Dave Cashen '97

Academic All-America defenseman
Columbia University Medical School

"Nowhere in the country could I have found such a good education and a school surrounded by students who love their school, what it stands for and most of all their classmates. I was able to combine this with four years of competitive lacrosse on a team nationally-ranked, well-coached and most of all, created by 35 teammates devoted to each other on and off the field. It is a great feeling to have 35 friends always to support, encourage and entertain you, especially two years later."

Irish Reflections...

Mike Iorio '95

Three-time All-America defenseman Employed at American National Bank in Chicago, Ill.

"Notre Dame lacrosse provided me with four years of fun and excitement, and it continues to be a part of my life. As a freshman in 1992, I was a part of the team that had the program's first top-10 win. By my senior year, we had accomplished what no other NCAA Division I men's lacrosse team had ever done - the No. 12 seed knocked off the No. 5 seed in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. In the four years that came between these two historic Notre Dame lacrosse events, I received a great education, developed the teamwork and time management skills that I utilize every day in the banking world and built friendships that will last me a lifetime."

Kevin O'Connor '89

Captain of the 1989 team

U.S. Attorney for the state of Connecticut

"As a candidate for United State Congress, I was amazed at the amount of attention given by the media and voters to my having served as captain of the lacrosse team at the University of Notre Dame. Indeed, of all the activities in which I have been involved, my experience as a lacrosse player at Notre Dame was the most valuable in the campaign. The traits that make Notre Dame athletics special in the eyes of the public - sportsmanship, integrity and success - are of equal value in the political arena."

Jimmy Keenan '98

Three-time honorable mention
All-America midfielder

Employed as an accountant at UBS in New York City and was a member of the
New York Saints of the National Lacrosse League

"The decision to attend Notre Dame and play lacrosse there has turned out to be the most gratifying decision of my life thus far. This unique University fulfilled all I could have wished for as a high school senior. As a school, it offers everything from academics to athletics to nightlife and a campus atmosphere that can only be summed up with the cliché 'Notre Dame Family.' The experience, memories and friends that I have accumulated over my four years there have really defined who I am today. Playing lacrosse at Notre Dame, with its tradition and history, was certainly the proudest and most memorable experience for me. The team and the University will always remain a part of my life for it is truly a family."

Moose Krause Stadium has been the home of Notre Dame lacrosse since its construction in 1988. The venue has seen a multitude of big games and top players.

The facility, named after former director of athletics Edward W. "Moose" Krause, is located just east of the Joyce Center on the Cartier Field complex and has a seating capacity of 5,000 and also is used by the Irish track and field squads.

Krause Stadium features 2,500 permanent bleachers on both sides of the 70 x 120-yard grass field. The stands are raised so that the first row of seats measures six feet above field level for better viewing, and there is ample room for wheelchair seating. The field itself is surrounded by a nine-lane Mondo track, the fastest surface of its kind in the world.

The Irish have had considerable success at home, posting a 89-26 (.774) record since Krause Stadium was built. That includes six undefeated campaigns and 20 victories over ranked opponents. Each of the first six ranked opponents to travel to Krause Stadium were defeated by the Irish. The biggest win at Krause Stadium was a 10-9 victory over #4 Hofstra on April 4, 1997.

Arlotta Stadium

Arlotta Stadium will become the new home for the Notre Dame men's and women's lacrosse programs upon completion, which is scheduled for June of 2009. Construction of the facility will begin in August of 2008. Conceptual plans suggest a 2,000-seat, lighted stadium that would include an artificial-turf field, locker rooms, restrooms and concession areas.

The state-of-the-art facility is named after Notre Dame graduate John Arlotta, president and chief executive officer of Denver-based Coram Inc. He and his wife Bobbie pledged the lead gift toward the stadium to be built to the east of the Joyce Center as part of the University's new athletics quadrangle. The Arlotta children - Mindy, Andy and Jon - also have pledged an additional gift from The Arlotta Family Foundation toward the project. In addition to their generous donation, alumni and friends of the lacrosse programs have donated over two million dollars.

Loftus Sports Center

The Loftus Sports Center combines with Krause Stadium to give the University of Notre Dame some of the top lacrosse facilities in the country. Constructed in 1988, it is one of just six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games.

The Loftus Center provides Notre Dame with one of the top multi-purpose indoor facilities in the nation. Complete with the 120-yard synthetic turf Meyo Field, six-lane 352-yard Mondo indoor track and a 9,000-square-foot weight room, it is used by several Irish athletic programs.

The Isban Auditorium within the Guglielmino Athletics Complex provides an ideal setting for team meetings. The auditorium can seat up to 150 people in large chairback seats.

The Haggar Fitness Center, which is shared by both the Loftus Center and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, features 25,000 square feet of strength and conditioning space with state-of-the-art weight equipment, a 50-yard Mondo track for speed training, a 45-yard by 18-yard Prestige Turf athletic surface for team workouts and an updated sound and lighting system that features six plasma television screens.

The Loftus Sports Center, one of the six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games, is the site of Irish lacrosse games when inclement weather precludes them from being contested in Moose Krause Stadium.

The building is named after John R. Loftus of St. Charles, Ill., a 1949 graduate of the University. Loftus is chief executive of JRL, a real estate, investment and construction firm. Loftus is also a member of the Notre Dame Monogram Club, having played on the varsity basketball team in 1944, 1948 and 1949.

The Meyo Field in the Loftus Center offers Irish lacrosse a 55-by-110 yard synthetic turf playing surface. It was revamped in the summer of 2003 with the addition of Prestige field turf. The field and surrounding track are named for Ray and Marie Meyo of Brecksville, Ohio. Meyo, who graduated from Notre Dame in 1964, is president and chief executive officer of Telxon Corp. in Akron, Ohio, the world's largest manufacturer of portable tele-transaction computers.

The Meyo Field is permanently marked for lacrosse competition and is used as a backup site for games in the event of inclement weather. The Irish have played several contests in the Loftus Center.

In addition to the Meyo Track and Field in the Loftus Center, the Irish lacrosse squad also benefits from the Haggar Fitness Center located in the facility. Equipped with more than 40,000 pounds of free weights, it is four times the size of the weight room in the Joyce Center. It is considered by national strength coaches to be one of the largest, and finest, college training facilities in the nation.

The Irish have had considerable success at home, posting a 89-26 (.774) record since the Loftus Sports Center was built. That includes five undefeated campaigns and 20 victories over ranked opponents.

Loftus Sports Center saw its first intercollegiate lacrosse action on April 27, 1988, when Notre Dame posted a 10-7 victory over Michigan State.

A Championship with Meaning

By Todd Rassas

I had a tough start to my experience with the World Team. My office was in 7 World Trade Center and was destroyed due to the attack on Sept. 11. I was sitting at my desk at the time the first plane impacted the World Trade Center. After hearing the explosion we evacuated the building.

At this time a few agents and I ran towards the bottom of the World Trade Center to set up a triage center. While waiting for the injured to come out, we had to move under a walkway to avoid being hit by people and debris falling from the top floors. I remember bandaging a lady's hand, then hearing the second plane accelerate right before it exploded above us. I just hugged the pylon that held up the walkway in hope that the plane wouldn't crash down on us.

At this point I ran a block north to help with all of the emergency personnel trying to get closer. About 15 minutes later I ran from the first tower that fell.

A number of agents regrouped and returned to look for survivors. We got about a block and a half away from the remaining tower when I saw the top floor drop. I turned and started running for my life. All I could think of was my dad saying "when you have the ball, never look back because it makes you run slower." I thought I was going to get crushed. If the tower would have fallen a little more towards the Hudson River I would not be here today. I feel very fortunate to have survived this attack. The victims of Sept. 11 are in my thoughts and prayers every day.

I spent the next four weeks at Ground Zero while almost everyone else on my U.S. team was taking part in fall practice. The fall tournament was probably the worst time for me to be playing lacrosse. I don't even recall all of the teams that we played.

Though I was not ready to play then, I knew there would be no better time to wear red, white, and blue. I think every athlete has a dream at one time or another to wear his or her country's jersey. I remember when all this started Darren Lowe said, "Don't ever underestimate someone playing for his or her country." Every time I put my jersey on, I thought of someone from Sept. 11, or someone who told me, "You can't," or my family who traveled around the world to watch me play a game that I love.

This team was motivated by the so-called lacrosse scholars that predicted us to lose. I took criticism more personally than most of the others on the team. Growing up in Illinois, I have always had to battle the critics. I have six motivational letters at my house. The first is a rejection letter from the University of Notre Dame. After giving up a year of competitive lacrosse and spending a year at Holy Cross College in Indiana, I now have an acceptance letter from Notre Dame. The third letter is a rejection letter from the United States Secret Service based on lack of experience. Two years later I was employed by the USSS. Finally I have a letter from U.S. Lacrosse explaining how I didn't make the cut for a tryout for the 1998 U.S. Team. Now there is a letter saying I made the team and a gold medal that sits with that rejection letter.

This experience was so enjoyable because the team was told that we were the underdogs from the start. Someone e-mailed me and said that we were being displayed as the "Bad News Bears." We had to bond together.

There was not one guy on our team trying to be a superstar, well at least on the field – some could argue Ryan Mollett and Ryan Boyle were superstars in the social arena. At times on defense, Mollett, John Glatzel, and I were begging someone to shoot the ball. The offense was so unselfish in its play, its motto seemed to be, "I don't want to shoot. You shoot."

We played our first game against the Iroquois Nationals and won 22-6. Then we read an Australian newspaper with some not-so-favorable quotes from the Australian coach, along the lines that it was the Australians' year and the U.S. team is over-rated and under-talented. In warm-ups, instead of running around their half of the field, the Australians took a lap all the way around to our bench. Putting it lightly, I don't think many of our guys, especially Nicky Polanco, appreciated it. From then on it seemed as though the game was over before it started, and we won 22-7. Not too bad for being over-rated and under-talented.

Then we had to get geared up for Canada. This game was the worst display of lacrosse that I have ever seen. Canada had nearly 30 minutes of penalties. Canada was taking cheap shots and late hits to take some of our players out of the game. At one point we had a 6-on-2. We won 14-9, but everyone was disappointed with the victory due to the way that the game was played.

Next we beat England and then the Iroquois in the semi-finals to set up another game with Canada for the championship.

We had a team meeting and went over the match-ups. I was going to cover Paul Gait. I think one way or another every lacrosse player models their game after one of the Gait brothers. I had a poster of them next to my bed when I was in high school. For me, a kid from Northfield, Ill., covering Paul Gait in his last game for the world championship, even playing with the flu, I was still excited for the match-up.

Todd Rassas was a three-time All-America defenseman at Notre Dame who played an integral role in helping the U.S. men's lacrosse team win the 2002 International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) Championship in Perth, Australia, serving as team captain. Rassas also works as a Secret Service agent and took part in the 2006 World Championship.

We started the game with a three-goal lead. Then Canada made some plays to come back. It was back and forth until Canada pulled ahead by two to end the half. It was the first time this Team USA was trailing, and we were getting a little hesitant.

After regrouping we pulled ahead in the third quarter. Doug Shanahan played out of his mind in the fourth quarter. Canada realized they were short on time and called a stick check on Mike Powell. Mike's stick was illegal, and then Jimmy Butler (our team stick doctor) countered their move with a stick check on Canada's John Tavares. It was found illegal and since he scored the last goal it was taken off the board. From there we were able to run out the clock and ended up winning 18-15.

At the beginning of this quest for the gold medal we were picked to finish second or third. "Team USA can't win," said the writers. I kept all the articles. I, along with this team, took the challenge. I am happy to say we are the World Champions! Memories of Nicky Polanco in leopard-skin sandals and a red, white and blue head band, as well as the punishment Trevor Tierney had after he couldn't get past the ladies tee on the golf course will be hard memories to forget. I miss sitting on the bus and playing what-if scenarios about the Secret Service with Matt Streibel, Scott Doyle and Ryan Boyle. It was a classy group of guys that I will never forget. I can't indicate how much pride I had I wearing a USA jersey after my 9-11 experience. I hope my World Team experience motivates all those who at one time have been told that they "can't."

NOTRE DAME SEASON PREVIEW

In 2008, Sean Dougherty and the Fighting Irish defense will look to continue their success from the 2007 campaign. Notre Dame ranked fourth nationally by allowing just 6.66 goals per game last season.

Staying on Top

Irish bring back most of 2007 GWLL title team for another run

Alex Wharton had a breakthrough season in 2007 as he registered eight goals and 10 assists. The senior will be looked upon to help bolster the Irish attacking unit again in 2008.

Notre Dame enters the 2008 campaign, the 28th season of varsity lacrosse at the University, with more answers than questions. The Irish return the bulk of the '07 squad that won the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) title with a perfect 5-0 conference record. Overall, the Irish went 11-4 and fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in overtime during the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Seven starters and 17 letterwinners are back for Notre Dame, including four All-America honorees in seniors Joey Kemp, Michael Podgajny and Sean Dougherty along with sophomore Will Yeatman. Three of Notre Dame's top four goal scorers return, including Ryan Hoff, who notched a team-high 40 goals last season en route to garnering first-team all-GWLL honors.

Kemp was named the 2007 GWLL player of the year and Yeatman collected newcomer of the year honors from the league. Yeatman registered a stellar freshman season as he led the Irish in assists (25) and total points (46).

One question that the Irish will face is if they can regain the same form that helped them run off eight straight victories in '07 before the season-ending loss to the Blue Jays.

"Unfortunately, we don't get to pick up playing where we were at the end of last year," says head coach Kevin Corrigan, the 2007 GWLL coach of the year. "We start over and rebuild. We have a lot of different guys that I think can contribute at both ends of the field. We're working through those competitive situations and figuring out what the best way to put guys in to be successful. That's the challenge for us in the preseason."

Not everyone returns for the Fighting Irish, who will have to replace All-America honoree Brian Hubschmann along with Lucius Polk in the midfield. Hubschmann notched 39 points (27g, 12a) last season, while Polk also contributed a career-high 27 (18g, 9a) for the Irish, who ranked fourth nationally with an 11.65 goals per game average.

"Where the holes are from the end of last year are in the midfield," adds Corrigan. "How we fill those will say a lot about us. With that said, we're not looking at last year's team and saying how we're different. We're a whole new group. We have a whole new group of guys and we know we have a lot of guys coming back who've proven they can play at this level."

Corrigan sees good things for Notre Dame's specialty units. In 2007, the Irish man-up offense finished the season ranked third in the nation by converting on 50 percent (29 of 58) on its opportunities.

"Our specialty units last year, our man-down and man-up and faceoff group, were very good," states Corrigan. "We have to find the right people to be successful in those areas again. We were very successful with those at the end of last season."

The Fighting Irish defense ranked fourth nationally last season by allowing just 6.66 goals per game and the majority of that group returns. Dougherty and fellow senior Ross Zimmerman will team up with Kemp and look to lock down opponents once again.

In 2007, Kemp ranked fourth among all NCAA Division I goalies in goals-against average (6.78) and save percentage (.614). He and senior faceoff specialist Taylor Claggett will solidify the Fighting Irish up the middle of the field.

"We feel like we're strong up the middle when you look at the goalie and the faceoff," says Corrigan. "We're confident going in that we think we should be able to compete at a high level, but we also know we have the challenge of forming this group into everything that it can be."

ATTACK

Notre Dame boasts the same attack corps from last season that was one of the top units in the country. The duo of Hoff and Yeatman provide a potent one-two punch as they combined for 61 goals and 90 points in 2007. Hoff is valuable around the net and Yeatman along with the rest of the Fighting Irish offense will look to find him in the crease.

"Ryan Hoff had a terrific sophomore year," states Corrigan. "One of the things about Ryan is that he's depending on us to play good offense. If we play good offense, Ryan is going to be successful. Hopefully we get to that point where we're playing effectively on offense because if we are then Ryan will score goals. He's as good as there is in the middle of the offense."

Hoff tied a Notre Dame record with seven goals in a 16-5 win over #19 Drexel last season. He also produced a five-goal and six-goal game and notched at least one point in 14 of 15 games. Yeatman and Podgajny were the only two Irish players to notch a point in every contest in 2007.

"Will Yeatman is obviously a tremendous threat," adds Corrigan. "We need to find different ways to use him and not just use him but the threat of him is going to be important."

Senior Alex Wharton and junior Duncan Swezey will also be key components for the Irish. Wharton, who will serve as a team co-captain along with Kemp, registered a career-best season one year ago as he tallied eight goals and ten assists, both career-high totals. He played in all but one game last season and made starts in eight of those contests. Wharton and Swezey, who also appeared in 14 games in '07, should help the Irish offense get on the same track as last season.

"Duncan Swezey played a little bit as a freshman and some more as a sophomore and is going to play an even bigger role this season," says the Irish head coach. "Alex Wharton is coming off a year when he played a lot as a junior after not playing as much prior to that. That year of experience for both of those guys is going to make a big difference for what they're able to do."

Providing crucial depth to the attack will be junior Dan Gibson along with sophomores Neal Hicks and Colin Igoe. Gibson saw action in 11 games last season and notched one goal, while Hicks tallied a goal and an assist in 11 contests. Igoe is a transfer from the University of Massachusetts. He appeared in one game for the Minutemen in '07 as he battled an injury.

"Hicks and Gibson were both guys that were here a year ago and we're looking for them to step up and play bigger roles but we're not sure what those roles are going to be right now, between attack and mid-field," comments Corrigan. "It's the same thing with Colin Igoe. We have to figure out what the best role for him is. I think all of those guys are going to play for us in some capacity but we aren't sure where that's going to be. But they could certainly contribute at the attack position."

Sloan Smith, a senior, has not seen a lot of game time during his Notre Dame tenure, but Taylor Claggett returns for his senior season as one of the top faceoff men in the nation. For his career, Claggett has won nearly 60 percent of his faceoff attempts.

Corrigan loves what he brings to the team. "Sloan Smith is absolutely great for our team. He's a hard worker and he's willing to do anything for our team to be successful. He's a very selfless guy who cares about our team and in the meantime is playing the best lacrosse that we've seen him play."

Sophomore Matt Ciambella did not see action during his rookie campaign, yet he should find his way onto the field in 2008. He had a solid fall season and the coaching staff expects that to continue into the spring as he works his way into the attack mix.

Notre Dame features one freshman on the attack, Tom Connor. Connor brings versatility to the Irish offense and he will look to find a role during his rookie season.

MIDFIELD

Arguably the biggest question facing Notre Dame entering the 2008 season is in the midfield. The losses of Hubschmann and Polk are holes to fill yet the Irish have the weapons in place to not miss a beat.

Podgajny is the most experienced member of the Fighting Irish midfield unit with 37 career games played and 70 points (43g, 27a). Last season, he ranked third on the team with 26 goals to go with 13 assists. He also was a key cog in the nation's third-best man-up unit as he registered nine man-up goals, which were a team-high total. Podgajny was the only Irish player to score a goal in every game during the '07 season.

"In the midfield obviously we start with Mike Podgajny as a returning All-American but also as a guy who each year he's been here, he's gotten more effective," states Corrigan. "He's added something to his game and he's playing with a poise now and a confidence that a guy with his experience should play with. We expect big things out of Mike. Whether that's big numbers or not, I'm not really worried about that. I just expect that he's going to be the guy that anchors that first midfield. I know he's an excellent shooter so he'll get his opportunities."

Anson Fraser is a veteran who will look to see an expanded role during his senior campaign. Fraser has appeared in 16 career games, including four last season.

"Anson is playing the best lacrosse that we've seen him play," says Corrigan. "He's playing better defense and I think he gives us some depth in the midfield in a variety of different roles."

Junior Peter Christman has seen time in both the attack and midfield during his first two seasons with the Irish. This season he is in the midfield, where he provides valuable experience alongside Podgajny.

"Peter Christman is moving to the midfield this year," says Corrigan. "He has played some midfield and some attack for us in the last couple of years, but I really think that he's doing a good job from playing up top. He seems very comfortable up there right now after going through the fall. He's even surprising us with his play in the middle of the field and defensively. We're excited to see him in that role."

Fellow juniors Davey Malera (formerly Davey Leach), Dan Gibson and Kevin Cullinane will bring versatility to the midfield corps. Malera played in 14 games one season ago and was valuable from his defensive midfield position in addition to racking up five points on three goals and two assists. Gibson appeared in 11 games, including one start, as a sophomore and tallied one goal. Cullinane played in six games last season and notched an assist. He is also capable of aiding Claggett in the faceoff department.

Claggett will be looked upon to provide the Irish with more possessions through his faceoff prowess. The senior has been hampered by injuries over the past two seasons, but Corrigan expects a healthy Claggett to be a key to the team's success.

"Taylor Claggett has a chance to be on of the best faceoff guys in the country," states Corrigan. "He's as good as anyone out there. He's finally healthy and hopefully he stays that way. Another thing is that we have some more depth at that faceoff position this year and maybe that'll help him from getting worn down. Once you get worn down, that's when you become more vulnerable to injuries. Maybe with that depth we can protect him a little bit in terms of not putting him out there if he's tired."

Also adding depth to the faceoff position is sophomore Kelly McKenna, who saw time in 14 games last season. McKenna had 25 faceoff attempts in '07 in addition to dishing out an assist. He played well as a defensive midfielder and will continue in that role this season.

McKenna's classmate, Grant Krebs, also produced a solid rookie campaign as he notched four points on three goals and one assist in 12 games.

"Grant played really well for us this fall," says Corrigan. "His play was a little erratic as a freshman and that's typical of a freshman in a lot of ways. He's playing with great confidence right now and is doing a lot of different things. That's the thing about Grant, he's kind of the jack-of-all-trades. He handles the ball well offensively, he can dodge with it in his stick, he can cut without it, he can play defense and he can get the ball off the ground."

Adam Felicetti saw limited time as a freshman but the coaching staff has seen him make big strides and he will be pushing for more playing time as a sophomore in '08. He possesses versatility and can play anywhere along the midfield. With a year under his belt, he is now playing with more confidence and determination. Fellow sophomore midfielder Trever Sipperly did not see game action as a freshman, yet he is a capable player who can provide additional depth at the faceoff X. Just like Felicetti, Sipperly has made huge developments since arriving at Notre Dame.

The Fighting Irish boast six midfielders in the freshman class. Twins Patrick and Billy Maloney may be similar in appearance, yet they have different elements in their games. A common thread is that they both have good poise and a high IQ for the game.

