UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

ABOUT NOTRE DAME

- The University of Notre Dame sits on 1,250 acres containing two lakes and has 137 buildings.
- The Basilica of the Sacred Heart, the 14-story Hesburgh Library with its 132-foot-high mural depicting Christ the Teacher, and the University's beautifully renovated 128-year-old Main Building with its famed 23.9 Karat Golden Dome are among the most widely known university landmarks in the world.
- Notre Dame has 8,332 undergraduate students and a total enrollment of 11,479 students.

RANKINGS

- Notre Dame is rated among the nation's top 25 institutions of higher learning in surveys conducted by U.S. News and World Report, Princeton Review, Time, Kiplinger's, and Kaplan/Newsweek.
- The Wall Street Journal has cited Notre Dame one of the "New Ivies" in American higher education, along with, among others, Duke, Northwestern and Johns Hopkins.
- Notre Dame is one of the few universities to rank in the top 25 in the U.S. News & World Report survey of America's best colleges and the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings of the best overall athletic programs.

The University of Notre Dame, founded in 1842 by Rev. Edward F. Sorin, C.S.C., of the Congregation of Holy Cross, is an independent, national Catholic university located in Notre Dame, Ind., adjacent to the city of South Bend and approximately 90 miles east of Chicago.

- Notre Dame ranks fifth in a listing of “dream schools” in a survey of parents by the Princeton Review. The top seven are Stanford, Princeton, Harvard, Brown, Notre Dame, Duke, and Boston College.

STUDENTS

- Notre Dame's graduation rate of 95 percent is exceeded by only Harvard and Princeton.
- Notre Dame's 98 percent retention rate between the freshman and sophomore years is among the highest in the country, thanks in large part to the University's unique First Year of Studies Program.
- Notre Dame has one of the highest undergraduate residential concentrations of any national university, with 80 percent of its students living in 27 residence halls. Some 40 Holy Cross religious leaders continue to live and provide a pastoral presence in the halls.
- Graduate and undergraduate students at the University come from all 50 states and more than 100 countries worldwide.

UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., took office as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame on July 1, 2005. He was elected by the University's Board of Trustees to a five-year term April 30, 2004.

An associate professor of philosophy and member of Notre Dame's faculty since 1990, Father Jenkins had served from 2000-2005 as a vice president and associate provost at the University.

Prior to his service in the provost's office, Father Jenkins had been religious superior of the Holy Cross priests and brothers at Notre Dame for three years. As religious superior, he was a Fellow and Trustee of the University, but he relinquished those posts to assume his duties in the provost's office.

"If we are clear in our purpose, we will excel in our ideals. This will be my priority and my passion as President of Notre Dame."

– Father Jenkins' Inauguration Speech, 2005

Father Jenkins specializes in the areas of ancient philosophy, medieval philosophy and the philosophy of religion. He is the author of Knowledge and Faith in Thomas Aquinas, published by Cambridge University Press in 1997.

Father Jenkins earned degrees in philosophy from Oxford University in 1987 and 1989. He earned his master of divinity degree and licentiate in sacred theology from the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, Calif., in 1988.

Prior to entering the Congregation of Holy Cross, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively. Father Jenkins was ordained a priest in Notre Dame's Basilica of the Sacred Heart in 1983. He served as director of the Old College program for Notre Dame undergraduate candidates for the Congregation of Holy Cross from 1991 to 1993.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

John B. “Jack” Swarbrick Jr., a Notre Dame graduate who has risen to national prominence as a lawyer, consultant and executive in the collegiate and Olympic sports industries, was appointed July 16, 2008 as the University’s 12th director of athletics.

Raised in Yonkers, N.Y., and Bloomington, Ind., Swarbrick is a 1976 magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame with a bachelor’s degree in economics. Upon graduating from Stanford Law School in 1980, he returned to Indiana to accept a position as an associate in the Indianapolis law firm Baker & Daniels. He was made partner in 1987.

At the same time that Swarbrick began his career, the city of Indianapolis was beginning its effort to become a world-class center for amateur and professional athletics. An employment law specialist, Swarbrick soon shifted his focus to sports and quickly became active in the city’s initiatives.

As a member of the Indiana Sports Corp., including the chairmanship from 1992 to 2001, Swarbrick led many of the city’s successful proposals to a wide array of athletics organizations – from the NFL to the U.S. Olympic Committee to the Big Ten Conference. His leadership efforts have resulted in the city:

- Earning the bid to host the 2012 Super Bowl to Indianapolis
- Becoming the home of the NCAA national headquarters
- Hosting the 1987 Pan American Games
- Hosting the 1991 World Gymnastics Championships
- Hosting NCAA Final Fours and other college championship competitions and a wide array of national and world championships in the Olympic sports
- Securing rights to host the Big Ten Conference men’s and women’s basketball tournaments for five consecutive years beginning in 2008

Swarbrick’s work has focused on the representation of owners of sports teams and organizations which sanction or conduct athletic competitions. He has served as general counsel for numerous national governing bodies of Olympic sports, including USA Gymnastics and USRowing, and as a consultant to the 1996 Olympic Games. He also served as president and chief executive officer of LMiv, an Internet-based network of radio stations.

- In his work as an advisor to the NCAA, Swarbrick has:
- Coordinated the men’s College Basketball Partnership, an NCAA-led group that addresses the opportunities and challenges in the sport
- Worked with the NCAA’s Corporate Partners and Champions Program
- Served as a member of the NCAA Division I women’s Basketball Discussion Group
- Chaired the NCAA/USOC task force dedicated to developing proposals to expand sponsorship of Olympic sports among NCAA member institutions
- Developed the business plan for the new NBA/NCAA youth basketball enterprise

Before accepting the offer to lead his alma mater’s athletics department, Swarbrick had been a finalist for several high-profile positions in college athletics, including president of the NCAA and commissioner of the Big 12 Conference.

Swarbrick and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of four children: Kate, a junior at St. Louis University; Connor, a sophomore at Wake Forest University; Cal, a junior in high school; and Christopher, a high school sophomore.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Notre Dame's Academic Services for Student-Athletes, housed in the Coleman-Morse Building, is designed to help Notre Dame fulfill its commitment to all student-athletes in their pursuit of a college degree and academic excellence.

In order to achieve these goals, Academic Services has several major objectives:

1. Maintain the academic integrity of the University
2. Help student-athletes maximize their academic potential
3. Comply with University and NCAA rules and regulations
4. Assist every student-athlete as they work towards graduation in four years

The University of Notre Dame ranks number one in the country in terms of graduating its student-athletes, according to statistics released recently by the NCAA.

Academic Services provides many services that begin when First Year students arrive on campus and continue through graduation. Services provided include but are not limited to:

- Consistent counseling and appropriate interventions regarding academic matters
- Refer student-athletes to campus offices where they can meet regularly with their professors and college advisors
- Monitoring the progress of student-athletes through regular communication with professors
- Provide tutorial assistance for the student-athletes

A new computer/study space was completed inside the Coleman-Morse Building for the start of the 2007-08 school year. This new 2,500 square-foot room can handle any combination of 80 student-athletes or tutors at once. There are also nine study rooms used for small group meetings or private sessions with tutors. The study space has approximately 20 desktop computers available for use and has wireless connections available for laptops.

Whether measured by the federal government in its Department of Education report or by the NCAA through its newer Graduation Success Rate (GSR) numbers, graduation rates for Notre Dame student-athletes rank among the national leaders in most categories among major football-playing colleges and universities.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Eight years ago, the Notre Dame department of athletics and the University embarked on creating an ambitious athletics facility master plan so Irish student-athletes would have access to state-of-the-art venues for practice, training and competition.

That blueprint, which touched nearly every varsity sport, continues to come to life. By the time the plan is completed, the entire area just east of the Joyce Center and north of Edison Road will boast a comprehensive and impressive athletic quad.

NEW FACILITIES

ALUMNI SOCCER STADIUM

- The new $5.7 million stadium had its groundbreaking April 26, 2008 and is expected to be completed in June 2009. The stadium will be a lighted facility that will feature a natural grass field, locker rooms, restrooms, concession areas and 2,000 seats.

ARLOTTA FAMILY LACROSSE STADIUM

- Groundbreaking for the $5 million facility occurred April 17, 2008 and is expected to be completed in June 2009. Arlotta Stadium will feature 2,000 seats, lights, an artificial-turf field, locker rooms, restrooms and concession area.

MELISSA COOK STADIUM

- Located on the southeast corner of campus, the new softball stadium opened April 12, 2008 and can accommodate up to 1,500 fans.

TRACK STADIUM

- Ground was broken for construction of the $3 million outdoor track in June 2008. The new nine-lane facility will meet IAAF guidelines and completion is expected in late October 2008.

LABAR FOOTBALL PRACTICE FIELDS

- Three new practice fields adjacent to the Guglielmino Athletics Complex will be ready for the start of fall practice in August 2008. Two of the fields will be FieldTurf and the third will be natural grass.

RENOVATED FACILITIES

PURCELL PAVILION

- Home to the Irish men's and women's basketball teams as well as the volleyball squad, construction on the $26.3 million Joyce Center Arena addition and renovation will begin in September 2008.

CHARLES W. "LEFTY" SMITH, JR. ICE RINK

- Tentative plans for a $30 million facility will create a new home for the Irish hockey team within the Joyce Center fieldhouse. The project would increase capacity to 4,000 while improving locker rooms, concessions and restrooms.

PROSPECTIVE NEW FACILITIES

OUTDOOR TENNIS COMPLEX

- The $4.9 million project will create a new outdoor playing and practice home with seating for 2,000 and will meet NCAA requirements to host national championships on the Notre Dame campus.

ROWING BOATHOUSE

- A new boathouse for the rowing team eventually will be constructed near the existing boathouse on the St. Joseph River.

Nearly $70 million of the Spirit of Notre Dame development campaign has been earmarked for strategic athletics facilities renovation and construction designs.

SPORTS MEDICINE

SPORTS MEDICINE

- Head athletic trainer and physical therapist Jim Russ oversees a staff of three associate and eight assistant athletic trainers, plus two physical therapist/athletic trainers, all of whom are certified and boast nearly 200 years of collective experience.
- Irish athletes have access to three state-of-the-art sports medicine facilities in the Joyce Center, Notre Dame Stadium and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex.
- The Guglielmino facility encompasses more than 8,500 square-feet of cutting-edge sports medicine technology including the latest in physical therapy modalities and rehabilitation equipment, with two 3,500-gallon therapy pools, a full x-ray unit and an MRI machine.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

- Director of strength and conditioning Ruben Mendoza is in charge of a department that has eight full-time coaches, an intern and a nutritionist.
- The 25,000 square foot Haggar Fitness Complex is located between the Loftus Sports Center and Guglielmino Athletics Complex.
- The Haggar Fitness Complex features a three-lane development track, a 45x18 yard Prestige Turf plyometric agility area, a Gatorade hydration station, six giant plasma screen televisions and a state-of-the-art sound system with 28 speakers and four subwoofers.

DIRECTORS' CUP STANDINGS

For the 10th straight year in 2007-08, Notre Dame posted a top-25 finish (21st) in the United States Sports Academy Division I Directors' Cup all-sports competition sponsored by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (formerly known as Sears Directors' Cup).

Notre Dame is among 14 schools to earn a top-25 finish in each of the past 10 years (1999-2008), as Irish programs finished 25th in '99, 21st in 2000, 11th in '01, 13th in '02 and '03, 19th in '04, 16th in '05, sixth in '06, 22nd in '07 and 21st in '08.

... EXCELLENCE OFF THE FIELD

NOTRE DAME ATHLETICS ... BY THE NUMBERS

205 All-Time Academic All-Americans (second all-time)

8 Academic All-Americans in 2007-08

44 All-Time NCAA postgraduate scholarship recipients

19 Notre Dame teams (out of 22) with a graduation rate of 100% (best percentage in NCAA)

11 Irish athletic teams that earned a perfect score of 1,000 in the NCAA's Academic Performance Rate in 2007-08 (tied for most among Division I football playing schools)

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

- Notre Dame has had 201 Academic All-Americans since 1952, second-most among all NCAA institutions
- From 2006-08, 32 student-athletes earned Academic All-America recognition, the most Academic All-Americans in a three-year stretch in school history
- Eight Irish student-athletes were named Academic All-Americans in 2007-08: Brittany Bock (women's soccer), John Carlson (football), Ashley Jones (women's soccer), Trevor Laws (football), Brett Lilley (baseball), Ryan Miller (men's soccer), Adrienne Nott (women's fencing), Jordan Pearce (hockey).

POST-GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS:

- Notre Dame has had 44 student-athletes receive a postgraduate scholarship from the NCAA since the program was founded in 1964. During the 2007-08 school year, John Carlson (football) and Brett Lilley (baseball) became the most recent recipients of the prestigious scholarship.

STUDENT WELFARE AND DEVELOPMENT

STUDENT WELFARE AND DEVELOPMENT

- The Student Welfare and Development Program implements events and activities that are designed to facilitate learning within five key areas: academic excellence, athletic success, career preparation, community involvement and personal development.
- The program has three components: elective services (community service, leadership, social events); complementary services (encourages administrators and coaches to request coordination of workshops, events and activities); and essential services (student-athletes participate in a series of required skill-building and developmental workshops and activities).
- The Student Welfare and Developmental Program, founded in 1996, continuously seeks to develop programs that educate student-athletes on current issues, so as to ensure that when they graduate from the University, they are prepared to successfully meet the challenges of life.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- More than 92 percent of Notre Dame's student-athletes (from all 26 varsity teams) participated in community service activities during the 2007-08 school year.
- Irish student-athletes completed more than 5,000 hours of community service while assisting more than 50 non-profit organizations and schools.

CITY OF SOUTH BEND

South Bend and Mishawaka are the two largest cities in St. Joseph County and help boost the population of the area to 266,431.

- The College Football Hall of Fame is located in downtown South Bend.
- The Studebaker National Museum is located in South Bend and displays carriages of four U.S. Presidents, prototypes and industrial treasures.
- The community's version of "Willy Wonka" can be found at The South Bend Chocolate Company and Chocolate Museum.
- Adventurers can enjoy both rafting and kayaking on the East Race Waterway, the first artificial whitewater course in North America.
- During the summer, the South Bend Silver Hawks (the Class A minor league affiliate of the Arizona Diamondbacks) plays at Coveleski Stadium.
- On Friday's prior to an Irish home football game, downtown South Bend features a Football Friday Tent Party with live music, food and drink on the grounds of the College Football Hall of Fame.

NOTRE DAME MONOGRAM CLUB

MONOGRAM CLUB

- The Notre Dame Monogram Club is comprised of nearly 7,000 individuals who have earned the University's varsity athletic insignia for their athletic or team-support endeavors or who have been honorary-monogram recipients.

Notre Dame Monogram Club: Bridging the Gap Between Legend and Legacy

- Yearly dues entitle members to a variety of benefits: annual golf outing; membership card; the Inside Irish publication; members' children eligible for Brennan-Boland-Riehle scholarship at Notre Dame; and ticket applications for home football games.

ALUMNI

- The University's network of 275 alumni clubs—including 60 international clubs—is the most extensive in higher education.
- The Notre Dame Alumni Association's current membership reaches nearly 110,000.
- With graduates renowned for their loyalty and generosity, Notre Dame annually ranks among the top five in percentage of alumni who contribute to the University.
- In the world of business, Notre Dame alumni serve in chief executive and other leadership positions at firms such as Andrews McMeel Publishing; the Chicago Mercantile Exchange; General Electric; Goldman, Sachs & Co.; Haggar Company; Marriott Corp.; Merck & Company; and Office Depot.

