his best play of the year for college hockey's biggest stage as he also scored the opening goal in the first period. He was joined on the Irish side of the scoresheet by Mark Van Guilder, Ryan Thang and Kevin Deeth. Chad Kolarik scored twice for Michigan with Matt Rust and Carl Hagelin getting single goals in the loss.

Ridderwall opened the scoring just five minutes into the game when he rifled a shot over Michigan goaltender Billy Sauer's right shoulder for his fourth goal of the year.

Just 42 seconds later, the Irish had a 2-0 lead when Thang dropped a pass for Van Guilder who ripped a shot from the left circle under Sauer's left arm for his 13th of the season at 5:42.

Thang took his turn at 19:25 of the first period when he scored a brilliant short-handed goal, beating the Wolverine defense at the blue line, then flipping a backhander over Sauer's blocker for his 18th goal of the year and a 3-0 Irish lead.

Sauer was replaced by Bryan Hogan in the Michigan goal to start the second period and he held the Irish at bay until the Wolverines could get back in the game.

They would score twice in a 15-second span midway through the middle period to get back in the game. Kolarik scored his first of the night at 8:48 with a wrist shot over the left shoulder of Notre Dame goaltender Jordan Pearce.

Seconds later, Rust redirected an Aaron Palushaj pass from the left corner behind Pearce at 9:03 to make it a 3-2 game after two periods.

The Wolverines would get the equalizer on the power play at 2:16 of the third period as Kolarik scored his second of the game off his own rebound for his 30th goal of the year.

The Irish grabbed the lead back with 8:30 remaining in the game as Dan Kissel and Deeth combined on a two-on-one play. Kissel put a pass on Deeth's stick and the sophomore center cut in front of the goal, chipping a shot over Hogan for his 10th goal of the season to give Notre Dame the 4-3 lead.

Michigan answered back, tying the game at 4-4 at 14:39 when Hagelin won the race to a loose puck in the Irish zone and fired a shot from the goal line that somehow found its way between Pearce's pad and the near post to send the game into overtime.

That set up Ridderwall's overtime heroics. White dropped a pass to the right point to defenseman Dan VeNard. The senior blueliner drilled a low shot on goal that Hogan stopped with the rebound sliding to the slot. Ridderwall was there and put his head down driving the puck past Hogan to set off a wild celebration on the Pepsi Center ice with the 5-4 Notre Dame win.

The win was the first in overtime for the Irish during the 2007-08 season and their first since defeating Alabama-Huntsville in the 2006-07 NCAA Championship.

Calle Ridderwall talks to the media after scoring two goals, including the overtime game winner, versus Michigan in Notre Dame's first NCAA Frozen Four appearance on April 10, 2008.

Pearce made 29 saves in the victory while Hogan stopped 18 of 20 shots in 45:44 minutes. Sauer finished with six saves in the first 20 minutes of action.

2008 NCAA Championship - Final

Frozen Four

#3 Boston College 4 • #5 Notre Dame 1
April 12, 2007-08 • Denver, Colo.

The Notre Dame hockey team ventured where no other Irish hockey squad had ever been. It faced off in the NCAA Frozen Four championship game against Boston College at the Pepsi Center in Denver, Colo.

The Irish ran into a red-hot Nathan Gerbe as the third-ranked Eagles ended Notre Dame's season with a 4-1 loss in front of a sell-out crowd of 18,632. Gerbe scored twice and assisted on Boston College's other two goals on his way to a four-point game and most valuable player honors. Kevin Deeth scored the lone goal for the Irish who finished the year with a 27-16 record.

Both teams had chances in a tightly-played first period that led to the fourth scoreless opening frame in NCAA title game history (also 1988, 2001 and 2007).

Boston College ended up with a 7-4 shot advantage in the opening 20 minutes, while Notre Dame went on the power play three times in the period, coming up empty on all three.

The Eagles snapped the scoreless tie just 2:23 into the second period, converting an Irish turnover into a goal. Brian Gibbons forced the turnover and found Gerbe inside the left circle where he whipped a shot over Jordan Pearce's left shoulder for his 34th goal of the year.

Gerbe was at it less than three minutes later, this time on a Boston College power play. Ben Smith's shot from the slot was wide of the goal but rebounded off the back dashboards into the crease where the Eagles' top scorer was there to jam the rebound past Pearce for a 2-0 lead at 5:37.