Zach Brenneman brings a physical presence along with a good skill set to the midfield unit. One of his biggest challenges will be getting acclimated to the level of play that the Irish will face. Brenneman has played alongside quality competition over the past two summers while competing with the New York Empire team. The coaching staff sees a bright future for him once his talents are maximized.

David Earl is another player that can do a variety of things on the field. He brings athleticism to the team and has the ability to help the Irish in some capacity and he will compete for playing time as a freshman.

Also bringing a great deal of athletic ability to the midfield is rookie Jake Marmul. Corrigan feels he is as good of an athlete that the Fighting Irish have on the roster. Marmul is still struggling with an injury that he suffered at the end of his 2007 high school campaign. He possesses a lot of upside, yet Corrigan is not sure if that will be unleashed this season due to the injury.

Taylor Tripucka rounds out the freshman midfielders. Tripucka completed a high school post-graduate year in 2006-07 and he is still adjusting to the level of play at college, yet he brings with him a good sense and feel for the game.

DEFENSE

The Notre Dame defense experienced a record-setting season in 2007 and many pieces from that unit are back. Dougherty and Zimmerman will anchor the group as they did last year along with departed senior starter Joey Rallo.

Experience is abundant when it comes to the senior duo. Dougherty and Zimmerman have both played in all 41 games during their Fighting Irish careers. Dougherty has registered 30 starts, while Zimmerman has 28 on his resume.

"We are going to go where Ross Zimmerman and Sean Dougherty take us defensively," comments Corrigan. "I think both of them are guys who know how to play the game at this level, but they've learned how they play best and how they're most effective. They both play with a lot of confidence in themselves. They are going to be our leaders at that end of the field. Ross is more of the guy that's a quarterback for our defense and a good communicator. Sean is someone who we feel can shut-down anyone in the country."

Joining them in the defensive rotation will be their classmates Dave Caperna and Dan Scolaro. Both have seen limited duty during their Notre Dame careers, yet both could be valuable components to this year's team. Caperna will once again help out in man-down situations just as he did last season. Scolaro has moved from attack to midfield and now resides in the defensive unit. He is a hard worker that played well for the Irish during the fall '07 season and he hopes to continue that progress into the spring.

The lone junior in the defense is Regis McDermott. McDermott has been a key member of the stout Irish defense since his freshman campaign and he will be looked upon to have an even bigger role this season with the improvement of his strength and conditioning in the off season.

"Regis had a great sophomore year," says Corrigan. "He's come back physically in better shape and stronger than he's ever been and I think it's going to make a difference for him. His strength is his decision making out on the field. He just has a knack for making plays. He's going to play a huge role for us, plus he has the versatility of playing as a long-stick middle or on close defense and I think that's going to be a plus as well."

Five student-athletes in the sophomore class are capable of providing strength to the defense. Headlining the group is Mike Creighton. After overcoming an injury, Creighton played in eight games during his freshman season and tallied one goal. Just like McDermott, he is capable of playing close or up top in the defense. Creighton will look to use his experience as a freshman combined with a year of growth to excel for the Irish in '08.

Sam Barnes and Chip Lanser both appeared in five games during their rookie seasons in 2007. Lanser missed fall ball in '07 with an injury and he is still working his way back from that in hopes of making contributions to the Irish this year. Barnes produced a solid fall campaign and Corrigan feels that he has improved more than anyone on the team and he will compete for time as a long-stick midfielder in the spring.

Fellow sophomore Sean Callinan appeared in two games last season and he will provide depth from the close defense position. He brings a great attitude to the team and he is reforming his body to become quicker to fit the college game.

Brant Howell comes to Notre Dame from Connecticut College, where he played his freshman season. Howell gives the Irish another option as a long-stick midfielder and he has a good work ethic and a positive and mature demeanor that spreads throughout the team.

Tim Bemer, Andrew Irving, Kevin Ridgway and Dan Schmitt are all freshmen that bring different elements to the Fighting Irish defense. Bemer can play both the short-stick defensive midfield and long-stick defensive midfield positions. He has a high IQ for the game and is very competitive and will look for time on the field.

Irving is a clever, crafty and smart player that has a knack for making plays. Corrigan feels he is as good of a ground ball player that is on the team. Irving will compete for time as a long-stick midfielder.

Maybe the first freshman to see time on the defense will be Ridgway.

"Kevin Ridgway was an outstanding high school player," states Corrigan. "He's another big, lanky kid. He's still maturing physically and he's just going to get better and better. (Assistant coach) Gerry (Byrne) is a great mentor for him because they are a similar size. He's really learning. He's going to play for us this year and he's going to give us some depth at the close defense. He'll get some playing time there and I expect to see his continual development over the next four years. I think he has a chance to be really good."

Schmitt brings toughness to the Irish along with being a smart player. He is still making the adjustment to the top-notch college game, yet his determination should yield good results during his Notre Dame career.

Davey Malera notched three goals and two assists during his sophomore season in 2007. He also brought a valuable presence from the defensive midfielder position.

GOAL

No one would argue that the Fighting Irish are not in good shape between the pipes. Kemp, a two-time All-America honoree, is back for his senior campaign. Last season, Kemp was named the GWLL player of the year as he ranked fourth nationally in both goals-against average (6.78) and save percentage (.614).

For his career, Kemp has made 39 straight starts, while posting a 26-11 record with a 7.43 goals-against average and a .618 save percentage. He ranks first in Fighting Irish history in goals-against average and is fourth in career victories.

"Obviously in goal Joey Kemp is terrific," comments Corrigan. "I think he's completed the arch for a goalie of his caliber. He came in with great hands and the ability to stop the ball and he developed into a better clearer and field general. He's acquired the knowledge of our defense and how we want to do things and what we expect of everyone at that end of the field as well as himself. He's assumed the leadership of a two-time All-American and two-time captain and field presence has come with that. He's got all of the pieces now and I expect him to have a good year because he's very focused on that and he has the same expectations of himself that we do."

Junior Scott Rodgers is a very talented and capable back-up for Kemp. Rodgers appeared in a career-high five games last season and registered a 4.62 goals-against average and .833 save percentage in 52 minutes of play.

"In Scott Rodgers, we feel like we have the best back up goalie in the country," says Corrigan. "He works hard and has an unbelievably positive attitude. He has a great impact on our team every day in the way he approaches what he's doing. We couldn't be happier with Scott and we know if anything happens to Joey Kemp, Scott is going to step in and we're not going to miss a beat. We have great confidence in him."

The third goaltender on the Notre Dame roster is sophomore Brendan Moore. Moore did not see game action during his freshman season, yet Corrigan has seen him make great improvements over the past year. He possesses quick hands the ability to stop the ball and the coaching staff envisions great things for him in the years to come.

SCHEDULE

The Fighting Irish are slated for 13 regular-season games and this year will mark the inaugural GWLL tournament in Birmingham, Mich. The ledger will be highlighted with three games against NCAA Tournament teams from last season in Loyola, Albany and North Carolina. Both Albany and North Carolina advanced to the tournament's quarterfinal round. The Irish will also have contests in Atlanta (vs. Dartmouth) and Chicago (vs. Denver).

"We are excited with the quality of this schedule," states Corrigan. "We start with a rush of good teams that were excellent a year ago. We are also excited about our two games against Dartmouth and Denver in Atlanta and Chicago, respectively. We are going to be a part of lacrosse events in those communities. I think that's a neat thing and it's fun for the guys to play in those environments when you get those big crowds and enthusiastic lacrosse supporters."

Notre Dame opens the regular season at Loyola (Md.) on Feb. 16. The Irish captured a 9-7 season-opening victory over the Greyhounds last season.

The Irish will begin the home portion of their slate against rival Penn State on Feb. 24. Notre Dame will then welcome the University at Albany on March 1. That will mark the first-ever meeting between the Fighting Irish and the Great Danes.

Four straight games away from home await the Irish next. Notre Dame will have road trips to Villanova (March 4) and North Carolina (March 8) before playing Dartmouth in Atlanta on March 15. League play will commence with a showdown at Air Force on March 22. The Fighting Irish return home for a date with Drexel on March 25 before hitting the road once again with a conference clash at Bellarmine on March 29.

Notre Dame faces league foe Denver in Chicago on April 5 and then stays in conference play with a home tilt against Quinnipiac on April 18. It will be a quick turnaround as the Irish step away from league action with a contest at Lehigh on April 20. The regular season will wrap up as Ohio State visits the Irish on April 27.

"Our league is going to be stronger than ever because I think Denver and Ohio State are excellent this year, and Air Force and Bellarmine will be improved as will Quinnipiac," says Corrigan. "I think across the board our league is going to be better."

The semifinals of the GWLL tournament are slated for Friday, May 2, with the finals to take place on Sunday, May 4.

"The GWLL tournament is definitely going to add something to our season," states Corrigan. "It's going to be something new and we're going to have to adapt to that final weekend. But we're excited about it. With the strength of our league I think it's going to be a tremendous tournament."

The 2008 NCAA Championship gets underway with first-round action on May 10-11 at campus sites and the quarterfinals will be held at Annapolis, Md. and Ithaca, N.Y. on May 17 and 18. The semifinals and finals will take place in Foxboro, Mass. on May 24 and 26, respectively.

Taylor Claggett #23

Senior • Midfielder/Faceoff

6-1 • 177

Chesapeake Beach, Maryland

DeMatha Catholic High School

One of the top faceoff players in the country ... three-time monogram winner ... has played in 37 games during his Notre Dame career ... is 421 of 708 (.595) in faceoffs during his Irish tenure ... has tallied four points on two goals and two assists to go along with 176 ground balls ... athletic player who contributed right away as a freshman ... has battled injuries over the past two seasons and will look to stay healthy this year and produce his top season ... should benefit from the team's depth at the faceoff position that will be able give him rest at times ... his brother, Steve, graduated in 2004 after a distinguished career as a midfielder for the Irish, including being a part of the '01 squad that reached the NCAA semifinals.

AS A JUNIOR: Played in all 15 games ... shared the team lead with 63 ground balls ... won 164 of 289 (.567) faceoffs ... totaled one point on one assist ... attempted 14 shots ... whistled for one penalty ... registered one point on one assist ... opened the season by winning 10 of 20 faceoffs in a 9-7 win over #13 Loyola ... notched a season-high 14 faceoff wins (out of 21) in an 11-8 win at Penn State ... he would match that win total on three other occasions during the campaign ... posted a season-low victory total and percentage by going 5-for-21 in a 13-8 setback versus #4 Cornell ... won 13 of 23 faceoffs in an 11-8 loss at #15 North Carolina ... the 23 facoffs were a season-high number ... went 10-for-19 in a 16-5 triumph at #19 Drexel ... also collected an assist against the Dragons ... despite an Irish loss (7-6) he dominated the faceoff X by going 11-for-16 against Dartmouth ... registered another 11 wins (out of 17) in an 11-3 victory over

Bellarmine in the GWLL opener ... posted a (then) career-high faceoff win percentage of .778 by going 14-for-18 in an 11-3 victory at Brown ... won 14 of 20 faceoffs in a 15-5 triumph of Villanova ... established another career-best performance by winning 14 of 17 (.824) faceoffs in a 16-4 win over Air Force ... went 13-for-22 against Denver, a 14-6 victory ... attempted a season-low 12 faceoffs, winning eight of them, in a 14-2 besting of Lehigh ... his nine-game streak above .500 was snapped as he went 9-for-22 in a 12-6 win at #20 Ohio State ... won 12 of 21 in the X during the regular-season finale at Quinnipiac, a 14-9 victory ... picked up a season-high seven ground balls against the Bobcats ... suffered a season-low percentage by going 6-for-20 (.300) in an 11-10 overtime setback at #5 Johns Hopkins in the first round of the NCAA Tournament ... had six ground balls versus the Blue Jays.

AS A SOPHOMORE: Appeared in 11 of the team's 15 contests ... missed a stretch of four games in the middle of the season due to an injury ... was 126 of 205 in faceoffs for a .615 percentage, which would have tied him for sixth nationally had he appeared in enough games ... picked up 49 ground balls ... called for two penalties, resulting in 1:30 of penalty time ... attempted three shots ... won a season-high 16 faceoffs (in 28 attempts) in a 14-10 setback at #1 Virginia in the first round of the NCAA Tournament ... best percentage of the season came in a 9-6 loss to #8 Cornell as he won 13 of 17 for a .765 mark ... won 12 of 16 faceoffs against Geoff Snider of #18 Denver ... Snider would finish the season second nationally in faceoff win percentage (.684) ... went 10-16 (.625) in a season-opening 8-4 victory over #14 Penn State ... was 10-20 (.500) against North Carolina in a 9-7 Irish win ... picked up a season-high eight ground balls against the Tar Heels ... suffered his only sub-.500 game against Villanova as

COACHING STAFF

In 2008, head coach Kevin Corrigan is entering his 20th season at the helm of the Notre Dame program. During his tenure, the Fighting Irish have won 13 conference titles and have made 12 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Kevin Corrigan

Head Coach
20th Season
Virginia '88

Since his arrival on campus in 1988, Kevin Corrigan has built Notre Dame into one of the premier men's lacrosse programs in the nation. Few coaches in the nation boast a résumé dotted with such team and individual success over an extended period of time.

Inheriting a program that had never earned a berth in the NCAA Championship, Corrigan has made the Irish a staple in the postseason. His tenure was highlighted by quarterfinal appearances in 1995 and 2000 and the school's first-ever final four trip in '01. Notre Dame has garnered 12 invitations to the NCAA Tournament since 1990, including the Irish's most recent appearance in 2007.

Corrigan's Irish squads have won 13 conference titles and finished in the top 20 of the national rankings on 15 occasions, including in 14 of the last 15 campaigns. Notre Dame has been adept at winning big games under Corrigan, registering 42 victories over nationally-ranked opponents, including nine vs. top-10 foes. The Irish have an overall record of 167-92 (.645) during Corrigan's tenure. Corrigan has steered the Fighting Irish to a program record 13-game home win streak that is still intact entering the 2008 season.

Irish student-athletes who have played under Corrigan have been highly decorated. At least one Notre Dame player has garnered All-America accolades in each of the last 15 years, with 19 individuals earning a total of 32 All-America honors. Five Irish players have been named the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) player of the year, while Notre Dame student-athletes have gained all-conference mention on 103 occasions, an average of more than five per season.

In 2007, the Fighting Irish swept all of the major GWLL postseason awards. Corrigan was tabbed the GWLL coach of the year for the fourth time, while junior goalie Joey Kemp was named the GWLL player of the year and freshman attackman Will Yeatman was selected as the newcomer of the year. Kemp and Yeatman were two of eight Irish players to garner all-league accolades on the season. Following a 12-6 win at #20 Ohio State that clinched the 2007 GWLL title for the Irish, Corrigan was named the US Lacrosse national coach of the week.

Corrigan has continued the tradition of academic success for the Irish men's lacrosse program. Since first competing on the varsity level in 1981, every Irish lacrosse senior has graduated. Three players since 1997 have gained Academic All-America honors. In 2006, Driscoll and Pat Walsh were named USILA Scholar All-Americans.

Many of the best players in Notre Dame history have played under Corrigan, as his graduates include each of the top five scorers in the program's history, five of the top six goal scorers and each of the top six players on the career assist list.

Playing beyond the college level has been a reality for a number of Corrigan's players. Ten have gone on to play professionally in either Major League Lacrosse or the National Lacrosse League, while a trio of Irish players has earned spots on

United States national teams and come away with gold medals.

The pinnacle of Corrigan's coaching career thus far came in 2001, when the Irish put together the top season in the program's history. Notre Dame posted the best record in school history, 14-2, rose to an all-time high national ranking of #2 before finishing at a program-best #4 and advancing to the NCAA semifinals for the first time in Notre Dame history.

En route to its seventh Great Western Lacrosse League championship in '01, Notre Dame beat the likes of perennial lacrosse powers Virginia (11-8) and Loyola (10-7) on the road, as the Irish started the season 5-0. The only blemish on their regular-season mark was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra. After concluding the regular season with a 12-1 mark, Notre Dame was awarded the fifth seed in the 12-team championship field, marking the first NCAA seeding in Irish history. A 12-7 first-round victory over Bucknell and a first-ever win against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins (13-9) paved the way for a storied NCAA Tournament run. Notre Dame's fairytale '01 campaign ended with a 12-5 loss to Syracuse in the semifinals.

A program-record five players earned USILA All-America honors in '01, with attackman Tom Glatzel becoming the school's first-ever first-team selection, as well as one of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given to the nation's top player. Goalie Kirk Howell copped second-team All-America accolades while midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team selection. In addition, attackman David Ulrich, the GWLL player of the year, and defenseman Mike Adams were named to the honorable-mention list.

Adams also became the program's third CoSIDA Academic All-American, when he garnered first-team honors in the '01 men's spring at-large program.

The accomplishments of the '01 team were even more impressive considering they came when the Irish program lacked any grant-in-aid scholarships. Shortly thereafter, it was announced by athletics director Kevin White that all Notre Dame programs would begin a process of offering the maximum number of grants-in-aid allowed by the NCAA, making future trips to the final four by the Irish lacrosse team a greater possibility.

After leading the Irish to a 7-6 record in his first season, 1989, Corrigan's 1990 squad made history, gaining the school's first-ever USILA national ranking (17th in the final poll) and earning Notre Dame's first invitation to the NCAA Championship. In 1992, Notre Dame tied the then-school record for wins, going 10-5, and made its second appearance in the NAAs, winning the Great Lakes Conference championship and the West Region bid for the second time in three seasons.

In 1993, the Irish made their third trip to the NCAA Tournament, re-established the season victory record with 11 and rose as high as 12th in the national polls, completing the season at 15th. Defenseman Mike Iorio became the first player in Irish history to be an All-American, copping third-team honors. Corrigan wound up the season with an invitation to coach the North team in the North-South All-Star Game. His North squad took home a 28-16 victory.

In 1994, Corrigan guided the Irish to one of their best seasons in the program's history. In winning its third straight conference title – and the first for the newly-formed Great Western Lacrosse League – Notre Dame posted a 10-2 overall mark, which included a 12-9 win over #17 Penn State and a thrilling 12-11 overtime victory over Michigan State clinching an NCAA bid for Corrigan's squad that finished 14th in the final poll. He also was selected GWLL coach of the year for the second time in three seasons.

His 1994 team also boasted two All-America honorees in GWLL player of the year Iorio and attackman Randy Colley, marking the first time in the program's history that multiple Irish players were named in the same year.

Corrigan helped Notre Dame reach new heights in '95, notching its first-ever NCAA Tournament win in a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at #5 Duke, which marked the first time a team from the West had won an NCAA game. The Irish finished the 1995 campaign with a 9-5 record and final ranking of 15th, as the Irish won their fourth straight league championship. Notre Dame's season culminated with an appearance in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals, where the Irish lost to eventual national runner-up #4 Maryland 14-11.

Iorio and Colley, the '95 GWLL player of the year, both earned All-America honors again. Iorio was a second-team honoree, as he became Notre Dame's first three-time All-American, while Colley earned honorable-mention accolades for the second consecutive year and finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer. His 273 points (173 G, 100 A) were 87 better than the previous Irish record.

For the first time in school history, three Notre Dame players earned All-America honors in the same season in '96, as Todd Rassas was a third-team selection and midfielder Jimmy Keenan and goalkeeper Alex Cade were tabbed honorable mention. Notre Dame also cracked the national top 10 for the first time ever, climbing to seventh in the USILA poll in mid-April.

Notre Dame's highest final USILA ranking at the time came in 1997, as the Irish ended ninth. That campaign saw Notre Dame earn its first-ever victory over a top-five opponent, as the Irish defeated #4 Hofstra 10-9 at Moose Krause Stadium en route to a 9-3 overall record.

In 1998, defenseman Rassas was named the GWLL player of the year and became the school's second three-time All-American when he earned third-team honors. Keenan was an honorable-mention selection that same season for the third consecutive year.

A year later, attackman Chris Dusseau finished his career as Notre Dame's second all-time leading goal scorer (113), while being named honorable mention All-America.

Corrigan reached another pinnacle in 2000, as his Irish upset fifth-ranked Loyola 15-13 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The win marked the first for Corrigan in 10 tries against the Greyhounds and the first-ever victory for a Notre Dame team in 11 games against Loyola. The victory also avenged a 12-2 loss to Loyola at home during the regular season. Notre Dame dropped its NCAA Tournament quarterfinal game to fourth-ranked Johns Hopkins 15-11, but finished the season 10-4 and undefeated in the GWLL.

In 2003, the Irish went 9-5 and won a share of a fifth consecutive GWLL title, but just missed an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. With the core of that squad returning for the '04 season, Notre Dame opened the campaign with a 17-7 win over #17 Penn State, which allowed them to debut at eighth in the USILA rankings and then move up to #5, becoming just the second Notre Dame team to reach the top five. A pair of disappointing last-second 9-8 losses – against #17 Ohio State and at #3 Maryland – caused the Irish to barely miss the NAAs again. Pat Walsh became the first player in school history to earn All-America honors as a freshman, being named an honorable mention selection in '03 before gaining third-team accolades in '04. He also was one of the 15 nominees for the Tewaaron Trophy in his sophomore campaign.

In 2005, Walsh was again a Tewaaron Trophy nominee and copped All-America honors for the third straight season, as he was an honorable-mention selection along with his teammate D.J. Driscoll. The duo continued the legacy of Irish All-Americans, making it the 13th straight season that Notre Dame has had at least one player receive All-America honors. Driscoll also was named the GWLL defensive player of the year and was joined on the all-GWLL first team by Walsh. Freshman goaltender Joey Kemp led the nation with a 0.652 save-percentage and garnered all-GWLL second team honors along with junior attackman Matt Karweck.

The Irish finished the 2005 season with a 7-4 overall mark and a 3-2 record in the GWLL, which placed them third in the conference. Notre Dame had a win over #21 Penn State (14-6) in the season-opener and would also claim key wins over #10 North Carolina (9-7) and #13 Hofstra (9-8) throughout the course of the season. The victory over North Carolina occurred at The First 4 Invitational in the Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif. Notre Dame would reach as high as #9 in the USILA poll, making it the third straight season that the Irish had reached the top-10.

In 2006, the Fighting Irish returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since their trek to the semifinals in 2001. Notre Dame posted a 10-5 mark overall, including a 3-2 record in the GWLL to finish second in the conference. The Irish fell to #1, and eventual national champion, Virginia 14-10 in the first round of the postseason. The four-point margin was the closest outcome for the Cavaliers during their four-game run to the title and the second-closest margin over the course of their undefeated campaign.

