Kevin O'Connor '89

Captain of the 1989 team

U.S. Attorney for the state of Connecticut

"As a candidate for United State Congress, I was amazed at the amount of attention given by the media and voters to my having served as captain of the lacrosse team at the University of Notre Dame. Indeed, of all the activities in which I have been involved, my experience as a lacrosse player at Notre Dame was the most valuable in the campaign. The traits that make Notre Dame athletics special in the eyes of the public – sportsmanship, integrity and success – are of equal value in the political arena."

Dave Cashen '97

Academic All-America defenseman
Columbia University Medical School

"Nowhere in the country could I have found such a good education and a school surrounded by students who love their school, what it stands for and most of all their classmates. I was able to combine this with four years of competitive lacrosse on a team nationally-ranked, well-coached and most of all, created by 35 teammates devoted to each other on and off the field. It is a great feeling to have 35 friends always to support, encourage and entertain you, especially two years later."

Irish Reflections...

Mike Iorio '95

Three-time All-America defenseman
Employed at American National Bank in Chicago, Ill.

"Notre Dame lacrosse provided me with four years of fun and excitement, and it continues to be a part of my life. As a freshman in 1992, I was a part of the team that had the program's first top-10 win. By my senior year, we had accomplished what no other NCAA Division I men's lacrosse team had ever done - the No. 12 seed knocked off the No. 5 seed in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. In the four years that came between these two historic Notre Dame lacrosse events, I received a great education, developed the teamwork and time management skills that I utilize every day in the banking world and built friendships that will last me a lifetime."

Jimmy Keenan '98

Three-time honorable mention
All-America midfielder

Employed as an accountant at UBS in New York City and was a member of the New York Saints of the National Lacrosse League

"The decision to attend Notre Dame and play lacrosse there has turned out to be the most gratifying decision of my life thus far. This unique University fulfilled all I could have wished for as a high school senior. As a school, it offers everything from academics to athletics to nightlife and a campus atmosphere that can only be summed up with the cliché 'Notre Dame Family.' The experience, memories and friends that I have accumulated over my four years there have really defined who I am today. Playing lacrosse at Notre Dame, with its tradition and history, was certainly the proudest and most memorable experience for me. The team and the University will always remain a part of my life for it is truly a family."

Krause

Stadium

Moose Krause Stadium has been the home of Notre Dame lacrosse since its construction in 1988. The venue has seen a multitude of big games and top players.

The facility, named after former director of athletics Edward W. "Moose" Krause, is located just east of the Joyce Center on the Cartier Field complex and has a seating capacity of 5,000 and also is used by the Irish track and field squads.

Krause Stadium features 2,500 permanent bleachers on both sides of the 70 x 120-yard grass field. The stands are raised so that the first row of seats measures six feet above field level for better viewing, and there is ample room for wheelchair seating. The field itself is surrounded by a nine-lane Mondo track, the fastest surface of its kind in the world.

The Irish have had considerable success at home, posting a 77-26 (.748) record since Krause Stadium was built. That includes four undefeated campaigns and 18 victories over ranked opponents. Each of the first six ranked opponents to travel to Krause Stadium were defeated by the Irish. The biggest win at Krause Stadium was a 10-9 victory over #4 Hofstra on April 4, 1997.

Krause Stadium saw its first intercollegiate lacrosse action on March 26, 1988, when Notre Dame posted a 14-4 victory over Wooster.

Krause Stadium/Loftus Center Notes

- When Krause Stadium and the Loftus Sports Center were completed in 1988, it improved the University of Notre Dame's lacrosse facilities from average to among the best in the nation.

- The Loftus Sports Center is one of just six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games.

- On March 26, 1988, Notre Dame opened play in Krause Stadium, posting a 14-4 victory over Wooster.

- On April 27, 1988, the Loftus Sports Center saw lacrosse game action for the first time as Notre Dame beat regional rival Michigan State 10-7.

- In the 17 seasons of Irish men's lacrosse in Krause Stadium and the Loftus Sports Center, Notre Dame has compiled a 77-26 (.748) record in home games.

- The Irish have posted four undefeated home campaigns in the current facilities (1994, '95, '97, and 2001) and have lost just once at home in seven other seasons.

- Notre Dame is 18-14 against ranked opponents in Krause Stadium and the Loftus Sports Center.

- Each of the first six ranked opponents to play the Irish in Krause Stadium or the Loftus Sports Center went home with losses. It was not until 1996, the ninth year of play in the facilities that a ranked team beat Notre Dame on its home field.

- On April 4, 1997, Notre Dame edged #4 Hofstra 10-9 as part of a streak of three consecutive wins over ranked foes.

- Among the top programs to have played in Krause Stadium or the Loftus Sports Center are North Carolina, Cornell, Maryland, Loyola, Georgetown, Pennsylvania, Army, Hofstra, Harvard, Massachusetts, Rutgers, Hobart, UMBC, and Penn State.

- Krause Stadium and the Loftus Sports Center have played host to 28 games in which both teams were nationally ranked. The Irish are 15-13 in those contests.

- Notre Dame is one of just six Division I schools that plays host to games in an indoor facility, joining Dartmouth, Hobart, Penn State, Syracuse, and Towson.

- The 2005 season featured the two largest home crowds in program history: 1,089 for the Butler game and 1,305 for the Air Force game.

The Loftus Sports Center combines with Krause Stadium to give the University of Notre Dame some of the top lacrosse facilities in the country. Constructed in 1988, it is one of just six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games.

The Loftus Center provides Notre Dame with one of the top multi-purpose indoor facilities in the nation. Complete with the 120-yard synthetic turf Meyo Field, six-lane 352-yard Mondo indoor track and a 9,000-square-foot weight room, it is used by several Irish athletic programs.

The building is named after John R. Loftus of St. Charles, Ill., a 1949 graduate of the University. Loftus is chief executive of JRL, a real estate, investment and construction firm. Loftus is also a member of

The Isban Auditorium within the new Guglielmino Athletics Complex provides an ideal setting for team meetings. The auditorium can seat up to 150 people in large chairback seats.

The Haggar Fitness Center, which is shared by both the Loftus Center and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, features 25,000 square feet of strength and conditioning space with state-of-the-art weight equipment, a 50-yard Mondo track for speed training, a 45-yard by 18-yard Prestige Turf athletic surface for team workouts and an updated sound and lighting system that features six plasma television screens.

The Loftus Sports Center, one of the six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games, is the site of Irish lacrosse games when inclement weather precludes them from being contested in Moose Krause Stadium.

the Notre Dame Monogram Club, having played on the varsity basketball team in 1944, 1948 and 1949.

The Meyo Field in the Loftus Center offers Irish lacrosse a 55-by-110 yard synthetic turf playing surface. It was revamped in the summer of 2003 with the addition of Prestige field turf. The field and surrounding track are named for Ray and Marie Meyo of Brecksville, Ohio. Meyo, who graduated from Notre Dame in 1964, is president and chief executive officer of Telxon Corp. in Akron, Ohio, the world's largest manufacturer of portable teletransaction computers.

The Meyo Field is permanently marked for lacrosse competition and is used as a backup site for games in the event of inclement weather. The Irish have played several contests in the Loftus Center.

In addition to the Meyo Track and Field in the Loftus Center, the Irish lacrosse squad also benefits from the Haggar Fitness Center located in the facility. Equipped with more than 40,000 pounds of free weights, it is four times the size of the weight room in the Joyce Center. It is considered by national strength coaches to be one of the largest, and finest, college training facilities in the nation.

The Irish have had considerable success at home, posting a 77-26 (.748) record since the Loftus Sports Center was built. That includes four undefeated campaigns and 18 victories over ranked opponents.

Loftus Sports Center saw its first inter-collegiate lacrosse action on April 27, 1988, when Notre Dame posted a 10-7 victory over Michigan State.

A Championship with Meaning

By Todd Rassas

I had a tough start to my experience with the World Team. My office was in 7 World Trade Center and was destroyed due to the attack on Sept. 11. I was sitting at my desk at the time the first plane impacted the World Trade Center. After hearing the explosion we evacuated the building.

At this time a few agents and I ran towards the bottom of the World Trade Center to set up a triage center. While waiting for the injured to come out, we had to move under a walkway to avoid being hit by people and debris falling from the top floors. I remember bandaging a lady's hand, then hearing the second plane accelerate right before it exploded above us. I just hugged the pylon that held up the walkway in hope that the plane wouldn't crash down on us.

At this point I ran a block north to help with all of the emergency personnel trying to get closer. About 15 minutes later I ran from the first tower that fell.

A number of agents regrouped and returned to look for survivors. We got about a block and a half away from the remaining tower when I saw the top floor drop. I turned and started running for my life. All I could think of was my dad saying "when you have the ball, never look back because it makes you run slower." I thought I was going to get crushed. If the tower would have fallen a little more towards the Hudson River I would not be here today. I feel very fortunate to have survived this attack. The victims of Sept. 11 are in my thoughts and prayers every day.

I spent the next four weeks at Ground Zero while almost everyone else on my U.S. team was taking part in fall practice. The fall tournament was probably the worst time for me to be playing lacrosse. I don't even recall all of the teams that we played.

Though I was not ready to play then, I knew there would be no better time to wear red, white, and blue. I think every athlete has a dream at one time or another to wear his or her country's jersey. I remember when all this started Darren Lowe said, "Don't ever underestimate someone playing for his or her country." Every time I put my jersey on, I thought of someone from Sept. 11, or someone who told me, "You can't," or my family who traveled around the world to watch me play a game that I love.

This team was motivated by the so-called lacrosse scholars that predicted us to lose. I took criticism more personally than most of the others on the team. Growing up in Illinois, I have always had to battle the critics. I have six motivational letters at my house. The first is a rejection letter from the University of Notre Dame. After giving up a year of competitive lacrosse and spending a year at Holy Cross College in Indiana, I now have an acceptance letter from Notre Dame. The third letter is a rejection letter from the United States Secret Service based on lack of experience. Two years later I was employed by the USSS. Finally I have a letter from U.S. Lacrosse explaining how I didn't make the cut for a tryout for the 1998 U.S. Team. Now there is a letter saying I made the team and a gold medal that sits with that rejection letter.

This experience was so enjoyable because the team was told that we were the underdogs from the start. Someone e-mailed me and said that we were being displayed as the "Bad News Bears." We had to bond together.

There was not one guy on our team trying to be a superstar, well at least on the field – some could argue Ryan Mollett and Ryan Boyle were superstars in the social arena. At times on defense, Mollett, John Glatzel, and I were begging someone to shoot the ball. The offense was so unselfish in its play, its motto seemed to be, "I don't want to shoot. You shoot."

We played our first game against the Iroquois Nationals and won 22-6. Then we read an Australian newspaper with some not-so-favorable quotes from the Australian coach, along the lines that it was the Australians' year and the U.S. team is over-rated and under-talented. In warm-ups, instead of running around their half of the field, the Australians took a lap all the way around to our bench. Putting it lightly, I don't think many of our guys, especially Nicky Polanco, appreciated it. From then on it seemed as though the game was over before it started, and we won 22-7. Not too bad for being over-rated and under-talented.

Then we had to get geared up for Canada. This game was the worst display of lacrosse that I have ever seen. Canada had nearly 30 minutes of penalties. Canada was taking cheap shots and late hits to take some of our players out of the game. At one point we had a 6-on-2. We won 14-9, but everyone was disappointed with the victory due to the way that the game was played.

Next we beat England and then the Iroquois in the semi-finals to set up another game with Canada for the championship.

We had a team meeting and went over the Todd Rassas was a three-time All-America defenseman at Notre Dame who played an integral role in helping the U.S. men's lacrosse team win the 2002 International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) Championship in Perth, Australia, serving as team captain. Rassas also works as a Secret Service agent and will take part in the 2006 World Championship.

match-ups. I was going to cover Paul Gait. I think one way or another every lacrosse player models their game after one of the Gait brothers. I had a poster of them next to my bed when I was in high school. For me, a kid from Northfield, Ill., covering Paul Gait in his last game for the world championship, even playing with the flu, I was still excited for the match-up.

We started the game with a three-goal lead. Then Canada made some plays to come back. It was back and forth until Canada pulled ahead by two to end the half. It was the first time this Team USA was trailing, and we were getting a little hesitant.

After regrouping we pulled ahead in the third quarter. Doug Shanahan played out of his mind in the fourth quarter. Canada realized they were short on time and called a stick check on Mike Powell. Mike's stick was illegal, and then Jimmy Butler (our team stick doctor) countered their move with a stick check on Canada's John Tavares. It was found illegal and since he scored the last goal it was taken off the board. From there we were able to run out the clock and ended up winning 18-15.

At the beginning of this quest for the gold medal we were picked to finish second or third. "Team USA can't win," said the writers. I kept all the articles. I, along with this team, took the challenge. I am happy to say we are the World Champions! Memories of Nicky Polanco in leopard-skin sandals and a red, white and blue head band, as well as the punishment Trevor Tierney had after he couldn't get past the ladies tee on the golf course will be hard memories to forget. I miss sitting on the bus and playing what-if scenarios about the Secret Service with Matt Streibel, Scott Doyle and Ryan Boyle. It was a classy group of guys that I will never forget. I can't indicate how much pride I had I wearing a USA jersey after my 9-11 experience. I hope my World Team experience motivates all those who at one time have been told that they "can't."

Season Preview

Senior attackman Pat Walsh has garnered All-America honors during his first three seasons at Notre Dame. He is currently tied for eighth in school history with 142 career points.

Breaking Through

Irish return plenty of talent in hopes of making it back to NCAA tournament

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse team has put together solid seasons over the past three years, yet when it was all said and done the Irish were left on the outside looking in at the NCAA tournament. This year's version of the Fighting Irish has its sights set on putting all the pieces together and making another run at and into the 16-team NCAA field.

The pieces are indeed there as Notre Dame returns eight starters and 14 monogram winners from last year's squad that finished the season 7-4 (3-2 GWLL) and boasts a plethora of veteran and young talent to the squad. The Irish narrowly missed out on making the NCAA tournament and finished the season ranked 19th in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse (USILA) poll and 15th in the Inside Lacrosse poll.

Close losses defined last season as three of Notre Dame's four losses were determined by a single goal on the road against ranked teams. Notre Dame also fell to both eventual GWLL co-champs Denver (9-6) and Fairfield (12-11).

The Irish return two USILA Honorable Mention All-America selections in stand-out attackman Pat Walsh and defenseman D.J. Driscoll. Driscoll also was named GWLL Defensive Player of the Year, while freshman goaltender Joey Kemp returns in net after being tabbed Rookie of the Year by the GWLL. Driscoll was joined on the all-GWLL first team with Walsh. Kemp and midfielder Matt Karweck, who is back for his senior season, earned all-league second-team accolades.

Notre Dame will look to use the returning talent along with a solid freshmen class to reach the level that the program expects to reside.

"Our biggest goal is to reach our potential as a team," says head coach Kevin Corrigan, who is entering his 18th season at the helm of the Fighting Irish program. "We don't feel like we've done that in the past couple of years. I think the wins and losses will follow us doing that. I think we have a talented group of kids. We just have to do the things that make a good team successful and we have to do those every day for the course of the season."

The Irish will have their sights set on returning to the NCAA tournament for the first time since making it to the national semifinals in 2001. Close calls over the past four seasons have kept the Irish out of the tournament, yet a solid group of seniors will be looked upon to carry the team back to the postseason.

"We've got senior leaders playing on the field in every position, except in goal," says Corrigan. "We've got a number of experienced guys in that class. They've got to set the tone."

The Fighting Irish boast a 10-man senior class that will look to solidify the program within the upper-tier of Division I lacrosse. Turning those close losses of the past into wins and an NCAA berth will be the focus of this year's Notre Dame team.

Making it to the tournament will not be an easy task, as Notre Dame will once again face a challenging schedule, which includes five Great Western Lacrosse League tilts. The Irish will face seven teams that appear in the Inside Lacrosse preseason rankings. The Fighting Irish have six true home games on the 2006 ledger, which is a welcome sight since Notre Dame only played three home games in 2005.

Notre Dame opens the season with three straight home games that are against ranked foes. No. 13 Penn State comes to the Loftus Center for a season-opening showdown on February 26, while eighth-ranked Cornell and 14th-ranked North Carolina will battle the Irish on March 4 and March 11, respectively. The Cornell contest will take place at Benedictine University in Lisle, Ill.

"I like our schedule. I think it's a good mix of home and away," says Corrigan. "It's a challenging schedule, certainly. From the fall, to the preseason, to the games we play, I think we play 11 of the top-25 teams. So we are certainly going to be playing against top teams, but I don't feel like there is anybody we can't beat. So I think that's a schedule to be excited about."

The Irish also will host No. 17 Dartmouth on April 2 before hitting the road for three straight GWLL games beginning with Butler on April 8 followed by No. 22 Denver (Apr. 14) and Air Force (Apr. 16). Notre Dame stays on the road, yet steps away from league play with a matchup versus Lehigh at Georgetown Prep School in Bethesda, Md., on April 23.

Notre Dame returns home to close out the regular season with conference tilts against No. 21 Ohio State on April 29 and GWLL-newcomer Quinnipiac on May 6.

"I think the league is more balanced than it's ever been," states Corrigan. "I think we have a lot of good coaches in our league, I think we have a lot of programs that have steadily built themselves up to where I think we have a very, very good league, and a very competitive league."

ATTACK:

A clear strength for this year's squad is the attack that the Irish are able to put out on the field. Notre Dame has four of its top six scorers returning from one year ago, including a three-time All-America honoree in the senior Walsh. Last year, the Fighting Irish ranked fourth in the nation in scoring offense by averaging 11.91 goals-per game and much of that force returns to the 2006 attack unit.

Walsh, a two-time Tewaaraton Trophy nominee, has led the Irish in scoring his first three seasons, including a Notre Dame freshman-record 52 points back in 2003. He followed up his rookie campaign with 47 points as a sophomore and then led the GWLL with 43 points last season. The senior heads into his final collegiate campaign with more expectations, as he was tabbed a preseason second-team All-America selection by Inside Lacrosse, but also with a better supporting cast around him, which should only enhance his effectiveness.

"I think Pat Walsh is a terrific all-around player," says Corrigan. "He's at his best when the people around him are good and playing well and playing smart. We are excited that he's back and we think we can surround him with guys that can help him do what he does best."

Looking to ease the scoring load for Walsh will be his classmate Brian Hubschmann, who returns this season after missing all of the 2005 campaign due to injury. Hubschmann was a second-team all-Great Western Lacrosse League selection as a sophomore in 2004. Heading into last season, he was tabbed honorable mention preseason All-America by Inside Lacrosse. Every indication appears that the senior will be ready to go once the season rolls around.

"Getting Brian Hubschmann back on the attack is going to be a huge boost," states Corrigan. "He is an immensely talented guy who can do a lot of different things. He's a threat in every situation. Again, he's somebody you can build around."

With Walsh and Hubschmann providing the senior leadership, the Irish also have a group of underclassmen that will be looked upon to provide depth and several options for the coaching staff. Sophomore Alex Wharton saw action in five games as a rookie in '05 and totaled four points on two goals and two assists.

"Alex Wharton is a sophomore who got some limited time as a freshman last year but I think he's made some really big strides," says Corrigan. "I think he has a great sense of the game and is a great compliment to those other two guys."

Corrigan and his staff also have brought in a talented trio of freshmen that will see time immediately in the attack. Peter Christman, Ryan Hoff and Duncan Swezey provide different elements for the Irish, which should blend them nicely with the veteran players. With seasoned attackmen already in place, the younger athletes should have an opportunity to work their way into the mix without being asked to do too much.

"We have three very talented freshman attackmen, all of whom are going to play in some capacity," states Corrigan. "We have enough playmakers in that other group, so they don't have to do everything. They all have the ability to add to what we are doing. With the situation we are in, we don't have to ask them to do something that they're not comfortable doing or able to do. We are going to be able to play them in situations where they should and can be successful. I think that is going to help them make contributions."

Swezey is a talented and very athletic attackman, who can get to the goal and put pressure on the defense. Corrigan feels Christman can create matchup problems for the defense as well, with his quickness and ability to play some midfield. Hoff has also received some high praise from his coach in just the short amount of time that he's been on campus.

"Ryan Hoff is probably the best inside finisher on our team, even as a freshman," states Corrigan. "If you throw him the ball inside, he catches it and puts it on goal. That's a great thing to have. Again, when you have an offense with a lot of different people who can put pressure on the defense, a guy like that is invaluable because at the end of the play, if it doesn't go into the back of the net it doesn't matter. Having guys like that who can finish is a tremendous thing."

Two other guys that will be looked upon to provide depth to the Irish attack when needed will be junior Patrick O'Toole and sophomore Sloan Smith.

MIDFIELD:

A deep rotation will provide a luxury for the Irish in the midfield. The coaching staff will have many options to go with in hopes finding the right chemistry in the midfield. A quartet of seniors will be looked upon to anchor the midfield and some younger guys will look to provide a spark, a situation very similar to the Irish attack.

"In the midfield I think we have a lot of different guys and the trick for us is figuring out how to use all of them," comments Corrigan. "The only question is how we can use them best. We like the fact that we have different weapons there."

Senior Drew Peters brings a strong presence and athleticism to the midfield. He is quite possibly the team's best defender from the midfield, and he has also developed offensively as a player. In 2005, Peters tallied career highs with five goals and four assists.

Adding some offensive punch to the midfield will be senior Matt Ryan, who Corrigan feels is the team's best offensive midfielder and one of the toughest matchups for opponents. Ryan was fourth on the team last season with 21 points on 11 goals and 10 assists, to go along with 23 groundballs. He also brings a ton of experience to the Irish lineup, as he has started every game over the past two seasons.

A third senior in the midfield mix is Matt Karweck, an all-GWLL second-team selection last season. Karweck was third on the team in 2005 with 26 points on 13 goals and 13 assists. He also was tied for third in the GWLL with five man-up goals. Just like Ryan, Karweck brings valuable experience to the roster as he has 25 career starts, including in all 11 contests last season.