Boston College made it 3-0 at 8:11 of the second period, converting a second power-play chance, this time with a four-on-three advantage. Joe Whitney did the honors as he took a feed from Gerbe at the top of the slot and drove a slapshot past Pearce for his 11th goal of the year.

The Irish finally broke through just over a minute later at 9:07 when Deeth took a feed from defenseman Kyle Lawson and snapped a shot past Eagles' goaltender John Muse to cut the lead to 3-1 after two periods of play.

Notre Dame looked like it had cut the margin to 3-2 just 4:56 into the third period. Ian Cole's centering pass got caught up in Lawson's skates near the right post and deflected toward the goal, trickling past Muse and over the goal line. Although it was ruled a goal on the ice by referee Todd Anderson, video replay official Greg Shepherd overturned the score after a lengthy delay, ruling the puck was apparently propelled into the net by Lawson's skate in a distinct kicking motion.

The no-goal call took on added significance less than a minute later when Boston College scored to make it a 4-1 game. Gerbe tracked down the puck behind the net and threw a centering pass back in front for Smith, who fanned on his shot attempt but got enough of the bouncing biscuit for it to knuckle over Pearce's shoulder at 5:31 of the period for the final score of 4-1.

Pearce finished with 19 saves in goal while Muse stopped 20 in the game. The Irish were zero-for-eight on the power play while Boston College was able to convert on two of four tries.

Pearce finished the year with 23 wins and the team's 27 wins were the second most in the program's history. Lawson and Deeth were selected to the Frozen Four all-tournament team.

The Irish advanced to the 2008 NCAA Frozen Four title game on April 12, 2008, in Denver against Boston College. The Eagles used a three-goal second period to take the national championship over Notre Dame 4-1 at the Pepsi Center.

2009 NCAA Championship - Semifinal
Midwest Regional
Bemidji State 5 • #2 Notre Dame 1
March 28, 2009 • Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Fighting Irish made their third consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament, this time as the No. 1 seed at the Midwest Regional, facing Bemidji State. For Notre Dame, everything that could go wrong did, at Van Andel Arena, as the Irish were upset by the Beavers in a 5-1 loss.

Ranked second in the nation coming into the regional, the loss ended Notre Dame's season with a 31-63 record. Bemidji went on to win the regional and advance to its first ever NCAA Frozen Four.

The first Bemidji goal would set the tone for the entire game. The Beavers dumped the puck behind the Irish net, where senior goaltender Jordan Pearce came out to play it. The puck took a funny bounce off the back dasher, then caromed off the side of the goal and back into the crease at the right post. As Pearce scrambled to get back in his net, Bemidji State's Chris McKelvie came charging in from the right wing and chopped at the puck, muscling it over the line just 1:42 into the contest.

The Beavers would score it 2-0 at 11:03 of the first when Tyler Schofield scored on a power-play deflection between Pearce's pads.

Notre Dame had its chances in the first period, outshooting Bemidji by an 11-7 margin.

The lead would go to 3-0 in the second period when Ben Kinne's shot from the point caromed through a crowd behind Pearce at 13:19.

The Irish would start the third period on the power play, but their hopes would die just 49 seconds into the third period when Matt Read blasted a slapshot from the top of the right circle over Pearce's blocker to give the Beavers a 4-0 lead.

Notre Dame would finally get on the board at 6:02 when Dan Kissel buried a shot past Bemidji goaltender Matt Dalton from the left circle for his sixth goal of the year to cut the lead to 4-1.

The Irish would pull Pearce with just under four minutes left in favor of a sixth attacker only to see the Beavers win a big faceoff before Schofield fired a loose puck into an empty net for the final margin of 5-1.

Pearce would finish the game with 14 saves while Dalton made 34 stops in the Bemidji net.

2011 NCAA Championship - Semifinal
Northeast Regional
#9 Notre Dame 4 • #7 Merrimack 3 (OT)
March 26, 2011 • Manchester, N.H.

After missing the NCAA Championship in 2010, Notre Dame returned to postseason action in 2011 at the Northeast Regional in Manchester, N.H., as the third seed at the Verizon Wireless Arena.