For the 14th consecutive season, the Irish had at least one player earn All-America distinction as Driscoll was named to the STX/USILA second team and Kemp copped honorable mention honors. The duo also was among the five Irish players named to the all-GWLL first team. That marked the fourth time that Notre Dame had placed at least five student-athletes on the all-GWLL first team. The Fighting Irish put a school-record seven on the list during the 2001 season. Notre Dame had six on the team in 1997 and five in 1995.

The 2007 season saw the Fighting Irish post an 11-4 record, including a perfect 5-0 mark in the league to win their 10th GWLL title and their first outright championship since 2001. Notre Dame made its second straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, yet history repeated itself as the Irish fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in an overtime thriller. The Fighting Irish concluded the campaign ranked 11th in the final USILA poll. On the season, the Irish ranked fourth nationally in both scoring offense (11.65) and scoring defense (6.66). The 6.66 goals-allowed per game was a program record.

orees in Kemp, Yeatman, Brian Hubschmann, Sean Dougherty and Michael Podgajny. A total of eight Notre Dame student-athletes earned all-GWLL recognition. Copping first-team honors were Kemp, Yeatman, Ryan Hoff and Dougherty. Hubschmann, Podgajny, Lucius Polk and Ross Zimmerman were second-team members.

Corrigan was acknowledged for his contributions to the Irish lacrosse program when Notre Dame's Monogram Club awarded him an honorary monogram in 2000.

An assistant at Virginia for two years, Corrigan became just the second head coach in Notre Dame's history on Aug. 23, 1988.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Corrigan assisted the Cavaliers during both the 1987 and '88 seasons under head coach Jim "Ace" Adams.

During a three-year playing career at Virginia, Corrigan scored five goals and registered six assists. He played in 20 games as a midfielder. In his sophomore season in 1979, the Cavaliers reached the NCAA final before losing to Johns Hopkins in overtime.

This is Corrigan's second stint as a head coach. He directed Randolph-Macon College (Va.), a Division III program, for two seasons, compiling a 10-15 record in 1985 and 1986. He previously served as an assistant at Randolph-Macon during the 1984 campaign. In 17 years as a head coach, Corrigan holds a record of 149-94 (.613).

Corrigan also served as an assistant at Notre Dame during the 1983 season and at Western Albemarle (Va.) High School in 1982. He is the son of former Notre Dame athletic director Gene Corrigan, who retired in '97 as the commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The elder Corrigan played collegiate lacrosse at Duke and guided the Virginia and Washington & Lee lacrosse programs. He was inducted into the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in February of 1994.

Kevin's brother Tim was a three-time monogram winner as a midfielder at Notre Dame from 1984-86. Two of Kevin's other brothers, David and Brian, also served as assistants under former Irish head lacrosse coach Rich O'Leary. Another brother, Eugene "Boo", Notre Dame's associate athletics director for corporate relations and marketing.

When not coaching, Corrigan still remains active by participating in various lacrosse clinics and camps and is a member of the South Bend Regional Sports Commission. He and his wife, Lis, reside in South Bend with their three children - Will, Sidney and Natale.

With Kevin Corrigan entering his 20th season as head coach of the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse program in 2008, he becomes just the 14th coach in Notre Dame history to guide a team for at least 20 seasons. Here is a breakdown of the longest coaching tenures in Notre Dame history ...

Assistant Coach

Gerry Byrne

Assistant Coach
Second Season

Massachusetts-Amherst '86

Gerry Byrne enters the second season of his second stint as an assistant coach for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team in 2008. In 2007, Byrne returned to the Fighting Irish program, where he served as an assistant from 1989-91. Prior to his return to Notre Dame, he was the head coach at Saint Anselm College in Manchester, N.H. from 2003-06.

The Fighting Irish reaped the benefits of Byrne's defensive knowledge during the 2007 campaign. Byrne helped guide a Notre Dame defensive unit that held opponents to a program-record 6.66 goals per game, which ranked fourth nationally. The defense played a large role in the Irish posting an 11-4 record overall, including a perfect 5-0 conference mark to win its first outright Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) title since 2001. In addition, the Irish also ranked fourth nationally in scoring offensive with an 11.65 goals per game average.

The 2007 season saw five Fighting Irish players earn All-America honors. Junior defenseman Sean Dougherty and junior goalie Joey Kemp were two of those honorees that helped to bolster the stingy Notre Dame defense. Kemp was also named the GWLL player of the year and selected to the all-league first team along with Dougherty, while fellow junior defenseman Ross Zimmerman was tabbed as a second-team all-GWLL performer. Entering the 2008 campaign, the trio has received preseason All-America accolades from Inside Lacrosse magazine.

Byrne graduated Cum Laude from UMass Amherst in 1986 with a degree in economics. He was a two-year starter and a three-year letterman in addition to being an All-New England defenseman for the Minutemen in 1986. He was a starter in two NCAA Tournament games, including the 1986 quarterfinals versus Johns Hopkins.

Byrne then earned his MBA from Notre Dame, where he also worked as defensive coordinator for the Fighting Irish. He helped Notre Dame earn its first NCAA Tournament berth during the 1990 campaign as the Irish posted a 9-7 record, including a perfect 3-0 mark in the MLA's Great Lakes Conference, which gave them the league title.

"The opportunity to work with Kevin Corrigan again was an extremely attractive opportunity," said Byrne after returning to Notre Dame prior to the 2007 season. "The heritage and the sense of community that Notre Dame possesses, along with the academics and the drive for excellence on the field, makes for a powerful combination. Notre Dame is a symbol of athletic excellence and I know we have the student-athletes, coaches and facilities to get back to the Final Four."

Following his graduation from UMass, Byrne was a four-time All-United States Club Lacrosse Association member with the Brine Lacrosse Club. He was also invited to tryout with the U.S. National Team on three occasions (1989, 1997, 2001), which placed him among the top-30 defensemen in the nation. Other playing accolades for Byrne include being named an All-Lake Placid Classic performer on 11 occasions and an All-Vail Shootout competitor nine times.

One of his signature years as a player came in 1997. That season he was named a Vail Shootout All-Star in the Elite Division along with copping Vail Shootout MVP honors in the Masters Division. Byrne also was named the Lake Placid Tournament Defensive MVP in the Elite Division and was chosen as the Masters Division MVP. Finally, he was invited to the National Team Selection Camp and was the USCLA/Empire League Player of the Year for the Syracuse Lacrosse Club.

Byrne was inducted into the U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame - New England Chapter - in 1999 and was the 2001 New Hampshire High School Coach of the Year while at Souhegan High School. He was drafted by the New York Saints of the National Lacrosse League (NLL) in 1991 and played for them in 1992. Byrne also was drafted by the Rochester Knighthawks of the NLL as a defensive forward and went on to win a World Championship with them in 1997.

He continued his professional career following a three-year retirement when he was drafted by the Boston Cannons of Major League Lacrosse (MLL) in 2000. Byrne played for the Cannons from 2000-02, while having the distinction of being the oldest active player in the league at that time. He played in the inaugural MLL Final Four in 2001 and made another appearance there the following season.

In addition to his duties at Saint Anselm, Byrne stayed active in the sporting world in several other ways. He served as managing director at Kiltegan Marketing Group, which is an integrated sports marketing services company with clients such as Reebok and Major League Lacrosse. Byrne also has spent time as the director of marketing for Cybex International and Brine, a major manufacturer of lacrosse equipment. He also owns the Premier Players Lacrosse Camps and is the founder of the Texas Top-99.

"Gerry has a real wide variety of experiences, all of which help him in coaching," says Corrigan. "Obviously he has coached, but he just hasn't taken the traditional path. His strength is his intelligence and his creativity. He has a great passion for the game and is a great teacher. I was thrilled to have him come back here and he brings a lot to the program with his knowledge and having played at a high level."

Byrne is a native of Levittown, N.Y., where he was an All-Long Island Catholic League lacrosse player at Chaminade High School before his graduation in 1982. He and his wife, Dr. Tracy Byrne, a practicing OB/GYN and a 1990 graduate of Notre Dame, are the parents of three children, Rory, Pierre and Brandon.

Head Coach Kevin Corrigan on Gerry Byrne . . .

"Gerry brings great playing experience and great enthusiasm for the game to our program. He loves Notre Dame and has coached here before. He can articulate what this place is about and what the experience is about. He really gets it in terms of what Notre Dame is and what it means to the players. On the field, he made himself into a great player. He is learning how to translate his experience as a player into coaching guys to play at their highest level. I'm thrilled to have Gerry as part of our staff."

Brian Fisher

Assistant Coach
Second Season
Rutgers '01

Brian Fisher is entering his second season as an assistant coach for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team in 2008. Fisher joined the Fighting Irish from Rutgers University, where he had been coaching for the past five seasons.

In 2007, Fisher helped the Fighting Irish post an 11-4 record, which included a perfect 5-0 mark in conference play as Notre Dame captured its first outright Great Western Lacrosse League title since 2001. The Irish fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in an overtime thriller during the first round of the NCAA Tournament. As a team, Notre Dame ranked fourth nationally in both scoring offense (11.65) and scoring defense (6.66).

Fisher was a standout midfielder and face-off man for the Scarlet Knights for four seasons (1998-2001). As a coach at Rutgers, he worked extensively with the Scarlet Knight midfielders and was the assistant director of MVP Lacrosse Camps.

"I am thrilled to be working at such a prestigious university and being able to work with the student-athletes," says Fisher. "I think I relate well with the student-athletes because, only being 28 years old myself and not too far removed from Division I lacrosse, I can relate pretty well with what they are going through. Being a positive person by nature also helps me get along with the guys that I coach."

Fisher was one of the top face-off men in the nation throughout his Rutgers career. He won 268-of-533 (.502) face-offs in his career. In 2001, as the team's face-off specialist, he took 76 percent of the teams face-offs, winning 120-of-232 (.517) of them. He also led the Scarlet Knights with 69 ground balls.

Fisher was awarded the Rutgers Lacrosse Knight Cup in 2001. The Cup goes to the player "who has played the game of lacrosse to the best of his ability, who has, by example, inspired or led his teammates both on and off the field and, who, above all, has consistently demonstrated the qualities of unselfishness and loyalty to his team and Rutgers University." That same season he was named the Rutgers Lacrosse Time Scholar-Athlete.

The Morton, Pa. native also was awarded the 2000 Frederick Fitch Trophy while at Rutgers. The honor is presented to the varsity letterwinner who, through personal effort to develop his lacrosse ability, has shown the greatest improvement during the season.

"Brian has worked and played at Rutgers and has seen a lot during his time there," says Notre Dame head coach Kevin Corrigan. "He is a young guy that brings great energy to our program. Brian is an extremely hard worker. I am a good friend with Jim Stagnitta, the Rutgers coach, so I knew I was getting a good guy in Brian."

Fisher was a key member of the Ridley High School team that won the Pennsylvania State Championship in 1997. During his career at Ridley, his team compiled a 56-7 record. He was also captain of his wrestling team in high school.

Head Coach Kevin Corrigan on Brian Fisher . . .

"Brian was a great addition to our program. He is such a hard worker and he gets along great with the guys. He brings a lot of ideas about the ways that we can do things because he's had a good coaching experience with an outstanding Rutgers coaching staff. I've really enjoyed having him here."

Taking Command of the Conference Once Again

Irish capture first outright GWLL title since 2001 by posting perfect league record

The 2007 season witnessed the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team win the program's 10th Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) title and make the 12th trip to the NCAA Tournament in school history. Accolades were abundant for the Fighting Irish, who boasted five All-America honorees and swept the major conference awards.

Unfortunately for the Irish, history repeated itself in more ways than one as they fell to the eventual national champion for the second straight season in the first round of the NCAA Championship. Johns Hopkins topped Notre Dame, 11-10, in a thrilling back-and-forth overtime affair in Baltimore, Md. on May 12. Notre Dame concluded the season with an 11-4 record, including a perfect 5-0 mark in league play.

Despite not advancing further in the national tournament, the Irish still had many accomplishments to celebrate. Notre Dame ranked fourth in both scoring offense and defense during the 2007 season. The Irish defense boasted a school-record 6.66 goals-against average, while the offense nationally averaged 11.65 goals per game.

Leading the charge on the defense was goaltender Joey Kemp, who earned his second straight honorable mention All-America honor. The junior tri-captain was also named the GWLL player of the year as he ranked fourth nationally in both goals-against average (6.78) and save percentage (.614). While Kemp was solid between the pipes once again, he also benefitted from a stingy defensive unit that included his classmate in fellow honorable mention All-American and first-team all-GWLL member Sean Dougherty.

Spearheading the powerful Irish offense was sophomore Ryan Hoff, who scored a team-best 40 goals, while freshman Will Yeatman had team-high totals in points (46) and assists (25). Hoff earned GWLL first-team honors as did Yeatman, who was named the GWLL newcomer of the year. The rookie also earned honorable mention All-America distinction.

The highest-ranked NCAA statistical category for the Irish was their man-up offense numbers. Notre Dame converted on 50-percent (29-of-58) of its man-up opportunities on the season and that ranked third nationally. Junior midfielder Michael Podgajny, another honorable mention All-American, led the Fighting Irish with nine man-up goals, while senior midfielder Lucius Polk had seven and Hoff chipped in with six. Both Podgajny and Polk were second-team all-GWLL selections.

Also earning second-team all-conference honors was junior defenseman Ross Zimmerman and senior midfielder Brian Hubschmann. In addition, Hubschmann earned honorable mention All-America accolades. The fifth-year senior finished second on the team in goals with 27 and tied for third in points with 39.

Completing the sweep of the GWLL hardware was Kevin Corrigan, who garnered his fourth GWLL coach of the year award. Corrigan steered the Irish to the double-digit victory plateau for the seventh time during his 19-year Notre Dame tenure. On April 30, he was named the US Lacrosse National Coach of the Week honors after Notre Dame clinched the GWLL title with a win at Ohio State.

The '07 season got underway with a key 9-7 home victory over No. 13 Loyola College in the Loftus Center on February 17. The 11th-ranked Fighting Irish fell behind by three, 7-4, with 7:56 left in the third quarter, yet ran off five straight goals to take the victory. The Notre Dame defense showed early in the '07 campaign that it would be a force by shutting out the Greyhounds in the fourth quarter after the game was knotted, 7-7, after three periods.

Following a stellar 2006 campaign, Hubschmann picked up where he left off as he notched four points on three goals and an assist against Loyola. Hoff and Polk chipped in two goals and one assist apiece for Notre Dame. Yeatman had a fine collegiate debut as he scored the first goal of the game in addition to dishing out two assists.

Notre Dame opened the season 2-0 for the first time since 2003 with an 11-8 road victory against Penn State. After surrendering the first two goals of the contest, Notre Dame responded with 10 of the game's next 11 scores to possess a 10-3 lead with 2:21 left in the third quarter. After the Nittany Lions netted five straight goals, Podgajny put a halt to the streak with his career-high fourth goal of the game. Hubschmann and Yeatman aided Podgajny in the scoring with two goals each.

After moving to No. 8 in the polls, the Fighting Irish would then embark on their second of five straight games away from home. A trip to Hewlett, N.Y. and a meeting with fourth-ranked Cornell resulted in a 13-8 setback. The Big Red claimed a 12-3 advantage with just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter before the Irish rattled off five of the game's next six goals to provide the final margin. Yeatman and Hubschmann led the Notre Dame offense with two goals apiece.

A second straight loss would come at the hands of the 15th-ranked North Carolina Tar Heels, who topped the Irish 11-8 in Chapel Hill, N.C. Notre Dame held a 5-3 lead with one minute left in the first quarter as Hoff deposited his second goal, yet the hosts would go on a 7-0 run to take command of the game and drop the Irish to 2-2 on the season.

Notre Dame got back to its winning ways with a 16-5 triumph of No. 19 Drexel in Philadelphia, Pa.

The 16th-ranked Irish used a school record-tying seven goals from Hoff to dismantle the Dragons. It signified the most goals for an individual during a road game in program history and it tied the overall mark established by Randy Colley in 1993. Hoff was not the only Irish player with a big offensive day as Hubschmann recorded four goals, which tied a career-high number. Yeatman produced a six-point performance on two goals and four assists, while Podgajny also chipped in with two goals.

The Fighting Irish then faced Dartmouth during a cold and snow-filled afternoon in Hanover, N.H. Notre Dame carried a 3-1 lead into the second quarter, yet that period would feature a 4-0 run by the Big Green and Dartmouth would take a 5-4 lead into the intermission. The Irish knotted the game, 6-6, by the end of the third quarter, yet surrendered the game winner with 8:18 left to play. Hubschmann scored a team-high three goals in the loss. The 7-6 defeat moved Notre Dame to 3-3 on the season, however that would mark the last loss of the regular season.

An eight-game win streak commenced with an 11-3 victory over Bellarmine in the GWLL opener at Moose Krause Stadium. Despite trailing 1-0 after the first quarter of play, No. 19 Notre Dame netted 11 of the game's next 12 goals to open a nine-goal margin after three quarters. Hoff and Yeatman both collected hat tricks, while Polk netted two scores and sophomore Duncan Swezey produced a career-high four points on one goal and a career-best three assists.

The Notre Dame defense would limit the opposition to just three goals for the second straight game in an 11-3 triumph at Brown. The contest was all Irish as they held a 7-2 halftime lead before extending the advantage to 9-2 in the early stages of the second half. Yeatman registered his second consecutive hat trick, while Polk added three points on a goal and two assists. Junior Taylor Claggett owned the faceoff X by winning 14-of-18 for Notre Dame.

Another dominating performance on both sides of the ball resulted in a 15-5 home victory over Villanova. Notre Dame scored the game's first five goals before the Wildcats edged back to make it 7-4 at the half. A six-goal third period put the game away and improved the Irish to 6-3 on the season. Hoff exploded for five goals, while Podgajny had a career-best seven-points on three goals and four assists, also a career-high total. Polk aided the Irish effort with his third two-goal game of the season.

Notre Dame returned to league play with a 16-4 win over Air Force. The Fighting Irish used a balanced attack as five players scored at least two goals. Junior Alex Wharton notched a career-high three goals along with dishing out an assist for a career-best four points. Hubschmann recorded his fourth game with three or more goals and Yeatman produced four points on two goals and two assists. Podgajny and Hoff both deposited two scores in the Notre Dame victory, which featured no second-quarter scoring from either team, yet combined for a 10-goal outburst in the third period. The Irish accounted for eight of the goals in the quarter.

Two days after besting Air Force, the Irish improved to 3-0 in GWLL play with a 14-6 home win over Denver. Notre Dame broke the game open with nine second-half goals after the contest was tied, 5-5, at halftime. Hoff and Polk both scored four times, while Podgajny and Wharton chipped in two goals apiece. Hubschmann matched a career-high total with four assists.

The winning streak reached six as the Fighting Irish stepped away from conference play with another stellar performance in a 14-2 win over Lehigh. The victory extended the Irish home win streak to a program record 13 games. Notre Dame registered the first 10 goals of the game before the Mountain Hawks got on the board with 12:27 remaining in the contest. Swezey tallied a career-high four goals and his classmate Hoff chipped in two. Yeatman, a tight end on the Irish football team, served double-duty on the day as he played against Lehigh before taking part in the annual Blue-Gold football spring game.

Following the win over Lehigh, Notre Dame climbed back into the top 10 of the national polls. The 10th-ranked Irish traveled to Columbus, Ohio, for a showdown with No. 20 Ohio State. Both teams entered the game with undefeated GWLL records. Notre Dame jumped on top, 5-1, before the Buckeyes sliced the lead to one at 7-6 with 11:46 left in the third quarter. The Fighting Irish then scored the final five goals of the game to come through with a 12-6 victory and secure at least a share of the GWLL crown.

Leading the charge against the Buckeyes was Polk who notched a career-best four goals. The senior midfielder was tabbed the GWLL player of the week for his performance. Swezey collected his second straight five-point game with two goals and three assists. Yeatman and Hoff also aided the result with two scores apiece.

Notre Dame headed to Hamden, Conn., for the regular-season finale against conference newcomer Quinnipiac. The eighth-ranked Irish carried a 7-2 lead into the intermission before eventually winning, 14-9, to claim their first outright GWLL title since 2001. Hoff had another big day with six goals, while Hubschmann contributed three goals and two assists.

Midfielder Lucius Polk had a breakout senior campaign in 2007 as he registered career-high numbers in goals (18), assists (9) and points (27). Polk, a second-team all-GWLL selection, helped the Irish offense rank fourth in the nation with an 11.65 goals per game average.

The victory against the Bobcats locked up another NCAA Championship bid for Notre Dame. The Irish were pitted against perennial power Johns Hopkins in the first round of the tournament. Notre Dame entered the contest ranked ninth, while the Blue Jays were ranked fifth along with being the third seed in the tournament.

The back-and-forth tilt featured two 40-minute weather delays due to lightning and heavy rain in the area. It also marked Notre Dame's first overtime contest in over two seasons and its first ever in NCAA Tournament play. Podgajny delivered with his second four-goal game of the season, while Hubschmann had three goals and two assists and Hoff also recorded two tallies.

Notre Dame jumped ahead 4-1 by the 9:52 mark of the second quarter. Johns Hopkins responded with four straight goals to take a 5-4 lead with 8:35 left in the third period. The Irish evened the contest before two more goals from the Blue Jays made it 7-5. The next seven goals alternated between both teams and Johns Hopkins led 10-9 as the contest approached the final minute.

Following a Johns Hopkins turnover, Hubschmann fed Hoff and he deposited the ball into the back of the net with nine seconds left on the clock to force overtime. The upset hopes of the Irish were dashed during the first minute of overtime as the Blue Jays scored to advance on and eventually take the 2007 NCAA title.

CASSESE WAS A FOOTBALL PLAYER WHO PICKED UP A LACROSSE STICK BECAUSE HIS BUDDIES TOLD HIM IT WAS FUN. POWELL WAS JUST A KID WHO WANTED TO PLAY WITH TWO OLDER BROTHERS. AND JOHNSON GOT STUCK IN THE GOAL BECAUSE A COACH SAW HE WASN'T AFRAID. SOMEHOW, THE GAME FOUND THEM. JUST LIKE IT FINDS YOU. NOW ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS FIND OUT WHAT YOU DO BEST. THAT'S WHY WE PUT PRO PLAYERS ON OUR R&D TEAM, TO HELP US GIVE YOU THE TOOLS YOU NEED TO FIND YOUR GANG.