"Matt Karweck is another good offensive midfielder who can play inside and outside," says Corrigan. "He's really developed. He's also played some attack for us. So now he's in a position where we can move him around and exploit the things that he's capable of doing as well. I think the fact that he and Matt Ryan can handle the longstick is an important thing, given that there is only one longstick in the midfield."

Brandon Schultheis is the fourth senior in the Notre Dame midfield. He has played both longstick and shortstick middle during his time in a Fighting Irish uniform and that leaves the team with even more versatility. Schultheis has played in every contest over the past two seasons and is another reason why the Irish are excited with their options at the midfield position.

"The good news is that we have three seniors who've played a ton of lacrosse for us, and we can count on them," says Corrigan. "Actually, we have four seniors who've played a lot when you look at it. So we are really looking at four senior midfielders who've played a lot. Brandon has played with the longstick and the shortstick and I don't know what he's going to play with this year; all I know is that he's going to be on the field for us."

Another member of the senior class is Steve Panos, who will help as a backup face-off guy and in a defensive midfield role as well.

Despite the Irish midfield being a little top-heavy with seniors, some of the younger group of middies will have ample time to make an impact on the field.

"In the junior class we have Ryan Cunn and John Greaney who have both really started to develop this year," states Corrigan. "It looks like they are ready to make contributions more than what they have the past couple of years."

Last season, Cunn and Greaney combined to play in 16 games, totaling six points on five goals and one assist. A bigger impact will certainly be felt out of that duo during the 2006 campaign.

Junior Bill Liva has played a significant role for the Irish from the moment he stepped on campus, yet last year he was lost for the middle portion of the season to injury.

"Bill Liva is a guy who has played for us right from the get-go, in some role every year," says Corrigan. "We think that he just really continues to develop. He's probably our most underrated guy. We really think he has the potential to be a very, very good midfielder. He was a huge loss for us when we lost him during the middle part of the season and Joey Kemp led the nation with a .652 save percentage as a freshman last season. He and the Irish defense will look to post even better numbers in 2006.

even late, he was coming off of the injury. Not having him put a real strain on our midfield because he's one of the best mid-dies that we have."

Lucius Polk is another member of the junior midfield class that will bring experience to the mix, as he has played in 18 career games, including all 11 one season ago. Last year, he scored four goals, and Corrigan calls him the hardest shooter on the team and a real threat during man-up situations.

Bringing a little more youth to the seasoned midfield will be sophomore Michael Podgajny, who started eight games during his freshman campaign. Podgajny ranked sixth on the team in points with 16 on 10 goals and six assists.

"We think Mike Podgajny could be our best scorer from the midfield," comments Corrigan. "He's a very good shooter. He's a guy who played a lot as a freshman, and he was up and down. He had hat-tricks and then he had games where he was shutout. We'd like to see a little more consistent performance from him this season. We know that he's capable of having a big day at any time."

Joining Podgajny in the sophomore class is Notre Dame's top face-off man, Taylor Clagett. Clagett won 131 of 214 (.612) face-off attempts last season, a mark that ranked him sixth nationally. He also led the team with 64 ground balls and ranked 13th in the nation with a 5.82 ground balls per game average. Clagett has been tabbed a 2006 preseason honorable mention All-America by Inside Lacrosse.

"We feel Taylor Clagett is going to be one of the top face-off guys in the country for the next three years," says Corrigan. "He's very, very good at what he does. We'd like to see him contribute defensively even more this year. Possession is such a huge part of our game and if you have a guy that can win two-thirds of the face-offs, that's a huge thing at the end of the day and that's something he's capable of doing."

Anson Fraser and Dan Sclararo are two other members of the sophomore class that look to provide depth in the midfield. Each guy possesses a great deal of athletic ability that can certainly help the Irish.

The Fighting Irish may not possess as much instant-impact players from the freshman class in the midfield as they do at other spots, yet there is still talent waiting in the wings. Davey Leach, Dan Gibson and Kevin Cullinane are all solid players with talent that will be on display in years to come, if not sooner.

DEFENSE:

Last year's Irish defense was very young and inconsistent at times. However, with a year of experience playing together and a solid foundation in Driscoll and Kemp, the Irish appear to be ready to make their mark on the defensive end of the field.

Just like the Irish attack, the Notre Dame defense returns a veteran All-American honoree in Driscoll, a senior co-captain and preseason third-team All-America selection by Inside Lacrosse. Driscoll started all 10 games in which he appeared during the 2005 season en route to being tabbed STX/USILA Honorable Mention All-America and the Great Western Lacrosse League's Defensive Player of the Year.

"I think D.J. Driscoll is one of the top defensemen in the country," says Corrigan. "I think he's absolutely terrific. He's very active and very athletic. He's great at getting the ball off of the ground, and I think he's developed as a one-on-one defender as well. I really think at this point there aren't a lot of weaknesses in his game, and we feel he can make a lot of plays for us."

Joey Rallo has experienced some up and down moments during his first two seasons at Notre Dame, yet the junior put together a solid 2005 fall season and appears poised to make things happen in the spring. His commitment to becoming a better player, coupled with his experience of starting seven games last season will benefit the Irish. He also brings a physical presence, which is a much needed element to the Notre Dame defense.

Junior Brannon Halvorsen has not seen a lot of time at Notre Dame, but he is someone that Corrigan feels is ready to make a much larger contribution to the team.

"Brannon came to us kind of raw and inexperienced, coming from Oregon. But again, he's improved every year and every semester and we feel that he's a guy who is ready to play. He played a little bit last year, but not a significant amount. We think he has the potential to step up and do a lot more this year."

Ross Zimmerman and Sean Dougherty are two sophomores that saw a lot of action as freshmen in 2005. Both of them played in every game last season, with Zimmerman making nine starts and Dougherty one. They each bring a lot of talent to the Irish roster and they will only get better as the Irish defense continues to mesh on the field.

"If you look at it, last year we were playing mainly freshmen and sophomores on the defensive end, along with D.J.," says Corrigan. "So it was a young group that wasn't used to playing together, and we think their experience together, as well as individually, is going to benefit us this year."

Freshman Regis McDermott is the only rookie defender on the Fighting Irish roster. He possesses some versatility and has the ability to pick up on things quickly, so that should put him in a position to help the squad when his time comes.

Also adding some depth to the Notre Dame defensive unit will be senior James Severin, junior John Duffy and sophomore Dave Caperna.

GOAL:

The Irish have to feel good about their goal-keeping situation as they return Kemp, who led the nation in save percentage last season (.652). As a freshman in 2005, Kemp started nine of 11 games in the cage and made 131 saves, while giving up 70 goals (8.36 GAA) en route to a 5-2 record and a spot on the all-GWLL second team. He enters this season as a preseason honorable mention All-America selection by Inside Lacrosse.

Senior Matt Karweck was Notre Dame's third-leading scorer during the 2005 campaign. The midfielder totaled 26 points on 13 goals and 13 assists during his junior season.

"We have a guy who led the country in save percentage last year. So what more do you ask for than that?" says Corrigan. "He did his job and I don't feel that we did a very good job, supporting him last year. We were not a consistently good defensive team last year. If we are going to be a good team this year, we have to be more consistent defensively."

Despite Kemp's lofty numbers and accomplishments from one year ago, he will still, getting some pressure to stay at the top of his game with freshman Scott Rodgers not too far behind.

"If we support Joey and give him the shots that we should be, then he's going to be one of the best guys out there," states Corrigan. "I think he's only going to get better with the fact he's being challenged by a freshman who we think is going to be absolutely terrific. We feel good about the situation because we feel that we have two guys who are really among the best out there."

The Irish brought in another freshman goalie in Bill Delaney. Delaney will not be counted on for game activity right away, but he will be expected to play a solid role in practice to keep the Irish sharp. The same can be said for senior Dan Hickey. Last season, Hickey saw action in one game, making five saves and allowing one goal.

The Coaches

Over the past 13 seasons, head coach Kevin Corrigan has seen all but one of his teams finish ranked in the national top 20, while at least one player has earned All-America honors every year.

Head Coach

Since his arrival on campus in 1988, Kevin Corrigan has built Notre Dame into one of the premier men's lacrosse programs in the nation. Few coaches in the nation boast a résumé dotted with such team and individual success over an extended period of time.

Inheriting a program that had never earned a berth in the NCAA Championship, Corrigan has made the Irish a staple in the postseason, with his tenure highlighted by quarterfinal appearances in 1995 and 2000 and the school's first-ever final four trip in '01. Notre Dame is one of just eight schools in Division I to have garnered 10 invitations to the NCAA tournament since 1990.

Corrigan's Irish squads have won 12 conference titles and finished in the top 20 of the national rankings on 13 occasions, including in 12 of the last 13 campaigns. Notre Dame has been adept at winning big games under Corrigan, registering 38 victories over nationally-ranked opponents, including nine vs. top-10 foes. The Irish have an overall record of 146-83 (.638) during Corrigan's tenure.

Irish student-athletes who have played under Corrigan have been highly decorated. At least one Notre Dame player has garnered All-America accolades in each of the last 13 years, with 14 individuals earning a total of 25 All-America honors. Four Irish players have been named the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) Player of the Year, while Notre Dame student-athletes have gained all-conference mention on 90 occasions, an average of more than five per season. Junior D.J. Driscoll was named the GWLL Defensive Player of the Year in 2005 and was one of five Fighting Irish players to earn all-GWLL athlete last year.

Corrigan has continued the tradition of academic success for the Irish men's lacrosse program. Since first competing on the varsity level in 1981, every Irish lacrosse senior has graduated. Three players since 1997 have gained Academic All-America honors.

Many of the best players in Notre Dame history have played under Corrigan, as his graduates include each of the top four scorers in the program's history, five of the top six goal scorers, and each of the top five players on the career assist list.

Playing beyond the college level has been a reality for a number of Corrigan's players. Six have gone on to play professionally in either Major League Lacrosse or the National Lacrosse League, while a trio of Irish players has earned spots on United States national teams and come away with gold medals.

The pinnacle of Corrigan's coaching career thus far came in 2001, when the Irish put together the top season in the program's history. Notre Dame posted the best record in school history, 14-2, rose to an all-time high national ranking of #2 before finishing at a program-best #4 and advancing to the NCAA semifinals for the first time in Notre Dame history.

Head Coach

18th Season

Virginia '88

En route to its seventh Great Western Lacrosse League championship in '01, Notre Dame beat the likes of perennial lacrosse powers Virginia (11-8) and Loyola (10-7) on the road, as the Irish started the season 5-0. The only blemish on their regular-season mark was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra. After concluding the regular season with a 12-1 mark, Notre Dame was awarded the fifth seed in the 12-team championship field, marking the first NCAA seeding in Irish history. A 12-7 first-round victory over Bucknell and a first-ever win against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins (13-9) paved the way for a storied NCAA tournament run. Notre Dame's fairytale '01 campaign ended with a 12-5 loss to Syracuse in the semifinals.

A program-record five players earned USILA All-America honors in '01, with attackman Tom Glatzel becoming the school's first-ever first-team selection, as well as one of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given to the nation's top player. Goalie Kirk Howell copped second-team All-America accolades while midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team selection. In addition, attackman David Ulrich, the GWLL Player of the Year, and defenseman Mike Adams were named to the honorable-mention list.

Adams also became the program's third CoSIDA Academic All-American, when he garnered first-team honors in the '01 men's spring at-large program.

The accomplishments of the '01 team were even more impressive considering they came when the Irish program lacked any grant-in-aid scholarships. Shortly thereafter, it was announced by athletics director Kevin White that all Notre Dame programs would begin a process of offering the maximum number of grants-in-aid allowed by the NCAA, making future trips to the final four by the Irish lacrosse team a greater possibility.

After leading the Irish to a 7-6 record in his first season, 1989, Corrigan's 1990 squad made history, gaining the school's first-ever USILA national ranking (17th in the final poll) and earning Notre Dame's first invitation to the NCAA Championship. In 1992, Notre Dame tied the school record for wins, going 10-5, and made its second appearance in the NCAA's, winning the Great Lakes Conference championship and the West Region bid for the second time in three seasons.

In 1993, the Irish made their third trip to the NCAA tournament, reestablished the season victory record with 11 and sailed as high as 12th in the national polls, completing the season at 15th. Defenseman Mike Iorio became the first player in Irish history to be an All-American, coping third-team honors. Corrigan wound up the season with an invitation to coach the North team in the North-South All-Star Game. His North squad took home a 28-16 victory.

In 1994, Corrigan guided the Irish to one of their best seasons in the program's history. In winning its third straight conference title – and the first for the newly-formed Great Western Lacrosse League – Notre Dame posted a 10-2 overall mark, which included a 12-9 win over #17 Penn State and a thrilling 12-11 overtime victory over Michigan State clinching an NCAA bid for Corrigan's squad that finished 14th in the final poll. He also was selected GWLL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

His 1994 team also boasted two All-America honorees in GWLL Player of the Year Iorio and attackman Randy Colley, marking the first time in the program's history that multiple Irish players were named in the same year.

Corrigan, a four-time GWLL Coach of the Year, helped Notre Dame reach new heights in '95, notching its first-ever NCAA tournament win

What his teams have done ...

- 2001 NCAA semifinalists
- 1995 & 2000 NCAA quarterfinalists
- 10 NCAA Championship berths
- 12 conference titles (9 GWLL, 3 Great Lakes Conference)
- 13 finishes in the national top 20, including 12 in the last 13 seasons
- 38 wins over ranked opponents, including nine vs. top-10 teams

What his Notre Dame players have done ...

- Earned All-America honors 25 times, including at least once in each of the last 13 years
- Named GWLL Player of the Year four times
- Earned all-conference honors 89 times
- Earned Academic All-America honors three times
- Participated in STX North/South All-Star Classic 16 times
- Played on U.S. national teams three times
- Gone on to professional careers on six occasions in a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at #5 Duke, which marked the first time a team from the West had won an NCAA game. The Irish finished the 1995 campaign with a 9-5 record and final ranking of 15th, as the Irish won their fourth straight league championship. Notre Dame's season culminated with an appearance in the NCAA tournament quarterfinals, where the Irish lost to eventual national runner-up #4 Maryland 14-11.

Iorio and Colley, the '95 GWLL Player of the Year, both earned All-America honors again. Iorio was a second-team honoree, as he became Notre Dame's first three-time All-American, while Colley earned honorable-mention accolades for the second consecutive year and finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer. His 273 points (173 G, 100 A) were 87 better than the previous Irish record.

For the first time in school history, three Notre Dame players earned All-America honors in the same season in '96, as Rassas was a third-team selection and midfielder Jimmy Keenan and goalkeeper Alex Cade were tabbed honorable mention. Notre Dame also cracked the national top 10 for the first time ever, climbing to seventh in the USILA poll in mid-April.

Notre Dame's highest final USILA ranking at the time came in 1997, as the Irish ended ninth. That campaign saw Notre Dame earn its first-ever victory over a top-five opponent, as the Irish defeated #4 Hofstra 10-9 at Moose Krause Stadium en route to a 9-3 overall record.

In 1998, defenseman Rassas was named the GWLL Player of the Year and became the school's second three-time All-American when he earned third-team honors. Keenan was an honorable-mention selection that same season for the third consecutive year.

A year later, attackman Chris Dusseau finished his career as Notre Dame's second all-time leading goal scorer (113), while being named honorable mention All-America.

Corrigan reached another pinnacle in 2000, as his Irish upset fifth-ranked Loyola 15-13 in the first round of the NCAA tournament. The win marked the first for Corrigan in 10 tries against the Greyhounds and the first-ever victory for a Notre Dame team in 11 games against Loyola. The victory also avenged a 12-2 loss to Loyola at home during the regular season. Notre Dame dropped its NCAA tournament quarterfinal game to fourth-ranked Johns Hopkins 15-11, but finished the season 10-4 and undefeated in the GWLL.

In 2003, the Irish went 9-5 and won a share of a fifth consecutive GWLL title, but just missed an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. With the core of that squad returning for the '04 season,

Notre Dame opened the campaign with a 17-7 win over #17 Penn State, which allowed them to debut at eighth in the USILA rankings and then move up to #5, becoming just the second Notre Dame team to reach the top five. A pair of disappointing last-second 9-8 losses – against #17 Ohio State and at #3 Maryland – caused the Irish to barely miss the NCAAAs again. Attackman Pat Walsh became the first player in school history to earn All-America honors as a freshman, being named an honorable mention selection in '03 before gaining third-team accolades in '04. He also was one of the 15 nominees for the Tewaaraton Trophy in his sophomore campaign.

In 2005, Walsh was again a Tewaaraton Trophy nominee and copped All-America honors for the third straight season, as he was an honorable-mention selection along with his teammate D.J. Driscoll. The duo continued the legacy of Irish All-Americans, making it the 13th straight season that Notre Dame has had at least one player receive All-America honors. Driscoll also was named the GWLL Defensive Player of the Year and was joined on the all-GWLL first team by Walsh. Freshman goaltender Joey Kemp led the nation with a 0.652 save-percentage and garnered all-GWLL second team honors along with junior attackman Matt Karweck.

The Irish finished the 2005 season with a 7-4 overall mark and a 3-2 record in the GWLL, which placed them third in the conference.

Notre Dame had a win over No. 21 Penn State (14-6) in the season-opener and would also claim key wins over No. 10 North Carolina (9-7) and No. 13 Hofstra (9-8) throughout the course of the season. The victory over North Carolina occurred at the The First 4 Invitational in the Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif. Notre Dame would reach as high as No. 9 in the US/LA poll, making it the third straight season that the Irish had reached the top-10.

Corrigan was acknowledged for his contributions to the Irish lacrosse program when Notre Dame's Monogram Club awarded him an honorary monogram in 2000.

An assistant at Virginia for two years, Corrigan became just the second head coach in Notre Dame's history on Aug. 23, 1988.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Corrigan assisted the Cavaliers during both the 1987 and '88 seasons under head coach Jim "Ace" Adams.

During a three-year playing career at Virginia, Corrigan scored five goals and registered six assists. He played in 20 games as a midfielder. In his sophomore season in 1979, the Cavaliers reached the NCAA final before losing to Johns Hopkins in overtime.

This is Corrigan's second stint as a head coach. He directed Randolph-Macon College (Va.), a Division III program, for two seasons, compiling a 10-15 record in 1985 and 1986. He previously served as an assistant at Randolph-Macon during the 1984 campaign. In 17 years as a head coach, Corrigan holds a record of 149-94 (.613).

Corrigan also served as an assistant at Notre Dame during the 1983 season and at Western Albemarle (Va.) High School in 1982. He is the son of former Notre Dame athletic director Gene Corrigan, who retired in '97 as the commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The elder Corrigan played collegiate lacrosse at Duke and guided the Virginia and Washington & Lee lacrosse programs. He was inducted into the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in February of 1994.

Kevin's brother Tim was a three-time monogram winner as a midfielder at Notre Dame from 1984-86. Two other brothers, David and Brian, also served as assistants under former Irish head lacrosse coach Rich O'Leary. Another brother, Eugene "Boo", Notre Dame's associate athletics director for corporate relations and marketing.

When not coaching, Corrigan still remains active by participating in various lacrosse clinics and camps and is a member of the South Bend Regional Sports Commission. He and his wife, Lis, reside in South Bend with their three children - Will, Sidney, and Natale.

Kevin Anderson

Assistant Coach

10th Season

Loyola '93

Kevin Anderson is in his 10th year as an assistant under Kevin Corrigan on the Irish staff. Since Anderson arrived on campus, Notre Dame has had a great deal of success, compiling a 74-44 (.627) record, winning six Great Western Lacrosse League championships, finishing in the national top 20 eight times, and earning four invitations to the NCAA Championship, highlighted by an appearance in the 2000 quarterfinals and the '01 semis.

Anderson, a former All-American at Loyola, takes part in every aspect of the Irish program, including heavy involvement with recruiting and working with the Irish midfielders.

A variety of Notre Dame players have experienced tremendous individual success since Anderson has been on the Irish staff. In that time, 11 different players have earned All-America honors on 17 occasions, while Notre Dame has garnered 48 all-GWLL honors, an average of more than five per season.

The highlight of Anderson's tenure was the '01 campaign, in which the Irish posted the best record in school history, 14-2, rose to an all-time high national ranking of #2 before finishing fourth, and advanced to the NCAA semifinals for the first time in Notre Dame history. Five players from that squad earned All-America honors, the most-ever by the Irish in a single season. Attackman Tom Glatzel, also one of the five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy given to the nation's top player, led the way as Notre Dame's first-ever first-team All-American.

Anderson worked closely with the only two Notre Dame goalkeepers ever to earn All-America honors, Alex Cade ('98) and Kirk Howell ('01), and also with the lone Irish midfielders to be named All-Americans, Jimmy Keenan ('98) and Steve Bishko ('01).

In 2005, freshman goalkeeper Joey Kemp led the nation with a .652 save percentage en route to being named GWLL Rookie of the Year.

Prior to coming to Notre Dame, he served for two years as an assistant coach at Washington & Lee.

A native of Baltimore, Md., Anderson was a two-sport standout for Loyola in lacrosse and basketball. As a midfielder for the Greyhounds from 1990-93, he collected 35 goals and 10 assists. Anderson earned United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) All-America honors his senior season after scoring 21 goals and dishing off six assists. He captained Loyola in his final collegiate campaign and played in the annual North-South All-Star Game.

Anderson was a member of the 1990 Loyola squad which finished as the runner-up to Syracuse in the NCAA tournament. During his sophomore season (1991), he played five games in goal and registered a career-high 21 saves in an 11-9 NCAA quarterfinal loss to North Carolina.

Anderson was a starting forward for the Greyhound basketball team while lettering all four years (1989-92). He captained the squad as a senior and finished his career with 827 points and 257 rebounds.

A 1993 graduate of Loyola with a bachelor's degree in mathematics, he played for the Charlotte Cobras of the Major Indoor Lacrosse League (MILL) during the 1996 season.