The Irish opened the tournament against Hockey East foe Merrimack and the Warriors saw Notre Dame rally from a pair of two-goal deficits to win in overtime 4-3 to advance to the regional final.

Freshman left wing Anders Lee led the way for the Irish, recording two goals, including the overtime game winner 5:18 into the extra stanza for the win. Junior Billy Maday and senior Calle Ridderwall added single goals in the victory.

Merrimack got goals from Kyle Bigos, Ryan Flanigan and Rhett Bly, as the Warriors led 2-0 in the first period and 3-1 midway through the second.

Notre Dame outshot the Warriors 37-35. Irish goaltender Mike Johnson made 32 saves while Merrimack's Joe Cannata had 33.

The victory improved the ninth-ranked Irish to 24-13-5 while seventh-ranked Merrimack closed its season with a 25-10-4 mark.

The Warriors jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first period, scoring once on the power play and once short-handed.

Bigos opened the scoring at 13:23 when he managed to jam a loose puck in the crease past Johnson for his second goal of the season.

Merrimack got its second goal of the night as Flanigan teamed with Stephane DeCosta on a two-on-one short-handed goal at 16:00 for the 2-0 lead.

The Irish answered 27 seconds later on the power play as Ridderwall ripped a shot from between the hashmarks, beating Cannata for his 15th goal of the season.

Merrimack built the lead to 3-1 at 2:58 of the middle stanza as Bly backhanded a shot over Johnson.

Notre Dame cut the lead to 3-2 at 13:29 when Lee fired a wrist shot over Cannata's glove hand and into the upper right corner. Bryan Rust cleared the puck out of the Irish zone from the right boards to Lee who raced down the left side and fired from the top of the left circle, scoring his team-high 23rd goal of the season.

The Irish got the equalizer at 5:32 of the third period as Maday drove to the goal and was able to get a stick on the puck and push it through the goaltender's pads for his ninth goal of the season and a 3-3 tie.

While the Irish ended regulation with the momentum, Merrimack came out flying in the extra stanza putting the pressure on the Notre Dame goal with six shots in the first five minutes.

Lee would get the game winner at 5:18 on pure hustle and a little bit of luck. Off a faceoff, the Irish threw the puck into the Merrimack zone where a Warrior defender skated behind the goal with Lee in pursuit. As the defenseman cut inside at the right post, Lee took a swing at the puck and deflected it past Cannata to give Notre Dame its first and only lead of the night and the win.

2011 NCAA Championship - Finals

Northeast Regional
#9 Notre Dame 2 • #11 New Hampshire 1
March 27, 2011 • Manchester, N.H.

For the third time in five trips to the NCAA Championship, Notre Dame would play in a regional championship game, this time facing New Hampshire at Verizon Wireless Arena in Manchester, N.H.

Sophomore goaltender Mike Johnson stopped 37 of 38 shots and got goals from Stephen Johns and Billy Maday as the Fighting Irish downed the Wildcats 2-1 to send Notre Dame to the NCAA Frozen Four for the second time in the program's 43-year history.

Johnson held the Wildcats off the scoreboard early in the game and then withstood their third-period comeback attempt. The Verona, Wis., native finished the weekend with 69 saves and a pair of wins.

The lone New Hampshire goal came with 6:23 left in the game and was scored by Mike Sisko.

The victory improved ninth-ranked Notre Dame to 25-13-5 overall while 11th-ranked New Hampshire finished the year with a 22-11-6 mark.

Following a television timeout at the 7:11 mark of the first period, the Irish got their second shot of the period and it found the back of the Wildcat net.

Johns got Notre Dame on the scoreboard at 7:26 of the first as he hammered a shot from the center point past netminder Matt DiGirolamo's stick hand for the 1-0 lead.

With time running down in the second, Riley Sheahan centered a pass from the New Hampshire goal line. The puck found Maday at the bottom of the left circle where he got off a backhand that beat DiGirolamo at 19:55 to give the Irish a 2-0 lead. The goal was Maday's second of the weekend and 10th of the season.

New Hampshire broke through on Johnson, snapping his shutout bid at 13:37 of the third period, on a goal by Sisko from right in front to cut Notre Dame's lead to 2-1.

From there the Irish held off the Wildcats, including a penalty kill in the final four minutes.