GIVE A GIFT and LEAVE A LEGACY

Every gift matters. This is much more than a slogan for this family of donors. Their sacrifice, conviction, and generosity represent a love for the University of Notre Dame that goes well beyond athletics and remains a constant in their lives.

Together we can accomplish great things. Thanks to our alumni, parents and friends, the Director's Circle, our recognition society, successfully launched a second annual giving level: Irish Legends. The response has been overwhelming. In its first full year of existence, we have welcomed 104 members — and we are grateful.

Our work has just begun. Athletics grants-in-aid are one of the largest items in the department of athletics operating budget, accounting for roughly $14 million annually. The ultimate goal is to finance all budgetary needs through benefaction. We are confident that we will be successful because we have something special — the Notre Dame family; the Rockne Heritage Fund family.

Director's Circle

Members donating to the Rockne Heritage Fund at the $1,500, $5,000, $10,000 and $25,000 levels, receive a corresponding benefits package. For more information on the attractive football ticket benefit, visit our website: und.com/rockneheritagefund.

How to Make a Gift

- Send a check payable to the Rockne Heritage Fund; P.O. Box 519; Notre Dame, IN 46556.
- Make a gift online: supporting.nd.edu and include "Rockne Heritage Fund" in the comments section.
- Specify if your employer has a matching gift program.
- Notre Dame employees may request a payroll deduction form.

Lacrosse Experience

Dave Cashen '97

Academic All-America defenseman
Columbia University Medical School

"Nowhere in the country could I have found such a good education and a school surrounded by students who love their school, what it stands for and most of all their classmates. I was able to combine this with four years of competitive lacrosse on a team nationally-ranked, well-coached and most of all, created by 35 teammates devoted to each other on and off the field. It is a great feeling to have 35 friends always to support, encourage and entertain you."

Kevin O'Connor '89

Captain of the 1989 team

U.S. Attorney for the state of Connecticut

"As a candidate for United States Congress, I was amazed at the amount of attention given by the media and voters to my having served as captain of the lacrosse team at the University of Notre Dame. Indeed, of all the activities in which I have been involved, my experience as a lacrosse player at Notre Dame was the most valuable in the campaign. The traits that make Notre Dame athletics special in the eyes of the public – sportsmanship, integrity and success – are of equal value in the political arena."

Irish Reflections...

Mike Iorio '95

Three-time All-America defenseman Employed at American National Bank in Chicago, Ill.

"Notre Dame lacrosse provided me with four years of fun and excitement, and it continues to be a part of my life. As a freshman in 1992, I was a part of the team that had the program's first top-10 win. By my senior year, we had accomplished what no other NCAA Division I men's lacrosse team had ever done – the No. 12 seed knocked off the No. 5 seed in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. In the four years that came between these two historic Notre Dame lacrosse events, I received a great education, developed the teamwork and time management skills that I utilize every day in the banking world and built friendships that will last me a lifetime."

Jimmy Keenan '98

Three-time honorable mention
All-America midfielder Employed as an accountant at UBS in New York City and was a member of the New York Saints of the National Lacrosse League

"The decision to attend Notre Dame and play lacrosse there has turned out to be the most gratifying decision of my life thus far. This unique University fulfilled all I could have wished for as a high school senior. As a school, it offers everything from academics to athletics to nightlife and a campus atmosphere that can only be summed up with the cliché 'Notre Dame Family.' The experience, memories and friends that I have accumulated over my four years there have really defined who I am today. Playing lacrosse at Notre Dame, with its tradition and history, was certainly the proudest and most memorable experience for me. The team and the University will always remain a part of my life for it is truly a family."

Sports Facilities

While the support of the South Bend/Michiana community has been a key ingredient to the success of the Fighting Irish at home over the years, the Notre Dame players have routinely given back to the local community. Last spring, the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse team was recognized with The Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The team is seen here receiving the Trophy Award.

Arlotta Stadium

Arlotta Stadium will become the new home for the Notre Dame men's and women's lacrosse programs upon completion, which is scheduled for June of 2009. Construction of the facility began in August of 2008. Conceptual plans suggest a 2,000-seat, lighted stadium that would include an artificial-turf field, locker rooms, restrooms and concession areas.

The state-of-the-art facility is named after Notre Dame graduate John Arlotta, president and chief executive officer of Denver-based Coram Inc. He and his wife Bobbie pledged the lead gift toward the stadium to be built to the east of the Joyce Center as part of the University's new athletics quadrangle. The Arlotta children - Mindy, Andy and Jon - also have pledged an additional gift from The Arlotta Family Foundation toward the project. In addition to their generous donation, alumni and friends of the lacrosse programs have donated over two million dollars.

The Loftus Sports Center combined with Arlotta Stadium, which is under construction, will give the University of Notre Dame some of the top lacrosse facilities in the country. Constructed in 1988, the Loftus Sports Center is one of just six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games.

The Loftus Center provides Notre Dame with one of the top multi-purpose indoor facilities in the nation. Complete with the 120-yard synthetic turf Meyo Field, six-lane 352-yard Mondo indoor track and a 9,000-square-foot weight room, it is used by several Irish athletic programs.

The Isban Auditorium within the Guglielmino Athletics Complex provides an ideal setting for team meetings. The auditorium can seat up to 150 people in large chairback seats.

The Haggar Fitness Center, which is shared by both the Loftus Center and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, features 25,000 square feet of strength and conditioning space with state-of-the-art weight equipment, a 50-yard Mondo track for speed training, a 45-yard by 18-yard Prestige Turf athletic surface for team workouts and an updated sound and lighting system that features six plasma television screens.

The Loftus Sports Center, one of the six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games, is the site of Irish lacrosse games when inclement weather precludes them from being contested outdoors.

Notre Dame has had considerable success at home, posting a 95-26 (.785) record since the Loftus Sports Center was built. That includes six undefeated campaigns and 24 victories over ranked opponents. The Fighting Irish will carry a program-record 19-game home win streak into the 2009 season.

The building is named after John R. Loftus of St. Charles, Ill., a 1949 graduate of the University. Loftus is chief executive of JRL, a real estate, investment and construction firm. Loftus is also a member of the Notre Dame Monogram Club, having played on the varsity basketball team in 1944, 1948 and 1949.

The Meyo Field in the Loftus Center offers Irish lacrosse a 55-by-110 yard synthetic turf playing surface. It was revamped in the summer of 2003 with the addition of Prestige field turf. The field and surrounding track are named for Ray and Marie Meyo of Brecksville, Ohio. Meyo, who graduated from Notre Dame in 1964, is president and chief executive officer of Telxon Corp. in Akron, Ohio, the world's largest manufacturer of portable tele-transaction computers.

The Meyo Field is permanently marked for lacrosse competition and is used as a backup site for games in the event of inclement weather. The Irish have played several contests in the Loftus Center.

In addition to the Meyo Track and Field in the Loftus Center, the Irish lacrosse squad also benefits from the Haggar Fitness Center located in the facility. Equipped with more than 40,000 pounds of free weights, it is four times the size of the weight room in the Joyce Center. It is considered by national strength coaches to be one of the largest, and finest, college training facilities in the nation.

Loftus Sports Center saw its first intercollegiate lacrosse action on April 27, 1988, when Notre Dame posted a 10-7 victory over Michigan State.

A Championship with Meaning

By Todd Rassas

I had a tough start to my experience with the World Team. My office was in 7 World Trade Center and was destroyed due to the attack on Sept. 11. I was sitting at my desk at the time the first plane impacted the World Trade Center. After hearing the explosion we evacuated the building.

At this time a few agents and I ran towards the bottom of the World Trade Center to set up a triage center. While waiting for the injured to come out, we had to move under a walkway to avoid being hit by people and debris falling from the top floors. I remember bandaging a lady's hand, then hearing the second plane accelerate right before it exploded above us. I just hugged the pylon that held up the walkway in hope that the plane wouldn't crash down on us.

At this point I ran a block north to help with all of the emergency personnel trying to get closer. About 15 minutes later I ran from the first tower that fell.

A number of agents regrouped and returned to look for survivors. We got about a block and a half away from the remaining tower when I saw the top floor drop. I turned and started running for my life. All I could think of was my dad saying "when you have the ball, never look back because it makes you run slower." I thought I was going to get crushed. If the tower would have fallen a little more towards the Hudson River I would not be here today. I feel very fortunate to have survived this attack. The victims of Sept. 11 are in my thoughts and prayers every day.

I spent the next four weeks at Ground Zero while almost everyone else on my U.S. team was taking part in fall practice. The fall tournament was probably the worst time for me to be playing lacrosse. I don't even recall all of the teams that we played.

Though I was not ready to play then, I knew there would be no better time to wear red, white, and blue. I think every athlete has a dream at one time or another to wear his or her country's jersey. I remember when all this started Darren Lowe said, "Don't ever underestimate someone playing for his or her country." Every time I put my jersey on, I thought of someone from Sept. 11, or someone who told me, "You can't," or my family who traveled around the world to watch me play a game that I love.

This team was motivated by the so-called lacrosse scholars that predicted us to lose. I took criticism more personally than most of the others on the team. Growing up in Illinois, I have always had to battle the critics. I have six motivational letters at my house. The first is a rejection letter from the University of Notre Dame. After giving up a year of competitive lacrosse and spending a year at Holy Cross College in Indiana, I now have an acceptance letter from Notre Dame. The third letter is a rejection letter from the United States

Secret Service based on lack of experience. Two years later I was employed by the USSS. Finally I have a letter from U.S. Lacrosse explaining how I didn't make the cut for a tryout for the 1998 U.S. Team. Now there is a letter saying I made the team and a gold medal that sits with that rejection letter.

This experience was so enjoyable because the team was told that we were the underdogs from the start. Someone e-mailed me and said that we were being displayed as the "Bad News Bears." We had to bond together.

There was not one guy on our team trying to be a superstar, well at least on the field – some could argue Ryan Mollett and Ryan Boyle were superstars in the social arena. At times on defense, Mollett, John Glatzel, and I were begging someone to shoot the ball. The offense was so unselfish in its play, its motto seemed to be, "I don't want to shoot. You shoot."

We played our first game against the Iroquois Nationals and won 22-6. Then we read an Australian newspaper with some not-so-favorable quotes from the Australian coach, along the lines that it was the Australians' year and the U.S. team is over-rated and under-talented. In warm-ups, instead of running around their half of the field, the Australians took a lap all the way around to our bench. Putting it lightly, I don't think many of our guys, especially Nicky Polanco, appreciated it. From then on it seemed as though the game was over before it started, and we won 22-7. Not too bad for being over-rated and under-talented.

Then we had to get geared up for Canada. This game was the worst display of lacrosse that I have ever seen. Canada had nearly 30 minutes of penalties. Canada was taking cheap shots and late hits to take some of our players out of the game. At one point we had a 6-on-2. We won 14-9, but everyone was disappointed with the victory due to the way that the game was played.

Next we beat England and then the Iroquois in the semi-finals to set up another game with Canada for the championship.

We had a team meeting and went over the Todd Rassas was a three-time All-America defenseman at Notre Dame who played an integral role in helping the U.S. men's lacrosse team win the 2002 International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) Championship in Perth, Australia, serving as team captain. Rassas also works as a Secret Service agent and took part in the 2006 World Championship.

match-ups. I was going to cover Paul Gait. I think one way or another every lacrosse player models their game after one of the Gait brothers. I had a poster of them next to my bed when I was in high school. For me, a kid from Northfield, Ill., covering Paul Gait in his last game for the world championship, even playing with the flu, I was still excited for the match-up.

We started the game with a three-goal lead. Then Canada made some plays to come back. It was back and forth until Canada pulled ahead by two to end the half. It was the first time this Team USA was trailing, and we were getting a little hesitant.

After regrouping we pulled ahead in the third quarter. Doug Shanahan played out of his mind in the fourth quarter. Canada realized they were short on time and called a stick check on Mike Powell. Mike's stick was illegal, and then Jimmy Butler (our team stick doctor) countered their move with a stick check on Canada's John Tavares. It was found illegal and since he scored the last goal it was taken off the board. From there we were able to run out the clock and ended up winning 18-15.

At the beginning of this quest for the gold medal we were picked to finish second or third. "Team USA can't win," said the writers. I kept all the articles. I, along with this team, took the challenge. I am happy to say we are the World Champions! Memories of Nicky Polanco in leopard-skin sandals and a red, white and blue head band, as well as the punishment Trevor Tierney had after he couldn't get past the ladies tee on the golf course will be hard memories to forget. I miss sitting on the bus and playing what-if scenarios about the Secret Service with Matt Streibel, Scott Doyle and Ryan Boyle. It was a classy group of guys that I will never forget. I can't indicate how much pride I had I wearing a USA jersey after my 9-11 experience. I hope my World Team experience motivates all those who at one time have been told that they "can't."

Season Preview

Senior attackman Ryan Hoff currently ranks fifth in program history with 102 career goals. He became the first player in Irish history to post back-to-back 40-goal seasons as he tallied 40 as a sophomore in 2007 and then scored 41 last season en route to garnering All-America honors.

Irish Ready to Keep the Momentum Going

Notre Dame needs to fill some holes, yet solid group of veterans are poised for another run

Senior Regis McDermott will be looked upon to anchor the Fighting Irish defense in 2009. Notre Dame has finished the past two seasons ranked in the top-five nationally for team defense. In 2007, the Irish established a program-record 6.66 goals-against average that placed them fourth in the nation. Last season, Notre Dame was fifth with a 7.04 mark.

As Notre Dame enters its 29th season of varsity lacrosse, the Fighting Irish find themselves with some holes to fill following the graduation of a stellar senior class in the spring of 2008. However, Irish head coach Kevin Corrigan, who is set to begin his 21st season at the helm of the program, feels confident that the group he returns can build off the momentum of last season's Great Western Lacrosse League tournament title and a run to the NCAA Championship quarterfinals.

"We had some critical losses at the defensive end of the field," states Corrigan. "We didn't have quite as many on the offensive end, but definitely some critical guys. At the same time, we have a lot of guys back. We have some guys who are ready to grow into bigger roles and take on more responsibility."

Here is a position-by-position and schedule breakdown for the 2009 Fighting Irish:

ATTACK

Seniors Ryan Hoff and Duncan Swezey will spearhead the Irish attack corps. Hoff is the first player in program history to notch back-to-back 40-goal seasons as he tallied 40 in 2007 and followed that up with 41 one season ago. He enters the '09 campaign ranked fifth in school history with 102 career goals. Swezey is coming off a breakout season as he produced career-best numbers in goals (22), assists (17) and total points (39).

"I think Ryan Hoff is the best crease guy in the country," comments Corrigan. "I don't think there's anybody that does a better job inside of finishing the ball than Ryan does. It'll start with him in the middle and we'll play off of how people want to play him in there. Duncan is the kid that comes to work every day with a smile on his face and loves to play and he has really worked hard to improve himself. I'm really excited for him this spring. I think he's going to have a really good year."

In the junior class, Neal Hicks will be counted on heavily in the attack. Hicks has split time at both attack and midfield during his first two seasons with the Irish, but Corrigan feels he can solidify the Irish attack. While playing the majority of his minutes in the midfield, he appeared in every contest last season and posted 12 goals and six assists.