Born Aug. 5, 1970, Anderson resides in South Bend with his wife, the former Molly Lennon, a 1992 Notre Dame graduate and former Irish women's soccer player. The couple was married in 2001 and has a three-year-old son, KJ.

Head Coach Kevin Corrigan on Kevin Anderson ...

"I think Kevin Anderson is as good a coach as there is in the country, period. I just think he's a great coach. He's got a great way with people. He's a hard worker who can do pretty much anything you ask him to do, and he has a great mind for the game."

Dave Cornell

Assistant Coach

Second Season

Gettysburg '96

Dave Cornell, formerly a two-time All-America midfielder for Gettysburg College (Pa.) who then founded and served as the first head coach of the Muhlenberg College (Pa.) program, is in his second season as an assistant coach for the Irish. He joined the staff in December of 2004.

During his first season with the Irish in 2005, two players earned All-America honors and five athletes were selected as all-Great Western Lacrosse League performers.

After the school had not fielded a varsity men's lacrosse team since 1980, Cornell was selected to rebuild the Muhlenberg program from the ground up in 2001. He was involved in all facets of the program – including serving as head coach – during the Mules' transition to varsity status. In its first two seasons of varsity competition, Muhlenberg posted five wins in both 2003 and '04.

Prior to his Muhlenberg endeavor, Cornell coached at the United States national team tryouts during the summer of 2001 after serving as an assistant at his alma mater for the 1998-2001 seasons. Gettysburg won Centennial Conference titles and qualified for the NCAA tournament during all four of those campaigns, reaching the national title game in '01. Cornell was the Bullets' offensive coordinator during his first three years before switching to defensive coordinator for Gettysburg's NCAA runner-up year. That squad allowed just 7.17 goals per game – a mark that was among the best in Division III – en route to a school-record 16 victories. The 2000 team, the last with Cornell guiding the offense, put up just under 16.00 goals per game.

Cornell has twice been a featured speaker at the US Lacrosse National Coaches Convention (2001 and '04) and also served as a USILA Division III Top 20 Poll committee member from 2002-04.

As a player, Cornell was tabbed a third-team United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) All-American in 1995 before moving up to the second team in his final season. He finished his career with 38 goals and 40 assists, playing for four top-10 teams. All of his Gettysburg squads earned invitations to the NCAA Championship, with the '95 edition reaching the semi-

Dave and Amy Cornell

Head Coach Kevin Corrigan on Dave Cornell ...

"Dave has great experience. He has great passion and enthusiasm not just for the game, but also for teaching the game and coaching at a high level. As someone who has started a new program, Dave has been involved in every facet of running a program. It shows he is a very smart and committed guy, because it takes somebody like that to do the job that he did in building a solid and well-respected program at Muhlenberg, one which I think will just keep getting better over the next few years with the young guys he brought in there. I think he will make a huge impact on recruiting for us. He is a hard worker, and I am very thrilled to have him as part of our staff."

finals. Cornell, the team captain in '96, was twice an all-conference honoree, while the Bullets won three Centennial Conference championships. He also was tabbed the team's S.T.A.R. Leader, serving as a liaison for players with alcohol, drug, and/or emotional problems. At the conclusion of his career, Cornell participated in the 1996 USILA North/South Game.

Cornell graduated from Gettysburg in 1996 with a degree in business management and entrepreneurship. He then earned a master's degree in health and exercise science and athletic administration from McDaniel College (Md.).

His other work experience includes serving as a sales representative for Gallo Sales Company, representing the world's leading winery in the San Francisco area. Cornell also worked as an assistant director of admission at Muhlenberg from 2001-04.

Born Aug. 27, 1972, Cornell and his wife, Amy – who were married in 2003 – reside in South Bend.

After his playing career was cut short by injuries, William Sullivan is in his second year as an undergraduate assistant coach, aiding the Irish coaching staff in film analysis and various other areas. Sullivan, a senior at the University, was a defenseman on the Irish roster in 2003 and '04, but did not see on-field action, struggling with multiple injuries.

Sullivan, a native of Babylon, N.Y., was a standout in both lacrosse and football at Chaminade High School, earning all-conference honors twice in each sport. He scored three goals in his junior season before moving to a longstick midfielder role in his final campaign, while serving as team captain. He helped Chaminade to a trio of Catholic League titles in lacrosse, while also being named MVP of the football team as a senior.

Born Sept. 13, 1983, on Long Island, N.Y., and the son of Richard and Gail Sullivan, he is enrolled in College of Arts & Letters as an English major.

Another Near Miss for Notre Dame

Three one-goal losses on the road keep Irish out of NCAA's again

The 2005 season for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team followed a similar path to the two preceding it, as the Irish were poised to take their place among the nation's elite teams early on, but then suffered a series of one-goal heartbreaks that would eventually leave ND just out of the NCAA Championship field. When the dust settled, Notre Dame stood 7-4 and ranked 15th by Inside Lacrosse magazine and 19th by the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA), as well as 14th in the Ratings Percentage Index (RPI). The Irish finished third in the Great Western Lacrosse League with a 3-2 record, behind co-champions Fairfield and Denver.

The path of the season was affected even before it began. Just nine days prior to the opener, junior attackman Brian Hubschmann – who had been tabbed preseason honorable mention All-America by Inside Lacrosse and had three goals in the final spring exhibition game – suffered a season-ending knee injury. As a result, the Irish had to make last-minute changes to their lineup and were without Hubschmann, who ranked third on the team in scoring as a midfielder in 2004, for the entire campaign.

Still Notre Dame was ready to go when the season began, as the Irish held #21 Penn State – who would eventually earn one of the coveted NCAA at-large bids – scoreless in the final 25 minutes, tallying six unanswered goals en route to a 14-6 victory. Notre Dame got hat tricks from all three starting attackmen – senior Jim Morrison and juniors Matt Karweck and Pat Walsh (who became the second-fastest Irish player to register his 100th career point) – and posted its largest margin of victory ever in a road game vs. a nationally-ranked opponent. Fifth-year goaltender Stewart Crosland stopped 74% of the shots he faced, making 17 saves, including eight in the opening quarter.

The Irish jumped out to a 6-3 advantage after 20 minutes of play in a battle of top-10 teams at #10 Cornell on March 5, but saw the Big Red score seven consecutive goals en route to an 11-10 victory. Morrison tallied with 44 seconds remaining, and Notre Dame won the ensuing faceoff, but his shot from the left wing went wide, and Cornell – which would reach the NCAA quarterfinals – corralled the ground ball to ice the victory.

Notre Dame then headed west to the Los Angeles suburb of Carson to take part in The First 4 invitational, a lacrosse showcase at the Home Depot Center which attracted a crowd of 7,182. The Irish got an outstanding starting debut from freshman goaltender Joey Kemp (13 saves, game MVP) and knocked off #14 North Carolina 9-7. A big story was junior D.J. Driscoll's shutting down first-team All-American Jed Prossner, who had just one goal and one assist, plus four turnovers (after having six goals vs. ND in '04).

The Irish began GWLL play by sprinting to a 12-0 advantage en route to a 22-6 home explosion (most goals by ND since 1993) against Butler, with Karweck piling up eight points (five goals, three assists). Morrison had three goals to become the first Irish player ever to begin the season with four consecutive hat tricks.

Another big road test was on the horizon, and this time it was Walsh who was the difference-maker, as he scored his sixth goal of the game – the most-ever by an Irish player against a ranked team – to give ND a 9-8 double-overtime victory at #13 Hofstra. Notre Dame – which earned its first overtime victory since 1997, snapping a six-game skid – led nearly the entire game (going up by as many as four) but saw the Pride score twice in the final two minutes to force extra sessions.

Senior attackman Jim Morrison led the Fighting Irish with 25 goals during the 2005 campaign en route to being named to the all-GWLL second team.

Two days later, Morrison had five goals to lead the Irish to an 11-7 win at Villanova in a game that had been postponed from March 8 due to snow and high winds. It ended the Wildcats' 14-game home winning streak, which dated back to April 12, 2003.

At the beginning of April, Notre Dame stood 5-1 and ranked #6 by Inside Lacrosse and ninth by the USILA. But that would be the high point of the season, as the Irish would lose three of their final five games.

The slide began on April 2 at #19 Dartmouth, when the Big Green broke an 8-8 deadlock with a pair of goals in the final three minutes to key a 10-9 win over Notre Dame. Kemp – who had become the second Irish goalie ever to win his first four decisions – came through with one of his best performances of the season, recording 23 saves, the most by an Irish goalie since 1994, but it was not enough.

Finishing the season with four straight wins would still guarantee Notre Dame a bid to the NCAA tournament as the GWLL champ. But Denver foiled that plan on April 7, earning its first-ever victory against the Irish in a 9-6 decision at Moose Krause Stadium.

Three days later, Irish senior Brian Giordano – playing his final home game – scored his fifth goal in overtime to hand Notre Dame a thrilling 14-13 win over Air Force in front of a record crowd of 1,305.

Notre Dame headed to #20 Fairfield the following weekend, with still hope to make the NCAAAs. But the Stags – who would go on to represent the GWLL in the NCAA tournament – scored with 2.9 seconds remaining in the game to earn a 12-11 victory over the Irish.

ND was impressive in its regular-season finale, winning 16-5 at Ohio State in front of a record crowd of 2,112 to keep themselves in the hunt for a postseason invitation. But when the bracket was announced on May 8, Notre Dame had the highest RPI (14th) of eligible teams that were not selected for at-large bids.

In 2005, Pat Walsh became the first Notre Dame lacrosse player to earn All-America honors during his first three seasons. The junior attackman was tabbed USILA Honorable Mention All-America, along with his classmate D.J. Driscoll.

Despite a third consecutive excruciating near-miss in the NCAA derby, there were several highlights to the season. The Irish led all schools with five selections to the all-GWLL teams, with Driscoll being tabbed the league's Defensive Player of the Year and Kemp named Rookie of the Year. Walsh joined Driscoll on the all-conference first team, while Kemp, Morrison, and Karweck were second-team picks.

Walsh and Driscoll were both listed as honorable mention All-America by the USILA. The attackman became the first Irish player ever to earn All-America accolades from the organization in each of his first three collegiate seasons, but also was the only one of 16 nominees for the Tewaaraton Trophy (awarded to the nation's top player) who was left off the three All-America teams.

The Irish were once again one of the top offensive teams in the country. After finishing second in Division I in scoring offense in 2004, the '05 team was fourth at 11.91 goals per game. Notre Dame was particularly potent on the EMO, converting 43.6% of its chances (fourth in NCAA), marking the highest rate by an Irish team

The Irish celebrate after capturing a 9-7 victory over No. 10 North Carolina in The First 4 Invitational in Carson, Calif.

Summer Highlighted by Trip to Czech Republic

Class of 2005 says goodbye during remarkable adventure

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse team took the trip of a lifetime in early June of 2005, as the Irish traveled to the Czech capital of Prague for an 11-day excursion. Though the Irish used Prague as a home base, the team traveled throughout the Czech countryside and even took a one-day tour of Vienna, Austria. Thanks in large part to current parent and former Czech resident Dr. Otakar Hubschmann, the team was able to experience many things that would have otherwise been impossible. Besides the excursion to Vienna, other highlights included a private tour of the 14th-century Karlstejn Castle, a magnificent dinner at a trendy four-star restaurant, a boat cruise with the Czech national lacrosse team around Prague, a stay in the 15th-century Valtice Chateau in Moravia and an amazing evening of Czech food, music and tradition in a 15th-century candlelit wine cellar.

While in Prague, through the cooperation of Lacrosse Without Borders, the Irish held two clinics and twice scrimmaged the Czech national team. Notre Dame played the European runners-up in both field lacrosse and the host's more-traditional box lacrosse to cap an awesome cultural and lacrosse experience. It was an amazing adventure for the team which bonded very well with the Czech players throughout the trip. The trip also marked the last time the class of 2005 would play for the Irish.

Dr. Otakar Hubschmann (in sweater), a former Czech resident and the father of Irish senior attackman Brian Hubschmann, helped to organize much of the trip and is seen here translating lacrosse strategy to the Irish squad.

Notre Dame played a game of box lacrosse, which is the more traditional form of the sport in the Czech Republic, against Lacrosse Club Custodes Radotin.

The Karlstejn Castle, which is just outside of Prague, was built in the 14th century.

The Prague Opera House.

The Irish get together with the Czech National Team for a post-game photo.

May 20-21 • Quarterfinals
Stony Brook, N.Y. & Towson, Md.

May 27 • Semifinals
Philadelphia, Pa.

May 29 • Final
Philadelphia, Pa.

Notes: For the fourth year in a row, the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship will feature 16 teams after the field was expanded from 12 participants in '03. Six conferences – America East Conference, the Eastern College Athletic Conference, the Great Western Lacrosse League, the Ivy League, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, and the Patriot League – will send their champions to the tournament via automatic bids. The other nine spots will be filled with at-large berths, with any of the 56 Division I men's lacrosse programs being eligible, provided they have a .500 or better record having played at least 10 games against other Division I teams.

Four sites, yet to be determined, will play host to eight first-round contests taking place May 13 and 14. Two of the quarterfinal matchups will be played at Stony Brook University in Stony Brook, N.Y. on May 20, with the other two to take place at Towson University in Towson, Md., on May 21. The national semifinals are set for May 27 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia, while the NCAA final will occur in the same venue on May 29. # 2001 NCAA MEN'S LACROSSE NATIONAL SEMIFINALIST

National Semifinal Appearance Caps Historic Season For Notre Dame Lacrosse Team

Notre Dame completed a storybook season with its first-ever appearance in the semifinals of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship in 2001. The Irish finished 14-2, establishing new school marks for victories and winning percentage (.875). While the team's success came as a surprise to some in the lacrosse world, head coach Kevin Corrigan was not among them.

Notre Dame began its preparations for the '01 campaign in the fall of 2000 with a quiet sense of confidence. With eight starters and seven of its top eight scorers returning from a team that reached the NCAA quarterfinals in '00 for the second time in six seasons, Corrigan and his staff couldn't help but contemplate the potential for success.

Notre Dame won its first five games of the season and climbed to an all-time high of #2 in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA)/STX Poll in mid-March following first-ever back-to-back road wins at seventh-ranked Virginia (11-8) and fifth-ranked Loyola (10-7). The only blemish on the Irish record during the regular season was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra.

Corrigan's squad finished the regular season with a 12-1 record and played as a top-10 team in all but one game during the season. His second straight 10-win campaign marked the first back-to-back double-digit-victory totals since 1991-93, when Irish teams registered three consecutive 10-win seasons. It also marked the sixth time in the program's 21-year history that an Irish team won 10 or more games.

Notre Dame ended with its best-ever ranking, as the Irish finished fourth in the USILA/STX, Brine/360 Lacrosse.com, and Warrior/Inside Lacrosse.com polls. When the NCAA tournament pairings were announced on May 6, the Irish earned the fifth seed in the 12-team NCAA tournament field as Notre Dame played as a seeded team for the first time in its history.

Notre Dame advanced to the national semifinals following a 12-7 win over Bucknell in the first round and its first-ever win over Johns Hopkins, 13-9 in the quarterfinals. Entering its matchup with the Blue Jays, Notre Dame was 0-2 all-time against one of lacrosse's most storied programs.

Although the season ended with a disappointing 12-5 loss to top-seeded and perennial power Syracuse in the semifinals, it was certainly a year of milestones for the Irish lacrosse program. A record five Notre Dame players earned USILA All-America honors. Attackman Tom Glatzel became the school's first first-team selection after having one of the greatest seasons by an Irish lacrosse player. One of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy, awarded to the nation's top player, Glatzel scored 40 goals and dished off 27 assists. His 67 points were the most in a single season since Randy Colley's school-record 74 during the 1995 campaign. Glatzel finished his Irish career as the school's fourth all-time leading scorer, as he registered 106 goals (fourth best) and 61 assists. After scoring just two goals and dishing off one assist during his freshman season, Glatzel averaged 34.6 goals and 20.0 assists in his final three seasons.

Goalie Kirk Howell, a second-team selection, registered a 7.07 goals-against average and .632 save percentage, as he ranked third and fourth nationally in those categories. Howell had the distinction of being one of just four players to serve as a team captain for two seasons. Howell helped Notre Dame establish a single-season mark for goals allowed as the Irish gave up just 6.94 per game, eclipsing the old mark of 7.23 established during the 1996 season. Midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team honoree, as he finished with 19 goals and five assists and led the team with 69 ground balls.

Defenseman Mike Adams earned honorable mention honors, as did attackman David Ulrich who led the team in assists all four years and closed out his Irish career as the school's career assist leader. One of just two players to lead Notre Dame in scoring all four years, Ulrich finished with 110 assists, an average of nearly 28 per season. In addition to earning honorable mention All-America honors, Adams became the first first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in the program's history.

Notre Dame boasts 14 players who have garnered United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) All-America accolades in the 25-year history of the program.

Attackman Pat Walsh and defenseman D.J. Driscoll are the most-recent honorees. Walsh was tabbed honorable mention All-America in 2003 to become the first Irish rookie to ever gain All-America accolades. In his second season, Walsh was a third-team All-American. He and Driscoll garnered honorable mention honors in 2005 as juniors. Their selections marked the 13th consecutive season that Notre Dame has had at least one player earn All-America mention from the USILA.

Since 1993, the Irish have had at least one player each season selected for All-America recognition, including two three-time honorees — defensemen Mike Iorio (1993-95) and Todd Rassas (1996-98).

Notre Dame's record-setting 2001 campaign, in which the Irish advanced to the national semifinals of the NCAA Championship, produced five honorees, the most in school history. Attackman Tom Glatzel was a first-team All-American, a distinction that has not been duplicated before or since by any Irish player. A two-time honoree, he also garnered honorable mention honors in 2000. Goalie Kirk Howell was a second-team selection, while midfielder Steve Bishko earned third-team recognition. David Ulrich garnered honorable mention honors for the second consecutive year, as he finished his career as the school's career assist leader (110). Defenseman Mike Adams also earned honorable mention honors.

Iorio was the school's first All-American. He garnered third-team honors in both 1993 and 1994 and was a second-team selection in his senior year (1995). Attackman Randy Colley, Notre Dame's all-time leading scorer with 173 goals and 100 assists (273 points) was a two-time All-America selection ('94 and '95).

In 1996, three Irish players — all sophomores — were tabbed for All-America recognition. Rassas was chosen to the third team, while goalkeeper Alex Cade and midfielder Jimmy Keenan received honorable-mention recognition.

Rassas became the second member of his family to earn All-America honors at Notre Dame. His father Nick was an All-American on the Irish football team in 1965. It marked a first in Notre Dame athletic history, as they became the first father and son combination to earn All-America honors at the University. The younger Rassas also was a second-team selection as a junior in 1997 and was named to the third team in 1998 following his senior season.

In addition to his sophomore year, Keenan was a repeat selection on the honorable mention team in both '97 and '98.

Notre Dame in the NCAA Championship

After inheriting a program that had never made an NCAA appearance in eight years of varsity action, head coach Kevin Corrigan has turned Notre Dame into a staple in the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship. The Irish have garnered a total of 10 invitations, making them one of just seven teams to have appeared in 10 or more NCAA tournaments since 1990. Notre Dame holds a 4-10 record in the NAAs, having reached the national semifinals in 2001, as well as the quarterfinals in both 1995 and 2000.

The Irish earned their first-ever berth in the NAAs in 1990, when they traveled to #5 Harvard and dropped a 9-3 decision in the opening round. Notre Dame's first victory came in 1995, when the 15th-ranked Irish upset #5 Duke in Durham, N.C., by a 12-10 score. The Irish nearly pulled off another road upset in the quarterfinals, but eventually lost 14-11 at #4 Maryland. The 2000 tournament saw Notre Dame reach the final eight again, edging #5 Loyola 15-13 in the first round after the Greyhounds had handed the Irish a 12-2 defeat during the regular season. In 2001, Notre Dame made its deepest NCAA run, topping #10 Bucknell (12-7) and then gaining its first-ever win against #3 Johns Hopkins (13-9) to reach the national semifinals, where #2

Syracuse ended the Irish season in a 12-5 affair.

The NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship began in 1971 (10 years before Notre Dame would field a varsity team) with an eight-team field. The event was expanded to 10 schools in 1986 and added two more the following year. That 12-team format – which rewarded the top four seeds with first-round byes – remained in place until the current 16-team field was adopted in 2003. First-round action takes place at campus sites, with the winners advancing to two pre-determined quarterfinal sites. In 2006, the opening round will be May 13-14, and the quarterfinals – to be played in Stony Brook, N.Y., and Towson, Md. – are slated for May 20-21. The semifinals and final will be contested May 27 and 2 in Philadelphia, Pa.

1990 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Harvard 9, #17 Notre Dame 3
May 16, 1990/Cambridge, MA

Notre Dame marked its 10th year of varsity lacrosse with its first-ever NCAA tournament appearance. The Irish, after finishing tied for 17th in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) rankings, entered their contest against the fifth-seeded and co-Ivy League champion Harvard Crimson as the 12th seed and owners of the bid reserved for a team from the Midwest.

Behind freshman goalie Chris Parent, who made 11 saves in the contest, Notre Dame, which finished its season with a 9-7 record, played one of its better games, as the Irish defense held Harvard to under 10 goals for only the third time during the '90 campaign. The Irish offense, however, was stymied as coach Kevin Corrigan's squad, which averaged nearly 11 goals throughout the season, was unable to capitalize on numerous scoring opportunities.

Senior co-captain Dave Carey, a native of Sudbury, Mass., led the Irish with two goals in his homecoming. Harvard was paced in the game by Mick Cavuoti's two goals and an assist.

Harvard jumped out to a 6-0 advantage at the end of three quarters, while the Irish tallied all three of their goals in the final 15-minute stanza.

Chris Miller made 14 saves for the hosts in goal, as the Irish also failed to capitalize on five man-up opportunities.