Notes: Notre Dame competed in the Midwest Lacrosse Association from 1981-93, including the MLA's Great Lakes Conference from 1985-93. During those years, the GLC record is listed first, followed by MLA record. Notre Dame has been a member of the Great Western Lacrosse League since 1994. The rankings are from the season's final United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association listing.

National Semifinal Appearance Caps Historic Season For Notre Dame Lacrosse Team

Notre Dame completed a storybook season with its first-ever appearance in the semifinals of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship in 2001. The Irish finished 14-2, establishing new school marks for victories and winning percentage (.875). While the team's success came as a surprise to some in the lacrosse world, head coach Kevin Corrigan was not among them.

Notre Dame began its preparations for the '01 campaign in the fall of 2000 with a quiet sense of confidence. With eight starters and seven of its top eight scorers returning from a team that reached the NCAA quarterfinals in '00 for the second time in six seasons, Corrigan and his staff couldn't help but contemplate the potential for success.

Notre Dame won its first five games of the season and climbed to an all-time high of #2 in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA)/STX Poll in mid-March following first-ever back-to-back road wins at seventh-ranked Virginia (11-8) and fifth-ranked Loyola (10-7). The only blemish on the Irish record during the regular season was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra.

Corrigan's squad finished the regular season with a 12-1 record and played as a top-10 team in all but one game during the season. His second straight 10-win campaign marked the first back-to-back double-digit-victory totals since 1991-93, when Irish teams registered three consecutive 10-win seasons. It also marked the sixth time in the program's 21-year history that an Irish team won 10 or more games.

Notre Dame ended with its best-ever ranking, as the Irish finished fourth in the USILA/STX, Brine/360 Lacrosse.com, and Warrior/Inside Lacrosse.com polls. When the NCAA tournament pairings were announced on May 6, the Irish earned the fifth seed in the 12-team NCAA tournament field as Notre Dame played as a seeded team for the first time in program history.

Notre Dame advanced to the national semifinals following a 12-7 win over Bucknell in the first round and its first-ever win over Johns Hopkins, 13-9, in the quarterfinals. Entering its matchup with the Blue Jays, Notre Dame was 0-2 all-time against one of lacrosse's most storied programs.

Although the season ended with a disappointing 12-5 loss to top-seeded and perennial power Syracuse in the semifinals, it was certainly a year of milestones for the Irish lacrosse program. A record five Notre Dame players earned USILA All-America honors. Attackman Tom Glatzel became the school's first first-team selection after having one of the greatest seasons ever by an Irish lacrosse player. One of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy, awarded to the nation's top player, Glatzel scored 40 goals and dished off 27 assists. His 67 points were the most in a single season since Randy Colley's school-record 74 during the 1995 campaign.

Glatzel finished his Irish career as the school's fourth all-time leading scorer, as he registered 106 goals (fourth best) and 61 assists. After scoring just two goals and dishing off one assist during his freshman season, Glatzel averaged 34.6 goals and 20.0 assists in his final three seasons.

Goalie Kirk Howell, a second-team selection, registered a 7.07 goals-against average and .632 save percentage, as he ranked third and fourth nationally in those respective categories. Howell had the distinction of being one of just four players to serve as a team captain for two seasons. Howell helped Notre Dame establish a single-season mark for goals allowed as the Irish gave up just 6.94 per game, eclipsing the old mark of 7.23 established during the 1996 season. Midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team honoree, as he finished with 19 goals and five assists and led the team with 69 ground balls.

Defenseman Mike Adams earned honorable mention All-America honors, as did attackman David Ulrich, who led the team in assists all four years and closed out his Irish career as the school's career assist leader. One of just two players to lead Notre Dame in scoring all four years, Ulrich finished with 110 assists, an average of nearly 28 per season. In addition to earning honorable mention All-America honors, Adams became the first first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in the program's history.

The
of Notre Dame.

It's everywhere. In the labs. In the dorms.
In the quiet of the Grotto

It's the spirit of service and tradition.
Of faith and family.
Of wisdom and leadership.

And each time you give to Notre Dame,
you ensure it's a spirit
that will live on for generations.

Pass it on.

1992 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Johns Hopkins 15, Notre Dame 7 May 10, 1992/Baltimore, Md.

Making its second NCAA tournament appearance, Notre Dame traveled to Baltimore, Md., to play perennial power Johns Hopkins. The Irish entered the contest winners of nine of their final 10 games of the regular season.

The fifth-seeded Blue Jays got off to a fast start, as Hopkins held a 7-0 half-time advantage. Notre Dame got its offense into gear in the second half, but it wasn't enough as the Blue Jays won the game 15-7.

Johns Hopkins' goalie Scott Giardina, a third-team All-America selection, had 11 saves in the second quarter and finished with 21 for the game. Two-time All-American Adam Wright paced the Blue Jays with four goals in the game.

Randy Colley scored three times to lead the Irish. Ryan Jewell came off the bench to make nine saves in goal.

Notre Dame finished the '92 campaign with a 10-5 record, while Johns Hopkins advanced to the NCAA semifinals before losing to Syracuse.

#5 Harvard 9, #17 Notre Dame 3 May 16, 1990/Cambridge, Mass.

Notre Dame marked its 10th year of varsity lacrosse with its first-ever NCAA tournament appearance. The Irish, after finishing tied for 17th in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) rankings, entered their contest against the fifth-seeded and co-Ivy League champion Harvard Crimson as the 12th seed and owners of the bid reserved for a team from the Midwest.

Behind freshman goalie Chris Parent, who made 11 saves in the contest, Notre Dame, which finished its season with a 9-7 record, played one of its better games, as the Irish defense held Harvard to under 10 goals for only the third time during the '90 campaign. The Irish offense, however, was stymied as coach Kevin Corrigan's squad, which averaged nearly 11 goals throughout the season, was unable to capitalize on numerous scoring opportunities.

Senior co-captain Dave Carey, a native of Sudbury, Mass., led the Irish with two goals in his homecoming. Harvard was paced in the game by Mick Cavuoti's two goals and an assist.

Harvard jumped out to a 6-0 advantage at the end of three quarters, while the Irish tallied all three of their goals in the final 15-minute stanza.

Chris Miller made 14 saves for the hosts in goal, as the Irish also failed to capitalize on five man-up opportunities.

#5 Virginia 19, #15 Notre Dame 9 May 15, 1993/Charlottesville, Va.

Notre Dame earned its second straight NCAA tournament berth and third in four years, as the Irish traveled to Charlottesville, Va., for a first-round contest against head coach Kevin Corrigan's alma mater, Virginia. The fifth-year Irish mentor, a 1988 graduate, played midfield for the Cavaliers for three years and was an assistant on the Virginia staff for two.

The 15th-ranked Irish entered the contest boasting a school-record 11 wins. Without a senior in the starting lineup, Notre Dame faced its second Atlantic Coast Conference foe of the season. During the regular season, the Irish dropped a 13-7 decision at Duke.

The Cavaliers opened up the contest by scoring seven straight goals and held a 12-2 lead at the half. After halftime, the Irish scored six unanswered goals, including four straight to end the third quarter.

Attackman Randy Colley finished the game with three goals and two assists, while midfielder Will Sutton added two goals and two assists.

Tim Whitely led the Cavaliers with four goals and three assists.

Notre Dame's final 11-3 record ranked as the best in school history in terms of winning percentage at that time.

#5 Virginia 23, #14 Notre Dame 4 May 14, 1994/Charlottesville, Va.

Notre Dame returned to Charlottesville, Va., for the second straight year to face the Virginia Cavaliers in NCAA tournament action. It marked the third consecutive tournament appearance for the Irish and fourth in the school's history.

The 12th-seeded and 14th-ranked Irish entered the game with a 10-1 record, marking the third straight year that Kevin Corrigan's squad had won 10-plus games. The Cavaliers entered the contest ranked and seeded fifth.

Virginia, which jumped out to an early 4-0 lead in the contest, dominated the Irish to post a 23-4 victory. Notre Dame managed to stay close until mid-way through the second quarter. The Irish trailed 5-2 before Virginia scored six straight goals for an 11-2 halftime lead. In the second half, the Cavaliers outscored Notre Dame 8-1 in the third quarter and 4-1 in the fourth quarter.

Virginia was led by midfielders Greg Traynor and Drew Fox, who had three goals each. Tim Whitely added two goals and three assists.

Irish leading scorer Randy Colley was held to a goal and an assist. Rob Snyder scored twice for Notre Dame.

#15 Notre Dame 12, #5 Duke 10 May 13, 1995/Durham, N.C.

Notre Dame proved the skeptics wrong as the Irish, making their fourth straight NCAA tournament appearance, stunned the lacrosse world with a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at fifth-seeded Duke. It was the biggest win in Notre Dame lacrosse history to date.

After being outscored 57-20 in its first three tournament appearances, Notre Dame had other ideas against the highly-rated Blue Devils, champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The win gave credence to the Irish program, which was one of just six teams making their fourth straight trip to the NAAs, and solidified Notre Dame as a bona fide contender and opened up the eyes of those from the East about the quality of play in the West.

For most of the first two quarters, an Irish upset looked improbable as Notre Dame trailed 7-4 at the half. But Notre Dame came back to net seven unanswered goals as senior attackman Randy Colley scored three of his game-high five goals in the third quarter. The Irish shut out the Blue Devils in the third, 4-0.

Tim Kearney tied the score at 7-7 with 6:33 left in the third before Colley's goal at 5:22 gave Notre Dame a lead it would never relinquish. The Irish increased their lead to 11-7 on two goals by Colley and scores by Kearney and Brian Erickson.

Alex Whitten ended the seven-goal Irish scoring blitz with 8:25 left in the game. It marked Duke's first goal since one with 1:29 left before the half. Kearney countered for Notre Dame with 4:41 left off an assist from Will Sutton, one of four the senior midfielder would have on the day. Scott Harrison scored the final goal of the game for Duke with 2:53 left in the contest.

Freshman Alex Cade made 18 saves in goal, one shy of his career best. The victory moved the Irish into the quarterfinals and a matchup with another ACC foe, Maryland.

1995 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#14 Maryland 14, #15 Notre Dame 11 May 20, 1995/College Park, Md.

Notre Dame nearly pulled off its second straight upset, but this time the bid fell short as Maryland withstood a dramatic Irish rally and escaped with a 14-11 victory.

Trailing 10-2 with 5:59 left in the third quarter, Notre Dame pulled to within 11-10 with 9:48 remaining in the contest on Randy Colley's third goal. The Terrapins responded with three goals over the next four minutes to secure the victory.

Maryland led 4-0 after one quarter. The Irish got on the scoreboard with 10:41 remaining when Brian Erickson tossed in the first of his two goals. Maryland closed out the second quarter by scoring four goals for an 8-1 half-time lead.

Maryland went up 9-1 to start the third quarter before Will Sutton broke the Terrapin string of five unanswered goals with 7:08 left. Matt Bordi gave Maryland a 10-2 advantage with 5:59 remaining in the third quarter.

Todd Bialous started the six-goal Irish blitz that included three tallies in the final 4:07 of the third quarter. Colley scored back-to-back goals just before the end of the period.

The Irish scored three goals in the first 3:50 of the fourth quarter as Tim Kearney, Keenan, and Erickson all tallied in the fourth-quarter spurt. Matt Hahn gave Maryland an 11-8 lead before Kearney and Colley had consecutive scores to cut the deficit to 11-10. Three straight Maryland goals ended the Irish rally, and Burke Hayes netted the game's final score for the 14-11 outcome.

Alex Cade made 15 saves in goal, while Maryland's Brian Dougherty had 16 stops.

Notre Dame finished its dramatic season with a 9-5 record, as the Irish gained the respect of the lacrosse community.

1996 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#9 Johns Hopkins 12, #11 Notre Dame 7 May 12, 1995/Annapolis, Md.

Looking to once again pull off a first-round upset in making its fifth straight NCAA tournament appearance, 11th-ranked Notre Dame played ninth-ranked Johns Hopkins for the second time in its seven NCAA contests. Their matchup with the Blue Jays marked the seventh top-20 opponent the Irish faced during the '96 campaign.

After holding a narrow 7-6 advantage after three periods, Johns Hopkins outscored Notre Dame 5-1 in the final 15-minute stanza for the 12-7 victory. Sophomore Jimmy Keenan, Notre Dame's top scorer, led the Irish with a goal and a career-high four assists, while second-leading scorer Chris Dusseau had two goals. He finished with a team-high 29 goals on the year, which established a Notre Dame freshman mark for goals in a season.

Sophomore goalkeeper Alex Cade tied his career high with 21 saves in the game, which marked the third time during the season that he had 20-plus saves in a contest.

Milford Marchant scored a personal-best four goals in the game, while Brian Evans and Dan Denihan each added two for the Blue Jays in the victory.

Evans gave Johns Hopkins an early 1-0 lead with 8:25 remaining in the first quarter, but back-to-back goals by Keenan and Dusseau put the Irish up 2-1 with 2:11 remaining. The first quarter ended with the teams deadlocked at 2-2.

Notre Dame took a 3-2 lead with 14:27 left as Tony Reid scored off a Will DeRiso assist. Johns Hopkins went up 4-3 on goals by Marchant and Matt O'Kelly. Dusseau, off a Keenan feed, tied the score at 4-4, but Marchant netted his second goal of the quarter 34 seconds later to give the Blue Jays a 5-4 lead at the half.

Both teams scored twice in the third quarter as Notre Dame trailed 7-6 after DeRiso's goal with 45 seconds remaining. Johns Hopkins tallied five unanswered goals in the fourth quarter. Burke Hayes had the lone Irish goal of the period with 29 seconds left in the contest.

1997 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#6 Loyola 21, #9 Notre Dame 5
May 11, 1997/Towson, Md.

Notre Dame's matchup with Loyola in the first round of the 1997 NCAA tournament was the second of the season between the two teams. It was a highly-anticipated meeting between two evenly-matched squads who had played to a one-goal decision early in the year.

The contest provided the Irish, who were making their sixth straight NCAA appearance, an opportunity to avenge a 12-11 loss on March 15. That game, which saw Notre Dame overcome a four-goal first-quarter deficit, saw-sawed back and forth from the second quarter on. The outcome was decided in the final 2:45, when the Greyhounds produced the winning goal.

The second meeting produced a far different result, as Loyola ousted Notre Dame from the tournament with a 21-5 victory. It was the second-worst loss suffered by the Irish in eight tournament games.

After junior Ned Webster tied the game at 1-1 with 13:11 left in the first quarter, Loyola scored six unanswered goals en route to an 11-3 halftime lead.

Webster scored two goals in the contest for the Irish. Also scoring in the game were Stedman Oakey, Adam Sargent, and Brad Owen. For Sargent, it marked the first goal of his collegiate career.

Goalkeeper Alex Cade gave up 20 goals (the most of his career) and made nine saves in the game.

Loyola, which improved to 7-0 against Notre Dame, was led by Gewas Schindler's seven goals and one assist.

1999 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Georgetown 14, #14 Notre Dame 10
May 16, 1999/Towson, Md.

After a one-year hiatus, Notre Dame made a return to the NCAA tournament for the seventh time in eight years. The 14th-ranked Irish faced a first-round matchup with fifth-seeded Georgetown in Towson, Md.

Earlier in the season the two teams squared off at Notre Dame, with the Hoyas coming away with a 12-8 victory after the Irish had built an early 4-0 lead. In the NCAAAs, the final outcome was nearly identical, as Georgetown earned a 14-10 victory.

The Hoyas, eventual NCAA tournament semifinalists, used three unanswered goals in the third period to break a 7-7 halftime deadlock.

Senior Chris Dusseau, who closed out his Irish career with two goals in the contest, opened by tallying Notre Dame's first two scores. Georgetown jumped out to a 4-2 advantage only to have senior Brad Owen tie the game with the first of his three scores with 14:40 remaining until the break.

The two teams exchanged goals throughout most of the second period with David Ulrich and John Flandina knotting the score at 5-5 and 6-6, respectively. Owen notched his second goal of the game 33 seconds before intermission to tie the score for the sixth and final time.

Georgetown scored the first four goals of the second half and held Notre Dame scoreless for the entire third quarter. Owen's third goal of the game finally put the Irish on the scoreboard for the first time in the second half, with 10:45 remaining in the final quarter. Tom Glatzel scored two of Notre Dame's three fourth-quarter goals.

Goalie Kirk Howell finished with 13 saves in the game. The 14 goals scored by the Hoyas were the most given up by Notre Dame in 1999.

Notre Dame finished the campaign with an 8-6 record.

2000 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#13 Notre Dame 15, #5 Loyola 13
May 14, 2000/Baltimore, Md.

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse team returned to the NCAA tournament for the second straight year and eighth time in nine seasons in 2000. And for the second time in school history, the 13th-ranked Irish advanced to the quarterfinals, this time with a first-round upset of fifth-seeded Loyola 15-13.

Notre Dame's victory proved just as stunning as the one five years earlier, when the Irish earned a 12-10 decision over Duke. While the win gave Notre Dame its second NCAA tournament victory, it also avenged the worst loss of the regular season, when the Irish were beaten 12-2 by the Greyhounds during the regular season. In addition, it marked Notre Dame's first-ever win over Loyola in 11 meetings.

Notre Dame jumped out to an early lead just 46 seconds in the game when junior David Ulrich scored his second career NCAA tournament goal to put the Irish in the lead, 1-0. Loyola answered back when Tim Goettelmann scored the first of his seven goals on the day to tie the game 1-1.

The Irish then ripped off four consecutive goals by different players. Junior Chris Young got the Notre Dame run started, with classmate Tom Glatzel, senior Stedman Oakey, and sophomore John Flandina following, to open up the contest as the scoring burst gave Notre Dame a lead it would never relinquish.

Ending the first half with a 10-5 advantage over the Greyhounds, the Irish dominated the play on the field. Loyola would make a run at the end of the game, but the Irish defense and senior goaltender Kirk Howell, who had 13 saves in the game, would enable the Irish to hold their lead.

Loyola's Gunnar Goettelmann, Tim Goettelmann, Bobby Horsey, and Mike Battista combined to score eight goals in the final 20 minutes of the game to close the gap. Loyola took 15 shots in the fourth period, but Howell, who had five saves in the quarter, and the Irish defense kept the Irish lead intact.

Eleven different players scored for the Irish on the day, helping to solve the Greyhound defense that only allowed two goals in the first meeting. The Irish were led by Glatzel's four goals and three assists.

2000 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#4 Johns Hopkins 15, #13 Notre Dame 11 May 21, 2000/Baltimore, Md.

After an upset win over fifth-ranked Loyola, the Irish put their best efforts up against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA tournament. The Blue Jays, with a strong offensive attack and playing on their home field, proved to be a tough second-round matchup for the Irish, who were bidding for their first appearance in the national semifinals.

Dan Denihan led the Johns Hopkins attack with four goals and four assists, as the fourth-seeded Blue Jays posted a 15-11 victory over the Irish, who closed out the campaign with a 10-4 record. The loss snapped a seven-game winning streak for the Irish, as Notre Dame posted its fourth 10-win season during head coach Kevin Corrigan's tenure.

Leading 7-6 with 5:10 to play in the second quarter, Denihan and Bobby Benson scored three goals each to key an 8-2 run that saw the Blue Jays pull out to an insurmountable 15-8 lead with 3:50 remaining in the third quarter. Todd Ulrich scored two of his team-high three markers in the fourth quarter, as Notre Dame held Hopkins scoreless and provided the final four-goal margin.

ND jumped out to a 3-2 advantage with 1:15 left in the first quarter when Chris Young scored on David Ulrich's second assist of the game. Johns Hopkins responded with a 5-0 run, thanks in part to two goals from Conor Denihan, to take a 7-3 advantage. Jon Harvey, one of four multiple-goal scorers for the Irish, then closed a 3-0 Notre Dame run that reduced the lead to 7-6 midway through the second quarter, setting the stage for the Blue Jays' game-clinching spurt as Johns Hopkins outscored the Irish 7-2 in the decisive third period.

#4 Notre Dame 12, #10 Bucknell 7 May 13, 2001/West Point, N.Y.

Playing as a seeded team in the NCAA tournament for the first time in the 21-year history of its program, the fifth-seeded Irish beat Bucknell 12-7 in the first-ever meeting between the schools. With the win, Notre Dame advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA championship for the second consecutive season and third time in seven years.

Four players scored multiple goals for the Irish, as Notre Dame added to its record-setting season with its 13th win of the year and eighth straight victory. The eight-game winning streak matched its longest since the 1994 campaign. The contest was close for the first 18 minutes until John Flandina's early second-period goal gave the Irish a 3-2 advantage and began a streak of six consecutive goals by six different players.

After a tightly-played first quarter featuring just one goal by each team, the Irish and Bison traded scores early in the second period before Notre Dame's six-goal run. Leading 8-2 just 39 seconds into the third period, the Irish allowed three Bison goals in the third quarter, as Notre Dame held a 9-5 advantage entering the final stanza.

The Irish opened the fourth quarter by scoring three straight goals, including a pair by senior attackman Jon Harvey.

Eight different players scored for the fourth-ranked Irish, who were led by four seniors notching two goals each. In addition to Harvey scoring a pair, David Ulrich, Chris Young, and Steve Bishko also added two scores each. Tom Glatzel registered a goal and dished off a game-high four assists, while goalie Kirk Howell came up with eight saves in goal.

Wes Fletchet scored three goals to lead the Bison in their first-ever NCAA tournament appearance.

Attackman Tom Glatzel scored an Irish NCAA Championship record of seven points in Notre Dame's 15-13 upset of #5 Loyola in the opening round of the 2000 tournament, tallying four goals and assisting on three others.

Mike Adams – who would be tabbed honorable mention All-America at the conclusion of the season – was a key force in Notre Dame's best-ever NCAA-tournament defensive performance, allowing just seven goals – only two in the first half en route to a five-goal intermission advantage – in a first-round tilt against Bucknell in 2001.

2001 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#4 Notre Dame 13, #3 Johns Hopkins 9 May 20, 2001/College Park, Md.

Notre Dame advanced to its first-ever national semifinal with a 13-9 win over fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins. The Irish scored five straight fourth-period goals in a 5:21 span over the final six-and-a-half minutes of the game to snap an 8-8 tie on the way to the first quarterfinal victory in school history and ninth straight win (tying a school record).