Fellow junior Colin Igoe is coming off a knee injury that cut his sophomore campaign short after just four games. He was a contributor in those four outings as he tallied five points on three goals and two assists. Igoe did not play this past fall and the coaching staff will look to get him back into the rotation this spring.

"I'm not sure how affective Colin will be able to be this season," adds Corrigan. "We anticipate him coming back and helping us, but he's going to have to ease back into it this spring. I think we will get some contributions from him. He's a kid who can really shoot the ball and help us a lot."

Junior Matt Ciambella will provide depth in the crease position behind Hoff. He saw his first significant time in an Irish uniform last season and deposited seven goals in 15 games. Corrigan has been impressed with the strides that Ciambella has made to this point of his career.

"Matt did a lot this fall to expand his game," states the Irish head coach. "Clearly, he's played his best lacrosse this fall that we've seen him play. I really like how hard Matt continues to work, I think he's going to help us."

Both the sophomore and junior classes feature a walk-on that will give depth to the Fighting Irish attack. Dan Mortell is a junior who spent last season with the squad, yet did not see game action. Ryan Alexander, a sophomore, is a transfer from Union College where he played both lacrosse and basketball last season.

Notre Dame welcomes in a very talented freshman attack class. Sean Rogers was an Under Armour All-American, while Max Pfeifer and Nicholas Beattie also could push for playing time as rookies.

"Our freshman class of attackmen is a very good group," says Corrigan. "They all have some skills and abilities that can help us. We're going to look for ways to get them time because I think they all have a very bright future."

MIDFIELD

The Irish boast a veteran presence at the first and second midfield groups along with the defensive midfield unit. Senior co-captain Peter Christman will be looked upon to lead the first midfield, while Dan Gibson is slotted for the second midfield. Davey Melera, also one of four captains on this year's squad, will look to produce another solid season at the defensive midfield position.

"It's great to have someone at the top of each group who have minutes under their belt and the experience in our program of what we want to do and how we want to do it," states Corrigan.

Christman is coming off a career-best season as he registered 14 goals and 20 assists as a starter in all 17 games. Joining him on the first midfield will most likely be junior Grant Krebs and sophomore Zach Brenneman. Krebs led the Irish midfield in scoring last season by tallying 26 goals and nine assists. The 26 goals were the most ever for a sophomore midfielder at Notre Dame. Brenneman produced 10 goals and two assists from the second midfield during his rookie season.

"Grant Krebs did a tremendous job last season and I think he's continuing to grow as a player," adds Corrigan. "Zach Brenneman did a great job for us as well and I think he'll probably move to the first midfield this season."

Two guys who have played primarily as defensive midfielders, yet will be counted on as more of two-way players this season are junior Kelly McKenna and sophomore David Earl. McKenna played in every game last season and notched three goals and two assists along with picking up 27 ground balls and going 13-for-17 in the faceoff X. Earl netted two goals and assisted on three other scores as a freshman. He also is one of the top ground-ball guys on the team. He picked up 34 last season.

"The good news is that everyone we're looking at playing in the middle of the field are guys that have some experience," says Corrigan. "They all are talented enough and experienced enough to play at a high level."

Junior Adam Felicetti will challenge for playing time with both the second midfield and the defensive midfield group. As a sophomore, he saw action in every game and scored two goals.

"We look for Adam to be a guy to step into a bigger role," says Corrigan. "He's gotten minimal minutes the past couple of years, but he's really worked to improve himself and I think he's ready to help."

A major hole that will need to be filled by the Irish is in faceoffs. Graduated senior Taylor Clagett won over 60 percent of his attempts during his four-year career. Corrigan expects that junior Trever Sipperly and sophomore Jake Marmul will split faceoff duties. Sipperly is 5-for-11 during his career in the X, while Marmul was a perfect 5-for-5 in the three games he played during his freshman campaign.

"We'll have to see how those guys do," offers Corrigan. "(Assistant coach) Brian Fisher has done a great job coaching that aspect of the game. Those guys are both extremely hard workers and good athletes. I think we'll find a way to be successful with that part of the game."

Sophomore Patrick Maloney played in 14 games one season ago and tallied a goal and an assist. He expects to push for increased playing time this season as will his twin brother Billy and fellow sophomores Tom Connor and Taylor Tripucka. Billy saw time in six contests last season and scored one goal. Connor, who is switching from attack to midfield this season, played in three games as a rookie and registered a goal, while Tripucka competed in three contests before his season was cut short due to a shoulder injury. Also adding valuable depth to the Davey Melera and the Fighting Irish will carry a program-record 19-game home winning streak into the 2009 campaign. Melera is one of four team captains and a member of a stellar senior class that will look to extend the streak during their final season at Notre Dame.

midfield is senior Kevin Cullinane, who has played in 15 career games. Corrigan likes the fact that Cullinane is a smart and clever player.

At this point, the freshman midfield class is a bit of a question mark since three of the rookie midfielders did not play in the fall due to injuries.

"The freshman class has had an unfortunate set of circumstances," states Corrigan. "Michael Rogers and Jim Walters had knee injuries coming in and didn't play in the fall and won't play this year. Devon Dobson had a shoulder injury in the summer and had it operated on this fall and hasn't played yet and I don't know when he'll be back. It's not inconceivable that he might miss this season."

Two guys from the freshman class who are healthy and ready to go are Eric Keppeler and Ben Ashenburg. Corrigan liked the job that both of them did in the fall.

"I think Eric has a chance to play for us some as a defensive-middie this year," comments Corrigan. "He has a good sense of the game and is a good athlete and could help us in that kind of a role. Ben is a guy that I think needs a little seasoning, but he has some quickness and some skill and I think he'll be a nice player at this level."

Fellow freshman Andrew Gleason and sophomore Tim Berner will give the Fighting Irish depth at short-stick midfield and possibly long-pole defense as well.

DEFENSE

The defensive end of the field is where graduation hit the Irish the hardest. All-American Sean Dougherty and all-conference performer Ross Zimmerman are gone from the close defensive unit. Senior captain Regis McDermott will anchor the Notre Dame defense, which has ranked among the nation's best over the past two seasons. He was a valuable part of the group that ranked fourth nationally with a school record 6.66 goals-against average in 2007 and a squad that ranked fifth last season with a 7.04 mark. McDermott, who has not missed a game during his Notre Dame career, brings a steady presence to the field.

Joining McDermott in the close defense will be juniors Mike Creighton and Sam Barnes. Both guys are experienced with having seen significant minutes at the long-stick midfielder position during their first two seasons with the Irish. Creighton has appeared in 25 games, while posting three goals and two assists. Barnes has seen time in 22 contests.

"Regis McDermott will anchor the close defensive unit for us," states Corrigan. "Sam Barnes and Mike Creighton have both played a lot of minutes for us and they're both ready to step into those bigger roles for us this season. They're anxious and excited about that opportunity and I think they'll do a great job for us."

Sophomore Kevin Ridgway along with freshmen Kevin Randall and Jake Brems will look to see significant minutes this season. Ridgway appeared in 11 games off the bench for the Irish last season.

"Kevin Ridgway and Kevin Randall will give us great depth on close defense," adds Corrigan. "Kevin Randall is the freshman defenseman that we think is ready to come in and help us. He played a lot in the fall so he got some good experience there. Jake Brems is another freshman defenseman that we think has a chance to contribute as well."

Sophomore Andrew Irving appears to have claimed the top spot at the long-stick midfielder position. Irving had a solid freshman season as he played in 10 games, while picking up 20 ground balls and scoring a goal. He also went 15-for-20 in the faceoff. X. Bobby Smith, a second Under Armour All-American in the Irish freshman class, will provide depth at long-pole defense.

"I think Andrew Irving will be our first guy at long-pole with Creighton and Barnes moving down to close," states Corrigan. "It gives us some versatility with the depth we have at close defense. We can move Creighton or Barnes back up top if we choose to for a game or a matchup. Andrew Irving will give us a different kind of dynamic there. His skills and his instinct offensively are really going to add something to that position. He's as good of a ground ball guy that we have."

A quintet of players also will give Notre Dame increased depth in the defense. Juniors Sean Callinan, Brant Howell and Chip Lanser along with sophomore Dan Schmitt and freshman Connor Greissing will strive to be ready if their number is called.

GOAL

Replacing first-team All-American Joey Kemp in goal will be no easy task for the Fighting Irish. However, Corrigan has supreme confidence in senior captain Scott Rodgers, who was very highly touted coming out of high school on Long Island.

"Joey Kemp is the only first-team All-American goalie we've ever had. I couldn't feel better about our situation even though I know we lost the best guy out there," says Corrigan. "We have a guy in Scott Rodgers who is not only talented, but he's a leader and he's anxious to play because he's waited his turn patiently. He's worked hard to continue to improve and I think he's going to step right in and do a tremendous job for us. Scott Rodgers is someone that we're expecting big things from."

Rodgers, who did not play at all last season, has seen time in seven games during his career. He carries a 5.73 goals-against average and a 0.767 save percentage in just over 73 minutes of playing time.

Giving depth behind Rodgers will be junior Brendan Moore and freshman Colt Power. Moore saw time in six games last season.

SCHEDULE

Notre Dame will have 13 regular-season games on its 2009 slate, beginning with a tilt against Loyola (Md.) on Saturday, Feb. 14 in Atlanta, Ga. Along with the trip to Atlanta, the Irish also will face Vermont in the 2009 Patriot Cup in Dallas, Texas. Notre Dame will conclude the regular season by facing Great Western Lacrosse League foe Ohio State in Ohio Stadium (The Horseshoe) prior to the Buckeyes spring football game on April 25.

Following the season opener against the Greyhounds, the Irish will hit the road to renew their annual rivalry with Penn State on Sunday, Feb. 22 in University Park, Pa. Notre Dame's home opener will be Saturday, Feb. 28 against Dartmouth. The Irish will carry a program-record 19-game home winning streak into the 2009 campaign. Notre Dame has not lost a home tilt since the 2006 season.

The Fighting Irish will welcome in North Carolina on Sunday, March 8. A trip to Bethesda, Md. to face Bucknell at Georgetown Prep awaits the squad on Thursday, March 12.

Notre Dame will then venture to Texas to take part in the 2009 Patriot Cup. The Irish will face Vermont in the event, which will be held at SMU's Ford Stadium on Saturday, March 21.

A three-game homestand will begin with the GWLL opener against Bellarmine on March 25. Notre Dame will step away from conference play to host Villanova on Tuesday, March 31 before returning to GWLL action on Saturday, April 4 against Air Force at home.

The Fighting Irish will return to the road with league contests at Denver (April 11) and Quinnipiac (April 17). Notre Dame will wrap up its home schedule with a non-conference clash against St. John's on Sunday, April 19. Notre Dame will then conclude the regular season at Ohio State in a stadium that holds over 102,000 spectators.

The second GWLL postseason tournament will take place May 1 and 3 at Seaholm High School in Birmingham, Mich. Notre Dame won the inaugural GWLL tournament last season.

"Obviously our league had a good year last year with getting three teams into the NCAA Tournament for the first time ever," says Corrigan. "I think it's going to be every bit as strong if not better this year. I think Denver and Ohio State both have a lot coming back and will be very good teams. Last year, Bellarmine, Air Force and Quinnipiac all improved and are going to come back as better teams this year. Those league games are going to be a huge part of our schedule this year. Obviously we'll have the league tournament at the end, which was terrific last year and we are looking forward to it again."

Notre Dame will hope to be among the 16-team NCAA Championship field for the fourth straight season when the 2009 tournament commences with first-round games on May 9 and 10 at campus sites. The quarterfinals will be held May 16 and 17 in Annapolis, Md. and Hempstead, N.Y. For the second consecutive season, the NCAA semifinals and final will take place at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass.

The Fighting Irish have four teams on its 2009 slate that were in the 2008 NCAA Championship (Denver, Loyola, North Carolina, Ohio State).

This season marks the last for Notre Dame in the GWLL. The Fighting Irish will begin play in the BIG EAST Conference next season. Notre Dame will get a look at future BIG EAST foes when the Irish face Villanova and St. John's during the 2009 campaign.

All Irish home games will be played on campus either indoors at the Loftus Sports Center or outdoors at Alumni Field. Arlotta Stadium, the soon-to-be home for Notre Dame lacrosse, is currently under construction.

Coaching Staff

In 20 seasons at Notre Dame, Kevin Corrigan has led the Fighting Irish to 14 conference titles and 13 NCAA Championship appearances. He guided the program to its fourth NCAA quarterfinal trip in 2008.

Head Coach

Kevin Corrigan

Head Coach
21st Season
Virginia '88

Kevin Corrigan is set to begin his 21st season on the Fighting Irish sideline in 2009. Since his arrival on campus in 1988, Corrigan has built Notre Dame into one of the premier men's lacrosse programs in the nation. Few coaches in the country boast a résumé dotted with such team and individual success over an extended period of time.

Inheriting a program that had never earned a berth in the NCAA Championship, Corrigan has made the Irish a staple in the postseason. His tenure has been highlighted by quarterfinal appearances in 1995, 2000 and 2008 along with the school's first-ever final four trip in '01. Notre Dame has garnered 13 invitations to the NCAA Championship since 1990, including a current run of three straight trips.

Corrigan's Irish squads have won 14 conference titles and finished in the top 20 of the national rankings on 16 occasions, including in 15 of the last 16 campaigns. Notre Dame has been adept at winning big games under Corrigan, registering 48 victories over nationally-ranked opponents, including 12 vs. top-10 foes. The Irish have an overall record of 181-95 (.656) during Corrigan's tenure. Corrigan has steered the Fighting Irish to a program record 19-game home win streak that is still intact entering the 2009 season.

Irish student-athletes who have played under Corrigan have been highly decorated. At least one Notre Dame player has garnered All-America accolades in each of the last 16 years, with 20 individuals earning a total of 36 All-America honors. Five Irish players have been named the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) player of the year, while Notre Dame student-athletes have gained all-conference mention on 109 occasions, an average of more than five per season.

Corrigan has continued the tradition of academic success for the Irish men's lacrosse program. Since first competing on the varsity level in 1981, every Irish lacrosse senior has graduated. Three players since 1997 have gained Academic All-America honors. In 2006, D.J. Driscoll and Pat Walsh were named USILA Scholar All-Americans.

Many of the best players in Notre Dame history have played under Corrigan, as his graduates include each of the top five point scorers in the program's history, six of the top seven goal scorers and each of the top six players on the career assist list.

Playing beyond the college level has been a reality for a number of Corrigan's players. Sixteen have been a member of a professional team in either Major League Lacrosse or the National Lacrosse League, while a trio of Irish players has earned spots on United States national teams and come away with gold medals.

The pinnacle of Corrigan's coaching career thus far came in 2001, when the Irish put together the top season in the program's history. Notre Dame posted the best record in school history, 14-2, rose to an all-time high national ranking of #2 before finishing at a program-best #4 and advancing to the NCAA semifinals for the first time in Notre Dame history.

En route to its seventh GWLL championship in '01, Notre Dame beat the likes of perennial lacrosse powers Virginia (11-8) and Loyola (10-7) on the road, as the Irish started the season 5-0. The only blemish on their regular-season mark was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra. After concluding the regular season with a 12-1 mark, Notre Dame was awarded the fifth seed in the 12-team championship field, marking the first NCAA seeding in Irish history. A 12-7 first-round victory over Bucknell and a first-ever win against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins (13-9) paved the way for a storied NCAA Tournament run. Notre Dame's fairytale '01 campaign ended with a 12-5 loss to Syracuse in the semifinals.