May 10, 1992/Baltimore, MD

Making its second NCAA tournament appearance, Notre Dame traveled to Baltimore, Md., to play perennial power Johns Hopkins. The Irish entered the contest winners of nine of their final 10 games of the regular season.

The fifth-seeded Blue Jays got off to a fast start, as Hopkins held a 7-0 halftime advantage. Notre Dame got its offense into gear in the second half, but it wasn't enough as the Blue Jays won the game 15-7.

Johns Hopkins' goalie Scott Giardina, a third-team All-America selection, had 11 saves in the second quarter and finished with 21 for the game. Two-time All-American Adam Wright paced the Blue Jays with four goals in the game.

Randy Colley scored three times to lead the Irish. Ryan Jewell came off the bench to make nine saves in goal.

Notre Dame finished the '92 campaign with a 10-5 record, while Johns Hopkins advanced to the NCAA semifinals before losing to Syracuse.

May 15, 1993/Charlottesville, VA

Notre Dame earned its second straight NCAA tournament berth and third in four years, as the Irish traveled to Charlottesville, Va., for a first-round contest against head coach Kevin Corrigan's alma mater, Virginia. The fifth-year Irish mentor, a 1988 graduate, played midfield for the Cavaliers for three years and was an assistant on the Virginia staff for two.

The 15th-ranked Irish entered the contest boasting a school-record 11 wins. Without a senior in the starting lineup, Notre Dame faced its second Atlantic Coast Conference foe of the season. During the regular season, the Irish dropped a 13-7 decision at Duke.

The Cavaliers opened up the contest by scoring seven straight goals and held a 12-2 lead at the half. After halftime, the Irish scored six unanswered goals, including four straight to end the third quarter.

Attackman Randy Colley finished the game with three goals and two assists, while midfielder Will Sutton added two goals and two assists.

Tim Whitely led the Cavaliers with four goals and three assists.

Notre Dame's final 11-3 record ranked as the best in school history in terms of winning percentage at that time.

May 14, 1994/Charlottesville, VA

Notre Dame returned to Charlottesville, Va., for the second straight year to face the Virginia Cavaliers in NCAA tournament action. It marked the third consecutive tournament appearance for the Irish and fourth in the school's history.

The 12th-seeded and 14th-ranked Irish entered the game with a 10-1 record, marking the third straight year that Kevin Corrigan's squad had won 10-plus games. The Cavaliers entered the contest ranked and seeded fifth.

Virginia, which jumped out to an early 4-0 lead in the contest, dominated the Irish to post a 23-4 victory. Notre Dame managed to stay close until midway through the second quarter. The Irish trailed 5-2 before Virginia scored six straight goals for an 11-2 halftime lead. In the second half, the Cavaliers outscored Notre Dame 8-1 in the third quarter and 4-1 in the fourth quarter.

Virginia was led by midfielders Greg Traynor and Drew Fox, who had three goals each. Tim Whitely added two goals and three assists.

Irish leading scorer Randy Colley was held to a goal and an assist. Rob Snyder scored twice for Notre Dame.

1995 NCAA Tournament – First Round*#15 Notre Dame 12, #5 Duke 10
May 13, 1995/Durham, NC

Notre Dame proved the skeptics wrong as the Irish, making their fourth straight NCAA tournament appearance, stunned the lacrosse world with a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at fifth-seeded Duke. It was the biggest win in Notre Dame lacrosse history to date.

After being outscored 57-20 in its first three tournament appearances, Notre Dame had other ideas against the highly-rated Blue Devils, champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The win gave credence to the Irish program, which was one of just six teams making their fourth straight trip to the NAAs, and solidified Notre Dame as a bona fide contender and opened up the eyes of those from the East about the quality of play in the West.

For most of the first two quarters, an Irish upset looked improbable as Notre Dame trailed 7-4 at the half. But Notre Dame came back to net seven unanswered goals as senior attackman Randy Colley scored three of his game-high five goals in the third quarter. The Irish shut out the Blue Devils in the third, 4-0.

Tim Kearney tied the score at 7-7 with 6:33 left in the third before Colley's goal at 5:22 gave Notre Dame a lead it would never relinquish. The Irish increased their lead to 11-7 on two goals by Colley and scores by Kearney and Brian Erickson.

Alex Whitten ended the seven-goal Irish scoring blitz with 8:25 left in the game. It marked Duke's first goal since one with 1:29 left before the half. Kearney countered for Notre Dame with 4:41 left off an assist from Will Sutton, one of four the senior midfielder would have on the day. Scott Harrison scored the final goal of the game for Duke with 2:53 left in the contest.

Freshman Alex Cade made 18 saves in goal, one shy of his career best. The victory moved the Irish into the quarterfinals and a matchup with another ACC foe, Maryland.

1995 NCAA Tournament - Quarterfinals

#15 Maryland 14, #4 Notre Dame 11
May 20, 1995/College Park, MD

Notre Dame nearly pulled off its second straight upset, but this time the bid fell short as Maryland withstood a dramatic Irish rally and escaped with a 14-11 victory.

Trailing 10-2 with 5:59 left in the third quarter, Notre Dame pulled to within 11-10 with 9:48 remaining in the contest on Randy Colley's third goal. The Terrapins responded with three goals over the next four minutes to secure the victory.

Maryland led 4-0 after one quarter. The Irish got on the scoreboard with 10:41 remaining when Brian Erickson tossed in the first of his two goals. Maryland closed out the second quarter by scoring four goals for an 8-1 halftime lead.

Maryland went up 9-1 to start the third quarter before Will Sutton broke the Terrapin string of five unanswered goals with 7:08 left. Matt Bordi gave Maryland a 10-2 advantage with 5:59 remaining in the third quarter.

Todd Bialous started the six-goal Irish blitz that included three tallies in the final 4:07 of the third quarter. Colley scored back-to-back goals just before the end of the period.

The Irish scored three goals in the first 3:50 of the fourth quarter as Tim Kearney, Keenan, and Erickson all tallied in the fourth-quarter spurt. Matt Hahn gave Maryland an 11-8 lead before Kearney and Colley had consecutive scores to cut the deficit to 11-10. Three straight Maryland goals ended the Irish rally, and Burke Hayes netted the game's final score for the 14-11 outcome.

Alex Cade made 15 saves in goal, while Maryland's Brian Dougherty had 16 stops.

Notre Dame finished its dramatic season with a 9-5 record, as the Irish gained the respect of the lacrosse community.

1996 NCAA Tournament - First Round

#9 Johns Hopkins 12, #11 Notre Dame 7
May 12, 1995/Annapolis, MD

Looking to once again pull off a first-round upset in making its fifth straight NCAA tournament appearance, 11th-ranked Notre Dame played ninth-ranked Johns Hopkins for the second time in its seven NCAA contests. Their matchup with the Blue Jays marked the seventh top-20 opponent the Irish faced during the '96 campaign.

After holding a narrow 7-6 advantage after three periods, Johns Hopkins outscored Notre Dame 5-1 in the final 15-minute stanza for the 12-7 victory. Sophomore Jimmy Keenan, Notre Dame's top scorer, led the Irish with a goal and a career-high four assists, while second-leading scorer Chris Dusseau had two goals. He finished with a team-high 29 goals on the year, which established a Notre Dame freshman mark for goals in a season.

Sophomore goalkeeper Alex Cade tied his career high with 21 saves in the game, which marked the third time during the season that he had 20-plus saves in a contest.

Milford Marchant scored a personal-best four goals in the game, while Brian Evans and Dan Denihan each added two for the Blue Jays in the victory.

Evans gave Johns Hopkins an early 1-0 lead with 8:25 remaining in the first quarter, but back-to-back goals by Keenan and Dusseau put the Irish up 2-1 with 2:11 remaining. The first quarter ended with the teams deadlocked at 2-2.

Notre Dame took a 3-2 lead with 14:27 left as Tony Reid scored off a Will DeRiso assist. Johns Hopkins went up 4-3 on goals by Marchant and Matt O'Kelly. Dusseau, off a Keenan feed, tied the score at 4-4, but Marchant netted his second goal of the quarter 34 seconds later to give the Blue Jays a 5-4 lead at the half.

Both teams scored twice in the third quarter as Notre Dame trailed 7-6 after DeRiso's goal with 45 seconds remaining. Johns Hopkins tallied five unanswered goals in the fourth quarter. Burke Hayes had the lone Irish goal of the period with 29 seconds left in the contest.

1997 NCAA Tournament - First Round

#6 Loyola 21, #9 Notre Dame 5
May 11, 1997/Towson, MD

Notre Dame's matchup with Loyola in the first round of the 1997 NCAA tournament was the second of the season between the two teams. It was a highly-anticipated meeting between two evenly-matched squads who had played to a one-goal decision early in the year.

The contest provided the Irish, who were making their sixth straight NCAA appearance, an opportunity to avenge a 12-11 loss on March 15. That game, which saw Notre Dame overcome a four-goal first-quarter deficit, see-sawed back and forth from the second quarter on. The outcome was decided in the final 2:45, when the Greyhounds produced the winning goal.

The second meeting produced a far different result, as Loyola ousted Notre Dame from the tournament with a 21-5 victory. It was the second-worst loss suffered by the Irish in eight tournament games.

After junior Ned Webster tied the game at 1-1 with 13:11 left in the first quarter, Loyola scored six unanswered goals en route to an 11-3 halftime lead.

Webster scored two goals in the contest for the Irish. Also scoring in the game were Stedman Oakey, Adam Sargent, and Brad Owen. For Sargent, it marked the first goal of his collegiate career.

Goalkeeper Alex Cade gave up 20 goals (the most of his career) and made nine saves in the game.

Loyola, which improved to 7-0 against Notre Dame, was led by Gewas Schindler's seven goals and one assist.

1999 NCAA Tournament - First Round

#5 Georgetown 14, #14 Notre Dame 10 May 16, 1999/Towson, MD

After a one-year hiatus, Notre Dame made a return to the NCAA tournament for the seventh time in eight years. The 14th-ranked Irish faced a first-round matchup with fifth-seeded Georgetown in Towson, Md.

Earlier in the season the two teams squared off at Notre Dame, with the Hoyas coming away with a 12-8 victory after the Irish had built an early 4-0 lead. In the NCAAAs, the final outcome was nearly identical, as Georgetown earned a 14-10 victory.

The Hoyas, eventual NCAA tournament semifinalists, used three unanswered goals in the third period to break a 7-7 halftime deadlock.

Senior Chris Dusseau, who closed out his Irish career with two goals in the contest, opened by tallying Notre Dame's first two scores. Georgetown jumped out to a 4-2 advantage only to have senior Brad Owen tie the game with the first of his three scores with 14:40 remaining until the break.

The two teams exchanged goals throughout most of the second period with David Ulrich and John Flandina knotting the score at 5-5 and 6-6, respectively. Owen notched his second goal of the game 33 seconds before intermission to tie the score for the sixth and final time.

Georgetown scored the first four goals of the second half and held Notre Dame scoreless for the entire third quarter. Owen's third goal of the game finally put the Irish on the scoreboard for the first time in the second half, with 10:45 remaining in the final quarter. Tom Glatzel scored two of Notre Dame's three fourth-quarter goals.

Goalie Kirk Howell finished with 13 saves in the game. The 14 goals scored by the Hoyas were the most given up by Notre Dame in 1999.

Notre Dame finished the campaign with an 8-6 record.

2000 NCAA Tournament - First Round

#13 Notre Dame 15, #5 Loyola 13 May 14, 2000/Baltimore, MD

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse team returned to the NCAA tournament for the second straight year and eighth time in nine seasons in 2000. And for the second time in school history, the 13th-ranked Irish advanced to the quarterfinals, this time with a first-round upset of fifth-seeded Loyola 15-13.

Notre Dame's victory proved just as stunning as the one five years earlier, when the Irish earned a 12-10 decision over Duke. While the win gave Notre Dame its second NCAA tournament victory, it also avenged the worst loss of the regular season, when the Irish were beaten 12-2 by the Greyhounds during the regular season. In addition, it marked Notre Dame's first-ever win over Loyola in 11 meetings.

Notre Dame jumped out to an early lead just 46 seconds in the game when junior David Ulrich scored his second career NCAA tournament goal to put the Irish in the lead, 1-0. Loyola answered back when Tim Goettelmann scored the first of his seven goals on the day to tie the game 1-1.

The Irish then ripped off four consecutive goals by different players. Junior Chris Young got the Notre Dame run started, with classmate Tom Glatzel, senior Stedman Oakey, and sophomore John Flandina following, to open up the contest as the scoring burst gave Notre Dame a lead it would never relinquish.

Ending the first half with a 10-5 advantage over the Greyhounds, the Irish dominated the play on the field. Loyola would make a run at the end of the game, but the Irish defense and senior goaltender Kirk Howell, who had 13 saves in the game, would enable the Irish to hold their lead.

Loyola's Gunnar Goettelmann, Tim Goettelmann, Bobby Horsey, and Mike Battista combined to score eight goals in the final 20 minutes of the game to close the gap. Loyola took 15 shots in the fourth period, but Howell, who had five saves in the quarter, and the Irish defense kept the Irish lead intact.

Eleven different players scored for the Irish on the day, helping to solve the Greyhound defense that only allowed two goals in the first meeting. The Irish were led by Glatzel's four goals and three assists.

Attackman Tom Glatzel scored an Irish NCAA Championship record of seven points in Notre Dame's 15-13 upset of #5 Loyola in the opening round of the 2000 tournament, tallying four goals and assisting on three others.

2000 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#4 Johns Hopkins 15, #13 Notre Dame 11

May 21, 2000/Baltimore, MD

After an upset win over fifth-ranked Loyola, the Irish put their best efforts up against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA tournament. The Blue Jays, with a strong offensive attack and playing on their home field, proved to be a tough second-round matchup for the Irish, who were bidding for their first appearance in the national semifinals.

Dan Denihan led the Johns Hopkins attack with four goals and four assists, as the fourth-seeded Blue Jays posted a 15-11 victory over the Irish, who closed out the campaign with a 10-4 record. The loss snapped a seven-game winning streak for the Irish, as Notre Dame posted its fourth 10-win season during head coach Kevin Corrigan's tenure.

Leading 7-6 with 5:10 to play in the second quarter, Denihan and Bobby Benson scored three goals each to key an 8-2 run that saw the Blue Jays pull out to an insurmountable 15-8 lead with 3:50 remaining in the third quarter. Todd Ulrich scored two of his team-high three markers in the fourth quarter, as Notre Dame held Hopkins scoreless and provided the final four-goal margin.

ND jumped out to a 3-2 advantage with 1:15 left in the first quarter when Chris Young scored on David Ulrich's second assist of the game. Johns Hopkins responded with a 5-0 run, thanks in part to two goals from Conor Denihan, to take a 7-3 advantage. Jon Harvey, one of four multiple-goal scorers for the Irish, then closed a 3-0 Notre Dame run that reduced the lead to 7-6 midway through the second quarter, setting the stage for the Blue Jays' game-clinching spurt as Johns Hopkins outscored the Irish 7-2 in the decisive third period.

Mike Adams – who would be tabbed honorable mention All-America at the conclusion of the season – was a key force in Notre Dame's best-ever NCAA-tournament defensive performance, allowing just seven goals – only two in the first half en route to a five-goal intermission advantage – in a first-round tilt against Bucknell in 2001.

2001 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#4 Notre Dame 12, #10 Bucknell 7

May 13, 2001/West Point, NY

Playing as a seeded team in the NCAA tournament for the first time in the 21-year history of its program, the fifth-seeded Irish beat Bucknell 12-7 in the first-ever meeting between the schools. With the win, Notre Dame advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA championship for the second consecutive season and third time in seven years.

Four players scored multiple goals for the Irish, as Notre Dame added to its record-setting season with its 13th win of the year and eighth straight victory. The eight-game winning streak matched its longest since the 1994 campaign. The contest was close for the first 18 minutes until John Flandina's early second-period goal gave the Irish a 3-2 advantage and began a streak of six consecutive goals by six different players.

After a tightly-played first quarter featuring just one goal by each team, the Irish and Bison traded scores early in the second period before Notre Dame's six-goal run. Leading 8-2 just 39 seconds into the third period, the Irish allowed three Bison goals in the third quarter, as Notre Dame held a 9-5 advantage entering the final stanza.

The Irish opened the fourth quarter by scoring three straight goals, including a pair by senior attackman Jon Harvey.

Eight different players scored for the fourth-ranked Irish, who were led by four seniors notching two goals each. In addition to Harvey scoring a pair, David Ulrich, Chris Young, and Steve Bishko also added two scores each. Tom Glatzel registered a goal and dished off a game-high four assists, while goalie Kirk Howell came up with eight saves in goal.

Wes Fletchert scored three goals to lead the Bison in their first-ever NCAA tournament appearance.

2001 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#4 Notre Dame 13, #3 Johns Hopkins 9
May 20, 2001/College Park, MD

Notre Dame advanced to its first-ever national semifinal with a 13-9 win over fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins. The Irish scored five straight fourth-period goals in a 5:21 span over the final six-and-a-half minutes of the game to snap an 8-8 tie on the way to the first quarterfinal victory in school history and ninth straight win (tying a school record).

The win also marked Notre Dame's first win over Johns Hopkins in four all-time contests – all in the NCAA tournament – and avenged the 2000 quarterfinal loss.

Senior Tom Glatzel paced the Irish with four goals and an assist, while fellow senior Jon Harvey added three goals and junior midfielder John Flandina collected a pair of goals and an assist in the win.

Flandina scored both of his goals in the five-goal flurry, beginning with the go-ahead goal that gave the Irish a 9-8 advantage with 6:29 remaining in the contest, ending a span of more than 10 minutes without a score. Following Flandina's score, Steve Bishko added his first score of the day to give the Irish a 10-8 advantage with 4:02 to play in the game. Flandina netted his second goal of the day off a feed from Todd Ulrich with 2:54 remaining and then Harvey scored Notre Dame's final goal with 58 seconds left to play. Bobby Benson, who led the Blue Jays with three goals, tallied the game's final score with 11 minutes remaining in the contest for the final four-goal margin.

Johns Hopkins scored on its first three shots of the game to take a 3-1 lead in the game just 5:11 into the contest, but the Irish scored four consecutive goals to take a 5-3 lead with 9:50 left in the second quarter. After David Ulrich scored unassisted to cut the lead to 3-2, sophomore middle Travis Wells scored two of Notre Dame's next three goals, marking the first multiple-goal game of his career.

Notre Dame went ahead 4-3 with 47 seconds left in the first period, and then Wells put the Irish up 5-3 with 9:50 left in the second period. The two teams traded goals for the remainder of the first half, as the Irish led 7-5 at the intermission.

Johns Hopkins tied the game less than four minutes into the second half, and then the two teams traded scores in the final three minutes of the third quarter as the third period ended knotted at 8-8. From there, both defenses took over before Flandina's goal with 6:29 remaining.

2001 NCAA Tournament – Semifinals

#2 Syracuse 12, #4 Notre Dame 5
May 26, 2001/Piscataway, NJ

The most successful season in the history of the Notre Dame men's lacrosse program ended in the semifinals of the NCAA Championship, as the Irish fell victim to defending national champion Syracuse 12-5 at Rutgers Stadium in Piscataway, N.J. Coach Kevin Corrigan's squad ended the campaign with a 14-2 mark and set school records for most wins and single-season winning percentage (.875).

The 12 goals allowed and the seven-goal defeat were the largest of the season, while the loss snapped a nine-game winning streak, as the Irish were held to a season-low five goals in the loss.

Senior David Ulrich concluded his Notre Dame career with a goal and two assists to lead the Irish, while Jon Harvey netted two goals in his final collegiate outing.

Notre Dame trailed just 4-2 after the first period, but was outscored 5-1 in the second stanza, as the defense of the Orangemen kept the Irish in check for most of the contest.

Chris Young tallied his lone goal of the game 2:53 into the contest, as the Irish took a 1-0 lead. Syracuse scored four unanswered goals in just over three minutes to take a 4-1 advantage before Harvey scored the first of his two goals with 5:23 remaining in the quarter.

The Orangemen scored the first five goals of the second quarter before the Irish got on the scoreboard on Kyle Frigon's unassisted goal with 1:45 remaining in the second period, as the Orangemen held a 9-3 halftime advantage.

Michael Springer tallied a career-high six goals for Syracuse in the game, as five different players contributed scores. Mike Powell had four assists and Liam Banks added three to lead the Orangemen in that category.

Kirk Howell stopped 14 of Syracuse's 33 shots in the game.

Byron V. Kanaley Award

The Byron V. Kanaley Award is the most prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete. It has been presented each year since 1927 at commencement exercises and honors senior monogram athletes who have been exemplary as students and leaders. The award is selected by the Faculty Board on Athletics and is named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University in the Alumni Association and as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960. Robert Williamson was the recipient in 1993 and is the lone Notre Dame lacrosse player to win the Kanaley Award.

After competing in the Midwest Lacrosse Association from 1981-93, specifically in the MLAs Great Lakes Conference from 1985-93, Notre Dame became one of the charter members of the Great Western Lacrosse League in 1994, along with Air Force, Ohio State, and Michigan State. Butler University joined the GWLL in 1995, but the conference lost a member when MSU discontinued its lacrosse program following the '96 season. In 1999, Denver became a league member, with Fairfield joining the following season. The Stags left the league following the 2005 season and were replaced by Quinnipiac. Those six schools – Air Force, Butler, Denver, Notre Dame, Ohio State, and Quinnipiac – will comprise the 2006 edition of the GWLL, which has seen five different schools claim titles since 1998. Upon reaching six member institutions, the conference earned an automatic bid to the NCAA Championship, a 12-team event that was expanded to 16 participants in 2003. The Irish claimed that berth in both 2000 and '01.

Notre Dame has experienced a wealth of success in the GWLL. The Irish have compiled a 44-7 (.863) record, highlighted by claiming at least a share of the conference crown in nine of 11 seasons. The only other school to have won an outright GWLL championship is Ohio State, which topped the conference in both 1998 and 2004. The Buckeyes and Denver were tri-champions with the Irish in 2003, while Notre Dame shared first place with Butler in 1999 and Fairfield in 2002. The Stags and Denver were co-champs in '05.