The win also marked Notre Dame's first win over Johns Hopkins in four all-time contests – all in the NCAA tournament – and avenged the 2000 quarterfinal loss.

Senior Tom Glatzel paced the Irish with four goals and an assist, while fellow senior Jon Harvey added three goals and junior midfielder John Flandina collected a pair of goals and an assist in the win.

Flandina scored both of his goals in the five-goal flurry, beginning with the go-ahead goal that gave the Irish a 9-8 advantage with 6:29 remaining in the contest, ending a span of more than 10 minutes without a score. Following Flandina's score, Steve Bishko added his first score of the day to give the Irish a 10-8 advantage with 4:02 to play in the game. Flandina netted his second goal of the day off a feed from Todd Ulrich with 2:54 remaining and then Harvey scored Notre Dame's final goal with 58 seconds left to play. Bobby Benson, who led the Blue Jays with three goals, tallied the game's final score with 11 minutes remaining in the contest for the final four-goal margin.

Johns Hopkins scored on its first three shots of the game to take a 3-1 lead in the game just 5:11 into the contest, but the Irish scored four consecutive goals to take a 5-3 lead with 9:50 left in the second quarter. After David Ulrich scored unassisted to cut the lead to 3-2, sophomore middie Travis Wells scored two of Notre Dame's next three goals, marking the first multiple-goal game of his career.

Notre Dame went ahead 4-3 with 47 seconds left in the first period, and then Wells put the Irish up 5-3 with 9:50 left in the second period. The two teams traded goals for the remainder of the first half, as the Irish led 7-5 at the intermission.

Johns Hopkins tied the game less than four minutes into the second half, and then the two teams traded scores in the final three minutes of the third quarter as the third period ended knotted at 8-8. From there, both defenses took over before Flandina's goal with 6:29 remaining.

2001 NCAA Tournament – Semifinals

#2 Syracuse 12, #4 Notre Dame 5 May 26, 2001/Piscataway, N.J.

The most successful season in the history of the Notre Dame men's lacrosse program ended in the semifinals of the NCAA Championship, as the Irish fell victim to defending national champion Syracuse 12-5 at Rutgers Stadium in Piscataway, N.J. Coach Kevin Corrigan's squad ended the campaign with a 14-2 mark and set school records for most wins and single-season winning percentage (.875).

The 12 goals allowed and the seven-goal defeat were the largest of the season, while the loss snapped a nine-game winning streak, as the Irish were held to a season-low five goals in the loss.

Senior David Ulrich concluded his Notre Dame career with a goal and two assists to lead the Irish, while Jon Harvey netted two goals in his final collegiate outing.

Notre Dame trailed just 4-2 after the first period, but was outscored 5-1 in the second stanza, as the defense of the Orangemen kept the Irish in check for most of the contest.

Chris Young tallied his lone goal of the game 2:53 into the contest, as the Irish took a 1-0 lead. Syracuse scored four unanswered goals in just over three minutes to take a 4-1 advantage before Harvey scored the first of his two goals with 5:23 remaining in the quarter.

The Orangemen scored the first five goals of the second quarter before the Irish got on the scoreboard on Kyle Frigon's unassisted goal with 1:45 remaining in the second period, as the Orangemen held a 9-3 halftime advantage.

Michael Springer tallied a career-high six goals for Syracuse in the game, as five different players contributed scores. Mike Powell had four assists and Liam Banks added three to lead the Orangemen in that category.

Kirk Howell stopped 14 of Syracuse's 33 shots in the game.

2006 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#1 Virginia 14, #15 Notre Dame 10

May 13, 2006/Charlottesville, Va.

A four-goal effort from Matt Ward propelled No. 1 Virginia to a 14-10 victory over No. 15 Notre Dame in the first round of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship at Klockner Stadium. With the win, the Cavaliers move to the quarterfinals of the tournament, while the Fighting Irish end their season with a 10-5 mark overall.

Freshman Ryan Hoff netted his third hat trick of the season for the Irish, while seniors Brian Hubschmann and Matt Karweck chipped in two goals and one assist apiece. Fellow senior Pat Walsh dished out three assists on the day to end his stellar Notre Dame career just two assists shy from tying the program's career mark in that category. Virginia's Ward also collected two assists to complete a game-high five points as did his teammate Danny Glading on two goals and three assists.

Virginia opened up a 3-0 lead by the 6:40 mark of the first quarter on two goals from Matt Ward along with a Steve Giannone tally. The defense of the Cavaliers also hounded the Irish early on by not allowing many good looks in the opening period.

Notre Dame broke through with under a minute left in the first quarter as Hubschmann netted an unassisted man-up goal to make it a 3-1 game at the end of the first 15 minutes of play. Sophomore goaltender Joey Kemp came up with some huge saves early to keep the Irish in the contest. The sophomore collected a season-high 20 saves on the day.

The Cavaliers regained a three-goal advantage early in the second quarter as Kyle Dixon found the back of the net with just 28 seconds elapsed in the period. When it looked as though Virginia might break the game open, Notre Dame took control of the tempo en route to a 3-0 run to knot the game at 4-4 with 4:18 remaining in the half.

Freshman Peter Christman took a feed from Karweck to slice the deficit to 4-2 with 10:55 left in the second. After a couple unsuccessful attempts to make it a one-goal game, Bill Liva finally capitalized for the Fighting Irish as he controlled a rebound and sent it in with 4:33 left. Notre Dame's Taylor Clagett won the ensuing faceoff and D.J. Driscoll picked up the groundball and found Hubschmann, who sent it in to make it a 4-4 contest.

Virginia soon regained the momentum as the Cavaliers went on a 3-0 run to end the first half and take a 7-4 lead into the locker room. Danny Glading, Garrett Billings and Matt Poskay notched the Virginia goals in that span.

The Cavaliers extended their surge into the second half with scores from Dixon and Ward to up the lead to 9-4 at the 11:36 mark. The Irish kept on fighting with back-to-back goals from Hoff, with Walsh collecting the assist on both tallies.

With the score 9-6 midway through the third period, the Cavaliers rattled off three goals in-a-row in less than five minutes to claim their largest lead of the contest at 12-6. Notre Dame once again struck back with a man-up goal from Karweck on an assist from Walsh to close out the quarter with Virginia leading 12-7.

The Irish would outscore the Cavaliers 3-2 in the fourth quarter yet it would not be enough as Virginia captured the 14-10 win and a berth in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship next weekend. Scoring for Notre Dame in the final period was Karweck, Liva and Hoff.

Virginia held a 50-34 advantage in shots, while Notre Dame won the face-off battle as Clagett went 16-28. The Irish also converted on three of five extra-man opportunities. Virginia's Kip Turner made 10 saves on the day.

The final margin was the second-closest for top-ranked Virginia on the season and its closest contest at home.

2007 NCAA Tournament - First Round

#5 Johns Hopkins 11, #9 Notre Dame 10 (OT)

May 12, 2007/Baltimore, Md.

A Michael Kimmel goal one minute into sudden-death overtime gave No. 5 Johns Hopkins an 11-10 victory over No. 9 Notre Dame in NCAA Tournament first-round play at Homewood Field on May 12. Junior midfielder Michael Podgajny led the Irish with a career-high tying four goals, while senior Brian Hubschmann added three goals and two assists. Notre Dame concluded its season with an 11-4 record, while Johns Hopkins improved to 10-4.

The back-and-forth thriller featured two 40-minute weather delays due to lightning and heavy rain in the area. It also marked Notre Dame's first overtime contest in over two seasons and its first ever in NCAA Tournament play.

With the Irish trailing 10-8 midway through the fourth quarter, freshman Will Yeatman fed sophomore Ryan Hoff to cut the deficit in half for the Irish. Johns Hopkins had a 10-9 lead and the ball with under a minute left in regulation when the Fighting Irish defense forced a turnover and Hubschmann found Hoff in front of the goal for the equalizer with nine seconds left to force overtime. The Blue Jays won the faceoff in overtime and Kimmel put a low shot in the back of the net to snap Notre Dame's eight-game win streak.

Notre Dame struck first in the contest as Podgajny upped his team-best goal streak to 15 games with a tally just over a minute into the game. Stephen Peyser countered for Johns Hopkins with a goal with 10:04 left in the first quarter. The first weather delay then occurred with 9:12 left on the clock.

Once play resumed, the Irish went on a 3-0 run beginning with Hubschmann's first goal of the day as he scooped up a ground ball off a failed Blue Jay clear and beat Johns Hopkins goaltender Jesse Schwartzman. Podgajny struck again with eight seconds left on the clock in the first quarter, off a pass from Hubschmann, to give Notre Dame a 3-1 lead after the first 15 minutes of play. Hubschmann gave the Irish a three-goal cushion with his second tally of the night with just over five minutes elapsed in the second quarter.

Johns Hopkins, the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament, responded with a 6-1 run. Goals from Jake Byrne and Steven Boyle cut Notre Dame's lead to one (4-3) at halftime.

The Blue Jays evened the contest with 9:40 left in the third quarter on a Paul Rabil goal and then took their first lead when Byrne found the back of the net just over a minute later. Notre Dame came back with a man-up tally from Brett Vecchio to make it 5-5 with 7:40 left in the third period.

Scores from Drew Dabrowski and Brian Christopher gave Johns Hopkins a 7-5 lead when another weather delay hit with 2:54 remaining in the third quarter.

The Irish would once again come out of the delay with a goal as Podgajny netted his third score. A back-and-forth game then ensued as the next six goals alternated between both teams.

Byrne made it 8-6 in favor of Johns Hopkins, yet Hubschmann responded as he completed his hat trick with one second left on the clock in the third quarter. Notre Dame had scores come with under 10 seconds left in three of the game's four quarters.

Rabil opened the fourth-quarter scoring and Podgajny countered with his fourth tally, on a pass from Davey Leach, to make it 9-8 in favor of the Blue Jays with 10:03 left in the period. Less than two minutes later, Christopher put Johns Hopkins back up by two before the back-to-back goals from Hoff forced overtime.

Notre Dame goaltender Joey Kemp, the Great Western Lacrosse League's player of the year, made eight saves on the night. Schwartzman stopped 14 shots for the Blue Jays. The Irish held a 43-36 advantage in shots, while Johns Hopkins won 17 of 24 faceoff attempts.

Attackman Randy Colley – the school's all-time leading scorer with 273 points – was the top offensive player (43 G, 28 A) on the 1992 squad that still holds Irish records for goals, assists, points, and shots in a season.

The 2001 Notre Dame squad was ranked as high as #2 in the nation, posted a 14-2 record, and reached the semifinals of the NCAA Championship.

Byron V. Kanaley Award

The Byron V. Kanaley Award is the most prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete. It has been presented each year since 1927 at commencement exercises and honors senior monogram athletes who have been exemplary as students and leaders. The award is selected by the Faculty Board on Athletics and is named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University in the Alumni Association and as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960. Robert Williamson was the recipient in 1993 and is the lone Notre Dame lacrosse player to win the Kanaley Award.

(NCAA Tournament first round)

Number in parentheses to the right of opponent indicates its United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association national ranking (or Inside Lacrosse, if first USILA poll has not yet been released) at time of game (1992-present) and number to left is Notre Dame's ranking (1996-present).

+ - indicates conference game

-- indicates Midwest Lacrosse Association game, but not Great Lakes Conference game

Series vs. Opponents

Steve Fiamingo, an Academic All-American, helped Notre Dame top #17 Army in 2000 by a 10-5 score.

Note: Rank column has Notre Dame's USILA (or Inside Lacrosse if game was too early in season for first USILA poll to be released) national ranking at time of game followed by opponent's USILA national ranking at time of game.
* indicates NCAA Tournament

IRISH ON NATIONAL TEAMS

Over the past decade, three Notre Dame players – Mike Iorio ('95), Todd Rassas ('98), and Pat Walsh ('06) – have represented their country by playing on their respective national teams. Each helped Team U.S.A. to an International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) world championship, extending the influence of Irish lacrosse far beyond the borders of the United States.

In the summer of 2003, Walsh, the first freshman All-America honoree in Notre Dame history, played a key role in helping the U.S. continue its streak of dominance in the ILF Under-19 World Championship. After making his way through the national team tryouts, which boasted more than 150 of the nation's top young players, Walsh had four goals and three assists to lead Team U.S.A. in its 19-10 triumph over Canada in the championship game. In six games during the tournament, Walsh had 13 goals and eight assists, including at least two points in each contest.

Todd Rassas, a three-time All-American at Notre Dame, helped the United States to a victory in the 2002 ILF World Championship in Perth, Australia and a silver medal finish in the 2006 tournament in Canada. The 2002 squad defeated rival Canada 18-15 in the title game to secure Team U.S.A.'s sixth consecutive triumph in the ILF World Championship, which is contested every four years. In 2006, Team U.S.A. fell to Canada 15-10 in the championship game.

Mike Iorio, the first three-time All-American in Irish history, earned all-world honors as a member of the United States under-19 team in 1992. Iorio started for the national team on defense, in helping the Americans to a gold medal in the world championship, held at Hofstra University.

Notre Dame's founding can perhaps best be characterized as an outburst of missionary zeal. How else can one describe the action of Father Edward Sorin, the 28-year-old French priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross who — with $310 cash and three log buildings in various stages of disrepair in the middle of the northern Indiana frontier — had the temerity to christen his enterprise the University of Notre Dame du Lac?

Notre Dame at its founding was a name in search of, or perhaps in anticipation of, a university. The wonder is not so much what the University has become more than a century and a half later, but that it survived at all in those early years of beginning almost literally from nothing.

In his book, The University of Notre Dame: A Portrait of Its History and Campus, historian Thomas Schlereth of the American studies department has described the odds the University was up against: "Only nine other Catholic colleges existed when Notre Dame was founded, but that number had grown to 51 by 1861. Presently only seven of these antebellum institutions still exist. One historian estimates a mortality rate of approximately 80 percent among Notre Dame's contemporary secular institutions. Yet Notre Dame survived ..."

The University's survival of those early years is a tribute not only to the faith of Father Sorin, but also to his pragmatism and wit. In the beginning, his institution's only admissions requirement was the ability to pay — some payment, at least, and not necessarily in currency or coin; livestock or the services of a tradesman or some other "in-kind" payment also were cheerfully accepted. Nor were admissions limited by religious preference. Father Sorin's mission and inspiration were thoroughly and indisputably Catholic, but from the beginning he made it clear that would-be students of any religious persuasion were welcome; indeed, the fact that Notre Dame's student body eventually would become overwhelmingly Catholic was more a reflection of American culture than of parochialism on the University's part.

Sorin was equally flexible when it came to his University's academic offerings. While a classical collegiate curriculum was established early on, so too were elementary and preparatory programs as well as a manual-labor school, and for several decades the collegiate program never attracted more than a dozen students in any year. As Notre Dame's chronicler, Father Arthur Hope, C.S.C., has written, "If (Sorin) was to begin at all, the head of this new college had to be mightily concerned about frostbite and empty stomachs. The more elusive problems of intellectual development would have to wait."

If Notre Dame in its infancy was the child of Sorin's vision and will, its subsequent growth and development were the products of large and powerful social and historical forces. Just as the University was being established, the first waves of European immigrants, overwhelmingly Catholic, were reaching America's shores, and Notre Dame's location — though seemingly remote — in fact put it within easy reach of cities like Chicago, Detroit and St. Louis, all of which soon would have large immigrant Catholic populations. The immigrant experience and the growth of the University of Notre Dame would be inextricably linked.

A number of forces were at work in this relationship. The "American Dream" was coming into being, and with it the hope and expectation that, through hard work and education, children would enjoy greater opportunities than their parents. At the same time, anti-immigrant and anti-Catholic sentiments were open and pervasive in American society, creating barriers to immigrant Catholic students. Equally strong sentiments among many Catholics regarded public schools at any level as dangerous places where young people might lose their faith. For all these reasons, education — primary, secondary and higher education — became a centerpiece of American Catholicism.

Though it may not have seemed so at the time, this great historical movement of peoples and the creation of the American melting pot dramatically enhanced the odds of Notre Dame's survival. What still had to be decided, however, was precisely the type of institution Notre Dame would become. How could this small Midwestern school without endowment and without ranks of well-to-do alumni hope to compete with firmly-established private universities and public-supported state institutions? As in Sorin's day, the fact that the University pursued this lofty and ambitious vision of its future was testimony to the faith of its leaders — men such as Father John Zahm, C.S.C.

As Schlereth describes it: "Zahm ... envisioned Notre Dame as potentially 'the intellectual center of the American West,' an institution with large undergraduate, graduate, and professional schools equipped with laboratories, libraries, and research facilities. Notre Dame should strive to become the University that its charter claimed it was."

Zahm was not without evidence to support his faith in Notre Dame's potential. On this campus in 1899, a young Notre Dame scientist by the name of Jerome Green became the first American to transmit a wireless message. At about the same time, Albert Zahm, Father John's younger brother, was designing the first successful helicopter and first wind tunnel while also launching the first man-carrying glider from the roof of a campus building. The University also had established the nation's first architecture, law and engineering schools under Catholic auspices.

The debate over Notre Dame's future effectively was ended in the two decades following the First World War. In 1919, the University installed its first president to have earned a Ph.D., Father James Burns, C.S.C., and the changes he initiated were as dramatic as they were far-reaching. The elementary, preparatory and manual-labor programs were scrapped; the University's first board of lay advisors was established with the goal of creating a $1-million endowment, with a national campaign conducted to achieve that goal; and the first annual giving program for alumni was launched. With this impetus established, the period between 1919 and 1933 would see the University of Notre Dame erect 15 new buildings and triple the numbers of both its students and its faculty.

A new and utterly unanticipated element was added to the ethos of Notre Dame during this period, and the University forever after would be a national institution. That new element was, of course, the game of football. But for Notre Dame and for its legions of ethnic American loyalists — most, but not all, Catholic — the cliché was true: football was more than a game. Through its academic program, Notre Dame already was part of the striving of ethnic Americans to earn a place in the American mainstream. But in this golden era, even for those who had never and would never attend Notre Dame, the University became a symbol, so much so that its attraction persists literally to this day.

The national recognition that football brought to Notre Dame was a mixed blessing at those times when it tended to overshadow the University's growing academic distinction, but overall it has been an almost incalculable boon to public awareness of, interest in, and support of Notre Dame. It may be amusing to speculate how the University's history might have been different without the phenomenon of football, but the University is happy to accept this legacy as is.

If the post-World War I era saw Notre Dame's first flowering as a true University, the six decades since the Second World War have seen the vision of John Zahm reach full fruition. Father John Cavanaugh, C.S.C., began the process after the war by toughening Notre Dame's entrance requirements, increasing faculty hiring, and establishing the Notre Dame Foundation to expand the University's development capabilities.

Then, during the 35-year tenure of Father Theodore Hesburgh, C.S.C., Notre Dame's enrollment, faculty and degrees awarded all doubled; library volumes increased five-fold; the endowment catapulted from less than $10 million to more than $400 million; campus physical facilities grew from 48 to 88 buildings; faculty compensation increased ten-fold; and research funding grew more than twenty-fold. In addition, two defining moments occurred during this period: the transference of University governance in 1967 from the Congregation of Holy Cross to a predominantly lay board of trustees and the admission of women to undergraduate studies in 1972.

During the 18-year presidency of Father Edward Malloy, C.S.C., the University continued to grow in stature. Endowed faculty positions rose to more than 190, the student body became — and remains — one of the most selective in the nation (with one-third of entering freshmen ranking among the top five students in their high school graduating classes), and the graduation rate annually in the top five in the nation. The University is endowment of some $5 billion is among the top 20 in American higher education, and campus additions during the Malloy years included new research laboratories, a graduate student housing complex, residence halls for undergraduate women (who now compose 47 percent of the student body), the 84-classroom DeBartolo Hall, the Mendoza College of Business, the DeBartolo Center for the Performing Arts, and the Jordan Hall of Science.

Father John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., who became Notre Dame's 17th president in July of 2005, has challenged his administration and the faculty, students, alumni and friends of the University to, in words from his inaugural speech, "build a Notre Dame that is bigger and better than ever — a great Catholic university for the 21st century, one of the pre-eminent research institutions in the world, a center for learning whose intellectual and religious traditions converge to make it a healing, unifying, enlightening force for a world deeply in need. This is our goal. Let no one ever again say that we dreamed too small."

Some goals are self-evident. The University must strive at all times to bring new vigor to its teaching and to enhance both the breadth and the depth of the education it offers students. At the same time, it must strengthen significantly its graduate programs and faculty research to make ever-greater contributions in the quest for new knowledge.

But the institutional mission of Notre Dame reaches beyond these goals.

The higher aspiration of the University of Notre Dame is to seek out and assume leadership roles through which students and alumni, faculty, interdisciplinary institutes, and professional programs can bring their accomplishments to bear on the most basic and pressing needs of humanity — for peace and social justice, for human rights and dignity, for ethical conduct in business, science and the professions, for a renewal of values in interpersonal and societal relationships, and for a more-enlightened stewardship of the environment, to name but a few of the challenges.

This aspiration is incumbent upon Notre Dame as a Catholic university. Today, as throughout its history, Notre Dame's position in American culture mirrors that of the Catholic Church. The world is very different from the one encountered by Father Sorin on his arrival in this country. The tangible barriers faced then by Catholic students and scholars have largely been removed, and today one may find such students and scholars at Harvard, Stanford and Duke, as well as at Notre Dame. American Catholics are firmly implanted in the American mainstream.

At the same time, the secularization of contemporary American society is an undisputed fact, and with that transformation has come a weakening of common values, an antipathy to belief, and a resistance to the very notion of underlying truths. One expression of this viewpoint is the contention that a Catholic university is a contradiction in terms, that reason and belief are somehow mutually exclusive. The Catholic intellectual tradition and the Western university tradition itself stand in opposition to this contention, as does Notre Dame.

It is a telling act that throughout Notre Dame's history, and increasingly in recent years, many eminent scholars of various faith traditions have made the University their home simply because they have preferred to work in a community of learning where belief is not merely tolerated, but in fact is celebrated.

Father Sorin's dream was predicated on his conviction that a university would be a powerful force for good in this land that he embraced as his own. For the University of Notre Dame, Sorin's conviction remains the inspiration, the mission and the driving force.