GWLL COACH OF THE YEAR:

1994, 1996, 2001, 2007

A program-record five players earned USILA All-America honors in '01, with attackman Tom Glatzel becoming the school's first-ever first-team selection, as well as one of five finalists for the Tewaaronon Trophy, given to the nation's top player. Goalie Kirk Howell copped second-team All-America accolades while midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team selection. In addition, attackman David Ulrich, the GWLL player of the year, and defenseman Mike Adams were named to the honorable-mention list.

Adams also became the program's third CoSIDA Academic All-American, when he garnered first-team honors in the '01 men's spring at-large program.

The accomplishments of the '01 team were even more impressive considering they came when the Irish program lacked any grant-in-aid scholarships. Shortly thereafter, it was announced by athletics director Kevin White that all Notre Dame programs would begin a process of offering the maximum number of grants-in-aid allowed by the NCAA, making future trips to the final four by the Irish lacrosse team a greater possibility.

After leading the Irish to a 7-6 record in his first season, 1989, Corrigan's 1990 squad made history, gaining the school's first-ever USILA national ranking (17th in the final poll) and earning Notre Dame's first invitation to the NCAA Championship. In 1992, Notre Dame tied the then-school record for wins, going 10-5, and made its second appearance in the NAAs, winning the Great Lakes Conference championship and the West Region bid for the second time in three seasons.

In 1993, the Irish made their third trip to the NCAA Tournament, re-established the season victory record with 11 and rose as high as 12th in the national polls, completing the season at 15th. Defenseman Mike Iorio became the first player in Irish history to be an All-American, copping third-team honors. Corrigan wound up the season with an invitation to coach the North team in the North-South All-Star Game. His North squad took home a 28-16 victory.

In 1994, Corrigan guided the Irish to one of their best seasons in the program's history. In winning its third straight conference title – and the first for the newly-formed Great Western Lacrosse League – Notre Dame posted a 10-2 overall mark, which included a 12-9 win over #17 Penn State and a thrilling 12-11 overtime victory over Michigan State clinching an NCAA bid for Corrigan's squad that finished 14th in the final poll. He also was selected GWLL coach of the year for the second time in three seasons.

His 1994 team also boasted two All-America honorees in GWLL player of the year Iorio and attackman Randy Colley, marking the first time in the program's history that multiple Irish players were named in the same year.

Corrigan helped Notre Dame reach new heights in '95, notching its first-ever NCAA Tournament win in a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at #5 Duke, which marked the first time a team from the West had won an NCAA game. The Irish finished the 1995 campaign with a 9-5 record and final ranking of 15th, as the Irish won their fourth straight league championship. Notre Dame's season culminated with an appearance in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals, where the Irish lost to eventual national runner-up Maryland, 14-11.

Iorio and Colley, the '95 GWLL player of the year, both earned All-America honors again. Iorio was a second-team honoree, as he became Notre Dame's first three-time All-American, while Colley earned honorable-mention accolades for the second consecutive year and finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer. His 273 points (173 G, 100 A) were 87 better than the previous Irish record.

For the first time in school history, three Notre Dame players earned All-America honors in the same season in '96, as Todd Rassas, a defenseman, was a third-team selection and midfielder Jimmy Keenan and goalkeeper Alex Cade were tabbed honorable mention. Notre Dame also cracked the national top 10 for the first time ever, climbing to seventh in the USILA poll in mid-April.

Notre Dame's highest final USILA ranking at the time came in 1997, as the Irish ended ninth. That campaign saw Notre Dame earn its first-ever victory over a top-five opponent, as the Irish defeated #4 Hofstra 10-9 at Moose Krause Stadium en route to a 9-3 overall record.

In 1998, Rassas was named the GWLL player of the year and became the school's second three-time All-American when he earned third-team honors. Keenan was an honorable-mention selection that same season for the third consecutive year.

A year later, attackman Chris Dusseau finished his career as Notre Dame's second all-time leading goal scorer (113), while being named honorable mention All-America.

Corrigan reached another pinnacle in 2000, as his Irish upset fifth-ranked Loyola 15-13 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The win marked the first for Corrigan in 10 tries against the Greyhounds and the first-ever victory for a Notre Dame team in 11 games against Loyola. The victory also avenged a 12-2 loss to Loyola at home during the regular season. Notre Dame dropped its NCAA Tournament quarterfinal game to fourth-ranked Johns Hopkins, 15-11, but finished the season 10-4 and undefeated in the GWLL.

In 2003, the Irish went 9-5 and won a share of a fifth consecutive GWLL title, but just missed an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. With the core of that squad returning for the '04 season, Notre Dame opened the campaign with a 17-7 win over Penn State, which allowed them to debut at eighth in the USILA rankings and then move up to #5, becoming just the second Notre Dame team to reach the top five. A pair of disappointing last-second 9-8 losses – against #17 Ohio State and at #3 Maryland – caused the Irish to barely miss the NCAAAs again with a 7-5 mark. Pat Walsh became the first player in school history to earn All-America honors as a freshman, being named an honorable mention selection in '03 before gaining third-team accolades in '04. He also was one of the 15 nominees for the Tewaaraton Trophy in his sophomore campaign.

In 2005, Walsh again was a Tewaaraton Trophy nominee and copped All-America honors for the third straight season, as he was an honorable-mention selection along with Driscoll. The duo continued the legacy of Irish All-Americans, making it the 13th straight season that Notre Dame had at least one player receive All-America honors. Driscoll also was named the GWLL defensive player of the year and was joined on the all-GWLL first team by Walsh. Freshman goaltender Joey Kemp led the nation with a 0.652 save-percentage and garnered all-GWLL second-team honors along with junior attackman Matt Karweck.

The Irish finished the 2005 season with a 7-4 overall mark and a 3-2 record in the GWLL, which placed them third in the conference. Notre Dame had a win over #21 Penn State (14-6) in the season-opener and would also claim key wins over #10 North Carolina (9-7) and #13 Hofstra (9-8) throughout the course of the season. The victory over North Carolina occurred at the The First 4 Invitational in the Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif. Notre Dame would reach as high as #9 in the USILA poll, making it the third straight season that the Irish had reached the top-10.

In 2006, the Fighting Irish returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since their trek to the semifinals in 2001. Notre Dame posted a 10-5 mark overall, including a 3-2 record in the GWLL to finish second in the conference. The Irish fell to #1, and eventual national champion, Virginia 14-10 in the first round of the postseason. The four-point margin was the closest outcome for the Cavaliers during their four-game run to the title and the second-closest margin over the course of their undefeated campaign.

For the 14th consecutive season, the Irish had at least one player earn All-America distinction as Driscoll was named to the STX/USILA second team and Kemp copped honorable mention honors. The duo also was among the five Irish players named to the all-GWLL first team. That marked the fourth time that Notre Dame had placed at least five student-athletes on the all-GWLL first team. The Fighting Irish put a school-record seven on the list during the 2001 season. Notre Dame had six on the team in 1997 and five in 1995.

The 2007 season saw the Fighting Irish post an 11-4 record, including a perfect 5-0 mark in the league to win their 10th GWLL title and their first outright championship since 2001. Notre Dame made its second straight trip to the NCAA Championship, yet history repeated itself as the Irish fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in an overtime thriller. The Fighting Irish concluded the campaign ranked 11th in the final USILA poll. On the season, the Irish ranked fourth nationally in both scoring offense (11.65) and scoring defense (6.66). The 6.66 goals-allowed per game is a program record.

Accolades were abundant for the '07 Irish as they boasted five honorable-mention All-America honorees in Kemp, Will Yeatman, Brian Hubschmann, Sean Dougherty and Michael Podgajny. A total of eight Notre Dame student-athletes earned all-GWLL recognition, including first-team members Dougherty, Kemp, Yeatman and Ryan Hoff.

The Fighting Irish swept all of the major GWLL postseason awards for the 2007 season. Corrigan was tabbed the GWLL coach of the year for the fourth time, while Kemp was named the GWLL player of the year and Yeatman was selected as the newcomer of the year. Following a 12-6 win at Ohio State that clinched the '07 GWLL title for the Irish, Corrigan was named the US Lacrosse national coach of the week.

In 2008, Corrigan guided the Irish back to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship with an 8-7 overtime triumph of Colgate in the first round. The Irish were seeded sixth in the tournament and played host to the Raiders in the opening round, making it the first time the program had ever hosted an NCAA Championship contest. Syracuse, the eventual national champion, upended the Irish, 11-9, in the quarterfinals in Ithaca, N.Y. That marked the third straight season that Notre Dame had fallen to the eventual NCAA champion in postseason play. Overall, Notre Dame went 14-3 and finished the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll. The victory total matched a program record, which also was achieved under Corrigan in 2001.

The Fighting Irish captured their second straight GWLL regular-season title in 2008 as they were among a three-way tie atop the league standings with a 4-1 mark. Notre Dame garnered the top seed for the inaugural GWLL postseason tournament and the Irish took home the hardware with victories over Quinnipiac and Ohio State in Birmingham, Mich.

Four Irish players (Kemp, Dougherty, Podgajny, Hoff) were tabbed as All-Americans in 2008. Kemp became just the second first-team All-American in program history and the first goalie to be named a first-teamer. Dougherty was a third-team pick, while Podgajny and Hoff were honorable-mention honorees. Those four Fighting Irish players were among six that received all-GWLL honors. Those six student-athletes were a key reason why the Irish ranked fifth nationally in both goals scored per game (12.09) and goals allowed per game (7.04) in 2008. Hoff became the first player in program history to notch back-to-back 40-goal seasons. He tallied 40 as a sophomore in 2007 and followed it with 41 in 2008.

Corrigan not only has seen his team's excel on the field but also in the community. Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

Corrigan was acknowledged for his contributions to the Irish lacrosse program when Notre Dame's Monogram Club awarded him an honorary monogram in 2000.

An assistant at Virginia for two years, Corrigan became just the second head coach in Notre Dame's history on Aug. 23, 1988.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Corrigan assisted the Cavaliers during both the 1987 and '88 seasons under head coach Jim "Ace" Adams.

During a three-year playing career at Virginia, Corrigan scored five goals and registered six assists. He played in 20 games as a midfielder. In his sophomore season in 1979, the Cavaliers reached the NCAA final before losing to Johns Hopkins in overtime.

This is Corrigan's second stint as a head coach. He directed Randolph-Macon College (Va.), a Division III program, for two seasons, compiling a 10-15 record in 1985 and 1986. He previously served as an assistant at Randolph-Macon during the 1984 campaign. In 22 years as a head coach, Corrigan holds a record of 191-110 (.635).

Corrigan also served as an assistant at Notre Dame during the 1983 season and at Western Albemarle (Va.) High School in 1982. He is the son of former Notre Dame athletic director Gene Corrigan, who retired in '97 as the commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The elder Corrigan played collegiate lacrosse at Duke and guided the Virginia and Washington & Lee lacrosse programs. He was inducted into the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in February of 1994.

Kevin's brother Tim was a three-time monogram winner as a midfielder at Notre Dame from 1984-86. Two of Kevin's other brothers, David and Brian, also served as assistants under former Irish head lacrosse coach Rich O'Leary. Another brother, Eugene "Boo", was Notre Dame's associate athletics director for corporate relations and marketing from 2004-08.

When not coaching, Corrigan still remains active by participating in various lacrosse clinics and camps and is a member of the South Bend Regional Sports Commission. He and his wife, Lis, reside in South Bend with their three children – Will, Sidney and Natale.

With Kevin Corrigan entering his 21st season as head coach of the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse program in 2009, he is the 12th coach in Notre Dame history to guide a team for at least 21 seasons. Here is a breakdown of the longest coaching tenures in Notre Dame history ...

Assistant Coach

Gerry Byrne

Assistant Coach
Third Season
Massachusetts-
Amherst '86

Gerry Byrne enters the third season of his second stint as an assistant coach for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team in 2009. In 2007, Byrne returned to the Fighting Irish program, where he served as an assistant from 1989-91. Prior to his return to Notre Dame, he was the head coach at Saint Anselm College in Manchester, N.H. from 2003-06.

The Fighting Irish have enjoyed tremendous success since Byrne rejoined the staff. Notre Dame has posted a 25-7 record and has captured two regular-season Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) titles and a GWLL tournament championship. The Irish have earned an NCAA Championship bid both seasons and are coming off a run to the quarterfinals in 2008. Notre Dame has produced nine All-America and 14 all-conference selections in addition to eight Major League Lacrosse draft picks over the past two seasons. The Irish also will carry a program-record 19-game home win streak into the 2009 campaign.

Notre Dame has reaped the benefits of Byrne's defensive knowledge. In 2007, Byrne helped guide a Notre Dame defensive unit that held opponents to a program-record 6.66 goals per game, which ranked fourth nationally. The defense played a large role in the Irish posting an 11-4 record overall, including a perfect 5-0 conference mark to win its first outright GWLL title since 2001. In addition, the Irish also ranked fourth nationally in scoring offensive with an 11.65 goals per game average. Notre Dame concluded the season ranked 11th in the final USILA poll.

The 2007 season saw five Fighting Irish players earn All-America honors. Junior defenseman Sean Dougherty and junior goalie Joey Kemp were two of those honorees that helped to bolster the stingy Notre Dame defense. Kemp also was named the GWLL player of the year and selected to the all-league first team along with Dougherty, while fellow junior defenseman Ross Zimmerman was tabbed as a second-team all-GWLL performer. The Irish coaching staff also was recognized as the GWLL's staff of the year.

In 2008, it was much of the same as Notre Dame ranked fifth nationally in both goals-against average (7.04) and goals scored per game (12.09). The Irish tied the program record for wins in a season as they compiled a 14-3 record, including a 4-1 league mark to tie for first, and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship for the fourth time in school history. The Fighting Irish also played host to an NCAA Tournament game for the first time ever.

The sixth-seeded Irish defeated Colgate 8-7 in overtime to advance to the quarterfinals, where they were topped by eventual national champion Syracuse, 11-9. Notre Dame concluded the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll.

The Irish defense came through when it counted most during the 2008 campaign. In the title game of the inaugural GWLL tournament, Notre Dame, behind a stellar effort from Kemp, shut down #10 Ohio State in a 9-2 triumph to give the Irish the title. On the season, Notre Dame surrendered 10 or more goals on just two occasions, while holding the competition to six goals or fewer eight times.

Four Irish players, including Kemp and Dougherty, were tabbed as All-Americans in 2008. Kemp became just the second first-team All-American in program history and the first goalie to be named a first-teamer, while Dougherty was a third-team pick. Zimmerman received first-team all-GWLL honors as he helped the Irish to a three-way tie for the league's regular-season title. In all, six Irish players garnered all-league accolades in '08. Following the season, Dougherty, Kemp and Zimmerman all were drafted into Major League Lacrosse.

Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

Byrne graduated Cum Laude from UMass Amherst in 1986 with a degree in economics. He was a two-year starter and a three-year letterman in addition to being an All-New England defenseman for the Minutemen in 1986. He was a starter in two NCAA Tournament games, including the 1986 quarterfinals versus Johns Hopkins.

Byrne then earned his MBA from Notre Dame, where he also worked as defensive coordinator for the Fighting Irish. He helped Notre Dame earn its first NCAA Tournament berth during the 1990 campaign as the Irish posted a 9-7 record, including a perfect 3-0 mark in the MLA's Great Lakes Conference, which gave them the league title.