The Irish have compiled a 24-3 (.889) home record in GWLL games, including 17 consecutive victories in Moose Krause Stadium from 1994-2001. Notre Dame has had a pair of impressive overall GWLL winning streaks, winning 16 consecutive conference tilts from 1994-98 and then running off 13 in a row from 2000-02. Notre Dame also has been frequently recognized in the conference awards, with a total of 47 first-team all-league selections, an average of more than four per season. Additionally, Kevin Corrigan was tabbed the GWLL's top coach in 1994, '96, and 2001, and four different Irish players – attackmen Randy Colley (1995) and David Ulrich (2001) and defensemen Mike Iorio (1994) and Todd Rassas (1998) – have been named GWLL Player of the Year. Current attackman Pat Walsh was voted the conference's top rookie in 2003, and attackman Chris Dusseau holds the distinction of being the only Notre Dame player to earn all-GWLL honors four times, after he was named to the first team from 1996-99.

In 2005, two Irish players garnered GWLL individual honors. D.J. Driscoll was named the league's Defensive Player of the Year and goalkeeper Joey Kemp was tabbed as the Rookie of the Year. Walsh joined Driscoll on the GWLL first team, while senior attackman Jim Morrisison and junior midfielder Matt Karweck were second team selections along with Kemp.

While a member of the Midwest Lacrosse Association, Notre Dame compiled a 68-32 (.680) record, including a 27-7 (.794) mark in the Great Lakes Conference. The Irish finished first in the MLAs University Division in 1982 (just the second year of Notre Dame's varsity program) before winning an overall MLA title in 1984 and following that up with Great Lakes Conference championships in 1985, '88 (co-champs), '90, '92, and '93.

After dropping a 7-5 decision at Ohio State in the final game of the 1989 season, Notre Dame then proceeded to win 19 consecutive conference games (in both the GLC and the GWLL) until losing 6-5 at #15 Butler in 1998. That streak stands as the longest league winning streak by any school in NCAA Division I lacrosse history.

Rob Simpson, who joined the Irish program in its second year on the varsity level (1982), still remains Notre Dame's all-time leader in career saves, with 623.

Lacrosse originally was played on a limited intramural basis on the Notre Dame campus for a brief period in the late 1890s. The modern team from which the varsity squad takes roots was founded in March 1963, by Jack "Boomer" Tate of Allentown, Pa. In the club team's inaugural season, 1964, the squad compiled a 5-6 record. That team won the first lacrosse game Notre Dame ever played in intercollegiate competition, with an 11-6 victory at Colorado State on March 24, 1964, on a snow-covered field in 12-degree weather.

Having been run strictly by students in its early years, the lacrosse club gained a coach in 1971 when Rich O'Leary, now Notre Dame's director of intramural and club sports, began donating his time to instruct the squad. O'Leary tutored the club for nine seasons (compiling a 79-53 club coaching record) and was named the program's first varsity coach when the club achieved varsity status in May of 1980. The club boasted a 111-91-1 record in its 17 years of play.

To foster the continued interest of the University's lacrosse alumni in the undergraduate program, Tate founded in 1969 the Notre Dame Lacrosse Association. This organization provided a wide range of support functions to the team, including a fall alumni game as a focal point of its activities.

Interest in lacrosse at Notre Dame maintained a remarkably consistent level of student participation from its inception, with a roster of new and experienced players hailing from all over the United States. As a result of the transition to varsity status, the Irish encountered an influx of more experienced players and the talent level continued to increase. A significant number of Notre Dame graduates have continued their lacrosse activities after graduation, through participation in club and professional teams nationwide.

1981

April 4 — Chris Dusseau and Burke Hayes each score three goals and Ned Webster adds four assists, as the 13th-ranked Irish hold off previously-undefeated and fourth-ranked Hofstra 10-9, as Notre Dame improves to 5-1. The Flying Dutchmen were the highest-ranked opponent the Irish had beaten in the 16-year history of the program.

May 3 — Notre Dame clinches its sixth consecutive NCAA tournament bid and claims its sixth straight league title with a 20-9 win over Ohio State.

May 11 — The ninth-ranked Irish are beaten in the first round of the NCAA tournament by sixth-ranked Loyola 21-5. It was the second meeting of the season between two teams; earlier in the campaign, the Greyhounds earned a one-goal decision in Baltimore, 12-11.

May 30 — Juniors Todd Rassas and Jimmy Keenan are named to the USILA All-America teams for the second consecutive year. Rassas earned second-team honors, while Keenan was an honorable-mention choice.

June 17 — Dave Cashen becomes the program's first CoSIDA Academic All-American, coping second-team honors in the men's spring at-large program.

1998

March 1 — The Irish defeat Penn State 14-9 in the season opener for both teams. Freshman David Ulrich scores five goals and dishes off two assists in his collegiate debut, the most points ever scored by a Notre Dame freshman in his first game.

March 2 — Notre Dame debuts at #9 in the season's first USILA poll, its earliest top-10 ranking in school history.

March 9 — Jimmy Keenan scores a career-high six goals to lead Notre Dame to a 12-6 victory over Air Force. The game, postponed for two days because of heavy snow in the Colorado area, followed a 12-7 victory the previous day against Denver.

May 2 — Notre Dame ends its season with an 8-4 upset of #9 Hofstra to finish the campaign 5-7 for the 150th win in the program's history. The Irish miss the NCAA tournament for the first time in seven years.

June 1 — Todd Rassas becomes the school's second three-time All-American, as he earns third-team honors on defense, while Jimmy Keenan earns honorable mention honors for the third time.

1999

March 5 — Tom Glatzel scores a career-high five goals as Notre Dame beats Denver 17-9.

March 20 — An inspired Notre Dame squad loses 10-8 to top-ranked Loyola on the road. There were five ties in the contest before back-to-back goals by the Greyhounds toward the end of the third quarter put them ahead for good. Chris Dusseau tallied four goals for the Irish.

March 27 — Irish head coach Kevin Corrigan earns his 100th career win in Notre Dame's 10-8 victory over Hobart.

March 30 — Sophomore David Ulrich's unassisted goal with 53 seconds remaining caps a fourth-quarter three-goal rally in the victory for the 13th-ranked Irish over 19th-ranked Butler. The win avenges a 6-5 setback in '98.

April 24 — Chris Dusseau scores six goals to lead the 15th-ranked Irish to their first-ever win over Massachusetts, as Notre Dame prevails 9-7 on the road. The six tallies equal the Irish record for most goals scored in a road game.

May 1 — Steve Bishko tallies the game-winner with three seconds remaining, as Notre Dame scores five unanswered goals to record its third straight win with a 9-8 victory over Harvard. The final score is the only lead the Irish held in the contest.

June 3 — Chris Dusseau, who finishes as the school's second all-time leading goal scorer (113) and starts all 51 games during his career, becomes the sixth different Notre Dame player to earn All-America honors, as he is named to the USILA honorable-mention All-America team.

2000

February 27 — Notre Dame uses a balanced scoring attack and a stifling defense to beat Penn State 10-4 in the season opener for both teams. Eight different Irish players score in the contest, as Notre Dame limits the Nittany Lions to just one second-half goal.

March 13 — Tom Glatzel scores five goals, tying his career high, as Notre Dame defeats Air Force 10-6. The win is the 12th straight for the Irish over the Falcons.

April 1 — For the second time in less than a month, Tom Glatzel ties a career high with five goals to lead Notre Dame to a 13-4 victory over Ohio State. He also records two assists in the contest, tying a career high for points in a game.

April 15 — Kevin Corrigan earns his 100th career win as head coach of the Irish in a 10-5 victory over Army.

April 19 — Junior Jon Harvey tallies a career-high six goals to lead the Irish to a 17-9 victory over Villanova. The six goals match the Notre Dame record for individual goals in a home game.

April 30 — No. 12 Notre Dame rallies from a four-goal, third-quarter deficit and scores seven unanswered goals to defeat Harvard 11-10. With the victory, the Irish finish the regular season with a six-game winning streak.

May 14 — Notre Dame shocks the lacrosse world with a 15-13 upset of fifth-ranked Loyola. The victory marks Notre Dame's second win in nine NCAA tournament appearances and the first in 11 contests with the Greyhounds, who had won 12-2 in the regular-season meeting.

May 21 — The Irish fall just short of a second consecutive upset, as they lose 15-11 to fourth-ranked Johns Hopkins in the NCAA quarterfinals. Notre Dame finishes the season with a 10-4 record.

May 30 — David Ulrich and Tom Glatzel, Notre Dame's top two scorers during the 2000 season, are named to the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) honorable-mention All-America team.

June 15 — Captain Steve Fiamingo becomes Notre Dame's second CoSIDA Academic All-American. He earns second-team honors in the men's spring at-large program.

2001

March 9 — Notre Dame, ranked seventh nationally after starting the season 11th in the pre-season poll, improves to 3-0 for the first time since the 1993 campaign with a 9-4 win at 18th-ranked Rutgers. Tom Glatzel tied his career-high with five goals in the game, including four in the first half, as the Irish rush to a 6-0 halftime advantage.

March 14 — The sixth-ranked Irish improve to 4-0 for just the second time in the 21-year existence of the program with a come-from-behind victory over Virginia in Charlottesville. John Flandina tallies a career-high four goals. The win marks the first for a Notre Dame team over the Cavaliers. In addition, it is the first win for Irish head coach Kevin Corrigan over his alma mater in his 15-year coaching tenure.

March 18 — Notre Dame records its fourth win over a nationally-ranked opponent and its second straight over a top-10 team, as the Irish defeat fifth-ranked Loyola. Tom Glatzel has a game-high four goals, as Kevin Corrigan's squad posts its second consecutive win over the Greyhounds and first-ever on Loyola's home field.

March 19 — Following its 5-0 start and back-to-back wins over Virginia and Loyola, Notre Dame climbs to an all-time high of #2 in the USILA rankings.

March 24 — Notre Dame loses for the first time in 2001, as the Irish drop an 11-10 overtime decision at Hofstra in what would end up being their only loss during the regular season. Todd Ulrich, who scored three goals in the contest, sent the game into overtime with 10 seconds remaining in regulation, as the Irish fought back from a 9-6 third-quarter deficit.

April 14 — The sixth-ranked Irish score four unanswered goals in the final 5:18 of the contest to defeat Army 17-13, as Notre Dame records its second-best 10-game start in school history with a 9-1 mark. Devin Ryan scored a career-high four goals to lead the Irish to the win and their second-largest goal-scoring output of the season.

April 18 — Notre Dame matches its best 11-game start in school history and improves to 10-1 with a 12-3 win over Butler. David Ulrich becomes the school's career assist leader, as he finishes with three goals and four assists.

April 22 — Notre Dame clinches its third straight Great Western Lacrosse League title with a 12-5 win over Fairfield, as the Irish improve to 11-1 for the best 12-game start in school history.

April 28 — The third-ranked Irish cruise to their school-record 12th victory of the season, as Notre Dame concludes the 2001 regular season with a 12-1 record. Seniors Tom Glatzel and Chris Young combine for seven goals and eight assists, as coach Kevin Corrigan's squad records its largest margin of victory on the season, 16-4 vs. Harvard.

May 6 — When the pairings for the NCAA tournament are announced, Notre Dame earns its 10th appearance in the championship and first-ever seed — No. 5.

May 13 — Notre Dame defeats 10th-ranked Bucknell 12-7 in the first round of the NCAA tournament at Michie Stadium in West Point, N.Y. With the win, the Irish advance to the NCAA quarterfinals for the second straight year and third time in school history.

May 20 — Notre Dame reaches the NCAA semifinals for the first time in school history, as the Irish record their first-ever win over fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins at the University of Maryland's Byrd Stadium. Corrigan's squad scored five consecutive fourth-period goals in a span of 5:21 to snap an 8-8 tie on the way to a 13-9 win. Tom Glatzel paces the Irish with four goals and an assist.

May 20 — Notre Dame's most successful campaign in school history comes to a close, as the Irish drop a 12-5 decision to Syracuse in Piscataway, N.J., in their first-ever national semifinal appearance. The game is televised live on ESPN.

May 22 — A record five Notre Dame players earn All-America honors, highlighted by Tom Glatzel's selection to the first team, as he becomes the first Irish player in school history to earn first-team accolades. Goalie Kirk Howell earns second-team honors, while Steve Bishko is named to the third team. David Ulrich and Mike Adams are honorable-mention selections.

May 24 — Tom Glatzel is named a finalist for the first annual Tewaaraton Trophy, awarded to the top collegiate player, after leading the Irish with 40 goals and 27 assists.

June 14 — Mike Adams becomes the program's first first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American and third Academic All-American since 1997.

March 8 — Notre Dame improves to 3-0 with its third straight win over a ranked opponent, as the 11th-ranked Irish defeat No. 13 North Carolina 10-8 in Chapel Hill, N.C. It is the first win for an Irish team over the Tar Heels in three meetings between the two schools. Matt Howell scores four goals and dishes off an assist in the victory.

In his final season, Kirk Howell went 14-2 with a 7.07 goals-against average (both team records) in 2001 to be named a second-team All-American by the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association. He was one of five Irish players to earn All-America accolades that year.

March 21 — Despite a five-goal performance from Dan Berger, No. 11 Notre Dame loses a 9-8 heartbreaker to Hofstra in Hempstead, N.Y. The contest marks the sixth consecutive outing for the Irish against a ranked opponent, as Notre Dame falls to 3-3 on the season.

April 10 — Notre Dame holds Butler scoreless until the 1:50 mark of the third quarter in its 9-2 victory.

April 19 — Notre Dame holds an opponent to four goals or fewer for the fourth consecutive game with a 14-4 victory over Fairfield to finish with a 4-1 mark in Great Western Lacrosse League play. The Irish share the conference title with Denver and Ohio State, but the Buckeyes earn the league's automatic berth into the NCAA tournament based on tie-breaker policy.

May 9 — Freshman Pat Walsh is named the Great Western Lacrosse League Newcomer of the Year and earns all-GWLL first-team honors. He is among seven Irish players to garner all-league accolades. Walsh's 52 points (20 G, 32 A) are the most ever by a Notre Dame freshman and are tops among all Division I freshmen in 2003. His 32 assists tie the school's single-season record.

May 26 — Pat Walsh is named to the STX/United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) honorable-mention All-America and becomes the first Notre Dame player to cop All-America accolades as a freshman.

July 5 — Pat Walsh scores four goals and dishes off three assists in a 19-10 victory over Canada to lead the United States to the 2003 Under-19 Men's Lacrosse World Championship in Towson, Md. He scores 13 goals and dishes off eight assists in six games, as the U.S. squad finishes with a 6-0 mark.

Current senior attackman Pat Walsh is the only Notre Dame player ever to earn USILA All-America accolades during his first three collegiate seasons, being tabbed to the third team in 2004, along with being named honorable mention in 2003 and 2005.

2004

February 29 — Six players score multiple times, and Notre Dame goes 6-7 on extra-man opportunities in opening the season with a 17-7 home win against Penn State. The victory allows the Irish to debut at eighth in the USILA rankings and then move up to fifth after an idle week, becoming just the second Notre Dame team to crack the top five.

March 11 — In its first-ever trip to the Carrier Dome, #5 Notre Dame cannot hold on to a 10-7 second-half lead, as #3 Syracuse rallies for a 19-13 victory.

March 31 — The Irish go up 3-0 and then hold a 7-3 advantage late in the third period at Moose Krause Stadium in what would turn out to be the championship game of the Great Western Lacrosse League, but #17 Ohio State used a late surge to claim a 9-8 win. Irish middle Brian Hubschmann scored with 28 seconds remaining to tie the score 8-8, but Ben Wolff netted the game winner with just 12 seconds to go.

April 4 & 9 — Notre Dame posts the top back-to-back defensive performances in school history, with a 10-3 home win vs. Dartmouth (two Big Green goals came in the final 4:00 with Irish second-line goalie in) and a 12-2 road triumph against Air Force.

April 27 — Sophomore attackman Pat Walsh is named one of 15 nominees for the 2004 Tewaaraton Trophy, awarded to the top player in college lacrosse. He joins 2001 graduate Tom Glatzel as the second Irish player ever to be so honored.

May 1 — Notre Dame holds six different leads and gets a goal from Brian Giordano to go up 8-7 with 1:23 remaining, but #3 Maryland strikes back, tying the game with 19 seconds left in regulation. The Terps, who had led just one time for 1:23 up to that point, then got a goal from Brendan Healey 19 seconds into the second overtime to clinch a 9-8 win and deny the Irish a win that would have given them a berth in the NCAA Championship. Nine days later, the NCAA draw is announced, and Notre Dame is left out, despite being ranked 11th by Inside Lacrosse and 12th by the USILA. The Irish finish the season second in the nation in scoring offense (12.50 per game).

June 2 — Pat Walsh becomes just the second attackman in Notre Dame history to be named to one of the STX/United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) All-America teams, earning third-team honors. It marks the 12th consecutive season an Irish player has earned All-America accolades from the USILA.

2005

February 27 — Notre Dame held #21 Penn State scoreless in the final 25 minutes, tallying six unanswered goals en route to a 14-6 season-opening triumph. The Irish, who got hat tricks from all three of their starting attackmen (Pat Walsh, Matt Karweck, Jim Morrison), turned in their largest margin of victory ever in a road game versus a nationally-ranked opponent and began the season with a win for the fifth time in six years.

March 13 — No. 14 Notre Dame used a dominating first quarter and an outstanding starting debut from freshman goaltender Joey Kemp for a 9-7 victory against #10 North Carolina in front of a crowd of 7,182 in The First 4 invitational at the Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif.

March 19 — Notre Dame scored the game's first 12 goals and went on to a dominating 22-6 victory over Butler in the Loftus Sports Center in front of a crowd of 1,089 in the Great Western Lacrosse League opener for both teams. Among the offensive stars for the Irish were junior attackman Matt Karweck who missed the school record for points in a game by one (5 G, 3 A), junior All-American attackman Pat Walsh, who had three goals and three assists, and senior co-captain attackman Jim Morrison, who became the first Notre Dame player ever to begin a season with four consecutive hat tricks (also one assist).

March 26 — Pat Walsh scored his sixth goal of the game to hand #9 Notre Dame a 9-8 double-overtime victory against #13 Hofstra. The Irish led nearly the entire game - going up by as many as four - but saw the Pride score twice in the final two minutes to force extra sessions.

March 28 — The Irish start the season 5-1 with a road victory over Villanova (11-7) - snapping the Wildcats' 14-game home winning streak - and rise to sixth in the Inside Lacrosse poll and ninth in the USILA rankings.

April 17 — Greg Downing scored with 2.9 seconds remaining to hand 20th-ranked Fairfield a 12-11 victory over #14 Notre Dame. The Irish led by as many as four goals (8-4 and 9-5), but allowed seven scores in the final 16 minutes to drop their penultimate game of the regular season. Fairfield tied its program record with its seventh consecutive victory and went on to win a share of the 2005 GWLL title and make the NAAs.

April 25 — For the second year in a row, junior attackman Pat Walsh was listed among the 16 nominees for the Tewaaraton Trophy, which is awarded to the top player in college lacrosse. He is one of six players to be among the nominees for the award in each of the last two seasons.

May 8 — For the third straight year, Notre Dame barely missed receiving an at-large bid to the 16-team NCAA Tournament after being ranked in the top 10 earlier in the season. The Irish finish with a 7-4 record overall and 3-2 in the GWLL, which placed the Irish third. Three of Notre Dame's four losses on the season came by just a single goal against nationally-ranked opponents.

May 24 — Junior D.J. Driscoll was named Defensive Player of the Year and goaltender Joey Kemp was tabbed Rookie of the Year when the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) annual awards, determined by voting of the conference's head coaches were announced. Driscoll was joined on the all-GWLL first team by junior attackman Pat Walsh, while Kemp, senior attackman Jim Morrison, and junior midfielder Matt Karweck earned second-team accolades. Kemp led the nation in save percentage (.652), and ranked 18th nationally in goals-against average (8.36).

June 1 — A pair of Notre Dame juniors - defenseman D.J. Driscoll and attackman Pat Walsh - were both named honorable mention All-America by the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA). Walsh became the fourth Irish player ever to earn USILA accolades on three occasions, though he was the only one of 16 nominees for the Tewaaraton Trophy (awarded to the nation's top player) who was left off the three All-America teams. It marked the 13th year in a row that at least one Notre Dame competitor was recognized by the USILA.

Steve Clagett scored two goals to help the Irish defeat Ohio State, 7-3, on May 4, 2002 and claim a share of the GWLL championship.

Number in parentheses to the right of opponent indicates its United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association national ranking (or Inside Lacrosse, if first USILA poll has not yet been released) at time of game (1992-present) and number to left is Notre Dame's ranking (1996-present).

+ - indicates conference game

~ - indicates Midwest Lacrosse Association game, but not Great Lakes Conference game

Steve Fiamingo, an Academic All-American, helped Notre Dame top #17 Army in 2000 by a 10-5 score.

Note: Rank column has Notre Dame's USILA (or Inside Lacrosse if game was too early in season for first USILA poll to be released) national ranking at time of game followed by opponent's USILA national ranking at time of game.

* indicates NCAA Tournament

IRISH ON NATIONAL TEAMS

Over the past decade, three Notre Dame players -- Mike Iorio ('95), Todd Rassas ('98), and current senior Pat Walsh -- have represented their country by playing on their respective national teams. Each helped Team U.S.A. to an International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) world championship, extending the influence of Irish lacrosse far beyond the borders of the United States.

In the summer of 2003, Walsh, the first freshman All-America honoree in Notre Dame history, played a key role in helping the U.S. continue its streak of dominance in the ILF Under-19 World Championship. After making his way through the national team tryouts, which boasted more than 150 of the nation's top young players, Walsh had four goals and three assists to lead Team U.S.A. in its 19-10 triumph over Canada in the championship game. In six games during the tournament, Walsh had 13 goals and eight assists, including at least two points in each contest.