Notre Dame was outshot by New Hampshire 38-36. DiGirolamo finished with 34 saves in the Wildcat goal.

The win improved the Irish to 6-4 all-time in NCAA Championship games.

Four Notre Dame players were selected to the all-Northeast Regional Team. Johnson was selected as the all-tourney goaltender with Johns on defense. Maday and Anders Lee were selected as forwards on the squad with Johnson being named MVP of the tournament.

Frozen Four
#3 Minnesota-Duluth 4 • #14 Notre Dame 3
April 7, 2011 • St. Paul, Minn.

Notre Dame made its second trip to the NCAA Frozen Four in four seasons and opened versus Minnesota-Duluth at the Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul, Minn.

The Bulldogs used three power-play goals to dash Irish national championship hopes on the way to a 4-3 win to end Notre Dame's outstanding 2010-11 season.

J.T. Brown, Mike Connolly and Jack Connolly scored on the power play and Kyle Schmidt added the fourth goal for the Bulldogs.

The Irish got goals from Jeff Costello, T.J. Tynan and Calle Ridderwall (shg) as they had leads of 1-0 and 2-1 in the game but could not hold on to either advantage.

The loss ended fourth-ranked Notre Dame's season with a 25-14-5 mark while Minnesota-Duluth moved on to face Michigan in the title game.

The Irish got off to a fast start in the game as Costello whipped a wrist shot from the top of the right circle past Bulldog goaltender Kenny Rieter just 49 seconds into the game for a 1-0 lead. Costello's 12th goal of the season became the quickest for the Irish in NCAA postseason action.

Duluth answered with the first of three power-play goals at 3:04 when Brown turned and fired a shot from the left circle that beat Mike Johnson through his pads for his 16th goal of the season.

The Irish answered less than six minutes later on Tynan's 23rd goal of the season at 9:46. Ryan Guentzel fired a shot wide but the puck came off the boards to Tynan on the goal line. The freshman center tucked a shot inside the right post to give the Irish a 2-1 lead.

Just 1:06 later, the Bulldogs got their lone even-strength goal when Schmidt broke down the left side and beat Johnson with a shot to the short side for his 10th of the year at 10:52 to tie the game at 2-2.

Minnesota-Duluth took the lead for good at 13:31 via the power play when Mike Connolly whipped a shot from the between the hash marks past Johnson for a 3-2 lead.

The second period saw the Bulldogs score their third of the night on the power play. This time, Jack Connolly beat Johnson from the right face-off dot at 5:51 to give the Bulldogs a 4-2 lead.

The Irish got back in the game in the third as Ridderwall hammered his 16th goal of the year past Rieter, this one short-handed at 2:05, to cut the Duluth lead to 4-3 with plenty of time left in the contest.

Notre Dame carried the play in the third, outshooting Minnesota-Duluth 15-2 in the period but could not score again in the game.

The Irish had a 34-21 edge in shots. Rieter finished with 31 saves while Johnson had 17. The Bulldogs were three for six on the power play while Notre Dame was zero for five.

2013 NCAA Championship - Semifinal

Midwest Regional
#11 St. Cloud State 5 • #4 Notre Dame 1
March 30, 2013 • Toledo, Ohio

Notre Dame returned to the NCAA Championship after missing out in 2011-12 and ran into a buzzsaw in St. Cloud State as the Huskies ended the season for the Irish with a 5-1 win.

Joey Benik scored a pair of power-play goals and St. Cloud State got single goals from Ben Hanowski, Cory Thorson and Jonny Brodzinski in the win. Mike Voran scored Notre Dame's lone goal of the game.

The loss ended the season for the Irish with a 25-13-3 overall record and snapped a six-game winning streak in March and a nine-game unbeaten streak (7-0-2) that started on Feb. 17.

St. Cloud State opened the scoring at 11:32 of the opening period as Hanowski scored his 17th goal of the season past Irish starter Steven Summerhays to make it 1-0.

The Irish looked like they tied the game just 28 seconds later when Anders Lee put the rebound of a Peter Schneider shot past St. Cloud goaltender Ryan Faragher. The officials went to the replay and ruled that Lee had directed the puck past Faragher with his foot and waved the goal off.