Following his graduation from UMass, Byrne was a four-time All-United States Club Lacrosse Association member with the Brine Lacrosse Club. He was also invited to tryout with the U.S. National Team on three occasions (1989, 1997, 2001), which placed him among the top-30 defensemen in the nation. Other playing accolades for Byrne include being named an All-Lake Placid Classic performer on 11 occasions and an All-Vail Shootout competitor nine times.

One of his signature years as a player came in 1997. That season he was named a Vail Shootout All-Star in the Elite Division along with copping Vail Shootout MVP honors in the Masters Division. Byrne also was named the Lake Placid Tournament Defensive MVP in the Elite Division and was chosen as the Masters Division MVP. Finally, he was invited to the National Team Selection Camp and was the USCLA/Empire League Player of the Year for the Syracuse Lacrosse Club.

Byrne was inducted into the U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame - New England Chapter - in 1999 and was the 2001 New Hampshire High School Coach of the Year while at Souhegan High School. He was drafted by the New York Saints of the National Lacrosse League (NLL) in 1991 and played for them in 1992. Byrne also was drafted by the Rochester Knighthawks of the NLL as a defensive forward and went on to win a World Championship with them in 1997.

He continued his professional career following a three-year retirement when he was drafted by the Boston Cannons of Major League Lacrosse (MLL) in 2000. Byrne played for the Cannons from 2000-02, while having the distinction of being the oldest active player in the league at that time. He played in the inaugural MLL Final Four in 2001 and made another appearance there the following season.

In addition to his duties at Saint Anselm, Byrne stayed active in the sporting world in several other ways. He served as managing director at Kiltegan Marketing Group, which is an integrated sports marketing services company with clients such as Reebok and Major League Lacrosse. Byrne also has spent time as the director of marketing for Cybex International and Brine, a major manufacturer of lacrosse equipment. He also owns the Premier Players Lacrosse Camps and is the founder of the Texas Top-99.

Byrne is a native of Levittown, N.Y., where he was an All-Long Island Catholic League lacrosse player at Chaminade High School before his graduation in 1982. He and his wife, Dr. Tracy Byrne, a practicing OB/GYN and a 1990 graduate of Notre Dame, are the parents of three children, Rory, Pierre and Brandon.

Assistant Coach

Brian Fisher

Assistant Coach
Third Season
Rutgers '01

Brian Fisher is entering his third season as an assistant coach for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team in 2009. Fisher joined the Fighting Irish from his alma mater, Rutgers University, where he was an assistant coach for five seasons.

The Fighting Irish have enjoyed tremendous success since Fisher's arrival. Notre Dame has posted a 25-7 record and has captured two regular-season Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) titles and a GWLL tournament championship. The Irish have earned an NCAA Championship bid both seasons and are coming off a run to the quarterfinals in 2008. Notre Dame has produced nine All-America and 14 all-conference selections in addition to eight Major League Lacrosse draft picks during Fisher's time at the University. The Irish also will carry a program-record 19-game home win streak into the 2009 campaign.

In 2007, Fisher helped the Fighting Irish post an 11-4 record, which included a perfect 5-0 mark in conference play as Notre Dame captured its first outright GWLL title since 2001. The Irish fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in an overtime thriller during the first round of the NCAA Championship. As a team, Notre Dame ranked fourth nationally in both scoring offense (11.65) and scoring defense (6.66). Notre Dame concluded the season ranked 11th in the final USILA poll.

Receiving honorable-mention All-America honors following the '07 season were Brian Hubschmann (Sr., M/A), Sean Dougherty (Jr., D), Joey Kemp (Jr., G), Michael Podgajny (Jr., M) and Will Yeatman (Fr., A). The Irish also had eight players cop all-GWLL accolades, including Kemp, who was the league's player of the year, and Yeatman, the newcomer of the year. The Irish coaching staff also was recognized as the GWLL's staff of the year.

The NCAA Championship quarterfinal appearance was just one of the highlights of the 2008 campaign. Notre Dame matched a program record for wins with its 14-3 mark, including a 4-1 league record to tie for first, and won the inaugural GWLL tournament. The Irish ranked fifth nationally in both goals-against average (7.04) and goals scored per game (12.09). Notre Dame concluded the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll.

The Fighting Irish also played host to an NCAA Tournament game for the first time ever. The sixth-seeded Irish defeated Colgate 8-7 in overtime to advance to the quarterfinals, where they were topped by eventual national champion Syracuse, 11-9.

Notre Dame boasted four All-Americans in 2008. Kemp became just the second first-team All-American in program history. Dougherty was a third-team selection, while Podgajny and Ryan Hoff (Jr., A) were honorable-mention picks. Hoff became the first player in program history to notch back-to-back 40 goal seasons. He tallied 40 as a sophomore and followed it with 41 in 2008. The quartet of Irish All-Americans was among a group of six that copped all-conference accolades.

Fisher also helped guide a Notre Dame faceoff unit that ranked second among all NCAA Division I teams in 2008 with a .628 winning percentage. Notre Dame ranked 15th nationally in that category during Fisher's first season with the Irish.

Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

Fisher was a standout midfielder and faceoff man for the Scarlet Knights for four seasons (1998-2001). As a coach at Rutgers, he worked extensively with the Scarlet Knight midfielders and was the assistant director of MVP Lacrosse Camps.

Fisher was one of the top face-off men in the nation throughout his Rutgers career. He won 268-of-533 (.502) face-offs in his career. In 2001, as the team's face-off specialist, he took 76 percent of the teams face-offs, winning 120-of-232 (.517) of them. He also led the Scarlet Knights with 69 ground balls.

Fisher was awarded the Rutgers Lacrosse Knight Cup in 2001. The Cup goes to the player "who has played the game of lacrosse to the best of his ability, who has, by example, inspired or led his teammates both on and off the field and, who, above all, has consistently demonstrated the qualities of unselfishness and loyalty to his team and Rutgers University." That same season he was named the Rutgers Lacrosse Time Scholar-Athlete.

The Morton, Pa. native also was awarded the 2000 Frederick Fitch Trophy while at Rutgers. The honor is presented to the varsity letterwinner who, through personal effort to develop his lacrosse ability, has shown the greatest improvement during the season.

Lauren and Brian Fisher

Fisher was a key member of the Ridley High School team that won the Pennsylvania State Championship in 1997. During his career at Ridley, his team compiled a 56-7 record. He was also captain of his wrestling team in high school.

Fisher married the former Lauren Vader from South Orange, N.J. on December 19, 2008, in the Caribbean. Lauren teaches seventh grade social studies at Marshall Middle School in South Bend.

Staying Among the Nation's Best

Irish post 14-3 record and return to NCAA quarterfinals in '08

Winning the inaugural Great Western Lacrosse League tournament and advancing to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship highlighted the 28th season of varsity lacrosse at Notre Dame. The Fighting Irish produced a 14-3 record and went 4-1 in the GWLL to capture a share of the league's regular-season title.

The trip to the program's fourth NCAA quarterfinal appearance did not come easy. The sixth-seeded Irish hosted an NCAA Championship game for the first time in team history. Notre Dame staged a thrilling come-from-behind effort to force overtime in its first-round tilt against Colgate at a cold and rainy Alumni Field. A goal from junior attackman Peter Christman in the extra session sent the Irish into a massive celebration and onto the next round of the tournament.

Notre Dame gave a valiant effort in the quarterfinals, yet fell to eventual national champion Syracuse, 11-9, in Ithaca, N.Y. That marked the third straight season that the Irish were knocked out of the NCAA Tournament by the eventual national champion.

The postseason run began with the first-ever GWLL tournament in Birmingham, Mich. Notre Dame earned the top seed and knocked off Quinnipiac, 10-6, in the semifinals. That set the stage for a top-10 battle between the sixth-ranked Irish and No. 10 Ohio State, who shared the conference's regular-season crown with Notre Dame and Denver. The Fighting Irish came through on both ends of the field to capture the trophy with a 9-2 triumph of the Buckeyes.

Notre Dame not only collected team hardware during the 2008 season, but several individual accolades were garnered. Senior goalie Joey Kemp received his third All-America nod and became the second first-team All-American in program history. He copped those honors from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) in addition to garnering the 2008 Kelly Award for Outstanding Goalie in Division I from the USILA. Kemp became the first Notre Dame student-athlete ever to receive that award. The team co-captain started all 17 games and ranked third nationally with a .635 save percentage and fourth with a 6.69 goals-against average.

Three of Kemp's teammates joined him with All-America honors. Senior defenseman Sean Dougherty was a third-team pick as he helped anchor an Irish defense that ranked fifth among all NCAA Division I squads by allowing just 7.04 goals per game. Dougherty started every game and was part of a defense that held opponents to six goals or fewer on eight occasions throughout the campaign. In addition, he picked up 38 ground balls on the year.

Senior midfielder Michael Podgajny and junior attackman Ryan Hoff both earned honorable mention All-America distinction. The duo was an instrumental part in the Irish offense ranking fifth nationally by averaging 12.09 goals per game. Podgajny tallied 34 points on 25 goals and nine assists en route to being named an honorable mention All-American for the second straight season. Hoff received his first

All-America accolade as he led the Irish in goals for the second straight season. Hoff, who notched 40 goals in 2007, scored 41 goals to become the first player in school history to record back-to-back 40 goal campaigns.

Those four Fighting Irish players were among six that received all-GWLL honors. Seniors Ross Zimmerman and Alex Wharton both copped all-league recognition. Zimmerman, a senior defenseman, was a first-team pick for the second straight season. He started every contest and was a part of the stingy Irish defense. Wharton, a second-team selection, earned his first all-league citation by recording a breakout season with career-high marks in goals (21), assists (32) and points (53). The co-captain's point and assist totals were team-best numbers.

Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

While the Notre Dame squad proved their skills off the field by improving the community, they demonstrated their on-the-field abilities throughout the season. The Fighting Irish opened the '08 campaign with a 7-6 victory at No. 17 Loyola in Baltimore. The Irish, who carried a No. 5 preseason ranking into the contest, were led by a balanced attack as seven different players scored in the win. Kemp had a solid senior-season debut by making 13 saves.

The Irish opened the home slate inside the Loftus Sports Center with a 15-9 triumph of Penn State. A six-goal effort from Hoff along with two goals from junior Duncan Swezey and four assists from Wharton spearheaded the Notre Dame offense. The outburst from Hoff would be a sign of things to come as the junior registered three or more goals in seven games on the season.

Notre Dame improved to 3-0 with a thrilling 7-6 home win over No. 13 Albany. Christman netted his first dramatic game-winning goal of the season as he scored on a diving shot with 23 seconds left in regulation to top the Great Danes. Swezey led the offense with four goals.

The Irish hit the road for a three-game trek away from South Bend that began with a 16-6 win over Villanova. Hoff produced another six-point outing on five goals and an assist, while Wharton and Swezey both chipped in two goals apiece. The victory improved Notre Dame to 4-0 for the first time since 2001.

A top-five showdown then awaited the Irish down in Chapel Hill, N.C. Unfortunately, the fifth-ranked Irish saw their winning streak come to an end with an 8-6 setback to No. 4 North Carolina. Podgajny led the Irish with a pair of goals.

Next on the docket was a trip to Atlanta, Ga. to face Dartmouth. The contest, which was played at The Lovett School, was the first NCAA Division I lacrosse game in the state of Georgia. Notre Dame came out with a 19-7 victory behind a four-goal effort from Podgajny. Hoff also notched a hat trick, while Wharton and sophomore midfielder Grant Krebs scored twice. Wharton and Swezey added four assists. Sophomore Neal Hicks returned to his alma mater and collected three points on a goal and two assists.

Notre Dame came home with a No. 7 ranking to face No. 11 Drexel in the final game ever at Moose Krause Stadium. The Irish gave the facility a fond farewell with a 13-6 besting of the Dragons. The 21-year home of the Irish was torn down to make room for Arlotta Stadium, which will be the new place of residence for Fighting Irish lacrosse beginning in the summer of 2009. Swezey tallied five points on three goals and two assists, while Wharton also recorded a hat trick.

The Irish opened GWLL play with a trip to Louisville, Ky. to face Bellarmine. It was all Notre Dame as Podgajny found the back of the net four times in the 19-7 win. Krebs aided the Irish effort with three goals.

Notre Dame met Denver at Toyota Park, the home of the MLL's Chicago Machine, in Bridgeview, Ill. The Irish jumped ahead 6-2 by the intermission, but saw their lead evaporate in the second half as the 19th-ranked Pioneers came away with a 9-8 league victory to drop the Irish record to 7-2. Hoff had a team-high three goals, while Krebs contributed two scores.

A 16-6 decision over Quinnipiac got the Fighting Irish back on the winning track and improved their league record to 2-1. Hoff produced another strong effort with four goals. Swezey and Wharton both had two goals and two assists.

The Irish then traveled to Bethlehem, Pa. and topped Lehigh, 14-7, to advance their record to 9-2. Hoff registered his second straight four-goal game to go along with an assist. Krebs and Hicks chipped in two goals apiece, while Wharton and Christman both had three assists.

Two days after downing the Mountain Hawks, the Irish traveled to Colorado and faced Air Force in a make-up contest. The originally-scheduled game was postponed due to inclement weather that prevented Notre Dame from making the trek out west. The quick turnaround did not seem to bother the Irish as they captured a 13-5 conference win. Notre Dame displayed its balanced attack once again as 10 players scored, led by two-goal efforts from Hoff, Wharton and Hicks.

Notre Dame carried a 10-2 mark overall and a 3-1 GWLL record into the regular-season finale against Ohio State. The Irish, who needed to claim a win to force a three-way tie for the GWLL title, entered the home contest ranked seventh, while the Buckeyes were ninth. The highly anticipated clash did not disappoint as the Irish captured a 17-12 decision in the back-and-forth affair. Krebs notched five points on three goals and two assists, while Podgajny also netted a hat trick. Wharton continued his solid play with four assists to help the Irish earn a share of their 11th GWLL championship.

The game against the Buckeyes was played at Alumni Field, which is Notre Dame's varsity soccer field. During the course of the 2008 season, the Irish had four 'home' fields. In addition to playing in their two regular venues, the Loftus Sports Center and Moose Krause Stadium, Notre Dame hosted one game at School Field in South Bend (vs. Quinnipiac) and two games at Alumni Field (Ohio State and Colgate). Despite not having a true place to call home during the season, Notre Dame did manage to up the program's record home winning streak to 19 games.

Due to a tiebreaker, the Irish received the top seed for the inaugural GWLL tournament. Notre Dame won its semifinal contest, 10-6, against Quinnipiac behind another three-goal effort from Hoff. Krebs had two goals and two assists and Podgajny joined him with two goals.

After Ohio State topped Denver in the other semifinal, a rematch was set between the Fighting Irish and Buckeyes for the title. Kemp and the Irish defense came to play as they surrendered just two goals in the 9-2 victory. Christman, Hoff and Krebs all had two goals to lock up the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Championship.

For the first time in the 15-year history of the league, three GWLL teams earned an invitation to the NCAA Tournament. Joining Notre Dame in the 16-team field were Ohio State and Denver. The Buckeyes, along with the Fighting Irish, advanced to the quarterfinals. That marked the first time two GWLL teams ever advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals in the same season.

The Irish were making their third straight appearance in the NCAA Championship and their 13th trip overall. Notre Dame earned the sixth seed, which signified just the second time ever that the Irish were seeded in the tournament. By receiving the seed, the Irish were guaranteed to host an NCAA Championship contest for the first time in program history.