Kevin White, one of the most progressive and talented administrators in the intercollegiate athletics ranks, quickly attached his signature as director of athletics at the University of Notre Dame. His initial seven years in that position qualify as the most successful across-the-board years in the history of athletics at Notre Dame.

In addition, he has been cast in a handful of prominent national roles within collegiate athletics – including his ongoing representation with the Bowl Championship Series, his service in 2006-07 as president of NACDA (the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics) and in 2005-06 as president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association. He also is part of the steering committee for Chicago's bid for the 2016 Summer Olympic Games.

White and his Notre Dame athletics program are coming off a 2006-07 season that included three national players of the year (Kerri Hanks and Joe Lapira as Hermann Trophy winners in women's and men's soccer – and Brady Quinn as Maxwell Award winner in football), a national coach of the year in Jeff Jackson (hockey), plus three NCAA post-graduate scholarship winners (most since 1975) in Ted Brown (swimming), Stephanie Brown (softball) and Maryann Erigha (track and field).

A record-setting '06-'07 hockey season that included 32 wins, seven weeks ranked number one, a first-ever Central Collegiate Hockey Association regular-season title and a first-ever CCHA Tournament title headlined an athletic year that also featured an NCAA runner-up finish (and number-one ranking most of the year) in women's soccer, 15 teams ranked in the final top 25 (nine in the top 10), 32 All-Americans, 10 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and nine conference coach-of-the-year selections.

Sports Illustrated On Campus (the online subset of Sports Illustrated's SI.com) ranked Notre Dame's overall athletic program seventh best in the country for 2006-07 – with extra credit for success in football and basketball.

White was named the 2006 GeneralSports TURF Systems Division I-A Central Region Athletic Director of the Year – thanks to Notre Dame's best-ever sixth-place finish in the NACDA Cup competition, its 44 All-Americans, 14 Academic All-Americans, five combination All-American/Academic All-Americans and 13 BIG EAST Conference titles, all Irish records.

Twenty-four (of 26) Notre Dame programs qualified teams or individuals for postseason play in 2005-06, 16 teams finished in national top-25 rankings, nine finished in the top 10, six ended up in the top 10 in NCAA competition and four achieved top-four NCAA finishes (men's and women's fencing, women's lacrosse and men's cross country). Three Notre Dame head coaches received national coach-of-the-year recognition in 2005-06 – Charlie Weis in football, Jay Louderback in women's tennis and Tracy Coyne in women's lacrosse.

A career educator and one of the most respected athletic administrators in the nation, White previously had been athletics director at Arizona State University, Tulane University, the University of Maine, and Loras College. He brought a combined 18 years (1982-83 to 1999-2000) of experience in those positions with him to his assignment at Notre Dame.

Appointed on March 13, 2000, White became the first Notre Dame athletic director to report directly to the University's president. After agreeing to an original five-year contract as well as a five-year extension, White in December 2002 saw his commitment extended an additional two years to 2012.

White's first seven years at Notre Dame from 2000-01 through 2006-07 saw unprecedented achievement on Irish fields of play:

- Notre Dame finished 11th, 13th, 13th, 19th, 16th, a program-best sixth, then 22nd, respectively, in the NACDA Directors' Cup (formerly sponsored by Sears) all-sports ratings in those seven years, accounting for its best-ever seven-year run in that competition.
- Irish teams have achieved number-one national rankings 13 times during his years at Notre Dame – women's basketball in 2000-01; baseball in '01; men's fencing in '00, '02 and '03; women's fencing in '04, '05 and '06; women's soccer in '00, '04, '05 and '06, and hockey in 2007.
- The Irish claimed the '01 national championship in women's basketball; the '03 and '05 NCAA titles in fencing (a men's and women's combined championship); the '04 crown in women's soccer; a runner-up finish in '06 in women's soccer, third-place finishes in fencing in '01, '02 and '04, in women's cross country in '03, and in men's cross country in '05; national semifinal appearances in women's soccer in '00 and men's lacrosse in '01, and a College World Series appearance in baseball in 2002.
- Notre Dame has seen its number of athletes earning All-America honors improve regularly – to a record 44 in 2005-06.
- Notre Dame's record-setting 2005-06 season saw 24 of 26 programs send teams or individuals to postseason play. Sixteen of a possible 22 teams earned national rankings in 2000-01, including 10 that achieved the highest rating in the history of the program. In 2001-02, 20 of 26 teams qualified for NCAA competition. In 2002-03, 13 sports managed top 25 national finishes – and 17 advanced to postseason competition. In 2003-04 an unprecedented 22 teams qualified for NCAA competition, including two (hockey and women's golf) that accomplished that for the first time and a third (men's golf) that made the field for the first time in 38 years. Twenty Irish squads in 2004-05 advanced teams or individuals to NCAA play.
- Notre Dame in 2002 was the only school in the country to qualify all six of its teams – men's and women's soccer, men's and women's cross country, volleyball and football – for fall NCAA tournament competition (or, in the case of football, a bowl game). Notre Dame and Texas were the only schools in 2002-03 to play in football bowl games and have both their men's and women's basketball squads advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 round. In 2005, Notre Dame was the only school to win at least twice in both NCAA soccer tournaments and in the NCAA volleyball championship (men's soccer and volleyball won twice, women's soccer had three NCAA wins). Notre Dame, Penn State and California were the only schools to win at least once in those three 2005 NCAA tournaments and also play in a Division I football bowl game.

- Notre Dame won the BIG EAST Conference Commissioner's Trophy for overall athletic success in league play in 2001, '02 and '03 for both men and women (the trophy was no longer awarded after 2003) – and the Irish annually lead the league in conference titles, including a record 13 in 2005-06.

His initial seven years on the job at Notre Dame featured a handful of other noteworthy accomplishments:

- He helped the Irish athletics program toward its goal of becoming a top five program in the NACDA Directors' Cup competition by championing the University's plan to add 64 grants-in-aid over a four-year span (that goal was announced in December 2000), in order to give all 26 varsity sports the full NCAA complement of scholarships.
- He emphasized the need to remain competitive on the facilities front by commissioning a facilities master plan that now provides a long-term plan for upgrading Notre Dame's athletic physical plant. The first facility from that plan opened in 2005, with the addition of the Guglielmino Athletics Complex that provides a day-to-day home for the Irish football program as well as enhanced space for training, sports medicine, equipment, and strength and conditioning for all Notre Dame student-athletes. Opened in fall 2006 was the 10,500-square foot Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility that serves as the home of the Notre Dame men's and women's golf teams. Plans have been announced for a refurbished Joyce Center arena, ground has been broken for a new softball stadium and a major gift has been received for a new lacrosse stadium.
- On the academic front, Irish student-athletes enjoyed their most productive year ever in the classroom in 2005-06 – as for the first time in the 2005 fall semester and the 2006 spring semester, every Notre Dame program achieved at least a 3.0 grade-point average. A Notre Dame record 14 individuals claimed Academic All-America notice in 2005-06 – followed by 10 in 2006-07.

- The American Football Coaches Association awarded its Academic Achievement Award for 2001 to Notre Dame based on its 100 percent graduation for entering freshmen from 1995 – then again for 2007 based on a 95 percent rate from the class that entered in 2001. The University received a 2002 USA Today/NCAA Academic Achievement Award for graduating 90 percent of its student-athletes who enrolled in 1995 – and it also received the 2003 award for highest overall student-athlete graduation rate (92 percent of those who enrolled in 1996).
  - When the NCAA first issued its Academic Performance Rate graduation numbers in 2005, Irish teams excelled, with 13 of them earning a perfect 1,000 score. In the three-year combined numbers issued in 2007, Notre Dame's nine perfect scores ranked second (to Boston College's 10) in the I-A football-playing subset. Notre Dame in '07 had 11 programs honored for multi-year APR achievement.
  - Seventeen of 22 athletics programs at Notre Dame compiled graduation rates of 100 percent, according to the Graduation Success Rate figures announced in 2006-07 by the NCAA (no other Division I-A football school had as many as 17). Among 119 I-A football schools, Notre Dame's GSR numbers ranked second (98 percent) for all student-athletes, second (97) for male student-athletes, tied for fourth (99) for female student-athletes, fourth (91) for black student-athletes and third (95) for football student-athletes. When the final 2005 USA Today football poll of coaches was re-ranked by football GSR score, Notre Dame (11th in the actual poll) finished first in that tabulation at 96, just ahead of Clemson at 94 (21st in actual poll).
  - The NCAA Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association gave one of its four 2000 awards of excellence to Notre Dame's CHAMPS/Life Skills Program
  - He assured long-term consistency in the Irish coaching ranks by signing Notre Dame head coaches to multi-year contracts – with all assistant coaches and administrators signing contracts for the first time starting in 2001-02.
  - He renewed in 2003 Notre Dame's NBC Sports contract for televising of home football games for five more years (2006-10 for that renewal, extending the relationship to 20 years) and its Westwood One contract for football radio broadcasts for five more years (2003-07). He also created the new football radio network relationship with ISP Sports that begins in 2008 and extends to 2017.
  - He oversaw the University's NCAA re-certification process in 2004 as Notre Dame went through that self-study and peer review process for the first time since 1997. The University's athletics program was recertified without conditions, with the committee noting that Notre Dame is "committed to academic success of its student-athletes and demonstrates this by requiring three more core courses than what is required by the NCAA," that Notre Dame "student-athletes are quite satisfied with quantity and quality of academic support and attribute much of the success around graduation rates to this service," and that Notre Dame has "affirmed and demonstrated its commitment to fair and equitable treatment" of male, female and minority student-athletes.
- In addition to the varsity athletic component, White's assignment at Notre Dame also includes administration of a comprehensive intramural, club sport and campus recreation program, with 95 percent of the student body participating. Sports Illustrated On Campus rated the Irish intramural program tops in the nation in 2004.

With a Ph.D. in education, White has taught graduate-level classes beginning in 1982-83 with his tenure at Loras, including currently as a concurrent associate professor in the management department of the Mendoza College of Business as part of Notre Dame's MBA program during spring semesters (he teaches a sports business course).

White has served on numerous NCAA committees, including the NCAA Council, formerly the association's highest governing body. In addition to his current role with the BCS, he previously was a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee while at Arizona State, was an ex-officio member of the Sugar Bowl Committee during his tenure at Tulane and also worked closely with the Fiesta Bowl during his stay in Tempe.

In August 2003, SI.com (the Sports Illustrated web site) listed White third in its rankings of the most powerful people in college football. In its Jan. 12, 2004, issue, Sporting News listed him in its Power 100 as third among five names in the "front office" category (and the lone college athletics director among the 100). In December 2004, White was named the 15th most influential individual in collegiate sports by Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal. He has been a member of the NCAA Coalition on Intercollegiate Athletics (COIA) that deals with academics, fiscal reform and student-athlete well-being. He also was an ex-officio member of the NCAA Committee on Academic Performance and a member of its Penalty and Rewards subcommittee.

White has served as mentor for an impressive list of senior level athletics administrators who have worked for him, then gone on to become directors of athletics – including Jim Sterk of Washington State, Tom Boeh of Ohio University and currently Fresno State, Ian McCaw of Northeastern, Massachusetts and currently Baylor, Bruce Van De Velde previously of Iowa State, Herman Frazier of Hawaii, Rudy Keeling formerly of Emerson and now ECAC commissioner, Scott Devine of St. Mary's College (Md.), Tim Van Alstine of Western Illinois, Mark Wilson of Tennessee Tech, Bubba Cunningham of Ball State and currently Tulsa, Sandy Barbour (who followed him at Tulane) of California-Berkeley, Jim Phillips of Northern Illinois, Bernard Muir of Georgetown, Sandy Hatfield Clubb of Drake, Vic Cegles of Long Beach State and Norwood Teague of Virginia Commonwealth.

White has his own weekly, hour-long radio show on WLS-AM 890 in Chicago – and he has a pre-game segment on Westwood One's radio broadcasts of Notre Dame football games.

During his coaching career, White served as head track and field coach at Southeast Missouri State (1981-82) and assistant cross country and track and field coach at Central Michigan (1976-80). He began his coaching career at Gulf High School in New Port Richey, Fla., coaching cross country and track and assisting in football and wrestling. White also spent a year (1980-81) as district administrator for athletics and special projects for the Mt. Morris Consolidated School District in Mt. Morris, Mich. During his tenure at Loras, he originated the National Catholic Basketball Tournament.

Born Sept. 25, 1950, in Amityville, N.Y., White earned his Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University in 1983 with an emphasis on higher education administration (his dissertation title was An Appraisal of the Women's Intercollegiate Athletic Programs, and the Relationship to Men's Athletics at the Big Ten Conference Institutions Before and After Title IX Implementation). In 1985 he completed postdoctoral work at Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management. He earned his master's degree in athletics administration from Central Michigan University in 1976 and his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1972 from St. Joseph's

He was awarded St. Joseph's Alumni Achievement Award in 1997, and he's currently a member of the Loras College Board of Regents. He was a 2006 inductee into the Suffolk County (Long Island, N.Y.) Sports Hall of Fame

White also attended the University of South Florida and St. Leo College in Tampa, Fla., between 1972 and '76 – and he took 60 hours of advanced graduate courses in higher education administration at Michigan State University between 1977 and '80. He received an honorary doctorate in 2007 from the United States Sports Academy.

White's wife, Jane, earned a bachelor's degree from St. Joseph's in 1973 and a master's in physical education from Central Michigan in 1977. She also served as head track and field coach at Central Michigan and currently is an instructor with Notre Dame's physical education department. White and his wife both received honorary degrees from St. Joseph's in 2001.

The couple have five children – Maureen, who completed a master of fine arts degree at Arizona State in 2000 and currently teaches at Notre Dame Prep School in Scottsdale, Ariz.; Michael, a University of Mississippi graduate and four-year starter at point guard for the Ole Miss basketball team and now an assistant basketball coach at his alma mater (after a stint at Jacksonville State University in Alabama); Daniel, a University of Notre Dame graduate and member of the 2000-01 Irish basketball squad, who was an assistant basketball coach at Ohio University while earning his MBA in sports administration there, and now is associate athletics director for development at Fresno State University; Brian, a 2006 graduate of the University of Notre Dame and now an MBA student in the Ohio University sports administration program (he served as an intern in the Arizona State athletics department in 2006-07); and Mariah, a high school junior who is a standout in swimming.

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C.
University President

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., took office as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame on July 1, 2005. He was elected by the University's Board of Trustees to a five-year term April 30, 2004.

An associate professor of philosophy and member of Notre Dame's faculty since 1990, Father Jenkins had served from 2000-2005 as a vice president and associate provost at the University.

Prior to his service in the provost's office, Father Jenkins had been religious superior of the Holy Cross priests and brothers at Notre Dame for three years. As religious superior, he was a Fellow and Trustee of the University, but he relinquished those posts to assume his duties in the provost's office.

Father Jenkins specializes in the areas of ancient philosophy, medieval philosophy and the philosophy of religion. He is the author of Knowledge and Faith in Thomas Aquinas, published by Cambridge University Press in 1997.

Father Jenkins earned degrees in philosophy from Oxford University in 1987 and 1989. He earned his master of divinity degree and licentiate in sacred theology from the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, Calif., in 1988.

Prior to entering the Congregation of Holy Cross, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively. Father Jenkins was ordained a priest in Notre Dame's Basilica of the Sacred Heart in 1983. He served as director of the Old College program for Notre Dame undergraduate candidates for the Congregation of Holy Cross from 1991 to 1993.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

Thomas G. Burish, formerly president at Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Va., and a 1972 Notre Dame alumnus, was elected provost on July 21, 2005. As provost and second-ranking officer of the University, he exercises responsibility for all academic matters. He is the fourth person to hold the office since it was established in 1970. Burish succeeded Nathan O. Hatch, who became president of Wake Forest University. In addition, Burish serves as a professor of psychology at Notre Dame.

Burish had been president of one of the nation's top liberal-arts colleges since July 2002. Prior to joining Washington and Lee and prior to being named president, he was the longest-serving provost in the history of Vanderbilt University. He served as provost at the nationally-renowned research university from 1993 to 2002.

Known as a ground-breaking researcher, award-winning teacher and gifted leader, Burish exemplifies the excellence and humanity to which Notre Dame is dedicated. Through his work, he has helped "tens of thousands of cancer patients better cope with the emotional and physical pain of this disease," according to John R. Seffrin, chief executive officer of the American Cancer Society. Burish currently serves as chair of the American Cancer Society's national board of directors.

Thomas G. Burish
Provost

A native of Peshtigo, Wis., Burish was graduated from Notre Dame, summa cum laude, with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1972. He earned his master's degree in psychology from the University of Kansas in 1975 and a doctorate in clinical psychology from Kansas a year later.

While at Kansas, Burish received the David Shulman Memorial Award of Excellence in Clinical Psychology. He moved in 1976 to Vanderbilt, becoming a full professor in 1986. He won Vanderbilt's prestigious Madison Sarratt Prize for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching in 1980 and served as chair of the department of psychology from 1984 to 1986. Burish became Vanderbilt's provost in 1993. He is the co-author or co-editor of four books, and has contributed to more than 16 other books while writing more than 60 journal articles.

Dr. John Affleck-Graves
Executive Vice President

John Affleck-Graves was elected the first lay executive vice president of Notre Dame in April 2004. A vice president and associate provost the previous three years, he also holds the Notre Dame Chair in Finance in the Mendoza College of Business.

Dr. Affleck-Graves, the fifth person to serve as executive vice president, administers Notre Dame's annual operating budget of more than $700 million and an endowment of approximately $4 billion. He oversees human resource activities for a work force of more than 4,000 employees – the largest in St. Joseph County – and directs the University's construction program.

A native of South Africa and a naturalized U.S. citizen, Dr. Affleck-Graves specializes in the study of initial public offerings, valuation and asset pricing models, and shareholder value-added methodology. He is the author of more than 50 refereed publications and the recipient of numerous teaching awards.

Dr. Affleck-Graves joined the Notre Dame faculty in 1986 after teaching and conducting research for 11 years at the University of Cape Town, where he earned bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees.

Richard C. Notebaert, chairman and chief executive officer of Qwest Communications International, was elected the sixth chair of Notre Dame's Board of Trustees in February 2007 and began service July 1.

A member of the Notre Dame Board since 1997, Notebaert has served as chair of its University Relations and Public Affairs and Communication Committee. He also has served as a Fellow of the University, and continues to serve in that capacity.

Notebaert has directed Qwest since 2002. A renowned leader in broadband, data, voice and image communications, the company is based in Denver. Notebaert previously served as chief executive officer of Tellabs Inc., and as chairman and chief executive officer of Ameritech Communications.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Notebaert is a member of the board of directors of Aon Corp., Cardinal Health Inc., the Denver Center for the Performing Arts and the Denver Art Museum. His professional activities include memberships in the Business Council and the International Advisory Council of the Executives' Club of Chicago. In April 2003 he was appointed by President Bush to the National Security Telecommunications Advisory Committee.

Academic Services

The Academic Services for Student-Athletes Office is designed to help Notre Dame fulfill its commitment to all student-athletes in their pursuit of a college degree and academic excellence. In order to achieve these goals, Academic Services has several major aims:

- To maintain the academic integrity of the University
- To help student-athletes maximize their academic potential
- To comply with University and NCAA rules and regulations
- And to assist all student-athletes as they work towards graduation in four years

These objectives work together and are aimed at teaching student-athletes to be responsible for their academic careers.

To this end, Academic Services provides student-athletes many services that begin when First Year students arrive on campus and continue through graduation. The office provides consistent counseling and appropriate interventions regarding academic matters, in addition to referring student-athletes to campus offices where they can meet regularly with their professors and engage in services provided by the various colleges and departments.

As soon as student-athletes begin classes, Academic Services monitors their progress through regular communication with professors that includes feedback regarding each student's level of work, attendance and any need for additional support. If professors or student-athletes feel there is need for additional help, Academic Services can provide tutorial assistance.

In addition to this interaction with the faculty, the counselors in Academic Services meet regularly with student-athletes. During these meetings, counselors assist the students as they develop both semester-long and career academic goals. Discussions also may include topics such as time management, decision-making and appropriate interactions with faculty.

The Academic Services department received a new home in 2001, through a generous donation by football alumnus Jim Morse ('57) and his wife, Leah Rae, when the Coleman-Morse Center was completed. A $14 million building, the James and Leah Rae Morse Center for Academic Services houses Notre Dame's First Year of Studies program and Academic Services for Student Athletes. It also contains the University Writing Center and a satellite office for the Center for Social Concerns, plus classrooms, staff offices, a tutoring center, computer cluster, work rooms and a lounge.

The Morse Center – which houses the Academic Services for Student-Athletes – opened in 2001 through a generous gift by Notre Dame football alumnus Jim Morse and his wife Leah Rae.

Working in conjunction with several other offices on the Notre Dame campus, Academic Services assists student-athletes with postgraduate planning and transition into professional careers. Although the primary focus of Academic Services is to support and challenge student-athletes during their time at Notre Dame, assisting them as they prepare for life after college remains part of their mission.

Adam Sargent (right) – a former Notre Dame lacrosse player – is one of several academic counselors who each provide regular guidance to Notre Dame teams.

Thank you for your tremendous support of our entire athletics program. Our student-athletes, coaches and administrative staff are very appreciative of your spirit and affinity for Notre Dame, in particular its intercollegiate athletics.

Your adherence to all applicable NCAA rules and regulations is essential as we strive to maintain and enhance our national athletic prominence while protecting the University's tradition of integrity and values.

Our Compliance Office staff stands prepared to assist you with your questions and concerns regarding NCAA regulations. Please contact us immediately should you have concern regarding any situation. Your attention to these matters will ensure that the eligibility of both prospective student-athletes ("recruits") and enrolled student-athletes is protected and maintained. Again, many thanks for your cooperation in this matter and your ongoing support.

Who is a Representative of Notre Dame's Athletics Interests?

(The following lists of examples are not all-inclusive. As always, ask before you act!)

You are if:

- you are an enrolled student or graduate of the University.
- you ever have participated in or are a member of any organization promoting Notre Dame's athletics program (the former Quarterback Club, the 3-Point Club, the Fast-Break Club, etc.).
- you ever have made financial contributions to the University of Notre Dame athletics department.
- you ever have helped to arrange employment of or provided any benefits to prospective or enrolled student-athletes.
- you ever have been a season ticket holder in any sport.
- you ever have promoted the athletics programs at the University of Notre Dame.