Todd Rassas, a three-time All-American at Notre Dame, helped the United States to a victory in the 2002 ILF World Championship in Perth, Australia. The squad, which featured 23 players selected from over 120 hopefuls, defeated rival Canada 18-15 in the title game to secure Team U.S.A.'s sixth consecutive triumph in the ILF World Championship, which is contested every four years. Rassas also will compete in the 2006 season.

Mike Iorio, the first three-time All-American in Irish history, earned all-world honors as a member of the United States under-19 team in 1992. Iorio started for the national team on defense, in helping the Americans to a gold medal in the world championship, held at Hofstra University.

University of Notre Dame

Dame du Lac?

Notre Dame at its founding was a name in search of, or perhaps in anticipation of, a university. The wonder is not so much what the University become more than a century and a half later, but that it survived at all in those early years of beginning almost literally from nothing.

In his book, The University of Notre Dame: A Portrait of Its History and Campus, historian Thomas Schlereth of the American studies department has described the odds the University was up against: "Only nine other Catholic colleges existed when Notre Dame was founded, but that number had grown to 51 by 1861. Presently only seven of these antebellum institutions still exist. One historian estimates a mortality rate of approximately 80 percent among Notre Dame's contemporary secular institutions. Yet Notre Dame survived ..."

The University's survival of those early years is a tribute not only to the faith of Father Sorin, but also to his pragmatism and wit. In the beginning, his institution's only admissions requirement was the ability to pay — some payment, at least, and not necessarily in currency or coin; livestock or the services of a tradesman or some other "in-kind" payment also were cheerfully accepted. Nor were admissions limited by religious preference. Father Sorin's mission and inspiration were thoroughly and indisputably Catholic, but from the beginning he made it clear that would-be students of any religious persuasion were welcome; indeed, that Notre Dame's student body eventually would become overwhelmingly Catholic was more a reflection of American culture than of parochialism on the University's part.

Sorin was equally flexible when it came to his University's academic offerings. While a classical collegiate curriculum was established early on, so too were elementary and preparatory programs as well as a manual-labor school, and for several decades the collegiate program never attracted more than a dozen students in any year. As Notre Dame's chronicler, Father Arthur Hope, C.S.C., has written, "If (Sorin) was to begin at all, the head of this new college had to be mightily concerned about frostbite and empty stomachs. The more elusive problems of intellectual development would have to wait."

If Notre Dame in its infancy was the child of Sorin's vision and will, its subsequent growth and development were the products of large and powerful social and historical forces. Just as the University was being established, the first waves of European immigrants, overwhelmingly Catholic, were reaching America's shores, and Notre Dame's location — though seemingly remote — in fact put it within easy reach of cities like Chicago, Detroit and St. Louis, all of which soon would have large immigrant Catholic populations. The immigrant experience and the growth of the University of Notre Dame would be inextricably linked.

A number of forces were at work in this relationship. The "American Dream" was coming into being, and with it the hope and expectation that, through hard work and education, children would enjoy greater opportunities than their parents. At the same time, anti-immigrant and anti-Catholic sentiments were open and pervasive in American society, creating barriers to immigrant Catholic students. Equally strong sentiments among many Catholics regarded public schools at any level as dangerous places where young people might lose their faith. For all these reasons, education — primary, secondary and higher education — became a centerpiece of American Catholicism.

Though it may not have seemed so at the time, this great historical movement of peoples and the creation of the American melting pot dramatically enhanced the odds of Notre Dame's survival. What still had to be decided, however, was precisely the type of institution Notre Dame would become. How could this small Midwestern school without endowment and without ranks of well-to-do alumni hope to compete with firmly-established private universities and public-supported state institutions? As in Sorin's day, the fact that the University pursued this lofty and ambitious vision of its future was testimony to the faith of its leaders — leaders such as Father John Zahm, C.S.C.

As Schlereth describes it: "Zahm ... envisioned Notre Dame as potentially 'the intellectual center of the American West'; an institution with large undergraduate, graduate, and professional schools equipped with laboratories, libraries, and research facilities.

ties. Notre Dame should strive to become the University that its charter claimed it was."

Zahm was not without evidence to support his faith in Notre Dame's potential. On this campus in 1899, Jerome Green, a young Notre Dame scientist, became the first American to transmit a wireless message. At about the same time, Albert Zahm, Father John's younger brother, was designing the first successful helicopter and first wind tunnel and was launching the first man-carrying glider from the roof of a building on campus. The University also had established the nation's first architecture, law and engineering schools under Catholic auspices.

The debate over Notre Dame's future was effectively ended in the two decades following the First World War. In 1919, the University installed its first president to have earned a Ph.D., Father James Burns, C.S.C., and the changes he initiated were as dramatic as they were far-reaching. The elementary, preparatory and manual-labor programs were scrapped; the University's first board of lay advisors was established with the goal of creating a $1-million endowment, with a national campaign conducted to achieve that goal; and the first annual giving program for alumni was launched. With this impetus established, between 1919 and 1933 the University would erect 15 new buildings and triple the numbers of both its students and its faculty.

Also during this period, a new and utterly unanticipated element was added to the ethos of Notre Dame, and the University forever after

Irish Athletic Programs Excel Under NCAA's New APR Standard

All 22 athletics programs at Notre Dame exceeded the new academic performance standard introduced in February of 2004 by the NCAA, and 13 Irish teams scored a perfect 1,000.

The Academic Progress Rate (APR) uses a series of formulas related to student-athlete retention and eligibility to measure the academic performance of all participants who receive a grant-in-aid on every team at every NCAA Division I college and university. It replaced the annual graduation rates report that previously was issued by the NCAA. Beginning in 2005-06, programs that fail to earn an APR score of 925 or better will be barred from replacing a scholarship athlete who leaves the institution while academically ineligible. Programs with chronically poor academic records based upon a rolling four-year rate ultimately will be barred from postseason competition, in addition to losing their scholarships.

Notre Dame registered an overall APR of 979, and among Division I-A schools it had the third-highest percentage of teams with perfect scores. The national average for Division I-A institutions was 944.

would be a national institution. That new element was, of course, the game of football. But for Notre Dame and for its legions of ethnic American loyalists — most, but not all, Catholic — the cliché was true: Football was more than a game. Through its academic program, Notre Dame already was part of the striving of ethnic Americans to earn a place in the American mainstream. Now, even for those who had never and would never attend Notre Dame, the University became a symbol, so much so that its attraction persists literally to this day.

The national recognition football brought to Notre Dame was a mixed blessing at those times when it tended to overshadow the University's growing academic distinction, but overall it has been an almost incalculable boon to public awareness of, interest in, and support of Notre Dame. It may be amusing to speculate how the University's history might have been different without the phenomenon of football, but the University is happy to accept this legacy as is.

If the post-World War I era saw Notre Dame's first flowering as a true University, the six decades since the Second World War have seen the vision of John Zahm reach full fruition. Father John Cavanaugh, C.S.C., began the process after the war by toughening Notre Dame's entrance requirements, increasing faculty hiring, and establishing the Notre Dame Foundation to expand the University's development capabilities. Then, during the 35-year tenure of Father Theodore Hesburgh, C.S.C., Notre Dame's enrollment, faculty and degrees awarded all doubled; library volumes increased five-fold; endowment catapulted from less than $10 million to more than $400 million; campus physical facilities grew from 48 to 88 buildings; faculty compensation increased ten-fold; and research funding grew more than twenty-fold. In addition, two defining moments occurred during this period: the transference of University governance in 1967 from the Congregation of Holy Cross to a predominantly lay board of trustees and the admission of women to undergraduate studies in 1972.

During the 18-year presidency of Father Edward Malloy (which ended in 2005), the University continued to grow in stature. Endowed faculty positions now number more than 190, the student body is among the most selective in the nation — with a third of entering freshmen ranking among the top five students in their high school graduating classes — and the graduation rate annually is among the four or five highest in the nation. The University's endowment, now more than $3 billion, is the 18th-largest in American higher education and campus additions have included: new research laboratories; a graduate-student housing complex; residence halls for undergraduate women (who now comprise more than 45 percent of the student body); DeBartolo Hall, one of the most technologically-advanced teaching facilities in higher education; a 153,000-square-foot complex for the Mendoza College of Business; and the new DeBartolo Center for the Performing Arts.

The question for Notre Dame today is, having become a distinguished American university, to what should it now aspire?

Some goals are self-evident. The University must strive at all times to bring new vigor to its teaching and to enhance both the breadth and the depth of the education it offers students. At the same time, it must strengthen significantly its graduate programs and faculty research to make ever-greater contributions in the quest for new knowledge.

But the institutional mission of Notre Dame reaches beyond these goals.

The higher aspiration of the University of Notre Dame is to seek out and assume leadership roles through which students and alumni, faculty, interdisciplinary institutes, and professional programs can bring their accomplishments to bear on the most basic and pressing needs of humanity — for peace and social justice, for human rights and dignity, for ethical conduct in business, science and the professions, for a renewal of values in interpersonal and societal relationships, and for a more-enlightened stewardship of the environment, to name but a few of the challenges.

This aspiration is incumbent upon Notre Dame as a Catholic university. Today, as throughout its history, Notre Dame's position in American culture mirrors that of the Catholic Church. The world is very different from the one encountered by Father Sorin on his arrival in this country. The tangible barriers faced then by Catholic students and scholars have largely been removed, and today one may find such students and scholars at Harvard and Stanford and Duke, as well as at Notre Dame. American Catholics are firmly implanted in the American mainstream.

At the same time, the secularization of contemporary American society is an undisputed fact, and with that transformation has come a weakening of common values, an antipathy to belief, and a resistance to the very notion of underlying truths. One expression of this viewpoint is the contention that a Catholic university is a contradiction in terms, that reason and belief are somehow mutually exclusive. The Catholic intellectual tradition and the Western university tradition itself stand in opposition to this contention, as does Notre Dame.

It is a telling act that throughout Notre Dame's history, and increasingly in recent years, many eminent scholars of various faith traditions have made the University their home simply because they have preferred to work in a community of learning where belief is not merely tolerated, but in fact is celebrated.

Father Sorin's dream was predicated on his conviction that a university would be a powerful force for good in this land that he embraced as his own. For the University of Notre Dame, Sorin's conviction remains the inspiration, the mission and the driving force.

Kevin White, one of the most progressive and talented administrators in the intercollegiate athletics ranks, quickly has attached his signature as director of athletics at the University of Notre Dame.

White previously had been athletic director at Arizona State University, Tulane University, the University of Maine, and Loras College. He brought a combined 18 years (1982-83 to 1999-2000) of experience in those positions with him to his assignment at Notre Dame.

Appointed March 13, 2000, White agreed to an original five-year contract as well as a five-year extension, then in December '02 saw his commitment extended an additional two years to 2012.

White's first five-and-a-half years at Notre Dame saw unprecedented across-the-board achievement on Irish fields of play:

- Notre Dame finished 11th, 13th, 13th, 19th and 16th, respectively, in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Directors' Cup all-sports ratings in those five years, its best-ever five-year run in that competition.
- On nine occasions Irish teams have earned number-one national rankings.
- The Irish claimed the '01 national championship in women's basketball, the '03 and '05 NCAA titles in fencing and the '04 and '05 crown in women's soccer.
- A record 37 Notre Dame athletes earned All-America honors in 2001-02.
- In 2003-04, an unprecedented 22 teams qualified for NCAA competition, including two (hockey and women's golf) that accomplished that for the first time and a third (men's golf) that made the field for the first time in 38 years.
- Notre Dame won the BIG EAST Conference Commissioner's Trophy for overall athletic success in league play for both men and women in 2001, '02 and '03 – after which the award was no longer presented. In 2004-05, 13 Irish squads won either the BIG EAST regular-season crown or tournament (or both).

His five years on the job at Notre Dame have featured a handful of other noteworthy accomplishments:

- He helped the Irish athletic program toward its goal of becoming a top-five program in the NACDA Directors' Cup all-sports competition by championing the University's plan to add 64 grants-in-aid in order to give all 26 varsity sports the full NCAA complement of scholarships.
- He emphasized the need to remain competitive on the facilities front by commissioning a facilities master plan that now provides a long-term plan for upgrading Notre Dame's athletic physical plant.
- On the academic front, in 2001-02, 25 teams achieved GPAs of 3.0 or higher, including eight Academic All-Americans. In 2002-03, three Irish student-athletes earned recognition as both All-Americans on the field and Academic All-Americans in the classroom. In 2003-04, Irish teams produced six more Academic All-Americans, including soccer star Vanessa Pruzinsky, who also earned an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship after graduating with a perfect 4.0 average in chemical engineering. Six more Academic All-Americans were added to the list in 2004-05.

- The American Football Coaches Association awarded its Academic Achievement Award for 2001 to Notre Dame based on its 100 percent graduation rate. The University received a 2002 USA Today/NCAA Academic Achievement Award for graduating 90 percent of its student-athletes who enrolled in 1995 – and it also received the 2003 award for highest overall student-athlete graduation rate (92 percent of those who enrolled in 1996). When the NCAA first issued its Academic Performance Rate numbers in 2005, Irish teams excelled, with 13 earning perfect scores of 1,000.
- The NCAA Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association gave one of its four 2000 awards of excellence to Notre Dame's CHAMPS/Life Skills Program.
- He renewed Notre Dame's NBC Sports contract for televising of home football games for five more years (through 2010) and its Westwood One contract for football radio broadcasts for five more years (through 2007).
- He oversaw the University's NCAA recertification process in 2004, as Notre Dame went through that self-study and peer review process for the first time since 1997.

The University's athletic program was recertified without conditions.

With a Ph.D. in education, White currently is a concurrent associate professor in the management department of the Mendoza College of Business, teaching as part of Notre Dame's MBA program during spring semesters (he teaches a sports business course).

White has served on numerous NCAA committees, including the NCAA Council, formerly the association's highest governing body, as well as currently serving as president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association and second vice president of NACDA.

During his coaching career, White served as head track and field coach at Southeast Missouri State (1981-82) and assistant cross country and track and field coach at Central Michigan (1976-80). He began his coaching career at Gulf High School in New Port Richey, Fla., coaching cross country and track and assisting in football and wrestling. White also spent a year (1980-81) as district administrator for athletics and special projects for the Mt. Morris Consolidated School District in Mt. Morris, Mich.

Born Sept. 25, 1950, in Amityville, N.Y., White earned his Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University in 1983 with an emphasis on higher-education administration. In 1985, he completed postdoctoral work at Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management. He earned his master's degree in athletics administration from Central Michigan University in 1976 and his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1972 from St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., where he also competed as a sprinter in track and field.

White and his wife Jane (she also has degrees from St. Joseph's and Central Michigan) have five children – Maureen, Michael, Danny (a Notre Dame graduate), Brian (a senior at Notre Dame) and Mariah.

At the end of each academic year, the office hosts an Academic Excellence Dinner for student-athletes who have achieved excellence in the classroom. The University president, deans of each college, members of the Faculty Board on Athletics and coaches also attend. Students with 4.0 semester GPAs, the individual student with the highest GPA in each sport, the top senior student-athlete and the team with the highest GPA receive special awards.

The University's Academic Services for Student-Athletes Office is designed to help Notre Dame fulfill its commitment to each student-athlete in his or her pursuit of a college degree and academic excellence. In order to achieve these goals, Academic Services has four major aims: to maintain the academic integrity of the University, to comply with all University and NCAA rules and regulations, to maintain the academic good standing of every student-athlete, and to assist every student-athlete to graduate in four years. The four objectives of Academic Services all work together and are aimed at teaching student-athletes to be responsible for themselves academically.

To do so, Academic Services provides student-athletes many services which begin as soon as freshmen arrive on campus and continue through graduation. The office provides consistent counseling and appropriate interventions regarding academic matters and refers student-athletes to campus offices to meet regularly with their professors and to use support services provided by the various colleges and departments.

As soon as student-athletes begin classes, Academic Services monitors their progress through surveys of their professors. These surveys ask professors to comment on the students' work level, attendance and any need for tutorial help. If either a professor or a student-athlete feels there is a need for additional help, Academic Services provides tutors to student-athletes.

In addition to this interaction with the faculty, the members of the Academic Services Office meet with student-athletes to develop a personal relationship. These sessions help student-athletes to develop both semester-long and career-long academic goals. Discussions at this meeting may include such topics as summer-school attendance, class scheduling and career possibilities.

In 2001, the Academic-Services department received a new home through a generous donation by football alumnus Jim Morse ('57) and his wife, Leah Rae, when the Coleman-Morse Center was completed. A $14-million building, the James and Leah Rae Morse Center for Academic Services houses Notre Dame's First Year of Studies Program and Academic Services for Student-Athletes. It also contains the University Writing Center, a satellite office for the Center for Social Concerns, classrooms, staff offices, a tutoring center, a computer cluster, workrooms and a lounge.

Working with the athletic department's Student Welfare and Development office, Academic Services helps coordinate numerous workshops and speakers to assist student-athletes with post-graduation planning and transition into professional careers. Offered in conjunction with the University Counseling Center, workshops

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., took office as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame on July 1, 2005. He was elected by the University's Board of Trustees to a five-year term April 30, 2004.

Rev. John I. Jenkins,
C.S.C. President

An associate professor of philosophy and member of Notre Dame's faculty since 1990, Father Jenkins had served from July 2000 until becoming president as a vice president and associate provost at the University.

Prior to his service in the provost's office, Father Jenkins had been religious superior of the Holy Cross priests and brothers at Notre Dame for three years. As religious superior, he was a Fellow and Trustee of the University, but he relinquished those posts to assume his duties in the provost's office.

Father Jenkins specializes in the areas of ancient philosophy, medieval philosophy and the philosophy of religion. He is the author of Knowledge and Faith in Thomas Aquinas, published by Cambridge University Press in 1997.

Father Jenkins earned degrees in philosophy from Oxford University in 1987 and 1989. He earned his master of divinity degree and licentiate in sacred theology from the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, Calif., in 1988. Prior to entering the Congregation of Holy Cross, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively.

Father Jenkins was ordained a priest in Notre Dame's Basilica of the Sacred Heart in 1983. He served as director of the Old College program for Notre Dame undergraduate candidates for the Congregation of Holy Cross from 1991 to 1993.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

Thomas G. Burish
Provost

Thomas G. Burish, formerly president at Washington and Lee, University in Lexington, Va., and a 1972 Notre Dame alumnus, was elected provost on July 21, 2005. As provost and second-ranking officer of the University, he exercises responsibility for all academic matters. He is the fourth person to hold the office since it was established in 1970.

Burish succeeded Nathan O. Hatch, who became president of Wake Forest University. In addition, Burish also was appointed a professor of psychology.

Burish had been president of one of the nation's top liberal-arts colleges since July 2002. Prior to joining Washington and Lee and prior to being named president was the longest-serving provost in the history of Vanderbilt University. He served as provost at the nationally-renowned research university from 1993 to 2002.

Known as a ground-breaking researcher, award-winning teacher and gifted leader, Burish exemplifies the excellence and humanity to which Notre Dame is dedicated. Through his work, he has helped "tens of thousands of cancer patients better cope with the emotional and physical pain of this disease," according to John R. Seffrin, chief executive officer of the American Cancer Society. Burish currently serves as chair of the American Cancer Society's national board of directors.

A native of Peshtigo, Wis., Burish was graduated from Notre Dame, summa cum laude, with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1972. He earned his master's degree in psychology from the University of Kansas in 1975 and a doctorate in clinical psychology from Kansas a year later.

While at Kansas, Burish received the David Shulman Memorial Award of Excellence in Clinical Psychology. He moved in 1976 to Vanderbilt, becoming a full professor in 1986. He won Vanderbilt's prestigious Madison Sarratt Prize for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching in 1980 and served as chair of the department of psychology from 1984 to 1986. Burish became Vanderbilt's provost in 1993. He is the co-author or co-editor of four books, and has contributed to more than 16 other books and written more than 60 journal articles.

John Affleck-Graves

was elected the first lay executive vice president of Notre Dame in April 2004. A vice president and associate provost the previous three years, he also holds the Notre Dame Chair in Finance in the Mendoza College of Business.

Dr. Affleck-Graves, the fifth person to serve as executive vice president, administers the University's annual operating budget of more than $700 million and an endowment of more than $3 billion. He oversees human-resource activities for a work force of more than 4,000 employees – the largest in St. Joseph County – and directs the University's construction program.

A native of South Africa and a naturalized U.S. citizen, Dr. Affleck-Graves specializes in the study of initial public offerings, valuation and asset pricing models, and shareholder value-added methodology. He is the author of more than 50 refereed publications and the recipient of numerous teaching awards.

Dr. Affleck-Graves joined the Notre Dame faculty in 1986 after teaching and conducting research for the previous 11 years at his alma mater, the University of Cape Town, where he earned bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees.

Patrick F. McCartan
Chair of the Notre Dame Board of Trustees

was elected the fifth chair of Notre Dame's Board of Trustees in May 2000. He has been a Notre Dame trustee since 1989 and also is a Fellow of the University.

Mr. McCartan served from 1993 through 2002 as managing partner of Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue, an international law firm headquartered in Cleveland. Cited by The National Law Journal as one of the country's most respected and influential corporate trial lawyers, he currently is Jones Day's senior partner, concentrating on appellate litigation and corporate governance.

A 1956 graduate of Notre Dame, Mr. McCartan earned his law degree from the University in 1959. Before joining Jones Day, he served as law clerk to Supreme Court justice Charles Evans Whittaker.

Fernand N. Dutile

affectionately known as "Tex," was appointed chair of the University's Faculty Board on Athletics in 2000. Dutile also is Notre Dame's athletic faculty representative to the NCAA.

A 1965 graduate of the Notre Dame Law School and a member of the faculty since 1971, Dutile previously served on the Faculty Board from 1991-98. He has served 25 years on the University's Academic Council, including 10 years on its executive committee, and also was a member of the Provost's Advisory Committee and the search committees for the University's two most-recent provosts. He was acting dean of the Law School from 1991-93 and was an associate dean from 1988-91 and from 1993-99.