Alumni Field played host to the contest against Colgate and sloppy conditions were the story of the day. The Raiders claimed a 5-2 lead by halftime in the steady rainfall. The Irish trailed 7-5 late in the contest, yet goals from Hicks and Podgajny forced overtime. Kemp came through early in the extra period with a save off a point-blank shot and Christman capitalized on the other end and sent Irish to the next round. All eight Irish goals came from different players.

The quarterfinal match with Syracuse also did not start well for the Irish. Staring down a 6-2 halftime deficit, the Irish came storming out in the second half and scored five straight goals to take the lead. Wharton, Podgajny and Christman all had two goals on the day and played key roles in the third-quarter surge. Kemp also kept the Irish in the contest with a stellar performance that included a season-high 19 saves. Notre Dame led 8-7 after three quarters, yet the Irish were outscored 4-1 in the final stanza and the Orange escaped with an 11-9 victory to end the season for the Fighting Irish.

Chesapeake Beach, Maryland
DeMatha Catholic High School

Was one of the top faceoff men in the country during his stellar career ... four-time monogram winner ... played in 54 games during his Notre Dame career ... went 624 of 1,036 (.602) in faceoffs during his Irish tenure ... tallied eight points on five goals and three assists to go along with 239 ground balls ... athletic player who contributed right away as a freshman ... battled injuries during portions of his career ... was selected in the fifth round of the 2008 Major League Lacrosse Draft by the Los Angeles Riptide with the 49th pick overall ... his brother, Steve, graduated from Notre Dame in 2004 after a distinguished career as a midfielder for the Irish, including being a part of the '01 squad that reached the NCAA semifinals.

AS A SENIOR: Played in all 17 games and earned his fourth monogram ... posted a single-season career-best .619 winning percentage from the faceoff X by going 203 for 328 ... also tallied a single-season career-high four points on three goals and one assist ... the three goals also were a career-best mark ... scooped up a team-high 63 ground balls ... notched his first goal of the season in a 19-7 win over Dartmouth ... recorded two points on a goal and an assist in a 19-7 league victory over Bellarmine ... aided the Irish effort in a 14-7 win over Lehigh by scoring a goal ... also picked up a season-high seven ground balls in the win over the Mountain Hawks ... won a career-best 24 faceoffs in a 17-12 win over Ohio State to lock up a share of the GWLL regular-season title ... top faceoff winning percentage of the season came in an 8-6 setback at #4 North Carolina as he went 13 for 16 (.813).

AS A JUNIOR: Played in all 15 games ... shared the team lead with 63 ground balls ... won 164 of 289 (.567) faceoffs ... totaled one point on one assist ... attempted 14 shots ... whistled for one penalty ... registered one point on one assist ... opened the season by winning 10 of 20 faceoffs in a 9-7 win over #13 Loyola ... notched a season-high 14 faceoff wins (out of 21) in an 11-8 win at Penn State ... he would match that win total on three other occasions during the campaign ... posted a season-low victory total and percentage by going 5-for-21 in a 13-8 setback versus #4 Cornell ... won 13 of 23 faceoffs in an 11-8 loss at #15 North Carolina ... the 23 facoffs were a season-high number ... went 10-for-19 in a 16-5 triumph at #19 Drexel ... also collected an assist against the Dragons ... despite an Irish loss (7-6) he dominated the faceoff X by going 11-for-16 against Dartmouth ... registered another 11 wins (out of 17) in an 11-3 victory over Bellarmine in the GWLL opener ... posted a (then) career-high faceoff win percentage of .778 by going 14-for-18 in an 11-3 victory at Brown ... won 14 of 20 faceoffs in a 15-5 triumph of Villanova ... established another career-best performance by winning 14 of 17 (.824) faceoffs in a 16-4 win over Air Force ... went 13-for-22 against Denver, a 14-6 victory ... attempted a season-low 12 faceoffs, winning eight of them, in a 14-2 besting of Lehigh ... his nine-game streak above .500 was snapped as he went 9-for-22 in a 12-6 win at #20 Ohio State ... won 12 of 21 in the X during the regular-season finale at Quinnipiac, a 14-9 victory ... picked up a season-high seven ground balls against the Bobcats ... suffered a season-low percentage by going 6-for-20 (.300) in an 11-10 overtime setback at #5 Johns Hopkins in the first round of the NCAA Tournament ... had six ground balls versus the Blue Jays.

AS A SOPHOMORE: Appeared in 11 of the team's 15 contests ... missed a stretch of four games in the middle of the season due to an injury ... was 126 of 205 in faceoffs for a .615 percentage, which would have tied him for sixth nationally had he appeared in enough games ... picked up 49 ground balls ... called for two penalties, resulting in 1:30 of penalty time ... attempted three shots ... won a season-high 16 faceoffs (in 28 attempts) in a 14-10 setback at #1 Virginia in the first round of the NCAA Tournament ... best percentage of the season came in a 9-6 loss to #8 Cornell as he won 13 of 17 for a .765 mark ... won 12 of 16 faceoffs

CASSESE WAS A FOOTBALL PLAYER WHO PICKED UP A LACROSSE STICK BECAUSE HIS BUDDIES TOLD HIM IT WAS FUN. POWELL WAS JUST A KID WHO WANTED TO PLAY WITH TWO OLDER BROTHERS. AND JOHNSON GOT STUCK IN THE GOAL BECAUSE A COACH SAW HE WASN'T AFRAID. SOMEHOW, THE GAME FOUND THEM. JUST LIKE IT FINDS YOU. NOW ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS FIND OUT WHAT YOU DO BEST. THAT'S WHY WE PUT PRO PLAYERS ON OUR R&D TEAM, TO HELP US GIVE YOU THE TOOLS YOU NEED TO FIND YOUR GANG.

National Semifinal Appearance Caps Historic Season For Notre Dame Lacrosse Team

Notre Dame completed a storybook season with its first-ever appearance in the semifinals of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship in 2001. The Irish finished 14-2, establishing new school marks for victories and winning percentage (.875). While the team's success came as a surprise to some in the lacrosse world, head coach Kevin Corrigan was not among them.

Notre Dame began its preparations for the '01 campaign in the fall of 2000 with a quiet sense of confidence. With eight starters and seven of its top eight scorers returning from a team that reached the NCAA quarterfinals in '00 for the second time in six seasons, Corrigan and his staff couldn't help but contemplate the potential for success.

Notre Dame won its first five games of the season and climbed to an all-time high of #2 in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA)/STX Poll in mid-March following first-ever back-to-back road wins at seventh-ranked Virginia (11-8) and fifth-ranked Loyola (10-7). The only blemish on the Irish record during the regular season was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra.

Corrigan's squad finished the regular season with a 12-1 record and played as a top-10 team in all but one game during the season. His second straight 10-win campaign marked the first back-to-back double-digit-victory totals since 1991-93, when Irish teams registered three consecutive 10-win seasons. It also marked the sixth time in the program's 21-year history that an Irish team won 10 or more games.

Notre Dame ended with its best-ever ranking, as the Irish finished fourth in the USILA/STX, Brine/360 Lacrosse.com, and Warrior/Inside Lacrosse.com polls. When the NCAA tournament pairings were announced on May 6, the Irish earned the fifth seed in the 12-team NCAA tournament field as Notre Dame played as a seeded team for the first time in program history.

Notre Dame advanced to the national semifinals following a 12-7 win over Bucknell in the first round and its first-ever win over Johns Hopkins, 13-9, in the quarterfinals. Entering its matchup with the Blue Jays, Notre Dame was 0-2 all-time against one of lacrosse's most storied programs.

Although the season ended with a disappointing 12-5 loss to top-seeded and perennial power Syracuse in the semifinals, it was certainly a year of milestones for the Irish lacrosse program. A record five Notre Dame players earned USILA All-America honors. Attackman Tom Glatzel became the school's first first-team selection after having one of the greatest seasons ever by an Irish lacrosse player. One of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy, awarded to the nation's top player, Glatzel scored 40 goals and dished off 27 assists. His 67 points were the most in a single season since Randy Colley's school-record 74 during the 1995 campaign. Glatzel finished his Irish career as the school's fourth all-time leading scorer, as he registered 106 goals (fourth best) and 61 assists. After scoring just two goals and dishing off one assist during his freshman season, Glatzel averaged 34.6 goals and 20.0 assists in his final three seasons.

Goalie Kirk Howell, a second-team selection, registered a 7.07 goals-against average and .632 save percentage, as he ranked third and fourth nationally in those respective categories. Howell had the distinction of being one of just four players to serve as a team captain for two seasons. Howell helped Notre Dame establish a single-season mark for goals allowed as the Irish gave up just 6.94 per game, eclipsing the old mark of 7.23 established during the 1996 season. Midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team honoree, as he finished with 19 goals and five assists and led the team with 69 ground balls.

Defenseman Mike Adams earned honorable mention All-America honors, as did attackman David Ulrich, who led the team in assists all four years and closed out his Irish career as the school's career assist leader. One of just two players to lead Notre Dame in scoring all four years, Ulrich finished with 110 assists, an average of nearly 28 per season. In addition to earning honorable mention All-America honors, Adams became the first first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in the program's history.

1990 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Harvard 9, #17 Notre Dame 3

May 16, 1990/Cambridge, Mass.

Notre Dame marked its 10th year of varsity lacrosse with its first-ever NCAA tournament appearance. The Irish, after finishing tied for 17th in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) rankings, entered their contest against the fifth-seeded and co-Ivy League champion Harvard Crimson as the 12th seed and owners of the bid reserved for a team from the Midwest.

Behind freshman goalie Chris Parent, who made 11 saves in the contest, Notre Dame, which finished its season with a 9-7 record, played one of its better games, as the Irish defense held Harvard to under 10 goals for only the third time during the '90 campaign. The Irish offense, however, was stymied as coach Kevin Corrigan's squad, which averaged nearly 11 goals throughout the season, was unable to capitalize on numerous scoring opportunities.

Senior co-captain Dave Carey, a native of Sudbury, Mass., led the Irish with two goals in his homecoming. Harvard was paced in the game by Mick Cavuoti's two goals and an assist.

Harvard jumped out to a 6-0 advantage at the end of three quarters, while the Irish tallied all three of their goals in the final 15-minute stanza.

Chris Miller made 14 saves for the hosts in goal, as the Irish also failed to capitalize on five man-up opportunities.

1992 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Johns Hopkins 15, Notre Dame 7
May 10, 1992/Baltimore, Md.

Making its second NCAA tournament appearance, Notre Dame traveled to Baltimore, Md., to play perennial power Johns Hopkins. The Irish entered the contest winners of nine of their final 10 games of the regular season.

The fifth-seeded Blue Jays got off to a fast start, as Hopkins held a 7-0 half-time advantage. Notre Dame got its offense into gear in the second half, but it wasn't enough as the Blue Jays won the game 15-7.

Johns Hopkins' goalie Scott Giardina, a third-team All-America selection, had 11 saves in the second quarter and finished with 21 for the game. Two-time All-American Adam Wright paced the Blue Jays with four goals in the game.

Randy Colley scored three times to lead the Irish. Ryan Jewell came off the bench to make nine saves in goal.

Notre Dame finished the '92 campaign with a 10-5 record, while Johns Hopkins advanced to the NCAA semifinals before losing to Syracuse.

1993 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Virginia 19, #15 Notre Dame 9
May 15, 1993/Charlottesville, Va.

Notre Dame earned its second straight NCAA tournament berth and third in four years, as the Irish traveled to Charlottesville, Va., for a first-round contest against head coach Kevin Corrigan's alma mater, Virginia. The fifth-year Irish mentor, a 1988 graduate, played midfield for the Cavaliers for three years and was an assistant on the Virginia staff for two.

The 15th-ranked Irish entered the contest boasting a school-record 11 wins. Without a senior in the starting lineup, Notre Dame faced its second Atlantic Coast Conference foe of the season. During the regular season, the Irish dropped a 13-7 decision at Duke.

The Cavaliers opened up the contest by scoring seven straight goals and held a 12-2 lead at the half. After halftime, the Irish scored six unanswered goals, including four straight to end the third quarter.

Attackman Randy Colley finished the game with three goals and two assists, while midfielder Will Sutton added two goals and two assists.

Tim Whitely led the Cavaliers with four goals and three assists.

Notre Dame's final 11-3 record ranked as the best in school history in terms of winning percentage at that time.

1994 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Virginia 23, #14 Notre Dame 4
May 14, 1994/Charlottesville, Va.

Notre Dame returned to Charlottesville, Va., for the second straight year to face the Virginia Cavaliers in NCAA tournament action. It marked the third consecutive tournament appearance for the Irish and fourth in the school's history.

The 12th-seeded and 14th-ranked Irish entered the game with a 10-1 record, marking the third straight year that Kevin Corrigan's squad had won 10-plus games. The Cavaliers entered the contest ranked and seeded fifth.

Virginia, which jumped out to an early 4-0 lead in the contest, dominated the Irish to post a 23-4 victory. Notre Dame managed to stay close until midway through the second quarter. The Irish trailed 5-2 before Virginia scored six straight goals for an 11-2 halftime lead. In the second half, the Cavaliers outscored Notre Dame 8-1 in the third quarter and 4-1 in the fourth quarter.

Virginia was led by midfielders Greg Traynor and Drew Fox, who had three goals each. Tim Whitely added two goals and three assists.

Irish leading scorer Randy Colley was held to a goal and an assist. Rob Snyder scored twice for Notre Dame.

1995 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#15 Notre Dame 12, #5 Duke 10 May 13, 1995/Durham, N.C.

Notre Dame proved the skeptics wrong as the Irish, making their fourth straight NCAA tournament appearance, stunned the lacrosse world with a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at fifth-seeded Duke. It was the biggest win in Notre Dame lacrosse history to date.

After being outscored 57-20 in its first three tournament appearances, Notre Dame had other ideas against the highly-rated Blue Devils, champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The win gave credence to the Irish program, which was one of just six teams making their fourth straight trip to the NCAAAs, and solidified Notre Dame as a bona fide contender and opened up the eyes of those from the East about the quality of play in the West.

For most of the first two quarters, an Irish upset looked improbable as Notre Dame trailed 7-4 at the half. But Notre Dame came back to net seven unanswered goals as senior attackman Randy Colley scored three of his game-high five goals in the third quarter. The Irish shut out the Blue Devils in the third, 4-0.

Tim Kearney tied the score at 7-7 with 6:33 left in the third before Colley's goal at 5:22 gave Notre Dame a lead it would never relinquish. The Irish increased their lead to 11-7 on two goals by Colley and scores by Kearney and Brian Erickson.

Alex Whitten ended the seven-goal Irish scoring blitz with 8:25 left in the game. It marked Duke's first goal since one with 1:29 left before the half. Kearney countered for Notre Dame with 4:41 left off an assist from Will Sutton, one of four the senior midfielder would have on the day. Scott Harrison scored the final goal of the game for Duke with 2:53 left in the contest.

Freshman Alex Cade made 18 saves in goal, one shy of his career best. The victory moved the Irish into the quarterfinals and a matchup with another ACC foe, Maryland.

1995 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#14 Maryland 14, #15 Notre Dame 11 May 20, 1995/College Park, Md.

Notre Dame nearly pulled off its second straight upset, but this time the bid fell short as Maryland withstood a dramatic Irish rally and escaped with a 14-11 victory.