The second stanza belonged to St. Cloud State as the Huskies scored three times to open a 4-0 lead after 40 minutes of play.

Benik gave St. Cloud a 2-0 lead at 9:28 of the second period when he scored on the power play.

The lead would go to 3-0 at 13:35 when Thomson tucked a shot between Summerhays' pads for his 11th goal of the year.

Brodzinski, St. Cloud's leading goal scorer on the year, closed out the period with his 22nd of the season at 14:43 to make it a 4-0 game.

Mike Johnson replaced Summerhays in goal to start the third as the Notre Dame starter finished with 14 saves.

The Irish were forced to kill three consecutive penalties and held St. Cloud State off the scoreboard while finally breaking through on Faragher with a short-handed goal at 7:44 to make it a 4-1 game.

With the Huskies applying pressure in the Irish zone, Bryan Rust broke up a pass and carried the puck to the top of the left circle in the St. Cloud State zone. There he fired a shot at Faragher. The sophomore made the stop but Voran fired the rebound over his glove for his fifth of the year.

The Huskies then closed out the scoring with their second power-play goal of the night, with Benik banging a rebound past Johnson for his fifth of the season at 11:07 for the 5-1 final.

The Huskies were two for seven on the power play while the Irish had just one chance and did not convert.

St. Cloud State outshot Notre Dame 23-18 in the game. Faragher made 17 saves in picking up the victory. Johnson made four saves in the final 20 minutes of the game.

2014 NCAA Championship - Semifinal

West Regional

#8 St. Cloud State 4 • #9 Notre Dame 3 (ot)
March 29, 2014 • St. Paul, Minnesota

For the second consecutive year, Notre Dame advanced to the NCAA Championship and would face the St. Cloud State Huskies in the opening game. And, for the second consecutive year, St. Cloud State would end the season for the Irish, this time with a dramatic, 4-3, overtime loss at Xcel Energy Center.

Senior center Nic Dowd whipped a wrist shot from the left wing circle over Irish goaltender Steven Summerhays' glove at 17:21 of the first overtime to give the Huskies the dramatic win 4-3 in a game that saw Notre Dame come from behind three times to force the extra stanza.

Notre Dame and Minnesota Duluth face off at the 2011 NCAA Frozen Four in St. Paul, Minn.

The Irish got goals from seniors Bryan Rust and Kevin Lind and sophomore Thomas DiPauli to offset St. Cloud State goals by Ryan Papa, Brooks Bertsch and Jonny Brodzinski to set up Dowd's heroics.

Notre Dame outshot the Huskies by a 42-28 margin, holding St. Cloud State to just six shots in the second and third periods combined.

Summerhays finished with 24 saves, including 15 in overtime as the Huskies had a 16-6 margin in extra time while junior Ryan Faragher had 39 saves in the win.

The loss ended the season for the Irish with a 23-15-2 overall record, including an 8-3-1 mark since Feb. 8.

The Huskies got the first goal of the game off a pretty passing play along the Notre Dame goal line with Papa getting the goal, his sixth of the season at 6:54.

The Irish would answer at the 10:30 mark of the first with Rust getting his 17th of the season as he snapped a wrist shot past Faragher to tie the game at 1-1.

St. Cloud re-took the lead with 34.9 seconds left in the first as Bertsch was left alone in front and took a centering pass from center Cory Thomson and threw it over Summerhays to make it 2-1 heading into the first intermission.

Notre Dame dominated the second period, outshooting the Huskies by an 18-4 margin but could score just once.

That goal came at 8:18 of the second stanza as Lind drilled a laser beam from the right circle past Faragher to tie the game at 2-2.

For the second period in a row, St. Cloud scored in the final minute, with this one coming on the power play with 24.5 seconds left on the clock as the Irish could not get the puck out of their own zone.

Kossila had his pass deflected to Brodzinski at the top of the left circle and the Huskies' leading scorer wasted no time whipping a shot past Summerhays and inside the right post for his 21st goal of the year to give St. Cloud the 3-2 lead.

Notre Dame got the tying goal at 9:35 of the third period when DiPauli scored on a low wrist shot that broke through Faragher's pads to make it 3-3.

Again the Irish dominated the period, outshooting the Huskies by a 9-2 margin as St. Cloud did not get its first shot until 3:37 remained in the third and it came on a power play.