Dutile has served on numerous University and Law School committees. He received the 2001 James E. Armstrong Award, which is presented annually by the Notre Dame Alumni Association for outstanding service to the University by an employee.

The Department of Athletics Student Development Program is committed to the total development of Notre Dame student-athletes. The program fosters the cultivation of skills that encourage student-athletes to reach their full potential.

Not designed to replace existing on-campus student services, the program acknowledges the unique needs and demands of student-athletes. The Notre Dame Student Development program was one of four recognized in 2000 (the others were at Arizona State, Iowa and Michigan State were the others) and given a Program of Excellence Award by the NCAA Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association. The program also has been twice named to the NSCA Outreach and Community Service Honor Roll.

The Student Development Program implements events and activities that are designed to facilitate learning within five key areas: academic excellence, athletic success, career preparation, community involvement and personal development.

The program has three components: elective services (community service, leadership, social events), complementary services (encourages administrators and coaches to request coordination of workshops, events and activities) and essential services (student-athletes participate in a series of required skill-building and developmental work-shops and activities).

The many services offered by the Student Development Program include the following:

- Academic support by working in coordination with the Office of Academic Services for Student-Athletes.
- Athletic success support with discussion topics on performance enhancement, leadership, nutrition, agents and amateurism and sports conduct.
- Preparing for post-graduation by working closely with the Notre Dame Career Center.
- Bringing Notre Dame and the community together through specific relationships with local area hospitals, community centers and outreach agencies to provide ongoing and reliable volunteer opportunities.

- An orientation program for freshman student-athletes to familiarize and identify the challenges and opportunities that are unique to them as both students and athletes.

Student Development is also responsible for managing the scholarship textbook process, designing and producing the annual Student-Athlete Handbook/Planner, facilitating 'An Evening at Shamrock Hills' team dinners, serving as the primary advisors to the Student-Athlete Advisory Council, coordinating the Student-Athlete Leadership Institute and the athletic department's annual year-end celebration, the O.S.C.A.R.S. - Outstanding Students Celebrating Achievements & Recognition Showcase.

The Department of Athletics Student Development Program, which has been in existence since 1996, continues to grow and evolve in an effort to meet the needs of student-athletes, so as to ensure that when they graduate from the University, they are prepared for another transition. It is the mission of the student-development staff that all Notre Dame student-athletes are fully prepared to successfully meet the challenges of life.

Senior volleyball All-American Lauren Brewster participates in student development activities.

The 2004-05 academic year was another that saw participation by Notre Dame student-athletes in student-development programs increase on virtually every front. In all, five participation records were broken, spanning across nearly all the programming components: participation in community service (above 90%), teams completing service projects (21 of 24), overall attendance for the Student-Athlete and Parent Orientation, juniors registered with Go Irish (123), and students performing live during the O.S.C.A.R.S. Notre Dame also was named to the NCAS Outreach and Community Service Honor Roll for the second time in three years, while Derek Curry was the third Irish football player in the last five years named to the AFCA Good Works Team.

Thank you for your tremendous support of our entire athletics program. Our 800-plus student-athletes, coaches and administrative staff are very appreciative of your spirit and affinity for Notre Dame, in particular its intercollegiate athletics.

With that, your adherence to all applicable NCAA rules and regulations is essential as we strive to maintain and enhance our national athletic prominence while protecting the University's tradition of integrity and values.

Our Compliance Office staff stands prepared to assist you with your questions and concerns regarding NCAA regulations. Please contact us immediately should you have concern regarding any situation. Your attention to these matters will ensure that the eligibility of both prospective student-athletes ("recruits") and enrolled student-athletes is protected and maintained. Again, many thanks for your cooperation in this matter and your ongoing support.

Go Fighting Irish!

Who is a Representative of Notre Dame's Athletics Interests?

(The following lists of examples are not all-inclusive. As always, ask before you act!)

You are if:

- you are an enrolled student or graduate of the University.
- you have ever participated in or are a member of any organization promoting Notre Dame's athletics program (The former Quarterback Club, The 3-Pt. Club, The Fast-Break Club, etc.).
- you have ever made financial contributions to the University of Notre Dame athletics department.
- you have ever helped to arrange employment of or provided any benefits to prospective or enrolled student-athletes.
- you have ever been a season ticket holder in any sport.
- you have ever promoted the athletics programs at the University of Notre Dame.

According to NCAA rules, once an individual has been identified as an institutional "representative of athletics interests" the individual retains that title for life. The University of Notre Dame is ultimately responsible for the behavior of all its athletics representatives in relation to NCAA rules and regulations. Violations of NCAA regulations by an athletics representative could result in the loss of eligibility for involved student-athletes (e.g. no participation in competitions) and/or severe sanctions against the University (e.g. loss of scholarships, television and post-season bans).

Current Student-Athlete

A student-athlete is any Notre Dame student who is a member of a varsity athletics team.

NCAA regulations apply to all student-athletes, not just those student-athletes who were recruited or who receive an athletics scholarship. *Note: NCAA regulations concerning enrolled student-athletes remain in effect throughout the entire year (including summer break). If a student-athlete has completed his/her final season of eligibility, all NCAA regulations must be adhered to until he/she graduates or leaves school.

Dos and Don'ts for representatives in regards to a current student-athlete:

(The following lists of examples are not all-inclusive. As always, ask before you act!)

Dos

You may:

- contact a current student-athlete regarding employment opportunities. However, no contact may be made without approval from the Compliance Office.
- provide a student-athlete, not his/her family and friends, an occasional (once a semester) meal at your home.

Don'ts

You may not:

- provide a currently-enrolled student-athlete, his/her parents or friends any benefit or special arrangement without prior approval from the Compliance Office.
- pay for or arrange for payment of room, board or any type of transportation for a student-athlete or his/her family or friends.
- entertain student-athletes or their family and friends. (Exception: NCAA rules do permit institutional staff members and athletics representatives to provide student-athletes [not including their family and friends] with an occasional meal [defined as once a semester] provided the meal is at the staff member's or athletic representative's home and not at a restaurant.)
- use the name, picture or appearance of an enrolled student-athlete to advertise, recommend or promote sales or use of a commercial product or service of any kind. Any use of a student-athlete's name, picture or appearance must receive authorization from the Compliance Office.
- provide any payment of expense or loan of an automobile for a student-athlete to return home or to travel to any other location.
- provide awards or gifts to a student-athlete for any reason. All awards provided to student-athletes must first be approved by the Compliance Office and meet all NCAA regulations.
- provide an honorarium to a student-athlete for a speaking engagement. All speaking engagements must be approved in advance by the Compliance Office.
- allow a student-athlete or his/her relatives or friends to use your telephone to make free calls.
- provide free or reduced-cost lodging in your home to a student-athlete or a student-athlete's family or friends.

Prospective Student-Athlete

A prospective student-athlete is any student who has started classes for the ninth grade. Any student younger who receives any benefits from an institution or athletics representative would become a prospective student-athlete. In addition, student-athletes enrolled in preparatory school or two-year colleges are considered prospective student-athletes. * Note: An individual is considered a prospect (whether or not they have signed a National Letter of Intent) until the first day of initial collegiate enrollment or the first day they report for practice, whichever is earliest. Therefore, all NCAA regulations concerning contact with a prospective student-athlete are applicable until that time.

Dos and Don'ts for representatives in regards to a prospective student-athlete:

(The following lists of examples are not all-inclusive. As always, ask before you act!)

Dos

You may:

- forward information about prospective student-athletes to the appropriate coaching staff.
- have telephone contact with a prospect regarding permissible pre-enrollment activities such as summer employment, provided the prospect has graduated from high school and signed a National Letter of Intent. Also, you must contact the Compliance Office to make them aware that you are making these employment arrangements.
- have a telephone conversation with a prospect only if the prospect initiates the call. Such a call may not be prearranged by an institutional staff member, and you are not permitted to have a recruiting conversation, but may exhibit normal civility. You must refer any questions about our athletics programs to an athletics-department staff member/coach.
- view a prospect's athletic contest at your own initiative provided you do not contact the prospect or his/her parents. In addition, you may not contact a prospect's coach, principal, or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.
- continue established family relationships with friends and neighbors. Contacts with sons and daughters of these families are permitted so long as they are not made for recruiting purposes or encouraged by Notre Dame coaches.

Don'ts

You may not:

- write, e-mail or telephone a prospective student-athlete or his/her parents in an effort to recruit them to Notre Dame.
- become involved in making arrangements to provide money, financial aid or a benefit of any kind to a prospect or the prospect's family and friends.
- make contact with a prospective student-athlete or his/her parents when the prospect is on-campus for an official or unofficial recruiting visit.
- contact a prospect to congratulate him/her on signing a National Letter of Intent to attend the University.
- transport, pay or arrange for payment of transportation costs for a prospect or his/her relatives or friends to visit campus (or elsewhere).
- pay or arrange for payment of summer-camp registration fees for a prospect.
- provide ANYTHING to a prospect, the prospect's family or friends without prior approval from the Compliance Office.

The support of our alumni and friends is welcomed and appreciated. We ask, however, that you also help to keep Notre Dame's tradition of athletics integrity intact by following the NCAA regulations. Your assistance will help ensure that the eligibility of both prospective and currently-enrolled student-athletes is protected and preserved. Your efforts to know and follow the NCAA legislation are greatly appreciated because violations could affect the eligibility of involved prospects or student-athletes and/or result in NCAA penalties being imposed on the University.

To that end, it should be our goal, as the best alumni and fans in the country, to preserve and protect each and every student-athlete's eligibility. All NCAA legislation cannot be covered in a limited space such as this page. Therefore, any additional questions should be forwarded to the Compliance Office in the department of athletics. The Notre Dame Alumni Association was established in 1868, some 26 years after the University's founding. Father Neal Gillespie, C.S.C., was elected the first president of the Notre Dame Alumni Association, then comprised of just a few hundred graduates — while the current membership reaches nearly 110,000.

Leadership — Several Alumni Association staff are former Notre Dame student-athletes, led by executive director Chuck Lennon (a catcher with the Irish baseball team in the early 1960s) and another former Irish baseball player, Scott Siler ('82), who serves as the Association's director of information technology.

Membership — Any person who holds a graduate or undergraduate degree from Notre Dame and any person who has matriculated at the University and is approved for membership by the Alumni Board of Directors shall be a regular member of the Alumni Association.

Alumni Clubs — An alumni club is one of the most viable channels through which the University is perceived by local communities. The Alumni Association helps coordinate activities of 214 domestic alumni clubs and 56 international chapters.

Reunion Weekend — Traditionally held the first weekend in June, Alumni Reunion is the largest campus program sponsored by the Alumni Association. Each five-year class is invited to participate. The program offers exciting and rewarding events for some 3,500 alumni and their spouses.

Notre Dame Magazine — This publication, distributed four times a year, is sent to all alumni as well as parents of current students. News contributed by class officers is featured in the section entitled, "The Classes."

The Alumni Newsletter — This publication is distributed three times a year and highlights people, programs and events that are related to the Alumni Association, including local alumni activities.

Visitors' Center — The Eck Visitors' Center, located on the south end of campus on Notre Dame Avenue

(next to the Hammes Bookstore), offers a meeting and resting place for visitors, in addition to providing a summary of the University's history. Display cases line the walls of the center, featuring University information and artifacts. A lighted aerial map gives a visual overview of campus and interactive kiosks allow visitors to take a virtual tour of the campus. A number of sculptures are on display, including the work of the late world-renowned artist and Notre Dame professor Ivan Mestrovic. An auditorium offers a DVD movie that chronicles Notre Dame's tradition and excellence in academics and athletics and its commitment to spirituality.

Notre Dame Monogram Club: "Bridging the Gap Between Legend and Legacy"

The Notre Dame Monogram Club is comprised of some 3,500 individuals who have earned the University's varsity athletic insignia for their athletic or team-support endeavors or who have been honorary-monogram recipients. The club supports the primary goal of the University: the spiritual, intellectual and physical development of its students and alumni. By providing its members the opportunity to foster and maintain relationships across different sports, generations and geographical locations, the Monogram Club aspires to contribute — through the common bond of sport — to the social and professional enrichment of its members while providing a means for ongoing association with the University. As an integral part of the Notre Dame family, the Monogram Club endeavors to uphold and enrich the great tradition of Notre Dame athletics.

One of the organization's primary functions continues to be providing aid to children of Monogram Club members to attend Notre Dame, through the Brennan-Boland-Riehle Scholarship Fund. The fund is named in honor of Joe Boland, Rev. Thomas Brennan, C.S.C., and Rev. James Riehle, C.S.C. Monogram Club members donate to the fund, and the University handles the principal funds, with interest providing scholarship money. The fund has grown to approximately $3 million, making it one of Notre Dame's largest endowments.

Since the fund's inception in 1979, there have been 131 recipients whose combined scholarship allocations are nearly $2 million — including 45 sons and daughters of Monogram Club members who attended Notre Dame in 2004-05.

In 1976, at a meeting called by 1949 Heisman Trophy winner Leon Hart, the Monogram Club developed its bylaws, recommending that the purpose of the club was to foster all the principles of the University in its academic, athletic, religious and social endeavors along with promoting camaraderie between former athletes and alumni.

During the Monogram Club presidency of Harvey Foster in 1981, he recommended that an endowment fund be started for the express purpose of aiding the University in continuing non-revenue sports. During the next 15 months, nearly $8 million was pledged and paid into the endowment fund. Endowment contributions still are accepted but more recently the Monogram Club's efforts have been directed to increasing the Brennan-Boland-Riehle Fund.

In 1984, during the presidency of Jim Lynch, the club received permission to construct a Sports Heritage Hall in the concourse of the Joyce Center. The first phase was to provide a ring of gold which names each monogram winner, alphabetically by decade, with those plans reaching fruition in 1987 when some 4,300 names were placed in gold letters on the oak panels (nearly 1,700 names later were added in 2001, honoring monogram winners from the 1990s).

The second phase of the Heritage Hall involved building display cases showing various pieces of memorabilia, pictures of individuals and teams, trophies of various awards and other interesting objects detailing the history of Notre Dame athletics. An interactive web-based kiosk recently has been added to the Heritage Hall, with the kiosk's offerings including data on every all-time Notre Dame monogram winner and an elaborate searching mechanism that can sort monogram winners based on a wide variety of biographical categories.

The Monogram Club's ever-growing list of events and projects included the following activities during 2004-05:

- Sponsorship of student-athletes who participated in various domestic and international summer-service projects, as coordinated by Notre Dame's Center for Social Concerns
- Funding aid for the Notre Dame men's golf invitational and foreign trips by the women's soccer team (Brazil) and the men's swimming and diving team (Ireland)
- Continuing financial assistance ($100,000 in '04-'05) to programs benefiting current student-athletes, via the student welfare initiative (in conjunction with the athletic department's student welfare/life skills programs)
- An expanded student-athlete outreach and education program that includes the continued sponsorship of the annual "OSCARS" all-sports banquet (with specific funding for the popular multi-segment, all-sports highlight video), an informative brochure targeted to student-athletes and continued sponsorship of the varsity monogram awards program (letter jackets, blazers, blankets, rings, and watches)
- The continuing program of providing laptop computers to the Academic Services for Student-Athletes, with student-athletes able to check out these computers for use during official team travel; and ongoing funding and presentation of BIG EAST-championship rings and NCAA-participation awards for Notre Dame teams and individuals

Other recent Monogram Club projects have included:

- A joint effort with the network of local Notre Dame alumni clubs, providing 13 team hosting events (such as receptions and cultural events) in '04-'05 for Notre Dame varsity programs as they travel throughout the country
- The return of a series of football-weekend receptions for Monogram Club members and their guests, held in the Joyce Center prior to each home football game (the final home game also typically includes a unique thrill for all former monogram winners in attendance, who form the pregame tunnel as the Irish team takes the field)
- Continuing an expanded sponsorship of the annual Blue-Gold Football Alumni Weekend that includes the alumni flag-football game and an interactive Friday-night dinner (attended by 500-plus) with the program's current players and coaches
- The organization of several popular events, including the third annual Football Fantasy Camp, the second Adult Tennis Camp and the annual Monogram Club golf outing (held during reunion weekend)

Monogram Club members annually greet the Notre Dame football team as it takes the field prior to the final home game.

- Expanded offerings and unique content on the official Monogram Club website at www.ndmonogramclub.com (also linked via und.com)
- An ever-increasing list of member benefits, including the quarterly Inside Irish newsletter (now available via e-mail, in PDF format)
- And the traditional awarding of honorary monograms — presented on an annual basis to a select group of individuals who have demonstrated exceptional service to Notre Dame — in conjunction with the announcement of the Monogram Club's annual Moose Krause Distinguished Service Award

The Monogram Club of today is comprised of some 3,500 dues-paying members and current student-athletes who are awarded the block ND with a jacket or blazer. Yearly dues entitle members to a variety of benefits: annual golf outing and dinner; membership card; the Inside Irish publication, with first-class mailing; members' children eligible for Brennan-Boland-Riehle scholarship at Notre Dame; and ticket applications for home football games. The Club's annual golf outing, mass for deceased members, dinner and meeting typically is held in early June on the Thursday of the Notre Dame Alumni Reunion Weekend.

Assistant athletic director Jim Fraleigh has served as the Monogram Club's executive director since the fall of 2004 while the current president is former volleyball player Julie Pierson Doyle (the first female president in the history of the Monogram Club). The second vice-president is former basketball player Marc Kelly while former Academic All-America football player Joe Restic has joined the officer rotation as second vice-president.

Statement of Principles

Throughout its long and proud history, the University of Notre Dame has embraced the philosophy that a well-rounded athletics program — including club, intramural and intercollegiate competition — comprises an integral part of Notre Dame's educational mission.

This philosophy reflects the importance of operating an intercollegiate athletics program that fully comports with the University's aspirations as a Catholic institution. Notre Dame therefore dedicates itself to the pursuit of excellence in intercollegiate athletics within the framework of an academic community committed to the University's educational and religious objectives.

Notre Dame also commits itself to the unquestioned integrity of its athletics programs. All individuals involved, directly or indirectly, in the athletics enterprise must maintain and foster the values and goals associated with the University's mission as a Catholic institution of higher education.

As a Catholic university, Notre Dame espouses Christian values and principles. These include the development of the human person — spirit as well as body — in addition to the pursuit of excellence in all endeavors, the nurturing of Christian character, and the call to personal integrity and responsibility. By providing a general description of the structures that support these endeavors, this document articulates the central values and expectations that guide the University of Notre Dame's participation in intercollegiate athletics.

PRESIDENTIAL CONTROL

Notre Dame adheres to the principle of presidential control over intercollegiate athletics. The director of athletics reports to the president, who exercises ultimate responsibility for the conduct of the University's intercollegiate athletics program. The Faculty Board on Athletics serves as the principal advisory group to the president on educational issues related to intercollegiate athletics. The chair of the Faculty Board on Athletics also serves as the NCAA-mandated faculty athletics representative.

Basic Principles

1. The Faculty Board on Athletics nurtures Notre Dame's commitment to academic integrity within the athletics program, strives to ensure that the University's athletics program operates in consonance with Notre Dame's educational mission, and actively promotes the welfare and educational success of the University's student-athletes. The Board also functions as a formal liaison between the faculty and the athletics department.

In carrying out its charge, the Board reviews policies, procedures and practices that affect the educational experience of student-athletes and advises the president of its findings and deliberations. The Board systematically ascertains the views and concerns of student-athletes. The Board reviews data on admissions of student-athletes and on their academic performance, progress towards degrees, and graduation rates. The Board assesses the effectiveness of institutional support for student-athletes. In addition, the Board sets guidelines for the approval of all student petitions for fifth years of eligibility for athletics and votes on each such petition. The Board establishes guidelines for all intercollegiate athletics schedules and qualifications for captaincy of all University teams, and it votes on all proposed schedules and captaincy nominations. The Board also assesses and revises procedures for resolving prospective conflicts between final examinations and post-season championship events.

In its role as a liaison to the broader faculty, the Faculty Board disseminates appropriate, non-confidential information and initiates discussions on educational issues regarding intercollegiate athletics and the related concerns of the faculty and administration.

2. The faculty athletics representative champions academic integrity, promotes the welfare of student-athletes, and helps ensure institutional control of intercollegiate athletics. More specifically, the faculty athletics representative works with the president and the director of athletics to maintain appropriate University oversight of intercollegiate athletics; assists the president and director of athletics in determining institutional positions on proposed NCAA and conference legislation; serves on search committees for senior athletics administrators and head coaches; oversees decisions regarding eligibility of student-athletes; remains visible and available to student-athletes; and actively participates in all investigations and reports of possible NCAA violations.

ACADEMICS

Notre Dame dedicates itself to providing to all of its students an outstanding education. The University commits itself to developing in its students those disciplined habits of mind, body and spirit that characterize educated, skilled and free human beings. Notre Dame calls its students to pursue the wisdom of our culture and religious heritage and to experience the human family's diversity and interdependence. To accomplish these objectives, the University provides to its students, on an equitable basis, ongoing opportunities to cultivate their moral, intellectual and physical well-being.

Basic Principles

1. Any student hoping to succeed at the University needs a significant level of ability and preparation. Therefore, the Office of Undergraduate Admissions will accept into the University only those student-athletes who demonstrate, on the basis of the best available academic and character-based information, the capacity to complete a degree at Notre Dame.

2. Even for individuals manifestly well-suited for Notre Dame, the adjustments to the rigors of academic and athletic life in a highly-competitive university present difficulties. The University recognizes its responsibility to provide appropriate assistance to enable student-athletes to meet the demands of both academic and athletic competition. To this end, the University affords its student-athletes suitable academic counsel and support, primarily under the auspices of the provost's office. Other sources of support, both academic and personal, include the faculty, academic advisors, the residence-hall staff, coaches, athletics administrators and the Student Development Program.