Trailing 10-2 with 5:59 left in the third quarter, Notre Dame pulled to within 11-10 with 9:48 remaining in the contest on Randy Colley's third goal. The Terrapins responded with three goals over the next four minutes to secure the victory.

Maryland led 4-0 after one quarter. The Irish got on the scoreboard with 10:41 remaining when Brian Erickson tossed in the first of his two goals. Maryland closed out the second quarter by scoring four goals for an 8-1 halftime lead.

Maryland went up 9-1 to start the third quarter before Will Sutton broke the Terrapin string of five unanswered goals with 7:08 left. Matt Bordi gave Maryland a 10-2 advantage with 5:59 remaining in the third quarter.

Todd Bialous started the six-goal Irish blitz that included three tallies in the final 4:07 of the third quarter. Colley scored back-to-back goals just before the end of the period.

The Irish scored three goals in the first 3:50 of the fourth quarter as Tim Kearney, Keenan, and Erickson all tallied in the fourth-quarter spurt. Matt Hahn gave Maryland an 11-8 lead before Kearney and Colley had consecutive scores to cut the deficit to 11-10. Three straight Maryland goals ended the Irish rally, and Burke Hayes netted the game's final score for the 14-11 outcome.

Alex Cade made 15 saves in goal, while Maryland's Brian Dougherty had 16 stops.

Notre Dame finished its dramatic season with a 9-5 record, as the Irish gained the respect of the lacrosse community.

1996 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#9 Johns Hopkins 12, #11 Notre Dame 7 May 12, 1995/Annapolis, Md.

Looking to once again pull off a first-round upset in making its fifth straight NCAA tournament appearance, 11th-ranked Notre Dame played ninth-ranked Johns Hopkins for the second time in its seven NCAA contests. Their matchup with the Blue Jays marked the seventh top-20 opponent the Irish faced during the '96 campaign.

After holding a narrow 7-6 advantage after three periods, Johns Hopkins outscored Notre Dame 5-1 in the final 15-minute stanza for the 12-7 victory. Sophomore Jimmy Keenan, Notre Dame's top scorer, led the Irish with a goal and a career-high four assists, while second-leading scorer Chris Dusseau had two goals. He finished with a team-high 29 goals on the year, which established a Notre Dame freshman mark for goals in a season.

Sophomore goalkeeper Alex Cade tied his career high with 21 saves in the game, which marked the third time during the season that he had 20-plus saves in a contest.

Milford Marchant scored a personal-best four goals in the game, while Brian Evans and Dan Denihan each added two for the Blue Jays in the victory.

Randy Colley led the Irish with five goals and one assist in Notre Dame's first-ever NCAA Tournament win, a 12-10 triumph of Duke during the 1995 campaign.

NCAA Tournament History

Evans gave Johns Hopkins an early 1-0 lead with 8:25 remaining in the first quarter, but back-to-back goals by Keenan and Dusseau put the Irish up 2-1 with 2:11 remaining. The first quarter ended with the teams deadlocked at 2-2.

Notre Dame took a 3-2 lead with 14:27 left as Tony Reid scored off a Will DeRiso assist. Johns Hopkins went up 4-3 on goals by Marchant and Matt O'Kelly. Dusseau, off a Keenan feed, tied the score at 4-4, but Marchant netted his second goal of the quarter 34 seconds later to give the Blue Jays a 5-4 lead at the half.

Both teams scored twice in the third quarter as Notre Dame trailed 7-6 after DeRiso's goal with 45 seconds remaining. Johns Hopkins tallied five unanswered goals in the fourth quarter. Burke Hayes had the lone Irish goal of the period with 29 seconds left in the contest.

1997 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#6 Loyola 21, #9 Notre Dame 5
May 11, 1997/Towson, Md.

Notre Dame's matchup with Loyola in the first round of the 1997 NCAA tournament was the second of the season between the two teams. It was a highly-anticipated meeting between two evenly-matched squads who had played to a one-goal decision early in the year.

The contest provided the Irish, who were making their sixth straight NCAA appearance, an opportunity to avenge a 12-11 loss on March 15. That game, which saw Notre Dame overcome a four-goal first-quarter deficit, see-sawed back and forth from the second quarter on. The outcome was decided in the final 2:45, when the Greyhounds produced the winning goal.

The second meeting produced a far different result, as Loyola ousted Notre Dame from the tournament with a 21-5 victory. It was the second-worst loss suffered by the Irish in eight tournament games.

After junior Ned Webster tied the game at 1-1 with 13:11 left in the first quarter, Loyola scored six unanswered goals en route to an 11-3 halftime lead.

Webster scored two goals in the contest for the Irish. Also scoring in the game were Stedman Oakey, Adam Sargent, and Brad Owen. For Sargent, it marked the first goal of his collegiate career.

Goalkeeper Alex Cade gave up 20 goals (the most of his career) and made nine saves in the game.

Loyola, which improved to 7-0 against Notre Dame, was led by Gewas Schindler's seven goals and one assist.

1999 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Georgetown 14, #14 Notre Dame 10
May 16, 1999/Towson, Md.

After a one-year hiatus, Notre Dame made a return to the NCAA tournament for the seventh time in eight years. The 14th-ranked Irish faced a first-round matchup with fifth-seeded Georgetown in Towson, Md.

Earlier in the season the two teams squared off at Notre Dame, with the Hoyas coming away with a 12-8 victory after the Irish had built an early 4-0 lead. In the NCAAAs, the final outcome was nearly identical, as Georgetown earned a 14-10 victory.

The Hoyas, eventual NCAA tournament semifinalists, used three unanswered goals in the third period to break a 7-7 halftime deadlock.

Senior Chris Dusseau, who closed out his Irish career with two goals in the contest, opened by tallying Notre Dame's first two scores. Georgetown jumped out to a 4-2 advantage only to have senior Brad Owen tie the game with the first of his three scores with 14:40 remaining until the break.

The two teams exchanged goals throughout most of the second period with David Ulrich and John Flandina knotting the score at 5-5 and 6-6, respectively. Owen notched his second goal of the game 33 seconds before intermission to tie the score for the sixth and final time.

Georgetown scored the first four goals of the second half and held Notre Dame scoreless for the entire third quarter. Owen's third goal of the game finally put the Irish on the scoreboard for the first time in the second half, with 10:45 remaining in the final quarter. Tom Glatzel scored two of Notre Dame's three fourth-quarter goals.

Goalie Kirk Howell finished with 13 saves in the game. The 14 goals scored by the Hoyas were the most given up by Notre Dame in 1999.

Notre Dame finished the campaign with an 8-6 record.

2000 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#13 Notre Dame 15, #5 Loyola 13
May 14, 2000/Baltimore, Md.

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse team returned to the NCAA tournament for the second straight year and eighth time in nine seasons in 2000. And for the second time in school history, the 13th-ranked Irish advanced to the quarterfinals, this time with a first-round upset of fifth-seeded Loyola 15-13.

Notre Dame's victory proved just as stunning as the one five years earlier, when the Irish earned a 12-10 decision over Duke. While the win gave Notre Dame its second NCAA tournament victory, it also avenged the worst loss of the regular season, when the Irish were beaten 12-2 by the Greyhounds. In addition, it marked Notre Dame's first-ever win over Loyola in 11 meetings.

Notre Dame jumped out to an early lead just 46 seconds in the game when junior David Ulrich scored his second career NCAA tournament goal to put the Irish in the lead, 1-0. Loyola answered back when Tim Goettelmann scored the first of his seven goals on the day to tie the game 1-1.

The Irish then ripped off four consecutive goals by different players. Junior Chris Young got the Notre Dame run started, with classmate Tom Glatzel, senior Stedman Oakey, and sophomore John Flandina following, to open up the contest as the scoring burst gave Notre Dame a lead it would never relinquish.

Ending the first half with a 10-5 advantage over the Greyhounds, the Irish dominated the play on the field. Loyola would make a run at the end of the game, but the Irish defense and senior goaltender Kirk Howell, who had 13 saves in the game, would enable the Irish to hold their lead.

Loyola's Gunnar Goettelmann, Tim Goettelmann, Bobby Horsey, and Mike Battista combined to score eight goals in the final 20 minutes of the game to close the gap. Loyola took 15 shots in the fourth period, but Howell, who had five saves in the quarter, and the Irish defense kept the Irish lead intact.

Eleven different players scored for the Irish on the day, helping to solve the Greyhound defense that only allowed two goals in the first meeting. The Irish were led by Glatzel's four goals and three assists.

2000 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#4 Johns Hopkins 15, #13 Notre Dame 11
May 21, 2000/Baltimore, Md.

After an upset win over fifth-ranked Loyola, the Irish put their best efforts up against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA tournament. The Blue Jays, with a strong offensive attack and playing on their home field, proved to be a tough second-round matchup for the Irish, who were bidding for their first appearance in the national semifinals.

Dan Denihan led the Johns Hopkins attack with four goals and four assists, as the fourth-seeded Blue Jays posted a 15-11 victory over the Irish, who closed out the campaign with a 10-4 record. The loss snapped a seven-game winning streak for the Irish, as Notre Dame posted its fourth 10-win season during head coach Kevin Corrigan's tenure.

Leading 7-6 with 5:10 to play in the second quarter, Denihan and Bobby Benson scored three goals each to key an 8-2 run that saw the Blue Jays pull out to an insurmountable 15-8 lead with 3:50 remaining in the third quarter. Todd Ulrich scored two of his team-high three markers in the fourth quarter, as Notre Dame held Hopkins scoreless and provided the final four-goal margin.

ND jumped out to a 3-2 advantage with 1:15 left in the first quarter when Chris Young scored on David Ulrich's second assist of the game. Johns Hopkins responded with a 5-0 run, thanks in part to two goals from Conor Denihan, to take a 7-3 advantage. Jon Harvey, one of four multiple-goal scorers for the Irish, then closed a 3-0 Notre Dame run that reduced the lead to 7-6 midway through the second quarter, setting the stage for the Blue Jays' game-clinching spurt as Johns Hopkins outscored the Irish 7-2 in the decisive third period.

NCAA Tournament History

Mike Adams – who would be tabbed honorable mention All-America at the conclusion of the season – was a key force in Notre Dame’s best-ever NCAA-tournament defensive performance, allowing just seven goals – only two in the first half en route to a five-goal intermission advantage – in a first-round tilt against Bucknell in 2001.

2001 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#4 Notre Dame 12, #10 Bucknell 7
May 13, 2001/West Point, N.Y.

Playing as a seeded team in the NCAA tournament for the first time in the 21-year history of its program, the fifth-seeded Irish beat Bucknell 12-7 in the first-ever meeting between the schools. With the win, Notre Dame advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA championship for the second consecutive season and third time in seven years.

Four players scored multiple goals for the Irish, as Notre Dame added to its record-setting season with its 13th win of the year and eighth straight victory. The eight-game winning streak matched its longest since the 1994 campaign. The contest was close for the first 18 minutes until John Flandina’s early second-period goal gave the Irish a 3-2 advantage and began a streak of six consecutive goals by six different players.

After a tightly-played first quarter featuring just one goal by each team, the Irish and Bison traded scores early in the second period before Notre Dame’s six-goal run. Leading 8-2 just 39 seconds into the third period, the Irish allowed three Bison goals in the third quarter, as Notre Dame held a 9-5 advantage entering the final stanza.

The Irish opened the fourth quarter by scoring three straight goals, including a pair by senior attackman Jon Harvey.

Eight different players scored for the fourth-ranked Irish, who were led by four seniors notching two goals each. In addition to Harvey scoring a pair, David Ulrich, Chris Young, and Steve Bishko also added two scores each. Tom Glatzel registered a goal and dished off a game-high four assists, while goalie Kirk Howell came up with eight saves in goal.

Wes Fletchet scored three goals to lead the Bison in their first-ever NCAA tournament appearance.

2001 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#4 Notre Dame 13, #3 Johns Hopkins 9
May 20, 2001/College Park, Md.

Notre Dame advanced to its first-ever national semifinal with a 13-9 win over fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins. The Irish scored five straight fourth-period goals in a 5:21 span over the final six-and-a-half minutes of the game to snap an 8-8 tie on the way to the first quarterfinal victory in school history and ninth straight win (tying a school record).

The win also marked Notre Dame’s first win over Johns Hopkins in four all-time contests – all in the NCAA tournament – and avenged the 2000 quarterfinal loss.

Senior Tom Glatzel paced the Irish with four goals and an assist, while fellow senior Jon Harvey added three goals and junior midfielder John Flandina collected a pair of goals and an assist in the win.

Flandina scored both of his goals in the five-goal flurry, beginning with the go-ahead goal that gave the Irish a 9-8 advantage with 6:29 remaining in the contest, ending a span of more than 10 minutes without a score. Following Flandina’s score, Steve Bishko added his first score of the day to give the Irish a 10-8 advantage with 4:02 to play in the game. Flandina netted his second goal of the day off a feed from Todd Ulrich with 2:54 remaining and then Harvey scored Notre Dame’s final goal with 58 seconds left to play. Bobby Benson, who led the Blue Jays with three goals, tallied the game’s final score with 11 minutes remaining in the contest for the final four-goal margin.

Johns Hopkins scored on its first three shots of the game to take a 3-1 lead in the game just 5:11 into the contest, but the Irish scored four consecutive goals to take a 5-3 lead with 9:50 left in the second quarter. After David Ulrich scored unassisted to cut the lead to 3-2, sophomore middle Travis Wells scored two of Notre Dame’s next three goals, marking the first multiple-goal game of his career.

Notre Dame went ahead 4-3 with 47 seconds left in the first period, and then Wells put the Irish up 5-3 with 9:50 left in the second period. The two teams traded goals for the remainder of the first half, as the Irish led 7-5 at the intermission.

Johns Hopkins tied the game less than four minutes into the second half, and then the two teams traded scores in the final three minutes of the third quarter as the third period ended knotted at 8-8. From there, both defenses took over before Flandina’s goal with 6:29 remaining.

2001 NCAA Tournament – Semifinals

#2 Syracuse 12, #4 Notre Dame 5

May 26, 2001/Piscataway, N.J.

The most successful season in the history of the Notre Dame men's lacrosse program ended in the semifinals of the NCAA Championship, as the Irish fell victim to defending national champion Syracuse 12-5 at Rutgers Stadium in Piscataway, N.J. Coach Kevin Corrigan's squad ended the campaign with a 14-2 mark and set school records for most wins and single-season winning percentage (.875).

The 12 goals allowed and the seven-goal defeat were the largest of the season, while the loss snapped a nine-game winning streak, as the Irish were held to a season-low five goals in the loss.

Senior David Ulrich concluded his Notre Dame career with a goal and two assists to lead the Irish, while Jon Harvey netted two goals in his final collegiate outing.

Notre Dame trailed just 4-2 after the first period, but was outscored 5-1 in the second stanza, as the defense of the Orangemen kept the Irish in check for most of the contest.

Chris Young tallied his lone goal of the game 2:53 into the contest, as the Irish took a 1-0 lead. Syracuse scored four unanswered goals in just over three minutes to take a 4-1 advantage before Harvey scored the first of his two goals with 5:23 remaining in the quarter.

The Orangemen scored the first five goals of the second quarter before the Irish got on the scoreboard on Kyle Frigon's unassisted goal with 1:45 remaining in the second period, as the Orangemen held a 9-3 halftime advantage.

Michael Springer tallied a career-high six goals for Syracuse in the game, as five different players contributed scores. Mike Powell had four assists and Liam Banks added three to lead the Orangemen in that category.