According to NCAA rules, once an individual has been identified as an institutional "representative of athletics interests" the individual retains that title for life. The University of Notre Dame ultimately is responsible for the behavior of all its athletics representatives in relation to NCAA rules and regulations. Violations of NCAA regulations by an athletics representative could result in the loss of eligibility for involved student-athletes (e.g. no participation in competitions) and/or severe sanctions against the University (e.g. loss of scholarships, television and post-season bans).

Current Student-Athlete

A student-athlete is any Notre Dame student who is a member of a varsity athletics team.

NCAA regulations apply to all student-athletes, not just those student-athletes who were recruited or who receive an athletics scholarship.

*Note: NCAA regulations concerning enrolled student-athletes remain in effect throughout the entire year (including summer break). If a student-athlete has completed his/her final season of eligibility, all NCAA regulations must be adhered to until he/she graduates or leaves school.

Do's and Don'ts for representatives in regards to a current student-athlete:

(The following lists of examples are not all-inclusive. As always, ask before you act!)

Do's

You may:

- contact a current student-athlete regarding employment opportunities. However, no contact may be made without approval from the Compliance Office.
- provide a student-athlete, not his/her family and friends, an occasional (once a semester) meal at your home.

Don'ts

You may not:

- provide a currently-enrolled student-athlete, his/her parents or friends any benefit or special arrangement without prior approval from the Compliance Office.
- pay for or arrange for payment of room, board or any type of transportation for a student-athlete or his/her family or friends.
- entertain student-athletes or their family and friends. (Exception: NCAA rules do permit institutional staff members and athletics representatives to provide student-athletes [not including their family and friends] with an occasional meal [defined as once a semester] provided the meal is at the staff member's or athletic representative's home and not at a restaurant.)
- use the name, picture or appearance of an enrolled student-athlete to advertise, recommend or promote sales or use of a commercial product or service of any kind; any use of a student-athlete's name, picture or appearance must receive authorization from the Compliance Office.
- provide any payment of expense or loan of an automobile for a student-athlete to return home or to travel to any other location.
- provide awards or gifts to a student-athlete for any reason; all awards provided to student-athletes must first be approved by the Compliance Office and meet all NCAA regulations.
- provide an honorarium to a student-athlete for a speaking engagement; all speaking engagements must be approved in advance by the Compliance Office.
- allow a student-athlete or his/her relatives or friends to use your telephone to make free calls.
- provide free or reduced-cost lodging in your home to a student-athlete or a student-athlete's family or friends.

Prospective Student-Athlete

A prospective student-athlete is any student who has started classes for ninth grade. Any student younger who receives any benefits from an institution or athletics representative would become a prospect. In addition, student-athletes enrolled in preparatory school or two-year colleges are considered prospective student-athletes.

* Note: An individual is considered a prospect (whether or not they have signed a National Letter of Intent) until the first day of initial collegiate enrollment or the first day they report for practice, whichever is earliest. Therefore, all NCAA regulations concerning contact with a prospective student-athlete are applicable until that time.

Do's and Don'ts for representatives in regards to a prospective student-athlete:

(The following lists of examples are not all-inclusive. As always, ask before you act!)

Do's

You may:

- forward information about prospective student-athletes to the appropriate coaching staff.
- have telephone contact with a prospect regarding permissible pre-enrollment activities such as summer employment, provided the prospect has graduated from high school and signed a National Letter of Intent; you must contact the Compliance Office to make them aware that you are making these employment arrangements.
- have a telephone conversation with a prospect only if the prospect initiates the call; such a call may not be prearranged by an institutional staff member, and you are not permitted to have a recruiting conversation, but may exhibit normal civility; you must refer any questions about our athletics programs to an athletics-department staff member/coach.
- view a prospect's athletic contest at your own initiative provided you do not contact the prospect or his/her parents; you may not contact a coach, principal, or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.
- continue established family relationships with friends and neighbors; contact with sons and daughters of these families is permitted so long as it is not made for recruiting purposes or encouraged by Notre Dame coaches.

Don'ts

You may not:

- write, e-mail or telephone a prospective student-athlete or his/her parents in an effort to recruit them to Notre Dame.
- become involved in making arrangements to provide money, financial aid or a benefit of any kind to a prospect or the prospect's family and friends.
- make contact with a prospective student-athlete or his/her parents when the prospect is on-campus for an official or unofficial recruiting visit.
- contact a prospect to congratulate him/her on signing a National Letter of Intent to attend the University.
- transport, pay or arrange for payment of transportation costs for a prospect or his/her relatives or friends to visit campus (or elsewhere).
- pay or arrange for payment of summer-camp registration fees for a prospect.
- provide ANYTHING to a prospect, the prospect's family or friends without prior approval from the Compliance Office.

Support of alumni and friends is welcomed and appreciated. We ask, however, that you help to keep Notre Dame's tradition of athletics integrity intact by following NCAA regulations. Your assistance will help ensure that the eligibility of prospective and currently-enrolled student-athletes is protected and preserved. Your efforts to know and follow the NCAA legislation are greatly appreciated because violations could affect the eligibility of involved prospects or student-athletes and/or result in NCAA penalties being imposed on the University.

To that end, it should be our goal, as the best alumni and fans in the country, to preserve and protect each and every student-athlete's eligibility. All NCAA legislation cannot be covered in a limited space such as this page. Therefore, any additional questions should be forwarded to the Compliance Office in the department of athletics. Please remember to ask before you act!

Student Development

Notre Dame's Student Welfare and Development Program is committed to the total development of student-athletes, by fostering the cultivation of skills that encourage student-athletes to reach their full potential. Designed to work in conjunction with existing on-campus student services, the program acknowledges the unique needs and demands of student-athletes. The program continues to receive national recognition for its student-athlete participation and has been named to the NCAS Outreach and Community Service Honor Roll four times in the past five years.

The Student Welfare and Development Program implements events and activities that are designed to facilitate learning within five key areas: academic excellence, athletic success, career preparation, community involvement and personal development.

The program has three components: elective services (community service, leadership, social events); complementary services (encourages administrators and coaches to request coordination of workshops, events and activities); and essential services (student-athletes participate in required skill-building and developmental workshops).

The many services offered by the Student Development Program include the following:

- Academic support by working in coordination with the Office of Academic Services for Student-Athletes.
- Athletic success support with discussion topics on performance enhancement, leadership, nutrition, agents and amateurism, and sports conduct.
- Preparing for postgraduate life by offering monthly career development workshops that educate student-athletes on resume composition, interviewing, business etiquette, and networking. Student Welfare and Development also works closely with the Notre Dame Career Center to ensure that student-athletes are prepared for life after college.
- Bringing Notre Dame and the community together through specific relationships with local area hospitals, community centers and outreach agencies to provide ongoing and reliable volunteer opportunities.
- An orientation program for freshman student-athletes to familiarize and identify the challenges and opportunities that are unique to them as both students and athletes. These seminars also educate student-athletes on contemporary issues affecting college students.

For the second straight year, 92 percent of Notre Dame's student-athletes (from all 26 varsity teams) participated in community service activities during the 2006-07 academic year, with the student-athletes completing more than 4,000 hours of community service (nearly doubling the hours from 2005-06) while assisting more than 50 non-profit organizations and schools.

Student Development also is responsible for: managing the scholarship textbook process; designing and producing the annual Student-Athlete Handbook/Planner; facilitating "An Evening at Shamrock Hills" team dinners; serving as the primary advisors to the Student Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC); coordinating the Student-Athlete Leadership Institute; and facilitating the athletic department's annual year-end celebration, the O.S.C.A.R.S. – Outstanding Students Celebrating Achievements & Recognition Showcase.

The Positive Transition Seminar (PTS) remains the cornerstone of the Student Welfare and Development Personal Development component. Issues that headline the annual half-day symposium include dining etiquette, public speaking/media relations, healthy nutrition, financial and career planning, life after sports, as well as a panel discussion on transition and leadership, led by Notre Dame faculty, staff and administrators. In addition to attending the PTS, all juniors were required to meet with a career counselor to learn how to access career planning resources, schedule interviews, update resumes, and apply for internships and jobs. All told, Student Welfare and Development provided student-athletes with more than 50 educational seminars and programs throughout the 2006-07 academic year.

Professors at Practice continues to be an excellent opportunity for professors and their families to interact with student-athletes on the playing field during practice, in addition to engaging in intellectual conversation at a dinner provided after practice. In the fall of 2005, more than 500 professors and their family members enjoyed an afternoon with the Irish football and baseball teams.

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC), which helped bring about noteworthy enhancements within the athletics department in 2006-07, including:

- The establishment of a program that involved all student-athletes in a pledge for Sportsmanship Across All Circumstances; the program involved producing a sportsmanship commercial and community outreach that promoted sportsmanship, with the student-athletes pledging to build character and respect for self/others while upholding the values embodied by the Notre Dame spirit (in addition staying focused on leading, inspiring and making moral, sound decisions).

- Continued assisting with Freshman and Parent Orientation.

- Organization of a five-day community service trip to New Orleans during fall break to assist in the Hurricane Katrina relief efforts (work consisted of "mudding" and gutting homes that were damaged in the hurricane).

- Discussion of challenging topics pertaining to the student-athlete experience, such as: off-campus housing, career development, hazing, leadership development, venue and facility concerns, the need for an athletics department massage therapist and alcohol abuse.

- Participation as guest speakers at various Joyce Grants-in-Aid events during the fall.

SAAC's monthly meetings also include discussions on important issues such as NCAA legislation, career opportunities, eating disorders, alcohol and supplement use, and technological issues involving websites such as Facebook and Myspace.

The annual Student-Athlete Leadership Institute in 2007 was attended by a record total of nearly 100 student-athletes (97). This full-day leadership program challenges student-athletes to critically examine their role as leaders. Participants engage in intense team activities that require focus, teamwork, communication and determination for a successful outcome.

The Student Welfare and Development Program, in existence since 1996, continuously seeks to develop programs that educate student-athletes on current issues – so as to ensure that when they graduate from the University, they are prepared to successfully meet the challenges of life.

A group of 23 Notre Dame student-athletes and five administrators (including athletics director Kevin White) donated their time during the 2006 fall break to assist with relief efforts in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. The group joined the School of Urban Mission in one of their primary projects: gutting and "mudding out" New Orleans homes that were damaged in the hurricane.

The Notre Dame hockey team annually holds a special skate day with children from the South Bend community.

Statement of Principles

Throughout its long and proud history, the University of Notre Dame has embraced the philosophy that a well-rounded athletics program — including club, intramural and intercollegiate competition — comprises an integral part of Notre Dame's educational mission.

This philosophy reflects the importance of operating an intercollegiate athletics program that fully comports with the University's aspirations as a Catholic institution. Notre Dame therefore dedicates itself to the pursuit of excellence in intercollegiate athletics within the framework of an academic community committed to the University's educational and religious objectives.

Notre Dame also commits itself to the unquestioned integrity of its athletics programs. All individuals involved, directly or indirectly, in the athletics enterprise must maintain and foster the values and goals associated with the University's mission as a Catholic institution of higher education.

As a Catholic university, Notre Dame espouses Christian values and principles. These include the development of the human person — spirit as well as body — in addition to the pursuit of excellence in all endeavors, the nurturing of Christian character, and the call to personal integrity and responsibility. By providing a general description of the structures that support these endeavors, this document articulates the central values and expectations that guide the University of Notre Dame's participation in intercollegiate athletics.

PRESIDENTIAL CONTROL

Notre Dame adheres to the principle of presidential control over intercollegiate athletics. The director of athletics reports to the president, who exercises ultimate responsibility for the conduct of the University's intercollegiate athletics program. The Faculty Board on Athletics serves as the principal advisory group to the president on educational issues related to intercollegiate athletics. The chair of the Faculty Board on Athletics also serves as the NCAA-mandated faculty athletics representative.

Basic Principles

1. The Faculty Board on Athletics nurtures Notre Dame's commitment to academic integrity within the athletics program, strives to ensure that the University's athletics program operates in consonance with Notre Dame's educational mission, and actively promotes the welfare and educational success of the University's student-athletes. The Board also functions as a formal liaison between the faculty and the athletics department.

In carrying out its charge, the Board reviews policies, procedures and practices that affect the educational experience of student-athletes and advises the president of its findings and deliberations. The Board systematically ascertains the views and concerns of student-athletes. The Board reviews data on admissions of student-athletes and on their academic performance, progress towards degrees, and graduation rates. The Board assesses the effectiveness of institutional support for student-athletes. In addition, the Board sets guidelines for the approval of all student petitions for a fifth year of eligibility for athletics and votes on each such petition. The Board establishes guidelines for all intercollegiate athletics schedules and qualifications for captaincy of all University teams, and it votes on all proposed schedules and captaincy nominations. The Board also assesses and revises procedures for resolving prospective conflicts between final examinations and post-season championship events.

In its role as a liaison to the broader faculty, the Faculty Board disseminates appropriate, non-confidential information and initiates discussions on educational issues regarding intercollegiate athletics and the related concerns of the faculty and administration.

2. The faculty athletics representative champions academic integrity, promotes the welfare of student-athletes, and helps ensure institutional control of intercollegiate athletics. More specifically, the faculty athletics representative works with the president and the director of athletics to maintain appropriate University oversight of intercollegiate athletics; assists the president and director of athletics in determining institutional positions on proposed NCAA and conference legislation; serves on search committees for senior athletics administrators and head coaches; oversees decisions regarding eligibility of student-athletes; remains visible and available to student-athletes; and actively participates in all investigations and reports of possible NCAA violations.

ACADEMICS

Notre Dame dedicates itself to providing to all of its students an outstanding education. The University commits itself to developing in its students those disciplined habits of mind, body and spirit that characterize educated, skilled and free human beings. Notre Dame calls its students to pursue the wisdom of our culture and religious heritage and to experience the human family's diversity and interdependence. To accomplish these objectives, the University provides to its students, on an equitable basis, ongoing opportunities to cultivate their moral, intellectual and physical well-being.

Basic Principles

1. Any student hoping to succeed at the University needs a significant level of ability and preparation. Therefore, the Office of Undergraduate Admissions will accept into the University only those student-athletes who demonstrate, on the basis of the best available academic and character-based information, the capacity to complete a degree at Notre Dame.

2. Even for individuals manifestly well suited for Notre Dame, the adjustments to the rigors of academic and athletic life in a highly-competitive university present difficulties. The University recognizes its responsibility to provide appropriate assistance to enable student-athletes to meet the demands of both academic and athletic competition. To this end, the University affords its student-athletes suitable academic counsel and support, primarily under the auspices of the provost's office. Other sources of support, both academic and personal, include the faculty, academic advisors, the residence-hall staff, coaches, athletics administrators and the Student Development Program.

3. The University strives to schedule practices and competitions so as to minimize conflicts with class periods and other academic assignments of student-athletes. In this regard, the rhythm of the academic year and the particular importance of final examinations warrant special attention. All playing schedules remain subject to the approval of the Faculty Board on Athletics.

4. Notre Dame expects its student-athletes to maintain the appropriate sequence and number of courses and the grade-point-average necessary to complete a degree within the usual time (normally four years), including summer classes when appropriate. Any exception to this policy remains subject to the approval of the Faculty Board on Athletics.

STUDENT LIFE

Like other students, student-athletes should have the opportunity to pursue fully the University's academic, cultural and spiritual resources. The University holds student-athletes not only to the same standard of conduct that applies to other students, but also to that higher level of behavior appropriate to their visibility.

Basic Principles

1. Student-athletes must comply with all University rules and guidelines, including those set out in both the student handbook, du Lac, and in the Student-Athlete Handbook. The Office of Residence Life and Housing enforces the University-wide rules according to procedures applicable to all student disciplinary matters.

2. The University strives to integrate student-athletes into the student body so that all students may take full advantage of the educational and other opportunities afforded by campus and hall life. Given the centrality of residential life to the University's mission, student-athletes normally live in residence halls; exceptions to this policy remain subject to the approval of the Faculty Board on Athletics. Moreover, Notre Dame provides no separate residence halls or sections of residence halls for student-athletes.

3. The University lists among its primary concerns the physical and mental health of all members of the Notre Dame community. Because of the dangers inherent in athletic competition, the prevention of injuries and the provision of medical care for student-athletes demand particular concern and deserve constant attention. The appropriate sports-medicine and athletics-training personnel alone determine whether injury or illness precludes a student-athlete from practicing or competing.

4. Because of the harm that illicit drug use causes and the pressure on student-athletes to use performance-enhancing drugs, drug-related education and counseling require particular emphasis. As a preventive measure, all student-athletes remain subject to regular, random, and unannounced drug testing according to the University's established drug-testing protocol. University Health Services decides the timing of drug tests, determines whom to test and administers the tests. The drug-testing protocol prescribes the treatment of test results and the consequences of a positive test.

5. Notre Dame regularly provides chaplains for athletics teams. Chaplains' duties include pastoral care and liturgical services for student-athletes, coaches and staff.

COACHING STAFFS

The University strives to maintain a staff of coaches who represent the best in athletic instruction, who possess the ability to motivate and inspire, and who take responsibility for the full development of the student-athletes within their charge as students, athletes and persons. Coaches, who after all are primarily teachers, share with members of the faculty and other University personnel the obligation to educate, train and otherwise assist in the formation of students entrusted to them. Furthermore, Notre Dame recognizes the important role each coach plays in the University's overall educational mission and makes this aspect an important part of both the coach's position description and periodic evaluation. Because of the public nature of their work, coaches represent Notre Dame in a highly-visible manner. Their words and actions should therefore reflect the University's values and principles.

Basic Principles

1. Notre Dame expects the personal and professional lives of its coaches to reflect highest standards of behavior. Coaches' actions must demonstrate that athletic success may not jeopardize institutional or personal integrity or student-athlete welfare.

2. Notre Dame expects its coaches to appreciate the primacy of academic life at Notre Dame and to emphasize that primacy during the recruitment and education of student-athletes and their participation in intercollegiate athletics.

3. Notre Dame requires its coaches to adhere to the policies and procedures of the University, its conferences and the NCAA. To that end, Notre Dame provides a comprehensive orientation to new coaches and suitable continuing education to other coaches. The University treats seriously all violations of University, conference or NCAA standards and reports such violations according to the applicable conference or NCAA procedures.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS

The Director of Athletics and the other administrators in the department of athletics supervise all activities of the athletics program at the University. All aspects of the program must accord with the principles of justice and fairness. In addition, Notre Dame expects the personal and professional lives of its athletics administrators to reflect the highest standards of behavior. Athletics administrators also must adhere to the policies and procedures of the University, its conferences and the NCAA. The University treats all violations of such policies and procedures seriously.

Basic Principles

1. The University maintains full and direct control of the financial operations of the athletics department, including all revenues. The operating budget and the ongoing financial activities of the athletics department remain subject to the same approval process as all other units of the University.

2. Historically, Notre Dame's athletics program has generated funds sufficient to cover its expenses, as well as to provide funds for the University's general operating budget. The generation of revenue must always take into consideration Notre Dame's integrity and priorities.

3. The University commits itself to the principle of racial, ethnic and gender diversity in the composition of its coaching and administrative staffs. Notre Dame will make every reasonable effort to promote this commitment as positions are created or vacated.

4. Consistent with its overall academic mission and program, its financial resources and the athletic interests of its student body, the University will provide a full and stable athletics program for both sexes. Notre Dame embraces the principle of gender equity and will continue to monitor its intercollegiate programs in accord with this principle.

5. In considering conference affiliations, the University will assess the extent to which the other institutions involved share Notre Dame's educational philosophies and goals, as well as its commitment to integrity in intercollegiate athletics.

CONCLUSION

Notre Dame endeavors to maintain a highly-competitive athletics program consistent with its tradition, heritage and overall mission as a Catholic university. It will attempt to excel in intercollegiate athletics, but always in conformity with its primary role as an educator and moral guide. Notre Dame will conduct its intercollegiate athletics program so as to support the University's commitment to education, as well as the letter and spirit of the policies and procedures of the University, its conferences and the NCAA.

Noteworthy Alumni

Many observers often are surprised to discover that Notre Dame's total enrollment encompasses fewer than 12,000 students per year (roughly 8,300 of them undergrads). That surprise is due in part to the University's national appeal, but it also is due to the many noteworthy Notre Dame alumni who have gone on to distinguish themselves in a wide variety of fields.

Listings on this page are simply a sampling of the many noteworthy individuals who have spent their formative years in academia at Notre Dame. A more detailed list can be found at www.nd.edu (follow the alumni link), and some additional noteworthy alums are included on the athletic heritage page later in this section.

Alumni Organizations

The Notre Dame Alumni Association was established in 1868, some 26 years after the University's founding. Father Neal Gillespie, C.S.C., was elected the first president of the Notre Dame Alumni Association, then comprised of just a few hundred graduates — while the current membership reaches nearly 110,000.

Leadership — Several Alumni Association staff are former Notre Dame student-athletes, led by executive director Chuck Lennon (a catcher with the Irish baseball team in the early 1960s) and another former Irish baseball player, Scott Siler ('82), who serves as the Association's director of information technology.

Membership — Any person who holds a Notre Dame undergraduate or graduate degree and any who has matriculated at the University and is approved for membership by the Alumni Board shall be a regular member of the Alumni Association.

Alumni Clubs — An alumni club is one of the most viable channels through which the University is perceived by local communities. The Alumni Association helps coordinate activities of 217 domestic alumni clubs and 63 international chapters.

Reunion Weekend — Traditionally held the first weekend in June, the Alumni Reunion is the largest campus program sponsored by the Alumni Association. Each five-year class is invited to participate. The program offers exciting and rewarding events for some 3,000 alumni and their spouses.

Notre Dame Magazine — This quarterly publication is sent to all alumni as well as to parents of current Notre Dame students. News items that are contributed by class officers are featured in the section entitled, "The Classes."

The Alumni Newsletter — This publication is distributed three times a year and highlights people, programs and events that are related to the Alumni Association, including local alumni activities.

Visitors Center — The Eck Visitors Center, located on the south end of campus (next to the Hammes Bookstore), offers a meeting and resting place for visitors to Notre Dame, in addition to providing a summary of the University's history. Display cases line the walls, featuring University information and artifacts. A lighted aerial map gives a visual overview of campus and interactive kiosks allow visitors to take a virtual tour of the campus.