After 60 minutes, the Irish had outshot St. Cloud State by a 36-12 margin, but the score remained tied 3-3.

In overtime, the tide changed, as the Huskies controlled the play and the Irish were forced to kill two penalties in the period to keep the game even.

On the final play, the Irish turned it over at their own blue line twice with David Morley controlling the puck. He fed it ahead to Dowd who finished Notre Dame's season with a perfect shot that hit the cross bar and went in for the 4-3 game winner.

William Donald Nyrop Award Defensive Player of the Year

Bill Nyrop was one of the finest defenseman ever to play at Notre Dame. The Edina, Minn., native was a standout blueliner from 1970-74, playing in 119 games with 17 goals and 72 assists for 89 points. Selected in the fifth round of the 1972 NHL Entry Draft by the Montreal Canadiens, Nyrop was selected second team all-WCHA in 1973 and was an All-American selection that season.

In 2002, he was chosen to the WCHA's 50th anniversary team along with teammate Jack Brownschilde. Following his Notre Dame career, Nyrop went on to play on three Stanley Cup championship teams with the Montreal Canadiens (1976-78).

He passed away on Dec. 31, 1995 due to cancer at the age of 43. His memory and legacy at Notre Dame will live on with the William Donald Nyrop defensive player of the year award that is presented to the team's top defensive player each season.

Charles "Lefty" Smith Coaches Award

Charles "Lefty" Smith came to Notre Dame in 1968 to start the Notre Dame hockey program and remained the head coach of the Fighting Irish for 19 seasons before retiring in 1987. During his time behind the bench, Notre Dame produced six All-Americans and finished second in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA) twice (1972-73 and 1976-77). He was selected the WCHA coach of the year following the 1972-73 season. The popular head coach retired following the 1986-87 season with a career record of 307-320-31.

Following his coaching career, Smith became the director of the Loftus Sports Center until his death in 2012. In 2002, he was honored for his outstanding accomplishments in hockey at the Hobey Baker Award Banquet as a "Legend of Hockey" honoree. Smith's name always will be synonymous with Irish hockey as his name now graces the Coaches Award that goes annually to the unsung hero of the Notre Dame hockey program, the player who is unheralded, has overcome adversity and shows loyalty and commitment to his teammates, Notre Dame hockey and the University of Notre Dame.

The Irish and USA Hockey

The University of Notre Dame and USA Hockey

The Notre Dame hockey program has seen many of its players contribute to USA Hockey on the national and international scene since 1971 when Dick Tomasoni saw action in goal for the U.S. National Team in the World Championships held in Switzerland. Since then, the Irish have seen their players play for the U.S. National Team, the U.S. Junior National Team and as members of the U.S. National Team Developmental Program in Ann Arbor, Mich. Thirty-five players that have attended Notre Dame have been members of the U.S. National Developmental Program.

Paul Castner, a two-time All-America running back (1921-22), was one of several Notre Dame football players who played a major role with the hockey program during the 1920s. Castner, who also was a three-year pitcher on the Notre Dame baseball team, served as captain and player-coach for the hockey program in 1919-20 and 20-21 before coaching the team in 1921-22 and 1922-23.

Tom Lieb served as one of the early leaders of the Notre Dame hockey team, as a player in the early 1920s and a coach from 1923-26. Lieb also was a right tackle on the Notre Dame football team, earning varsity letters for the 1921 and 1922 seasons.

Special thanks to Jim Bognar '82 for providing his notes and research from the early years of the Notre Dame hockey program. His hard work and research provided updated information for the early years of the program, as well as, the roster and photos of players from those years. His work also provided the records and rosters for the club era that are now available in the media guide.

All-Time Hat Tricks

Senior right wing Bryan Rust picked up his first career hat trick on Jan. 10, 2014, when he scored three times versus Alabama Huntsville. He also added an assist for a career-best, four-point night versus the Chargers.

Mark Van Guilder picked up two hat tricks during his Notre Dame career. The 2008 graduate had one against top-ranked Boston College during '06-'07 and one versus Bowling Green the previous year - 2005-06.

Brian Urick is the last Notre Dame player to score four goals in a game. He did it on Oct. 19, 1995, in a 7-4 win over Alaska in Fairbanks.