Kirk Howell stopped 14 of Syracuse's 33 shots in the game.

2006 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#1 Virginia 14, #15 Notre Dame 10

May 13, 2006/Charlottesville, Va.

A four-goal effort from Matt Ward propelled No. 1 Virginia to a 14-10 victory over No. 15 Notre Dame in the first round of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship at Klockner Stadium. With the win, the Cavaliers moved to the quarterfinals of the tournament, while the Fighting Irish ended their season with a 10-5 mark overall.

Freshman Ryan Hoff netted his third hat trick of the season for the Irish, while seniors Brian Hubschmann and Matt Karweck chipped in two goals and one assist apiece. Fellow senior Pat Walsh dished out three assists on the day to end his stellar Notre Dame career just two assists shy from tying the program's career mark in that category. Virginia's Ward also collected two assists to complete a game-high five points as did his teammate Danny Glading on two goals and three assists.

Despite only being a freshman, Ryan Hoff recorded a hat trick in a 14-10 loss to eventual national champion Virginia during the 2006 NCAA Tournament.

Virginia opened up a 3-0 lead by the 6:40 mark of the first quarter on two goals from Matt Ward along with a Steve Giannone tally. The defense of the Cavaliers also hounded the Irish early on by not allowing many good looks in the opening period.

Notre Dame broke through with under a minute left in the first quarter as Hubschmann netted an unassisted man-up goal to make it a 3-1 game at the end of the first 15 minutes of play. Sophomore goaltender Joey Kemp came up with some huge saves early to keep the Irish in the contest. The sophomore collected a season-high 20 saves on the day.

The Cavaliers regained a three-goal advantage early in the second quarter as Kyle Dixon found the back of the net with just 28 seconds elapsed in the period. When it looked as though Virginia might break the game open, Notre Dame took control of the tempo en route to a 3-0 run to knot the game at 4-4 with 4:18 remaining in the half.

Freshman Peter Christman took a feed from Karweck to slice the deficit to 4-2 with 10:55 left in the second. After a couple unsuccessful attempts to make it a one-goal game, Bill Liva finally capitalized for the Fighting Irish as he controlled a rebound and sent it in with 4:33 left. Notre Dame's Taylor Claggett won the ensuing faceoff and D.J. Driscoll picked up the groundball and found Hubschmann, who sent it in to make it a 4-4 contest.

Virginia soon regained the momentum as the Cavaliers went on a 3-0 run to end the first half and take a 7-4 lead into the locker room. Danny Glading, Garrett Billings and Matt Poskay notched the Virginia goals in that span.

The Cavaliers extended their surge into the second half with scores from Dixon and Ward to up the lead to 9-4 at the 11:36 mark. The Irish kept on fighting with back-to-back goals from Hoff, with Walsh collecting the assist on both tallies.

With the score 9-6 midway through the third period, the Cavaliers rattled off three goals in-a-row in less than five minutes to claim their largest lead of the contest at 12-6. Notre Dame once again struck back with a man-up goal from

NCAA Tournament History

Karweck on an assist from Walsh to close out the quarter with Virginia leading 12-7.

The Irish would outscore the Cavaliers 3-2 in the fourth quarter yet it would not be enough as Virginia captured the 14-10 win and a berth in the quarterfinals. Scoring for Notre Dame in the final period was Karweck, Liva and Hoff.

Virginia held a 50-34 advantage in shots, while Notre Dame won the faceoff battle as Clagett went 16-28. The Irish also converted on three of five extra-man opportunities. Virginia's Kip Turner made 10 saves on the day.

The final margin was the second-closest for top-ranked Virginia on the season and its closest contest at home.

2007 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Johns Hopkins 11, #9 Notre Dame 10 (OT)

May 12, 2007/Baltimore, Md.

A Michael Kimmel goal one minute into sudden-death overtime gave No. 5 Johns Hopkins an 11-10 victory over No. 9 Notre Dame in NCAA Tournament first-round play at Homewood Field on May 12. Junior midfielder Michael Podgajny led the Irish with a career-high tying four goals, while senior Brian Hubschmann added three goals and two assists. Notre Dame concluded its season with an 11-4 record, while Johns Hopkins improved to 10-4.

The back-and-forth thriller featured two 40-minute weather delays due to lightning and heavy rain in the area. It also marked Notre Dame's first overtime contest in over two seasons and its first ever in NCAA Tournament play.

With the Irish trailing 10-8 midway through the fourth quarter, freshman Will Yeatman fed sophomore Ryan Hoff to cut the deficit in half for the Irish. Johns Hopkins had a 10-9 lead and the ball with under a minute left in regulation when the Fighting Irish defense forced a turnover and Hubschmann found Hoff in front of the goal for the equalizer with nine seconds left to force overtime. The Blue Jays won the faceoff in overtime and Kimmel put a low shot in the back of the net to snap Notre Dame's eight-game win streak.

Notre Dame struck first in the contest as Podgajny upped his team-best goal streak to 15 games with a tally just over a minute into the game. Stephen Peyser countered for Johns Hopkins with a goal with 10:04 left in the first quarter. The first weather delay then occurred with 9:12 left on the clock.

Once play resumed, the Irish went on a 3-0 run beginning with Hubschmann's first goal of the day as he scooped up a ground ball off a failed Blue Jay clear and beat Johns Hopkins goaltender Jesse Schwartzman. Podgajny struck again with eight seconds left on the clock in the first quarter, off a pass from Hubschmann, to give Notre Dame a 3-1 lead after the first 15 minutes of play. Hubschmann gave the Irish a three-goal cushion with his second tally of the night with just over five minutes elapsed in the second quarter.

Johns Hopkins, the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament, responded with a 6-1 run. Goals from Jake Byrne and Steven Boyle cut Notre Dame's lead to one (4-3) at halftime.

The Blue Jays evened the contest with 9:40 left in the third quarter on a Paul Rabil goal and then took their first lead when Byrne found the back of the net just over a minute later. Notre Dame came back with a man-up tally from Brett Vecchio to make it 5-5 with 7:40 left in the third period.

Scores from Drew Dabrowski and Brian Christopher gave Johns Hopkins a 7-5 lead when another weather delay hit with 2:54 remaining in the third quarter.

In his final collegiate game, Brian Hubschmann notched five points on three goals and two assists in an 11-10 overtime setback to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins in the first round of the 2007 NCAA Championship. One of the assists came on a Ryan Hoff goal that tied the game, 10-10, with nine seconds left in regulation.

The Irish would once again come out of the delay with a goal as Podgajny netted his third score. A back-and-forth game then ensued as the next six goals alternated between both teams.

Byrne made it 8-6 in favor of Johns Hopkins, yet Hubschmann responded as he completed his hat trick with one second left on the clock in the third quarter. Notre Dame had scores come with under 10 seconds left in three of the game's four quarters.

Rabil opened the fourth-quarter scoring and Podgajny countered with his fourth tally, on a pass from Davey Leach, to make it 9-8 in favor of the Blue Jays with 10:03 left in the period. Less than two minutes later, Christopher put Johns Hopkins back up by two before the back-to-back goals from Hoff forced overtime.

Notre Dame goaltender Joey Kemp, the Great Western Lacrosse League's player of the year, made eight saves on the night. Schwartzman stopped 14 shots for the Blue Jays. The Irish held a 43-36 advantage in shots, while Johns Hopkins won 17 of 24 faceoff attempts.

2008 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Notre Dame 8, #10 Colgate 7 (OT)

May 11, 2008/Notre Dame, Ind.

A Peter Christman goal with 1:28 left in the first overtime period gave No. 5 Notre Dame an 8-7 victory over No. 10 Colgate in NCAA Tournament first-round play at a rainy Alumni Field on Sunday, May 11. With the win, the sixth-seeded Fighting Irish advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals for the fourth time in program history.

The Fighting Irish, who used eight different goalscorers, never led in the game until Christman's goal found the back of the net to give Notre Dame its first victory in the NCAA Tournament since the 2001 quarterfinals. The victory also brought the program-record home win streak to 19 games for the Irish.

Colgate jumped out on top with a goal from Matt Lalli with just under two minutes gone by in the contest. The Irish responded on a goal from Ryan Hoff, with the assist going to Alex Wharton, with four-and-a-half minutes to go in the opening period. The Raiders went ahead 3-1 by the end of the quarter on scores from Kevin Colleluori and Brandon Corp.

Notre Dame, who was hosting an NCAA Tournament game for the first time, sliced the lead to one (3-2) as Dan Gibson assisted on a Zach Brenneman goal. However, Colgate struck back with tallies from Ian Murphy and Zack Craumer to take a 5-2 lead into halftime.

The Irish began the second-half scoring with unassisted goals from Grant Krebs and Adam Felicetti to make it a 5-4 contest in favor of the Raiders with 4:57 remaining in the third quarter. Colgate got its advantage back up to two (6-4) on a man-up score from Joshua Back.

The Raiders led 6-4 after three periods of play, yet Notre Dame would score four of the game's next five goals to take the victory.

Wharton began the final surge for the Irish with a man-up tally with 11:21 left in regulation. It would be nearly seven minutes until the next goal was scored and that came from Colgate's Colleluori to give the Raiders a 7-5 lead.

Notre Dame upped the defensive pressure and Neal Hicks scooped up a ground ball off a failed Raider clear and scored with 3:45 showing on the clock. Michael Podgajny would net the equalizer with 1:29 left in regulation.

Colgate gained possession first in overtime and it looked as though the Raiders were going to pull the upset as Craumer had a good look from close range, yet Irish goaltender Joey Kemp made the save to keep the Notre Dame season alive.

Kemp's save paid off on the other end of the field as Christman, who also scored the game-winner in the final seconds against Albany earlier this season, scored to send the Irish into the quarterfinals.

The Fighting Irish out shot the Raiders, 40-23, on the afternoon. Kemp made eight saves in the win, while his counterpart, Tim Harrington, had 18 stops. Taylor Clagett went 12-for-18 in faceoffs against Colgate's Chris Eck. That was a featured match-up as Clagett entered as the nation's second-best faceoff man and Eck was fifth.

2008 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#3 Syracuse 11, #5 Notre Dame 9

May 18, 2008/Ithaca, N.Y.

Third-seeded Syracuse scored the game's last three goals to take an 11-9 decision over sixth-seeded Notre Dame in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals on Sunday, May 18 in front of 6,121 fans at Schoellkopf Field. The Fighting Irish concluded the 2008 season with a 14-3 record.

Syracuse jumped out to a 6-2 advantage at halftime, yet Notre Dame came storming back to take the lead by scoring five straight goals to open the third quarter. The Irish used a sound defensive effort, including a season-high 19 saves from senior goaltender Joey Kemp, to remain within striking range at the half despite getting out shot 30-14 in the opening 30 minutes.

Notre Dame's second-half surge began with an unassisted goal from Michael Podgajny just 26 seconds into the stanza. Podgajny, Alex Wharton and Peter Christman all led the Irish with two goals apiece. Wharton also chipped in a team-high two assists.

A goal from Christman and a man-up tally from Grant Krebs sliced the Orange lead to one (6-5) with 9:38 remaining in the third quarter. Notre Dame knotted the affair on a goal from Wharton and Christman gave the Irish their first lead of the game at 7-6 with 5:02 left in the third quarter.

Syracuse put an end to the Irish uprising as Greg Niewierski scored with 1:59 left in the third period. Notre Dame regained the momentum as Wharton buried his second goal to make it an 8-7 contest after three quarters of play.

The Orange struck first in the final stanza behind a goal from Mike Leveille with 13:26 on the clock to tie the game once again. Notre Dame grabbed the lead back as Zach Brenneman scored with 10:03 left in the game. That would be the final goal of the contest for the Fighting Irish.

Syracuse netted its third equalizer in less than a quarter of play as Patrick Perritt found the back of the net with 6:23 remaining. Dan Hardy put the Orange up for good as he completed his hat trick with 5:05 showing on the clock. A goal from Steven Brooks with 3:14 left would be the final score of the game.

Syracuse struck first in the contest on a goal from Matt Abbott with 10:50 left in the first quarter. The Fighting Irish got on the board with 8:19 left in the first quarter as Ryan Hoff netted his team-leading, and career-best, 41st goal of the season.

The Orange responded with four straight goals to take a 5-1 lead by the 4:06 mark of the first half. Man-up tallies from Hardy and Stephen Keogh started the surge and gave the Orange a 3-1 at the end of the first period. The run continued as Steven Brooks and Hardy scored to produce a four-goal advantage for Syracuse.

Notre Dame cut into the lead as Podgajny scored with 3:00 remaining in the first half. Syracuse responded when Kenny Nims deposited a goal to make it 6-2 in favor of the Orange at the intermission.

The Orange controlled possession in the contest and held a 48-34 advantage in shots. Freshman goalie John Galloway made 11 saves, including some crucial stops in the fourth quarter. Syracuse's Danny Brennan went 17-for-24 in faceoffs. Taylor Clagett took the majority of faceoffs for the Irish and went 5-for-21.

Byron V. Kanaley

Byron V. Kanaley Award

The Byron V. Kanaley Award is the most prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete. It has been presented each year since 1927 at commencement exercises and honors senior monogram athletes who have been exemplary as students and leaders. The award is selected by the Faculty Board on Athletics and is named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University in the Alumni Association and as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960. Robert Williamson was the recipient in 1993 and is the lone Notre Dame lacrosse player to win the Kanaley Award.

Number in parentheses to the right of opponent indicates its United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association national ranking (or Inside Lacrosse, if first USILA poll has not yet been released) at time of game (1992-present) and number to left is Notre Dame's ranking (1996-present).

+ - indicates conference game

~ - indicates Midwest Lacrosse Association game, but not Great Lakes Conference game

Series vs. Opponents

Steve Fiamingo, an Academic All-American, helped Notre Dame top #17 Army in 2000 by a 10-5 score.

Note: Rank column has Notre Dame’s USILA (or Inside Lacrosse if game was too early in season for first USILA poll to be released) national ranking at time of game followed by opponent’s USILA national ranking at time of game.
* indicates NCAA Tournament; ^ indicates GWLL Tournament

IRISH ON NATIONAL TEAMS

Over the past decade, three Notre Dame players -- Mike Iorio ('95), Todd Rassas ('98), and Pat Walsh ('06) -- have represented their country by playing on their respective national teams. Each helped Team U.S.A. to an International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) world championship, extending the influence of Irish lacrosse far beyond the borders of the United States.

In the summer of 2003, Walsh, the first freshman All-America honoree in Notre Dame history, played a key role in helping the U.S. continue its streak of dominance in the ILF Under-19 World Championship. After making his way through the national team tryouts, which boasted more than 150 of the nation's top young players, Walsh had four goals and three assists to lead Team U.S.A. in its 19-10 triumph over Canada in the championship game. In six games during the tournament, Walsh had 13 goals and eight assists, including at least two points in each contest.

Todd Rassas, a three-time All-American at Notre Dame, helped the United States to a victory in the 2002 ILF World Championship in Perth, Australia and a silver medal finish in the 2006 tournament in Canada. The 2002 squad defeated rival Canada 18-15 in the title game to secure Team U.S.A.'s sixth consecutive triumph in the ILF World Championship, which is contested every four years. In 2006, Team U.S.A. fell to Canada 15-10 in the championship game.

Mike Iorio, the first three-time All-American in Irish history, earned all-world honors as a member of the United States under-19 team in 1992. Iorio started for the national team on defense, in helping the Americans to a gold medal in the world championship, held at Hofstra University.