3. The University strives to schedule practices and competitions so as to minimize conflicts with class periods and other academic assignments of student-athletes. In this regard, the rhythm of the academic year and the particular importance of final examinations warrant special attention. All playing schedules remain subject to the approval of the Faculty Board on Athletics.

4. Notre Dame expects its student-athletes to maintain the appropriate sequence and number of courses and the grade-point-average necessary to complete a degree within the usual time (normally four years), including summer classes when appropriate. Any exception to this policy remains subject to the approval of the Faculty Board on Athletics.

STUDENT LIFE

Like other students, student-athletes should have the opportunity to pursue fully the University's academic, cultural and spiritual resources. The University holds student-athletes not only to the same standard of conduct that applies to other students, but also to that higher level of behavior appropriate to their visibility.

Basic Principles

1. Student-athletes must comply with all University rules and guidelines, including those set out in both the student handbook, du Lac, and in the Student-Athlete Handbook. The Office of Residence Life and Housing enforces the University-wide rules according to procedures applicable to all student disciplinary matters.

2. The University strives to integrate student-athletes into the student body so that all students may take full advantage of the educational and other opportunities afforded by campus and hall life. Given the centrality of residential life to the University's mission, student-athletes normally live in residence halls; exceptions to this policy remain subject to the approval of the Faculty Board on Athletics. Moreover, Notre Dame provides no separate residence halls or sections of residence halls for student-athletes.

3. The University lists among its primary concerns the physical and mental health of all members of the Notre Dame community. Because of the dangers inherent in athletic competition, the prevention of injuries and the provision of medical care for student-athletes demand particular concern and deserve constant attention. The appropriate sports-medicine and athletics-training personnel alone determine whether injury or illness precludes a student-athlete from practicing or competing.

4. Because of the harm that illicit drug use causes and the pressure on student-athletes to use performance-enhancing drugs, drug-related education and counseling require particular emphasis. As a preventive measure, all student-athletes remain subject to regular, random, and unannounced drug testing according to the University's established drug-testing protocol. University Health Services decides the timing of drug tests, determines whom to test and administers the tests. The drug-testing protocol prescribes the treatment of test results and the consequences of a positive test.

5. Notre Dame regularly provides chaplains for athletics teams. Chaplains' duties include pastoral care and liturgical services for student-athletes, coaches and staff.

COACHING STAFFS

The University strives to maintain a staff of coaches who represent the best in athletic instruction, who possess the ability to motivate and inspire, and who take responsibility for the full development of the student-athletes within their charge as students, athletes and persons. Coaches, who after all are primarily teachers, share with members of the faculty and other University personnel the obligation to educate, train and otherwise assist in the formation of students entrusted to them. Furthermore, Notre Dame recognizes the important role each coach plays in the University's overall educational mission and makes this aspect an important part of both the coach's position description and periodic evaluation. Because of the public nature of their work, coaches represent Notre Dame in a highly-visible manner. Their words and actions should therefore reflect the University's values and principles.

Basic Principles

1. Notre Dame expects the personal and professional lives of its coaches to reflect highest standards of behavior. Coaches' actions must demonstrate that athletic success may not jeopardize institutional or personal integrity or student-athlete welfare.

2. Notre Dame expects its coaches to appreciate the primacy of academic life at Notre Dame and to emphasize that primacy during the recruitment and education of student-athletes and their participation in intercollegiate athletics.

3. Notre Dame requires its coaches to adhere to the policies and procedures of the University, its conferences and the NCAA. To that end, Notre Dame provides a comprehensive orientation to new coaches and suitable continuing education to other coaches. The University treats seriously all violations of University, conference or NCAA standards and reports such violations according to the applicable conference or NCAA procedures.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS

The director of athletics and the other administrators in the department of athletics supervise all activities of the athletics program at the University. All aspects of the program must accord with the principles of justice and fairness. In addition, Notre Dame expects the personal and professional lives of its athletics administrators to reflect the highest standards of behavior. Athletics administrators also must adhere to the policies and procedures of the University, its conferences and the NCAA. The University treats all violations of such policies and procedures seriously.

Basic Principles

1. The University maintains full and direct control of the financial operations of the athletics department, including all revenues. The operating budget and the ongoing financial activities of the athletics department remain subject to the same approval process as all other units of the University.

2. Historically, Notre Dame's athletics program has generated funds sufficient to cover its expenses, as well as to provide funds for the University's general operating budget. The generation of revenue must always take into consideration Notre Dame's integrity and priorities.

3. The University commits itself to the principle of racial, ethnic and gender diversity in the composition of its coaching and administrative staffs. Notre Dame will make every reasonable effort to promote this commitment as positions are created or vacated.

4. Consistent with its overall academic mission and program, its financial resources and the athletic interests of its student body, the University will provide a full and stable athletics program for both sexes. Notre Dame embraces the principle of gender equity and will continue to monitor its intercollegiate programs in accord with this principle.

5. In considering conference affiliations, the University will assess the extent to which the other institutions involved share Notre Dame's educational philosophies and goals, as well as its commitment to integrity in intercollegiate athletics.

CONCLUSION

Notre Dame endeavors to maintain a highly-competitive athletics program consistent with its tradition, heritage and overall mission as a Catholic university. It will attempt to excel in intercollegiate athletics, but always in conformity with its primary role as an educator and moral guide. Notre Dame will conduct its intercollegiate athletics program so as to support the University's commitment to education, as well as the letter and spirit of the policies and procedures of the University, its conferences and the NCAA.

Many observers often are surprised to discover that Notre Dame's total enrollment encompasses fewer than 12,000 students per year. That surprise is due in part to the University's national appeal, but it also is due to the many noteworthy Notre Dame alumni who have gone on to distinguish themselves in a wide variety of fields.

Listings on this page are simply a sampling of the many noteworthy individuals who have spent their formative years in academia at Notre Dame. A more detailed list can be found at www.nd.edu (follow the alumni link), and some additional noteworthy alumni are included on the athletic heritage page later in this section.

DIRECTORS' CUP STANDINGS

After peaking at a program-best first, Notre Dame finished 16th in the final standings released in the 2004-05 United States Sports Academy Division I Directors' Cup all-sports competition sponsored by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (formerly known as Sears Directors' Cup).

Notre Dame was among 12 schools to earn a top-20 finish for the fifth straight year. Irish programs finished 11th in 2000-01, 13th in '01-'02 and '02-'03, and 19th in '03-'04. The other schools with that distinction include five from the Pacific-10 Conference (Stanford, UCLA, California, Arizona State and Arizona) and two each from the Big Ten (Michigan and Ohio State) and Southeastern (Florida and Georgia) conferences, plus Big-12 team Texas and North Carolina of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

FALL

Fall NCAA competition earned the Irish 337 points based on their NCAA title in women's soccer (100 points), their fourth-place finish in women's cross country (80 points), their 11th-place finish in men's cross country (57 points) and their second-round NCAA appearances in both men's soccer and volleyball (50 points each).

Notre Dame finished the fall seasons in first place – marking the first time in the 12-year history of the program that Notre Dame ranked number one. The highest ranking for the Irish prior to 2004-05 had been third in the final fall standings in both 1996-97 and 2002-03.

Current senior Molly Huddle has earned All-America accolades on eight occasions.

Notre Dame placed 16th in the 2004-05 NACDA Directors' Cup competition.

WINTER

Winter competition netted Notre Dame 203 points – based on its NCAA combined men's and women's championship in fencing (50 points), a 24th-place NCAA finish in women's swimming and diving (49.5 points), a 20th-place NCAA finish in men's indoor track and field (53.5 points) and a second-round NCAA appearance in women's basketball (50 points).

SPRING

Spring sports play netted 248 points, thanks to NCAA participation in baseball (tied for 17th, 50 points based on regional runner-up finish), women's golf (52nd, 21 points), men's golf (tied for 37th, 35 points), softball (tied for 17th, 50 points based on regional appearance), women's tennis (tied for 17th, 50 points), men's tennis (tied for 33rd, 25 points) and women's track and field (55th, 17 points).

HISTORICAL PERFORMANCE

In previous years in which the Directors' Cup competition has been held, Notre Dame has finished 11th in 1993-94, 30th in 1994-95, 11th in 1995-96, 14th in 1996-97, tied for 31st in 1997-98, 25th in 1998-99, 21st in 1999-2000, 11th in 2000-01, 13th in 2001-02, tied for 13th in 2002-03 and 19th in 2003-04.

Twenty-four of Notre Dame's 26 varsity sports have scored points for the Irish in the NACDA Cup. Leading the way are the men's and women's fencing programs, which have used 10 consecutive top-three finishes at the NCAAs to contribute 766 points since fencing was added to the NACDA Cup in 1995-96.

NACDA

Directors' Cup

Women's soccer is next, having contributed 751.5 points, highlighted by seven national-semifinal appearances and a pair of titles ('95, '04). It also stands as one of two teams – along with women's volleyball – to have scored points in the NACDA Cup in all 12 years. Ten of Notre Dame's sports have contributed points on 10 or more occasions, while 17 have scored in at least half of the NACDA-Cup competitions.

The Directors' Cup competition honors institutions that maintain athletic programs that seek to achieve success in many sports, both men's and women's. Begun in 1993-94 for Division I by NACDA and USA Today, the program was expanded in 1995-96 to include Divisions II, III, and the NAIA. Each institution is awarded points in a pre-determined number of sports for men and women (10 each in Division I). The overall champion is the institution that records the highest number of points in their division's United States Sports Academy Division I Directors' Cup standings.

From the days of Knute Rockne, when Eugene "Scrap Iron" Young began providing care to student-athletes, the Notre Dame athletic training department has evolved into a fully-staffed sports medicine team with three state-of-the-art facilities.

Head athletic trainer and physical therapist Jim Russ oversees a staff of three associate and seven assistant athletic trainers that is responsible for the more than 750 student-athletes at the University. The entire sports medicine staff is certified by the National Athletic Trainers' Association and boasts more than 150 years of collective experience.

Each staff member is responsible for the health care of at least two of Notre Dame's varsity athletic teams. Duties in that role include evaluating and assessing athletic injuries, administering first aid, making medical referrals, establishing treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries and educating student-athletes on nutrition and injury prevention.

The athletic training department is under the direct supervision of several sports medicine physicians. University directors of sports medicine Dr. Willard Yergler and Dr. Jim Moriarity serve as the student-athletes' primary care physicians, while Dr. Becky Moskwinski, Dr. David Bankoff, Dr. Fred Ferlic, Dr. Robert Clemency, Dr.

Michael Yergler and Dr. Chris Balint tend to the orthopedic needs of the Fighting Irish. A host of medical consultants is also available for specific needs ranging from cardiology to dermatology.

The Notre Dame student-athlete has access to three state-of-the-art sports-medicine facilities, in addition to the 24-hour University Health Center. The original athletic-training room is located in the Joyce Center. Notre Dame Football Stadium is home to the 3,300-square-foot athletic training room, and the newest addition to the sports-medicine department is located in the new Guglielmino Athletics Center. The facility opened in August of 2005 and is more than 8,500 square feet of cutting-edge sports-medicine technology. Through these facilities all student-athletes have access to the most-modern sports medicine, including the latest in physical therapy modalities and rehabilitation equipment, which includes two 3,500-gallon therapy pools. A full x-ray unit and an MRI machine make up the majority of the department's diagnostic equipment.

Irish athletics receive the finest in sports medicine care from the team of athletic trainers and physicians.

The sports medicine team of athletic trainers and team physicians is committed to providing the most comprehensive and safest health care possible. Evaluations, treatments and rehabilitation are established for each individual, with the goal of returning the student-athletes to competitive status in the safest and quickest manner possible.

Strength & Conditioning

The Notre Dame strength and conditioning program is designed to provide each student-athlete with the most productive, effective and efficient means of sport-specific physical training. Led by director of strength and conditioning Ruben Mendoza, the Irish strength and conditioning staff has a simple philosophy that combines a "no nonsense" approach with an "old school" attitude.

The staff offers a well-balanced, well-rounded program by incorporating a variety of training methods from conjugate training to Olympic-style movements. Everything the staff does is geared toward developing speed, power and strength.

The staff wants to teach Notre Dame student-athletes work ethic, discipline and pride with a relentless attitude to strive for, and win, championships.

When entering the Haggar Fitness Complex (shared by the Loftus Sports Center and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex) student-athletes are quickly reminded of the "roll-up-your-sleeves" and "get-to-work" mentality that Mendoza and his staff inspires.

One of the eye-catching features of the Haggar Fitness Complex, a 25,000 square foot facility shared by the Guglielmino Athletics Complex and the Loftus Center, are two variable weight sleds installed in the summer of 2005.

The Haggar Fitness Complex features 25,000 square feet of workout space with a three-lane speed development track (40 yards in length), a state-of-the-art sound system with 28 speakers and four sub woofers, six giant plasma screen televisions, a 45 x 18 yard Prestige Turf plyometric agility area and a Gatorade hydration station.

The Notre Dame strength and conditioning staff has seven full-time coaches and four intern coaches - Mendoza, assistant director Tony Rolinski, assistants Lon Record, Mike Joseph, Lisa Shall, Kelly Howe, Kyle Bourber, Brian Herzog, Harold Swanagan, nutritionist Mandy Clark, and speed/skill development coach Shawn Gaunt - providing a large enough group to meet student-athlete needs. The staff has developed an environment where student-athletes want to come to get better, so they can achieve athletic success.

College Football Hall of Fame

The 161-year old campus of the University of Notre Dame is famous not only for its legendary football team but also the mystique of its 1,250-acre campus. Founded as a school for young men by Father Edward Sorin, C.S.C., the University became co-educational in 1972 and now boasts a student population of approximately 11,000.

The Basilica of the Sacred Heart, the 14-story Hesburgh Library with its 132-foot high mural depicting Christ the Teacher and the University's 121-year-old Main Building with its famed Golden Dome are among the most widely-known university landmarks in the world.

The history of transportation can be found at the Studebaker National Museum. The collection is housed in a building constructed in 1919 by the former Studebaker Corporation to serve as its largest dealership. More than 75 vehicles are on display including the first and last vehicles produced by Studebaker, carriages of four United States presidents and many prototype vehicles. The museum also houses an extensive archival collection.

Copshaholm, an opulent and historic 38-room mansion of noted industrialist J.D. Oliver, is a house museum filled with original furnishings from the mid-17th to 20th centuries. The Oliver family founded the Oliver Chilled Plow Works, a major international manufacturer of farm implements in the late 19th and 20th centuries.

Tippecanoe Place Restaurant, a fine continental restaurant, originally served as the home of former Studebaker Company president Clement Studebaker. Tippecanoe Place was completed in 1889 at a cost of a little more than $300,000. The home contains 40 rooms, 20 fireplaces and a beautiful chandelier.

Whether you're a casual enthusiast or a diehard fan, every day will feel like a Saturday afternoon in autumn at the College Football Hall of Fame. The game of college football comes to life through interactive exhibits, video, photo galleries, sound and the nation's largest collection of football memorabilia. This 58,000-square-foot facility reflects the look of a traditional football stadium. More than 900 players and coaches are enshrined in the hall.

Other points of interest include a walking tour of the campus of Saint Mary's College, voted the premier women's Catholic college in the nation; the Hannah Lindahl Children's Museum and the Kidsfirst Children's Museum — two children's hands-on museums. HealthWorks! Kids' Museum offers interactive exhibit areas where children can explore the miracle of their mind and body. The Morris Performing Arts Center, which reopened in March 2000 after a two-year renovation, is one of the oldest historic theaters in Indiana, hosting touring Broadway shows, symphony concerts and national touring concert artists. The Palais Royale — the Ballroom at the Morris Performing Arts Center, built in 1923, and newly restored to its exceptional beauty — reopened in 2003.

Additional points of interest include the South Bend Regional Museum of Art, the public art museum of the greater South Bend area with collections focusing on contemporary and historical American art, and Shiojiri Niwa Friendship Gardens, the beautiful Japanese garden located on 1.3 acres in Mishawaka's Merrifield Park.

Recreation abounds in South Bend/Mishawaka. Enjoy rafting and kayaking the East Race Waterway — the first artificial white water course in North America and one of only six in the world — or try fishing and canoeing on the St. Joseph River. Potato Creek State Park, Indiana's second-largest state park, is located only 20 minutes southwest of downtown South Bend.

Hiking, biking, canoeing, inner tubing, cross-country skiing and nature trails are found at the four county parks and 90 city parks.

Potawatomi Zoo, the oldest zoo in the state of Indiana, is home to hundreds of animals from around the world. Golfers will be challenged at Blackthorn and Juday Creek, two of Indiana's top 10 public courses, and the Warren Golf Course on the University of Notre Dame campus. During the summer, enjoy the South Bend Silver Hawks, the Class A minor league affiliate of the Arizona Diamondbacks baseball team. You also can enjoy a variety of University of Notre Dame sports almost any time of year.

Arts and entertainment can be found throughout the year with events and festivals of all kinds. The Firefly Festival for the Performing Arts, South Bend's 'Summer in the City Festival' and Mishawaka's Summerfest offer visitors outdoor entertainment and a variety of foods to tempt the palate. Mishawaka is the destination for shoppers with University Park Mall and the Grape Road Shopping District, the second largest retail concentration in Indiana, offering many fine restaurants and nightspots.

BEST OF BOTH WORLDS – The Notre Dame athletic department continues to emerge as one of the highest-rated in the nation ... a 2004 report by the National Collegiate Scouting Association listed Notre Dame third (behind Stanford and Duke) in Division I-A rankings for schools with the top combination of academics and athletics, based on student-athlete graduation rates, the U.S. News and World Report rankings (academic) and the annual Directors' Cup all-sports standings.

A SPORTY CAMPUS – A Sports Illustrated feature on "America's Top Jock Schools" crowned UCLA No. 1, with Notre Dame a close runner-up ... the profile cited the Bengal Bouts campus-wide boxing tournament that benefits the Holy Cross Mission, Bookstore Basketball (the world's largest five-on-five basketball tournament) and intramural football in full pads (with the title game in Notre Dame Stadium) – plus the fact that 75 percent of Notre Dame undergrads lettered in high-school sports.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE – The success of Notre Dame athletics extends to the classroom:

* All 22 athletics programs at Notre Dame exceeded the NCAA's new academic performance standard introduced in 2005, with 13 Irish teams scoring a perfect 1,000 ... the Academic Progress Rate (APR) uses a series of formulas related to student-athlete retention and eligibility ... Notre Dame registered an overall APR of 979 and had the third-highest percentage of teams with perfect scores (the national average APR for Division I-A institutions was 944) ... the APRs would be substantially higher if Notre Dame certified eligibility using the NCAA process rather than its own, more stringent, standard that certifies academic records on a semester-by-semester basis ... if Notre Dame certified student-athletes at mid-year using only the six-hour requirement, its overall APR would increase to better than 990.

* In the previous format of the NCAA graduation-rate report (last released in Nov., 2004), Notre Dame ranked second in the survey covering student-athletes who enrolled between '94-'97, based on the raw percentage of those who entered and graduated within six years (those who left or transferred were considered non-graduates) ... ND's 87% graduation rate ranked behind only Duke and was well above the national average (61%) ... among those who entered between '94-'97 and completed four years of eligibility at Notre Dame, 99% earned their degrees.

* Notre Dame student-athletes combined to post a 4.0 semester GPA 20 times in the 2005 spring semester ... those of note who posted 4.0s in the spring of 2005 included soccer players Mary Boland and John Stephens, track standouts Maryann Erigha and Sunni Olding and swimmer Kelli Barton.

SPANNING THE GLOBE – Similar to the composition of the Notre Dame student body, the 26 current varsity teams include student-athletes from nearly every state ... Notre Dame's 2004-05 varsity rosters included some 700 student-athletes who hailed from 44 states (all but Hawaii, Maine, Mississippi, Utah, West Virginia and Wyoming), plus six Canadian provinces and 19 other foreign countries: Austria, Cayman Islands, Colombia, Czech Republic, El Salvador, England, Finland, Germany, Guatemala, Hong Kong, Iceland, Ireland, Jamaica, Korea, Luxembourg, Mexico, Poland, Singapore and South Africa.

A TRADITION OF SUCCESS

* Notre Dame has claimed 25 all-time NCAA team titles: 11 in football ('24, '29, '30, '43, '46, '47, '49, '66, '73, '77, '88), seven in fencing (men in '77, '78 and '86, women in '87, combined in '94, '03, '05), two in women's soccer ('95, '04) and men's tennis ('44, '59), and one each in men's golf ('44), men's cross country ('57) and women's basketball ('01) ... the 2004-05 academic year saw Notre Dame win two NCAA titles (women's soccer and combined fencing) for the third time in the athletic department's history (also men's golf and men's tennis in '43-'44 and football and men's fencing in '77-'78).

*Individuals noted by asterisks also were student-athletes at Notre Dame, primarily in the same sport with which they now are affiliated (Tommy Hawkins played basketball with the Irish; Mike Golic, Gene Smith, Steve Orsini and Larry Williams were football players, Forrest Karr played hockey and Mike Bobinski and Rick Chryst were baseball players).

* Notre Dame's decade-long domination as a member of the BIG EAST Conference has included winning an unprecedented 10 official BIG EAST championships (based on tournament finish or regular-season standings) in 2004-05, besting the nine titles won by the Irish in '02-'03 and '03-'04 as the most ever by one school in a single academic year ... Notre Dame's official BIG EAST titles in '04-'05 included six men's sports (cross country, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, golf, tennis and baseball) plus women's volleyball, swimming and diving, rowing and tennis ... when including regular-season titles in sports that also sponsor a postseason tournament, an unprecedented 13 Notre Dame teams (out of 21 that participate in the BIG EAST) won a BIG EAST regular-season and/or tournament title in 2004-05, with men's soccer, women's soccer, volleyball and softball capturing regular-season crowns ... a total of 18 Notre Dame teams (out of 21) finished first or second in 2004-05 BIG EAST play.

* Notre Dame's total of nearly 900 All-Americans includes 24 who have been four-year All-Americans and 44 who have coupled All-America and Academic All-America honors in the same season.