A number of sculptures are on display at the Visitors Center, including the work of the late world-renowned artist and Notre Dame professor Ivan Mestrovic. An auditorium offers a DVD movie that chronicles Notre Dame's tradition and excellence in academics and athletics and its commitment to spirituality.

Notre Dame Monogram Club: "Bridging the Gap Between Legend and Legacy"

The Notre Dame Monogram Club is comprised of nearly 7,000 individuals who have earned the University's varsity athletic insignia for their athletic or team-support endeavors or who have been honorary-monogram recipients. The club supports the primary goal of the University: the spiritual, intellectual and physical development of its students and alumni. By providing its members the opportunity to foster and maintain relationships across different sports, generations and geographical locations, the Monogram Club aspires to contribute — through the common bond of sport — to the social and professional enrichment of its members while providing a means for ongoing association with the University. As an integral part of the Notre Dame family, the Monogram Club endeavors to uphold and enrich the great tradition of Notre Dame athletics.

One of the organization's primary functions continues to be providing need-based aid to children of Monogram Club members to attend Notre Dame, through the Brennan-Boland-Riehle ("BBR") Scholarship Fund. The fund is named in honor of Joe Boland, Rev. Thomas Brennan, C.S.C., and Rev. James Riehle, C.S.C. Monogram Club members donate to the fund, and the University handles the principal funds, with interest providing scholarship money. The fund has grown to approximately $5.8 million, making it one of Notre Dame's largest endowments.

Since the fund's inception in 1980, there have been 209 BBR Scholarship recipients — including 63 sons and daughters of Monogram Club members who attended Notre Dame in 2006-07 — whose combined scholarship allocations are more than $2 million ($215,000 in '06-'07 alone).

In 1976, at a meeting called by 1949 Heisman Trophy winner Leon Hart, the Monogram Club developed its bylaws, recommending that its purpose was to foster all the principles of the University in its academic, athletic, religious and social endeavors along with promoting camaraderie between former athletes and alumni.

During the Monogram Club presidency of Harvey Foster in 1981, he recommended that an endowment fund be started for the express purpose of aiding the University in continuing non-revenue sports. During the next 15 months, nearly $8 million was pledged and paid into the endowment fund. Endowment contributions still are accepted but more recently the Monogram Club's efforts have been directed to increasing the Brennan-Boland-Riehle Fund.

In 1984, during the presidency of Jim Lynch, the club received permission to construct a Sports Heritage Hall in the concourse of the Joyce Center. The first phase was to provide a ring of gold which names each monogram winner, alphabetically by decade, with those plans reaching fruition in 1987 when some 4,300 names were placed in gold letters on the oak panels. Nearly 1,700 names later were added in 2001, honoring monogram winners from the 1990s.

The second phase of the Heritage Hall involved building display cases showing various pieces of memorabilia, pictures of individuals and teams, trophies of various awards and other interesting objects detailing the history of Notre Dame athletics.

The Monogram Club's ever-growing list of events and projects included the following activities during 2006-07:

- A second $1 million allocation that will help support the Spirit of Notre Dame capital campaign (the Monogram Club donation will be used to support the athletics priorities of the campaign); a previous $1 million donation has been used towards the ongoing Notre Dame Stadium enhancement project — which features an elaborate series of banners and displays that commemorate Notre Dame's rich tradition in college football

- Continuation of the Catastrophic Relief Fund to help former Notre Dame monogram winners faced with catastrophic problems of health and/or financial hardship; as part of the Monogram Club's "Athletes Helping Athletes" pledge, nearly $575,000 had been raised for this special fund

- Pledged support and spearheaded the organizational efforts for the 35th anniversary of women's athletics at Notre Dame, which was celebrated throughout 2006-07 and included a weekend celebration attended by more than 100 former Notre Dame female student-athletes

- Continued sponsorship of student-athletes who participate in various domestic and international summer-service projects, as coordinated by Notre Dame's Center for Social Concerns; former Irish hockey player and recent Monogram Club board member Dave Bossy has made a 10-year commitment ($10,000 per year) to help fund sponsorship of student-athletes who participate in the Summer Service Program

- Funding aid for the Notre Dame women's lacrosse team's foreign playing tour of England and Ireland

- Continuing financial assistance ($110,000 in '06-'07) to programs benefiting current student-athletes, via the student welfare initiative (in conjunction with the athletic department's student welfare/life skills programs)

- An ever-expanding student-athlete outreach and education program that includes continued sponsorship of the "OSCARS" all-sports banquet (with specific funding for the popular all-sports highlight video), an informative brochure targeted to student-athletes and continued sponsorship of the varsity monogram awards program (letter jackets, blazers, blankets, rings, and watches)

- The continuing program of providing laptop computers to the Academic Services for Student-Athletes, with student-athletes able to check out these computers during official team travel.

- Ongoing funding and presentation of BIG EAST-championship rings and NCAA-participation awards for Notre Dame teams and individuals

- The second year of the Sports Liaison Program, which pairs board members with current Irish teams to foster a beneficial two-way relationship

Other recent Monogram Club projects have included:

- A joint effort with the network of local Notre Dame alumni clubs, providing various team hosting events (such as receptions and cultural events) for Notre Dame teams as they travel throughout the country

- A series of football-weekend receptions for Monogram Club members and their guests, typically held in the Joyce Center prior to each home football game (the final home game also traditionally includes a unique thrill for all former monogram winners in attendance, who form the pregame tunnel as the Irish team takes the field)

- Continuing an expanded sponsorship of the annual Blue-Gold Football Alumni Weekend that includes the alumni flag-football game and an interactive Friday-night dinner (attended by nearly 750) with the program's current players and coaches

- The organization of several popular events, including the fifth annual Football Fantasy Camp (which has raised a five-year total of more than $200,000 for the BBR Scholarship Fund), the annual Monogram Club golf outing (held during reunion weekend) and V.I.P. football weekend auctions

- Expanded offerings and unique website content at www.ndmonogramclub.com (also linked via und.com), as part of an ever-increasing list of member benefits

- And the traditional awarding of honorary monograms — presented to those who have demonstrated exceptional service to Notre Dame — in conjunction with the announcement of the Moose Krause Distinguished Service Award

The Monogram Club of today is comprised of some 4,300 dues-paying members who are awarded the block ND. Yearly dues entitle members to a variety of benefits: annual golf outing and dinner; membership card; the Inside Irish publication, with first-class mailing (plus e-mail and web options); members' children eligible for Brennan-Boland-Riehle scholarship at Notre Dame; and ticket applications for home football games. The Club's annual golf outing, mass for deceased members, dinner and meeting is held in early June prior to the Notre Dame Alumni Reunion Weekend.

Assistant athletics director Jim Fraleigh has served as the Monogram Club's executive director since the fall of 2004 while the current president is former basketball player Marc Kelly. The first vice-president is former Academic All-America football player Joe Restic, with former baseball player Dick Nussbaum recently joining the officer rotation as second vice-president. Former volleyball player Julie Pierson Doyle served as the Monogram Club's first female president from 2005-07.

The Notre Dame athletic training staff has access to two whirlpool rehabilitation stations in the Guglielmino Athletics Complex.

From the days of Knute Rockne, when Eugene “Scrap Iron” Young first began providing care to student-athletes, the Notre Dame athletic training department has evolved into a fully-staffed sports medicine team with three state-of-the-art facilities. The 2006-07 academic year was a time of key growth and expansion for Notre Dame’s athletic training operation, in keeping up with the changing demands of college athletics. The sports medicine department added two new full-time staff positions while moving into its new primary locale at the Guglielmino Sports Complex.

Head athletic trainer and physical therapist Jim Russ now oversees a staff of three associate and eight assistant athletic trainers, plus two physical therapist/athletic trainers. The staff of 14 is responsible for the care and treatment of more than 750 Notre Dame student-athletes. The entire sports medicine staff is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and boasts nearly 200 years of collective experience.

Each staff member is responsible for the health care of at least two of Notre Dame’s varsity athletic teams. Duties in that role include evaluating and assessing athletic injuries, administering first-aid, making medical referrals, establishing treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries and educating student-athletes on nutrition and injury prevention.

The foundation of the Notre Dame Sports Medicine Department falls under the direct supervision of several sports medicine physicians. This group now includes three university primary-care doctors – Notre Dame directors of sports medicine Dr. Jim Moriarity, Dr. Rich Jacobs and Dr. Becky Moskwinski – along with six orthopaedic surgeons: Dr. Willard Yergler, Dr. David Bankoff, Dr. Fred Ferlic, Dr. Robert Clemency, Dr. Michael Yergler and Dr. Chris Balint. A variety of medical consultants are available for specific needs, ranging from cardiology to dermatology, while the sports medicine department also is supplemented by 17 undergraduate student athletic trainers.

Notre Dame student-athletes have access to three state-of-the-art sports medicine facilities, in addition to the 24-hour University Health Center. The original athletic training room is located in the Joyce Center and Notre Dame Stadium is home to the 3,300 square-foot athletic training room – while the newest sports area is located in the new Guglielmino Athletics Center. This sports medicine area opened in the fall of 2005 and encompasses more than 8,500 square-feet of cutting-edge sports medicine technology.

Through these facilities, all student-athletes have access to the most modern sports medicine, providing the latest in diagnostic procedures, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries. The various athletic training facilities include the latest in physical therapy modalities and rehabilitation equipment, with two 3,500-gallon therapy pools, a full x-ray unit and an MRI machine making up the majority of the department’s diagnostic equipment.

The sports medicine team of athletic trainers and team physicians is committed to providing the most comprehensive and safest health care possible. Evaluations, treatments and rehabilitation are established for each individual, with the goal of returning the student-athletes to competitive status in the safest and quickest manner possible.

The Notre Dame strength and conditioning program is designed to provide each student-athlete with the most productive, effective and efficient means of sport-specific physical training. Led by director of strength and conditioning Ruben Mendoza, the Irish strength and conditioning staff has a simple philosophy that combines a “no nonsense” approach with an “old school” attitude.

The staff offers a well-balanced, well-rounded program by incorporating a variety of training methods from conjugate training to Olympic style movements. Everything the staff does is geared toward developing speed, power and strength.

The staff wants to teach Notre Dame student-athletes work ethic, discipline and pride with a relentless attitude to strive for, and win, championships.

When entering the 25,000-square foot Haggar Fitness Complex (shared by the Loftus Sports Center and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex), student-athletes are quickly reminded of the “roll up your sleeves” and “get to work” mentality that Mendoza and his staff inspires.

The Haggar Fitness Complex features 25,000 square feet of workout space with a three-lane speed development track (40 yards in length), a state-of-the-art sound system with 28 speakers and four sub woofers, six giant plasma screen televisions, a 45 x 18 yard Prestige Turf plyometric agility area and a Gatorade hydration station.

The Notre Dame strength and conditioning staff – eight full-time coaches and an intern coach – includes: director of strength and conditioning Ruben Mendoza, associate director Tony Rolinski, assistants Mike Joseph, Rick Perry, Elise Angeles and James Seacord, speed/skill development coach Shaun Gaunt, and a nutritionist. The staff provides a large enough group to meet the student-athlete needs while developing an environment where student-athletes want to come in order to get better and achieve athletic success.

One of the eye-catching features of the Haggar Fitness Complex, a 25,000 square-foot facility shared by the Guglielmino Athletics Complex and the Loftus Center, is the inclusion of two variable weight sleds that were installed in the summer of 2005.

NACDA Directors' Cup

DIRECTORS' CUP STANDINGS

For the ninth straight year in 2006-07, Notre Dame posted a top-25 finish (22nd) in the United States Sports Academy Division I Directors' Cup all-sports competition sponsored by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (formerly known as Sears Directors' Cup).

Notre Dame is among 16 schools to earn a top-25 finish in each of the past nine years (1999-2007), as Irish programs finished 25th in '99, 21st in 2000, 11th in '01, 13th in '02 and '03, 19th in '04, 16th in '05 and 6th in '06. The other schools with that distinction include six from the Pacific-10 Conference (Stanford, UCLA, California, Arizona State, Arizona and USC), four from the Big Ten (Ohio State, Michigan, Minnesota and Penn State) and three from the Southeastern Conference (Florida, Georgia and LSU), plus Texas (Big-12) and North Carolina (Atlantic Coast Conference).

FALL

The 2006 fall NCAA Competition earned the Irish 279 points in the 2006-07 Directors' Cup standings, based on an NCAA runner-up finish in women's soccer (90 points), a best-ever quarter-finalist appearances in men's soccer (73), a 19th-place finish in men's cross country (36), a first-round appearance in volleyball (25) and a final ranking of 19th in the USA Today football poll (55). Notre Dame finished the fall season in 10th place of the Directors' Cup standings.

WINTER

In winter sports, Notre Dame netted 267 points – more than doubling its points total from the 2005-06 winter season (125.5), led by a fourth-place finish in the NCAA men's and women's combined fencing championship (80 points). Six other Notre Dame winter sports teams scored points in the 2006-07 Directors' Cup standings, including 60 for Notre Dame's appearance as an NCAA regional finalist (final eight) in men's ice hockey, 50 for a second-round appearance in women's basketball (final 32) and 47 for a 27th-place finish in women's swimming and diving, plus 25 for a first-round appearance in men's basketball, and five for a 65th-place finish in men's indoor track and field.

SPRING

The 2007 spring sports season saw Notre Dame earn 243.5 points, led by a second straight NCAA quarterfinalist finish in women's tennis (73 points) and a trip to the round-of-16 in men's tennis (64), with other points coming a 41st-place finish in women's outdoor track and field (31), a first-round appearance/final-16 in men's lacrosse (25), a regional appearance in softball (final-48; 25 pts), 55th place in men's outdoor track and field (15.5) and a 12th-place finish in women's rowing (10).

HISTORICAL PERFORMANCE

In previous years in which the Directors' Cup competition has been held, Notre Dame has finished 11th in 1993-94, 30th in '95, 12th in '96, 14th in '97, 31st in '98, 25th in '99, 21st in 2000, 11th in '01, 13th in '02 and again in '03, 19th in '04, 16th in '05 and most recently sixth for 2005-06.

All but one of Notre Dame's 26 varsity sports have scored points for the Irish in the NACDA Cup. Teams leading the way have included the men's and women's fencing programs, which have used 13 consecutive top-four finishes at the NCAAAs to contribute 886 points since fencing was added to the NACDA Cup in 1995-96. Women's soccer has contributed 914.5 points, highlighted by eight national semifinal appearances and a pair of titles ('95, '04). It also stands as one of two teams – along with women's volleyball – to have scored points in the NACDA Cup all 14 years. Eleven of Notre Dame's sports have contributed points on 10 or more occasions while 16 have scored in at least half (7) of the NACDA Cup competitions.

The Directors' Cup competition honors institutions for maintaining athletic programs that seek to achieve success in many sports, both men's and women's. Begun in 1993-94 for Division I by NACDA and USA Today, the program was expanded in 1995-96 to include Divisions II, III, and the NAIA. The scoring format – which has undergone yearly minor adjustments – awards the overall champion to institutions that records the highest number of points in their division's Directors' Cup standings.

Notre Dame placed 22nd in the 2006-07 NACDA Directors' Cup competition, marking its ninth straight top-25 finish in the annual all-sports rankings.

The Notre Dame hockey team won its first-ever CCHA regular-season and postseason tournament titles during 2006-07. The Irish (32-7-3) were ranked number one in the country for seven straight weeks from Feb. 5 through March 23.

BEST OF BOTH WORLDS – The Notre Dame athletics department continues to emerge as one of the highest-rated in the nation ... a 2006 report by the National Collegiate Scouting Association listed Notre Dame third (behind Duke and Stanford) in Division I-A rankings for schools with the top combination of academics and athletics, based on student-athlete graduation rates, the U.S. News and World Report rankings (academic) and the annual Directors' Cup all-sports standings.

A SPORT-MINDED CAMPUS – A Sports Illustrated feature on "America's Top Jock Schools" crowned UCLA No. 1, with Notre Dame a close runner-up ... the profile cited the Bengal Bouts campus-wide boxing tournament that benefits the Holy Cross Mission, Bookstore Basketball (the world's largest five-on-five basketball tournament) and intramural football in full pads (with the title game in Notre Dame Stadium) – plus the fact that 75 percent of Notre Dame undergrads lettered in high-school sports.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE – The success of Notre Dame athletics extends to the classroom:

- All 26 athletics programs at Notre Dame in 2004-05, '05-'06 and '06-'07 exceeded the NCAA's academic performance standard that was introduced in 2005, with nine Irish teams in 2006-07 scoring a perfect 1,000 (second-most from any Division I-A school) ... the Academic Progress Rate (APR) uses a series of formulas related to student-athlete retention and eligibility.

- In the traditional federal-mandated format of the NCAA graduation-rate report, Notre Dame ranked second nationally in the survey covering student-athletes who enrolled between '96-'99, based on the raw percentage of those who entered and graduated within six years (those who left or transferred were considered non-graduates) ... similarly, Notre Dame's 89% graduation rate in that study ranked second among all of Division I-A schools (also first with 87% graduation rate for male student-athletes and second with 94% for female student-athletes).

- Among student-athletes who completed all four years of athletic eligibility at Notre Dame from among those entering over a 10-year period from 1989-90 through 1999-2000, virtually 100 percent (623 of 627; 99.4%) earned their degrees.

- Another new graduation-rate survey – the GSR (Graduation Success Rate) – ranks Notre Dame second among Division I-A schools with a 98% GSR score (Navy is first on that list). The GSR was created to more accurately reflect graduation rates by factoring in transfer data. Notre Dame also was second in the latest male GSR rankings (97%, behind Navy) and fourth for female student-athletes (99%, behind Vanderbilt, Northwestern and Navy).

- Notre Dame student-athletes combined to post a 4.0 semester GPA 23 times in the 2006 spring and fall semesters ... those of note who posted 4.0s in 2006 included: baseball shortstop Brett Lilley, high jumper Stacey Cowan, soccer player Ashley Jones, sprinter Maryann Erigha, lacrosse players Mary Carpenter (both semesters) and Meghan Murphy, distance runner Sunni Olding (both terms), softball outfielder Beth Northway, rower Shannon Cassel and football receiver Rob Woods.

SPANNING THE GLOBE – Similar to the composition of the Notre Dame student body, the 26 current varsity teams include student-athletes from nearly every state ... a recent sampling of Notre Dame's 2004-05 varsity rosters included some 700 student-athletes who hailed from 44 states (all but Hawaii, Maine, Mississippi, Utah, West Virginia and Wyoming), plus six Canadian provinces and 19 other foreign countries: Austria, Cayman Islands, Colombia, Czech Republic, El Salvador, England, Finland, Germany, Guatemala, Hong Kong, Iceland, Ireland, Jamaica, Korea, Luxembourg, Mexico, Poland, Singapore and South Africa.

A TRADITION OF SUCCESS

- Notre Dame has claimed 25 NCAA team titles: 11 in football ('24, '29, '30, '43, '46, '47, '49, '66, '73, '77, '88), seven in fencing (men in '77, '78 and '86, women in '87, combined in '94, '03, '05), two in women's soccer ('95, '04) and men's tennis ('44, '59), and one each in men's golf ('44), men's cross country ('57) and women's basketball ('01) ... the 2004-05 academic year saw Notre Dame win two NCAA titles (women's soccer and combined fencing) for the third time in the athletics department's history (also men's golf and men's tennis in 1943-44, plus football and men's fencing in 1977-78).

\ Individuals noted by asterisks were Notre Dame student-athletes, primarily in the same sport with which they now are affiliated (Hawkins played basketball; Golic, Smith, Orsini and Williams were football players; Karr played hockey; Bobinski and Chryst were baseball players).*

- Notre Dame's 12-year domination as a member of the BIG EAST Conference includes winning an unprecedented 13 official BIG EAST championships (based on tournament finish or regular-season standings) in 2005-06, besting the 10 titles won by the Irish in 2004-05 as the most ever by one school in a single academic year ... Notre Dame's BIG EAST titles in '05-'06 included five men's sports (cross country, swimming and diving, golf, outdoor track and field, and baseball) plus women's soccer, volleyball, cross country, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, softball, rowing and tennis. A total of 16 Notre Dame teams (out of 21) finished first or second in 2004-05 BIG EAST play – with men's tennis, women's lacrosse and women's outdoor track and field nearly winning BIG EAST titles before finishing in second place.

- Notre Dame's total of nearly 1,000 All-Americans includes 26 who have been four-year All-Americans and 50 who have coupled All-America and Academic All-America honors in the same season. The 2005-06 year saw an all-time high of five different Notre Dame student-athletes earn both All-America and Academic All-America honors while three Notre Dame student-athletes received prestigious NCAA postgraduate scholarships in 2006-07. It was just the third time – and first since the mid-1970s – that Notre Dame has produced three NCAA postgraduate scholarship recipients in the same academic year.

Give a Gift and Leave a Legacy

Character, academics, spirituality and athletics. These words represent the core of Irish Athletics. This makes us different. As Fr. John Jenkins so eloquently stated, "Our difference is not a detriment. It is an asset that will make our contribution more distinctive, more exemplary, more valuable. We welcome the challenge."

The Rockne Heritage Fund represents an opportunity to acknowledge those differences; to applaud, support and encourage the direction in which we are headed; to provide the resources our student-athletes need to compete at the very highest level; to ensure that the Notre Dame spirit lives on for generations.

Alumni, parents, friends, students, faculty and staff are among those who have generously supported the Rockne Heritage Fund and we are grateful.

In January our recognition society, the Director's Circle, announced a second giving level: Irish Legends. We have generous donors who have made $5,000, $10,000 and $25,000 gifts who are now recognized at this new level.

Director's Circle

TRADITIONAL

- $1,500-$4,999 annual gift qualifies you for a Traditional membership in the Director's Circle.

IRISH LEGENDS

- $5,000 minimum annual gift qualifies you for an Irish Legends membership in the Director's Circle.

FOOTBALL TICKET BENEFIT

- All Director's Circle members receive a "special contributor status" in the football ticket lottery, with improved chances for success in obtaining tickets to multiple home football games.
- Director's Circle members at the Irish Legends level receive additional consideration in the football ticket lottery and also qualify for the parking pass lottery.

HOW TO MAKE A GIFT

- Send a check payable to the Rockne Heritage Fund; P.O. Box 519; Notre Dame, IN 46556.
- Make a gift online at supporting.nd.edu and include "Rockne Heritage Fund" in the comments section.
- Specify if your employer has a matching gift program.
- Notre Dame employees may request a payroll deduction form.
